Mrs. A. W. Everett Buried Tuesday

Death claimed Mrs. A. W. Everett at a Vernon hospital, shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning. She had been ill for several months, and her condition had been considered critical for the past few weeks.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Central Christian church in Vernon, where Mr. Everett is Sunday school superintendent.

The service was conducted by Rev. W. O. Harmon, former pastor there and at present pastor of the Central Christian church of Corsicana. He was assisted by Rev. R. E. Austin, pastor of the Vernon church.

Burial was under the direction of Henderson Funeral Home. The body was brought to Spur Monday afternoon and a grave side service was conducted Tuesday at 11 a.m. Interment in the Spur cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside her parents, the late Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Bilberry.

Mrs. Everett had lived in Vernon since 1941. She was born in Spur and lived here throughout her girlhood. She had been a member of the Baptist church since the age of twelve.

Spur School Band Bring Home Honors

The Spur High school band under the direction of R. M. Pullis carried off their share of the honors at the state band contest last Friday at Plainview when they won a second division both in concert and sight reading. A second division rating is a grade between 88-94. Sixteen bands and four orchestras took part. From the bands, seven won a first division, six won a second division, two received a third division and one a fourth division. One of the outstanding criticisms that the judges offered was the good discipline of the band. Mr. Pullis had the following to say: "This was the best behaved band that I have ever had the privilege of taking anywhere". Every one had a grand time, and they are looking forward to the contest for next year.

Mr. Pullis and the band wish to express their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Boothe, Mrs. Tom Jones and Mrs. L. D. Ratliff for taking their cars and helping us out with the transportation. We also want to thank Mr. Cook, our superintendent, for driving the bus.

Our United Easter Sunrise Service

The Easter Sunrise program to be participated in by all of the congregations in and nearby Spur is complete to the minutest detail. This natural setting is perhaps the most beautiful of any similar place to be found anywhere. The people will be assembled on the natural amphitheatre, just beyond and below the water tower, while the choir will be in the foreground, and at the base of the hill. Not less than 100 voices are expected to take part.

Boy Scouts, under the direction of Cecil Fox, will direct traffic into and out of the grounds, and assist in the seating of the crowds who may choose to walk, only two blocks, over the hill.

All who come in automobiles are expected to be at your parking place at least fifteen minutes before the time of sunrise, in like manner, all who walk, in order that no confusion in the moving of cars, or in finding acceptable positions of clear views, and that no lights will disturb.

The choirs of the several congregations will meet thirty minutes prior to sunrise, in order that all voices may be directed to their section of the choir, and all members will be robed, either from your own church choir, or it will be beautiful if you only have the use of white sheets draped over your head and shoulders, and this applies both to men and women, in order that the entire choir may be in white.

Characters have been selected from different congregations, who will portray the three Marys, as follows, Mrs. Nell Davis as Mary; Mrs. Godfrey as Mary, the wife of Clopas or Cleophas, and Mrs. Jack Rector as Mary Magdalene, or Mary of Magdala.

Raymond Van Zandt will portray Peter, and C. N. Gilbert will portray "that other disciple" who of course was the beloved John.

P. L. Arnold will represent the Centurian and will have his body guard with him, whose duty it was to protect under Roman authority the sealed tomb to prevent the stealing of the body.

At the exact moment of the time for Sunrise, the trumpet will give its warning signal of the happening of the greatest event in all history.

The choir will sing the chorus of "He Arose", and then take up each of the stanzas, singing it completely through, and during the singing of the hymn, we will see in pantomime in silhouette the re-enactment of the visit of the women to the tomb, their excited return to report to the disciples the risen Lord, and then the rushing of the disciples and the women to the tomb. At the conclusion of the song, the Bible story as told will be read without comment, then the benediction, and all are urged to remain silent until we have departed from the grounds.

The cross will be erected during the week, the characters will meet for rehearsal and all will be in readiness.

Pinwheel Biscuits Will Brighten Table

Homemakers looking for something new to brighten the breakfast table will find biscuits in pinwheels just the thing, writes Marjorie Griffin, Rural Home editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer.

Flavorsome topping combines raisins, corn sirup and cloves, she points out in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. Just divide dough into eight pieces and shape into strips. Rolling and cutting aren't necessary.

RAISIN PINWHEELS

2 C. flour 1/2 to 1 C. milk
3 tsp. baking powder 1/2 C. seedless raisins
1/2 tsp. salt 2 tsp. corn sirup
1/2 C. shortening 1/2 tsp. cloves

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening. Add enough of the milk to make a soft dough. Divide dough into 7 or 8 pieces; shape each piece into a strip. Coil strips into pinwheels and place them in a greased pan. Mix together raisins, corn sirup and cloves. Sprinkle mixture on biscuits, pressing raisins into dough. Bake biscuits in hot oven (425° F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Makes 7 or 8 large biscuits.

PUT SPRING IN YOUR MEALS

Just as a perky new hat and bright flowered print—even if they're worn with a heavy coat and galoshes—brighten our winter-drap wardrobes, so a few dress-up touches to the old standby dishes will make spring seem more than just around the corner.

Crisp slaw has no doubt given zip to your winter meals for many a month now, and it still would, if you weren't so tired of cabbage. But parsnips (believe it or not, even the don't-like-parsnip gang won't recognize this one) make delicious slaw. Grate 4 or 5 medium-sized ones, sprinkle with salt and celery salt and toss lightly with sour-cream dressing.

It's an easy trick to serve minted pears with the spring lamb, or pineapple with ham, thanks to your supply of canned fruit and to bottled mint extract and green coloring. Just pour the syrup off, flavor and tint, and then heat the pears or pineapple to boiling in the syrup. Let stand until cold and the shade of green you like.

SPRING-LIKE DESSERTS:

Though it will still be several weeks before real strawberry shortcake is anything but the rankest extravagance, here's one that will bring forth lots of lip-smacking, though it won't fool a soul, of course, into thinking it's the real thing. Start out by making 3 to 6 fry-pan-size pan-cakes. (If you haven't a pet recipe of your own, then try one of the packaged mixes.) Keep them warm in a slow oven (275° F.), piling one on top of the other on a hot plate, filling between with the strawberry jam you made last summer or canned fruit or berries, the juice thickened a little with cornstarch. Sprinkle with powdered sugar or top with whipped cream. Cut in wedges and serve on heated plates.

Sometimes what it takes to perk up a winter drab meal is a light-as-air dessert. Lemon or orange gelatin poured into stemmed sherbet glasses or small glass berry bowls while in the syrupy stage and allowed to set and then topped with orange and grapefruit sections and soft custard sauce poured over all will convince one and all that the wind is only fooling.

FLASH
SHORT ON SHORTENING? TRY ONE OF THESE. For each cup you can substitute:
1 cup butter or
1 cup margarine or
1/2 cup lard. Or
1/2 cup salad oil plus 1 teaspoon salt. Or
1/2 cup chicken fat.

Snood Nets Enhance Smart Hair Styles

NETS for the smart coiffures of feminine heads know no age, the Rural Home editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer points out.

For the young mother, busy from sunup to sundown with her youngsters, the snood net shown in the accompanying illustration offers a wise hair style, this expert declares. It is one of the types designed by Lily Dache. Tied with ribbons, it stays in place, insuring a sleek look all day long.

Whether the wearer is a junior miss or matron, she will find a net to enhance her hair-do. A teenager ready for any party pulls her hair smoothly back from her face and covers the roll with a snood net trimmed with a bow to match her blouse. A smart girl on a coke date can win approving looks with a bright red net accented by a gros-grain ribbon headband.

For a mature woman achieving elegance with an upswept coiffure, two mesh nets are suggested. One goes over hair in back to keep it neat. The other can cover her soft front curls. A young matron who fashions her own head gear for spring will tie on a green snood with two green bows. Spring flowers will provide softening touches on the sides.

Crown Fruit Salad Is 'Fit for a King'

"Fit for a king" is what home makers say about crown shaped fruit salad, according to the Country Cooking editor of Capper's Farmer, nationally-circulated farm magazine.

"Studded with jewel colored pieces of fruit, it makes a lovely picture on your prettiest glass plate," she writes in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. "Cool and tartly sweet it offers flavor contrast to the meat-and-potato part of a meal. It's a delightful afternoon snack with a cup of hot coffee."

Crown Fruit Salad
 1 tbsp. unflavored gelatin
 2 tbsp. cold water
 1 c. fruit juice (peach, cherry, orange or pineapple)
 Lettuce
 1/2 c. light cream
 1/2 c. mayonnaise
 2 canned peaches or pears, sliced
 1 orange, sliced
 1/2 c. maraschino cherries

Soak gelatin in cold water. Heat fruit juice or juices to boiling; remove from heat and dissolve gelatin in hot juice. Cool. Add the light cream and mayonnaise and stir until mixture is smooth. Cool until mixture is slightly thickened; then add sliced fruit and halved cherries. Pour into a mold rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on glass plate or platter. Arrange lettuce leaves around the edge of the salad. Garnish with clusters of grapes, halves of bananas or slices of canned fruit. Serves six. This molded fruit salad is lovely to serve at a buffet supper.

Seymour Is Host To H.D. Association

Delegates from Dickens county who attended the 1946 district meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration association in Seymour, Wednesday, were: Mrs. Ray Dickson, Mrs. Archer L. Powell and Mrs. Andrew Blair. Visitors from Dickens county were: Mrs. Arner Watson, Mrs. E. J. Lasseter and Mrs. Bryon Haney.

Mrs. R. M. Almanrode of Knox county was endorsed as nominee for vice president of Texas Home Demonstration association for district 3. Mrs. George Beavers of Vernon, Wilbarger county, now holds that office.

The endorsement will be given to the state association at its next meeting, when officers will be elected. Vice presidents, who head the district organizations, are state officers and their election comes from the state body after endorsement by their home districts.

Mrs. Almanrode lives near Knox City, is a member of Sunset Home Demonstration club and has held various offices in her club and county home demonstration as well as being active in community affairs. She is a former 4-H club girl.

Wilbarger county was selected as the 1947 meeting place, in the business session that closed the all-day Seymour meeting. Forty-six delegates and 274 visitors were present from the 19 counties in the district.

Mrs. C. A. Caffee of Dougherty, secretary of Texas Home Demonstration association, represented the state organization on the program. She announced the state meeting August 14-16 in Amarillo and mentioned recommendations due to face it: one for establishing a fund by asking a gift of five cents a year from each member to provide $100 annually in each district or some form of 4-H club education; one for sponsoring an educational program to increase cotton consumption.

Another guest was Mrs. Eloise Trigg Johnson, specialist in family life education with the State Extension Service, who urged united, happy families as a foundation for world peace.

Training citizens for a changing world was the keynote of a 4-H club program including a skit by Wichita county girls, introduction of Gold Star 4-H club and a talk by Lorene Stevens.

An offering of $60 was given to buy laboratory equipment for Home Demonstration workers in the Philippines, after Miss Ruth Thompson, district agent, explained the project as planned nationally for Home Demonstration Week, May 5-12.

Reports of delegates at the roll call of counties emphasized a new interest in recreation and reading for families and communities, as well as the basic Home Demonstration programs of home food production, home industry, and the wartime "make it do" spirit.

Outstanding was the Knox county report of a library started by the club women as a memorial to war veterans; Throckmorton county's annual camp for club members and their whole families, and Hardeman county's annual encampment plus a series of trips by separate clubs, one of which went to Carlsbad Caverns last year.

Introduced by State Senator George Moffett of Chillicothe, W. C. Galceran, Jr., of the National Cotton Council was the main morning speaker. "We have taken cotton too much for granted, and defended it," he said, "whereas if it were newly discovered it would be second in importance only to the atomic bomb. Now the National Cotton Council is on the offensive," and he described its advertising and research program and showed new cotton products, assisted by C. E. McDaniel of the Cotton Council.

Mrs. George R. Shawyer of Baylor county read her essay, "Building the Peace", first prize winner in a district contest. In another phase of the Home Demonstration association's program to interest its members in study of peace needs, recognition was given women who have read a required number of books on the subject.

Mrs. George Higgins, chairman of Baylor county Home Demonstration council, presided to open the meeting and introduced County Judge Robert Jones, who welcomed visitors. Mrs. G. E. Caskey of Young county responded. Mrs. Paul Gilstrap led song periods with Mrs. Shawyer as pianist. Mrs. Guy Marshall of Haskell county was named to serve as secretary for the day.

Lunch was served by Baylor county women. Mrs. W. E. Harrison was luncheon chairman; Mrs. J. V. Kysinger chairman of decorations; Miss Nora Walters and Mrs. O. H. Bartley of registra-

Miss E. Lois Arnold, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Porter L. Arnold of Spur, became the bride of Roy Mack Walker, son of Mrs. E. C. Newman of Silverton, Sunday, April 7, at 4:30 p.m. at the College Heights Baptist church of Plainview.

Rev. G. A. Elrod of Silverton, assisted by Rev. Noel V. Guice, pastor of the College Heights Baptist church, performed the double ring ceremony before an improvised altar of baskets of palms and Easter lilies. White tapers in candelabrum were on either side of the altar.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Raymond Jameson played "I Love You Truly" and "Melody of Love" and accompanied Miss Dolores McAdams who sang "Til the End of Time" and "Always." Mrs. Jameson also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin dress with a deep yoke and a ruffle of embroidered nylon. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with white iris and gardenias.

For something new she wore a sweetheart bracelet, something old was a wedding ring belonging to her Grandmother Clay; something blue, the Bible marker, and for something borrowed, a string of pearls and a lace handkerchief.

Voneta Arnold, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue net over blue satin dress with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of peach gladioli.

Miss Addierene Clay, a cousin, and Miss Billie Glynn McAdams were bridesmaids. They wore orchid and yellow net over orchid and yellow satin dresses, fashioned like that of the maid of honor. Their bouquets were of yellow and blue iris.

Ushers were Gene Arnold and John Arthur Arnold.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue dress with black and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Misses Tommie Fletcher, Alice Fletcher, Billie Glynn and Dolores McAdams presided at the serving table which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the three-tiered wedding cake on a mirror surrounded with fern, lilies and candy tuft.

Mrs. Bradford Thomas presided at the register and Miss Addierene Clay and Miss Voneta Arnold were in the gift room.

For a going-away costume the bride chose an aqua blue suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

She is a graduate of Plainview high school and Wayland college and for the past three years has been employed at Zeigler's Food store.

Fashion Frock of the Week

COTTON TIME
Pick your cotton early, 'cause cotton is such wonderful stuff! Once upon a time you loved it because it was clean and cool and colorful. And it's still that, but it has taken on big city airs, too. It's styled with an air for young tricks who go places and do things.

Homespun-textured cotton, woven in the mills of our good neighbor, Mexico, lends its charm to this Fashion Frock of the Week. The corselet midriff, accented by conga line buttons, gives an exciting hand-span waistline above the dirndl skirt of this gay, young Sweeteen. The high, round neck is bound and ties in a shoestring bow, and the facing of the sleeves folds back and buttons to shyly but surely expose nice arms.

Cotton is oh-so easy to tub... and oh-so easy on Miss Fashion Plate's allowance!

Honorably discharged Wacs who want to reenter the Wac Corps for overseas duty in the European theater of operations must have their applications filed with their local US army recruiting station by midnight April 20, according to a war department announcement received from US army recruiting headquarters, Lubbock, Texas.

The European theater of operations has requisitioned the war department for enlisted Wacs in five specialist categories. The military occupational specialty number of the critically needed skills are: Stenographers MOS 213, clerk typists MOS 405, general clerks MOS 055, telephone switchboard operators MOS 650 and teletype writer operators MOS 237.

Three Wacs have already re-enlisted at the Lubbock enlisting station. We need more.

Anyone wishing any information on regular army enlistments, are welcome to call at the Veterans Service office in the bank building.

T/Sgt. Roindl will be glad to accommodate you in any way. He will be in Spur until further notice.

Spur Home Making Girls Serve Dinner To Show Officials

The girls of the Home Making department of the Spur school, had a very interesting exhibit at the Godfrey and Smart show rooms Saturday, April 13.

Exhibited were canned goods of various kinds, canned last summer during their summer project, and last fall.

Clothing included sports dresses, all purpose dresses and special occasion dresses.

Children's dresses and pinafores and pajamas. Scarfs, pillow slips, tea towels, lunch cloths and many other useful items.

Scrap books, note books and hobbies were also displayed.

This display was a wonderful example of the work done by the Home Making department in the Spur school, under the guidance of Mrs. Joe Jeffers.

Part of the exhibit was the dinner served in the home making department, with the officials and judges of the stock show as guests. This dinner was prepared and served by third year Home Making girls.

These girls really showed their ability in preparing and serving a meal.

Feed Shortage Not As Great As Claimed, Wiley Akins Says

At an interview Monday, April 1, Wiley Akins, a director of the Texas Feed Manufacturers association, said the grain and feed shortage in Texas is not as acute as recent announcements from the U.S. department of agriculture would indicate. Supplies of corn, wheat, rye and by-product feeds are not as great as they have been during the last several years, Mr. Akins said, but the situation is not as serious as many people believe.

Farmers, stockmen and poultrymen who are drastically reducing their herds and flocks because of temporary scarcities or anticipated shortages of feed are penalizing themselves unnecessarily, Mr. Akins believes. Some adjustments are necessary, in keeping with government regulations and recommendations, but normal operations are possible with the feed supplies now available. Within sixty days another grain crop will be harvested in Texas, thus adding the supplies now on hand.

In Spur over the weekend, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McGaughey, were their daughters, Lynn McGaughey of Odessa and Mrs. L. Dane and daughters of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Howell and son of the Howell Ranch were Spur visitors Saturday, attending the stock show and shopping.

Mr. Farmer:

Make Your Cotton-Planting Seed GO Farther

Here Is How

Let us delint your seed by the Kengas Process then you can plant half as many seed and secure a better stand.

Why Is This True?

The Kengas Process remove all the lint, then reclean, grades, and treats the delinted seed with cerasan. Seed processed in this manner will germinate 3 to 5 days quicker than fuzzy seed. Tractors plant 25% more seed land in a day because there is no lint to choke planter boxes, and one filling of the planter box will run 3 to 4 hours.

Planting Attachments

No special planting attachments are required — just an ordinary corn plate will plant these seed.

Planting Seed Scarce

Good planting seed is scarce this year. Get the most out of your seed by letting us process them. We are equipped to do a first class job.

We are able to supply a limited amount of Kengas Delinted seed in the following varieties:

- Hi-Bred
- Northern Star
- Macha (Storm Proof)
- Western Prolific
- D. and P.L.
- Lockett 140

All of these seed are first year from originator and are $10.50 per hundred. Remember, the cheapest seed are the best seed.

The Story Behind Easter Card Designs

Those chicks and bunnies and eggs that we find on Easter cards each year have quite a story behind them. Each has a history all its own, and a very interesting one at that.

For example, the idea of associating chicks with Easter dates back to the ancient pagans. To them, chicks represented the birth and hope of new life and, accordingly, played an important part in the annual springtime festival held in honor of Eostra, the pagan goddess of Spring, from whose name we get the word "Easter."

Eggs, dyed all colors with herbs, were offered as gifts during the festival of Eostra, sometimes being decorated with the name of the recipient. Early Christians, continuing the custom of exchanging eggs at Easter, dyed the eggs deep red to symbolize the blood of Christ.

According to one legend, the rabbit, being the only animal children didn't fear, was selected by the fairies to inform the children that Spring had come to the woodland. The rabbit conveyed this message by leaving on the doorstep of each sleeping child a token of Spring—a basket of flowers and colored eggs.

Of all the Easter card designs, the two which have the most impressive histories and which are closest to the true meaning of Easter are the Cross and the lily. The Cross, of course, represents the spirit of Christianity, as well as the solemnity of the Crucifixion and the joy of the Resurrection.

The lily, historians believe, played an important part in determining the date of Easter. Since the Easter lily blooms in Egypt during the period of the Spring Equinox, at which time the Resurrection occurred, it is believed that the Council of Nice was influenced by this fact when they decreed in 325 A.D. that Easter observances be held on the first Sunday following the full moon, or after the Vernal Equinox.

And that is the story behind your Easter card designs—add all of them together and they mean "Happy Easter!"

SIDELIGHTS FROM WASHINGTON

By GEORGE MAHON

Legislation is in the making which will provide so-called terminal leave pay to enlisted men of the army and navy. The policy of providing terminal leave pay for officers and denying it to enlisted men cannot be justified. The military affairs committee of the house of representatives is giving consideration to the proposed legislation, and I expect to vote for the bill when it is considered in the house.

During the war, commissioned officers were allowed "leave" at the rate of 2½ days per month. But many officers, particularly those overseas, had little chance to take this "leave", and it was permitted to accumulate and the officer was paid for this "leave" at the termination of his active service.

Enlisted men were allowed certain furlough privileges, but by reason of their service overseas or duties otherwise, they, too, had inadequate opportunity to take the furloughs to which they would ordinarily be entitled.

Under the proposed legislation, the "leave" of the enlisted man would accumulate and he would be paid for it in like manner as officers are paid for terminal leave, officers and enlisted men being thereby accorded the same treatment. The proposed legislation involves the checking by the war and navy departments of millions of servicemen's records and the expenditure of a large amount of money, but simple justice demands that such action be taken.

The final draft of the bill providing federal aid to communities which are interested in airport construction is scheduled to pass the senate this week and go to the president for his signature. The house took final action on the bill several days ago, having passed the bill originally on October 18, 1945.

The bill commits the United States government to a broad national airport development program and the expenditure over a seven-year period of a total of $500,000,000. The work will be done on a basis of cooperation with the states and local communities.

The bill provides that the federal government may contribute not exceeding 25% of the cost of the land for an airport; the federal government would contribute 50% of the cost of construction incident to the development of the airport.

Air transportation will become increasingly important throughout the nation as our country takes steps to retain our leadership in the field of aviation.

The appropriations subcommittee on government corporations, of which I became chairman a few weeks ago, began consideration on April 11 of the bill which we expect to present to the house late in May, following many days of hearings. Among the government corporations involved are the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Commodity Credit Corporation, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, a group of corporations which operate under the farm credit administration, government corporations which operate in South America in connection with the good neighbor policy, and many others, large or small and of various types. We are investigating the programs and spending policies of a total of 40 government corporations. A law enacted last December provides for the first time that congress undertake to delve into the working of these corporations and seek thereby to keep a rein on their operations. Indications are that we will recommend the liquidation of a number of the government corporations and, in some instances, a definite change in policy in others.

Results Count..

IN THE CATTLE BUSINESS, same as anywhere else—a ranchman may have a wonderful-looking bunch of cows and good-looking bulls. If they do not nick, the results are apparent both in the show ring and in commercial auction sales. That is, even with good pasture, chemicals, water and feed, it takes proper handling and management.

The same conditions apply to the electric business. Miles of well-constructed transmission lines, neatly-kept substations and impressive generating stations do not complete the service of an electric company to its community. It takes folks seasoned in the "know how" of their business to render proper service and steeped in the customs of this section to sell this section's advantages to the nation.

Employees of this company are proud of their West Texas ancestry, and of their part in rendering, in addition to electric service, community service worthy of this great section.

Good Lighting Adds to Comfortable Living

GOOD home lighting not only adds to cheerful and comfortable living but also provides a cheap form of accident prevention, writes Myrtle Fahsnyder, director of home lighting for Westinghouse in Capper's Farmer, a magazine of national circulation.

"To say 'home is what the abc's of good lighting help to make it' is to take considerable liberty with a very tender expression," she points out in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. "But it's paraphrased with real sincerity. For unless a home is cheerful and comfortable by night, as well as during daylight, it has sacrificed some of the livability good lighting can give. Good light can bring an almost sun-light quality of illumination to afterdark eye tasks. It can make or mar the beauty of a home."

Among the basic principles for good lighting are 1—A carefully thought-out-over-all plan for the job; 2—Having enough light when and where you need it; 3—Avoiding harmful glares; 4—Avoiding shadows in the room.

The above photograph demonstrates basic principles for good lighting. The floor and table lamps with reflector bowls give light where the family sits to read, sew or write. Such a pleasing over-all glow of light cheers up the room as sunlight does. Wall brackets and fluorescent tubes placed behind window valances are mainly for decorative effect.

Baseball Clubs To Be Organized

Geo. B. Forrester, a recent newcomer to our midst, is a man vitally interested in our youth, and in youth activities, and has given much of his life in these endeavors, comes forward with an offer to give sufficient of his time in the organizing and training of boys all grades of both grade and junior high and high school ages into baseball teams, having both a first and a second string team in each of the age groups, to the end that they may have daily practice and try-outs, and be ready and in condition for regular games when school is out for the summer months. Regardless of what school or grade and regardless of your church affiliations, if any, this will be a youth program, for all youth, in both baseball and softball.

Each team will be limited to fifteen playing members, when on the road for any games we will play away from home, and all competing teams will have the same program and limitations as to playing numbers. Out of the fifteen playing members will be the pitching staff, though there shall be no limit on the number of pitchers, but the regular uses of all major leagues will be strictly adhered to, as we expect to develop talent destined to reach these goals.

All of our surrounding nearby towns and communities will be notified and urged to form clubs in like manner, and be ready for match games by the end of school and we will work out regular playing schedules to the end that every club will be given its standing, rating, based upon the same grades as major clubs.

Those who are accepted in playing positions will be required to devote the time assigned for practice, and no boy will be permitted in uniform or playing lineup who fails to meet all the requirements as to practice, and the rules which will be adopted at our organization meeting. Managers will be chosen, captains will be assigned, and everything that will make our clubs outstanding will be provided. Uniforms will be supplied, equipment will be purchased and no expense will be upon the parents or players, although each player may if he so chooses, purchase his own playing glove or mitt, and his own bat if he so choose, but this will be in addition to the full equipment supplied.

No boy will be permitted to be assigned a playing position who neglects to do his home-work as required by his parents or guardian. Rules of conduct and demeanor will be adopted, but no obligation will be required that is contrary to the highest ideals of American manhood. Playing position will be determined by the captain of the team, and all players will be required to obey completely the rules of the game, and method of play, as directed by the captain. This is to be organized baseball, playing according to a plan, and in no instance will any player be permitted to disregard the rules of play as directed by the playing captain.

For the purpose of organization and assignment for playing positions as a try-out, our first meeting will be on Saturday afternoon, April 27, at 2:30 on the East Grade school grounds. Bring the written consent of your parents or guardian, as no boy can be accepted without the consent of those who are responsible for his conduct. Let every boy come willing to receive instruction and to cooperate, and to take orders, not to give orders, as to the management and playing of the respective clubs.

Parents, if you desire additional information phone 31, and discuss these things with Mr. Forrester, any evening after 5 o'clock up to 9:30.

Capt. and Mrs. Bill Powers are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Powers at their home near Clairemont. Captain Powers is on terminal leave, receiving his discharge at Fort Bliss, Texas, which will become effective May 1.

BLACK FOR TEENS—Very young girls love play clothes in black like this two-piece, bare-midriff costume worn by Elaine Kost, of NBC's "Backstage Wife." The fabric is rayon in a linen weave and the white shoulder ornament is embroidered to simulate an exaggerated monogram. Square neck, tiny cap sleeves and wrap-around skirt are style notes. It's medium priced and was designed by Frances Sider.

Sgt. Tommy Burger Smart American MP

"We haven't won any medals, nor have we made the headlines, but we have done an important job in winning the war" was the statement made by Lt. Col. Edwin W. Weissman, commanding officer 701st Military Police Battalion which recently arrived in Shanghai to help expedite government commitments and safeguard army supplies in China.

Serving with the 701st MPs in the most cosmopolitan city of the Orient—Shanghai is Sergeant Tommy W. Burger, general delivery, Spur, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burger of the same address. Educated at Spur High school, Sergeant Burger was inducted on June 8, 1943. Presently Sergeant Burger is serving as a military police with the 701st Military Police Battalion in Shanghai. Activation of "these smartest looking soldiers" battalion took place February 1, 1941 at Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyoming. The 701st was the first of its kind coming into existence prior to the institution of the Corps of Military Police itself.

This unit brought a new concept to military police work graduating from being the army's step-child which nobody loved into an important branch of the army's service forces.
