HIGH BUILDING COSTS ARE TO DRAW INQUIRY

According to recent dispatches a special Senate-House committee today assigned an investigator to delve into the high cost of building material and the profits of "middlemen" in a move to help solve the nation's housing shortage.

The action followed a suggestion by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) that Congress "as a last resort" might have to crack down on the profits of middlemen in the building industry.

McCarthy told reporters that the committee will "explore the possibility of cutting out unnecessary profits" by those who function between producer and purchaser.

He said congressional action might be taken unless building costs drop.

McCarthy's suggestion came as three separate congressional investigations dug into the key problems of housing, taxes and prices.

The Wisconsin senator, presiding over a special committee on housing turned his fire on middlemen after hearing government witnesses testify that lumber prices have skyrocketed 169 percent above 1927 figures and all building materials have jumped an average of 77 percent.

McCarthy said he had been informed that some large builders who buy lumber directly from mills are compelled to pay middlemen—wholesalers and retailers—who never even see the lumber.

Lumber prices, he said, are "fantastic."

Developments in other investigations included:

Taxes—A special tax study committee of private citizens, appointed by Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) of the House ways and means committee, began examining subcommittee reports on tax policy that may effect the pocketbooks of 48,000,000 taxpayers.

Roswell Macgill, former assistant secretary of the Treasury, said the group agreed tentatively on several points. He declined to say what the recommendations will be, pending a formal report to Knutson's committee on economics to meet tomorrow for a study of means to combat high prices. Midcontinent and western groups will conduct similar investigations.

In the housing probe, the committee headed directly into the problem of costs and heard estimates of needs running from 820,000 to 1,500,000 new dwellings a year. By comparison government officials have predicted that new dwelling starts in 1947 will total only about 750,000.

Big Increase In Incomes Noted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Personal incomes soared in July to a new record rate of $197,000,000 a year.

The Commerce department reported the increase today. It said the rate was $2,000,000,000 over that in June, the previous peak, and $20,000,000,000 ahead of last year.

If the rate keeps up for 11 more months, 1. The government would collect more taxes than the $41,667,000,000 President Truman forecast in forecasting a $4,667,000,000 surplus in the Treasury for the fiscal year that began July 1.

2. Personal incomes would top by $5,400,000,000 the "presidential estimate of $191,600,000,000. Officials made these qualifying points:

Continuance of the July level cannot be counted "in the bag." Because of a time lag in tax collections, an increase in the size of the tax base is not reflected immediately in higher tax receipts. A gain in receipts may spread over two or three years.

Higher farm income, increased wages and salaries and payment of state bonuses to veterans were responsible for increased personal income in July.

Wages and salaries, the biggest single item of personal income, were at an annual rate of $121,500,000,000 during July.

M-Sgt Boothe U. S. Army Addresses Lions Club

M-Sgt. Larry O. Boothe of the U. S. Army and Air Forces Recruiting Sub-Station, Dickens County Vocational School, Spur, Texas addressed the Lions Club at their usual Tuesday luncheon Sept. 9, 1947. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harwell were week-end guests of Mrs. Harwell's mother Mrs. Smith, of Lubbock.

Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Nichols are vacationing this week in cool Colorado.

FIRST SPUR PTA MEETING HELD IN HIGH SCHOOL GYM, SEPTEMBER 9th

The East Ward PTA held their first meeting in the High School Gym Tuesday evening at 8:00 with an informal reception. Parents and teachers of East Ward, Junior High, and Senior High were present. The decorating was performed by the hospitality committee, composed of Mrs. Mancel Bragg, Mrs. A. C. Hull, Mrs. O. R. Cloude, and Mrs. Raul English. Their friendly hospitality made all feel welcome.

Mrs. Oscar McGinty, the PTA president, gave a most hearty welcoming address for all of the teachers, especially those who are new in the faculty. Concluding the address, Mrs. McGinty turned the program for the evening to the Vice-President, Mrs. Jack Rector. Mrs. Rector gave the programs and plans of the PTA for the coming year. She stated that the program committee was putting forth special effort to bring some attractive, as well as beneficial and entertaining programs this year, programs you will not want to miss.

Miss Bonnie Campbell, accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Dickson, Sr., at the piano, led those present in several get-acquainted songs. Ann Hull and Ernestine Berry gave piano selections which the crowd accepted with great applause. Mr. Browning, Junior High principal, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Douglas Meador, of Matador. His talk was based on the importance of education and just why we need it. Mr. Meador also gave a brief and interesting summary of his recent visit to Guatemala, Central America, comparing the education of the people there, with the education of our people. In presenting his travels, the religious, trades, and customs of the people of Central America, Mr. Meador made everyone feel that they, too, had made the trip.

Mr. Cook, superintendent, introduced all the teachers in the novel way of placing each teacher in turn in a picture frame, telling how many years experience of teaching and where their education was obtained.

After the program there was a short social hour and refreshments were served to approximately one hundred parents and teachers. Everyone who attended enjoyed a wonderful time.

Among the guests were Mrs. E. S. Smith, vice-president of the district, and her husband, Mr. Smith; Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hamm, all of Lorenzo, Texas.

All parents and teachers are urged to attend these meetings and join in on the good times that are had.

Former Pastor Of Roaring Springs Writes Letter

Reverend C. W. Sargent, former pastor of the Methodist church at Roaring Springs, and now of Goree, Texas, who conducted the memorial service of the "Old Settlers Reunion", recently, wrote a letter of appreciation to Mr. C. C. Hale. In order that the many friends of Rev. Sargent might know how he enjoyed being with them during that time, Mr. Hale expressed his desire to have the complete and unabridged letter published in our paper.

The letter is as follows:

Goree, Texas
September 3, 1947

Dear Brother Hale:

Now that the "Old Settlers Reunion and Rodeo" are over, may I pass this word of final appreciation to you and my many dear friends gathered from the "four-corners" of the earth. I enjoyed every hour spent there!

Have not yet learned who they elected President for the ensuing year. Perhaps the old one. Anyhow, I trust that each of us will be permitted to gather again in 1948.

How good and how merciful God has been to us and yet so few of us observe and appreciate it!

Sincerely,
Your Brother in Christ,
Chas. W. Sargent.

Bale Tie Shipments Increase

In an effort to restore the balance between supply and demand for bale ties, the steel industry during the first five months of 1947 shipped a total of 51,375 tons of bale ties, close to the entire output for the year 1939, and 20,000 tons—or 60 per cent—higher than in the comparable months of 1946, according to the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Despite the industry's record high peacetime production in the early months of the year, however, the demand for bale ties exceeded the supply in some sections. The industry is installing new equipment for the making of bale ties to keep pace with the requirements of farmers. The 11,053 net ton output in May was at a rate 35 per cent greater than for the same month of 1946.

The shortage of bale ties became particularly serious in 1946, when three major strikes caused a 16,000,000 ton production loss in steel, many times the annual farm need.

Shipments of bale ties in 1946 were 99,993 net tons, more than one-third larger than the average during the 1936-40 prewar interval. If shipments during the first seven months of 1947 merely equal the corresponding 1946 total, the amount of bale ties available this year will exceed 120,000 tons, surpassing the 106,408 net tons record established in 1942.

The use of bale ties has greatly increased because automatic hay baling machines are more prevalent. Approximately 60,000 pick-up hay balers are in use now compared with less than 5,000 prior to 1940. The use of automatic balers was increased more than ten-fold during the war years, but government control kept bale tie production down.

According to the United States Department of Agriculture, about 27 per cent of the hay crop was baled in 1944, as compared with 14.5 per cent in 1939. It is unofficially estimated that about 80 per cent of the hay that is baled is baled with wire.

Hay production increased from an average of 94,490,000 tons in the 1936-45 period to 100,860,000 tons in 1946.

Many farmers prefer to bale their hay with wire, because heavier bales can be tied, and shipped long distances, without danger of breakage.

From all indications the trend toward the field baling of hay will continue. The demand for field balers currently exceeds the supply and manufacturers of the equipment estimate that one or two years will be required for them to catch up with their orders.

WEEKLY SWING OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

(USDA)—Southwest farm products sold generally firm to higher last week, with cotton and some cattle classes the major exceptions. U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Demand for all grains continued good last week. Wheat and Sorghum prices reached new peaks, while oats and barley advanced sharply, and corn held firm. At Fort Worth and Galveston, bulk carlots of No. 1 hard wheat closed Friday at $2.71 to $2.72 per bushel; No. 2 white corn $2.98 to $3.05; yellow $2.50 to $2.55; No. 3 barley $1.84; No. 2 red oats $1.27 to $1.31; and No. 2 milo 3.55 to $3.60.

Good demand and light offerings kept egg prices firm last week, while all classes of poultry found strength at some markets. Top quality white candied eggs sold generally around 50 to 55 cents per dozen, and grade "A" mixed eggs 45 to 50. Heavy hens ranged largely from 22 to 32 cents per pound, and fryers from 32 to 39.

Spot cotton marketings increased last week, as picking and ginning moved farther north. Strict Low Middling and above found good demand, but farmers sold less freely, as prices declined $4.00 to $6.50 per bale for the week.

Spring lambs sold firm to $1.00 or more higher last week, and aged sheep gained up to 50 cents. Medium to good spring lambs brought $18 to $20.50 at San Antonio and $20 to $22.50 at Fort Worth. Good and choice kinds went at $24 to $24.50 at Wichita, $22.50 to $23 at Oklahoma City, and $25.50 at Denver.

Texas hog markets closed the week about even with a week earlier, while other southwest terminals gained mostly 50 cents to $1.00 or more. Top butchers closed at $26.75 at San Antonio, $27.75 at Fort Worth, $28.50 at Oklahoma City and Wichita, and $30.25 at Denver. Sows brought mostly $20 to $25 and pigs $20 to $26.

Slaughter and stocker calves dropped sharply at most southwest markets last week, and cows lost at some places. Common to medium slaughter cows ranged largely from $12 to $16, and calves $13 to $19. Most good calves sold at $19.50 to $22. Common to medium stocker calves brought mostly $16 to $18.50.

JOHN A. DAVIS FAMILY VISITING RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Davis and daughter Joan Davis, of Chester, Pennsylvania, are visiting Mr. Davis' mother, Mrs. Nell Davis and brother, Lewis Green Davis.

Y'KNOW WHAT?

Have you ever thought that you would like to sit in on the Governor's press conferences? So have I—and I started last week! Even after working around the Capitol, it gave me as big a thrill as it would have given any of you. Hope I'll be wise enough to absorb some background knowledge for future events without forming any definite opinions until I think I know enough to justify having a definite opinion.

The Capitol press people were so friendly that one could quickly sense that there was absolutely no fear of competition from me in the writing field. Enough to make a would-be columnist bitter!

State Representative John J. Bell of Cuero has raised his standing (politically) by winning the 18th Senatorial vacancy. If he keeps up his batting average which he has set in the House of Representatives, there should be few complaints. (Well, few in comparison to the usual mud-slinging any public official is open for.)

The oil man of Midland, Texas, Ken Regan, goes to Washington Congress. In case you don't remember, that West Texas Congressional district is the largest in Texas. Even though there were several in the race, the 30-year-old representative Woodrow Bean from Ysleta (near El Paso), seemed to be the only one who could have upset the Oil cartel. Possibly his record on tax issues during this last session of the Legislature didn't encourage any chummy feeling among the oil men.—Certainly understandable, isn't it?

During her recent trip to Guatemala and Mexico, Mrs. Jester, the attractive wife of our Governor, was especially impressed by the kindness of the Latin American people. The manners and diplomacy of the Latin Americans is a legend, but hearing of definite examples makes us appreciate it more than ever.

Mrs. Jester discovered that the Guatemalan women buy most of their clothes from Argentina firms. (And most of the dresses are not the long ones.) It should be interesting to follow up by checking with various Texas firms and finding out why Texas isn't selling the Guatemalan women their beautiful and expensive clothes.

Tweed Topper

WHETHER you plan to travel far afield or just between the points encompassed by your daily routine this Fall, there's always need for a good tweed coat of the kind you can wear all year, and like just as well at the end of the season as at the beginning.

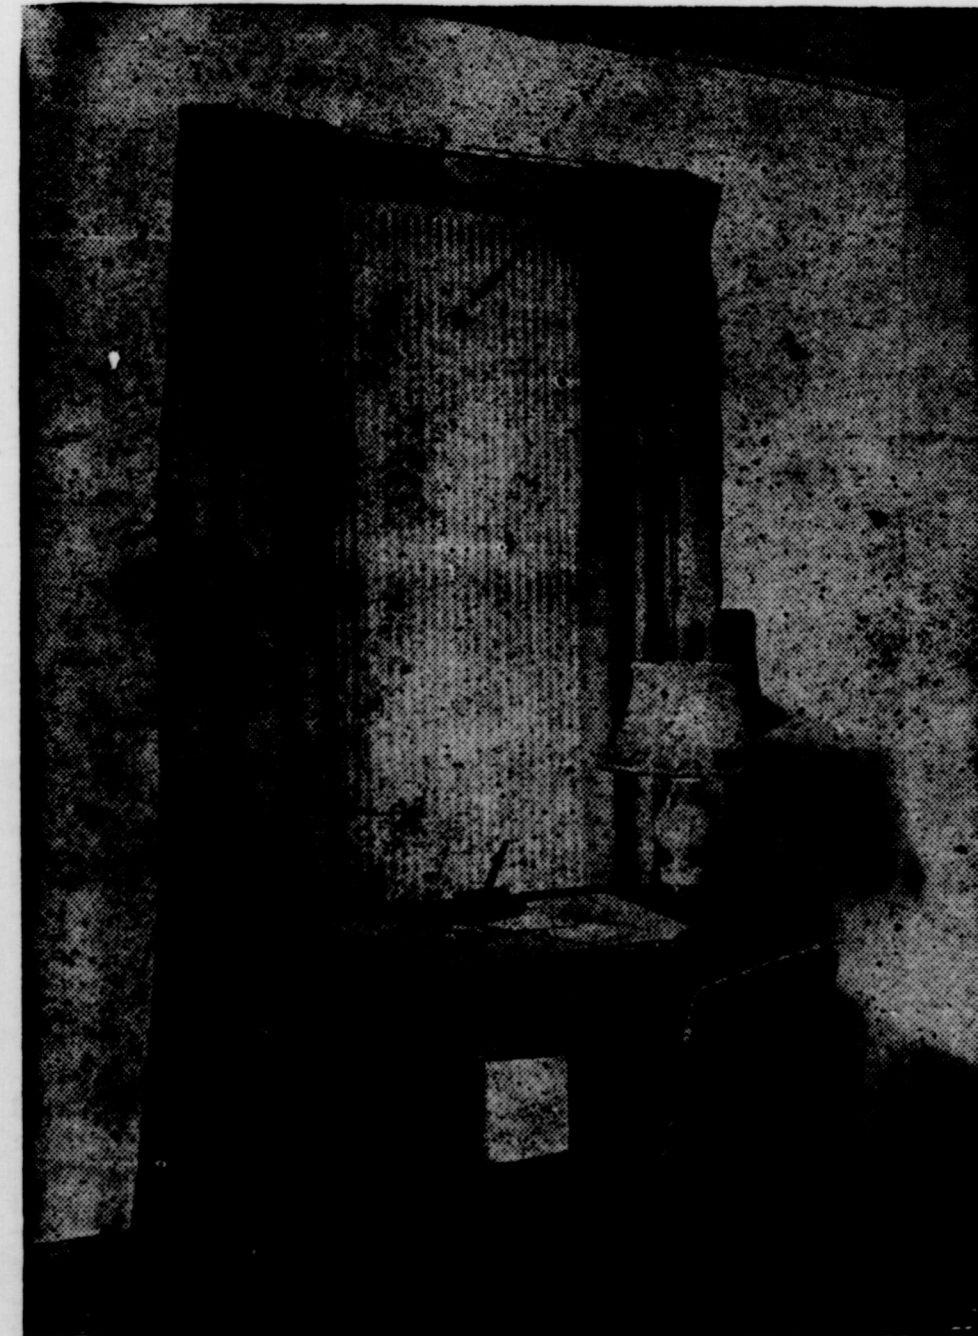

A coat such as the one pictured, by a New York designer, is the kind of smart, simple thing you'll find useful day in, day out. Of green and black striped tweed, the coat tapers toward the hem and fastens from top to bottom with black buttons. Pockets are deep and roomy, as pockets of good tweed coats should be. A wonderful steamer coat for a lake or ocean voyage, or to take to college.

Two friends met on the street. One friend asked the other, "What have you been doing?" "Oh, I've been working in the Atomic Bomb plant," said the second friend.

"But you didn't know what you were doing, did you?" "No," was the answer. "We thought we were making the front ends of horses to be sent to Washington for assembly."

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Ida Lea over the week end were her sons, Robert E. Lea, of Odessa, Texas and Murray Lea, Dickens, and her grandson, Kenneth Dale Lea, Dickens.

Interior Modes... by Reno

One of the first rules of interior decorating during hot weather is to keep things to a maximum of simplicity. Here both comfort and good decorating have been employed. For cool writing comfort, the desk has been placed near the window. Glass curtains have been removed in order to let in any passing cool air, simple draperies have been used and crisp looking striped window shades shield the room from the direct rays of the sun. During the warm part of the day the window is kept closed and the shade is drawn to the sill. According to actual tests, rooms can be kept 10 to 20 degrees cooler by the simple expedient of drawing the shades.

NEW DISASTER RECORDS

This nation has set many new records—but all of them are not desirable. At the present time it seems to be busy setting new records in fire loss, and the destruction of life and property on almost a wartime scale.

In June, for example, fire loss totaled more than $50,000,000, and in July, it was almost as much. Losses for the 12-month period ending July 31 were estimated at nearly $642,000,000.

If the rate of increase continues, waste by fire will reach $1,000,000,000 a year in 1950.

Perhaps those figures, to a people accustomed to talking in terms of billions, don't mean a great deal. Translate them, in your mind, into thousands of destroyed homes—into gutted factories—into lost jobs and incomes—into dissipated savings—into the utter waste of essential and scarce materials and commodities.

Go a step farther and translate them into thousands of charred human bodies—America's horrible contribution to the god of fire.

Do that—and then ask yourself one simple question: "Is fire prevention worth the little amount of money and the little time and effort it requires?" Then, finally, act on your answer, and make your home and your place of business safe.

Big engines... long trains mean lower cost to you!

But union leaders want "half-trains"—double crews!

Big locomotives are built to do a big job in the big country which is America—a big job in peacetime as in wartime. They are built to pull long trains.

Long freight trains can handle more goods at less cost—to you—than short trains.

Long trains mean fewer trains—fewer chances for accidents—fewer interruptions to traffic.

But a few railroad union leaders oppose long trains—among their current 44 demands for changes in rules is one limiting the length of freight trains to 57 average cars. Why do they demand this?

For "safety," they say. But is it? Government figures show definitely that long trains mean greater safety to railroad employees and public alike.

Then, if safety is not the real reason—what is the reason behind this demand?

It is to make more jobs which are not needed—to get more pay! This "made work" would be sheer waste. Think of big, modern locomotives using only half their power.

For this waste, you—the public—would have to pay. Higher costs mean a lower standard of living for everybody. Nobody wants that!

Here's the record...

In the quarter century... 1921-1946...

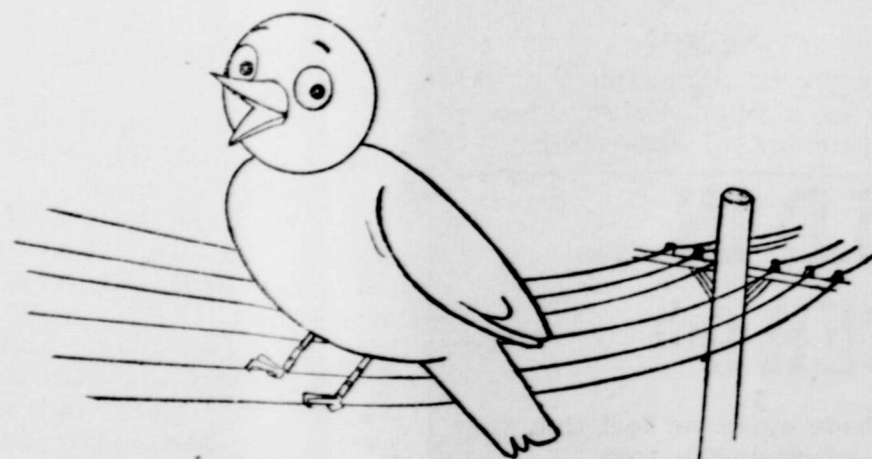

Average length of freight trains has gone up.....	39%
Average speed of freight trains has gone up.....	39%
The rate of injuries to railroad employees has gone down.....	60%
Average wages paid railroad workers have gone up.....	84%
Price of railroad materials and supplies has gone up.....	58%
Railroad taxes have gone up.....	76%

But the average charge by railroads for hauling a ton of freight one mile has gone down..... 23%

WELCOME

The students of Spur High wish to extend a cordial greeting to the freshmen and hope they will soon get accustomed to cheery salutations between classes. Also we wish to welcome the students who are new to Spur.

From Colorado City, Texas comes a new freshman, Ronald Comer. G. W. Welch, from Bangs is another new Freshman. Roanoke Elementary school in Vernon sends us Freshman Glen Glas. Carl Tree, Jr., freshman, came from way up in Colorado—Deer Creek to be exact. One new freshman girl, among many new boys, is Julia Meeks from Bryson. Two new sophomores are Leona Henderson from Stephenville and Melvin Lindsay from Lubbock. Larry Hahn from Vega and Sanford Meeks from Bryson are two new Juniors. We are glad to acknowledge the return of two Senior girls Carrie Kimmel, who spent last semester in Lubbock High, and Betty Sechrist, who spent last year in Burbank High on the sunny shore of California.

With all these new comers to our old Spur High camp ground for the next nine months we sincerely hope that each and every one of you will find many new friends. We also wish you luck with all the teachers; if you need help or extra work feel free to ask any of the teachers; they will be glad to help you in your problems.

In other words we, the old settlers, just want to say "hi" and good luck.

BAND NOTES

The band met with Mr. Goldwire for the first time Monday afternoon September 8 and were all favorably impressed. Many new plans were made for the future.

Some outstanding members were lost due to graduation and moving to other schools. To help replace these there are two new members, Betty Sechrist and Carl Tree.

The first public appearance the band will make will be at the Haskell-Spur football game Friday September 12. Peppy marches will add much to the cheering section.

—BEAT HASKELL—

IMPROVEMENTS AND ADDITIONS

The opening of the doors of Spur High have brought the unveiling of newly polished desks. All the desks have been sanded and repolished for the students' benefit. Let's all try to keep these desks clean and unmarred—remember, "Fools names like fools faces" are always seen in public places.

Several new books have been added to the school library. These are newly published ones and everyone is anxious to read them. Cheers went up when the new typewriters were discovered. Some more are on their way, but until they get here, the old ones, which are in much better condition after a thorough overhauling will be used. Also, new to the typing department are the new manuals.

To be added in the future is a new car for the use of those taking safety course new to high school last year.

These additions to the school are appreciated to the fullest extent and will be cared for by all the students.

JOKES

Mrs. Labay: Order, please. Voice from back of room: Double chocolate malt.

Donnie Scott: Would you sould me for something I didn't do?

Brother Gilbert: Of course not—that wouldn't be fair.

Dennie: Well, I didn't do my homework.

Mrs. Johnston: You missed my class yesterday, didn't you?

Dennis Bingham: Not very much.

Jamie: What would you do if you were in my shoes?

Virginia Ruth: Polish them.

Mrs. Brannen: When water changes to ice, what is the greatest change?

Foster: The price.

A. C. Sharp: "I've walked home from school with her three times, and carried her books; I've bought ice cream cones twice, and taken her to a movie. Now don't you think I could kiss her?"

Kenneth H.: "Now, you've done enough for her already."

DIRT FROM GERT

With the beginning of a new school year there are always new people, new romances, and new scandals, but this year some of the kids even have a new color hair.

Speaking of new people, some of these little fish aren't so bad. Gee, some of us were just born about three years too soon. But age is no obstacle as far as A. C. Sharp is concerned. He and Myra Ratliff are seen walking to school together every morning.

Say, will somebody please put me straight on something? What's this about Toi picking up trash?

Is that somebody or did she have a part time job as janitor to work her way through camp?

I guess JuDon and Ann will soon be dissolving partnership for awhile, as she won't be attending SHS this year. We'll all miss you, Ann.

While we're on the subject of old romances, we would like to mention the fact that, after a few difficulties, Bobbie and Roy are still steady. Bunky, and Winona are also being seen together again.

We had hoped that during the summer the boys would learn to ask the girls for dates, but we see that they haven't. Better watch it boys or you'll get left, as a lot of the girls have acquired outside interests during vacation.

Poor Gert got out of circulation during the summer, but you had better watch out. She will be peeping around corners while you're not looking.

—BEAT HASKELL—

NOTICE

Do you have love problems? Are you heart broken?

Do you find your date queer or peculiar?

Do you run out of things to do on your date?

We could go on and on listing other problems, but we just haven't the time. If you have any problems please contact "CORABELLE and MYRTLE-DENE". They are experienced love advisors. You can't go wrong after you have talked to them.

—BEAT HASKELL—

BULLDOGS IN ACTION!

The Bulldogs have started workouts under Coach Sam Hawkes and assistant Coach Billy Hahn. The boys are in fine shape and really look good according to Coach Hahn.

Two of the boys were injured in the scrimmage Friday night, but are expected to participate in the game against Haskell.

A mob of grid-iron fans are expected to come out for the Bulldog's first game of the season, to be held in the Chas. A. Jones memorial stadium. This is going to be an exciting game so come out and help the Bulldogs bite off a triumphant victory.

EDITORIAL

To make our Rowel a success this year—we, on the staff, will need the help and support of every high school student. We will appreciate any news, scandals, or suggestions that any of you will give to us.

The editor would like to take this opportunity to thank those who helped her put out this first edition of the Rowel. The permanent staff will be named sometime in the near future.

WHO'S WHO

Five feet six inches of dynamite and sixteen years of practice makes Bobbie Stanley completely eligible for her second year as a cheer leader in the S.H.S. pep club. Bobbie was born in Spur in the year 1931, and every July 5th she celebrates a birthday. One might say that she has a special interest in dramatics for during her Junior year she was in the speech play and the Junior play, but she claims typing as her favorite subject. We wondered how Bobbie managed to stay so full of pep, but after the discovering that her favorite foods were fruit cocktail pie and green beans we were in a quandary no longer. Of course, being pep leader, her favorite sport is football, and this may also have something to do with the fact that her favorite past-time is thinking about a certain ex-football star. Her description of this football hero went something like this: "about five-nine with excellent physique, brown hair and blue eyes. Always out for a good time!" After this description we can understand why he occupies most of Bobbie's thoughts.

Tall, blonde, blue eyed and good looking all describes Dennis Bingham, born in Spur, July 25, 1931.

His good personality won him the office of President both his Freshman and Junior years. He made an exceptionally good one, too.

Football and basketball are his favorite sports, perhaps that explains his lettering in basketball last year. Rough and Ready Dennis will play center for the Bulldogs this year.

Dennis was Junior favorite and won the Rotary award. He also had a leading role in the Junior play.

His favorite foods are steaks and chocolate milkshakes. Now you see why he has those broad shoulders. He loves to sleep—maybe that's how he keeps his blue eyes twinkling all the time. Dennis likes to exercise his brain working any kind of math. When I asked him about his favorite type of girl he thought (?) for awhile and then replied: "A blonde, blue-eyed, one about shoulder high or maybe a little taller with a good personality." Girls, apply your applications to Dennis Bingham's date secretary. Now you have met Dennis—we hope you like him as much as we do.

ORGANIZATION OF THE PEP CLUB

The Spur High School Pep Club met Thursday, September 4, 1947, for the purpose of organizing. There were about forty girls present. The leaders for this year are Bobbie Stanley, Virginia Ruth Shugart, Jamie Nell Simmons, and Carolyn Henshaw. Little Miss Ralna English was chosen mascot.

Mr. Bill Dorn, of Lubbock was a business visitor in Spur Tuesday and Wednesday.

For the first game the girls will wear blue slacks and white T-Shirts with blue bulldogs. It is hoped that they will have gold gabardine jackets in time for the second game. All the members are very enthusiastic and are anxious to have an outstanding pep squad which will spur the football players on to victory.

Miss Foreman Is Wed To Mr. Coleman

Miss Pauline Foreman became the bride of Albert E. Coleman in a double-ring ceremony Sunday, August 31, at 2:30 p.m., in the parlor of the First Methodist Church in Carlsbad, N. M. Rev. L. B. Trone performed the ceremony. The altar was banked with fern and palm and bouquets of white asters and gladioli with tall candelabra on either side. Rex Shannon lighted the candles and Miss Jean Walton played the traditional wedding march and recessional.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Foreman of Spur, Texas and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. J. O. Coleman of Carlsbad.

Mrs. Coleman chose a grey crepe street length dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was attended by Mrs. Grafrod Head, of Lubbock, Texas as Matron of Honor, who wore a street length blue crepe dress with black accessories, and a corsage of white gladioli. Mrs. Foreman, mother of the bride, chose a black crepe dress with a corsage of pink asters. Mr. A. L. Foreman of Spur, Texas, brother of the bride, served as best man.

For "something old and borrowed" the bride wore a strand of pearls belonging to Mrs. Head. For "something blue", she wore the traditional blue satin garters. For "something new", she carried a navy linen handkerchief given her by her sister, Mrs. John Wiles of Seattle, Washington. She also wore a sixpence in her shoe for luck.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Crawford Hotel ballroom. Mrs. David Griffiths presided at the guest register. The refreshment table was spread with an ecru lace cloth with a large bouquet of summer flowers as a centerpiece, and tall pink and white candles on each side of the white-tiered cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. A. L. Foreman, of Spur, Texas, presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Irene Roberts of Lubbock, Texas served the cake.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Foreman and

MRS. ENGLEMAN HONORS MISS HULL AND MISS BERRY WITH GOING-AWAY DINNER

In honor of Miss Ann Hull and Miss Ernestine Berry, who are leaving Spur for college, Mrs. E. D. Engleman entertained with a dinner in her home Tuesday evening, September 2, at 6:00 o'clock.

Miss Hull is to attend Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri and Miss Berry will be a student of the Simmons University at Abilene, Texas.

Table decorations were carried out in the Spur High School colors, blue and gold. A miniature football field was cleverly arranged by Mrs. Engleman for a centerpiece. Four candles, blue on one end, gold on the other, with ribbons of opposite colors, made enchanting goal posts and a tiny football was placed in the center. Pennant plate favors were arranged around the football.

Pennants of blue and gold were for the guests who are remaining in Spur. Stephens College colors, maroon and brown, for Miss Berry. For Mrs. Engleman's niece, Jane Richey of Haskell, Texas who is visiting her and will attend Baylor University at Waco, Texas, the college colors of green and gold were used.

A delicious dinner consisting of barbecued weiners, mashed potatoes, English peas, a vegetable salad, and iced tea, with fresh strawberry ice cream and coconut cake for dessert was served.

After dinner, Mrs. Engleman presented the honor guests with going away gifts. The gifts were lovely loose-leaf notebooks, picturing a co-ed with her luggage, about to enter a picturesque college building. The caption below the picture read "THIS IS IT!" Opening the notebook they found to their delight, a beautiful box of candy which was bound to the book with satin ribbons.

Those attending the dinner were Mae Toi Murphy, Creola Rector, Virginia McNeill, Jane Richey and the honorees, Ann Hull and Ernestine Berry. The dinner was Joyce Williams, Juanell Degraffenreid, and Donna Gene Wright.

Alice Gallimore And Leon Hale Wed In Lubbock

Miss Alice Gallimore, daughter of Mrs. W. F. Gallimore, of Lubbock and Leon Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Hale of Spur, were married Tuesday evening, September 9, at 8:00 o'clock in the St. John's Methodist church at Lubbock.

Rev. George A. Dale officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before an arch covered with fern and salmon and white gladioli, flanked by two baskets of gladioli, and tapers in candelabra lighted the background of palms and were also placed down the bridal aisle.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Charlie Gallimore, and wore a tan suit with a pale pink blouse, black hat with satin trim, and black accessories. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink and white roses on a white Bible.

Miss Vivian Gallimore, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore a brown suit with pale blue blouse, brown accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ernest McNutt of Spur, sister of Mr. Hale and Miss Gentry Gallimore, the bride's niece. Mrs. McNutt was dressed in a gray suit with black accessories and Miss Gallimore wore a gray suit with brown accessories. Their corsages were pink carnations.

Ernest McNutt served as best man and Fred Martin and Raul English of Spur were ushers.

After the wedding the reception was held in the home of the bride's mother. A linen cloth covered the refreshment table where a three tiered cake, topped with miniature bride couple, and frosted punch was served by Mrs. Rex Wheeler and Mrs. Raul Wheeler, sisters of the bride. Miss Vicki Martin played during the reception and Miss Gentry Martin registered the guests.

Wedding guests from Morton, Spur, Crosbyton, Falls, Lorena, Brownfield, Levelland, Lamesa, Denison and New Mexico were present.

The couple will be at home in Lubbock after a trip, for which the bride was dressed in a gray tweed suit with white blouse, brown lizard accessories, and an orchid corsage.

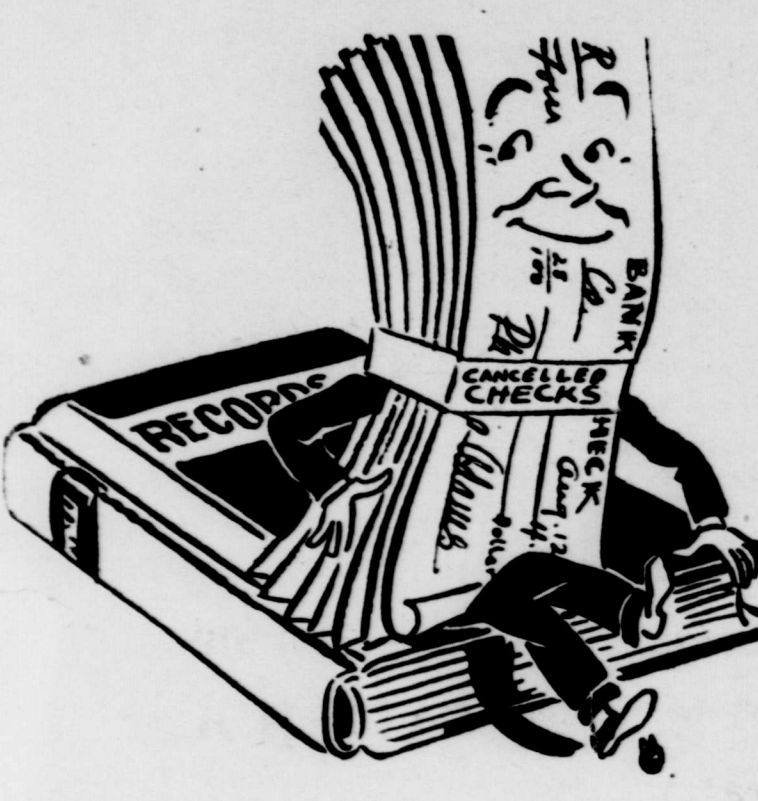

Mr. Hale is a Lubbock salesman for Armour and Company.

MISSSES BONNIE HUGHES AND DRULINE BYRD HOSTESSES AT ICE CREAM PARTY

Miss Bonnie Hughes and Miss Druline Byrd were hostesses at an ice cream party in the home of Miss Hughes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hughes, Friday evening, September 5.

The group of young people present enjoyed games and music after which they were served refreshments of ice cream, cookies, and cake.

With this issue of the Texas Spur, it is my great pleasure to be selected to assume the role of editor-manager of a fine newspaper and printing establishment in one of West Texas' cleanest and most popular cities, Spur.

Having been long in the weekly newspaper field in all capacities I will not be hesitant in saying that it is our desire to produce for this fine little city, West Texas' newest newspaper. We will not, at this time go into detail further than to say that it is the intention of the publisher to enlarge the paper at the very earliest convenience, items that are important in the making up and publishing of a newspaper are in the making.

It is a pleasure to become a citizen of Spur and join with others in the progress of West Texas' fastest growing little city.

With a million thanks for the fine reception that I have received and the encouragement given, it is our desire to meet each individual and get better acquainted in order that we may serve you with the latest news.

The Spur is indeed fortunate in having such a fine list of employees that are always on the alert and ready to serve you in any capacity. Again let me say thanks for the fine reception and if you have time please drop in to see us and give us all of your news items or phone 128 for any information or business transaction.

Upward Food Costs

Spur and Dickens County people who are already worried about the high cost of food may as well become prepared for more news; news from a New York source that the worst is yet to come.

Only consumer resistance in this trade zone and all over the nation can halt the advent, in the very near future, of $1 a dozen eggs, $1 a pound butter and $1 plus meat. Spokesmen for the meat industry, restaurant owners and store officials paint a gloomy picture for the fall and winter months, for food and feed grains, butter, eggs and meat still continue to climb on spot wholesale markets.

The nation now well remembers the repeated admonitions of President Harry Truman about halting the high cost of living—even 12 months ago. Now the matter has become so grave that only the consumers, by a united front, can do anything about the matter.

The American Meat Institute declares the prices of better grades of meat will continue to go up. The peak is not yet in sight; so housewives can begin to trim meat bones mightily close until some sort of relief is available.

$1 A Dozen Eggs

With eggs bringing from 82 to 92 cents a dozen over the week-end on the New York market, most Dickens county poultry flock owners believe $1 a dozen eggs are in sight.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture enters the egg picture to say consumers can expect higher prices for eggs remainder of this year.

To poultrymen around Spur tempted to sell 50 or 100 laying hens, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics says:

Egg prices may well skyrocket to figures exceeding all other years except 1919 and 1920—both years which followed World War I.

Reasons for price hike in eggs include strong demand by consumers, high support prices and expected short supplies. High meat prices are also a factor.

Many consumers in Dickens and nearby counties, not wanting to buy meat at present levels, are buying eggs to take the place of meat products.

In spite of the rising prices for eggs, the farmer's share of the dollar the consumer spends for eggs is decreasing.

In June, for instance, Dickens County farmers received 73 cents of every dollar spent by consumers for eggs. A year ago, during the same month, each farmer received 75 cents.

The agriculture department predicts that the increase in feed prices, expected to be in evidence shortly, will be greater than the increase in egg prices.

Spur can do much for itself by developing the natural opportunities that exist and let other towns dream about Santa Claus coming in with a big investment.

Every once in a while a citizen of a community gets somebody wishing that he would get it in the neck—and he does.

Bits-O-Business

Whole sale prices, now at a new postwar high, are nearly two per cent above a month ago and nearly 20 per cent above a year ago. . . . A Janesville, Wis., manufacturing plant paid 40 per cent of its employees' salaries in Mexican pesos recently to illustrate the value of foreign trade. . . . Steel shortages and plant-wide shut-downs for vacations dropped July production below June levels in most industries. . . . American life insurance companies increased their investments in American industries and business by 26 per cent over a year ago, during the first half of 1947. . . . California's huge grape crop this year may make raisins one of your most economical foods. . . . During the year ended June 30, the United States shipped more than 33 million tons of coal abroad to become the world's greatest coal-exporting nation, replacing Britain. Failure of England and Germany to come close to their prewar production put the job of supplying foreign coal largely up to America.

September Heat Wave

Withering sun that stayed above the 100-degree mark last week and continued to scorch this area through mid week has been burning money out of the West Texas farmer's pocket at the rate of $80,000 an hour.

So states Harry Holt, farm editor of The Reporter-News at Abilene, who says after a survey of Dickens and other counties in the area that the cotton crop has been cut 50 per cent from potential outlook of three weeks ago.

Dickens and other West Texas counties increased cotton acreage 25 per cent. Prospects even when August reached the midway mark were for the largest yield of cotton in a number of years.

Spur crop observers in August believed the county's 1947 crop—having withstood the heat of July and a heat wave in August—was in excellent shape for the home stretch.

If the cotton yield for Dickens and other West Texas counties has been cut in half, as estimated, that must mean 150,000 to 200,000 bales.

With 35-cent cotton on the agenda, this will mean a loss of something like $25,000,000 in income for West Texas counties. Every hour during the early part of September the sun has pursued the "scorched earth" policy the farmers have been hooked at the rate of $80,000 an hour.

While damage has been woven around cotton alone, the grand total will run into undetermined figures when one considers the late combine maize crop and most of the late feed.

One can also strike out the green grass that prevailed on the range most of the summer.

There is consolation, however, in the fact livestock prices are good. Despite the drought and heavy runs, the market has not weakened in the least at auction rings. Most calves going from Dickens and Kent counties to market are in good flesh and are bringing premium prices.

It is conceded in most circles of the area that rain would be of little benefit to cotton or combine maize. Some hegaris would recover and row feed that has been cut might make a "second crop" of light "suckers" which would afford livestock grazing.

Good rains at this time would start a big rush to get small grains like wheat, oats and barley drilled in and allow another large acreage of grains for harvest in the spring of 1948. Given plenty moisture, this could mean enough grazing to save a gigantic feed bill.

Should dry weather continue, the feed bill for Dickens and King counties could be enormous.

Majority of Dickens, King, Kent and Crosby County ranchmen are lightly stocked and they say they will not attempt to go through a long drought overstocked.

Legume Practice Rules

Personnel of the Dickens County ACA office has been informed that the winter legume practice for the 1948 Agricultural Conservation Program has been approved by the state and Washington offices.

Some of the crops which will qualify under this practice, county farmers learn, are Austrian winter peas, three and a half cents payment per pound for seed planted, hairy vetch, payment of 10 cents per pound for seed planted; and Hubam Clover, payment of seven and a half cents per pound for seed planted.

There are, county farmers are advised, several other crops listed under the practice which have not been approved in this immediate area.

It will be necessary to secure prior approval from the county committee to be eligible for payment for growing the above crops. Anyone wishing to plant winter legume crops is urged to contact the county office as soon as possible.

Men in the above picture are J. B. Haun and Mack Fisher. This is 126 acre field of Madrid Clover planted March 3, 1945—picture taken in May of same year.

In January, 1941, Mr. Paul Dunkel in charge of the Denton County Experiment Station gave Mr. John Elliott of the Frisco Community enough Madrid Clover seed to plant five acres. This is a bi-annual plant.

In its first year Mr. Elliott not only grazed 20 heads of cattle, but had a hay harvest on this five acres of Madrid clover of 5½ tons. In its second year Mr. Elliott grazed it with 20 heads of cattle up to March 10th, and then allowed it to seed. (The second year of this Madrid clover is its seed year). It produced 1784 pounds of seed acre. From this modest start Mr. Elliott is harvesting seed from 110 acres while the neighborhood farmers are harvesting seed from 884 acres in 1947 with the yield being about 500 pounds Madrid Clover seed per acre. It is estimated that in the Frisco Community that in excess of 2500 acres will be planted in the spring of 1948.

Madrid Clover has been certified as the clover legume of all clovers, not alone is the value of this crop its seed yield, but it has been proven that any follow-up crop, whether wheat, oats, corn, cotton, or any small grain, it produces from 25 to 40% more yield after the clover crop.

There has been an association formed of Denton and Collin County growers, named Certified Madrid Clover Growers, with headquarters at Frisco, Texas. The association will mail to anyone desiring it a pamphlet about Madrid Clover, and anyone interested in soil conservation and improvement of his land will do well to investigate this profitable and beneficial crop.

The information in this report has been brought to the attention of the paper by Mr. Larry O'Bannon, manager of the Frisco Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. O'Bannon is a good neighbor policy.

And, speaking of signs, one of the oddest I ever saw was over a country store and it read, "Why go elsewhere to be robbed?"

In San Angelo, the B&H Grill has a sign, "Capacity 1,000—14 at a time." Also in San Angelo, there is this sign, "We will tan your hide." It is a leather shop, of course.

Coming into Seguin from Cuero, I couldn't see a highway sign telling how to get to New Braunfels, so I stopped, got the information and ate breakfast. I guess the State Highway Department figured I'd be hungry, anyhow.

And as I entered Fredericksburg, there was no sign telling how to get to Mason. So I stopped again and got the information at a bakery shop and bought some coffee cake. They bake mighty good coffee cake in Fredericksburg.

This column has been appearing for over 10 years. Countless individuals in all towns have been ment. Seriously yet the "thank-you" note may be counted on the fingers of your two hands. What prompts this comment is that the proprietor of El Sombrero, the quaint-looking roadside cafe at Bangs, wrote a letter after the place was mentioned in this space and invited your columnist to drop by and have a bowl of chili.

How to succeed as a writer: Just keep alive long enough and observe as you go along; remember what you observe—and then write it.

An advertiser in an Eastland paper says he will haul away the carcasses of dead livestock and signs himself, "Your used cow dealer."

And an equipment house in San Antonio has a jolly style of advertising. For instance, "blue denim—if you bought 'em down town, they'd be trousers and cost you 50 cents more" and "army cot—have trouble sleeping? Then you're sure to enjoy lying awake on this cot" and "fountain pen—if you can't write, this'll keep the cigars in your pocket from getting broken."

The author of Cub Reporter is amazed and happy at the reception the book is getting. Evelyn Oppenheimer, viewer, told the radio and C. J. Healy had the book on the air about the book and Jack Lait, New York Mirror editor, devoted his entire "column" to recollections of C. P. J. Mooney, Memphis Commercial Appeal editor and principal figure in Cub Reporter. U. S. Senator K. D. McKellar and Clarence Saunders (originator of Piggly Wiggly) were among the first purchasers.

Your hard-headed, "practical" man says, "Seeing is believing." Well, as an automobile speeds away from you, it gets smaller and smaller; do you really believe it changes size? If you look down a railroad track, the rails finally run together. You see it; do you believe it?

And did you ever notice that the man who belittles humor and pooh-poohs the ability to make people laugh is usually a sourpuss himself? Like the rooster who was about to have a fight with a horse and the rooster said, "Before we start, let's agree not to kill each other."

Have been getting so many invitations to speak at so many places that I can't jump around over my work suffers in the office, so your columnist

DARWIN CALLIHAN AWARDED REXALL CITATION OF MERIT

The Rexall Citation of Merit has been awarded to Darwin Callihan of City Drug Co. Rexall Drug Store, it was announced today.

Joe B. Long, owner of the store at Spur, said that the Citation was presented jointly by the International Association of Rexall Clubs and the Rexall Drug Company, Los Angeles, California. In a letter which accompanied the Citation, Arch T. Carithers, General Sales Manager of Rexall Drug Company, wrote that Mr. Callihan had been selected for the award in recognition of his "outstanding merchandising ability and the service he has given to the community through City Drug Co. Rexall Drug Store."

The International Association of Rexall Clubs represents some 10,000 independent Rexall drug stores throughout the nation. Each year outstanding personnel in these stores are selected for the citation honor.

"We are happy to know," said Mr. Callihan, "that our organization has won national attention."

"Each one of us at the store will continue to do our best to maintain a standard of service which is aimed, primarily, at one goal—the satisfaction of the people of Spur, Texas."

"Did you know Mark Twain?" The native replied, "Yes, I did; and I know just as many stories as he did; the only difference is he writ 'em down."

Fritz Kreisler was going to give a concert and the newspapers wrote up the $50,000 Stradivarius he owned. On the night of the concert, he came out and gave a number, superbly. He bowed again and again at the applause; then he held up the violin and the audience applauded the instrument; then he snapped the violin into a dozen pieces. It was not the costly "Strad" but just a violin he had picked up for $5. Its not the instrument but the artist—brains, fingers and soul expressing itself through the instrument—that is most important.

AFTON MAN RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED FLYING

CROSS, AIR MEDAL, STAR

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 11—Gilbert H. Ragland, former aviation ordnance man, third class, USNR Afton, Texas, has received the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal, a Gold Star in lieu of a second Distinguished Flying Cross and Gold Stars in lieu of six additional Air Medals, Eighth Naval District headquarters here has announced.

The citation for the Distinguished Flying Cross award, signed by Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal, said:

"For heroism and extraordinary achievement in aerial flight as an aviator of a patrol plane in Patrol Bombing Squadron 117, in action against enemy Japanese forces in the Southwest Pacific war area from Dec. 20, 1944, to Feb. 25, 1945. Completing his twentieth mission during this period, Ragland rendered valuable assistance to his pilot and contributed materially to the success of his plane. His skill and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Ragland, a veteran of 15 months overseas, entered the Navy on Feb. 25 1943. The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ragland, Roaring Springs, Texas, and the husband of Mrs. Pauline Ragland, he is now engaged in farming.

Size of the World War II aircraft industry is indicated by the fact that 92 aluminum plants were built to supply raw materials to wartime aircraft producers.

"SINBAD THE SAILOR," FABULOUS ROMANCE OF ADVENTURE AND ACTION

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.,
Maureen O'Hara and
Walter Slezak Star

A stirring story of swashbuckling adventures and turbulent romance laid against the exotic background of the mystic East of a thousand years ago, RKO Radio's new Technicolor extravaganza, "Sinbad the Sailor," stars Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Maureen O'Hara and Walter Slezak.

The story revolves around the fabulous treasure of Alexander, supposed to be hidden on the little known island of Deryabar in the care of the Aga Ahmed. Rivals in the search for the treasure are Sinbad, a penniless adventurer, and the powerful Emir of Daibul, Sinbad salvages a ship containing a chart marking the course to Deryabar, and lays claim to it. However, he is forced to bid for the ship at auction and finds himself in competition with Shireen, a lovely adventuress allied with the Emir. She retires from the bidding when she notices a medallion around Sinbad's neck which would indicate that he is Prince Ahmed, the son of the Aga, and therefore able to lead the way to Deryabar. Sinbad pays for the ship with money he admittedly steals from the auctioneer.

When he gets on board, Sinbad finds the chart has been stolen. Among his crew is Melik, the rascally ship's barber, who is the thief. Melik offers to steer the course for Deryabar, but Sinbad doesn't trust him and decides to sail for Daibul where he knows he will find Shireen whom he loves and distrusts equally. He abducts Shireen from the Emir's palace and sets sail for Deryabar. The Emir sets out in hot pursuit, sinks Sinbad's ship and takes everybody prisoner. He is about to kill Sinbad when Melik reminds him that Sinbad will be useful in their quest.

In a spectacular climax in which Sinbad performs amazing deeds of valor, the Emir and his followers are destroyed, and Sinbad sails away from Deryabar with the beautiful Shireen in his arms.

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., has the role of Sinbad, Maureen O'Hara is Shireen, Walter Slezak is Melik and Anthony Quinn is the Emir. Others featured in the large cast are George Tobias, Jane Greer and Mike Mazurki. Richard Wallace directed this production by Stephen Ames from a screenplay by John Twist.

Advance notices credit "Sinbad the Sailor" as being one of the most spectacular entertainment achievements of the year.

Hard-of-hearing children are often considered backward and become greatly retarded in school when in reality they may be highly intelligent but simply cannot hear much of what is said to them. Children who appear backward in school should be observed carefully to determine if hearing is a factor in the situation.

According to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, many injuries to the ear can be prevented by keeping foreign objects out of the ear canal, taking good care of the ears during colds and other diseases and observing certain precautions when swimming.

"The cause of middle ear trouble often is diving and swimming," Dr. Cox said. "Protect the ears by wearing a rubber cap, or ear plugs."
