Better Sanitation

In more normal times when public interest was not so preoccupied with global economic and political problems, the nationwide survey of sanitation needs by the United States Public Health Service would gain the proper attention.

That report states that 100,000,000 persons of the total population of 140,000,000 should have improved water and waste disposal facilities. For remedying this condition completely an outlay of $7,834,581,000 would be required—a figure considerably less than postwar expenditures abroad.

More than two million in waterworks construction is required for serving 81,000,000 persons in cities and towns. About four billions would be needed for affording proper sewerage facilities for 83,000,000 people.

The importance of the survey is shown by its statement that nationwide betterment of sanitation is necessary for combating filth-borne diseases such as typhoid and dysentery. Some authorities have surmised that insanitation has been a factor of epidemics of infantile paralysis.

Local conditions relative to improved water conditions, should be a matter to be taken up immediately and not in the years to come, with the water as it is now, the future of Spur's growth rests in the balance and with the ever increasing flow of newcomers to this part of West Texas, there is not going to be to many of these people stop in Spur to make their future home here unless the water situation is changed.

We have one of the cleanest little cities to be found in Texas and will, with a fine soft water clarifying plant make Spur one of the leading trade centers of West Texas. Sure it will cost the tax payers money but at the same time increase property values fifty per cent.

Let's not wait too long. The time is now.

Things To Come

Prices may be going up but escalators are coming down—Westinghouse has developed a new electric stairway costing 30 per cent less than current models, weighing 25 per cent less and taking up 10 per cent less space. It is designed for smaller stores... A Swiss watchmaker has almost equaled Dick Tracy's wrist radio by developing a wrist watch alarm... You can pick your spot—any spot except the ones in front of your eyes—and a new spot remover will whisk it away.

Where Is The Boom?

The expected boom in housing construction has not materialized and the cause is not hard to discover.

A survey of building materials throughout the United States, conducted by The New York Times, reveals that the price of some building materials has reached the level of the notorious "black market" that beset the industry a year ago.

No wonder The Times in its factual discussion of curtailed construction, says that "legislators and industrial leaders who argued that removal of price controls was needed to lower prices are having to answer some embarrassing questions now."

We have repeatedly called attention to the abnormal rise in prices since the abolition of price controls last summer. While some business men and some legislators may have been sincere in their belief that this would spur production and reduce prices, the record of the past twelve months has proved them wrong. Prices have gone up faster than before.

For the 1948 seed crop, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that the support price for hairy vetch will be 12 cents per pound; for crimson clover, 11 1-2 cents per pound; Austrian winter peas, four cents per pound.

CURRENT COMMENTS

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Texas Spur. Current Comment is carried as a feature column.

You may rest assured that restoration of some type of price controls (as an answer to still rising costs of living) may well be proposed by President Truman at the next regular session of Congress... In fact the president's Council of Economic Advisers are playing with the idea and may include a recommendation in its October report... And it is definite that there will not be some OPA-type of control advocated, either... Any kind of price control will be strongly opposed by the Republicans and chances of adoption are almost negligible... However, debate on the question could have a restraining influence on prices and give President Truman a profitable campaign argument.

Really, the things worrying the president's advisers are prospects of sky-high prices for our essentials—like dairy products and meats, clothing and houses... If prices continue an upward spiral then we may look for a first class depression (rather than recession) one of these days... Beginning immediately (and not next Spring) we need a gradual downward adjustment of major cost-of-living prices so we will not experience a recession of major proportions... Congress will have the power in its hands to halt, completely, a recession but whether our lawmakers will take action in time remains a big question mark, as of this week.

Unless something very drastic happens, the real extent of aid to Europe will be less than expected, with most experts and reliable observers estimating aid ranging from $8,000,000,000 to $12,000,000,000 for the next four years... Figure that is eventually adopted will depend on the temper of Congress; and the lawmakers spending vacations with constituents find the people are cold to further European relief... Congressman George Mahon and the others now overseas are convinced of Europe's desperate needs—needs which somehow must be met immediately.

While it is yet too early to say how the Marshall Plan will fare, one can assume the rather stringent conditions will be imposed on recipients of any aid... They will be given none of the Marshall Plan dollars unless they agree to tighten their belts and quickly put themselves on a self-sustaining basis... Coal, by the way, will be the key to Marshall Plan calculations... Estimates of need from this country will be based on an assumption that Ruhr and British coal production are to be stepped up rapidly... An increase, for instance, of 50,000,000 tons of coal a year in British production would enable Britain to resume exports and secure success for the Marshall Plan... Nationalization of the coal mines in Great Britain, one can say for the record, has not itself retarded production.

If there is such a thing as gentle atom bomb, one can say the physicists at Los Alamos, New Mexico, have found the "animal"... It can be described as a bomb with enough "fissionable material" to vaporize its surroundings... Instead of exploding, a "tame atom bomb" smoulders quietly as a furnace banked for the night... One cannot, for exceptionally good reasons, get the light-tipped Atomic Energy Commission to tell near all it knows about a newly discovered "reactor," active substance of which is plutonium—the same substance which wrecked Nagasaki.

In operation since last November, the so-called "tame atom bomb" can be throttled down until the "heat produced in the core of the reactor is no greater than that given off by a kitchen stove"... One can say, however, that the tame bomb is a "pile" like the original uranium pile at the University of Chicago... But uranium needs slow-moving neutrons to make its atoms split... Thus, a uranium pile is made up of small rods of uranium embedded in a large mass of graphite... Plutonium is quite different; its atoms can be split by fast neutrons... So a pile of plutonium needs no graphite or "moderator"... Now the bomb tamers at Los Alamos have a delicate task; how to make such a thing as a "tame atom bomb" explode, but gently, and in slow motion if it becomes possible.

If you've never tried a Texas Spur classified you will be surprised at what they accomplish.

Farm population of the U. S. is still 2 1-2 million below the 30 million prewar figure.

Poultry disease and parasite control can be simplified by cleaning the laying house before pullets are housed there.

ALL VETERANS DAY AT STATE FAIR

DALLAS, Sept. 28—Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, often called the greatest Texan since Sam Houston, will come to Dallas October 14 to lead Texas veterans of all wars in a rededication to the principles of American Freedom.

The occasion will be "All Veterans Day" at the State Fair of Texas when for the first time in the history of the state tribute will be paid to veterans of all wars in all branches of the service.

More than 200,000 veterans and their families are expected to take part in the day's activities. R. L. Thornton, president of the Fair, announced. Among the many service groups participating will be the American Legion, Spanish-American War Veterans, Reserve Officers Association, Air Reserve Association, Veterans of Foreign Wars and numerous others.

Admiral Nimitz, whose brilliant naval career took him from the Hill Country of Texas to become commander of the Pacific Fleet and conqueror of the Japanese navy, is now Chief of Naval Operations, one of the biggest military titles which his country can bestow. He will fly from Washington to Dallas in his own plane to participate in the day's activities and to address a crowd of more than 50,000 the night of October 14, in the Cotton Bowl.

Admiral Nimitz has been called the foremost living symbol of America's naval power, and in tribute to his valor Texans have enshrined him among their heroes. A bronze bust of the Five-Star Texas Admiral now sits in the Hall of State at the State Fair of Texas alongside such other great Texans as Sam Houston, William Barrett Travis, Stephen F. Austin and Mirabeau B. Lamar.

In addition to featured speakers and entertainers, special exhibits are being set up, bands from all over the state are being invited to take part in the show which will be climaxed with a magnificent night exposition in Texas' famous Cotton Bowl.

"This will be the veteran's own day at the Fair and we are doing everything possible to make his visit enjoyable," Mr. Thornton said. "The public address system network which covers the grounds will be at the disposal of those veterans seeking to locate their buddies, and special meeting places are being arranged for the various military organizations which are planning to assemble at the Fair."

The Right Road

Today, all over the world, irreligious marches shoulder to shoulder with violence and unrest. Totalitarian Revolution, imbued with godless ideologies, sweeps the globe in arrogant, unholy triumph.

If we are to preserve what we believe is the essence of civilization, to regain and hold the full measure of sacred liberties and maintain the dignity of man, we must encourage, aid and abet a more sober realization of the indispensable influence of The Word of God in our every day life.

For his own sake, his family, community, State and the Nation, National Bible Week merits the recognition of every American who, irrespective of class, creed or color, loves liberty and would do his full part under God. Sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee, Vanderbilt Hotel, New York.

O. K. WELDING & TIRE SHOP ONE OF BEST IN STATE

Spur and Dickens county is indeed fortunate in having in our little city a rubber welding plant and tire shop that would do credit to a much larger town and territory.

The OK Rubber Welders and Tire shop is located on South Burlington and is owned and operated by two of Spurs leading businessmen, Frank Adams and Seyman Reynolds.

The equipment used in their plant is far superior to that used by rubber welding plants in other towns. The two OK tread welding machines are the very latest and best to be had. The larger machine handles truck tires from 650x20 to 8-1-4 x 20 the heating gauge is set at 300 degree Fahrenheit and 4-1-2 when on number, the smaller machine is of the same type and handles tires from 700 x 15 through 700 x 19 the same degree range is used but the smaller machine is set at 5 when on number, these two machines when in full operation can handle 30 tires daily for recapping.

The two OK welders are of the screw type with flanges to stretch the rubber for recap and there is positively no heating or burning on sidewalls and when completed will stand up as strong as a factory job. Frank and Seyman are also handling the very latest type of tires and tubes to be found on the market, these products are manufactured by the U. S. Royal Tire Co., and according to new scientific discoveries the Air-Ride Tire and Air Guard tubes are the greatest advancement in tire manufacture, carrying 14 per cent more space and 8 per cent less air than any other tires and are carried in stock in 60 x 16-65 x 16 and 70 x 16.

When in Spur it will pay you to visit this place of business and let Frank and Seyman give you the low down on their products.

When Life Begins

By Frank L. Cox

In the tenth chapter of the Gospel of Luke we read: "And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and made trial of him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live." "This do," that is, love God and your neighbor, "and thou shalt live."

It has been said that "life begins at forty." This statement is misleading, for we begin to live when we begin to love, whether we be twenty, forty, sixty, or seventy. Life that is life indeed has its beginning when love becomes the motive of our words and deeds. Love God supremely and "thy neighbor as thyself", and you shall live—you shall have the greatest measure of joy and true satisfaction. Love for the Lord is manifested in humble obedience: for Jesus said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." Love for man is manifested in service.

The Spur church of Christ extends to you a most cordial invitation to attend her services next Lord's day. Bible classes assemble at 10 a.m. Worship services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The Texas Butane Dealers Association Urges You—

"For WINTER Insurance— BUY BUTANE OR PROPANE Now!"

The Texas Butane Dealers Association urges every domestic user of butane and propane to take stock of the capacity of your tank. If it cannot serve you through four winter months without refilling, you may find yourself without gas in the coldest season of the year.

During the war many new industries were developed. These industries—plastics, synthetic rubber, chemicals, etc.—use tremendous amounts of butane or propane the year round. On the other hand, domestic users burn four to seven times more gas in winter than in summer—but your dealer will be able to furnish you very little more in winter than in other seasons. On a year-round basis, there's enough butane or propane for everyone. But to lighten this winter overload, the Texas Butane Dealers Association urges users to tank ahead with a four-month's winter supply while delivery is certain. Just as farmers store their summer grain, or housewives can their summer suit, heating gas users are asked to stock up when the supply is plentiful. It's "Winter-Insurance" for you: your cold-weather supply will be in your tank when you need it most. And by taking less time for your dealer's services, he can supply you and your neighbors more efficiently and economically during those critical months when roads are worst for delivery.

If you are not sure, The Texas Butane Dealers Association urges you to drop in and see your local gas dealer as soon as possible. He is your friend. He knows butane-propane, and he will do everything possible to help you get ready for winter now. Before you buy any system, see your gas dealer first!

To The People Of Dickens County Particularly The Patrons Of The Spur Post Office

On July 17th, 1935 I was appointed your local postmaster, and it has been with gratitude and pride that I have served you to the best of my ability and I shall always be grateful to the individuals that supported my application and are solely responsible for my getting the appointment at that time.

In 1941 The Post Office Department following an Act of Congress placed all First and Second Class postmasters under civil service. I was called upon the mat, given an examination and placed under civil service in March 1941, and by choice I am transferring under civil service rights to rural letter carrier effective October 1st, 1947.

I shall always look back on the time I have attempted to serve you as postmaster with much pride and gratitude in my heart. I studied long and studied hard before I definitely made up my mind to make this transfer, but there are many reasons I had rather assume my present position. I will still be associated with the clerks and with the individual clerks that has at all times been so loyal to me and the service all of my rural patrons will be those I have had the opportunity of serving in an indirect way together with all the patrons in this office for more than twelve years. It is true that my direct contact with many of you will not be as frequent from an official standpoint.

I am happy to be succeeded by one of your local boys, that has been reared in this community and has served you so efficiently as your money order clerk for the last twenty-two years save and except the three years he served you and his country within the Armed Forces. I can happily say as your retiring postmaster that each and every clerk in this office has a high efficiency rating under the rating system that is used by the Post Office Department and you need not worry as to the ability of this office under the direction of my successor Guy B. Karr.

I will continue to be a part of this community and connected with the postal service and I shall try to conduct myself in a way to where I will be an asset and not a liability to both the community and the postal service.

I am your friend. (Signed) O. C. Arthur.

Brothers surviving are J. L. Thannisch of Spur; Hardy Thannisch of Harrison, Ark., and sisters, Mrs. H. E. Barnes, Knott, Texas and Mrs. Don Merriman of Tucuman, N. M.

Interment was in the Dickens Cemetery.
