A Friend Visits Lieutenant Hyatt's Grave In Belgium

Recently a friend of the W. L. Hyatt family, Brodie Hutchinson of Littlefield, returned from a number of months spent with the occupational forces in Germany.

Before leaving Germany Mr. Hutchinson made a trip into Belgium, where he visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malherbe and small daughter. This is the family in Belgium who have adopted the grave of Lieutenant Hyatt. In adopting one of these graves, the family are required to appear before the Council and take out papers of adoption and hence forth it is their responsibility to see that flowers are taken regularly and that any care needed, be taken care of.

When Mr. Hutchinson arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malherbe, and explained who he was and his purpose in coming, he stated they embraced him, blessed him, and placed a French Kiss on his cheek. They insisted he remain a week and he did so. He said the food was hard to procure and very poor quality, potatoes are used every day in some form.

While visiting with the Malherbe family, informal family pictures were made with his Movie Camera, which also included pictures of the grave of Lieutenant Hyatt. A few night ago in the living room of Mrs. Hyatt's daughter, Mrs. Neat Harker of Littlefield, these were shown on the screen, and the Malherbe family appeared as old friends the same as you or I.

In the Henri Chapelle National cemetery in Belgium 30,000 of those who fell in the recent war are resting. In the past few months 5600 have been returned to their native soil. He also stated this was one of the most beautiful cemeteries in the world.

EASTER CHURCH SERVICES

The Folded Napkin
Frank L. Cox

John gives no narrative of the resurrection itself, but he gives us something more valuable, namely, a brief account of the manner in which he himself was convinced that the resurrection had taken place (John 20:1-10). When he and Peter looked into the empty tomb they noticed that the grave - clothes in which Joseph and Nicodemus had wrapped the body of our Lord were carefully folded and not lying in a disorderly heap. The napkin which had bound the thorn-pierced brow was folded in a place by itself.

Who folded the grave - clothes in all probability, it was the work of Jesus' own hand. The Lord does nothing in haste, or in a fit of frenzy. Rising in the glory and majesty of a king he would not leave the tomb in disorder. If the tomb had been visited by foes, they would have been in great haste; the grave - clothes would not have been folded by them. If his friends had carried the body away to be buried elsewhere, they would have required the grave - clothes for burial. It is certain that Jesus slept until the appointed hour dawned. He then arose in sublime dignity and went forth as the conqueror of death and the grave. With utmost deliberation he left the place where he had slept. The effect of the orderly grave upon John was most significant -- "He saw and believed."

KALGARY NEWS

The Country Folks had more fun than a barrel of Monkeys Friday night. And if you weren't there you'll never know what a grand time you could have had also.

Every thing got under way with roasting weiners. The smoke was kinda bad but where there's a fire there's smoke. The weiners were very good with the trimmings of pickles both sweet and sour plenty of mustard and bread.

When we went to the school-house we found several men already playing forty two. They played throughout the remainder of the program.

Then the musicians who were Mr. and Mrs. Glee Sweeney, L. B. Swanner and G. Pierce, began tuning up and as the tuning ceased what grand music they turned loose with. You couldn't keep from patting your foot and your hands as well. They played several wonderful numbers.

Next came the choosing of sides between Mrs. C. P. Witt the Blues and Mrs. Roy Winkler the Reds, for a word spelling contest. Each player was given two squares of paper with a letter of the alphabet on them. As G. B. Morris called out words to be spelled each player having a letter in this word would put it in place. The side spelling the word first won the mark. Such a scramble and toe stepping you never saw the like, but they somehow got the words spelled. The Blues won over the Reds with a score of 19 to 12. The Judges were Mrs. W. E. Cox, Mrs. Glee Sweeney and Mrs. Ralph Parsons. Now was time to get down to business. Our President Mrs. C. P. Witt called the meeting to order. First we decided to meet once a month and so the next meeting will be Friday Night April 16.

The program Committee is Mesdames Doyle Hinson, G. B. Morris and Roy Winkler.

The repair men made a report of their work. Plans were made to have the stage and curtain rods fixed very soon.

The meeting closed with each ready for more music.

We want the Program Committee, Mrs. T. T. Grizzle, Mrs. G. T. Pierce and Glenn Smith to know they had a very good program for the community. And every one had a very good time. Space will not permit me to tell who all was there but we had a very good crowd.

It's Not Too Early

It is not too early to begin plans for the 1948 4-H Club Round-Up, say J. W. Potts and Lorene Stevens, state 4-H club leaders of Texas A. & M. College. The dates this year have been set for August 16 through the 20th, and big plans have already been made for the program.

Reversing last year's procedure of the agent's meeting first, this year's plans call for the 4-H group meeting Monday night at an informal "get-together" here on the campus. Tuesday and Wednesday are the big days for the 4-H boys and girls in the 1948 schedule. Tuesday morning is the introduction and speech period, and Potts says the speeches will be few and short this year. That afternoon will be spent in an educational demonstration, and Amateur Night comes Tuesday after supper. Tuesday morning the National 4-H club camp winners give reports on their trip to Washington; the 4-H Dress Revue will be held. Wednesday afternoon is left open for the agents to show their boys and girls around the campus of Texas A. & M.

The 4-H Round-Up breaks up late that afternoon; there will be a movie for those who plan to stay over that night.

The agent's conference and meetings begin on Thursday, and end Friday at 5 p.m. With this idea of what the program will be in August, start making county plans now so everything will be ready on August 16, say the state 4-H club leaders.

mobile Division. With "Whirlaway," the driver of an Oldsmobile car has at his command, for safety's sake, and instant burst of speed controlled by pressure of the toe on the accelerator pedal. To use this feature, Mr. Skinner explained, the driver merely presses all the way down on the accelerator as he cruises along the highway.

"Quickly and automatically, "Whirlaway" goes into action. The result is an instant sweep of accelerating power, that is especially important from a safety standpoint, on hills, and on the highway," Mr. Skinner said. "The use of this safety feature will provide added security in cross-country and city travel," he pointed out. "The availability of "Whirlaway" gives the car an alertness, a flexibility and a plus performance that every driver needs on the open road."

Oldsmobile's general manager explained that the "Whirlaway" feature of Hydra - Matic Drive provides an extra margin of safety

WARNING IS GIVEN FARMERS ON DANGER OF SALT IN IRRIGATION

Farmers drilling wells for irrigation purposes should have the water analyzed for salt content before they use it on their land, according to Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department at Texas Tech.

In an attempt to bring more land into use, wells are being sunk outside of the normal irrigation belt in West Texas and in many cases they must go considerably deeper to get sufficient water than is necessary in the normal irrigation area. This causes the driller to strike the deep lying salt beds which extend under a large portion of this part of the state.

Harmful To Soil
Of the various types of salt to be found there are four which are especially harmful to soil, and water containing more than a minimum percentage of these types should not be used for irrigation.

They are the four sodium salts including carbonates, bi-carbonates, chlorides and sulphates. They make it impossible for plants to get a sufficient amount of water and make the land sticky and cloddy, Dr. Young said. Laboratory tests completed by Dr. Young show that samples of water from wells sent to him for testing from wells in the South Plains area contained so much injurious salt that one application of water in a normal irrigation operation would mix an average of four to five tons of salt into each acre of land. Under these conditions it would take only two to five years to completely ruin the soil, he said.

Some of the water showed a salt content of from 2,000 to 11,000.

COURT APPEAL OKAYED IN RENT CONTROL BILL

WASHINGTON, March 24—A new rent control law permitting "home rule" decisions to be appealed to a special federal court was agreed upon Wednesday by a Senate-House committee.

The bill was to be put into final form Wednesday night after committee aides had written it into legal language. Both House and Senate then must act upon it.

Without the bill, rent controls would expire next Wednesday night. The bill extends them, in modified form, for one year.

House members of the joint committee agreed to modification of their "home rule" provision. This would have given local rent boards complete authority to raise rent ceilings or to remove controls entirely.

Under the compromise bill, rent could be increased up to 51 per cent where landlord and tenant agreed on a lease to run through 1949.

Tenants who agreed to a 15 per cent hike under the present law could not be charged another. Those tenants signed leases good through 1948. Their present rents would be frozen from Jan. 1, 1948, to the end of March, 1949.

Controls would be removed from housing accommodations covered by leases which were terminated between Jan. 1, 1948, and the effective date of the new act.

Controls would end on non-house - keeping rooms in private homes if there were no more than two paying guests in the home.

Controls on regular rooming and boarding houses could be removed by the housing expediter if he thought it advisable.

Landlords would be required to give a 60-day eviction notice except for (A) non-payment of rent or (B) where the tenant has become a nuisance. Evictions in those two cases would be subject to local law.

The housing expediter would be required to appoint local rent advisory boards in any state, or to fill vacancies, if the governor fails to commend appointees within 30 days.

Permits would no longer be required for amusement and recreational construction, such as race tracks, night clubs, and bowling alleys.

Any violation of the act could be halted or prevented by court injunction. Under the present law, only overcharges can be enjoined.

I wish at this time to offer my candidacy for re-election as the Commissioner of Precinct 1 in Dickens County I have enjoyed the work with the good people of this precinct during the past term. I have tried my best to make you a fair and honest official. I have used the machinery material and money at my disposal to the best advantage for the entire precinct. On the basis of my record I solicit your good wishes along with your vote and influence in the July Primary. If re-elected to a second term I shall strive to continue to make you a good commissioner.

Among them were two German Shepherds, a Collie, an Irish Wolfhound, an English Setter and a Norwegian Elkhound. The Norwegian Elkhound, Waele, was the President's particular favorite and distinguished herself by presenting the Hoovers with a litter of puppies while living in the White House. These puppies, however, were not the first to have been born in such illustrious surroundings. A dog belonging to Abraham Lincoln's children had delighted the President's family by producing a family on the same day that the White House cat chose to whelp kittens.

Fala, Franklin D. Roosevelt's famed Scottish Terrier, is probably the most publicized dog of modern times, having been the ever-present companion of his renowned master through the war years. Fala was a silent witness at many famous meetings and conferences and was a most offended little dog when he was not allowed to attend the ceremony of President Roosevelt's Third Inauguration. While Fala is the best known of the First Dogs of the Land, he was just one of a long succession of dogs that have been owned and loved by the Roosevelts, who have always found keen pleasure in the company of dogs.

They were testing some of the inmates of the insane asylum to see what progress they were making, and then said to a man "What would you rather have ten dollars or ten thousand dollars?"

He said: "Ten dollars. I couldn't pay the taxes on ten thousand dollars."

"Give this man a discharge," said the examiner, "he doesn't belong here any more."

The club bore was boasting of his ability to distinguish between different beverages. Finally one of the listeners took a flask from his pocket and asked the connoisseur to taste it and tell him what it was. The man tasted a mouthful and promptly spit it out.

"Great Scott!" he cried, "that's gasoline."

"I know," came the bland reply, "but what brand?"

"ALBUQUERQUE" RECREATES LEGENDARY WESTERN TOWN

Out of the adventure - swept history of a town born of blazing guns in the hands of courageous men, Clarion Productions has fashioned a Cinecolor outdoor spectacle that has been hailed by critics and audiences alike as a mighty motion picture saga. The film is Paramount's "Albuquerque," and it arrives next Sunday at the Palace Theatre with Randolph Scott, Barbara Britton, George "Gabby" Hayes and Lon Chaney heading an imposing cast.

Albuquerque in 1878, the picture's setting, was one of the lawless towns in the great Southwest. It was the hub of an empire of cattle and silver, and one man tyrannically sought to gain control of this enormous wealth. Herby, corruption and murder were his weapons, and lustful men and deceitful women carried out his orders. The honest citizens of the settlement were strong in their anger, but weak in leadership.

Into this peril - packed situation rides ex-Texas Ranger Randolph Scott, nephew of the town's unscrupulous despot. Appraised of his uncle's nefarious undertakings, he loses no time in gathering the righteous forces under his command. Then he proceeds to bring the law to Albuquerque, backing it up with hot lead and crashing fists.

Supporting the stars in "Albuquerque" are Russell Hayden, Catherine Graig, as Scott's romantic interest, George Cleveland, as the uncle, and Carolyn Grimes, the delightful little moppet who played Bing Crosby's daughter in "Blue Skies."

The film, an adaptation of a Luke Short novel, was directed by Ray Enright.

VETERANS NEWS

That Veterans subsistence checks is going to be thicker come May 1 for many veterans going to school under the G. I. Bill of Rights, but there's a big "if." They'll be thicker if the veteran is a full-time student - that is if he's attending classes 25 hours a week by the clock, or taking 15 semester hours, as many colleges figure it.

Those taking less classroom instruction will have to get along with the same monthly check they're getting at present.

Part - Time Students

They're part-time students, in the eyes of Uncle Sam, and the theory is that they can earn money for themselves on the side.

Full-time students, on the other hand, are supposed to have their hands full just going to school.

And so:

A man with no dependents will get $75 a month instead of the present, $65.

A man with one dependent will get $105 a month and a man with more than one dependent will get $120 a month.

Water Loans

The present payment is $90 a month for a man with one or more dependents.

Take Effect April 1

Congress okayed these increases to take effect April 1 but the actual checks won't go out until a month after that.

One result of the upgrading probably will be an increase in the number of full-time students.

More money is practically assured for on-the-job trainees, too, although Congress hasn't quite finished dotting the I's and crossing the T's.

Here, as in the case of students, the idea is that the cost of living has gone up and so allowances should go up.

Until Congress acts finally, however, job-trainees will get the same government allowance they're getting now.

And part-time students don't get a raise at all - unless Congress at some future time provides one.

Water Loans

Water Facilities loans of the Farmers Home Administration are available to farmers of Dickens and Kent Counties for the purpose of constructing, installing, or repairing water systems, according to Mr. Edwin J. Gunn, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration, who visited the Spur Office today.

Several families of this county have obtained Farmers Home Administration Water Facilities loans and have benefited thereby. In addition to improving the supply and promoting water conservation, these farmers have been able to irrigate small gardens and what is most important, have provided a safe drinking water supply for the home and been able to increase livestock and food production, important steps in our peacetime economy.

The Water Facilities program of the Farmers Home Administration is an attempt to cure one of the ills of American agriculture.

Adequate water supplies, convenient to the points where water is needed, are essential to the success of any well-balanced farm enterprise. Spelled out, "Water is the difference between success and failure on many a farm," said Mr. Gunn.

The farmstead type of Water Facilities is the most popular and because of the nominal expense of installation, has enabled many family-type farmers to have a modern water system available to meet the average needs of the farm.

Both tenant and landowner may qualify for the loans, provided funds cannot be obtained otherwise. Interested farmers may consult with County Supervisor Gunn of Dickens and Kent Counties at his office in the Spur Security Bank building in Spur, Texas.

Mrs. Bachman Hostess To Demonstration Club

Sewing and styles were a most interesting discussion enjoyed by the women of the Soldier Mound Home Demonstration club, when they met in the home of Mrs. John Bachman Thursday afternoon March 18.

Lovely lady charm seems to be the keynote for spring fashions. Skirts are fuller, natural shoulder lines are followed. We can indulge in feminine frills without self consciousness. Your new spring and summer dresses may seem vaguely reminiscent of styles you've worn in years gone by.

Roll call was answered with helpful hints on hemming a dress, sewing on buttons and variation on necklines.

The club prize was won by Mrs. Ollie Hindman.

Refreshments of fudge cake and hot coffee were served to the following members: Mesdames Floyd Barnett, Ollie Hindman, Joe McDaniel, Dee McArthur, John Aston, Hyde Condon and the hostess Mrs. Bachman.

Fashioned For Two

Once just the delight of the small fry, ruffles this season are being taken over by big sisters and mothers, too. The "See and Seve" theme then finds many a smart seamstress turning out twin outfits for both herself and "Daddy's little lady". And since it takes little extra time and fabric to turn out a kindergarten version of Mother's outfit, pattern companies are offering big and little patterns in outstanding styles.

Mother will find it's no chore at all to turn out smart washable spring-into-summer dresses such as this for herself and Daughter, too. For even a beginner seamstress can achieve a whole array of today's petticoat fashions after just a few lessons at a local Singer Sewing Center. Simplicity Patterns No. 2396 for Mother and No. 2417 for Daughter will enable you to create these styles with high fashion appeal.

Femininity in design is noted in the apron effect highlighted with sparkling white ruffling on both dresses. And for added ease and convenience while you're learning to sew, you'll find "petticoat" ruffling featured at the notion counter of your local sewing center.

Giant bows that tie in back carry out the apron effect in these styles and make their bid too, for first place among finishes that follow the softening aspects of current styles. Be sure to select one of the clever new prints in fabrics now available for your spring Mother-and-Daughter dressmaking project. The fabric used for these styles boasts of your sewing ability for it is an all-over design of spoils of thread, and threaded needles.

Nona Mae Snow and Robert Fain Wed Saturday in Candlelight Ceremony

Nona Mae Snow, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William R. Snow, became the bride of Dr. Robert Henry Fain of Weatherford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fain of Weatherford, in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Dr. Jesse Northcutt, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an all-white background. Bouquets of white gladioluses and woodwardia fern in floor standard vases and white cathedral tapers in floor candelabra banked the altar. White tapers with white gladioluses at the base marked the pews.

Ruby Morris, organist, played the pre-nuptial music and accompanied Eleanor Bouldin who sang "Because" and Grieg's "I Love Thee."

Mrs. T. P. Johnston Hostess To 1917 Study Club

Mrs. Tom Johnston was hostess to the 1917 Study club last Tuesday afternoon, March 16, at 3:30 o'clock.

President, Mrs. R. C. Forbis gave a very spicy and interesting review on the city "Natchez On The Mississippi." No period in history will ever hold the allure and romance of the colonial days.

Saint Patrick's Day colors were used in the refreshments of white and green angel food cake served with coffee to the following members: Mesdames L. L. Hill, R. C. Forbis, L. L. Comes, Nell Davis, Fred Hale, C. B. Chandler, and the hostess Mrs. Johnston.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of white slipper satin fashioned with a low square yoke of nylon net outlined with a wide ruffle of imported lace. The dress was buttoned in the back to the waist. Long fitted sleeves ended in points over her hands.

The full skirt, attached to the basque waist, also featured the imported lace in bands running diagonally to the hemline. The skirt ended in a long train.

Her over-the-face veil of bridal illusion banded in imported lace was attached to a halo hat which was encrusted with seed pearls.

Mrs. Fain-carried a cascade bouquet of white tulips and white gladioluses. She also carried an Irish linen handkerchief sent her mother by Dr. Snow while he was serving overseas in World War I.

Mary Elizabeth Snow, the bride's younger sister, and Mrs. Neal Mogford, served as maid of honor and matron of honor respectively. They wore identical dresses of mist green marquisette patterned like the bride's dress. The tight basque waists of the dresses were gathered to bouffant skirts. The three-quarter length sleeves were bell-shaped. They also wore poke bonnets of mist green marquisette.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hale were in from Afton Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Braddock of Afton were shopping in Spur last Saturday. Altho Mr. Braddock is still using crutches he seems to get around, which goes to show you "can't keep a good man down."

daughter of Drs. Fred and Virginia Boyd, served as flower girls dressed in pink marquisette.

Attending Dr. Fain as best man was his brother, Harold Fain of Weatherford. Groomsman were Dr. Cameron Morrison of Kilgore, Dr. William J. I'm always planning and building for the future of West Texas

WHEN the West Texas Utilities Company built the first high-voltage transmission line in West Texas in 1915—the second in the state—it paved the way for the growth and development of this vast area by making low-cost, dependable electric service available to small and large communities alike. Since the building of the first line, the Company has continually planned and built for the future of West Texas until today it operates more miles of transmission line than any other company in the state.

During 1947, the West Texas Utilities Company constructed 121 miles of additional transmission lines; brought electric service to 6,035 more customers, including 514 rural connections. As a result of careful planning there was no curtailment of the use of electric power. In spite of unprecedented demands and despite shortages of materials and equipment, an abundance of electric power was available for all consumers. In fact, 59,879,000 more kilowatt hours of service were provided in 1947 than in the preceding year.

Also, during 1947, more than $2,800,000.00 in wages were paid to employee citizens of West Texas. During the year $1,873,000.00 were contributed to local, state, and federal governments.

While supplying the present electric requirements, the people of your service company are devoting full energy to planning and building for the future. During the next four years, the Company will spend $18,000,000.00 enlarging plants and existing facilities and constructing transmission and distribution lines in an all-out effort to bring low-cost electric service to more and more people—in their homes, on their farms and ranches, and in their businesses.

East Ward is Growing Up

Boys and girls who were babies last September are big people now. Big enough to give programs and big enough to make grades of 100. A little bird said a number of boys and girls made such grades in spelling. Maybe Spring and promotion time are reasons! Maybe some boys and girls are just studying.

Mrs. Marcy's first grade children entertained the boys and girls of the other East Ward rooms with a Spring Program on Friday, March 19th. Spring songs were sung and various spring birds and flowers were introduced through a story read by Nancy Ann Hart. During the reading of the story each flower and bird appeared as he was introduced and acted out his part in pantomime. Guy Goen Jr. ably portrayed West Wind scattering seeds far and wide. Onelee Garner gracefully led. "The Spring Time Bouquet Drill." The whole program showed the result of careful preparation and much work on the part of members of the class and their teacher.

We thank Mac Brannen and Joe King who operated the moving picture machine for East Ward people to see Adventures of Bunny Rabbit. The boys and girls thought they knew Bunny Rabbit quite well because of Easter plans but this film told them they were mistaken! Bunny Rabbit proved to be a very interesting person. Visitors as well as school people enjoyed the picture.

Our new microscope is creating much interest. The wing of a yellow jacket is a beautiful sight seen through the lens and a honey bee's leg is a high structure. The fourth grade in Mrs. Durham's room is planning a nature hike so that microscopic specimens may be collected.

Miss Middlebrook's fourth grade people are interested in "millions of years." A study in their reader prompted a visit to see the petrified bones and teeth of mammoths, dinosaurs, and tyrannosaurs who lived millions of years ago.

East Ward is glad to welcome Tommy and Claud Porter in the second and fourth grades. They came to Spur from Garza Co. and at present are living about a mile west of High School. Little Miss Jimmy Lee Morrow also is new in our school, she came from Corpus Christi, is seven years old and in Mrs. Albin's room. It is nice to know new people in our school.

Due to the census work in Spur all our boys and girls are becoming conscious of the ages of brothers and sisters. We hope all the names are on Mr. Cook's list. Plans are being made for a "school of instruction" for the mothers of all boys and girls who will for the first time begin school in September 1948. The first meeting will be on April 28, 1948.

This is the time of the year for programs and picnics! On Friday many rooms are planning to have sack lunches "over the hill" and picnics in some room-mother's back yard. Even Easter Egg Hunts are in the making! Why Have Easter Eggs? When did the custom of hunting eggs at Easter begin? WHO is the Easter Bunny? Why have a picnic anyway?

APRIL 30, 1946

The first grade pupils of Miss Whitaker's and Mrs. Browning's rooms will present a program in the auditorium of the East Ward School Friday Morning, April 26th at 10:45. The public is invited to attend. This program developed through a unit on which the class has just completed. The color work of individuals provide the decorations and the children of these two rooms are planning a party for their parents immediately following the program. If the weather is favorable, the children with their teachers, will take a sack lunch "over the hill" for a picnic and an Easter Egg hunt Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Reed had as their guests Sunday Mrs. Reed's sister and brother-in-law Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Roper.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin and their daughter, LaNeil, of Afton were visitors in Spur, Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Kenneth Ziegler of Roswell, New Mexico, a former resident of Spur, was here for a few days. Before her marriage to Mr. Ziegler she was Miss Archie Nell Hogan.

Mrs. Mamie Jack Reynolds of Dickens was shopping in Spur Monday morning of this week.

O. R. Lambert of Lubbock was a business visitor in Spur Monday of this week.

Mrs. Bertie James visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl George of Girard last Sunday.

Speck Blair is spending a few days in Dallas this week where he will look after business affairs.

I'm sure you'll like Ford's new 4-Speed Transmission

Maybe you enjoy slow farming... but there's no money in it. If I can show you faster farming... with a more work, you'll be interested, won't you?

All right, just take one feature of the Ford Tractor, the 4-speed transmission. On the road it'll give you up to 15 1/2 miles per hour. In third speed (top field working speed), it'll give you 6 miles per hour. And so on down... each speed, over the average, is faster. Saves lots of hours in a year.

Won't you let me demonstrate this Ford Tractor (and its Dorman implements) on your farm? I have something special in parts and service, too.

Declaration

By Gloria Lewis
This week Spur Junior High is taking up something much different from what it has before.

Declaration
Doesn't it sound interesting? Will the pupils of Spur High think so, I imagine you do to.

Declaration is a study of prose and poetry, and I am sure you will find it very interesting.

In Mrs. McArthur's 5th grades there are 11 Sub Juniors and 26 Juniors who are taking speech.

In Mrs. McNeal's 6th grades there are 40 taking declamation.

In Mrs. Kelley's 7th - 8th grades there are 42 boys and girls studying in this field.

So you see I was not "kidding" when I said we were interested in this art.

There will be some eliminations held within the next two weeks and final judging will take place the last week in March.

The District meet is to be held at Matador, April 9 - 10.

Volleyball. The Beginning Or The End

By Emma Lena Simpson
Volleyball is in its beginning for the girls of Junior High and it won't be the end. The girls have begun to play volleyball and they have a very good team. The girls have a new team this year and intend to go as the old team did.

County Meet isn't for away now as the Junior High girls are really working to win "first place" in volleyball as they did last year. The girls won't let volleyball end without a very, very, hard try.

If its "Spirit" our girls have it. It is going to take a "tough" team to make the other team see "red," but I think we can because we are "digging" in so let's wish them good luck.

Cowgirl Band is Heard

By Reba Senn
Monday was a grand day for Junior High. The Hardin - Simmons University Cowgirl Band was here. The program was a very interesting one. The band played several outstanding numbers.

Two girls were skilled enough to sing with the band. They sang brilliant numbers. We then heard two violin solos. Next we saw something that was very amusing, one girl did an act of twirling. We were all amazed at this wonderful part of the program.

The girls were dressed in purple suits with yellow ties, and they wore boots.

We are always glad to hear programs of this kind, and we hope to hear and see more like them.

Date Growth in Clachella

By Peggy Reid
Date blossoms are covered with pollen. This pollen comes from male plants. The male plants get their pollen from a male plant called King Solomon. It was imported from Arabia.

The process of mixing pollen and eggs together must be done by hand. Birds or wind cannot do this. Date plants must be planted for one month. As the tree grows the dates start forming.

The dates grow in clusters. They hang down from the lower part of the tree. They soon grow so thick they must be thinned out. Soon the trees get so loaded with date clusters that they must be supported.

When the dates start getting ripe the birds start eating them. The dates must be protected by putting paper bags over them.

7th and 8th Grade Declamations

At a meeting of the 7th and 8th grade Language Arts classes last Friday, the speech class of High school with Miss Rena and Florence Noack as judges, heard the boys and girls in a speech try out.

The judges choose three boys and three girls from each grade. The speakers chosen will represent their respective grades at a final elimination to be held Monday March 22, at the High school gymnasium.

The girls who will speak against the 5th and 6th grade Junior girls are 1-4th Grade Vera Crafton who will say "Annabel Lee" by Poe. 2-Mozelle Dement, "The Cross Was His Own" Unknown. 3 Jean Barclay, "The House With Nobody in It" by Kilmer.

The 7th grade girls are: 1 - Patsy Latham who will say "Suppose" by Alice Cary. Paulita Karr, "Touching Shoulders" Unknown. 3-Peggy Reid, "The House With Nobody in It" by Kilmer.

The boys of the 8th grade are Paul Cox "America For Me" by Van Dyke; Charlie Watson "A Vagabond Song" by Carmen.

The 7th Grade boys who will speak are 1-Jackie Cloude, "What Did You See Soldier?" by Blanning; 2-Lawrence Cook "Bob White by Cooper; 3-Franklin Gabriel "America For Me" by Van Dyke; 4-Walton Walker "The Country Doctor" by Carlton.

These are two divisions of Junior declamations 1-2 divisions, period.

The selections must be on a prescribed list sent out by the State Interscholastic League and no selection must be longer than five minutes. To qualify as a Junior a child must have been ten on the preceding May the first of the preceding year.

There has been a great deal of interest shown in the 7th and 8th grades this year and it is hoped the interest will continue through the year.

SOME
By Betty Lou Arnold.
My life is life a foam
It doesn't even remind me of home.
No lights, no pavement, no traffic out here,
It just doesn't remind me of home so dear.

The stars so bright
But here you can't even see their light.
Farming is not the thing for me.
It's home, that I would like to be.
Not even in sight is there a sea,
No flowers where there's a little bee.

Now I hope that you can see.
Why it's home that I would like to be.
Mrs. McArthur's Fifth Grade News
By Ada Lou Chambliss
For the past few weeks Mrs.

Mrs. McArthur's fifth grade class has been working on Declamations and spelling and they have also been decorating their room to celebrate Easter. Mrs. McArthur said that they will have a party in their homeroom. They have been working successfully with Declamation and Spelling.

Sixth Grade News
By Beverly Wood
The sixth graders are showing great interest in Interscholastic League Contests this year. There are a large number of contestants in the declamation and spelling contests. From such great interest and enthusiasm there will possibly come some school winners. Many benefits of training will be gained from these contests.

Interscholastic League Spelling

By Beverly Wood
Interscholastic spellers are doing remarkably well in their daily practicing. This contest is expected to be one of the main events in the Interscholastic League. The spellers are showing great interest in the spelling and writing contest. The spelling meet will be at Matador this year. The spelling instructors are: Miss Bonnie Campbell - fifth grade, Mrs. Walker - sixth grade, and Miss Hampton - seventh and eighth grades. No eliminations have been made.

Jokes and Jeers
By Jean Barclay
Hello boys and girls, here is some gossip about "Uh" friends. Say Beverly Woods what was that I heard about you and Joe Bell? Let me see, I think I should put it in the next issue "Huh" Eloise don't tell me that you and Jimmie have broken up. Woo, Woo to Don Slack and Ella Mae. What a team.

Say Drennon who is going to be the unluck one this time? Orville and Ada Lou, J. D. is not going to put up with you much longer. (Get It.)
Say you know Jimmie Neil, of the seventh grade, well she surely is lucky.

Library Meeting
A group of librarians met in the Music room Tuesday March 9, at 1:00 o'clock. There were two librarians to represent each room.
Mrs. McArthur and Mrs. Browning met with us and Mrs. McArthur gave us some instructions which we were to carry out during our library period.

Miss Sue Hart Visits In Spur
