One Word Holds Up Spur Boys Marriage

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 6 — You can fall in love in Brazil but you can't get married here unless you know at least one Portuguese word.

The word is "sim." It means yes.

William Foy Randall, American sailor from Spur, Texas found this out in marriage court today. He appeared there with his fiancée, Miss Benta Bento, who hails from the Brazilian cattle raising state of Santa Catarina.

Judge Adherbal Salvador Cate began reading the ceremony. The bride said "sim" when asked if she took Randall for her husband. Randall said nothing when asked if he took Benta as his wife.

A witness said "sim" for him but the judge ruled this out and suspended the marriage. Two hours later, with the aid of a translator, Randall was able to answer "sim" and get his bride.

Spur Library Of 3000 Volumes Needs More Room

During the life of the Spur Library it has been moved so many times and so often that even the Librarians have lost count long ago. They estimate that at least ten times they have been forced to move out and hunt another location and perhaps the new location would be less desirable than the previous one. But despite being pushed around from time to time, and lack of funds and a permanent location the library has grown in a surprising way, from a few volumes donated by a few volumes donated by the 1917 Study club soon after it was organized in 1917. Much could be said of the faithful work and untiring efforts of the 1917 Study club in relation to the mothering of this library which contains well over 3000 volumes at this time. Several years ago the club donated the library to the city of Spur and since that time the Study clubs and City Federation have carried on, with assistance from one or two of the civic organizations.

The librarians, Mrs. J. R. Laine and Mrs. L. D. Ratliff, have carefully classified the books according to the types, and it was found that there is a rather interesting variety, from Greek Mythology to all the latest books of fiction, along with a new volume on Radar and Electricity.

It seems worthy of note at this time to mention the number of different small towns and schools this library serves. Patton Springs, Girard, Dickens, Spur and the surrounding communities.

There is a great need for a connecting room that could be fitted as a lounge or study room. (Continued On Page Eight)

Our Mothers

Mrs. L. D. Ratliff, Sr., Listed Among "Texas Outstanding Mothers"

In the recent selection of Mrs. George McDaniel of Abilene as "State Mother of Texas," it will be of particular interest to Spur people to know that Mrs. Myra Texas Ratliff, mother of L. B. Ratliff, Spur attorney, has been selected as the Haskell nominee for this honor and received high commendation and rating in the final selection made by the judges, who termed her as one of the "outstanding Mothers of Texas," according to Mrs. Dollie Davis Smith, chairman of the State Mother Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation.

Neighbors and hundreds of friends of Mrs. Ratliff, will be interested in the following biographical sketch of the life of this unassuming, quiet, home-loving mother, which has been placed in the records of the Foundation:

Mrs. Myra Texas (Pace) Ratliff, one of fourteen children, seven boys and seven girls, was born in Collin County, Texas moved with her parents to Fannin County at the age of eleven years, and to Cook County at the age of fifteen. Her father, D. W. Pace, was born in Alabama in 1836, but his parents came to Texas when he was only 2 years of age, settling in Fannin County. Her mother's parents were early Texas colonists from Kentucky. Both the Hampton and Pace families moved to Collin County in the early fifties. D. W. Pace was a Confederate soldier, serving in Fitzhugh's Regiment, 16th Texas Cavalry, Dismounted, in the Trans-Mississippi department, and participated in the campaigns in Louisiana, Arkansas and East Texas.

Mrs. Ratliff married L. D. Ratliff, a Tennesseean, December 18, 1898. He was an attorney and referred to himself as "just a country lawyer." He practiced in the Indian Territory from 1904 to 1907, and in Wise County, Texas, from 1907 to 1921, and in Haskell County, Texas, from 1921 to the date of his death on December 14, 1942. She is the mother of eleven children, all of whom are living, married and have families of their own. She has twenty-six grand children and six great grand children. Her main interest has been her children, and while her lawyer husband labored in the law office and in the court house, she was at home looking after the welfare of the children. How well she did so is evidence by her accomplishments in life. She and her husband never accumulated much of the world's goods, but they did give to their children an education. She is of the pioneer type of a mother, not given much to society or clubs, and content to be just a member of the church, with utmost faith in her Maker. To say that her children and grand children appreciate her, is to put it mildly. The greatest joy of those of her children who live close by, is to gather at her home on Sunday afternoons and to be with her and talk with her, and to enjoy the company of each other.

Her eleven children are: Dennis P. Ratliff, Haskell; T. J. Ratliff, DeQuincy, La.; Roy L. Ratliff, Haskell; Mrs. Sue Mae West, Goree; Wm. P. Ratliff, Haskell; Hugh C. Ratliff, Barksdale Field, La.; L. D. Ratliff, Jr., Spur; O. B. Ratliff, Lubbock; David W. Ratliff, Stamford; Mrs. Frances Pearson, Navasota; Mrs. Marjorie Pace, Haskell.

HELEN VS. MOM

Helen quit school? I already finished the tenth and I just don't want to school any more. I'm tired studying and would rather home and help Mom with housework.

Helen has always made good and I want her to go on finish high school. I didn't have a chance to get much schooling when I was a young like Helen.

Findings and Verdict of Judge Early

In analyzing the testimony, the court considers the reason for Helen's attitude most important. It is obvious in the right frame of mind to get much good out of her studies at the present time.

Now there are many reasons for girl wanting to quit school, but the old judge has found it usually can be laid to one of the following causes: (1) wants to get married, (2) doesn't like the teacher, (3) unable to make good marks, (4) unpopular with other pupils, or (5) doesn't have as pretty clothes as the other girls.

Mom's testimony is the strongest in this case, and the judge agrees it would be a serious mistake to let Helen quit school. Therefore the court recommends Mom try to learn the specific reason for Helen's attitude and aid her all possible in finding a satisfactory solution.

Mrs. E. L. Adams Dies At Her Home In Spur, May 4th

The little town of Spur was made to feel deep sorrow and regret at the passing of Mrs. E. L. Adams, on Tuesday morning, May 4th, at 1:18 at her home in Spur after a long illness.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon, May 5th, in the First Christian church of Spur, with the pastor, Bro. James S. Hardinson, assisted by Rev. C. N. Gilbert, pastor of the First Baptist church of Spur, Bro. J. T. McKissic, of Abilene and Rev. Raymond Van Zandt of Roscoe.

Mrs. Adams, who has been seriously ill for the past five years has been an inspiration to her friends and loved ones. Her supreme courage and cheerful outlook have in some measure portrayed the deep christian character that has premeditated her entire life.

Her life was lived above reproach, her christian faith never wavered, her high moral standards were unquestioned. She leaves a great heritage to her friends and her loved ones of a life well lived.

She was active in all church work, was president of the Women's Council of the Christian church for a number of years, was one of the charter members of the 1917 Study club of Spur, and was interested in all civic movements for the betterment of her community.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flenniken, was born in Paris, Texas, and reared (Continued On Page Eight) the net proceeds, if any, after deduction of all advances, interest and accrued costs, will be distributed among the producers whose cotton was placed in the pools. Distribution will be made on the basis of the amount of the loans on the cotton placed in the pools. No payment will be made to producers at the time their cotton is placed in the pools.

Mr. Rose reminded cotton farmers that they may either sell their "equity" in the loan cotton or redeem the cotton from the loan and then sell on the open market. Producers should give serious thought to marketing the loan cotton before it goes into the pools. At present prices, farmers should be able to see most of this cotton at a profit over the loan and charges against the cotton.

Mother's Day

May introduces celebrations of occasions as the birthday of the air mail, the day in memory of our honored military dead, the anniversary of the Merchant Marine, the proclaiming of "I Am An American." May also brings, on its second Sunday, a sentimental observation in the name of motherhood. We set aside one day in remembrance of Mother, while throughout the year we observe weeks extolling potatoes, cherries, apples, cotton, donuts, peanuts, wine, wildlife, dogs. Oh yes, Father gets a day, too!

Few men need a day set aside to remind them of their mother, but it is an occasion when all men join in public tribute. It has been said, on the subject of "Momism," that the worshipful following can be so tied to this altar of affection that mother can be a deterrent rather than a help. The virtue of self-sacrifice stands forth as mother's greatest offering, loyalty another attribute that enables her name. With both self-sacrifice and loyalty on the side of "Mom," those who scoff will have a real battle to wage. Such a combination is so forceful, so dramatic, that no power can destroy it.

Gifts of flowers, sweets, cards of verse, find way into our Spur homes, this May 9. These are from feeling hearts, for nothing lies deeper in the human than love for mother. The greatest of all gifts for her, costs us no money. Gratitude and appreciation have no price tag. To protect and cherish the living, to honor and reverse the memory of the dead, is the costliest present.

Man has, through research and invention, been able to compute the weight and strength of practically everything, except mother love. This is unfathomable. May be worthy of such a sacred heritage.

Man's Own Castle

More people own their home than ever before, proven through figures of owner-occupancy that trace it back to 1890. Cities don't have the home owners in proportion to those inhabitants of rural and farm areas, probably because of so much apartment house living. Two-thirds of those who live in the country and small town, own their home. Circumstances too often keep others, who would like to do so, from being among the two-thirds.

At this season of the year, home-owners are busy with paint, painting, papering and all the other things that crop up to add to their overhead. However, there is a great satisfaction that comes to us, as we watch the beauty develop of newly born things in our yard, our fields, and we have an incentive to clean up and dress up our Spur homes, because they belong to us.

Demand For New Cars Greater Now

WILMINGTON, Del. May 6 — The demand for new cars is greater now than at any time since the resumption of production. L. W. Ward, general sales manager of Pontiac Motor Division of General Motors said today.

Mr. Ward, with other Pontiac executives, conducted the first mass drive-away of new Pontiac from the recently opened General Motors assembly plant here. State and civic dignitaries participated in the plant tour, luncheon and delivery ceremony which featured the event.

In addressing the more than 300 Pontiac dealers and their guests attending the drive-away ceremony Mr. Ward commented on the car production outlook for the balance of 1948.

"Steel continues in short supply and the situation cannot improve until the coal mines are operating to full capacity. Even then the repercussion of the current difficulty will continue to be felt in automobile plants for some time. It might be likened to a stone thrown into a pool. The ripples continue long after the stone sinks."

Despite earlier optimistic estimates, production experts in the industry now feel that 1948 production is likely to be no greater than that of 1947," Mr. Ward said.

The Wilmington plant, newest of General Motors' assembly plants, will assemble cars for distribution to an area including Pennsylvania, West Virginia, North Carolina, the District of Columbia and a part of New Jersey. During March it produced 1,787 Pontiac cars. Eventually, Mr. Ward said, the new plant will supply approximately 11 percent of the total Pontiac production.

"It will make Pontiac more available to this important area," Mr. Ward continued. "It will cut transit time and allow us a more flexible and efficient distribution of the finished product. Under General Motors policy of decentralization it will add much to the wealth of this area through its payrolls and the quickened economic activity which a new industrial venture of sufficient size always creates."

"Pontiac dealers nationally have increased their physical properties by more than thirteen million feet — an increase of 80 percent over their 1941 facilities," Mr. Ward pointed out. Investment in their business property is up 75 percent over 1941.

He concluded his message to the dealers by saying, "You are the best team in the industry, making the best product."

SEED IN MAY

Annual phlox drummondii is a shorter plant than the perennial phlox but its blooms are as large. Sow the seeds now towards the front of the flower bed. The soft colors make a rainbow, when planted in mixed masses. Salpiglossis, or painted tongue, is a good cutting flower. The shades of yellow, orange, purple and deep red are lovely in bouquets. Plant in May and use entire packet for the plants are a bit spindly. Certain forget-me-not seeds may be planted now and will flower all summer as they will sow themselves. They are easy to cultivate and are beautiful with their light and dark blue and pure white blossoms.

Let's Look At Our Local Schools

Public education in America is the pride of every citizen in our country; the local school is the pride of each community.

This is as it should be, for the school is the community's expression of its faith in and hope for its youth as future citizens of our country. Good homes, good churches, good schools, and the American way of living are the heritage of all American youth everywhere. All of us realize we are living in a changing world, and that education is the very essence of change. Therefore, it behooves us to take a look at our public school system in each community in Texas in order that we may become thoroughly familiar with what we have now, to decide what we ought to have, and to plan together how we can get what we want, in the way of an educational program for our children. The Fifthieth Legislature of Texas recognized the need for this very thing, when it authorized the appointment of a Committee to make a comprehensive study of the Public School System.

The Legislature authorized the appointment of a committee "to study all questions relating to the improvement of the Public School System of Texas . . . to the end that the best educational advantages may be obtained for the greatest number as soon as possible." The Gilmer-Aikin Committee of eighteen members was appointed. It is engaged in making a comprehensive study of the public school system of Texas. It seeks FACTS, it wants to make such recommendations as may be necessary in order to achieve the best educational system possible. Primarily, it desires to be the voice of the PEOPLE of Texas.

In order to get a complete picture of the school program, the Gilmer-Aikin Committee is calling on the citizens of Texas to join in a cooperative study which will give the citizens of every section of the State an opportunity to participate actively and constructively in an evaluation of our present program of education. Out of such evaluation will come suggestions for improving the public school program in Texas. Some improvements will call for action at the State level. Most improvements will come from local action, stemming from local leadership. To provide leadership in evaluation, leadership in making suggestions, and leadership in local action, a County Advisory Committee on Education is being set up in each county in our State.

The Countywide Committees are established primarily for the use of the citizens in the respective Counties for the purpose of making a detailed study of the total school program on the local level. The chief purpose of this study is to give the local citizens an opportunity to plan for a better school program. Out of these local studies, valuable information can come which will aid the Statewide Committee in planning for an improved State program of education.

The people of Texas will have the kind of school program they want; they will have as good a program as they demand, and as poor a program as they will tolerate. The local Committees provide the people in each community an opportunity to voice their ideas in regard to the school program. Through these Committees, local citizens have an opportunity to do three things: first, to find out what they have in their present school program; secondly, to decide what they want; and third, to help plan to get from "where they are" to "where they want to be." Therefore, the most important function of the County Committee is to acquaint the people of that County with the facts concerning their own local schools, to provide an opportunity to express their ideas concerning an adequate school program and to determine what changes in the present system are necessary in order to achieve the desired results.

A second purpose of the County Committees is to give the citizens of Texas an opportunity to channel their ideas to the Statewide Committee for action. The best way for the Gilmer-Aikin Committee to get the information concerning the public school program as it functions in every community and to secure the ideas from as many people as possible is through the establishment of these County Committees for the Study of Education. These local Committees constitute the channel through which the Gilmer-Aikin Committee can collect information; can receive recommendations concerning specific issues; can disseminate information; can sample the opinions of people on critical issues; and can acquaint the public with proposals concerning the State program. Therefore, these County Committees have an important work to do in carrying out the cooperative study of education in Texas. The information furnished by them to the central office of the Gilmer-Aikin Committee will be consolidated and made available to the appropriate Statewide Advisory Groups and sub-committees of the Gilmer-Aikin Committee for their consideration and guidance in arriving at ultimate recommendations concerning changes for the improvement of the Public School System of Texas.

The County Advisory Committee of Dickens County has been duly appointed and organized. Following is a list of officers and members:

Look who gets squeezed!

Union leaders representing less than one-tenth of railroad employees reject recommendations of President's Emergency board—refuse to negotiate except on their own terms—threaten to paralyze nation by strike!

THE LEADERS of three railroad unions, representing less than one-tenth of all railroad employees, have called a railroad strike that would paralyze the nation.

These leaders refuse to accept a 15% cent increase in wages retroactive to November 1, 1947. This increase was recommended by an impartial Emergency Board appointed by President Truman.

This increase of 15% cents already has been accepted by the 19 other railroad unions. But the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, and the Switchmen's Union of North America will not accept what more than 90% of all railroad employees have accepted. They have called a strike to get more!

after hearing evidence for 33 days, made recommendations based on all the facts in the case. The railroads have accepted these recommendations.

Who's to blame?

Although they deplored so large an extra cost burden, the railroads accepted the report of the Board because they felt it was in the public interest to uphold the spirit and intent of the Railway Labor Act.

In contrast, this small group of railroad union leaders are attempting to flout the intent and spirit of the Railway Labor Act, and dictate their own terms.

They have dictated a paralyzing railroad strike.

You will be the victim!

How long will the American public stand for the undemocratic, arbitrary, and abusive use of the right to strike and the disregard of the obligation to provide transportation? How long can the American people permit a few dictatorial union leaders to defy the processes provided for peaceful settlement of disputes?

Force seldom produces settlements that are either fair or lasting. Moreover, a point is often reached when personal interests must be held subordinate to the greater public welfare. That is why the railroads have accepted the Emergency Board recommendations. That is also why the leaders of these three unions should reconsider their decision to call a paralyzing strike.

Compare these wages with what you make!

Post Stampede And Rodeo Dates Set For May 20 Thru 23

POST -- The dates of the 1948 Post Stampede and Rodeo have been set up to May 20-23 inclusive to avoid a second annual conflict with the professional rodeo sponsored by the American Business Club in Lubbock.

The sudden enforced change of dates found the Post Citizenry ready to pitch in and make the 1948 show "the biggest and best in history and truly The Fastest Show in the West."

Merchants started putting welcome banners on their building fronts on Thursday and by this week the town was fully decorated in rodeo regalia. Booster trips by chartered bus being scheduled to begin in the near future.

This year's show will introduce several features never before included in the Post Stampede. A dance pavilion is now under construction and will be ready Saturday May 8th for the first free pre-rodeo dance. Another free dance will be given Saturday May 15th, at the pavilion on the rodeo grounds. On Wednesday night, May 19, the regular rodeo dances will get under way. Dances will be given also on the nights of May 20, 21 and 22.

Lewis Blair, well-known bull-fighting clown who travels with the Bill Lyons rodeo stock, has been engaged for the rodeo performances.

Bill Lyon's stock, said to be the wildest ever, will be fresh from a winter's rest and in shape to tussle with the toughest of cowboy contestants.

Three thousand dollars will be given to winners of rodeo contests.

Each evening's performance, through Saturday, and the Sunday afternoon performance, May 23, will be preceded by a parade. A highlight of the show, as always, will be the Cowgirl Sponsor Contest.

V. A. Checks To Vets Attending Full Time School - Increased

Some 6800 West Texas veterans attending school full time under the G. I. Bill will have approximately $102,000 more to spend each month beginning with their VA subsistence checks for April, Robert W. Sisson VA regional manager announced today.

To ease the strain on the budget of those veterans who devote their full time to school training, Congress recently enacted a law which authorizes an increased subsistence allowance to them.

Sisson said that the increase is effective for the month of April and would be included in the checks for veterans in this category due on or about May 1, 1948.

Veterans who have submitted documentary evidence to VA establishing more than one dependent will be increased from $90 per month to $120.

Those who have established proof of only one dependent will be increased from $90 per month to $105, while a veteran without dependents will be increased from $65 to $75 per month.

VA pointed out that proof of dependency must be on hand before the increase can be authorized in the higher brackets, but that veterans with dependents have until July 1, 1948 to establish such proof in order for the increase to be retroactive to April 1, 1948.

If it is received after July 1 the subsistence allowance will be increased as of the date of receipt of the evidence. Increase for a dependent acquired after April 1, 1948 will be made effective as of the date proof is received by the VA.

23. will be preceded by a parade. A highlight of the show, as always, will be the Cowgirl Sponsor Contest.

250 Dickens County Farmers In ACP

A preliminary check of purchase orders filed with the county Agricultural Conservation Office indicates that 250 Dickens County farmers will cooperate in the 1948 Agricultural Conservation Program, said Joe M. Rose, County ACP Chairman. This is roughly 25 percent of all farmers in the county.

A check of these purchase orders also shows that terracing has been selected by more farmers than any other to meet the conservation problem on their farms. Other leading practices included in farmers' plans this year are, deep plowing sandy land and strip cropping.

Mr. Rose said that with reduced funds this year "every dollar will have to do double duty. As in the past, every effort will be to get value received for funds spent for conservation.

"As farmers, we have a responsibility to cooperate in the effort to conserve water and soil—the source of our food, most of our clothes, and a good share of our shelter.

"Assistance under the program represents the interest and responsibility of all the people in the county in saving our soil. Divided among the 145 million people in the country the $150 million for the 1948 Program amounts to about $1 per person. And that dollar, together with the many dollars the farmer puts up is the food and security life-line of the Nation.

"While a dollar per person isn't very much, when it is matched by the farmer's dollars and used wisely, concerted, and effectively, it will go a long way toward correcting some of the major conservation problems on the individual farms.

"Under the program every farmer accepts his share of the obligation to carry out conservation practices. It is the nation's

Spur Club Women Attend Meeting In Quanah

Mesdames Ava Johnson, Lee McArthur, Bob Crockett, Lena English, and Mrs. Jessie L. Billberry, were very happy to represent their club at the District 3 T. H. D. A. meeting held at Quanah last Thursday, April 22. There were two hundred and sixty one women registered. The opening sessions were held in the First Methodist church in the morning, but moved to the Baptist church for the afternoon session due to a funeral. They had just arrived, walked up the steps and was inside the church waiting to get registered when Mrs. Myrtle D. Negy appeared, and introductions followed, which put everyone at ease. Mrs. Negy is the District Agent who has done such wonderful work. She has an outstanding personality and is loved by all club women. Spur women were happy to meet her at this time. Mrs. Olmestode of Knox County, was in charge of the meetings. The group was welcomed by County Judge Tanwater. Mrs. J. Branch gave the response. Various reports were read. Mrs. Ava Johnson's club had reason to be proud of her report on "Marketing" it was unusually good. Mrs. E. S. Dockery was elected the new Vice-President. Senator George Moffett spoke to us about "Current Legislation in Texas." His home town is Chillicothe. Lunch was served in the basement of the church. In the afternoon we heard three outstanding 4-H Club Girls speak about their work. Mrs. Allison, the Club's scholarship girl, and Gloria Jean Diers, Gold Star girl, both from Haskell; and Reta Nell Baldwin who will go to Club Camp at Washington D. C. These girls have worked really hard to attain these honors. Other speakers were Mrs. Maurine Hearn, of A. & M. college; Mrs. J. C. Gray of State Board; Mrs. Florence Law, specialist in Home Management; Mrs. Katherine Randall of Oklahoma Farmer Stockman; and Mrs. Myrtle Negy. Space will not permit to pass along all the good thoughts and the inspiration gained at this meeting, but one speaker made this statement: "That besides churches and schools, Home Demonstration clubs, rated third place in making progress for a better Texas." With this wonderful tribute in mind the club women returned to their homes with determination in their hearts to always strive to make the best better.

Alaska Threatens The Morale Of Texas

By PAUL CRUME

A survey of what Texans think of the fact that Alaska is a state will be twice as large as Texas has revealed that 89.6 per cent of Texans suffer attacks of apoplexy.

"Alaska is a condition that is undermining the health of our fair state," Gov. Beauford H. Jester said solemnly in Austin.

When Congress passes the statehood bill now before it, it will admit a state consisting entirely of a few bears surrounded by trees. The new state, however, will have 586,400 square miles. Texas only has 267,339. The whole numerical system, which is based on the idea that Texas is the largest quantity known to man, will be threatened.

Governor Jester urged Texans to be calm. He pointed out that Congress had to go outside the United States to get a state larger than Texas.

J. Ben Critz, general manager of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, said disconsolately that after all, it is quality and not quantity that counts.

Dallas members of the Legislature muttered darkly of a special session to extend the state's boundaries by law.

"Alaska is the only country which the United States ever gave back to the Indians," said Robert W. Hancock, Dallas attorney. "Now the United States has to support the Indians."

"The country is populated entirely by Indians, sourdoughs and Aleuts. Sourdoughs are fugitives from a civilized existence, people who want to be alone. Aleuts are a mixture of Indians and whatever other race happened by at the moment."

Hancock speaks from experience. He was the officer in charge of a navy supply unit in the Alaskan theater during the war. It was the solemn duty of such units during the war to survey any item of navy equipment which could be turned to the personal use of one of our heroes in the armed forces.

"Texas should not worry about the size of Alaska," he said. "The size of Alaska is largely imaginary. Everything about Alaska is largely imaginary, except the desire to get out if you have to stay there."

"This is true because Alaskans are every good folk, they are very like Texas people. They have imagination. They do not allow a mere fact to stand in the way of the larger truth."

"Alaska is probably the only country under the sun where fish attain their greatest growth after they have been caught and eaten by the fisherman."

"In the same way, a square mile in Alaska is not exactly a square mile. A square mile in Alaska is merely a square inch blown up to a tremendous size. It doesn't contain any more than a square inch—but it looks good."

"Alaska is all covered with totem poles. A totem pole is a nightmare which stays with a man long enough that he is able to cut it out of wood. Totem poles prove only one thing: Alaskans have mastered the art of whittling, but they don't know anything to whistle about."

City officials were inclined to be gloomy about the decline in congressional taste, all except City Manager Roderic Thomas, who said that he has larger problems to worry about than either Texas or Alaska.

"But, anyhow, after what happened to our city streets in the last freeze, I'm glad we don't have as much winter as they have," he said.

Mayor Jimmie Temple was

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunahue of Lubbock visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wooley and family Sunday.

Gwen Hickman spent the week end at Hereford with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brownlow.

Mrs. Elsie Mae Quimkenpayne darkly suspicious of the whole thing.

"It is probably a CAA trick," he said. "It will claim that Midway Airport is a necessity for the Alaska trade."

In Washington, Rep. Wingate Lucas of Grapevine also spotted the Midway angle, and said he is for Alaska.

"Midway Airport would be two minutes closer to Alaska than Love Field would be," he said.

Alaska is supposed to be remarkable because baseball teams in the summer time can play at midnight. However, Hancock doubted that there is any advantage to starting a baseball game at midnight rather than earlier in the evening. Alaska also has a long night in the winter. However, as Lawrence D. Ransom, the Governor's secretary, pointed out, it probably isn't any longer than the last night for political candidates to file seems to be a candidate in Texas up for reelection without an opponent.

In Washington, most of the Texas congressional delegation was conciliatory.

"After all," said Rep. J. Frank Wilson of Dallas, "Texas will be the crossroads of Alaska's trade with Latin America."

Olin E. Teague of College Station said: "Texas would be willing to defend Alaska as well as the rest of the country." It was during the war when Texans deeded Alaska against the Japs that the territory took on a more civilized tone.

"Alaska might be a place to sell Texas steel, if we ever get to the place where we produce more steel than Texas needs," said Rep. Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater. It was a mere coincidence that the Dingerfield steel plant is in his district.

Bert Lutz, a former Washington newspaperman, sent along a sympathetic note.

"There will never be as much bull in Alaska as in Texas," he said reassuringly.

Governor Jester said that Texas has so much tidelands that if he wins his fight against federal control of them, Texas will still be by far the largest state. If he doesn't, he said, Alaska will lose all her lakes and inland waters, and salmon would be forbidden to go upstream.

All agreed that Alaskans, if they are admitted, should be treated just as if they were people.

"After all," said Hancock, "Alaska is the only summer resort that has been found so far that is big enough for Texas."

Mrs. Mary Grantham who is in the Knox City hospital is much improved at this time.

Texas Traffic Death Figures Bring Warning

AUSTIN, May 6 — An analysis of Texas' 33,000 motor vehicle traffic accidents last year Wednesday brought a sober warning: "It might be you in 1948!"

Such was the counsel in the Department of Public Safety's printed booklet reporting analysis results.

The booklet's traffic death map showed 16 counties where 20 or more persons were killed in traffic accidents during the year. Eighteen counties showed solid white deathless records.

The black counties, for the most part, coincided with the more populated areas: Dallas, Tarrant, Tuls, McLennan, Travis, Bexar, Cameron, Nueces, San Antonio, Fort Bend, Harris, Galveston, Jefferson, Gregg, El Paso and Hidalgo.

Deathless counties were Hartley, Roberts, Motley, Cottle, Kent, Throckmorton, Borden, Rains, Somervell, Coryell, San Augustine, Irion, Schleicher, Loving, McMullen, Zapata, Jim Hogg and Calhoun.

On the basis of last year's deaths and accidents the booklet also shows:

December is the most dangerous month for pedestrians. Saturday the most dangerous day of the week, 7 to 8 p. m. the most dangerous hour of the day.

Brand new cars and cars 10 years old or older were involved in the highest percentage of accidents. New car owners develop a false sense of security, it was noted.

Commercial drivers and craftsmen had the most accidents, the military, professional people, housewives and business men the fewest. Thirty per cent of fatal accidents involved drinking drivers. Death strikes more often from the shadows and from the black of night! 52 per cent of fatal accidents occurred after dark, another five per cent in the early morning dawn and evening dusk. There were only four traffic deathless days in all of last year in Texas.

Mother's Day . .

SUNDAY, MAY 9th

Though thousands of miles separate mother and child; though their opinions differ and sense of values vary, their love for each other which is the truest, purest love, unites them for all time and under all circumstances. It is Mother who is always forgiving and conciliatory. It is Mother who forgets the unpleasant — and cherishes the pleasant memories. It is Mother to whom we dedicate Sunday, May 9th with remembrances to comfort and delight her in small measure as she comforts and delights us all our lives.

Safety Education Driving To Be Held May 17-21

AUSTIN, May 6—Safety education in Texas is going to college this month under a seminar for college professors of teacher-preparing institutions.

The seminar will be held May 17-21 at the Crozier Technical High School of Dallas, under the auspices of the Association of Texas Colleges and the State Department of Education.

Cooperating organizations will be the New York University Center for Safety Education, the National Commission on Safety Education, the National Education Association, the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Texas Safety Association, and the National Safety Council.

It is designed to provide basic materials and methods in general safety education, traffic safety education, driver education and behind-the-wheel driver training. Its purpose is to prepare college instructors in the teaching of these courses to high school and elementary teachers.

Expenses of the five-day seminar, including those of the college representatives, will be underwritten by the Texas Safety Association.

The project is part of the Action Program for Traffic Control adopted at the Governor's Highway Safety Conference last March which emphasized the need for qualified teachers in safety education.

"The demand for trained safety education teachers in Texas is fast exceeding the supply," said R. B. Roaper, Houston, Vice President for School Safety, Texas Safety Association.

This year more than 400 high schools are teaching safety and driver education courses to some 40,000 Texas youth. A considerable increase is expected next September particularly in the field of behind-the-wheel instruction.

Under a plan of the Automobile Dealers of Texas, the State Department of Education, and the Texas Safety Association, dual-equipped training cars will be made available to schools having qualified instructors.

"Classroom and behind-the-wheel training is the most effective method of assuring our state of better drivers. High school trained teen-age drivers are involved in only 50 per cent as many traffic accidents as the untrained."

Stressing the importance of teaching safety to children by elementary teachers, Roaper cited No. 225

Texas Baptists To Aid Sick Poor By Mother's Day Contribution

One million Texas Baptists will pay tribute to their Mothers on Sunday, May 9th, by giving to the charity funds of their Baptist hospitals.

Every Baptist is being asked to make a contribution to the sick poor in honor or in memory of his own Mother. Sunday school classes, Missionary Unions, Brotherhood groups and church congregations will participate.

The Mother's Day Fund will be used solely for giving free hospitalization in the Texas Baptist hospitals to critically ill patients in need of hospital therapy but unable to pay for such treatment. The hospitals are Hendrick Memorial, Abilene; Baylor University Hospital, Dallas; Valley Baptist Hospital, Harlingen; Memorial Hospital, Houston; Hillcrest Memorial, Waco; and Southeast Texas Baptist Hospital, Beaumont. The hospital at Beaumont is under construction but plans to be in operation soon.

Annual charity service in the five existing hospitals was more than $325,000 for 15,723 free and past pay patients last year. The 1947 Mother's Day collections of $510,000 cared for about 335 of these, the balance being cared for out of operating budgets.

So that more needy patients can be cared for, the goal for the May 9th, statewide collection is $100,000.

Patients cared for are accepted from all over the State regardless of denomination. Upon discharge the charity patient receives a bill marked "Paid by the Baptist Churches of Texas."

Directing plans for the observance are hospital administrators E. M. Collier, Abilene; Lawrence Payne, Dallas; John Dudley, Houston; K. P. Walker, Harlingen; Julian Pace, Waco; and Frank Fielden, Jr., Beaumont.

The following national accident figures:

1. The number of elementary school children accidentally killed one year would fill 205 classrooms of average enrollment.
2. Accidents kill one out of three, school age children who die.
3. In an average year, 22 times as many children of elementary school age are killed in accidents as die from infantile paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Eldredge of McAdoo, were in Spur on Thursday of last week to be with Grandpa Eldredge who is ill in the Nichols hospital in Spur. At this time there is very little change in his condition. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Eldredge of McAdoo, are staying in Spur to be with Grandpa Eldredge during his illness.

Mrs. M. S. Lambert spent the past week end with her daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Perrin, and granddaughter, Donald Ruth of Borger. On her return trip home she will visit with relatives in Lubbock.

Mrs. Trudy Dickson is making her home in Beaumont, where she is employed with the Gulf State Utilities Co.

About Frozen Food Facts

Frozen foods are becoming very popular with homemakers because they are time saving, table ready and little preparation is necessary according to Louise Mason, extension food preparation specialist of Texas A. & M. College.

They are so simple to prepare they appeal to beginning cooks and business women who have a limited time for cooking. If the following simple rules in preparing frozen foods are followed, good products will result.

Do not re-freeze foods once they have been thawed.

If partial packages of frozen fruits or vegetables are to be used, divide the package, rewrap until it can be used.

Add frozen vegetables to briskly boiling, salted water. Do not defrost (except corn on cob). Begin counting cooking time when boiling begins again after frozen vegetables have been added.

Cooking time varies with variety and maturity of the vegetable, size of pieces and method of preparation. Less water may be needed if heavy utensils and controlled heat are used.

Finally, watch cooking time carefully. Freezing weakens the cell walls, and it is easy to overcook vegetables.

Miss Mason says the ten- to fourteen-ounce package of frozen vegetables will usually serve four people.

G. W. Rash returned last Saturday from a two weeks visit to relatives and friends in Commerce, Sulphur Springs, and Greenville. Mr. Rash stated a great many of the old friends had passed away, and some had moved elsewhere. He said, "I am glad to be home again."

The Origin Of Mother's Day

Mother's Day will be observed on Sunday, May 9, as a national expression of love and reverence for the mothers of the nation.

Only two countries—the United States and Canada—set aside a day annually to honor mother. And although our Mother's Day is officially only 34 years old, it stems from a tradition of homage to mothers that stretches back into the dim past.

Centuries before Christ, mothers were held in awe and reverence by Chinese families. The ancient Romans celebrated an annual festival in honor of Minerva, the Mother Goddess. More than 1,000 years ago, the Nahuatl Indians of Mexico were holding flower festivals for the Earth Mother Goddess, Chicomehuatl.

Seventeenth Century England developed the custom of "going a-mothering." Boy and girl apprentices were allowed to spend "Mothering Sunday" with their families. They often brought cakes and plum puddings as gifts. Our American Mother's Day is credited to Miss Anna M. Jarvis, a Sunday School teacher. In 1908 she held a memorial church service for her mother at the Andrews Methodist Church in Grafton, West Virginia.

The idea spread first to Philadelphia and then caught on nationally. President Wilson in 1914 signed a Congressional Resolution setting aside the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day and authorizing Federal display of the flag.

The carnation was adopted as official flower because it had been the favorite of Miss Jarvis' mother. Today the event has grown into the year's "most sentimental occasion," when sons and daughters everywhere express their appreciation with gifts and Mother's Day greeting cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keen and three children of Midland, are here for Mother's Day to be with Mrs. J. C. Keen. Also Mr. and Mrs. Truman Gabbert and family of Corpus Christi, spent the day with Mrs. Keen. Mrs. Gabbert and children will remain for a three weeks visit, but Mr. Gabbert will return on Monday of next week.
