Chamber of Commerce Doings . . . COMMUNITY DAY DEEMED SUCCESS; 1000 SEE INITIAL PERFORMANCE

Spur's first Community Day was held last Saturday with approximately 1000 spectators present for the program. Buck Denton, co-chairman of the merchants committee, was responsible for the arrangement of the first Community Day, along with his committee, Carl Proctor, Billy Bigham, and Lester Garner. Denton said he had received favorable comment from the surrounding communities, and that he hoped to have more entertainment for the next Community Day which will probably be held next month.

The Dickens Tune Busters began the program with western music followed by the Jayton and Peacock bands.

Tom Tilson, widely known magician from Matador, performed an operation on Buck Denton's head. Tilson performed for thirty minutes and was well liked by the crowd.

Denton stated that the Community Day program was still in the experimental stage, and that another program is being planned for next month.

Community Day is designed to draw all communities closer together for the promotion of good will among all. We appreciate the western bands and Tilson for their performance that helped in bringing a closer association among the people of this area.

Another reason the Community Day was established was to give an opportunity to everyone to participate and exhibit their talents. More performers are planned for the next Community Day. The date will be announced in the Texas Spur.

League Leaders Play Tonite; Lubbock Team To Play Sat.

By Billy Bigham
There was no play in the Spur softball league Tuesday night due to wet grounds. Both games will be played at the earliest opportunity, possibly Monday or Friday night of next week. The four teams involved are Hoover-McAtee, City Drug, V. F. W. and Proctor's.

In last Thursday night's games, the V. F. W. team came from behind to squeeze by the Jayton boys 20-19 in another wild scoring contest for the first game.

In the second game it looked like a tight nip and tuck pitcher's duel between the young Lions and the Hoover-McAtee boys. In the fourth inning with the score 2-2, the hot rods broke loose with nine runs to ice the game away 11-2.

The win placed Hoover-McAtee in a tie with Proctor's, both with a 2-0 record.
Tonight, Thursday, May 29, will find Jayton playing the V. F. W. in the 7:30 game and Hoover-McAtee against Proctor's in the last game. The winner of this game will take undisputed leadership in the league.

| Team | P | W | L | Pct. |
|------------|---|---|---|------|
| Proctor's | 2 | 2 | 0 | 1000 |
| Hoover-McA | 2 | 2 | 0 | 1000 |

The Mystery Man picked his infield without hesitation, but wanted to deliberate another day on the outfield. Here's his pick: Pitchers, Jerry Price, Jay Austin; first base, Art LeCroix; second base, Cotton Stanley; third base, Lester Ball; Short stop, Wilburn Ball; catcher, Melvin Lindsey.

One outfielder was picked and submitted with the above group. He is Don Hindman.

Don't miss this game Saturday night at 8:15 p. m. It should be a whiz!

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

Control of Separate Community Property Explained

Generally speaking, each spouse has the right to control and dispose of his or her own separate property. You may recall that the separate property of a husband and wife includes property owned by either before marriage, and that which is acquired by either after marriage by gift or inheritance. Any other property acquired after marriage is presumed by law to be community property until the contrary is clearly proved.

Aside from the ordinary community estate, there is a class of property known as the wife's "special community," which includes all the income from her separate real property, and probably the interest on bonds or notes, and dividends on stocks owned in her separate right. While the husband may have similar assets, the law accords them no particular distinction from ordinary community property.

Although the history of the law is somewhat confusing, it appears that under present day law the husband has control of ordinary community property; but control of the wife's special community property is reserved to her.

Certain restrictions are imposed upon both husband and wife in exercising such control, the husband cannot legally dispose of community property in such a way as to defraud the wife, nor can he sell the homestead without her signature and acknowledgment. And the wife's sale or mortgage of her separate real estate, stocks or bonds is not valid unless her husband joins with her in the transaction—he must sign and execute the necessary legal papers along with her.

Such limitations appear to be a product of those earlier and more chivalrous days in which the sheltered married woman had little or no contact with the business world. They indicate a desire to protect the little woman from chiseling outsiders, and even against an unscrupulous husband.

A similar intent appears in the laws exempting the wife's separate and special community property from liability for debts incurred by the husband. Such liability is restricted to his separate property and the ordinary community property.

On the other hand, debts incurred by the wife in obtaining necessities for herself or the children bind all property belonging to either party, including the husband's separate property. For other debts which she has power to incur, only her separate and special community property are liable.

All of these distinctions emphasize the advisability of keeping proper records. By doing so the various classes of community and separate property owned by a married couple will always be easily distinguishable. Each category will then receive the special protection afforded to it by our laws.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

One sure way for the poultryman to cut feed costs on the laying flock is to remove from the flock the non-producers. That means continuous culling.

Randolph Scott 'Man in Saddle'

Randolph Scott stars in Columbia Pictures' "Man in the Saddle," which opens Sunday at the Palace Theatre. The new film was photographed in Technicolor. In "Man in the Saddle," Scott is seen as a small rancher who is forced to fight for his life ten thousand feet above sea level because two women in the valley below love him. Joan Leslie and Ellen Drew play the two women of "Man in the Saddle," while Alexander Knox plays a wealthy rancher married to Miss Leslie. The supporting cast also features Richard Robert, John Russell, Alfonso Bedoya and recording artist Tennessee Ernie, who sings "Man in the Saddle." Kenneth Gamet wrote the screen play of the Scott-Brown production, which is based upon the novel by Ernest Haycox.

2 Fall Fashion Clinics Set For Dallas Market Week

A fashion clinic covering all phases of promoting and selling fall fashion merchandise will replace the usual breakfast show presented by the American Fashion Association during the May Market in Dallas, according to William Goldstein, president, American Fashions.

Slated as the major event of market week, May 25-30, the clinic will be held on two consecutive days to accommodate the large number of merchants attending the market.

The first clinic is scheduled Tuesday morning, May 27, in the Grand Ballroom of the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, with the attendance limited to 750 buyers. The following morning, May 28, the entire show will be repeated for 750 more buyers.

Presented by the Dallas Fashion Arts, Inc., a group of women professionally engaged in fashion, in cooperation with American Fashions, the clinic will be based on seven promotional themes, listed as "Seven Keys to Fashion." Six or eight costumes assembled from actual lines represented in the Fall market will illustrate each of the seven themes. Price ranges, functional uses and the expected reaction to the fashions will be discussed. Each group will be arranged in a window by a window display expert, who will suggest copy for window cards and ideas for press.

Contrast adds to the smartness of the fall fashion picture to be presented by the American Fashion Association at breakfast clinics during the Fall Market, May 25-30 in Dallas. Here checks, in black and white underscored with red, are combined with solid black in a suit with companion coat. From a group of fine imported fabrics to be shown by the Association for fall and winter wear.

Promotional and advertising ideas will be discussed in connection with each grouping.

The entire clinic will be designed to help the small store owner sell and promote fall merchandise.

Hints For Homemakers

The fully electric kitchen is a real dream to every homemaker. And no wonder. It's because electricity can bring in hot water, wash dishes, cook meals, mix foods, freeze foods and do many other major jobs that used to be just plain, tiresome hard work. But, in order to take care of all those items, you should be sure your kitchen is adequately wired. A proper wiring system is the backbone of the electrical set up within the home. And, with the concentration of appliances in the kitchen, it stands to reason there should be sufficient outlets and proper wire sizes. Make the best possible use of your electricity—your wired hand is a hired hand that will save you time, labor and money.

Practically every home has an electric refrigerator or home freezer. Let's put them to work for us this summer to add more time for leisure.

Most of the schools will be out this week and we will need to have something on hand for that mid-afternoon snack for the children. Nutritionally, oranges are outstanding—and the warm days ahead call for something cold. This Orange Sherbet will be a special treat for them.

Orange Sherbet
 1 Cup water
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 package Orange Jello
 1/2 cup orange juice
 2 cups sweet milk
 Boil sugar and water together for two minutes; while hot stir in jello. Add orange juice to mixture. Pour into tray and leave in refrigerator or home freezer until syrupy. Beat mixture. Add sweet milk and freeze. This is delicious frozen either in the refrigerator, home freezer or ice cream freezer.

Rotarians See Film On Rd. Maintenance

Rotarians in their regular Thursday luncheon viewed a General Motors film entitled "Let's Get Out of the Muddle", having to do with the critically serious condition of the nation's highway system and the need of concerted community action to solve the problem.

Subjects touched on in this film as reasons for the deplorable state of our highways included the fact that first, highways are dying of old age. Highways constructed during the road building boom of the twenties were planned for life expectancies ranging from fifteen to thirty years.

Second reason given was that last year more than a billion dollars was spent on maintenance of highways that had been considered expendable during World War II. This sum could have been used for new construction had we not let our roads deteriorate so badly.

Inflation, the third reason, has nicked fifty cents out of the 1941 highway construction dollar. Current appropriations have nowhere near offset this.

Fourth, increased traffic data indicates that vehicle registrations increased from 33 million to 48 1/2 million cars and trucks, and the mileage traveled by these vehicles has increased from 300 billion to 450 billion miles a year.

Fifth, the highway construction program of the twenties was aimed at the traffic requirements of that time, not those of today. Highways are becoming obsolete for lack of re-designing that would make them adequate for the tremendous growth of automotive transportation.

Sixth, we have let our city streets become bottlenecks, improperly designed to meet the requirements of today's motor vehicle traffic.

Seventh and last was unwise spending. Action dictated by political expediency will not work. Highway user taxes should be dedicated solely to highway work and apportioned in accordance with traffic requirements. The diverting of highway user tax funds to non-highway uses must be eliminated.

Methodist Circle 4 Elects New Officers

The members of Methodist circle No. 4 met in the home of Mrs. S. H. Nally where they spent an entire day. Business included the election of officers, and the remainder of the time was spent in quilting.

It was reported in the business meeting that during the year 61 visits were made to the sick, 26 trays of food were prepared for distressed families, 16 cards were mailed and seven gifts of flowers were sent.

Officers for the future year were elected as follows:

Mrs. Nally, president; Mrs. Emma Russell, vice-president; Mrs. Matt Howell, recording secretary; Mrs. Porter, Christian social relations chairman;

Mrs. Cal Wright, missionary work chairman; Mrs. Foreman, local home work chairman; Mrs. Lea Chair, literature and supplies chairman.

A covered dish was brought by each member and was served to sixteen members and four visitors, Meses. McCulley, John Reid, Havens and Turpin.

ADULT CLASS OF PATTON SPRINGS TO MEET JUNE 5TH

The adult class of the Patton Springs community, a part of the vocational homemaking program, will meet on Thursday, June 5 at 2:30 p. m., in the high school building.

Mrs. W. A. Lewis, English teacher of the Patton Springs school, will be the speaker for this meeting. Her subject will be "Problems of Adolescence and How the School and Home can Work Together to Solve Them."

This subject is one of vital importance and it is hoped that parents of Patton Springs and neighboring communities will be present for this discussion. A welcome is extended to all.

Every week must be safety week on the farm if accidents are to be prevented. Carelessness and short cuts are usually contributing causes to most farm accidents. Be careful, warns the State Farm and Ranch Safety Committee, for it's a pretty tough job to operate a farm from a hospital bed or a wheel chair.

CARD OF THANKS:

We want to thank the good people of Spur and surrounding communities for the many deeds of kindness shown us during the illness and passing of our loved one. Especially for the beautiful floral offering and the kind words spoken that helped to make our burdens lighter.

We thank the ministers, also their choir and organist, for their kindness rendered.

May God's blessings rest on all of you as our prayer.

Fisher Award Result Of 14 Years Work In Mesquite Control

Renner, Texas—The tough aggressive mesquite infests more than 55 million acres of rangeland in 113 Texas counties, removing each year from the grazing of livestock millions of dollars of potential profits.

Today 14 years of research in an effort to control this hardy member of the Mimosa family paid off handsomely for a young Texas scientist.

Charles E. Fisher, 41, Superintendent of Texas Agriculture Experiment Station Substation No. 7 at Spur, was named winner of the Hoblitzelle award recognizing him as the "Texas agricultural scientist who in the past three years has made the greatest contribution to agriculture in the State." Consisting of $5,000.00 in cash and a gold medal, the award was presented at the annual open house of Texas Research Foundation here.

Fisher's research resulted last year in the control of mesquite on more than 4000 acres of Texas pasture. The control method is simple: A low flying airplane "bombs" the mesquite trees with coarse droplets of oil-water emulsion loaded with a new chemical herbicide. Flying just above the tree tops, the pilot sprays a wide swath of mesquite as he goes. One pound of the hormone-type chemical, 2,4,5-T, is recommended per acre. Cost of treating: about $3.00 per acre.

The panel of judges in selecting the work on the mesquite control over that of thirty other Texas agricultural scientists whose research had been entered, pointed out:

"No absolute method for the final eradication of mesquite has been perfected, but the research of C. E. Fisher provides new hope to the farmer and rancher of Texas and the Southwest through the provision of an economic and effective means of controlling the brush. His research has immediate and significant widespread application."

Fisher's control method not only kills about 98% of the mesquite to ground level, but invades its bud zone tree below ground and prevents a high percentage of the plants from sprouting again.

The chemical "bomb" of the brush not only knocks out the mesquite, but many other range pests such as the cocklebur and sunflower. The treatment can be administered while cattle and other livestock are grazing the land. The chemical has no harmful effect on either the cattle or the native grasses upon which they graze. Care must be exercised in the application of the chemical, however, for even in trace amounts, it will damage highly susceptible crops such as cotton, alfalfa, clover, grapes, tomatoes and many others.

Fisher with the assistance of his staff conducted hundreds and hundreds of experiments in his long fight against mesquite brush before the method of airplane control with 2,4,5-T was perfected.

Threefold benefits result from the solution of this problem peculiar to the ranges of Texas:

1. It is much easier to handle and care for livestock in cleared areas.
2. Improved growth of native grasses helps to rebuild the soil and aids in conservation.
3. Cleared areas afford better grazing. During the past three years in experiments conducted at Spur, steers gained 28% more weight on cleared pastures than in brush pastures.

The selection of the Hoblitzelle award winner was made by a committee from outstanding Texas educators and agriculturists. The Committee was composed of Lewis P. Merrill, Regional Conservator, Soil Conservation Service, Fort Worth, Texas; Dr. R. J. Williams, Professor of Chemistry, University of Texas, Austin, Texas; Dr. R. D. Lewis, Director, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas A. & M. College, College Station, Texas; and Dr. D. M. Wiggins, President, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

Waste in government is even a hot subject in Washington these days. Yet some of the very Congressmen who love to rise on every possible occasion and make the welkin ring on the subject are the most reluctant to take definite action.

Despite a bipartisan committee composed equally of republicans and democrats supporting the reforms in government procedures recommended by the Hoover Commission almost three years ago, progress is being made slowly.

Right now, every attempt is being made to get Congress to pass pending bills that would solve many of the government employment problems. The cold, unsupported facts indicate how strongly reforms are needed.

There are two and a half million Federal civilian employees, or ten times more than there were 20 years ago.

Thus, the government is the biggest employer in the world, yet the government is being shown up as probably the poorest employer in the world.

To keep two and half million working, the government must hire 800,000 people every year, due to the 34% who leave government service because of dissatisfaction.

In fact, a major expenditure of money, about 100 million dollars per year, goes for salaries of government workers who do nothing else but handle personnel problems. In this field, the figures are fantastic and beyond belief.

Farm - Ranch Safety Committee Meets In Waco May 20

COLLEGE STATION, May 29.—J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, chosen for a second term as chairman of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee at a meeting of the body in Waco on May 20, emphasized that "safety is everybody's business" and that most accidents are preventable. Apart from electing officers and committee chairmen for the year ahead the major objective of the meeting was to consider ways and means of making rural Texans more safety conscious. E. C. Martin, state agricultural leader of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, was elected chairman of the committee; while Arthur Loe-sch, master of the State Grange, Extension Service, was re-elected secretary and Dr. F. C. Bolton, president emeritus of Texas A. and M. College, the youth training head a new committee on membership. Other committee Chairmen include C. G. Scruggs, associate editor, Progressive Farmer, publicity; Marvin Carter, organization director, TFBE, finance; John G. McHaney, Extension Service, statistics; and Cal T. Johnson, Sears-Roebuck Foundation, awards. The Texas Home Demonstration Association will name a chairman for the women's activity committee. Committee members will be added by the respective chairmen and other interested groups will be invited to join the States Committee in their campaign to reduce farm and home accidents.

Plans were made for the observance of Farm Safety Week—July 20-26, but Chairman Hammond cautioned that every week must be safety week if accidents are to be prevented. He cited figures to show what happened last year when farm tractors were operated on highways after dark without proper lights. Reports on 19 accidents in the nation involving tractors and motor vehicles show that 18 farmers and one motorist were killed. These accidents could have been prevented had the tractors been properly lighted and operated, said Hammond.

Martin pointed out that farm labor is expected to be in short supply during the year and more than ever before the farm family must fill the gap. A serious farm or home accident could take from the family a laborer badly needed to produce and harvest the crops needed at this time. He, therefore, urges all farm families to plan together in starting program on the farm and in the home. He stated that last year in the United States farm accidents caused a loss in man days equal to all of the labor needed to produce and harvest the nation's wheat crop.

Such economic losses are terrific, he adds, but they in no way reflect the great hardships that are thrust upon the families as a result of accidents. In many instances, a serious accident may be the item that will determine whether the farm business is operated at a profit or loss for the year. Good farm or ranch management, he adds, certainly includes safety and that means teaching and using practices which are safe.

The Committee urges all families to remove from their homes and farms or ranches accident hazards and to join with their neighbors in a safety program that will make rural Texas a safer and more enjoyable place in which to live.

Last year 79,376 trained leaders assisted county home demonstration agents in carrying home economics information to both rural and urban women and girls. This leadership training program was developed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

ALWAYS BE CAREFUL DRIVING

The car that wears its own Sun Glasses

2-door, 6-passenger Super Riviera.

You find this "eye shade" band of darker color only on the genuine "Easy-Eye Glass" pioneered by Buick, and all glass used in Buicks is ripple-free, ground and polished plate safety glass.

You may have to look twice to see it—but a lot of the new Buicks have a soft blue-green tone in all glass areas—plus a slightly darker band which shades down from the top of the windshield.

And you have no idea what comfort all this adds to hot-weather driving.

Its name is "Easy-Eye Glass"—which tells only half the story. While it filters out 18% of the glare (and tones down the dazzle of oncoming headlights at night)—it also cuts down sun-heat as much as 50%.

So it's the best cure we know for hot laps in summer driving, when the sun beats down on the windshield.

Maybe you'd like to try this out before you buy your next car.

And while you're trying it out—you can also discover how it feels to boss around a Fireball 8 Engine, that puts its own exclusive added wallop into a high-compression valve-in-head power plant.

You can sample the sure-footed way a Buick settles into a curve—the way the front wheels seem to seek their course automatically—the smooth surge and falterless ease with which Dynaflo Drive* feeds the power—the level confidence of Buick's million dollar ride.

You can get an idea also of the room, the comfort, the smartness, the thrill that your dollars buy in this brilliant performer.

So why not arrange for a demonstration soon?
