Whoa, Now!

By Grady Lackey

We're afraid that we haven't received enough of our straw vote ballots to indicate any definite trend among our readers. Even though the dead line for such balloting is just a week off, we've received only seven ballots thus far.

We're interested, and aren't you? In the way folks around here will be voting next month, and we feel that through our straw vote is about the only way to find out.

Turn over to the page with the straw vote ballot on it, mark your choice, and mail or bring it to the Texas Spur office. We have extra ballots in the office if more than one in your family wishes to vote. Of the seven turned in, it stacks up this way:

IRE: 4
One of our feminine readers from Gilpin states "I vote for Adlai because he is the best fitted for job like that and is a Christian."

Traffic Safety Expert To Speak To Public Here Tuesday, 2:30

"Are you interested in safe driving?"

"Are you interested in promoting traffic safety in this community?"

These are the questions asked this week by Robert Williams in inviting and urging everyone to attend the P. T. A. meeting Tuesday, October 14 at 2:30 p. m.

At this meeting Ross Kemp from the State Department of Public Safety will speak on safe driving. According to Williams, president of the local P. T. A., Kemp is a specialist in traffic safety.

The meeting is to be held in the East Ward auditorium and is for the benefit and instruction of all in this area who drive or own an automobile. Williams and the other members of the Parent-Teachers organization of Spur invite and urge the general public to attend this meeting and hear this specialist on traffic safety.

Miss Kelley represented the Junior class in the recent queen contest. Other contestants were Miss Dean Reagan of the Sophomore class and Miss Betty Arnold of the Senior class.

The coronation took place on the fifty yard line of homecoming stadium before a record homecoming crowd. The royal party consisting of the queen candidates and football co-captains were presented to the audience as they stepped through a large paper heart. They were brought to the field in new automobiles.

Introduced first was Princess Betty Arnold escorted by Jackie Cloude. Princess Dean Reagan, escorted by Boyce Rankin followed.

Co-Captain Chester Lindsey escorted Miss Kelley and Co-Captain Dean King crowned her queen of the Homecoming. She was presented a bouquet of mums from the student body.

The Spur High School band under the direction of Bob Key accompanied the ceremony with appropriate musical selections. The pep squad also participated in the array.

OVER 250 EXES GATHER; HINDMAN ELECTED EX-STUDENT PRESIDENT

The first annual homecoming of Spur High School ex-students opened in the high school gym last Friday morning with an assembly program. The exes were welcomed by a host of present students.

Ralph Gibson, president of the student council, led the group as they sang "The Star Spangled Banner" accompanied by Miss Kathleen Kelley at the piano.

Miss Carolyn Kelley gave the welcome and served as mistress of ceremonies. Ralph Gibson led in the singing of "Rah Rah for Bulldogs."

Out of town ex-teachers were recognized. They included Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Thomas of Ralls and Mrs. Lance Davis of Rotan. Thomas taught history and preceded C. F. Cook as superintendent of schools. Mrs. Thomas taught homecoming, and Mrs. Davis taught English. She was the faculty sponsor of the class of 1925 and was presented a corsage by Mrs. Horace Wood, representing the class.

One of the highlights of the program was the leading of yells by ex-yeell leaders, assisted by the present ones.

Homer Hindman, manager of the Spur Chamber of Commerce and a graduate of Spur High School, welcomed the ex-teachers with a brief talk.

The various classes were recognized. The first graduating class, the class of 1916, was not represented, however, Lawis Lee, local lumberman, is said to have been a member of it. The class of 1918 was represented by Mrs. Henry Grubben. The class of 1930 had the largest number of members present. It was estimated that approximately 250 ex-students and ex-teachers attended the event.

Other out of town ex-students and ex-teachers present included Brode Puckett, Jimmie Hahn, Grace Horner Ensey, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ayers, Mrs. Lora Barrett Sparks, and Tanner Laine, now staff writer of the Avalanche Journal.

Lloyd Hindman, president of the school board, gave a welcoming address for the exes. Robert Williams, class of 1928, and county schools superintendent, also made a brief talk.

At one time during the program, the entire group paused for a moment's silence in tribute to the Spur exes who have died since leaving Spur High. "Beyond the Sunset" was played at this time.

Coach Sam Hawkes and Coach Billy Hahn made talks concerning the football game played that night. The football team was introduced and recognized preceding the singing of the Alma Mater.

Following the assembly program, the exes met briefly and elected officers for the coming year and for the next annual homecoming.

Homer Hindman was elected president of the group with Everett McArthur as vice-president, Billy Ray Barrett as secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Bill Gregory as reporter.

The newly elected officers of the group state that it is the purpose and aim of the organization to help those who once lived in Spur and attended its schools to still have a feeling that they belong to the community even though they may have graduated some 20 years previously.

"By our united efforts we may in some way be of a help to the present schools here by our moral and financial support," stated Hindman.

All of the exes registering at the reception following the football game paid their initial dues to the organization of $1.00 per person. The officers plan to contact all exes of Spur High School and to solicit their membership in the association. There have been over a thousand graduates of the school.

A board of directors for the association will be appointed in the near future, states Hindman, with a member of each class as a director to work with the officers.

Exes and friends, parents or children of exes are urged to cooperate with the newly formed organization in contacting all graduates.

The Spur Bulldogs bowed to a large, hard-charging Haskell eleven in Jones Stadium before a record homecoming crowd last Friday night by a score of 13-0.

Minus scabback Curtis Blair, the Spur running ground just couldn't get going either through or around the big Indian line. Superior punting of Indian backs also was very instrumental in keeping the Bulldogs on their heels.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The Office of Price Stabilization continues to amaze Washington.

Before Congress adjourned, the appropriation for this mystifying agency was slashed about in half as a move to hasten its demise.

For weeks the air around Capitol Hill was rent with cries of anguish that half of the OPS staff must be dismissed. Presumably, they had been dismissed to the tune of several thousand.

But now the OPS has embarked upon a project that is more ambitious in stature, requires more personnel than perhaps even the most elaborate plan ever launched in Communist Russia.

Ceiling prices on certain grocery items, which account for about 40 per cent of grocery store sales, are now going up in more than half of the nation's half million grocery stores.

OPS officials admit that the ceiling prices are no less, and in many cases, higher, than grocers get in today's highly competitive retail price situation.

Added to this plan is a further announcement.

The grocers will not figure their own ceiling prices. They will be all figured for them by the 54 regional and district offices of OPS. Possibilities will be supplied the grocers every month with the prices already computed for them, plus weekly amendments.

This is considered by all who have had any business experience, as a very ambitious undertaking calling for a veritable host of manpower. It is estimated that the manpower OPS will use in this useless work, if thrown into the front lines in Korea, would end the battle.

"In fact," say some observers, "That would be a fine solution to two problems. OPS officials and Chinese could probably understand each other."

There are indications consumers will pay higher food costs due to this OPS action.

Many grocers are already talking about raising their prices to equal the OPS ceiling prices. Thus enforced regulation may result in competitors reaching some common understanding.

If such is done, it will be illegal, but so far, no one has definitely established the legality of a government buying dictating price structures without declaration of an all out emergency.

The only parallel to this situation is in Russia where government also establishes prices.

Washington now asks: How does it happen with substantially slashed personnel, OPS can undertake a job of this magnitude? Or, is it possible, that the agency was 100% overstuffed before it was slashed?

One thing is now certain.

When Congress reconvenes, a much closer scrutiny will be taken of OPS. Congressmen hate to be publicly fooled. This vast, ambitious new project by OPS after weeks of crying that with a reduced appropriation, there would be only enough staff left to open the mail, has put on record that Congress was very badly taken in by the OPS.

Research Catches Up With The Tomato

Americans almost daily are benefiting from the fruits of research carried on constantly by scientists all over the country. Above, you see Francis Noon (right), head fieldman for the Snider laboratories of General Foods at Albion, N. Y., holding a new variety of tomato developed by their scientists for making catsup and other tomato condiments, following six years of research. Looking on are Mrs. Theresa Krenzer and her son, Ted. Mrs. Krenzer, with her three sons and three daughters, farms 800 acres and grows 100 of them in tomatoes. This new variety resists cracking, has a superior color, and contains more edible solids. The plants of this variety will be made available to Mrs. Krenzer and other tomato farmers—another example of close cooperation between grower and processor to provide better and better food products for the consumer.

New Weed Control Being Developed

A cotton field that has been pre-emergent treated with Chloro-IPC shows control of grass in 7-inch bands on each side of row.

PITTSBURGH, PA.—Development of a new chemical for control of weeds and grasses in field crops, soy beans, alfalfa, vegetables and especially cotton, promises an important contribution to the continuing mechanization of agriculture. Experiments now being conducted with the new herbicide, designated Chloro-IPC, show favorable control of certain annual grasses and broadleaf weeds for a variety of crops. Of importance to farmers is the fact that research indicates that it is not translocated in plants. It selectively retards cell divisions in the primary root structures of germinating weed or grass seeds and very young seedlings. For this reason, it should be present in the soil at germination or in the very early seedling stage of the weeds to be controlled. Effects last about four to six weeks in the soil, although both longer and shorter periods have been reported. Soil temperature seems to be the most important factor and rainfall secondary. The higher the temperature, the shorter the effective period.

CHECK LIST FOR RETURNING SERVICEMEN

Have you put your affairs in order since you were released from military service? Here is a partial list of things to check.

Have you filed the original copy of your discharge papers with your County Clerk? This is important to insure that a record of your discharge papers always will be available. It protects you against future loss from theft, fire or negligence. Should you lose your discharge papers, the government will give you only a certificate stating that you were in service, but giving no other pertinent information. County Clerks throughout the state accept your discharge papers for filing without cost, and thereafter you may obtain certified copies whenever the need arises.

When you entered military service, did you execute a power of attorney so that someone would be able to act for you during your absence? If you now want complete control of all your affairs, you must cancel any contracts which gives certain powers to someone else.

If you have had a will prepared, has it been revised to suit changed conditions? For example, if you have married or if another child has been born to you and your spouse, you will want to check your will make sure that all of your dependents are provided for. Changes in tax law, judicial decisions and administrative action by the Treasury Department, too, could affect the provisions in your will. Especially is this true if the government has passed a new revenue act since your will was prepared.

Are the beneficiaries named in your life insurance policies now correct? Is the amount adequate now in the light of the present deflated dollar? It is important to note that, unlike World War II veterans, Korean veterans must act within 120 days after release from duty in order to continue their government insurance.

Did you change your automobile license and insurance to the name of another person? If your car was not used for business purposes during your absence, you perhaps were granted a reduced premium. Is the insurance you carry now adequate for the purpose for which you use your car? Did you take advantage of certain provisions in the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act to protect you from further liability for lease or contract after you entered service? This act provides for immunity from court action only during the time you serve in the armed forces. Did you miss any payments which accrued on the unpaid balance during the years that payments were postponed. These debts were not forgiven and now that you are a civilian again, you must take up your postponed responsibilities.

Have you applied for reemployment in your old job? Application must be made within 90 days after your release from service. If you do not return to your former job, it will be helpful to your former employer if you notify him as to your decision. The 86 local offices of the Texas Employment Commission and the Federal Bureau of Veterans Reemployment Rights are equipped to protect your rights and assist in returning you to pre-service employment status. No charge is made for this service.

A pamphlet explaining procedures to safeguard your reemployment rights can be obtained by writing the Bureau of Veterans' Reemployment Rights, Room 222 Commercial Building, 1100 Main Street, Dallas 2, Texas.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform-not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Furniture Fashions

Remember the old tea wagon that used to grace nearly every dining room? Well, it's back in a wonderfully new guise and is more beautiful and infinitely more utilitarian than ever before. It has a number of descriptive new names, too, including "hostess cart," "brunch wagon," and "snack truck." The model shown above is black walnut with cherry trim. Combining two different woods in the same piece of furniture is a new style note. This hostess cart makes it possible to put an entire meal on wheels. The drop leaves provide a surprising amount of table surface. It is ideal for TV parties, as well as for more formal entertaining.

Working Their Way Thru College - USA

Dreams came true for 66 girls—all members of the biggest sorority without a college campus. Last week these members of Sigma Alpha Sigma—Midwest sorority for working girls only—took over the business, scenic and night life of New York City. On a sailor's holiday they observed careers in action of 106 food specialists in the General Foods Consumer Service Department kitchens at 250 Park Avenue. Typical of the group is Jeannette Gryzwana, (extreme left in the first row, top picture). Jeannette is a clerk in the advertising department of a national mail order house and had never been to New York before. Her SAS membership made it possible to have a week in New York with total train, hotel, food and expenses for around $150. Left middle picture shows Jeannette, Nancy Mulhall of Chicago and Donna Johnson of Racine, Wisconsin, learning all about recipe testing from Vera Swope, GF home economist. Right, Ginny Mahoney describes technology of jelly recipe testing to Jeannette and Nancy. The girls took part in the actual recipe testing of a new minute rice product, as seen in the bottom picture. Sigma Alpha Sigma, or "the miracle of Jackson Boulevard" sprung from an idea of Muriel Davis (second from left in bottom picture). It was Muriel who conceived the idea of a non-profit organization of working girls, which would give them a chance to explore the country at cut rates. From a handful of girls in 1946, SAS now has 2000 members and a long waiting list. Most members are in their twenties. It operates on the idea that a group can get better rates for travel—transportation, meals and rooms. The idea works. On top of it all the State of Illinois granted Muriel a charter in 1948. Now there are SAS chapters all over the middle west—and the idea is spreading fast.

Ex-Students Hold Reunions Here On Day Of First Homecoming

Class of '46 Meets In The Dyess Home

The graduating class of 1946 met in the home of Mrs. D. J. Dyess immediately after the Spur-Haskell football game Friday night.

Punch and cake were served to W. B. and Wanda Steele, Sheridan and Selba Campbell, Bonnie Smith, Jane Moore, Bert Dunwoody, Ned Blackwell, Wendell Parker, and the hostess, Autrey Nell Sharp. Offspring of the group present were Wynell Steele and Mark Campbell.

Scrapbooks of the class were the main interest with memories of olden days as the topic of conversation.

Mrs. Wood Hostess To '25 Class Reunion

Members of the Class of 1925 turned back the hands of Time Friday, October 3, as they spent hours reminiscing at the home of Clarice Laine Wood after the football game. Coke and coffee were served by the hostess as a record book of class memories, containing the class will, class prophecy, and other items of interest, was renewed by the following: Winnie McArthur Barnett, Thelma McArthur Moore, Ernal Lisenby Holley, Rand McNeill, Guy Karr, and Jim Claude of Lubbock.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Estelle Smith and Ann, Thurmond Moore, Harvey Holly, Floyd Barnett, Mrs. Dee McArthur and Merry Dee and Horace Wood.

Of the nine present from the class, which consisted of twenty-one members, four were honor graduates: Mrs. Thelma Moore, Mrs. Clarice Wood, Winnie Barnett, and Guy Karr.

Class of '33 Meets At Westernman Home

Approximately 42 guests were served with sandwiches and punch. Presiding at the serving table was Mrs. Bob Lewis.

Later the class gathered and attended the ball game in a group and met later at the Spur Inn for an informal get-together.

'34 Class Reunion In Foreman Home

The days of Auld Lang Syne always ring a bell in the memory of those who were participants of that time; and so it was when the Class of 1934 returned to their Alma Mater last week for the Homecoming of Spur High School, and were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foreman.

While drinking coffee and Cokes, the group recalled the old days with great merriment. A moment of quietness was observed for the departed who were the teachers, Sam Z. Hall, Buck Nelson, and students Denny Clay, Frank Turner, Melba Rogers, Opal Karr, and Lois Smith.

Vice president Larry Boothe of the 34 Class read the Class Will and Prophecy, and it was observed that many had fallen short of the great expectations.

The serving table was laid with a white Maderia cloth, centered with yellow chrysanthemums in a crystal bowl, flanked by tall yellow candles decorated with blue bow knots.

Autumn Ideal Time To Kill Rats, Mice

The first cool autumn days should be your reminder to prepare for the invasion of rats and mice. Farms are especially susceptible, but protection should be provided in other places, too—homes, summer cottages and business places.

An effective anti-rat and mouse campaign, according to many pest control specialists, includes these three steps:

- One—Remedy poor sanitation.
- Two—Ratproof buildings, when practical.
- Three—Place rat bait according to directions.

Ratproofing, Step No. 2, can effectively keep rats and mice out of corn cribs, granaries, warehouses, and all other places where feed is available. Balleins Gerbringer ratproofing methods may be obtained from your county agricultural agent.

Baiting is the third and most effective blow in the autumn anti-rat campaign. Get the best among the available rat and mouse killers in warfarin, a potent substance discovered in the laboratories of Dr. Karl Paul Link, Biochemistry Dept., University of Wisconsin, by Drs. Mark A. Stahmann, Miyoshi Ikawa, and Link.

Warfarin bait is recommended because: It kills all species of rats and mice common to the United States; it is a slow killer and does not create bait shyness; no pre-baiting is required; no tolerance develops; it is easy to use; it may be used in any climate or season at any temperature; it is comparatively safe to use; and it may be purchased as a concentrate or a ready-mixed bait.

In using warfarin bait, it must be made available to the rats and mice at all times. Bait stations—plastic containers protected with a board or a wooden box—are normally examined and replenished every 48 hours. A limited number of permanent bait stations will recover and control reinfestation.

Honey Of A Grapefruit Topping!

Great the new grapefruit crop from Florida with a half grapefruit for breakfast, lunch or dinner; for a first course, salad or last course. Be sure to properly prepare your vitamin C-rich grapefruit halves for easy spooning, no waste. With a sharp knife cut Florida grapefruit in half crosswise. Loosen sections by cutting around each individual section. Squeeze out core with scissors. Do not run the knife around the entire outer edge of grapefruit.

For a new topping treat with your morning grapefruit half, spoon honey over the fruit instead of sugar. Honey production is up this year, and this is one of the ways in which you can use this flavorful sweetener and help the planned pollination program of the Department of Agriculture. Pollination is necessary to nearly all of our food crops, and increased honey consumption will help utilize the larger production.

Puffed Up With Pride

Have you ever wished you could make a luscious, chocolatey soufflé that reaches upward in proud majesty and hasn't a thought of falling? Such a soufflé can be one of your best accomplishments if you follow a good recipe carefully.

You will be the talk of the neighborhood as a chef if you learn the secret about soufflés: timing. Note well the time called for baking in the recipe below: one hour ten minutes, or until the soufflé is firm. When cooked, serve immediately—that's where timing comes in, too, for this is a dessert that cannot be cooked in advance. Bring it to the table steaming hot and serve with your favorite sauce or heavy cream.

The results are well worth the care that's required, for this chocolate soufflé is a truly delicious dish to add to your cooking accomplishments.

Chocolate Soufflé

See 2 squares unsweetened chocolate 2 tablespoons butter
See 1 1/2 cups milk 1 teaspoon vanilla
See 1 cup sugar 4 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored
See 1/4 cup flour 4 egg whites, stiffly beaten
See 1/2 teaspoon salt

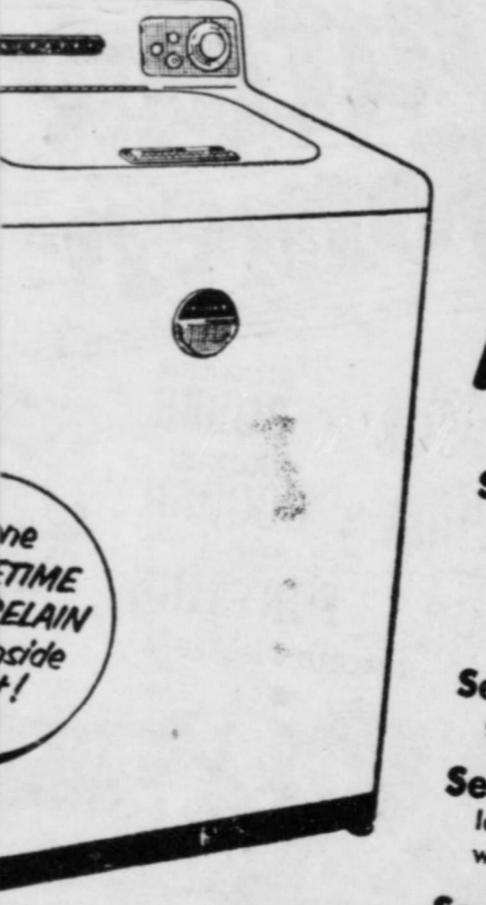

Add chocolate to milk and heat in double boiler. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Combine sugar, flour, and salt. Add small amount of chocolate mixture, stirring until smooth. Return to double boiler and cook until thickened, stirring constantly; then continue cooking 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add butter and vanilla. Cool slightly while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of water and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 1 hour and 10 minutes, until soufflé is firm. Serve immediately with your favorite sauce or cream. Makes 6 servings.

Modern Farm Building Foils Flames

A means by which the farmer can protect his crops and machinery from the major hazard of fire is illustrated by this graphic photo. Snapped at the height of flames which razed the adjoining structure, the picture shows a Quonset building near Wells, Minn., undergoing a siege of sparks and heat from which it emerged unscathed. More than 140,000 bushels of soybeans stored in the building by Ed Frank and his sons were unharmed.
The need for using such non-combustible buildings as all-steel Quonsets for crop and machinery storage is emphasized by a National Board of Fire Underwriters' report that flames take an estimated toll of $100,000,000 worth of property every year. A large percentage of farm fires results in total or nearly total losses because the ordinary farm structure neither contains nor resists flames, water supplies are insufficient and good fire fighting equipment is not at hand.

Tests Show Diesel Efficiency

How long will a tractor run on one gallon of fuel? The chart above shows the results of a recent test in which three tractors of the same make—but using different fuels—pulled the same load at the same speed. More than 3,000 farmers saw the diesel outlast propane and gasoline burning tractors by several minutes. The test was held during a tractor field day at the University of Nebraska.
In another comparison of tractor fuels at Shattuck, Okla., three tractors pulled 5-bottom plows for a 12-hour period. One tractor, repowered with a 65 H.P. General Motors Diesel, plowed 12 acres more during the period and cost 45% less to operate than a butane tractor and 66% less than a gasoline tractor.

Says Wonderful T

The instant your beautiful Cadillac points its crest into view, it begins to say wonderful things about you. It says, almost as plainly as if the words were written out, that you are a person of achievement in your own world of affairs.

It talks of your good judgment and your splendid taste—and indicates your sense of responsibility for those who ride with you as passengers, or drive beside you in the traffic lanes.

It speaks of your family and home and your way of life—and, in general, paves the way for the respect of those you encounter as you sit at its wheel.

This is true because those who own Cadillacs form a virtual "Who's Who" of America's highways. In almost every community in the country, it is obvious that Cadillac is the favored car of the leading people.

Anybody care to run for this office?

Candidate Wanted: Must be efficient, honest, experienced. Pay and term of office uncertain, since public will vote every day to see if candidate stays in office.

We bet you don't want that job of being forced to get elected every day. Yet it's a reasonably accurate description of what a manufacturer must do to hold his job.

Every day at the sales counter, millions of women and men vote General Electric in or out of a job.

When you stop to think of it, we don't hold office for four years—or even two. We have a daily fight on our hands.

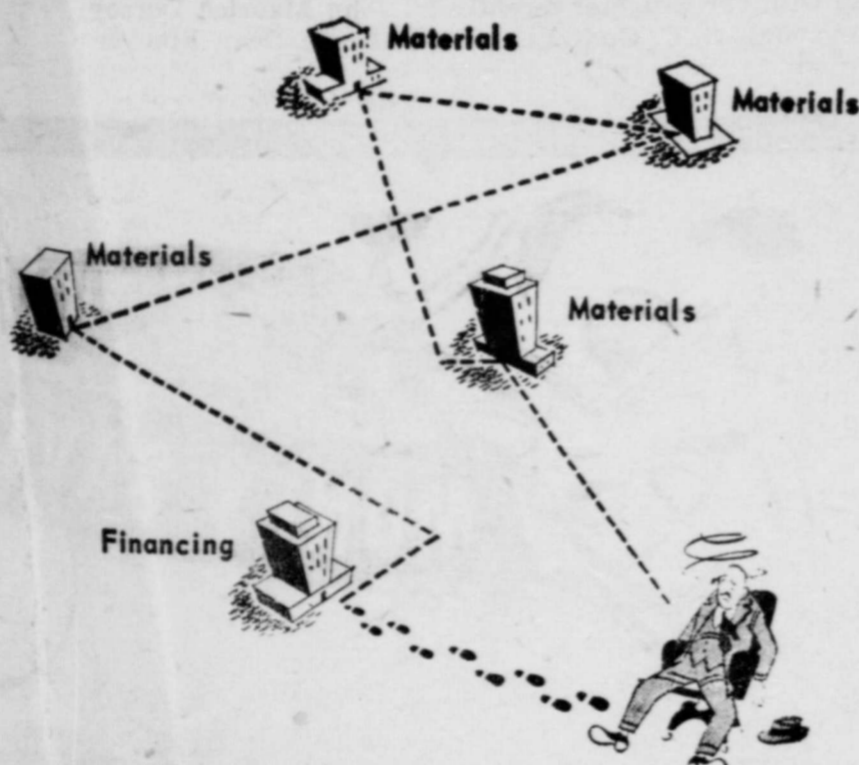

Hands at the sales counter pick up G-E products—hold them, turn them over, inspect them, try them against competitive articles for value and price—then decide for or against.

The only way we can win the election is by constantly improving our product. Thousands of engineers are paid to think up ways to improve, redesign, simplify. We use every known device of mass production to deliver more for the money. And our employees are as keen on winning our daily "public election" as is the salesman at the counter.

Manufacturers sell products on the basis of "be good every day—or get out of office." The result is the American public has the world's highest standard of living.

You'll discover this about a Buick: The more you drive it, the more you like it; the longer your trip, the louder your praise. That's what people tell us. And we'll tell you why. You can drive a Buick three, four, five hundred miles in a single day, and feel fresh enough to keep right on going. You can romp up high hills, cruise straightaways, ease through traffic-tangled towns, clock off hour after hour of relaxed and pleasurable driving—and be no more tired than a neighborhood jaunt would make you. How come this comfort-rich ground-covering ability in a Buick?

There's the ease of deep, soft seats for one thing—and plenty of move-about room for arms, legs, shoulders.

There's Dynaflo Drive* taking all the chore out of driving, and giving your whole ride a satiny smoothness without trace of jerkiness or driving tension.

There's a hoodful of thrilling, tireless power from a high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball 8 Engine that whips out miles like a tarpon reels off line.

There's the soft, steady, solid, swerve-free going of a coil-spring-cushioned ride that's well worth the million-plus dollars it cost to engineer.

There's all this and more—much more—that makes your heart grow fonder of this trim and thrifty traveler. But words can't do justice to a Buick in motion. Only you can. When will you come sample this experience yourself?
