Graduation Exercises Held Last Friday Close Spur Schools

Fifty eight young ladies and young men passed the rostrum last Friday evening to receive diplomas from the Spur High School. This was not the largest class in numbers, but it was a class with one of the best records to be awarded diplomas.

The exercises were held in the Palace Theatre auditorium, the procession and recessional being played by Mrs. Webber Williams, Miss Athelda Yeats and John King, Jr. The procession was led by Miss Sarah McNeill who had served as class sponsor during the entire four years.

Ardon Holmes gave the salutatory address, and then an octette sang the class song, "Leaving School." Miss Twyla Faye Thomas, the honor student, Dr. J. F. Kimball, head of the Baylor Medical College at Dallas, gave the address to the class. Dr. Kimball set out in the beginning the great fact that certain great foundation principles had not changed. He stated that what may change, but the law of gravity, style of dress would ever be the same. In conjunction with this he stated that in the rule of action in life that honor, truth, righteousness and integrity would always be the same. He brought out the fact that life is becoming too mechanical, and that "ingenuity has out-run wisdom."

R. B. Neilson, high school principal, recommended that the 58 members of the class be awarded diplomas. Supt. Sam Z. Hall then awarded the diplomas and the parting hour for the class came.

TO THE VOTERS AND CITIZENS OF DICKENS COUNTY:

Due to the fact of my being in office as Sheriff at the present time, and also seeking re-election as your sheriff and tax collector and assessor, it will be impossible for me to see each of you voters personally, but nevertheless, it is my intention to see as many of you as possible. There is nothing I could say or do that would change your opinion at this time, the record of my being your official stands as it is. You are the judge of said past 3 1/2 years, if you think I am entitled to this office one more term, I am earnestly asking you for your vote and influence at this time. I am at this time working for the County and if I take the time off and make a house to house campaign, some one will be paying for some work, that should not be entitled to receive wages for; so again I will try to see as many as I can on the streets and in your business, I am asking you to investigate the record for yourself, and if you think I am entitled to this office as your official for the next two years, I will certainly appreciate your consideration and vote in the July Primary.

Respectfully yours,
W. B. ARTHUR.

All schools are now out except one. Heretofore I could not campaign because I was needed in the schools. The County Superintendent's work for several weeks now is a matter of report making. Mr. Twaddell will work in the office and make these reports while I campaign. Of course this is without any cost to the County or State.

I plan to see you individually as soon as possible but until then I want you to know that I shall deeply appreciate anything you do to further my candidacy.

"Carolina" Coming To Palace Sunday

With a star-studded cast, headed by such stellar performers as Janet Gaynor, Lionel Barrymore, Henrietta Crosman and Robert Young, Fox Film will present its latest release, "Carolina," at the Palace Theatre on Sunday and Monday. The film will remain for an engagement of only two days. The production is reported as being so magnificent in scope and so dramatic theme, that it necessitated the use of a cast of seven great stars to do it justice. The array of personalities present in the cast, and the advance reports on the film, give "Carolina" the promise of being one of the outstanding productions of the new year.

Laid against a Southern background of a far-reaching tobacco plantation, the story centers about a decadent Southern family striving to regain its former glory. The son of the family falls in love with a poor daughter of the North who has come to raise tobacco on a portion of the land. Although his mother and uncle object to the girl, the young man is impressed by her talk, which stirs him to ways and means of rebuilding the plantation. How the young girl breaks down the icy dignity of the aristocratic family and brings prosperity to the old Southern plantation is heralded as being one of the most vivid dramatic picturizations ever to be presented.

Janet Gaynor and Robert Young have the romantic leads. Besides Lionel Barrymore and Henrietta Crosman, the cast boasts such names as Richard Cromwell, Mona Barrie, Stepin Fetchit, Russell Simpson, Ronnie Cosby, Jackie Cosbey, Almada Fowler and Alden Chase.

Date Set For County Clothing Contest

CLARA PRATT, Home Agent
The county clothing contest is to be held July 7 was the date set last week when it was learned that Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist of the Extension Service can not be here for the judging in June. Two home demonstration agents from nearby counties will do the judging. The contest is an annual event marking the close of the wardrobe year and will be held in the Baptist church, Spur.

The two classes of wardrobe demonstrators' dresses will be judged along with their record books and stories beginning at 10:00 Saturday morning, July 7. The Council is giving a scholarship to the A and M Short Course to the winner in each class. The co-operators are to meet by clubs at 10:30 when they will score their own dresses and select the winners from club. These club winners in turn will be judged by the contest judges to select the county winners. The first place winner among the co-operators will also receive a scholarship to the Short Course, from the Council.

In the April meeting of the Council that organization decided that the co-operators may use prints, gingham, broadcloth, pique, seersucker, batiste, dimity, swiss, or linen for their dresses. Each one is to show her foundation pattern and slip made by it. In judging the dresses emphasis will be given to the appearance of the dress on the individual and the suitability of the pattern to the material and the line and color to the wearer.

Weldon Alexander and family, of Dallas, are here this week visiting his father, Rev. G. C. Alexander and children. Mr. Alexander has been away from Spur about seven years and during that time has married and has two fine children. He stated that he enjoys meeting his boyhood friends. He will return to Dallas about Sunday.

R. Lee Robinson was confined to his bed a few days as a result of broken ribs. Slipped in the bath tub a few days ago and jerked some ribs loose.

Spur Golfers Close Ladder Tournament

The members of the Espuela Golf and Country Club closed the first ladder tournament of the season Monday afternoon. It was a very hot contest and many members declare they never had so much fun playing golf before in their lives.

The membership was divided into three flights. The winner in the first flight was W. T. Andrews, Leonard Culbert and Reuben Draper tied for second honors. In the second flight B. Williamson carried off first honors and H. P. Gibson was second in rank. The third flight went to Lee Snodgrass for first honors and Charlie Fox took second.

Soil Moistures In Spur Territory

A series of tests for soil moistures made at depths of one foot to three feet one week ago, revealed some remarkable facts. Nine tests were made on various farms about Spur.

G. W. Chancellor farm one mile north of Spur, a Miles loam soil, showed 17.9 per cent at one foot; 18.28 per cent at two feet deep, and 9.56 per cent at three feet deep. Rainfall has not penetrated this soil very rapidly.

S. R. Bowman farm, four miles north of town, a Spur fine sandy loam, showed moisture percentage as follows: One foot deep, 17.54; two feet deep, 17.6; three feet deep, 19.44.

Farm of Jones and Lee, three miles north of town at southeast corner. Miles fine sandy loam, moisture percentage at one foot deep, 15.69; two feet deep, 15.13; at three feet, 13.11. The same farm one mile west of the above test where an Abilene clay is prominent the following results were obtained: One foot, 19.6; two feet, 15.69; three feet, 13.88.

George S. Link farm one mile northwest of Spur where a deep clay loam is found, one foot deep, 38.87; two feet deep, 17.29; three feet deep, 13.54.

P. F. Pope farm two miles southwest of Spade draw where a fine clay loam is found the moisture percentage showed: one foot deep, 31.86; two feet deep, 29.11; three feet deep, 20.36.

C. E. Robinson farm three miles southwest of town, with an Abilene clay loam, the results were: one foot, 16.09; two feet, 14.25; three feet, 13.91.

R. E. Dickson farm five miles north east of Spur on the north side of the farm where a Miles sandy loam, shallow phase, is found; one foot deep, 13.58; two feet, 9.88; three feet, 12.05.

On southwest corner of same farm where a deep phase of Miles sandy loam is found it stood: one foot deep, 14.84; two feet deep, 15.22, and three feet deep, 15.13.

The lack of moisture at a depth of three feet in the loams and clay loams is very noticeable while the sandy loams have fair distribution to a lower depth. This is very outstanding on the Jones and Lee farm with a total available moisture of 6.39 inches on the Miles sandy loam and 2.52 on the Abilene clay loam. With a possible 75 per cent of the summer rainfall becoming available on the sandy loams due to a rapid penetration to a lower depth, and with a possibility of not over 50 per cent of the rainfall becoming available on the clay loams due to runoff and a more rapid evaporation, it seems that the sandy soils have a distinct advantage.

The wilting factor for each of these soils has not been accurately determined for each of these points, but from several sources of the best information it runs from 4.00 on the sandy loams to 8.00 and 12.00 on the Abilene and Spur clay loams.

Water content on the upper foot of the Link farm and the upper two feet on the Pope farm run exceptionally high. These farms are open alluvial soil and are subject to overflow.

A CORRECTION

The Times recently carried an article relative to the Spur Bakery which might be a little misleading. It was in regard to the capacity of the new electric oven which was installed recently. They can bake around 2,500 loaves of bread every eight hours in this new oven, but they are only using a part of the oven at this time and are not baking that many loaves of bread. The oven is used a great deal of time for preparing other bakery products.

Kalgary Man Dies Of Knife Wounds

Colys E. Witt, 22, of Kalgary, died Tuesday evening as a result of knife wounds. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church at Spur at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Wayne Grizzle, assisted by Rev. M. F. Ewton, read the funeral rites. Interment followed in Spur cemetery, Webber Williams acting as funeral director.

Young Witt was born in Runnels County and moved with his parents to Kalgary in November 1913. He was educated in the school at Kalgary and at the time of his death was staying with his father. He had been working in Arizona and was planning to return there in the near future.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Witt; six brothers, C. P. Witt, Elton Witt, Dee Oliver Witt, of Kalgary; L. L. Witt and C. W. Witt of Arizona; and L. D. Witt of Red Top community; four sisters, Mrs. Ruby Love and Mrs. Belle Sweeney of Lower Red Mud, Mrs. Estelle Mazze of Kalgary, and Misses Novelle and Dorothy Opal Witt who are at home with their parents.

Young Witt was stabbed in an altercation at Crosbyton about noon Monday. James Cross and his son, James, Jr., were taken into custody by Crosby County officials. The only information relative to the cause that has been secured was that Mr. Witt had twitted young Mr. Cross in regard to some young lady which started the trouble. Cross made an attack on Witt with his knife and soon the elder Mr. Cross joined in to assist his son. Three very bad wounds were inflicted. One in the upper portion of the plural cavity at the right front, the other two were in the back, one very bad wound between the sixth and seventh vertebrae.

Crosbyton physicians administered first aid to the wounded man, but it was thought best to get him to a sanitarium. He was brought by ambulance to the Nichols Sanitarium at Spur where X-ray pictures were made and an operation was performed and all bleeding stopped. However, the loss of blood and the shock was too great and the crisis came.

The wound at the front penetrated through the plural cavity into the right lung. It is thought this caused internal hemorrhages into the lung cavity. The entire plural cavity was filled with clotted blood when Mr. Witt reached the sanitarium. He was too weak to stand this removed.

The Witt family and Cross family were neighbors and had never had any trouble before so far as reports stand.

WICHITA BOARD ELECTS TEACHERS

The Board of Education for the Wichita school district held a meeting last week and selected a faculty for the coming school year. Miss Mabel Dowell was re-elected as principal of the school. Miss Ovia Carney of Spur, was elected intermediate teacher and Miss Dot Lisenby, of Spur, was elected primary teacher. Miss Leonora Lisenby was re-elected as teacher of the school at the Pitchfork Ranch.

Miss Dowell has served one term as principal at Wichita and was a teacher in the school before she was elected principal. Miss Leonora Lisenby has been teaching at the Pitchfork Ranch for a number of years. The school at the Ranch is considered part of the Wichita school.

HUTTO FAMILY ENJOY REUNION

The children of Mrs. G. W. Hutto recently gathered at her home for a family reunion which was much enjoyed. There were 20 families represented and 59 present. All went to the Dickens Springs for dinner and had the advantage of the shade where they spent the afternoon.

The present were: Rev. A. A. Hutto of Beatrice, Ala. who had not seen the other members for ten years; J. B. and J. R. Hutto of Post, Jno. R. Hutto of Abilene, Rev. and Mrs. Geo. C. Hutto and children of Walters, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hutto and children of Tulsa, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Daughtry and children of Rule, Mrs. Claude Ivinville and baby of Rule, Mrs. Wayne Dennison of Rule, Rev. and Mrs. Millard Smith and children of Red Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sonnemaker and children of Duck Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hargrove and baby of Spur, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hutto and children of Spur, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Hutto and children of Spur, Mrs. Alma Smalling and two children of Lubbock, Mrs. J. D. Reeves of Abilene.

This is the first time that so many of the family had been together in many years. It is the hope of many who were present on this occasion that the reunion be conducted every year but it is not known yet that it can be done.

With an editorial policy exemplifying the new deal in a more sympathetic understanding of student life, Miss Mildred Bierschwale, editor of the student newspaper at Texas State College for Women (CIA), was awarded the Lemon Memorial Plaque for the most outstanding article of achievement of the year. This is the most desired award presented during the entire college year.

ELABORATE BUILDING PROGRAM AT COWBOY REUNION

The most elaborate building program undertaken in any year since the Texas Cowboy Reunion was organized in 1930 is now in progress there on a group of one mile southwest of Stamford. Having weathered four depressing years with a remarkable yearly increase in attendance, the reunion is now a well established institution. Attendance last year was estimated at 42,000.

The Texas Cowboy Reunion, incorporated, the organization responsible for the financing of the annual meeting and improvement and maintenance of the grounds, has several projects under way. Among these is a new grand stand on the east side of the rodeo arena which will increase the seating capacity 25 per cent. The new stand provides a more comfortable type of seats than the old stand. This project is to cost $1,575, and will be completed before this year's celebration, to be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 2, 3, and 4.

Another improvement which has been contemplated for several years and which is now under construction is a large pavilion on the grounds to serve as a place for meeting and for dance at night. The pavilion is to be 48 by 60 feet. The roof will be built of height to allow for a second floor to be built in the future. The present building will cost $1,500.

Improvements on corrals, chutes and sheds at the rodeo arena will cost approximately $400. These additional will give greater conveniences for John Solmon, arena director, and his crew is handling the rodeo contests. Another $225 is being spent on stalls and pens to be leased to visitor for their horses.

Besides these improvements being made by the Reunion management, the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association, a separate organization made up of pioneer cowboys, is erecting a permanent headquarters building and bunk house on the grounds. The first unit of this stone structure will be completed before the 1934 Reunion at a cost of $3,500. The building as designed will cost $6,000 when completed. The unit now being built is the center part of the structure, consisting of a living room 30 by 50 feet and in front of this is a broad, concrete terrace, 36 by 50 feet. Wings of the building will be added later.

Chevrolet registered 63,458 passenger cars during April or 38.2 per cent of price class. This April figure shows an increase of 12,662 units over the March registration figure when Chevrolet led the entire industry in passenger cars by registering 60,796 units or 38.3 per cent of price class.

Chevrolet maintained the lead in the commercial car and truck field, making an impressive showing by registering 15,050 units in April. Total registrations of Chevrolet commercial

Three More Enter Race For Congress New 19th District

Taylor White, of Tahoka, former vocational agricultural teacher in that city, has thrown his hat into the ring and declared himself a full-fledged candidate for congressman for the new 19th Congressional District. To match off with this announcement J. A. (Swede) Johnson, of Lamesa, has filed for a place on the ticket in the first primary for the same office. Joe Thompson of Plainview, "Mysterious Joe" also announced as a candidate. This makes eight in the race and the interest is growing.

Monday was the last day for any candidate for a state or district office to file. The line-up of candidates for congress in the 19th District are: Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield, Clark M. Mullican and Homer Pharr of Lubbock, George H. Mahon of Colorado, Taylor White of Tahoka, Johnson of Lamesa and Fred C. Haile of Spur.

By these two men entering the race from the West side of the district and coming from two rather populous counties, is giving the Spur man a very fine opportunity to go into the second primary. It looks now, according to reports coming in from parts of the district that Haile will lead all candidates in the first primary, and if he continues to gain the next six weeks as he has the past two weeks he will be far in advance of any other candidate.

Mr. Haile made addresses at Aspermont, Swenson, Peacock and Jayton Saturday, speaking to more than 1,000 people during the afternoon. He addressed the voters at Lamesa Monday in one of the most enthusiastic receptions he has received yet. He is in Dawson and Lynn counties this week, and next Saturday he will make addresses at Idalou, Lorenzo, Ralls and Crosbyton. Mr. Haile is a good speaker and holds the attention of his audience in a fine manner.

NEW ISSUE OF FARM MORTGAGE BONDS ACCEPTED

The new issue of Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation three per cent bonds are being accepted readily by farmers and their creditors in all parts of Texas, according to A. C. Williams, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston and general agent of the Farm Credit Administration. Dated May 15, 1934, the new bonds mature 15 years after date of issue and are callable after 10 years.

Bonds heretofore used in making loans bore three and a quarter per cent. The success of the first issue is being repeated in the second. Commercial banks in Houston, Dallas, and other cities in Texas have signified their willingness to serve as agents for borrowers or their creditors in disposing of bonds, which are finding ready sale.

Factors which contribute to the excellent market value of the bonds, as explained by Mr. Williams, include their safety as investment. They are lawful security for 15-day borrowings by member banks of the Federal Reserve System, and are lawful investments and may be accepted as security for all fiduciary, trust, and public funds of which the deposit or investment is under the authority or control of the government. The bonds are guaranteed unconditionally by the United States government, both as to principal and interest; they are exempt from all Federal, state, municipal and local taxation, except surtaxes, estate, inheritance and gift taxes.

Those who find it necessary or desirable to sell Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation bonds for cash at any time are advised to acquaint themselves with the current price quotations on the principal markets where government bonds are sold.

Fred Arrington, of the Sheriff's Department, was in our city Tuesday attending to official business and meeting the voters in his race for County Clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Lee have a new daughter in their home. She arrived Friday and has been named Annette. Both mother and daughter are doing fine.

cars and trucks for the year through April were 49,797 units, 47.4 per cent of weight class.

Registration figures for March and April definitely establish Chevrolet as America's fastest selling car and forecast another year of Chevrolet dominance in the automotive industry. Chevrolet has led the industry in sales during five of the last seven years.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men
Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.
But don't take salts, mineral waters, etc., laxative pills, laxative candies or shaving gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Comment won't help at all. Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only the mild vegetable cathartic. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. See at drug stores.

he started down the hill toward the bridge that he floored the accelerator in order to get the thrill of sudden declines. He forgot about the runners on the bridge and lost control when two wheels skidded off the runners. The car went through the railing at the west end of the bridge landing in the river bed on the south side. Parker was reported thrown out of the car and left on the highway with the back of his head crushed. The others in the car were in it when it stopped in the river bed. Jack Foreman received a small face wound and all received a few bruises and badly shocked. The car body was wrecked. The motor and gears were all right and the car could have been driven out except one steering rod was bent which threw one wheel out of line. Parker was proprietor of the Red & White Grocery at Clairemont. The body was taken back there for funeral services which were held Saturday.

County Superintendent Madge D. Twaddell was in our city Monday attending to official duties and meeting the voters in behalf of a second term.

Loans Refinance Farmers' Debts In Dickens County

A total of $245,300 of Federal land bank and Land Bank Commissioner's farm mortgage loans was made in Dickens County, Texas, from June 1, 1933, to May 1, 1934, according to the Farm Credit Administration. Of this total, farmers in Dickens County used approximately $233,800, or 95.3 per cent to refinance their indebtedness. By refinancing, farmers obtained new mortgage loans which they used to repay their old debts. They generally reduced their annual interest charges in doing so. In a number of cases, scale-downs of indebtedness occurred in connection with the new loans. These and other advantages benefited farmers primarily. Secondly, creditors benefited from the receipt of cash or bonds in exchange for obligations they held. Of the loan money used by farmers in Dickens County for refinancing their debts, about $22,000, it was estimated, repaid their debts to banks; $50,300, their debts to insurance companies; $10,100, their taxes; $77,800, their debts to "others", or creditors not separately classified, including private mortgage lenders, mortgage and many others to whom farmers were in debt. A total of $11,500 of loans in the county was used for purposes other than the refinancing of borrowers' debts. Of this sum $3,200 was used for the purchase of land and equipment, the construction or improvement of buildings, and for general agricultural uses, including the provision of capital, while $8,300, the balance, was used for the purchase of stock in national farm loan associations, for loan fees, etc. Throughout the United States approximately $675,000,000 of land bank and Commissioner's loans were made from June 1, 1933, to May 1, 1934. Most of these loans were made to refinance debts resulting from the long period of low farm income. Generally farmers pay considerably less interest each year on the new made through national farm loan associations carry an interest rate of 5 than on the old loans. Land bank loans per cent, but there is a reduction to 4 1-2 per cent until July, 1938. Loans made direct by banks carry a rate of 5 1-2 per cent, but there is a reduction to 5 per cent until 1938. The rate on Commissioner's loans is 5 per cent. Against these rates farmers in most cases had been paying from 5 per cent to 8 per cent, but on numerous loans they had been paying 9 per cent, 10 per cent, and even above 10 per cent.

Until March 26 the land bank and Commissioner's loans were made in cash. Commencing on that date they were made mainly in the government guaranteed bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation. These bonds are exempt from all Federal, state, municipal and local taxation, except surtaxes, estate, inheritance and gift taxes. They are guaranteed fully as to principal and interest by the United States government. In a relatively short period after they were issued, they sold above par and had met a favorable reception from farmers and their creditors all over the United States. With the use of these bonds, the refinancing program is going forward rapidly.

TOM HUNTER GAINING IN GOVERNOR'S RACE
WICHITA FALLS, June 7—Results of a cross section poll taken in 231 counties of the state of Texas from which returns have been received show that Tom Hunter, of Wichita Falls, is running either first or second at the present time in each of these counties, according to announcement from his state headquarters in the governor's race. An interesting index to the sentiment in Central Texas is a poll being conducted by the Temple Telegram at Temple. This poll, which has been running for about 10 days, gives Hunter first place with 131 votes, Allred second with 97, McDonald in third place with 58 votes, and Edgar Witt, Maury Hughes and Clint Small, fourth, fifth and sixth places respectively.

An editorial carried several days ago in the Beaumont Enterprise concedes that Hunter will carry Jefferson county, in which Beaumont and Port Arthur are located. Strong organizations have been built up for Hunter in the larger cities of the state, namely Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Waco, Austin, Galveston, and El Paso. In his last campaign, Hunter polled more than 220,000 votes but did not have city organizations to further his campaign and as a check of the 1932 first primary figures will show he drew his heaviest support from the rural sections. This year, he is reported much stronger in every section of the state and using his 220,000 votes of two years ago as a base to figure from, Hunter's supporters are enthusiastic in their hopes for a count of over 400,000 votes in the July 28 primary.

In view of the fact that Wichita county is the home of three of the major candidates for the governorship, considerable interest is manifest in the trend of sentiment there. Recently the San Antonio Express, which is not supporting Hunter for the Governor's post, sent a staff political writer into Wichita Falls to take a poll as a basis for a resume of the political situation. After this poll, the San Antonio writer declared in his paper that he had interviewed scores of people in Wichita County "from banker to hack driver and they are all for him. Tom Hunter will poll more votes in Wichita county than all the other candidates for governor combined."

Because of his outspoken opposition to the public utilities, the major oil companies and the chain stores in the presentation of his program for a Texas recovery, Hunter is operating his campaign on a very minimum of financial contributions. "The plain people" as he refers to the mass of the voters are sending in small contributions to his campaign, however. One of the winning planks in Hunter's platform, which he is pushing steadily, is his plan for a blended tax system to relieve the burden on real estate. Speaking in his direct, forceful way, Hunter is winning thousands of converts to his cause with his demand that real estate be relieved from bearing the major portion of the tax burden, while the greater portion of the income in the state from sources other than real estate is escaping without meeting what he points out to be a fair share of the tax burden.

Of Hunter's method of campaigning, one well-known political writer has this to say: "His sincerity and honesty are impressing all those who hear him. His popularity among those he calls plain folks and of which rank he declares himself proud to be one is attracting large crowds to hear him. Even this early, when politics are not as hot as they get to be in late June and July, he is drawing the largest crowds of any candidate. Coming forward only two years ago, practically unknown in most parts of the state, Hunter has risen to be one of the most important factors to be considered in outlining the outlook in the governor's race."

FARM SALES INCREASING
Farm sales by the Federal Land Bank of Houston continue to make steady gains, according to figures supplied by E. R. Eiland, Acting Manager Land Department. Records for May show that 26 farms were disposed of, while in May of last year only eight farms were sold by the bank. That this is the result of a steady uptrend and not just a coincidence is supported by comparison of data on the first five months in 1934 with a similar period in 1933. Mr. Eiland pointed out. In the period, January to May inclusive, 1934, the Federal Land Bank sold 130 farms for $374,175.00, during the same months in 1933, there were 80 farms sold for a total selling price of $258,515.50. Cash down payments and average prices per acre have shown similar improvement, he said.

In commenting upon the terms upon which the bank makes sales, Mr. Eiland said: "Ordinarily the bank requires as much as 20 per cent cash. The balance may be paid over a period of 10 to 20 years at five per cent per annum interest, with installments payable either annually or semi-annually."

AN ALL DAY QUILTING

Tuesday, May 29th, was a very enjoyable day at the home of Mrs. R. L. Glenn when friends from Duncan Flat, Prairie Chapel, Afton and Roaring Springs began to gather in about nine o'clock. Mrs. Glenn had up four quilts, which we began work on at once and quilted until about twelve o'clock, when we were called to the out door living room, where a big table under the shade trees was loaded with good things to eat such as fried chicken, baked chicken and dressing, fresh vegetables, salads, boiled ham, pickles, pies and cakes of all kinds, served with ice tea and coffee. Each one did their part of their eating and talking. Five quilts were completed and three more almost quilted out.

What a joyful time we all had. The guests began to leave for their homes about five o'clock. Those present were: Mesdames R. B. Scott, D. O. Blasingame, W. F. Clements, M. K. Lawson, R. E. Zachary, Annie Johnson, Paul Braddock, D. W. Hughes, J. W. Hilton, B. F. Jackson, Joe M. Rose, Chlora Pernel, Joe Thorn-ton, Annie Alexander, W. F. Van Cleve, H. B. Alexander, Ross Murphy, R. C. Nance, R. C. Galloway, R. L. Nance, R. C. Calvert, J. M. Dunlap, Sarah Goodwin, Bob H. Ferguson, Orpha Ferguson, Dora Barr, E. A. Glenn, F. F. Henry, L. W. Bell of Lubbock, A. J. Dozier, C. Bowman, Gladys Wilson, Allie Barton, Nita Middleton, J. B. Greenwood, Eula Woods, Chester Henry, Herman Henry, Fred Christopher and R. L. Glenn. Misses Emma Gipson, Opal Hughes, Lorena Zachary, Dorothy Christopher, Roberta Bowman and Lyndell Mae Glenn. The children present were: Wilma Nance, Billie Bobbie Lee and Lillian Ruth Ferguson, Tommie Joe Alexander, W. F. Van Cleve, Delmont, Mary and Jimmie Ferguson, Ruth Bowman, Freddie James Henry, Vernell and Keithel Henry and Loyd Hilton.—One Present.

DEMONSTRATOR IS PLEASED WITH WORK
 "When we began rebuilding our bedroom there was no ceiling in the room and no paper on the walls. We ceiled the room and then papered with builders' paper. We had enough lumber left from the ceiling to build a clothes closet of which I am very proud. It extends to the ceiling and has a space above for quilts. There are shelves for bed linens, folded clothes and shoes," reports Mrs. Tom Martin, bedroom demonstrator for the Espuela home demonstration club. "We did the room in blue and tan since it is our living room too. On the floor we put a blue and tan linoleum rug. I used blue marquisette curtains for the windows. I finished the bed and dresser with brown paint. We built a bookcase and desk combined and painted it too. I needed it too. I needed a table in the room so we built it from the sides of an old safe." "I am well pleased with my room. At first I did not want to be bedroom demonstrator but I am very glad that I did as my room has more than paid me for my work and I am very proud of it."

Old School Mate Tells Why He Favors Hunter

One morning there appeared on the campus of Old Polytechnic College, Fort Worth, Texas, about 1907, a young flashy lad, dressed in a stetson hat and boots, his coat of one shade and his trousers of another. His hat was just about as large as the boy.

When we gathered at Old Mulkey Hall for dinner this young man made his approach at the dining table just across from where I was sitting. There were then seated at this table some of our local citizens, C. E. Litchfield, C. A. Rogers and A. F. Edwards. This young man was from one of the extreme western counties. We then became acquainted with Tom Hunter.

Immediately he opened a pressing shop in Mulkey Hall and started cleaning and pressing clothes to earn his board. We paid $10.00 a month for our room and board. Our meats consisted of toughest steaks which were known to every Old Mulkey Hall student as Ox Yoke.

Tom joined the debating club and soon he developed into one of our leading debaters. Hunter was an orphan boy and had to earn his way through school. When summer came he did not return home like most of us boys, but took a contract to sell Bibles in East Texas, and hot hoofed it all over East Texas peddling his books. Then in the fall when they begin to gather their cotton he took a buggy, and horse in that section and delivered his bibles. I have heard him say he cleared $200.00 a summer. This paid his way through school, with the additional work he did in his pressing shop for the local school boys.

Tom made good grades and was liked by all the students and became a leader. We nick named him "Joe Bailey the Second", due to his able debating and what we called the big Jefferson speeches he wrote at that time. He finished his work in Old Polytechnic as a Grade A student. And from there he went to a State College and prepared himself to teach. While teaching he studied law and became an attorney.

In about 1913 he came to Wichita Falls and started practicing law, and soon became one of the best civil lawyers at the bar. From this he ventured into other investments and was successful.

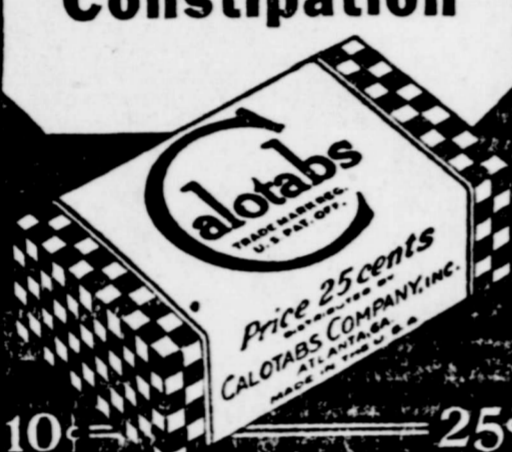

Not many of the local people in this vicinity and district realize what an extreme effort Hunter made to secure his education. He was a born fighter. He debated various questions in school. He always fought diligently on any question that he thought was right. He has known nothing but work having worked at that young age for his food and education, and to this day works long and tedious hours. Not many people know that he once sold Bibles summer after summer to earn his living and secure his education. But these facts can be borne out by several local citizens: Grundy Shappard, C. E. Litchfield, C. A. Rogers, Mrs. T. A. Hicks, and A. F. Edwards, all of Wichita Falls, Texas. Some people wonder why he delivered such a vote at the last election. But it was due to his hard and long hours of work, and the message that he delivered to the people in which he believed he was right.

Firestone

Tires have been on the winning cars in the gruelling Indianapolis 500-Mile Race FOR 15 CONSECUTIVE YEARS

EVERY winner in the 500-Mile Indianapolis Race — the most gruelling tire test in the world — drove to victory on Firestone High Speed Tires.

Race drivers know that heat generated by friction inside the cotton cords is the greatest enemy of tire life. These men will not risk their lives on any but Firestone Tires, because they know the high stretch cords in every Firestone Tire are protected by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Gum-Dipping soaks the high stretch cords in liquid rubber and saturates and coats the millions of fibers inside the cords, counteracting destructive friction and heat. It provides greater adhesion between the plies of the tire, and between the Gum-Dipped cord body and the tread.

Firestone chemists and engineers kept pace with new car developments by building stronger, safer tires to meet the exacting demands. Drive in today and equip your car with new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934, with deeper, thicker, flatter, and wider non-skid tread, more and tougher rubber, more traction, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Remember, in Firestone High Speed Tires there is Greater Strength — Greater Safety — and Greater Blowout Protection than in any tire made.

THE ADHESION TEST

Note how the rubber in a Firestone Tire clings to the high stretch Gum-Dipped cords. This greater adhesion and strength is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Note how the rubber in an ordinary tire pulls away from the cords that have not been soaked and insulated with rubber. This causes friction and heat within the cords, resulting in separation.

CHEVROLET DELIVERIES UP

Chevrolet dealers delivered 43,311 units during the first twenty days of May, according to William E. Holler, general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor Company.

Retail deliveries during the year to May 20 totaled 324,344 against 223,857 units for the same period of 1933, 145 per cent of the same time last year.

Retail deliveries of commercial cars and trucks continued to gain. Dealers delivered 7,943 commercial units during this twenty day period against 5,470 for the same period a year ago.

"Because of the tremendous public demand for the new 1934 model knee action cars, production has not yet been able to keep pace with sales requirements," said Mr. Holler. "The May report shows that Chevrolet dealers have on hand 30,000 unfilled orders for knee action models. This, to-

MALARIA ON THE INCREASE

According to information reaching the Texas State Department of Health, the number of malaria cases is increasing; a sharp turn upward was noted for May. This is directly related to a parallel increase in the number of mosquitoes. The malaria unit reports that not for years have they noticed such large numbers of mosquitoes.

Probably one item that favors this increase is the mild winter and rainfall which leads to many temporary collections of water. Of course the breeding of mosquitoes is not limited to temporary water, but they are the ones that are often the cause of the increase of the mosquito population. They must have water to propagate.

Attention paid to the following and similar points will largely reduce the opportunities for mosquito breeding. Remove all trash from the back yard, including old cans, pails, bottles, and automobile tires or bodies. Clean up the premises.

Put new washers in leaky hydrants. Screen rain-water barrels or oil them regularly. Get some top-minnows and place them in lily pools and cisterns. Look over the roof gutters and drain-spouts and remove trash and straighten up any sagged portions. Change the water in flower vases frequently. If there are low spots in the yard where water stands for days after a rain, either fill or drain these places. In any event before complaint is made about mosquitoes to the health department, be sure that your own premises have been thoroughly inspected and found free from mosquito breeding places.

PEACEFUL HILL CLUB

The Peaceful Hill Club met June 1st at the home of Mrs. Forest Martin, bedroom demonstrator, with a report on their bedroom work this year. Having only seven members, we have added thirteen pieces of furniture, six pair of blankets, twenty-nine quilts, five clothes closets, twenty-two bed slats, six spring covers, eleven mattress covers and seven tufted bed spreads.

Mrs. Martin gave in her story, the most interesting part of her work as the finishing up parts of it. Mrs. Moore said her most interesting work was learning to make the tufted spread; Mrs. Estep enjoys her bed more since adding slats and Mrs. Wyatt enjoyed making her spread, which was on display at the meeting. It is made of 10-4 unbleached muslin with six and one half inch squares running diagonally across the bed in green.

After the business part of the meeting was finished, delicious refreshments of salmon sandwiches, iced tea, and pickles were served to the club members and five visitors.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jim Wyatt, June 15th with a style show of the dresses for the contest and the exhibit of cotton slips made by foundation patterns. Everyone is cordially invited, especially anyone who is interested in having us make hem a foundation pattern. Bring along three yards of unbleached muslin if you want a foundation pattern.

McADOO CLUB REPORT

"Oh, my, I would like to have one of those," was the exclamation of Mrs. Tom Eldredge Tuesday, May 22 at the regular meeting of the McAdoo home demonstration club at the home of Mrs. Dan Embry when Miss Pratt gave a demonstration on tufted bed spreads. Those answering the roll call, "Recent trends in Needle Work", were Mesdames Dan Embry, Tom Eldredge,

Have You Seen the Frigidaire '34?

End your refrigeration worries the modern electrical way!

The safe preservation of foods, according to food chemists and medical authorities, require a temperature below 50 degrees... constantly maintained.

Modern Electrical Refrigeration assures this necessary low temperature... automatically. When the temperature in your Electric Refrigerator rises to 50 degrees, the freezing unit is automatically turned on... when it has been brought down to the correct level, the unit automatically switches off.

Moderate first cost and low operating expense are added considerations suggesting the immediate purchase of a new model Frigidaire.

The Frigidaire '34 operates quietly and with amazingly small amount of current, has automatic ice tray release, automatic defrosting and many other important features.

This is the "Electrical Age. A Frigidaire will be another step to your All-Electric Kitchen. Your increased use of electric service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule and adds only a small amount to your total bill.

Those lilies are an offering fair
Their color pure and white
They shrink from flowing sunlight
They always bloom at night
They are for those mentioned
As maidens fair and sweet
May your paths be strewn with roses
And treasures at your feet.

To my pastor, Rev. Crabtree, Brother Bill and Neighbor men:

I have searched through all my flowers
And found those larkspur fair
They were covered over with butterflies
And lots of bees were there
They like to stay quite near them
For one thing or another
I give them to you, my friends,
You all seem as my brother.

To my Sunday School Class:

Oh, here are my roses
They grew like posies
But I am holding them fast
For my Sunday School Class
For not one of them will I ever pass

They seem so much like
Sparkling jewels so rare
And I hope when Jesus calls
They will all be there.

Those tiny buds I am holding
Are the only ones I have kept
The others were given generously
Those lovely ones were left
They are blossoms of the violet
Its meaning is "True Blue"
I'll give them as a love token,
My husband and children all to you.

To dark-eyed Roxie Lee:

I must not forget you
You have done so much for me
Although you are of a dark hue
You, with the others have strewn flowers
Of kindness around my sick bed
I never shall forget you all
But remember you instead.

TREASURES FROM MY FLOWER GARDEN TO MY FRIENDS

To Nurse Bumpus, Mesdames Henry, Lawson, Dunlap and Clements:

I am handing you a bunch of poppies
They did not grow in California
Nor in the Distant Rockies,
But right here in my garden
A lovely place you should see
Where darts the daring hummingbird
And the busy honey bee.

To Mesdames Glenn, Garrison, Zachery, Winfield, Laird, Rose and Vaughn

Will share my flowers with you
I bring you morning glories
Still wet with heaven's dew,
I took them from my trellis
They grew away up high
I couldn't describe this beauty spot
Though even I should try.

To Mesdames Hughes, Dobkins, York, M. Smith, Hufstetler and Thacker:

Those scarlet trumpets in my hand
Grew on a mountain side.
On slender stems they are swaying
As near the rocks they hide
They are for welcome friends
Who are very kind
I'm sure I will always remember
As they pass through my mind.

To Mesdames Hefner, Campbell, J. Smith, Hill, W. Smiley, Bateman and Calvert:

Black-eyed Susans so old fashioned
Are not liked by every one
But there is real beauty in them
After other flowers are gone
You all may have them
And you need feel no fear
They will bring you much happiness
And plenty of good cheer.

To Mesdames Caruthers, Fretwell, Cornett, Chambers and Wells:

If ever I am partial it is
With my glorious sweet peas
And should I give them all away
Would be my friends to please
Their odor is so fragrant
And color bright and fine
They grew in profusion
On a hardy little vine.

To Mattie, Leonora Pearl, Naomi, Gladys, Lottie and Mamie:

You may think this lovely straw flower
Will soon fade away and die
And its seed like many others
On the wings of the wind will fly
But not so, of this immortal
For its colors bright will stay
So you all take it with you
Though you wander far away.

To Artie Georgia, Beno, Thelma, Eula W. and Iona:

Here are my zinnias
They are old fashioned 'tis true
But I knew you would like the names
So I give them all to you
They cannot boast of fragrance
But the beauty of their hue
Makes up for lack of perfume
As I hand them all to you.

To Misses Ethel, Hattie, Jewel, Ava, Edna and Eudell:

Those bachelor buttons are not so tragic
As the name suggests
They are for friends
And in their hair shall rest
There is such beauty in their color
A bright glow of flame
I think you will surely like them
Just overlook the name.

To Ramzie, Sadie, Eula M., Mary, Madge, Joye, Hazel, Ora, Thelma, Alma and Frankie:
