VOLUME 10

SPUR, DICKENS COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1934

WHOLE NUMBER 474

District Court In Session This Week

The regular session of the District Court for Dickens County convened at Dickens Monday morning. Hon. Kenneth Bain is presiding Judge of the Court. The grand jury was empaneled and set to work. The Judge announced that the second week of Court would be devoted to criminal cases. A number of civil cases have been disposed of up to Wednesday morning as follows:

R. L. Worswick vs. Mae Worswick, marriage annulment and divorce granted.

G. H. Watson vs. Loraine Watson, marriage annulment and divorce granted.

Katie Mitchell vs. Raymond L. Mitchell, marriage annulment and divorce granted.

E. S. Lee vs. E. M. Kahn & Company of Dallas, clearance of title, judgment for the plaintiff.

E. S. Lee vs. A. Harris & Company, clearance of title, judgment for the plaintiff.

Other cases are to be called and disposed of as rapidly as possible. All members of the court in any manner are very busy co-operating in every respect to dispose of all business on the docket.

JURY LIST FOR SECOND WEEK OF COURT

The following is the list of petit jurors for the second week of District Court beginning Monday, August 27, 1934:

A. M. Walker, Horton Barrett, O. E. Minix, R. L. Mimms, Sam Hemp-hill, J. H. Palmer, T. H. Dickey, Earl Van Meter, Z. W. Fowler, W. F. Ragland, E. Dopkins, C. O. Parker, A. W. Van Leer, H. E. Methodist Revival Continues All Week

The revival services at the First Methodist Church continues with great interest. Rev. Hucklebee is bringing some great messages and people are giving excellent attention. Bill Dickinson has a very large number of singers in his choir, and every service is outstanding.

The services are being held at ten o'clock each morning and at 8:15 each evening. The church extends a cordial invitation to everybody to hear the great messages which Rev. Hucklebee is bringing. Services each evening are being held in the open air just south of the church.

Three Famous Stars In Drama of Gambler's Life

Three stars—Clark Gable, William Powell and Myrna Loy—united for the first time, come to the Palace Theatre starting Sunday in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new production, "Manhattan Melodrama."

Laid in New York, the picture presents Gable as a big-shot gambler and racketeer, powerful and dramatic figure of the city's smart night life.

Powell plays Attorney.

Powell is the district attorney who, reared with Gable and always his friend, is forced to choose between faithfulness to his public trust and prosecution of his pal for murder.

Miss Loy is the woman in both their lives, loved by both.

The supporting cast includes Leo Carrillo, Nat Pendleton, George Sidney, Isabel Jewell, Muriel Evans, Thomas Jackson, Claudelle Kaye, Frank Conroy, Noel Madison, Mickey Rooney and Jimmy Butler.

A preview of "Manhattan Melodrama" will be screened at 11:30 p. m. Saturday.

To The People Of Dickens County

Dear Friends:—

I am in the run-off for County Treasurer, as I suppose you all know. I want to thank the people for the good vote you gave me in the First Primary.

My Friends, I am sorry I could not make a house to house canvass this time. I just was not financially able, and I hope you people will not hold that against me. So if you will give me your vote and influence I will appreciate it because I need the job.

Yours truly,
R. E. (Elzie) Holly.

ADDED TO ROTARY PROGRAM THURSDAY

Mr. Elliston, of the State Park Commission, was a guest at the meeting of the Rotary Club last Thursday. Mr. Elliston exhibited slides and showed slides of the Palo Verde Canyon which has been designated as a state park. He made a talk relative to the beautiful scenery in this new park, and any one visiting this beautiful Texas canyon will agree that he could not exaggerate on the scenery. It is a beautiful spot and soon will be a great playground of the west.

Second Sheets at the Times Office.

To The Voters Of Precinct No. 1

Dear Friends:—

I want to thank you for the good support I received in the last primary. Your vote gave me a lead in the run-off campaign for which I am very thankful. I also wish to solicit your support in the election August 27th. I believe I am acquainted with the conditions of our county as they exist today. I feel that I know the needs of the people and if elected will strive to serve the same, and believe some experience in transacting your business will be valuable at this time. I will not be a candidate for Commissioner next time and trust that I can return the office to you in as good or better condition than I found it.

I will appreciate your vote, and hope you vote to your best interest.

Yours very truly,
Austin C. Rose. (Pol. Adv.)

Speaks For Alfred For Governor

Mel Janes, of Lubbock, was in our city Saturday and made an address in behalf of the candidacy of Attorney General Alfred for Governor. Mr. Janes was able to command a very good hearing while he spoke, and while people milled around a great deal some 350 remained to listen to him.

Mr. Janes went into personalities in much of his talk dwelling mostly on the demerits of Mr. Allred's opponent rather than the merits of the candidate he represented. He spoke of Judge Hunter's inefficiency and tried to show wherein it would be a mistake to elect Hunter governor of Texas.

He dwelt at length on Mr. Allred's recovery program stating that the Attorney General stood for everything that will bring back conditions in Texas. He did not outline anything definite in regard to any plan. He stated that the recovery would largely have to be worked out on plans as conditions present themselves.

In speaking of highway construction he said the Attorney General expected to carry on the highway work as it had been done in the past. Then he dwelt at length on the proposed tax reform of Mr. Allred. He classed the Allred plan as a workable plan and that offered by his opponent as an impossibility.

In the course of his address he touched an education, child welfare, convicts, lobby control, utility regulation stating that Mr. Allred stands for scaling down of all utility rates to within reach of the people.

He described the duties of the anti-trust laws, direct relief and stated that the laboring people need jobs and not doles. He included a plan on the agricultural problems, the rights of labor and many other things during his address.

Mr. Janes formerly was with the Attorney General's department but resigned sometime ago and is now in the field in an effort to elect Mr. Allred Governor of Texas.

Sanitarium News

Mrs. Rex Carlisle, of Steel Hill, who underwent an operation ten days ago, was able to leave the sanitarium Sunday.

Terry Erle Wilson, son of Atty. W. D. Wilson of Lubbock, underwent a tonsillectomy Thursday. He is doing fine.

Troy Gregory, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Gregory, of Jayton, was in the sanitarium Friday for an X-ray observation after having swallowed a staple. The staple was removed and the baby is doing fine.

Wilson Garner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Garner, of Red Hill, had an X-ray examination and treatment of an injured shoulder Sunday night, caused from a fall.

T. F. Garrett, of Dickens, X-ray examination and treatment of right hand, injured by a falling beam at Dickens new school building.

CHANGE IN BUS SCHEDULE

A change in schedule has been made in the morning bus leaving Spur for Wichita Falls. The bus now leaves at 8:50 o'clock a. m. and arrives in Wichita Falls at 1:05 p. m. All other schedules are the same.

Judge Mullican Talks To Voters Here

Judge Clark M. Mullican, District Judge at Lubbock, addressed the voters of Dickens County at Spur Friday evening in behalf of his candidacy for Congress from the 18th Congressional District. After being introduced by Fred C. Haile, Judge Mullican stated that he was glad to be able to address the voters here again. He stated that he had a warm feeling for Dickens County and felt that he has many friends here.

In the opening of his address he stated that he did not think that the place of birth for either himself or his opponent would be any outstanding qualification for a Congressman. He said that he was born on a farm in Ellis County, had worked on a farm during his boyhood days and had been in the farming and ranch business all his life. He then referred to his opponent's platform and stated that he observed three planks from his platform and two planks taken from the platform of Senator Dugan. He then asked why his opponent had taken the liberty to take "three planks out of my platform" since the first Primary. Then he said, "My program in the First Primary is just as it is now."

He then launched into national affairs and said the Government should do something for the farmers and stockmen of the country. He said the government guarantees to the railroads, and other industries, the right for these industries to make at least a reasonable profit on their investments. Yet, a farmer may invest several thousand dollars in a farm and then not be able to pay the taxes on it. He then stated that the man who produces from the soil should have some privileges guaranteed to him. He said the Secretary of Agriculture should give information which will inform the people how much it costs to produce a bale of cotton, or a white face calf. Then the farmer and stockmen should have a reasonable profit above that production cost.

He stated that in order to build up industries in the early days of the American Republic the Federal Government placed a tariff on manufactured goods shipped into this country. But, does the government place a tariff on products of the soil? He then stated how crude oil is being shipped into this country in direct opposition to the sale of American produced crude oil which is keeping the price of oil down. He stated that other ships coming into American ports laden with beef and hides produced on free grass and cheap labor, is not helping the cattle market in this country any.

In speaking of the cotton situation he stated there is reported 10,000,000 bales surplus in warehouses. He said the government should have a check up on this cotton and report the actual amount of tondorable cotton in storage. He said that a great percentage of the cotton has been in warehouses so long that much of the bagging has rotted off and the lint is so old that it would pulverize if any one should attempt to move it.

He said the distribution system of the country must be wrong. There is hunger in our country with granaries everywhere full of foodstuff. There are people without clothing and the government reporting a big surplus of cotton. The government should take over the good cotton in the warehouses and have it made into cloth to clothe the poor. Give it over to the Red Cross and see that it is properly distributed. He said further the government should guarantee the payment of the cotton tags.

He dwelt for a time on the old age pension stating that it should be. There is no reason why an aged couple should be taken over by institutions of charity and a man placed in one building and his wife in another building and be separated in their old days when they should be a comfort to each other, just because they were unfortunate and unable to lay up enough to keep them in their infirmities.

He advocated the payment of the soldiers' bonus and the universal draft act. He said the railroads, munition factories and ship yards taken over by the government all received a bonus. Why should the men drafted into service by the government to face the cannons and death be neglected.

He said the Universal Draft just meant that any time Congress declares war on any country, that all the various food factories, munition factories, shipyards, and everything needed by the government in the execution of war would at once come into the control of the government and remain so until the war closed. The government takes control of the men, he asked why not the government take control of all resources and factories essential to carrying on a war? Then he said there would be no opportunity of profit and graft by war. If that be the case, then the big munition factories will want no war and peace will be the result.

He said all the big emissaries to Europe from our Government has done no good. They were just entertained by kings and potentates, caused a lot of expense and have done the people no good. War comes just the same, but the universal draft will heal the problem.

Judge Mullican, who spoke more than an hour, was heard by about 350 people. He used a loud speaker and everything he said was well understood. He has a forceful voice which carries well.

TEN REASONS

Why JOE MERRITT Deserves the Continued Support of the Best People in the 18th District

1. He is honest and conscientious.
 2. He voted against the horse racing bill and other legalized gambling.
 3. He has voted for prohibition at every turn.
 4. He voted against the sales tax.
 5. He voted to reduce automobile license fees by one-third.
 6. He was one of the authors and the second signer of the congressional redistricting bill, which carved the new 18th District.
 7. He was author of a bill which would place a tax on vending machines, all of which would go to schools of the state.
 8. He voted to put every penny of the cigarette tax into the school fund.
 9. He assisted in modifying a ruling of the State Board of Education that would have withheld rural aid from all schools that have teachers with less than two years of college training. That ruling would have deprived many of the 18th District's best teachers of their present positions.
 10. He has been one of the best friends of rural schools in West Texas.
- For these and many other reasons JOE MERRITT should be returned to the Legislature. Investigate the facts. Representative Joe A. Merritt, Scurry County Times. (Pol. Ad.)

A word From A Voting Farmer

I want to say a few words to my friends and neighbors in regard to the race for Representative in the Legislature. I have known our present Representative, Mr. Joe A. Merritt, all of my life, and he has never been charged of anything but being an honest man. He is an honest man if there is one in West Texas, and he is a conscientious man who is a farmer, and would not do anything to injure the farming class.

Being a farmer, Mr. Merritt understands the problems of the farm. He makes his living at it and conducts his farm in a very business like manner. When the cotton acreage reduction program was started, the committee called at Mr. Merritt's home to look over his farm and farming methods. They found corn in the crib and wheat in the bin which he had grown on lands taken from the acreage formerly planted to cotton. Mr. Merritt had been reducing his cotton acreage for years before the plan was started last year, and the committee complimented him and stated that he was already below the amount the government was asking farmers to reduce. He was informed that the government was well pleased and did not ask him to reduce his cotton acreage any more. He understands our problems which I think his opponent does not understand because he has been denied in other things.

Mr. Merritt has done more for Dickens County schools than any other man we have ever sent to Austin. He helped Twin Wells school, Spur schools, Croton school and several other schools in the county by co-operating with special bills before the Legislature. He co-operated in every way with our schools because he believes in schools and in helping people.

The Highway Question

We understand Mr. Merritt's opponent states that he will get Highway No. 18 built through if the people will just elect him. I want to say that as a legislator, that gentleman will have no more authority or power to get Highway 18 built than myself or any other private citizen could have. As County Judge of Stonewall County, he could have helped. But he has been in that position practically three years and eight months, and to date he has done nothing but make promises. He might get something done during his next four months of office as County Judge, but after the first day of next January his privilege of helping to get Highway 18 built during his present term of office, and if the people should send him to Austin, he will forget about this valuable road forever.

We know that Mr. Merritt has been tried and found true to his trust. He has done everything possible to keep up the morals of our state. He is a Christian gentleman, and I have seen him tried at singing conventions and in the church and he has proved himself beyond a doubt. I want to say these things for him. I feel that the people should know them.

Respectfully,
J. J. Randall.

SENT US THE SONG

Last week there was an advertisement in the columns of the Dickens County Times asking for a song entitled, "They Are Gathering." We are glad to announce that Mrs. G. L. Hall, of Route Three, Honey Grove, Texas, was very kind to respond and send in the song. It is to be used at the Motley-Dickens County Old Settlers' Association at Roaring Springs today. Truly, we are indebted to Mrs. Hall for this kindness.

CHURCH OF CHRIST MEETING AT UPPER RED MUD

Beginning Sunday, August 26th, and continuing through one week the Church of Christ will conduct a meeting at upper Red Mud School House. Albert Smith, minister of the Church of Christ at Spur, will do the preaching. Services will begin at 8:30 each evening. The people of the community are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

McAdoo School Opens Sept. 10th

W. O. Cherry, Superintendent of schools at McAdoo, was in Spur Wednesday and announced that the McAdoo schools will open the 1934-35 session Monday, September 10th. He stated that there will be an opening program at ten o'clock of the opening date. The people are extended an invitation to be present for the program.

The faculty are: Superintendent, W. O. Cherry; High School Principal, R. E. Everett; History-Spanish, Miss Dortha Johnston; English, Mrs. Hugh Gilliam.

Grammar School: Principal, Ray Crowder; Intermediate, Miss Lenora Nickels; Fourth and Third Grades, Miss Marjorie Van Meter; Third and Second Grades, Miss Eula Whitaker.

McAdoo plans on a nine months term. They have always had a fine school. At this time they have 14 units of affiliated credits and expect to complete the affiliation before the close of this term. There are 254 scholastics in the district.

Prisoners Break Jail At Dickens

Virgil Stalcup and Clarence Brown, who were being held in the county jail, made good their escape last Saturday morning. The two men with other prisoners had been released from their cells and were in the large cage for breakfast. This room is on the second floor. However, the two men saved a large chain in two which was used to fasten the door to the main ceiling themselves in the lobby.

Mrs. Dink Arthur unlocked the door to the lobby to go to the commissary for some vegetables and the men sprang out. They tried to get possession of the jail keys, but Mrs. Arthur held on to them and the men fled without them. They went across the street and took possession of a Chevrolet car belonging to Frank Speer and escaped westward. There were no threats made on Mrs. Arthur or no knife used as had been formerly reported.

Sheriff Arthur used the telephone lines as rapidly as he could in order to head the fleeing prisoners off, but they have not been apprehended. The men dashed through a police trap at Clovis Sunday morning and another at Fort Sumner, N. Mexico the same day.

The real lucky break for the escaped men was the fact that Mrs. Arthur was not armed when she entered the commissary.

BUYS HELPY-SELFY LAUNDRY

R. P. Davis made a deal Tuesday afternoon for the Helpy-Selfy Laundry which is located in the building two doors north of the Times office.

Mr. Davis stated that he expects to build up the business and he hoped the ladies of the country will avail themselves of using his handy equipment and save themselves a lot of hard work on wash day. Most family laundry can be done in one hour, he stated, while the average woman will require a full half day when she does the family wash at home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Gossett, who established the business, are leaving this week for the mountains where Mr. Gossett hopes to build up his health. They are very fine people and have made many friends since coming to our city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilbreath and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Willett, of Matador, were greeting friends in our city Sunday afternoon.

County Tax Rate Set At $1.33 By Court

At a meeting of the Commissioners' Court last week the County tax rate was set at $1.33 on each $100.00 valuation rendered. This is seven cents per $100.00 lower than it was last year. However, for state and county purposes there will be no difference in the amount of taxes we will have to pay. Our Commissioners' Court lowered the county rate and the State Automatic Tax Board raised the state rate. For county purposes we will pay for different needs on each $100.00 valuation as follows:

Jury fund	.10
General fund	.20
Refunding Warrants	.08 and .05
Permanent Improvement	.25
Road and Bridge fund	.15
Road and Bridge Refunding
Warrants	.12
9-Class Fund, bond issue	.20
9-A. Refunding of bonds	.05
9-B. Refunding of bonds	.05
9-C. Refunding of bonds	.05
9-D. Refunding of bonds	.03

Total Road District No. 1, has a special tax of 10 cents extra on the county rate. This was a district bond issue some years ago and causes all property owners in the district an extra tax of 10 cents per $100.00 valuation. The state rate is 77 cents, which if added to the present rate will make $2.10 per $100.00 valuation.

Our County Judge has been able to save us from some extra taxes on road bonds again this year. On county and district road bonded indebtedness on road and bridge refunding warrants of series of 1928, 6-A Class, the state will pay $971.17, while the county will pay $4,618.83.

On special road refunding bonds, of 9-class fund, the State will pay $9,106.33, and the county will pay $14,368.67. This payment amounts to $23,475.00, and the county would have had to pay all of it had it not been for our County Judge getting a portion refunded.

On Road District No. 1, which has $5,400.00 outstanding, this year the state will pay $262.50, and the County will pay $307.50, making a total of $570.00.

Old Settlers In Session Today

The Motley-Dickens County Old Settlers Association open their eleventh annual session at the school gymnasium in Roaring Springs at 10:00 o'clock today. The memorial services will be conducted at 11:00 o'clock this morning. Rev. Victor Crabtree will deliver the memorial address.

Basket lunch will be served at noon. Everybody is expected to take their lunch and ask whom they please to eat with them. In the event any one takes no lunch with them, there will be barbecue and hamburgers sold at the grounds.

The afternoon session is to be characterized by a program to fit the occasion. There will be music, singing of the old time songs and talks made by the early settlers. It is expected that between three and four thousand people will be present.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS MEET

The Directors of the local Chamber of Commerce held a meeting Monday evening and discussed business. Two new directors were chosen on the board: J. P. Caudle and F. W. Jenness. The Board discussed the drought situation and other problems before our community at this time.

Ned Hogan, who is president, called the meeting to order. Other officers are: John A. Moore, vice president; Directors are B. C. Johnson, Dr. M. H. Brannen, Henry Alexander, V. V. Parr, J. C. McNeill, III, and the two named above.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Link, who spent ten days in the mountains of New Mexico, fishing and enjoying a vacation, returned the last of the week.

HISTORY OF TEXAS RECOUNTED AND GLORIES OF CENTENNIAL ARE TOLD

Following is the text of the address delivered by Lowry Martin, Corsicana, vice president of the Texas Centennial Commission, and chairman of the publicity committee, before a WEAF, Fort Worth, on Friday evening, August 3:

Fellow Texans:

This opportunity to address my fellow citizens upon the subject of the Texas Centennial is appreciated not only by me from a personal standpoint, but also because it affords a rare chance to briefly review in behalf of the Texas Centennial Commission the work already accomplished and that remaining to be performed in behalf of a great celebration in this state in 1936.

At the outset, I wish to express my deep sense of appreciation to Mrs. C. C. Peters of Fort Worth, a member of the Centennial Advisory Board, who is responsible for the arrangements for this brief broadcast, and to the Hon. Anon G. Carter, a distinguished member of the Texas Centennial Commission, publisher of the Star-Telegram, over whose radio station this broadcast is being made.

I am voicing the settled opinion of every member of the Texas Centennial Commission when I state as a positive conviction that we know all as patriotic as are we. It so happens that by legislative enactment, we have charged with the responsibility of presenting to the people of Texas a comprehensive plan for a great Centennial celebration in 1936, and in the discharge of that high duty, incidentally without any sort of compensation, we have necessarily made ourselves familiar with the various ramifications of the movement, and it is with these matters that I desire to acquaint the people of Texas, knowing full well that when once understood by them they will act as Texans have always acted, promptly, efficiently and effectively in the best interests of the State as a whole.

Ninety-eight years ago at Old Washington-on-the-Brazos was written the Texas Declaration of Independence. It was formally ratified by that convention of pioneers on March 2, 1836. The thrilling events that occurred within the next month and nineteen days added another flag to the constellation of the Nations. The flag of the Lone Star waved over a free, independent and vigorous people for ten years when by their own mandate it was furled, Texas taking her place among the great sisterhood of the American Union.

This is the first time in world history that a Nation had voluntarily surrendered its sovereignty. It extended the borders of the United States a thousand miles to the westward and a thousand miles to the Southward. It was the prime event making possible the rapid march of the Stars and Stripes to the Pacific Ocean. It was a turning point in the progress and development of a Nation.

The Texas Centennial in 1936 simply means that in that year this State will celebrate one hundred years of a history without parallel in modern times. It means that again will be revived in story, song and pageant the trials, the tribulations, the dangers, the sorrows and successes of those pioneers who fashioned here a civilization that has ever been the pride of all the peoples of the world, and wrote here a history that has ever been, and ever will be, a beacon light to those who will follow us, calling upon them in the sublime language of duty to do and to die for humanity and liberation of mankind.

the city in which will be staged the major celebration of 1936 will be chosen.

An executive committee, having executive control over the activities of the various committees, and the detailed work of the Commission, has as its chairman the Hon. Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls, who ever has been a tireless worker for the Centennial. On his committee are Cliff M. Caldwell, of Abilene; Mr. J. K. Hughes of Mexia, Mr. Herman H. Ochs, of San Antonio, John D. Middleton of Greenville, Cullen F. Thomas of Dallas, Gus F. Taylor of Tyler, Will H. Mayes of Austin and Lowry Martin of Corsicana.

A plan committee, having in charge details concerning the scope and magnitude of the major celebration, and the secondary events connected therewith is headed by John D. Middleton of Greenville. Serving with him on this committee are Mrs. W. B. Sharp of Houston, John H. Shary of Mission, H. H. Ochs of San Antonio and J. K. Hughes of Mexia.

At a meeting held in Corsicana on July 16 this committee presented and the Commission adopted a very comprehensive plan for the 1936 Centennial. It contemplates in some Texas City, as said before to be chosen on September 1 at a meeting in Austin, there shall be located in 1936 a Centennial celebration in keeping with the romantic history of Texas, correctly and accurately portraying the trying period of a hundred years ago, and at the same time envisioning the Texas of the present and forecasting the Texas of the future.

The arts, the culture, the religious life, agricultural-industrial resources, the educational progress, the economic strides that have been taken, all these are to be the central theme of the major celebration to be staged on a site of at least 200 acres, easily accessible to all forms of traffic, where proper buildings for the housing of these various exhibits will be erected, and where ample parking space must be provided.

Again let it be stated that the Texas Centennial does not contemplate the subordination of the historical and the romantic of Texas for a hundred years to the commercial. It is to be staged upon a magnitude and with a fidelity to history that will redound with credit upon the bigness of Texas, the vastness of its territory and the culture of its citizenship.

In addition to this central celebration city the act of the legislature provides that secondary celebrations shall be held at historical points in Texas, notably at the Alamo, San Jacinto, Goliad, Huntsville, Brenham, and others. These points are to be selected by the Commission at a session on November 1.

A finance committee with General John A. Hulen of Fort Worth as chairman, is actively working upon the financial angle of the Centennial. On this committee with General Hulen are Mrs. Fannie Campbell Womack of Palestine and the Hon. Roy Miller of Corpus Christi and Houston.

This committee has announced that a minimum of $15,000,000 will be necessary properly to finance the Texas Centennial. It is contemplated that this money, and perhaps more, will be secured through the co-operation of the city securing the major celebration, and the State and Federal governments. In this connection a committee from the Federal Congress headed by Senator Tom Connally of Texas, will visit the State around November 15 for the purpose of determining the nature and degree of federal participation. Senator Connally already has indicated that he favors the utmost in cooperation from the federal government. A distinguished member of this committee, is another Texan, son of a revered Texas Governor, the Hon. Fritz G. Lanham of Fort Worth.

The finance committee has not definitely announced the exact details of the financial arrangements. It has said, however, and it has the pledge of representative Texans of substantial affairs, that it will not involve any increased taxation upon the people, ad valorem or otherwise, and will not disturb any present allotments of tax money already coming into the treasury.

This brings me down to the work of my own committee, that on publicity.

The legislature set up an appropriation for a preliminary campaign to acquaint Texans with the aims and purposes of the Centennial. As a result, early in July, my committee composed of myself, J. E. Josey, published of the Houston Post and Wilbur Hawk of the Amarillo News-Globe set up in Corsicana a trained publicity staff, which since that time, with increasing speed and thoroughness, has been seeking to make Texas Centennial conscious before the dawn of September 1.

In doing this every legitimate medium has been employed—the newspapers and periodicals, the silver screen, the radio, posters, outdoor advertising, the cooperation of business men in their advertising copy has been given without stint, personal contacts through the medium of the civic clubs and women's clubs have been made until all in all the message in our opinion is reaching, and has reached, almost every Texan in what is perhaps the most concentrated and intensified publicity campaign the State has ever witnessed.

And here and now, I want to extend the grateful thanks of my committee and of the Centennial Commission to all these mediums and persons who have given their cooperation without stint and without a dime of financial remuneration.

The Centennial should attract to Texas 20,000,000 persons from out of the State. It is estimated these will expend probably $640,000,000. The various locations of historical and the various locations of this expenditure will reach all sections. It will have a very material part in advancing rehabilitation and prosperity in all sections. It will provide sustained work for a large portion of our citizenship now unemployed, during 1935 and 1936. It will place probably $25,000,000 in the state treasury to be divided between the building and maintenance of roads and the public school system, this through the medium of the gasoline tax.

The celebration will be self-liquidating. The advances for its financing made by the various units will be repaid in direct revenues and in increased business for the citizenship in general. Texas will be advanced at least fifty years by this celebration.

Texas, by the adoption of a constitutional amendment in the November election of 1932 made State participation possible. Incidentally this was a mandate from the people, saying they desired the celebration. The legislature early in 1934 set up the Texas Centennial Commission, its personnel being announced in the enactment itself. The Commission organized at a meeting in Austin on June 6, when the Hon. Cullen F. Thomas of Dallas was named President; when I had the honor of being named Vice President; Gus F. Taylor of Tyler, treasurer, and the Hon. Will H. Mayes of Austin, secretary.

I have discussed with you practical side of the Centennial celebration, because Texans are entitled to know what the practical side is, what the celebration means to them in dollars and cents and what sacrifice they are called upon to make, if any.

But you ask now whose memory will be revered, and what historical events will be commemorated?

In an honorable tomb in the cemetery at Huntsville lies all that is mortal of Sam Houston, the hero of San Jacinto, the first constitutional president of the Republic, a distinguished United States Senator and Governor; out a hundred miles westward from Wichita Falls, where the highway passes the little city of Benjamin, going straight toward the setting sun, off to the left in a pasture is the lone grave of a Texas cowboy. There were no wire fences when it was new. People who have lived there many years do not know the identity of the cowboy; across the grave has swept the snow blasts of many winters, in the long, cold nights of the endless years the coyote has kept a lonely vigil, blending his howl with the whine of the North Wind. Sam Houston and the unknown cowboy were a part of the making of Texas. Both are to be honored, their stories retold and their heroism relived in the Centennial of 1936.

Again down in the State Cemetery at Austin, where rises the majestic dome of the seat of government of a proud people, there lies all that is mortal of the "Father of Texas", Stephen F. Austin. Then not so many miles distant on a high cliff if the Colorado overlooking the town of La Grange is the memorial to a heroic band of Texans who lost their lives in defense of liberty.

What have we to celebrate?

We have a century of the most marvelous history ever written by men and women. Today, these faithful women, as did the pioneers, are working like tojans as members of the Advisory Boards set up in all the counties to put over the plans of the Texas Centennial.

In every mail comes letters from these devoted women offering plan and suggestion, telling of work performed, and insuring that the spirit of a hundred years ago yet is alive in Texas, and that with one accord the populace will arise making certain that in 1936 we stage here a celebration without a peer in American history, in which the still hearts of the immortal heroes of the Alamo, of Goliad and San Jacinto will quicken, and from some other sphere look down upon their descendants with proud hearts, knowing that Texans are not ungrateful, that upon the civilization they founded we shall ever progress to higher goals, but that in that progress we will never forget the everlasting debt of gratitude we owe the pioneer fathers and mothers—and these and in memory shall be dedicated the Texas Centennial of 1936.

I thank you and have this parting suggestion, "Think-Talk-Write Texas Centennial in 1936. It's your State. It's your Celebration."

Let's Talk About Clothes!

By a "Young Modern"
Texas State College for Women, CIA DENTON—With daytime fashions well in hand, the modern girl, one of those unburned, reckless creatures who spends much of her time out of doors, "toes the mark" in an attempt to become "merely decorative" for evening. For at that time during the 24-hour cycle she wants to be recognized as a glamorous young woman and not as the dirty-kneed heiden who played a hard set of tennis that afternoon.

For the evening, "young moderns" at Texas State College for Women choose a dancing frock showing a silhouette that is dreamy and diaphanous. When you select your formal evening frock, keep one eye on the stage line, and one on the chaperons' corner. Chaperons warm instantly to the sweet, simple and girlish thing; but, unfortunately, it isn't the chaperons we date!

The frock for late summer and early fall basically follows a slim outline, but in detail is designed with dancing abandon. High hugging neck lines and covered shoulders are captivatingly chic. The décolletage by contrast, is daringly deep. If you have a good back and an even tan there is nothing more effective.

Bodices are supple and the waistline is usually defined by a wide girldie. Bows are fetching bits of trim and should be tied at front or side, never in the back. Sleeves are the smartest part of the mode. They must be boundless and billowy, veritable froths of fulness.

The skirt is a focal point of the dancing dress. It should express all the grace, and motion of a waltz, falling from the knee in full fascinating flares and sweeping into spinning hem. Let your dancing dress express your individual personality and at the same time reflect all the girlishness and glamour characteristic of a "young modern."

MRS. J. T. PERKINS PASSES AWAY

Mrs. J. T. Perkins, an aged and much respected citizen of Red Mud community, passed away Thursday of last week. Her husband died 22 years ago and she had lived a widow since. She was 73 years of age and had lived

DEMONSTRATOR STUDIED LINE AND COLOR

"I studied line and color and design best suited to my type. I found that I must avoid large plaids, wide belts, and stripes turned cross-ways as these make a person appear larger," Mrs. Jim Eldredge explained when telling of her work as wardrobe demonstrator for the McAdoo home demonstration club. "I have also learned to avoid fads because of a dress or hat looks well on someone else is no sign it is becoming to me. I have learned to select only the things that are becoming to me regardless of what everyone else is wearing."

"It was fun for my family to help me select colors that harmonize and patterns of materials best suited for me, and the suggestions they offered helped me quite a lot. In February I attended the training school given by Mrs. Barnes on the new sleeves and other uses of foundation patterns. I gave a similar demonstration in our club on the use of the foundation pattern. This demonstration has proved very helpful and useful as the style trend is in sleeves this year. I have helped others with suggestions about materials and patterns for individuality. I am well pleased with my

Chicago Hotels Vie for Cupid's Honors

CHEF DIEDERICHS HOTEL BELMONT, CHICAGO MISS NELLIE SUE DURHAM

CHICAGO—Engaged in the strangest of races here, are several of Chicago's smartest hotels, each trying to outdo the others in becoming the Gretna Green of the Middle-west.

As allies of Cupid, the hostesses in preparation for their summer resort business, have cut rates, established a newlywed school in cookery and made numerous other concessions to attract the nation's matrimonially-minded.

With an average of almost ten weddings a week, Chicago's famous Hotel Belmont, home of Tito Schipa and other grand opera stars, out of tribute, has changed the name of its celebrated "Hall of Mirrors," to the "Hall of Brides," so Manager B. B. Wilson reports. Neck and neck, it is tied right now with the swanky Hotel Sovereign, once the Chicago residence of the Prince of Wales.

Close runners-up in the unique contest are the fashionable Sherry on Chiago's south side, the Hotels Windermere, the Allerton and the modish Lake Shore Drive, where for a while lived Queen Marie of Roumania.

Chef Walter Diederichs, once cook to Prince Eitel Frederick, and to the Kaiser, has been drafted in between times as professor of cuisine in the cookery school which the Sovereign Hotel under Manager H. L. Johnson has established to teach blushing brides the art of baking biscuits like mother used to make.

In fact, the hotels with their compact kitchenette apartments, do everything but furnish the ring and the girl, and have made life so comfortable and easy, especially on the pocketbook, that this in large measure, according to Harry W. Solomon, nationally-known hotel operator here, accounts for the unprecedented trek from private homes to the care-free existence which life in such modern institutions affords.

HELPING OTHERS BRINGS PLEASURE

"It has always been a pleasure for me to assist anyone in any way possible and that is the one thing I value most during this year's work as wardrobe demonstrator," says Miss Nellie Sue Durham of the Duck Creek home demonstration club. "I have assisted in making 18 cotton dresses, 6 wool and silk dresses and 16 other garments besides my regular club work. Since our club was 100% on foundation patterns last year, I have not helped to fit any club members but have fitted two non-club members and re-fitted two others."

"I have gained much from the demonstration and if everyone realized the value of the work to the individual, all would strive to become wardrobe demonstrators. The work has helped me to plan and select clothes mores suitable for the occasion for which they are to be worn. Again, I have had an opportunity to keep up with the latest styles, colors and designs. Men's observation has taught me much along this line especially since having been associated with people like our home demonstration agent and the other wardrobe demonstrators in the county."

DEMONSTRATOR PRAISES HER PATTERN

"I think the demonstrator Mrs. Barnes gave on using the foundation sleeve pattern in cutting all types of sleeves has been worth more to me than the time and trouble I have gone to in being a demonstrator," says Mrs. J. L. Hutto of the Dry Lake home demonstration club. "I have really enjoyed the work and am looking forward to being demonstrator Class II. It seems that I learn something every time I fit a foundation pattern. I am in hopes I shall some day be perfect in fitting and using foundation patterns. My pattern has saved me so much time in fitting that I am glad to help others make patterns so they too can save time in fitting, save materials and patience."

DICKENS CLUB

One of the most enjoyable of programs was featured when the Dickens Club met in the newly decorated home of Mrs. John Gay on August 9th to entertain the women and members of the Red Top Club.

Mrs. Crider gave the welcome address which was followed by a reading by Mrs. Gay.

A historical collection which was collected by various members was exhibited by Mrs. Terry. The cook book and magazine of over 100 years of age drew numbers of exclamations. Other relics were a bonnet 50 years old, a hat, waist, condiment sets, Indian beads, center piece and several articles of from 35 to 75 years of age. A buffalo gun and shell, some fossil shells and bones, Indian knife and needle, leather punch and scraper, a hand woven bed spread and pair of gloves, all well over the century mark. Some needle point work, one of them portraying Shakespear's "Stratford-On-Avon" and a wedding dress of colonial times.

Such things as these always draw the interest of the home lover. Mrs. Thomas, of Mineral Wells, wife of one of the engineers on the new school building in Dickens, told of some of the fossil collection gathered by her husband which contains a fossil crab or lobster.

After this we were given some papers and pencil. On the paper was written "Home Demonstration" See how many vegetables or fruits you can make from these two words. That is a more difficult than would be supposed. Miss Pratt won the prize which was a "Nigger Mammy" made from oil cloth, for holding pot holders, donated by Mrs. Wingo, one of the best needle workers of Dickens.

Then came the eats. Oh, boy! Those cakes made by Mrs. Middlebrook and Mrs. Crider were delicious as were the sandwiches and punch. The color combinations were carried out in green,

We wish to thank the people of Dickens County for the splendid vote given George Mahon on the 28th of July in his race for Congress in this district and ask for their continued good will and support. To those who did not support him in the first Primary we invite your consideration and support of his candidacy.

114 To Receive Degrees In Summer Exercises

Denton—One hundred and fourteen students are listed as candidates for degrees at the eighteenth annual summer commencement exercises of Texas State College for Women (CIA) to be held on August 25.

The awarding of 94 bachelor degrees and 18 master of arts degrees will follow the annual commencement address to be delivered by Dr. L. H. Hubbard, president of the college. A total of 288 degrees will have been conferred this year at the end of the summer session.

Graduating students will be honored guests at the annual garden party and reception to be given by Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard on August 24.

Mrs. M. B. Haile Dies At Clarendon

Mrs. M. B. Haile, 86, mother of C. C. Haile, died at Clarendon Wednesday afternoon of last week. She had been making her home with a son, W. B. Haile, since last fall sometime having grown too weak to visit among her children. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in Clarendon Thursday afternoon. Rev. Jasper King, the pastor, and Rev. H. L. Burnam, of Silverton, read the funeral rites. Interment followed in a Clarendon cemetery.

She is survived by six sons and two daughters. All of the sons were present for the funeral. They are G. C. Haile of Megargel, C. C. Haile of Spur, L. J. and S. H. Haile of Dumas, L. B. Haile of Stratford, and W. B. Haile of Clarendon. Two daughters who could not be present for the funeral, are: Mrs. W. P. Sampson of Merkel and Mrs. Willie Hodges of Callahan County. There is one brother surviving, J. L. Hodges of Pratt, Kans., who had been with Mrs. Haile almost constantly the past two months.

Six grandsons acted as pallbearers and six granddaughters served as flower bearers at the funeral. Mrs. Haile was born in Tennessee April 29, 1848. She moved to Texas with her parents in 1855 and settled in Grayson County. There she grew to womanhood, going through the hardships of the Civil War. Three of her brothers were in the Confederate Army and her father and two brothers were fighting Indians most of the time. She was the oldest child left at home during the Civil War and had to endure many hardships. She spun yarn and wove cloth to make the family wearing apparel.

In 1867, just after the close of the war, she was married to J. T. Haile. They lived in Grayson County for a time and then moved to Cook County in 1876, and then to Montague in 1881. In 1885 they moved to Throckmorton County and to Dickens County in 1897. They settled on a farm at Afton where she has called her home ever since. She went through the drouth in Throckmorton County during the years of 1886-7 when it looked as if people could not hold out another week. Often she referred to those years as very perilous ones.

Mrs. Haile became a Christian at the age of nine years and became affiliated with the Baptist Church. She lived a zealous and devoted Christian life everywhere she went. Her home was always open to strangers and when she could do a kindness for a neighbor she was always willing and anxious to help them. For the past five years she has spent her winters at Clarendon with her son. Then during the summers she would visit with the other children. At her birthday two years ago, C. C. Haile gave her a birthday celebration at his Afton home and invited as many of her early day associates as he could. She enjoyed the day greatly and thanked every one for being present.

ARM BROKEN CRANKING CAR

Ayril Cross, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cross, of Kalgary, suffered a broken right arm about eleven o'clock Wednesday while attempting to crank a car. Both bones of the right forearm were broken in two.

Watch Your Hair—And, Strangely Enough, It Will Grow

Mr. Charles Nessler, inventor of Permanent Waving, Making a Kerascopic Reading of a Young Lady's Hair

IT is the opinion of Charles Nessler, inventor of permanent waving, noted authority on hair, and author of the book "The Story of Hair," that if people keep "tabs" on the growth of their hair from childhood on, there will be no baldness in the world. He has just invented a device called the Kerascope which actually measures hair and, better yet, gives warnings when the hair is not growing properly. If these warnings are heeded, he claims, steps can be taken to reassure adequate hair growth on the head. He is planning to advocate, through the Nessler Institute of Hair Research, which he has just established in New York City, a "hair week" in our schools at which time children's hair can be measured and its natural growth studied, just as tests are made on the eyes at regular intervals.

The world's finest picture taker

WE see only by means of waves of light. Objects which are not themselves sources of light are made known to us by the light which they reflect. Whenever light from such a source of light as the sun strikes an object, part of the rays are absorbed and part reflected. The latter brings two kinds of impressions to our eyes, one of outline and of light and shade, and the other of color.

These impressions are registered on the retina, the intricate network of nerve fibers that lines the interior of the eyeball. The nerves enter the eye from the brain in a kind of cable, called the optic nerve, and since they are of two kinds, to receive the two kinds of impressions, imagine the optic nerve as a great bundle of silver and gold wires. There are about 130,000,000 of the silver, and 7,000,000 of the gold wires. After the cable enters the eye, these wires disperse, and their terminal are embedded in the retina.

The silver wires terminate in little cylinders, called "rods," and are pretty well distributed over the retina. These receive the impressions of light and shade, and of outline. Color-blind persons always have at least this much sense of sight.

The gold wires terminate in tiny "cones," and are sensitive not to the intensity, but to the kind of light. In other words, they interpret color for us. The sensation of red is caused by a light ray with a long wave length, 3600 to the inch, while violet is caused by a ray with a short wave length, 6100 to the inch. White sunlight is a combination of all wave lengths within certain limits. These various wave lengths act differently upon the cones, some of them responding to one wave length and some to another, and give us the various sensations of color.

In the center of the retina is an area where both "rods" and "cones" are unusually thick; visual sensations are therefore registered here most easily. The reason we turn our eyes or our heads to look at something is largely to make the image of the object fall directly upon this highly sensitized area.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE

HEAVY rains have ended the drought in the chief butter-producing states. Improved pasture will end the threat of butter shortage and consequent high prices.

A great variety of small fruits is available, including late strawberries, raspberries, dewberries, huckleberries, sweet and sour cherries, and currants. Apricots, plums, early peaches and seedless grapes are also in market along with the year-round stand-bys.

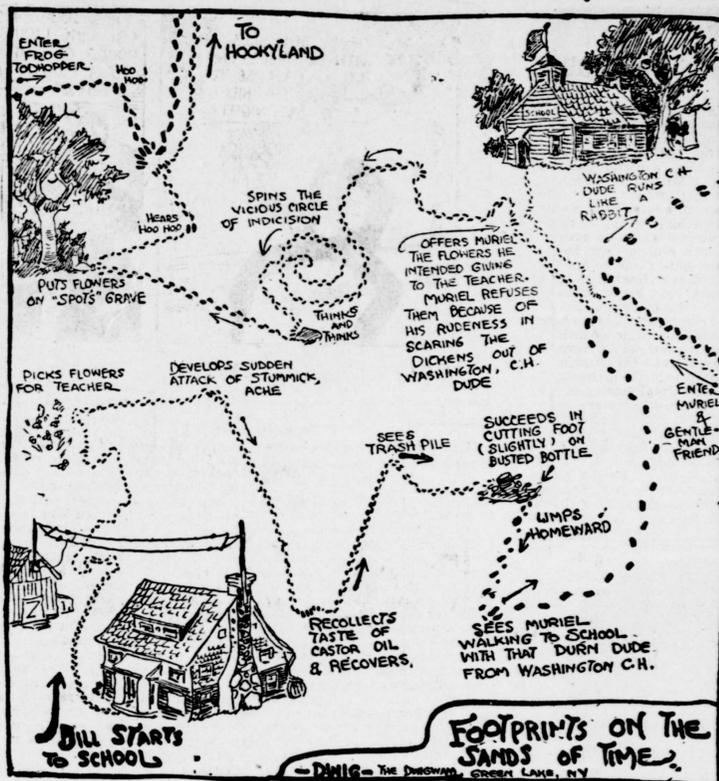

Local gardens are supplying much produce though certain vegetables must still be imported from other sections. Salad ingredients are plentiful, and for them a variety of salad dressings is desirable. Greens are best with a French type dressing, while most fruit, vegetable, meat and fish salads—after marinating—are improved by a thick salad dressing.

The Quaker Maid suggests the following menus:

- Low Cost Dinner: Fresh Brains in Tomato Sauce, New Potatoes, Green Beans, Bread and Butter, Watermelon, Tea or Coffee, Milk. Medium Cost Dinner: Green Onions, Radishes, Broiled T-Bone Steak, New Potatoes, Fresh Corn, Bread and Butter, Jellied Fruits, Coffee, Milk. Very Special Dinner: Fruit Cup, Fried Chicken with Cream Gravy, Boiled Rice, Green Peas, Currant Jelly, Cole Slaw in Tomato Cups with Dressing, Bread and Butter, Blackberry Cream Pie, Coffee, Milk.

Tom F. Hunter, The Oil Man, And His Position

Many people have branded Tom Hunter, candidate for Governor, as being a big oil man and being in sympathy with the big oil and pipe line companies. The following are statements made by Mr. Hunter in his opening address at Clifton:

"It doesn't take an expert to know that there is something wrong with our tax system when real estate producing only 15 per cent of our income pays 77 per cent of our ad valorem (property) taxes. Nor does it take a brain trust to know that something must be done about it before the State is on its way to recovery. Real estate is our basic wealth and until its value is restored we have no sound collateral. Until the burden of taxation is lifted to make possible a profit on our basic (real estate) investment, our economic structure is unsound. Unless it is made cheaper to own than to rent, the sanctity of home ownership, the safety of our nation, is gone."

There is on file in Austin data, which, when properly compiled, reflects a shameful evasion of the tax burden by those who have taught us to divide on 'isms, while they devoured the discovered feast.

"The gas companies, by their figures, show a value of 387 millions of dollars. The books of the companies reflect a total receipt of 67 millions of dollars for a depression year. The tax record receipts them for only $442,000.00 in state ad valorem tax. (Had those companies paid taxes like a Dickens County farmer pays on his farm, they should have paid for all purposes in one year, $8,707,500.00 in ad valorem taxes). In other words, their state property tax payments were only one-ninth of one per cent of their stated value. It was less than two per cent of their net receipts. One of these gas companies, with a shown value of $84,000,000.00, paid taxes on only $9,000,000.00 property value."

"A $40,000,000.00 capitalized pipe line in 1929 showed a net profit of $25,945,000.00. Its total ad valorem tax payment for the year—county, city, school and state—was only $406,000.00, less than two per cent of its net profits. (Had that pipe line company paid taxes like a Dickens County farmer pays on his farm, they would have paid $900,000.00 that year). The same pipe line for a depression year showed a net profit of $20,157,000.00. The books show that this concern paid for that year in all state taxes, including its franchise tax, $471,000.00, only two and three-tenths per cent of its net profits. What per cent of your profits were your taxes?"

"For state revenue, exempt to all big incomes $50,000.00 free from tax. Levy upon the first million net profit a tax of five per cent, upon the second and third million (net profit) ten per cent, on the fourth and fifth million (net profit) 25 per cent, and upon all net earnings of any individual or corporation in excess of five millions per year, a tax of 35 per cent. With these moneys replace the revenues lost by reducing the state ad valorem tax and pass the remainder to the available school fund that the schools may be state maintained."

"The net earning tax (as outlined above) would have required the pipe line with the depression year profit of $20,157,000.00 to have paid $6,037,450.00 instead of the $471,000.00 that it did pay. Many other pipe lines and oil companies would pay proportionately."

"We consume only 16 per cent of the oil produced in Texas, yet we pay all the gasoline tax. The Mellon interests and other Eastern capital have, for years, been permitted to manipulate our sulphur monopoly for their own gain without regard for the State's rights in a natural resource. More than 80 per cent (four-fifths) of the world's supply of sulphur is produced in Texas at a cost of $2.00 to $4.50 per ton, sold at the deposit at above $14.00, while it pays only a 75 cents per ton tax. A just tax on sulphur will give a sufficient income to retire the $20,000,000.00 relief bond issue."

"Hundreds of billions of cubic feet of gas are piped from Texas each year at practically no tax charge. For each $100 worth of our gas sold by them on the domestic markets, they pay less than ten cents. A just tax on this resource would increase the scholastic apportionment. If the unfair profits of the oil trust were converted into the available school fund it would raise the apportionment per capita on the basis of attendance to $30.00 to $40.00. (It is $16.00 now). It would, in fact, operate the public schools of the State."

The above should let the voters know just about how Mr. Hunter stands relative to the big oil companies, pipeline and other big firms who are making exorbitant profits off of Texas resources. The people should know. If elected, Mr. Hunter may not get everything he advocates done, but somebody must start it and he wants a chance to start it.

CONSOLIDATION OF CODES

In the hectic days which immediately followed approval of the National Recovery Act by President Roosevelt in June 1933 General Johnson propounded the question: "Can we get all employers in America to do about the same thing at about the same time when they know that by doing it they can bring this country of ours out of this depression and lift this deadening load of fear and dread from the people's hearts?"

That was fourteen months ago. Since the beginning of the march of trade and industry to Washington, in response to the appeal to the Nation, 96 percent of our 24,000,000 wage earners in 1929 have been covered by NRA codes. Business is improving. Unemployment is less. Fear is passing, and the Blue Eagle is the cooperative symbol of most of America.

With all but a fraction of industry codified, the next phase of NRA has already been entered into. This is the work of consolidation of codes. Every effort now is being made to bring related trades and industries under fewer codes than were necessary in the earlier stage of the recovery program. This consolidation is undertaken in the interest of economy to the industries on the one hand and greater efficiency in administration on the other. In fulfillment of this principle the number of codes will be steadily reduced, while at the same time the problem of administration will be simplified.

Thus the whole system under NRA is to be kept elastic and subject to change whenever and wherever experience points the way to adjustments in the interests of greater efficiency. And just now the emphasis is being placed upon consolidation as a vital step toward the complete realization of General Johnson's vision of all the employers in the United States doing "about the same thing at about the same time." By this means will progress continue until recovery becomes permanent.

CALLED TO GOREE SUNDAY

Ray Sanders, of Sanders-Watson, was called to Goree Sunday to be with his sister, Mrs. Bob Pore, whose husband was killed Saturday night. It appears that Mr. Pore left his home just south of Goree Saturday evening, going into town to haul some water. He loaded the water and as he went toward home, stopped at a little filling station about two miles south of Goree. When he desired to go on home he could not get his car to start and told friends he would go back to Goree and get a mechanic to work on his car.

He did not return and early Sunday morning he was found a short way from town with a wound in the back of his head. It is thought he was slugged with a heavy instrument. He had forty dollars in currency on him which was gone. One arrest had been made Monday and other arrests are to follow.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Monday.

The deceased is survived by his widow and eight children, four sons and four daughters.

Judge E. M. Remington, and son, of Graham, and E. H. Remington, of Newcastle, were in our city Tuesday looking after business affairs and greeting friends.

Sandwiches for Summer Needs

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Helms Food Institute

SANDWICHES FIT perfectly into the tempo of summer life. Cooking that requires an effort is beyond us. Such times are ideal for sandwiches. Simple sandwiches require little time or effort—they also permit a wide range of fancy and creation. With a little skillful planning and ingenuity, delightful new sandwich fillings can be conjured up which combine tidbits from the refrigerator. With a hearty salad, a cool drink and a chilled dessert, sandwiches make the backbone of a luncheon or supper menu that will delight a family eager for light meals on hot summer days. Sandwiches such as those suggested below serve many purposes in the warm weather schedule of meal planning.

Grilled "P-B-C" Sandwich—Use three slices of bacon for each sandwich. Toast slices of bread on one side only, having one for each sandwich. Spread untoasted side with Peanut Butter, then with Chili Sauce. Top with slices of bacon, the edges of which have been notched with a knife to prevent curling. Broil slowly until the bacon is slightly browned and crisp. Serve immediately with slices of Sweet Gherkins.

Supper Sandwich—Flake 1 small can tuna fish. Mix with half as much Sandwich Spread and 2 tablespoons plimento. Spread ¼ inch slices of bread with Prepared Brown Mustard and then half of slices with tuna fish mixture. Top with second slices of bread. Press firmly together. Dip into slightly beaten egg to which ¼ cup milk and ¼ teaspoon salt have been added. Sauté in hot fat until brown on both sides. Serve hot, with small leaves of lettuce filled with India Relish.

Open Salad Sandwich—Have two large slices white bread, from which crusts have been removed, for each person to be served. Spread with Mayonnaise and place side by side on plate. On one slice place slice of tomato, and on tomato two or three slices of hard cooked egg. On the other slice of bread place a small cup shaped leaf of lettuce, containing small serving of meat or fish salad, garnishing with paprika. Serve with Fresh Cucumber Pickles.

Grilled Ham, Cheese and Tomato Sandwich—Toast 6 slices of bread on one side. On untoasted side place slice of ham (less than ¼ inch thick) and spread with Prepared Brown Mustard. Cover with a thin slice of American cheese and spread with Prepared Brown Mustard. Top each with a slice of tomato. Grill under broiler until cheese melts and tomato slices are brown. Serve with lettuce cups containing Sweet Gherkins.

Snappy Sandwich—Cream together 3 tablespoons butter and ½ cup grated cheese. Add 1 tablespoon Prepared Yellow Mustard, 1 teaspoon Tarragon Vinegar, 2 teaspoons anchovy paste, 2 tablespoons chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives and ¼ teaspoon paprika. Cut bread in thin slices and remove crusts. Butter slices and put together with cheese mixture. Cut in halves or fancy shapes. Serve with plain green salads, Molded Chicken Salad, Crabmeat Salad or Stuffed Tomato Salad.

India Relish Sandwich—Combine 1 cup chopped cooked ham, 1 chopped hard cooked egg, 3 tablespoons India Relish and 1 tablespoon chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives. Moisten with 2 tablespoons Mayonnaise. Cut bread in thin slices and remove crusts. Butter slices and spread with ham mixture. Cut in halves or fancy shapes. Serve with vegetable salads, such as Lima Bean Salad, Macedoine Salad, Onion Salad or Potato Salad.

Sardine Sandwich—Remove skins from sardines and mash to a paste with a little Salad Cream. Add twice as much Sandwich Spread as sardine paste. Mix well and spread between buttered slices of whole wheat or white bread. Put crisp leaf of lettuce on top of sardine mixture of each sandwich before putting slices together.

Baked Bean Sandwich—Put 2 cups Oven Baked Beans (with Pork and Tomato Sauce) through sieve or mash beans with fork. Add ¼ teaspoon salt, 4 chopped Sweet Gherkins, 3 chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives, and enough Mayonnaise to make a smooth filling. Spread between buttered slices of Boston brown or whole wheat bread.

THE LAST FEW YEARS HAVE BEEN A STRUGGLE FOR THE EXISTENCE OF LIFE ITSELF

The schools thus far have not suffered. It looked as if at times the training of our children would have to be stopped, but thanks to our State and Federal Aids, we have lengthened the terms of the schools in Dickens County and are in an excellent financial condition.

We have unprecedented problems confronting every individual in Dickens County the coming year. Those of us who are school-minded (and most of us are) are wondering how we will carry on the schools of the county next term. All are aware of the fact that the payment of taxes will be exceedingly light. What source can be depended upon for funds to operate our schools other than State and Federal Aid?

Major accomplishments of this term of office of County Superintendent included therein successful efforts to provide financial efforts to provide financial means, and not allowing to escape notice any available aid that was needed to operate the schools efficiently. As previously mentioned over $100,000 in special aids had been brought to Dickens County Schools during this term of office. This is equivalent to $11.00 or $12.00 for each man, woman, or child in Dickens County.

I will appreciate a second term—an opportunity to assist in continuing this service to the children of this county.

Sincerely your friend,

Madge Twaddell

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 14

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That there be added to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas a new section to be numbered Sections 2-A and to have (5) lettered subdivisions and which section shall read as follows:

"Section 2-A. (a) General management and control of the affairs of the County shall hereafter be vested in the Commissioners Court, provided that in the exercise of powers, not specifically granted to the Commissioners Court by the Constitution and Amendments thereto, the Court shall be subject to the authority of the Legislature of the State, and the Court shall also be subject to all general laws of the State now in force not in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment until such laws are modified or repealed.

(b) All duties heretofore performed by the Clerk of the District Court and the County Clerk shall hereafter be performed by an officer to be known as Record Clerk; all duties heretofore performed by the County Tax Assessor and the County Tax Collector shall hereafter be performed by one officer known as Tax Clerk; and in the counties where the sheriff performs the duties of the Tax Collector he may hereafter perform the duties of the Tax Clerk. The Record Clerk and the Tax Clerk shall be elected to hold office for a term of two (2) years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to combine the office of County Treasurer and the office of County Surveyor, or to combine either, or both, of said offices with any county office. Within the maximum and minimum limits prescribed by the Legislature the Commissioners Court shall have authority to fix the compensation of all county and precinct officers except County Auditor, County Judge and County Commissioners. The Legislature shall fix the compensation of District Judges, District Attorneys, County Judges and the County Commissioners and may provide for a County auditor and prescribe his duties and fix his compensation and the number and compensation of his assistants. The Commissioners Court shall fix the compensation of deputies, assistants and clerical personnel of all precinct officers and county officers except the county auditor.

(c) City and county officers and employees may, in addition to their duties as such city and county officers or employees, be required to perform such other similar duties for cities, towns and districts within the county, or for the county, as may be mutually agreed upon and contracted for between the Commissioners Court of said county and the governing board, or boards, of such cities, towns and districts; and the cost of such service shall be provided for in said contracts and paid by such county, cities, towns or districts into the Treasury of the county or city, town or district, as provided for in said contract. All such contracts shall be approved by the Attorney General of this State and such contracts shall not cover a period longer than two (2) years.

(d) The Legislature shall have authority, by general law, to provide for complete forms of county government and organizations different from that provided for in this Constitution to become effective in any county when submitted in such manner as may be prescribed by the Legislature to the qualified voters of such county in an election held for such purpose and approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting in said election. Provided, however, that no such law shall impair the right of the Commissioners Court to determine the compensation of county and precinct officers other than the County Auditor, to fix the number of assistants, deputies, and clerical personnel which said officers may employ; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations as to particular and total tax levies for any or all county purposes; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations on counties to incur public debts.

(e) In any and all cases where provisions of the Constitution of this State are in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment (Section 2-A, Article IX) shall control; provided, however, should any county adopt a Home Rule Charter under authority of any provisions of the State Constitution or Amendment thereto, this Amendment shall not be applicable to such county.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State, qualified to vote on Constitutional Amendments, at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon the words:

"For the Amendment of Article IX of the State Constitution by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commissioners Court general management and control of county affairs, and authorizing the Legislature to provide more economical forms of county government and different than as now provided by law."

"Against the Amendment of Article IX of the State Constitution by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commissioners Court general management and control of county affairs, and authorizing the Legislature to provide more economical forms of county government, and different than as now provided by law."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 21

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1. The Legislature shall have the power to create counties for the convenience of the people subject to the following provisions:

First. In the territory of the State exterior to all counties now existing, no new counties shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles, in a square form, unless prevented by the pre-existing boundary lines. Should the state lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less. The territory referred to may, at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population and attached, for judicial and land surveying purposes, to the most convenient organized county or counties.

Second. Within the territory of any county or counties now existing, the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, create new counties, combine existing counties and parts of counties and abolish existing counties and change county boundaries at will, provided that no new county shall be created with an area of less than nine hundred square miles nor shall any existing county be reduced in area so as to contain less than nine hundred square miles, unless such new county or such remaining county, and both shall have a population of not less than fifty thousand according to the last United States census prior to the date of the creation or change of such county. When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into another county, the part stricken off shall be held for and obliged to pay its proportion of all liabilities then existing, of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Third. No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition or such change shall have been submitted in such manner as may be provided by law, to a vote of the electors of both counties and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed in that ballot the words:

"For the amendment to Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of Texas, providing that the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses create new counties and change the boundaries of existing counties."

Those voters opposing said proposed amendment shall write, or have printed on their ballot the words:

"Against the amendment to Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of Texas, providing that the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses create new counties and change the boundaries of existing counties."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That the Constitution of the State of Texas, Article 16, be amended by adding thereto another Section, Section 61, which shall read as follows:

"Section 61. All district officers in the State and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000), or more, according to the then last preceding Federal census, shall hereafter be compensated on a salary basis. In all counties of this State the Commissioners' Court shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) according to the last Federal census, the Commissioners' Court shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis. All fees earned by district, county or precinct officers shall be paid into the County Treasury, where earned, for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the State, county and any municipality, or in case where pauper's oath is filed, shall be paid to the County Treasury when collected, and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis, such fees may be retained by such officer, or paid into the Treasury of the county as the Commissioners' Court may direct. All Public, County Surveyor, and Public Weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified voters of this State and the next general election to be held on Tuesday, after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this State to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 13

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereinafter read as follows:

"Section 3. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general law and for public purposes only; and the total amount of revenue which the State shall be authorized to collect during such biennium from taxes, licenses, permits and fees, (except fees paid by students to state educational institutions, and except rentals, bonuses and royalties obtained from public lands and other public property) shall not exceed a sum reasonably estimated to equal the product obtained by multiplying the number of the inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50/100 ($22.50) Dollars; provided, however, the total amount of such revenue which may be so collected, shall be reduced by the amount of any surplus funds or unexpended appropriations remaining at the close of the preceding biennium. The expenditures of the State government of funds derived from the sources above referred to shall never exceed during any biennium, a sum equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50/100 ($22.50) Dollars, provided however, that the population of the State (in determining the amount of revenue which may be collected from taxes, licenses, permits and fees or expended from the revenue thus obtained) shall be determined by the then last preceding Federal census, to which population shall be added or deducted, as the case may be, for each year that has lapsed since the last preceding Federal census, the average yearly increase or decrease of the population as shown by the Federal census when compared with the Federal census which immediately preceded said last Federal census. Provided, further, that in case of war, riots, or insurrection, or a statewide calamity caused by earthquake, fire, flood or an epidemic which seriously threatens the health of the citizens of this State, the Legislature shall have the authority, by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, to suspend for a definite period this constitutional limitation as to the amount of money which may be collected and expended during the biennium."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed the words:

"For the Amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium."

"Against the Amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against, so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment.

MY TRIP TO SHORT COURSE

Elizabeth Williams After spending two days in the home of Miss Pratt's parents near Willis, we arrived in College Station Sunday evening before the Short Course began on Monday. My room along with the other women from our county was in Milner Hall on fourth floor. After we were unpacked and straightened out we spent the remainder of the evening getting acquainted with people and viewing the campus.

Monday morning the first program was in Assembly Hall for the opening address. Then we met by districts. Our district met in the Y. M. C. A. Chapel. Miss Murray checked up on the attendance from the district in this meeting and found that there were 338 women representing 170 clubs from our district. Monday afternoon I went to a lecture on "Pepping Up Your Club." I hope we can put some pep into our club, as a result of that program. Monday evening after supper we met at the flag pole to begin a tour of the buildings on the campus. The various departments furnished entertainment for those making the tour.

Since I was interested in the poultry work I attended a lecture on the diseases of chicks and parasites given by Dr. R. C. Gunn. Tuesday afternoon we went to the poultry laboratory and killed and dressed chickens. Tuesday night we went to the stadium for the horse show and contests.

Wednesday morning we studied exhibits and suggestions for achievement events as shown by Miss Blair. That afternoon I went to see the hooded rug and mat exhibit and the tufted bedspread. I was glad to see some from our county in the exhibit.

The Rural Pastors and Laymen's Conference met during the Short Course too. Each evening they had a vesper service on President Walton's lawn. Wednesday evening I heard Rev. J. B. Glaisner speak. Thursday we attended the meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association and was glad to be a delegate to such a large group. The remainder of the day we went to see the textile exhibit, the Key Cottage and the rural work center.

Friday morning we had the bedroom achievement program and then the wardrobe program when the winners in the state contest for the wardrobe demonstrators were announced. Of course we were happy when Mrs. Alexander from our county won first place in the Class II contest.

There were still some exhibits that I had not seen so I went to those Friday afternoon. There are so many things to see that it keeps one busy to see every thing. I went to see the kitchen at Mess Hall. It was interesting to see the amount of products needed to prepare and serve meals for 3,000 people. We also went to the museum and the creamery. After supper we went to the stadium for the last program and the display of the work done and the things made during the week and the announcement of the winners in the various contests.

There were so many enjoyable things that it is hard to tell what I enjoyed most. It was fine to be with such congenial people. Everything was done to make us have a good time. One of the many things I enjoyed was the meals. They were so clean and wholesome and it was a joy to not know until you went to the table what you were going to eat, and then never a bother about washing dishes.

Unless you have been to the short course you can not realize fully what a wonderful week it really is. It is a privilege to have the opportunity of learning so much and of being able to bring back information to others too. I can never fully thank the Study Clubs who made it possible for me to go this year.

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL
When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything.
What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 1/2 of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.
When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomcat, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for—25¢. ©1934, C.M.Co.

BUSH UP ON NAMES FOR TEXAS CENTENNIAL

Before the millions of people come to our Centennial in 1936, it behooves Texans to polish up on all Texas matters in order to explain everything to the visitors. One our mixtures, which confuses outsiders, is the following.

Lockhart is the county site of Caldwell County, Caldwell of Burleson County, while Burelson is in Johnson County. Brownsville the county site of Cameron County, Cameron of Milam County; Fort Stockton the county site of Pecos County, Pecos of Reeves County; Columbus of Colorado County, Colorado of Mitchell County; Beaumont of Jefferson County and Jefferson of Marion County; Seminole of Gaines County and Gainesville of Cooke County; Breckenridge of Stephens County; Stephenville of Erath County; Hallettsville of Lavaca County, and Port Lavaca of Calhoun County; Stratford of Sherman County and Sherman of Grayson County.

But if these are a mixture, the following must be a scramble: Quitman is the county site of Wood county, Woodville is the county site of Tyler County, and Tyler the county site of Smith County; Ozona the county site of Crockett County, Crockett of Houston county, Houston of Harris County, and Harris is in Fort Bend County; Athens is the county site of Henderson County, Henderson of Rusk County, Rusk of Cherokee County, and Cherokee is in San Saba County; Carizzo Springs of Dimmitt County, Dimmitt of Castro County, and Castro is in Medina County; Canadian is county site of Hemphill County, Hemphill the county site of Sabine County, and Sabine is in Jefferson County; Bellville of Austin County, Austin of Travis County, and there are two towns of Travis, one in Bexar County and the other in Falls County.

Claude is the county site of Armstrong County, Armstrong is in Kennedy County, and Kennedy is in Karnes County; Lamesa is the county site of Dawson County and Dawson is in Navarro County; Kermit is the county site of Winkler County and Winkler is in Navarro County; Muleshoe is the county site of Bailey County, Bailey is in Fannin County and Baileyville is in Milam County; Graham is the county site of Young County, Young is in Freestone County and Youngsport is in Bell County; Brownfield is the county site of Terry County, Terry is in Orange County and Terryville is in DeWitt County; Rio Grande is the county site of Starr County, Starr is in Lubbock County, Star in Mills County and Starrville in Smith County; New Boston is the county site of Bowie County, Bowie is in Montague County; Sanderson is the county site of Terrell County and Terrell is in Kaufman County. Mt Vernon is the county site of Franklin County, and Franklin is in Robertson County; Abilene is the county site of Taylor county and Taylor is in Williamson County; Stiles the county site of Reagan County and Reagan in Falls County; Big Spring the county site of Howard County, Howard is in Ellis County and Howards in Newton County; Batesville is the county site of Zavalla County and Zavalla in Angelina County; Decatur the county site of Wise County, and Wise in Van Zandt County; Rankin county site of Upton County, Upton in Bastrop County; Sonora the county site of Sutton County, Sutton in Robertson County; Glen Rose county site of Somerville County and Somerville in Burleson county; Pittsburg county site of Camp County, Camp in Cass County and Camps in Gregg County; Marshall county site of Harrison County and Harrison in McLennan County; Clairmont county site of Kent county and Kent in Hudspeth County.

McADOO

People are really beginning to get blue because of the drouth. While there is not much work to be done, why not start today to plant seeds of friendship? There is no investment you could make that would bring you greater dividends than your investment in friendship. From every seed of friendship you plant, a tree grows and the tree bears golden fruit for you to gather. Be a real friend to as many people as deserve your friendship and see how it enriches your personality and makes you happier.

Miss Lanora Nichols, who has been attending Texas University this summer returned to her home the past week. Miss Nichols will teach in the McAdoo school again this year.

Grady Jones was transacting business in Spur Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morris were looking after business matters in Crosbyton Friday afternoon and visiting their daughter, Lucille, who is working in Crosbyton.

T. L. Dozier was a business visitor in Spur Monday.

Aline Allen, a student at Texas Tech, was at home this week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parker had old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn of Roaring Springs, visiting them Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Casey Jones are the proud parents of a baby girl.

There are a number of cases of whooping cough in the community.

A. Gregory, who has been in Nichols Sanitarium at Spur for several weeks suffering from skull injuries in a car accident, returned home the past week.

Robbie Allen was looking after business matters in Spur Monday.

Mrs. H. V. Nettles entertained her little daughter, Modean, with a birthday dinner Sunday. A number of guests were present and all had an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Medford were business visitors in Spur Saturday.

Rev. A. O. Hood, pastor of the Methodist Church, closed a very successful meeting here Sunday night. The services were well attended, many lost souls were saved and some old time shouting was heard. More than thirty men, women, boys and girls were saved and reconsecrated their lives to God. Eleven were baptized and a number joined the church by letter.

A revival meeting is to begin at the Church of Christ Saturday night. Marshall Formby, who is now employed at Aspermont, was at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Formby, over the week end.

Mrs. Walter Pullens and children and Mrs. A. V. Womack visited Mrs. Pullens' father, Wiley McCarty and family of Afton, Sunday.

Mrs. Jacob Paul Twaddell and little son are here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, after spending a visit in Vernon.

Misses Estaline and Viva Mae Cox left Saturday morning for the mountains of Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arledge and son, Jack, of Stamford, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Proctor Sunday.

CLARENCE FOREMAN WITH MARINES AT NORFOLK, VA.

New Orleans, Aug. 20—Clarence D. Foreman of the U. S. Marines, son of W. F. Foreman of Spur, who entered the U. S. Marine Corps last September at the district office, 535 St. Charles Street, New Orleans, is serving at present at the marine base at Norfolk, Va. He is a graduate of Spur High School, class of 1933.

The marine base at Norfolk is the station where marines are assembled for transfer to foreign stations or sea duty. It is also the home of the east coast sea school, which prepares men for service on the battleships, cruisers, and aircraft carriers. A similar station is located at San Diego, Calif., which supplies men to the Pacific Fleet and Asiatic Stations.

C. Hogan, of Childress, was in our city the first of the week greeting old friends and attending to business matters.

RECIPES AND MENUS

Texas State College for Women
(CIA)

DENTON—Over the tea-cup sociability is a most delightful scheme for bringing a group of people together. A group of four to a dozen intimate friends can be invited most informally. Serving a simple tea menu does not involve the use of costly materials nor the execution of time-consuming processes. Sociability and merriment do not depend on these.

Menus for informal teas: 1. Olive nut sandwiches, sponge drops, tea, sugar, lemons, mints. 2. Cheese sandwiches, bonbons, tea or coffee.

The dining room table is attractively arranged with a simple floral center. The tea service is on a tray at one end of the table. Plates and cups are placed near the tea service. Spoons, sugar and lemons are placed next. The sandwiches may be at the end opposite the tea service. On the opposite side the sponge drops, mints, and lastly the napkins are placed, thus making a well balanced arrangement.

The service should be such as is the least difficult for the hostess. An intimate friend of the hostess or the hostess herself is seated to pour the tea. Each guest goes to the table, receives a plate with a cup or tea on it. She then takes a spoon, helps herself to everything offered, takes a napkin, and then joins a congenial group to visit while partaking of refreshments. When through the guests may dispose of the dishes by placing them on the table, or the hostess and a friend may take them from the guest.

Olive Nut Sandwiches: 1-2 c mayonnaise, 1-2 c chopped nuts, 1-2 c chopped olives, 2 T pimento, additional seasonings to taste. Use bread of close texture and which is twenty-four hours old. Slice thinly. Trim the sandwiches and cut into desired shape and size. Pack into a covered container to remain until just before serving.

Sponge Drops: 2 egg yolks, 3 whites, 1-3 c powdered sugar, 1-3 c flour, 1-8 t salt, 1-4 t vanilla. Beat the egg yolks very stiff, add part of the sugar. Beat the whites very stiff, and the remainder of the sugar. Pour the two mixtures together, and add the vanilla but do not beat. Fold in the flour and salt thoroughly. Drop from teaspoon into round masses. Bake in a moderate oven six to eight minutes. Invert the pan immediately upon taking from the oven. Stick two together with a paste of powdered sugar or fondant spread on the flat sides. For the more elaborate tea for the larger group more elaborate menus are used.

Date Bars: 1-2 c sugar, 2 T butter, 1 egg, 1 c milk, 3-4 c flour, 1 t baking powder, 1-2 t salt, 1 c chopped dates, 1-2 c milk. Mix as a cake batter. Spread one third inch thick in a tin. Bake in a moderate oven. Cut into strips 1 x 3 inches while hot and roll immediately in powdered sugar.

Nut Bread: 1 cup sugar, 2 cups graham flour, 2 cups white flour, 1 cup nuts, 1-2 cup sour cream, 2 cups sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt. Mix the dry ingredients thoroughly, add the liquids, to egg and combine the mixtures. Bake in a moderate oven. This should be made the day before serving.

DENTON—Since warm weather continues, it is advisable to have at least one meal a day that may be prepared on the table. The woman who is able to leave the kitchen and prepare the entire lunch on the side porch or in the dining room feels that she has had a pleasant change from routine. The waffle iron lends itself to this type of meal and there is an endless variety of food which may be prepared in this way. Some suggestions are offered in the menus and the recipes given are prepared with the waffle iron in mind. Bacon, nuts, rice, date or ham give a pleasing variety to the standard waffle recipe. Corn bread, ginger bread, drop cookies may also be prepared on the waffle iron to good advantage.

Breakfast: Iced cantaloupe, chocolate, waffles, syrup, coffee, cream, sugar, milk.

Lunch: Individual meat salad on lettuce, spoon bread, butter, chilled peaches, cream, iced tea, lemon, sugar.

Dinner: Liver and bacon, mashed potatoes, scalloped egg plant, cold slaw, Parker House rolls, butter, jelly, milk, hot ginger bread.

Breakfast: Iced cherries, scrambled eggs, toast, coffee, cream, sugar, milk.

Lunch: Bacon, cornbread, (baked on waffle iron), syrup, vegetable salad, boiled dressing, pineapple ice, cookies.

Dinner: Meat pie, escalloped potatoes, buttered squash, lettuce and tomato salad, French dressing, cold bread pudding, iced coffee, milk.

Chocolate Waffles: 1 c sugar, 1-2 c flour, 1 to 2 t baking powder, 1-8 t salt, 1-4 t cinnamon. Mix the above ingredients and to them add: 1-2 c milk to which has been added, 2 egg yolks, then add 2 squares melted chocolate, 1-2 c melted fat, 1 t vanilla. Fold in two egg whites beaten stiff.

Note: 2 t of tartaric or phosphate baking powder, 1 t of alum baking powder.

Bacon Corn Bread: 1-2 c corn meal, 3-4 c bread flour, 4 t baking powder, 1-2 t soda, 1-2 t salt, 2 T sugar, 1-2 c buttermilk, 2 eggs, 2 T bacon fat, 2 T chopped bacon. Sift flour; measure and again sift with other dry ingredients. Combine and add the fat. Bacon should be fried crisp and then chopped. Cook on a preheated waffle iron. This makes four waffles.

Ginger bread (for waffle iron): 1-2 c butter, 1-2 c sugar, 1 egg, 1-2 c molasses, 1 t soda, 2 t ginger, 1-3-4 c flour, 1 t cinnamon, 1-2 c sour milk, 1-4 t salt. Cream butter, add sugar and molasses gradually, beat egg slightly, and add. Sift dry ingredients. Add milk and dry ingredients alternately. Preheat iron 10 minutes. Bake ginger bread three minutes. Serves 8 people.

MISS LORA CAMMAK AND MR. FRANK COLE MARRIED AT MATADOR LAST SUNDAY

Miss Lora Cammack, daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. R. Cammack of Matador, and Frank Cole, son of C. E. Cole of Ropesville, were married Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in Matador.

Introductory music was a violin solo played by Miss Clara Cammack, sister of the bride, accompanied by Miss Rachel Patton. "At Dawning" sung by E. A. Carnett of Fort Worth and "When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver" sung by the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. D. Starcher of Spur, were the nuptial solos. The Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches were the violin selections played for the procession and recessional by Miss Clara Cammack accompanied by Miss Rachel Patton.

Rev. T. Z. Cagle, of Abilene, grandfather of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with green ferns and roses. Twenty-eight years ago the Rev. Cagle officiated in the marriage ceremony of the bride's parents.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress of white imported silk trimmed with seed pearls and made on princess lines which fell into a semi-train in the back. Her veil was caught to a cornet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of aster and fern. Her only jewelry was a wrist watch, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's only attendant was her mother, who entered alone wearing a rose lace frock and a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. William Dodge Starcher, Jr., carried the wedding rings on a pink satin pillow. The groom, attended by his father, met the bride at the altar. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. W. R. Snow, an aunt of the bride, of Abilene, and Miss Pearl Cammack, sister of the bride, presided at the three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Edd Cammack, of Matador, and Mrs. Webb Cammack, of Lubbock, served at the punch bowl.

Out of town guests were Misses Mary and Margaret Cammack of Lubbock; William R. Snow, Jr. of Abilene; Mrs. T. Z. Cagle of Abilene; Mrs. E. C. Cole of Ropesville; Mrs. Jack Barton of Afton; Richard Cavett of Southland.

The bride and bridegroom are former students of Texas Technological College. Mrs. Cole served on the Junior Council and was active in other school work. Mr. Cole, a June graduate who was prominent in student circles, will teach in the public schools of Roaring Springs where the couple will make their home after a short wedding trip.

FOR

County Attorney

OF DICKENS COUNTY

TO THE PEOPLE:

I want to thank the good people of Dickens County for the good vote which you gave me in the first primary. Your support, cooperation and efforts in my behalf gave me a lead of 126 votes over my nearest opponent, and I want you to know that I appreciate your confidence in me. I want to urge you to continue your efforts for me in the second primary. It will be through your efforts if I am given a lead in the second primary. If you believe that I am the man for the office, and that I will cooperate with you and your officers in making this office of service to the people, I will greatly appreciate your vote on next Saturday, and if elected will try to make you a good hand.

"My New Creation 'Mayonnaise'" Said the Duc de Richelieu's Chef

WHEN the Duc de Richelieu's chef presented his master with "Sauce Mahonnaise," little did he dream that he had created one of the world's favorite sauces, later to be called "mayonnaise." The occasion was a banquet celebrating the French victory over the British, in Minorca in 1791. The banquet was held at Mahon, hence "Mahonnaise."

Since then, innumerable women have been in the debt of this inventive chef. For mayonnaise is the world's most popular dressing for salads and sandwiches.

Being rich and heavy-bodied, real mayonnaise can be used as a base for dozens of delicious variations. You can make the dressing fit the salad.

Why not try a few of the following variations of mayonnaise?

Cucumber Mayonnaise
(for hearts of lettuce and other greens)
1/2 cup double-whipped mayonnaise
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup cucumber, finely diced
Fold mayonnaise into slightly whipped cream. Add cucumber and blend. Makes 1 cup mayonnaise.

Equal quantities of chopped pimiento and diced cucumber may be used instead of all cucumber.

Fresh Tomato Mayonnaise
(for hearts of lettuce and other greens)
1 cup double-whipped mayonnaise
1/2 cup fresh tomato sauce
1 cup pimiento, chopped
1/2 cup mayonnaise, fresh tomatoes
To mayonnaise add Worcester-shire sauce, pimiento, and tomatoes (cut into small shreds). Makes about 1 1/2 cups mayonnaise.

Lemon Cream Mayonnaise
(for fruit salads)
1/2 cup double-whipped mayonnaise
2 1/2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
Dash of salt
1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup cream, whipped
Fold mayonnaise, sugar, salt, and lemon juice into whipped cream, and blend thoroughly. Makes 1 cup mayonnaise.

Fresh Raspberry Cream Mayonnaise
(for fruit salads)
1/2 cup double-whipped mayonnaise
1/2 cup red raspberries, slightly crushed
2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup cream, whipped
To mayonnaise add raspberries, sugar, and lemon juice, and fold into whipped cream. Makes 1/2 cup mayonnaise.

Frozen Raspberry Cream Mayonnaise
(for fruit salads)
1/2 cup double-whipped mayonnaise
1/2 cup red raspberries, crushed and strained
1/2 cup cream, whipped
Fold mayonnaise and raspberries into whipped cream and blend thoroughly. Freeze about 2 hours in tray of automatic refrigerator. Makes about 1 1/2 cups mayonnaise. This mixture should not be frozen at too low a temperature.

Sour Cream Mayonnaise
(for tart fruit and vegetable salads)
1/2 cup double-whipped mayonnaise
1/2 cup sour cream, slightly whipped
Fold mayonnaise into cream. Makes 1 cup mayonnaise.
