There had been much testimony submitted which implicated Hartman as violating the narcotic laws, but he was not proven guilty of murder according to the Courts ruling.

Defense testimony was begun Tuesday in the cases of Tom Morgan and Sheriff Cato. Morgan testified that Sheriff Cato asked him to accompany him as he had received a phone call of some suspicious persons in a certain part of town. He stated that the sheriff had placed a pistol in his lap and said, "There, take that." Morgan said when they reached Dr. Kitchen's office that "A man was running from the car into Doc's office. A woman was in the front seat and a man in the back seat. I got out on my side of the car and Mr. Cato on his side."

The Sheriff asked D. L. Lowery, lay, May 12th at 2:00 o'clock. This interesting talks. Fancy a dirt really marked the beginning of our trip to Washington. With stops at Dallas and Longview to finish out our train of some sixteen to eighteen coaches including diners and observation cars. This speaking in Congressional Hall—it really happened.

From this meeting we went directly to the White House grounds where President Roosevelt delivered the most honest to groundness, straight for tion cars.

From Longview we traveled via Tex arkana at eight or nine o'clock Sunday night, so we traveled through Arkansas at night mostly, and could not tell whether or not they wear shoes there now. We went along the side of the great Mississippi River sometime Monday morning some miles below St. Louis. Traveling alongside the river to St. Louis where we stopped thirty or forty minutes before starting the run for Cincinnatti.

The route from Cincinnatti lies most honest-to-goodness, straight forward talk we have ever heard, and the applause was heard above city traffice for many blocks no doubt.

The next thing on the program was a banquet of the Texas Delegation at the Mayflower Hotel beginning at 8:00 o'clock p. m. Tuesday, May 14th and lasting until after 12:00 o'clock.

Most every Congressman from Texas made a talk at this banquet, also Secretary Wallas and C. A. Cobb and our Senators Connally and Sheppard made excellent talks. thickly populated and farms are not large apparently for they use two-horse breaking plows mostly in preparing the land, these plows all turn the dirt to the left, which looked rather odd to a West Texas boy.

From Cincinnatti we traveled directly up the Ohio river or a tributary of the same until reaching the divide of the Alleghany range of mountains. This was on the C. & O. railroad one of the oldest lines in America, and crosses the Alleghaney Mountains via the New and Green Briar River valleys, tributaries of the Ohio river, and through numerous tunnels some as long as 7-8 of a mile. The narow river valley, water falls on the river, and water falls from the mountains to the river, coupled with views of mountain ranges make it a route of scenic wonder. This is the coal mining section of West Virginia. W. F. Godfrey, of Godfrey & Smart, Ford dealers, left Tuesday for Dallas where he will be for two or three days taking care of some new car deals. ## ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish that I could see each of you personally and tell how deeply I appreciate the nice business you have given the New Deal Grocery since its opening eighteen months ago.

Knowing that to be impossible, I am taking this method to tell all my good friends that I am thankful for their friendship and patronage that has made it possible for us to have a nice volume of business. I do not want to be ungrateful, and I realize that I would be if I was not thankful in the depths of my heart to everyone that has helped to make this business venture a success thus far.

I am delighted to tell you that Mr. John Albin has bought an interest in the New Deal Grocery and will be actively interested in its future success. John is an experienced groceryman and with his added ability the New Deal Grocery should be able to serve its patrons even better than it has in the past.

Mr. Albin joins me in soliciting a liberal share of your grocery business. We expect to increase our stock and add new equipment, to the end that the New Deal Grocery may continue to be one of Spur's leading grocery's through the years to come.

I'm optimistic, believe in the "New Deal" and feel that 1935 is going to be a great year for us all.

Sincerely
