Canadian Treaty Favored By Press

"The reciprocal trade agreement between the United States and Canada is the greatest single step toward the reduction of tariff barriers that has been taken anywhere since the onset of the depression," the New York Times declared in its leading editorial the day after the terms of the treaty were announced, and added: "It is not only a fine achievement in itself but a hopeful augury of a wider restoration of international trade and sanity. Special interests will attack it. But they will say nothing about the great gains to us all as consumers."

"The agreement with Canada," remarked the Baltimore Sun, frequent severe critic of the administration, "must be set down as a victory, not only for those who have been advocating a return to lower tariffs as a means of pulling international trade out of its present slump and of thus promoting domestic recovery, but for those who, through good times and bad, have always stood for a freer trade as a way of keeping the world economy in equilibrium. Moreover, the success of these negotiations shows that the new method of tariff bargaining is more effective than the old method of dealing with tariff raises through legislative action. It will ultimately prove a boon to the country as a whole, for it will undoubtedly lead to a lowering of prices and to a generally livelier trade both at home and as between this country and Canada."

"To regain our lost export trade," said the Washington Post (Rep.), "it is necessary to expand our imports or be prepared to become more nearly self-sufficient than heretofore. The concessions made to Canada, our second largest customer, show that the administration is earnestly attempting to follow the former course. It has made an excellent start toward its objective of increasing trade, with all that means for employment with stabilized prosperity. There is good reason to believe that the agreement will assure a marked increase in trade with out substantial injury to any group of domestic producers and with gains, both direct and indirect, accruing to many branches of industry and agriculture."

"On close analysis," says the New York Journal of Commerce (Rep.), "it is found that the duty reductions in the Canadian treaty in most cases will not do more than approach or restore the rates of the 1922 Fordney-McCumber tariff, which at the time were regarded as relatively high. In the case of dairy products, the cuts will bring down the duties to a level moderately higher than those of 1922. Thus the cream rate will be reduced from 56.6c per gallon to 35c, whereas the rate in effect before the 1930 act was only 30c. A quota limits imports to 1,500,000 gallons a year. For calves and dairy cattle the 1922 rate is restored, while the for beef cattle the new rate will remain one-third higher than under the 1922 act. Furthermore, quotas imposed upon imports of these products from Canada limit them to less than 1 per cent of the domestic annual slaughter and to 20,000 head of dairy cattle yearly. For lumber, duties, no comparison with the 1922 act is possible because these products were on the free list at that time. Therefore, American lumber producers retain considerable protection and also quotas are imposed on Douglas fir and hemlock to 5 per cent of our annual consumption. All in all, the concessions granted to Canada replace the high rates of duty established by the Hawley-Smoot tariff of 1930 with rates moderately above the 1922 act level."

"And even a modest expansion of our commerce with Canada would justify a grant of such reasonable tariff concessions."

Even the orthodox Old Guard Republican New York Herald-Tribune makes an attempt to be fair in discussing the treaty. It says:

"If one approaches the document in full sympathy with its broad objectives—the strengthening of our traditional ties of friendship with Canada and the restoration of the very large trade which flourished between the two countries before the depression—one must concede that it puts the bur-

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank our many friends and relatives who so faithfully stood by us during the long illness and death of our father, Uncle Tom Tallant. Also for the beautiful floral offering.

We feel that every thing that human hands could do was done for him while he lingered. Dr. Bob Alexander and his father did all that physicians could do to relieve his suffering for which they have our undying gratitude.

May God's richest blessings rest upon each of you is the earnest prayer of

Spur Host To Floydada Today In Season's Last Game

Dogs Have Won Much Despite Season's 'Breaks'

Some may feel that Spur's football team have been mediocre in its career this year but the writer holds a different opinion. There are not many teams that will go forward and win as much against odds as has the Spur Bulldogs done this year. Few of the boys were experienced at the beginning of the season, all of them had to be built up and trained to hit the line. With an itinerary of seven conference games and four non-conference games with ten of these games played and only three defeats is a good record. Today, the 11th game will be played on the Chas. A. Jones Memorial field at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon, and Spur Bulldogs have a good chance to be runner up in this section of District 4.

The only two conference teams that won over the Spur Bulldogs were outclassed in team work from every angle. They just got the breaks is all that saved them. Many people stated Friday that it looked as if Matador would have to yield to their first conference defeat because of the class and team work of the Bulldogs.

Playing football is not the end of the career—it is only a means to an end. The Spur Bulldogs are developing into many, courteous citizens and learning to "take it" on the chin as well as learning to give. It takes a real sport to be a good loser, and the Bulldogs are developing a great principle in give and take on the field. The coaches who have been in charge are to be commended for their work, and the Bulldogs have made a great record even if they lose the game today.

But, they will not lose today. Let's all be there and help them hit the line by backing them up with cheers and yells and let them know we are with them. It isn't always the efforts of the team that wins, many times it is the morale behind the team. The Bulldogs put up every effort they have for the name of Spur—many times we sit on the side line, or stay at home, and never manifest any interest, or even say, "Sic'em Bulldogs". If you have any sporting blood in you, if you care for the future of our boys, be there this afternoon at three o'clock and help the boys to win.

Girard Man First Donor To Fund

State Chairman Amon G. Carter states that whatever fund is to be placed in the Will Rogers Memorial that not one dime of it will be used for erecting any marble monument. The fund is to be used for an endowment of some kind to commendable institutions, probably educational work. Will Rogers would not be pleased with the people expending large amounts for a monument because he did not believe in making a show and did not care for any laudable ceremonies while he was here with us.

We can imagine hearing Will Rogers say, if he were here with us now, "All right, go ahead folks, use the money to help some poor boys and girls who have not had an opportunity to get a chance to go to school and learn smethin' to make them useful. If they learn to do smethin' and can earn an honest livelihood then they will be happy." And it is the intention of those in charge of this memorial fund to use it as they feel Will Rogers would be pleased for them to use it.

Whatever amount you contribute is to be a voluntary amount. No high pressure methods will be used to secure funds. Will Rogers wanted people to do things for him because they loved him and wanted to do so to show their appreciation. If you have a dime, a quarter, a dollar, five dollars, a hundred dollars, or whatever amount you want to give you may leave it with the following named persons:

Robert Nickels at McAdoo, Byron Haney at Afton, Z. W. Fowler at Dickens, Faust Collier at the Spur Security Bank or Jephtha Craig at the Dickens County Times office. It will be best to get your contributions in soon as the time is growing short and it will not be long until the funds will be sent in.

Paul S. Rogers, superintendent of schools at Girard, was in town last week and started the Will Rogers Fund with five dollars. He was the first one to make a contribution. Many others have been making their contributions and it is hoped that everybody will have at least a small part in this work. Whatever is done with the money the cause will carry the name of Will Rogers.

John D. Huffstetler, of Highway community, was attending to business matters in our city Saturday.

The people are extended an invitation to be there and boost for their home teams.

MOTHER OF EDGAR MCGEE PASSES AWAY

Edgar C. McGee, local wholesale agent for the Texas Company, received a message Tuesday morning that his mother had passed away at the family home in Granfield, Okla. The mother had been in ill health about two years but seemed much improved when Mr. McGee visited her recently.

Mr. and Mrs. McGee and daughter, Miss Sammie, left Tuesday morning for Granfield to attend the funeral services which were held Wednesday. The deceased is survived by the husband, three sons and two daughters. The many friends of Mr. McGee extend sympathy in this sad hour.

Hostile Press Sure That President Can't Be Beaten In 1936

"If any one wants to know who will be elected President in 1936, just read the editorials on the subject in the anti-Roosevelt press," said Edward A. Flene, famous merchant and economist, in a statement issued in Boston. "These editorial writers as a rule are not wishful thinkers. They may sincerely hope for the New Deal's downfall; but it is their definite conviction, obviously, that Roosevelt cannot be beaten. If there were any evidence that he could be beaten these men would present it and not be compelled to juggle figures as they do."

"The Boston Herald," for instance, commenting on the 'poll' taken by the 'American Institute of Public Opinion,' says: 'The anti-Roosevelt vote may fairly be interpreted as evidence that any Republican, Landon, Knox, Borah, Vandenberg, McNary or Frank, looks better to 47 per cent of the aggregate than Roosevelt does.'

"But what are the facts of this 'poll'—the facts actually cited in the editorial itself? Fifty-three per cent of those 'canvassed' expressed definite preference for Roosevelt. The 47 per cent constituted the aggregate of ALL opposition. It includes not only those who expect to vote Republican willy-nilly, but those who would vote for Borah but positively not for Hoover, as well as those who would vote for a liberal. It includes those who think Roosevelt too conservative as well as those who think him too 'radical.' It includes all whose opposition to the President has been aroused because of his attitude on some special measure or even the removal of some postmaster."

A. J. SHACKLEFORD PASSES AWAY

A. J. Shackelford, 66, passed away Wednesday morning about five o'clock at his home three miles southwest of Spur. Mr. Shackelford had been suffering for sometime with a malignant tumor which caused his demise.

Funeral services were held at Red Mud Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. J. V. Bilberry conducted the services. Interment followed in Red Mud cemetery, Bill Kinney acting as funeral director.

Mr. Shackelford was born in Louisiana July 28, 1869. He came to Dickens County several years ago and has lived southwest of Spur most of his time here. He leaves a wife and a number of children who mourn his departure.

Matador Citizen Found In Dying Condition Friday

The Times received a report at 4:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon that the Motley County Grand Jury returned an indictment against Ensey and McArthur charging them with murder.

J. B. (Uncle Ben) Speegle, proprietor of a tourist camp in West Side of Matador, was found in dying condition at his place of business about eight o'clock Friday evening. A number of people have been taken into custody by officers charged with the offense, among whom are Melvin Ensey and Everett McArthur of this city. At the finding of the dying man County Attorney John Hamilton was notified and Mr. Speegle was rushed to the Tra-week Sanitarium in Matador. He was in an unconscious condition and died within a few minutes, never being able to speak a word. His face was badly bruised, front teeth out and his neck broken.

As the story is related by different ones, Melvin Ensey, Everett McArthur, Russell Smith had gone to Matador Friday afternoon to witness the football game between Matador and Spur. After the game the boys were unable to catch rides back to Spur and remained in Matador. Ensey who was reported drinking and so near out that the other boys had to take care of him. Harold Karr, another Spur boy, came along in an automobile and the boys hailed him. They put Ensey in the automobile and went to the Speegle tourist camp where they rented a cabin and paid for it and then put Ensey to bed and saw that he was comfortably sleeping. Then it appears that two of the boys with some other boys went to another room and were enjoying some kind of game.

About seven o'clock and after Ensey had gone to sleep, McArthur left his cabin and soon encountered a man known as the "Bouncer" who asked McArthur to shoot craps with him. McArthur told him he was not a gambler and asked to be excused. It seems the "Bouncer" became offended at McArthur and hit him, then followed up and knocked McArthur down and kicked him in the right side as a number of bruised places were on his face and body. McArthur underwent X-Ray examination in Spur and his face and side were treated later.

After the brawl the boys decided they had better clear out to save trouble before the courts and when Karr went to his automobile just before eight o'clock he found Speegle in his automobile. It was dark and the boys observed he was breathing hard, but not knowing who it was supposed him to be drunk and pulled him under a car shed and left him, and then went out on town.

When about Dickens they had car trouble and Virgil Wilson came along and stopped to render assistance, pushing the car for the boys. Sheriff Koonsman apprehended the boys there and asked them to accompany him back to Matador where officers there placed them in jail until bond for them could be arranged. McArthur and Ensey were placed under $10,000 bond each, and Smith and Wilson were placed under $500 and $250 bonds respectively for driving a car while intoxicated.

The Grand Jury was called into session Monday and at the time of going to press no charges had been turned into the District Court. Nothing but circumstantial evidence has been produced against any of the boys. What may be brought up later has not been revealed. In speaking of the incident, Everett McArthur stated that he did not see how either he or Ensey could have done the deed as both of them were unconscious at the time the deed was supposed to have been committed. He stated the last time he saw Mr. Speegle was when he started a fire in the cabin where Ensey was sleeping.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to all those who were so kind and helpful during the loss of our son and brother, May the Lord bless all of you. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lee and Children.

Harley Sadler To Be Here Next Week

Harley Sadler, West Texas favorite show man, will be in Spur all next week to meet and greet old friends, make new ones and give the people a week of their good shows. It has been some time since Harley and Mrs. Sadler have been in our city, but they have a great number of friends here and all will be glad to see them.

They will be here in person. Mr. Sutton, their advance man, stated this week that they have a complete new program and their plays are much better this year than ever before. Harley will not be so much interested in the show side while in Spur as he will in meeting and talking with his friends. He is a natural actor and carries a good personnel in all characters in his plays and putting on a show does not demand so much attention and energy from Harley and his helpers as with many other companies. He enjoys his work and gets a great thrill out of making people happy. It is a sort of religion with him, and no one can give a bigger, more welcoming smile than does Harley. He will show under auspices of the local Parent-Teachers' Association.

One-Day Church Convention Is Well Attended

The one day convention sponsored by the First Christian Church here Thursday of last week was a busy one throughout the day. The convention theme was "Recovery and Advance" and the various discussions on the different subjects were very timely and interesting. The day was started with a devotional service conducted by John O'Keefe of Paducah.

President J. E. Hartley, of Lubbock, made a very stirring and emphatic address, using as his subject "We must increase or decrease, there is no neutral ground." Mr. Hartley stated that he is associated with a business firm and often they sit around the council table and enumerate the things they have done—take inventory. Then he said, "We apply this to past records and see whether we are going forward or backwards. It is pleasant when we see that we have made advancement toward the goal set." He continued, "I do not desire to say the church is a cold business institution, but in a measure we should check up and see how we stand."

He stated further, "That the work of the church is a struggle just as anything else worth while is a struggle. Good church members don't happen by easy ways; good Christians do not develop along easy lines. If we expect to increase in the kingdom of God we must work."

The convention divided into sections to discuss church problems. The Women's work was presided over by Mrs. Bessie Hart of Fort Worth. The men discussed the every member canvass and W. R. Vivrett, of Lubbock, discussed church finance and plans to enlist the membership in supporting the church. During his remarks Rev. Vivrett stated that statistics show that 64.5 per cent of the church membership are inactive in supporting the church finances. This leaves only 34.5 per cent who pay all the bills.

Rev. Paul Preston, of Indianapolis, discussed the problem of "What Recovery Means to the Brotherhood" in a very able manner. He stated that the people started the depression years before the real break came. He stated that people bought merchandise and would not pay for it. He related how the president of a fertilizer company had told him that they had been forced to withdraw all credit from farmers in an eastern state because the farmers would buy and never pay. "People began to neglect those principles taught by the church," he continued. "We must get back on honest basis, pay up our obligations, be fair with our fellow man and true to God and everything will be all right. We must put faith into our resources and go forward. This is true not only with the church but everything else if we want to succeed," he stated.

"Take your children to church and set a Godly example before them. Let every one speak carefully of the church. We have people who are trying to kill the influence of the church by saying some things. Have faith in the kingdom of God. The church is just a place to work to bring in the kingdom. The church has the only program humanity needs. We should get so enthusiastic over it as to forget all other programs and make the program

Game Called For Three o'clock At Jones Stadium

The Spur Bulldogs, climaxing the most successful football season in five years in Spur, will meet the Floydada Whirlwind at 3:00 o'clock p. m. today at the Charles A. Jones Memorial Stadium. Spur has been defeated in district 4-B twice, Floydada once and the two teams will fight it out for the second place trophy.

Losing to Matador by one touchdown a week prior to the time Spur lost to Matador, Floydada comes to Spur for almost two evenly matched teams. Floydada has the edge in that they defeated Paducah, whereas Spur lost to the same team by a one point margin. But, it was clearly demonstrated at Matador, that Spur held the Conference leaders far better than Floydada did and as the season has advanced Spur has shown more power every game.

The Whirlwind is paced by Linder, big fast, shifty back who proved the undoing of Spur last year. He is ably assisted by Avon and Powell in the backfield. Floydada has one of the heaviest forward walls in this district led by Probasco, giant tackle and J. D. Montgomery, center. All these men will be in action Thursday at Spur and they are a fast stepping ball club.

Spur, without the services of Head Coach Wadzack, will present a full squad in first class physical condition. Only two practice sessions were held, Monday and Tuesday with a light work out Wednesday, as the squad had reached a fine edge for the Matador game and the coaches, worked the team just enough to keep this fine edge. Seniors, who will play their last game for Spur, are Frances Bingham, stellar quarterback; Garlan Chapman, leading yard maker this season and outstanding in the backfield in every game; Thomas Haralson, who has played five ball all season; Lanier Gilbert, candidate for all state tackle and Ivan Perkins, another candidate for all district honors. Capt. W. A. McCombs, not only has played a fine game at end, but has been a capable leader of the team. Buck Willhoit, outstanding guard of the district, and has been serving as field general a big part of this season.

If the weather is favorable, a record crowd for the new stadium is forecast.

Local Man Presents Books to School

Henry Alexander, of the firm of Henry Alexander & Company, recently made a very nice gift to the schools of Spur. This was about 100 volumes of books including a number of the Tom Sawyer series and others of Mark Twain's writings.

In making this gift to the school libraries Mr. Alexander exemplified his interest in Spur schools, and the pupils, teachers and superintendent appreciate the gift greatly. Most of the books will be suitable for students in the Junior High School, or the Grammar School grades, and Mr. Alexander could not have made a present of greater importance than the one he selected.

W. W. (BILLIE) MOORE PASSES AWAY

W. W. (Billie) Moore, a long time and much respected citizen of Matador, died at Dallas about noon Sunday. The body was returned to Matador where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Moore has been in ill health several months and about one week before his death he went to Baylor Hospital at Dallas hoping to get some relief from his suffering.

He came to Motley County in an early day and became engaged in the cattle business. He worked for ranches and then went into the stock farming business for himself. He was rightfully classed as one of the pioneer citizens of West Texas, because as he often stated, there was not much civilization in this country when he discovered it.

His immediate family, two brothers, Rance and J. R. Moore, of Matador, survive besides other relatives.

FOOTBALL GAME AT McADOO TODAY

The McAdoo Eagles and Roaring Springs, class C football, teams will play at McAdoo today, Thanksgiving. Roaring Springs is undefeated in the class C league and will endeavor to win undisputed right to the championship this afternoon. McAdoo lost an early season game to Roaring Springs there, but has run up some top heavy scores over other teams since then.

Cancel Licenses Is Chief Weapon Of State Liquor Board

Austin—Authority to enforce Texas' package liquor law is lodged mainly in the State Liquor Control Board and its administrator.

The old principle of enforcing liquor regulations against sellers mainly by criminal prosecution is abandoned. The new approach is predicated on licensing all commercial handlers with the board empowered to cancel permits, thus penalizing offenders.

Sale of liquor without a license is prohibited, and that offense, along with violations in the manner of sale, subjects a person to misdemeanor penalties. Criminal prosecution, of course, still will be the main enforcement weapon in dry areas where no license may be issued except for medicinal liquor.

Gov. James V. Allred has appointed a policy-forming board composing a dry, Chairman D. B. Benson of Bowie, and two liberals, D. J. Decherd of Flatonia and J. W. Williams of Port Arthur.

The State Liquor Board held a meeting Monday of last week and selected C. R. Miller, of Austin, as State Administrator. Terms of the board members are fixed: Benson the chairman, serves six years; Decherd will serve four years and Williams, two years.

Permits a Personal Privilege

Sponsors believe that revocation of permits will be the strongest weapon in enforcing the act; for that reason it will not be wholly dependent on local officers. It also is the board's duty to assist officers in criminal prosecutions.

Importance of the board in administration arises from the premise stated in the act that "unless otherwise herein expressly excepted it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, possess for the purpose of sale, import into this State, or transport any alcohol or any liquor." Permits also are deemed a purely personal privilege not constituting property.

Right of Appeal Given

The board or its administrator may revoke or suspend, in some instances summarily, permits of those violating either the law or the board's regulations. In some instances hearings are required. Either the board, its administrator or agent may conduct a hearing. Persons whose licenses are canceled have the right of appeal to the courts.

Suspension or cancellation of a permit also may be allowed with prosecution on a misdemeanor charge. There are no felony offenses enumerated in the act, which repealed the old State prohibition law.

First offenders may be fined from $100 to $1,000 or committed to the county jail for not more than one year. Second offenders face the fine plus a jail sentence of thirty days minimum.

Special offenses are defined in other sections. One prohibits possession of untaxed liquor and provides a penalty of a fine of $10 to $500 and a jail sentence up to six months.

No Outside Influence

City authorities and County Commissioners may initiate proceedings for revocation of permits and the board or its administrator is required to cancel permits on proper showing after notice and hearing of several offenses.

In addition to named offenses, the power of cancellation extends to the board "if there is any other reason which, in the opinion of the board, based on the general welfare, health, peace, morale and safety of the people of the State, warrants canceling or suspending such permit."

To prevent liquor interests from influencing the board the act prohibits employment of any person "who has any connection with any association, firm, persons or corporation engaged in or conducting any alcoholic liquor business of any kind or who holds stocks or bonds therein, or who has pecuniary interest therein."

Tax Stamps Provided

An additional prohibition is that no board member or employee may "receive any commission or profit whatsoever in any purchase or sales of any alcoholic liquors."

An appropriation of $25,000 is provided the board to start operations. On payment of that amount a revolving fund of $50,000 will be set up from revenues to finance administration.

The State Treasurer will sell the tax stamps, which shall contain the words, "Texas State Tax Paid." The duty of contracting for printing is incumbent on the Treasurer and Board of Control.

Broad authority is given the board to "the extent of partially or wholly abrogating any provisions hereof which may be in conflict with Federal law or regulations" in co-operating with the Federal Government in col-

More Motion Picture Films For Schools

The approaching release of a number of new films of outstanding literary merit has led the Motion Picture Committee of the Department of Secondary Education of the National Education Association, to recommend the preparation of additional photoplay study guides of the type that has become increasingly popular with high school teachers and students in recent months.

On the basis of the Department's recommendations, Educational and Recreational Guides, Inc., of Newark, New Jersey, plans shortly to publish study guides for the following pictures, under the general editorship of Max J. Herzberg, of the Weequahic High School, of Newark:

BEAUTY AIDS

Those women who have limited resources need not deny themselves helpful beauty preparations. Many simple beauty treatments and remedies are found right in the kitchen cupboard or pantry. Fresh lemon juice is a big aid in keeping attractive. The juice of just half a lemon in equal parts of cold water makes a bleach that will lighten the skin on face, neck and hands. There are egg masks, oatmeal and egg masks, corn meal to thoroughly cleanse the hands, olive oil for scalp massage just before the shampoo, lemon rinses for the hair, etc.

County Tax Assessors-Collectors would continue to issue licenses for handling of beer of 4 per cent or less as under previous regulation of 3.2 per cent beer. Duties in 4 per cent beer regulation formerly imposed on the Comptroller under the 3.2 beer act were transferred to the new board.

What the Legislature Did

The second called session of the Forty-Fourth Legislature, which ended over a week ago, acted as follows on the main bills before it:

Passed liquor regulatory bill, barring sales of hard liquor by the drink and allowing sales in packages only, the purchase not to be drunk on the premises of sale. It received a two-thirds vote in both Houses and consequently became effective immediately after it was signed by the Governor.

Passed old-age pension bill, establishing system of assistance for all persons more than 65 years of age who can qualify under its restrictions.

Passed officers' salary bill, changing the present fee system of payment of district, county and precinct officers to a salary basis.

Passed a law to license drivers of automobiles.

DID NOT pass tax bill to cover payment of old-age pensions. The measure died in conference committee. Governor Allred has announced he will call a special session in January.

Chevrolet Adds Hydraulic Brakes

New Master de luxe and Standard Chevrolets for 1936, embodying marked advances in styling, engineering, and performance, were introduced at the New York automobile show and simultaneously throughout the country at dealer salesrooms, which have already been liberally stocked with new models for display and delivery.

Completeness in equipment, in appointments, and in convenience is stressed in the company's 1936 announcement.

The Master de luxe, offered with either knee action or conventional springing, had been restyled in its more important appearance elements, notably by the adoption of a higher and narrower grille of distinctively original design, in combination with a new treatment of the hood louvers, new style headlamps mounted on the sides of the radiator shell, and new interior trim.

The lower priced Standard models have been completely redesigned in chassis and bodies. Last year the Standards differed materially both in appearance and in construction from the Masters; this year, the two lines are identical in all major features of styling, engineering, and performance, the chief difference being only a matter of wheelbase.

Outstanding among the many new features of both Master and Standard models for 1936 are perfected hydraulic brakes; improved engines having higher compression ratio (6 to 1), balanced carburetor, full-length water jacketing, and other changes resulting in better cooling and improved gas-line and oil economy; and chrome-plated prevention of fenders and running boards.

Front doors of all models of both lines are now hinged at the front.

The solid steel turret top, exclusive last year with the Master models, has been adopted this year for the Standard line also. Spoke-type pressed steel wheels, instead of wire wheels, are used on all Standard models.

Body interiors of Master models show marked advances in comfort and style. An important innovation is found in the design of the front seating arrangement of the Master coach and town-sedan. Instead of the usual divided and hinged front seat of two-door models, a single seat cushion extends the full width of the car, permitting three passengers to ride comfortably. The seat-back is divided, the right side section being hinged to fold forward over the seat cushion to open a passageway to the rear compartment.

Standard Models Completely New

Chevrolet's Standard models for 1936, besides incorporating features that appear for the first time on the Masters, take their place in the line as entirely new models, with new box girder chassis frame, more powerful engine, longer wheelbase and larger bodies. The line of body types has been increased to seven by the addition of three models—the four-door sport sedan with built-in trunk, the two-door town sedan with built-in trunk, and the cabriolet.

The Standard model wheelbase, formerly 107 inches, is now 109, while its overall length, last year 170-1-2 inches, is 12 to 13 inches greater. Bodies are longer and wider, with more leg room, wider seats and additional head room. Car weight is increased 135 pounds. Springing has been improved by the use of longer front and shorter rear springs, which possess more nearly equal frequencies and so minimize pitching.

Side rails and cross members of the new Standard frame are all of rigid box section, a type of construction that has appeared on costly European cars but never before in the low price field in this country. Although greatly increased in strength and in stiffness, the box girder members add so greatly to the rigidity of the structure that only three cross members are required. The extreme simplicity of the frame greatly facilitates access to chassis units for lubrication and service operations.

Horsepower of the Standard, formerly 74, has been increased to 79 at 3200 r. p. m. by changes in combustion chamber design, valve operation, and carburetion in combination with an increase in compression ratio from 5.6 to 1 to 6 to 1.

JOE LONG COMING BACK TO SPUR

Joe Long, of Abilene, popular West Texas druggist, is coming back to Spur next week. Mr. and Mrs. Long moved to Abilene just a few months ago where he has been with a large drug store. He will take charge as manager for the City Drug Store here next Monday and expects to be here indefinitely. Mr. Long is well known in Spur having been associated with the City Drug Store sometime before going to Abilene, and there are not two people who will be appreciated more in Spur than will be Mr. and Mrs. Long.

W. A. Harris, of Espuela community, was in Saturday looking after business matters. While here he had the Times sent to his wife and stated she did most of the reading at his place.

use of a new 'shot-blast' process of treating cushion springs of the disc, and a more accurate alignment of the release levers. A rail-type shifting mechanism on the transmission with positive interlock, has been substituted for the plate type formerly used. Fuel tank capacity, formerly 11 gallons, is now 14. A ventilated generator has been adopted.

Perfected Hydraulic Brakes On All Models

In changing to perfected hydraulic brakes on both chassis models, Chevrolet has adopted the hydraulic principle of brake actuation to its own design of brake mechanism within the brake drums. Instead of the cable operated floating cam formerly used at each wheel, a master hydraulic cylinder with double opposed pistons is used to actuate each pair of one-piece articulated brake shoes.

The master cylinder, whose piston is moved by the brake pedal to transmit pressure by a column of fluid to each of the wheel cylinders, is mounted on the frame. The master piston is one inch in diameter, while wheel pistons are large to effect an increase of braking effect at the wheels. Front wheel pistons are larger than those of the rear wheels, to balance the breaking effect when, in stopping, extra weight thrown on the front wheels gives them greater traction. This arrangement prevents locking the rear wheels by themselves by heavy brake application.

The hand brake lever actuates both service brake shoes in both rear wheels. The connection is by flexible cable, operating a lever and toggle mechanism within the rear brake drums.

On the Masters, brake drums are of composite construction, comprising a cast iron rim and a pressed steel web. The braking surface is accurately machined, after assembly to the wheel hub, assuring true concentricity. Long life, freedom from scoring, and more effective braking are advantages claimed for cast iron. The outer surface of the drum is machined in deep grooves that form five ribs, to promote cooling.

On the Standard, equally effective braking is obtained by using pressed steel drums, which are one inch larger in diameter than last year's, increasing the brake lining area to 158-1-4 inches, 17 sq. ins. more than formerly. An improved grade of closely grained steel is used for the drums, and their braking surfaces are machined to accurate form and smooth finish. Dirt shields have been added.

BUSINESS IS AFRAID

During the past year, substantial and sustained improvement has taken place in almost all lines of business.

ress toward recovery. Today business is afraid—and its fears are justified and logical. It is afraid of our almost incredible volume of governmental spending, which is reflected in a staggering public debt and inevitably higher taxes.

It is afraid of governmental competition in fields of private endeavor. It is afraid of governmental interference in private affairs that tends to take business management out of the hands of the owners of property and put it in the hands of bureaucrats actuated by partisan and political motives.

It is afraid of alien policies which are variously described as socialistic, communistic and fascistic—and which, whatever their proper labeling, are directly opposed to the ancient principle of private enterprise and individual initiative.

When men are plagued by such fears as these, they are hesitant to put money into productive enterprises, knowing that tax or legislative acts may deprive them of any reward. They lose the surge of ambition, the aggressiveness, the desire for achievement that makes great industries, no less than great empires. They are unwilling to take the necessary and unavoidable risks that attach to all commercial enterprises when their ordinary chance of success is lessened or eliminated by artificial governmental restrictions.

Give business a fair deal—and it will go ahead at a breath-taking pace. Continue to stifle business, to regard all business men as cheats and profiteers, and real and permanent prosperity must become the idlest of dreams.

D. R. Stokes, city, remembered us with a renewal Saturday. Mr. Stokes, one of our most respected citizens, is not able to be out these days and is confined to his room most of the time. He enjoys a visit from his friends very much.

Letter to Editor

Glenn, Texas, Nov. 20

I was up on the Plains last Friday on a business trip, and stopped over an hour and visited Miss Nora Baxter's school room. She is not only my ideal girl but a teacher as well. She teaches 1st-2nd grade pupils. I was surprised to note the wonderful progress those little tots had made. They all had their reading lesson and when they failed to call a word, which they seldom did, Nora spelled it over and they generally pronounced it and could tell all the principal parts of the story. And no kill time sand beds were seen in the room. All were happy and busy with their studies and their progress shows they were not showing off for a visitor and Nora will teach those children good principles and set a modest example before them.

Seems our schools have lost their heads over literary attainments and degrees and lost sight of the moral character of teachers. If we continue in this neglectful trend, our nation will soon equal France.

And our state schools have atheists, evolutionists, and infidels which are all the same. One of our nearby state schools has a teacher who calls the Bible a legend and discredits everything in that book divine, which is the light of the world and our guide from earth to Heaven. He should be banished to a heathen land and let him see what his "legend" had done for our nation. A great many parents of today don't look after their children as close as I do my chickens, just send them to a big school and not find the training they are getting.

den of proof on those who would quarrel with its provisions. For in each case the new lower rate applies only to specified quantities, any larger imports continuing to pay the old duties. This new device in tariff making reflects the anxiety of the administration, while promoting international trade, to preserve its precious agrarian price levels. Rate reductions on our part concern mostly articles of which we produce an insufficiency and which in any event we must import. And for our concessions, Canada reduces her rates on eighty-odd items to a point lower than those heretofore paid by any non-British country. Perhaps most important of all is her promise to simplify her tariff procedure.

"Without a doubt an important factor in our loss of Canadian trade has been the spite fence which the two countries have maintained one against the other since 1930. The removal without damage to either—on the contrary, with greater advantage to both—is a consummation worth any one's prayer."

G. W. Allen, of McAdoo, was attending to business matters in our city Saturday. Also stated that he enjoyed the Times and asked that he not miss an issue.

R. H. Hill, of Duncan, was attending to business matters in our city Saturday.

H. D. Nickels To Run For Commissioner

Horace D. Nickels, of McAdoo, probably has the honor of starting politics to rolling in Dickens County for the next election. He was in the Times office this week and stated that he had definitely made up his mind to make the race for County Commissioner for Precinct No. 1. Mr. Nickels is a young man with much business experience and mature judgment. He believes in economy and stated that the county's business should be run on an economical and progressive basis. He stated that when the county goes in debt that the people have to pay extra taxes to clear such indebtedness. He said he did not know of any others yet, but the people of Precinct No. 1 could count on him being a candidate.

of the church first," he concluded. What Recovery means to other lands was discussed by Virgil E. Havens, of Bolenga, Africa. Mr. Havens stated that we under estimate the intelligence of the people we call heathens. He stated that they have a language far more complete than the English language. They have a zeal far greater than most people have. Their principles of right are strongly adhered to. He stated that while working in the Congo country that funds became so low that it looked like they would have to close about half the schools in the country. They held council after council with no solution. Then they called in a number of natives to discuss the matter with them. A native spoke up, "White man, don't close our schools. I am a teacher, cut my salary to half until better times and let's keep our schools. Our children need our schools." It was done, and the teacher who received the big salary of $3.00 per month accepted a dollar and fifty cents per month and the schools went on.

Rev. Walter P. Jennings, of Plainview, made a very fine address using as his subject, "Evangelism Advancing in District Two." Mr. Jennings made it emphatic that both the ministers and the church member must turn to the more important things of the church and get away from selfish business interests.

Others appearing on the program were: Mrs. Bessie Hart who discussed work of the Women's Missionary Society; Charles Marion Ross who discussed Christian Education; Patrick Henry, of Dallas, who discussed Texas Missions; C. H. Morris who represented T. C. U. Virvil E. Havens was again called upon to tell more about Africa. Mr. Havens asked some questions and then stated that the first thing that a native of Congo wanted that a white person owns is his chair, the next thing is clothing and the third thing is a book. Just any book, because the natives think the book possesses power, or knowledge.

G. E. McPherson, of Snyder, delivered a very fine sermon and Mrs. W. R. Vivrett conducted a conference on Religious Education. A very sumptuous dinner was served by the ladies of the local church at six o'clock in the afternoon.

The evening session was devoted mostly to business with the exception of one or two addresses. The 1936 convention will be held at Floydada. Officers for 1936 are: President, Lon Davis of Floydada; Vice President, A. J. Cody of Snyder; Secretary, Mrs. R. C. Brown of Spur; District Director of Religious Education, Mrs. Walter P. Jennings of Plainview; District Governor of Laymen's Movement, Judge E. L. Pitts of Lubbock.

Five 4-H club girls completed all the goals in their club work as outlined for the county for this year and will receive 4-H club pins as a result of their achievement. They are Estelle Park, Dumont club; Clara Rich and La Rue Holmes, McAdoo; and Lizzie Lou and Edith Baxter, Patton Springs.

The girls were to make a garden plan, grow 50 feet each beets and carrots, make 15 jars beet pickles, can 10 jars carrots, and dry two yards of okra; make a collar, slip, and dress and exhibit them; write a history of the community or county and learn to identify 20 flowers, shrubs, and trees native to the county.

All five of the girls were demonstrators except La Rue, Clara Estelle, and Edith were garden demonstrators and Lizzie Lou was a clothing demonstrator.

DEMONSTRATOR TURNS IN GOOD COMMUNITY REPORT

"We have cards in from 23 club members and 21 non-club members in the community showing that the 44 families have canned 12,407 quarts of food and have 8,309 pounds of cured and dry food all valued at $4,272.68," reports Mrs. Mrs. Brownlow, foods demonstrator for the McAdoo home demonstration club. "I appreciate the cooperators helping me with their reports and their presence. Sixty people have visited my pantry."

"My own pantry record shows that I have canned 864 pints valued at $122.30 and I used $25.60 worth of vegetables fresh from the garden. My family is proud of my pantry too. My small sons helped me saw the extra shelves and to make the bin for storing vegetables. They washed and polished the jars and took great pride in arranging them on the shelves where they belonged. My husband asks his friends in to see my pantry sometimes before I have a chance to and he looks at it nearly every day and says, 'I'm proud of it as you are.' I consider this one of the most profitable years I have ever spent even if I failed to fill the food budget as I planned at the beginning of the year. I do not know what my family should have and shall continue to work toward that end," says Mrs. Brownlow.

McADOO GIRL PLACES FIRST

Clara Rich, garden demonstrator for the McAdoo 4-H club placed first in the county in the garden demonstration. Edith Baxter, Patton Springs demonstrator placed second, and Estelle Park, Dumont demonstrator, third. The girls were scored on their garden records, story of the year's work, canning report, and achievement program. Each girl's garden record shows a net profit or return on labor according to the size of the family and their needs.

The winner will receive a trip to the Short Course or to the Texas Centennial Exposition as she chooses.

Thanksgiving

We're Thankful AND We Thank You

THREE hundred years have passed between Thanksgiving of 1635 and the days of 1935. The world has changed, modes of living have changed, but our spirit remains the same.

LIKE any occasion the spirit we put into the day determines largely our returns. We know of a great many things for which we are thankful and express the sincere wish that you may put in a lot and get out a full measure of Thanksgiving pleasures.

WE also wish to take this means of thanking you for the splendid support you gave in making Spur's Dollar Day, last week, the most successful trades day in Spur history.

Spur Bulldogs Bow To Matadors, 7-0, But Were "The Tops" Even In Defeat

Coach Wadzeck's Team Plays Best Game Of Year In Effort To Stop District Champions At Matador

The Spur Bulldogs lost their last chance at the district title for 1935 Friday afternoon at Matador when they lost a hard fought game 7 to 0, before a record crowd to see either team play this season. Matador receiving the ball on the 50 yard line after Spur had failed to make a first down by inches, passed on the first play, Blackshear to Washington, for 45 yards, Washington was tackled but fell over the goal, and Blackshear kicked for the extra point, ending the scoring for the afternoon.

Spur had scored on a rumbled pass previous to that, but the pass was ruled incomplete and the ball brought back to Matador's five yard line, where the Bullfighters kicked out of danger. After a slow start the Bulldogs found themselves and carried the fight to the Matadors the remainder of the game, completely bottling up Matador's offense except for the long touch-down pass in the third quarter.

Spur scored seven first downs to Matador's six, all on power plays except one which was a 15 yard pass from Bingham to McCombs in the fourth quarter.

The entire Spur team played stellar football throughout the game and received only two penalties. Led by Bingham at quarter, halfbacks Hahn, Suits, Haralson Brothers, Meadows and Chapman at fullback, the Spur backfield was hard to stop, playing much better football than the highly touted Blackshear, Gates and Washington of the opposition.

Bumpus, Spur center, who has improved as the season advanced, played heads up football and was ably assisted by Wilhoit, Garner and Foster, Gilbert and Perkins, tackles. Capt. W. A. McCombs, played the best game of his career at end. Pershing Lee, who starred at left end against Lockney, was bottled up on offense, but held the Bullfighters away from his end of the line on defense.

It was an all around good game, and Spur fans were deeply disappointed but came home without any kick against the boys or the coaches. In fact, there was plenty of praise for the Bulldogs from every Spur person that saw the game.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

We take this means of expressing our appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness, help and words of sympathy during the illness and death of our husband and father. Especially do we thank Mrs. Whit Bumpus for her kind, patient work in nursing him during his illness and to Dr. Alexander for his special medical attention. Your kind acts and sympathizing words came at a time when greatly needed.

Be Thankful For Health

The first Thanksgiving Day was proclaimed for the purpose of giving thanks for the colonists' health that had allowed them to survive the first rigorous year in America. Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, asks that citizens of Texas give thought to their own health at this season of the year.

Although we have experienced one of the longest depressions in history, the people have retained their health to a remarkable degree. Last year Texas was one of the few states to show a further decline in deaths among infants.

During the last fifty years health departments have been established for the purpose of preventing disease. While their activities have been hampered by a lack of funds, a great improvement in the general health has resulted. During this period the life of the average person has been increased by fifteen years. In other words a baby born now is expected to live fifteen years longer than if he had been born in 1885.

So let each give thanks for the methods that have helped in the conservation of life and, also, pledge to assist in furthering the work being done to improve health conditions throughout the nation.

VISITED RELATIVES HERE SUNDAY

A. D. Ensey and Hub Hyatt, of Hamlin, visited relatives and friends in our city Sunday. Both of these young men started in business here a few years ago with Bryant-Link Company and now are in business for themselves. They have many friends in Spur country who are always glad to see them. Mr. Ensey is a son of T. C. Ensey, of Bryant-Link Company here, and Mr. Hyatt is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hyatt of the Spur Hotel.

W. D. Blair, east of town, was in Monday looking after business affairs.

R. M. Slack, Pioneer White River Citizen Passed Away Nov. 23

R. M. Slack, a much respected citizen, died at his home in the White River community at 5:25 o'clock Saturday morning. He had been ill about one week afflicted with double pneumonia. The body was prepared for burial by Campbell Undertaking Parlor, Sunday it was taken to Henrietta where funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the First Baptist Church in that city. Rev. York, the pastor conducted the services. Interment followed there, Webber Williams acting as funeral director.

The deceased is survived by his widow and eight children. Six daughters and two sons as follows: Mrs. J. B. Martin of Portales, New Mexico; W. O. Slack of Lubbock, Mrs. R. G. Swanner of Spur, Mrs. J. L. Taylor of Calgary, Mrs. W. B. Williams of Spur, R. M. Slack, Jr., of Spur, Mrs. H. C. Slack of Spur, and Mrs. V. B. Austin of Stamford. There is one sister, Mrs. M. L. Benson of Holyoke, Colo. Mrs. Benson and her son, Pat, drove through from Colorado arriving here about four o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Slack was born June 7, 1866, in Davis County, Iowa. He came to Texas with his parents in 1869 when he was about three years of age. He moved to Spur country in 1913 and has made his home in this section ever since. He was married to Miss Ruth Derbyshire and eight children graced the home, all of whom survive.

Mr. Slack did many things and lived a life which would lead any one to believe he was a Christian gentleman. However, he never affiliated with any church organization. He always held to the principle that any man should live honest and upright and treat his fellow man with due consideration. He was respected by all who knew him and stood high in the estimation of his neighbors.

Dr. G. W. McDonald, President of Wayland College, spoke on the interests and influence of Christian education. He gave many examples of what Baptist schools in Texas are doing for Christianity.

Rex Wray, a missionary to China many years, was present and spoke on Christian work in China and other foreign fields. One remarkable statement made by Mr. Wray was to the effect of how easily Japan is easing China out of control. He stated that Japan would put in a Chinese ruler over the various provinces for a while but later would put in Japanese rulers and China would have no say in regard to the government.

We are thanking W. B. Carothers, of Duncan Flat community for a renewal to the Times sent in Saturday. We hope many of our readers will remember before Christmas, at least. If you don't Santa Claus will not visit us very strong this time.

THANK YOU, AMERICA,

for more than a Million cars in 1935

This year Chevrolet has two very good reasons for saying, "Thank you, America."

One reason is that people have bought so many Chevrolet cars that production for the year will reach 1,040,000.

And the other reason is that they have placed a record number of orders for new 1936 Chevrolets during the first few weeks they have been on display.

Chevrolet is indeed happy to say, "Thank you, America," and to pledge continued adherence to the manufacturing and service policies which have won and held the friendship of the nation.
