Finnell Confers With Mahon on Subject of Soil Conservation

"I consider the conservation of our soil to be the most outstanding problem confronting West Texas" Mahon

The work of the Soil Conservation Service in the 19th Congressional District was the subject of a conference last week in Washington between Congressman George Mahon and Mr. H. H. Finnell, Regional Director of the Soil Conservation Service. Mr. Finnell was in the capital for meetings with other Regional Directors and Administrative officials.

Mr. Finnell outlined general phases of the work as it has been conducted so far. CCC camps in Lamb and Dawson counties have served as illustrative projects in the program throughout the past year. He discussed the effort which is being made to coordinate the work of the Soil Conservation Service and the Resettlement Administration.

The Congressman expressed commendation for the fine work which has been done under Mr. Finnell's direction. He said: "I consider the conservation of our soil to be the most outstanding problem confronting our West Texas farmers. The potential value of the work which Mr. Finnell is doing is inestimable. One of the chief virtues of the new farm bill passed by Congress last week is that it will concentrate interest in the great national problem of soil conservation. Every effort to preserve the natural wealth which lies within soil will meet with my complete cooperation."

Spur School Carnival Proves to be Success

Estimated crowd of 3,000 people pass thru carnival grounds in two-day show

The carnival sponsored by local schools Friday night and Saturday seemed to command quite a lot of interest. It was thrilling to see the teachers and pupils working together to make this great event a success. A loud speaker was used the entire time to make announcements, and music was transcribed over it. Spur High School band furnished several selections and there was plenty of music all the time.

The estimated number of people who visited the carnival was around 3,000. People took much time and interest in the school exhibits which included drawings, historical note books, English work, paintings and other school products. Practically every grade in the school had something exhibited that was of interest to the people.

The carnival had booths of various amusements. Any one could select his own game and enjoy it as he wished. You could pitch rings over clothes pins, drive nails in a 2x6, work the Ouija board and get your wish, have your fortune told, go fishing, see boxing contests, buy sandwiches and coffee, get a cold drink, pitch rings over pegs, take chances on nice presents, or guess how much corn the old Red Rooster would eat in a day, and many other things of interest.

Beginning at six o'clock Friday afternoon the carnival was in session until ten o'clock Saturday night when the contest for the Class Queen was closed. A number of beautiful girls had been nominated as Class Queens and the people had the privilege of selecting the queen of the carnival, the girl receiving the greatest number of votes becoming the carnival queen. Miss Winifred Bell, a member of the senior class, was voted queen with Miss Pauline Shugart a close second. W. P. Foster was voted king of the carnival and Lanier Gilbert was runner-up.

Just what the carnival netted the school is not known, but Mr. Thomas, superintendent of schools, stated that it was a nice sum and that he is well pleased with the outcome. Every nickel received will be used for the school activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Brink Camille, of Steel Hill, were in our city Monday doing some trading.

DISTRICT MANAGER OF SAFEWAY STORES STATES Times Advertising Is Most Profitable IN REFERENCE TO THEIR STEADY GROWTH IN SPUR

In a recent conversation M. V. Witbeck, district manager for the Saway Stores, told a member of the Dickens County Times staff that it had been the experience in all Saway Stores that newspaper advertisement is most profitable. In commenting upon the subject he had the following to say:

"We are, as you well know, firm believers in newspaper advertising. Other media are good, but the newspaper is the final, vital link between the merchant and the consumer. That must be, in the very nature of things, an essential part of any well balanced advertising program.

"Since we began our advertising campaign in the Dickens County Times our business in Spur has steadily grown and is increasing all the time. We find the circulation covers the country well and we have built up a fine class of patronage through its columns."

Naturally we feel grateful to Mr. Witbeck for the above compliment. It has been a pleasure to serve his firm and we appreciate the confidence they place in the Times. We are not chesty enough to assume the credit for the increase in business the Saway Store or any other firm in our city may enjoy. Good management in any business is the secret of its success, and newspaper advertising is just the main avenue by which the effects of good management is sent out to the public.

Spur Scouts Hold First Troop Meet

Scoutmaster Wadzek and his twelve Boy Scouts held their first real scout meeting in the basement of the First Methodist Church Monday evening. The meeting lasted from seven o'clock until nine and was full of pep and life for the entire two hours.

The troop was divided into groups of three for study purposes. These scouts are going through the training for their tenderfoot tests which is expected to be given soon and which really admits them to be scouts. The Scoutmaster assigned them the duty of preparing a knot-board and a flag chart for the meeting next Monday evening.

A number of games were enjoyed and a fine lecture from the Scoutmaster on how a scout should be thrifty and try to be self-supporting. The scouts and scout council are to enjoy a hike Friday evening, all meeting at the Methodist Church and going to some point designated at that time.

Scouting is getting started in Spur again.

Bennett on East Harris Street. Rev. Bennett reading the nuptial rites.

2-DAY SHOW TO BE HELD IN THIS CITY

The Stock Show sponsored by the Vocational Agricultural Department of the Patton Springs, McAdoo and Spur schools and the County 4-H Club boys, will open tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. It is conservatively estimated that there will be 150 animals exhibited. These will be calves, horses, lambs and pigs.

The judging of stock will begin at one o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Professor Mowery of the Texas Technological College will do the judging and will be assisted by his International Live Stock Judging team. This team entered the judging contest at the International Stock Show in Kansas City recently and won a good standing.

Saddle horses will be exhibited and judged Saturday.

This show fostered by boys of the county has the support of such men as V. V. Parr and others who are greatly interested in developing stock feeding projects in Dickens county.

Farmers To Meet Wednesday Night

Farmers to meet at Dickens High School Auditorium for discussion of farm control problems now being faced.

There will be a meeting of the farmers organization in Dickens next Wednesday night. The meeting will be held in the High School Auditorium and will be called about 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Some good speaker will be present to address the people.

The purpose of this meeting is to ask questions and to learn about the program of farm control. There seems to be a great deal about farm control that people do not understand.

Those who have authorized this announcement stated that it is the hope that persons who favor and those who oppose farm control be present for this meeting. They stated that many times those in opposition gave ideas which meant more toward success of the farmers than any other feature. Both sides of any question should be discussed in order to better understand it.

It is hoped that a good representation of farmers will be present for the meeting.

New Cafe Opens Here Saturday

O. L. Hale, who is preparing to open a nice cafe in the building formerly occupied by Ericson's Grocery, stated yesterday that he will be in his new location and serve meals there Saturday. He is not entirely equipped as he expects to be, but is in position to give the public good service and many good things to eat.

Your assistance and cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Car Owners Must Register by First

Representative of the County Tax Collector's Office to be in Spur all next week.

Under the provisions of a law passed by a special session of the 33rd Legislature of Texas all automobiles, trucks and other motor driven vehicles requiring registration, must be so registered by April 1. Wayland Lee, of the Tax Collector's Department, stated this week that there would be a collector in Spur Monday, March 16, and remain throughout that week for the purpose of registering cars and trucks. However, persons registering their cars or trucks at Spur will be required to furnish their last year's registration certificate, or if they have bought a car or truck since April 1, 1935, you should have your transfer with you, as the collector will not have any records at Spur to refer back to. All records must be kept at the courthouse and there are no duplicate records available.

The law requires that all cars must be registered by April 1 of each year. Any one driving a car not registered after that date will violate the law. There is no extension of time allowed.

Farmers Visit Spur Experiment Station

A delegation of farmers of about 100 from Floyd County made a visit to the Spur Experiment Station Tuesday. Their chief object was to study conditions, get information and plans for trench silos, and time of planting and types of crops for silage.

Another feature of investigation was in regard to terracing pasture lands. The month of April is the best time to terrace pasture lands and much pasture lands in Floyd County will be terraced next month.

In speaking of this work, Superintendent Dickson stated that this is a good time for farmers in Dickens County to begin making arrangements for silage crops and to plan for one or more silos. He stated the cost is light and the results are great.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutto are at home to their friends in Spur.

Bill and Harry Ellis, of Kent County, were in our city Monday looking after business affairs.

Local Church Pastor Delivering Series On Practical Topics

"Happy Marriage" to follow "Henpecked Husbands and Foolish Wives" as text for next Sunday evening hour.

Rev. Wm. Lee Edwards, pastor of the First Christian church, gave a very interesting message at the Sunday evening services. His subject was "Henpecked Husbands and Foolish Wives." Rev. Edwards related a number of incidents related in the Bible where wives acted in a manner that brought failure to plans and wrought havoc in home affairs. Rev. Edwards announced that he will use the "Happy Marriage" as his subject next Sunday evening. He is preaching a series of sermons on Sunday evenings along practical lines of life.

Spur Boy Scout Troop Organized

At a meeting of the local Scout executive committee in the basement of the First Methodist church last Thursday evening, the nucleus for the organization of a Boy Scout troop in our city was set up. Earle McClure, Scout executive for the South Plains council, was present and gave the boys their first rehearsal in Scout work.

Twelve fine boys were present to start the work. G. B. Wadzek had been selected by the troop committee to serve as Scout master and he is getting everything in line for a complete troop organization. Mr. Wadzek has had quite a lot of training and experience in the work and is by far the best qualified person from every viewpoint that our community possesses.

A number of citizens of our town have been meeting each Thursday night to become informed in regard to scout work. All of these men have secured enough information about the work to become useful and to be able to cooperate with the scout master and to assist the boys. Some of these men have been called upon to assume the responsibility of seeing that the troop gets along all right. These men compose the troop committee and are as follows:

- Geo. S. Ling, chairman.
- M. C. Golding, finance man.
- Lester Ericson, outdoor man.
- Ned Hogan, activities man.
- O. L. Kelley, advancement man.
- D. L. Granberry, promotion man.
- W. D. Starcher, publicity.

These men were selected because of their particular natural likings to the place for which they have been selected. There are others in town who probably would be just as good, but Mr. McClure realized that Spur has more good men than he had places for, but he stated there are places whereby every good citizen in Spur can cooperate to make the work a success. He stated that influence and favorable comment means far more in many instances than being named to some position on the central committee. O. C. Thomas is troop representative at the South Plains council meetings. He must see that the troop is properly represented at all council meetings.

After the business of the meeting had been disposed of, it was decided to have a local committee and troop hike. Lester Ericson, being the outdoor man, was requested to select a place for this hike and the time was set at Friday evening of this week. All persons who attended the Scout school, the troop committee members, the twelve boys who reported last Thursday evening and their fathers are to be in this hike. All persons are to meet at the Methodist church about six o'clock Friday afternoon where the hike begins.

Just what all this hike will embrace is not known and will not be known until after the participants shall have returned, but one thing was agreed upon. The evening meal will consist of kabobs and each person is expected to prepare their own kabob. Another thing is expected—a good time in a nice clean manner, and the scouts will get a slight introduction to outdoor work. Boy Scouting is going to mean something to the boys of Spur.

American Legion Holds Big Banquet

Charles A. Guy of the Lubbock Avalanche and Journal is among guests introduced to crowd of 70 Legionaires

The Boyd M. Williams Post of the American Legion enjoyed an oyster supper in the basement of the Bryant-Link Company store Monday evening. Lester Ericson acted as head chef and gave directions and a great number of legionaires prepared the repast. About 70 were present for the evening entertainment. It was a great feast because the attitude shown was of the most congenial type and a welcome was extended to every guest present.

Post Commander Crider was in charge of the meeting which had for its theme the idea of getting together and talking over future plans and ways by which the legionaires might serve as good citizens. M. C. Golding early in the meeting pulled a fast one on the Post Commander by an indictment of "conduct unbecoming a Post Commander" and then stated the charges of humiliating Rev. E. L. Yeats after the latter had delivered a very fine address to the American Legion in October. Mr. Golding assumed the role of prosecutor, court judge, jury commissioner, and was very aggressive in the case. Rev. Yeats was called to the witness stand impromptu and stated he had made the address and said the remarks were made by Commander Crider in the presence of all the legionaires. That he felt that his success as a minister depended upon the good will and clean influence of the community and that it would be harmful for any one to be ridiculed and humiliated in company where he was an invited guest. Also, that the remark had killed his chances in the political world and so long as he lived in Spur he could not run for office. The statements were confirmed by other witnesses and the state rested. The prisoner stated he was sorry the feeling was so great against him and said he would grant that the statements were made but would be willing to apologize and quote Shakespeare's lines on mercy.

The jury which was composed of six legionaires reached a decision at once and found the defendant guilty but plead for mercy on the ground that the defendant is an engineer and all engineers, though being sincere, often made mistakes. The judge then asked the defendant to apologize for his conduct and the manner in which he did so brought another uproarious laugh from those present.

Charles A. Guy of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal was present and was requested to make a few remarks. He first went into the matter of quoting Shakespeare and completed the sentence that Mr. Crider had used in his defense stating that all of it had not been quoted. Mr. Guy thanked the local Post for the invitation and stated there are great things for the legionaires to accomplish.

Harley Woods, of Lubbock, was next introduced who stated that he felt the best thing the service men could do is to forget as much about the war as they can and go forward as good citizens. O. C. Arthur, Ned Hogan and George S. Link were introduced. Mr. Link said he appreciated the stand the American Legion is taking against war.

R. E. Dickson advanced the idea of a big Armistice Day feed. Dock Ellis of the Spur Ranch stood for recognition. E. M. Wilson stated that if the boys had as good time on the front as they did when he had been with them that he was sorry he was not over there too. Rev. Wm. Lee Edwards told a good story of a negro's knowledge of the Bible. Dr. Brannen told a good political story, Jephtha Craig of the Texas Spur stated he was no speaker but appreciated the courtesy shown him.

Rev. Yeats related the story of the three persons in the fiery furnace and stated the smell of smoke was not on their garments. He said he appreciated the attitude of the soldiers not wanting to remember, or at least related incidents of the war. Mr. Golding passed a nice compliment on the legionaires.

Bill Kinney, John Albin, Dr. Blackwell, Robert Reynolds, Barney Cumbe and others were introduced who recognized the fine courtesy extended them. J. L. Hutto spoke of the plan of the legionaires to build a legion hall in Spur in the near future. R. C. Brown made a vevry fine talk on the fellowship of the "Buddies" and stated there is something about meeting up with a "Buddy" that you do not experience in meeting just the average person.

E. W. Marr spoke on two objects of the American Legion. One was child welfare and what it will mean on future citizens, and the other was the Universal Service Act which is now before Congress. Mr. Marr stated that if it is right to draft the citizenship of the country that business, wealth and industry should take their share of the sacrifice for war. He stated it would take the profits out of war.

Commander Crider extended thanks in behalf of the Boyd M. Williams Post to Bryant-Link Company for use of the hall and thanked all present for being there. He asked that all "Buddies" get into the Legion organization and help put the thing over, and if they would attend the meetings they would have a different feeling soon.

Play Presented In School Assembly

The Home Economics Department of the Spur Schools under direction of their instructor, Mrs. O. C. Thomas, presented a play entitled, "When Grandmother Gets a Nap," in assembly at the High School last Friday afternoon. This play was written by Mrs. Thomas and the theme is to show the value of Home Economics classes and to encourage more girls to become interested in the work.

The main characters were a 15-year-old daughter as played by Wynell McClure; a modern mother, Billie Burk Hisey; an overly burdened grandmother, Nelta Pritchett. Other characters were a group of the daughter's friends who displayed garments made in Home Economics Class. These girls were Joyce Koon, Nell Arthur, Mary Louise Lisenby and Viola Pickens.

The student body seemed to enjoy and appreciate the efforts of the department. There were a number of parents and other visitors. The school always enjoys interest shown by outsiders.

College Men Have All the Advantage

From the data compiled by Dean Lord of Boston University, these convincing and revealing facts are obtained. The college man, and that means the average college man, earns, by the time he has attained the age of 60, the sum of $150,000 or an average of $6,000 a year.

The untrained man is not so fortunate. The average untrained man only earns $45,000 or $1,200 a year. The untrained man earns $105,000 LESS than the college man.

When the college man comes into the zenith of his power, between the ages of 50 and 60, and is earning his greatest salaries, the untrained man finds that sixty per cent of their kind are out of work with no salary and dependent upon the charity of friends, relatives or relief organizations.

The Difference Between the Untrained Man and the College Man Is About

Guarantee YOUR Child an Education

THROUGH A SURE SYSTEMATIC SAVINGS PLAN

The United Fidelity Life Insurance Company has a plan to guarantee for your child a college education which will place it in the class of trained people whose income exceeds the untrained by more than $100,000 by the time they reach 60.

There is a strong bond of sentiment between the parent and child, but we must not ignore at the same time the possibilities within our power to guarantee them an education through college whether we live to be with them or not.

THE PLAN
We provide you with a policy that is paid up in twenty years. You can also make the policy in endowment form and mature at any age you select with sufficient time for college preparation. In the meantime you are protected by the LIFE INSURANCE. In the event of death or total and permanent disability of the parent, the premiums are paid by the company. In the event of the child's death, the contract matures and is paid immediately. The plan also provides the regular advantages of full cash and loan values for emergencies during the time you are carrying out your plan. No better plan of protection has ever been discovered than Life Insurance.

about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon with Muleshoe. Muleshoe defeated the local team by a few points. Saturday morning, McAdoo girls played Littlefield, and beat the Littlefield team two points. Lorenzo forfeited to the local team. Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, McAdoo played Abernathy for consolation, and were defeated by two points.

A medal was given for good playing to those who lost their first game. Edrie Henderson received one of the medals. Ruth Ward won the sportsmanship medal for the girl who showed the best sportsmanship during the entire tournament.

The girls who played on the first team at the tournament were Clara Rich, Edrie Henderson, Arbrea Fae Jones, Ruth Ward, Mae Dell Dillon, and Verna Mae Hickman. Geneva Hardin, Robena Formby, Maxine Henderson and Katherine Ward went with the team to Shallowater.

The girls enjoyed the tournament very much and hope to go again next year.

Relatives from Roscoe were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Graham this week end.

Jim Cloud was transacting business in McAdoo Monday.

Frank Eggar received a message Sunday that an aunt at Paducah had died. Mrs. Eggar went to Paducah to attend the funeral.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. C. Gollihar for an all day meeting Monday, March 2. The ladies quilted during the morning. In the afternoon, "A World Outlook" program was given, which was very interesting. Two quilts were quilted for Mrs. Beauchamp and two for Mrs. C. Gollihar. Thirty five ladies were present.

Attending were Mesdames Parker, Dozier, Woods, Sparkman, Isaacs, Allen Isaacs, Allen, Nickles, Beauchamp, Eldredge, Earey, Eldredge, Macon, Graham, Vanderford, Brownlow, Moore, Morris, Cox, French, Nettles, Harris, Barker, Potts, Hunsucker, Nickles, and Misses Reba Dozier, Marjorie Womack and Hazel Moore. The junior and senior vocational students debated on the subject, Horses vs. Tractors in This Community" at the high school auditorium, Thursday night.

We believe that McAdoo has one of the best vocational classes in the county. It is astonishing to hear these students discuss the various subjects they have been studying. They can easily tell the different breeds of livestock, can cull chickens, terrace land, and they have learned many other helpful things.

Monday the students learned to make rope. Sixteen ropes were made.

The past week of sunshine and warm weather, has meant a busy week for the farmers. Teams and tractors could be seen and heard in almost every field from early morning until late at night. The majority of the farmers are terracing their farms. We believe that within a very short time every farm on the plains will be terraced.

The wheat seems to have taken a start to grow since the weather has been warmer.

There will be a program by the Major Bowes Amateurs at the high school auditorium Friday night, March 6. Five cents admission will be charged.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Underwood and daughter, Miss Rebecca, of Lost Lake settlement, were in our city Saturday doing some trading and greeting friends.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Keller

Funeral services over the body of Mrs. Roxie Keller, widow of the late J. C. Keller, were held at the First Christian Church in Spur yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. Wm. L. Edwards, the pastor, read the scriptures and made a very beautiful talk using as his theme a Christian Life. Rev. W. M. LeMay, of Dallas, a former pastor of the church here, talked on the life work of the deceased. Rev. LeMay was pastor of the church here at the time Mrs. Keller and her husband became Christians and baptized them into the church. Rev. A. G. Abbott, also a former pastor of the church, spoke on the life of Mrs. Keller and the fine Christian influence that she and her husband wielded in their community. Interment followed in the Spur cemetery, Webber Williams acting as funeral director.

Mrs. Keller passed away at about eleven o'clock Tuesday morning after an illness of a few days. Her health had not been good in many years and recently she seemed to fall rapidly and heart trouble developed which caused her demise.

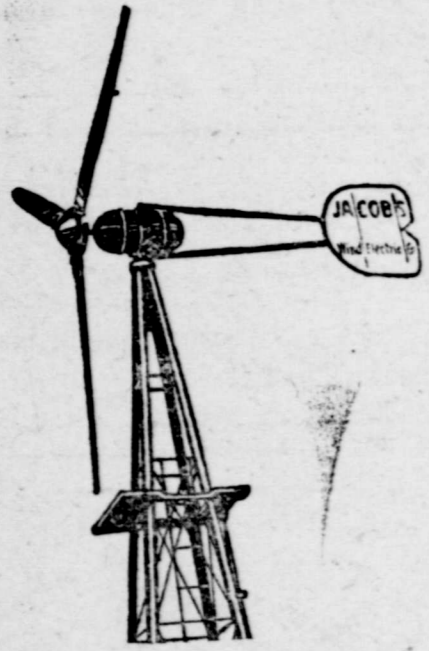

She was born in Louisiana and the date of her birth was given August 20, 1880. However, no one knows exactly the date of her birth. She came to Texas in an early day and for many years lived at Haskell where she and Mr. Keller were married in the summer of 1880. Later they moved to Dickens County where they were engaged in the ranch business, owning what afterwards became the Pursley Ranch. They sold their ranch and moved to Spur in 1911 where Mr. Keller became a member of the Riter Hardware Company. He passed away February 24, 1933.

The only known family relations to Mrs. Keller are three sisters-in-laws: Mrs. Emma McQuery of Fort Worth, Mrs. Jane Polk of Palo Pinto, and Mrs. Wilson who lives in Missouri. Mrs. McQuery and Mrs. Polk were present for the funeral. Also, two nieces were present for the funeral. Many out of town friends were here. A. B. Smart, a very close friend to the family, has stayed in the home and looked after Mrs. Keller's affairs since Mr. Keller passed away. This was a request made by Mr. Keller and Mr. Smart has been faithful in carrying out the request.

Fallbearers were J. E. Berry, A. B. Smart, R. L. Collier, Dr. B. F. Hale, E. L. Caraway, and Faust Collier.

R. E. Slough, of Dickens, was attending to business matters in our city Tuesday.

Philadelphia Accent

Texans are accustomed to hearing a good deal about the "Texas drawl" and more than a few authorities on speech have condemned it in no uncertain terms and told the discomfited drawlers that what they need to do is learn how to talk. This has aroused some controversy in the past and is quite likely to arouse more in the future, but meanwhile Texans may take what comfort they can from the fact that a college drama director has broken into the public prints with the unequivocal declaration that Philadelphians have the worst accent in the United States. This lady, who hails from New Haven, Connecticut, says her pupils in Philadelphia do not pronounce vowels correctly but throw them from the back of their mouths and to her way of thinking, the effect is rather horrible. Be that as it may, Texans can feel grateful that at least one authority is striking at some other mode of speech than his own.—Texas Weekly.

Gone Quotation Crazy

The one distinguishing hallmark of the 1936 presidential campaign so far is its heavy reliance on shades of other days. No speaker approaches the platform any more without the backing of Jefferson, Washington, Lincoln, Jackson, Wilson and occasionally Socrates.

The amusing angle of this widespread use of quotations is that either side can use the same words. There seems to be a wholesale disregard for what Washington may have done or Lincoln recommended. If the questions fit, that is what counts.

One wonders how the campaigners would fare if they were suddenly forced to rely on cold, sound logic, devoid of the support of half the former presidents of the United States. Certainly an anti-quotation speaker just now would refresh the political scene.—Wichita Record-News.

Seattle beauticians announce men will affect plucked eyebrows. It was our impression these were already in vogue, under the humorous title of mustaches.

Detroit weather man, confined to his home with a cold, probably made the grave mistake of wearing light clothing on a day he had predicted would be mild.

CROPS FORETOLD BY MOISTURE

After making a study of records covering the last 25 years the department of agriculture has devised a method whereby wheat farmers in the dry Great Plains region can foretell crop failures with the aid of only a spade. Comparison of records has shown that the depth of moisture in soil is the best indicator of the chances of complete or partial crop failure. When soil is dry at seeding time the crop will fail 71 times out of 100, and there are only 18 chances out of 100 of a yield of more than 10 bushels to the acre. Moisture extending down one foot into the soil reduces the chances of failure to 34 out of 100. With two feet of moisture there are only 15 chances for a failure and with three feet only 10. Further studies showed that early plowing and preparation of the land for seeding and summer fallow are the best means of accumulating moisture in the soil.

star Epsilon, in the constellation Pegasus and found it to be 100 times that of the sun or 86,000,000,000 miles. The 50-foot interferometer used by Dr. Pease is similar to the smaller one made by him and the late Dr. A. A. Michelson in 1920. It consists of a system of mirrors mounted on a long steel beam. Readings are taken with this device and then computations made with the wavelength of light and the distance of the observed star, and the diameter determined.

TEACHERS RECEIVING "SONGS TEXAS SINGS" FOR USE IN SCHOOLS

"Songs Texas Sings," a 32-page book, is being sent this week to public school teachers of the state by the school division of the state department of publicity for Texas Centennial celebrations. The book is designed to assist teachers in preparing school and community programs planned for Centennial activities. The 28 songs contained in it were chosen after conferring with music supervisors in Texas schools. The collection is representative not only of the songs of and about Texas but also of those songs of the nation and the south which are best known to Texans. John A. Lomax, compiler of Texas folk lore, says in the preface, "Some of these songs sprang out of the soil of the Southwest like prairie grass. No one knows the author of the music or the words. Texas has certainly the right to claim them as her own Folk songs."

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Haile, of Afton, were in our city Saturday doing some trading and greeting friends. Carbon Paper at the Times.

Local Company Joins in National Fight for "Better Eye Sight" by Offering "Better Lighting" Ideas

The modern concept of correcting the eye difficulties is based on the new understanding that discomfort is not from the eye itself, but is a fatigue problem of the whole visual apparatus, which includes the brain.

Eyes are delicate end-organs, vision does not take place in them, any more than assimilation of food takes place in the mouth. Eyes "see," but the various functions of vision take place in the brain. Therefore it is obvious that to take proper care of the brain one must care for the eyes, and the care of the eyes begins with proper lighting.

One thing we must remember is that most of us are born with perfect eyes. These organs were built for out of doors. Ten thousand foot candles is midday sunshine—two hundred foot candles is the light we get while reading near a window in the day time. Therefore, certainly something is radically wrong when we try to read or see under five foot candle light at night.

The fact that these foot candles actually affect the rate of the heartbeat indicates clearly that seeing is an activity of the whole human body. It is not only a matter of eyestrain. It is a matter of needlessly using up untold quantities of nervous energy. The office worker who uses his eyes all day under inadequate light may be actually more tired at night than the man who spends all day digging ditches. For the past few months eye specialists, electrical research men, illuminating societies and various light and power companies have been sponsoring programs for "Better Lights—Better Sights." The local office of the West Texas Utilities has joined in the drive for better "sight" in this county, which is, without doubt, the finest program of ideas ever offered local citizens. If people will just profit by some of the tips offered in the West Texas Utilities advertisements on indirect lighting, they will go a long way toward eliminating some of the visual ills that may have been bothering them. Most present homes and offices are lighted in the manner of the regular direct light, which causes much eyeglare. The I. E. S. "Better Sight" Lamp, which carries the certification tag of the Illuminating Engineering Society, is offered by the local company in a wide range of attractive prices, styles and decorative treatments. The inside of the shade is treated by a new process making it a better reflector; the glass globe diffuses the light widely, reflecting some upward rather than glaring directly on the printed page or the article being worked on. Leading scientists have recently pointed out that existing conditions in home lighting were making us a nation of "eye-cripples," it is with this thought of horror in mind that the local company is striving to war

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rain' to Go
The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink. Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

West Texas' most popular optical specialist, will be at the Wilson Hotel, Saturday PM, March 14th only. He claims to have fitted more difficult cases here than any other specialist, reference list too large to publish, but will be furnished upon request. Twenty years service to local people. The Doctor has recently returned from the east, with all the new styles in spectacle ware, and he says, "When I can't fit them, then they are blind."

The Early Bird!

Just like the early bird, the early advertiser gets the best results.

The business man who plans his advertising copy and turns it into the Times office early is the one who gets the best in typography, lay-out and position.

There is little left for the "bird" who comes in on the dead line... best positions are taken by the "early birds," printers are rushed for time and can not properly plan for desired lay-outs, typograhly, cuts and other attentions needed to develop a more attractive advertisement.

Be An Early Bird!

DICKENS COUNTY TIMES

It is sometimes necessary to go into private consultation to remind ourselves...

Good SIGHT depends largely on Good LIGHT

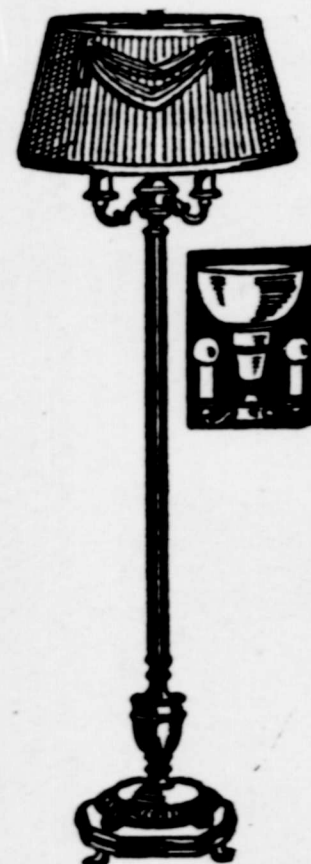

LEADING scientists have recently pointed out that existing conditions in home and office lighting were making us a nation of "eye-cripples."

To meet this challenge, the Illuminating Engineering Society, organized not for profit, but for the advancement of the lighting art in all its phases, called in the nation's leading eye specialists and lighting experts... from which ultimately came the I.E.S. "Better Sight" Lamp.

Many cases of eye-strain are caused by light-glare. Only the indirect light, which diffuses the light widely, reflecting some upwards can soften "light-glare."

We carry a complete stock of these certified I.E.S. lamps, in a range of attractive prices, styles and decorative treatments... consult yourself before it is too late.

REDTOP and CATFISH NEWS

Folks, Redtop and Catfish are to be heard from again. As I scribble was asked to write up our new happenings again, so don't forget to turn me all the community news items.

We have had plenty of cold weather, sand storms too, but now it is pretty again, and is quite an incentive for working in the yard, garden and field, quite a bit of land has been put up in both communities and we suppose all will find out whether we are to have a control program or not by planting time.

And now we are not forgetting to beautify our home grounds, too, and it is all worth while, although we may (or do not) live on the highways leading to the Centennial, we can have beauty around us.

Little Barbara Dell Cravy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cravy, over near Post, was laid to rest in the Redtop cemetery last Monday evening. She would have been 3 years old, the 5th of July, and was such a sweet, loveable child. We do not grieve for her, but for the ones who had to give her up, for we know how they will miss her. In time they will come to realize she is safe with Jesus, and will not know corruption or have to overcome all the temptations of this life, and they know, too, if they live the lives they should they can meet her again, as she is only gone on before, mayhap to lead them in the right way.

Mr. Edd Fuqua of Catfish bought a bunch of white face cows and calves, from a Mr. Canady on the Plains and brought them down home last week and branded.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker at their home in Redtop community last Wednesday morning. Mother and babe both doing nicely.

Mr. Woods, who lives across Salt-fork river, on the road to Clairemont, in Kent County, came up to Catfish Saturday and moved Clark Howell and wife to his place. Clark will work for Mr. Woods.

Mrs. Edd Fuqua went to Spur last Thursday, when she accompanied her mother, Mrs. Susan Cross, a sister, Dessie May Benson, and a brother, Elmer Cross and wife, to Coleman, Texas to visit Mrs. Cross' mother, Mrs. Todd Fry, who had a birthday February 28 and was 91 years young, I believe. All the old timers here remember her as they lived here years ago. They report she is enjoying good health and still lively.

A little son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nutt in Catfish community last week, all parties doing nicely now. Albert will help Mr. Howell with his farming Monday.

Both Catfish and Redtop communities were well represented in Spur Saturday. Saturday is trades day with most everyone, and then the carnival drew many, especially of Redtop as several families have children in Spur schools.

Matt Howell is making his wife a new hot bed for plants, this week, trying to make this a permanent one by building on top of ground with rock, and is putting it in the garden near the well, where it will be handy to the water.

Redtop had to give up one of their teachers this week, Miss Lily McArthur got married Xmas day, and as her husband moved to another place with his work, she went with him, and a Miss Lisenby took her place.

Miss Edrie Lewis, Catfish school teacher, went to Spur Saturday and met her mother from Jayton, and had quite a visit with her.

Bob Williams and family have moved from Catfish to their place on the head of Redmud creek. They have been here several years and will be missed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Chambers, of Prairie Chapel community, were in our city Saturday attending to business matters.
