Morals And Government Go Hand in Hand Through Ages

By GERALD B. WINROD

History shows that Rome maintained her democratic form of government in which the liberties of the people were protected until the fatal hour came when Roman morals began to disintegrate. The moral sag, through which the nation then passed was accompanied with the coming of dictatorship-and the long line of the Caesars began.

Let America learn an important lesson from this bit of Roman his-

In the history of every nation the time usually comes, sooner or later, when one man arises and tries to take everything into his own hands. If he succeeds the liberties of the people are wiped out-the people become serfs, slaves of the state.

The history of Romeserves to emphasize the great fact that nations which degenerate into dictatorships are always first weakened by mass immorality. Dictatorships are always preceded by a moral breakdown.

When a nation becomes weakened through the loss of national character, it soons finds itself under the control of some man who possesses a "Messianic complex": under the control of a man who come riding forth on horseback conquering and to conquer.

Only the high moral consciousness of our forefathers, faithfully perpetuated in our day and generation, can hope to preserve our democratic institutions and representative form of government. Other nations are sinking into dictatorships. The question that haunts true American patriots is, "Will the United States command sufficient moral strength to resist this momentum?"

The way to protect our Constitution, the way to preserve the United States Supreme Court, the way to maintain states rights, the way to safeguard our liberties, is to stabilize the foundations of our moral structure with all possible haste.

A nation, in order to endure, needs jetties of morality, jetties of culture, jetties of spirituality, jetties of nationalism, and jetties of positive patriotic sentiments.

But unfor unately, moral lapses often occur in the growth and development of nations. There are times when it seems like the conscience of a whole nation goes to sleep. In such an hour, the finer sensibilities become dulled if not destroyed. Spiritual faculties become paralyzed. History tells us that nations. like individuals, sometimes sink to an "I don't care" level. They become restless and dissatisfied. They lose all sense of the dangers involved FROM VACATION TRIP. in the matter of mass immorality.

In such an hour that nation must raise up and shake itself. Something must be done to bring it back to its senses. Something must happen that will probe its national con-

LUNCH IS MOST IMPORTANT MEAL OF THE DAY.

"Lunch is no more important from the standpoint of health than any other meal in the day, but it is more difficult to keep up to the standards of wholesomeness and cleanliness.' said Mrs. John Bachman in her talk on "Quick Breads Go to School and Parties," to the Soldier Mound home demonstration club, at the home of Mrs. Paul Loe, last Thursday.

The container for a school lunch should be one that is easily cleaned and sterilized, and must contain an adequate supply of milk, vegetables. fruits and proteins. We helped fight one "war to end wars." We shared in an effort to "make the world safe for democracy." Now, who would have the temerity to blame us for insisting they shall settle their differences according to their own ideas?

No time was lost in puncturing the balloon! Mr Borah and others were soon on their feet in the Senate, serving notice that the citizens were in no mood to entertain any such idea.

Senator Borah said: "I do not assume for one moment that the administration, through its Treasury De-Howard Patrick and babies. partment, is considering any such proposition as a reduction of 50 per cent in the British war debt to this nation and elimination of interest. It would be an act of betrayal of the American taxpayers—a betrayal such * * * * * * * * * * as no administration would dare undertake. This is not the government's money-it is the money of American taxpayers."

An early war in Europe is inevitable. Every nation overseas is arming to the teeth. The hatreds are deep, the wounds are many, present exchanges between statesmen are bitter. Mussolini is determined to revive the old Roman empire Hitler is determined to keep Communism out of Europe. England is determined to keep the Mediterranean bottle open

Emil Ludwig spent a few hours with President Roosevelt recently and came away saying: "Roosevelt wishes to exercise an influence for world peace and he has certain ideas on how Europe may be weaned from war. But I fear it is too late-and I respectfully told the President that such is my firm belief. Europe is rushing headlong toward war. I have a feeling it will come even while Roosevelt is in the White House." The best definition for war that I have ever read appears in the New Testament. Texas Technological College is growing. The number of individual May each of you find in your hour students in college-1936-37 long session was 3,010, an increase of 262 over the year before. This was an increase of 642 since the year before the building of the dormitories. In other words, Texas Tech has grown to the full extent of the dormitory space in the last three years.

> It might be remembered, however, that before the dormitories were erected all students were living in private residences and boarding and rooming houss in the City of Lub-

> During the last year, 1936-37, 936 boys and 370 girls lived in private boarding and rooming houses and residences in Lubbock.

> Accommodations are still just as good as they were before the dormitories were built. The college administration is actively working with the people of Lubbock and with the students, to find adequate places for every student who may register. At the present time a large number of excellent boarding and rooming houses have been registered with the college authorities. No residence is approved for the rooming of young women unless there is adequate supervision and every necessary means for their full protection.

> Thousands of students have lived at Texas Tech comfortably and conveniently in the accommodations provided by the citizens of Lubbock. Men and women have gone through college and graduated with the entire four years under these circumstances. The college is proud of its dormitories, is actively working to obtain additional dormitory space, but does want to call atention of parents and patrons to the fact that there are ample accommodations in Lubbock for many hundreds of students who may wish to attend the next school year, and the college authorities will be glad to help persons desiring places to room and board under proper and safe conditions to find such places in Lubbock.

THE FARMERS' RESPONSIBILITY

"Farmers must unify their cooperative efforts in marketing -must strengthen their general organizations, if they are to cope with the increasing power of other groups," says the Dairymen's League News.

"This is true regardless of how much governmental regulation, state or federal, the future has in store for agriculture. The responsibility is on the shoulders of cooperatives in either case. And it is an increasing responsibility."

The progressive farmer has long since learned that depend- na where they attended an Old Ranence on agencies of government to solve his problems and augment his income, is futile. The most successful agricultural movements, such as the producer cooperative, have been the creation of the farmer himself, and not of outsiders. This will be even truer in the future than in the past, in the view of farm convention Mrs. Smith stated that

But if their operating costs are artificially inflated this will no longer be true—and competing carriers, free of the burdens placed on the railroads, will get more and more of the passenger and freight business. And then, as Mr. Eastman says, the adverse effect will be felt by railroad workers.

Those interested in the welfare of railroad workers would serve their cause better if they would advocate legislation to lessen the industry's burden, permit it to make rates as low as dams, caught some fish and enjoyed its competitors, and generally give it fair treatment. CONSTANT HORN BLOWING IS DISTRACTION TO TRAFFIC

Only a few days ago the newspapers carried a story about a man who had made a 17,000 mile motor trip without once blowing his horn. This driver emphasized the point that he handled his car in such a way as to obviate the need of warning signals at any time. And in spite of the fact that all cars have horns as standard equipment today, his example is one which the average motorist could profitably study and heed.

Driving, under the traffic conditions which prevail in most places today, is a job which requires the undivided attention of the man or woman at the wheel. The modern car is built to respond quickly to the various controls; but the controls Again Ford V-8 trucks and com- themselves still have to be operated this best if he maintains a calm main calm and cool when horns are screeching on all sides.

Rotarians of 127th District Hold Good Conference in Spur

With a registration stated at 132, Rotarians of the 127th District went into conference in Spur Monday, making the Spur Inn headquarters. The 127th District is composed of most of the old 41st District and includes territory from Fort Worth west and from Abilene north to Amarillo, Registration began at the Spur Inn at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning and at 9:30 o'clock the conference was called to order by District Governor Edd McLaughlin of Ralls. The morning meeting was in the auditorium of the Palace Theatre.

Governor McLaughlin in his opening remarks stated that he found his job to be about ten per cent honor and 90 per cent work and responsibility. He stated that all Rotarians were busy people or they would not be Rotarians. He emphasized that he is strong for attendance and said that no Rotarian could enjoy his club fully and be absent.

O. B. Sellers of Fort Worth, a past District Governor, discussed the Aims and Object plan. He stated that it is just an outline of work by which the cause is forwarded. He said that the chief work of Rotary is to build good citizenship in all parts of the world. Then he spoke of the Club Service Work, the Community Service Work, the Vocational Service Work, and the International Service Work. These compose the major parts of the Aims and Objects Plan.

Another good speaker for the morn ing session was Jim Kilpatrick, president of the Lubbock Club, who spoke about Rotary in the community. He emphasized the need of making the work of the Rotary Club felt in every community. He stated that there are various ways by which Rotary could help along. He stated Rotary should not take up the work of the Chamber of Commerce but should be a booster with that organization.

Before the morning session closed the District Governor recognized certain workers in Rotary among whom were: O. B. Sellers of Fort Worth, Jim Wilson of Floydada, Fred Wemple of Midland, all of whom are past District Governors; Earl Harris of Malvern, Ark., field worker in Rotary; Miss Jimmie Holland, assistant secretary of the Fort Worth Rotary Club, and then introduced Mrs. Mc-Laughlin, whom he said is District Governor in fact.

The meeting adjourned at 11:30 to enjoy a social hour. The luncheon at the Spur Inn began at 12:30. The Inn served 163 guests and had a report for only 125. Mrs. Eaton her assistants proved adequate for the occasion and tables were spread for all visitors. Cap McNeill, President of the Spur Club, was toastmaster at the luncheon. Ed Shumway, of Abilene, who led the singing for the conference, was in charge of the music during the luncheon. Miss Nedra Hogan served as pianist. Some very fine selections were rendered by some young ladies from Breckenridge. They were Misses Virginia Dye, Bettie Elliott, Jean Roberts, and Miss Gwendolyne James at the piano.

The afternoon program consisted of addresses chiefly. Past Governor Jim Wilson discussed Leadership by officers in making effective Rotary Programs in the Aims and Objects plan. The duties of the Club President was discussed by Judge Loyd A. Wicks of Ralls, who is a past president. The club secretary was discussed by Louis D. Fox of the Fort Worth Club who is considered one of the most efficient secretaries in Rotary. The Club Publication was discussed by Vic Larmour of the Graham Club. He impressed on the Conference that a poor club publication is better than no publication. The Responsibility of the club president and secretary to the District Governor was duscussed by Fred Wemple of Midland, who is past District Governor. He outlined some very important duties for these two club officers.

The meeting adjourned about 3:30 o'clock, p. m., after Governor Mc-Laughlin admonished every club president and secretary to get on the job for Rotary and to make this the best year for this section of the work. San Luis Potosi, Mexico,

In Texas, we boast of our southern hospitality; in Mexico, the people the moment when Mrs. Dominguez, wife of the Mexican vice consul at Laredo, presented a beautiful ' hoquet to Mrs. Allred as we crossed the international boundary until now, I have never witnessed such courtesy, such hospitality, as has been extended to us on every hand.

As I told you last week, the Mexican government invited us to be their guests, even furnishing transportation over the railroad. We have now passed through the capital cities of second to first, and Vaughn and Althree Mexican states and at each one great crowds, including the Governor, the Mayor, representatives of the short stop, and a double play resultmilitary and business men have met ed, retiring the side. Of course, we realize this [is an honor they are extending not to Jimmie Allred, but to the Governor of Texas; and that's why I'm prouder than ever before of the high honor the people have bestowed upon

We spent one day at Monterrey capital of Nuevo Leon. It is quite modern and somewhat Americanized. We saw many Texas people there, most of them tourists, of course. We visited one of the most beautiful and modern hospitals I have ever seen anywhere, the gift of a fine old Mexican gentleman, a Mr. Muguerza. Fair Dates Set For Panhandle-South Plains Exposition

The dates for the 24th annual exposition of the Panhandle South Plains Fair Association were announced as September 27 through October 2, following a meeting of the Board of the Fair Association at Lubbock the past week.

Because of the late start, preparations were begun without delay and the directors stated that the fair this year would include all the features of those in the past, with all departments enlarged and with several departments added. Negotiations were immediately started with two outstanding carnival companies now playing in Kansas with the expectation that one of the two will be signed for the midway attraction. The directors, among other things, decided to present a program of horse racing in spite of the unexpected difficiulties on that score, and instructions were given to secure the best entertainment availbale for an outstanding program of free attrac-

One of the departments to receive |* special attention will be that for swine. High market for hogs and * the high cost of feed, it was explained, have combined to reduce the hog population of the South Plains to its lowest in years. Directors were informed that many farmers have urged that swine exhibits be stressed in the belief that it will tend to revive South Plains pork production.

FEED PLACED ON DISPLAY

C. C. Haile, one of the good farmers at Afton, recently brought some grohoma heads into our office that should be an inspiration to anyone. The two heads weighed one and onehalf pounds at the time and this was after a great number of people had handled them and part of the grain for the grain and the fodder. It remains juicy and sweet several months after being cut and as late as Christmas time may retain the sap in the stalk. Cattle and other farm stock like it, and many farmers find it pr fitable to grow as a feed.
