Program of Junior Fat Stock Show

Increase of more than $100 in cash prizes to be paid at the eighth annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show in Lubbock April 4, 5, and 6, was shown in the printed premium lists that went out in the mails this week, according to show officials.

The largest of individual increases in awards has been in the Baby Beef Division where a contribution of 20 per cent of the total from the American Hereford Association has made the more generous prizes possible.

4-H Club and F.F.A. Boys in 35 Texas counties and 3 New Mexico counties have been invited to participate in this event, and expectation is that nearly all will be represented. The following is the program:

Monday, April 4, 1938 8:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m. Completing and checking entries, Cattle, Swine and Lamb Divisions.

Former Spur Man

J. H. Neighbors, of Garner, was killed near Mineral Wells Wednesday morning by being hit by a car. It seems that a hit and run driver was responsible for the accident. Mr. Neighbors is a former Dickens County citizen, having lived on a farm in the Duck Creek community east of Spur. He moved to Crosbyton and then to Garner. He was enroute home when he was killed. Mr. and

BENEFITS OF SOUND COOPERATION

As an article in the Dairvmen's League News points out. there are some benefits which go with membership in a progressive farm marketing cooperative, which do not necessarily show in the checks sent producers. And these benefits are felt irrespective of the state of markets, prices or legislation.

Among the terms of that sale was a provision that President Harding would receive $10,000 a year for fifteen years for a column-a weekly column, if I recall correctly-which would naturally be syndicated. So that the $10,000 fee could not be considered in any way exorbitant.

I do not recall that any of the columnists, now so caustic in their comments, found the slightest fault with President Harding for contracting to write a current column while he was I in the White House. In fact, it was apparent to all newspaper men that the $535,000 purchase price paid for the Marion Star was due to the wellfounded belief that the publication of such a column by the President would give vast prestige to the paper and perhaps result in such syndicate profits from the distribution of that column as to justify the big price. So, according to the philosophy of the anti-Democratic-administration columnists, it was quite according to Hoyle for a Republican President to do the stunt-even though there was no suggestion that any part of these profits would go to charity or public service-but it is absolutely invidious for a Democrat President to sell his words appertaining to closed episodes. Whether Woodrow Wilson agreed Oklahoma politician, the first role to do some magazine stuff before or after he ceased to be President appears to be in doubt. Mr. Jay Franklin says that he postponed a message to Congress in order not to detract fro mthe interest in an article on the Mexican situation, which Mr. Franklin says was from the President's "professional portable typewriter."

Hospital Obstetrics Supervisor Says: "It's Safest"

Economy in operation and safety from food spoilage are as important in your home as in any hospital! Therefore, it seems amazingly significant that most all hospitals, including Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene (see photos), depend largely on Electric Refrigeration for these two necessary performances. Miss Vera Smith, obstetrics supervisor, says: "We now have eight Frigidaires in use, one of which is in the maternity ward. I know of no better method than electric refrigeration as a means of providing one of many safeguards for the health of these babies." So when buying a refrigerator, please bear in mind that responsible persons, qualified to exert expert choice, everywhere are choosing Electric Refrigeration. Especially is this true in West Texas, where torrid summer heat makes it impossible for other types to maintain 40- to 45-degree temperatures-necessary for complete food protection. Electric service for refrigeration costs as little as 23/4 cents a day!

Farm Foreclosures Are Averted

Many farmers are losing their prop erty or undergoing heavy expense to save it, because they fail to take advantage of debt adjustment services offered by the Farm Security Administration, it is reported by Allen A. McKimmey, FSA's county supervisor.

Mr. M. B. Oates was in conference recently with Mr. McKimmey, FSA's supervisor for this district, to develop plans for spreading information on debt adjustment.

"The county advisory committee for debt adjustment meets every month, and sometimes oftener, but it is not necessary for a farmer to take his case directly to them," Mr. Mc-Kimmey said. "If he will come to the FSA office, I will go over his situation and advise him what the next step should be." Whenever iction is taken in time, a satisfactory adjustment can usually be reached with little expense, the supervisor said, but the chances of settlement are decreased and the expense is increased when the debtor waits until foreclosure proceedings are about to be taken.

One case, recently foreclosed, could have been adjusted if application to the Farm Security Administration. had been made a few weeks earlier, McAdoo; Miss Vera Mae Tilson, he said. The farm involved in this case will be saved for its present owner by taking advantage of the moratorium provided under the Frazer-Lemke Amendment to the Bank-

The following schedule will be followed for the regular meeting for the guidance of those interested in knowing the regular meeting dates of the FDA Committee.

Any one knowing of a farmer who could be benefitted by the Farm Debt Adjustment set-up in the County is asked to advise this farmer to come to the Farm Security Administration office in Spur or to the County Agent's office in Jayton.
