SPUR CIVIC CLUB NEWS NOTES

EDITORS' NOTE: The following News Notes are contributed weekly by the Spur Civic Club.

Everything has been exceptionally quiet this week so far as activities of the Spur Civic Club is concerned. It seems that the entire citizenship of Spur has gone to the Annual Roundup and Rodeo once each year and like our Civic Club, it takes the cooperation of the citizenship to make it a success and we never contemplate anything other than a successful Roundup and Rodeo.

Boost For The Rodeo

It seems that it will be necessary to use the column of our local paper in order to correct the errors made by one of the largest circulations in Texas. Some of our local citizens were able to get their photographs in one of our dailies this week but not only them but the rest of the citizenship will have a harder time connecting the pictures with the names as they will be working the cross-word puzzle in the same issue. DOWN WHERE THE WEST BEGINS they are all confused with the slang used OUT WHERE THE WEST IS. The files of the Rodeo office shows that a certain individual was correctly styled as FLUNKY of the Rodeo Association but the Press mis-constructed the word FLUNKY and called him manager. It is relief to know we all make mistakes big or little.

Boost For The Rodeo

One of the outstanding events of the week was a banquet fostered by the farmers of Dickens county who entertained the business and professional men of this county. We are sure that other articles in this paper will thoroughly describe this occasion.

Boost For The Rodeo

Again we want to call to the attention of the citizenship of Spur and surrounding territory that the Spur Civic Club belongs to the people and not a few individuals. Certain individuals have been heard during the last week making the remark that they had not been solicited to become members of the club. We want to re-emphasize that if you are a citizen of Spur we want you to become a member and make it known by dropping into the office and signing a membership card expressing your desire in order that the files might be complete and your name listed as such member and receive the benefit of the activities of this club. The Spur Civic Club was organized for the people. No one is excluded by everyone invited. Suggestions, ideas, and cooperation is the main assets of our Club.

Spur Represented At Floydada

Spur was well represented at the Floydada Rodeo Tuesday with several leaving about eight o'clock making a complete day of their visit. Heading the representation was Miss Bobbie Lou Watters sponsor for the Spur Round-Up.

Miss Watters was present at all the parades riding in the saddle that is to be given to the best sponsor at the rodeo June 13, 14, and 15. Each time Miss Watters name was called it was also mentioned that she was riding in the special made saddle to be given to the best sponsor at Spur.

Approximately four million acres of Texas land are now producing oil or gas or both.

Stamford Annual Rodeo Opens July 2

Opening with the grand parade on Tuesday, July 2, the eleventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford will have its big closing day on the Fourth of July. Improvements on grounds and buildings are underway and added features for the celebration which brings some 65,000 people to Stamford each year are being worked out.

The cowboy rodeo, in which actual ranch hands compete, will again be the outstanding entertainment feature, cash purses amounting to $3,200 will be awarded in addition to the championship prizes, consisting of five special made saddles.

Other entertainment features include the old fiddlers' contest at the Will Rogers Bunkhouse, oldtime dances at the Coombes Round-Up Hall and sponsors' dances at the Reunion pavilion. Beginning this year, new emphasis will be placed on the livestock angle. Details are being worked out for a horse show which will likely feature three kinds of animals. Gaited horses will probably be included and these will perform in the arena as an added attraction in the rodeo program. Breeding classes of the popular ranch type animal, known as the Quarter horse, will be included and also breeding classes of Palominos. One or more classes of steers are proposed.

Nichols Sanitarium Receives Shower

Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Nichols received a miscellaneous shower on Mothers day for the Nichols Sanitarium. This was much appreciated, as the sanitarium gives just as much attention to the unfortunate patients that is unable to pay as the ones that is able to pay, and it takes a lot of linens to carry on an institution of this type. The Nichols sanitarium was much in need of a shower of this type and the ones that made it possible certainly needs to be complimented. The Afton W. M. U., Espuela church, Dickens W. M. U., First Baptist W. M. U. and the Bethel Baptist church Spur were among the ones that fostered the token of remembrance. Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Nichols wish to thank each and every one for their thoughtfulness.

To Attend Scout Camp At Post

Several members of local Scout Troop 35 have made arrangements to attend the scout camp at Post Texas next week. Any scout from Troop 35 or 36 that has not made arrangements to go is urged to see Assistant Scout Master Willie McCombs and make arrangements.

Mrs. J. P. Legg of the Croton Community who has been in a Lubbock Sanitarium returned home Monday. Mrs. Legg was seriously ill with pneumonia, but if she will remain in bed a few weeks longer the doctors think she will be strong again.

Miss Sidney Yokley pictured above with her horse will be present for the Rodeo, and will compete in the Girls Roping contest. Miss Yokley has roped at several rodeos throughout West Texas.

GIRLS ROPING CONTEST ADDED TO SPUR RODEO ATTRACTIONS

Trades Day Monday, June 3

Announcement was made Wednesday that the Spur Trades Day events would be held as usual. Last week it was announced that the trades day would have a special feature Monday morning. But for lack of time it was impossible to make all necessary arrangements for the special attractions.

Plans are being worked on for a special feature for the First Monday Trades Day and it has been announced that after the first Monday, June 3, some sort of attraction will be added for the occasion.

Just because it was impossible to have the special attractions don't forget that you still have a chance to more than pay your expense to come to Spur Monday, June 3, and too the merchants has several bargains that they are offering on that day.

Golfers Continue To Enjoy Sport

Members of the Espuela Golf and Country Club are really getting thrills out of the golfing sport these days. After the men have spent the day in their business, they get a great relief to get out to the country and enjoy a round with a neighbor. The following are some of the scores turned in the past week:

Wesdell Burba	43
T. C. Ensey	42
C. E. Fisher	38
J. E. Berry	44
Carl Arthur	46
Bill Simpson	43
B. Williamson	44
N. Barrett	45
J. E. Harrell	51
F. F. Vernon	40
Pete Carney	42
Carl Arthur	38
H. S. Holly	38
N. A. Chastain	40
O. C. Thomas	38
W. D. Starcher	43
W. D. Cantrell	40

People who are missing their recreation in golf are missing a great treat. Many business men are keeping themselves in fine physical condition by spending some time on the golf course each week. The dues for this year are the lowest they have been in a long time, and there is lots of fun at golfing.

NOTICE!

All county candidates are urged to be at Dickens Monday morning, June 3. The purpose of this meeting is to decide the time and place of the political rallies, and make known to the public where these speakings will be held and when.

Candidates are urged to be present and help work out the schedule.

Attend Democratic Convention

Riley Wooten, Joe Rose, J. S. Sharp, and Dr. M. H. Brannen returned Wednesday morning after attending the Democratic convention at Waco, Tuesday.

The Texas Democrats threw their 46 votes in the national party convention behind the presidential candidacy of native son, John Nancy Garner. But the Texas delegation also stated that they would not fight against President Roosevelt.

Claud Chastain a brother of Neal A. Chastain came to Spur the first of the week to work at the Sanders Chastain Pharmacy.

Announcement was made Wednesday by officers of the Spur Round-up and Rodeo Association that a special contest was being added to the Rodeo attraction. The first plans was to have Miss Margaret Owens and Miss Sidney Yokley who roped at the Fort Worth Fat Stock show to rope at the Spur Rodeo as a special feature but for some reason Miss Owens was unable to come. It was decided by the officials to have a contest open to all girl ropers who desired to try for the prizes.

The prizes offered are $60.00 for first prize, $25.00 second and $15.00 third. The girl ropers will rope according to the rules that men rope under. No entrance fee will be charged. As to how often the girls will rope depends upon the number entering the contest. Other announcements concerning the contest will be announced later.

To The Voters of Dickens County

I am now ready to announce my candidacy for the office of County Treasurer. I am very sorry I am late in making this announcement but as many of you know, I have been away since last Thanksgiving with my children, who were so seriously hurt in a car wreck, and since coming home I've been expecting to be called back any day.

I made the race two years ago and "thanks" to all who gave me their support. Will appreciate everything that you can do for me. I have been a resident of Dickens County a long time, came here when Spur was only a year old.

I think I am qualified for the place, taught school some before I married. I hope it will be possible for me to see each voter, but I may find it impossible, in case I don't see you, will you please take this as a solicitation of your vote? If I am elected I assure you I will do my best to serve you, and make an efficient officer.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Ovie (H. C.) Draper

Midway News

Members of the Baptist Sunday school met at 9:30 Sunday morning in order that they might go on to Patton Springs for the Baccalaureate sermon. Our pastor, Bro. Joshua Stephens of Plainview, had the distinct honor of delivering the message to the seniors, at the 11 o'clock hour.

"God's Law In the Heart" was the subject of the Sunday school lesson, Sunday morning. Bible material, Jeremiah 31. The main essential of true religion is a regenerated heart. To obtain this Jesus says, "Ye must be born again." He also says "With Man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

Missionary program, "The Southwide quests for souls" was discussed in the training union Sunday night. A missionary in India asked his converts to form the daily habit of placing their hands upon their hearts in the morning and saying; "I am a Baptized believer in Jesus Christ who is me if I preach not the gospel." We need some such habit to remind us that Jesus once said "Ye shall be my witnesses unto the utter most parts of the Earth" and He is the same God over all yesterday, today and forever.

Special Service

After Training Union services Sunday night, a special service was rendered before the entire assembly. Two beautiful messages were brought on "Let Jesus Lead Your Life" by Miss Ruby Lee Slayden and Bro. Bruce Slayden former students in Wayland college. The thought was brought out in the messages that Jesus said "He that loveth Me, Let him take up his cross and follow Me" is it to much to ask when we think of Jesus dying on the cross for you and me and that he tasted death for every man?

Chapter Rated McAdoo FFA

This year the McAdoo Chapter FFA attained a score of 888 points which qualified their chapter to become a Lone Star Chapter for the past school year, according to the score rating of the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America.

In the school year of 1938-39 there were 72 departments of Vocational Agriculture in Area with 23 Lone Star Chapters. This year there are 84 departments in the Panhandle and as yet the number of Lone Star chapters has not been released, according to John L. Shephard, McAdoo Vocational Agriculture teacher.

A Lone Star Chapter means that the chapter has attained a certain standard of perfection in carrying out its program of work which includes, leadership work, community service, cooperation, supervised project work, investments, and many other phases of Future Farmers work. 800 points of the Texas score record is required for a Star chapter.

GODFREY & SMART

THE FORD WAY OF DOING BUSINESS

The Ford Motor Company was founded by a working-man for working-men. Its present officers began as employees of the Company. It was the first company to pay a minimum wage, beginning in 1914, at the then astounding figure of $5 a day. That was double the prevailing wage of the time. The Ford minimum is now $6 a day for all employees engaged in production work. And from that, the wages rise to $10.80 a day, with the average wage $7.25, exclusive of salaried employees.

The Ford Motor Company was the first large company to establish the 8-hour day—also in 1914. And the 40-hour week was inaugurated by the Ford Motor Company in 1926, years before any such laws existed.

The Ford Motor Company employs men without regard to race, creed or color. It is common knowledge that working conditions in the Ford shops are the best that science and constant care can make them. A square deal, a just wage and stabilized employment for a large proportion of our employees—and as fully stabilized for all as conditions will permit—enable our men to retain their personal independence.

In consequence of these policies the Ford Motor Company has one of the finest bodies of employees in the world. The larger proportion are mature men of long service with the Company—sober, decent family men. Hundreds of them have been with the Company for more than 25 years—thousands for more than 15 years. Their health record, home ownership and citizenship records are good.

All this is reflected in Ford products, whether cars, trucks or tractors. The work is honestly done. Materials are the best that can be made or procured. Less profit to the Company and more value to the customer is known throughout the motoring world as "Ford's way of doing business."

Ford Motor Company was the first to make a motor car within the means of the average family—quitting the manufacture of what was then the largest selling model in the world to do so. Its chosen field in all the 30 years since that time has been the average American family—for which it has consistently provided car facilities which formerly only the wealthy could buy.

It is the policy of the Ford Motor Company to share the benefits of advanced methods and management with workers and public alike. Increased wages and employment over a period of many years have resulted in

A 300 per cent increase in the built-in value of the Ford car and a 75 per cent reduction in its price.

Tennant, Buying Farm For Self, Is Ahead On Payments

Walter Collins, of Lamar County, Texas, gives diversified farming credit for making him first in the United States with his 1941 repayment on land bought under provisions of the Bankhead-Jones Act.

tion, which makes the tenant purchase loans provided by the act, has announced that Collins is not two years ahead of his repayment schedule.

Collins farming 17 miles north-west of Paris in Lamar county, operates a 195 acre farm and leans heavily on livestock for his income. He bought the land in December, 1938, with a Bankhead-Jones loan. Though he has as long as 40 years to pay off the

The McCormick-Deering basin lister attachment. These attachments can be supplied for Nos. 52, 53, 54, 151, 152 and 153 listers and Nos. 3, 9 and 10 middlebusters.

BASIN LISTING Conserves Moisture, Retards Erosion, and Increases Yields

Basin listing is a new method that is growing rapidly in popularity for the conservation of moisture and control of soil erosion. The construction is well shown above. For each lister furrow there is a unit comprising a disk blade carried on a hinged beam, and a pair of lugged wheels which at intervals of 10 feet raise the disk, leaving a dam of loose dirt across the furrow. These dams hold the water as it falls, whether the lister furrows follow the contours accurately or not, and in either flat or contour listings effectively hold the water from running off.

This view shows how the basins hold the water.

We will be glad to discuss this new method of listing with you. We can supply McCormick-Deering equipment that will meet your requirements.

Farmers Banquet Well Attended

208 plates were served Friday night at the old Farmall House when the farmers entertained the merchants of Spur with a banquet.

The plates were served by the Dickens County Home Demonstration Council. R. R. Wooten president of the Dickens County Agriculture Association acted as master of ceremonies. O. M. McGinty thanked the business men for their presence. T. E. Milam president of the Spur Civic Club gave the response. A. C. Hull made a talk boosting the Spur Rodeo.

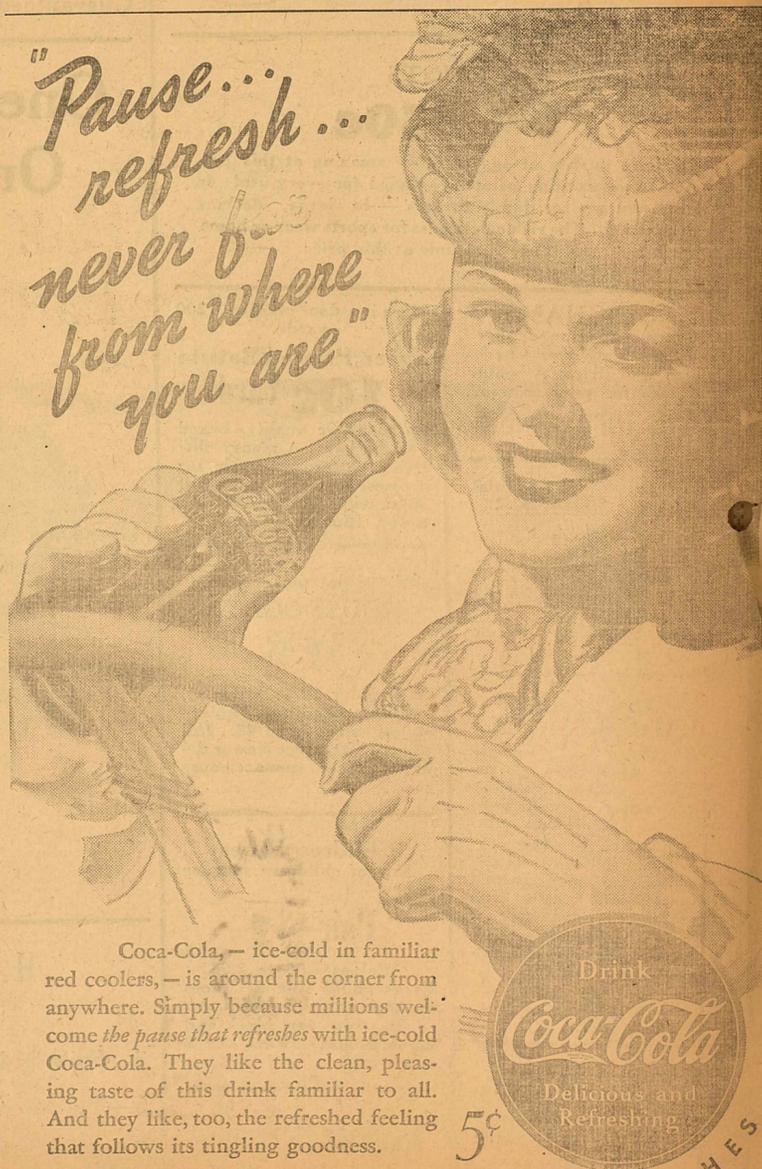

The speaker of the evening was C. H. Day former president of Texas Agriculture Association, and is at present connected with the AAA program of Texas. The theme of Mr. Day's talk was "Parative Prices of Farm Products." Mr. Day started his illustration by taking a quarter and stating that for years this quarter has been bought with five nickels, but stated maybe a bale of cotton would bring a dollar maybe the next half that much, and in this way the farmer has no way to plan his income. Mr. Day stated that while he was a wheat farmer on the Plains one year a good crop and received a dollar a bushel for it and that plow points were $2.50 each and he could buy a plow point for two and one half bushels of wheat but the next year wheat was down and it took ten bushels of wheat to buy the plow point but the point was the same price. Under these conditions Mr. Day stated is what keeps the farmer guessing, while if cotton was put on a parative price say at 16c per pound it would enable the farmer to buy the merchandise that he needed and at the same time the merchant would be kept busy buying the merchandise to supply the demands of the farmers. By doing this the mills of America would have to employ extra men and run the mills more hours in order to make what the farmers would need. With cotton from seven to nine cents and the price of the products that the farmer needs he cannot buy the necessary things to carry on his work. After Mr. Day talk questions were asked by the farmers and answered by Mr. Day. After the discussion President Riley Woot-

HENRY ALEXANDER & CO.

SPUR, TEXAS

Dr. Cox's Weekly Health Letter

"The responsiveness of the American public to unsound health suggestions from friends, acquaintances, and other less impersonal sources is very general. Fads and fancies, lacking basic worth as well as common sense, thus literally are rampant throughout the land.

While many of the so-called friendly suggestions that are ardently applied by the too-trusting or gullible are not responsible for more than temporary harm or inconvenience, others are likely to result in serious complications and may even terminate in death," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"As a case in point, some time ago a man, while at a evening gathering, suddenly experienced abdominal pain, and was advised by no less than three of the party to take a dose of oil. This suggestion he immediately adopted. He actually was suffering from appendicitis, and taking the oil aggravated an extensive peritonitis which caused the loss of his life. His fate, however, may influence others who experience pain of this type, or in fact an illness of any kind, to seek professional counsel rather than to rely upon the usually spontaneous suggestions of well-meaning though ill-informed persons.

"While health and illness are high up in the conversational scale, the fact remains that only those skilled in the practice of medicine should be relied upon for advice of any kind relating both to bodily health and to the curing of an ailment.

"Doctors, through long training and wide personal experience, are qualified to recognize the cause of symptoms and thus define the illness. Proper diagnosis is essential to proper treatment. And those outside the profession, bright as they may be in their particular fields, cannot safely assume the role of the family physician, either for themselves or for others.

Do You Know Texas?

A reader of this newspaper can get the answer to any question of fact by writing to A. Garland Adair, Curator of Patriotic Exhibits Texas Memorial Museum, Box 1770 University Station, Austin, Texas.

FACTUAL: Approximately $2,000, 934 was the expenditures for textbooks in Texas in 1938.

HISTORICAL: James G. Hollo-way was the first purchaser of surveyed school lands. Records in the General Land Office, as cited by Commissioner Bascom Giles, show that in 1874 he purchased a tract which contained 160 acres, situated in Bowie County, and was patented March 12, 1875.

BIOGRAPHICAL: James A. Kelly, born near Fayetteville, Arkansas, September 8, 1857, came to Texas with his family in 1861, settling in the Basin Springs community. He attended his hometown school and later the schools at Sadler and Ganesville. For a number of years he followed the teaching profession. While superintendent at Bowie he married on December 27, 1883, Miss Lillie Jane Huff, the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Huff, a pioneer family of Whitesboro. He became surveyor of Montague County and during his administration of six years he surveyed and laid off the towns of Nocoma, Lindsey, Bonita, Belsherville, and Muenster. The federal government then appointed him surveyor, arbitrator of lands of the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indians. This survey and division of lands is now U. S. history. His surveys and land patents are recorded in the General Land Office at Austin as being "perfect." He died at his Whitesboro home, February 11, 1939, age 82.—Whitesboro News.

QUESTIONS: Is March 2nd or April 21st observed as Texas Independence Day?

A. March 2nd, for it was on that day in 1836 that the Texas convention met at Washington-on-the-Brazos and declared its independence. Independence was won at San Jacinto, April 21, 1836—just 50 days later.

Q. Who were the presidents of the Republic of Texas?

Q. What was the total population of Texas in 1860?

A. The census of 1860 which was the last preceding the war between the states gave Texas a population of 602,093 or about 1-10th the present population, of which 421,411 were whites and Mexicans, and 180,682 Negro slaves.

NOTABLE QUERY: "What profit from great battlefields or human blood or pain, if poor, oppressed or hungry men have not a thing to gain."—Ben B. Hunt, in the "The Sacred Ballot."

Q. When and where will the next Boy Scout Regional Conference be?

A. In Austin, Texas, the Regional conference of three states for Boy Scouts will be held May 19.

Q. Where now are the Historical Dioramas of Texas which were exhibited the first time at the Texas' Central Centennial Exposition in Dallas in 1936 and by whom were they built?

A. They have been transferred by the donor, the Humble Oil and Refining Company, to the Texas Memorial Room where they are permanently exhibited. They were built by Edward Wilkinson, a member of the American Legion of Houston and his staff.

Q. Where did Decoration Day originate?

A. "Decoration Day originated in the South. Each Spring during the war between the States, the Southern women went together and decorated with wild flowers the graves of their dear dead in Dixie."

From "The Amusing Legend of the Dogwood Tree."

Texas oil producers lost over $100 million to other oil states with cheap 68 million barrels of their market producing costs in the past two years, according to Railroad Commission figures.

Texas oil producers now pay the highest average tax per barrel of any state in the union.

Dry holes and plugged oil wells in Texas last year totalled 28,466.

Due to increased operating costs and loss of markets to other states, Texas oilmen drilled 2,221 fewer wells last year than in the State in the past two years, compared with the previous year.

Roosevelt Leads For Third Term

Texas voters want Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third term as president; W. Lee O'Daniel for a second term as Gov. and Pierce Brooks to succeed Lon A. Smith as Railroad Commissioner, it is indicated from an incomplete poll being taken throughout the State by the Texas State Network radio stations.

The stations are polling every tenth voter on the poll tax lists in the State. This is done without reference to occupation, or whether or not the poll tax holder is a man or woman.

Latest announced returns gave President Roosevelt 64.3 per cent of the total on a basis of 27,728 votes cast, with Vice President Garner second with 19.4 percent. For Governor, the poll gave Governor O'Daniel 51.2 percent of the total with Col. Ernest O. Thompson second with 21 percent.

The poll gave Pierce Brooks 34.9 percent of the vote for the Railroad Commission. It was announced this was approximately two to one over his nearest opponents.

Approximately 30,000 Texans are employed by Texas oil refiners. The annual payroll for these refinery plant and office workers is approximately 50 million dollars a year.

Texas Ranks High In Shorthorn Membership

Texas ranks fifth in the nation in numbers of new members in the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association, Chicago, Illinois, according to figures released recently by the Association. This is the highest ranking of any southern state.

In a banner year for Shorthorns asserts Secretary H. J. Gramlich of the Shorthorn Association, the organization received 503 new members up to May 1, which is a 74 1-2 percent increase over the same period last year. April business this year more than doubled that of April, 1939. In the 12 months of the last fiscal year there were a total of 740 new members.

An increasing number of Texas cattlemen, Gramlich states, are turning to Shorthorns, both for purebred purposes and for crossing on their range cattle.

The top 15 states in Shorthorn memberships are Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Texas, North Dakota, Missouri, Minnesota, Ohio, Michigan, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Nebraska, Washington and Wisconsin.

Most of the new members are comparatively young men whose herds have just reached a size to justify membership in the Association, which indicates a promising future for the Shorthorn breed, believes Gramlich.

WHAT A SOFT JOB YOU'VE GOT - READIN' METERS FROM A PARK BENCH.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

IT'S A CINCH MY BILLS AREN'T GETTING ANY SMALLER!

"They thought they had me on the spot!"

"I WORK for the electric company, and when I tell the boys rates have gone down, they say, 'Why don't our bills go down?'"

"Now all those fellas pay money to bowl, yet they don't give it a second thought. I suppose because they see what they get. It would be the same if they bought an extra pack of cigarettes. But electric service, that's different. When they want to do somethin' nice for their wives they buy some electric appliance to make the housework lighter. Or they buy an electric razor for themselves. They get lots of comfort and pleasure out of those gadgets. But when the bills come in they forget how much they got for that money."

"The reason some bills don't go down is that most people use a lot more electric than they used to. All the boys have electric light, a radio, a washing machine and a toaster in their homes, and most of 'em have electric ice-boxes and vacuum cleaners too. Yet it doesn't cost 'em much more, if any, to operate all those things than it used to cost for light alone, because rates have been cut just about in half during the last twelve or fifteen years."

"If we could sell electric service by the pound, people could see what they get. They'd realize how much they use and how many jobs it does. And they'd appreciate how much less it costs now."

"I'm glad to be in a job where I help people get more of the good things of life. All of us at the plant feel that way. We know people depend on us to give them better service for less money, and that's just what we aim to do."

THE ANSWER TO REDUCED ACREAGE

By T. C. Richardson Ass. Editor Farm and Ranch

A good many cotton growers are making about as much cotton on a smaller acreage as they made before the government program compelled a acreage reduction. Higher acre-yields mean lower costs per pound, which enhances the chances for profit, whatever the price may be. The Old South is getting better yields by fertilization, both by turning under green manure crops, and the use of commercial fertilizer. The same methods are practical for a large part of the Southwest, but are not adapted to the western cotton belt. Texas and Oklahoma particularly, and Arkansas and Louisiana to a degree, are penalized in the AAA allotments on account of past low yields. Until the law and its administrative rulings are re-written, the only offset the Southwestern cotton grower can make to the low allotments, is to increase his acre yields by every means within economic reason.

There is one factor of lowered yields which most of the cotton south has in common — the insect problem. The Southwest has not paid as much attention to bugs as has the Old South, resting on the assumption that climatic conditions here make insects a minor problem. The "rain belt" cotton farmers, on the other hand, knew that insects had to be controlled and the better ones adopted pest control as a regular program, along with weed control and fertilization. The result is that the Southwest is now losing more cotton to insects than is the Old South.

It goes without saying that the practical cotton grower does not plant a crop and leave it to be taken by weeds. Why, then, should we stop short of doing all the economically sound things that will raise the yield? Why treat the insect problem as an "act of God" and do nothing, while we plow, hoe and sweat to bring the crop along to harvest? Weeds are also providential — that is they are a natural growth which we do not leave to nature or providence. It is doing only half a job to prepare the ground, plant good seed, and cultivate, without also keeping down insect losses. Fortunately we seldom have all the insects in one season, else we would have been out of the cotton business. Fortunately also, insect losses are not serious in every season. But seasons unfavorable to the crop itself, and its potential yields are lowered by factors beyond our control. Dry seasons are also unfavorable to weeds, but we don't stop plowing on that account. In such seasons of low potential yields, it is that much more important to save all the yield possible. Cutting insect losses is one way.

Whipping the insects, like controlling weeds, is a question of being prepared and "beating them to the gun." Insects are harder to see than weeds, but cotton growers either know or can easily learn how to identify them, gauge the degree of infestation, and do the right thing at the right time in the right way. It is no more complicated than setting a planter or a cultivator to do the right kind of work, and is just as important in producing a good crop of cotton.

Under the AAA the Southwest has lost a part of its former advantage in cotton production by spreading acreage over large areas with low production. The obvious answer is to produce as much cotton as possible from the acres left, and turn the diverted acreage to other uses, using livestock to consume the crops on the farm. If the government program is to continue, the Southwest must raise its base yields. If the government program is abandoned some time in the future, the growers who make good yields will still have the advantage.

Last year the Southwest generally speaking had fewer cotton insects than the average season in this region yet those who poisoned for flea hoppers and boll weevil report that their increased returns much more than paid the cost of insect control. In a "bad" insect year the difference is much greater in favor of insect control.

The "how" and "when" of cotton insect control will be discussed in other articles in this paper. In the meantime the county agent will be glad to give information on the subject both by word of mouth and through bulletins.

AFTON HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MET

The home demonstration club of Afton met in the home of Mrs. B. D. Clifton on May 22, 1940. The president opened the meeting and the business was taken care of then the program was turned over to the program leader. The program was on chicken.

We took a common clothes hanger and bent it so the corners would hold the chickens feet then hung it up so the chicken could be killed. You cut the vein in the side of the chickens neck so he will bleed well. The other part of the program was preparing chicken for the table.

In the refreshments two ways of preparing chicken was used as chicken salad and pressed chicken.

Here is the pressed chicken recipe: Stew 1 chicken till cooked off bones then remove bones and run through food chopper and season with celery, pimento pepper, salt and black pepper. Put in mold and let get cold.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Byron Haney, Manuel Ayers, R. C. Forbis, Gus Martain, Clark Forbis, Tab Williams, Allie Barton B. D. Clifton and one visitor, Mrs. Stafford Forbis.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. R. C. Forbis on June 12. —Reporter.

CARD OF THANKS

To those of you who assisted in any way, great or small, during the recent death of my daughter, Mrs. Mae O'Quinn, I wish to thank you from the depths of my very heart.

Surely you will know the kindness for all who came or assisted was most gratefully appreciated and I shall never forget you in my sincere prayers.

I offer an excerpt from the prose poem, "The Wise Angel," that reflects my sorrow, which your goodness has made a heavy burden lighter for me to bear.

"One morning God looked down from the windows of heaven upon the world, meditated for a moment, and bade an angel come near. "Go down into earth and dwell there ten hundred years," said God, "and when that time shall have come to pass, gather unto thy bosom the seven most precious things thou wilt have seen, and return with the munto Me in paradise."

And forthwith the angel did God's bidding. When ten hundred Junes had painted the meadows green and ten hundred Novembers had blanketed the hills in snow, the angel made ready to carry out the bidding of the Lord and return whence he had come. He gathered unto him a white flower, a raindrop, a bar of bright gold, the marble figure of a Greek boy, a pomegranate, a piece of purple, and a mother's love.

Across the field of years the angel sped in a chariot made of than pearl and swifter than the flaming tresses of a comet and at last he came unto the gates of heaven, and amid the trumpeting of seven archangels who rejoiced, bore unto the throne of God the seven most precious things of earth. But lo!—the white flower was dead. And the raindrop had fallen to dust. The bar of gold had fallen to dust. The statue of the Grecia nlad was shattered, the pomegranate shrunken out of color and form, the piece of purple, faded and torn; only a mother's love remained unchanged.

Seeing this, God smiled and was exceedingly happy, and said unto the angel, "Verily, thou hast chosen wisely. For there are not seven most precious things, but only one and it is a mother's love!"

Thank you and God God bless you is my prayer. Mrs. W. M. Randall, Edward and Ann.
