Tax Cut Seems Certainty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early enactment of an antirecession tax cut appears certain because President Ford and the heavily Democratic 94th Congress agree that such a step is necessary, although they appear divided over how much of the reduction should go to lower- and middle-income taxpayers.

Water Quality Board Accused Of 'Going Easy' On Polluters

AUSTIN (AP) — The House Environmental Affairs Committee has accused the Texas Water Quality Board of going easy on polluters. It recommended new authority for the attorney general to sue on his own to halt pollution.

The usual type of suit certified to the attorney general is against the small business or septic tank operator on a minor offense which can be easily corrected. Few large dischargers are ever sued.

A self-reporting system is used to monitor the quality of discharges by many industrial plants, and the board itself volunteered a report showing 38 of them reported themselves "substantially out of compliance." The board prosecuted only one of them, while Harris County sued another seven, the committee said.

Mayor Of Houston Names Three Jurists To Panel To Probe Police Actions

HOUSTON (AP) — Mayor Fred Hofheinz has appointed three jurists to a special commission to investigate activities in the Houston Police Department.

The mayor said Monday files in the criminal intelligence division—which Hofheinz claims contains improper surveillance reports on hundreds of law-abiding citizens—will be turned over to the commission.

Spurgeon E. Bell, a former chief justice of the First Court of Civil Appeals, was named chairman of the commission. Bell now is a faculty member at South Texas School of Law.

Other Members

Other members of the commission are A. A. White, who founded the University of Houston Law School in 1947, and Otis H. King, dean of Texas Southern Law School.

Meanwhile, a private investigator said Monday he was hired by a group of citizens to investigate Hofheinz before he was elected mayor.

Dudley Bell Jr. said Monday he was asked to do the investigation before Hofheinz's first and unsuccessful race for mayor in 1971.

Bell declined to identify those who hired him but he said none was city officials or employees.

Nine-Month Probe

The investigator said he was asked to compile the dossier in the early part of 1970, about the time Hofheinz made known he planned to run in the 1971 mayoral election.

The investigation lasted about nine months and included photographs, tape recordings and probes into Hofheinz' financial situation, background and associates, Bell said.

Bell said he was hired by "people who wanted to support him (Hofheinz) and wanted to be sure he was the kind of person they would not be embarrassed by."

Bell said some 1,000 or 1,900 photographs were taken of persons who came and went from the Hofheinz campaign headquarters. He said Hofheinz also was kept under surveillance when he made trips out of town.

Bell said there was nothing illegal about the investigation and it did not include any wiretapping.

TEMPERATURES HIT LOWEST POINT OF SEASON— Storm Remnants Drop Mercury In South

By The Associated Press

Remnants of a vicious blizzard that buried parts of the Midwest over the weekend scattered snow across the Northeast today and drove temperatures down to the teens deep into the South.

Heavy-snow warnings for New York and New England were canceled late Monday night. Gale warnings remained along the coast, and 3 to 5 inches of snow covered parts of Maine and New Hampshire during the night.

Low Temperatures

Temperatures tumbled to their lowest levels of the season in much of the Deep South. Readings in the teens brought out topcoats and heavy sweaters from Alabama through Georgia.

Zero cold lingered in the Midwest and Plains, but temperatures were less severe than a day ago and a gradual moderation was in prospect to aid in digging-out operations.

Fifty-five persons were known dead from the blizzard — termed the worst of the century by some weather authorities — and losses in livestock were expected to run into the thousands in Iowa alone.

No Damage Estimate

Fourteen persons died in Minnesota, 13 in Nebraska, 8 each in Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota, two in Michigan and one each in Illinois and Wisconsin.

There was no firm estimate of the dollar loss, which was expected to run in the millions. The Minnesota Highway Department reported most highways in the state would be passable today. Although trains resumed schedules Monday, tracks sometimes disappeared beneath the snow. Much of the state had 12 to 20 inches, in many cases heaped into 10- and 12-foot drifts.

Many schools remained closed in Minnesota, western Iowa and eastern Nebraska. In Omaha, the city's transit system was offering free bus service to keep cars off the streets — clogged by an estimated 2,000 abandoned autos.

In Iowa, numerous roads remained impassable late Monday and the highway patrol said thousands of cars littered streets and highways in the western part of the state.

Agricultural specialists said losses from the blizzard in Iowa could top those caused by an April 1973 storm that killed 250 million worth of livestock and poultry.

Livestock losses also could run into the thousands in southwestern Minnesota, according to officials there.

John Graff, a National Weather Service meteorologist in Minneapolis, said the blizzard was the state's worst since 1868, despite the fact that the Armistice Day 1940 blizzard claimed more lives — 49.

He said the weekend storm had more snow, the winds were stronger and lasted longer and temperatures dropped faster.

CHOSEN BY AIR FORCE—Air Force Secretary John McLucas holds a model of the YF16 fighter aircraft during a news conference Monday at the Pentagon. The Air Force announced at the news conference that they had chosen the General Dynamics Corp. aircraft as their new supersonic air combat fighter. (AP Wirephoto.)

General Dynamics F16 Fighter Approved, Air Force Pact Awarded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is intensifying its sales pitch to four NATO nations, now that the Pentagon has decided on the 1,500-mile-per-hour YF16 as the Air Force's new lightweight plane.

Lee Youth Center Chatter

By TANYA JONES, BECKY HALL & LINDA EWAN

Where's the fire? Well, the fire's at Lee High School, cause our BOUNCING BASKETBALLERS are all fired up towards another 5-4 district tie. They downed numbers 17 and 18 last week by defeating Odessa 63-46 Tuesday, and then San Angelo 72-50 Friday.

This Tuesday, Abilene Cooper will be Lee's 19th victim, at Abilene. The Cooper team is tough but not too tough for the Rebels. Look out, Big Spring, because you'll be No. 20 on Friday! It's hard to break a habit, especially if it's a winning one!

Basketball's not the only winning team around Lee, for Lee is made up of a bunch of winners. Friday and Saturday, the "Wet and Wild Ones" dominated the Texas Tech Invitational Swimming and Diving Meet. The men won top honors while the women came in second. Way to swim, Wendy Williams, Robbie Robb, Steve Moses, Randy McIntyre, Mary Palen, George Tunnel, Bill Murrah, Alton Erban, Jamie Tope, Steve Degenfelder, Janis Ottmann, Linda Jeary, Brad Swendig, J. D. Rathjen, Carl Stuart, Kerry Stuart, Jim Rulla, Diane Hartman, Doug Clark, June Soboye, Debbie Solari, Mike Butler, Brit Hull, Charlie Beaty and Don Robinson! Their next meet is in Dallas for the TISCA Championships Jan. 31-Feb. 2. Keep on splashing!

Number one win was won with the greatest of ease last Saturday in Seminole. The tennis team posted a 15-3 victory with Seminole winning only one match in boys' singles, one match in girls' singles, and one match in girls' doubles. Look for Kenny Egner, Robert Fox, Larry Hicks, Kevin Hopson, Jim Artley, David Whiteside, Jan Goodwin, Gretchen Wells, Charla Seale, Tina Ashford, Robin Malone, Jean Seeret, Leichen Kreuz and Susan Posey to Odessa against Permian next Saturday. Go after No. 2!

Lee and Midland will host one of the largest speech and drama tournaments ever here Friday and Saturday. There will be around 35 schools participating in the competition starting at 3 p.m. Friday. Some of the events will be individual and team debates, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking. Chairmen of the tournament include our own Mrs. Fryar and Mr. Griffin. Time keepers are needed so all interested persons (100 Club and Junior Council

The climax in a nearly three-year competition came late Monday when the Pentagon announced that the General Dynamics Corp.'s YF16 jet had been chosen over the Northrop Corp.'s YF17 for full-scale development as the Air Force's lightweight air combat fighter.

Firm's Executives Say Plane Productions To Open Up 3,700 New Jobs

FORT WORTH (AP) — General Dynamics executives say about 3,700 new jobs will open during development of the F16 jet fighter program.

Lyman C. Josephs, deputy general manager, and F16 vice president and Richard E. Adams, vice president and general manager of the Fort Worth division of General Dynamics said Monday at a news conference another 7,000 new jobs would open during the production stage.

"It will result in a total employment at peak production of approximately 12,000 over the years ahead," Adams said. "The majority of the required skills are available in the local area."

Pact Awarded

The Air Force awarded General Dynamics the supersonic jet fighter plane contract instead of Northrup Aviation of California.

The executives said if the F16 program reaches its fullest potential—which includes purchase of the aircraft by four NATO countries—the total contract could climb as high as $15 billion to $20 billion—with some 28 per cent of the remaining in the Fort Worth economy.

The actual contract stipulates $417,904,758 to the firm to build 15 engineering-developing planes. Pratt & Whitney received a $55,500,000 pact to produce the F100 engine to be used in the F16.

The first production line F16 is scheduled for January 1976 with a production rate pro-

Fort Worth Pair Slain In Robbery

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Bandits gunned down a man and a woman during a convenience store robbery Monday night after forcing the pair to stand against a wall, police said.

Peggy Hester, 19, a clerk at the food store in North Fort Worth, was shot three times in the chest with a .410 gauge shotgun and John Howard Robinson, 19, a friend who had stopped to chat with her, was shot once.

Police said the bandits emptied the cash register prior to the execution style murders.

The bodies were discovered by two officers who routinely check the store because of large numbers of holdups in the area.

Fifth Circuit Court To Hear Jacobsen Prosecutors' Pleas

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Special prosecutors in the Jake Jacobsen case will argue for their own existence Wednesday before the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Lawyers Wayne Woodruff, Patrick Higginbotham and Andrew Barr are expected to argue that constitutional provisions for separation of powers would not prohibit U.S. District Court Judge Robert Hill from appointing them to continue the Jacobsen prosecution after the Justice Department dropped the case.

Higginbotham said he and Woodruff will present the bulk of the 20-minute argument.

Judge Hill appointed the special prosecutors after the Justice Department said it would not try Jacobsen, an Austin lobbyist, on charges of bribery and conspiracy to defraud a San Angelo savings and loan firm.

Saying it would be a miscarriage of justice, Judge Hill refused to dismiss the indictment in Texas against Jacobsen.

The Justice Department has claimed that dropping the Texas indictment was necessary to obtain testimony in a Washington, bribery trial involving former Treasury Secretary John Connally.

U.S. Atty. Frank McCown, who handled the Jacobsen case in Texas, said the government will send Frank Turkheimer, a lawyer on the Watergate special prosecution staff, to New Orleans along with Sidney Glazer, a member of the Justice Department appellate section.

U.S. Circuit court Judge John Brown, chief judge of the fifth circuit, Judge John Minor Wisdom of the fifth circuit, and Judge John Albert Murrah of the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals will hear the arguments Wednesday.

The government is expected to contend that Judge Hill lacked the authority to appoint the special prosecutors and violated the tradition of separation of powers.

The special prosecutors say they will counter that court precedents and the law itself place a duty on the court to see that justice is discharged.

Hoosiers Are Still Ranked No. 1 In AP Basketball Poll

Indiana Holding Lead Over UCLA's Bruins

By The Associated Press
Indiana, which extended its unbeaten record with victories over Big Ten rivals Michigan and Iowa last week, also extended its lead over second-ranked UCLA in this week's Associated Press major college basketball poll.

The Hoosiers, who took over the No. 1 spot from defending national champion North Carolina State last week, beat Michigan 90-76 and then walloped Iowa 102-49 and opened a 144-point lead over the Bruins in this week's voting by a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters, announced Monday.

Indiana received 36 first-place votes and 972 points, while UCLA drew nine No. 1 markings and 848 points. Louisville, another major unbeaten, received the only other two first-place votes and 730 points to rank third.

Voting is based on games through last Saturday, at which point Indiana was 14-0, UCLA 12-0 and Louisville 11-0. Indiana was the only member of the three to play Monday night, beating 16th-ranked Minnesota 79-59 for its 15th triumph of the year.

N.C. State, Maryland and Southern Cal retained the next three spots in the poll, while Alabama and Oregon each moved up a notch, to Nos. 7 and 8, respectively. Arizona State jumped from 12th to ninth and Kentucky slipped from seventh to 10th after suffering its second loss of the season.

The second ten had LaSalle, Marquette, Arizona, North Carolina, Providence, Minnesota, Rutgers, Tennessee, Michigan and South Carolina.

Young Steelers Look To 1975 Football Season

That's a pretty good foundation on which to build a Super Bowl champion — which is exactly what Pittsburgh did. And all those players, along with plenty of others, came to the Steelers within two years of each other via the collegiate draft.

Now, of course, the chances of picking up such a wealth of football talent have been diminished. After all, a team with a 1-13 record, which is what the Steelers were when the drip of incoming talent became a torrent, has a better chance of picking up the top stars than does a team which picks 26th on each round.

That's what confronts the Steelers now. Later this month they'll be looking for more stars to go with the impressive collection that played major roles in Sunday's 16-6 thumping of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IX.

But just because the big names may be gone by the time the Steelers get to pick in the second round, it doesn't mean they may not come up with another jewel or two.

Consider that Greenwood was their 10th and last pick in 1969, and that White was their fifth one and Ernie Holmes their eighth in 1971.

"We don't go into the draft looking to fill any particular position," says Chuck Noll, who started filling them in that last-place 1969 season, his first year as Pittsburgh's coach. "You get into trouble when you do that."

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Minnesota's Bill Musselman, a bitter coaching rival of Indiana's Bobby Knight, doesn't approve of the way the top-ranked Hoosiers beat his 16th-ranked Gophers Monday night, but he considers their tactics a compliment.

Indiana's slowdown in the closing minutes forced Minnesota out of its tight zone defense and into a man-to-man. The Hoosiers then outscored Minnesota 21-4 for their 18th consecutive victory, 79-59.

NBA All-Stars Battle Tonight

PHOENIX (AP) — All-Star games often are an exercise in exhibitionism and individualism, but the coaches and players participating in tonight's nationally televised National Basketball Association contest are taking the game quite seriously.

"Even though it's basically a fun game, there is a lot of pride and determination involved and we will be out to win," said Washington's K.C. Jones, coach of the underdog East team.

"Even though individual skills and abilities will be greatly in evidence, I think it will be a very competitive game," commented Golden State's Al Attles, whose West team is rated a slight favorite.

The East, leading the series 15-9 going into the 35th All-Star game, will be out to avenge last year's 134-123 beating at Seattle and losses in three of the last four games.

In the East's only victory since 1970, a 104-84 decision at Chicago in 1973, it held the West to the lowest point total since 1963, when the West won 79-75.

Tonight, Attles is not worried about his team's offense, which is powered by Golden State forward Rick Barry, the league's leading scorer, and Milwaukee center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the NBA's all-time scoring average leader entering this season. Attles is concerned, however, about the West's ability to contain the East, led by Buffalo center Bob McAdoo, this season's scoring runner-up, and veterans John Havlicek of Boston and Walt Frazier of New York.

"I hope our defense will be able to keep us in the ball game," said Attles.

Attles and Jones are making sports history. They are the first blacks ever to coach teams in a major all-star game. They were selected because their teams had set records in their conference at the mid-season mark.

Minnesota Vows To Be Back Next Year

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings are not ready to be put out to pasture, said the Vikings already Bowl losers they're made out to be, and they served notice Monday they intend to be back for the elusive pro football crown.

"It's been a long season," said Coach Bud Grant when the team returned home from their third Super Bowl loss. "I'd have to say it's been a successful season. Actually we're quite happy with our team."

Osborn, who at 32 says he is not ready to be put out to pasture, said the Vikings already were thinking about becoming the first National Football League team to make four Super Bowl appearances.

"We think we're capable of coming right back and getting another shot at them right away," said Osborn, an 11-year pro from North Dakota.

About 200 faithful fans turned out to welcome the Vikings home. Grant patiently gave time for interviews, saying: "In the final analysis, it was a good year. We got to the Super Bowl. We didn't win but we'll go again."

"Veteran and aging" are terms sometimes used to describe the Vikings, who have won six out of the last seven NFC Central Division titles.

Missouri Youth In Coma; Hundreds Help Pay Bill

LAMAR, Mo. (AP) — While 14-year-old Greg Dalton lies unconscious in a hospital room, hundreds of people he never met are helping pay for the expensive treatments which keep him, and the hopes of those who love him, alive.

Greg, class president and quarterback of Lamar's freshman football team, was injured during a physical education class accident Dec. 10. He was taken to a Springfield, Mo., hospital, where doctors managed to bring his vital signs under control, but were stymied in their efforts to bring him out of a deep coma.

Greg slammed head-down into a wall of the school gymnasium while running at full tilt. Surgeons operated twice to relieve pressure on his brain which threatened to kill him.

Trust Fund Established

A week ago the Lamar Daily Democrat established a trust fund to help with the mounting medical costs, estimated as high as $250 a day. Within a few days about $900 was raised.

By last Thursday the fund had risen to $2,300 as donations came in from throughout southwest Missouri and southeast Kansas.

A "dollar day" observance was held at Lamar High School, with faculty contributing $1. Students contributed $1, and the drive raised more than $600.

NAACP Picks Black Woman As Chairman

NEW YORK (AP) — Margaret Bush Wilson says she assumes the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People elected her as its board chairman "because I'm competent and professional."

"My sex and race are accidents of birth," the St. Louis lawyer said in a news conference after her victory Monday.

"I take them for granted."

After graduation from Talladega College in Talladega, Ala., she earned a law degree at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo. She followed her mother onto the executive committee of the St. Louis branch and became its first woman president two years later. In 1962 she was named state president of the Missouri NAACP.

Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP for the past 25 years, said of Mrs. Wilson's election, "It was not a close vote. It finally became practically unanimous."

Mrs. Wilson said she saw no signs of dissent within the NAACP because of the contest.

"It indicates exciting creative tension," she said.

Jews Maintain Rituals Dating To Middle Ages

By JONATHAN BRODER
JERUSALEM (AP) — It's five o'clock in the afternoon but the clock says midnight. Bearded men pray in the streets. Television and movies are forbidden. There are no trees, no flowers.

This is the Mea Shearim quarter of Jerusalem, a religious ghetto of Jews so orthodox they refuse to recognize the Israeli state — and often the 20th century — following instead a severe life of prayers and rituals dating back to the Middle Ages.

Ban On Gardens
The ban on gardens comes from an ancient Jewish edict that tried to prevent falcons from dropping snakes into holy areas and contaminating religious sacrifices, explains Rabbi Moshe Hirsch, an American-born resident of Mea Shearim since 1955. The sacrifices stopped centuries ago, but the orthodox still keep the laws.

Mea Shearim, which means "100 Gates" in Hebrew, was built 100 years ago by the Ottoman Turks. Around the quarter they constructed a wall with six gates, which the orthodox believe to symbolize the points of the Star of David.

Inside the walls there is a cluster of stone houses, narrow, winding streets, granite archways and outdoor markets.

Modern Ideas Shunned
The orthodox shun modern-day trappings from radios to photographs to mod clothes. Bearded men, wearing the black-coated uniforms of the pious Hassidic sect, study Jewish teachings from dawn to dusk in dusty synagogues, marking time by a clock that starts a new day the minute the sun goes down.

"We would study and pray for 25 hours a day if it were possible," Rabbi Hirsch says. "And we have devoted our lives to study simply because the Bible tells us to learn."

No Time For Jobs
Some orthodox spend so much on the Torah, the Talmud and ancient religious teachings that there is no time left for gainful employment, and they must live off charity and eat at free kitchens set up by religious foundations.

As for Women's Lib in Mea Shearim, the mere mention of equal rights for the sexes is an anathema. The men begin morning prayers with a chant thanking God they weren't born as women, while religious girls attend segregated schools that prepare them for a life of cooking, sewing and keeping the home according to Jewish law.

Rabbi Hirsch says orthodox boys and girls don't date, and most marriages are arranged by professional matchmakers. Then, according to religious law, the wife tries to make herself as unattractive as possible to discourage the stares of other men. She shaves her head, uses no makeup and dresses in plain floor-length skirts and long sleeves.

Rabbi Hirsch says the orthodox penalty for marital infidelity is death, but the law isn't enforced. Wayward spouses are forced to divorce and then they are usually banished from the community.

Israel Ignored
Many orthodox Jews in Mea Shearim do not recognize the state of Israel, its laws, its Hebrew language or its currency. Rabbi Hirsch's ultra-orthodox Neturei Karta sect communicates in Yiddish and preaches that the Israeli state can be declared only when the Messiah appears.

The sect has called on the Arab guerrillas of the Palestine Liberation Organization to recognize them in any future Palestine state the Arabs may establish.

The group also refuses to pray at Judaism's holiest shrine — the Western or Walling Wall — because it was captured by what they call "the Zionist imposters" in the 1967

Mideast War. They have plastered the quarter's stone walls with posters calling for an end to autopsies and military inductions of religious youth, and with slogans comparing the Jerusalem government with the Nazis.

The orthodox object to autopsies as a desecration of the human body, which is considered holy. The protests against the draft stem from a recent military drive to bolster manpower after the October Mideast War. Unlike in the past, religious students and orthodox girls are no longer automatically exempt from military service.

Blame 'Zionists'
Rabbi Hirsch, who is secretary of the Neturei Karta, says the Mideast crisis was caused by the "Zionists' desire for power" and Arab land.

"The Zionists threw the Arabs out of Palestine by force," he says. "This is against an oath the Jews made to God more than 2,000 years ago."

The religious fervor in Mea Shearim has often spilled over into violence. Stone-throwing orthodox mobs have attacked cars and buses violating the sabbath ban on driving, vandalized the homes of pathologists and beaten up girls wearing mini-skirts.

Rabbi Hirsch says cosmetic beauty is only skin-deep: "We're here to keep the soul clean."

Promoters Of Rock Music Sing Blues

By MARY CAMPBELL
AP Music Writer

Rock promoters are singing the recession blues. Their ranks are dwindling and their audiences shrinking as inflation eats up teen-agers' spending money.

"This is the first year that rock 'n' roll hasn't operated outside the real world with its real problems," says Howard Stein, whose Academy of Music more or less has succeeded the closed Fillmore East as New York's Carnegie Hall of rock.

Forced Decisions
"The kids are being forced to make decisions about which shows they will see and the many they won't see, as opposed to buying all the major concerts almost automatically."

Basically, concert attendance is off somewhere between 25 and 40 per cent across the country. Right now, in a business that had maybe 30 well-known promoters, in my encyclopedia of promoters there are maybe 12 major ones left.

And I believe there will be about six solvent ones by the end of spring. It's going to be a Darwinian era — it will be the survivors."

Ron Powell, who books concerts in 16 cities in the Midwest and the South, agrees. "There aren't many of us left," he said. "It is a luxury, let's face it. These kids can survive without rock."

Powell blamed the downturn totally on the economy. The music is still popular, he said, predicting record sales would go up as concert attendance goes down.

Bill Graham, who books many of the big cross-country tours, including Harrison, the Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young reunion tour and Bob Dylan in 1974, says: "I think the rock tour has reached its peak. It could go on for years, but I can't see how it could get much bigger."

Refuses To Ruff
Instead, however, West discarded a hear.

Why did West refuse to ruff? For all West knew, South was intent on discarding a diamond from dummy. If West had only worthless trumps, he would probably ruff to prevent dummy from discarding.

When West refused to ruff, it seemed clear that he had a trump trick to protect. South therefore led the jack of clubs through West. This strange trump finesse cleared up the trumps without loss.

DAILY QUESTION
Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes. You hold: S-9 8 7 6 3 H-9 7 5 D-A 5 4 C-10 5. What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass. In general, you need more than 4 points for a response to the opening bid. The best way to show weakness is to pass.

"There wasn't anything to it." South said after playing the hand shown today. "The player at my left acted like a man with the queen of trumps."

It's simple if you know how a man acts when he has the queen of trumps.

West opened the queen of diamonds, and East took the ace. East returned the five of diamonds, and South won with the king.

Now South needed the rest of the tricks. Easy, of course, except for the trumps.
