Concert To Raise Funds For Gazebo

Midlanders may treat themselves to "A Night of American Band Music from Sousa to Scott Joplin" Monday when the city's two high school bands join forces for a benefit concert.

$250 Stolen From Station

Sam Kropp, manager of the Thrifty Service Station, 801 E. Florida St., told Midland police Friday that approximately $250 cash had been taken from a cabinet in his office at the station.

He told officers the only suspects he had were two Mexican males who came in asking for oil. He said while one was requesting the oil the other one went into the office of the station. The money was discovered missing approximately an hour later.

Band Equipment Stolen At School

Band equipment valued at $475 was reported to have been taken from the band hall at San Jacinto Junior High School.

Missing in the incident were two cymal sets valued at $20, a snare drum valued at $120 and a snare drum stand, valued at $25.

The incident was believed to have occurred during the Christmas holidays but wasn't reported to police until Friday.

Jim Wheat, the structure will be old-fashioned in appearance, seating 25 to 30 musicians, but wired for lighting and sound. Construction should begin in April, and the gazebo will be dedicated July 4, 1975.

New Power Struggle Seen For UT System

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The far-flung multi-million dollar University of Texas System, beset by numerous troubles in recent months, may have another power struggle brewing.

The acting president of the main campus here, Dr. Loren Rogers, has called a halt to payment of bills owed by a prestigious library, the Harry Ransom Center, the Austin American-Statesman said Saturday.

The newspaper said in a copyrighted story that Dr. Rogers said, "HRC has been experiencing personnel problems as well as criticism that money has been wasted. I am waiting until these problems can be resolved to be sure the money is spent as it was intended to be."

Ransom, a former chancellor, was the guiding force behind the library and its hundreds of special collections before he quit. The library includes such items as some of Ernest Hemingway's manuscripts.

A spokesman for the library told the American-Statesman the library has accumulated several hundred thousand dollars in bills for books, insurance and shipping, and at least one insurance company threatened to cancel a policy if its premium is not paid.

School Grouping Program Slated

A program on multi-age grouping sponsored by the Midland Independent School District will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Fannin Elementary School cafeteria.

Multi-age grouping is the concept employed in the "K-1," or kindergarten-first grade classroom combination, program used in four Midland elementary schools. The multi-age concept also is used in combining the higher elementary grades.

Slides will be presented and the meeting will be open to questions and discussion. All interested parents and other citizens are encouraged to attend.

Beer Stolen From Market

A case of beer was reported to have been taken in a Friday night burglary of Carter's Food Market, 1411 N. Larnessa St. The front door of the building was broken out in the incident. Value of the door was listed at $75.

Calculator, Lighters Taken

Mrs. Bill Prude, 3620 Sinclair St., told Midland police Friday that a hand calculator, valued at $120, and two butane lighters, valued at $1.49, were taken from Corley Paper and Box Co.

as the first of 16 events leading to his loss of confidence in Spurr.

Roberts had closer ties with Ransom, and it appears doubtful that Dr. Rogers, possibly only a temporary president, would act so forcefully without LeMaistre's approval.

"I am planning to bring in experts to do an objective evaluation of the center," Dr. Rogers said.

In an unsettling fall in the UT System, the faculty at UT-Austin called on LeMaistre to resign as a result of the Spurr firing, but he said he had no intention of doing so.

A hurried investigation by LeMaistre and others of the possibility that Dr. B. H. Am-stead, president of UT-Permian Basin, lied to a legislative committee that no state money had been spent on a golf course and duck pond was capped by Amstead's resignation.

And regents are now investigating a teacher's complaint that LeMaistre pressured her into giving LeMaistre's son a make-up examination.

Bill Would Exempt More Farm, Ranch Items From Tax

AUSTIN Bureau — One of the first bills introduced during this session of the legislature would greatly expand the tax exempt status on items used in agricultural production.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Don Adams of Jasper, would prohibit the sales tax being applied to wrapping paper, wrapping or baling twine, bags, cartons, crates, crating materials, tape, rope, labels, staples, glue and baling wire used "on a farm or ranch in the production of food for human consumption."

The tax-free status would also apply for the same products used in feeding any form of animal life.

Under present Texas law, feed, seed, fungicides, fertilizer and other chemicals and farm and ranch machinery are exempt from the sales tax.

The bill has been referred to the Senate Finance Committee.

Democrats Plan Review Of Rules To Select Committee Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders, embarrassed by a split between the Democratic caucus and the party's Steering Committee in the House, are planning to review the rules for selecting committee chairmen.

The split forced a delay in selecting four key chairmen and the leaders hope revised rules can keep this from happening again.

The changes contemplated would not restore the seniority system breached once and for all by the precedent-shattering Democratic actions last week. They would instead be intended to clarify the relations between the caucus and the Steering Committee, a long-inactive body that was invigorated and given broad new powers during reforms of the past two years.

Committee Nominations
A major reform, in the view of those who decreed it, was to transfer to the Steering Committee the function formerly exercised by the Democratic members of the largely conservative Ways and Means Committee of nominating members and chairmen of committees.

In its first exercise of its new powers, the Steering Committee ignored seniority and recommended replacements for two incumbent chairmen, Wright Patman, D-Tex., of the Banking Committee, and Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, of the House Administration Committee.

The caucus rejected the replacements, but, in its own sidewise at seniority, rejected two sitting chairmen the Steering Committee had picked to continue in office: Edward F. Hebert, D-La., of Armed Services, and W. R. Poage, D-Tex., of Agriculture.

Out of this confusing succession of events, the leadership has drawn one clear conclusion: rank and file Democrats do not want their right to challenge committee chairmen weakened. They want the challenge to originate in the full caucus, not in the 24-member Steering Committee, half of which consists of leaders and their appointees.

Accordingly, Majority Leader Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., said there is no question that the rule will be changed.

Under consideration is a variation of a rule that would require the committee to send automatically to the caucus all names of sitting chairmen, he said.

Doubts about the present procedure were summed up by Rep. William J. Green, D-Pa., a liberal member of the Ways and Means Committee.

"We used to complain that a clique on Ways and Means made the appointments," he told a reporter. "Now people are asking whether we exchanged one clique for another."

Contributing to the leadership's embarrassment was speculation that the move in the Steering Committee to strip Hays of his chairmanship was an effort to cut down his potential as a rival in some future election for speaker or majority leader.

He has built his control, through the housekeeping committee, of many perquisites and payrolls into a significant power center.

"A GIANT STEP" — The learning resource center, above, will be complete this spring as the fourth structure on the new Midland College campus to accommodate the growing numbers of students. Ribbon cutting ceremonies for the campus are at 10 a.m. Monday.

Midland College Ribbon Cutting Slated

Brief ribbon cutting ceremonies replete with local dignitaries Monday will mark the beginning of a new phase of development at Midland College.

Scheduled for 10 a.m. at the east entrance of the administration building, the ceremonies will salute the completion of the first three buildings on the new campus at 3600 N. Garfield St. and the beginning of classes at the college's new home.

"We think this is a giant step in the development of Midland College," said the president, Dr. Al G. Langford. "The entire staff is thrilled and pleased we will finally be on our new campus." Monday's events will be a prelude to full-scale opening ceremonies slated for next fall when all six of the Phase I and II buildings, plus the maintenance building, will be complete.

The Rev. Horace Doyle, board of trustees member, will give the invocation for the ribbon cutting, for which Langford will act as master of ceremonies.

Welcoming addresses will be presented by Midland Mayor Ernest Angelo, Judge Barbara Calver and Chamber of Commerce President Bill Mewhorter. Responding for the college will be Reagan H. Legg, trustee president.

Langford and all members of the board of trustees will tend to the ribbon cutting. Although the college president said an open house is not planned for the occasion, "everybody who comes is welcome to visit and look at anything we have out here."

The ceremony is expected to draw representatives from several area colleges, as well as students, faculty members and other interested members of the community.

TIPRO Head Urges 'Develop Oil, Gas'

HOUSTON — The head of the largest state group of independent petroleum producers Saturday endorsed much of President Ford's energy program, but urged greater emphasis on the search for new domestic oil and gas.

"The President has prescribed better medicine, but many of the conservation ideas are sound," said George P. Mitchell, president of Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association. "However, we need the leadership of the nation's top executive in order to develop more energy sources here."

Mitchell stressed he is "gravely concerned" about across-the-board application of the proposed excise taxes on natural gas and domestic crude oil.

"Industry and labor in such producing states as Texas, Louisiana and others — where domestic petroleum is the principal fuel — would be hit extremely hard by the cost increase," he said.

He was commenting on the ideas outlined in President Ford's State of the Union message.

He said, "Although my field is energy, it is clear that the increased price of petroleum is likely to cause severe dislocations in the economy. The income tax reduction will help soften the blow but obviously will not be enough to offset all disruptions. Every effort must be made so that no segment of the population is unduly affected."

Mitchell suggested the following program additions or modifications:

— If the government is insistent on a windfall profits tax, it must at least contain a provision which permits plowing back 100 per cent of such profits, over a three-year period, into increased efforts to discover new domestic reserves of oil and gas.

— Nothing in the president's statement refers to removal of the depletion allowance, although Congress obviously is contemplating such action. "The end of percentage depletion will have a strong negative impact on the search for oil and gas, and no energy program can be considered in isolation from such a move," Mitchell said. "I urge that the President advocate continuation of the depletion incentive at least for independents, who last year were responsible for nearly 90 per cent of all wildcat drilling. For example, this could be accomplished by retaining the percentage depletion allowance on the first 3,000 barrels of oil production daily."

— The president's program lacks the specific steps needed to bring about big increases in domestic exploration and production, Mitchell said. "For instance, compounded increases of 30 to 35 per cent in drilling are required over the next five years, but we are retreating from, instead of advancing on, that goal. Last year the number of wells drilled was up more than 20 per cent; the continuing shortages of manpower, materials and drilling rigs will make it difficult to achieve a comparable increase this year. The president's direct concern and intervention in such problems are needed now."

UNLOADING HEARING EQUIPMENT—Members of the Downtown Lions Club unload equipment to be used in a special project that will allow deaf persons to "talk" to each other by telephone. Area Deaf Soon May Be Able To Communicate By Telephone

By JAN WILLIAMS
Thanks to the Midland Lions Club, many deaf persons in the area will soon be able to communicate with each other over the telephone.

John Berry of the Midland Downtown Lions, says a project is under way to convert teleprinters into telephones for the deaf.

The process involves internal rewiring of old teleprinters which are then attached to a standard telephone through a shoe box-sized acoustic coupler.

To place a call, the telephone receiver is placed on the coupler; then the number is dialed on the telephone. A monitor light indicates ringing signals. When the answering party places his receiver on a coupler, conversation can begin by typing words on the teleprinter.

Delivered Personally
Myers personally delivered the units to Midland via truck after learning from Berry that the Midland Lions were interested in initiating the program here.

Berry says he learned of the project through an article in the Lions Club magazine. The Blue Ball Lions Club had installed 12 of the teleprinters in the homes of deaf persons in May 1973.

With 300 unconverted units in storage, the Blue Ball Lions offered to make some of the machines available to other Lions Clubs requesting them. The obsolete teleprinters were donated to the club by Western Union.

Hope For More Units
Although Midland will only be starting out with six units, Berry says he has since learned that Lions Clubs in Dallas has the same project and hopes that Midland will be able to get more units there.

The teleprinters will be placed in deaf homes free of charge. Berry says there will also be no extra expense to operate the units in the home. The cost of converting the units runs $150 to $200 each, which the Lions Club of Midland will pay.

Berry says deaf couples will

Six Indicted In School Bomb Plot

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — A minister and five other persons active in Kanawha County's school textbook protest have been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiring to blow up two elementary schools.

Named in the six-count indictment Friday were the Rev. Marvin Horan; Larry Elmer Stevens and his wife, Jeannie Lynn Stevens; Michael Wayne Blankenship; Melvin D. Dickerson, and Delbert Lee Rose. All are from the Campbell's Creek area.

The Rev. Mr. Horan and others contended in the lengthy protest that certain textbooks selected for the county's schools were anti-Christian and un-American.

The indictment alleged that the six, along with unindicted coconspirator Darius Ivan Phillips, conspired "... to unlawfully and maliciously damage and destroy ... the Midway Elementary School, the Valley Grove Elementary School and other property."

Police said Midway was dynamited Oct. 23 with no injuries, but Valley Grove was never bombed.

In the lengthy, 11-page indictment, the grand jury charged that the plan to bomb the two schools was discussed at the antitextbook headquarters at Campbell's Creek.

The indictment said that at one point in the alleged conspiracy, the Rev. Mr. Horan told a small group that "according to the Bible, there is a time to live and a time to die and that one must fight fire with fire; a time to kill and a time to be killed; a time for love and a time for hate; a time for war and a time for peace."

The six were jailed late Friday. The Rev. Mr. Horan and Mrs. Stevens were later released on bail.

Ford Proposal To Limit Social Security Boosts This Year Appears Dead

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford's proposal to hold cost-of-living raises for 30.6 million Social Security beneficiaries to 5 per cent this year already appears dead.

"It will get just as much support as it did applause when the President came to it in his (State of the Union) message," said Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La. "None."

Long is chairman of the Finance Committee, which would handle any legislation to carry out the request.

Ribicoff, Long Agree
He said he did not expect any such measure to reach his panel. Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., another Finance Committee member and former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, which administers Social Security, said he was unalterably opposed to Ford's plan.

Rep. James A. Burke, D-Mass., expected to be chairman of the new Social Security subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee, also dismissed the cutbacks as not worth considering.

The Democratic legislators said the nation's elderly were among the hardest hit by inflation, and that it would be unthinkable to reduce their cost-of-living adjustment.

Chamber Banquet Tickets On Sale

More than 260 tickets already have been purchased for the 50th annual banquet of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, according to 1974 president K. M. Jastrow.

Slated for 7:30 p.m. Feb. 11, the banquet will feature Secretary of the Interior Rogers C. B. Morton as guest speaker. Jastrow and other outgoing directors also will be honored at the event.

More than 800 persons are expected to attend the dinner, which is open to the public. Tickets may be purchased for $8 each at the chamber office, 211 N. Colorado St.

New officers and directors, headed by president William J. Mewhorter, also will be introduced during the event.

Dinner music will be provided by the Big Name Band of the Midland Downtown Lions Club.

Discouraged Man Tries To Kill Himself By Fire

NEW YORK (AP) — A city employe was in critical condition Saturday after setting himself afire, apparently in the mistaken belief that he had lost his job and thus would be unable to care for his elderly mother.

Police said Robert Marigliano, 33, of Brooklyn, set himself ablaze with gasoline at a busy Queens intersection Friday night. He was taken to Queens General Hospital with burns over 55 per cent of his body.

A spokesman for the Municipal Service Administration said Saturday Marigliano had not been fired in the recent series of economy layoffs and was not scheduled to be.

"He was still conscious when they got him to the hospital and mumbled to the two officers who took him there that he had lost his job," said Sgt. Edward Wright. His mother told police he had been despondent.

"Nobody knew much about him," said one neighbor in the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn. "He always kept pretty much

Mitchell, Haldeman File Appeal Motions

WASHINGTON (AP) — All month of unsupervised probation, Gleason had pleaded guilty earlier to a misdemeanor charge of running a political fund-raising committee in 1973.

Former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and H. R. Haldeman, former White House chief of staff, filed their motions Friday in U.S. District Court.

Pre-Trial Publicity Blamed
The two new motions contend pre-trial publicity was prejudicial and cite alleged errors by Judge John J. Sirica.

Former Assistant Atty. Gen. Robert C. Mardian filed a similar motion Thursday and John D. Ehrlichman, one-time White House domestic affairs chief, did so shortly after the Jan. 1 convictions.

The four were convicted of conspiring to obstruct the investigation of the Watergate break-in. Mitchell, Haldeman and Ehrlichman also were found guilty of perjury.

Mitchell's lawyers, William G. Hundley and Flislo Cacheris, said the jury was chosen from a panel of potential jurors "exposed to massive pre-trial publicity fatally prejudicial to Mr. Mitchell."

Haldeman's motion argued that the prosecution had not proven its case, that Sirica had allowed hearsay statements to be used as evidence, that the judge should have delayed the trial until former President Richard M. Nixon was healthy enough to testify, and that the White House tape recordings played as evidence were never authenticated.

In other Watergate-related court actions Friday: —Former White House aide Jack Gleason was sentenced to one

Ringing The Bell

By BOB TIEUEL

The Black Experience: The controversial idea of creating the W.E.B. DuBois Institute for Afro-American Research at Harvard, first proposed five years ago, finally has received the go-ahead, according to Bellringers in that area. Black visiting professor of business administration Andrew F. Brimmer, who heads the 12-member advisory board, says he sees the institute as "parallel to the department of Afro-American studies but free standing in its own right." The Afro-American department at Harvard fears that the creation of a separate black-studies body might mean the end of its own existence, according to our sources.

In the three months that Brimmer, Ph.D. 57 (Harvard), has been professor of Business Administration at Harvard, 30 leading corporations have asked him to join their boards. He is still fresh from the "exhilarating experience" of eight and a half years on the Federal Reserve Board, a position he owes in part to a close relationship with President Johnson.

The Institute will have four main goals: (1) to provide funds to support the research of existing scholars, (2) to provide stipends for advanced graduate students who have completed their course requirements and are working on dissertations relevant to the interests of the institute, (3) to encourage the resources to support research, and (4) to establish a scholarly journal.

A study this year of minority enrollment in Ph.D. programs showed that "less than 3 percent black." Professors from minority groups typically make up a much smaller percentage of the faculty of most universities and colleges than the corresponding proportions of minorities in the total student body, states the report.

"Did the Supreme Court of the United States cop out when it declined to rule in the DeFunis Case last spring?" is the question posed by one Bellringer Marco DeFunis, a white applicant to the University of Washington Law School, had been rejected by the school even though his academic record was plainly superior to the records of several successful minority group members.

After bringing suit against the school, DeFunis was ordered admitted by a lower court. This decision later was overturned, but DeFunis was allowed to complete his studies. Meanwhile his case was appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court made no judgment on the case and its attendant questions of quotas, affirmative action and complicated trade-offs between objective standards and social justice. Instead, it ruled that DeFunis' imminent graduation made the case moot.

Professors David L. Kirp (Berkeley) and Mark Yudof (Texas) believe the court's passivity may have bought valuable time for society to study the complex issue raised by the DeFunis case. They hope this country's institutions will experiment with alternative plans for including more minority group members, without upsetting the balance of fair admissions and hiring policies.

Boley, Okla. — Black civic and community leaders here in one of the largest black-oriented towns in the U.S.A. believe that the future of the town still is bright in spite of inflation and recession and that the greatest need of Boley now is promotion or simply put, "a selling job." Mayor Theodore McCormick said, "I welcome suggestions and advice from black business and civic leaders over the nation as to how we can get Boley moving ahead for another 70 years." Our impression: The man is serious. Write him. Bellringers.

Dirt, Squirt & Quirt
— FARM, DAIRY AND RANCH NEWS —

As weather permitted, Midland area farmers were winding up the harvest of the 1974 cotton crop last week. The major farm activity now is the listing and breaking of land in preparation for this year's planting. Moisture appears to be adequate for plowing. The light snow that fell during the first of the week brought only a trace of moisture. However, the snowfall was heavier to the east of the county.

The record books will show 1974 as a "not so good" agricultural year in Texas but there were some bright spots, according to current estimates of agricultural cash receipts by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Estimates show 1974 cash receipts from agriculture were down about $500 million from the record $6.5 billion in 1973. The big drop is in total cash receipts from livestock, down more than $1.1 billion from $3.6 billion 1973. The drop in cash receipts from beef accounts for almost all of this decrease. Cash receipts from poultry and poultry products are estimated down more than $100 million. Total cash receipts from all crops were more than $3 billion, an increase of more than $200 million over 1973 totals. Feed grains — corn and sorghum — account for most of this increase. Higher receipts are also estimated for rice, soybeans, peanuts, pecans, flax, sugarcane, sugar beets and hay while cotton took the sharpest plunge as far as cash receipts are concerned. Cash receipts from wheat are also down.

What does 1975 hold in store for Texas agriculture? Much depends on the overall economy of this country and the market situation for agricultural commodities. Crop production should be up except for cotton. Livestock production should also continue at high levels although pork and poultry production may be down some.

Increased prices and demand for wheat have stimulated some interest in grain production by area producers. Some success with spring wheats in the Trans-Pecos area has brought up the possibility of economical production in the Midland area, Charles Green, Midland County extension agent, said.

Spring wheats can be planted during December, January and February. Area extension agronomists recommend the following for trial planting in Midland County: Cajeme 71, INIA 66, Siete Cerros 66 and Nuri 70. For information on cultural practices, contact Green.

In the Trans-Pecos area, yields have ranged up to 30 bushels per acre on spring wheats. Whether this can be achieved in lighter sandier soils is something we have to find out here in Midland County, Green noted. Bill Wood will make a 40-acre trial planting on the King farm in the Greenwood community in the next few weeks.

Using salt to melt ice on sidewalks, streets and driveways can injure nearby trees, shrubs and lawn grass. Salt may drain into the ground when ice melts and damage the root systems of nearby grass and shrubs and the effects may not show up until early summer. Commercial fertilizers that are high in nitrogen and potassium can be used instead of salt to melt ice. It not only melts the ice but fertilizes shrubs and plants in the lawn.

Care must be taken, since a high concentration of fertilizer in the soil can also damage plants. Sand can also be used to melt ice on sidewalks and driveways. It provides good traction for cars and pedestrians and is no more damaging to floors and rugs than salt.

Paper Selects Claire Bloom As Best Actress

LONDON (AP) — The London Evening Standard has honored Claire Bloom as best actress of 1974.

She won the Evening Standard's Drama Award for her performance as Blanche DuBois in Tennessee Williams' play, "A Streetcar Named Desire."

Miss Bloom won stardom as the ballerina playing opposite Charlie Chaplin in the movie "Limelight."

Corporate Picture Stresses Need For Economic Program

By JOHN CUNIFF
NEW YORK (AP) — The necessity of a new economic program is being punctuated almost daily by the reports out of corporate headquarters, union halls and government offices.
 Few of the reports are good. The only one in recent days that had that appearance, the report that personal income rose in December, was an illusion. It rose because so many were receiving Social Security, welfare and veteran benefits.
 The corporate picture has deteriorated suddenly. Through-out most of the year profits had remained high, almost embarrassingly so. But now the bad news about fourth quarter and December declines are being filed.
 The premier growth company, International Business Machines Corp., reported its first quarterly drop in profits in five years. It was unexpected, at least by some security analysts.
 That drop, to $446.5 million from $488.7 million in the comparable period a year ago, still left IBM with higher earnings for the year — $1.84 billion versus $1.58 billion in 1973 — but that only points up the suddenness.

 American Telephone & Telegraph Co., the largest corporation of all, turned in a somewhat comparable performance. For the entire year its earnings exceeded those of 1973, but in December they dropped abruptly.
 Hundreds of corporations which had enjoyed good fortune during most of 1974 soon will be reporting similar stories of a sharp deterioration of earnings as the year faded out.

Forecast By Statistics
 These corporate reports already have been forecast by government statistics. Industrial output fell in December by 2.8 per cent, the largest drop in 15 years. Producers of basic materials were operating at only 80 per cent of capacity in December, the Federal Reserve Board related.
 Even that last minute spurt in Christmas shopping that seemingly pushed retail sales higher than a year earlier was an illusion. In comparable dollars — inflation eliminated — sales were lower.
 And as sales declined inventories build up. In November, the latest month for which figures are available, more than $3 billion was added to inventories of unsold goods, bringing the total to nearly $268 billion.

A lot of that total is accounted for by automobiles, of course, but not all. IBM wasn't able to sell as many machines as it had anticipated selling. And while large appliance dealers didn't do badly for the year, they too found their inventories building up.

Picasso Sculpture Under Construction

ROLLING MEADOWS, Ill. (AP) — "The Bather," a major public space sculpture designed by Pablo Picasso, is now under construction at Gould Center here.

The 28-foot-high work — being executed by Norwegian artist Carl Nesjar in the unique medium of engraved concrete — was designed by Picasso in 1962 as one of his famous series of "Dejeuner sur l'herbe" outdoor figures. Nesjar has constructed all 16 outdoor sculptures designed by Picasso for public space areas.

Work on "The Bather" is scheduled for completion in early 1975. Gould Center, a 40-acre commercial and recreational complex, will be completed in late 1975.

Nesjar collaborated with Picasso from 1956 when he first introduced the famous artist to the engraving technique. Literally "drawing" into concrete by sandblasting, Nesjar succeeded in executing Picasso's sculptures from his models, marking the first time Picasso could create his sculpture on a monumental scale. He gave Nesjar the sole rights to execute the pieces he approved for this medium.

Texans Off Guard When Poage Ousted

By PEGGY SIMPSON
 WASHINGTON (AP) — The Texas delegation, one of the most powerful in Congress, totally miscalculated the strength of the reform movement that last week ousted one of its chairmen and still may remove a second, a delegation member says.

Rep. Jim Wright, a member of the House leadership structure, conceded that none of the Texans had taken seriously the threat to Agriculture Committee Chairman W. R. Poage.

The Texans had rallied around Banking Committee Chairman Wright. Patman, marshaling their own arguments that it would be ludicrous to penalize one of the Democratic Party's most stalwart liberal members just because of his age, Patman, 81, is dean of the House.

The entire Democratic delegation in Congress was taken by surprise when the leadership-dominated Steering Committee recommended Wednesday to replace Patman with the fourth-ranked banking Democrat, Rep. Henry Reuss, D-Wis. The Steering Committee narrowly recommended re-nomination of Poage.

When they heard that Patman might be lost without the chance to present himself for a vote, the Texas delegation cut short a weekly luncheon and huddled around Patman to form its strategy.

During the discussions about Patman, Poage mentioned once or twice that he too could be in trouble when the full caucus of Democrats voted on the Steering Committee nominations.

There was no debate on Poage's re-nomination as agriculture chairman.

Wright said that when the Texans realized he was in trouble it was too late to do anything about it.

Poage lost by three votes.

1,454 To Escape Prosecution As Draft Evaders

WASHINGTON (AP) — Business is picking up for the Presidential Clemency Board and it is seeking an extension to continue operations beyond the end of this month.

And the Justice Department has announced that it will not prosecute 1,454 men in connection with draft dodging.

The eight-member clemency board is slated to go out of business Jan. 31 but it has voted unanimously to recommend that President Ford extend its operations.

Board Chairman Charles E. Goodell said that since the board launched a nationwide publicity campaign Jan. 7 the number of applications has doubled.

Fewer than 900 men had been processed at that time, Goodell said, and now that number has risen to 1,300, not counting the letters and applications that have not yet been processed.

The board handles the cases of draft evaders and deserters who have already been convicted, with an estimated 100,000 eligible.

Deserters who have not been convicted are handled by the Department of Defense, with 13,000 eligible.

The Justice Department handles draft evaders who have not been convicted, and it is from the estimated 6,200 eligible for this program that the department announced 1,454 would not be prosecuted.

Goodell is distributing his proposal to extend the life of the clemency board at both the Pentagon and the Justice Department and is expected to talk to Ford about it soon.

Spokesman John Russell said the Justice Department has made no recommendation but will have one ready in case Ford asks for it. John Becher, a Defense Department spokesman, said the Pentagon is not preparing a recommendation.

But Goodell questioned whether Ford would extend the program because his advisers are telling him to let the program die.

Becher said the number of arrivals joining the military program at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., has jumped up with arrivals running at 71 a day at the latest count, compared with 20-to-30 about two weeks ago. So far, 3,208 have been processed, compared with 2,630 on Jan. 8.

Russell said the Justice Department has received 214 applicants, compared with 167 on Jan. 8, with "a lot more contacts being made."

Goodell said one of the problems is that the men are confused about the three different programs "and don't know what they will go through."

"We are getting some who don't know that they don't have to leave home to apply," to the clemency board, he said.

Consumer Advocacy Bill Back In Hopper

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate supporters of legislation creating a federal consumer advocacy agency, thwarted by a filibuster last year, have renewed their efforts and predict success this time.

Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., backed by 38 colleagues, introduced a bill Friday identical in most respects to the measure that had failed earlier.

A filibuster led by Sens. James B. Allen, D-Ala., and Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., who has since retired, succeeded in killing the 1974 version, but supporters said they now have the strength to assure passage.

"Without question, this is the year when an agency for consumer protection will be born," said Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., a co-sponsor of the Ribicoff bill.

"For however hard they try and no matter how much money the business lobbies spend, the fact is that the votes for enacting such an agency are present."

The legislation would create an independent, nonregulatory Agency for Consumer Advocacy to speak for the interest of the consumer in court and before regulatory agencies. The body would have a three-year budget of $50 million.

Ribicoff said he was aware that President Ford has said he would veto any bill this year calling for new federal spending, but the senator said his measure ought to be an exception.

GOING THE LIMIT

It's not unusual to find that the amount of money needed to finance the purchase of a home and the amount of cash in the bank account are too close for comfort. When does it make sense to pull back your horns and when would propriety say — "Go the limit?"

It's better not to spend every last cent available for a home if you customarily buy big ticket items, such as cars and appliances on time; if the local property taxes are likely to go higher; or if you have any unusual financial obligations, such as medical care for a member of the family.

On the other hand, you might justify going the limit if you can make a big down payment; if the home is unlikely to need maintenance or repairs which are above and beyond your personal capability; if your outlook for financial advancement is bright, and if your family has proven that it can tighten belts if you really have to.

Oil Good For City

By RONALD THOMSON
ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP) — At the American Food Store in oil-happy Aberdeen, Scottish Manager Hamilton Ross fretted over his dwindling stocks of tamales and tamales, bourbon and barbecue sauce.

"Aye, it's strange fare for these parts," he said, "and I'm not sure I'd want to try some of it myself."

"But what a business we're doing with the oil wives! They're besieging us for the stuff. We can't get enough American food."

Between 3,000 and 4,000 Americans, mostly with the accents of Texas and Louisiana, are living in and around this gray granite city on Scotland's northeast coast — the jumping off port for U.S. oilmen working in the North Sea.

Some 100 U.S. companies are among 240 firms involved in North Sea oil exploration.

Not Basic Switch

No one believes that the American Food Store, a locally owned enterprise in cramped premises tucked away in a side street, represents a fundamental switch from a haggis to a chile culture in the Scottish Highlands. But thrifty Aberdonians know a good thing when they see it.

"More than 90 per cent of our customers are American housewives who are used to stocking up the larder and think nothing of spending $100 in one visit," said manager Ross. "One time the American wives came in on special excursion trains from other parts of the oil area, and they nearly cleaned us out."

Before its oil rejuvenation over the past three years, Aberdeen, a city of 200,000, exuded a strong smell of fish from the trawler fleet which kept it going. Now the city booms on oil and fishing is nearly forgotten.

Nationally Submerged

"The Americans mix well, avoid setting up their own colonies and genuinely seem to enjoy living here," said John Hutton, development officer for the Northeast Scotland Development Authority.

"Most are family men who belong to an international elite that submerges nationality. It doesn't matter whether you're American, French, Italian, Dutch or British — you're an oilman. It doesn't matter where you were born but where you've been — Saudi Arabia and Nigeria, Venezuela, Iran and Australia."

"That's why you rarely see anyone walking in Aberdeen in a Stetson and cowboy boots," Hutton noted. "Anyone dressed like that is probably a Scotsman pretending to be a Texan."

The lion's share of North Sea oil reserves — 15 to 20 billion barrels compared with 370 billion in the Middle East — is in the British sector of the sea, within 100 miles of the coast. Norway, Denmark, West Germany and the Netherlands also border the North Sea and are exploring for oil.

100,000 Barrels Per Well

Oil strikes off the Scottish coast alone now number 20, and 15 of these wells — already in production — will have a peak output of 100,000 barrels a day from each well.

Aberdeen retains its bleak stone image but any evening the house is packed at the Star and Garter or the Murtle Mill in an old convalescent hospital. Two hundred oilmen's children, aged 6 to 17, study there as if they were in Houston or Miami.

"To tell you the truth," a teacher said, "they don't care whether they're in Aberdeen or Abu Dhabi."

Jamaica Size Of Connecticut

Jamaica is 4,400 square miles, roughly the size of Connecticut. With a population of two million, it is approximately 146 miles long and 51 miles at its broadest.

furnished accommodation at $50 a week.

"There's no doubt that house prices have risen 75 per cent, on a par with London and the well-off counties around the capital," Hutton said. "But that's one of the measures of this oil shakeup."

New Life For City

Four years ago a one-room apartment rented for $10 or $12 a week. But then Aberdeen was in the doldrums, with a low-wage economy, and more than 4,000 disillusioned workers were quitting the area every year.

Today Union Street, the mile-long main stem, throbs with traffic and the smart shops are full of well-dressed men and women.

"I can remember many of the premises in Union Street boarded up and the place looked as if it was dying," said Tim Kenny, trade relations director at the Shell Company's spectacular new $2.5 million building on a hill overlooking the city. "Huge investment by the oil interests is not only giving Aberdeen a shot in the arm, but a new life."

Prosperity Widespread

The seam of prosperity cuts through all the city's layers. Unemployment is down from 5 to 1.4 per cent. Movie theaters are jammed, restaurants are bustling and small businessmen thrive. There are 3,000 dwellings under construction.

"We call Americans the Sheikhs of Aberdeen," said barman Frank Winner. "The money has been flowing ever since they started coming here in force."

"We're dealing with companies who spent $35,000 to fly a piece of equipment worth $70 from Houston to Aberdeen. That's because it costs $120,000 a day if an oil rig shuts down."

Many Americans prefer to have their children educated along with Scottish children, but others pick the $1,600-a-year American School, set up in an old convalescent hospital.

Committee Appointment Delay Slows House Action

By LEE JONES
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — State representatives might get a better idea this week of who's in and who's out as the 64th Legislature finishes its ceremonial affairs and gets down to serious lawmaking.

session the next day. The main thing House members are awaiting is Speaker Bill Clayton's announcement of their committee assignments, including chairmen and vice chairmen.

You've got other things you've got to do," Gullaborn said. One step the legislature is expected to complete Monday is final action on a bill to advance by a month the effective date of federal extended benefits for unemployed Texans who have used up their 26 weeks of eligibility for regular benefits. The bill, making a technical change in the old extended benefits law, will entitle some 25,000

Texans to a total of $5 million between Jan. 21 and Feb. 21, the normal effective date. Briscoe must sign the bill by midnight Monday for the extra benefits to start rolling in.

While Clayton mulls over his committee assignments, delaying the formal introduction of bills and the beginning of public hearings on them, senators will be getting down to work.

Rule changes proposed by Clayton and passed by the House 102-24 Thursday reduced the number of committee assignments that must be made. The number of committees was increased from 21 to 28, but their size was reduced—in one case from 21 to 9 members—and each member of the House will serve on no more than two committees.

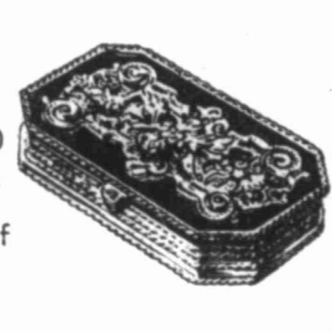

Some liberals laughingly said they were more comfortable reverting into their traditional role of outsiders and critics, charging windmills instead of turning them.

Both liberals and conservatives will be interested in what he has to say Wednesday, but much of it will come as no surprise. The governor has already declared his support for school finance, based on the use of market value of taxable real estate as the measurement of a school district's need for state aid. He also has endorsed the concept of basing required state-local school expenditures on a "weighted pupil" approach that supposedly would raise all districts to the level of the 42 best ones.

Two Change Pleas, Draw Prison Terms

Two defendants bound for criminal jury trials in 142nd District Court last week switched pleas, were tried before the court and sentenced.

Roy Yarbrough, 22, of Midland, pleaded guilty to illegal possession of a knife with a blade more than 5 1/2 inches long in a convenience store here where alcoholic beverages are sold. He also pleaded guilty to threatening Fred Lewis Jr. of Midland with the knife.

Yarbrough was sentenced to 2 to 10 years in the state penitentiary. A jury to hear his case had been selected a day earlier.

In a similar move, Robert Francis Shano, 24, of Wyoming, Ill., changed his plea from not guilty to guilty and was sentenced from 5 to 10 years in prison for the armed robbery of the Regal 8 Inn here July 1, 1973.

In other non-jury cases before Dist. Judge Perry Pickett, Oscar Lewis, 26, pleaded guilty to forgery by passing and was sentenced to two years.

Raymond Gavia, 19, pleaded guilty to robbery and was given a five-year probated sentence.

Steve Graham, 27, pleaded guilty to robbery and was sentenced to five years.

Jose Duran, 19, pleaded guilty to robbery and was sentenced to five years. His probation was revoked in an aggravated assault case, and Duran was given a five-year sentence to run concurrently with the robbery sentence.

Paul Stephan, 21, waived indictment on a charge of burglary of a building, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to seven years.

Juan Alvarado, 23, pleaded guilty to robbery and was sentenced to 10 years.

Juan Medina, 20, pleaded guilty to robbery and was sentenced to five years. In a second case, Medina pleaded guilty to burglary with intent to commit theft and was sentenced to five years. The sentences are to run concurrently.

Ronnie Lynn Stewart, 18, waived indictment, pleaded guilty to aggravated assault on a peace officer and was sentenced to two years. That sentence is to run concurrently with a two-year term he received on a plea of guilty to burglary with intent to commit theft.

Radio Flores, 21, pleaded guilty to robbery and was sentenced to 10 years.

Citizens Savings Names George Locker Director

Annual meetings of the board; Spencer Blocker, vice president; David Goodrum, assistant vice president and controller; Hunt, treasurer; Berg, secretary, and Mrs. Betty Lutke, assistant secretary.

Moody, in his report, revealed that the firm continued to experience substantial growth during 1974, with total assets increasing 12 1/2 per cent to almost $23 million.

Savings deposits increased almost $2 million, with the year-end figure being $30,575,133. The gain, he said, was accomplished in a year in which savings institutions in other areas experienced losses of savings deposits.

Other Events

Moody also reported on other significant events which occurred during the year. CS&L opened its branch office in Oak Ridge square in December. Construction was started on a new 10,000-square-foot home office building at 1100 Andrews Highway, with occupancy projected for April of this year.

Citizens Savings also became the first financial institution in Midland to provide coordinated fashion for its women employees, Moody said.

The directors, at their meeting, re-elected officers, as follows: Prescott, chairman of

Fire Rips Keene Elementary School

KEENE, Tex. (AP) — An elementary school at this North Central Texas town south of Fort Worth burned Friday night as firemen from several surrounding towns helped local firemen battle the blaze.

Fire officials said the fire broke out in the 3-year-old school about 11 p.m. and raged out of control until 2 a.m. today. Officials said the school's interior was destroyed, but no exact damage figures had been determined.

Officials said the school, for grades 5 through 8, was operated by the Seventh-Day Adventists.

STATE PROJECTS — Chairmen for the many programs of the Texas Jaycee-ettes participated in by the Midland Jaycee-ettes are, left to right, Mrs. Robert Southerland, state blue chip; Mrs. Joe Campbell, state director and coordinator between local and state organizations; Mrs. Jack Stagner Jr., "Hopping Hen;" and Mrs. Doug Henson, "SPOKE" and "Feather Your Cap."

Midland Jaycee-Ettes Assist Jaycees, Community And State

Wives of Midland Jaycees are united in an auxiliary, Jaycee-ettes of Midland, which is active in more than 100 projects each year.

The purposes of the Jaycee-ettes are to aid the Jaycees whenever called upon in the promotion of their activities, the understanding of the Jaycees and fellowship among Jaycee wives, and to serve the community through various branches of welfare and volunteer services.

The Jaycee-ettes assist their husbands on many of their projects, such as football concessions, Christmas shopping tour, Boys Club Christmas auction, West Texas Swim Meet, Labor Day rest stop, motorcycle races and Easter egg hunt. They also help the Jaycees with telephone and clerical work and the making of Jaycee vests. The upcoming District I convention will be one of the most involved projects with which the Jaycee-ettes will participate in this year.

Wives of Jaycees always are welcome and encouraged to attend Jaycee-ette meetings and functions. To interest prospective members, the club holds salad luncheons, "crazy bridge" parties and orientations to explain the purposes of the auxiliary, which has an involved internal program including committees such as sunshine, telephone, scrapbook, program, yearbook and constitution, membership, publicity, awards, ways and means and social.

Members of the Jaycee auxiliary also conduct civic projects of their own. This year they worked a great deal with the Midland Community Center for Mental Health and Mental Retardation, assisting with Monday night socials and providing special entertainment such as miniature golf, games and a Christmas party. The group also has helped the Midland Chamber of Commerce in its membership drive, the Multiple Sclerosis Association, the March of Dimes, the Big Spring State Hospital, Teen Challenge Outreach and Casa de Amigos. They recently made 20 dresses for needy girls for Christmas, and they assist an "adopted family."

The Midland Jaycee-ettes are affiliated with the Texas Jaycee-ettes and participate in a number of state projects and programs. Chapter members collect savings coupons and trading stamps to assist the Texas Jaycees, and take part in the Birthday Girl program, with this money going to aid the state Jaycee-ette president in her travels. The Midland club also participates in programs which encourage involvement such as "SPOKE," "Feather Your Cap," "Have Your Say" and GALS, and a travel program, "Hopping Hen." The most recently adopted state program, "Blue Chip," was introduced by the Midland chapter to encourage individual Jaycee-ette chapters to become strong working organizations. The Midland chapter currently is serving as State Blue Chip chairman.

Jaycee-ette officers for 1974-75 are: Mrs. Jerry Hyde, president; Mrs. Scott McKee, vice president; Mrs. Jack Stagner Jr., secretary; Mrs. John Nobles, treasurer; Mrs. Wayne Murrell, historian; Mrs. Joe Campbell, state director; Mrs. Larry Matschull and Mrs. Don Murphy, directors, and Mrs. Robert Southerland, past president.

STARVING ARTISTS SALE — The Midland Jaycee-ettes are planning a second starving artists sales Feb. 27-March 1 in Dellwood Plaza Mall. The show will feature original artwork and crafts items. For more information, contact Mrs. Joe Campbell, at 682-0606. Mrs. Gary Hopkins, pictured at left, is sale chairman, Mrs. John Nobles, center, sales treasurer, and Mrs. Bill Pike, is in charge of bookkeeping.

MEMBERSHIP, TELEPHONE — The membership committee encourages Jaycee wives to become Jaycee-ettes and contacts them about meetings and projects. Mrs. Don Murphy, left, membership director and awards chairman, is shown going about these duties, assisted by Mrs. Jerry Cox, standing, telephone committee chairman, and Mrs. Jerry Hyde, president of the Midland chapter. Mrs. Rick Prince, not shown, is the membership chairman.

Mrs. Homer Paul, Sutton Marry In Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — Bob Sutton of Midland, Tex., and Mrs. Homer Paul of Oklahoma City were married at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Crown Heights United Methodist Church, with the Rev. D. L. Hincley, Jr., assisted by the Rev. L. E. Shackelford, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. John E. Lafferty of Claremore. Sutton is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Sutton of Claremore.

Ushers for the ceremony were Jon Mosie Jr. and Jon Mosie III of Dallas, Tex.; Homer Paul Jr. and Charles William Paul of Oklahoma City and Robert Carter Nicholas of New Orleans, La. Other attendants were Sara Eleanor Mosie of Dallas, Sara Shannon Nicholas of New Orleans and Lela Paul, Jamie Helen and Jennifer Jean Paul and Laura Elaine Paul of Oklahoma City.

Following a trip to Santa Fe, N.M., the couple will reside at 2325 Belview Drive in Oklahoma City.

Civic Worker
The bride is a member of the administrative board and serves as president of the United Methodist Women of Crown Heights United Methodist Church and is a member of the board of directors of the YWCA, Oklahoma Heritage Association and is a past president of the Phi Gamma Delta Mothers Club of Oklahoma, Soroptimist Club, International and Women's Civic Club Council of Oklahoma City. She also has served as a member of the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women and has participated in the Oklahoma City Lyric Theatre.

Mrs. Bob Sutton

Sutton retired in the 1960s after 37 years with Cities Service Oil Co. He became associated with the company through the former Indian Territories Illuminating Oil Co. in 1929. He began with ITIOC in its land and lease department at Bartlesville in 1929. He was promoted to district landman for the firm at Enid, and in 1938 was given a similar assignment in Wichita, Kan. He returned to Bartlesville as superintendent of the company's headquarters land department and held that post until 1941, when the concern was merged with Cities Service Oil Co. He was appointed district landman for the company for West Texas and New Mexico.

Company Executive
He resigned from CSOC in 1943 and formed a connection with The British-American Oil Producing Co. as an executive in the land department of its headquarters offices in Tulsa. Sutton returned to Cities Service Oil Co. in 1949 and went to Midland as district landman. At the time of his retirement, he was special landman of the company's Midland District.

Sutton attended the University of Oklahoma and received a law degree from George Washington University. He is a charter member of the Permian Basin Landmen's Association and American Association of Petroleum Landmen and has been a director of the PBLA. He has been an elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Midland and member of the Midland Rotary Club.

MRS. DELPHIA NEWTON OF MIDLAND

The holidays are over. Now is the time to prepare for spring and its great promise in fashions and activity and from there to the skimpier clothing of summer, and the wonders of vacation time.

6 MONTHS AGO MRS. NEWTON JOINED PAT WALKER'S

5'11" Tall
147 1/2 Lbs.

This Is What Delphia Newton Says About Pat Walker's

For the first time in years, I've looked forward to the festivities of the Holiday Season — thanks to the Pat Walker Salon and the competent staff. Not only have I changed my size in clothing but also the style. No more long jackets to cover up the fat! I was so ashamed of and this happened so easily that one of my friends had to tell me — "Look, Slim, no more hiding that figure, wear something to 'show off' not 'cover up.'" While I was losing weight and inches and toning my whole body, inside and out, never once did I miss from my office and not having to undergo for any of my treatments, could immediately return back to the office. I feel that my short six (6) months with Pat Walker has improved my looks, my health and my personality. What a Holiday present for me, my family and friends!

Sheridan Strawn Bride Of Charles Runnestrand

Sheridan Page Strawn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Strawn, 2420 W. Kansas St., became the bride of Charles Robson Runnestrand, son of Mrs. Donald M. Oliver of Austin and Vernon C. Runnestrand of Midland, at 2 p.m. Saturday in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Charles Robson Runnestrand

Marsha Zellmer was the maid of honor and Tony Parish was best man. The ushers were Rick Burton and Bob Burton.

Mr. Strawn presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a traditional gown in Victorian styling of candlelight-velvet with full sleeves enhanced with hand-clipped French rosepoint Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice had a yoke and ring neckline of the same lace, and the A-line skirt had a wide self-ruffle at the hemline. Her rosepoint Chantilly veil was full length and was held by a band of roses. She carried a cascade of white roses and snowflake chrysanthemums.

The maid of honor had a Victorian-styled gown of avocado green velvet accented with a gold and green trim on the sleeves, skirt and bodice. She carried a nosegay of butterscotch daisy chrysanthemums.

Reception Held
The reception was held in the church parlor, with Karen Strawn, sister of the bride; Mrs. Don Jennings; Ann Eschberger and Mrs. Kenay Hunter serving in the house party.

The couple will reside at 1006 W. Rochelle St., Apartment 221, in Irving. The bride attended Angelo State University and Midland College and formerly was employed by Geomap Co. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lee High School and is an assistant golf pro at Las Colinas Country Club in Irving.

Out-of-city guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Southard of Fort Worth, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Haggard, San Marcos, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. C. Art Robison, Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Groves, Houston.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents in Midland Country Club.

Balance Produces Pleasing Look In Decorating

By ADELE FAULKNER
 Copley News Service

Even if you could afford the most expensive furnishings in the world, had a couple of original Picassos and lived in an elegant penthouse, your apartment would not be visually pleasing unless balance was achieved in the decor.

Designing a comfortable and eye-appealing living area is much like creating an art composition. The eye continually seeks balance in color, shape, direction and location.

The two most important elements of balance are weight and direction. Remember the days when you were playing on seesaws, and the same principles apply.

Balance can be formal or informal. Formal balance implies an equal distribution of weight on either side of a central point. It's the classic room design with identical objects arranged in an identical way equidistant from the center.

To my way of thinking, formal balance can be very boring and monotonous. Informal balance is much more interesting and requires more creative ability.

There are some basic rules to follow. Take, for example, the seesaw. Johnny may weigh more than Susie, but he can balance with her if he moves closer to the center. The seesaw also can be balanced if Sally joins Susie on her end of the board.

Vows Exchanged In Evening Rites

Mrs. Charles R. Hamilton

ANDREWS — The Means Memorial United Methodist Church here was the setting for the marriage at 7 p.m. Saturday of Charlotte Jeaneane Ray and Charles Richard Hamilton. The Rev. Glen McNerlin of the Assembly in Christ Church, Midland, officiated for the double ring candlelight ceremony. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Ray, 810 W. Spruce St., Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. Leland W. Hamilton of this city. Mr. Ray presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown of silk organza and crisp Venise laces. Scrolled patterned lace created a high scalloped neckline and shoulder caps and cuffs over sheer lantern sleeves. The demi-Empire bodice accented the soft A-line skirt, which was ringed with a wide band of matching Venise lace above the hemline ruffle. Her train-length mantilla of English lace, edged in the scrolled Venise lace, framed her face and flowed into a full chapel train. She carried a bouquet of Burgundy roses, stephanotis and baby's breath accented with seed pearls and English ivy. June Moorehart, organist, and Charles Kay Jr. of Odessa, soloist, provided music for the service. Kenya Ray, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmatron was Mrs. Jim Brown of Andrews, sister of the bridegroom. Lighting the candles were Julie Hamilton of Andrews, sister of the bridegroom, and Darlene Eaves of Midland. Best man was Arlington Ford Francis of Dallas. The ushers were Jimmy Browning and Michael Puckett, both of Andrews, and Tony A. Smith of Odessa. James G. Brown of Andrews was the groomsmen. A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. In the house party were Mickey Stone, Jan Middleton, Mrs. Jimmy Osterhout and Mrs. Arlington Francis, sister of the bridegroom. Special out-of-city guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Delmon Schultz of Starke, La., and Mrs. Nettie Ray of Orange, both grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. C. C. Hamilton of Lorraine, grandmother of the bridegroom. Guests also attended from DeQuincy, La. and Pine Bluff, Ark. Following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the couple will be at home at 4000 Illinois St., Apt. 128, Midland. Mr. and Mrs. Ray are graduates of Andrews High School. She is a barber's technician and manicurist with Turner's Barber Shop. He attended The University of Texas-Austin and McMurry College and is employed by Parker Drilling Co., Anchorage, Alaska.

LITTLE MISS PAGEANT — Charlesane Gardner, left, age 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gardner, and Tracy Lea Chadwick, age 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Chadwick, are the first two competitors to be entered in the second annual Our Little Miss Pageant. The pageant will be held March 6-8 in the Lee High School Auditorium. The event is sponsored by the Iota Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Chapter Announces Plans For Little Miss Pageant

The Iota Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi recently held a meeting in the home of Mrs. Scott Wilson, 3611 W. Louisiana St. Mrs. Kay Miller, president, presided. Midland's second annual "Our Little Miss Pageant" was discussed by Mrs. Dale DeBord. It was decided the pageant will be held at 7:30 p.m. March 6-8 at Lee High School Auditorium. The La Petite Division will consist of little girls 3-6 years of age, while the Little Miss Division will feature ages 7-12. Talent will be required of the latter division. Insurance will be included in the entry fee. Entry forms must be accompanied by a billfold size photograph or a 3x5 colored or black and white picture, and a letterhead from the sponsor of each entry. Entry deadline will be Feb. 22. Entry forms will be available at Wornack's or contestants may dial 682-1867 or 697-2163 for information. All entries should be returned to Little Miss Pageant, Box 2924, Midland, 79701. An introductory tea will be held March 2 at the Midland Country Club. Entries in the La Petite Division will meet from 2:30-4 p.m. and Little Miss Division hopefuls will meet from 4:50-5 p.m. Duke Jimerson will be master of ceremonies. Included among the entertainers will be a combo from the Downtown Lions Club Band. Pictures will be taken at the pageant by S and L Studios. Prizes for first place winners will be provided by Wornack's, Tyson's and Tull's. Flowers are being furnished by A-1 Floral Co. Also during the meeting, Mrs. R. G. Albertus discussed the Christmas party held at Leisure Lodge of Midland. Pictures of the event were shown. Several letters from the Indian child sponsored by the chapter were read. A program on "American Folk Songs" was presented by Mrs. Albertus and Mrs. Danny O'Grady, vice president. Mrs. O'Grady announced the next chapter social will be a Salad Dressing. Blend 1/4 pound American blue cheese crumbled, 1/4 cup grated parmesan cheese, and four anchovy filets (mashed). Cook two eggs for 1 minute and add to the cheese mixture. Gradually add one tablespoon lemon juice, 1 1/2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder, and two cups olive oil. Pour the dressing over crisp romaine. THREE STROKES OVER MAHAFFEY—

Johnny Miller Ups Tucson Lead

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Johnny Miller continued his domination of the pro golf tour, shooting a five-under-par 67 and pulling away to a three-stroke lead Saturday in the third round of the $200,000 Dean Martin-Tucson Open.

at the end of every round this year. In order, he has scores of 67, 61, 65, 64, 65, 69 and 67 this year for a stroke average of 68.0.

"I'm playing the best I've played in a long, long time and can't even sniff this guy," Red-haired Tom Watson was close in third with a 67-200.

PGA champ Lee Trevino, still weakened by flu, had a 70-213. Miller owned only a single-stroke lead when the day's play started but quickly stretched it out.

and with two big bogey shots and just missed on eagle putt. The birdie was a top-10.

GHOSTS OF TIMES PAST—

Forbes Case Not Unique

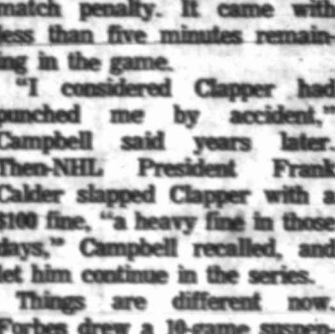

MONTREAL (AP) — Dust has long since covered over this piece of hockey history which took place in the days when horses pulled trolley cars, cigars cost a nickel and World War II still loomed on the horizon.

Two weeks ago in Bloomington, Minn., there was a stick-swinging melee. Again a Boston Bruin was involved, but left wing David Forbes wasn't even born the day that Clapper stretched Trotter out on the ice.

Sports Quickies... And How's Your Memory?

Sports in sports and, quick now, has any Southwest Conference basketball team finished in the Associated Press top 10 poll since its inception in 1957? ... Philadelphia Phillies personnel director Paul Owens looked at the $1.75 million award pitcher Catfish Hunter by the New York Yankees and remarked, "When you realize you can buy a franchise for only $11 million and get 40 roster players and a complete farm system, it's incredible."

Battle Scene

When John Perelli, Santa Barbara, Calif., golf pro, went into the women's rest room on the eighth hole, they didn't arrest him, they pinned a medal on him. He rescued a gal who forgot to turn off her remote control cart, which followed her into the clubhouse and pinned her against the fixtures in a private cubicle.

Five Residential Building Permits Issued By City

Midland's new home construction outlook received another shot in the arm during the third week of January with five residential building permits issued amounting to $174,000.

So far this year, permits for 12 new homes have been issued by the city inspection department compared to a total of five issued during the same period last year.

New home construction cost figures total $435,000 this year compared to a three-week total of only $200,000 last year.

Total construction costs amount to $642,293, as reflected by building permits issued during the first three weeks of 1975.

Three of the new residential building permits were issued to Harvey Langston Builders for homes to be located at 4504 and 4512 W. Dengar St. and 4606 Farmin St. The homes reflect a construction cost of $30,000 each.

A new home permit was issued to Paul Noel for a $39,000 residence to be located at 2609 Ward St., and the fifth home permit went to Grafa Construction Co. for a $45,000 home at 2509 Stutz Place.

Commercial repair and alteration permits totaled $3,000 last week. Lloyd Innerarity was issued a $1,000 permit for alterations on the first and second floors of the Oil and Gas Building, 105 W. Wall St.

A $2,000 commercial alteration permit went to Vaughn & Sons for interior remodeling on the first floor of the Vaughn Building, 400 W. Texas St.

Residential alteration and repair permits totaled $30,452 during the week on the strength of 11 applications.

These permits were issued to Jack Brown, 2500 North L. St., $8,000, add swimming pool; J. W. Hodges, 2507 County Club Drive, $1,000, add porch; S. C. Jones Jr., 4612 Leddy St., $1,000, engine garage; Ralph Cooley, 1 Oak Lawn St., $4,000, home alterations; C. G. Smith, 1008 Lenham St., $7,120, remodel home; S. A. Yates, 4115 Roosevelt St., $2,000, engine patio; Left Olson, 2402 Bedford Drive, $5,000, home interior alterations; N. A. Green, 2701 Monty St., $150, enlarge storage room; J. C. Womley Jr., 4507 Anetta Drive, $200, engine garage; Carl Perle, 407 Pleasant St., $600, engine garage; and Jack Hildreth, 2509 Shannon St., $500, add storage room.

SALE ANNOUNCED — Robert B. Sunderland, left, and Wm. B. Johnston announce Saturday the closing of the sale of controlling interest of Western United Life Insurance Co. of Midland.

Controlling Interest In Midland Firm Sold

S. E. McCreless, chairman of the board, and Robert B. Sunderland, president of American Security Life Insurance Co. of San Antonio and Wm. B. Johnston, president of FNB Development Corp. of Midland, jointly announced Saturday the completion last Thursday of the sale of controlling interest of Western United Life Insurance Co. of Midland. American Securities acquired approximately 90 per cent of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of Western United. The purchase was authorized by the State Board of Insurance with the price at $6 per share.

American Security had, as of Sept. 30, 1974, capital and surplus of $6,068,564 based in each instance on unaudited interim statement.

Western Life soon will be merged into American Security, and in connection with the merger, all remaining shareholders of Western United Life will be able to tender their shares at $6 per share.

Commission Eyes Changes In State Real Estate Law

Austin Bureau
AUSTIN — Changes in Texas real estate law proposed by a House study subcommittee were reviewed at a meeting of the State Real Estate Commission, which generally approved the recommendations.

Commission Administrator Andy James told the commissioners that bills incorporating some of the proposed revisions would be ready for introduction in the Legislature soon.

In the proposals reviewed, the licensing act would be extensively rewritten to include nearly everybody who acts as a real estate agent. Educational requirements would become a prerequisite for a salesman's license. Filing fees for brokers would be fixed at $40, and $20 for salesmen, and annual recertification could be required.

One recommendation for a state recovery fund to replace surety bonds for real estate operators was approved despite the objections of one commissioner that it was against free enterprise. James acknowledged that such a change would take the matter away from the insurance companies and place it with the state.

Educational requirements were not spelled out at the commission meeting but it was agreed that the revised law should contain a provision that a college degree or its equivalent should be required for a broker's license by 1985.

A proposal to increase membership of the commission from six to nine members was rejected on grounds that it would make the group too unwieldy. A residency requirement of one year for real estate dealers was reduced to six months in a compromise. In a revision of the law on advertising, the designation "real estate broker" would be required in addition to the name of the broker.
