Phillips To Final Atoka Discovery

Phillips Petroleum Co. was preparing to calculate absolute, open flow potential at No. 1-BB University Lands, Ward County Atoka discovery, 12 miles northwest of Pyote, and three miles west of the War-Wink South multizone field.

During one-hour four-point tests through perforations at 17,166-17,171 feet, it flowed natural, the following gauges: on a 3-16-inch choke, 702,000 cubic feet per day; on a 6-64-inch choke, 1,271 million cubic feet per day; on a 7-64-inch choke, 1,606 million cubic feet daily, and on a 9-64-inch choke, 2,171 million cubic feet per day.

Staked as 20,500-foot Fusselman searcher, it was drilled to 20,522 feet, and is plugged back to 17,980 feet, in a 5/8-inch liner hung from 10,562-17,762 feet. A liner also was hung from 17,792-20,522 feet, and unsuccessful tests were made through Fusselman perforations at 19,957-20,058 feet.

It spots 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 35, block 18, U.S.

Eddy Prospect Reports Gauge

Cities Service Oil Co. No. 1-B Tracy, one-mile northeast out-post to Morrow production in the Carlsbad, South field of Eddy County, N.M., flowed six hours, making a trace of distillate, 35 barrels of load water, with gas rate increasing to the maximum volume of 3.5 million cubic feet per day.

Flow was through a 25-64-inch choke and Morrow perforations at 11,597-11,744 feet, natural. It has been shut in for pressure buildup.

Location is 2,045 feet from south and 479 feet from east lines of section 18-22s-27e, one mile southeast of Carlsbad.

Gulf To Reenter Ward Field Well

Gulf Oil Corp. has filed application for permit to re-enter and plug back to 8,100 feet as a Devonian wildcat at No. 1 Edwards Fee, et al, former producer in the Arenas (Ellenburger) field of Ward County. Originally drilled by Gulf, it was completed Oct. 16, 1971, from the Ellenburger, for 70 barrels of 47.6-gravity oil and 74 barrels of water daily, through perforations at 10,143-10,291 feet.

During drilling operations, it recovered an estimated 800 feet of free oil, and reversed out 120 feet of drilling fluid below the sub, on a drillstem test from 7,460-7,535 feet, probably in the Devonian.

It is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 7, block B-18, PSL survey, four miles east of Monahans.

Thieu Gives Up Presidency

Move May Have Come Too Late America Blamed For South Viets' Military Losses

WASHINGTON (AP)—The resignation of President Nguyen Van Thieu removes a major obstacle to a negotiated peace in South Vietnam, but some U.S. officials said today they think it may have come too late.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger met for an hour and five minutes at the White House with President Ford to discuss the implications of Thieu's resignation. Kissinger refused to answer reporters' questions about developments in South Vietnam.

But White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said at a regular briefing following the meeting: "The United States expects to be working with the new (South Vietnamese) government." He added that Ford thinks his $1-billion aid request for Saigon still should be approved.

By voice vote and with limited debate, the Senate adopted a resolution calling for negotiations for a cease-fire in Vietnam and urging Ford and Kissinger to ask "all Vietnamese parties to reopen discussion toward implementation of the Paris Peace accords."

The House Appropriations Committee was expected to go into executive session for testimony from Kissinger and Gen. Frederick Weyand, Army chief of staff, on the President's request for nearly $1 billion in military and humanitarian aid for South Vietnam.

Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, said Thieu's resignation "should ease things a bit." Sparkman said: "There can be negotiations now. And it might moderate things here, too."

State department official said: "But Saigon is just hanging there, ripe for the picking. I can't see why they would wait and let the fruit fall when they can just reach for it now."

America Blamed For South Viets' Military Losses

SAIGON (AP)—A tearful President Nguyen Van Thieu resigned tonight in an eleventh-hour bid for a settlement with Communist-led forces who have driven almost to the gates of Saigon. He bitterly accused the United States of moves that he claimed "led the South Vietnamese people to death."

The Viet Cong had demanded Thieu's ouster as a first step toward talks. But some U.S. experts say that fighting in South Vietnam so favors the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong, who have taken three-quarters of the country, it is doubtful they would be willing to negotiate even with Thieu gone.

Talks Urged
 In Paris, the Viet Cong delegation called for a total U.S. withdrawal from South Vietnam and the establishment of a national concord regime in Saigon. The French government urgently called for talks between South Vietnam and the Viet Cong to set up such a regime to settle the political future of the embattled country.

At Clark Air Base in the Philippines, meanwhile, about 1,000 Americans and Vietnamese arrived in the largest such airlift yet from South Vietnam. U.S. officials reportedly bypassed South Vietnamese immigration officials to put many of the Vietnamese aboard. Other Vietnamese evacuees arrived in Guam.

New Chief Named
 Thieu said South Vietnam could not win militarily and blamed the United States for its failure, saying Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger was unable to perceive that the 1973 Paris agreement "led the South Vietnamese people to death."

Thieu himself declared, "There will be more challenges and fierce fighting in the near future."
 Thieu, 52, named Vice President Tran Van Huong, 71, to succeed him and told the nation in a 90-minute television address that the new government "shall take its briefcase to the negotiating table." But there was speculation that Huong, who is in poor health and virtually blind, would resign along with the entire Cabinet and that 61-year-old Tran Van Lam, the

Resignation Not Promising For Anti-Communist Elements

By WILLIAM L. RYAN, AP Special Correspondent
 President Nguyen Van Thieu's resignation makes prospects good for negotiations to end the war but far from bright so far as anti-Communist elements in South Vietnam are concerned.

From here on, what takes place in the remaining quarter involved in bringing into being the sort of caretaker-type regime that can hold down the administration in what's left of South Vietnam while the North Vietnamese and PRG prepare to negotiate what they've wanted to negotiate all along.

This suggests a likelihood of a game of musical chairs in Saigon until a government is created that meets the demands of the North Vietnamese and the PRG.

The military realities in the remaining quarter of Saigon's realm make it futile to expect that the North Vietnamese Communists and the PRG would accept any administration that bore any trace either of Thieu's regime or American influence.

What the PRG and its sponsor want is an interim regime with the look of "third force" that can be called neutralist. But it will have to be one wherein the PRG will be strongly represented as one of the elements.

The United States at this point appears to have little choice but to watch events take place without having much influence on the outcome.

As military victors, Hanoi and the PRG are clearly holding all the trump cards and in a position to call the shots, strongly backed by the power of the Communist world. Thus they undoubtedly intend to lay down the ground rules for any negotiations that might follow upon the Thieu resignation.

The interview, which begins at 9 p.m. CDT, will be conducted by three CBS newsmen, including Walter Cronkite.

Ford Interview Slated Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford appears on CBS television tonight in an hour-long interview being broadcast live from the White House.

Announcement of plans to build the library to house tapes, presidential papers and materials from other periods in Nixon's career was made jointly Sunday by the university and the former chief executive. The acquisition of presidential materials by the library is contingent upon a successful challenge to legislation requiring that all Nixon's presidential materials remain in Washington, D.C.

In other reports concerning Nixon:—Penthouse magazine says that for several months in 1970 a government-employed, foreign-born house painter, "apparently controlled by one of the intelligence agencies," bugged the Oval Office in the White House, perhaps without Nixon's knowledge.

—A former Internal Revenue Service auditor, Ralph F. LaCross, says Nixon's name was expunged from tax records to cover up his underpayment of income taxes. But the former chief of IRS internal security, Francis I. Geibel, says he ordered Nixon's name removed from tax records because of leaks to the press about Nixon's returns.

—Nixon gives his wife credit for saving his life when he was desperately ill last October, according to the current issue of McCall's magazine. Mrs. Nixon credits God and the doctors.

Nixon To Give Tapes To Library

Action Hinges On Approval By Courts

Life Under Communists: Blood Bath Or Love Bath?

By PETER ARNETT
 SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP)—Crucifixion, beheading, stoning? Or packed movie houses, open restaurants and school days, as usual? Those are the two views of life in the 19 provinces of South Vietnam occupied this year by the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese.

An estimated 7 million people have been brought under Communist rule. Depending on who you talk to, their life is either a blood bath or a love bath.

U.S. Embassy officials are the proponents of the blood bath theory. They are soliciting Western newsmen in Saigon with details of horrendous crimes they claim are committed by the Communist occupation forces.

The South Vietnamese government will say only that it has "some confirming evidence." But young Embassy aides with sheaves of pink copies of reports to Washington tell of the execution of 300 soldiers and policemen on the streets of Ban Me Thuot and the wholesale killing of half-American babies in the coastal city of Nha Trang.

One U.S. official admitted: "Well, honestly, we are making a lot of this issue because it can affect ongoing deliberations of the aid program here. We know some congressmen are already wavering to our side."

The other version of the occupation story is told by representatives of the Viet Cong's Provisional Revolutionary Government in their weekly news conferences at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air base.

"We will treat humanely, generously and honestly all those who have cooperated with the adversaries provided they stop sabotaging us and stop serving the interests of the Thieu administration," said a Viet Cong spokesman on Saturday.

Some foreign newsmen stationed in Hanoi, the North Vietnamese capital, have visited Da Nang, the second largest city in South Vietnam which was given up without a fight three weeks ago.

"The people are enjoying a normal life," Chiaki Hirabayashi of the Japanese Communist party newspaper Akahata reported on Sunday. He reported most of the gas stations and auto repair shops were open, that five movie houses were operating, and children were going to school.

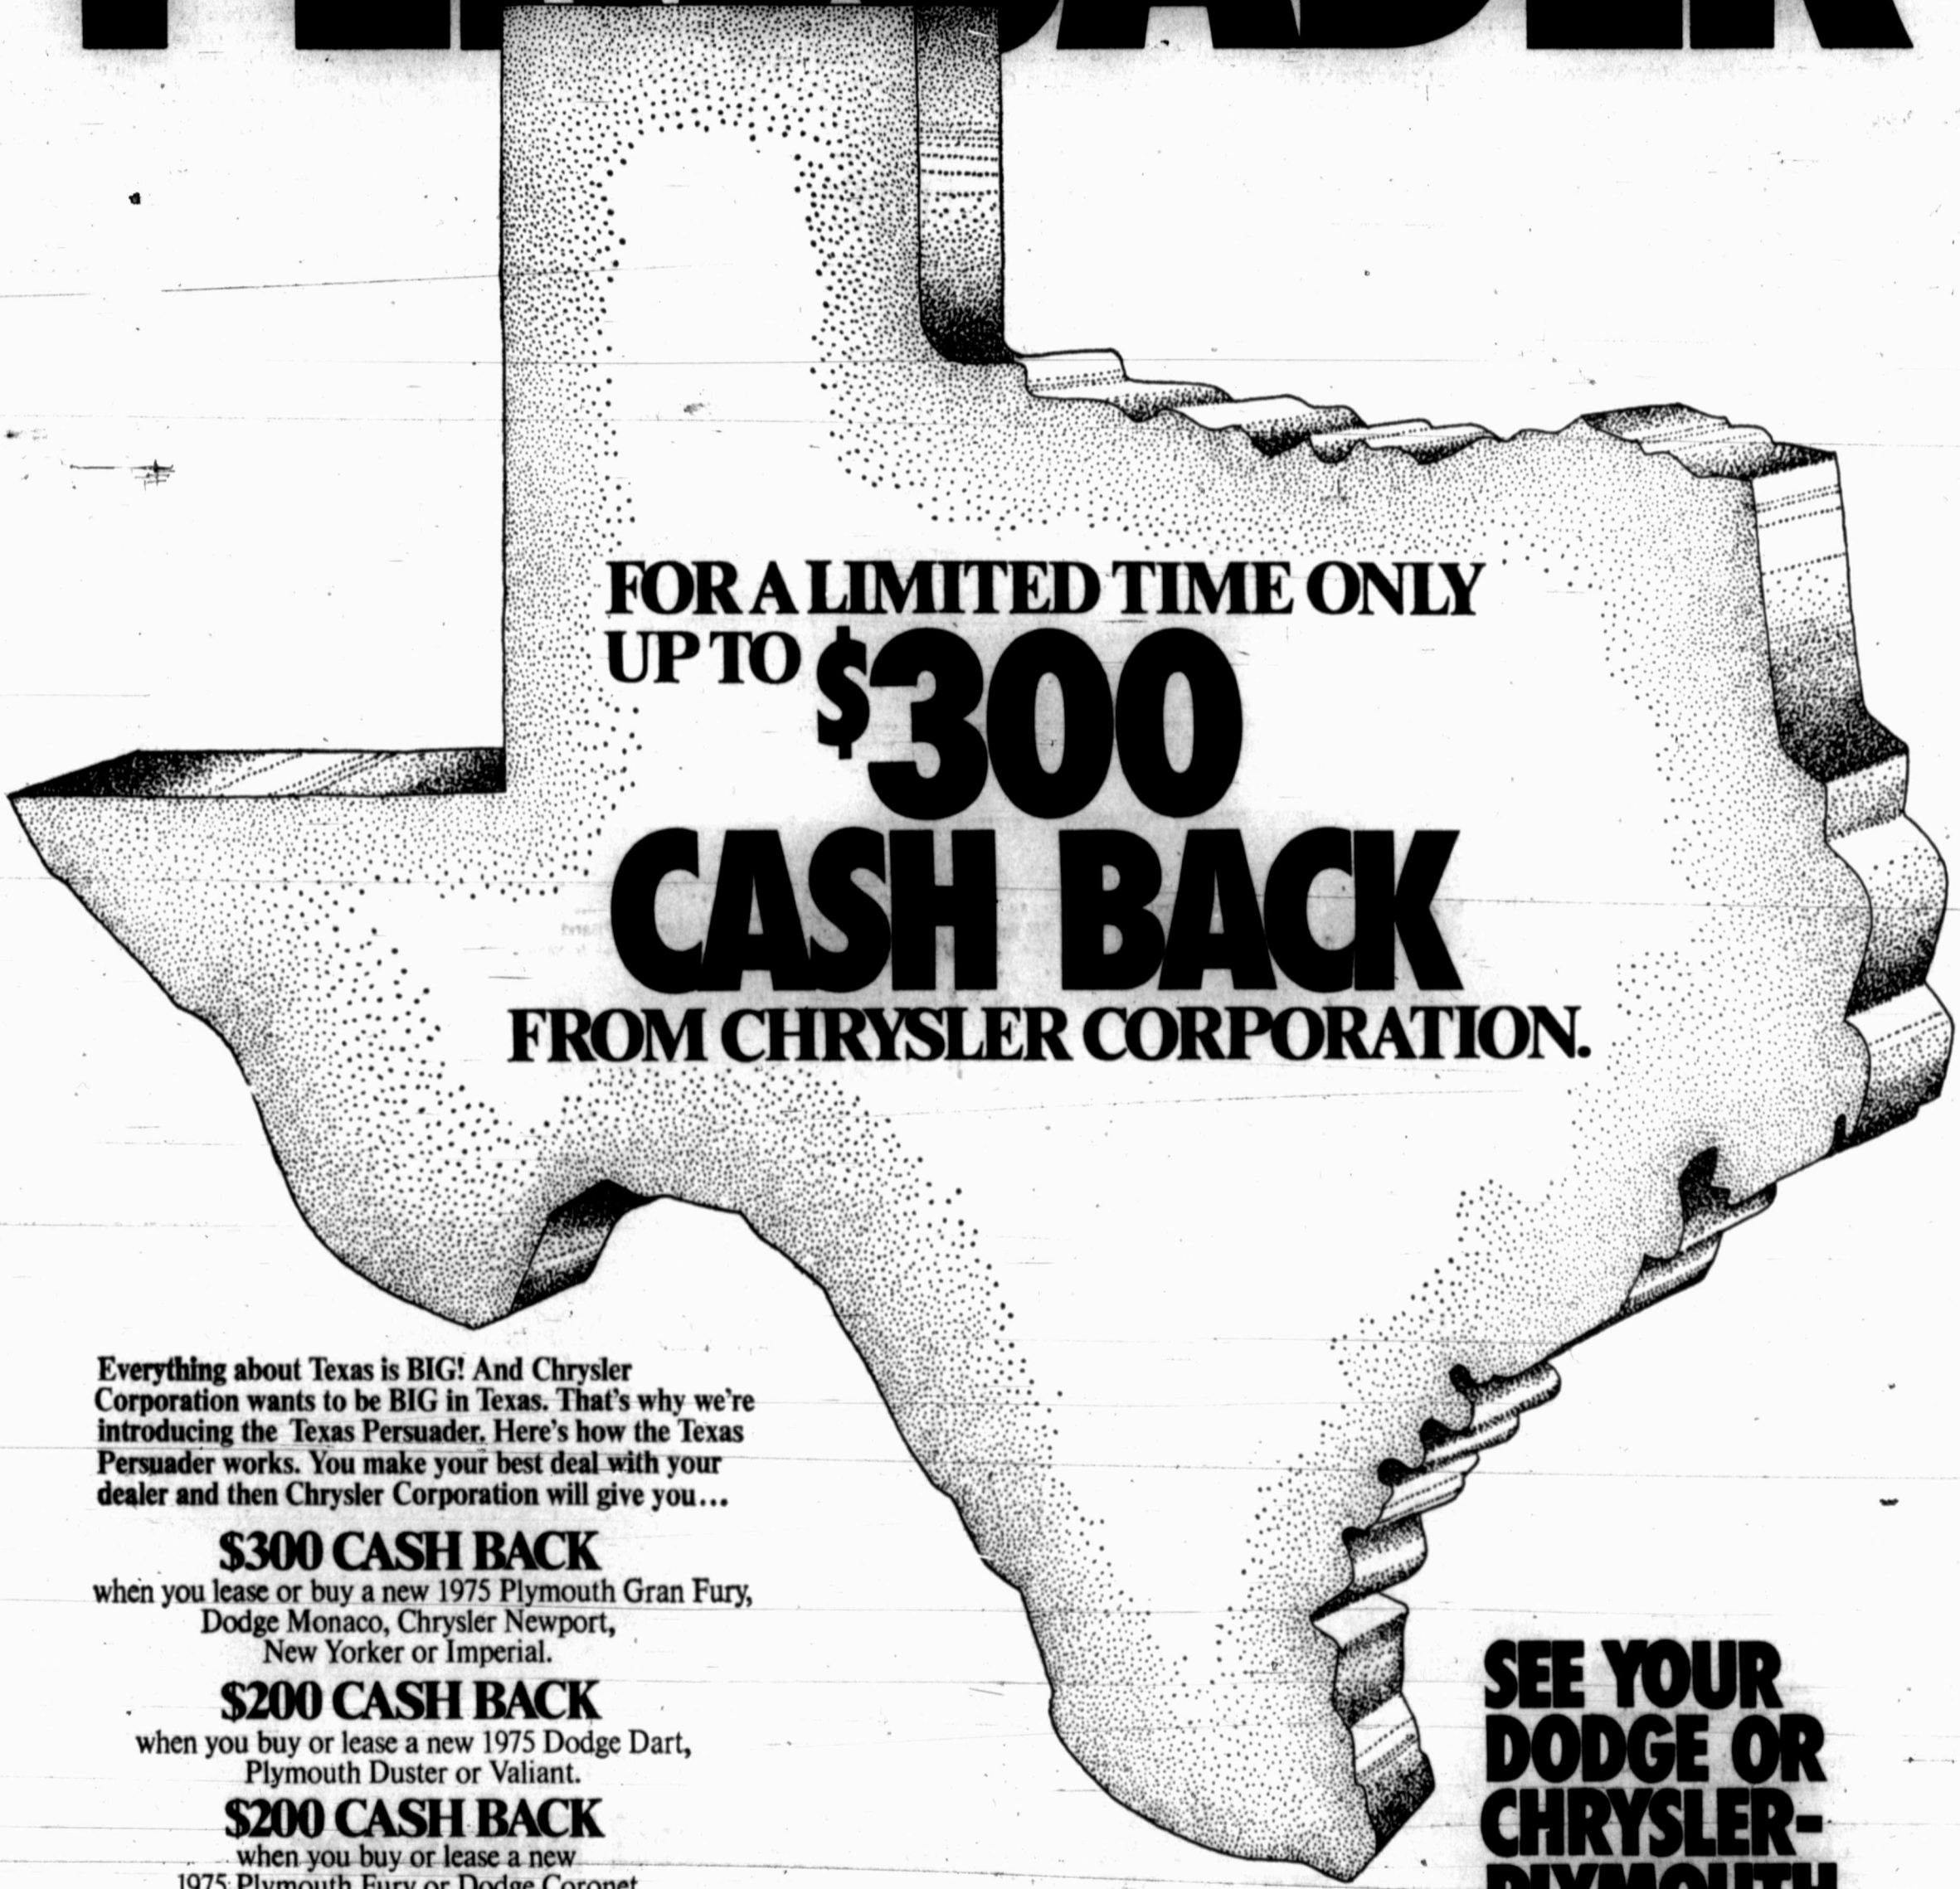

A reporter for Agence France Presse, the French news agency, sent a similar report from Da Nang.

Many of the Vietnamese who fled from Communist-controlled regions tell the same story. But U.S. officials insist that a Communist takeover means the methodical, systematic execution of officials and officers who worked for the Saigon government.

"There are a million South Vietnamese on the blood debt list. They are marked for certain death," asserted an American who has spent years documenting this theory.

Dear Abby 'Weak And Foolish' Warns Others

— By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have no one to talk to, so I am going to cry on your shoulder, if you'll let me.

It's an old story. An affair that never should have started. Nine years ago I fell in love with my boss. (We were both married.) I had always been a good wife and mother, and had a religious background, but I wasn't strong enough to resist this man.

After eight years of deceiving my husband, I filed for a divorce and told my husband everything. My lover told me that he would do the same. Well, you know the rest. He never did. So now I am divorced, and I don't have my husband or my lover.

I have prayed to God to help me stop loving this married man because now I know that he will never leave his wife and family.

Will I ever get over this, Abby? I desperately need some encouragement. Maybe this letter will keep some other woman from making the same mistake that I did.

WEAK AND FOOLISH

DEAR WEAK: Yes, you will get over it, but not until you stop dwelling on the past and blaming yourself for your "foolishness" and weakness. There is a lesson to be learned here: "Don't discard the old kettle until you're sure the new one holds water."

DEAR ABBY: Your answer to the woman who was so deeply in debt was all right as far as it went, but it didn't go far enough.

We were also in debt over our heads. Then we heard about Consumer Credit Counseling Service, which turned out to be the answer to our prayers.

It is a non-profit agency that will figure your wages and debts, and contact all your creditors who usually are willing to cut your payments down to where you can handle them. Then every payday, you pay the Consumer Credit people a set amount, and THEY pay off your bills. That way you don't have any creditors hounding you, and you keep your self-respect.

Someone helped me by telling me about Consumer Credit; now it's my turn to help others.

GRATEFUL IN OREGON

DEAR GRATEFUL: Apparently, Consumer Credit Counseling has been a good friend to many, because yours was one of many letters I received recommending it. Thanks for writing. I'll spread the word.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

WHAT IS THE TRUTH?

"Thy Word is Truth" (John 17:17)

by Bryan Bost

Most people have their own ideas about religion. Whether they know what the Bible says on a subject or not, they still have their own idea. One of the themes of this column has been that only the contents of the Bible are authoritative and that opinions that conflict with Biblical evidence should be discarded. As Jesus prayed to the Father, "Thy Word is truth."

A good example is the subject of baptism. Most people regard baptism as not being necessary for salvation. While it is a good practice, they maintain that it has nothing to do with a person's salvation. However, the Bible disagrees with this commonly held idea. The Bible says that God forgives our sins when we are baptized. In fact, the Bible says that "baptism now saves you" (1 Peter 3:21). Previous ideas about baptism should be abandoned when the truth of the Bible is discovered.

Since the Bible is to be our guide, we should be sure that what we believe is based on what the Bible says. So, if the subject is baptism or anything else, find out what the Bible says and form your conclusions on the basis of the Biblical evidence.

Fetus Decides Time Of Birth

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — It's the fetus who decides when the time has come to be born, says a New Zealand obstetrician and gynecologist.

Dr. Graham Liggins of the University of Auckland said at the annual meeting of the Obstetrical and Gynecological Assembly of Southern California here that he and his colleagues learned that the fetus at the proper time releases a pair of substances that trigger the release of other chemicals in the mother's uterus to induce labor.

He said the key organ in the timing process is the fetal brain, more specifically a region of the brain called the hypothalamus.

The hypothalamus' job is to integrate information coming to it from all over the body by way of the fetal nervous system and circulatory system in the form of electrical impulses and hormones in the blood.

The information that the hypothalamus receives and coordinates tells it the degree of maturity of each of the organ systems at any given moment.

Eventually — usually around 40 weeks — the signals reaching the hypothalamus tell it that all organ systems are mature enough to go it alone in the outside world.

Midland's Finest!

The City of Midland has one of the finest, best-equipped, best-trained and most efficient police departments to be found anywhere.

But the department is having its problems, resulting primarily from money and manpower shortages.

This worries Chief Harold Wallace and his dedicated associates. It concerns them because it hampers their efforts to achieve the high goals they have set for themselves.

This also concerns most Midlanders, who appreciate the efficient service provided by the police department through the years.

The drastic increase in the crime rate, in line with the national trend, is trouble enough in itself, but when a police department does not have sufficient manpower to cope with it, the matter becomes doubly critical.

Armed robbery in the Tall City is said to have become almost commonplace in recent months. The crime rate increased by 39.48 per cent last year.

In a recent interview Chief Wallace told Reporter-Telegram reporter Buddy Baker that the department "has reached the saturation point where we're not keeping up with the calls. We're having to neglect some of them... but we're not culling them — yet."

The chief went on to explain that the department needs two more detectives. The 13 detectives now on the force are having to work overtime, without getting paid for the extra hours.

To make matters even more difficult, any promotions to the ranks of the detectives would have to come from the patrol division... but that division is five men short of its authorized strength.

No wonder Chief Wallace and his men are asking, "Where do we go from here?" There was a time when criminals didn't stop here, or if they did, they didn't tarry long, due to the widely-known effectiveness of the Midland Police Department. That was during the time when the city was smaller and the police department was fully staffed.

It should be pointed out, however, that each offense report referred to the detective division is worked as promptly as possible, although it may not be worked to a successful conclusion... as the division personnel would prefer.

Yes, the city manager and members of the city council are aware of the problem.

The answer, of course, is to recruit additional personnel. This will require increased funding for the department. The council, however, doesn't have much choice in the matter. It is something which has to be done.

Midlanders long have been strong supporters of their fine police department. They will not back down now.

NICK THIMMESCH—

U.S. Credibility Is Suffering Worldwide

WASHINGTON—It's going to hurt us a lot when and if South Vietnam falls to the Communists. The glib and self-serving prophets will declare "good riddance" and try to think about something else.

Fifty thousand American lives make us feel. So does the knowledge that our national honor has been defiled, and the notion that we would help a nation threatened or invaded by another is discredited.

After all we put into Vietnam, we must smart at the growing criticism that when America gives its word, it doesn't amount to much. Iran and Pakistan don't put too much stock in our word. The South Vietnamese are bitter about it. Japan grows skeptical.

Israel is shrewd enough to keep us as an ally and friend but not to enter into formal mutual pact.

Confronted with the humiliation of Vietnam and the awareness that those hundreds of thousands of refugees are largely our responsibility, it's understandable that the resultant emotional boil will cause people to pass the blame.

President Gerald Ford also took a swipe at Thieu, but for his military strategy, and hung most of the blame on Congress. And standing there, facing daily press conferences in the Pentagon is Defense Secretary James Schlesinger, uttering the necessary dismal comment on what pass. Somehow sequestered from all this is Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize for negotiating the 1973 Paris accords.

Though President Thieu is portrayed as a heavy, there is merit in his argument that South Vietnam was victim to the terms negotiated by the United States back in 1973, terms which allowed some 225,000 North Vietnamese troops and another 50,000 Viet Cong to remain in South Vietnam.

What were those Communist forces going to do, twiddle their thumbs until this pseudo-peace marinated the land? The patient, even heroic, Communists just waited until the U.S. Congress worked its will in July, 1973, barring any further U.S. military air activity in Indochina.

Though the United States had given its word to South Vietnam that we would replace South Vietnamese equipment on a one-to-one basis—the leaders in Hanoi knew that American will had weakened. Presidents Nixon and Ford and Secretaries Kissinger and Schlesinger had warned Congress of military buildups in South Vietnam by the enlarging Communist forces.

Additionally, Kissinger, as far back as March, 1973, began sending notes of protest to North Vietnam for its violations of the Paris accords, violations based on the continued infiltration of North Vietnamese troops into the South.

With Nixon crippled by Watergate, the Administration wilted before Congress. As Kissinger pointed out recently, the South Vietnamese, since last May, received only ammunition and fuel from the United States. They did not receive spare parts, planes or other military equipment.

Meanwhile, the Soviet Union and Communist China—our two great detente partners—increased their shipments of military equipment to North Vietnamese forces. Some detente.

One favorite game of those in this town who don't care about Vietnam is to argue that the Israelis fight manfully and the South Vietnamese don't. True, the Israelis fight extremely well for their country. However, their leaders would never allow a third-party to negotiate the presence of 225,000 Arab troops inside their borders. Nor does Israel want American troops occupying its land and taking over its wars the way we did with South Vietnam.

A Tail He Can't Shake

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By JACK ANDERSON with Les Whitten

WASHINGTON—It looks suspiciously as if some distinguished members of Congress may have sticky fingers.

In late 1973, 16 rare aluminum pennies were shown around Capitol Hill. Only two of them have been returned. The rest have mysteriously disappeared.

The missing 14 coins, according to experts, are worth thousands of dollars. This has created an awkward predicament for the U.S. Mint, which has tried ever so delicately to retrieve the rare pennies from the Senate and House banking committees.

After repeated efforts had failed to recover the coins, the Mint's frustrated director, Mrs. Mary Brooks, considered turning the matter over to the Secret Service.

But she thought better of the idea. She was reluctant, understandably, to instigate an investigation of the committees that oversee her own operations.

The strange case of the missing pennies goes back to the copper shortage. To save copper, the moneymakers thought maybe they should mint pennies from aluminum.

This required special legislation, which the Senate and House Banking committees were considering. Mrs. Brooks distributed 16 aluminum prototypes to the committee members, so they could see what the proposed aluminum pennies would look like.

Meanwhile, copper prices began to drop and the aluminum penny idea was abandoned. The aluminum prototypes, accordingly, were sent to the Philadelphia mint to be melted down — that is, except for the 14 still held by the sticky-fingered legislators.

Which committee members kept the coins? Mrs. Brooks confessed to us that she has no idea. Spokesmen for both banking committees assured us they are trying to find out.

But the director of the Mint still doesn't want to offend her overseers on Capitol Hill. "I'm not worried," she told us sweetly. "The coins will show up eventually. I'm sure of that."

Footnote: It is illegal, incidentally, for anyone to own coin patterns struck after 1916. This doesn't diminish the under-the-table value, however, of the 14 aluminum pennies.

WATCH ON WASTE—The Senate whose members talk a lot about economy, are preparing quietly to vote another $40 million for themselves to hire more staff help.

If the past is prologue, many of the new staff members would wind up at election time doing political work for their senatorial patrons.

The argument is that the senior senators wind up with most of the available employees. Sen. James Eastland, D-Miss., the Judiciary chairman, controls a budget, for example, of almost $5 million. Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., the Commerce chairman, has $3.2 million to spend.

Moreover, Israel is blessed with a sizable, affluent, influential cheering section in the United States, an advantage South Vietnam doesn't enjoy.

When President Kennedy sent those 18,000 troops into Vietnam, he made that war a big fight. We came to own that war, and the South Vietnamese were subjugated to our pledges. They faced a relentless, tough foe, one which exploited domestic turmoil in the United States. Persevering and heroic as the North Vietnamese are, they are also butchers who do their grisly best without gas chambers or ovens.

Now, through a chain of tragic circumstances—which will haunt the United States for years—it appears the North Vietnamese have prevailed. The assurance America gives other countries is a bit shabby these days.

INSIDE REPORT—

Ford Forces Again Playing 'Hardball'

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON—Frustrated by a chaotic "reform" Congress beyond the control of Democratic chairmen who cannot deliver the votes of their committees, President Ford is on the verge of imposing another dollar import tax on oil May 1 to renew his energy confrontation with Capitol Hill.

Hopeful compromise talk of last month has vanished. Barring a late reversal, energy legislation being written in the House will contain strong controls abhorrent to Mr. Ford. That would leave the President two choices: do nothing or return to his old plan of import taxes. "I'd say," a Ford policymaker told us, "there's an 80 per cent chance we'll go back to playing hardball"—that is, reimpose import taxes.

Renewed confrontation probably dooms any government action on the continuing but momentarily invisible energy crisis. This shows that government divided between a Republican President and Democratic Congress can menace the nation when rank-and-file Democrats, under the banner of procedural "revolution," subvert the old committee chairmen system leaving nothing responsible in its place.

The President's energy program ordered a $3-a-barrel import tax on oil for one reason: to prod Congress into doing something.

It worked, with this agreement reached late in February: the first $1 levy would stay, but the President would not impose the second and third dollar tariffs; Congress would hold back on overriding Mr. Ford's veto of a bill suspending the tariff increases; both sides would negotiate toward an overall energy compromise.

Furthermore, signs of compromise quickly became evident: Congress would move toward the President's desire to end oil price controls in return for abandonment of the import tax. But committee chairmen negotiating with Federal Energy administrator Frank Zarb — Reps. John Dingell of Michigan and Al Ullman of Oregon — did not represent the tumultuous tone of a freshman-stacked Democratic majority in revolt against tradition.

As chairman of the energy subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee, Dingell faced internal problems. Seven of the subcommittee's ten Democrats came from the huge freshman class (including three notable fireeaters, Reps. Richard Ottinger of New York, Toby Moffett of Connecticut, and most heatedly, Andrew Maguire of New Jersey). These freshmen are led by a veteran liberal fighter, Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Texas.

While agreeing in principle to five-year decontrol of "old" oil (domestic fields producing before 1972, now frozen at $5.25 a barrel), Dingell recently confided to administration officials he was being overridden by a subcommittee members. Those officials suspected Dingell was being "a little bit slippery." Whatever the truth, his subcommittee's actions very nearly ruined hopes for compromise.

Dingell had agreed to administration language on how to ratify an emergency domestic plan for another oil embargo. But the subcommittee's Democrats were following the post-Watergate fetish for hamstringing the President. They adopted an amendment by freshman Rep. Tim Wirth of Colorado requiring double approval by Congress — now and again when implemented — of any emergency plan, disregarding Dingell's agreement.

The subcommittee next considered rolling back "old" oil prices to $4 a barrel but held that up at least temporarily when administration officials claimed it would ultimately mean less oil at higher prices. Resuming work Monday, the subcommittee adopted a Maguire amendment (previously derided by Dingell) for government-ordered reduction of gasoline without rationing, which may well result in long fuel-pump lines. Clearly the subcommittee is moving toward more controls, not less, and therefore confrontation, not compromise.

The challenge to Ullman's control of his Ways and Means Committee, working on energy tax legislation, is less severe. Nevertheless, Ullman lacks authority to bull through a compromise, and Ways and Means Democrats are intent on an import quota plan which the administration claims will lead to allocation controls.

Further compounding the chaos, the Senate has been moving on a totally different track. The Senate bill passed last week encompasses Sen. Henry M. Jackson's scheme to give state governments a grab-bag full of conservation proposals from which to choose. It has no House counterpart and is viewed with contempt by the administration ("Sheer nonsense," contends one top official).

Unless a miraculous compromise emerges from House committees this week, President Ford will have to decide whether to impose the second dollar import tax May 1 with the prospect of a third dollar later, provoking a fight to override his veto of the bill suspending the import tax — which is likely to succeed.

Some energy advisers feel confrontation will gain nothing. But Zarb is expected to push for renewal of the import tax. The $3-a-barrel import tax was intended to get Congress moving. But thanks to impotent leadership and rebellious junior members, Congress moved directly opposite to White House thinking. Renewing the $3 edict would attempt to move Congress toward the Ford position.

That is much more doubtful. The new game of energy "hardball" may instead result in no action at all on a problem of crisis proportions — the poisonous combination of divided government and a leaderless Congress.

And Sen. Harrison Williams, D-N.J., the Labor chairman, isn't far behind with a $2.8 million budget.

Their committee payrolls are fat in contrast with such new senators as Gary Hart, D-Colo., John Glenn, D-Ohio, and Jake Garn, R-Utah, who scarcely have enough clerical help to keep up with their mail.

The extra $40 million, it is argued, would give the junior senators a break. But it is more likely that the new recruits merely would swell the political force on Capitol Hill.

The $40 million would permit the hiring of more than 1,000 new staff members. But they would need space to work and Capitol Hill already is overcrowded. Still more money would have to be appropriated, therefore, to provide additional facilities.

We have had access, meanwhile, to a secret tally of the senators' payrolls. This shows many senators aren't using the funds already available to them.

Sen. William Scott, R-Va., for one, has raised a howl for more staff members to help him with his committee work. Yet he left almost $190,000 of his "clerk hire" money unspent last year.

Sen. Robert Stafford, R-Vt., also wants more staff help, yet he didn't spend $143,000 that was available for this purpose last year. Sen. James Pearson, R-Kan., another advocate of more staff money, left $134,000 in the till.

Here are others who want more money but didn't spend what they had: Sens. Edward Brooke, R-Mass., $86,400 left over; Clifford Case, R-N.J., $120,000 unspent; Carl Curtis, R-Neb., $46,500; Hiram Fong, R-Hawaii, $100,000; Cliff Hansen, R-Wyo., $80,000; Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., $66,000; William Roth, R-Del., $51,000; Robert Taft, R-Ohio, $58,000 and John Tower, R-Tex., $78,000.

Congress would serve the public better by cutting down, not building up the payroll in Washington.

WITCH HUNT—After we exposed drug trafficking by Paraguayan officials, the military government of dictator Alfredo Stroessner began a witch hunt for our sources in Paraguay.

We now have learned that they arrested a newsman, Roberto Thompson, and held him illegally for three months simply on suspicion. But finally, Stroessner's secret police realized they had blundered and Thompson was released.

Bible Verse

Then said he unto the disciples, "It is impossible but that offenses will come; but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones."—Luke 17:1-2.

Pre-Election Violence Erupts In Northern Portugal Today

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Pre-election violence erupted in northern Portugal today, and more than 20 persons were reported injured in several incidents.

Armed leftists besieged members of the moderate Center Social Democrat (CDS) party holding a campaign rally in a theater in Guimaraes. Diplomatic sources said the leftists stoned the theater, and military units were deployed to protect the CDS members. But the siege continued.

One soldier and two other persons were reported wounded by gunfire at Guimaraes. A Lisbon newspaper said units of the 2nd Light Artillery Regiment in Oporto were sent to Guimaraes as reinforcements.

A clash between leftists and CDS members was also reported in the streets of Oporto, Portugal's second largest city. Communist youths reportedly stoned a motorcade of CDS members, but military police prevented them from attacking the party headquarters.

The election Friday of a constitutional assembly is also widening the gulf between Portugal's leftist military rulers and the Roman Catholic Church.

The ruling junta banned the church party, the Christian Democrats, from the ballot, and the church hierarchy a week ago warned Catholics not to vote for the Communists or any other party with an ideology "incompatible with the Christian concept of man."

Meanwhile, the junta told voters confused by the presence of 12 parties on the ballot to vote anyway and cast a blank ballot.

House Approves Unemployment Bill

Austin Bureau — The House has approved Midland Rep. Tom Craddick's bill to give employers more time to protest unemployment compensation claims.

"With mail service what it is today, I feel like this extra time for an employer to protest potential chargebacks is necessary," Craddick said.

The bill would increase the time period from 10 to 15 days, excluding holidays and weekends. It also would increase from 12 to 15 days the time for written appeal of a decision made by an examiner pursuant to the initial protest.

Prosecutor Advised Not To Bargain With Jacobsen, Times Herald Says

DALLAS (AP) — The Watergate special prosecutor was advised not to plea bargain for the testimony of milk lobbyist Jake Jacobsen against former Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, the Dallas Times Herald says.

In a report Sunday from its Washington bureau, the newspaper said a Justice Department memo, now buried in the records of the Connally case, warned the prosecutors that Jacobsen would not be a credible witness.

The newspaper did not quote from the memo, nor was the date of the message given.

Connally was acquitted last week by a federal court jury in Washington of charges that he received $10,000 in bribes from Jacobsen in return for his influence to increase government milk price supports.

Jacobsen pleaded guilty to giving a gratuity to a public official, an offense punishable by two years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

In return for his testimony against Connally, government prosecutors dropped a federal fraud indictment against Jacobsen involving a San Angelo savings bank, an offense punishable by 35 years in prison and $65,000 in fines.

Why special prosecutor Henry S. Ruth and his assistant, Frank Turkheimer, ignored the memo is not known, the Times Herald said.

The prosecutors made a "firm decision" following Connally's acquittal not to grant interviews about the case, a spokesman for the special prosecutor's office told the newspaper.

Without Jacobsen's testimony it is doubtful the government ever would have charged Connally, a former Democratic Texas governor who turned Republican in the administration of former President Richard Nixon.

Florida Bishop's Wife Takes Job

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — "It was almost unheard of once for a bishop's wife to have a paying job," says Christian Folwell, wife of Central Florida's Episcopal bishop.

But today, Mrs. Folwell works a 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. shift in the progressive care unit at Orange Memorial Hospital.

She says her husband, the Rev. William Folwell, and their three children encouraged her to take up a nursing career.

"Thank God we are free to be ourselves," says Mrs. Folwell.

No job is too tough for a Payne Air Management Specialist.

That menacing beast you're looking at is a tourist attraction in the desert near Palm Springs, California. It didn't scare us a bit.

With all its king sized problems (large rooms, small rooms, tunnels, stairs), a Payne Air Management Specialist was able to air condition it.

Without any problems.

Which makes our point.

If a Payne Air Management Specialist can expertly air condition this monster, he can air condition your home as well.

Hasty Plays Cost Tricks

When I was a little boy I used to get my knuckles rapped and then for reaching too quickly "It's not polite to be so grabby," my father would say. Sometimes a bridge hand makes me look around for a set of knuckles.

Now you get your come-uppance anyway. West wins the first trump with the ace and immediately returns the ten of clubs through dummy's queen. You lose the queen of clubs to East's trump, and you are still down one.

If you play dummy's queen of clubs at the first trick, East covers with the king. Now you must lose three club tricks. Down one.

If you're clever enough to play low from dummy at the first trick, East must play his king anyway. So you win happily with

True Politeness
The way to make the hand is to be truly polite. Play a low club from the dummy at the first trick, and let East win the first trick with the king of clubs.

When West gets in with the ace of hearts he leads the ten of clubs. You play low from dummy again.

What can East do? If he ruffs, he ruffs away a loser. You can easily regain the lead to draw trumps; and then you still make your ace and queen of clubs.

If East fails to ruff, you win with the ace of clubs and draw trumps. There is no further problem.

The Quality of Government is Only as Good as the Quality of the People Doing the Job . . .

YOU CAN'T GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING...

Here are the facts:

1972 Annual Legislative Salaries in the Five Most Populous States

1975 Average $16,520

STATE	POPULATION RANK 1970	LEGISLATIVE SALARIES
CALIF.	1	$21,200
NEW YORK	2	$23,500
TEXAS	3	$ 4,800
ILL.	4	$17,500
PENN.	5	$15,600

Recent Changes in Other States

STATE	YEAR	AMOUNT OF INCREASE
GEO.	72-73	$ 4,200-$ 7,200
IOWA	73-75	$ 5,500-$ 8,000
OHIO	73-75	$14,000-$17,500
WISCONSIN	73-75	$ 9,600-$15,681

Now if you think Texas can maintain quality in government at the lowest payscale in the nation . . . then you'd better think again. We can find people who want to serve, but they can't afford to. We can get people who will serve, but who must devote most of their time to outside employment to make ends meet. We can get people whose families financial needs require outside subsidy. We can get people who depend on paid lobbyists for support. But you can't get a full-time, top-flight independent public servant without a reasonable salary.

Therefore YOU BE THE JUDGE VOTE YES FOR TEXAS

Violent Death Count For Weekend Reaches 14

By The Associated Press — Although pleasant weather drew motorists to Texas streets and highways, there appeared to be no significant uptick in the state's violent death toll for the weekend.

The tragic count from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday went to 14 fatalities, including six in traffic and four homicides.

Among the victims were: Gretchen Frink, 16, of Dallas drowned Sunday when her bicycle ran over an embankment into Farmers Branch Creek.

Dave Sonnenberg, 18, of Ev-erman, Tex., was killed Sunday when his motorcycle and a car collided near Benbrook Lake.

A two-car crash Sunday on U.S. 61 in Itasca killed Lucille Howard, 61, and George Grady, 69, both of Itasca. Three other persons were injured critically.

A one-car crash Sunday night on U.S. 385 south of Dimmitt killed Gary Don Lichte, 18, of Littlefield. Officers said he was the driver. Another person was injured.

Patricia Lee Dana, 20, of Dallas, was killed in a fiery wreck on the east end of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike early Sunday morning when her car overturned and burst into flames after swerving to avoid another vehicle, officers said. Another person was hurt.

Domingo Leao, 33, of Dallas, was killed Sunday when the car he was driving struck a sign and careened into a field inside the city limits.

James A. Jones, 48, of Waco, was shot and killed Friday night during a saloon argument, police said.

Midland authorities said Richard A. Scott, 18, was killed early Saturday when his car collided with a freight train 10 miles east of Midland.

Mrs. Jerry Satter died early Saturday in a fire which destroyed her home in Kilgore and seriously burned Penny Hendricks, 6. Firemen said Mrs. Satter's husband and their two young children escaped the burning house.

Dallas police were searching for eight men in the robbery-slaying of Jose Luis Vasquez, 30, of Guajalato, Mexico. Officers said Vasquez was shot once in the head and robbed.

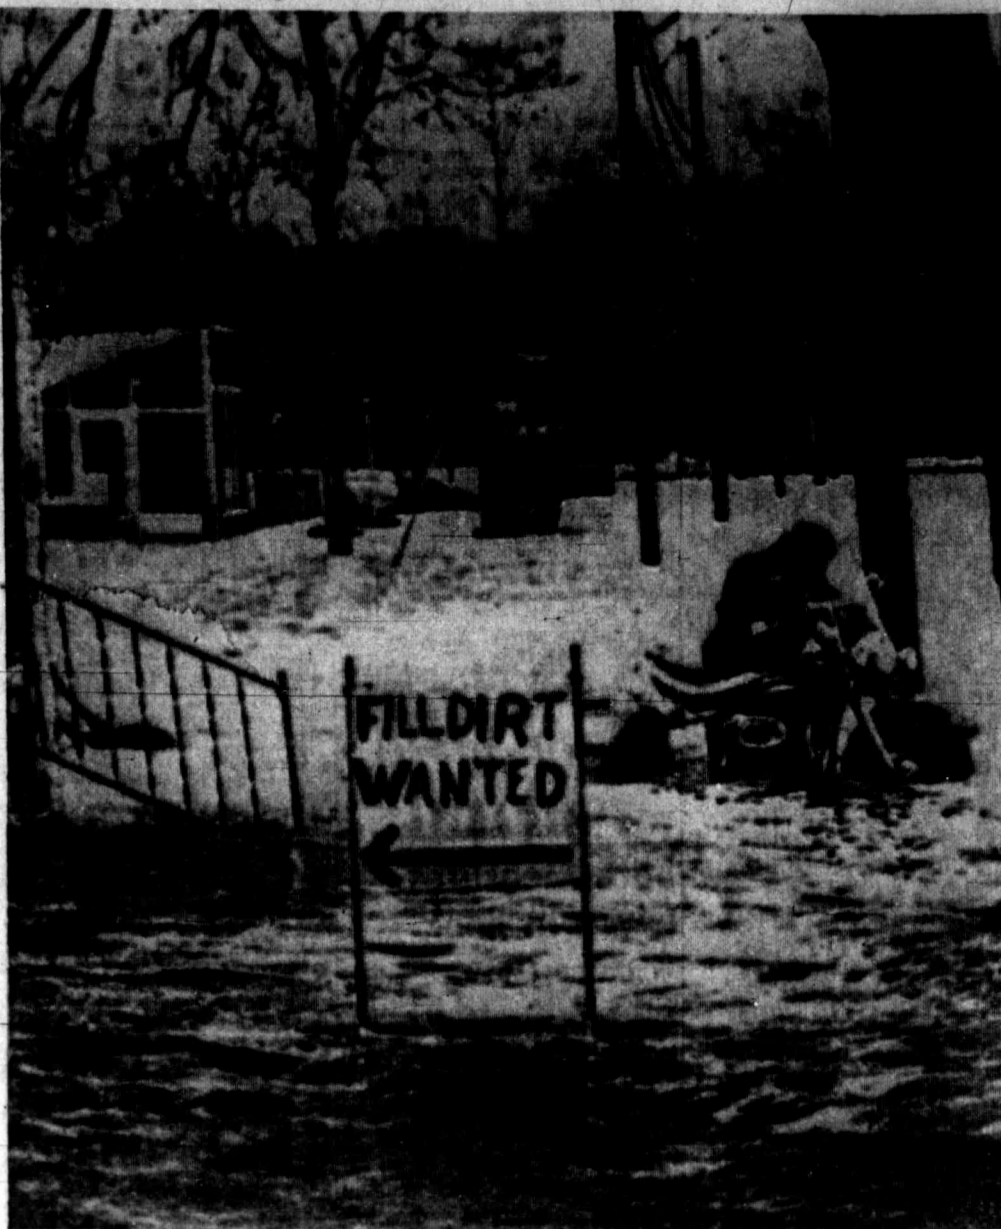

Alfredo Parades, 31, died of gunshot wounds early Saturday at his home in Big Spring. A ruling of accidental death was returned.

Raymond Hamby, 51, who formerly operated the Hamby Motor Co. in Big Spring, was killed Saturday afternoon when his tractor overturned in a ravine near his home on Lake J. B. Thomas.

Gomesindo Diaz, 23, was stabbed to death at a Big Spring night club early Sunday.

An auto-truck collision in Big Spring killed Ruben Self, 56.

Rebecca Ann Boyd, 14, was killed Saturday in Dallas when she fell out of the back of a pickup truck as it turned a corner.

Consultants Advise Dallas To OK Most Of Bell's Proposed Rate Hike

DALLAS (AP) — A consulting firm hired by the City of Dallas to investigate a requested hike in telephone rates has recommended that most of the rate hike be approved.

The Stanford Research Institute (SRI) of California said Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. customers in Dallas are faced with either higher rates or poorer service.

Bell has asked the city council for a $23 million rate hike.

SRI recommended that all but $464,000 of the request be approved, resulting in rate hikes of between 11 and 14 percent for Dallas telephone customers.

SRI said the increase could be implemented by either one of two formulas.

Both formulas call for raising pay telephone charges from 10 cents to 20 cents, increasing business phone charges between $2 and $3 monthly, and increasing installation charges from $15 to $25 for residences and from $25 to $51 for business phones.

One formula would raise the monthly charge for a private residential line from $7.33 to $8.40. The other formula calls for higher residential rates de-

Kissinger Omits Chile From Tour As Pressure Tactics

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger will not visit Chile on his long-awaited Latin American tour because the ruling junta has not responded to his efforts to obtain a liberalization of Chilean civil rights, according to an official close to Kissinger.

The State Department announced last Monday that Kissinger's trip, which starts Wednesday, will include Argentina, Brazil and Venezuela. Visits to Chile and Peru, planned earlier, would be postponed because of the pressing time demands of the Indochina situation, the announcement said.

From the first mention of the trip last year, however, the Chile stopover was considered contingent on some major civil rights concession by the military government.

Chile's rulers have taken no such initiative since President Augusto Pinochet announced in September that many jailed leftists would be allowed to go into exile. "Had they responded more dramatically," said the official, Kissinger could have followed through on his intended visit.

UTPB College To Be Divided

Austin Bureau AUSTIN—The University of Texas at the Permian Basin has received the go-ahead to divide its College of Arts and Education.

Out of the single college will be created the College of Arts and Humanities and the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences.

The request was approved by the Texas college and university coordinating board, whose staff recommended the division because of the increasingly large size of the single college.

Heavy Rains Cause Extensive Damage

By The Associated Press — Heavy rains swept through portions of the upper Midwest and lower Mississippi Valley over the weekend, causing extensive land and property damage and forcing hundreds of families to evacuate their homes.

In the Yazoo-Mississippi Delta, backwater that flooded hundreds of thousands of acres continued to drain through flood gates today and officials said they planned to seek an investigation of flood control in the area.

In Michigan, meanwhile, the National Weather Service extended flood warnings for areas surrounding the rain-swollen Red Cedar and Grand rivers which overflowed over the weekend forcing 300 families to evacuate the Lansing, Mich., area. Flood damage was estimated at $50 million.

The NWS also issued agricultural flood advisories for parts of North Dakota where the James, Knife and Cannonball rivers were expected to overflow.

Elsewhere, light rain dampened the Gulf Coast from Texas to Alabama, while frost or freeze warnings remained in effect for parts of North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland and Delaware.

Partly sunny skies and fair temperatures extended along portions of the Gulf Coast and from New England across the Great Lakes into the northern portion of the Plains and the Central Rockies. Clear skies and warmer temperatures prevailed west of the Rockies.

Temperatures early today ranged from 19 at Marquette, Mich., to 77 at Key West and Miami, Fla.

Odessan Awarded $800,000 Judgment

Dyrell Glenn Bryan, 31, of Odessa late Friday was awarded an $800,000 judgment by a federal jury here in a suit in which he claimed a defective tool led to the loss of his eye.

Bryan said the accident happened Dec. 22, 1971, when he was hit by a part as he was aligning the front end of a vehicle.

The defendants in the case are FMC Corp. of Lansing, Mich., and Midland-Ross Corp. of Cleveland, Ohio.

Bryan was a mechanic for Carl Sewell Motor Co. at the time of the accident.

Midwesterners Can Dig Own Gas Wells

By DOUG TUCKER
Associated Press Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Dozens of rural residents in Missouri and Kansas, besieged by skyrocketing propane costs and doomsday talk of an energy crisis, are returning to the ways of the people who first settled this land.

They are becoming self-reliant.

At a cost ranging from $3,000 to $7,000, some families — if they are lucky — can drill a gas well, get it piped into their home and enjoy a clean, free, private source of energy for perhaps half a century. There is little or no maintenance expense and practically no government bureaucracy to contend with.

But riverboat gamblers have taken lesser risks. No one can guarantee that a well, even if gas is tapped, will be operable. Scattered throughout the Midwest are deep, expensive, very useless holes in the ground owned by farmers who gambled and lost.

Mike Mehmert, a geologist with Cullum and Brown, Inc., a Kansas City drilling company, says 90 per cent of the people inquiring into private residential wells are propane users.

"Their propane bill has doubled or tripled in the past year, and they're paying $100 or $120 a month to heat their home," he said. "At that point, drilling a private well begins to look more and more feasible."

Most states, with Kansas an exception, require land owners to post a bond before drilling a private gas well.

"The bond is to ensure that the well will be abandoned properly," said Jack Wells, an official of the Missouri Geological Survey. "We want to be sure that there won't be an open hole left in the ground when the gas supply runs out, we want to keep ground water from being contaminated."

Usually a $1,000 bond is required in Missouri; it can be obtained from an insurance company for about $10. State officials in Missouri and Kansas say it's impossible to know how many private gas wells are in use in their states since no precise records are easily available.

"But we are getting more and more inquiries," Wells said, "especially in western Missouri." Margaret Oros, an official with the Kansas Geological Survey, also noted a marked increase in private residential gas well drillings in the past year. "We're also getting numerous inquiries from country clubs, industrial concerns and the like," she said.

Mrs. Oros mentioned one drawback to owning your own gas well.

"Commercial gas companies add an odor to the gas so a leak can be recognized right away. A private well wouldn't have this, of course, so there could be a possible danger there."

"And just because someone in the past has found gas in the area doesn't mean you can't get a dry hole."

Briscoe Wants To Know About H-Bomb Mining

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe asked all Gulf Coast governors today to join with him in finding out more about federal plans to produce energy by nuclear explosions in salt domes of Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi and in the Gulf of Mexico.

"I feel very strongly that we cannot let the federal government proceed with this project unless we are thoroughly informed and involved in the decision-making process," Briscoe said in his letter to the governors.

He asked each of the governors to designate a staff member to meet at a later date with Briscoe's staff to discuss the project known as the "Pacer Plan."

Briscoe said he was told the federal Energy Research and Development Administration is seriously considering a plan that would consist of utilizing the salt domes to produce power by exploding thermonuclear bombs in those domes to produce electricity.

Advance information indicates the plan would involve the daily explosion of two thermonuclear devices three times the size of the atomic bomb dropped on Japan in World War II, he said. No final decision has been made on whether actual tests will be made.

Briscoe said he was told no contact has been made with any state government that would be involved.

"I feel that it is imperative that those of us involved in this project by virtue of salt dome resources, be briefed and involved in the 'Pacer Plan' from the beginning," Briscoe told the governors. "We have too much at stake not to have a role in both the research and the decision-making process."

Lon Nol Plans To Buy Home

HONOLULU (AP) — A realtor here says that former Cambodian President Lon Nol plans to buy a $103,000 house in a Honolulu subdivision.

An agent for Mike McCormack Realtors said Lon Nol and his wife visited the home in the Hawaii Kai subdivision last week and decided to buy it.

Final financing details on the two-story, four-bedroom home are expected to be completed next week.

TOWER SETS RECORD—Three heavy duty cranes were needed to lift this 232-foot-long, 600-ton fractionating tower into place at the Cedar Bayou Olefin Plant operated by Gulf Oil Chemicals Co. near Baytown. The huge petrochemical processing vessel is reported to be the longest piece of equipment ever shipped on an American Railroad, according to the Guinness Book of Records. The unit is part of the 1.2 billion pounds per year ethylene expansion project under way at the facility, Gulf's largest petrochemical plant. When the expansion is completed in early 1976, the plant will produce a total of 1.6 billion pounds per year of ethylene, making it one of the world's largest.

Companies Set Up To Sell Manure To Oil-Rich Bahrain

PORT ANGELES, Wash. (AP) — The State Department says it has no evidence that a proposal to fertilize the sands of an Arabian sheikdom with American cow and chicken manure is more than just a lot of bull.

But several businessmen involved in the deal say they still have hopes it (the manure sale) will go.

Businessmen in the Olympic Peninsula communities of Port Angeles and Sequim set up companies to collect between 40,000 and 80,000 gallons of manure a month from the area.

The manure was to go aboard empty oil tankers bound for the Middle East. The first boatload was to have been shipped in mid-January.

Clearfork Pool Gets Extension

The APCO (Clearfork) gas field was extended 1/4 mile northeast with completion of C. F. Lawrence, Midland, No. 1-A Paul, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 4.5 million cubic feet of dry gas per day.

Completion was effected through perforations at 3,310-3,320 feet, which had been treated with 4,000 gallons of acid.

It is 467 feet from southwest and 660 feet from southeast lines of section 104, block 10, H&GN survey, 14 miles west of Girvin, tantiated stories, however, our embassies in both Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates have been unable to come up with any information which could be considered to indicate the existence of a bona fide business opportunity.

The FBI in Seattle confirmed it has begun a probe of the deal but refused further comment.

Meanwhile, a small Port Angeles bank is suing several persons for return of $322,000 it loaned Hen Doo, Inc., and RJB Sales, Inc., the companies set up to handle the deal.

Pivotal to deal is a manure deodorizer to control the odor and prevent the buildup of explosive methane gas during shipment.

Richard J. Briggs, Woodbury, Tenn., who holds the patent on the manure deodorizer, said he sent his banker and attorney to the Middle East. Briggs said they told him the deal was still on.

Ted Ford, one of the farmers, installed a $1,000 pipeline and loading system to move the manure from storage tanks to the trucks he expected one day to pull up to his yard. He was to be paid 5 cents a gallon for the waste.

"I can't say I'm bitter, but I'm not very happy about it either," Ford said.

The Gulf Weekly Mirror, a newspaper published in Bahrain's capital of Manama, says the deal is a hoax. It says the mysterious Ebrahim had confessed to Bahraini police that he posed as a prince in the United States and elsewhere.

The newspaper says he actually is a clerk.

But Briggs and others involved in the deal say they still believe the deal is for real.

Evert Wins Series, Billie Jean Flips

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Chris Evert says she would like more tournaments like this past weekend's $100,000 World Series of Women's Tennis to which only four players were invited. But, then why not? She pocketed the $50,000 first prize—the largest sum ever in women's tennis—after downing a determined and angry Billie Jean King 4-6, 6-3, 7-6 Sunday before a national television audience.

Miss Evert, the year's leading money winner with $183,450, said, however, she did not want to win just for the money. "The $25,000 second-place prize would have been good," she said.

In the consolation match, Evonne Goolagong of Australia picked up $15,000 by beating Russia's Olga Morozova 2-6, 6-3, 6-3. Miss Morozova's $10,000 prize will go to the Russian Tennis Federation as usual.

Sunday, Miss Evert and Ms. King traded shots for over two hours before Miss Evert took the match with a 5-2 tiebreaker in the final set.

The closeness of the match where only five points out of the 239 played separated winner from loser was almost overshadowed by Ms. King's anger over a call by a linesman in the last set with Ms. King leading 6-5.

Ms. King claimed a linesman had initially indicated a return of service by Miss Evert was out of play. The linesman's hand signal indicated the ball had hit in play and she refused to answer Ms. King's heated questions about his call.

After the match Ms. King said she had wanted an answer from the linesman. "What are they there for?" she asked in a news conference.

Tournament umpire Jason Morton refused to change the linesman's call and Ms. King went on to lose the set, the tiebreaker and the match.

Ms. King said as far as she was concerned she was cheated out of the match.

"I don't want to take anything away from Chris because she played great," said Ms. King. "But I'm the angriest I have ever been in my life over a tennis match."

Morton said although the linesman did start to indicate an out signal but changed his sign to show the shot good. "Things like this are a normal occurrence," Morton said.

"Billie Jean is a volatile person who can explode in an instant," Morton said. "I feel she should have kept playing because the linesman had not yelled out his call when she stopped."

Ms. King's anger seemed to spur her interest in tennis because she said: "World Team Tennis here I come! I'm going to work my buns off!"

McGee Wins First

Oyster Pearl Prophetic For Jerry

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Jerry McGee figured this was his week before the first shot was fired in the $125,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament.

"Wednesday night, I ate oysters on the half shell and the first oyster I ate, I got a pearl," an elated McGee said Sunday after ending more than eight years of frustration on the pro golf tour by capturing his first victory.

"I told Jill (his wife) this may be the week," he said. "I didn't want to mention it before today because it might have jinxed me."

McGee appeared on the verge of blowing his shot at victory when he played the front side beginning at No. 10 and broke out of a deadlock with another birdie on 16 to win the $25,000 first prize with a 13-under-par 271 total.

Shreveport, Jackson Win In TL Play

By The Associated Press

Shreveport and Jackson tightened their grips on first place in their respective Texas League baseball divisions Sunday and home runs played key roles in the games.

Shreveport atop the West Division, swept a doubleheader with its nearest pursuer, El Paso. Ken Melvin smacked a solo homer in the seventh inning of the first game as Shreveport took a 7-6 decision. Ron Mitchell blasted a two-run shot in the second game as Shreveport clobbered the West Texas team 16-2.

In an all-Louisiana contest, Lafayette pounded Alexandria pitchers for 15 hits — all singles — and claimed an 8-1 victory. Jack Clark had four singles and scored two runs for Lafayette. Jerry Steele got Alexandria's only run with a solo homer in the fourth inning.

Walton's Safety Worries Czar

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Commissioner Walter Kennedy of the National Basketball Association says he has not censured Bill Walton for recent controversial statements because they are protected by rights of free speech, but Kennedy adds he is worried "somebody might try to shoot" the Portland Trail Blazers rookie.

"I can't do anything about the Walton case because of the constitutional right of free speech," Kennedy said in an interview in Sunday's San Francisco Examiner sports column by Wells Twombly.

"One thing I don't want is to give Walton another forum," said the commissioner, who will be resigning June 1. "The minute I do something, I'm a perfect example of what he and Jack Scott are saying, that the establishment is denying them the right of free speech."

Two weeks ago, Walton urged "rejection of the United States government" during a news conference called by Scott, former athletic director at Oberlin College.

Walton also apologized publicly to Scott and his wife, Micki, for having talked or cooperated with FBI agents seeking the Scotts for questioning in connection with the Patricia Hearst kidnapping. Walton said he had hoped for.

And he's giving them the kind of inconsistency in the field that they'd prayed against.

The erratic Kingman, acquired this past winter from the San Francisco Giants, won one for New York Sunday with his bat but almost lost it with his glove as the Mets took a 4-3 decision to sweep a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs. After the Mets took an 8-6 victory in the opener, Kingman exploded his fourth home run of the young season in the second game to help New York take a 4-0 lead.

Then the thrills and spills started for Old Insoydes, reminding the fans of the Mets' eccentric teams of the early 1960s.

Relief pitcher Rick Baldwin, who was great in the seventh inning, looked awful in the ninth. He loaded the bases and then gave up a single to Jose Cardenal.

Well, it started out as a single but Kingman let it get past him for an error. As a result, three runs scored and Cardenal wound up on third with the potential tying run. At this point, Baldwin reverted to his parking, earlier form and nailed it down for the Mets.

Yogi Berra was as relieved as anyone after the frantic finish.

"It's a good omen," said the New York manager, "that we finally won a doubleheader at home."

The Mets hadn't won a doubleheader at home since August 31, 1973 and at the same time, stopped a seven-game winning streak by Chicago. It didn't distract Chicago Manager Jim Marshall, though.

"We're playing great," he said. "Of course, no one likes to lose. But I can't feel too bad the way we've been going."

In the other National League games, the San Francisco Giants beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-3 in 13 innings; the Atlanta Braves whipped the San Diego Padres 4-3; the Pittsburgh Pirates trounced the St. Louis Cardinals 5-0 and the Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Houston Astros 5-3 in the first game of a doubleheader before losing the second, 7-6. The Philadelphia-Montreal game was postponed by cold.

Palmer Hangs On For Shore Victory

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Sandra Palmer. That's about all there is to say about the 1975 $200,000 Dinah Shore Win-tournament a bore. Then she added a dash of excitement at the end as she won the event she had led from start to finish.

Coolly composed through chilly winds and then warm desert breezes, the miniscule Ft. Worth, Tex., native ran off three consecutive two-under-par 70s then finally slipped up a bit when she bogeyed the last hole for a 73 Sunday but still finished with a five-under-par 283, one stroke in front of Kathy McMullen.

"I really got sort of tired," said the 5-foot-1 Miss Palmer said afterwards, slumping in a chair. "And anytime you get tired you make mental mistakes like I made." She made three bogies on the final round, one more than she had in the three earlier rounds combined.

Palmer's victory was the first since she won the 1973 Dinah Shore Win-tournament at the same course. She had led from start to finish.

Classy Royal Pitching May Lead To Riches

By The Associated Press

The Kansas City Royals are going so good these days their five-man starting rotation consists of only four pitchers.

The Royals made it five victories in a row and nine out of 10 by trimming the Texas Rangers 2-0 Sunday behind the six-hit hurling of Al Fitzmorris. But their lead in the American League's West Division was cut to 1½ games when the Oakland A's swept a doubleheader from the Minnesota Twins 4-1 and 5-1.

Elsewhere, the California Angels trounced the Chicago White Sox 8-4, the Boston Red Sox walloped the Baltimore Orioles 10-2, the Cleveland Indians downed the Milwaukee Brewers 7-4 and the New York Yankees whipped the Detroit Tigers 7-1.

The Royals' victory was their ninth in 11 games, the best start in the club's seven-year history.

"We're winning with good pitching and that's 80 per cent of the game," said Manager Jack McKeon. "We're not tearing the cover off the ball. We're just playing solid, consistent, aggressive baseball."

"Nobody can match our five starters. They might match us 1 and 2, but not five-deep."

The KC starters are Steve Busby

'The Wiz,' 'Equus' Named Broadway's Top Shows

By WILLIAM GLOVER
NEW YORK (AP) — "The Wiz," a swinging black musical based on one of childhood's favorite fables, and "Equus," a taut British drama about a youth crazy over horses, are Broadway's champion shows of the 1974-75 season. Top individual winners of the coveted silver achievement and in joint citation, John Kani and Winston Ntshona.

In their South Africa homeland the pair are able to work on stage only under an employment subterfuge as "house servants."
Angela Lansbury and John Cullum were named the year's star musical performers. Besides being chosen as the best musical, "The Wiz" scooped up six of the other 17 competitive trophies. Peter Shaffer's "Equus," the best drama, also won a directing prize for John Dexter. The virtual blitz of tone show honors by the Afro rhythm version of "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz," and the Kani-Ntshona victory highlighted an otherwise easily predictable sequence of the triumphs which took place on the stage of the Winter Garden theater during a two-hour telecast over the ABC-TV network.

The Tonys, officially the Antoinette Perry Awards, are voted upon in secret ballot by about 450 representatives of all branches of the stage profession, under the auspices of the New York League of Theaters and Producers, in association with the American Theater Wing. They are Broadway's counterparts of Hollywood's Oscars.

Geoffrey Holder was the evening's only double winner, taking both musical director and costume designer awards for "The Wiz." The show's other victors were Ted Ross and Dee Dee Bridgewater, for supporting actor and actress; Charlie Smalls, best score; and George Faison, choreographer.

The dramatic acting award to Kani and Ntshona, the first joint citation in Tony history, was for their performances in two plays which they co-authored with Athol Fugard, "Sizwe Bansi Is Dead" and "The Island." The dramas examine aspects of black existence under the apartheid laws of their homeland.

Ellen Burstyn said she was accepting her trophy also on behalf of Charles Grodin, the only other performer in "Same Time, Next Year," who did not get a nomination.

Supporting drama acting Tonys went to Frank Langella of "Seascape," and Rita Moreno in "The Ritz." She seemed slightly unhappy about her category, declaring "the only thing I support in the show is my beads."

Miss Lansbury took the star musical actress award, the third Tony of her career, for the revival of "Gypsy." Cullum was honored for his part in "Shenandoah." That show, about a peace-loving family during the Civil War, also received the medallion for best musical book, a collaboration by James Lee Barrett, Peter Udell and Philip Rose.

Harper's Weekly Trying Personal Journalism Touch
The Los Angeles Times
LOS ANGELES — Harper's Weekly is attempting to make a comeback with the same flavor of personal journalism that made its ancestor a national name.
Over half the weekly publication, which looks and folds like a newspaper, is a product of letters from the public.
"People said we were crazy," recalled 32-year-old Tony Jones, Harper's Weekly editor, in an interview here. Jones said the Harper's staff was warned by other editors that readers wouldn't go for things written by non-professionals.
Thus far, "the experts" have been wrong.
Following some pilot issues, Harper's Weekly began publishing regularly Jan. 10. Its logo is a duplicate of the publication of the same name which lasted from the mid-1850s to 1915.
The old Harper's Weekly invited reader participation, but not on the scale of the new version. Both publications feature cartoons by Thomas Nast. And both were given impetus by attempts to impeach a President — Andrew Johnson in 1868, and Richard Nixon in 1974.
Jones, a Yale University graduate who was an assistant editor on the monthly Harper's said the potential Nixon impeachment was the catalyst since the publishing group wanted a magazine that could move quickly.
Now, said Jones, Harper's Weekly with its form of "experimental participatory journalism" appears to be something of a success with 45,000 subscriptions.
Generally running 16 pages an issue, sections are built around such reader experiences as government intrusion of their privacy, and what it's like to fight a legal battle in court.

The Prince will also visit a maple sugaring camp north of here before leaving Wednesday for a tour of the Northwest Territories. He arrived here Sunday after a week-long stay in Bermuda where he visited his great-uncle, Lord Mountbatten.

Stock Prices Pull Ahead After Hesitant Start Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices pulled ahead after a hesitant start today, apparently encouraged by internal market forces and the resignation of President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials, ahead marginally shortly after the opening, was up 5.17 at 813.60. Gainers led losers 741 to 418 among the 1,602 issues traded. Activity was brisk.

Brokers said Thieu's resignation had a psychological impact on the market, and offered hope of a political settlement and the orderly evacuation of Americans in South Vietnam.

At the same time, the brokers said the market now seemed to have a momentum of its own, and had in the recent past disregarded events in Southeast Asia.

WEAPONS SEIZED AFTER UPRISING
 WASHINGTON (AP) — An assortment of handmade weapons was seized by guards after a 17-hour inmate uprising in which a dozen persons were taken hostage and later released unharmed at the District of Columbia Jail.

Delbert C. Jackson, D.C. corrections director, said a shake-down of prisoner cells Sunday yielded several hand-fashioned metal and wooden clubs but no guns or knives.

Guards searching the cell block after the settlement discovered the body of an inmate, Robert B. Seegars, 24, arrested recently on arson charges. The death was ruled a homicide by strangulation. Officials noted Seegars testified against several defendants charged in a similar uprising at the jail in October, 1972.
