METHODIST CONFERENCE AT ABILENE

THREE DAYS PREACHERS AND LAY DELEGATES ENGAGED IN BUSINESS SESSION HEADED BY BISHOP CANNON.

CLOSING SESSION WAS HELD IN BAPTIST CHURCH

Large Crowd Gathered to Hear the Bishop Deliver Fine Lecture on the War Works Campaign and Tell of the Boys in France. Appointments Were Read Friday Night.

The ninth annual conference of the Methodist church for Northwest Texas came to a close here Friday night at First Baptist church, where the concluding session was held, and most of the ministers left on early Saturday morning trains for their various homes. The afternoon session was held as usual at the First Methodist church.

Among the changes announced at the reading of the appointments Friday night were the transfer of Presiding Elder O. F. Sensabaugh from the Abilene district to the Central Texas conference, the transfer of Rev. C. W. Hearon from St. John's church at Stamford to the North Texas conference, the naming of the Rev. J. G. Miller, retiring pastor of First Methodist church here to be presiding elder of the Abilene district, the appointment of the Rev. J. E. Carpenter of the Amarillo church to be pastor of First church at Abilene, and the re-appointment of the Rev. J. W. Hunt to be pastor of St. Paul's at Abilene. Abilene will regret to lose Dr. Sensabaugh and glad to retain Revs. Miller and Hunt, and will warmly welcome the Rev. Mr. Carpenter, who is considered one of the strongest pastors in the conference. It is not known here yet where Dr. Sensabaugh or Mr. Hearon will be assigned in their new conferences.

The afternoon session transacted routine business for a few minutes and then the Bishop and his cabinet retired and the Rev. G. S. Hardy was called to the chair, and the centenary team took charge and again regaled the conference with addresses upon the plan of the centenary movement.

Dr. Pinos spoke earnestly on the subject of prayer. Many passages from the address are worthy of a place in the library of the church's choice utterances upon the sacred exercise of intercession.

In a wonderful address upon consecration to service the Rev. Frank Ouderdonk stirred his audience deeply, and the entire program was an impressive exhibit of the church's plans for the conquest of the world.

The ordination of deacons, one of the most beautiful and impressive parts of the church ritual, occupied the larger part of the remaining time.

At eight o'clock a large crowd had assembled at the First Baptist church where Bishop Cannon, by invitation of the committee in charge of the local United War Work campaign, delivered an address on moral conditions of our army in France, and the work of the Y. M. C. A. in ministering to our soldiers. With great emphasis he urged all to support and contribute to the campaign. He was introduced to the audience by Dr. Millard A. Jenkins, pastor of the First Baptist church. As the Bishop told the story of General Pershing's strong stand against the wives of wine and scarlet women flung in the way of our soldier boys, the audience was moved to great applause.

At 10 o'clock the appointment of the preachers to their respective charges were read by the Bishop, and the conference adjourned and the preachers took the night and early morning trains for their homes.

The session was one of grueling work because of the rush for time, but Abilene was glad to have this splendid body of men in her midst for a few days. They represent a church with, approximately 40,000 members in the territory served by them and the interests they handle girdles the globe.

Transaction of church business preceded and followed the speech. Judge Overshiner introduced Dr. M. A. Jenkins, pastor of the First Baptist church, who in turn introduced Bishop Cannon. Dr. Jenkins, in the course of his remarks mentioned that his aged mother, now nearly ninety years old, was a lifelong Methodist of North Carolina, and expected to die in that faith. Bishop Cannon, who is a Virginian, brought a ripple of laughter when he declared that "now I know why Dr. Jenkins is the man he is."

The bishop said that the strenuous work of the conference had left him very tired, but he had consented to

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN MOVING RIGHT AHEAD

The War Work Campaign is forging right ahead in Lubbock, despite the fact of fighting having ceased. Of course we are all glad that our boys have won such a glorious victory and we want them to have every care and attention that will add to their comfort. That is what makes us willing to dig down deep into our pockets and make the War Work Campaign go over the top.

We must not lose sight of the fact that now the fighting is over it will be a great deal harder to find entertainment for the boys. While they were on the firing line they were keyed up to the highest pitch of excitement. Now they will be called on to do police duty and other forms of labor that will not be exciting and they will want recreation during their leisure hours. Our opportunity in this matter is clear. We must contribute of our funds in order that they are not neglected. Keep them cheered up. Morale is just as valuable in peace times as when we are fighting. And there is lots of hard work for our boys to do before they can come back to us. Miles and miles of wire entanglements must be rolled up, and millions of dollars worth of equipment of various kinds must be salvaged. And the work will be hard and tiresome.

We sent checks to them while they were fighting for us. It is just as much our duty to keep them smiling while they are working for us. Patriotism does not consist wholly in killing our enemies.

See, the solicitors with a smile. Dig deep and keep the boys smiling over there.

U. S. CASUALTY LISTS MAY REACH 100,000

Washington, Nov. 13.—Officials here estimate that the total casualties of the American expeditionary forces in the war will not exceed 100,000, including the men killed in action, wounded, died of wounds, disease and accidents and the missing who never will be accounted for. Some of those who have been missing probably will be accounted for when the prisoners are returned from Germany.

It was said today that it probably will be several weeks before the record of casualties can be completed. It is regarded as almost certain that many of the casualties in the recent heavy fighting by the First and Second American armies have not yet been reported. Lists also must be compiled of unreported American casualties in British and French hospitals especially from among the United States forces brigaded with allied units. Deaths from wounds also probably will be reported for some time while lists of slightly wounded being sent by couriers may be delayed.

The daily lists of several days have consisted of approximately 1,100 names daily. Secretary Baker has indicated that a considerable number of reported casualties remain to be given out but that these would be released as rapidly as newspapers can handle them.

An unofficial tabulation of published casualties lists including those of November 12 shows a grand total of 71,390 men. Careful estimates made today, based on knowledge of the battle conditions faced by the First and Second armies in the days immediately preceding cessation of hostilities and on the average lists heretofore lead officers to believe that all unpublished and unreported casualties will not exceed 30,000.

Estimates based on previous records fix the total marine casualties in France at less than 5,000.

LUBBOCK BOYS WOUNDED IN ACTION IN FRANCE

Information was received here last week by relatives that Emmett Porter was wounded in action in France on the 8th of October. Mrs. J. T. Bullock also received word that their son over there was wounded and in a hospital in France. Porter is said to be injured in one shoulder and the Bullock boy in the leg. It is truly hoped by our people that these young men will recover without serious results.

ARMISTICE TERMS BEING PROMPTLY CARRIED OUT

So far as known at the American army headquarters, no disposition has been displayed to block at any point that part of the armistice agreement providing for the withdrawal of the German troops. It is realized that the reversing of the gears of the great broken German machine will not be simple.

There would have been no surprise among the American officers had the German front remained almost unchanged, but already there appears to have been left immediately in front of the Americans little more than a fringe of soldiers. In some places even that line has been withdrawn so far that the army men on this side do not know its location. The Germans reluctantly abandoned their efforts to continue fraternizing where the lines still were in proximity, but threats to hold as prisoners of war anyone approaching the American lines practically stopped their visits.

Behind the American line the activity of the supply trains continued today and the troops mobilized at the front settled down to routine duty. There was an increasing number of leaves of absence, however, and the towns in the rear where troops are stationed are gay than at any time since the beginning of the war. The celebration that began Monday night gathered momentum instead of showing signs of abatement.

DO NOT HAVE TO BUY FLOUR SUBSTITUTES

Washington, Nov. 13.—Regulations requiring householders and bakers to purchase 20 per cent of substitutes with each purchase of wheat flour were withdrawn today by the food administration, effective immediately.

Substitutes already purchased and for which millers, dealers or bakers do not find a ready sale will be purchased by the grain corporation of the food administration under plans now being formulated. The coarser grains now being used as flour substitutes will be placed on the market as animal foods, of which there is a shortage.

Although wheat bread may now appear on the American table without restriction, the food administration announced it will conserve in the use of flour.

Relaxation of wheat regulations, which have been in effect in various forms since last January 28, was ascribed directly in a statement issued by the food administration tonight to the military armistice. It was pointed out that the Mediterranean sea is now safe for commercial transport and that the European nations can draw again on the large wheat supplies of India and Australia. With cargo ships released from military service it was said it also will be possible to tap accumulated supplies in the Argentine.

OVER THE TOP WITH THE WAR WORK FUND

On the opening day of the great United War Work Campaign telegrams began pouring into the office of State Director L. A. Coulter from many towns and counties that had gone over the top with their quotas at the first blast of the whistle.

Some went over Saturday, Archer County, sticking strictly to the letter of the law, waiting until 12:01 o'clock Sunday night, made a midnight drive over the top, and wired in its report at daybreak.

For those communities that have not yet reached their quotas, there still remain three days after this goes to press, and there is every inspiration in the events of the last few days to spur us to the most wonderful achievements.

Victory is assured. Peace is now in sight. The boys have done it. You and I have remained at home around our firesides, with our loved ones, getting high prices for our produce, drawing high wages, establishing ourselves safely and securely for the years ahead.

The boys have given up home and business, have risked life and health, have worked for $30.00 per month, and now must linger for months, perhaps for two years, before getting back to business and loved ones.

They will be scourged by the dread malady, homesickness. They will have more idle time. They will need more than ever the entertainments, athletics, and schoolroom work of the Seven Agencies.

AWFUL WAR HAS COME TO AN END

HOSTILITIES HAVE CEASED BETWEEN ALLIED ARMIES AND GERMAN ARMY—ARMISTICE IS IN FORCE.

THE TERMS OF PEACE WILL NOW BE FORMULATED

Terms of Armistice Puts Germany at the Mercy of the Victors and the Announcement of the Terms Will be Looked Forward To With Great Interest By Entire World.

Monday, November 11th, 1918, will long be remembered as a day of all days people all over the world, because of the fact that at six o'clock in the morning of that day orders went flashing along the battle lines that an armistice had been signed by the enemy and fighting should cease. The news was flashed over the wires to all parts of the world that the war was over, and great joy prevailed throughout the land. Every nook and corner of the nations engaged in this terrible war celebrated the great event, and there was thanksgiving services and all kinds of demonstrations made to indicate that the people were glad that the hour had come when fighting should cease.

Terms of peace will now be worked out, and under the terms of the armistice the enemy has thrown herself upon the mercy of the victors, and whatever their demands are they must be met. The announcement of the terms will be looked forward to with great interest by all nations, and because of the awful deeds that Germany has been guilty of during the four years she had been in war, it is not questioned that the terms will be most drastic, and the demands cannot be too exacting to fit the crimes she has committed.

Kaiser Bill quit his throne on the last moment, and is seeking shelter in Holland, and no doubt is hiding from the justice which is sure to follow and in keeping with the heinous crimes he personally should be held responsible for.

The Associated Press summarizes the allied victories Tuesday as follows: Victory—and peace.

After more than four years of struggling the rights of mankind are served. The greatest day in the history of nations has dawned. The German militaristic classes—arrogant beyond expression—are in defeat.

The Kaiser and crown prince are in flight—refugees in an alien country. German kings and potentials no longer hold their sway.

The allied armies are triumphant. Imperialistic Germany has met the fate that ultimately must come to any country that seeks to rule the world.

Deserted by all her allies, Germany, on her knees, is accepting terms of capitulation which amount virtually to abject surrender. Except for actual hostile military invasion, the once great European power, whose monarch's ambition was to dominate over all, is in complete defeat.

Beaten on the field of battle, the edict of the allied chief command is that the German armies shall retire into their own homeland from all invaded territory. Impotent as the German armies shall be, as impotent also shall be the German fleet. Colonies are lost, and the hand that sought to reach out and attain additional territory is withered by the ruling of the Supreme War Council at Versailles.

Reparation and restitution, in fact, full compensation of all kinds, is to be made by Germany for all the disaster that has followed her armies and those of her allies throughout the world war.

The handwriting was on the wall.

Hale Center Youth Killed in Action. Editor G. R. Scott of Hale Center Record received the sad news this morning that his son, Sergeant George Richardson Scott, was killed in action, October 8. Sergeant Scott was born in Amarillo, Texas, October 5, 1898. He enlisted in Company A, 141st Infantry, at El Paso, July 14, 1917, and was a member of the famous 36th division. He was killed in action October 8, 1918. All Hale Center join in sympathy for the sorrowing father, mother and sister.

for Germany. Her troops had fought valiantly throughout the more than four years of warfare. But what has been considered in Germany as an invincible army was beaten in feats of arms by the allied powers. Even before Germany's allies deserted her the strength of the entente allies had become apparent. Until prepared they resisted for more than three years the assaults of an enemy who had been preparing for combat since the Franco-Prussian war.

Countries Overrun. With a determination that could never recognize defeat, Belgium, France, Italy and Serbia were overrun. Hard days were experienced by the allies, but the smile of hopefulness—of satisfaction in ultimate success—never faded.

When finally the United States was drawn into the war by Germany's continued violations of international law, the gleam of the dawn of victory for world democracy rose in the sky.

On the field of battle in France and Belgium the Germans were fast being defeated when they flew the white flag of submission and asked for terms of peace. Everywhere, from the Belgian coast to the Moselle river the allies were pressing them. It was only a matter of time when their armies were to be decisively beaten on the battlefield. Their fortified lines of resistance had crumpled, successively under the impetus of the attacks of their foes. They were being harried everywhere from pillar to post. Even the great Rhine fortifications, it was forced on, would prove no barrier to the onward rush of the victorious armies.

Hence, Germany deserted by her allies, recognized that defeat stared her in the face and capitulated.

Germany as a nation—shorn of her imperialistic and militaristic powers—the defeat may not prove in the long run of disadvantage. Already the revolution throughout the country are tending toward democratization which may prove the salient of a country once controlled by war lords.

Fighting Ended at 6 O'Clock

Fighting on the battle fronts ended at 6 o'clock Monday morning, eastern time. The armies of the allies at that time—even to the second—were hard harrying the enemy.

The British troops were fighting their foes across the Belgian frontier in Belgium. The French had all but cleared the Germans from northern France. The Americans were driving northward up the Meuse and Moselle rivers, threatening the enemy with capitulation by envelopment.

The hostilities ended on the eleventh day of the eleventh month of 1918. The American infantrymen, in true sportsmanlike fashion, kept the time. Their eyes were on their wrist watches as they advanced up the Meuse and Moselle sectors in the fear that they would fire a shot after the stipulated time for the cessation of hostilities arrived. Not one whit less exact in their sportsmanlike were the American artillery men behind the lines, who waited to the second the time for the calling off of the fighting and then loosed from their big guns—a thousand of them—a rain of shells as a parting salute to the defeated foe.

LUBBOCK SCHOOL IS OVER THE TOP FIRST

In the boys and girls division of the United War Work the Lubbock High School was the first to report "over the top" in this district. They exceeded their quota, in fact their achievements were more than the entire quota for the boys and girls division in the entire county. They had finished their work before ten o'clock Monday. Hurrah for the boys and girls of Lubbock. They have been helping win the war every opportunity, and now they prove that their brothers and friends are taken care of during the time they will be away from home.

AVALANCHE MAN GUEST OF ABILENE PEOPLE

The Avalanche editor spent two days in Abilene since the last issue of the paper came to you. We attended the session of the Annual Conference, and was the guest of the people of Abilene, and we do not believe that any city, not even excepting our own great town could have entertained better than did Abilene, especially taking into consideration the short time that they had to prepare for the coming of the conference. True most of the delegates were taken care of in the hotels and cafes, but the accommodations were good and the feed was fine. It was strictly a business session of this great conference and not more than fifty per cent of the preachers and delegates were present, but it was a busy session, and under the direction of Bishop Cannon, much work was done in the length of time. A more detailed statement of the work is given in another part of this paper, and the list of appointments are given in full.

While in Abilene we met a number of people whom we had known elsewhere, and several of Lubbock people were there making that their home at present. Among them was E. M. Taylor, a former barber in Lubbock, and Ed Ainsworth, in the meat market; W. M. Shaw advertising solicitor for the Abilene Reporter; and Elder Penney who is now bucking the oil business to a finish. We also saw Rob Tubbs, navigating around looking for Buick prospects, and Harry Stone, once of Lubbock, but more recently from Seminole was down there trying to break into the army service.

Abilene is a dainty town, and the country around about it is getting well soaked for the coming crop season. There is a large acreage of wheat in that country and it is looking fine. If nothing slips Taylor county will be in the swim next year.

INTERESTING NEWS ITEMS FROM RALLS BANNER

The Banner regrets to note the death of Mrs. Cleveland, which sad event occurred at her home Tuesday as a result of influenza. The remains were interred in the Ralls cemetery. Our people extend sincere sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Rev. Hughes, pastor of the Methodist Church, preached a highly instructive and edifying sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday, same being the last sermon in the conference year, and will in all probability be the last sermon delivered here by him, as he tells us that he expects to be drafted into the army the 11th. The loss of Rev. Hughes will be keenly felt by our people. He is a minister of no little ability and a man that to know him is to love him. He and his splendid wife have many friends here who will regret very much to learn that he is to leave us.

Newman Payne of Lubbock, was here this week. We understand that Mr. Payne contemplates moving here, and putting in a barber shop.

IT DEPENDS UPON HOW WE SEE IT

In a certain country a great many years ago there were two men, who went on a journey. One of the men walked along the road with head down. At the end of the journey he complained of the dust, of the mud, of the rocks that had hurt his feet, of the worms and other creeping things that had annoyed him, of the barking dogs, of the ill-smelling swine.

The other man traveled the same road, but held his head up. At the end of his journey he told of the blue skies, of the colorful sunsets, of the wonderful trees and more wonderful

A TRIBUTE TO REV. HICKS' SPLENDID WORK

The following from the Abilene Daily Reporter is a splendid tribute to the Rev. J. T. Hicks, of this city, who has spent the past two years here as pastor of the First Methodist church.

Among the men attending the Conference, who have been especially marked by their accomplishments of the past year, is the Rev. J. T. Hicks, of Lubbock. He was formerly pastor of St. Paul Methodist Church of this city, and is well known to many people here. He has been at Lubbock two years. On Saturday night a few weeks after he first arrived in Lubbock, the Methodist church building was destroyed by fire. The congregation worshipped in the high school building the next day, and on the following Sunday gathered in a large tabernacle. That the indefatigable pastor had superintended the erection of a new church building is a fact. A few months later this lumber was sold to the contractor building the new church at a loss of only 25 per cent and now constitutes a part of the bridging and frame work of a beautiful modern brick church building, erected and furnished at a cost of more than $40,000, with a debt of only $5,000, which can easily be disposed of during the coming year. The building is a model of modern convenience for Sunday school and all the church work. It has one of the largest auditoriums in the western part of the State. The congregation under Dr. Hicks' leadership has raised over $46,000 in cash during the two years of his pastorate, and has had a great net gain in membership. It has advanced to one of the leading appointments of the conference. This church was to have been the host of the conference this year and the homes of the city were ready for the delegates and visitors when the authorities became alarmed over the influenza scourge and clapped on a quarantine. In view of this the Conference voted unanimously to go there next time. It was the emergency caused by this quarantine that caused Abilene to come to the help of the conference. Though the notice was short the city is proving equal to the task.

Dr. W. S. Ferguson, a dentist from Lubbock, is locating among us this week. Dr. Ferguson thoroughly understands his profession and we can unhesitatingly recommend him.—Post City Post.

Charging is not an especially complicated process, but it is an especially important one.

By proper charging, batteries are returned to their proper condition; by improper charging, their life is likely to be seriously shortened.

When your battery is charged by a Willard expert, the charging rate is carefully determined, and is slowed down by just the right amount as the process nears completion.

Ask us about the Still Better Willard. It is the only battery with the "Bone Dry" principle that is your absolute assurance of getting a battery as new as the day it left the factory.

We test, repair, and recharge storage batteries, and always carry a full supply of battery parts, new batteries and rental batteries. Repairs, starters, generators, magnetos. We weld anything.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO THE FARMERS

Good chickens should receive good feed; but good feed is too valuable for sorry chickens and good chickens are too valuable for sorry feed. Send the sorry chickens to market, and make a careful study of rations and the care of desirable chickens for best results in the poultry flock.

The pig that is left to shift for itself seldom proves a valuable meat producer. Little care little profit is the rule in pork production. Judgment in selection of type and wisdom exercised in choosing rations march hand in hand with profits in the pig industry while ignorance and carelessness yield a harvest of regrets.

The man who looks into the silo question now and makes proper provision for next year will have made one important step toward the solution of the feed proposition and can devote his time next to solving his feed and other important seasonal problems. It takes more than good resolutions and plans to save feed in an emergency; besides every farmer keeping seven or more cows should have a silo well stocked with feed every year.

Cottage cheese tastes exceedingly good to a hungry man and is a desirable dish at any time when properly prepared. Cottage cheese has its place in the farm home. Talk to your County Home Demonstration Agent about the matter.

Fruit is bringing a good price this year. What about your fruit trees? Are you giving them the proper care? Remember, it takes some time to build up an orchard, while a little neglect will quickly make one unprofitable. Fruit trees make splendid shade and every home should have a few fruit trees instead of so many shade trees. The old June apple tree, the pear and the peach tree are closely linked with the memories of childhood in many lives and your children have not really lived if deprived of such memories.

If you have cattle and no feed, or feed and no cattle, talk to your County Agent about the matter. Efforts are being made to bring the two together.

Did you select your own seed this year or merely resolve to do so and then forget it? It takes seed to raise crops and you may be sorry when the time comes. An ounce of prevention is worth one pound of cure. The man who has land and no seed will be like the man with fire arms and no powder, unable to shoot. He will have to take any old powder he can get, and what he gets may be worthless.

The one-crop man will eventually strike a snag. Diversity, live at home and make your principal crop a money crop. Do not mine the soil. Give it a square deal. Never rob it, but make a fair exchange. Whenever you take out nitrogen, phosphorus, potash, etc., in one form, be sure to replace it in another form. If Texas land could tell the story of its abuse farmers would be astonished. You would not attempt to starve animals or work twenty-four hours a day and get results, neither can you starve your land or mine it and get the best results.

Market your weeds by keeping a few sheep and goats. They will clean up the fence corners and waste places and furnish a medium for transforming weeds into a desirable commodity.

Watch out for diseases and insect pests. Do not permit them to get beyond control. A little precaution at the proper time may save thousands of dollars to your community and hundreds of dollars for yourself.

Terms of the Armistice Signed With Germany

Washington, Nov. 11.—The terms of the armistice with Germany were read to Congress by President Wilson at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Assembled in the hall of the House where nineteen months ago Senators and Representatives heard the President ask for the declaration of war, they today heard him speak the words which herald the coming of peace.

The President spoke as follows: Gentlemen of the Congress:

In these anxious times of rapid and stupendous change it will in some degree lighten my sense of responsibility to perform in person the duty of communicating to you some of the larger circumstances of the situation which it is necessary to deal.

The German authorities who have, at the invitation of the Supreme War Council, been in communication with Marshal Foch, have accepted and signed the terms of armistice which he was authorized and instructed to communicate to them. Those terms are as follows:

Military Clauses.

Military clauses on western front: First—Cessation of operations by land and in the air six hours after the signature of the armistice.

Second—Immediate evacuation of invaded countries: Belgium, France, Alsace-Lorraine, Luxembourg, so ordered as to be completed within fifteen days from the signature of the armistice. German troops which have not left the above-mentioned territories within the period fixed will become prisoners of war. Occupation by the Allied and United States forces joined will keep pace with these areas. All movements of evacuation and occupation will be regulated in accordance with a note annexed to stated terms.

Third—Repatriation, beginning at once and to be completed within fourteen days, of all inhabitants of the countries above mentioned, including hostages and persons under trial or convicted.

Fourth—Surrender in good condition by the German armies of the following equipment:

Five thousand guns (2,500 heavy, 2,500 field), 30,000 machine guns, 3,000 minnewerfer, 2,000 airplanes (fighters, bombers—firstly D, seventy-threes and eight bombing machines). These to be delivered in situ to the Allies and the United States troops in accordance with the detailed conditions laid down in the annexed note.

5. Evacuation by the German armies of the countries on the left bank of the Rhine.

Provide Neutral Zone.

These countries on the left bank of the Rhine shall be administered by the local authorities under the control of the Allies and the United States armies of occupation. The occupation of these territories shall be determined holding the principal crossings of the Rhine, Mayence, Coblenz, Cologne, together with bridgeheads at these points in thirty kilometer radius on the right by Allied and United States garrisons bank and by garrisons similarly holding the strategic points of the regions. A neutral zone shall be reserved on the right of the Rhine between the stream and a line drawn parallel to it forty kilometers to the east from the frontier of Holland to the parallel of Gersheim and as far as practicable a distance of thirty kilometers from the east of the stream from this parallel upon the Swiss frontier. Evacuation by the enemy of the Rhine lands shall be so ordered as to be completed within a further period of eleven days in all, nineteen days after the signature of the armistice. All movements of evacuation and occupation will be regulated according to the note annexed.

6. In all territory evacuated by the enemy there shall be no evacuation of inhabitants; no damage or harm shall be done to the possession or property of the inhabitants. No destruction of any kind is to be committed. Military establishments of all kinds shall be delivered intact as well as military stores of food, munitions, equipments not removed during the periods fixed for evacuation. Stores of food of all kinds for the civil population, cattle, etc., shall be left in situ. Industrial establishments shall not be impaired in any way and their personnel shall not be moved. Roads and means of communication of every kind, railroad, waterways, main roads, bridges, telegraphs, telephones, shall be in no manner impaired.

Seven—All civil and military personnel at present employed on them shall remain. Five thousand locomotives, 50,000 wagons and 10,000 motor lorries in good working order with all necessary spare parts and fittings shall be delivered to the Associated Powers within the period fixed for the evacuation of Belgium and Luxembourg. The railways of Alsace-Lorraine shall be handed over within the same period, together with all pre-war personnel and material. Further material necessary for the working of railways in the country on the left bank of the Rhine shall be left in situ. All stores of coal and material for the upkeep of permanent ways, signals, and repair shops to be left entirely in situ and kept in an efficient state by Germany during the whole period of armistice. All barges taken from the Allies shall be restored to them. A note appended regulates the details of these measures.

Eight—The German command shall be responsible for revealing all mines or delay-acting fuses disposed on territory evacuated by the German troops and shall assist in their discovery and destruction. The German command shall also reveal all destructive measures that may have been taken (such as poisoning or polluting of springs, wells, etc.) under penalty of reprisals.

Nine—The right of requisition shall be exercised by the Allies and the United States Armies in all occupied territory. The upkeep of the troops of occupation in the Rhine land (excluding Alsace-Lorraine) shall be charged to the German Government.

Ten—An immediate repatriation without reciprocity according to detailed conditions which shall be fixed, of all Allied Powers and the United States shall be able to dispose of these prisoners as they wish.

Eleven—Sick and wounded who cannot be removed from evacuated territory will be cared for by German personnel who will be left on the spot with the medical material required.

12. Disposition relative to the eastern frontiers of Germany.

Twelve—All German troops at present in any territory which before the war belonged to Russia, Roumania or Turkey shall withdraw within the frontiers of Germany as they existed on Aug. 1, 1914.

Immediate Evacuation.

Thirteen—Evacuation by German troops to begin at once and all German instructors, prisoners and civilian as well as military agents, now in the territory of Russia (as defined before 1914) to be recalled.

Fourteen—German troops to cease at once all requisitions and seizures and any other undertaking with a view to obtaining supplies intended for Germany in Roumania and Russia (as defined on Aug. 1, 1914).

Fifteen—Abandonment of the treaties of Bucharest and Brest-Litovsk and of the supplementary treaties.

Sixteen—The allies shall have free access to the territories evacuated by the Germans on their eastern frontier through Danzig or by the Vistula in order to convey supplies to the populations of those territories or for any other purpose.

17. Clause concern East Africa: Seventeen—Unconditional capitulation of all German forces operating in East Africa within one month.

IV.—General clauses:

Release Interned Civilians.

Eighteen—Repatriation without reciprocity within a maximum period of one month, in accordance with detailed conditions hereafter to be fixed, of all civilians interned or deported, who may be citizens of other Allied or associated States than those mentioned in clause three, paragraph nineteen, with the reservation that any future claims and demands of the Allies and the United States of America remain unaffected.

Winter Problems With Poultry

One of the most important factors for all poultry keepers to watch during the fall and winter, is the health of the flock.

Of the many things that will influence the profitability of the flock health is unquestionably the most important. Anything that will injure the general health of the flock will check egg production, stop development, and may cause a large mortality.

A healthy hen alone can be a profitable hen.

In Texas, the sudden changes in the temperature, followed by dampness, are a common cause of depletion of the vitality of the flocks.

To protect the birds against these sudden changes, properly constructed poultry houses are necessary, and above all else, remember, that one of the greatest causes of colds, roup, sore-head or chicken pox, are improperly ventilated houses. It is true that the henhouse should be kept comfortable and warm in the winter; but most certainly not at the expense of fresh air.

In fall and winter no direct drafts should be permitted in the hen house. This means that all ventilators, cracks and holes should be closed air tight on the north, east and west of the hen house. This is important. During warm, sunny and pleasant days part of the front of the east end of the hen house may be opened, and the south end may be kept open all the time, especially if the house is fourteen feet wide or wider. In very narrow houses, it is necessary to protect the birds from the cold and unpleasant south winds and rains.

Lack of fresh air is a certain cause of all kinds of winter poultry ailments. Too often the mistake is made of closing the hen house up too tight. A close, stuffy hen house is an ideal breeding place for colds, roup, sore-head, and other ailments. It is better to have too much fresh air than not enough. Provide plenty of fresh air without drafts.

Damp cold air is much more injurious to poultry than dry cold air. Strong currents of air open the feathers and permit the cold air to penetrate to the skin. The birds cannot stand direct drafts, either in the day time or at night, and especially at night.

Provide dry floors. Damp floors are very bad. Place a deep litter of straw on top of the floor. This has a tendency to keep the floor dry and provide an exercising place for the birds. Feed all grains in this deep, loose and dry litter. Do not overfeed.

In feeding your chickens in the winter time, always remember to feed them in such a way as to induce exercise. The one great cause of poultry diseases and drop in egg production in the winter time, is the short days and lack of exercise. It is true that at least once a day (at night) the fowls should have all the feed they want; but it is also true that extreme precaution must be exercised not to over feed, to the extent of causing the birds to be lazy all day and inactive. Feed plenty. But make the hens work for every particle. Make the birds exercise, to provide an active circulation of the blood, which will carry the poison out of the system.

Let the sunshine and exercise warm the birds. That is the best warmth.

Remember that the hen's body temperature is 104-108 degrees; in other words, she is very warm blooded. At night, it is important that the ventilations of the house should be such as to carry away the dampness from breath and droppings. Keep the front of the house open.

Get the birds off the roosts early in the morning, and start them to working in the litter to get warm. Do not let them stand around idle in the corners of the pen. Get them warm by working them in a clean, deep, loose, dry litter.

Do not provide warm or hot drinking water.

Hot mushes and hot drinking water are not very good. Warmth created by exercise is much better.

Feed all grains, green food, water and dry mush, in a way to induce exercise.

Remember these two important feed, in the winter time—Green food and Animal food.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR NEEDS MANY LABORERS

The U. S. Employment Service wishes to state that although peace has been declared, recruiting will continue for Carpenters and unskilled labor, to be shipped to the Dupont Engineering Co. at Nashville, Tenn. This work will last for at least another six months. Owing to the great demand for carpenters and unskilled labor at Nashville, Tenn., shipment will be made every Sunday from Lubbock until further notice. It is the duty of every able-bodied man, who can arrange to do so to answer this urgent call of the U. S. Government, and render his assistance in giving at least two or three months of his time to this work at Nashville, Tenn. We do not ask you to go for a mere pittance; carpenters will receive 60 cents per hour, time and a half for overtime and double time for Sundays. Unskilled labor 35 cents per hour and time and a half for overtime and double time for Sundays. Transportation and meals en route furnished; this not to be deducted if men agree to stay 60 days.

Any men wishing to make this

TRUE MOTHERHOOD AS IT SHOULD EXIST

Since the creation of motherhood by the birth of the first son on earth, mothers have been taught to be selfish, or else it was made a part of the first mother and we have inherited it. If we were asked to name the two strongest traits of motherhood—we would say "Love and selfishness." We may be wrong, but that is the way it looks to us in others, and the way it feels in ourself.

"YOU take care of your child and I'll take care of mine." How often have you heard that? And when it is said the speaker waives ever responsibility in this life to every other child in the world. She recognizes no duty to her neighbor's child, to the children of her community, State or nation. She tells herself frankly and emphatically that she is in no way responsible for her neighbor's children, then why should she worry? But to be scientific, not one of us is responsible for our own existence, then why should we worry about ourselves or with ourselves. Nevertheless, without our consultation or our consent, we are here. We have all been drafted into this world and your neighbor's children are no more to blame for being here than yours are and they are born with the same inalienable rights; "among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." And here is where the trouble begins. We want our child to have the best chance in life. We begin by wanting our baby to have the prettiest clothes when it is born. We want folks to make more fuss over us and our baby than any other woman and her baby. We don't like it if someone else comes in with a finer looking baby than ours. A few years later we want our little boy or girl to have the best seat at school. We want him to win every prize that is offered and we are willing to do most of his work for him if it will help him any. No matter how much harm it does him for the future, we want the teacher to think more of him than any of the other children. Later we want him to lead the class, whether he is capable or not. If we go anywhere on the train we want him to have a whole seat, so we can have the other seat, no matter how crowded the other woman is with her four or five children. At the table we want him to have the best piece of chicken and the biggest piece of pie, no matter who goes without or eats the back, or turnover pie. We know we are selfish. We think it because we love our child that we always want him to have the best. And when he becomes a selfish domineering man and expects everybody to think of him and his comfort and interests first, like his mother always did, you think it is a cruel world that ranks him where he belongs in the human scale, because he is still your boy and your love makes you blind to the kind of a man you have reared. You never cared what happened to the other children in the neighborhood, just so yours had everything he wanted and now down deep in your heart where you try to keep it hid from everybody you are wondering why your boy has not amounted to more in this world when you did so much for him. Poor man! He had a mother who cared for nobody's son but hers. She cared nothing for the humiliation of other children just so hers were exalted. She paid little attention to how he won a prize just so he got it. Had no interest in the conditions of the town just so her boy was safe. She cared nothing for child-labor laws so long as her child did not need to work. She took no interest in the lives of dependent women and children because her husband provided everything she and her family needed. She had no interest in the world outside of her home, consequently the world felt little interest in her home and less indebted to her family.

This is why we have so many selfish, spoiled men in the world today. We need more mothers with hearts big enough to love all the children in the whole country. Mothers who want to see their neighbors children win a part of the prizes. Mothers who want to do their part to purify the social and moral atmosphere for all the children in our land. Mothers

ARRANGEMENTS AT UNITED SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

Arrangements are being made for a special service at the Methodist church Sunday night. It is the last service that Rev. J. T. Hicks will give with us for some time, and the first Sunday that Rev. Griswold will be in our city as pastor of the Methodist church.

Some of the other churches in the city, if not all have arranged among themselves that they will not hold services in their churches Sunday night, but will come together in a united service to pay tribute to the splendid work and co-operation of Rev. Hicks in this city during the two years pastorate in Lubbock, and to extend greeting to the new pastor, who is just entering the work here. It is not known who will preach at this hour, but you can rest assured that an able and appropriate sermon will be delivered, and you are cordially invited to attend.

Watch the label on your paper.

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to make a creamy beauty lotion for a few cents.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught, Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theford's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit. If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result. Theford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Rev. C. E. Lynn, went to Hedley Wednesday to look after some business matters in that place. He has sold some property there and has located in Lubbock for the present. He will have charge of the east half of the Lubbock Mission the coming year, and will preach at Monroe, Idalou, Canyon and New Hope. Rev. Ross will have that part of the work west of town, as heretofore.

The editor of this paper spent a few hours in Tahoka Tuesday, looking after business matters. The people of that town are very optimistic over the oil prospects in that community. The Tahoka Oil and Gas Company are busy installing the well drilling machinery, and operations toward oil will soon begin.

Hooray for Banana Peel "Gets-It"

Only Real Way to Get Rid of Corns.

Which do you prefer—a corn that pulls or a corn that peels? Butchery or blessedness? Only "Gets-It" can get rid of your corn the peel-off way, the blessed way. You don't need a pain.

"Corns Never Trouble Me, I Use 'Gets-It'!" Why bump yourself up on the floor and with your toes set and eyes popping from pain, heat, and sweat, and get your corn? Why irritate your toes with some save or wrap your toe into a big painful bundle with some sticky tape or plaster? Life is too short. Use "Gets-It"—it takes a few seconds to apply and there's no fussing. Corns go. Wear new shoes if you want. Peel off the corn with your fingers—the whole thing, root and all, clear and clean, and it's gone! Only "Gets-It" can do this. Take no chances. LETTERS FROM THE SOLDIER BOYS.

M. B. Carr, Somewhere in France, 10-16-18. Mrs. Eula Carr, Lubbock, Texas. Dear wife: Hope you are well and enjoying life. I am well and feel fine. I like here better than I really expected too, but yet it don't look like the good old U. S. A. to me.

I had a nice trip coming over. I didn't get sea sick myself, but most of the boys fed the fishes some.

I wrote you a letter a few days ago, but didn't get it wrote in time to get it in before we moved again, so I destroyed it. There are lots of things I would like to write to you, but can't guess I will have lots to tell you about when I get back home.

I would give anything in the world if I could see you today. Hope it will not be so very long till we can come back home. I think I will get back to my old company, possibly, in a few days. I certainly hope I do. This is a very pretty country, but it is curious, it is so different to America. I am now at France. I think I will be able to write to you every few days from now on. I hope it will not be long till I can hear from you. I am getting very anxious to hear from home, but am waiting patiently, for I know I may not hear for some time yet, possibly two months.

If you have time soon you can write to mother and let her know you heard from me. I'm going to write to her this evening if I have time, but you and her both may not get the letters.

I don't guess I will write very much till I get with a permanent company. This is about all I know (that I can write) will close with love and best wishes to you and may God bless and help you, as ever, your husband.

I was hit in the chest, just above the right nipple, by a machine gun bullet last Saturday (Oct. 5th) but it only penetrated about an inch. It passed through some note books, letters and my safety razor, which almost stopped it. My razor was broken into small bits, so guess it will be a safety razor for me the rest of the time I am in France. These French razors don't look good enough to buy. The Red Cross gives safeties to all the boys going to the front, so I'll be fitted out soon. I was given my clothes this afternoon and guess I'll be leaving here tomorrow.

I was very much surprised to get a bullet where I was, as I was acting as company runner and had advanced with the front wave to a wood where there were so many guns we halted and dug in. While there the Major sent for a runner to go to Battalion headquarters and I was sent back there, where I stopped a bullet inside of an hour. When I opened up my clothes the end of the bullet was sticking out so I pulled it out with my fingers.

DON'T BE JUST AN "AVERAGE" MAN

Young people must make themselves efficient and handle their earnings properly during their productive years if they are to escape the common lot of being dependent in old age.

The life insurance companies have compiled figures which abundantly demonstrate these facts. Give sober consideration to this digest of life experiences of one hundred average men. At the age of sixty-five the record of these men are as follows: thirty-five are dead, one rich, four wealthy, six are self supporting but are compelled to work for a living, fifty-four or over half the number are dependent on children, relatives, or charity. This is a sad state of affairs and only can be remedied by getting the proper kind of business training in youth.

The average educated man gets a salary of $2,000 a year. He works forty years, making a total of $80,000 in a life time. The average day laborer gets $3.00 per day three hundred days in the year, or $900 a ### School Notes.

Our school has only been suspended one week on account of influenza. We believe we've been fortunate for we've only had two cases in our community and none in our school.

Velma Newton, a former pupil, visited us last Friday.

We were honored last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Boerner, Mr. Thompson and Prof. Dupre made us a pleasant call. We enjoyed all the speeches. The talk of Mr. Dupre's especially bears comment. These folks were talking on the war campaign fund. Our quota from this community is $125, and the teachers have been appointed to raise this fund, by the help of the neighbors and school children, we are positive we can go over the top.

Our school has organized a literary society and the following officers were elected last Friday:

Hanev Emery, president.
Ruth Newton, Secretary.
Lois Cone, Ora Karr and Cassina Hettler, program committee.

The following program will be rendered this afternoon, Nov. 8:

Constitution and by-laws—Read by Herbert Hettler.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT BY LADIES AID SOCIETY

Whereas, our Heavenly Father in His wisdom and love has called from earth to heaven our beloved sister, Sarah Elizabeth Richmond.

We, your committee in behalf of the church Ladies Aid Society and Woman's Bible Class beg to submit the following resolution:

1st. Be it resolved that we bow in submission to the will of our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well, and that we extend to the sorrowing husband and daughters, the sisters and all who are bereaved by her going our love and deepest sympathy.

2nd. That our church has lost one of its most efficient, devoted and tireless workers; there is a place in our Ladies Aid Society and Woman's Bible Class which never can be filled, that we shall miss her constant helpfulness in all our religious work.

As our former president of the Ladies Aid she was untiring in her efforts to do good, and has been ever ready to give counsel and advice to our young president, whom it was her desire to have succeed her.

She was never too weary to answer duty's call, willingly and cheerfully, always thinking of others, especially those who were most in need of help. She seemed to love everyone and bore more than her share of the tasks before her, only conscious that she was doing her Master's work. She was devoted to her pastor and stood by him in all his work.

Not having missed a Sunday from her class this year she was in her place and taught her class before taking the train.

4. That the entire community, as well as the church will greatly miss her for the kindly words and loving words of sympathy, she was ever ready to give.

5. That we, your committee, feel that words are inadequate to fully express our great love and appreciation of our dear teacher and co-worker these many years.

We shall ever treasure as a precious heritage the memory of the beautiful christian life she lived, and though she will meet with us no more

ALLOWANCE OF SUGAR CUTS OUT NON-ESSENTIALS

Further Restrictions Imposed on Ice Cream Manufacturers and Candy Makers by Food Administration.

November and December Allotment Cut to 12,500,000 Pounds a Month in Texas—Substitutes Provided.

The November and December allotment of sugar for Texas does not provide for the further carrying of ice cream manufacturers as essential. The allotment of ice cream makers for November and December will be 25 percent per month of the average monthly consumption during July, August and September of 1917. The allotment of sugar to Texas by the Food Administration for November and December respectively is 12,500,000 pounds. The allotment for Texas during July was 18,000,000 pounds, August 12,230,000 pounds, September 14,700,000 (with the addition of 2,000,000 pounds extra for preserving needs).

Soft drink manufacturers, which include bottlers, soda fountains, etc., are only allowed 25 percent per month of the average monthly use during July, August and September of 1917.

Candy Men Cut.
Candy manufacturers are allowed 50 percent of their average monthly use for July to December, inclusive, of 1916, and for July to December, 1917, inclusive.
In numerous instances patriotic house holders can not understand why they are requested to cut their consumption of sugar to two pounds per person per month when apparently bottlers, candy manufacturers and soda fountains are obtaining sugar in what seem unlimited quantities. The Food Administration wishes it thoroughly understood that all manufacturers of non-essentials are controlled by the Food Administration and in the case of the bottlers, soda fountains and ice cream manufacturers they are only allowed 25 percent of the amount of sugar they consumed during the period set forth above.

On account of the great use of various sweetening substitutes practically all manufacturers have been able to keep up their output, supplying all demands made upon them for non-essentials. The consumer, however, who patronizes the stand-up soda fountains can rest assured that the non-essential drinks were continued will contain at least 25 percent sugar substitutes. By this the Food Administration does not wish to imply that the substitutes used are inferior to sugar, but are not. Bottlers have been able to obtain various corn syrups, honey, maple sugar and other substitutes.

Ice Cream vs. Milk.
With reference to ice cream manufacturers the Food Administration announces that while heretofore they were allowed sufficient sugar to take care of their requirements, the reason for a change in allotment is due to a change in the program of the conservation of dairy products. At the time almost full measure of sugar was allowed to ice cream manufacturers the Food Administration was endeavoring to protect the dairy interests in order to bring about the increased production of milk and to care for the surplus which was difficult of marketing during the spring and summer.

On account of cooler weather and the lessening milk supply the Food Administration has been compelled to revise its program in reference to ice cream manufacturers, believing that it is more necessary to get the milk into the hands of the consumer in liquid form, and also because it has a greater nutritive value in the liquid form.
It has been brought to the attention of the Sugar Division that some representatives of ice cream makers have been inferring that the Food Administration is changing its policy under such order is changed by Food Administrator Peden.

PRODUCTION TO BE REACHED BY NEW METHOD OF GOVERNMENT BUYING

Members are highly pleased at the fact that the agencies purchasing beef, mutton and American eggs to buy in quantity rather than by weight. Pryor of San Antonio, president of the American National Live Stock Association, writing Administrator Peden, says: "I have read your letter of October 17 with a great deal of pleasure. The agreement entered into by Secretary Daniels, Secretary Houston and Mr. Hoover, also representatives of the quartermaster general of the army, and paymaster general of the navy, is worth millions of dollars to the producer of live stock of this country, and this great saving to the producers will not necessarily be the means of the government paying any more for their beef than they have in the recent past."

"To illustrate: A baby beef, which has been full fed from weaning time on as to hold all of its milk fat, weighing say 500 pounds when 15 or 18 months old, has been selling on the market for from $2.00 to $3.00 per hundredweight, whereas a big, heavy animal weighing 1,500 or 1,600 pounds, whereas it is equally as good, if not better beef than the heavier weight, but the light weight could not get into a class where the army and navy would use it. Therefore, this has created a great deal of money for the producer of beef and has made very much against the sale of lighter weight beef, which is just as good in quality."
"I have known producers to refuse to buy a drop of cattle because, when fed, they would not weigh a sufficient amount to come within the army specifications when killed. I am certain that to know that the meat hereafter will be selected on a basis of quality, and the inspector under the jurisdiction of the Agricultural Department, are the proper ones to make this inspection."

"I want to thank you for your letter confirming this information which I had learned through the press. This will be a great stimulus to meat production in this country."

NATIONWIDE CAMPAIGN ON NEW FOOD PROGRAM

WILL BEGIN FIRST WEEK IN DECEMBER.

Military Situation Forms No Adequate Reason for Relaxation of Conservation Plans.

The nation-wide campaign of the United States Food Administration setting forth the new food program for American homes, because of influenza, has been deferred from the week of Oct. 27 to Nov. 7 to the week of Dec. 1. The week will begin with conservation Sunday on Dec. 1. The date is necessary in order to avoid conflict with the Y. M. C. A. campaign.

Mr. Hoover advises Mr. Peden that the military situation forms no adequate reason for relaxation of conservation, but, on the contrary, the European developments make emphasis upon this conservation effort as particularly important. The evacuation of occupied territory imposes upon the American people responsibility for additional civilian population, and every acre retained means so many additional mouths that must be fed.

Food Control After War.
"How about the question of food control after the war?" Mr. Hoover was asked.

He replied: "Well, what do you think? There are practically 53,000,000 people starting right now in Poland and Russia. There are more in Roumania and Serbia. We are doing nothing for them now, but we must do when the chance comes. So far as the western allies are concerned we are sending them now what is equivalent to food enough for 20,000,000 people. That represents their deficiency. That deficiency will not disappear with peace. And there are all the starving people we are not reaching now to be considered. I will not speak of the people in the enemy countries."

"We can't stop when the war stops. For one thing, if we abandon control of exports, if we went back to conditions as they were before the Food Administration was created, we'd have a famine in this country within six months of peace. Europe would storm our markets. We must maintain regulation for that reason alone. But I think we will want to do it for the same idealistic reasons that have been responsible for our conservation program up to now."

Animal Herds Wiped Out.

"The animal herds of many parts of Europe are being wiped out—they are almost gone in some places. They had to be slaughtered for meat and because they couldn't be fed. So here we have been working to build up a great animal reserve. We must replenish those herds for them after the war—we must be ready to do it. Those herds mean milk and butter and fat as well as meat. And the meat is going to be vitally important in rebuilding the weakened and impoverished peoples who have had to go through the strain of the war."

"We're getting the reserve doing that involves a good many problems. Food is one. Then there are droughts and blights that we have to combat as they come. We have to move cattle by train at times from a section where they can't be fed or watered. Still we're succeeding and there are no difficulties we can't overcome. We are doing splendidly with hogs. A year ago our herd of hogs numbered about 60,000,000. Now it has gone up to 90,000,000."

Now Looking Ahead.

"These are facts which answer the question. We are looking ahead now to the time after the war. We will have plenty to do during the war and will have, and the war is not over yet, nor can we see the end of it. But we can't ignore what we shall have to do afterward. If we do, we will not be able to make good."

"The work must go on. There is a tremendous lot yet to be accomplished. We have 5,000,000 tons more of food-stuffs to ship abroad this year than last and the surplus to draw from is no larger than last year's," says Administrator Peden.

"Food conservation continues as necessary—although on a voluntary basis—as ever. The duration of the war is still an uncertain factor, but after the end does come I imagine a large number of American soldiers must be left in Europe for months to aid policing the situation there, and it will take a year or more after peace is declared to transport all our boys back home again."

Must Feed Starving People.
"In the meantime we must feed them, and we must feed them plentifully. We must assist in the feeding of some 85,000,000 of the starving peoples of the smaller nations fringing the border of Germany and Austria-Hungary, who must look to America for food—perhaps for several years to come."

"There the great opportunity to do our part in restoring the equilibrium of Europe is still ahead of us, and we must grasp it and grow not weary in well doing until after peace comes and after the reconstruction period when the small nations are set upon their feet again, established in their respective places and positions among the prosperous, happy nations of the earth."

"Thus, as we have sacrificed, as we have economized, let us continue without abatement our economy and our sacrifices gladly until that bright and glorious day when all the nations of the world shall be at peace and upon sound, substantial footing; until hunger and want have disappeared; and until we have back with us again in our homes and by our firesides those brave, courageous loved ones who fearlessly went over the seas to sever the shackles of ruthless Hunnism from the wrists and ankles of the weaker peoples; to wage and to win war of freedom, democracy and Christianity; and to establish a peace of the right sort for all nations for all time to come."

Peace does not bring a cessation in Red Cross work, for all our boys are still "over there" and may be for several months. It is expected that the making of refugee garments will continue for some time yet. Also knitted articles will be made. The November quota for surgical dressings for the local chapter has not yet been completed on account of the recent epidemic, but the rooms will be open on Monday and it is hoped all who can will come assist in making the quota for the month. The quota calls for 300 cotton pads, both large and small; which must be completed this month. Therefore the need of many workers is urged.

HOW A SUBMARINE IS CONTROLLED

Describing a boy's adventure in a submarine in Boys' Life for October Ralph Henry Barbour writes. They paused and looked through the door. There were nine persons there, the captain and first officer and seven men. It was quite a spacious chamber. It was quite a spacious chamber, as it needed to be in order to accommodate all those necessary to navigate the boat under water. A ladder led upward to the conning tower above and a bench ran along one side, but for the rest the furnishings of the central station were all mechanical. Dials, valves, gyroscope compass, manifolds, steering and diving wheels, depth gauges, levers, clinometer for determining the boat's inclination, motor controllers, engine room telegraph, navigating lights, voice pipes and other things were indicated by Martin. Here was the brain of the craft. Every activity is controlled from this white walled, light flooded chamber, and from it wires and pipes led forward and aft like nerves. Two gunners' mates were at the big brass wheels controlling the diving rudders while in front of them a gauge indicated the boat's depth. Their duty, explained Martin was to keep the submarine on an even keel and at the depth ordered by the navigating officer, by means of the forward and aft diving rudders. Near them a mechanic presided over the air and water manifolds of the ballast and trimming tanks. A fourth man was in charge of the Kingston valves which flood the main ballast tanks during submergence. A stersman was at the wheel at the left of the forward door and two electricians stood by the No. 2 periscope ready for duty. Passing through the forward battery compartment, Nelson found himself in the wireless room, a small compartment, at present holding one man, who, with a telephone receiver strapped to his head, was listening at the Fessenden Oscillator, or submarine signal apparatus. The compartment was a maze of wires, meters, switches, coils and other electrical contrivances. Beyond the wireless room were the small staterooms occupied by the officers. They were tiny, bare, white walled cells containing little more than a bunk, a chest of drawers, a small writing desk and a lavatory each.

Our business for the past eighteen months has been to win the war. We have been very successful.

Rev. J. T. Griswold is expected here Friday, and will be here for the services Sunday. He will move here from Sweetwater during next week.

LUMPS FROM THE SUGAR BOWL

SUGAR SLACKERS

Said the Yellow Sugarite
To the Yellow Sugarite:
"I'm a son 'o' to have my sugar,
And as much as I can get."
What's the difference whether war lasts
For a year or for a day?
Then he sneaked a lump of sweetness
That he'd slyly hid away.

Said the Yellow Sugarite
To the Yellow Sugarite:
"All this food talk makes me tired;
You are just exactly right."
Then she snopped into her hangbag
And withdrew a sugar lump.
Which she dropped into her coffee
With a Kaiseristic "plump."

Said the citizen and patriot
To the slacker, as they stirred:
"I have seen you, and I know you,
And I've heard your every word,
And this message I would give you,
From the loyal U. S. A.
That the Limp-sighed Sugar Slacker
Hasn't very long to stay."
— P. McMind.

"YELLOW SUGAR" USERS ANOTHER FORM OF SLACKERS.

"Yellow Sugar" is the brand which patrons of public eating places carry in their pockets and add to their drinks, desserts and cereals after the restaurant proprietor has fulfilled his solemn obligation to the nation by serving only what is allowed on the basis of two pounds per person per month.

The "Yellow Sugarite" and the "Yellow Sugarite" is the male and female declaration of those thin-skinned men and women who have only a casual interest in the winning of the war. Handling these men and women is a rather unpleasant task of the Food Administration; and their selfishness is the source of embarrassment and worry to the patriotic proprietors who are complying with the rules and regulations.

Administrator Feden announces that the law of public opinion should be invoked in all such cases and has requested that all loyal citizens notifying patrons bringing sugar into public eating places send the names to the Houston headquarters so that the names may be made public. Name of person making report will be protected.

Herbert Hoover, speaking to the State Food Administrators on the issue of sugar, said: "Sugar is the one commodity that voluntary conservation does not seriously reach. I suppose the great sugar eaters are those of the community who have the least moral resistance."

SUGAR BEING OBTAINED UNDER FALSE COLORS.

Summers to householders purchasing more than their allotment of sugar based on the ration of two pounds per person per month have, in a number of instances, been returned to the Food Administration marked "no such party at this address." The Enforcement Division is inclined to believe that purchases of sugar are being made under false names and retail merchants, where in case of doubt as to the name and address of a purchaser, are requested to verify the name and address in the City Directory, and where attempt to secure sugar under false pretense develops to report the name of the offender to the Food authorities.

PUBLIC HEALTH

Youth's Companion.

"Acute Indigestion."

You occasionally read of some prominent person—a business man or a politician, for example—who, in the midst of his activity is suddenly seized with an attack of "acute indigestion." You think of it as an unpleasant experience, but nevertheless as an illness from which the sufferer will rapidly recover after taking an emetic, perhaps, or a dose of calomel or of castor oil. The acute indigestion of the man past middle age, however, is very different from that of a child or even of a young adult who has dined not wisely but too well. The acute indigestion of the older person may have no immediate relation to eating. True, it not infrequently strikes its victim while he is speaking at a public dinner; but probably he has partaken very sparingly of the food, for the man who has something important to say on such occasions is usually careful to eat and to drink very little.

As a matter of fact, the condition is usually not indigestion at all, but arterial spasm,—what physicians call angina abdominis,—a condition of the same nature as the more familiar angina pectoris, and differing from it only in the seat of the spasm and of the pain. It is one of the symptoms of arteriosclerosis; the pain is in the abdomen because the spasmodic contraction occurs in the abdominal aorta—the great artery that runs down alongside the spine.

The attack begins suddenly with severe, often excruciating, pain in the abdomen, which radiates from the central point, and sometimes passes into the back. At the same time the victim suffers from anxiety and restlessness and he expels more or less gas from the stomach. Some unusual physical exertion,—such as running, lifting heavy parcels or carrying a heavy bag, working too hard in the garden,—or an intense or prolonged mental strain is the immediate cause of the attack.

Inhalation of nitrite of amyl may shorten the attack, but ordinarily rest and the application of heat, by means of a poultice or preferably a hot-water bottle, will be all that is necessary to subdue the pain. The arterial sclerosis must be treated by appropriate measures, largely dietetic, and the patient must carefully avoid overexertion of mind or body. Such attacks in late middle age or in advanced years are danger signals; when the person heeds their warning he may find them to be a blessing in disguise.

TENDERFOOT WARNS US ABOUT WAR RECORDS

Groesville, Texas, Nov. 12, 1918.

Last night we heard our first and the last "big guns" of the great war that has been raging for over four long years. Lubbock turned out all her "Big War Horses" and they alarmed the whole country with their shots and yells. Look what we have done.

I was just fixing to go over myself. I started to go many times, but Mrs. Tenderfoot and the little "footies" put up such a yell until I would have to turn back every time.

Mr. J. A. Barton wants to go now. He went to Lubbock yesterday to fill out his questionnaire and they told him the war was over. They say he cried like a baby.

Mr. Ira Elliott said he would just like for someone to show him a German.

Mr. John Sowell is also mad because he did not get there. He started the other day and got as far as Dimmit. He was told by someone the war was over. He fairly raved. Oh! WE have done it all.

It won't be long now before we will begin to hear "Big War Records." These fellows that have been "shooting" off their mouths at the Germans for four years will be running for office on their "War Record." Our dear editor has also "forgot" to beled and died" for Democracy.

Look out now when our little boys begin to come home. They will have everyone of them "been over the top and killed a thousand Germans" each. I have one that has been over there some time. He says he has been all the time where the bullets were thickest. He is hauling ammunition. I have another who has just a rived over there in time to roll up all that barbed wire and fill up all those ditches.

Well, we are all glad anyway. But while our old hearts are made glad let us not forget those that are still sad over the loss of loved ones.

Our people are about through heading maize, picking cotton, etc. now and threshing grain, baling hay, and hauling to market is the order of the day.

A Mr. Sears from "down east" has bought two fine sections of land in our midst recently. He is the father of our "Own dear Mr. Sears" that now lives on the Flynt place.

Health of community generally is good. Though there is some few cases of the Spanish Influenza.

A good many of our farmers have some choice seed threshed of the once "Famous Sudan." Also cane seed, maize, kaffir, Hagaira, etc.

Smith Shaw had nothing to thrash

but children. You must pardon the reference to Sudan. But you all know:

Lubbock was a city
In a modest quiet way
But was made "Famous"
By her "Sudan Hay."
Now she is the "Hub of the Plains"
The hub you know is the center of a wheel.

"The city of Lubbock," the "Hub of the Plains,"
War and drouth have given her a mighty rub.
If the war continues and we don't have rains,
I am mighty afraid that wheel is "ruining" lose a hub.

Will place five hundred shares among the best business men of the state. We are not selling you an interest in five acres, ten acres, or even one hundred acres, but in THIRTEEN THOUSAND acres of leases which offer as good prospects for oil and gas in paying quantities as any undeveloped field anywhere has ever offered. The heart of our leases is just southwest of the vast expanse of Cedar Lake, the largest bed-bottom in the state.

WHY WE EXPECT OIL AND GAS ON OUR LEASES

Efficiency has been our slogan. Before we leased an acre of land in Gaines county we had three of the best geologists the state affords to make extended surveys of the country and upon their reports which were the most favorable we leased the country indicated by them as the heart of the oil pool about Cedar Lake. In addition to this we have subsequent reports from the most reliable geologists who have said unconditionally that our leases offer the most promising outlook for an enormous oil and gas field. Besides these reports there are numerous water wells in the vicinity of our leases which really contain oil, several to the extent that the water is not useable. There are also two wells from which gas escapes and will burn when a torch is applied. Then around the rim of the lake is found more shale than is found anywhere else in the State.

Without obligation on my part please send full information with rates for shares in your company. If your proposition appears in every way as represented I could probably invest $

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Dawson.

Before me the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Ulyss Dalmont, who being by me duly sworn, states on his oath:

"About 1902 I began drilling a well, for water, on my land situated in Gaines County, Texas, and near Cedar Lake. At an approximate depth of sixty or seventy feet I struck a black, greasy sand, that when washed became white, the deposit washed therefrom having the appearance of black, graphite, grease. I went into this character of earth some thirty-five or forty feet and it rose in the well twenty odd feet. Not being able to get through this sand for lack of casing, and the water found not being fit for use, I abandoned the well. Tom Garrett of Lamesa, Texas, was working for me at the time, and assisted in drilling the well."

ULYSS DALMONT.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 9th. day of November, A. D. 1918. GORDON B. McGUIRE,
(Seal) Notary Public, Dawson County, Texas.

I, Tom Garrett, do solemnly swear that I am the person named in the foregoing affidavit of Ulyss Dalmont, and that the matters therein stated are true. TOM GARRETT.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 9th. day of November, A. D. 1918. GORDON B. McGUIRE,
(Seal) Notary Public, Dawson County, Texas.

* In addition to this it is noticeable how sincerely the people of the Cedar Lake country believe in the proposition. These people who have lived there for years and have seen the surface indications and talked with the geologists on their surveys are thoroughly confident that oil and gas will be found in enormous quantities whenever the drill goes deep enough. They believe this to the extent that a large part of all stock sold will be sold to those living almost in sight of the drill which makes the first well.

ASSURANCE TO INVESTORS

The promoters of this company have placed a large forfeit on deposit as a guarantee that the first test well will be drilled to the depth of four thousand feet unless oil and gas are found in paying quantities at a lesser depth.

Besides the stockholders have voted unanimously to set aside 9,000 of the 13,000 acres of lease to be sold as the well is being put down. The proceeds from the sale of which is to be declared in the form of dividends to those who buy shares in the company. This alone insures investors against loss and leaves them an interest in more than four thousand acres of the company's best leases.

Material has been ordered for drilling the first well and we hope to begin drilling just as soon as delivery can be made on same. Our contract guarantees operations within ninety days from Oct. 30.

When drilling is once begun the driller will be taken into the custody of the company and not allowed an opportunity to be bought by some big outfit to the detriment of the investors. We solicit your business on the grounds of PROTECTION and FAIR DEALINGS.

NO TIME TO WASTE.

Stock in the Cedar Lake Petroleum and Gas Company will be on the market but a few days. It will not last. This is evidenced by the fact that one hundred and twenty of the five hundred shares to be sold were sold the first day it was placed on the market. If you would be one of the fortunate holders of a share in this company you must act quick or forever hereafter regret your delay. AREA OF TEXAS Showing Where County Federal Price Interpreting Committees Issue 'Fair Price Lists' for Marketing.

BLACK: Area with Committees
WHITE: Area without Committees

The Price Section of the Federal Food Administration for Texas has grown to such proportions in Texas that an inventory of the Committees shows 161 with a personnel of 675 men and women, while the Price Reporting Section has a personnel of 325.

All Price Interpreting Committees are appointed direct by Administrator Peden. Each committee has a chairman and the committees meet in the larger cities twice a week and in the smaller cities and towns once a week.

The FAIR PRICE LISTS issued are published in the local newspapers and are intended as guides for the retailer and the consumer. The prices as interpreted must be adhered to by the merchants, and the consumers are urged to report all cases of violations to the County Food Administrators.

The Price Reporters make checks upon the retail merchants. Their reports are sent to the Price Section, Federal Food Administration for Texas, where the prices are compared with the local Fair Price Lists. Wherever there are indications of excessive charges, the matter is referred to the County Food Administrator for adjustment. Where the profiteering is flagrant it is referred to the Field Inspection Division and upon investigation turned over to the Enforcement Division for action.

It is the wish of Administrator Peden to have every county in Texas covered with a Price Interpreting Committee as a protection for the law-abiding merchant and for the consumer. At the rate the Section grows, all counties with any considerable population will be covered by November 1.

RETAIL PROFITS ON EGGS, BUTTER, CHEESE, BREAD AND POTATOES.

CHEESE—1. Maximum margins governing sale of American or Cheddar cheese by retailers have been announced at 30 and 40 per cent with fractional cost in dealer's favor. Six cents is maximum for cash and carry stores, and 10 for extra service stores.

BREAD—2. "Baking Division's investigation of manufacturing cost and wholesale prices and retail prices for bread warrant establishing the maximum retail price for one-pound loaf at 10c and one and one-half pound loaf at 15c. These are the maximum prices for either cash and carry or credit and delivery, and should be enforced in each State. Furthermore, investigation shows 8c and 12c wholesale price. In many sections these wholesale prices warrant a retail price of 8c per pound loaf, and 14c for pound and half loaf-cash and carry, and administrators should arrange for distribution at these figures in as many places as possible.

BUTTER—3. Retailer's margins are set forth in Special License Regulations No. 29A, dated August 22, 1918, which provides that cash and carry stores' profit shall not exceed 5c per pound, and that credit and delivery stores' profit shall not exceed 6c per pound over their cost price. A clear definition of the items making up a retailer's cost is shown in these rules.

EGGS—4. Washington advises that it hopes to announce in the course of the next week or so definite margins of profit on eggs. From investigation now being conducted it has developed that there is a very wide range of retail margins throughout the country, varying from 20 per cent to 15c. On the present margin it would seem to us if you would base your retail selling price at a margin over cost of 5c to 6c for the time being, it would not be far out of line.

POTATOES—5. A profit of 20 to 25 per cent on potatoes would probably not be greatly out of line, although there may be too large margins in some sections and not quite adequate in others for a fair return.

RULES GOVERNING SALE OF FLOUR TO FARMERS.

Restrictions covering the amount of flour that can be sold to a consumer by a retailer at one time have been fixed by the Revised Wheat Flour Regulations provided that not more than a sixty days' supply is bought, however, it is necessary for the consumer to purchase 20 per cent substitutes at the time the flour is purchased. In case of the farmer who has his own home-grown substitutes, it is not necessary to sell substitutes at the time flour is purchased, provided the farmer makes a written statement to the merchant at the time of purchase that he has these substitutes on hand and will use the same.

ADVANCE IN COFFEE TO MEET PRE-WAR PROFIT.

While the Food Administration is opposed to a general advance in the price of roasted coffee to consumers, Administrator Peden has been advised by Mr. Hoover to permit, where necessary, on bulk roasted coffee, an advance sufficient in price to insure roasters a profit in cents per pound equal to their pre-war profit. Owing to the elimination of expensive packages and consequent saving on this item, it is assumed that an advance on package coffee is not warranted. Full statements satisfactory to Food Administration will be required, showing advance on bulk roasted does not exceed pre-war profits and is warranted in each particular.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

VICTORY.

(Jno. F. Turner.)
Emblazoned across the sky, in letters that will never be effaced, we read today that sweetest and most cheering word: VICTORY.

America stands before the world vindicated in the full measure of her mightiness and our hearts are attuned to new aims, new ideals, newer and higher purposes.

Victory is ours.
We have met and conquered an enemy of more deadly malice than ever before confronted mankind and the peace and safety of the world is again assured. Germany, with all she stood for; Germany, the arch traitor of all ages has been brought to her knees and the shout of freedom rings once more throughout a tortured, an affrighted world.

Our hearts are glad today.
And we have just cause to thank God for the glories of our citizenship; for the blessings of freedom that have come to us through our faith in Him; for the sanctity, valor and honor of the men who have made victory possible; for the great army of noble womanhood who have given all to the cause and for the triumphant human spirit that has dominated us in every effort we have made to save the world for mankind and for God.

The basis of American ideals is founded on the facts of the living Christ. We have marched onward and upward because we have been guided by the light of divine love. In the history of all the world has any nation forged ahead as we of America and we know that there can be but one solution; we have recognized God as our Father and His blessed word has been our guide in law, in life, and in the pursuit of our daily affairs.

And we can freely thank God for the providence that gave us our president; that mighty statesman who has so ably kept in tact every American ideal and made its impress indelibly upon all men of all climes and creeds.

Woodrow Wilson will go down in history as one of the greatest men of all time and he is a product of our fair land, in which the will of self-determination has found full fruit.

Victory.
How sweet the word. And yet we must be ever mindful of the causes for which we fought; the underlying principles for which our noble men and women have so gallantly died; the very life forces that have prompted our every act. We must not shadow the glories of victory by any act or word that would retract from our record of generosity as a free people. We must be ever mindful of the forces that guided our enemies. We must not forget that they are just what they are because of debasing environment and we must be generous and forgiving; ever mindful that it is easier to lead than drive.

Great are the tasks before us today. Greater tasks no nation ever before confronted. We are now engaged in making the world safe for democracy as well as democracy safe for the world. And it is a task that will call for the best that is within the hearts of all of us and if we fall short we but prove that victory was not for us as a living fact but only a tinkling symbol.

We are proud of our citizenship. We have just cause to be proud. For it is beyond dispute that our nation has accomplished within less than two years a task that no man deemed possible within so short a space.

Of course there has never been a doubt as to the final outcome of the conflict. We possessed the triumphant human spirit to a point that knew not defeat. But to win so completely and so soon, that was beyond our minds to conceive.

And now that the victory is ours; now that the common enemies of mankind are shorn of their power for evil the greater task looms before us in our duty that will lead them to the light of love and truth and fellowship with their fellowmen.

There was the law of might over right. Ours is the law of right being the more mightier. And we have taught them the first lesson of the decalogue.
But sobering is the thoughts of our responsibility. Great leadership is needed in new channels of endeavor. We must now teach love where we have been teaching fear. We must now teach our enemies that they are our brothers in the fold of God and we must purge ourselves of all vanity and hatred if we hope to gain the greater victory.

As our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ came forth triumphant from the grave and made secure for us for all time the blessings of immortality, in like manner must we come out of the narrow, hard shell of self and extend the hand of fellowship to those whom we have been forced to conquer by force.

We, as a nation, have enjoyed blessings that no other nation of all time has enjoyed. We have been free. And in this blessed atmosphere of liberty if we have not developed to a point where we can freely forgive those who despoiled us, we have failed to obtain the richest of all life's jewels. Of course we do not expect to rush pell-mell into the arms of those who wished to conquer and rule by the sword. There must be firmness with justice tempered with mercy.

And in the first flush of victory we must not lose sight of the fact that our allies have been faithful to the cause of democracy and let us have a care lest we offend these nations through a lack of proper appreciation of their supreme sacrifices and let us accept their more than four years of struggle as a contributing cause to the victory we helped to secure. For it is but their due that each nation with whom we joined hands against our common enemies are in very truth upholders of American ideals and we can well afford to accord them full praise in these first

AN OFFICIAL REVIEW OF CONDITIONS

Increased returns from higher freight and passenger rates are apparent for the first time in reports of railway earnings to the Interstate Commerce Commission. Computations by the commission for August show an operating income of $128,123,000 for that month, or $24,000,000 more than in August, 1917. Operating revenues jumped to $592,759,000, which was $136,000,000 more than the same month last year. At the same time, however, expenses increased $358,987,000, or $112,000,000 more than in August, 1917.

The report indicated also that the Government has paid railroads in compensation in the eight months ending with August nearly $200,000,000 more than it has received as net operating income.

For the eight months ended with August operating revenue of all roads was $3,051,000,000 as compared with $2,611,000,000 in the same period last year.

Operating expenses amounted to $2,489,000,000, as compared with $1,857,000,000 last year. Operating income was $438,476,000, in comparison with $658,881,000 last year. The influence of rate increases is shown by the item of freight revenues in August, amounting to $349,816,000, as compared with $250,281,000, as compared with $250,281,000 in August, 1917. Passenger revenues amounted to $113,651,000, as compared with $81,928,000 in August, 1917.

THE REHABILITATION OF OUR WOUNDED

The United States Government is resolved to do its best to restore every wounded American soldier and sailor to health, strength and self-supporting activity.

Until his discharge from the hospital all the medical and surgical treatment necessary to restore him to health is under the jurisdiction of the military or naval authorities, according to the branch of the service he is in. The vocational training, the re-education and rehabilitation necessary to restore him to self-supporting activity, is under the jurisdiction of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

If he needs an artificial limb or mechanical appliance the Government will supply it free, will keep it in repair, and renew it when necessary. If after his discharge he again needs medical treatment on account of his disability, the Government will supply it free. While he is in the hospital and while in training afterwards the soldier or sailor will receive compensation as if in service and his family or dependents will receive their allotment.

A wounded soldier or sailor, although his disability does not prevent him from returning to employment without training, can take a course of vocational training free of cost and the compensation provided by the war risk insurance act will be paid to him and the training will be free, but no allotment will be paid to his family.

Every Liberty Bond holder who holds his bond is keeping up a part of this great work of restoring to health, strength, and usefulness the men who have suffered for their country.

The value of baking powder is based on its leavening strength. You can't judge it by the size of the can—or by the amount you get for your money. You must estimate it by the amount of baking powder used in each baking and the results you get.

is the greatest value ever offered in Baking Powder—it has greater raising "force"—it goes further than most of the other brands. You use only a rounded or heaping teaspoonful where others call for two teaspoonfuls or more.

But Baking Powder is not all you'll save when using Calumet. You save baking materials. Calumet never fails. The last level teaspoonful is as powerful as the first. Calumet is perfectly manufactured—keeps perfectly—and is moderate in price.

HOW TO FIGHT SPANISH INFLUENZA

BY DR. L. W. BOWERS

Avoid crowds, coughs and cowers, but fear neither germs nor Germans! Keep the system in good order, take plenty of exercise in the fresh air and practice cleanliness. Remember a clean mouth, a clean skin, and clean bowels are a protecting armour against disease. To keep the liver and bowels regular and to carry away the poisons within, it is best to take a vegetable pill every other day, made up of May-apple, aloes, jalap, and sugar-coated, to be had at most drug stores, known as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. If there is a sudden onset of what appears like a hard cold, one should go to bed, wrap warm, take a hot mustard foot-bath and drink copiously of hot lemonade. If pain develops in head or back, ask the druggist for Anker-Pain-Expeller tablets. These will soothe the head and kidneys and carry off poisonous germs. To control the pain and ache, take one Anker-Pain-Expeller tablet every two hours, with frequent drinks of lemonade. The pneumonia appears in a most treacherous way when the influenza victim is apparently recovering and anxious to leave his bed. In recovering from a bad attack of influenza or pneumonia the system should be built up with a good herbal tonic, such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made without alcohol from the roots and bark of American forest trees, or his Ironic (iron tonic) tablets, which can be obtained at most drug stores, or send 10c. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

CHURCH NOTES

First Presbyterian Church

Now that official Washington has announced, months earlier than most of us thought possible, the signing of an armistice and the dawn of peace, we will have more time, and doubtless will give more thought, to the reason for the downfall of militarism and the triumph of democracy. No doubt many of us have already decided what, in our judgment, is the reason and it would be interesting to collate and group the various answers that different persons will give. But I shall not attempt it. I am just wondering how many will include the Divine. It is very significant to my mind that following right on the heels of memorial day, set apart as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, by national proclamation, came the crisis and turn in the battle's tide and that practically since the moment the nation began to observe the noonday moment prayer the allied powers have never ceased their successful drive.

God works in a mysterious way His wonders to perform; He plants His footsteps on the sea And rides upon the storm."

I do not know just what methods and means God has used to win the war, but I am persuaded He has used natural means and human agencies does not lessen the supernatural element in the victory. There are a number of miracles recorded in the Bible, and some works in which men took no part, but in by far more instances God worked through the laws and institutions already in existence but it was none the less God working. Is it not Divine Providence that has raised up President Wilson, Marshal Foch, General Pershing, Haig, Petain, Diaz, and raised them up in the same generation, to cope with this crisis? Did not God control the elements of the sea in order that the Marines might reach Chateau Thierry before it was too late? Did not God favor us in moderating the torrents of rain, the blizzards of snow, and the wintry blasts, making it possible for the drive to be continued until the foe was vanquished? How many ways God has worked in the winning of this war, using the means and the material already in existence, we are not able to conceive. And now shall we say that He was not necessary to our victory? Shall we say that Memorial Day and the noon day prayer, when the heart of a nation that was in dead earnest poured itself out unto Him—shall we say these have accomplished nothing, and that they were useless all the while? Have we been foolish or scared these past few months? If not, what shall we render unto God for all His benefits? Will we be content with a formal expression of thanks and dismiss our benefactor from our mind? Shall we say to God, "I thank you for what you have done, but I guess I won't need you any more until another war?" Or shall we "receive the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord?" Let us one and all show our gratitude and our recognition of Him by a steadfast loyalty and a self-sacrificing service in His cause. And why not continue the noonday prayer for the success of His Kingdom?

We invite one and all to worship with us next Sunday at the morning hour. At the evening service we will join in a union service of God Speed to Mr. Hicks and of welcome to the new Methodist pastor. You are also invited to our Sunday School and Christian Endeavor. On behalf of the ladies, I would also extend a cordial invitation to the members and friends of this church to the all-day program on Home Missions next Monday.

T. H. POLLARD.

At the Baptist Church.

Considering the fear of danger from the awful plague of influenza the people attended church and Sunday school well last Sunday. The human soul enforces its needs and public or congregational worship is one of the larger demands of the soul. Next Sunday the pastor will speak on "Some Lessons From the Victory of the Allies."

At night we will worship with our Methodist brethren in a farewell service for Bro. Hicks and a welcome to his successor.

Let us now turn our thoughts in the largest way to Christian progress. The world is more prepared for bringing in the Kingdom of God than ever before in human history. The day of autocracy both in state and church has largely passed. Austria is the last of the great nations to fall to pieces under the vintuous power of autocracy in state and church. The state, church and a centralized ecclesiasticism are largely the causes of the great war as well as the causes of many wars. Formal Christianity is one of the worst forms of idolatry and leads to centralized and bigoted aristocracy. Our times call loudly for humble, true men in the ministry. Spiritual, sincere Christian manhood is the type of men needed in church, state and business life. Let us adopt the slogan "Back to Christ and the simple sincere Christian life."

Come to all the services next Sunday.

There will be the regular services in the Cumberland church Sunday morning and afternoon, but the evening service will be called in and the congregation will join in the services at the Methodist church Sunday night.

The Sing-Song service at the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon was one much enjoyed by all those who availed themselves of the opportunity of being present. The service consisted of prayers, songs and short talks on the war work campaign.

A memorial service will be held Sunday, Nov. 17th, 11 a. m., at the First Christian Church in memory of Lt. Aubrey Cooper, who was killed in France, July 19th.

At 7:30 p. m. the pastor will deliver the first of a series of addresses on the political and religious conditions of the nations who have been at war, dealing principally with the questions to be considered around the Peace Table. You are cordially invited to these services.

J. E. CHASE, Pastor.

There was a fair attendance at the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday considering the fact that many people are yet afraid to venture out on account of the recent epidemic of influenza. It is to be hoped that every member of the Sunday School will rally to the cause and do all they can to get back to the splendid attendance that we have been enjoying the past year. Come next Sunday and greet your new pastor, get acquainted with him, and make him feel that he has the co-operation of the Sunday School children in the great work that is before him.

The Odd Fellows met last Tuesday night, the first time for about a month, on account of the epidemic of influenza. Quite a number of the membership of that lodge had gone through with a case of the flu, but were back at their posts, and quite a busy session was held. Two candidates were given the initiatory degree and other applications were referred to committees for admission. The Odd Fellows have made splendid gains in membership the past year even with their many who are in the army, and the close of the year will record a very material growth in their membership.

The orchestra at the Methodist Sunday school is developing rapidly into one of the best on the plains. They have a part in the program at the Sunday School session every Sunday and their part of the program is greatly enjoyed. It is being conducted under the directorship of Mrs. Adalaide Summers and new members are being added occasionally, and we are proud of this organization. It is the only one we know of on the plains. You are cordially invited to come and join our Sunday School and if not convenient to join. Come early to church service and be at the closing exercises of the Sunday school.

TARRANT COUNTY GETS INSTRUCTORS FOR PLAYGROUNDS

WAR WORK COUNCIL OF THE Y. W. C. A. TO TEACH PLAY IN FIVE SCHOOLS

Fort Worth, Texas.—Tarrant County schools are to have a playground recreation teacher for five of its county schools to be provided by the Young Women's Christian Association through its War Work Council, Miss Mary R. Parsons of Fort Worth acting for the association in conjunction with County Superintendent Carroll and J. F. Tarlton, who is in charge of the city playgrounds.

The recreation playground teacher or secretary, will have charge of five schools, giving one day each week to each school. About one hour will be given to children of the lower grades and she will aid in making the play of all children during their recesses more valuable and cause them to reach as many children as possible.

Superintendents Kooker of Arlington, Clemens of Everman, Howard of Keller, Miller of Saginaw and Whitener of Handley have discussed and approved the plan, and according to indications, their schools will be the first group of five to secure the services of a recreation teacher from the War Work Council.

TAHOCA OIL COMPANY BUSY INSTALLING MACHINERY

Lynn County News:
The Tahoka Oil and Gas Company received their big heavy machinery yesterday, (Thursday), for their deep test well, to be drilled on the W. C. Cowan ranch three miles south of town.
The casing, coal and other materials are already on the ground, and as soon as the drillers can set up the machinery, the development will begin.

SOUR, ACID STOMACHS, GASES OR INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" neutralizes excessive acid in stomach, relieving dyspepsia, heartburn and distress at once.
Time to go. In five minutes all stomach acidity will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas. No flatulence or tightness of food, no dizziness, blinding, foul breath or headache.
Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in neutralizing upset stomachs. It is the most, quietest stomach sweetener in the whole world, and besides it is harmless. Put one or two stomach tablets at once by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder caused by fermentation due to excessive acids in stomach.

The Company states that everything is of the very best, and that the drillers they have employed are men of wide experience in drilling wild cat wells, and are in every way well equipped.
The Company has been investigating their records for the past three months, and knew that they were employing the right men when they signed the contract to put down the well.

The progress to date has been a little slow, but it has been sure, and the promoters have taken plenty of time to make thorough investigation and give to the company the best service in every way.
Now that the machinery is on the ground the Company expects to make rapid progress and bring in the oil in the near future.

ITEMS FROM THE CROSBYTON REVIEW

The Review acknowledges a pleasant call this week from Judge E. B. Covington of Santa Ana, Cal., who arrived in our city Monday on business. Judge Covington was a very early settler in Crosby county, was long an honored resident of same and has many old friends here who are always glad to see him. He was here when the county was organized in 1886, and was elected the first county attorney, but did not qualify for the reason, as he explains, there was no emoluments to the office, but it was one in which he could have made plenty of enemies. He was elected county judge in 1890, being the third County Judge and holding the office two terms with much credit to himself. His administration left the county clear of debt. This county was given over exclusively to stock raising and the land was cheap. He still owns several sections of land in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Sep Smith and little daughters, Ruth and Effie, made a trip to Lubbock yesterday, returning home in the afternoon.

Our Baptist readers will be delighted to learn that Rev. W. C. Carver, of Plainview, has accepted the call to the church at this place. He is said to be a very able minister and our Baptist friends are to be congratulated upon getting him as their pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lotspeich left yesterday morning, the former for Carlsbad, Texas, where he goes to take treatment for lung trouble, and Mrs. Lotspeich will stop in Lubbock with her people for awhile. It is hoped that Mr. Lotspeich may soon regain his former good health and strength.

KEEP THE BOYS CONTENTED "OVER THERE"

While the war is over, we still have two million and a quarter boys in France, and they will be there for some time to come. Therefore we must take care of them. The campaign now on for the United War Work agencies is just for the purpose of taking care of our boys over there.

The American soldier has made an enviable reputation in the war in many ways. He has shown he can fight, but more than that he has shown the world that a large group of soldiers can do to a foreign land and keep straight and clean. It would be one of the worst calamities of our history, if this reputation became spoiled now. In other words, we want the boys to come back as they went over, or even better. If you have a boy in France, you would hate it if something went wrong, and he becomes morally unfit, or even ruined.

The purpose of these organizations is to help take care of the men. One thing that is going to be done, and that is, schools will be started in the camps, and every boy will be given an opportunity to get a better education. He can take training along lines that will be of much benefit after he becomes a civilian. There are tens of thousands of soldiers in the army today, who have not had the advantage of much education. They have always been handicapped in life because of this. They will soon be given the chance to train themselves for better things.

So let everyone in Lubbock do what he can to push this campaign and help the boys who have fought for us. They offered to make the supreme sacrifice for us, we must stand back of them until they are once more in a position to take care of themselves.

GEO. W. BRIGGS.

WRITE A LETTID—IT IS BETTER THAN FOOD

Our head sergeant gets up on a box with his arms loaded with letters and calls out "Mail!" It goes along the line like wildfire. Where it usually takes the men about five minutes to assemble for drill call or police duty, and about two or three minutes for mess call, I'll bet that within thirty seconds the whole company is assembled when they hear "The Mail's In". Then they all stand as silently as if it were a funeral so as not to miss a single name as the sergeant calls them out. Some go leaping and yelling with joy with two or three letters, or perhaps with one. The more unfortunate ones often leave with tears in their eyes. The day the mail comes is a bigger day than pay day.—A Soldier's Letter.

E. E. ROOS WRITES AN INTERESTING LETTER

The following letter written by Mr. Roos, of Plainview will be interesting to many of our people as this gentleman is well known in this part of the country. The best opportunity open today War Work Campaign is the following letter just received by Mrs. E. E. Roos from her husband, Captain E. E. Roos, a prominent business man of Plainview, who could leave his business long enough to go to France and fight, ready even to offer his life. We are sure the other business men of our community are ready to give their time and money to see that this campaign goes over with a rush.

The letter follows: "Oct. 20, 1918. 'Dear—I am once more in good quarters and taking it easy for a day or two. God knows I need it, for I surely was worn out. I wonder why you do not write, suppose you do and they are wandering about somewhere in France. The mail is almost impossible to get if one is in the danger zone, or as we call it the "Advance Section." Well, thank God we will soon have the Boche out of France and Belgium and then we can rest. If only the sun would shine a little and warm up the country, one is always cold, no fire any place, not even the hotels and best theatres can have fires, not a bit of heat any place. I wear my overcoat all the time.

Im for the week in a Chateau belonging to the Countess of Chaisell. She is a fine old lady about sixty. She came to the camp to bring fruit and flowers to the soldiers, and I was down with a touch of the grippe so she brought me to her house, and here I am. Am now feeling fine so do not worry over me. There has been quite an epidemic of grippe in Paris, in fact all over France.

"I am now only a short thirty minutes from Paris, will be here a few days longer at the least. Will be glad when I get back to my regiment as for the past six weeks I have been on a special duty, and do not like it so well.

"It is pouring rain and cold, while we do have to sit in our overcoats, we do get plenty to eat. I just don't see how people live here with the prices they have to pay, butter is $1.20 a pound, cheese $1.50, coffee $1.90, no sugar to be had, at any price, all prices in proportion to these. There are eggs and milk allowed only for children and the sick, and the eggs are 20 cents each. This is no time for tourists, unless they have plenty of money. Some day I am going to show you all these places I have been and tell you the circumstances and conditions under which I have seen them."

"Well, well, here is a courier with two letters from you, one of Aug 26th and one of Sept. 11th, I surely know that some between have gone astray. I will take what I can get and hope for the others. We are lucky to get anything at all.

"Austin Anderson was lucky to be sent to Bordeaux but I expect by now he is in the big game like the rest of us. I would love to see him if only for a moment. Out here we get a glimpse of men we know, but usually it is only for a second, a waving of the hand as they go thundering by in a truck, or trudging along in a battalion, always with faces turned north or east, always eager to take a hand in the biggest game the world has ever known. Some time there is time for a hand clasp or a word and then we are friends forever, out here where the earth is red with the blood of our comrades we feel differently towards those we meet. When things are hot with shot and shell, the road makes it impossible to hear a word, every move is controlled by signs alone when the wounded are being brought back on stretchers or in ambulances and pass with a wave or cheering sign to those going forward into the melting pot, where, when they come back, if they do, they are men such as they never would have been otherwise, there one makes friends and meets men to be proud to know, whether they be "black" or

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.

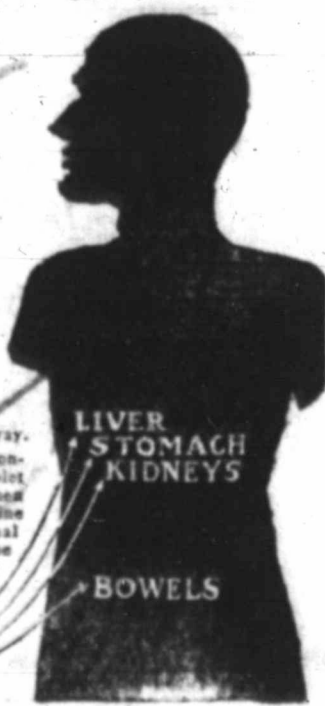

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place. "Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back. Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purgative remedy harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine full of vigor and ambition.

for they happen constantly. I have seen many such during the past month, for I have been through the melting pot, during the past month, and feel that I am a seasoned veteran now. I too will wear a ribbon, but through no merit of mine, luck pure luck.

"You ask why I did not tell you how I lost all my things. I could not tell you. I was out in a life boat two hours when I was picked up. It was August 3rd, and you will have to guess the balance. Do you remember what happened that day in the English Channel?"

"Well, the war is nearly over. I hope we will soon be back in the U. S. A. Some day we will come and live this all over again together, and I will tell you of the places where I have looked into unknown and wondered if this was the end of me.

"The reason you have not heard from my insurance is that I landed without a scrap of anything, and all my papers, orders, etc., had to again originate from Washington.

"Wish you could have some of the rain we have here. Even in the worst conditions the United States is far better off than the European countries. I tell you it is heart-breaking to see some of the terrible misery in this country, yet everyone has courage and faith in the future and are meeting their calamities with stout hearts.

"I have written a long letter. I hope we will not be long apart. The end seems near. In the future we will never have as our friends the men or women who have not done their part in deeds and money, and in upholding the hands of our wonderful U. S. A. government, in Red Cross work; in helping the Y. M. C. A., or the other splendid organizations which mean almost more than life itself to the boys who are here fighting through hell for them.

white. We can be proud of them as Americans for they are making a name for themselves that no other army ever has. I have seen boys who three months ago could not shoot a gun go forward in that mighty wave and out do veterans in their endeavor to go over the top. I must tell you one of two things I have seen. A young negro from Texas, a little fellow, weighing not over 120 pounds, so small he was a joke the company claimed. At Maraubert, where the yanks were getting it hot and heavy, and his company found itself surrounded by machine gun nests, that little negro was wounded twice and then got mad, he went single handed, ran forward capturing the machine gun crew by killing five and bringing three with the gun. Today that man has a Croix-de guerre and the Cross Militaire. He will also receive a D. S. C. from the U. S. Last week he left saying things were too slow he was going to look for more Boches. I was with him three weeks and 'tho he is black he is my friend and a better man than any white slacker.

"Another incident I saw was, we were caught in a barrage where things were pretty warm with every man hugging the ground, a big lanky boy from Woodward, Okla, making signs and pointing to where a Red Cross dog lay wounded, was asking permission to go get the dog as he was in the range of fire. Before that permission could be given the man started away crawling to the pup, every one of us watching, and praying God he might reach him and get back. He got the dog and started back when a shrapnel got the boy in the shoulder, two of my boys ran for him bringing him in. Such things happen in an instant. That big boy from Oklahoma told me afterward that he had always been a coward that he never could fight, but that out here he had found himself, and I am sure no better or braver man lives than that fellow. Oh, I could go on forever telling you such things

LIBERATE THE SOLDIERS

Over the counter means over the top. When you pay your War Savings Stamp Pledge you have sent a victorious Yank backing his way through a Hun line. As long as your pledge remains unpaid you keep the American soldier chained in his trench where he can do no good. Liberate our soldiers and speed victory by liberating the dollars representing your pledge. The sooner you pay it the sooner that Yank will charge his way to Berlin and victory. Are you willing to put off paying your W.S.S. Pledge when you are trying a soldier's hands by your delay?

METHODIST CONFERENCE AT ABILENE

airs that blow among the tree-clad, blue-veiled Ozarks his voice will ring the world-old challenge to higher manhood and Christly character. He is an uncrowned prince. If Arkansas does not give him a mighty hand clasp and a warm responsive grip, he shall be surprised beyond measure. He is honest, he is square, he is brave and true, and the elements so mixed in him, all the world can say, here is a man. ## LUBBOCK METHODISTS HAVE ACCOMPLISHED GREAT WORK

With the winding up of the conference year which ended October 30th, brought to light a remarkable work wrought by the Methodists of this city during past two years. They have built and equipped one of the best church plants in the west, costing upwards of $50,000, with an indebtedness of only $5,000, which will in all probability be taken care of within the next few months. They have in addition to this raised their preachers salary from $1800 per year to $2,400, and have paid in full all the assessments against them.

This having been done under very trying conditions—in the face of two years drought and war demands, makes the achievements the most remarkable that has ever been reported from any church in this part of the state. The Methodist people here are wide awake, progressive and determined to do their part toward church work, and had it not been for the extreme conditions that have existed during the past two years this splendid plant would have been paid for entirely within the first year and dedicated before now. Congratulations are certainly due the leaders in the affairs of Lubbock church.
