VOLUME XIX

LUBBOCK, LUBBOCK COUNTY, THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1919

NUMBER 48

WOMAN SUFFRAGE WAS DEFEATED

RETURNS RUSHED IN TUESDAY OVERCAME SLIGHT LEAD AND THREW THIS AMENDMENT 5,000 BEHIND

PROHIBITION HAS HEALTHY LEAD AND IS PROBABLY SAFE

The Amendment Asking for a Raise in Governor's Salary was the Most Heavily Defeated. Home Ownership has a Slight Lead and May Pull Through Yet.

An avalanche of returns which came in Tuesday and Tuesday night swept away a majority of over 3,000 in favor of the suffrage amendment and produced a majority of 5,640 against the measure, making it practically certain that it is defeated. This change was due in part to fuller returns from rural districts of Northern and Eastern Texas themselves were sufficient to have got the amendment on the losing side of the account.

The totals on the four amendments are from 197 of the 248 organized counties and the totals are as follows:

For suffrage 89,715, against 95,355.

For prohibition 96,425, against 84,930.

For Governor's salary increase 75,794, against 103,624.

For home ownership 95,222 against 82,844.

It is evident that the total vote cast is considerably larger than the first estimate.

No returns have been received from fifty-one counties, a few of them of considerable voting strength. The list is as follows: Angelina, Archer, Bandera, Baylor, Borden, Burnet, Carson, Chambers, Coke, Comal, Comanche, Cottle, Delta, Dickens, Dimmit, Duval, Gaines, Glascock, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hudspeth, Hutchinson, Irion, Jeff Davis, Jim Wells, Kent, King, Lamb, Lipscomb, Live Oak, Mason, McMullen, Menard, Moore, Newton, Orange, Farmer, Presidio, Real, San Augustine, Sherman, Schleicher, Somervell, Starr, Stonewall, Sutton, Upton, Ward, Winkler and Zapata.

According to the history of last elections in these counties and the votes reported in the present election from counties adjoining them, suffrage probably will suffer further losses when these counties have reported.

WELL DRILLING HELPS BUSINESS AT TAHOKA

C. A. Thomas, druggist, of Tahoka, accompanied by his wife, were over one day this week, transacting business. Mr. Thomas has been in the drug business in Tahoka for many years. The well being drilled at Tahoka has helped business in general there, Mr. Thomas says and many dollars have come to their town from people who have come to look over the prospects of the development, also from the men who are working with the rig. People are coming and going every day looking, some buying leases and other through curiosity, are coming there. Mr. Thomas says from the best information that he is able to get at this time the well is down about fourteen hundred feet. They have already found what it called an oil formation. No pool of oil has been encountered in the well so far he says, but analysis of the soil shows some oil. They have also struck some gas, but not to the extent to bother them in the drilling. Mr. Thomas says that they are not expecting to find oil in much quantity until they have drilled several hundred feet deeper. Work has been delayed on the well for a few days on account of defective flues in the boiler, but new ones have arrived and will be installed as quickly as possible and work will commence immediately.

Harper Kirby Claims Majority for Prohibition

Austin, Texas, May 27.—R. Harper Kirby, chairman of the State-wide prohibition campaign gave out the following statement tonight:

"Returns, more or less complete, are in from all wet and partially wet counties and show that we have a decisive majority for prohibition. Only about one-half the vote has been accounted for, but the vote yet to report will come from the counties which have already dry by local option, and such counties, so far as they have reported, show their majorities for the amendment to have increased over their former majorities for local option. I see no reason to revise my former estimate of majority."

Varied Sentiments on Prohibition in Bell County

Temple, Texas, May 27.—Extremes in prohibition sentiment were sharply reflected in four particular Bell county precincts in Saturday's election. While the voters of Troy were registering 105 for and 25 against prohibition, those at Ocker were giving pro 2 and anti 80. The voters at Pendleton gave 88 for and 15 against prohibition, but the voters at Cyclone gave 9 for and 120 against. All of these boxes are within a fifteen-mile radius of Temple and within 30 minutes auto ride of each other, but the sentiment is radically different.

In Lubbock county the vote in total for the amendments were: For Prohibition 483, against 172, majority 311. For woman suffrage 468, against 227, majority 241. For Governor's salary, 319, against 355; defeated by 36. Home loan amendment for 459, against 221. This will be reported by precincts next week.

SHEEP AND WOOL GROWERS HOLD MEETING

A special called meeting of the recently organized South Plains Sheep and Wool Growers Association, was held here Wednesday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was for a better line-up with the members; to get dates of shearing, and approximate the amount of wool to be stored here in the Association's warehouse, and to fix a date for the buyers to be here and bid on the wool. The officers of this association which were appointed recently are: George C. Wolforth, president; O. L. Slaton, vice president; W. E. Bjedsoe, vice-president, and Carroll Thompson, secretary. The Executive committee, Frank Bjedsoe, A. M. Becton and H. C. Pearson. There is at present about twenty-five members of the association, living in Lubbock and adjoining counties, the following are the names of the members: Fritz Fuchs, Abernathy; J. C. Stanford, Slide; Rex Shirley, Ralls; H. C. Pearson, Lorenzo; Russell Myrick, J. H. Pett, W. H. Vaughn, W. J. Fuchs, B. F. Struvey, J. K. Burke, Ura Embry, George C. Wolforth, Eastin Wolforth, Carroll Thompson, W. J. Dansfield, A. M. Becton, J. A. Long, Chas. Goeth, P. L. Wimberly, A. J. Bryant, Will Murray, and C. A. Murray.

The members of this association own approximately twenty-five or thirty thousand head of sheep. By figuring eight pounds to the head, which is as near accurate as possible to estimate, there will be at least two hundred thousand pounds to be put in the association's warehouse here. Buyers are supposed to be here on the tenth of July, to make bids on the wool.

THREE AIRPLANES HERE FOR RECRUITS

In response to a message received from three of the local boys, Bryant Mullins, Clint Breedlove and Bascom Mullins, expressing their willingness to enlist in the aviation branch of service, three planes, piloted by Lieutenants J. A. Runnel, T. E. Beck and J. V. Hart, of Tahaferro Field, Hicks, Texas, left that place for Lubbock, Wednesday morning about 7 o'clock. Lieutenants Runnel and Beck arrived here about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They came by way of Wichita Falls and Spur, and made four or five landings between Ft. Worth and here. Lieut. Hart, on account of engine trouble near Wichita Falls, was forced to land in the country and was delayed for some time and did not arrive here until nearly six o'clock. The first two planes which arrived here first, got their recruits in readiness, filled their tank with gas and left our city about 5:30, accompanied by Clint Breedlove and Bryant Mullins. On account of the late arrival of the third plane and the objections of his parents, Bascom Mullins did not get off. Lieut. Hart was forced to spend the night here to wait advice from headquarters. The next morning about 9 o'clock he received a message ordering him to go to Floydada after a recruit.

The government recently proposed to send planes to the different towns in the state for recruits, and also proposes to bring the boys back to their home towns in about a month in the planes to let the boys see their parents and friends and tell about their flying experience. The period of service in this branch is three years, which no doubt will be filled with valuable experience.

AMERICAN PLANE LANDS ON EUROPEAN WATERS

Lisbon, May 27.—The first aerial passage of the Atlantic Ocean was completed by the United States naval seaplane NC-4, which alighted in the harbor here at 3:45 p. m. (Washington time) today. The plane left Ponta Delgado, Azores, at 6:18 (Washington time) this morning, completing the final flight to the European mainland in 9 hours and 27 minutes. The first leg of the flight from Trepassy, Newfoundland, was made in 15 hours and 13 minutes, making the total time for the Atlantic passage 24 hours and 40 minutes. The total distance was 2,136 miles.

The NC-4 passed station ship No. 12, approximately 150 miles from Lisbon, at 2:05 p. m., Washington time.

The NC-4 passed station ship No. 13 at 18:38, Greenwich time (2:33 p. m., Washington time.)

Ponta Delgada, May 27.—With Commander A. C. Read confident that he would reach the coast of Portugal before darkness tonight, thus achieving the coveted honor of making the first Trans-Atlantic flight, United States seaplane NC-4 started for Lisbon this morning at 10:18 o'clock, Greenwich time, or 6:18 a. m. New York time.

The crew of the seaplane which was the same as that which made the memorable flight from Newfoundland to the Azores, boarded the plane an hour before sunrise, but it was not until several hours later that the giant machine taxied outside the breakwater, headed to windward and rose gracefully into the air. She circled the harbor and then headed for her destination amid cheers from the sailors and soldiers who lined the decks of the ships in the harbor and the crowds on the piers, together with the shrieks of whistles from all the steam craft within sight.

BOCHES MAKE COUNTER PROPOSALS

PRESENTED TO PEACE CONFERENCE THROUGH HER REPRESENTATIVES WEDNESDAY AT VERSAILLES

GERMANY AGREES TO DISARMMENT OF BATTLESHIPS

But Wants Her Mercantile Fleet Restored, and Wants no Territorial Changes Without Consultation of Population That the Changes Would Affect.

London, May 28.—The German counter proposals to the Allied peace terms were published in Berlin today, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says. The reply asserts the willingness of Germany to reduce her armaments to a greater extent than demanded by the Allies.

Berlin, Tuesday, May 27.—Germany's counter proposals to the terms of the peace treaty presented to her plenipotentiaries at Versailles include the following points, according to an official summary available today:

Germany offers to disarm all of her battleships, on condition that a part of her mercantile fleet be restored to her.

She proposes that there be no territorial changes without consultation of the population affected.

The cession of Upper Silesia and the calms to East Prussia, West Prussia, and Memel are emphatically rejected.

It is stipulated that Danzig shall become a free port and the River Vistula neutralized.

Occupied territory is to be evacuated within six months.

If the League of Nations is established with Germany as a member, Germany shall continue to administer her colonies in accordance with the principles of the League as its mandatory.

Germany offers to pay 20,000,000,000 marks in gold by the year 1926 as indemnity and to make annual payments from 1927 onward to a total not in excess of 100,000,000,000 marks in gold. It was expected today that the counter proposals would be officially made known on Wednesday.

The reply complains that "might before right" dominates the whole Allied treaty.

Objection is expressed to the demand that Germans be surrendered for trial in enemy courts, the reply contending that an impartial authority ought to be instituted to establish all violations of international law, by whoever committed.

It is declared by the Germans that although the speech made by President Wilson in 1916 recognized the responsibility for the war rested on the entire European system, the treaty requires Germany to acknowledge that she and her allies were responsible for all damage suffered in opposing countries. It is asserted that it is incontestable that some of the Allied and associated powers such as Italy and Roumania, entered the war for the sake of territorial conquest.

MR. MOORE HERE FROM THE EASTLAND COUNTRY

G. T. Moore is here this week visiting his family. He has been over in the Eastland country for several months. He has been working his teams there on a railroad grading contract for some time, and has several months work ahead yet. He will probably move his family down there after the school closes here, though he is not yet fully decided upon this. He says living conditions down there are not as pleasant as out here, and he has been debating the advisability of taking his family to that section.

COMMISSIONER RETURNS FROM GENERAL ASSEMBLY

H. G. RANDY MOVES TO LUBBOCK THIS WEEK

H. G. Randy, of Rochester, Texas, has recently accepted a position here with the Lubbock Drug Company as prescription clerk, since Mr. Burgess left, and will make his home in Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Randy came from McIntosh, N. M., to this place, but calls his home Rochester.

The German counter proposals argue that there is no basis of right for the obligation to make compensation which is to be imposed on Germany. Complaint is made that the compensation is to be fixed by a hostile commission to administer Germany as a bankrupt State. This, it is declared, is incompatible with the innate right of nations.

The statutes of the League of Nations, it is further asserted, contradict numerous declarations made by the Government opposed to Germany and the League is merely a continuation of the enemy coalition. It is added that there is no realization of a real League of Nations and that in its present form the League re-establishes in effect the alliance of 1815.

The reply maintains that the treaty shows Germany as a nation which is simply to be destroyed, and adds:

"This is a complete repudiation of the idea that every nation has a right to existence, and violates the right of self-determination."

The statement then details long objections to the proposed treatment of the Saar region, Malmédy, Eupen, Morosnet and Alsace and the eastern frontiers, and argues that the worst manifestation of the disregard of the right of self-determination is the separation of Danzig from the German Empire. Other abrogations of this right, as cited in the statement, include the refusal to allow the millions of Germans in German-Austria to unite with Austria, while other millions of Germans are forced to remain under the new Czech-Slovak State.

Section III of the counter proposals reiterates the declaration that the draft of the peace treaty is in sharp contradiction to the basis of right for a lasting peace "of a right which was agreed upon." It says the treaty involves destruction of German economic life and subjects the German people to a financial slavery "unparalleled in the history of the world."

If such a treaty came into force, it is declared, it would mean a fresh catastrophe for the whole world. The German statement adds:

"A dying philosophy of imperialism and capitalistic tendencies is here celebrating its last terrible triumph. We appeal to the innate right of men and nations, under which the British State developed, the Dutch people liberated themselves, the North American nation established its independence and France shook off its absolutism. The sustainers of a sacred tradition cannot refuse it to a people which has just won the power to live according to its own free will."

RYLANDER SEES "GARDEN IN FULL BLOOM"

"A garden in full bloom" is the way W. C. Rylander speaks of the country north and northwest of Lubbock. Mr. Rylander accompanied Dr. Barr on one of his short trips around Littlefield community the first of the week. They encountered some muddy roads on their way. "The farmers are not paying much attention to the rain," Mr. Rylander says, "and are keeping right in the fields working."

Whitfield, barber, of Lorenzo, and Ada Karr, of Eddy, Texas, met here early Monday morning and called at the county clerk's office to get the necessary document for their marriage, which took place in the office of the justice of the peace. Squire Fain conducted the ceremony which was very short and to the point.

Mr. Whitfield has been in Lorenzo only a short while, coming from Eddy to that place. Mrs. Whitfield arrived here early Monday morning. They will make their home in the future at Lorenzo.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE COLLEGE OF INDUSTRIAL ARTS MAY 31ST TO JUNE 3RD, WHEN MORE THAN TWO HUNDRED GIRLS WILL RECEIVE COLLEGE CREDENTIALS. A PHENOMENAL RECORD ACHIEVED IN SIXTEEN YEARS BY THIS WONDER- FUL STATE-SUPPORTED COLLEGE FOR TEXAS GIRLS.

Denton, Texas, May 30, 1919.—The College of Industrial Arts at Denton, Texas, the largest college for women in the United States with the exception of two, and an ideal place where Texas girls receive practical and cultural training that fit and qualify them for usefulness and for efficient service in all of the more important vocations open to women in this country, including especially that of homemaking, will close its sixteenth session June 3, at which time certificates, diplomas, and degrees will be awarded to more than two hundred of the most attractive, cultured and thoroughly trained young women of the State from an equal number of the best homes of Texas. The College opened its first session in September, 1903, and has grown just as rapidly as the Texas Legislature has provided facilities to accommodate the constantly increasing number of girls who have annually applied for admission. The attendance during last session reached 1910 (1260 girls during the regular session and 650 during the summer session) and when the record for the present academic year has been completed, August 31, 1919, a marked increase in the number of students over that of last session will be shown. The College gives the type of education that produces the most valuable results when applied to the every-day concerns of real life, and that at the same time gives mental discipline, social culture, and spiritual vigor and outlook. Experience has demonstrated that the College of Industrial Arts is correct in its belief that a right combination of literary and industrial education stands the test and meets every demand of the present, progressive civilization. A summary of the different kinds of work done by the College follows: 1. Literary; 2. Manual Arts; 3. Kindergarten; 4. Household Arts; 5. Home-making; 6. Public School Music; 7. Reading or Expression; 8. Industry and Vocations; 9. Art; 10. Arts and Science; 11. Fine and Applied Art; 12. Music; 13. Piano, Voice, Violin; 14. Commercial Arts—Typewriting, Stenography, Bookkeeping; 15. Teacher-Training in Vocational Home Economics; and for the satisfactory completion of the prescribed work of the several kinds the following college credentials are awarded and conferred: 1. Vocational Certificates; 2. Home-makers' Certificates; 3. Public School Music Certificates; 4. Teachers' Certificates; 5. Commercial Arts Certificates; 6. Degree of Bachelor of Arts; 7. Degree of Bachelor of Music; 8. Degree of Bachelor of Science; 9. Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration.

The College gives instruction and training in the literary subjects of as high quality as may be obtained at any other college or university of the first rank, and also gives instruction and training in the technical, vocational and industrial subjects as effectively as those subjects are taught in any other college or university of the whole country. The Vocational Counsellor of the College is prepared, and ready at all times, to give students helpful advice and assistance in selecting their courses of study and in making preparation for the various vocations open to women in Texas and the Southwest. All parts of Texas are represented by the student body of the College, and all of the honorable professions and vocations of life are represented by the parents and the guardians of the students, the largest percentage of the students, however, are the daughters of farmers and ranchmen. The atmosphere of the College is distinctly moral, religious, and democratic. Wholesome recreational activities are furnished by various college organizations, such as the Athletics Association, the Literary Clubs, the Glee Club and Orchestra, and the Y. W. C. A., and various other student organizations that promote a truly democratic spirit and are educational and uplifting in their results.

The instructional buildings, the equipment of the laboratories, the convenience and comfort of the residential buildings, and the other facilities of the College conform to the best standards, and make practicable the rendering of the safest, the most efficient, and the most satisfactory service. The best indorsement and strongest commendation of the College are the thousands of Texas girls who have received inspiration, education, and training at the College, and have gone out over Texas to bless the State and make it a better, safer place in which to live. According to announcement the next regular session of the College will open Tuesday, September 16, at which time it is probable that some 1500 Texas girls will matriculate in the College they love because of the opportunities it affords, and the service it renders. Parents and friends who are interested in the College may obtain a catalogue by addressing President F. M. Bralley, College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Using dangerous drug before it salivates you!
It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and feel like a dead weight. Calomel starts your liver and cleans your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a box of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take it tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take a box today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a box of Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so take it for your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat as much after-wards.

THE WORLD'S MOST PERFECT KITCHEN CABINET—AUTO FRONT

For many years housewives accepted kitchen cabinets with the doors swinging over the table top, because they could get nothing else. There was a growing discontent on their part, however, on account of the great inconvenience the doors caused. With the table top covered with pans, dishes, etc., it was impossible to open up the front of the cabinet without going to the trouble of moving everything off the table top.

The McDougall Company, realizing this, was the first to introduce a perfect cabinet. After long and exhaustive research on the part of the experimental department, they perfected the McDougall AUTO-FRONT—a feature which entirely eliminated all the inconveniences of swinging doors.

Practically all other kitchen cabinet manufacturers have since eliminated the swinging doors by using various raise and slide curtains, but none of these devices can in any way be compared with the AUTO-FRONT drop curtain.

The AUTO-FRONT is the most easily operated cabinet front on the market. One operation is all that is required to open the work cupboard of the cabinet. By releasing the catch that holds it in place, the AUTO-FRONT drops down out of sight and completely covers the opening made to receive it. There are no crevices left open for dust and dirt to accumulate, thus making it perfectly sanitary.

...Society Notes...

Mrs. Adelaide Summers, Phone 435.

Vases filled with carnations and bowls of roses decorated the pretty home of Mrs. J. S. Johnson May 27th when the 20th Century club held its closing meeting of the season. They opened with a business session and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Ballenger; Treasurer, Mrs. Hargis; Secretary, Mrs. E. L. Klett; Historian, Mrs. Geo. W. Briggs; Parliamentarian, Mrs. H. T. Kimbro; Press Reporter, Mrs. L. C. Ellis; Critic, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson; Committees appointed were: Calendar—Mesdames Spencer, Arnett, Wilson and Rix; Membership, Mesdames Johnson, Kimbro and Davidson; Finance, Mesdames Von Rosenberg, Murfee, Mesdames Floyd Beall, L. T. Martin and Frank Winn; Entertainment, Mesdames Baugh, Klett and Percy Spencer. The Civil Service Reform Work will continue throughout the summer months. They will deal particularly with health and sanitation. Mesdames Winn and Beall were appointed to oversee the children's afternoons this summer. Mrs. Beall will superintend the games and Mrs. Winn the story telling hour. Further plans will be announced later as to the time and place of these very helpful gatherings. The lesson hour was conducted under the leadership of Mrs. L. T. Martin who was assisted by Mesdames Davidson and Spencer. Following this and just before refreshments were served Mrs. W. R. Spencer in her usual pleasing manner presented in behalf of the club a handsome cut glass vase filled with carnations to the retiring president, Mrs. H. T. Kimbro and expressed their appreciation.

Lion of her untiring efforts in serving them so faithfully. The club was glad to welcome back to their midst Mrs. R. A. Sowder, who visited them on that occasion and Mrs. Van Tyle of Colorado, Texas, was another guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. H. T. Kimbro was hostess at a social meeting of the Twentieth Century Club on the afternoon of May 20th, at her home on North Willow Street. Mrs. Frank Winn gave a short talk on "Interior Decoration" followed by a continuation of her report on the information gathered at the meeting in Stamford. Future plans for active work through the summer months were discussed, especially that of story telling classes and games for the school children under the direction of some competent leader. A round table discussion was held, after which a very interesting feature was introduced by the hostess that of an original story with now and then a blank space to be supplied. These spaces made room for the title of some story of which the club has made special study during the winter months. This was indeed very clever and the reading of the complete story brought vividly to mind the work of the past year. Delicious refreshments were served. Carnations as favors.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. H. A. Davidson Monday afternoon. The greater part of the time was spent in the quilting room where they almost completed their afternoon's work. They were invited to the dining room and there awaited a nice little surprise for Mrs. A. W. McKee in the form of a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. McKee leaves next week for Memphis, Texas, to make her home and she will be greatly missed in church and social circles. The good wishes of a host of friends will go with this splendid family. The society adjourned at a late hour feeling that they had been greatly benefitted by having attended this meeting.

Miss Delia Wilkinson charmingly entertained the Auction Bridge Club Tuesday morning at Mrs. O. L. Slaton's home on Broadway. Mrs. B. O. McWhorter was the guest of the morning. There were three tables in play. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of larkspur and cut flowers. At the close of the games a delightful buffet luncheon was served consisting of salad, potato chips, sandwiches, olives, cheese straws and tea. Plate favors were individual roses. Mrs. Roscoe Wilson will be hostess at the club next week.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met in their Calendar meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. T. M. Atkins. During their closing social hour refreshments of sherbert, pink and white cake and angel food were served.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you have heavy hair that glitters with oil and is radiant with life, you are using separate softeners and shampoos. Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You cannot have nice healthy hair until you have dandruff. This destructive agent robs your hair of its lustre, it weakens and kills its very life, and if you overuse the scalp a feverishness and itching develop; the hair falls out, it itches and dies; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Danderine's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

HOW IT HAPPENED
By Pvt. Edwin H. Underhile
111th Ammunition Train
36th Division, A. E. F.
*****

Published by Request.
It was back in Old Camp Bowie,
We signed for our trip to France,
And swapped our old serge breeches
For a pair of khaki pants.

The C. O., said we were leaving
In a couple of weeks or so,
But the week rolled by and the months rolled by
And still we did not go.

The battle of Ft. Worth dragged along
The Alhambra lost its charm,
And finally they gave us furloughs
And sent us back to the farm.

It commenced to look like they didn't need
Our services over in France,
And the 36th Division
Would never be given a chance.

At last an order came one day
For us to all pack our rags;
So we struck our tents and rolled our packs,
And packed our barrack bags.

T'was a happy bunch left that day
For the embarkation port.
We knew that hell awaited us,
But the Yank is a dead game sport.

From town to town, from State to State,
Our troop train sped along,
And the further we went the prouder
we were
Of the Country to which we belonged.

We realized then, why the Hun must be stopped
With his bloody, clutching hand,
To save from the curse of slavery
Our beautiful God given land.

A week in New York for supplies and a rest,
And a visit to Coney Isle;
A trip to the docks where the transports lay,
And we faced the East with a smile.

A smile the world has learned to know

Is made in the U. S. A.,
A smile the Huns will never forget
For many and many a day.

The Statue of Liberty waved farewell
As our transports passed that day,
I bet she will turn a backward flip
When we come back to stay.

And so, for twelve long days we sailed
Over the bounding Main,
Some of the days were full of joy,
And some of them full of pain.

Many a healthy lunch was lost
In the wake of our noble ship;
And many a man cursed kaiser bill,
As his stomach he'd tightly grip.

But after the first few days had passed,
And once more we could eat our beans,
We spent our time in walking deck,
And looking for submarines.

We didn't have to watch very long,
They came in flocks one day.
A dozen or more of the black-nosed snakes
In the path of our transports lay.

The sound of alarms; the roar of guns;
The jar of the death-bomb discharge;
A sudden lurch; full speed ahead,
And the throb of our engines large.

T'was the first that told us that the battle was on,
And we all made a run for the deck
We thought, from the noise and uproar
Our transport must be a wreck.

But our sturdy old ship was still on the job,
And as we looked out o'er the rail,
Our greyhound destroyers darted by
With their nose on the submarine's tail.

For twenty-four hours, we held them
at bay,
In that battle on the waves,
And three German submarines were sent
To a cold and watery grave.

But what of the men of the 36th,
While the battle was in full sway?
Did they grow sick and weak from fear

And fall on their knees and pray?
If I remember correctly,
They greeted each shot with a cheer;
And when a torpedo passed our bow,
They gave it a laugh and a sneer.

A few more days of wind and waves,
And we sighted our haven of rest,
With many a happy heart aboard
We entered the harbor of Brest.

There we camped and ate our meal
Of bread and sow-belly meat,
And never did chicken or turkey
Ever taste half so sweet.

It was here they split the 111th,
Ammunition Train.
Two companies went to the trenches,
The rest told to remain.

Lost from our own Division
In a strange land left to roam;
To look for some kind Artillery Brigade,
With whom we could make our home.

That was a strange, strange land to us,
With its buildings old and gray;
With winding roads and street latrines
And wooden-shoed children at play.

Little fields and trees so green
And railroad trains so small;
Oxen yoked to wooden carts;
Chateaux with towers tall.

A week at Brest and then once more
We hurried on our way.
We unloaded next at Redon
Upon the following day.

A five mile hike to Fregreac
Where we pitched our puppy tents;
And drank white wine and cidre
And learned a little French.

Bon jour, ce soir Madame my dear,
Donnez-moi, s'il vous plait.
Bon soir Mademoiselle, ma chere
And Parlez-vous Francais.

Five weeks of drill; squads east and west,
And again we hit the road.
A forty mile hike to Loutchel.
With a sixty pound pack for a load.

It was there we first had our billets,

And slept with a roof o'er our head
And had a place to wash our clothes.
And found some hay for a bed.

Our travels next took us to Maure,
A town that lay close at hand,
Where we learned that the 61st Brigade

Had adopted our little band.
Back with our own division again,
We settled down in content,
Waiting for orders to move to the front
From the G. H. Q. to be sent.

It was then the World learned of the glorious work
Our infantry boys had done;
Of the smashing advance they made
at Rheims,
And the beating they gave the Hun.

"Advance three Kilos" their orders were,
And "There Hold the Line."
It was twenty-three kilos before they stopped,
They were headed for the Rhine.

New to them, was the roar of guns
And the sight of death,
But, with courage of Veterans,
They fought to their dying breath.

The "Regulars" called them "Rookies"
Because they were new at the game
History will call them HEROES
And well, they deserve the name.

For such are the men of the 36th,
Raised on the hills and plains
Of Texas and Oklahoma

Where the men have red blood in their veins.
And of such, are the men of the A.
E. F.,
All of them, great and small,
Born 'neath the glorious Stars and Stripes
The Grandest Flag of them all.

And now our work is completed,
We have answered our Country's call;
Given the best that is in us,
Made the world safe to live in, for all.

The Hun's vicious power is broken;
France has her Alsace-Lorraine;

So we're going home to America
To our Mothers and Sweethearts again.

A LITTLE LAY SERMON FROM AN EXCHANGE

If we had a daughter and found her loafing around the post office when she had no business there, we would see that she changed her conduct. And if she got in with a gang of girls and loafed around the street when we thought she was visiting a friend, we would see that she reformed. Yet, whose fault is it?

Parents should know what their children are doing and begin to look after them before they form habits that will make them a target for the devil to shoot at.

It does not take long to corrupt the most innocent of girls and make them a terrible sorrow, instead of a source of great pleasure to parents.

The busy, happy home girl is not apt to get into mischief and the girl who has a wise mother is not an idle girl. Girlhood is the time to teach the lessons of life and time to fit the daughter for her work in a home of her own, therefore it is criminal for mothers not to give their daughters a chance to make good wives and intelligent mothers. If home making can not be taught in the family home, then put the girl in a family where she may be taught housework, cooking, baking, sewing, laundry work and many necessary things that most women must know when they take upon themselves the duties incident to making homes, after they lay aside
the wedding gown and veil.—Higgins News.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Lester Guinn left

surance Agents convention at Dallas,

CASCARETS' WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick, Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

Turkey Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels which cause your stomach to be filled with undigested food, which produces the same effects. Cascarets is the first step to relief. It is a gentle laxative, breaks down the food, cleanses the bowels, and gives you a good night's sleep. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

WHEAT WILL MAKE SIXTY BUSHELS TO THE ACRE

Some men estimate that a field of 140 acres of wheat which E. Graham has two miles north of town will average as much as sixty bushels.

Mr. Graham took the editor of the News and several others out to his place yesterday morning. The wheat is beginning to head out and is waist high, and very full and good. There is some rust in part of it, but it will not injure it at this stage. Considerable of the wheat was planted on land formerly in alfalfa.

There are many Hale county farmers who say they will make from forty to fifty bushels of wheat to the acre this year.

There is 100,000 acres of wheat in Hale county this year, and the yield is going to be tremendous.—Plainview News.

R. S. Bell and wife were in town from their ranch near Muleshoe the last of last week, shopping and attending to other business matters.

GASSED AND REFUSED TO GO TO A HOSPITAL

Herbert J. Orand, of Ralls, passed through here the first of the week after receiving his discharge from the army recently. Mr. Orand has been in the service about fifteen months, eleven of which were spent in France. His training with the 102nd Trench Mortar Battery with the 27th Division was received mostly in France. Mr. Orand was on the firing line about 45 days during this time he was with the 33rd, 29th and 79th Divisions. He saw some very hot times while on the front. One time when he was in service on the Argonne forest, he was slightly gassed. His battery was in such a condition at this time as to make it very hard for even the loss of one man. On account of so many who were slightly gassed and were taken back to hospitals, many of the boys who remained called them "yellow". Rather than for them to think of him being classed with this bunch, he made light of the gas attack, and stayed on fighting. It was only a few days later until he lost his voice and of course taken out of active service. He was, however, recovered to the extent that he can speak without very much exertion at this time.

THE WISE OLD DOG AND THE SHIFTLESS PUP

Once upon a time there was a wise old dog and a shiftless pup. The wise old dog buried bones in the garden, but the shiftless pup lived only from day to day and never saved anything. The family drove into town one Saturday and stayed over Sunday and the shiftless pup went hungry—the wise old dog went out into the garden and dug up a bone.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Bismarck Ferguson by making publication by citation once in each week for four (4) successive weeks, previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lubbock County to be held at the courthouse thereof in the town of Lubbock, on the second Monday in June, 1919, to answer the petition of Sam T. Davis, filed in said court on the 13th day of April, 1919, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1228, wherein M. Fulton is plaintiff and Bismarck Ferguson and others are defendants, said petition alleging that in November, 1915, the plaintiff purchased from the defendant, H. C. Ferguson; that in the deed of conveyance by said Ferguson to said Fulton reciting said consideration, said H. C. Ferguson agreed and bound himself to clear the title to said lot of all liens and encumbrances, whatsoever as well as remove any cloud upon the title existing or claimed by any person whomsoever on the date of said deed, which same to be done within a reasonable time from the date of said deed, thereby to prevent loss and damage to the plaintiff, M. Fulton. R. Eckert; W. F. Schenck, $506.75 and accruing interest; the land records of Lubbock County, Texas, showing indebtedness existing against said property of $2912.50, and which indebtedness and record is a cloud upon the plaintiff's title to said lot which liens and cloud the said defendant, H. C. Ferguson obligated himself to remove or cause to be removed from the title to said property and that he and the said Bismarck Ferguson have not complied with the terms and conditions of said deed and are seeking and demanding payment of said indebtedness evidenced by said notes. Judgment is sought by the plaintiff requiring the defendants and the several defendants holding claims to appear and present evidence thereof, and for judgment adjudicating the amounts due on each and which amounts when so found to be subtracted or deducted from the indebtedness evidenced by said notes or to be paid in full by the said defendants, H. C., and Bismarck Ferguson, and the plaintiff's title to said lot be quieted and he have credit for the amount adjudged to be paid on each of said claims and liens and for his attorney's fees of $250.00 prayed for as set forth in said petition and costs.

NEWS HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM CANYON

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Webb and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. T. Crim, attended the Chautauqua Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Flincher and family spent a short while with Mesdames Richardson's Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. S. T. Moore and children spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Crawford.

Mesdames Richardson's spent a short while with Mrs. T. Crim Saturday.

Messrs. Bromo and John Crim made a business trip to Lubbock Saturday afternoon.

Several of the members from this vicinity were in Lubbock Monday and saw Mr. R. E. Madsen, the tall man. They also went to see his moving picture film.

Rain, rain, rain! Let it rain on the West Texas soils, it will help the farmer, ranchman, the rich and the poor. All farmers that have their crops planted are ahead of themselves from last year. Everyone is busy trying to get rid of the crop of weeds and put in a cotton and grain crop. Most of the farmers around in this neighborhood were fortunate enough to have much of their fields planted before this rain. When it gets dry enough to work the men and boys will have their teams turning at the ends like turning hot cakes in a pan of grease.

Mrs. Fletcher Richardson spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. Fletcher. Mesdames Crawford, Richardson, and Miss Ona Fowler were appointed program committee for the social center during the vacation. How can the committee get a program of themselves? The young people "must" come across with their part and not sit back in a corner and laugh and snigger at those who are trying to do their part. Who is the better man? The one that tries or the one that laughs and makes fun? Let's all pull together in all kinds of weather, and we'll have a program ready to render.

Mrs. Crawford is getting along nicely, though her foot pains her very much at times.

Mrs. H. M. Williams is still in the sanitarium. Her family and many friends wish to see her come home soon.

There were not many out at Sunday school Sunday afternoon on account of the rain.

Mr. G. T. Crawford's wheat is looking fine since the rain.

Messrs. J. P. Webb, W. F. Pruitt and Bromo Crim spent Sunday with the good people of Shallowater.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis was opened to the young folks Saturday night and all got their partners and ate cream and enjoyed themselves in various games until a late hour when they bade the host and hostess good night.

Little H. P. and Eunis Webb came down from Plainview Thursday to spend the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Webb will move to the farm in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Moore and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Wagner.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Price, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child... I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time. I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. Cardui about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine and good for that trouble', so he gave me 5 bottles. After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved. After taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, my strength came back to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it.

WAS ONCE A MISSIONARY TO THE PLAINS

Rev. A. W. Rogers, minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of Gainesville, Texas, stopped over here last Friday to visit with his old friend E. P. Earhart. Rev. Rogers says in speaking of the great advancement of the plains country and of the years he had spent preaching here, tells us that just a little over twenty years back, missionaries from different parts of the state were sent to the plains. He was one of the men who were sent to this country from Vernon, Texas, which was itself a frontier place. There were no automobiles used for transportation here then, and the preachers or missionaries would ride horseback, and sometimes a buggy was used. Mr. Rogers has seen real pioneer days here. Traveling from Claude, Clarendon and Amarillo he would go for miles and miles without seeing either a house or persons.

Rev. Rogers left Saturday morning for Ralls to visit with an old time friend, John Ralls.

COTTON ACREAGE GREATLY REDUCED

"The cotton acreage reduction in Texas has been successful," said Judge W. F. Ramsey, chairman of the state committee. "With approximately one million bales of last year's crop remaining unsold in the state, and with the increase demand for other crops, especially food and feed crops, Texas farmers have cut the cotton acreage fully twenty per cent according to reports from county agricultural agents, farmers and bankers in one hundred and forty-seven of the one hundred and seventy-five cotton growing counties of the state. A few counties in the western extreme southwestern part of the state have increased their acreage but on the whole most of them have reduced the acreage from five to fifty per cent."

"A part of this reduction is due, of course, to a greatly increased acreage in small grain, which was planted last fall, and a part is due to a large planting of corn, the acreage of which has been greatly increased this year."

"While not more than twenty per cent of the farmers have signed pledges to reduce their acreage, fully eighty per cent have reduced."

"An increase of fifteen per cent in the number of cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry is indicated by the reports we have received, and as a consequence the farmers have substituted feed and forage crops to a considerable extent. Crops that have been planted in place of cotton, besides wheat, oats and corn, are the grain and sweet sorghums, beans, potatoes, alfalfa, velvet beans and cowpeas."

"In all probability, Texas will produce this year seventy per cent of its requirements in food and feed crops. A twenty per cent reduction of the cotton acreage means not more than 9,500,000 acres have been planted in cotton."

"In this connection I am now pleased to announce that Gov. W. P. G. Haring of the Federal Reserve Board, has accepted an invitation extended by the Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Industrial Congress and the State Farmers' Union, to come to Texas and explain the object in forming a one hundred million dollar cotton exporting corporation. Gov. Harding will speak on this subject in Dallas on May 28, and I hope to see a large representation of cotton growers and others who are interested from every part of the State."

B. T. GRAVES GETS SENTENCE OF TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

The District Court at Crosbyton which closes its session Saturday, found B. T. Graves, charged with the murder of Jot Wrotan, guilty and gave him a sentence of 25 years to serve in the penitentiary. It is not expected by people who heard the evidence in the case, that it will be appealed.

Give little "Bill" a piece of work to do with the understanding that if it is well done you will allow him $1.00 or $5.00 with which to start a bank account in his own name at the Citizens National Bank.

ITEMS FROM THE ABERNATHY BREEZE

The clan of Pearce gathered at the home of Clint Pearce last Sunday to celebrate the home coming of Warriors Pearce. Nels had just returned from overseas, and Jason had but lately arrived home. It was, no doubt, a pleasing day, and as a climax to the reunion, Young Clint, weight 10 pounds, arrived at his home, to take up his abode.

Nels Pearce has arrived at home from France where he has been sojourning for a time. He has enlisted for one year's service. Nels looks hale and hearty and soldiering evidently agrees with him.

Johnson Riley shipped 74 hogs to the Fort Worth market Saturday. They averaged 225 pounds and he paid 18 1-2 cents, which is possibly the highest price ever paid for hogs in Hale county.

SOME LOCAL ITEMS FROM THE LAMESA REPORTER

The trustees have completed the election of teachers for Lamesa Public School for another year and as far as we learn have selected a very fine faculty. Prof. Nathan Johnson, Supt. Prof. Paul Ward, principal, Miss Nannie Yates, science; Miss Leon Underwood, English; Miss Inis Burnes, 6th grade; Miss Lois Nelson, 5th grade; Miss Zelma Red, 4th grade; Miss Nora Hailse, 3rd grade; Miss Beulah Starnes, 2nd grade; Mrs. E. C. Nix, primary; J. A. Sumpter, janitor.

Graduation exercises at the Baptist church was attended by a large crowd. The following received diplomas: Misses Maggie McSpadden, Euna Taylor, Jessie Harris, Ruth McCormick, Thelma Barron, Lavina Allen, Naomi Cox and Eula Key. Again we notice the absence of the boy graduate.

A quiet home ceremony said by the Rev. W. R. Underwood of the Baptist Church at the family residence of J. A. Wyatt, 7:30 P. M. Friday blended into one the lives of Glenn T. Harris and Miss Cleone Wyatt. Mr. Harris has been practically raised here as well as his fair bride. He is now bookkeeper for Higginbotham-Harris Lumber Co. at De Leon while Miss Cleone was one of the teachers in our public school the past session.

Miss Rosa Stuart died at Austin, Texas, and was buried from the Baptist Church at Lamesa May 21st at 11 a. m., Rev. W. R. Underwood officiating.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The Chautauqua.

Lubbock, Texas, 5-27-16.

To the editor of the Avalanche:

The speakers with the Chautauqua last week who have given us a few splendid lectures have touched Lubbock in several vulnerable places. We hope the subtle messages conveyed to us will have a lasting impression. The health, happiness and patriotism of our people were exploited in a very sensible manner. The ideal well being of any town or city is achieved only through the co-operation of its citizens and a city engineer was advocated, who knows best how to utilize the general wasted energy.

How to be healthy and happy were two separate themes of Dr. Barker, who was physical director of Ex-President Taft. Dr. Barker told his hearers that concentrating our ability on the small details of our daily tasks and exercising our will power with our useless worries also to insert a human interest in the square deal we give our fellowmen, are the essentials of happiness. His talk on health was most interesting and the keynote was that if the laws of nature were more generally observed our ills would be few. He gave some interesting facts of the longevity of the people of Bulgaria, stating that at least 300 persons of that small country had lived to the astounding age of 125 years. They believe in drinking from 10 to 20 glasses of water a day to eliminate all poisons from the blood.

Also one of the speakers explained to us that to be a christian one must not only confess his sins but must relieve the sick, feed the starving and give support and counsel to widows and orphans. It seems to me the most convincing lecture was that of Ralph Parlett on the "University of Hard Knocks." Speaking from his own experience, he pleaded with his hearers to beware of questionable investments and futile attempts to gain something for nothing. The enviable heights so many have reached are attained only by honest, untiring and intelligent efforts.

"The Perils of Democracy," by Dr. Loveland was the calm judgment of a true statesman and brought us face to face with the startling problems of vital interest to all Americans and a shock to our complacency. Statistics show there are 4,000,000 American men and women who cannot read or write in any language. In the draft for our national army there were 700,000 grown men who could neither read or write a letter. Seventy-five per cent of those examined for the Navy and seventy per cent of those examined for the army, had physical defects. There are 500,000 cripples in America, 1,000 lepers besides the blind and the deaf and dumb. It was found that between the ages of 21 and 31 there were 730,756 too undersized, underweight and diseased to serve our nation in its greatest emergency. A great mass of foreign-born men knew so little English they could not obey the simplest order.

I understand that such men may vote and thereby establish laws of our fair land, which should always have the golden rule as their foundation. How many unscrupulous politicians take God's laws into consideration when they present bills before become husbands of, possibly, the house? Also if such defective girls of graduating classes of 1919, must they learn of them that "blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth"? Germany sought to dominate a peace loving people who had no thought of war and destruction. God's laws of justice, honor and mercy have been outraged.

We would like to believe that men with vision broadened are using their united efforts to secure laws that absolutely protect the many women, with health sadly impaired and youth gone and with one or more children to support who have been deserted by an able bodied man. There are few solutions of this problem.

Let the women share in the management of the income, give her credit in dollars and cents for what she saves and if your demise is sudden some sharp lawyer will not be able to use a lot of red tape and swindle her out of the property you have earned for her. President Wilson does not belittle the equality of men and women and very shrewdly interprets the needs of those noble women who have stood behind the men behind the guns and have won a glorious victory.

PUBLIC OPINION.

I admit owing to certain conditions, that my open fight against woman suffrage was not pleasant.

My political convictions seem to force the issue upon me. From young manhood, trained as I was in politics, I have always aimed to be right, as to constitution government and the old American ideas of democracy, and I honestly don't believe that woman suffrage accords with these principles. Nor do I believe that woman's right would be increased by suffrage, but I do believe that woman has more power for good, in church and state without suffrage than she would have with it. In course of time the ballot would tend to blot out the nice points ordained by God, that should exist between man and woman. Politics has no poetic rules and plays a rough game. I hope time will prove I am wrong in my ideas, but I have no apology for my acts in this matter, to offer.

What should this training for home making consist of? The home maker should know the needs of the body and how to supply the daily food; she must have a scientific interest in the problems of housekeeping, sanitation, and hygiene; she must know how to furnish a home simply, beautifully, and in good taste; she must develop a love for work through the habit of working successfully; she must learn how to administer a home efficiently and economically; she must be educated for service in the home and society; she must have a proper balance between theory and practice; finally she must have a keen sense of appreciation of her privileges, duties, and responsibilities.

Where are our girls to learn these things so essential to an education for the home? Many mothers do not have time to teach these things. Thousands of mothers have not received this instruction and do not know how. The home life has shifted to the public school so many responsibilities that we must now look to the schools to furnish training for home making. The girl has become school-minded; she learns other subjects by the school route; so she should be given an opportunity in school to learn home making. If the school can increase her interest in and respect for the home and its activities, it will have rendered a very valuable service to society.—Jesse E. Rambo, Head of Home Economics Department, West Texas State Normal College.

NEED OF EDUCATION FOR THE HOME

The popular demand that our schools give training for the home is based upon the significance of the home in the life of every individual, and upon the value to society of a wholesome home life. The home is important in the life of the individual because the physical, mental and moral welfare of children, the chief products of the home, depends largely upon the conditions which prevail in that home. The home is also an educational institution and the place where characters are made or marred. The atmosphere and the teaching, conscious and unconscious, of the home determines in a large measure the child's attitude toward all other institutions and toward all the relations of life. But a good, wholesome home has a wider influence than upon the individual members of that household. The home maker's interest must go beyond her own home and include the welfare of the community.

In America the home is the most important of all institutions, and it means vastly more than the house. The house is not the home as the body is not the spirit. So house-keeping is not home making; the former deals with the material things and processes of the household, while the latter has to do with the spiritual things related to the members of the family. Home making is a profession or at least it may be made one and certainly ought to be so considered. To call any work a profession implies the existence of a certain body of related facts or principles—the inheritance of the ages. But when we begin to examine the province of home making we are at once struck with the immensity of the field. As the home is the unit of society, so home making relates to all human activities.

What should this training for home making consist of? The home maker should know the needs of the body and how to supply the daily food; she must have a scientific interest in the problems of housekeeping, sanitation, and hygiene; she must know how to furnish a home simply, beautifully, and in good taste; she must develop a love for work through the habit of working successfully; she must learn how to administer a home efficiently and economically; she must be educated for service in the home and society; she must have a proper balance between theory and practice; finally she must have a keen sense of appreciation of her privileges, duties, and responsibilities.

Where are our girls to learn these things so essential to an education for the home? Many mothers do not have time to teach these things. Thousands of mothers have not received this instruction and do not know how. The home life has shifted to the public school so many responsibilities that we must now look to the schools to furnish training for home making. The girl has become school-minded; she learns other subjects by the school route; so she should be given an opportunity in school to learn home making. If the school can increase her interest in and respect for the home and its activities, it will have rendered a very valuable service to society.—Jesse E. ## Items of Interest to Farmers Gathered From Various Sources

Pertinent Poultry Paragraphs
In building your chicken house select a location that has natural drainage away from the building. A dry, porous soil, such as sand or gravelly loam, is preferable to a clay soil. In most localities the building should face south, which insures the most sunlight throughout the year. Allow about three square feet of floor space per bird. Proper ventilation and sunlight mean a dry house and healthy birds.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Apply a little Frosone to an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. No magic!
A tiny bottle of Frosone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation. Frosone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

Produce the infertile egg. Infertile eggs are produced by hens that have no male birds with them. Removing the male bird has no influence on the number of eggs laid by the hens.

Pure bred poultry means uniformity of products. Uniformity of products means increased profits, if products are properly marketed.

Soft shelled eggs are often caused by the fowls being confined, becoming over-fat and from lack of mineral matter.

Begin marketing the cockerels as soon as they weigh one pound or attain a marketable weight. Given the same care and feed, purebred fowls make a greater profit than mongrels.

If chicken keeping doesn't pay, don't be in too big a hurry to blame the chickens.

One sick chicken will infect a whole flock in short order. It is safest to remove them at the first sign of illness.

Turkey profits are not confined to the price received for them at Thanksgiving time. No other farm fowl destroys so many insects.

Many poultry ills could be traced to a lack of grit; lime, charcoal, etc., not considered essential by many poultry raisers.

Neglected colds in the flock make it easy for roup to get a start.

When cleaning is made a regular Saturday afternoon chore, the poultry house is kept in fit condition for the fowls as well as the keeper.

Early hatched chicks become the early layers, and that is what all of us want in the poultry business.

First class eggs for market should weigh two pounds to the dozen.

Come to Lubbock.

LETTER FROM CLAUD
MEDLOCK IN BREST

Brest, France, May 10.

Mr. James Dow,
Lubbock, Texas.
Dear Mr. Dow:

I received another Avalanche today and was so glad to get it thought I'd just scratch you a line to let you know how much I appreciate the good old Avalanche. I get lots of letters from the folks at home and would go "nuts" if I didn't hear from home often, but I also love to get the little old Avalanche because it always tells something that the letters leave out. I read her from headline to classified "ads" and judging from some things I notice in it I don't think I'll hardly know old Lubbock when I get back. However, it would not be quite proper for old Lubbock not to grow a lot in a year would it?

Well, Mr. Dow, I will sure be one happy guy when I get back to the "Hub" and I hardly think I'll kick if it don't rain for six months and we have a sandstorm every day! I think I could eat a quart of good old dry sand now if I had it. I haven't seen any dry dirt in so long I have forgotten how it looks. Last winter we had 58 days of rain, in one spell during this time we didn't see the sun over half a dozen time, and then for only a few minutes each day. The past week, however, has been real decent to us, three days of sunshine and one night we saw the moon.

Say Mr. Dow, how is the Methodist Sunday School progressing? I hope it's keeping up with the town and I suppose it is. I haven't been to Church or S. S. in so long that I'd hardly know how to behave in a real church any more. I guess I can learn soon though, if I ever do get back there.

We sure have a nice job here in Brest believe me! Nothing to do, but haul baggage and men down to the boats and watch them go home! Some times we wonder how it would seem to get on the transport ourselves! We didn't get over in time to get up on the front and we sure have seen some of the country over here. You know we landed at Glasgow, Scotland, and got to cross the full length of England to Southampton. From there we crossed over to Le Havre and right there we got the shock of our young lives. 40 of us packed in each cattle car! Why going up from Jacksonville to New York I had a whole upper berth to myself in a brand new Pullman, just because some of the fellows were too good to sleep in an upper! You can imagine what these sports said! I thought it was pretty rough myself when they packed us in these little 18 foot box cars like sardines. We were 24 hours getting to Le Mons, where we lived in our pup tents for 5 days and went to gas school. Then we went via "side door pullman" to La Rochelle, where we spent 6 months of our time. Our job there was to assemble trucks and cars that were shipped over from the States and to drive them up to the advance motor reception parks at Lejin and Tangres. We sure did have some fun on those convoys, but oh! the trip back. French box cars or third class coaches which were worse. Last February we took a convoy of 51 Liberty trucks to Coblenz, Germany. We got to see the battle front for about 90 kilometers. We hit the front for the first time about 48 kilometers south of Verdun and went about 40 kilometers up the front past Verdun. I was rather glad I wasn't present while they were wrecking the landscape for it was sure some wreck.

Mr. Dow your Avalanche is alright but its not the only paper in the world as you will see by the enclosed journal. Our Ponteneyon Duckboard is some sheet itself and it's a dandy, too! Well, I guess I'd better ring off for I've already lasted too long. I only intended to tell you to keep sending the Avalanche and send the bill to my dad. As ever,

Your friend,
CLAUDE W. MEDLOCK,
M. T. C. 497, M. S. T. 421, A. P. O. 716

SOME GROCERY BILL

The grocery bill for the Ponteneyon family during the month of April was just one million, one hundred and twenty-eight thousand dollars. Of course the guests ate most of it, but what's cost to hospitality?

In all 1,912,000 rations were fed, which means 4,836,000 meals, coming to a total weight of 9,560,000 pounds.

This weight was distributed among other things at 1,500,000 pounds of beef, 500,000 pounds of ham and bacon, 390,000 pounds of sugar and 120,000 cans of milk.

Give Martin & Wacott your June Grocery order and get Green Trading Stamps. We'll pass you to do it. I

GOVERNMENT TO RETAIN BOWIE LEASE FOR YEAR

Camp Bowie is to be leased by the Government for another year, according to information received by the Chamber of Commerce. Official notice from Washington probably will be received immediately.

It is expected that the Government will turn back the rifle and trench ranges which are not in use at present. The lease on the ranges alone has been $7,045 annually and has been paid by the Chamber of Commerce. Fees for the lease of the entire camp are paid by this organization.

Already the Chamber of Commerce has asked the War Department for restoration of the ground used for the ranges. The ground has been damaged due to the construction of trenches.

WAR SAVINGS ADVISOR IS HERE THIS WEEK

Robert L. Dudley, territorial War Savings Advisor, for this district, with headquarters at Dallas, was in Lubbock the first of this week in the interest of the war savings department. It is very important that we buy war savings stamps liberally. Uncle Sam is in need of the money, and this is one way he has of getting the use of the people's coin. Our Uncle does not want to use our money without paying for its use, and these certificates draw a neat little sum of interest. Save your money and invest in War Savings Stamps and you will be making money for yourself and at the same time helping your government.

Justice for the Foster-Parents of our Children

It is strange that the generous-hearted American people, who poured out their riches so prodigally in response to every patriotic, every charitable appeal, and who accorded such enthusiastic and liberal support to every measure and to every group that helped win the war, should have neglected to properly encourage and reward the services of one of the noblest professions in the field of human activities—a profession that in lofty ideals, in unselfish principles, in sacred responsibilities, stands side by side with the ministry of the Gospel itself.

We wish to bespeak, with whatever power and authority we may have and with such words as may be granted to us, some measure of consideration for the foster-fathers and mothers of our children—the school-teachers of the United States of America.

There is no class of workers of which we demand so much. We commit into their keeping the minds, the bodies, and the very souls of our children in the tender and formative years of their lives, and they, receiving these children, can indeed be said to hold in the hollow of their hands the future of America. We expect these devoted men and women to watch over and care for our sons and daughters as tho they were their very own, to drill them in the arts and sciences, to train them for business and for citizenship, to instruct them in manners and in morals, to do for them those things which we would do had we the training and the leisure.

No class has assumed so heavy, so trying a burden and a responsibility with such willingness as these consecrated men and women. No class has performed their increasingly heavy tasks more devotedly, more conscientiously, and with less thought of self. No class served their country more wholeheartedly, more loyally, during the trying and tempestuous times of war, day by day pursuing their round of duty, day by day helping the young people, and through the children—the parents, to see the struggle in its true light, thus securing the co-operation of the community in every measure undertaken by the Government to win the war.

Truly they have made the nation their everlasting debtor. Truly had they not done their work so well this republic would not outlast the span of a generation.

What then have the teachers received at our hands in return? They have received little of honor and somewhat less of pay. Other classes have prospered; other classes through powerful organizations have secured generous wages. The teachers have no spokesman, however, to demand even the simple justice of a living wage, so to them we give their petty prewar pittance, so meager, so pitifully inadequate, that it places a burning brand of shame and disgrace upon this nation.

The men and women who are making the Americans of to-morrow are being treated with less consideration than the janitors who sweep out the buildings in which they are employed; they are earning on the average, less than the wages given to the scrubwomen employed in the public buildings of the United States Government. Normal school graduates receive less salary than street-sweepers; high school principals and superintendents less than section foremen; country school teachers less for instructing the farmer's children than he pays his hired man to feed his hogs.

In a certain town of Illinois, for instance, the average wages of fifteen miners for one month was $217, while the average monthly salary of fifteen teachers in the same town was $55. In another town a miner, who, by the way, was an enemy alien, drew more than $2,700 last year, while the salary of the high school principal in the same town was $765. We welcome with all our hearts the long-belated recognition that is being given to the man who works with his hands. We believe that this same workman will be the first to join with us in asking better pay for those who teach his children.

No wonder there are fifty thousand vacancies in the teaching forces of the schools. No wonder the ranks are being filled with weak men and with immature women who merely use the profession as a stepping-stone to something better. No wonder there are thirty thousand teachers in the United States who have had no schooling beyond the eighth-grade. Small wonder indeed, that seven million of our school-children are being trained by teachers, mere boys and girls themselves, who have had no professional education whatever.

When we consider that the 746,000 teachers of America are paid an average salary of $630 a year; when, moreover, we consider the fact that living costs have actually advanced 103 per cent. since the beginning of the war, thereby cutting the buying-power of these insignificant salaries in half, we can easily determine that only a fool or a martyr would choose teaching as a profession, or would long remain in it unless these terrible conditions were swiftly remedied.

What a crime is this! What an indictment! What an unpardonable sin at the doors of an enlightened people who now find themselves at the head and forefront of the democracies of the world! How can we better prepare for the great undertakings of reconstruction than by setting ourselves immediately to remedying this perilous condition. In these trying and chaotic times when the world is beset by unrest, by anarchy, by revolution, by the devil's brood of appalling evils that follow in the train of war, we must make sure that the foundations of our republic are set on a rock that it may stand against the flood.

The peace and security of the world of the future will be in the safe keeping of the generation now in our schools. These boys and girls must "weave up the raveled sleeve" of civilization. Their hands must minister to the wounds of the nations. Their minds must meet and solve the difficult and crucial problems that will be their inheritance. Their hearts must be so imbued with the horrors of war and with the poverty and anguish that inevitably follow in its wake that they in their time will enter upon it only as a last resort in national self-defense or in support of some great principle of humanity.

Never has there been a more urgent need for high-minded, great-hearted, splendidly trained, 100 per cent American instructors to drive home the vital lessons that these times hold. Never has the future of the

The Tool of a Trade

Every good mechanic is careful of the tools which he owns and uses. Tools have characters that reflect the character, the personality, the capability of their owner.

What satisfaction there is in having good, dependable tools! How important it is to have them when needed! What care should be taken in buying tools! We have given these matters our best thought, and we have for inspection the very best that can be obtained from the most reliable makers. A call at our store will convince any buyer that we have the best quality of tools.

Cole-Myrick Hardware & Implement Company
NORTH SIDE SQUARE PHONE NO. 105 LUBBOCK, TEXAS

nation been so clearly committed into the hands of the teachers. And yet thousands of men and women of ability who would prefer to teach are reluctantly leaving their chosen calling, forced by the hard necessities of their very existence.

The teachers ask no largess at the hands of fortune. They enter their profession for service, not riches. But they invest years and money in preparation for their life-work and the knowledge they gain is shared with others who themselves use it to their own profit. Teachers, then, by every right and in all justice expect a return that will permit them and their dependents to live decently and in comfort.

In every community reached by the Literary Digest there are readers of foresight, of vision, broad-minded men and thoughtful women who will see—nay, perhaps have long since seen—the critical and compelling importance of this problem. We are directing this appeal to them. We urge them to compare the salaries of their teachers with the wages of those who are doing work of equal value. There will be a challenge in the facts that will stir the community to action.

Let each community invest in schools so that it may thereby invest in a trained manhood and womanhood that can play their part in the great period of rebuilding and reconstruction that lies before us. Let each community set for its goal, as far as is practicable, a minimum wage of at least $1,000 a year for the teachers of America. This would cost the nation perhaps as much as we spent so gloriously in but one week of the Great War.

We are not pleading merely for the welfare of some single profession; we are not pleading for a special class; we are pleading for America; for her larger, her brighter, her richer future, for the fulfillment of her glorious promise. We are pleading for a coming race of men and women who shall be qualified to make complete the work of our forefathers who founded this nation and dedicated it to liberty, and who will bring to full fruition the new victories that we have won in freedom's cause. We are pleading for a wider teaching of the principles, the purposes, and the ideals of this nation that all men shall know her meaning and shall have equal access to her opportunities; that the light of Americanism will so shine that it will flood every home, every heart, in our great land.—Literary Digest.

BURLESON TO QUIT, TUMULTY TO TAKE PLACE, IS GOSSIP

Washington, May 27.—The Capital is alive with rumors of another impending change in the President's Cabinet. Reports now concern Postmaster General Burleson, who, it is declared, is prepared to resign as soon as President Wilson returns from France. There have been several reports from various authorities to this effect ever since the Postmaster General was compelled to announce that the telegraph and telephone lines would be handed back to their owners.

Gossip, which comes from Cabinet sources, has it that Burleson's resignation is surely coming and that Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, is to be appointed Postmaster General.

ADVERTISE LUBBOCK!

The Chautauqua was great. Lubbock should have it every year. It is a treat that is rarely to be had and should be a permanent enterprise to our community. I had occasion to overhear a man say: "the Chautauqua was of no benefit as it did not benefit the town financially." No, Chautauqua were not making up from a financial point of view. They are a combination of the best talent to be had intellectually and otherwise. Let's make it permanent. Then, speaking of automobile painting and sign painting. Do you know artistic signs beautify the appearance of your place of business and show an air of pride? Do you know that good high class automobile painting is an advertisement for Lubbock? I am now getting inquiries from surrounding towns. I intend to, in the near future, to be located in better quarters than at present, also that I am painting in Valentines, colors and varnishes exclusively the name of which bespeaks of the highest standard in auto material. I specialize in high grade work only. Drive your car around for me to look at and price, also to make a reservation. Let's advertise Lubbock. (481) H. H. JONES.

In 1848 Sir Arthur Garrod proved that in gout (also true in rheumatism) there is deficient elimination on the part of the kidneys and the poisons within are not thrown off.

Prof. H. Strauss attributes a gouty attack to the building up of poisons where there is an abundance of uric acid which is precipitated in the joints and causes, setting up inflammation. Before the attack of gout or rheumatism there is some head ache, or what is thought to be neuralgia, or rheumatic condition, such as lameness, pain in the back of the neck, etc. As Prof. Strauss says, "The secretion of uric acid by the body is effected by exciting diuresis." Drink copiously of water, six or eight glasses per day, hot water before meals, and obtain Atrio tablets, double strength, for 60 cts. at the nearest drug store and take them three times a day. If you want a trial package send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Anurie" (anti-uric) is a recent discovery of Dr. Pierce and much more potent than lithia, for it will dissolve uric acid as hot tea dissolves sugar.

County Home Demonstration Department

About this time every year our Agricultural and Mechanical College is sending out circulars, letters and bulletins, advertising the Summer Short courses. Many of us throw these aside as not worth considering, and do not really understand the advantages offered us through the various short-courses offered. Knowing the value of some of these courses I am asking you to please consider the announcements more carefully this year.

The two courses to which I would call your special attention are the Rural Life course and the Farmers' Short Course.

The Rural Life Course covers six weeks, beginning June 9. This course is of special interest not alone to those desiring to teach, but to any person interested in improving rural conditions anywhere. Some of the interesting subjects offered to women are: Farm Dairying, which includes the care and better use of Dairy products and the making of Farm Butter; Farm Poultry Keeping, which includes a study of breeds and breeding poultry management and other interesting features; The Farm Orchard and the Farm Garden; Domestic Science which gives a practical course in foods and cookery, domestic art and household management; home demonstration methods. There are courses for men along lines of farm work that are equally as instructive.

The Farmers' Short Course covers one week, July 21-26. This course provides classes for each member of the family. The women and girls will have lectures and demonstrations by State and National leaders, in cooking, canning, basket making and household art. One of the interesting features is a canning club contest to win a Silver Cup. If you could once see the interest shown in this contest you would help me insist that we have a team of canning club girls enter from Lubbock County this year. This one week course is in session at the same time all the county and home demonstration agents from over the State are at the College and if any of my club girls or women are interested in going with me I should be glad to talk with you about it at once.

Besides the great amount of instruction to be derived from this short course refreshing and wholesome entertainment is offered throughout the week. The entertainment is all free and so arranged that the work and play just keep one "feeling fit" all the time.

The College is prepared to take care of all this year. The expense is not great to go by rail. Yet, if you prefer, you could make a fine trip of it by going in your car and taking the whole family. There is plenty of shade and water. Why not give the entire family an outing and, at the same time give them a week of most valuable instruction. You will meet many of your old friends there and will make many new ones. Go down and get acquainted with your State College of Agriculture and learn how it can serve you better.

Sincerely,
MILIE M. HALSEY,
Home Demonstration Agent.

You Do More Work.
You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE dissolved in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to purify it and IRON to enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

Mrs. George C. Wolfforth returned the first of the week from Jacksboro, where she was called to attend the bedside of Mr. Wolfforth's mother, who has been seriously ill for several days, but is much improved at this time.

A monthly average of $66.82 came into the treasury of the city through these fines, assessed for the following reasons: Gambling, (which seems to be in the lead); speeding, disturbance of the peace; drunkenness, failure to keep proper record; theft; affray; vagrancy; driving across fire hose and cutting on water.
