

THE LUBBOCK AVALANCHE

VOLUME XIX

LUBBOCK, LUBBOCK COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1919

NUMBER 51

LUBBOCK WILL CELEBRATE JULY 4TH

BIG BARBECUE AND CELEBRATION IS BEING ARRANGED FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY

COMMITTEE IS SPARING NEITHER TIME OR EXPENSE

They Propose to Make It the Biggest Celebration on the Plains and the Best Lubbock Has Ever Had. People from Far and Near Are Urged to Come to Lubbock on July Fourth

Lubbock is known far and near as the place that succeeds in its undertakings. It is a well known fact throughout the country that Lubbock people have big ideas and put them into effect in a way that makes the town famous for its achievements. Our people never undertake a proposition that they allow to fall by the wayside, and in this welcome some of the soldier boys they propose to go over the top, and show to the boys that they appreciate what they have done, and are glad that they are home again. With this in view the program that is being arranged for the occasion indicates that the committee wants every soldier within a hundred miles of Lubbock to come and enjoy the occasion.

The program as indicated by the committee will be something like the following:

- Band Music all the time.
- Address of Welcome.
- Parade, soldiers in uniform.
- Memorial address.
- Baseball—fats and Leans (A Hot game.)
- Chin Music (dinner).
- Fourth of July Orations.
- Boxing Contest.
- Miscellaneous Contests.
- Baseball, by professional players.
- Music and dancing at pavillion all day.
- No dull moments on the program.
- There will be plenty of shade, water and every convenience possible, and rest places for the women and children, and there will be play grounds for the kiddies, that will take away much of that unrest among the little folks on such occasions. It is the purpose of the committee that the little folks enjoy the day and that the mothers may feel that their little ones are entirely safe.

Lubbock wants you to come and celebrate with us the return of prosperity to the South Plains, the return of the soldiers to their homes, the end of the great war, and how fitting is this on the grand and glorious Fourth, the time set apart to declare, celebrate and prolongate the day of our Independence, when we are called upon to fling our banners to the breeze and let our patriotism bubble over like soap bubbles from the old clap pipe, and our voices re-sound with "My Native Country, Thee," "Red, White and Blue," "The Girl I left Behind Me," Etc. When power and patriotism flashes forth, declaring all men are created free and entitled to pursue happiness to the full extent of their ability in the land of the free and the home of the brave, where the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave, and not one bright star from its constellation can ever be plucked by any land or nation, for united we stand. The time for a joyous, happy, booming, frolicking, royal good time—one long to be remembered, not with regret because of misconceived and misused privileges, but of greatest delight and satisfaction because of proper observation with due consideration of the rights and privileges of every true born American citizen.

Begin now making your plans to come and spend the day with your friends in Lubbock.

Welcome to our city, is written in every Lubbockite's face.

SOME LUBBOCK BOYS OF THE 36TH ARRIVE

Lubbock's own heroes of the great war are arriving home on every train. Thursday morning nine boys of the 36th division came in. Among these boys are those who faced German gas and hidden machine guns for twenty-three days from October the 6th until October 29th on the Meuse-Argonne (Champagne) where thousands gave their lives for a just cause.

Here are the boys that came home Thursday:

- M. M. Mitchell, headquarters Co.
- Marcus E. Helber, headquarters Co., 142nd Inf.
- Herbert Stubbs, headquarters Co., 142nd Inf.
- Lattie Rankin, Co. G, 142 Inf.
- Claburne Bullock, Headquarters Detachment, 36th.
- Ansell Hines, Co. G, 142 Inf.
- George Alexander, Co. G, 142 Inf.
- And Lubbock is proud of them. Our hearts are gladdened to see these boys greet their friends, sisters, mothers and other loved ones, after their months of sacrifice to their country.

And while we are gladdened at the sights of these returning boys, our hearts are touched with sadness, for there are some who left with these boys from our midst that are lying buried in France. Forever a monument to a principal, an emblem of sacrifice to a great cause.

McADAMS LUMBER COMPANY HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

T. H. Morrow, vice-president and General Manager of the A. G. McAdams Lumber Company, with headquarters at Dallas, is here attending the annual meeting of this Company. Representatives from all of the various yards over Texas are here attending the meeting.

"Lubbock being the center (of all good things) on the plains, is the reason it was chosen as a meeting point, for the representatives of this Company," says a man of the Company, who is in better position to know the attitude of the manager of the company. There was a talk some time ago of holding the meeting at another point on the plains, but after the manager had been made acquainted with the fact of Lubbock's accessibility to all points, he was very glad to hold their meeting here, and that fact may account for this being the regular meeting place in the future.

The meeting convened Wednesday morning, in the Woodman hall and will be in session several days.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR GOATS FROM FAMOUS N. M. RANCH

The committee in charge of the program to be given here the Fourth of July, is going to have something worth while for people to come to Lubbock on the Fourth. This can be seen from the fact that just any goat will not be satisfactory for roping. They are wanting more excitement than roping just the common goats. Dr. Barr, who is chairman of this committee tells us that they are now negotiating for goats to come from the famous "Ortiz Grant" in New Mexico. These goats are big and strong and can run faster than the average.

Already there are 45 contestants registered with the committee to participate in the roping and there is expected to be at least that many more, which will warrant a good purse for the winners.

FORT BLISS TO PLAY LUBBOCK BOYS MONDAY

The "Bradley" Team of Lubbock will meet Fort Bliss's recruiting men on the Lubbock grounds Monday afternoon, June 23rd.

It is expected to be one of the best games of the season. Mr. Hal Bradley has recently become the manager of the team here and no doubt through the efficient management the boys will receive, they will pull off a fine game.

Fort Bliss boys promise to give the boys here a good tryout, being in the army where they are hardened and active, they will give a good battle for the high score.

A good crowd is expected to attend this game, which will probably be the starting game of many to be played by the "Bradley" team this season.

CALIFORNIAN VISITING IN LUBBOCK THIS WEEK

Benjamin Hooker and family of California, are here this week visiting with Mr. Hooker's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hooker, and his sisters, Mrs. C. H. Burrus and Mrs. Drew Phillips, and brother, Hub Hooker.

GRAND JURY FINDS TWO MORE BILLS OF INDICTMENT

The grand jury which adjourned last Friday evening, found two more bills of indictment, making a total of only four bills turned into the District Court.

P. H. Herndon was indicted for assault with intent to murder Fred Krause on or about March 27th.

Fred Krause was indicted for assault with intent to murder P. H. Herndon on or about March 27th.

As far as possible to learn of the facts, are that the men quarreled or rather, had some words, about pasturage. It is stated that Mr. Herndon had let Mr. Krause have a bunch of cattle to pasture on the Krause stalk field, and later when a settlement could not or was not brought about, Mr. Krause penned the Herndon cattle to hold for pay of pasturage. Over this act we understand the men quarreled and also brought guns into play.

The men were arrested, and later released after furnishing a bond of $500 each.

The grand jury did not make its final report and will reconvene on the 28th for final investigation.

REV. J. B. COLE RESIGNS LUBBOCK PASTORATE

Rev. J. B. Cole, who has been here serving the pastorate of the Baptist Church, has recently resigned and will accept the pastorate of Crosbyton Church.

Rev. Cole has been a citizen of Lubbock several years and has made many warm friends while here who will be sad to hear of his leaving our town. On account of the weight of years, Brother Cole says he is unable to stand the work of a church so large as this one, and has had in mind for some time of quitting the ministry, but has come to the conclusion that he could be able to fill the pulpit at Crosbyton where the work would not be so heavy.

He left Tuesday morning for Bristol, Tenn., where he will spend about one month visiting with relatives near his old home which he left thirty odd years ago. As soon as he returns from this trip he will move his family to Crosbyton. Mr. Cole has disposed of nearly all of his Lubbock property except his residence here.

VICTIM OF GERMAN GAS HERE ON FURLOUGH

John D. Simpson, one of the Lubbock boys who went into service in the 21st Engineers, more than a year ago, is here this week on a furlough, visiting with relatives and friends.

"We were working on a narrow gauge railroad, carrying supplies to men in the front at Toul, we would use the big steam engines, as far up near the front as possible without danger, then change to a gas tractor. One night when we were out on the tractor near the front, our road was bombed and a large part blown up, this road was continually under a heavy fire and this time they were shooting gas. My gas mask had a small leak in it at the time. We were able after a time to relay the road and go back. It was this night when I suffered from the gas attack. Later I was taken down with the flu which developed into pneumonia." This is in part some of Mr. Simpson's experience. He was taken to Cannes France, for treatment in a hospital where he remained for several weeks. He will report to the Spartanburg hospital in a few days where he will remain until he is thought physically fit for release.

EMANCIPATION DAY IS CELEBRATED IN LUBBOCK

"To show their independence," will account for many of our men that expected to have their shoes shined in town this morning of being unable to find the "shine boy." No, it isn't a strike. June—the 19th, Emancipation, and is being celebrated by the colored folks of Lubbock by a holiday for most of them. They will go down on the Canyon, where they will have their lunches and amusements of various natures.

MOVING TO WICHITA FALLS THIS WEEK

H. E. Wheelock has recently sold his residence in Lubbock to J. C. Blair and will leave today for Wichita Falls, where he will make his home in the future. Mr. Wheelock will probably go in business with his brother, C. E. Wheelock, who has a well rig working in the Burk Burnett oil fields.

We understand Elwin. Wheelock will also go there in the near future.

200 MEN ATTEND C. OF C. SMOKER

A ROUSING MEETING OF ENTHUSIASTIC CITIZENS MEET IN INFORMAL SMOKER AT WOODMAN HALL

IMPORTANT MATTERS OF IMPROVEMENT DISCUSSED

Paving Proposition Discussed—Big Celebration Talked About and Definite Steps Taken to Pull Off a Big One. Committees Now at Work on Arrangements

Two hundred men, business, professional and farmers, who have for the betterment of Lubbock, Lubbock County and the South Plains, foremost in their minds, constituted the crowd that attended the Chamber of Commerce Smoker, given at the Woodman Hall last Friday evening. The following program occupied the evening:

Toastmaster—E. L. Klett.

The Duty of All Citizens to co-operate in Public Enterprises—W. C. Rylander.

Report of July 4 Celebration Committee—I. E. Barr.

Financing of the Celebration—Roscoe Wilson.

Work of the Chamber of Commerce—O. L. Slaton.

Co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce with Farmers—Carroll Thompson.

The 1919-1920 Plans of the Chamber of Commerce—Geo. W. Briggs.

Government Savings Campaign—Robt. L. Dudley.

Round Table discussion.

The opening address of the evening was made by the Chamber of Commerce President, Hon. E. L. Klett. The thought of the address being "The responsibility of the Citizens in making Lubbock what it is and what it will be." Mr. Klett then called George W. Briggs, Secretary of the Chamber.

Mr. Briggs told in outline of the work that the Chamber is planning for this year, and in a few words let the citizens know that the Chamber of Commerce would be busy this year; for civic betterment, and also covering a wider range, and reaching out in development of the country surrounding our city.

W. C. Rylander, with his eloquence give us an idea of the duties as a citizen of Lubbock, and Lubbock county toward helping the Chamber of Commerce; backing it up financially; pushing with it when needed and declaring: "Those who do not help in the civic betterment of their own community are showing a yellow streak."

The floor was then given over to Carroll Thompson, who told in a fine way the duties of the citizens and Chamber of Commerce in this period of reconstruction.

Dr. Barr, chairman of committee which is arranging for the program to be had here the Fourth of July, give an outline of that program and assured all that there would be plenty "doing" all day.

The chairman of the finance committee for the Fourth of July celebration, Mr. Roscoe Wilson, showed at the first that "finance" was an art. All present were asked to stand if they would promise to back the financing of an elaborate program. All stood! He then announced that he wanted two thousand dollars. Of this $2000 was made immediately by popular subscription; two beebes donated and a big barrel of pickles. Thus assuring that the committee would receive ample financing.

Col. O. L. Slaton then made a nice talk, showing that things which really amount to much are planned by men and made to be, through their efforts and determination.

Mr. Dudley, supervisor of the War Savings department of this district made a short talk very complimentary to our city, and the reasons that it was chosen as headquarters and known as the Lubbock district for Savings Stamps of the Treasury department.

Miss Hooper, representative of the Redpath Horner Company, then asked that we consider a series of plays, given by this company here next winter.

RALLS FAMILY RETURN FROM A TRIP NORTH

G. J. Ragle, wife and daughter, returned Wednesday morning from an extensive trip into Arkansas and Missouri. Mr. Ragle attended the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Fayetteville, Ark., while away, and spent nearly a month visiting with relatives in Missouri.

Then we got to the really interesting things. Dishes began to rattle, we looked about, turned, twisted, mouths all watered and finally we were rushed out into the dining hall where we were served with sandwiches, salad, cream, cake and cigars. Never before in the history of the City of Lubbock has there been so much enthusiasm aroused by the citizens over making of a REAL LUBBOCK as was shown Friday evening.

Excerpts Taken From C. of C. Speakers at Smoker.

Hon. E. L. Klett—"Let's make the Fourth of July a day of handshaking, and become better acquainted with farmers, and business men of our neighboring towns and country."

George W. Briggs—"Lubbock is now in need of paved streets. The towns (even on the branch roads) around us, that are not and can never be what Lubbock is to be, are not overlooking the advantages of paved streets."

W. C. Rylander—"We thought in our own minds, during the big conflict that one who slacked his duty to his country, was 'yellow'. Now that is over. We think the one who willfully neglects or shirks his duties to the betterment of the communities in which they live, are showing a yellow streak. Our duties are as great, even with only one talent, in proportion, as those with thousands of talents."

Carroll Thompson—"Eulogy on 'the little boy'"—"A little boy became so regular in his habits, that when putting on his pants, he would invariably get the 'hind part before' much to the dissatisfaction and horror of his mother. Finally one day, when she had determined to break the little son of this habit, she told him before he done anything that day, to stop and say 'hind part before.' The little boy made out during the day his promise to his mother that he would do as told. Bedtime came, when the little fellow knelt down to say his prayer, he gave it thus: 'Now I lay me down to sleep, hind part before, I pray thee. Lord, my soul to keep hind part before. If I should die, hind part before, before I wake, hind part before, I pray the Lord my soul to take, hind part before.'"

O. L. Slaton—"Put your shoulder against the wheel of progress and help push, if it is going fast, run."

Roscoe Wilson—"Those who are present that will promise to back the finance committee in making of a real celebration on the fourth, to stand," and all present stood.

Dr. Barr—"We will celebrate on the Fourth of July, the like of which Lubbock has never seen before."

Mr. Dudley—"Lubbock was not chosen by me as headquarters for this savings district. Dallas has her eyes on the plains, and knows where the center of activity is, she chose the place." (Eulogy on the American hen, by an Irishman) "Be gosh, the American bird is a wonderful fowl. Every time she lays an egg, she advertises it. Yes, she is some bird, she can pay the American debt in one year, by just laying around. She is a wonderful fowl, marvelous, she can pick in the garden and scratch all day, then become a rooster at night. Marvelous, is not the word for this American bird, may her son never set."

George M. Boles—"Having served as foreman of the recently adjourned grand jury, I wish to state that I have served on this jury many times before, that there was less crime to come under our investigation than any one before."

MRS. JOHN GELIN IS VISITING IN DALLAS

Mrs. John Gelin and little daughter, Leona, are in Dallas for a few weeks, where Mrs. Gelin is visiting her two sons, Harold, who is working in the City National Bank of Dallas, and Lawrence, in the Federal Reserve bank of that city. She is also taking a short music course.

Claude has had lots of excitement and experience while away. Having served with the army in some of their hardest fighting, on the Toul sector from July 24th until August 10th, Marbache sector from August 17th until Sept. 11th, 1918, St. Mihiel operations, September 12th until the 16th, Meuse-Argonne offensive, September 26th until the 30th, Meuse-Argonne offensive from September 30th until October 3rd, and October the 30th. He is entitled to one gold chevron.

SUFFERED PAINFUL INJURY LATE TUESDAY EVENING

Louis Christen, employee of the Lubbock Sash and Door Company, suffered a very painful, if not serious accident Tuesday evening late. While working in the planing department of this company, he was struck on the chest by part of a plank which he was splitting. He was rushed to the sanitarium, where an X-ray examination showed no bones to have been broken by the lick, but very severely bruised. Latest reports are that he is resting well and will recover shortly if no unforeseen complications develop.

BROWNFIELD WILL NOT CELEBRATE FOURTH OF JULY

From the visitors here this week from Terry County, we find that Brownfield does not contemplate celebrating the Fourth of July at that place. They will probably have many of their returned soldiers in the big parade to be here on that day. There are intending however, to hold a celebration of this nature some time in August.

ANOTHER BOY HAS RETURNED FROM OVERSEAS

C. C. Sherman, son of J. L. Sherman, who enlisted here a little over a year ago, has recently returned from overseas. Mr. Sherman while in service, was with the 116th Infantry of the 29th division. This company was stationed on the front near Alsace for reserves, and was never used on the firing lines.

COMPANY B, 142ND INFANTRY LOST HEAVILY

F. P. Tipton, one of the first of the famous 142nd Infantry, 36th Division, arrived here Tuesday morning. Mr. Tipton enlisted at Littlefield and was with the division from the beginning. He was with Company B of the 142nd Infantry, which is thought to have lost more men than any company of this division. "On the morning of October the 8th, we were moved out into the open, to charge the German lines and the fact that machine guns were completely hidden from our view, we lost so many of our men." This company, however, fought on until the morning of the 13th when the 144th Infantry relieved them.

Mr. Tipton formerly lived in Lubbock, having worked for R. C. Burns, for some time.

RECRUITING COMPANY ENLISTS FOUR MEN HERE

Lieut. Helm, and his recruiting party, who have been here several days, report Monday morning of this week the following enlistment: Robert L. PUBLIC POLL FOR RETURN OF RAILS

Public opinion is very strongly in favor of an early return of the railroads to their owners, as shown by the vote of nearly 6,000 editors of daily and weekly newspapers throughout the country. A questionnaire sent to every editor in the country (13,424) brought replies from 5,922, or 44 per cent, and 83 per cent of the editors reported their communities in favor of a resumption of private management.

The questionnaire was conducted on behalf of the Association of Railway Executives, and was completed before President Wilson announced in his recent message to Congress that the Government would relinquish control of the railroads at the end of the year.

Editors were asked not to give their personal opinions, but to appraise the sentiment in their communities. The four chief questions were as follows:

1. Does public opinion in your judgment seem to favor the return of railroads to private ownership and operation as soon as this can properly be accomplished?
2. If so, is this opinion in part based on the desire to see competition in service and facilities restored?
3. What is the present sentiment in your community on government ownership and operation of railroads?
4. What has been the feeling regarding the proposal to extend the period of government operation for five years?

On the first question, "Does public opinion in your judgment seem to favor the return of railroads to private ownership and operation as soon as this can properly be accomplished?" 83 per cent voted yes, 11 per cent voted no, while 4 per cent were doubtful and 2 per cent expressed no opinion.

On the second question, "If so, is this opinion in part based on the desire to see competition in service and facilities restored?" 75 per cent voted yes, 6 per cent voted no, with 5 and 14 per cent doubtful and blank respectively.

On the third question, "What is the present sentiment in your community on government ownership and operation of railroads?" 78 per cent estimated public sentiment as against government ownership, 11 per cent for, with 7 per cent doubtful and 4 per cent blank.

On the fourth question, "What has been the feeling regarding the proposal to extend the period of government operation for five years?" the vote was as follows: Against, 74 per cent; for, 10 per cent; blank, 7 per cent.

That public opinion on the railroad question is not divided on party lines is plain from a study of the vote in the various States. In Texas, for example, although only 3 of the 331 editors replying are Republicans, the number in favor of a return of the roads is 88 per cent, considerably higher than the percentage (84 per cent) in the strong Republican State of Pennsylvania.

Tennessee voted 97 per cent as compared with 83 per cent in Maine. Of the 5,922 replies, 2,052 were from Republican papers, 1,689 from from Democratic, and 2,181 independent and scattering.

The States showing 95 per cent or more in favor of the return of the roads, are Connecticut, 97; New Hampshire, 100; Tennessee, 97.

Those showing from 90 to 95 per cent in favor are Florida, 94; Iowa, 90; New York, 90 and Wyoming, 94.

The only States below 75 per cent are Idaho, 72; Arkansas, 68, and North Dakota, 61.

The strongest sentiment against government ownership was found to be in New England and the South, sections widely apart in political sentiment. Only 4 per cent of New England editors and 7 per cent of Southern editors reported their people favoring government ownership.

On the question of the return of the roads the New England editors voted 91 per cent in favor, 6 per cent no, with 3 per cent doubtful and blank.

In the North Atlantic States (New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland) 86 per cent thought public sentiment opposed it with 7 per cent doubtful and blank.

In the Great Lakes States (Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin), 1,032 editors (84 per cent) decided that public opinion in their communities favored the return of the roads, while 125 (10 per cent) voted no; 6 per cent doubtful and blank.

The Northwest (Iowa, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming) returned 80 per cent in favor and 13 per cent opposed out of a total of 1,165 replies. This result is largely influenced by the government ownership sentiment in North Dakota.

The editors of the Far West (Arizona, California, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Colorado, Utah, Washington) voted 79 per cent yes and 15 per cent no on the question of returning the roads to their owners.

Mrs. A. N. Hart, wife of the Santa Fe Agent, of Lorenzo, passed thru here the first of the week, en route to her home. Mrs. Hart has been taking a short vacation, visiting with relatives and acquaintances in San Jacinto County for several days.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel is a dynamite! It's Mercury. Calomel is like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with your bile, it crashes into it, causing vomiting and nausea. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated, all knocked out, just go to your drugist and get a bottle of Doan's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a course and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel, then we'll make you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may sllivate you while if you take Doan's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant, and safe to give to children; they like it.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off. When Freezezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

HAS BLOOD POISON FROM SMALL SCRATCH

A. M. Becton, one of the grand jurors, while driving his car one day last week, some way scratched his hand on the steering wheel. The scratch seemed to have been insignificant, at first and he didn't pay much attention to it. Sunday last, however, he came to town to have the local physicians dress and treat the place, as blood poison had set up, and the hand was giving him much pain. He says that he thinks with the care it is now receiving that it will be all right in a few days.

PREVENT SPREAD OF DISEASE DISPOSE OF DEAD ANIMALS

The carcasses of animals which have succumbed to infectious diseases like anthrax, hog cholera, blackleg, tuberculosis, etc., are charged with millions of virulent disease germs, and just as long as they remain where scavengers can reach them and portions of them can be carried away promiscuously, they are a dangerous menace over a large territory to all animals which are liable to be attacked by disease germs. Even carcasses of animals which have died from other causes than infectious diseases, unless they are disposed of in a proper way, are a source of danger. Left on the surface of the ground, their odor soon invites scavengers to congregate and to bring with them the infectious material with which they may have become contaminated by eating carrion elsewhere.

Dead animals on the farm should be buried deep enough to prevent them from being dug up again, or they should be burned. To burn large carcasses like those of dead horses and cattle is difficult and laborious and requires a large quantity of fuel. In most instances it is more economical to bury them. All animals which have died from infectious diseases and are buried should be covered with a heavy layer of lime before the graves are closed.

In the winter, when the ground is frozen, it is more difficult to dig graves than at other seasons of the year, but it is just in cold weather that disease germs remain alive and virulent longest in dead organic matter and that scavengers travel the longest distances, have the best appetites, and are most likely to carry disease germs on and in their bodies. The extra trouble of digging graves in the winter is easily offset by the greater danger it counteracts. Low temperature prevents the multiplication of disease germs, but many kinds of disease germs are not killed or deprived of their pernicious possibilities by exposure to a lower temperature than the lowest reached during an icy, arctic winter.

Everywhere farmers not only should attend to the proper and safe disposal of the bodies of their own animals which unfortunately die, but they should insist on the proper disposal of the bodies of all animals which dies anywhere in the regions in which their farms are located.

Messrs. L. L. and C. S. Rutledge, of Chillicothe, Texas, and Tolbert, respectively, cousins of Rev. C. E. Lynn, of this city, were here a few days last week, enroute to Gomez, Terry County, to spend a few days visiting their mother.

Noah Bell and Jim Smith, of the northern part of Terry county, were business visitors here Tuesday.

He was trained and sent to France with the 90th division, but while there he was doing M. P. work. He is here on a furlough and will report in a few days at Fort Riley, Kansas, where he expects to receive his discharge. He was accompanied here by his brother, Lee.

ITEMS FROM THE LAMESA REPORTER

On last Thursday night the Overland Garage was robbed of about $60 in money and notes. Suspicion pointed to Roy Gaultney and Bassett Hurst, only because they were at the garage that night and left Saturday for Big Spring. They were arrested on the mail car a little distance out from Big Spring by Sheriff McCutcheon of Howard County, and held for Sheriff Russell of Dawson County, who brought the two young men back and lodged them in jail in Lamesa.

Monday evening they had an examining trial and were both turned loose on this charge. Hurst was held charged with carrying concealed weapons. We are glad for these boys that they are not guilty and never could believe that they were. They are from two of the finest families in Dawson county.

Strangers are pouring into Lamesa again like old times. Land is selling and it is not an oil boom but the real merits of the soil. Occasionally we get a letter asking us to print something about the oil business. We do not know anything about any oil business and as soon as there are any developments worth printing our readers shall have it.

J. D. Abney, State Agent for the Home Life Insurance Company, of New York, with headquarters at Dallas, is here this week looking after his company's interest.

William J. Goldsworthy is spending one or two days this week in Plainview attending to business matters.

RETURNS SHOW THREE OF FOUR AMENDMENTS DEFEATED

Complete returns of the election held on May 24th in which four constitutional amendments were voted on, show that only one of the four was adopted. Prohibition was adopted by a majority of 20,075; Woman Suffrage was defeated by a majority of 25,029; Governor's Salary Increase was defeated by a majority of $85,767 and Home Ownership was defeated by a majority of 969. Two hundred and forty-six counties held elections and two, Upton and Moore did not hold elections. Only 297,889 votes were cast on the prohibition amendment, and it carried the highest vote cast of the four, which shows that the vote over Texas was exceedingly light. The voting strength of the State according to poll tax receipts being 649,045.

Valton Harris, son of T. A. Harris of O'Donnell, is here in a sanitarium. He recently underwent a serious operation for appendicitis and is improving at this time.

MAURITANIA BRINGS 1300 FRENCH BRIDES TO U. S.

Elbert E. Foy, nephew of Marion and Henry Reed, of Ralls, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, and others passed through here the first of the week enroute to Ralls, where they will visit a short time. Mr. Foy has recently been discharged from the 89th division, after service in France more than a year. He was in four of the biggest offensive drives while there. When he returned from France he was carried on the biggest ship afloat—the Leviathan, which had about fifteen thousand on board. "The Mauritania, which came along about the same time as we did carrying on board ten thousand, had thirteen hundred French brides, their transportation, was furnished by this government, entitled them to first class accommodations."

W. G. Nairn left Tuesday afternoon for Plainview, where he will spend a few days transacting business.

County Home Demonstration Department

Lubbock County Club Girls Close Successful Short Course Saturday.

As mentioned in the Avalanche last week the Canning and Poultry Club girls of Lubbock County attended a short course here last week.

It was out of the question for Misses Halsey and Craddock to have their two hundred club members in at one time, so only the older members doing second year club work were asked to attend the short course and practically every club in the county was represented.

The work began Wednesday afternoon when Miss Leafa Randall, Home Economics Specialist from the A. & M. Extension Service gave the girls a lesson in Club Cookery. After the girls had learned to prepare eggs—a common farm product—in eight different ways, Mrs. Barnes, District Home Demonstration Agent, taught them how to make good peanut butter.

Thursday the girls had vegetable cookery and the making of school lunches, basketry, and canning in tin.

Friday Miss Randall gave them a demonstration in making salads and salad dressings. She made the lesson very practical by using home grown products in the way of fruits, vegetables, cottage cheese, etc. Mrs. Barnes gave a demonstration of "fancy" packs of vegetables for exhibit purposes. Miss Lillian Peck, of the Extension Service of the C. I. A. gave them a talk on "Dress," showing some models she had with her. Miss Craddock gave the girls some work in basketry. Mrs. Barnes gave a canning demonstration for the women in the afternoon. Friday night the girls were the guests of the Avalanche Publishing Company at the Lyric.

Saturday was the big club picnic day, but only a few families reached town before the rain. However, those who did get in brought well filled baskets and a bountiful dinner was enjoyed in the court house. In the afternoon Mrs. Barnes, District Agent, addressed the women and girls in the justice court room. Mrs. Barnes discussed, in an interesting way, the question of exhibits, explaining the women's part in the Dallas Fair exhibit this year. She also discussed several other phases of the Home Demonstration work. Mrs. Barnes, Miss Randall, and Misses Halsey and Craddock, all express themselves as well pleased with the short course and it is to become an annual affair in the county club work.

Card of Thanks from Club Girls.
We, the Canning and Poultry Club Girls attending the Annual Short Course wish to express our heartfelt thanks to every person who has had any part, however small, in making our first Short Course a success.

We wish to thank, especially, the Twentieth Century Club of Lubbock for their interest in our work and their kind thoughtfulness in providing a good home for each girl during her stay in Lubbock, and to all the people who so generously opened their homes to us. We understand that many more homes were offered than were needed, but we thank each of you, too.

We wish to thank the City School

Superintendent, Mr. Dupre, for the use of the High School Building and equipment, which made it possible for each of us to do better work and to get more out of our Short Course than we could have done otherwise.

We wish to thank the Chamber of Commerce for financing our Short Course. We feel that the money was well spent, and each of us will strive to show some evidence of what the Lubbock County Club Girls can do when we have the Fair this fall. We also expect to contribute to the permanent exhibit, in the Court House, and thus build up something that our whole County will be proud of.

We thank the Avalanche and Mr. Dow for the interest shown in our work all the time. We know of no other paper that is doing as much for Club work.

We thank Mr. Dow, and Mr. McElroy, of the Lyric, for the good picture show which we enjoyed at the Lyric Friday night.

We thank Moore Brothers and Mr. Heim for materials used for demonstration purposes.

We can hardly find words to express our thanks to Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, District Home Demonstration Agent, and Miss Leafa Randall, Home Economics Specialist of the A. & M. Extension Service, and Miss Lillian Peck, of the C. I. A. Extension Service for their helpful demonstrations and lectures, and their untiring efforts in making our Short Course a success. Having made a success of our first Short Course we are going to look forward to having one each year.

We thank Barrier Bros. for their gifts, one for each girl.
We thank Lubbock Drug Company for a bountiful supply of note books and pencils.

And we would not forget all other business firms who so willingly cooperated in furnishing materials for our demonstrations.

This card of thanks would not be complete did we not express our thanks to Judge Moore and the County Commissioners for making it possible for our County to have the Home Demonstration work for the women and girls all the time. It is through the work of our County Home Demonstration Agents that we are able to have free access to these special things from time to time.

Signed:

These boys while in France were in detached service, being Military Police, and did not have to participate in the parades that boys who were in regular service with the division did, and that reason is given for their early arrival here.

Your co-operation is appreciated more than we can tell you, and we trust that you will call upon us whenever we can serve you in any way. W. H. Trout, of Sweetwater, stopped over in Lubbock last Friday to visit with his daughter, Mrs. Felix Jones. Mr. Trout was en route to Clayton, N. M., on a business trip.

CALLED TO EL PASO AS WITNESS IN COURT

John LeMond, formerly the manager of the Slaughter ranch west of here, was called to El Paso the first of last week as a witness in a case we understand against Mr. Slaughter. Mr. LeMond was one of the grand jury's bailiffs, but on account of his call to El Paso he failed to serve that week.

B. M. Hunter of Brownfield, was here one day this last week transacting business and visiting with acquaintances.

C. W. Jones returned last Sunday from a few weeks visit to the Eastland and Ranger Oil fields.

WHY A LADY WROTE HER HUSBAND A LETTER

A husband not far from Lubbock is reported to have received this letter:

My dear husband: You will doubtless be surprised to find among the letters on your desk one from me and will wonder what possible occasion I can have for writing to you when I see you each day.

My excuse, if I need one, is that in the last year or two it has seemed that the hours spent at home offer little for the confidings such as I hope to make in this letter.

With many demands made upon your time by the outside civilian and church interest, and the demands upon mine by the children and household cares it would seem that we have dropped gradually those little intimate discussions of our thoughts and ideals and are thereby missing much of "togetherness" which we once enjoyed.

Have you missed it as keenly as I have, I wonder?

In the mornings there is the rush of getting household machinery into harmonious working order, and that occupies the attention and time of both of us in such a way that there is no time for personal matters.

At night when you reach home I am occupied with the preparation of dinner and it is the baby's bedtime, then after dinner there seems to be always the necessary committee meeting or what not for one or the other of us.

And so the day is gone, and the weeks are gone and the years are going.

Even the Sundays have their round and responsibilities, and the children must be ministered to and made to live the Lord's Day and to meet this responsibility demands sacrifice of time and love on our part.

I wonder if you realize that almost all the mental companionship I have is with you.

And how short its hours!

From day's end to day's end you are often the only adult I see, and yet you are amused that a chat with a book agent or woman selling holders can be of so much interest to me. Don't you know that I am starving—starving for a feast of matched wits, starving for an opportunity to express the love which surges up in my heart for you, starving for the opportunity to discuss things other than business, or "Sunday school class," or household matters or the thousand and one little duties of life.

Why do I write thus? Because I dare to hope for something better and because I believe the trouble has been that you have failed to understand how great the self-repression has been. Before I married you my life was vital and my thoughts were of necessity outspoken by the very nature of my work. This makes the repression more unendurable now.

My married life has been much fuller and more complete than that other life could ever have been, and I would not go back to the other life if I could, but that is no reason why I should not allow my married life to be the fullest and most complete life that I can make it. And I feel that it falls short of that now by just the mind stagnation which I am compelled by circumstance to admit.

Even the necessity of thus baring

my heart to you on paper hurts me and I feel that it will hurt you also. But I am hoping that the hurt may prove helpful to the healing which may come into our lives if we wish it enough to sacrifice for it.

Husband mine, I want to give myself to you in a new completeness: will you let me, I wonder?
Your very own, Alice.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing and when the tube is closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reached and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surface of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars from All Drugists, 710

Some fellow got up in a supposedly religious meeting in Dallas and advocates rewriting the bible, making the statement that the bible was not written by inspired minds, but merely ignorant men, who expressed their individual opinions of the matters contained therein. He evidently overlooks the fact that our state, national, county, and precinct laws are written by "smart men", and they are usually found to be full of flaws, and bring on more trouble than the laws of Moses and others as laid down in Holy Writ. It is our humble opinion that the less we tamper with changing the wording of the bible, and the closer we try to live up to its teaching, the better off we will be when the final reckoning takes place. The peculiar part of the thing is, the statement was made in the presence of able ministers of the gospel, and not a word of resentment was offered, according to the statement in the paper.

When the backbone of prejudice is broken, shot all to pieces, blown to atoms between rural and city folks, then the Lubbock country will develop as it should. We cannot all live in town and we cannot all live in the country—would not be best if we could. So let us choose and be satisfied. Pull nothing but a straight deal, man with man, take into consideration that each knows their line of business better than the other and knows what it takes to keep going. Develop the South Plains.

We have some very bad chugholes in the streets, especially where the turning posts are. The cars naturally dig out the dirt around these places in turning. These should be filled up occasionally with some kind of soil that will level it up some. The only thing that can be done to the square is to patch it up till paving can be done. Lets patch some more.

A public park, pavilion, fair grounds are badly needed in Lubbock and this is one of the things that we will pull for this year. While the logical location is at Lubbock being the county seat and right in the center of the county, it will be of great benefit to every citizen of the county.

The girls canning club had a fine time here last week. This is a great organization for the young people and it is worth every cent that it costs to maintain the Home Demonstration Department.

Let every fellow who owns property cut the weeds off his property and then what is left, the city or Chamber of Commerce should take charge and complete the job. Cut the weeds!

Lubbock has a co-operative citizenship, as is evidenced by the spirit of the meeting last Friday evening Lubbock is bound to grow, under those conditions.

Many people are coming to our city for one purpose and another, and these tall weeds and mud holes and chug hole streets do not appeal to them favorably.

Lay your plans to come to Lubbock July 4th.

The next big thing is to cut the weeds.

ELECTION LAWS WILL NOT BE SUBMITTED

Austin, Texas, June 14.—Governor Hobby is opposed to the repeal of the law according votes to women in Texas primary elections and he refuses to submit that matter to the coming special session of the Legislature. The Governor issued a formal statement today defining his position in the matter, in which he says he will not submit any election amendments at the special session. His statement follows:

"Since I have been asked to submit the woman's primary election law for repeal, it is in order perhaps for me to state my reasons for declining. The question voted on by the people May 24 was not the same as that which involves the primary vote. Practically applied one involves suffrage on occasions when only Democrats may vote, the other in all elections in this state. The questions are separate and it can not be successfully contended that the recent vote constitutes direct instructions to the Legislature. There was an opportunity to instruct the Legislature upon this question last year by submitting it to the Democratic party, but this opportunity was not taken advantage of.

"Every member of the Legislature elected at the last election was elected on the Democratic ticket, and therefore chosen at an election in which the women had a voice. I am sure members of the Legislature would not now be disposed to disfranchise those whose suffrage they asked when candidates, or take the vote from so many who participated in the primary at which they were elected. Indeed I would not.

"The Legislature has for years prescribed all regulations for holding party primaries and conventions, and I believe the Thirty-fifth Legislature enacted just and beneficial legislation in permitting the women to participate. I believe the Legislature, which exercises all regulatory control over party elections, can with equal propriety prescribe the qualifications of those who vote in party elections.

"The Legislature, in my judgment acted with wisdom in the interest of the public welfare and in the interest of good government and accorded simple justice to all our citizenship in conferring the rights of suffrage upon the women of Texas in primary elections. I am opposed to repealing the law, and I believe to submit it at the forthcoming session would embroil the Legislature in politics and in a long drawn out controversy which would materially hamper the work for which the Legislature has been called. I therefore will not submit any subject pertaining to the election laws."

THINKS GAINES COUNTY HAS PECULIAR FORMATION

E. T. Pendly, oil operator and developer of Jones, Okla., passed through Lubbock the first of the week enroute to Gaines County. Mr. Pendly has recently acquired large lease holdings in that county for development of oil. Mr. Pendly has recently had geologists out there making an extensive study of his holdings. He thinks that as soon as a few matters concerning part of the land leased are settled drilling will be commenced.

SEEN SERVICE WITH THE 111TH SUPPLY TRAIN

D. B. Whitford, son of T. D. Whitford, of Tokio, passed through Lubbock Thursday morning, enroute home. Mr. Whitford saw service in France with the 111th Supply train of the 36th Division. He was in France nearly a year, was on the Champagne sector and at the battle of Verdun, coming through without a scratch, although under heavy artillery fire for several days.

Moel Estes of Falls, underwent a slight operation the first of the week in a local sanitarium.

H. B. Brown, recently discharged from the 111th Engineer of the 36th division is here this week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Clifford.

THE WEEKLY NEWS LETTER FROM CENTER

This is one season that the farmers are not having to plow in the dry dust. They think they are doing well when they can get into the fields to plow at all or even have without tiring their teams down.

E. A. Abney, of Badger Lake, was transacting business through these parts last Thursday.

Mr. John Schroeder and family spent the week end with Mrs. Schroeder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bowley.

Mr. Jess Bowles from near Monroe, was a caller of the W. A. Dunn home Sunday.

Miss Rosa Mae Jones visited relatives of Abernathy last week. She reports a real nice time.

Mr. Ed Lutric, from near the Strip, and Miss Clara Jones, from Abernathy, attended Sunday School here Sunday.

The singing class is progressing very nicely. They have ordered some new song-books of the very latest type. There were only a few who were present last Saturday evening but it was on account of the weather looking so bad.

Mrs. George Burns and children were caught out in the rain last Saturday. They were going to Mr. W. E. Bledsoe's after some Sudan seed.

K. H. Haney was seen in Abernathy Tuesday.

Mr. Habbings is cutting Mr. Goeths wheat this week with his new header. The singing at George Burns' was enjoyed by quite a number of the young people Sunday night.

Mrs. David Myers was on the sick list Saturday, but was some better Sunday.

Earl Bowley made two trips to Lubbock last week to have his teeth worked on.

Mrs. Christen Knowles returned home last Saturday. We are very glad to have her with us once more.

R. H. Haney and family visited relatives of Badger Lake one day this week.

Sunday School is doing very nicely. There were not very many that let the rain keep them away last Sunday. Brother Emery gave a short talk after Sunday School, which was enjoyed very much by all.

Brother Brown will meet his regular appointment next Sunday. Everyone must remember to come early.

This is a good economy cake: 1-4 cup butter, 1 cup white sugar, 2 egg whites, 1-2 cup milk, 1-2-3 cups flour, 1 rounding teaspoon baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla. Cream the butter, add gradually the sugar and vanilla, beat egg whites to a stiff froth and add sift flour and baking powder together thoroughly and add to the first mixture alternately with the milk. Bake in a moderate oven 45 minutes.

FLOATING MINES SINK EIGHT MERCHANT SHIPS

E. C. Humble, brother of our well known townsman, W. E. Humble, has recently been discharged from the Navy after serving about one year. Mr. Humble was in submarine service on the West coast for five months. January the 12th of this year he sailed from San Francisco with a ship carrying nine thousand tons of flour, consigned to the Poles. He went through the Panama canal and stopped a few days at Rotterdam Holland. The cargo was taken to Danzig, Germany, where other means of transportation were used to carry it to the Poles. "Coming back through the North Sea we saw many floating mines, and while we were in port at Danzig, there were eight ships sunk on the North Sea. Most of these were old merchant ships. It is the custom now when a mine is seen by a ship to shoot and explode it. If that is unsuccessful, some nearby place where the mine ships are located is notified and they come with their nets and gather them up."

Mr. Humble has accepted a position here with the Cadillac garage. His parents reside in Trinidad, Colo.

Carl Hunt and Lawrence, Martin left the first of the week for a few days fishing trip out on the canyon. They are prepared to stay in camp while there.

W. C. Mathis, of Brownfield, was here Tuesday and Wednesday transacting business.

Mrs. W. S. Hodges left this week for points in Oklahoma and Kansas to be gone several days.

BUY YOUR WINTER'S SUPPLY OF COAL NOW

Mr. Garfield, U. S. Fuel Administrator, says he expects a real famine in coal this fall, and urges early buying and storing to avert a national calamity.

Mr. Babson of the Department of Labor says prices will not be any lower, and predicts higher prices.

There is a reason for all this. Coal is going to be scarce because buying has been delayed by the railroads and by the large users of steam coals.

Under normal conditions the mines would be producing coal in the summer months, the best season of all for mining and shipping.

Industry is going to awaken shortly, and by fall it will be in full swing. This is going to bring industrial buying at the very height of the domestic buying season.

An attempt to crowd a full year's industrial buying and an abnormal domestic demand in all the fall months is going to overtax the mines.

And even if the mines could produce enough coal, the railroads won't be able to move it.

But the mines cannot produce the coal unless they are permitted to get busy now, and run full blast from now on.

The mines have the man power, cars to move coal in, and conditions indicate that the lowest price of the year will be today. Labor is going to be scarce, coal is going to be difficult to mine and move, and prices are going up.

This is why the government is urging early buying and storing, to avert or minimize the national calamity which the country faces.

To make sure of having coal to keep your fires going next winter, and to secure a reasonable price, buy your winter's supply of coal now.

GEORGE W. BRIGGS, Secretary Chamber of Commerce

BANK EXAMINER SAYS LUBBOCK IS CENTER

Carl Carlson, State Bank Examiner, with headquarters at Amarillo, who has been here, in and out, several times the last few days, attending to business, says: "Lubbock is an ideal place for headquarters of men who have business to attend to on the South Plains." He makes it a point when working south of Amarillo, to make Lubbock temporary headquarters. For reasons that his territory reaches the other direction from Amarillo he now is compelled to make that place headquarters.

BIG SPRING RANCHER BRINGS WIFE TO LUBBOCK

L. F. Nall, of Big Spring, has recently brought his wife here for treatment in one of our sanitariums. Mr. Nall has been a merchant of Big Spring for many years, and recently has leased a ranch holding which he will stock. He is the father-in-law of W. C. Murray, who lives near Abernathy. Mrs. Nall has been in bad health for some time, and her condition is regarded as serious at this time.

CHILDREN VISITING WITH PARENTS HERE

Marcy Dupre, son of M. M. Dupre, of this place, is here this week on a furlough visiting with his parents. Marcy has been attending the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. His sister, Miss Nancy Dupre, has also arrived here recently to spend the summer with her parents. She has been attending the Institute at Houston and will return there in the fall. Marcy will return to duty at Washington in a few days.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Declares Reformation Needed in Attitude Toward Theology.

A reformation is needed in the prevalent attitude toward theology, according to Dr. Shailer Mathews, who lectured yesterday morning at Southern Methodist University to members of the Western Training School and of the Preachers' Assembly on "Reforming Our Theology from the Point of View of Democracy." Dr. Mathews said that some of the stories given in the Bible were the result of the work of untrained and unlearned minds trying to interpret for others their feelings and conceptions. He asked that the Bible be made to fit the needs of the day and put into the language of the times. He said that the Bible is not the result of divine inspiration, but of the painful attempt on the part of those who wrote it to express their conception of the Creator.

—The above clipped from Dallas News.

—Don't this repudiate the Bible? Plain words spoken before an assembly of preachers and no protest. Don't it accord with the so called woman bible published years ago, as the product of the originators and leaders of the woman suffrage movement?

This so called woman bible denied the divinity of Christ, or that Bible is the inspired word of God. All these refuters were (those still living are) brainy persons. Don't their acts prove that they admitted that the bible forbid woman from taking a direct active part in government politics? And that to justify their acts the Bible must be refuted? The Bible, the inspired word of God to man and woman, the shield of womanhood; the anchor of civilization; the book that leads the mind Heavenward, and is the base of government (man's) laws.

NEWS ITEMS OF INTER-EST FROM CROSBYTON

Review. District Conference of the Lubbock district which met in the Methodist Church here Tuesday evening, adjourned last night. Lamesa was selected as the next place of meeting for this conference and R. D. Buchanan was elected as one of the delegates to Annual Conference. A good delegation was present and the conference was highly interesting throughout. Rev. J. W. Hunt of Abilene, preached a very fine sermon the first night and the closing sermon last night was by Rev. J. T. Griswold of Lubbock. The Conference presented Presiding Elder Lyon $100 to bear his expenses to the Centenary celebration at Columbus, Ohio, next week, and $125 was made up by the church membership here and given to our local pastor, Rev. I. A. Smith with instruction that he also attend this great celebration. This is indeed a compliment to our popular pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Atkinson and Mr. D. L. Hammer made an auto trip through Hale and Floyd counties Thursday of last week. They went by way of Ralls, Lorenzo and Estacado, entering Hale county near Estacado. From there they made a bee line for Petersburg and Plainview, and then to Lockney and on to Floydada and back into Crosbyton county at Cone. They report the wheat crop good all along the route, but nowhere was it better than in the Crosbyton country. Mrs. D. L. Hammer joined them at Plainview and spent a few days in our city with her husband.

A splendid rain, registering seventy-five hundredths of an inch, fell here Sunday evening and everything is again wonderfully refreshed. The country was not suffering in the least for rain, yet the ground in places was beginning to get a little dry and hard and freshly planted crops were needing a little extra moisture to hurry the seed up.

A young man by the name of Mann was struck by lightning and killed at the home of Fred Davis in the Perkey neighborhood last Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock. His remains were interred in the Crosbyton cemetery Monday afternoon after funeral services by Rev. I. A. Smith. We have learned very little about the life of this young man but understand he was 23 years of age, was married and leaves a wife and baby. He was employed by Mr. Davis on the farm.

The fire alarm was turned in from the home of W. R. Lotspeich in the west part of town just after the noon hour yesterday and within four minutes the fire company was at the scene of the fire and soon extinguished the blaze before very much damage was done. Mrs. Lotspeich was at work cleaning out her oil stove and thought she had turned off all the burners, but had overlooked one and when she went to put gasoline in the tank it ignited. Her hands

FORMER PLAINS COWMAN MOVES TO MICHIGAN

C. A. Wasson, of Ochiltree, Texas, but for many years a ranchman on the South Plains, was here one day this week, attending to business matters, and visiting with acquaintances. Mr. Wasson is an old timer on the plains having been here about twenty-five years, most of the time in the cow business.

He has recently returned from Michigan where he has made a deal for a ranch. This country which many men from the San Angelo country have recently moved to, is an old forest where the timber has been cleared for several years and grass has covered the ground to such an extent that the cattlemen who return from there think that it is a "stockman's paradise." This land can be bought on easy terms, Mr. Wasson says, and arrangement can be made without paying down any money the first three years, and if after one year you decide the country does not please, you can give it up, with free pasturage the first year. Mr. Wasson will move there in a few weeks to make his home, or rather try it out.

Parker of the headquarters troop company, were two of the boys of Ralls who passed through here from the 36th division. Glen Littlefield of Crosbyton, with company G, 142nd Infantry, also returned home Wednesday.

OLD COWMEN WILL ROPE IN CONTESTS JULY 4TH

Already about eighteen men, over the age of fifty, under the age of one hundred years, will participate in the free roping contest for this class. There will be men in this contest who in younger days were the champions of the country; men who have spent many months and years in the saddle on the plains. "There will probably be as many more registers for the contest" says one of the committee arranging for the program.

Mrs. Floyd Beall and Mrs. G. Granville Johnson are spending a few days in Colorado this week, visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Arnett.

GERMANS HAVE RECEIVED FINAL TERMS

London, June 16.—The peace terms to be presented to Germany today are the final reply of the Allies, and Andrew Bonar Law, Government spokesman in the House of Commons, declaring in opening the Victory Loan campaign at Guild Hall today. The speaker hoped earnestly the Germans would sign the terms.

Paris, June 16.—It is anticipated generally that the Germans will ask for an extension of time in which to reply to the final peace conditions. The request, it is believed, will be based on the fact that the Germans were given only one revised copy of the treaty.

Versailles, June 16.—The Allied reply to the German counter proposals was delivered by Paul Dutasta, general secretary of the Peace Conference, to Count Von Brockdorff Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, at 6:49 o'clock this evening.

With the reply was delivered a copy of the revised draft of the peace treaty. After receiving the documents, Count Von Brockdorff Rantzau boarded the special train in waiting and left for Weimar.

The provision for civil control of the territory on the bank of the Rhine, which had been tentatively agreed upon, was eliminated from the third draft of the terms.

The German plenipotentiaries signed a receipt for the treaty, writing in the exact time from which the five days' limit within which they must sign or reject the document will date.

The cylinder and crank case being cast together distributes the weight where needed for strength, giving lightness as well. The finely ground piston and piston rings give exceptional compression. The water cooled cylinder and valves eliminate heat strains and keep the valves tight. The effective lubrication—accessibility—reliability—found in every one of these engines.

In addition to all this—the "Z" Engines have special distinctive features that single them out from all others—that make them far superior in point of service rendered.

PUBLIC HEALTH

The New Sleeping Sickness.

Sleeping sickness has taken its place as the latest scourge in health matters. This peculiar disease seems to be a sleeping from which the patient is unable to arouse himself, and has baffled many physicians throughout the land. A symposium of leading Chicago physicians to discuss sleeping sickness or encephalitis, came to the conclusion that the patient is not asleep, but is suffering from a form of paralysis. The mind is alert, the patient can speak. One or two, upon recovery, the physicians said, complained of insomnia, of being unable to sleep during the time in which they had every appearance of sleeping. "The face," one physician said, "presents a deathlike appearance; is a veritable mask, in fact. Underneath this mask the patient really is nervous and irritable." There is less cell destruction in the brain than in infantile paralysis. Hemorrhages are more common, and blurred vision is frequently the first symptom. The blurred vision is supposed to be induced by internal hemorrhages, and autopsies have shown these hemorrhages to be frequent.

Headache is sometimes noticeable, but as the disease progresses it becomes painless, a rigidity attacks the limbs, and the patient usually dies by choking. The mind is said to be clear, but indifferent, almost to the last.

"Sleeping sickness is not a new disease, and has previously followed influenza epidemics. It was very well known in the epidemic of 1712, according to one authority. The virus causing it is as yet unknown. But it is safe to recommend that antiseptics and mouth washes be resorted to as never before, and that great care be taken in the preparation of food. The poisons carried from the war zone of Europe must be counteracted this summer by extreme care on the part of every person, if we are to keep epidemics down.

Some county judges are so careless in the performance of their official duties that they have not sent in the returns on the constitutional election, and Mandamus proceedings will be filed against those who have failed to attend to this matter, by the state legal department.

No Worms in a Healthy Child. All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomachic disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS WORM TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off the parasitic worms, and the child will be a happy, healthy, plump, and active little fellow. Please to take Groves Worm Tonic.
