SUDAN IS A PLAINS MONEY CROP

IT IS ALMOST A SURE CROP IN THE LUBBOCK COUNTRY EVERY YEAR AND ITS YIELD IS VERY HEAVY

THERE HAS ALWAYS BEEN A GREAT DEMAND FOR SEED

Especially is This True of This Section of the Country, as the Grade is High. Many of Our Farmers Specialize on Seed Production and Keep it Absolutely Free from Mixtures.

The need of a drought resisting crop in this section prompted the Agricultural sub-experiment station near Lubbock to make some experiments in 1911 with Sudan grass for the purpose of finding a crop which would grow in West Texas and mature in spite of lack of rainfall. The experiments at the farm proved that this crop could be produced successfully and after two years test the seed of Sudan grass was distributed among the Plains farmers with instructions from the department of agriculture as to how it should be grown and how it would produce. The result is that today Sudan grass is considered the second important crop of this section of the Plains country and is growing in popularity every year.

Sudan grass is a peculiar grass which grows and matures extensively with little moisture except what can be taken from the soil and the clay subsoil which lies just below the top soil and which absorbs and retains moisture making the growing of the grass exceptionally profitable even though the rainfall is not sufficient to mature other crops, owing to the small amount of moisture necessary to mature this crop.

Sudan grass will grow a stock from six to nine feet high although it is generally cut by the farmers before it reaches this rank growth. Two or three cuttings are experienced from a crop.

The success with Sudan grass in West Texas and the publicity accorded the crop has spread to many other states and constantly farmers in other sections are making an effort to grow the grass. In fact in 1913 the seed raised by the farmers from the seed distributed by the experiment station brought as high as four dollars per pound, there being such a demand for it. Of course with the extensive growth of the crop the seed has not maintained such a high market price but even at present prices it is a very remunerative crop in that 800 to 1200 pounds can be raised on a single acre and such production has already been experienced in the Plains country. One farmer living close to Lubbock stated that the seed from his crop will run as high as 1500 pounds to the acre. The threshed straw makes a good feed and a second crop of fine hay is cut for a second crop.

So popular did the industry become and so rapidly did the farmers of the Plains country realize its possibilities that in 1914 a Sudan Grass Association was formed in Lubbock county and this association spent several thousands of dollars advertising the crop over the country with the result that there is a constant demand for seed from West Texas. One firm has contracted to secure several car loads for shipping to the Kansas City market where it will be handled. Many of the progressive farmers are also constantly doing research work in order to increase the already high standard of the crop and adopt if possible more scientific methods for the handling of the crop from a commercial standpoint.

Prior to 1915 the full possibilities of Sudan grass were not realized. It was at first merely raised in this section for the seed but the bankers, stockmen and others who were interested in the maximum development of every available resource in the Plains country advocated the use of the fodder from the stock for feeding purposes with the results mentioned above the making of two uses of the crop seed and forage.

The standard price for the seed on the market today varies from 10 to 15 cents per pound, which makes a very substantial income from Sudan grass per acre. The experiments with Sudan grass have not ceased. The experimental station operated by the State here is still working with the crop and issuing regular bulletins to the Plains farmers announcing their findings and where it is possible to give information which will augment the better production of the crop this information is imparted to the farmer. Thousands of dollars have been expended in both experiments and advertising of this resource with the result that Sudan grass will eventually develop into one of the most important crops to be grown in the great Southwest according to the opinion of those who have been working on the development of the crop since it was first established in the Plains country.

Sudan grass is similar to grain sorghums and will mix very easily with any of these crops. It however, attains a much ranker growth than the grain sorghums as a rule. Care in its growth should be carefully exercised as belonging to the grain sorghum family it is very easy for the seed to become fouled if it is mixed with these other crops and much of the value of the crop will be lost in this manner.

About the first of May is the proper time for the planting of Sudan grass and the crop will be matured and ready for the first cutting in July. Depending upon weather conditions from two to four cuttings will be secured after that time up until October. If the grass is raised principally for seed purposes no cuttings are made at all until the seed ripens in latter part of August. It has been proven to be an ideal first crop to be planted on new land and handsome returns have been realized from a seed crop thus produced very frequently it being sufficient to return the initial investment of the farmer for the land. A statement made by those who have grown the crop in the Plains country is to the effect that it is the best crop that can be produced with a marketing value per acre equal to that of cotton. Nearly every ranch has planted part of the land to Sudan grass since 1915 and follow this plan every year.

Sudan grass is accredited with being superior to Alfalfa in that it requires no irrigation and is a fine grazing crop for stock and is exceptionally good pasture for hogs, many hog raisers adopting this class of feed for their animals. The grass is accredited with increasing the milk yield in the cow and the majority of those who own a cow for domestic purposes raise a small patch of Sudan grass for feed. Each year the acreage is increasing the exact acreage at this time not being known, but on almost every farm, in the Plains country, can be found some Sudan grass.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF WEST TEXAS C. OF C.

Messrs. G. G. Johnson and Geo. W. Briggs represented Lubbock and the Chamber of Commerce at the Second Annual meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held at Abilene last Thursday. Between three and four hundred delegates and representatives from over the Western half of Texas were present at this convention. It is a question whether a more enthusiastic convention has ever been held in West Texas than this one. A noon lunch was tendered the delegates by the Lions Club, after which the members adjourned to the Elks Club where various matters and questions of importance were taken up. Among these matters was that of the work being done by the Fort Worth Stock Yards Co. in connection with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to assist in the restocking of West Texas with good brood sows. Through this cooperation many thousands of high grade gilts have already been distributed throughout this portion of the State. This fact will tend to bring about a marked increase in production during the coming years.

There was also a meeting in charge of Mrs. J. L. Landrum and Mr. D. C. Dove, of the State Department of Agriculture, who are co-operating with the West Texas Chamber with a view of stimulating interest in high-grade poultry and increasing poultry products.

Several interesting addresses were made during the afternoon, notably one by Congressman Hudspeth of El Paso regarding several large irrigation projects which have been fathered by the West Texas Chamber. This organization is taking the lead in trying to stimulate irrigation throughout the western half of Texas. An interesting address was also delivered by Judge R. E. Huff of Wichita Falls in which he emphasized the need of re-districting of Texas in order to give West Texas justice. Mr. Huff stated that the 29th District had a population according to the 1910 Census of approximately three times that of other southern and eastern districts; the 1920 census will no doubt show a material gain over the one mentioned.

In the evening a banquet was tendered the delegates at the Grace Hotel, at which the officers for the current year were elected. Hon. H. P. Brelsford of Cisco was elected President of the Chamber. Lubbock was represented at this election by Mr. Geo. W. Briggs being elected on the Board of Directors.

Resolutions were passed by the convention calling for the re-districting of the State and also for the establishment of an A. & M. College in West Texas. A number of other important matters were taken up. The first year's history of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is filled with important accomplishments; and the indications and prospects are that much more important work will be accomplished during the coming year which will prove of great benefit to the entire western half of our State. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is at present one of the largest organizations of its kind in the United States, there being only two other organizations in the country which have a larger membership. The work being done is worth while and will prove of incalculable benefit to the entire western half of Texas.

FIRE CAUSED 27 DEATHS IN TEXAS IN DECEMBER

Austin, Texas, Jan. 23.—Fire caused twenty-seven deaths and sixty-four injuries in Texas during December, 1919, according to reports received by the State Fire Insurance Commission.

Fifteen of these deaths were males and twelve females, thirteen were adults and fourteen children. Of the injured, forty-four were males, twenty females, fifty-four adults and ten children.

Ten of the deaths were due to gas, gasoline and kerosene. Of the injured forty-one were due to gas, gasoline and kerosene.

S. E. Coleman, who has a fine farm 10 miles south of the city has bought of Vaughn and Anspieger, of Tulsa, Texas, a splendid threshing outfit, separator, tractor, etc. The machine is of the Case brand. Mr. Coleman unloaded and carried this new outfit over to his farm Wednesday.

Curle Forbes of the Canyon community came in to the city on business Wednesday. In an interview Mr. Forbes stated he was gathering sixty 500-lb. bales of cotton off of 60 acres of ground. This is a very fine record, showing what this great country will do with reasonable seasons and proper cultivation.

R. W. Rambo, Terry county farmer, was here two or three days the first of this week looking after his Lubbock City property. Mr. Rambo is confident of the growth and development of this city and will hold his property here as a substantial investment.

J. C. Dooley, former Yoakum county farmer, passed through here the first of this week and stopped a short time to visit with friends. Mr. Dooley recently moved to Post, where he is now making his home. After attending to business interests in Yoakum county he will return to Post.

B. R. Anderson, of Clovis, N. M., traveling salesman for the Wichita Creamery, of Wichita, Kansas, spent some time in the city on business this week, leaving Thursday for other points.

STOCK TRADING VERY ACTIVE IN LUBBOCK

Not since the old days when trading in live-stock was one of the important industries of the city has there been as much activity as there is at the present time. Most every kind of animal which is suitable for the farm or for work purposes are topping the market. Mules, especially the better grades, are demanding probably the highest ever paid in this section at this time. Farmers who have realized a neat profit from this year's work are selling their shabby stock and purchasing better. This applies to cattle, mares and work horses as well as to mules.

Milk cows are in demand here now and are bringing fancy prices. A fine car lot was shipped here this week from Hagerman, N. M., all of which were Jerseys, some common and a few thoroughbreds. Prices seem prohibitive on this class of stock but they sell as though this class of cattle were nearly exhausted. Many deals in milk cows have brought a price of $150, though these were thought and claimed to be exceptional milkers, although it is common for the common grades to sell for $125 per head. Mules have sold by the span on the local market for $700, these being of course of the very best, although the demand for best mules is great, there is also found here a market for lower grades.

All of which goes to show that the farmers of Lubbock county are preparing to cultivate many additional acres for the next year and are starting in early in order to successfully realize the benefits of their plans. Present conditions were never better nor prospects never brighter for the South Plains and its citizens than the present time.

LUBBOCK ODD FELLOWS TO HAVE SPECIAL MEETING

The Lubbock Odd Fellows have invited Slaton Lodge and Hale Center lodge to meet with them next Tuesday night, and have been assured by those lodges that there will be a good representation present from each.

Several candidates for the initiatory degree will have same conferred upon them that night and at the proper time during the evening refreshments will be served. It is expected that a fine time will be had and all Odd Fellows of the city and visiting Odd Fellows are urgently requested to attend.

SCARLET FEVER FORCES CLAIRMONT SCHOOLS TO SUSPEND

Snyder, Texas, Jan. 26.—Miss Annie Hull of Snyder, who is teaching in the public school at Clairmont, came home today and said that the school has been indefinitely suspended because of an epidemic of scarlet fever.

J. O. Roberts and two sons, R. S. and N. G. Roberts, came in from Ft. Worth Wednesday morning with the purpose of making this home in the future. The Roberts men want to help finish gathering the great crop raised in this county the past year, and also to rent a farm for this year. They desire to become permanent citizens of the great South Plains. The Roberts' are old friends of the Cases west of town.

We are delighted to see so many ladies paying poll tax this week giving them the right to vote in the coming elections. God only knows the issues that may be brought to bear and how necessary it may be, and how much we may want to vote when election time comes. The time will be up this week and surely everybody who has not done so will pay her poll tax by Saturday night.

W. R. Mangum, of Brashear, Texas, passed through Lubbock Tuesday returning home from Brownfield, where he had been on business. Mr. Mangum, while at Brownfield, purchased through J. C. Bond of the Neal Realty Co., of Brownfield, 1600 acres of land for a consideration of $40,000.

Otho Bagwell returned Monday from Rome, Ga., where he was called several days ago on account of the serious illness of his father. Mr. Bagwell says while his father was not expected to live for several days he left him very much improved and that he believed his father to be on the road to recovery.

Mr. Arnold, of northwest of this city, has bought the frame business buildings on South Cedar St. from Mr. Frank Brown. He is moving the buildings to his farm 10 miles northwest of the city and will construct a modern bungalow out of the lumber for a farm home.

Rev. J. M. Rankin, formerly of Estacado, now of Abernathy, passed through the city Monday enroute to Crosbyton on business.

G. M. Marcy was in from 25 miles in the country and reports his son's wife Mrs. R. B. Marcy, as being seriously sick.

LOCAL SANITARIUMS CONSOLIDATE

PROPERTY OF THE WEST TEXAS SANITARIUM IS TAKEN OVER BY LUBBOCK SANITARIUM CORPORATION

DR. OVERTON TAKES INTEREST IN NEW ORGANIZATION

The Building Will be Added to and Additional Equipment Will be Installed to Take Care of the Constantly Increasing Business of the Two Institutions.

A deal of unusual interest was consummated the past week, whereby the West Texas Sanitarium, lots building and equipment, was sold to the owners of the Lubbock Sanitarium, and the two institutions will be consolidated under one management, and as soon as the business of the West Texas Sanitarium can be finally wound up that building will be either sold or leased for other purposes and the business of the two institutions will be taken care of at the Lubbock Sanitarium on West Broadway.

As has been previously announced in this paper the Lubbock Sanitarium will greatly increase their capacity for handling the business by the addition of two more stories to the present splendid building, and the equipment of the West Texas will be transferred to these new stories, which will equip them fully for business.

This will give Lubbock one of the strongest corps of medical men and specialists of any institution of the kind in the state, and it will mean much for the future of the sanitarium business of this city, as well as the entire western part of the state.

Dr. Overton has taken an interest in the Lubbock Sanitarium, and will move his office there in the near future as is made known by a notice in another part of this paper. Dr. Overton has been in Lubbock longer than any other doctor in the city, and has enjoyed a very large practice and is still one of the most successful physicians in the State and enjoys the continued liberal patronage of people from all over the Plains of Texas and New Mexico.

Lubbock has been fortunate in securing for this section such a strong institution as the Lubbock Sanitarium, and with the combined forces of the two splendid institutions and the combined financial, physical and professional ability of these men, the future for the business is indeed very promising.

We have not learned what plans Dr. Wagner has for the future, but understand he will not be connected with the new associates of the Lubbock Sanitarium. He has made many friends in Lubbock and all over the Lubbock country, who join with us in hoping that he will continue to make Lubbock his home.

The Avalanche is always in favor of the things that are for the best interest of the city and West Texas in general, and we are sure that these men have given the question of consolidation long and close study before the deal was made and they are in position to know what is best for the general public, the city of Lubbock and their own interest. So we join heartily in wishing for them the greatest success possible in the operation of an institution that is one of the greatest known to mankind, and which is necessary in a city located as Lubbock is in the heart of one of the fast growing cities in the southwest, and in a country which is increasing in population by leaps and bounds.

A FAKE STORY IS EMPHATICALLY DENIED

A story has been going the rounds in Lubbock county for the last six weeks or longer to the effect that a Federal officer visited the city of Lubbock in the capacity of a detective about two months ago, and after maneuvering around among the business men of the town for some days found two of our leading merchants, A. B. Conley Jr., and Raleigh Martin of the firm of Martin & Wolcott, guilty of the Federal offense of profiteering and at once arrested them, led them to the office of the County Attorney of Lubbock county and ordered that officer to prosecute these two men for this offense. The county attorney refused to entertain the proposition and the U. S. officer put him under arrest also for refusing to prosecute the two merchants. The two merchants and the county officer were marched to the depot, loaded on a train and given free transportation to Amarillo where they were all given free tickets to the Federal court room. The Federal judge imposed heavy fines on each of the three Lubbockites, and after they had paid their respective fines were turned loose with pale faces, sad hearts and empty pockets to wend their way back home as best they could under the very embarrassing circumstances without a penny and without a friend.

The substance of the story is one of those happenings that never happened. What may happen in the future we know not, but this thing here related never happened. There is absolutely no foundation for it. It is purely fiction. However false as it is, it has been pouring into the ears and out of the mouths of quite a number of folks the last few weeks. The first one doubtless told it as a joke and the second, third, fourth and so on told it for the truth until it became an endless chain without any known source of origin. There is nothing to it. Respectfully,

JOHN R. MCGEE.

GATHERING DATA ON CHANGING TIME ZONE

Chamber of Commerce, county commissioners, city councils, postmasters and all civic bodies are agreed to fill out the blanks that are being mailed out by the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce in the interest of the rehearing on time zone question here March 17, and state their reasons for favoring Central Standard Zone Time. These blanks should be returned to Amarillo not later than February 10, according to the letter of explanation sent out by F. K. Jamison, secretary, manager, in order that testimony may be compiled for proper presentation before the commission.

Mr. Jamison has asked that all counties and cities have personal representatives present at the hearing to give further oral testimony and to submit to questioning at the will and pleasure of Mr. Money.

Advance information received by Mr. Jamison indicates that there is widespread interest in the rehearing about the proposed time change, and he deems it advisable that persons planning to attend communicate with him and tell of the number of their delegations so that hotel accommodations may be reserved.

F. K. MITCHELL IS IN RACE FOR SHERIFF

F. K. Mitchell authorized us last week to place his name in the announcement column, asking for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector, but through some error the name was left out. He is a full-fledged bonafide candidate for the office of High Sheriff and Collector in Lubbock and attached counties, and wants the voters to consider carefully his candidacy.

Mr. Mitchell is one of the old-timers here, having lived in Lubbock 12 years and in the Plains country much longer. He has been connected with the City Marshall's office for two years, having been appointed by the City Commission to this office which is an appointive office under the present city government. He has had quite a deal of experience in the capacity of peace officer. He served quite awhile as night watchman, and was for a time connected with the sheriff's department in capacity of deputy sheriff, in charge of the jail.

He is a capable man, and if elected we are sure will meet all the requirements of his official duty.

A TEXAS MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE

Houston, Texas:—"After the advent of one of my babies, my health became very poor. I was nervous and so weak I could not do anything, could not eat or sleep and was nothing short of a physical wreck when a friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took several bottles but it was well worth it for it completely restored me to good health. My advice to women who suffer is to give 'Favorite Prescription' a trial, it will surely help them."—Mrs. E. L. Brown, 2414 Freeman St.

San Antonio, Texas:—"After a serious illness, when my strength seemed as though it would not come back to me, I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a tonic. I had seen it advertised and recommended so highly that I felt I could not go far astray. This medicine did all for me that could be desired. It restored me to perfect health and strength in a comparatively short time and I am just as strong and well as can be. 'Favorite Prescription' is a splendid tonic and builder for women and it is a pleasure to me to recommend it."—Mrs. HETTIE McLANE, 308 Bowie St.

Houston, Texas:—"When I had become all run-down, weak and nervous and was feeling miserable all the time I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was only necessary for me to take two bottles to build me up in health and strength. 'Favorite Prescription' is an excellent tonic for women."—Mrs. F. E. Gowan, 2612 N. Main.

RE-HEARING IN CROSBY COUNTY CASE

Washington, Jan. 26.—The supreme court today granted a writ of certiorari to the Western Union Telegraph Company and will review the decision of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo in which the Amarillo court upheld the verdict of a Crosby county jury in giving Eugene E. Southwick damages for a garbled telegram regarding a land purchase.

The supreme court granted the writ of the company's contention that the message was sent as an un-repeated one, and, hence, the company is not responsible for error in transmission.

The case of Southwick against the Western Union Telegraph Company was heard in the Amarillo court last June, judgment of about $500 being granted the plaintiff. A motion for a rehearing was overruled in October and an appeal was made to the supreme court.

According to attaches of the local court, a telegram was sent from Crosby county to the owner in Nebraska, making an offer for land. The telegraph operator either made an error in sending or receiving the reply from the Nebraska party, causing a loss in the closing up of the transaction, it is alleged.

Mrs. Beulah Shaw, of Southland, came in Monday with the West family to place one of Mr. West's children in a local sanitarium for an operation. Mrs. Shaw returned home Wednesday.

What is a Bank?

A bank is much more than merely a safe place for keeping funds, for handling checks, for collecting drafts, etc.

A bank should be regarded as the intimate helper, advisor and friend of the customer; ever ready to cooperate in every proper way, to extend necessary accommodation as required, and to protect his interest in every way that lies within its power.

This is the kind of service that we endeavor to render; and we invite you to make your connection with us with such services in view.

PE-RU-NA

Worth Its Weight in Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 908 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him:—

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and then some. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using half a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up chunks of phlegm and mucus, my eyes itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your Almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA."
(Signed) W. W. NORTHRUP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA.
DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER.

If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.

MARTIN'S BAKERY

Commencing their business in this city ten years ago in a small wooden building on South Cedar Street, Martin's Bakery has grown until today in their modern brick building in which they now operate on West Broadway they have one of the finest in the Western part of Texas; increasing their output and extending their trade territory over several counties surrounding Lubbock is only a brief history of the success of this thriving business.

In speaking of the success of this individual firm we are clearly shown by a study of the progress during its short history, one of the outstanding agencies which without doubt contribute more than any other to its success that being a special study of a business in which both members of the firm, R. H. and H. O. Martin are specially adapted. It is a proven fact that not all people can succeed in like enterprises, some having no inclination whatever to the bakery line and others who are opposite. That apparently is one outstanding feature.

R. H. Martin, who we find makes the plans and tends to the purchasing end of this business has been practically studying and in direct contact with the bakery business for nearly twenty years and other kindred lines to the bakery business, is an admirable example of ability adapted to bakery products. With this firm, they are unusually aided to successful operation by having one member who so thoroughly understands the planning and business end, and the other with a great ability of putting those plans into execution.

R. H. Martin, senior brother of this firm, started the bakery business in Lubbock, as we stated before, almost ten years ago. The first few years of the independent career as baker in our city did not pay returns equal to the amount of income that he had been able to make preceding entrance into the business. By making his plans to manufacture the best products for consumption and selling his products at a most consistent margin of profit Martin's Bakery is now realizing the value of determination to carry out those original plans. It is an admirable fact to know that competition in this line in our city has started several times during the history of Martin's Bakery, but because of quality manufactured and under conditions that are remarkable for sanitation, our people appreciated the qualities and efforts put forth by this bakery retained their trade. So it is a known fact that Lubbock would be a hard proposition for competition.

Martin's Bakery which we are all proud of, is equipped as one of the best in the West, having modern baking facilities and arrangement for complete sanitary conditions under which they manufacture their enviable products, having successfully passed all inspections made by the State and open to inspection to any who are interested at any time. The oven in which baking is done is finished in white enamel and known as a "continuous bake oven" the weight of which is calculated to be one hundred and five thousand pounds, is a recognized equipment of bakeries of much larger cities.

Dough mixing is done by a standard mixing machine equipped with automatic elevators and sifters which deposits their contents into the mixing machine, thus eliminating contact with hands. This machine is operated by a five horsepower motor which automatically deposits all the contents from the mixing machine into troughs. The dough remains here only a short time until it is rolled and put into pans ready for the oven. Every thing possible is done to prevent contact with the containers used, each of the bakers required to wear white laundered gloves.

Because of these standard facilities for manufacturing fine products and the methods employed by the firm in tending to out-of-town trade they receive orders daily from towns all over the South Plains from firms who have traded with Martin's Bakery for years. One meritable method used in dealing with these customers is to inform in advance by direct communication of any changes that are to be made in matters of distribution and price.

Many items are carried in connection with the bakery establishment probably more accountable by reason of local demand for the best in the confectionery lines. A modern fountain which is the costliest and most sanitary in the city is one of these kindred lines. This fountain in which highest grade drinks are mixed by efficient dispensers, is of material similar in appearance to the finest marble. The large handsome mirrors are empaneled in this material while the counter is of the same material. HOGS AND SHEEP ARE HIGHER, CATTLE STEADY

Kansas City Stock Yards, Jan. 26.—Prices for hogs and sheep today were the highest of the season. Lambs sold up to $20.40, and yearlings $17.25, the highest point ever reached in January, and $3.50 above the top price in the first month last year. The price for hogs was $15.95 or 60 cents above a week ago. Cattle were in normal supply and sold slowly at steady prices.

Today's Receipts
Receipts today were 13,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs, and 12,000 sheep, compared with 14,000 cattle, 19,000 hogs, and 13,000 sheep a week ago, and 22,000 cattle, 18,500 hogs, and 4300 sheep a year ago. The bulk of the arrivals today were native cattle. A few consignments came from the Southwest and Colorado.

Beef Cattle.
There was no quotable improvement in the tone of the cattle market today, and while trade was slow, prices were generally unchanged, no other market is showing special activity in fat cattle, as killers claim a slow demand for beef. Most of the steers today sold at $12.00 to $13.50, and some choice steers brought $14 to $15.50. Plain light weight steers sold at $11.25 to $11.75 and included several large bunches from Oklahoma. No far Western fat

The Cleveland Makes Good Because it IS so Good

"The Cleveland is in a class by itself." That's the answer from owners of the new Cleveland Six all over America.

The Cleveland has made good with the public in such a big way, because it is so good.

Men of engineering and manufacturing skill, and of high ideals, devoted three years to the development and perfection of the Cleveland Six before they offered it to the public. Experimentation was worked out in the Cleveland Company's laboratories and shops and in constant tests on the road; not in the hands of owners. So the Cleveland has made good.

The thousands of Cleveland Sixes that have gone out to owners since last July are performing as few cars, indeed, can perform. The power and life of its motor, its remarkable comfort in riding, the ease of handling, the beauty and graceful style of its body designs, the excellence of its finish and upholstery, truly place the Cleveland Six in a class by itself.

We cannot tell you how good the Cleveland Six is. You must drive it and ride in it to know.

cattle were here. Cows and heifers were steady, with a fairly good movement in the trade. Cows sold at $5.25 to $12.50. "Canners" brought $5.25 to $6.25, cutters $6.50 to $7.50 and fat cows $7.75 up. Heifers were scarce at $7.50 to $13.50. Calves sold at $8.50 to $16.25.

Stockers and Feeders
The extent of the demand and the range in prices of stockers and feeders was about the same as a week ago. Half fat steers found a ready outlet to feeder buyers, and a good many Colorado stockers were on through billing. Heavy feeders sold at $13 to $13.25, and lighter weights $10 up. Most of the stockers brought $8.50 to $10.50, top $11.50. Stock cows and heifers were in active demand at steady prices.

Hogs.
The hog market took another advance today and reached a new high position for the winter packing season. The top price was $15.95 and the bulk of the offerings sold at $15.50 to $15.90, compared with the close last week prices are 25 to 35 cents higher, and 60 to 75 cents higher than a week ago. Since November 1st, hog prices have advanced $2.50. Receipts are falling materially short of a year ago, and packers are finding local receipts insufficient to meet their most urgent needs. Pigs and thin hogs advanced as much as fat grades.

Sheep and Lambs.
Prices for fat lambs were up 25 to 40 cents, and sheep up 25 to 50 cents to the highest levels of the season. Lambs sold up to $20.40 and yearlings $17.25. Ewes are quoted at $11 to $12.25, and feeding lambs $15.50 to $18.25. Prices are the highest ever known in January.

Horses and Mules.
Trade in horses and mules shows big volume and prices remain steady. Large supplies of good quality fat mules are meeting a big southern demand, and all the big drafter class horses are wanted in central section farms or oil fields.

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

It took years of work and the expenditure of three million dollars before Mr. Edison completed the first Official Laboratory Model of The New Edison, "The Phonograph with a Soul."

He had determined to develop a phonograph which would RE-CREATE music, not merely reproduce it; and what is more HE DID IT.

Three million musicians and music lovers who have heard fifty great artists sing in direct comparison with the New Edison know it is the greatest phonograph. They can tell you that there is no difference between the singer's voice and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. They have seen the singer stand beside the instrument and have heard him sing. They have seen his lips cease, and yet have heard his voice go on without interruption. Had their eyes not told them the New Edison was singing alone, they would have sworn the voice came from the living singer.

To Mr. Edison, it was worth three million dollars to be able to give music lovers the pleasure of hearing our great singers and instrumentalists when and where they would, exactly as they would hear them on the concert platform and operatic stage.

Brunswick Principles In Fine Tire Making

The reason you are interested in the name on your tire is that it identifies the maker. By knowing the maker you can judge his ideals of manufacture.

The only secret of a super-tire lies in the principles of the maker. His standards decide the quality. For there are no secrets in the tire industry.

What you get depends on what is behind the name on your tire. Brunswick, as you know, means a very old concern, jealous of its good name. Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has been famous the world over for the quality of its products.

The Brunswick Tire is all that you expect—and more. Your first one will be a revelation. You'll agree that you've never known a better. And you'll tell your friends. So spreads the news among motorists. The Brunswick is the most welcome tire that ever came to market.

Try one Brunswick Tire. Learn how good a tire can be built. And remember, it costs no more than like-type tires.

JURY CONDEMNS RECKLESS SALE OF TOILET WATERS

Memphis, Jan. 26.—A report by the special grand jury empaneled here last week for the purpose of making an investigation into the recent deaths of three men who were said to have drunk toilet water, strongly condemns the carelessness and recklessness which has been displayed by local druggists in the sale of such compounds.

The report in full follows: Memphis, Texas, Jan. 24th, 1920.—The State of Texas, County of Hall; In the District Court of Hall County, Texas, December Term, 1919.—Special Report of the Grand Jury:

To the Honorable J. A. Nabers, Judge of said court.

We the grand jurors of this term of your court having been re-assembled and re-impaneled by your honor, herewith submit the following report of our labors:

"We were re-assembled by Your Honor for the purpose of investigating the tragic end of three citizens of our County, and after having numerous witnesses before us in our investigation and giving the matter a thorough investigation, we have found that while the evidence may not be sufficient to sustain conviction, it certainly is incriminating in that it shows that some of the drug stores of our county have been indiscriminately and carelessly selling preparations and compounds containing a large per cent of alcohol and that some of these compounds contain wood alcohol and that some of the preparations being sold by the druggists and used by various citizens of our country as beverages, although they contain a high percent of alcohol, no formula showing what per cent is shown on the vessel containing them. We refer especially to the fact that these preparations have been sold to all persons for any purpose whatever and in what ever quantity desired. We also wish to refer specifically to the "Eau De Quinine" hair tonic and the "Spirits de Lillas" a toilet water, which has been carelessly and recklessly sold by various druggists.

We cannot condemn too strongly the recklessness and carelessness which has been displayed in the sale of these compounds, and which in our opinion has largely contributed to the death of three of our citizens. We realize that this report is couched in strong language but the facts and circumstances and the evidence produced before us, clearly justifies the same and shows that in some cases the sales were made where it was known that the compounds and preparations bought were to be used for beverages purposes only. And while we do not feel that the evidence is sufficient to sustain a conviction of any particular party, yet we feel that several of the druggists have in fact violated the spirit of the law if not the letter.

We take this method of warning the public against the danger of drinking such compounds and feel that has already been brought so forcibly home to us should be sufficient to deter others from the use of these preparations for other than lawful purposes.

We have had a chemical analysis of these compounds made as such analysis confirms our findings as above set forth and we are instructing our local authorities to give the Federal authorities all the assistance in their power towards bringing the offenders to the bar of justice.

Having finished our labors we ask that we be finally discharged.

W. H. YOUNGBLOOD,
Foreman of the Grand Jury.

Lubbock Tailoring Company

In most every progressive city where there are a few firms in different lines of business who stand out prominently as progressive and up-to-date. It is most generally this class of business houses that make for the progress of the city in which they are located. Indeed this can be said of the Lubbock Tailoring Company; its management and its equipment testify to it being true.

Unlike many business houses, the management of the Lubbock Tailoring Company see for the future of the city and equipped to care for the trade and at the same time keep their shop a credit for the city and to the section that the city serves.

The first consideration now-a-days, when one offers clothes to the cleaner and the pressman is what kind of machinery or labor saving devices he uses? Are they up-to-date and efficient or are they similar to old time methods. By old time methods we mean are they dipped into a tub of gasoline, squeezed and hung out into the open to be whipped by the high west winds—and sometimes a mixture of sand. If the latter method was the vogue today, automobiles would not be running yet but spinning wheels would. Therefore when we suggest the Lubbock Tailoring Company as being up to date we then say they use the DRY CLEANING PROCESS.

Some times we often wonder if the Dry Cleaning Process is thoroughly understood by the public or that plants of the olden methods are doing business under the guise of the Dry Cleaning Process. Lubbock people now understand that there is one and only one Dry Cleaning plant in the City and the Lubbock Tailoring Company owns and successfully operates it.

The value of the Dry Cleaning Process is such an important step toward progress that only a few details are necessary in describing its working, however, those who should happen not to know of this plant and become interested in the process the management will gladly show you through the plant and the quality of the work turned out by it.

Several thousand dollars worth of modern machinery is necessary to equip a plant like the Lubbock Tailoring Company. The many large machines are of the best manufacture and the most skilled labor is employed here to give proper progressive tailoring work without any added cost to the customer.

The first step toward cleaning clothes brought to this up-to-date shop is a "inspection" by this we mean all the pockets are searched for valuables and etc., thus saving for their customers who leave these things carelessly in their clothes many dollars. After passing through this inspection the clothes are put into what is termed a "Vacuum Cleaner" where all the dust is thoroughly taken out of them before they reach the process of cleaning. After they remain here until all the dirt is taken out they enter the Dry Cleaning Machine where they are kept forty-five minutes, revolving in different directions until at last through this method which is known as the "French Process" the clothes come out spotlessly clean but with the gasoline penetration yet clinging to the goods—how unlike the old process, the clothes now pass into a "gas extractor" where every thing except your clothes is taken out. The steam drying tumbler adds much to the appearance of the cloth by raising the nap of the goods and making them as if new. Not a particle of odor is left. From the complete process of cleaning the clothes yet have another rigid inspection for flaws which might develop in the process. This inspection is made by an expert lady tailor. After the inspection the clothes are pressed on the steam press and delivered to the customer.

Now all the good things the customers receive at the Lubbock Tailoring Shop were put there by the manager, Mr. Erick Posey, who when he established the plant here, by buying one of the "old-time" hand operated kind determined to give Lubbock the prestige of having the best equipped Dry Cleaning Plant on the South Plains. Mr. Posey is a native South Plainsman having been born and raised in this section of the country and is known well and highly respected. Mr. Posey volunteered for army duty in the great war and spent about eighteen months in service, about one year of which was spent overseas. The plant was left in capable hands during his absence. Upon return here in October past, Mr. Posey immediately set to work to follow the progressive spirit of the city and has recently purchased machinery which will be installed as soon as possible in keeping with his determination to have the best equipped plant in this section.

In accord with the custom of the best plants, the Kahn and Anderson lines of men's tailor-made clothes are for sale here, giving the shop adequate means of serving up-to-date and progressively the customers of our city.

HOME DEMONSTRATION DEPARTMENT

(By F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Husbandman.)

"Better Sires in the Poultry Yard"

What does the average farmer do to grade up his flock of chickens? The honest answer is "nothing." Here is what he does. Some evening some time in April he gives one member of the family about twenty-four hours notice to set some eggs. Frequently it is turned over to his good wife, yes, even in the majority of cases. He is not interested very much in the source of eggs. About all he cares is that they are fertile. To him an egg is an egg, a chicken is a chicken. He does not believe there is any great difference in chickens. He does not appreciate the fact that in the average flock of thirty Texas hens, you find about fifteen that lay thirty eggs or less per year, about ten that lay close to one hundred eggs and about five that have the breeding to produce more than one hundred and fifty eggs per hen per year. He thinks anything that has feathers will produce eggs. This is true in the spring time. He mates anything that has feathers. The male at the head of the flock he gives but little consideration. If he is a rooster that is all that is necessary. He thinks one ought to be as good as another. About the only time he buys a male is when his own dies with old age, disease, or by accident. Then, if his neighbor has one to spare for about one dollar, no matter what breed or variety he represents, most often he does not represent anything but scrub stock produced from haphazard breeding, everything is alright. If he cannot find any in the neighborhood he "sends off" and tries to buy one for $1.50 or less, considering present high prices of feed, labor, advertising, transfer, etc. to the poultry breeder.

In some parts of the state they still "hang onto" the ancient practice of exchanging roosters.

Why don't hens lay in the winter time? Because they have been hatched from hens that only lay in the spring time. To get winter layers, hatch from winter layers.

The male bird is one-half the flock. That means that from the breeding standpoint the male is worth ten hens. If you have a flock of ten standard-bred breeders you can afford to invest between $10.00 and $30.00 in a good male bird, and if the breeding females are especially good $50.00 is not too much to invest in the male.

It has been proved very conclusively that the male bird influences the egg production of the offspring even more than the female. For this reason in buying a male bird inquire into his ancestry to make sure he comes from a hen with a high egg record, say two hundred eggs or more in one year.

The United States Government Farm at Beltsville, Maryland, has proved that a profitable way of grading up a mixed flock is through good standard bred males. In the poultry yard a flock of scrub chickens, indicates careless and "slack" management somewhere.

Standard-bred chickens are the only kind of chickens that are making a profit during the present time of high priced feed, labor and everything else that goes to make an egg. Mongrel or scrub chickens are a money losing proposition.

Standard-bred chickens are money makers. Remember a flock of standard-bred chickens is within the reach of all. A good pen, 1 male and 4 females of most any breed may be bought for $40.00 to $75.00. As a foundation flock, much cheaper stock is a poor investment.

Club Girl's Hens Profit Makers:

"I am a poultry-club member, and my records show that this year the net profits from my chickens were $525.35." This is the report of Valerie Henning, of Panola County, Miss., who at 16 holds the championship of her State in poultry-club work. She with six other Mississippi girls and two chaperones, recently visited Washington. The five-day trip was a prize offered by Mississippi bankers and business men to the girl in each district of the State who made the largest profit in her club work.

Miss Henning has been a member for two years of one of the poultry clubs supervised by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State colleges.

To obtain her start in club work she borrowed $13.50 from a local bank. With this money a pen of Barred Plymouth Rocks, consisting of four hens and one cockerel, was bought. The profits from her chickens last year, her first in poultry work, were $374, and her flock for 1919 consisted of 2 cockerels and 19 hens. By the use of trap nests and leg bands, the record as a layer of each hen had been observed, and only the good egg producers were kept. From January 1 to October 16 the 19 biddies laid 2,840 eggs. Miss Henning sells nearly all of the eggs for hatching purposes; but the birds she raises, aside from the culls, bring from $15 to $20 a pen.

The money this club girl has made through her poultry work is being used to pay her way through an agricultural high school.

SOME IMPORTANT INCOME TAX FACTS AND FIGURES

Twenty thousand persons last year paid a fine of $5 each for failure to file an income tax return for 1918, although their income for that year was not taxable.

The revenue act provides an exemption of $1,000 for single persons, $2,000 for married persons and heads of families and an addition exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon the taxpayer, if such a person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support.

The delinquents last year were persons whose income exactly equalled the amount of the exemptions and who considered it unnecessary, therefore, to file a return, and others whose income was nontaxable because of dependents, and who were under a similar mistaken impression.

For example, a single man with a net income of $1,000 was supporting a sister for whom he was allowed an exemption of $200, placing his income in the nontaxable list. For this reason he did not file a return. When his delinquency was discovered through a return filed by his employer, who is required to report payments of $1,000 or more to each employee, he was fined $5.

To avoid penalty, every person whose income for the last year equalled or exceeded $1,000 or $2,000, according to their marital status, or their status as the head of the family, must file a return. The law makes no exemptions, the failure being a fine of not more than $1,000.

Whether or not a person is the "head of a family" and entitled to a $2,000 exemption is a question to be determined largely by circumstances surrounding each individual case. The fixing of his status decides, in many instances, whether his income is taxable or nontaxable.

A head of a family is defined by treasury regulations as "a person who actually supports and maintains one or more individuals who are closely connected with him blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose rights to exercise family control and provide for these dependents is based upon some moral or legal obligation."

A single person is the head of a family if he is the sole support of relatives living in the same house with him and if he exercises control of household affairs. The words "sole support" are used in the sense that there is no other person to whom the dependent may look for support.

Incomes from other sources, such as interest on bonds, stock dividends, pensions, etc., if meager enough still to leave the recipient dependent, does not preclude a claim for exemption. Such income, however, must be included in the return of the head of the family.

The $1,000 additional exemption allowed the head of the family cannot be divided between two single members of a household. A division of responsibility excludes the parties from such claim.

A single person who does not qualify as the head of a family may still claim an exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon him for support if such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support.

A son who has left home but who sends to his mother more than half the sum required for her support is entitled to the $200 exemption, provided the mother cannot support herself. Otherwise the amount must be considered as a gift, and, therefore, is not deductible.

A son living at home and supporting his mother may claim the $2,000 exemption allowed the head of the family, but not an additional exemption of $200 unless the mother is incapable of self-support.

John Deere Disc Plow---John Deere Pony Disc Plow Especially Built for Texas

The John Deere Disc Plow opens a full width furrow of uniform depth the first and every time around the field, and makes deep, square corners, turning either right or left—convenient levers make this fine work possible.

Cut of each disc can be set at 8, 10 or 12 inches—the design of the frame permits this.

Plow is held to its work by weight of driver and down-pull of team on the hitch—not by useless weight on the frame.

Adjustable scrapers keep discs clean and assist in turning and pulverizing the soil.

The John Deere Disc Plow is furnished as a one, two or three-disc plow.

24-inch discs are the regular size discs for the John Deere.

The John Deere Pony Disc Plow is built so that positive and even penetration is assured at all times.

This is a strong light plow, especially adapted for use with small mules or light horses. Genuine John Deere materials and workmanship throughout.

Weight of operator, down-pull of team on high hitch and setting of discs force discs into the hardest ground.

Special hanging lever controls furrow wheel. Plow can be made to take more or less land quickly and easily.

Spring hitch plate—advantageous when plowing in rough, uneven ground or across irrigation ditches. Plow does not jump out of ground.

Best quality steel discs. Set to insure best work, easy penetration and perfect pulverizing of the ground.

Scrapers prevent excessive pressure on discs. Give turning effect of moldboard and improve the quality of work. Adjustable up or down, forward or back.

Cast wheels with V-shaped tires hold plow to work. Equipped with oil-tight, dustproof boxes. Flanged tire wheels furnished when wanted.

The John Deere Pony Disc Plow is made in single and double-disc sizes.

LUBBOCK TO BE ON AERIAL MAIL ROUTE

W. K. Whipple, vice president of the Puhandle Aerial Service and Transportation Company, was seen by an Avalanche representative this week, and we learned from him that his company whose headquarters are in Amarillo, are planning an aerial service for mail and probably passengers from Kansas City to El Paso via Amarillo, Lubbock, Midland, and that Lubbock, in all probability will be made a re-lay station with extra planes here, repair shop and supplies. Mr. Whipple, with three pilots, have been in the city since Sunday with two planes, and are looking out for grounds etc. for the establishment of this route.

Mr. Whipple says he will go from here to Midland and make arrangements for a post there, and it is hoped that all arrangements will be perfected and the route established within a short time.

The planes here have been kept busy taking people a ride through the bracing air of the Lubbock country, and some of our local physicians have made calls in the country in the planes, which they find to be highly satisfactory.

STOP THAT ACHE!

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of that pain and lameness! Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Many grateful people have used them and know how effective they are. Ask your neighbor! Here's a convincing case.

Mrs. M. J. Taylor, Main St., Paducah, Texas, says: "Last spring my back and kidneys were in awful shape. It was almost impossible for me to get up when I was down on account of my back hurting so and there was just a steady ache there all the time. It was a task for me to do my housework and the minute I stooped over, knife-like pains would catch me in the small of my back, making it hard for me to raise up again. My kidneys were irregular in action and there were other annoying symptoms of kidney disorder. I tried different remedies, without help until one of the family gave me Doan's Kidney Pills. The first few did me so much good, I continued their use. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me entirely. I have had no return of the trouble."

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sickness, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Phillips, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. ... I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today.

Our Job

As the leader of a great industry, Willard is held responsible, and rightly, for storage battery improvement, for storage battery service, and for giving all necessary help and information to the great car-owning public.

To make the new Willard battery owner's task easier, in addition to our responsibility for the quality of material and workmanship, we offer to all such as properly register the new battery at a Willard Service Station, a 90-day service free of charge, with full and complete printed information on every point the owner needs to know.

The Nation-wide Willard Service Organization was established and is maintained for the car owner's benefit, to assist him in getting a really trained service by men who know their job.

The latest of many Willard contributions to battery improvement is the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation—an invention which entirely does away with what was previously an almost universal battery repair expense—reinsulation. Our one objective is the car owner's complete satisfaction, and this we pledge to those who make or sell motor cars and to the millions of men and women who drive them.

You Do More Work,
You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine. It is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the Blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 50c per bottle.

TRAINING THE CHILD TO BE SELF-RELIANT

(By Mrs. Ethel G. Young)
The development of self-reliance is of vital importance in child training, and one cannot begin too early to teach children to help themselves. Often, it is very much harder and may take more time to let them do something than do it oneself; but, time and effort are not wasted when they are thus spent.

The best way to help a child to become self-reliant is to give him simple duties at first, adding more difficult ones as he grows older. At an early age, every baby will try to take off his shoes. Instead of scolding him for doing this, show him how to do it and also how to put them on again. After learning this he will soon try to manage the rest of his clothing; before long, he will be able to dress and undress himself with very little help.

Self-reliance and orderliness may be developed in a child at the same time, for the little one who can take out and put away his own toys, may play with them when he will. If he has a place for everything and keeps everything in its place, he can have much more freedom for play, and will not have to wait for someone to come to his assistance.

Often a child asks for help in doing something which he could do for himself if he only knew how. Too often a busy or impatient mother will wait upon her child to save time, and then the next time he wants the same help, he will come to her again. If the mother had taken a few moments the first time to show him how to help himself, there would have been no second time. For example, not long ago a little three-year-old boy came to me and asked for a drink. I told him to go into the kitchen and get it, but he said he could not reach the glass. "Oh, yes, you can," I replied, "I will tell you how. Get a chair and push it near the table; then stand on it and see if you can't get the glass." He did as he was told and in a few minutes came running to me with a beaming face saying, "I'm a big boy now; I can get a drink all by myself."

Self-reliance means confidence in oneself. If one can rely upon his own powers, he most certainly develops them. A child who is taught how to cross the street properly develops his hearing, seeing and reasoning powers.

Of course, we as mothers, must guide the child who is self-reliant in the right direction and the best way to do this is to put more faith in him. Let him realize that we expect him to do the right thing and in nearly every instance he will do it, because he feels his mother's confidence in him. In other words, we must always look for the best in our children instead of something with which to find faults and that if she would correct smaller faults, remembering that we are sometimes exasperating ourselves. A certain mother once complained that she did not know why her child was so naughty when she tried to punish him for every misdeed. His father told her that she saw too many faults, and that if she would correct the big evils, the little ones would disappear. Remember to praise the child whenever he accomplishes something new. Develop his initiative, by helping him to discover things for himself. Soon he will not only be helping himself, but others as well; he will grow more and more considerate.

MAYOR TAKES UP THE COAL SITUATION

January 24, 1920.
 To the Coal Dealers:
 City:

Gentlemen:
 I find the coal situation to be extremely alarming. Many people are without coal while others have more than is necessary, and I am putting the card system back into effect.

Do not let anyone have coal without he first goes to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and procures one of these cards, and be sure that you fill out the amount of coal and the date that you let each customer have, and do not let anyone have more than this amount without special permission.

Gentlemen, we must do this in order to have the proper distribution of this coal and I kindly ask that all of you co-operate with me in every way possible to see that this is done. Just the moment that you get a car in, notify me so that I can take the necessary steps to see that the most needy are served first.

Thanking you for your past co-operation and assuring you of my appreciation of the co-operation that you now are going to give me in this matter, I am,

Yours very truly,
 C. E. PARKS, Mayor.
 P. S.—The same rule as to furnaces and people that are burning more than one stove will apply from now on until further notice is given. Disregard all old cards, the new cards are green.

BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION LAID BIG PLANS

A program of expansion, involving the expenditure of over $3,000,000, was decided upon at the recent board meeting of the Baptist General Convention, held in Dallas, and attended by representatives from all over Texas. For the first time in the history of the consolidated board the treasurer reported all obligations paid and a balance of $280,000 in the treasury. Cash receipts from the Baptist 75 Million Campaign have already totaled $750,000. The three million dollars authorized to be expended will be used in the erection of new buildings and the providing of new equipment in the educational and benevolent institutions fostered by the board. New dormitories are planned at several of the Baptist schools to take care of the crowded conditions resultant from an unusually heavy enrollment. Building projects totaling a million dollars will be started at the Baylor Medical College and Baptist Memorial Sanitarium, which will make Dallas one of the seven great medical centers in the United States.

State mission interests of the Board were provided for by the appropriation of $250,000, which will be used in the employment of missionaries and the strengthening of small, weak country churches.

Dr. F. S. Groner was re-elected as general secretary of the Board; Dr. T. V. Neal, executive secretary; Dr. J. L. Gross, and three other brethren were elected as field secretaries with reference to enlistment; Mr. T. C. Gardner, B. Y. P. U. secretary; and Mr. Wm. P. Phillips, Sunday School secretary. The Enlistment, Evangelistic, Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. departments were strengthened by the addition of several new workers. In the near future a survey of Baptist needs will be made and work started at needy points.

SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE MAY BE CALLED

Austin, Texas, Jan. 22.—Governor Hobby may be requested to call a special session of the legislature to enact laws to carry out plans for relief of the school situation which will be considered at a meeting of the Texas Teachers' Association here tomorrow, according to several leaders of the movement.

Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the University of Texas, and president of the Teachers' association has issued a call for representative school men from each congressional district to meet with him and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction here today to prepare plans for aiding in the financing of both public schools and institutions of higher education. The plans formed at this meeting will be submitted for consideration tomorrow.

Several of the state educational institutions have been forced to apply to the governor for deficiencies because of the unprecedented attendance of this year. In the public schools there has been a scarcity of teachers, and those in touch with the situation say that teachers will continue to abandon the profession until their salaries are made more adequate.

Dr. Vinson, Miss Annie Webb Blanton, state superintendent of public instruction, and others have sent letters to the Mothers' clubs and other organizations of Texas and urged them to come together, discuss the school situation, and forward suggestions for a solution to the governor.

Shall We Organize to Keep the Price of Cotton up to Cost Plus a Reasonable Profit?

(By the State Department of Agriculture.)

Will you submit this question to your institutes and also to the farmers in your neighborhood?

Profits of Manufacturers
In a recent circular we called your attention to some of the immense profits made by manufacturers out of your cotton. We did this to show our farmers that cotton is selling at about $60 per bale under value, and that Federal influences are exerted to beat down prices. We called your attention to the difference between what the speculators and the Government call a "fair" price as compared to our cost-of-production-and-a-profit price.

Could Pay $1.00 Per Pound.
Mr. Wannamaker, President of the American Cotton Association, in the Manufacturers' Record of January 8, 1920, page 102, after investigating the profits of manufacturers, says in part: "The information gained is startling. On one shipment of strict middling cotton that had been sold at 41 cents per pound, the manufacturer goods sold for $1.43 per pound. The cost of manufacturing was 22 cents. This left to the manufacturer 80 cents additional profit. He (the manufacturer) frankly stated that he could pay $1.00 per pound for cotton, basis middling, and still make a handsome profit."

We will suppose that the above was a 500 pound bale. It brought the farmer $205. It cost 22 cents to manufacture it into cloth, and it sold at per pound or $110. per bale to manufacturer $1.43 per pound or $715 per bale; a profit of $400, between producer and consumer. Some Profit! According to Mr. Wannamaker's statement above the manufacturer could pay $1.00 per pound for Strict Middling cotton; in which case the farmer would receive $500 for the bale. Add to this $110 as the cost of manufacturing into cloth, which gives as the total cost to the manufacturer of $610 for the bale, leaving as his net profit $105. At the present price he pays for the bale, his profit is $400. Some spread!

This Department recently called your attention to the activities of Federal influences to force down the price of cotton to the so-called market price while the Agricultural Department's figures show that this "market price" is from $40 to $50 below cost of production, or from eight to twelve cents below the price for which we are contending, which is 45 cents per pound. Are we asking too much when the manufacturer says that he can pay $1.00 per pound and still make a good profit?

What Has the Government to Do With This?

One manufacturer declared: "I frankly acknowledge that we are making enormous and excess profits out of every pound of cotton today, but then we are giving a great part of these profits to the Government, and if the profits were distributed among the host of producers, the Government would not get the benefit of them." Does this make the Government a party to profiteering? Can it be possible that these government Boards are forcing down prices to the producer and up to the consumer to get money to run the Government? Or is it a manufacturer's camouflage to justify profiteering?

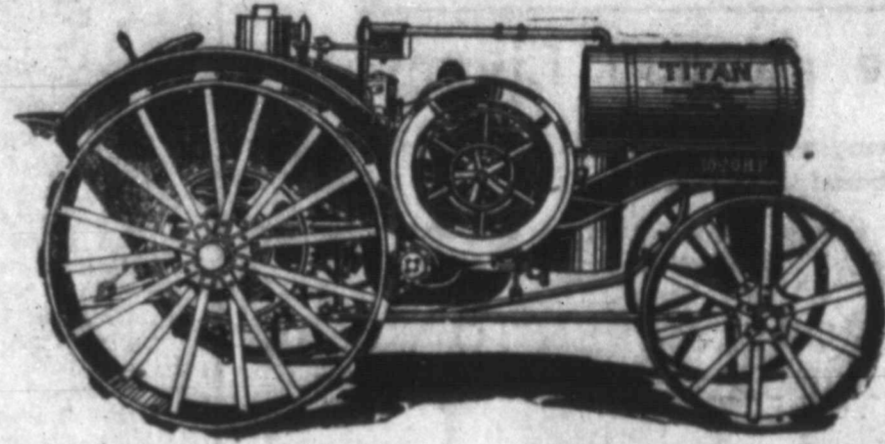

Granted that the Government did this as a war measure, if it did it at all. The war is over, the soldiers demobilized and honorably discharged. People no longer talk war. It is charged that when these excess profits are paid into the U. S. Treasury, they are later charged back to the consumer. If this is true, then the consumer pays about $2.50 in increased prices, to get one dollar for the Government. In the meantime, who is profiteering?

If we do not break the backbone of speculation, speculation will break the backbone of production. Farmers of Texas, organize your institutes, as it is only through organization that your voice may be heard and your rights protected. Organize now!

J. W. NEILL,
Director of Institutes.

REGARDING THE AIRPLANES HERE THIS WEEK

To Whom it May Concern:

Though no fault of anyone, some people have understood that the airplanes that have been present in our city during the past few days, were connected with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and that the Chamber of Commerce was receiving money for the rides. These planes are owned by Amarillo parties, and are being used for service for the owner's profit. Last week these planes started from Amarillo with some individual members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, as passengers, for Abilene, where the annual meeting was being held. The signs were painted on the planes, simply as an advertisement.

This statement is made in due fairness to all parties concerned.
