CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACTIVE

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL DISCUSS MANY IMPORTANT MATTERS

IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM IS TO BE MAPPED OUT

And Big Movements Will Find Their Origin at This Meeting, According to Reports Coming to Us of the Purposes of This Special Meeting.

An important meeting of the directors of the local Chamber of Commerce has been called to meet this evening in the court house. At this meeting there will be general discussion of the conditions of the city, and many additional improvements which are absolutely necessary for the welfare of the city's development, will be discussed, and plans made to put into execution many of the plans.

One of the problems which are sure the directors will discuss this evening, is the painting of street signs; mending of our houses and making things ready for free mail service which we are bound to receive in the immediate future. The local Chamber of Commerce no doubt has realized the need of street signs and numbered houses for some time, but many things probably more important, and conditions have prevented this body from working actively on this problem. A committee will be appointed, we are assured, comprised of two of the Directors. It will be up to the committee to have painters of the city make their estimates on the cost and ready to be shown to the City Council at their next regular meeting. It is also understood that our City Council is ready to entertain a proposition of this kind at the present time.

Another thing we are told the directors of the Commerce will discuss, and put on foot tonight, is the starting of a campaign to inaugurate a South Plains Fair Association. The County having purchased or having in mind the proposition of buying eighty acres of land on the canyon east of the city, known as the George Boles property, the Chamber of Commerce now proposes to incorporate a Fair Association and build suitable buildings on the property to make it a valuable asset to the county and the South Plains. There will be two directors appointed as a committee to estimate the costs of this proposition and as soon as completed a call meeting will be held and the citizenship of the city notified of the plans.

It is now the plans, we are told, in organizing the South Plains Fair Association, to interest every county on the South Plains and if possible many men of the different counties may become stockholders in the Fair Association.

By putting these many much-needed improvements on foot the Chamber of Commerce is again taking the lead, realizing the position we are holding in West Texas and establishing new things which will be in line with the general progress of the South Plains and Lubbock the "Hub."

Numerous important improvements in the city will be started by spring. New brick buildings will start skyward. Paving, one of the largest problems attempted and one of the most needed will commence with spring weather. Housing problems will have to be met under conditions which seem almost prohibitive at this time, yet the conditions of the city and country demands it; and hundreds of seemingly small matters, neglected by various reasons of the past, will be attended to. Hotel and lodging conditions here now are demanding better ones and this one thing will be looked after in the near future we are told, thus the city starts the year on one of the biggest advanced improvement and building programs ever made in its wonderful short history.

MEETING OF AMERICAN LEGION LAST WEDNESDAY

A call meeting of the Allen Brothers Post No. 148 of the American Legion of Texas, was held in the district court room of the court house last Wednesday evening. A good sized crowd was in attendance, including a number of members from Slaton. Among other important matters and questions taken up at this meeting was that of the reading and adoption of the constitution and by-laws of this Post as drafted by a committee appointed at the meeting previous to this one.

Having been advised by State Headquarters of the Legion that the application of this Post for Charter had been approved and forwarded to National Headquarters, and authorized by the State Adjutant to go into permanent organization at this meeting, the next matter to come before this meeting was that of election of permanent officers. It was voted to elect all temporary officers as permanent ones, with the addition of Rev. W. A. Bowen as Post Chaplain.

Following this the members of the Executive Committee were elected. The Post by-laws provide that this committee shall be composed of seven members and the officers of the Post who are ex-officio members of the Committee. In accordance with this provision the following members were elected on this committee: Henry C. McGee, Slaton; C. M. Mullican, Lubbock; W. I. Kaykendall, Slaton; H. C. Jones, Slaton; C. B. Luker, Lubbock; Emmett B. Porter, Lubbock; W. M. Slagle, Lubbock.

Twenty-five new members, twenty-four of whom were from Slaton, were received into the Post at this meeting.

This Post has received a special compliment from the State Adjutant of the Legion on its charter membership of 112 members, stating that this is the largest charter membership that has been submitted to date. At the above meeting it was agreed to conduct a publicity campaign to acquaint our people with the nature and object of the Legion, and in this connection it was decided to also send a printed copy of the Constitution and by-laws of this Post to each member. This will be done at the earliest practicable date.

A meeting of the Executive Committee will be held in the court house Thursday evening, February 5, at 7 p. m., for the purpose of taking up matters of importance in connection with the development of this Post and its work.

ell, now in school at Denton, and one sister at home, Miss Elizabeth Sowell.

It had been my privilege to be Mr. Sowell's pastor for some two years and I ever found him to be a good christian man. He possessed a keen sense of honesty. He was free hearted and ever ready to help a friend. He loved his parents, and was much devoted to them. He loved his brothers and sisters in tender way. He was a devoted, loyal and true husband and father. It is sad that such a good, true, young man should meet an untimely death. But the consolation is that he had faith in Christ.

I express the appreciation of all the bereaved to those who are kind to sympathize in this sad hour. And also assure all the deceased's loved ones that they have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

By his friend and pastor,
J. F. NIX.

BUILDING IN LUBBOCK WILL OPEN WITH SPRING

It is the prediction of men who are studying the situation of housing in Lubbock that with the opening of spring weather building will start in our city unlike anything ever experienced in West Texas. With present prospects for bumper crops for the coming year, more and more people will come this way, as one prominent oil dealer who recently came to Lubbock says: "Men who are making money in the oil fields, know that there are just about as many men there who are losing it, therefore when they sell valuable oil property a great many seek other communities in which to place their money as an investment, at least that is what I did and I see other men doing likewise."

Most of the people who come to this country from the oil fields have made money there and come here with intentions of investing this money in property, that is on an agricultural basis, and not on land where "oil" might be found. There are coming here to establish homes.

Farms of Lubbock county will probably command a big premium the coming year. Town property will never seek the low levels of the past. Rent or tenant property will command large sums. Paving of the streets will bring probably hundreds of workers here, many who will establish homes here. "Under the present existing conditions," says one of our bankers, "building will be forced upon us, unlike anything of the past."

NEW PARSONAGE FOR FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The people of the First Christian Church of this city have recently awarded a contract to local men for the construction of a nice modern five-room bungalow to be the home of their pastor in this city. The building we are told will be erected near the church. Construction will start immediately.

Probably never before in the history of our city has there been so much activity among real estate holders, as between and country. A visit to the abstract plant on the main street, or to the real estate office of the city, will show a changing scene.

VISITING THE SCHOOLS IN LUBBOCK COUNTY

Last Friday, Jan. 30th, in company with Judge Moore, Miss Halsey and Mr. Mote, the writer left the city for the purpose of looking in on some of our county schools. The parties named above having a special mission to the schools in the county. Our first stop was at Monroe, an enterprising settlement 9 miles to the north of Lubbock. In the Monroe community is to be found one of the most magnificent brick school buildings in the county. A fine two-story structure, well equipped for doing excellent school work. Having one of the very best auditoriums of any building we know anything about in the county. The Monroe people have done themselves great credit in securing so splendid a building. The school work at Monroe is in charge of two fine and well equipped young ladies, Miss Irene Cox and Miss Greenhill. These young ladies, we are sure from what we were able to observe in just a short visit, are doing very fine work. One recitation given in history while we were present showed that both teachers and pupils were doing thorough work.

Our next stop was at Caldwell. This is a new but growing settlement about 15 miles northwest of Lubbock. These people are carrying on a splendid school in a large tent as centrally located as possible. Miss Leola Cox is teacher in charge of this fine brick school, in a tent. The writer heard of this very fine teacher and from the appearance of everything during our brief stay, we are sure it is all true. Miss Cox deserves credit and so do the people, for they are cheerfully meeting and dealing with what might be called difficult problems, under what is just now unfavorable conditions—conditions over which no one has control. They have, a good while ago, let the contract for a splendid brick building, and most of the material is on the ground and the building will be ready for that noble band in the not far distant future. Watch Caldwell, it is coming on the map as one of our most progressive school communities. One of the trustees remarked that they would have the school going if he had to move out of his home and give place to the school. Such people are the winning kind.

Our third and last school that day was at Grovesville, a fine progressive community. They have a splendid frame structure surrounded by a fine progressive citizenship in a fertile section of country. The school work is in charge of Prof. Dulaney, as principal and Miss Pinkerton, as assistant. These splendid teachers have a fine intelligent looking bunch of boys and girls to deal with and everything goes to show that a fine work is being done.

All the schools mentioned are kept in fine shape, and Judge Moore praised them for their pride in keeping the buildings so nice and clean. The mission of Judge Moore in addition to his work of Superintendent, with Mr. Mote, were endeavoring to interest the schools in some work in connection with the U. S. Army. The work being done by the U. S. Army along educational lines was given in an impressive way in splendid addresses by Judge Moore and Mr. Mote. Some of the things being done in the Army schools as given by Mr. Mote are as follows:

Young men are given training not only in the fundamentals of an education, but are given an opportunity of learning any of 22 different trades and professions, ranging all the way from truck driving to radio operating, and while this training is going on a good salary with all the necessities of life are given, board, medical treatment, and etc. And after a man has been in the Army service for 30 years, he is retired on a salary of or amounting to $90 per month. The government is also offering some very attractive prizes for the best essay to be written on the U. S. Army and its work. All school boys and girls being invited to enter the contest and in addition to the prizes offered by the government our local business men are offering attractive prizes for the same purpose.

In this connection we have it from reliable source that more of Lubbock's business firms responded to the call for local prizes and the total amount of prizes is greater than any other city in the territory comprising the Southwestern part of the State, which is quite an interesting feature and one hat is the cause of considerable comment among the recruiting parties here now, and places Lubbock in a class by herself in this as well as many other matters where the progressive and patriotic spirit is brought out.

A number of boys and girls in the three schools mentioned in this article pledged themselves to enter the contest.

Miss Halsey, in a quiet and impressive way, presented her work as county agent endeavoring to enlist as many as possible in pure bred poultry raising, in gardening and canning club work, etc. A number expressed the intention of entering on the Club work. One of the prizes in winning club girls in the county contest of last year is Thelma Stevenson, of Monroe. Most everyone knows Miss Halsey, wherever she goes, and the people in their attitude show that Miss Halsey is very popular among them. She is not only a most efficient home demonstration agent, but as the party or persons whom she furnished that fine trip will testify, she is a first class chauffeur.

C. OF C. GET-TOGETHER MEETING

AN INTERESTING MEETING HELD AT THE COURT HOUSE LAST THURSDAY EVENING.

LUBBOCK'S FUTURE IMPORTANCE WAS DISCUSSED

Mayor Parks Made a Statement Regarding the Successful Operation of City Utilities and Urged the Importance of Placing Good Men on Board of Commissioners to Carry Out Present Plans.

An interesting get-together meeting was held by the Chamber of Commerce last Thursday evening. E. L. Klett presided at the meeting and opened same with a brief talk regarding the importance of our business men and citizens occasionally coming together for the purpose of discussing matters and questions of general interest and importance to our city and community. This was followed by an interesting report on the recent meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Abilene by Geo. W. Briggs. Mr. Carroll Thompson, County Agricultural Agent, then gave a report on the district agricultural meeting held at Sweetwater on the 21st of last month. Mr. Thompson spoke in terms of hearty approval regarding the work already accomplished and being undertaken by this organization. Mr. French of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Company gave a brief but interesting talk relative to the restocking of the Panhandle and Western Texas with immunized high grade brood sows to the end that the raising of better hogs throughout this section may be stimulated. The next talk was given by Mayor C. E. Parks, in which he discussed the affairs of our city, financial and otherwise, and brought out a few of the things which should be avoided and guarded against in our future administration and management. Mr. Parks discussed our public utilities and the problem of maintaining them upon a sound and profitable basis. Mrs. Embry then made a short introductory talk relative to Lubbock's housing problem, in connection with which he emphasized the fact that people are daily coming to our city with a view to locating but often fail to do so because they cannot secure a house. A number of those present voluntarily offered to take stock in a housing or building co-operation composed of local business men for the purpose of constructing respectable rent houses in Lubbock. Mr. Embry's talk was supplemented by Messrs. Morgan of the Bowman Lumber Company, Wilson and Graves on the same subject. At a special request from the chairman Postman-ter Robbins made a brief talk on the necessity of naming and designating our streets. Mr. Robbins emphasized that this is particularly useful in view of our paving plans and the fact that we will in all probability desire free mail delivery service in our city in the near future. Mr. O. L. Slaton gave a very interesting short talk concerning our future Fair Park in which he emphasized its future usefulness and benefit to our city and community. The closing talk of the evening was one by J. E. Vickers regarding the necessity of formulating some plan by means of which our volunteer firemen can be reimbursed for their personal losses and damage to clothing in the fighting of our fires. Cigars were supplied by the Chamber of Commerce and all present voted the occasion a very helpful and interesting one.

Lyceum Course Secured for Next Fall

A call meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was recently held for the purpose of taking into consideration the question of securing some special lyceum numbers, through the Redpath Lyceum Bureau. Mr. Gordon Lang, who is representing the Redpath people in this section was present at this meeting and presented the offer and plan of his company to the board. Several important numbers were discussed and it was finally voted to book dates for Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, Judge Ben Lindsey and Miss Lodeacea Loveland, the latter a lyric soprano of much merit. It was impossible to determine the exact dates of these numbers, but the Board was assured that same would be some time between October of this year and March of next. These bookings were secured at a very nominal figure and the present plan is to sell season tickets for the three events at a reasonable price. Mr. W. E. Welch of Dallas, who is manager of the Texas Bureau, will have charge of all future arrangements for these events. These numbers should prove very attractive and in securing them Lubbock enjoys a distinction which can be claimed by only a few other of the principal cities of this section of our State.

TWO MEN INJURED BY AIRPLANE AT PLAINVIEW

Sunday afternoon two men were injured in an airplane wreck at Plainview and the following report of the accident is given from that place:
 The condition of Lee Boyd, of Plainview, who was injured in an airplane accident there Sunday afternoon, showed a decided improvement yesterday, according to a telephone message received last night.
 He was able to sit up in bed and talk with officials of the Panhandle Aerial Service and Transportation Company, and his complete recovery is thought to be only a matter of a few days.
 Plainview, Texas, Feb. 2.—Dropping slowly in a flat spin a distance of a thousand feet, a plane, under management of W. K. Whipple, was wrecked here at 4:30 Sunday afternoon. Lee Boyd, traveling salesman for a packing house, a passenger, received injuries about the head and is suffering from shock while Pilot Hines, who was in charge of the ship, is also in a local sanitarium suffering from a broken leg and cuts and bruises. A report from the hospital this morning stated that both patients had passed a most satisfactory night.
 It had not been determined today just what caused the accident and it is doubtful whether the real facts will ever be known. Characteristic of air accidents, neither of the principals remembers anything of what occurred prior to the crash.
 As soon as the affair had been reported in Amarillo, General Manager Whipple accompanied by S. M. Ramsey went to Plainview, and there saw to it that every possible service should be rendered both the patients. He expressed the deepest regret over the entire affair.
 "We are paying our pilots the highest salaries to be had for that class of work and we feel that we have the very highest class of men in charge of our ships," he said. "The very best of care is taken of the ships and our one rule is 'Never take a chance'.
 "Ships with which I have been connected in more than a year have carried around 8,000 passengers. The accident yesterday is the first in which a passenger ever received a scratch. All pilots have strict orders never to stunt a ship and the manner in which the plane behaved yesterday indicates that something occurred in the air over which the pilot had no control."
 Spectators said that the plane first appeared to be preparing to spiral down to the field, the pilot having cut off his gas. It did begin a spiral, but an instant later it straightened out and began to spin.
 A late telephone message from Mr. Whipple said that both patients continued to show improvement during the day.
 They report at Barrier Brothers Store that their buyers will be in the market about two weeks yet.

CHANDLER SIX
 Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Europe Welcomes The Chandler Six

NOW and then you read something about "French style and line" in automobiles, or perhaps it's "the newest English idea." And some folks have gone across to get the newest suggestions.

Europe hasn't built automobiles for five years and Europe is crying for new cars and good cars.

America's style is Europe's style now.

The Chandler Six, popular in many other countries for years but kept out of Europe the past three years because of war-time prohibition of shipments, is welcomed everywhere in Europe now—welcomed for the excellence of its performance, and quite as much for the beauty of its styles of body.

The Chandler, represented in the British Isles by Messrs. H. G. Burford & Company, Ltd., of London, was exhibited by that old established English automotive house, at the great Olympia Motor Show, and was "quite the sensation of the show," says a London cable. "Three hundred and seventy Chandlers were sold in two days."

Apparently England is greatly pleased with America's best style in motor cars.

WOMAN'S PRIMARY VOTE IS HELD VALID

Austin, Jan. 28.—The Texas woman's primary suffrage act was upheld today when the Supreme Court refused to grant a writ of error in the case of T. M. Hamilton vs. Lee R. Davis, tax collector of McLennan County. This action upheld the decision of the Third Court of Civil Appeals which declared the law constitutional.

The Supreme Court also upheld the act in another case today by answering a certified question sent by the Court of Civil Appeals at Galveston in the case of Mrs. Alma Koy vs. William Schneider, tax collector of Fayette County. The lower court asked the direct question as to whether or not the act is in conflict with the State constitution and the Supreme Court answered "that it is not."

The Supreme Court opinion, written by Justice T. B. Greenwood and concurred in by Justice W. E. Hawkins, held that the constitutional regulations of voters do not apply to primary elections. Chief Justice Nelson Phillips entered a dissenting opinion in which he held that the constitution regulates any election in Texas.

A STATEMENT FROM MR. W. P. FLORENCE

Slaton, Texas, Jan. 27, 1920.

Editor-Avalanche:

Will you please announce to the people of Lubbock and attached counties that I offer myself as a candidate for the office of county judge, subject to their action in the Democratic primaries, and if elected, will do my best to make their most faithful servant.

I am a native Texan and grew up in the cotton patches of Smith county. I farmed and taught school some years in Central Texas, from where I discovered the existence of such a country as the Staked Plains and Lubbock county in the year 1906. In that same year I made this my permanent home and have continued to boost the country with all my powers and especially have striven to build up its educational interests.

My occupation here in addition to teaching and boosting has been farming, trucking, dairying, and raising an extra large family. My talents incline especially toward the work assigned to the office of county judge and I am confident that I can do the job as well as any man in the county.

I am glad to remain your devoted servant.

BEGIN NOW TO PREPARE FOR FAIR.

It is not too early to begin making arrangements for the fair this fall.
There is a great deal to be done to get everything in line for a successful fair, and Lubbock should by all means have one that will far surpass anything that has ever been put on in the South Plains. We believe that, after the grounds are purchased as is provided by the special tax that was voted last fall, that an association should be organized for the building of suitable buildings, etc.

Let not fair time come along and again find Lubbock without a suitable place to hold the County Fair.

STEALING AND MURDER

Two negroes at Lubbock in the cotton fields last fall had an altercation and one killed the other. They were East Texas negroes. The jury which heard the trial last week imposed a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. But, hold your question. The usual suspended sentence was tacked onto the verdict.—Canadian Record.

Two boys stole automobiles and were given penitentiary sentences with no suspended sentence. Another boy stole a saddle and went right straight to the penitentiary. Another boy stole a calf and was rushed off to the pen. Several men have been killed in Lubbock county within the past few years. Most of the accused have been found guilty and nearly everyone have been given a suspended sentence. That's the difference between stealing and murder in the courts of the land today. This is not only true in Lubbock county, but all over the State. The suspended sentence law may be alright in a few—we will admit many, but it is certainly abused, and many men are loose today that should be paying the penalty of confinement.

MUCH IN A FARM NAME.

Did you ever see a rundown farm with an attractive name? Do you know of any farmers who have thought enough of their farms to name them and then impoverish the soil and leave the farmstead without trees, shrubs, plants and an attractive setting?

There may be such examples, but it is safe to say that they are few and unimportant, so far as arguing that naming the farm is not worth while. But there are many examples of beautiful, comfortable homes, fertile soil, purebred animals, standard bred poultry, and most of all, ambitious and successful young people, living on farms with names.

The name often has much to do with the pride, the ambition and the contentment of young people on the farm. They generally find opportunity on such a farm equal to or better than wages or salary in the city.
But there is an additional reason for giving the farm an appropriate name.
That is a business reason. Successful farmers have products—livestock, poultry, fruit, crops and other articles for sale. And success depends in a large measure upon the sale of these products. The farm name, if it be safeguarded and reinforced by the honor, integrity and pride of the farm owner, helps market what is produced on the farm. It is possible thus to build up a trade for worthy articles—crops or animals—and reduce marketing cost to a minimum.

LUBBOCK IS AS LARGE AS SHE CAN BE

This is the true situation with Lubbock just now. She is as large as she can be until some more residence houses are built. Everything is full. Not a vacant house in the city that is fit to live in and many people are living in houses that are hardly fit to make a home in. What is to be done? People are wanting to come to Lubbock, but they cannot find a place to live. This is a matter that should have the attention of the leaders in town building. It is a matter that means as much for the future of the city, as any one thing confronting the future development of the city at the present time; yet if there is anything being done to relieve the situation we are not aware of it. Lubbock needs a hundred or more good tenant houses. Not the little poorly built kind that many people think about when tenant houses are mentioned, but the kind that people can live in and have accommodation, and live comfortably.
Many traveling salesmen would make Lubbock their headquarters if they could get suitable houses in which to place their families, and they are a class of people who want real nice comfortable buildings with pleasant surroundings. They are willing to pay a reasonable rental, and would make investments profitable to people who will build such houses.

We are of the opinion that the man with surplus money could make good returns from it by putting it into buildings of this kind.

Build more houses. The people want to come to Lubbock.

WHAT DO WITH THE NEGROES?

This is a question that now confronts Lubbock. For many years no negroes were allowed to come here, but the home-help proposition got to a point where it seemed that this was the only solution, and now the town is full of negroes—all kinds. Some are working for private families and live in the servant house furnished by the employer. Others are here and work here and there at first one job and another and have to have some place to live and as a result they rent shacks and are living all over the city, next door neighbor to white folks, and this is not at all agreeable to many people, besides it is detrimental to the sale of property in neighborhoods where this condition exists. And, further more where there is a vacant house, owned by someone who does not have any regard for the moral of the community, may rent it to colored folks, whether this building be next door to your house or mine, and we are forced to live there side by side with probably a noisy dirty family of negroes.

In all probability the time has come when our city must designate a certain portion of the city for these people to build their home and live, separate and apart from the balance of us. We do not know whose duty it is to do this, and we do not know whether this is the best solution, but there is going to be trouble if the present conditions continue. People are not going to stand for negro neighbors, and if there is not regulations made by the proper authorities, there is liable to be regulations of a private nature, which should be avoided if possible. And further, if the negro is going to stay here they should educate their children and there should be a school for them, which they can demand and will demand, so there are several things that will come up for consideration in this connection. What are we going to do with the negroes?

The editor of the Avalanche is no saint—we have no indication of sprouting any wings, and we are not much of an editorial writer, but we pause in the busy rush of editorial duties to state that the Plainview News and Lockney Beacon editors who are the leading editorial writers (they acknowledge it themselves) of the plains get on some of the contest stuff in their editorial columns that we find in any papers that comes to our exchange table. They are continually discussing the dress styles of the women folks and the lowness of the cut of the dress neck and the shortness of the skirts seems to bother the two men very much.
We agree that the styles in many instances are ridiculous and decency is no longer considered, and great reform is certainly needed, and will probably come when the women get of Phunnygraphs between the two been doing for the past few months is not calculated to bring about reminds of their readers.

Editor Shelton of the Rotan Advance, says he has been having a time the past week with all the members of his family sick with the flu, except himself. He has been having to edit the Advance, gather the news, set the type, run the presses, wait on the sick, cook, wash dishes, listen to the complaints of his customers on account of being slow getting out their work and possibly a hundred other things that he failed to mention, and still he is able to boost Rotan. Verily the editor of the paper deserves a monument to his memory erected in the most prominent place in the town.

Lubbock is a dirty looking place viewing it from the railroad. There should be a general cleaning up in that part of the town adjoining the right of way. And many other parts of the city could stand some cleaning up.

There is quite a building craze on among the churches of the city just now. Good for Lubbock church people. Our city has suffered long on account of the inadequate church buildings. It looks though now that every denomination will have a building in the near future commensurate to their needs. Buildings ranging from $50,000 down to $25,000 are being planned and funds raised for their construction.

Cheapness in Electrical Work Seldom Brings Satisfaction

There are so many ways that electrical work may be "skimped" by unreliable workmen that for your own protection you should see that your wiring is done by a thoroughly reliable firm.

Our policy has not been to see how close we can come to the minimum standard and "get by." We aim rather to give you BETTER WORK than is absolutely required—thus assuring you of complete satisfaction, for the future as well as for today.

Work will begin in the early future.

It will be remembered that the garage which Mr. Tudor was managdays ago. The new building will be constructed on the same lots formerly occupied by the old garage.

Mr. Dane also reports there are other brick business houses in course of plans in Brownfield, of which he thinks the contracts will be awarded to him. Altogether about forty or fifty thousand dollars of nice brick houses is planned to be erected there soon.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

This is to advise you of the death of H. J. Ferwerder, formerly of Ralls Texas, but recently of Beloit, Wis., holding certificate No. 387, and his wife has been paid $900.00. Each member is hereby assessed $1.00 with which to pay the next death call, and this amount should be paid to R. A. Holland, Secy., or left at The Lubbock State Bank of Lubbock, Texas, by February 14th, 1920, or you will stand suspended.

Mr. Ferwerder has been a member for more than two years and has paid only four calls. It is not necessary to say that the Association is in fine shape, having no death claims to pay since Dec. 9, 1918. WE HAD RATHER PAY THE DOLLAR THAN TO HAVE IT PAID TO US.

If you want a receipt bring or send this notice with 1c stamp. Don't forget. Don't delay, but send remittance promptly. Stay with us and send us a friend's application. It will make your policy worth $1.00 more. R. A. Holland, Secy., Lubbock Mutual Aid Assn.

A LEOPARD CANNOT CHANGE ITS SPOTS

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile-like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

Chris Harwell

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES

"We make right that which is not right", a popular motto used in our city now by a popular store, had its origination here several years ago, or to be exact when Chris Harwell, present owner and manager of the Chris Harwell Grocery, was in the Men's Furnishing business. Mr. Harwell as we all know, has lived up to that motto which he likes, and for that in part he now gives due credit for his growing Grocery business.

"Keeping down overhead expenses" is another attribute of business qualification which Mr. Harwell has attained during the thirty or more years of his life that he has stood behind the counter waiting upon the needs of his customers. "The secret of the success of most men in business today" thinks Mr. Harwell, can be traced back to the date, small overhead expenses were expelled.

We doubt very much if there is a man in business in our city who is as well known as he is. And the thriving business he now enjoys is accountable to a large degree to the numerous friends he has made in his acquaintances.

Mr. Harwell came to Lubbock from San Angelo about fifteen years ago. The first nine years of his business career in our city was spent as manager of the gent's furnishing department of the Lubbock Mercantile Co. Soon after leaving this firm Mr. Harwell was elected to the responsible position of County Treasurer, which office he held for two years in connection with his gent's furnishing store which he owned, now operated on West Broadway by L. E. Hunt & Co. It was during these two years that the Court House was under construction and after its completion, Mr. Harwell served the next two years in the capacity of County Treasurer in the new court house building. In 1918 at the expiration of his second term as County Treasurer he retired—later opening the Hugh L. Henry store on North Post Office Street, which was closed account of bankruptcy. Only a short time did Mr. Harwell remain in the Hugh L. Henry location. Along toward the middle of last summer he secured quarters in the Hy-Style building and there remained until his business had grown until he was forced in order to properly care for it to seek larger quarters. The first of December the past year found Mr. Harwell moved to his new present enviable location in the old Post Office building on North Post Office Street in the Merrill Hotel building.

In the present building Mr. Harwell is amply able to care for all trade. Extensive shelving, filled with brands of the most popular kinds. Clean and sanitary conditions, ample storage room gives Mr. Harwell one of the best grocery establishments in the city.

Produce, such as eggs, etc., are kept in stock fresh. Fruits and vegetables of most every kind are found here in season. In fact everything that the housewife wishes can be found in this popular grocery store.

Mr. Harwell is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and has been since its creation, has contributed freely to the upbuilding of the city of Lubbock, such as contributions for encouraging the building of the Santa Fe railway in this country and has bought liberally of the Government Bonds during the great strife, which all in all gives to any one who is not acquainted with Chris Harwell the impression that he is a good man to deal with.

You are cordially invited to trade with Chris Harwell.

America's Greatest Need

America must increase its dairy herds. There are only 24,000,000 milch cows in the United States today, as compared with about 35,000,000 in 1914. Dairy cows by the millions have been slaughtered for food, by Denmark, Sweden and Norway particularly. All Europe's dairy herds have been sadly reduced.

This country must provide and sell dairy products to all Europe. We need more than 45,000,000 milch cows to do this adequately.

The farmer who increases his dairy herd now is not only doing his duty to the world, but is certain to profit in a big way.

This should interest this community. Is it going to benefit by owning more and better dairy cattle. We have the land to feed them on, we have the brains to care for them and take the profit. This bank has the money to finance their purchase if our assistance is needed.

Come in and let's talk this dairy problem over.

DALLAS NEWS WRITER VISITS BROTHER HERE

F. A. Briggs, brother of our townsman, Geo. W. Briggs, spent a day or so here the past week visiting. Mr. Briggs is connected with the Dallas News, and is making a tour of this section and the oil fields, and is writing some special articles for the News in this connection. He made a thorough investigation of the gas fields around Amarillo and says this is the biggest gas area that has been discovered for a long time and it is estimated that the gas fields of Amarillo will cover an area of a hundred miles square. His principal business in Lubbock was to visit his brother. He first visited Lubbock some eight years ago, and of course sees some great changes in the city since then. He says we have a dandy town here.

Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs
in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellions; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

HOGS HIGHER WITH CATTLE AND SHEEP LOWER

Kansas City Stock Yards, Feb. 2.—Last week's break in hog prices cut receipts below expectations, and caused an upturn in the market. Cattle receipts were above the early estimate and trade ruled dull at lower prices. Declines occurred elsewhere. Prices for sheep and lambs were 25 to 50 cents lower than the extreme high point last week. Lambs sold up to $20.65.

Today's Receipts.
Receipts today were 20,000 cattle, or 2000 larger than a week ago, and 7000 larger than a year ago. Hog receipts 11,000, were 5000 smaller than a week ago, and 6500 less than a year ago. Sheep receipts showed a decrease of 4500 compared with a week ago, and an increase of 3500 compared with a year ago.
Beef Cattle.
Cattle fat enough for killing purposes were in liberal supply today. They sold mostly 10 to 15 cents, extremes as much as 25 cents off. Other markets reported liberal supplies and lower prices. Trade was dull all round, and the market has lost the temporary gain it made last week owing to light receipts. Short fed steers at $12.25 to $13.50, showed most of the decline. Some low priced steers were nearly steady. Cows and heifers were steady to 15 cents lower, selling largely at $8 to $9.50. "Canners" brought $5.50 to $6, and cutters $6.25 to $7.50. Veal calves were 25 cents lower at $8 to $16.50.

Stockers and Feeders.
Some of the best stockers and feeders brought steady prices, but a liberal supply was available, and most of the offerings sold slowly at weak prices. The spread in prices was about the same as a week ago.

Hogs.
Hog prices today were 10 to 25 cents higher. Shippers paid the big part of the advance and packers prices were up 10 to 15 cents compared with Saturday. The top price was $15.40, and the bulk of the offerings brought $14.85 to $15.25. Light receipts caused the advance. However, the market in Chicago closed dull, with a large number held over unsold.

Sheep and Lambs.
Opening bids for sheep and lambs were 25 cents lower, and late sales were down 50 cents. Chicago broke $1.00 and Buffalo $2.00. The top price for lambs here was $20.65, and late sales were mostly at $19.50 to $20.50. Practically no fat sheep were offered. Feeding grades were scarce.

Horses and Mules.
Liberal supplies of horses and mules were available for this week's auction. A large number of buyers were here, and indications are for a big volume of business this week.

E. L. TARVER

QUICK SERVICE FILLING STATION

In taking over the business of the Quick Service Filling Station in this city about the 1st of December, 1919, Mr. Tarver, present owner and manager determined to build up a business which had once been good, but on account of the many changes in ownership had decreased until it was hardly a paying proposition. It is upon the theory that the public likes to know who they are dealing with and that they know in advance what they might expect that Mr. Tarver hopes to create a good business and is creating it.

Like many men who are successful in business Mr. Tarver first realizes what the public desires and therefore is in a position to give to them desired service. There have been so many Service Stations created to rob the public since the advent of the automobile that it now takes a man who can inspire confidence in the customers to make a success.

Mr. Tarver is managing what we really believe an up-to-date auto service station. Oils, accessories, gasoline, repair work, and in a manner pleasing to his customers. "That Good Gulf Gasolene" comes from the filling station here. Magnolene and Supreme Oil—considered two of the most popular brands of oils—are sold at the Quick Service Filling Station. Besides this a neat electric lighted cement driveway is provided where the customer can conveniently drive to the station, out of the sun, or the rain to have their cars filled, greased, overlooked by expert mechanics and repaired if necessary.

Vulcanizing, one of the modern methods of prolonging the life of tires and tubes—two accessories which are considered the most expensive for the upkeep of the car, is another of the conveniences to be had by the Quick Service Filling Station. This department of the Quick Service Filling Station is in charge of Mr. Webb, recently of Waco, Texas. Mr. Webb is considered one of the best authorities on vulcanizing in West Texas. With his modern equipment with which to do this work they are glad to guarantee every job to be perfect in workmanship.

In connection with a modern Service Station, Mr. Tarver has secured the agency for the Gates Half-Soles, Tires and Tubes. The Gates Half Soles for old tires is universally recognized as one of the most economical means for lowering the upkeep cost of cars. These tires when properly applied are guaranteed to be puncture proof and to give five thousand miles of service. By costing probably half as much as new tires and making the tire oversize the customer is assured of saving money. Not only Gates Half Soles are sold here. Gates Tires and Tubes, recognized as standard and sold accordingly, are kept in stock.

By the employment at the present time of five expert workmen we see the progress that Mr. Tarver is making toward building up a great Service Station in our city. This will be readily seen by the exacting automobile owners and in a short time we shall see the Quick Service Station one of the most popular repair plants, filling station and sales store in the city.

Automobile owners of the South Plains are requested to try the new management and test the "Iron Clad" guarantee that goes with every piece of work or article put out by the Quick Service Station.

It was a complete surprise but they soon recovered from the shock, and gave their friends a most hearty welcome, assuring them that their visit, also the stack of eatables, found on their dining table, were thankfully received and much appreciated. All present were in high glee, and after an hour spent in lively conversation interspersed with piano and Edison music, took their departure, expressing their hope that their next visit to the pastor and family might be in a brand new parsonage. The wish having been proudly expressed by the pastor in a little talk to the crowd.

Are Girls More Refined by Nature Than Boys--Kindergarten

By Professor M. V. O'Shea, The University of Wisconsin.

There is a popular belief that boys are crude and rather vulgar by nature. This tradition has become established because girls, after the age of three or four at any rate, seem to be more refined than boys in speech and in manners. But the difference may not be a native one; it may be due to differences in training and especially in environment and companionship.

From early childhood boys are subjected to rough associations from which girls are protected. Boys are permitted to hear obscene language, which girls, speaking generally, never hear. Vulgar people try to restrain their coarseness when a girl is present, but they never think of doing so before a boy. Even in public performances, as in the theatre, obscenity is often indulged in if only men are present, whereas little if anything of the kind would occur before girls or women. Lewd actions are exhibited before boys and men; while girls are never admitted to places where such actions are permitted.

If boys as well as girls were guarded from vulgarity and their activities rightly directed, society would hold the same moral standard for men and women. The late Speaker Cannon held the same standard and the following story is pertinent. At a stag dinner where he was once toast-master, a certain congressman prefaced a vulgar story with the words, "As no ladies are present, I will tell the following story."

"Pardon me, you may omit that part of your remarks," interrupted Speaker Cannon, "though no ladies are present, many gentlemen are."

Public sentiment always requires that the environment of the girl be more wholesome and refined than that of the boy. If boys are more susceptible, why are they not safeguarded? Will someone who is in the habit of ascribing native vulgarity to boys please answer this question?

Thoughtless, though doubtless well meaning people are constantly seeking to improve the environment of girls so as to keep their thoughts, feelings and conduct wholesome, sweet and refined, but they let boys grow up under debasing conditions and then lament over the fact that they are not naturally refined and scrupulous about their speech and manners. Many parents expend more time and money in getting nice-clothes for a daughter than for a son and then wonder why he is not so particular as she is about his appearance. The result of this general indifference to a boy's esthetic nature is, of course, that the boy, as a rule, is coarser in his thought, speech and action than the girl. But is the difference due to sex or to the fact that we neglect the boy and permit him to look out for himself with the result that he is often subjected to vicious suggestion? It is a wonder that, take boys as they go, they are not worse than they are.

Come to the market held by the Baptist Woman's Auxiliary, Saturday Feb. 7th, at F. K. Mitchell's confectionery. You will find many good things already prepared for your Sunday dinner.

IDALOU SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT

Song—"Ring Merry Bells"—Glee Club.
Song—"Beautiful Isle"—Glee Club.

Reading—Casper Smith.
Reading—Esther Dennis.
Song—Down Rainbow Lane—Five Girls.

Duet—"Mammy's Lullaby"—Dollie Wheeler and Bessie McCurdy.
Reading—"Experience in Arkansas"—Mr. Watkins.

Speech—Mr. Dupre.
The Idalou School, as well as the other people here, is rejoicing over getting the seats for the auditorium. We also have the stage curtains.

Several of the Idalou High School students have organized a tennis team. The girls have their basket ball, too. So now the pupils have something to entertain themselves with besides "come through".

The speech made by Mr. Dupre was enjoyed by all who were present Friday night, especially the three junior girls. We also enjoyed Mr. Watkins "Experience in Arkansas". We hope to have them both with us again.

Two of the teachers, Miss Bratcher and Mrs. Haines, were on the "flu" list today so Mrs. T. S. McCurdy is teaching one room and Mr. Beene is teaching Miss Bratcher's room and his also. It is hoped by all that the teachers will recover soon and be back at their work.

We are all very glad that Mr. Turner and family are recovering from the influenza.

Mr. T. L. Holt secured one day last week the service of another fine little girl to assist in keeping the store. Of course it will be some time before the little one will enter into active work.

A farewell party was given Herbert Teal the evening of January 20th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Sherrod. About thirty of his young friends gathered at the home where they indulged in different games, after which some very delicious home-made candy was served. All left at an early hour declaring a real pleasant evening and hoping Mr. Teal success at his school in Dallas.

Mr. B. Sherrod is speeding rather fast now as he has purchased a new Oakland Six instead of another jitney.

The Canyon boys played the Idalou boys in basket ball Friday afternoon. The score was 16 to 10 in Canyon's favor.

A very small crowd was present Sunday afternoon. Most of the main leaders absent. We were glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Morris, of Lubbock, present.

Rev. Oldham held his regular appointment at the Sunday morning and night services.

Roosevelt said that extravagance rots character; it's hard on the pocketbook also. Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps are the best medicine for a sick purse. A flat pocketbook flattens out one's chances for success. War Savings Stamps will make that same flat pocketbook bulge out like it had had a Christmas dinner.

LAY SERMON

A young lad, the son of a prominent Texas business man, had just been operated upon in the St. Paul Sanitarium at Dallas. The surgeons had done their work and the patient still deeply under the influence of the anaesthetic, was carried back to his room. The father of the lad, with the old family physician had brought the boy to the sanitarium the day before from an East Texas town. The case was especially a desperate one, made doubly so by the trip and the unavoidable delay. The mother was left at home on advice of the physician.

The father followed the old doctor out of the room where his son lay almost lifeless. Taking the doctor by the hand and looking him straight in the eyes he said: "Now, Frank, no dissembling. I want to know my boy's chance for life. Our old friendship entitles me to get a truthful answer. You were present during the operation and you know all the circumstances of his illness and you know it is probably my fault that the case was allowed to progress to the present desperate condition. You know how I love that boy and you know what his death will mean to his mother. But I must know the truth. Will my boy live?"

The old doctor hesitated a moment and said: "Bill, your boy has one chance and one only. The surgeons think it a slender one. I do not. Under ordinary circumstances your boy would not live forty-eight hours. But, do not tremble so old friend, I feel sure the one chance will pull your boy through. Here is his chance, Bill: I have been a physician in your family and his mother's family for more than fifty years. I know the blood that flows in your boy's veins and there is not a drop stained by dissipation on either side for generations. Your boy will have a hard, hard fight, you may despair many times, but in the opinion of the old family doctor that knows all about you, he will win the fight. And he will win. Bill, because you and yours have seen fit to live right."

The father said afterwards that what the old doctor told him that day as he listened to the heavy breathing and moans of his son in the next room, paid him the greatest dividend he had ever received in his life. The boy is now a healthy youngster in the State University.

The object of the sermon today is to try to prove that it pays to be a gentleman.—Marshall News.

PROGRESSIVE ITEMS FROM HALE CENTER COMMUNITY

Hale Center, Jan. 30.—The Hale Center Chamber of Commerce elected officers for the coming year at its meeting held in the high school auditorium Monday night.

G. H. Bryant was made president; J. M. Cooley, vice president and Guy R. Scott of the Record, secretary and treasurer.

The executive committee and the chairmen of various committees will be named at a meeting to be held Monday night, February 9th.

A committee was appointed to take up the matter of petitioning for an election to vote to incorporate Hale Center for municipal purposes. A census of the town will be taken to see if the committee has the required number of people.

A committee was also named to confer with the commissioners' court and ascertain why the Hale Center precinct is not allowed to use one of the county graders more than it has been.

The members of the Chamber of Commerce are live wires and are very loyal in their work for the community.

Hale Center people are to make a move to have a cotton gin in time to handle the next crop, as considerable cotton will be planted in that community this spring. A meeting will be held at the school house there Tuesday night to take action relative to building a gin, and every citizen of the community is urged to attend.

Rev. Gordon Lang was in Hale Center yesterday in behalf of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau, and closed a contract for a six-number lyceum course at that place for next fall and winter. It will be given for the benefit of the school.

COUNTIES IN WEST TEXAS PLAN LARGER FAIRS THIS FALL

Cisco, Texas, Jan. 29.—West Texas is scheduled to out rival any other section of the State this year in the number of county and district agricultural fairs which it will hold, says a representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The San Angelo Fair, which has missed but one time since its inception, plans greater things this year. Plans are being laid for an immense exposition that will far outdistance anything hitherto attempted.

San Saba, the capital of Pecanland, held a successful fair in 1919, and this season will hold a better exposition on Aug. 10 to 13. In addition to a fair it will be an encampment. Many hundreds of homesekers are expected to come to San Saba on these dates.

The Central West Texas Fair is coming back this Fall. The plans for it are already being laid. This fair drew thousands of visitors from the time it was started until its last exhibition the year before the war. Prosperity everywhere about Abilene insures large crowds.

Amarillo and other Panhandle towns are determined that this Fall shall find them with their fairs up to the top-notch of design and success. Many fair associations are improving their properties and putting in additions.

The secret of a certain political movement in Texas is the effort to gain control of the delegation from this state to the National Democratic Convention. The Texas women who pay poll taxes will have the opportunity to assist in the selection of these delegates—and they know their friends and also their opponents. It will not be the first time the women of Texas have brought political plotters to grief.

FIRE ESCAPE LAW TO BE ENFORCED

Austin, Texas, January.—Following a conference with Assistant Attorney General C. W. Taylor, it was announced by State Fire Marshal Wallace English that steps will be taken at once to file complaints against violators of the fire-escape law in this State, of which there are quite a number, according to statistics in the office of the Fire Insurance Commission.

Robert L. Pollard, chief inspector of the commission, was also present in the conference with reports showing buildings which have not complied with the law.

Mr. English says a generous amount of time has been allowed for compliance with the law and that the dangers can not be ignored. He says a vigorous campaign of prosecution, aided by the Attorney General, will be started within the next few days.

All buildings two stories in height must have fire escapes if used as a hospital, school dormitory or for lodging purposes. Two escapes are required for lot area of less than 10,000 feet and one escape for each additional 5,000 feet. Wooden stairs accessibly located, are permitted for two-story buildings, but no ladders, wooden or steel.

Every new building from three to five stories must have a fire escape for each 5,000 lot area and for those of six stories or more the number of cases is doubled.

For buildings of three stories or over iron stairways outside are permitted as well as fireproof stairways inside properly inclosed. Such buildings may use spiral or the straight chute type of escape, but ladders are prohibited.

John Deere Disc Plow—John Deere Pony Disc Plow Especially Built for Texas

The John Deere Disc Plow opens a full width furrow of uniform depth the first and every time around the field, and makes deep, square corners, turning either right or left—convenient levers make this fine work possible.

Cut of each disc can be set at 8, 10 or 12 inches—the design of the frame permits this.

Plow is held to its work by weight of driver and down-pull of team on the hitch—not by useless weight on the frame.

Adjustable scrapers keep discs clean and assist in turning and pulverizing the soil.

The John Deere Disc Plow is furnished as a one, two or three-disc plow.

24-inch discs are the regular size discs for the John Deere.

The John Deere Pony Disc Plow is built so that positive and even penetration is assured at all times.

Spring hitch plate—advantageous when plowing in rough, uneven ground or across irrigation ditches. Plow does not jump out of ground.

Best quality steel discs. Set to insure best work, easy penetration and perfect pulverizing of the ground.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught, Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Wingfield, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gestos, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theodor's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would promptly relieve the trouble. Often in the spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regularly until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Theodor's, the original and genuine. B 79

SUPREME COURT DENIES POOL HALL MEN NEW HEARING

Washington, Feb. 2.—The death knell of pool halls in Texas was sounded by Chief Justice White of the United States supreme court today, when he denied a motion of super-seedeas which if granted would have brought the Texas pool hall case to the supreme court. The chief justice announced curtly: Motion is denied.

Further than that no statement was made by the court. The motion was filed by Robert L. Brooks, William Carter and H. P. Witherspoon, of Amarillo, et al.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The supreme court today denied motion made upon behalf of the various Texas pool and billiard room owners to enjoin temporarily state officials from enforcing the State act of 1919 prohibiting such places, pending final determination by the court of appeals involving the statute's validity. Lower courts held the act constitutional.

DALLAS, FEB. 2.—ACTION BY THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT TODAY IN REFUSING A RESTRAINING ORDER IN THE TEXAS POOL HALL CASE WILL HAVE THE EFFECT OF CLOSING ALL POOL AND BILLIARD ESTABLISHMENTS IN THE STATE UNTIL THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE ANTI-POOL HALL ACT IS FINALLY DETERMINED, IN THE OPINION OF OFFICIALS HERE.

CENSUS TAKERS ARE NOW USING AEROPLANES

Everything from aeroplanes to snowshoes is being used by the agents of Uncle Sam in taking the 1920 census of the United States. About the only modern method of transportation either on, over, or below land or water that has not been employed in enumerating Uncle Sam's nieces and nephews seems to be the submarine.

Aeroplanes have come in handy in enumerating the dwellers on the islands off the coast of Florida; yachts and rowboats have been used in the harbors of the country; native canoes have been in demand among the Hawaiian Islands; "fliers" are being used everywhere; the tried and trusted mule team has carried the census takers out on the desert regions; and snowshoes have become the trusted aides of the census gatherers in the northern states and Alaska.

FORMER LUBBOCK MAN KILLED NEAR HEREFORD

W. B. Sowell, son of W. L. Sowell, of this city, was shot dead last Sunday morning at his farm near Hereford. John Barrett, a man whom the deceased had been working with for some time, notified the officers of his county, directly following the shooting, we are told and surrendered to them.

Reports are that the deceased after farming together during the past year with Barrett had some trouble regarding the division of the crop or settlement on the sale, and it is thought a quarrel preceded the shooting.

The deceased was thirty five years of age and met his death upon his thirty-fifth birthday. His body was shipped here Tuesday night and held for burial by the Rix Furniture and Undertaking Company. Interment was made Wednesday afternoon in the Lubbock Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Bowen, pastor of the Baptist church. Deceased leaves a wife and small son to mourn his untimely death.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MET

The University Interscholastic League Executive Committee met in Lubbock last Saturday and went over matters pertaining to the meet that will be held here in the spring. The date set was April 16-17, when some fifteen counties will be represented here to compete for honors. The committee is composed of M. M. Dupre of this city, Mr. Paddy of Plainview, and Mr. Martin, of Crosbyton.

The program for the occasion will be made known in due time.

Lubbock will be called upon to entertain a large number of school pupils and teachers during this meet, and our people should arrange to take care of every one that comes. This is a great honor Lubbock has of entertaining this meeting—an honor that many other towns in the district would be happy to have.

OUSLEY WARNS AGAINST PLANTING ALL COTTON

College Station, Texas, Jan. 23.—Clarence Ousley, former director of extension of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, is a visitor here today. He came from Washington to Texas, arriving in Houston last Sunday to aid in placing before the farmers of Texas the 1920 farm program passed at the Waco meeting of the State Council of Agriculture Dec. 11.

Mr. Ousley attributed the present prosperity in Texas to the raising of sufficient food and feedstuff and not to the price of cotton, and said that "if we reversed this order in 1920 and planted all cotton we will have a hard time all for bread and meat even if the price of the staple is 40c or more." He will go to Houston tomorrow to address the Texas Association for Agricultural Legislation.

Canyon, Jan. 27.—Miss Corrine Richards, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richards, of Stanton, Texas, and a student of the West Texas Normal College, died this afternoon at 3:20 o'clock at the residence of J. C. Jenkins, from pneumonia.

TWO CHILDREN POISONED FROM EATING CANDY

Ethel Loree, age four years, eight months, and Lila Odel, age two years, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, living near Aiken, thirteen miles east of Plainview, died Monday night at 7 and 10 o'clock, from peculiar symptoms. It was first thought that they might be victims of the peculiar disease that last week broke out in certain towns in Oklahoma, but it is now thought that they were poisoned by eating some candy.

Two days before Mr. Johnson bought some candy and took it home to the children, and they ate it. The older girl became sick soon afterward, and a day or so later the smaller one was also taken sick. Both of them had severe spells of vomiting. They were drowsy and listless and the sickness was different from ordinary poisoning.—Plainview News.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Irma Pryor.)

There is a great deal of flu among the school pupils. Several of the Seniors have the flu, among whom are Mary Dickinson, Julia Jennings, Irene Lowrey, Margaret Dupre, and Hubert Burgess.

Miss Stella Thurman, one of the eighth grade teachers has the flu. So far none of the pupils seem to be seriously sick and we are hoping that they will all be back in school in a few days.

Mr. Dupre announced in chapel last Wednesday morning that he had secured Mr. Thomas Elmore Lucey, who is a poet, actor, singer, humorist, and an impersonator, for Friday night, March 19, 1920. The admission will be twenty-five cents for school pupils and fifty cents for adults. The proceeds of the entertainment, after Mr. Lucey is paid, are to go to the Geo. M. Hunt grammar school and the high school, one half to each school. One-half of the money that goes to each school is to be used in buying athletic equipment, the other half goes to the Library Fund. This money is much needed and every one who has ever heard Mr. Lucey, knows that he speaks well. So everyone come out and enjoy a good entertainment and also help the school.

Friday afternoon the Lubbock High School basket ball team went to Littlefield and played the Littlefield team. The score was thirty-six to twenty, in favor of Lubbock. Our men appreciate the courteous treatment shown them by the Littlefield team.

The Choral Club had a good practice Wednesday morning, although there were several absent. The Choral Club will render a program next Wednesday morning in chapel.

BIG BRICK TO BE HOME OF BUICK GARAGE SOON

J. H. Moore has recently let a contract to Sam Dane, local contractor, for the erection of a large one-story brick building on lots 12 and 13 blk. 105. Construction will start we are told as soon as material and labor can be found and completion is to be made by the first of the coming May.

The new building which will be located one block north of the court house, facing the west, will be of brick construction, cement floors and metal ceiling, as nearly fire-proof as possible, with plate glass frontage. More than 8000 square feet of available storage, display and repair room will be afforded in the new building which will make it the largest one-story building in our city. Everything possible to make a modern garage will be added to the new building, we are told. Altogether the new building will cost about $20,000.

Messrs. Tubbs and Winn, owners and managers of the Buick garage, have secured the new building for the home of the Buick Agency in Lubbock. New machinery and other like improvement will be built in the new home and many things done to make it attractive. BIFF!

Stop jolting Liver and Bowels with violent drugs, but take "Cascarets."

"Dynamiting" bile out of your system with calomel and other sickening purgatives is all wrong. Salts, Oil, and Cathartic Waters act by flooding the bowels with the digestive juices which are vital to the stomach. Cascarets are different. They act as a tonic to the bowel muscles, which is the only sensible way to relieve a bilious attack, a sour, acid stomach, or constipated bowels. There is no gripping or inconvenience. You naturally return to regularity and cheerfulness. Cascarets cost very little and they work while you sleep.

ALL CLASSES MUST FIGHT FOR LOWER PRICES

Washington, Feb. 2.—Elimination of useless employes in non-productive business, speeding up of industry commensurate with the present activity of the farmers and determination of retailers and jobbers to exact only a reasonable profit were recommended as a solution for the high cost of living problem by Edwin T. Meredith on taking the oath of office today, as secretary of agriculture.

The cost of living problem, he asserted, cannot be solved through efforts of one class, but all business and all labor must recognize the solution as a common duty or "less and less will there be of farm produce to divide among the people and higher and higher will go the price of that produced."

"Farmers of America," said the secretary, "are willing to assume their part of the responsibility in meeting any problem threatening the welfare and stability of our country, but this high cost of living problem is a mutual one and they ask that it be approached by all the people as a common problem. They ask that those engaged in distribution eliminate the lost motion and not put so great a burden upon production as there is upon it today."

In other words, they ask that there be an adequate number of producers of wealth, and this includes property and food of all kinds and only such distributors as is necessary to perform the services required.

They ask that the banks, railroads, wholesale houses, retail establishments, factories, all of which are vitally necessary to the farmer and recognized by him as such, be speeded up along with him, that the work now done by three men may be done, if possible by two and the burden of transportation and distribution be thereby lightened.

"Business men must look to the operation of their establishments and see that no useless employe is retained to add to the cost of distributing what the farmer now produces. Useless employes must be released from non-productive work that they may go into productive work and add to the sum total that may be distributed among all."

"Kitchen Comforts"

In those two words you have the whole story of the modern kitchen range. And have you not noticed how popular has become the kitchen that has one these cold days? It is now just the place for Dad to read his paper; the kids want to dress and undress there and Grandma likes to sit with her feet in the oven. And how Mother and We do sympathize with the folks who haven't one, but we'll back up our sympathy by selling you the best range on earth at the right price.

Perfection's Price In Tire Building

A tire-maker's first problem is to decide how much he can give for the money. This, and every other question in tire building, depends upon policies.

A super-tire, such as The Brunswick, can be made only by a concern which knows well and appreciates that there is nothing exclusive in the tire industry except high standards.

Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has held first place in every line it entered. Brunswick Tires, as more and more motorists come to know them, will certainly be awarded that coveted place held only by the superfine.

Motorists who buy one Brunswick usually adopt it for complete equipment. Yet this is not strange, since the first one so completely proves its superiority.

If the name of Brunswick certifies to you, as to most men, an extraordinary tire, at no higher price, would it not be good business to test one or two Brunswick Tires?

The citizens of Lamesa are planning the erection of a modern school building in the near future. They have used an old wooden structure for the past several years. Tahoka can well boast of the best brick public school building of any town its size in West Texas.

Last Sunday, as Cashier Raymond Weathers, of the Bank of O'Donnell was enroute from that little city to Tahoka, he encountered a bunch of five wild geese just south of town, and with his trusty rifle succeeded in bagging one of the monster birds.

The goose was loaded into the car and brought to town and put on exhibition. It was of the snow white variety and weighed in the neighborhood of 25 or 30 pounds. The dead bird attracted considerable attention from those who had never viewed one of this specie at close range.

Friday about noon, while a negro on the V. O. Barrons place was getting ready to go hunting, he accidentally discharged the contents of a shot gun only about 4 feet from him into the back of Bell Barron, Mr. Barron's son. He was doing all right when last heard from, but it is certainly wonderful that it did not kill him. He was pretty badly hurt as it was.—Lamesa Reporter.

J. P. Bridges received a message Tuesday to hurry to Lubbock where his son Mont is in a Sanitarium. Mr. and Mrs. Bullock returned the same afternoon.

John White left Monday for Dallas to attend Cotton Conference and endeavor to place a line of Garza County low grade cotton in the 300,000 bale European order which is being secured by the American Cotton Association, if Mr. White secures an order the farmers will be requested to give him option on their low grade cotton until February 10th. If this order be secured it will relieve the low grade cotton situation in this and other counties. Mr. White wired late Tuesday evening that he had sold 500 bales of Garza County low grade cotton (not bollies) to the American Cotton Association. This cotton must not be bollies but has to be graded stuff and the price for which it sold is a good one and will be appreciated by our people.

Rev. Geo. Shearer, presiding elder of this district came to Post unexpectedly last Sunday evening and delivered one of his splendid messages at the Methodist church.

Miss Alma Bird, of Lamesa, underwent an operation in a local sanitarium this week.

THE KANSAS CITY TIMES.—"Before the week is half over, the town—or at least that part of the town that cares for happy, romantic plays—will be talking about "The Gypsy Trail," which opened its engagement last night at the Shubert. And, happily, it is a play not only worth talking about, but well worth seeing. All in all, "The Gypsy Trail" is a play men will appreciate and yet a play the young lady—or her mother—will adore."

THE NEW YORK EVENING SUN.—"The Gypsy Trail" blazed its way straight to the hearts of theatregoers. This play by Robert Housum is a happy blending of romance, sentiment and humor. So, it is small wonder that last night's audience at the Plymouth Theater gave it very enthusiastic approval. Its popular appeal is so great as to clearly indicate that the play will be one of the successes of the season."

NEW YORK TIMES.—"The audience laughed throughout thrilled at the house broken gypsy romance, and went into raptures at the socially and financially pleasing denouement. The play is apparently a genuine success and, indeed, a deserved success."

AMERICA IS NOW LEADING SHIPBUILDER OF WORLD

A London dispatch states that, according to Lloyd's Register, the United States now leads the world in shipbuilding. Last year there was launched in the United States 57 per cent of the world's output of vessels, amounting to 4,075,385 tons. The total for the world, 7,144,549 tons is said to have surpassed all previous records, and to have exceeded the output of 1918 by 1,697,000 tons and that of 1913 by 3,811,000 tons.

COMPULSORY TRAINING WINS IN COMMITTEE

Washington, D. C.—By a vote of 9 to 5, the Senate Military Committee recently approved provisions providing for compulsory military training for boys between 18 and 21 years inclusive, and ordered a favorable report upon the army reorganization bill.

The compulsory military training provision which fixes the training period at four months, was opposed in the committee by Senators Lenroot (Rep.) Wisconsin; Capper (Rep.) of Kansas; McKellar (Rep.) Tennessee; Sheppard (Dem.) of Texas, and Kirby (Dem.) of Arkansas. Senators Wadsworth (Rep.), New York; Warren (Rep.), Wyoming; Sutherland, (Rep.), West Virginia; New, (Rep.), Indiana; Frelinghuysen (Rep.), New Jersey; Knox (Rep.), Pennsylvania; Spencer (Rep.), Missouri; Chamberlain (Dem.), Oregon, and Thomas (Dem.), Colorado, supported it. Senator McKellar announced that he would submit a minority report in which a number of the Senators who opposed the plan are expected to concur.

Provides for Citizens Army
 As finally agreed upon the bill is virtually the same as reported by the sub-committee, but is radically different from the reorganization bill submitted by the War Department to Congress. In addition to establishing compulsory military training, the bill provides for the establishment of one army to be divided into a citizen army composed of men who have received the compulsory training, a standing army consisting of 280,000 enlisted men and 18,000 officers and National Guard.

Specific provision is made in the bill that the citizen army can not be called to the colors except in case of declaration of war. To accommodate the reserve force built up under the system of military training, provision is made in the bill for an annual reduction of 5 per cent in the enlisted strength of the regular army and 2 per cent in the number of enlisted officers for the first five years. This will mean, Chairman Wadsworth explained, that at the end of five years the regular army will be reduced by 70,000 men and 1,800 commissioned officers, which will greatly decrease the cost of maintaining the military establishment.

Allowances Provided For.
 The bill also would place all youths who have undergone the four months military training on the reserve list to be subject to two weeks' training annually. Under an amendment by Senator Spencer (Rep.), Missouri, dependents of such youth during training would receive an allowance the same as now provided under the war risk insurance act.

Establishment of the office of Undersecretary of War would be charged with the solution of the great industrial and business problems involved in the procurement of military supplies is provided, but the committee upon Secretary Baker's recommendation eliminated provisions which would work to make General Pershing chief of staff in place of General March, the present chief of staff.

The bill, if passed as drafted, Senator Wadsworth said tonight, will reduce expenditures for the military establishment by approximately one-half.

Senator Wadsworth said that he would report the bill to the Senate, possibly tomorrow, and would seek to call it up for consideration at the earliest possible moment.

UNITED STATES ARMY

builder of

MEN

TEN years ago it was necessary for the United States Army to argue men into its ranks.

But, today the Army like every other great university, points with pride to its graduates.

Four million of the nation's choicest young men were entrusted to the Army's care.

MOST of them are back in the ranks of industry today; and every parent in America, every employer, every teacher knows that they are better, abler men for their experience.

They stand straight upon their feet, a symbol of physical fitness.

They have learned how to execute orders, and how to give them.

THERE is, in their characters, a maturity beyond their years, a vision and a self-confidence that are fundamentals of success.

The months that they gave to the Army were not lost months; the records of the future will show more rapid progress for them because of the qualities which those months developed.

Where the U. S. Army serves

American troops are serving in Panama, Hawaii, the Philippines, Alaska, China, Germany, Siberia and here in the U. S. A. The Recruiting Sergeant will gladly give you all the details.

Like every one else in the Army from General to Buck Private, you're under orders and if your outfit moves and you're needed elsewhere, your duty is to go.

THE United States Army is open for enlistments today. It wants no inferior applicants; it seeks young men of character and purpose; and it promises those young men that the term of their enlistment will be fruitful years.

They will come back to civil life in perfect health—their muscles, their eyes, their bearing all evidencing the finest professional care.

IT IS the purpose of the War Department to develop in the American soldier those qualities which are the essentials to success in any trade or business and are the prime requisites in an American citizen.

Congress has appropriated $2,000,000.00 to be used in Educational work in the Army Schools. In many camps and posts men are being trained in the skilled trades and at practically all Army stations, schools are in operation in which the soldier can improve his education.

Through enlistment the United States Army offers opportunities to travel. It provides good food, good clothes and good care. It gives a training which brings health—physical development—mental quickness and self-confidence. It sends you back to civil life better equipped for American citizenship than when you enlisted.

LITTLE INTEREST TAKEN BY WOMEN IN POLL TAX

Ballinger, Feb. 1.—There is less interest in politics in this county than ever known before, and not more than 50 per cent of the voters subject to poll tax payment qualified by paying their poll taxes. The lack of interest is believed to be due to the prosperous conditions of the country, that the people are busy and are neglecting matters of the public interest. Very few women have paid their poll taxes.

Benjamin, Texas, Feb. 1.—A majority of the women of this county paid their poll taxes this year.

Hillsboro, Feb. 1.—Poll tax payments for Hill County are estimated at 7,500, with one-tenth of them women.

Austin, Feb. 1.—Travis County poll tax collections were expected to reach 12,000 before Collector Maud's office closed at midnight Saturday night. Approximately 2,000 were women.

Gainesville, Texas, Feb. 1.—Poll tax payments here at 9 o'clock Saturday night were approximately 1,000 men and 250 women.

Lockhart, Texas, Feb. 1.—Caldwell County had recorded 3,700 poll tax receipts Saturday night. Several hundred women were among them.

Galveston, Feb. 1.—With five deputies issuing poll tax receipts and the total payments already in excess of last year's total of 8,227, it was stated Saturday night more than 9,000 would register to vote here this year.

Waco, Feb. 1.—Poll tax payments in McLennan County were about 10,000, including approximately 1500 women.

San Antonio, Feb. 1.—The total voting strength of Bexar county Saturday night showed 19,500 paid poll taxes, 3,500 exemptions and 5,000 former soldiers who were issued poll taxes.

Houston, Feb. 1.—Approximately 26,000 poll tax payments were made here for the year. This number is 4,000 less than last year. However, it is estimated that there are 6,500 ex-soldiers eligible to vote without poll tax receipts.

Dallas, Feb. 1.—Poll tax receipts paid here today are announced as 39,972.

SOME NEWS ITEMS FROM RALLS BANNER

We learn that H. J. Ferwerda, who formerly lived near Ralls, and who moved to Beloit, Wis., early in January, died last week following an operation for stomach trouble. Mr. Ferwerda has many friends here who will learn of his death with sorrow.

At a recent meeting of the directors of the First State Bank the following officers were elected: C. E. Dean, president; John R. Rall, vice-president; John Haney, cashier; J. C. Barron, and E. C. Harmon, assistant cashiers.

Jas. Adee was a caller at the Banner office Monday. Mr. Adee says he still has about 12 bales of cotton to gather and considerable corn. After his crops are gathered he expects to move back to his old home in the North and is making preparations for a public sale.

We expect to add two more pages to the Banner, thus giving room for much more reading matter, just as soon as the print paper situation is relieved. At present it is almost impossible to buy stock, and if something is not done soon it is not probable that many papers will have to temporarily suspend publication.

Why Our Clothing Cost So Much

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)
 This is not "The Song of the Shirt" but the story of the woolen suit and overcoat, which will tell a few of the reasons why these very useful garments cost more now than at any time within the memory of living men. The evidence of the rise in prices is made clear when we visit our tailor or look at price tags displayed on "hand-me-downs" in the windows of retail clothing establishments. Suits which formerly cost from $30 to $50 are now bringing $60 to $80, and in many cases a higher rate of advance is noted. We pay the bills readily enough, for we have grown used to high prices, but go away wondering why.
 The answer is in the two principal items of cost going into garments, viz: wool and workmen. There are endless contributing causes, all coming within the category of the high cost of living, but all these react directly on the two chief items, and they gather weight and momentum, like a ball rolled down hill in the snow, so that when the suit is purchased and put on the wearer bears heavily on his shoulders the accumulated expenses and profits of all hands from sheep raiser to tailor and all the ramifications in between them.

 If you will read the summary at the bottom of this article you will be willing to admit that, on a conservative estimate, something like 500 individuals got a part of their pay, at some time, out of the price you paid for your suit of clothes. In fact, the summary attempts to mention only some of those who contributed in the way of labor and capital to the various processes which converted the wool on a sheep's back to the finished garments. To list them all would be as intricate a job as naming every tiny brook and rivulet which helps to form the Mississippi River.

For woolen cloth, such as goes into suits for the average business man, tailors now pay from $7 to $8 a yard, and it takes from three and one-fourth to three and one-half yards to make a suit. Men in the woolen trade roughly figure that one pound of cured and prepared wool will make one yard of cloth, varying, of course, with the thickness and texture of the cloth. But it takes about three pounds of the unwashed fleece from the sheep's back to produce a single pound of the scoured, combed and carded wool which goes into the hands of the weavers.

So to follow the gathering and growing cost of a pound of wool it is necessary to journey to the ranges, ranches and countryside where the shepherd tends his flock. There the first and original cost develops, and there is probably no greater variation in production cost of any article raised on the land than a pound of wool. Just now domestic wool, such as is used by makers of woolen cloth for outer garments, brings its raiser approximately 50 cents a pound in the shearing shed. This half dollar must bear its share in paying the herder, shearer, miscellaneous expense of running the farm, and the rent when the producer is a tenant.

Farm labor costs more than it used to, and the food of farm animals has advanced along with everything else. But still many ranchers and even small farmers have reaped a profitable harvest with their wool during the past few years of extreme high values. In some instances the wool represents clear profit, the mutton and increase in flocks compensating for all expense. But as it affects the final user of the wool, the fact remains that the price is 50 cents a pound, while just before the great war this same grade was selling at from 10 cents to 13 cents a pound.

With the wool clipped and baled comes the next factor in the game, to push the ball along for a further accumulation of expense. This is the dealer or his representative, who has his place of business in St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago or some other primary Western market. He bids for the raiser's wool and if successful in acquiring it, ships it to his headquarters, to hold for the Eastern broker or mill buyer to purchase. Expenses of this first dealer are his traveling costs, freight to the primary market, overhead and business outlay, and finally he adds to the cost of the wool by the margin of profit he can secure in passing it along to the next hand. This second handling will add anywhere from 2 cents to 15 cents to the cost per pound.

The third stage of the movement from farm to consumer is in the form of a very suave and alert person, versed to the minute in crop and market conditions, who represents an Eastern mill or wool broker or dealer. He drives a shrewd bargain, less shrewd than in former times of competition, but invariably gets the wool and starts it on its way to Boston or some other center of the woolen industry in New England. Through his activities the snowball has grown still larger, through added expense of freight, commissions, shrinkage in transit, drayage and the inevitable and unavoidable overhead, a word covering a multitude and representing the cost of doing business not specifically described in other items of expense.

By this time the pound of Western fleece has reached the point where it will be converted to useful purposes, and its strands still closer approximate in value the golden fleece of mythology. If it is in possession of a dealer or broker, it remains in storage until passing to the mill, but if the purchase in the West has been by a mill representative, it is consigned direct to the company's plant.
 Just at this point, the greatest single push in the direction of cost accumulation is given, for three pounds are cut to one pound in the process of cleaning, carding and curing. So that the original pound, costing 50 cents, now represents $1.50, with all the cost of handling tacked on besides. Small wonder, then, that the wearer of suits and overcoats has cause to groan. But save some breath to groan later on, for the worst is yet to come.

Unbaled from its rural wrappings, the wool passes into the hands of expert graders and sorters. Quality depends on fluences and the length of staples. The greater the length of the staple the greater value for weaving prime cloths. This is expensive labor, and its employment augments still further the volume of cost surrounding the pound of wool. Following the sorter come the scourer and the dryer, workmen performing an important, but costly, task, as they are to blame for the great cost loss of weight suffered in the entire process.

Need of haste in getting out goods has resulted in present practices in the washing and drying department. Methods now in use rob the wool of valuable and strengthening natural oils, leaving more or less brittle fiber, which yields under hard wear. In olden days woolen garments lasted years, for the reason that the wool was cured with care, time and sunshine, instead of chemicals, artificial heat and haste. The Navajo blankets, noted for their indestructible qualities, are made from wool sheared by the Indians and cured so as to leave intact the oils and ingredients which nature provides, and which are sluiced out in the baths of modern milling institutions.

Next comes the carder, who combs the wool into a white mist of fluff, ready to run through the great spinning machines, descendants of the spinning wheels and hand spindles of our ancestors. Tribute is paid in the form of pay for service to each of these sets of laborers as also to those in the colossal rooms where are located the complicated weaving engines, capable of turning out thousands of yards of finished cloth daily. And it is not only the laborers who actually touch the wool that must be counted in the reckoning. There are staffs of high-paid designers who originate the multitudinous patterns, machinists, mechanics, watchmen and the hundred other operatives who go to make up the organizations in the west mills.

When the cloth is run through by the weavers and bolted, the expense has not stopped growing. Each piece must be carefully sorted, labeled and finally packed in wooden boxes for transportation. Our unit of the pound of wool reached the plant a relatively expensive article, but it leaves the establishment a veritable aristocrat among costly products of modern industry. Heavy toll has been taken from it in each stage, but this toll is a measure held down by certain standards of long practice. Some sort of a check can be applied, but when the cloth goes forth into the world, further check on its augmenting costliness is impossible, and those handling it in times of scarcity such as now exist, may charge what they will.

Procedure from the mill door on varies. Generally, however, the cloth goes to great firms in New York, Boston and other cities, which distribute it. The expenses of these companies are heavy, it is admitted, but nothing like commensurate with their receipt profits. They have branches scattered through the country, and salesmen who cover virtually the entire country where tailored clothes are worn. Large stocks are carried in the home storehouse. These may be held speculatively for a rise in the market. There is usually a gentlemen's understanding between the larger houses, by which it is possible to sustain values and make the tailor and consumer disgorge normal prices for every yard of wool parted with.

It is impossible to arrive accurately at what profit the distributor rolls up, but it represents the difference between the price when the goods leave the mill and the $7 and $8 per yard paid by the tailor.

Then, to administer the final coup de grace in high clothing cost comes the tailor. This last actor in the line of wool handlers has the excuse of expensive help, rents and other items, but still withal his net gain is not trifling, especially if he deals for cash. Specifically, on the wool he buys he exacts a profit of his customer, in addition to his return on the other elements going into the make-up and making of a suit, and his time and trouble.

In the final examination this fact appears, that the 50-cent wool, which we first encountered on the ranch, costs, when we wear it around in a $50 suit, close to $29, figuring three and one-half yards to the suit. The difference has been distributed in many hands, but the few hands around the final transactions are the ones most plentifully rewarded.

Some of These Who Got Part of Their Pay Out of Your New "Ready Made"

Beginning with raw material, there are the rancher, the shearer, the wool carder, the cotton grower, the spinner, the dyer, the weaver, the flax grower, the thread maker, the button maker, the designer and the tailor, with a not inconsiderable number of clerks, bookkeepers, stenographers etc., scattered along the way. Each of them got a tiny fraction of a cent out of what you paid for your suit, when you bought it.

All the different materials, in the different stages of manufacture, had to be handled as freight a number of times. So you also helped to pay the wages of locomotive engineers, train crews, sailors, too, probably, freight handlers, truck drivers—many of them—and all the clerical help necessary to keep track of goods in transit. Then there is the lumberman who cut the timber and the mill which made the boards for the boxes; the paper mill, for its wrapping paper and labels, and the printer who printed them. More clerical help here.

Not the smallest item, by any means, is coal burned to provide power, heat and light. So you can count the miner on your pay roll, too, together with engineers and firmen.

As raw and manufactured material, most of it was insured against fire and theft. Still more clerks to be paid. In the various sales, from wool to finished suit, several brokers each got a profit, and banks made money on loans. At least one mill, one jobber, one wholesaler and one retailer also made a gain, besides enough to pay for all their helpers, office or store rents, etc.
