NEWS ITEMS FROM THE TERRY COUNTY HERALD

Dr. Lemmon, Sr., arrived here from Dallas last week and this brought on more talk of the proposed sanitarium that was under consideration when he was here some two months ago, the guests of his son, Dr. J. R. Lemmon. A meeting of a few of the interested citizens of the town last week one night at the court house, was called for a discussion of the proposition, and at which the doctors gave a brief outline of what would be required to start a good institution of the kind on a small scale. The fact that Dr. Lemmon, Sr., spent more than ten years in one of the largest hospitals in Manila, P. I., as surgeon, is evidence enough that he is a good one, and should have the encouragement of the citizens of the town. A petition is being circulated this week to see how much can be raised toward purchasing sterilizing apparatus and other accessories that are needed in an institution of this kind. We hope to be able to report before long that the matter is well under way, for it is a well known fact that between $10,000 and $15,000 of Terry county money goes to other places annually for such purposes.

While working around the air filling tank at the Bradley Brownfield Garage Monday afternoon somehow or other, the belt flew off and caught Asa Proctor, one of the workmen in this garage, and dragged him into the fly wheel of the engine, which resulted in the crushing and bruising of one leg below the knee to such an extent that local physicians decided it was best to amputate the leg below the knee. The operation was performed late that afternoon by the Drs. Lemmon, assisted by Dr. T. L. Treadaway, and on Tuesday morning he was resting as well as could be expected, and hopes are high for his ultimate recovery. Later: As we get ready to go to press we learn that Asa is still resting well, and the good citizens of the town have subscribed $624.10 to help pay medical expenses and to buy him an artificial limb when he is ready for one. The list is not complete yet, and may reach many more dollars. The list is headed by the Bradley-Brownfield Auto Co., by whom he was employed, with the sum of $125.00. The operation was $110.00, we understand.

Geo. Barton of Lubbock came in last week to take charge of the book-keeping department of the A. G. McAdams Lumber Co., in the absence of T. R. Pridoux, the regular manager. He was having a high time getting a place to stay, just as the other people who are coming here.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Texas.

You are hereby commanded to summon Claud M. Brown, by making a publication of this citation in some newspaper published in Lubbock county, Texas, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, one in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, to be and appear before the District Court of Lubbock county, Texas, at the court house in Lubbock, Texas, on the 7th day of June, 1920, in a suit No. 1841, filed in said court on the 4th day of May, 1920, wherein Essie Brown is plaintiff and Claud M. Brown is defendant, said petition alleging that plaintiff has been a actual bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas for more than twelve months and has resided in Lubbock county, Texas, for more than six months; that plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married in Crosby county, Texas, on August 22nd, 1916; that defendant enlisted in the United States Army on the 18th day of September, 1917, and was discharged therefrom on May 20th, 1919, and since said discharge has totally abandoned this plaintiff.

That although, plaintiff was a kind and dutiful wife, the defendant soon after their marriage began a course of unkind, harsh and cruel treatment and a studied and deliberate vexations and outrages of such a nature as to entirely destroy the peace of mind of this plaintiff and render their living together insupportable. That defendant is a man of violent and ungovernable temper and would, without any provocation, fly into a rage and curse and abuse this plaintiff. That just prior to his enlistment in the United States Army he severely cursed and abused this plaintiff. That defendant was in the habit of associating with other women under improper circumstances and during the time he lived with the plaintiff was addicted to the use of intoxicating liquor. That plaintiff is a woman of refinement and such conduct was calculated to and did entirely destroy her peace of mind and happiness, and utterly destroy the objects of matrimony.

Plaintiff prays for judgment of divorce and for the custody of her child, Claudie Brown.

Herein, fail not but have you then and there this writ showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of office this 4th day of May, A. D. 1920.

ANOTHER FORD STOLEN LAST SATURDAY HERE

Ford automobiles are on the go in Lubbock. Four of these means of transportation have been stolen here within the past two weeks, one of which has been recovered and the three others have not been heard from. The last car taken however, is believed to yet remain in the family's possession. R. E. Caldwell parked his 1918 model Ford near the Leader last Saturday. He had with him some of his small sons, one of which was about fourteen years of age. After transacting business he went for his car to find that it had gone. Clothes which the smaller boys had left in the car were taken out and left on the sidewalk. The older boy had gone also and it is presumed he drove away in the car. His father, we are informed, had purchased him a pair of shoes, but the boy had later taken them back and received money in exchange.

200 H. P. ENGINE BROKEN DOWN AT ICE PLANT

The latter part of last week the large 200 h. p. Deisel engine of the Texas Utilities Company of this city was badly broken when a bad crank shaft broke, resulting in knocking all the bearings out and large pieces of the cylinder. The plant will not be able to make ice for several days, the management informs us, although plenty is in storage to do until the other machinery which was ordered, arrives. The engine will be unable to run for several months as work will have to be done that may necessitate shipping it to the factory, we are informed.

The main office of the Texas Utilities Co. is now considering with Jno. R. Ralls about the extension from the Lubbock plant to the town of Ralls for furnishing light and power and, according to the local manager, nothing definite is known at this time, however, he is inclined to believe this facility will be added shortly.

D. 1920, the same being the 7th day of June A. D. 1920, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 29th day of April A. D. 1920, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 1359, wherein H. C. Wilkinson is plaintiff and J. C. Wilkinson is defendant; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:

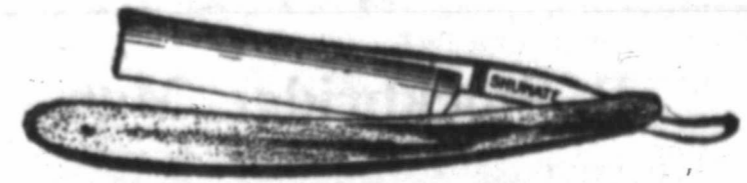

Being a suit for divorce filed by the plaintiff against the defendant in which it is alleged that said parties were lawfully married in Terry County, Texas, on December 5th, 1918, and continued to live together as husband and wife until about March, 1919, at which time the defendant left the plaintiff, and has not since said date contributed to her support and said marital relations have not been resumed. Plaintiff alleges that the defendant was guilty of gross excesses towards her, as more fully set out in the petition filed in said cause, and that such excesses were of such frequency and nature as to render their further living together insupportable, as defined in the first section of Article 4631, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and plaintiff prays for an absolute divorce as against the defendant, and for special and general relief, legal and equitable, etc.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

John Deere "KC" Cultivator

Do you still find that making a cultivator do the right kind of work is a tiresome tedious job?

Wouldn't you be interested in a cultivator that puts thoroughness into cultivation and takes the hard work out?

That is just what the use of our John Deere "KC" cultivator assures.

The "KC's" rigs, in shifting, stay parallel. Its shovels face squarely to their work. They never track or trail on crooked rows. No uncultivated spots nor no deep trenches are left. Over all the field, on crooked rows, as well as on straight rows, the "KC" gives thorough cultivation—the kind that most effectively destroys weeds and conserves moisture.

The rigs shift quickly in response to slight pressure on the foot levers. Guiding the rigs is as natural as walking.

You can maintain thorough cultivation without delaying work to make adjustments. No wrench is necessary. You don't have to leave the seat. Simply use the handy levers. These levers enable you to meet quickly and accurately every field condition.

We want you to get into the seat of this cultivator and see for yourself how handy and reliable it is. We've never seen its equal among single-row cultivators for time-saving, labor-saving, weed-destroying work in the field.

Don't fail to come in early and get acquainted with this cultivator.

Driving Ease in a

MAXWELL

is Due to Special Steels

Many who drive a Maxwell prefer it to a larger car. They like its nimbleness, its quickness in getting under way, its peculiar ability to thread its way through traffic, its rare driving ease. One can drive it farther in a day with less fatigue than many cars much larger. The reason is clear: its engine pulls no superfluous weight. Not a single unnecessary pound burdens it. Special steels in a Maxwell eliminate the useless weight—steels made to Maxwell's own formulae, which equal pound for pound those in any car built. They have extra strength forged into them, and they provide lightness. This is one reason why Maxwell has won public favor the world over as indicated by nearly 400,000 now in use. How marked the tendency today is recorded by a production of 100,000 for 1920.

has recently returned from a business trip to Dallas and other points in the eastern part of the State. In an interview he stated to a reporter of the Avalanche that in financial circles, generally speaking, loans are being curtailed and discounts are rising. Speaking of building material, he stated that the tendency of prices are downward. Some concerns state that the probabilities are that lumber will be off 20 per cent within the next sixty days, and it stands to reason that other building materials will follow the decline.

SECOND SWINDLER OF NORFLEET SENTENCED

Charles Gerber must spend ten years in the State penitentiary for his alleged connection with a stock market scheme that cost J. Frank Norfleet, of Hale Center, Texas, a total of $45,000, according to a verdict returned by a jury in the criminal district court Wednesday night. The jury was out one hour.

The verdict is the maximum under the law. It is the same as was returned against E. J. Ward Saturday night, after Ward had been tried on an indictment which also connected him with the stock market transaction.

There was some talk of a compromise being agreed upon in Gerber's case before arguments by attorneys started. However, District Attorney Jesse M. Brown refused to recommend any punishment to the jury but the maximum, and the compromise did not become a reality.

No Witnesses Used Without offering a witness the defense closed in both the Gerber and Ward cases.

Ward and Gerber were arrested in California, where they fought extradition and lost. Reno Hamlin, who was arrested in Dallas and alleged to have been connected with the Norfleet transaction, is in the county jail, his trial not having been set.

The State attempted to prove that Gerber and Ward were confederates of several other persons who operated a fake stock market scheme. Norfleet testified to being led into the transaction by a "lost" pocketbook. He said he found the pocketbook, was offered a reward but refused it, though he permitted the owner to place $100 on the stock market for him, and he (Norfleet) would accept any money that might result from the stock bid. He testified that the bid was represented to him as being a good one and soon won $800. The money was replaced several times, and finally Norfleet had a third interest in $170,000 coming to him, he testified.

Two Suspects Never Caught It was then that a man representing himself to be the secretary of an exchange declared that the $170,000 would not be given up until the original bid was confirmed. This called for Norfleet to help raise the money to confirm the bid. He went to his home, at Hale Center, and obtained $45,000.

The State attempted to prove that the stock exchange was not a legitimate one, but was operated by confederates of Ward and Gerber. Two of the principals in the alleged transaction have not been arrested.

Evidence introduced by the State Wednesday showed that a similar "lost pocketbook" game was being attempted in California. The man who had been picked for the "victim" had read in the San Antonio Light of how Norfleet had lost his money by being lured into the transaction by a "lost" pocketbook. He then reported the affair to the sheriff of San Bernardino, Cal., and the arrest of Ward and Gerber followed.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

SOON RAIN REPORTS FROM OVER THE STATE

Wichita Falls, May 15.—A heavy rain has been falling here for the past six hours. Reports indicate that the rainfall is general over Northwest Texas and Southern Oklahoma.

Brownsville, May 15.—The drouth that has existed in the lower Rio Grande Valley for the past three months was broken in some places yesterday by heavy rains. McAllen and Harlingen reported good rains but Brownsville was skipped.

San Angelo, May 15.—One and two inch rains, the first of consequence since January, fell last night over Reagan, Upton, Crockett, Val Verde, Sutton, Edwards, Schleicher, and adjoining counties south and west of here, breaking a drouth in the cattle, sheep and goat country, which was threatening to become serious. Hail accompanied the downpour at Ozona and Sonora and killed sheep on some ranches, while swollen draws washed away numerous fences. Half-inch rains fell at Carlsbad, Water Valley and El Dorado. There was little rain, however, north and east of San Angelo where good rains had previously fallen. San Angelo had only a shower.

Claude, Texas, May 15.—A two-inch rain has fallen over Armstrong county. This assures a big wheat and oat crop.

Big Spring, Texas, May 15.—The temperature dropped to 51 degrees Thursday night. A slow, steady rain fell yesterday. The rain is general over the country, covering a portion that did not get any of the big rains the first part of the week.

Colorado, Texas, May 15.—Two inches of rain fell here last night and the downpour continues today. The rainfall for May totals 6.75 inches.

Brownfield, May 15.—A slow 12-hour rain fell over Terry county, the first in several months.

DR. KRUEGER CALLED TO CROSBYTON WEDNESDAY

Dr. J. T. Krueger, surgeon of the Lubbock Sanitarium, was called to Crosbyton Wednesday of this week to appear as a witness in the Sam Cates case. The State sought to have Dr. Krueger's statement as to whether or not he thought Mrs. Burton died from effects of any bruises upon her body. Dr. Krueger states that it is his opinion that Mrs. Burton died more from agony of mind than from any other reason.

"More interest is manifest in the Cates trial," according to Dr. Krueger, "than probably anything which ever happened in Crosbyton." He says that the corridors of the Court House were filled; that the town was crowded with cars, wagons and other means of conveyance.

Dr. Krueger believes that Cates' defense will be that of protection of Mrs. Burton and not insanity.

Mrs. R. L. Smith of Slaton underwent an operation in the Lubbock Sanitarium the latter part of last week. Reports are that Mrs. Smith is rapidly recovering.

Messrs. I. E. Barr and Boyce Cardwell were in Brownfield the first of this week transacting business.

MORE ABOUT THAT 1919 SOUTHPLAINS COTTON

Conservative estimates made on the approximate value of the 1919 cotton crop grown and marketed in the section classed as the South Plains, is placed at not less than eight million dollars. It is also estimated that approximately twelve hundred cars were used in hauling the South Plains cotton crop to markets, Houston and Galveston of course, being the principal shipping points from this section. Official advice from the Lubbock Compress Company, which operated here part of the past season, state that 15,000 bales of cotton were compressed in this city. Notwithstanding the numerous handicaps experienced by the management in securing labor and other essentials necessary for the successful operation of a compress. A charge of about 50 cents per bale, we are told, was made upon the fifteen thousand bales compressed in Lubbock, thus making a total of about $7,500 paid by shippers for compress expense. A forty-foot box car will readily hold and carry seventy-five bales of compressed cotton. The same cars handling cotton uncompressed will hold an average of forty bales of 500 pounds each. Incidentally, it is well to note that figures from various sources indicate that approximately two-thirds or more of the cotton grown in the South Plains region for the past year was shipped to other points for compressing. 375 cars were used by shippers who had cotton compressed at Lubbock. Each of these cars represented a cotton valuation of approximately $15,000, or a combined total of more than five million dollars. The freight rates on cotton shipped from Lubbock to the two principal shipping points, i. e., Houston and Galveston, amounted to about 69 cents per hundred pounds or $3.45 per bale. Each forty-foot car then of compressed cotton which left Lubbock the past season, represented an approximate freight charge of $260.00, or on the total of 375 cars which were compressed at the Lubbock Compress nearly one hundred thousand dollars, or to be more exact, $97,500.

The above is only a part of the money represented in the South Plains cotton crop for the 1919 season and does not do justice to the real amount of money received or taken from the farms of the South Plains in that season. It will be noticeable then that figures relative to the cost of seeds, cultivation and gathering of this crop has not been touched and no figures given on the approximate loss through inability to gather the entire crop of 1919. Gins of the South Plains country have received no less than $100,000 for their share in the 1919 cotton crop. The hundreds and hundreds of East Texans and those also of our own country have had a good show of the money taken out of the crop of 1919 for their share in gathering. Charges aggregating $3.00 per hundred pounds was extracted by a majority of the pickers. Figuring that the 15,000 bales that were compressed were gathered by pickers who made this charge, we have another item of $475,000, or nearly two-thirds of another million dollars to be paid out of this great crop. When the seeds received from the crop of 1919 are sold, the big average of $200 per bale will likely result.

C. W. Goddard, State Health Officer.

Austin, Texas, May 15.—Diarrhea in breast-fed infants while not so dangerous as in bottle-fed infants, it does, nevertheless, require attention and in both cases the earlier the proper attention is given the lower the death rate will be among this class of cases for although the case may be mild, no one can tell how soon complications may arise and the effects of the two diseases combined may prove to be too great a strain on the constitution of the victim. Neglect is dangerous in all cases but especially so in intestinal troubles as in cases of bottle-fed babies the general nutrition and growth are very quickly affected by diarrhea. Toxic complications may develop which require quick action and rather complicated dietetic treatment.

So long as a case remains uncomplicated in the breast-fed infants, and the diarrhea is light the lengthening of intervals between nursing periods and shortening the time at the breast may prove very beneficial, especially with the administration of pure boiled water between meals, with a gradual return to normal feeding for nursing periods. But do not take too many chances with the lives of these little people. Call a competent physician in time as delay may mean disaster just as it has in so many thousand in the past. When a physician is called, follow his instructions to the letter or be square with him and tell him you are not doing so as the writer has been very much puzzled to understand why the little patient (who could not tell him the facts) was not getting along any better under treatment but in truth was growing rapidly worse in spite of the treatment and all his efforts in the child's behalf until finally the facts were revealed that the infant was being fed potatoes or something else equally harmful by the fond mother who was afraid the child would starve in a few days or hours.

Austin, Texas, May 15.—It is largely up to the mothers of Texas to put the State in the registration area; the State Board of Health fully recognizes that if Texas as a State is to ever get into what is known as the registration area of the United States Vital Statistics Bureau and become recognized as being on a par with those states which now enjoy this great advantage that this will come about largely through cooperation of the mothers themselves.

There are almost daily evidences of the fact that mothers are becoming more and more aware of the vital importance of having their children's births recorded which is important not only from a legal, social and industrial standpoint, but is absolutely necessary for the accurate and scientific study of disease and its proper prevention.

While it is the duty of the mother to know that her child's birth is recorded it should at the same time be a great pleasure and a source of satisfaction to her to know that she has performed this important piece of business for her helpless child and there is no one thing requiring so little time and effort on her part that will be so much appreciated by the child when it has grown to realize the value of this forethought on the part of its own mother.

During 1919, probably more than 2,000 children were born in the State of Texas whose births were not reported.

Millions of dollars have been lost in claims and millions more have been spent in litigation for property rights which might have been saved to some one's children if only mother or some one had acted in time in behalf of the child by recording the date of birth.

Mother, will you help your child by making such report to the State Board of Health and also urge other mothers to do the same?

Austin, Texas, May 15.—"Let us try and remember the other fellow has some rights, which we as good citizens, should respect. And though we ourselves may not be afraid to have measles, small-pox or any of the communicable diseases, it does not necessarily imply that our neighbors hold the same views, therefore we have no moral or legal right to expose him to such dangers without his knowledge and consent," says Dr. C. W. Goddard, State Health Officer.

Continuing, Dr. Goddard declares: "Suffer little children to come unto me does not mean that they shall be ushered prematurely into the Kingdom of Heaven through ignorance and neglect, but that is exactly what is being done and has been done in so many thousands of cases, and is it not time that we face about on this question and give every man, woman and child every possible chance to live out their allotted time and enjoy life as was intended. While fate has decreed that some shall die young, it is not necessary that so many do so. Saving babies is no child's play. It is real work in which real men and women must take a hand and in which they should be ready and willing, proud and glad to engage. Certainly these little people can not and will not call you in either loud or soft tones, nor will they send out embossed invitations asking you to come to their rescue, but it is none the less your duty, which duty is not lessened by these facts and it is indeed a poor citizen, in our estimation, who fails to do his bit in behalf of the baby population.

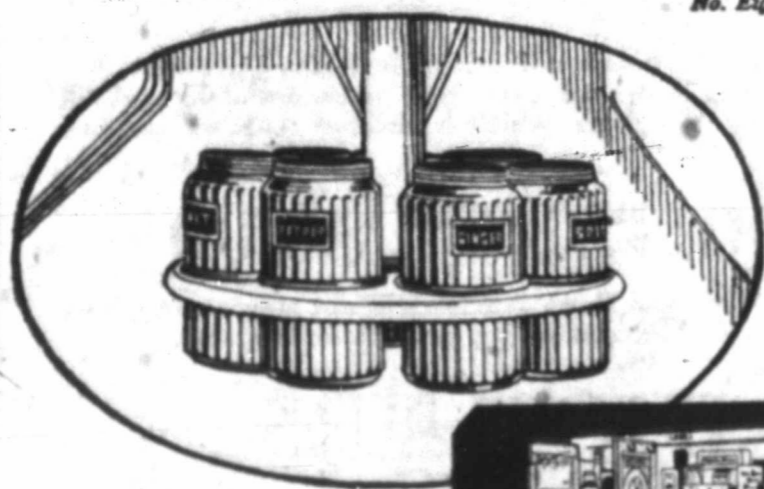

"If you are sick better find out what the trouble is before taking too many chances of spreading a disease, or if your neighbor is sick, better find out what he has to give away before you go over and get it, especially if the sick person is a child. Don't take your child over and expose it until you find out whether it is something you want it to have or not."

SEVERAL MORE BOYS JOIN AIR SERVICE
George Raulston, Walter Taylor, Murray Lambert, Andrew J. Bridges and Edward C. Krause have recently joined the aviation service through the recruiting station at Lubbock. Oscar Clark has also joined the army and is now taking a course in the Cooks and Bakers School in Kentucky.

According to the Lubbock recruiting officer, the army recruiting work is of a much more difficult nature than heretofore. For instance, he says that the war department now guarantees that when accepted into the army the recruit will be in that branch of service that he asked for and be located in the country which he preferred. If unable to place under those conditions the war department pays all expenses of the recruit including traveling expenses from the station back to the place of acceptance.

Mr. McClendon has been a resident of Lubbock several years, dealing in land, horses and stock of various kinds. He has recently purchased property in Arkansas. Friends of Mr. McClendon state that he will be back in Lubbock soon. Mr. McClendon and family will make the trip overland in their car.

QUALITY LUMBER AND B & BETTER SERVICE

Reports are current around town that building material is off 20 per cent, which sounds good if true, as no one would welcome a decline more than I, but so far, we know nothing of such a reduction.

But SUPPOSE it was off 20 per cent; do you know that there is only about $1500.00 worth of lumber in the average five-room house? Do you know that doors, windows, mouldings, glass and hardware are going up all the time, and hard to get at any price? So you see that lumber is not the biggest thing by any means that goes into your HOME.

So why DELAY BUILDING for a possible decline of one or two hundred dollars that may come some time in the future? RENT will cost you more than that, and you are missing the pleasure and satisfaction that comes from owning your own HOME.

If we can serve you in any way, call on us for we think that any business earns its right to prosper, in proportion as it renders service to the community.

This reunion is held each year for the purpose of celebrating the birthday of that most worthy lady, Grandma Travis, this being her 84th anniversary. More than one hundred people were present, and during the day games, and amusements of various kinds, were indulged in. The dinner was a most excellent one, and fully equal to the feasts prepared on like occasions in the past. Duke Travis, present from a distance, coming from Cooper, Texas. LATE FREEZES DID NOT GET ALL OF DONLEY CO. FRUIT

While in town Saturday, F. M. Gwinn, prosperous farmer on a modern, diversified scale in the Brice country, informed us that he had a good crop of dew and blackberries, cherries, peaches, apples and plums yet, despite the late freezes. There has been much speculation over the Panhandle country as to how the people would get by with no fruit crop. While this is not strictly a fruit producing section on a commercial scale, there is no reason why it could not be made a very remunerative source of asset. Most every kind of fruit is grown in this section that will grow in the temperate zone, but it seems that no one person has yet seen fit to plant out a general orchard variety on a commercial scale. Many varieties of wild fruit grow in abundance which fact alone would justify any home owner in making an effort to not only supply home needs, but also a ready cash market.—Clarendon News.

FINE STALLIONS FIND EASY SALES HERE

All four of the fine stallions brought here last week by Norm Thompson of California, were easily sold. This quality of stock is considered the best ever placed in the South Plains.

The large black percheron was sold to a farmer-stockman of the Meadow community. The fine Belgian which was probably the largest of the four horses, was purchased by Wolfarth Bros., of this city. C. F. Jackson, also of Lubbock, purchased the prize-winning grey percheron—that horse that is the pick of the bunch, according to many horse dealers of this vicinity. The pretty English shire was purchased by a Rails farmer-stockman, and was taken to Crosby county.

BRIDGEPORT OIL MAN VISITING HERE

J. E. Chase, former resident of this city, now with the Lubbock-Bridgeport Oil Company of Wise county, is here this week on a short visit. Mr. Chase says they have their well down 2600 feet and are now in formations considered good for a real oil well.

Mr. Chase in speaking of the crop conditions of Wise county, says that most of the cotton will have to be replanted because of the excessive rains. Corn will be one of the crops here this season, however, the other small grain will possibly take the lead in yield.

Mrs. Annie Pearson, who has been spending several months with her daughter at Texline, is back home. She arrived Sunday morning.

Mission Study Class
 Shall it be millions for missions, or billions for battleships? The war is over. We turn our attention from killing men to saving men. We went into the war with no thought of gain. Now we go for conquest; the conquest of the world for Christ. The vital need of a vast trained army of missionaries, preachers and teachers is great. China, the sleeping giant, alone has a population of 400,000,000, by the end of the twentieth century the Chinese will probably number one billion. Today the entire Christian constituency is 2,250,000. And yet Christianity has been in China 100 years!
 There are only 5000 effective missionaries at work in China—about one to every 66,000 souls.
 The task in medical missions, the training of Chinese women physicians is before us. The special need of native women physicians here has been too clearly defined to require emphasis. China probably affords an exhibition of the greatest physical need the world has ever known. They average one doctor to 400,000 people. The average in America is one to 712. The question naturally arises: "Are the Chinese women, so long bound by tradition to lives of great seclusion and inactivity, capable of taking this training? Competent observers have said: "There are no brainier women anywhere than the Chinese." "Let none think Chinese women inferior to those of any other land. There is no line of study or of effort in which they do not attain."
 One of the best after-dinner speeches that was ever made in this country was made by a "little Chinese doctor" at a great banquet in Los Angeles, (one Mei-Yu or Dr. Mary Stone, as she is now called by English speaking people). A skillful surgeon as well as a physician. The land where the hospital is is a real oasis in a desert.

The general problem which China presents to the world must be solved for she is drifting in a way that makes her a peril to herself and a menace to the whole world. To solve this problem it will require the cooperation of all forces which the Western world can supply.
 Napoleon at St. Helena, said: "When China is moved it will change the face of the globe." John Hay said: "China is not like ancient Egypt, whose greatness has departed though she still lives on. China is a vital force, whose largest possibility of development lies before and not behind her. Whoever understands that mighty empire—socially, politically, economically, religiously—has the key to the world politics for the next five centuries."

China is sitting up in bed and rubbing her eyes. When she is fully awake all signs point to her as a future bearer of civilization. "But," as a clever missionary has said, "it is easier to wake up than to get up."
 Join our class and we will talk of the plans for a better sanitation system, how to decrease the highest of death rates in the world, etc.
 Monday at 3:00 o'clock.

J. O. JONES RESIGNS AS PRESIDENT OF C. OF C.

J. O. Jones, well known banker-stockman, who was elected President of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce a few days ago at the annual banquet, handed in his official resignation a few days later at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Mr. Jones resigned from this position, we are told, because of being in touch with various other public matters and because of private interests that would possibly keep him out of the city much of the time. According to the minutes of the meeting, Mr. Jones' resignation was officially accepted and nomination and election was followed resulting in A. B. Conley, Jr., well known dry goods merchant, being elected president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce for this year. Nomination and election of J. A. Rix as vice president followed Mr. Conley's election. W. S. Posey was nominated and elected treasurer. A vote of the directors present was made in resolving to pledge their undivided support in the future work and activities of this organization.

A discussion was then made regarding the South Plains Fair Association and Dr. L. E. Barr, member of the committee to sell stock in the Fair Association appeared before the directors and offered suggestions regarding the changing of the denomination of par value stock in the fair association. Dr. Barr's suggestion was: That sales of shares at par value of $25 each could be worked more successfully than that of $100 denomination. Also that the sale of shares in the Fair Association in the smaller denomination would interest more people in becoming stockholders and result in a more successful fair. The suggestion was adopted by the directors and the shares will now be sold in the smaller denomination. The committee on the Fair Association has worked some on this matter this week and report very favorably. It is stated that more than $7,000 of the capital stock of $10,000 has been subscribed.

The matter of the Nineteenth Annual Trade Excursion of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce and Manufacturers' Association was taken up at the board meeting and an official reception committee, composed of Percy Spencer, N. H. Wright and J. A. Rix, was appointed.

MRS. W. M. LANE UNDERGOES ANOTHER OPERATION

Mrs. W. M. Lane, wife of the pastor of the Methodist church at Colorado, and formerly pastor here, underwent another operation in a local sanitarium Tuesday. She had an operation a week or so since. Reports are favorable for her early recovery. Rev. Lane came Tuesday morning and is attending her bedside.

REFUND ON WOOL SOLD BEING SOUGHT BY AGENT

Carroll Thompson, County Agricultural Agent, has been in communication with Hon. Marvin Jones and the Contract Board of Adjustments, regarding the thousands of pounds of wool sold throughout the South Plains country by our sheep men during the years of 1917-18. Recently Mr. Thompson has received matters of information regarding the claims and the forms which they should be made out on from the Board of Contract Adjustments, and is now intending calling a meeting of the members of the South Plains Sheep and Wool Growers' Association for the purpose of ascertaining the individual sales during this period. The amount per pound received from the wool sold during these years will also be a matter of most importance at the meeting. By this method of information, the Board of Contract Adjustments can consider claims and then act if the board sees that by the sale to the government during these years the growers suffered a loss.
 In 1917-18 the government took over the entire wool crop. Later on the government let a large wool dealing company accept this wool for them and resulted in a loss of thousands of dollars to the raisers. It was found after investigation that the wool dealing firm had paid prices less than was adequate. Millions of dollars were lost through the sale of wool this way over the entire country, investigation found, and Lubbock's part was no small sum.

One of the largest wool growers in Lubbock county experienced in these years a method of sale and handling of the wool crop that was unjust and very unsatisfactory. This particular raiser of wool grows the very best and this is readily recognized by those acquainted with his sheep. But during these years in question, he received less than that paid to others for wool known to be inferior. It is estimated by Mr. Thompson that approximately 7 or 8 cents per pound was lost through the sale of the wool in the two years. Figuring that no less than two hundred thousand pounds were sold by the present members of the South Plains Sheep and Wool Growers' Association, it amounts to not less than 14 or 15 thousand dollars. This amount or approximately, will be recovered by these men, according to Mr. Thompson, if they will co-operate with him in establishing the facts and sending in the claims in proper form. The fact that thousands of dollars have been returned to the wool growers over various sections of the country, makes Mr. Thompson more confident of the members of this association receiving a fair adjustment on their sales.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days... I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go... I suffered awful with a pain in my back and a headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle... I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today.

BARRETT CASE TRANSFERRED TO DALHART, TEXAS

The case of where the State of Texas charges Chas. Barrett with the killing of W. B. Sowell, former Lubbock man, which was ready for trial last Wednesday in the District Court at Hereford, was continued after the selection of the jurors had been made. Reports are that a juror who had qualified as juror had previously been disqualified because of some information received regarding the whereabouts, etc., of the killing. Dr. T. G. Bates, Dr. J. T. Hutchinson and L. T. Martin, all of this city, were in Hereford last Wednesday as witnesses in the case. Senator W. H. Eble was also there assisting the State in prosecution. All returned to Lubbock last Thursday.

CARPENTER WORK IN OIL FIELDS PLENTIFUL

According to Will Gainer, well-known contractor, and for many years a resident of Gaines county, carpenter work in the oil fields in the territory known as the Ranger field, is good and has never been dull since the fields opened. Mr. Gainer says the oil fields are being developed by the big companies and that very seldom does a small company do any good. "Very little farming is going on beyond Cisco," says Mr. Gainer, who stated that most all the farms in that section had been leased for oil development and that the farmers don't care to cultivate the land with the expectancy of several rigs being started almost any day. Mr. Gainer will remain here a short time and will return to the fields where he is employed by the Sinclair Oil and Gas Company, as carpenter foreman. He will be accompanied from here by his son, Roe, who will remain there throughout the summer, returning home next fall for school.

What's become of the prejudice against automobiles because they frightened the horses

NOW cars are everywhere. The horses have gotten used to them—and so has everybody else. Think of it! This year the American people will spend nearly a billion dollars on tires alone.

Tires are one of the biggest items on the car owner's bills.

Hardly a Saturday, when you motorists drop in to "tune up" for a Sunday trip, that one or more of you doesn't tell us something of value to our business. Sooner or later it comes back to you in Service.

Service is what the car owners of this community are looking for nowadays.

And especially the small car owners, who put service first in figuring their motor-ing expenditures.

Just because a man has a moderate-price car is no reason why he should get any less service out of his tires.

We believe that the man with the small car is entitled to just as good tire service as the man with the big car—and both are entitled to the best tire service they can get.

That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

And why more car owners—large and small—are coming to us every day for U. S. Tires.

Come in and talk to us about tires. We're here to help you get the kind of tires you want.

IDALOU ITEMS OF THE PAST WEEK

The farmers certainly have a smile on their faces now, from the rains that have been falling the last two weeks. They have been planting some.

Our school was out last Friday. We had dinner on the ground and a program that afternoon and a play that night. There was a large crowd out at the program both times.

The "Topsy Turvy" people took their play to Ralls last Wednesday night. They made good money at both places.

Mrs. Martin and family have moved into their new home in town.

Mr. B. Sheroed has his house almost completed. These people will be glad to get in their pretty new home.

Mr. Marshall Mitchell left last Monday for San Diego, California, where he will stay for some time.

Mr. Lewis Brown left for Davidson, Okla., last week, where he will work for some time.

Miss Bratcher and Miss Page, two of our teachers, returned to their homes Saturday. We regret to see these two young ladies leave our community, but we hope that they will make us visits this summer and be with us again next winter as teachers.

Misses Sybil Weaver and Florella Mitchell look a trip to Austin last week. They went to the Interscholastic League Meet as tennis players. They got beat in tennis but they report a nice time. They say they are going again next year. We hope so, any way.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Daniels have gone a trip to Georgia. We wish these people a nice trip.

Miss Viola Lambert returned from Winters, Texas, Sunday. Miss Lambert has been attending school at Winters all of the term, but she will not have to go back because she finished high school this term. She will go to college next term. Her sister and mother came back with her. They had been to attend the commencement exercises.

The singing at the school house Sunday afternoon was enjoyed by all. There was a large crowd present.

The sermons Sunday morning and night rendered by Bro. Oldham were enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. McCurdy's daughter and granddaughter are visiting her this week.

Mr. Shelton has his new home completed, and will move in real soon.

Idalou has a drug store almost completed, and they have started the bank. This place is going to be a town some day.

NAME COMMITTEES FOR BAILEY DRIVE

Dallas, May 15.—The election of former United States Senator J. W. Bailey as governor of Texas in the coming election was confidently predicted at a mass meeting attended by some 300 democratic adherents of Mr. Bailey here today. Resolutions were adopted pledging support to his candidacy and committees named to continue the former Senator's campaign.

Mr. Bailey was not present but he sent a message declaring he would return from Washington as soon as possible to carry the fight to the end. "I have duly made up my mind to do that without reference to the result," he said. The meeting sent a telegram to the former resator asserting the belief that he would win.

R. C. Duff of Houston, was chairman of the meeting. A committee on resolutions composed of C. F. Greenwood, Dallas; Colonel R. M. Johnson, Houston; Ed R. Kone, San Marcos; J. L. Brown, San Antonio, and C. M. Cortwood, Greenville, brought in a report proclaiming "unerring allegiance to the ancient and fundamental principles of democracy" and pledging "our best efforts and unqualified support" to the election of Mr. Bailey. It was adopted by a unanimous vote.

Resolutions also were adopted asking the house and senate to "refuse to surrender the police power of your State to the Federal Government through ratification of the Federal suffrage amendment." A further resolution complimented Luther Nickels for his management of the Bailey campaign.

A committee was appointed to select an executive committee to have charge of Senator Bailey's gubernatorial campaign. This committee which was in session tonight was composed of Richard Mayes, Corsicana; Luther Nickels, R. M. Johnston, Tbs., P. Riddell, of Rockwell, and W. E. Murphy, Gainesville.

One of the day's speakers applied an epithet to Governor W. P. Hobby, which brought quite a protest by some of those present. Upon motion of Thos. F. Riddell the meeting, by a rising vote, repudiated the expression.

LIBERAL SUPPLIES OF CATTLE, HOGS, AND FAT SHEEP

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 17.—Live stock prices today ruled lower. Though total receipts of cattle were not large, beef grades predominated, evidently attracted by the relatively high position the market occupied last week. Steers were quoted steady to 15 cents lower. Hog receipts were large, with quality plain to fair and prices were 15 to 25 cents lower, top $14.35. In the sheep division receipts were liberal, including several large consignments from California.

Today's Receipts
Receipts today were 8,500 cattle, 18,000 hogs, and 12,500 sheep, compared with 10,000 cattle, 16,000 hogs and 8,000 sheep a week ago, and 12,100 cattle, 16,500 hogs, and 7,500 sheep a year ago. Today's supplies of hogs came from local trade territory, while cattle and sheep runs were augmented by receipts from Texas, Arizona and California.

Beef Cattle
Beef cattle were in liberal supply in proportion to total arrivals in the cattle division. Last week's advance here and lower prices in Chicago, was the occasion for liberal supplies. However, the market held steady for classes of medium weight steers and yearlings that were well adapted to the order trade and generally 10 to 15 cents lower for others. Beef steers sold mostly at $11.50 to $13. In the quarantine division out of a run of 74 cars, 68 cars were direct to packers from Fort Worth. The few cars on sale brought $10.00 to $10.7. Butcher cattle were steady. In some cases heifers were stronger. Veal calves were firm and bulls steady.

Stockers and Feeders
Price for stockers and feeders were firm. Receipts were small. Some country orders were not filled. The supply for some time past has been below normal, and unless the movement into feed lots is increased soon, fed cattle will be scarce this summer.

Hogs
Hog prices averaged 15 to 25 cents lower than Saturday. Because of the recent big declines in Chicago and St. Louis, shippers were unable to fill orders today at a reasonable margin under Eastern points. Packers were the principal buyers. The top price was $14.35, and bulk of offerings sold at $13.50 to $14.25. Today's receipts were liberal.

Sheep and Lambs
Variety predominated in a liberal supply at the sheep pens today and prices ruled 50 cents to $1.00 lower. California lambs sold at $14.50 to $18.00, California ewes $10.50, Texas yearlings, lambs and wethers mixed, at $15.25, wethers $11.50, native spring lambs sold up to $17.50 and clipped lambs, plain quality at $15.50.

Horses and Mules
Trade in horses and mules was about normal for the season of the year. Receipts were moderate. All offerings in condition sold readily at steady prices.

Market Correspondent.

3 Million Dollars but— It bought MUSIC

No finer example of courage is known to the world of science than Thomas A. Edison's work in perfecting the phonograph. The skeptics rose in full chorus when he proposed a better phonograph, — an instrument "that could produce music as human as the artists who first gave it utterance."

Mr. Edison's experiments exhausted the entire field of research in sound reproduction. He built and rebuilt until his final, perfected model cost him Three Million Dollars.

AND THE RESULT?

Ask some one who attended the Leola Lucey recital recently. There was the public proof. Miss Leola Lucey sang in comparison with the RE-CREATION of her voice by the New Edison. And no one could distinguish the living voice from its RE-CREATION.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

If you love music, you will agree with this enthusiastic audience:—The New Edison represents Three Million Dollars well spent.

The soul of song is cheap at any price. Yet it is now brought within reach of your pocketbook. The instrument used in this conclusive test is a duplicate of Mr. Edison's Three Million Dollar Model. It sells for $295.00 (in Canada, $431).

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and herbs, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alternative and tonic is wild cherry bark with stillingia, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, sassafras root, Queen's root,--all skillfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they fortify the body against an attack of grip or cold.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a blood disease, with this alternative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Send 10c for trial pkg. of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

HOLCOMB SAYS EFFORT SHOULD BE CONCENTRATED

The appalling increase in the number of automobile thefts during the past few weeks over the entire State of Texas is causing much anxiety on the part of the State Highway officials and the other officials of the country. For some time after the enactment of a few strenuous laws for the protection of the car owners of this State, the decrease in thefts was noticeable. However, according to Sheriff Holcomb, the thieves have now found new ways of getting away with these cars and are now again at work as diligently as ever. The fact that from the Governor's office at Austin there has been sent out notices of theft of automobiles amounting to as many as eight daily, Mr. Holcomb says he believes that under conditions now existing, little protection is accorded to the owners of automobiles. An instance of a few days ago in Lubbock clearly shows this to be a fact. The owner in a desperate effort to locate his stolen car, spent several dollars going to the Pecos oil country, El Paso, Roswell and other points in hopes of possibly locating it, only to find no clew whatever.

One of the best remedies Mr. Holcomb would offer would be the concentration of efforts among the State Highway officials particularly. He thinks that this department should employ men whose sole duty would be to search records comparing engine numbers of the various cars registered in the State. Also, if necessary, new registers in the States adjoining could be sent to some point of concentration of effort, thus locating immediately the number of the engine of the car stolen. The law compelling the registration of automobiles in all states would help in this work. Another way which would help in cases where the cars stolen are taken from one state to another, would be for the officials of the State in which the car is to be registered, to notify the officials of the State from which the car came and if found stolen it would be only a matter of minutes to find out. Under the present wave of automobile thefts especially of the Ford car, when it is known that millions of these cars are in operation, and that hundreds of thousands are being operated in the States including Texas and those that border, it is a fruitless task to attempt their recovery. One of the ways which Mr. Holcomb has reason to believe is being used by the present-day automobile thief, especially those who steal Fords, is to change the body of, say the touring type, to that of a roadster and otherwise. In cases of this kind where the description of the car stolen state it was a 1920 model Ford, the car may be easily changed to appear as a car of the 1918 model. Not only will the former owner of the car not recognize these cars when changed with a new body, but cases are known where the owner had examined his car, in search of which had been stolen, and not recognize it, to find later that it was his and that the only change made was the addition of different cushions. Various ways are used in stealing cars of this type now-a-days, according to Mr. Holcomb, that makes it an impossibility to locate them in many instances where they are operated in the various counties.

Mr. Holcomb also believes that it would be to the State's interest if necessary, to have a man in each county, or if better, in each district, whose sole duty was to be on the watch-out for stolen cars.

THE SITUATION IN TEXAS SCHOOLS

One-seventh of the teachers of Clay and Wilbarger counties resigned during the current year, according to reports of County Superintendent Hugh Moore of Clay county and J. N. Fulcher of Wilbarger county, received by the State Teachers' Association. Thirteen of Clay county's ninety teachers quit; ten teachers of lower qualifications were employed in their places, three vacancies persisted till the close of school and one school remained closed to the end of the term. Superintendent Fulcher reports forty-six teachers, more than half, in Wilbarger county have second grade certificates. The average pay of teachers is $75 per month for assistants; carpenters receive $200 to $240 per month and common laborers get $125 to $150 in the same county.

Rusk county lost thirty of its teachers during the current year, and twenty-four in Upshur county quit since Fall, according to reports of County Superintendents Elder of Gilder and Padgett of Henderson, made to the Texas State Teachers' Association. All recent applicants for certificates but one in Upshur county were without experience and were seeking the lowest grade certificate issued by the State. Twenty of Rusk county's thirty-six applicants have never taught and another ten had taught less than one year. Of Gregg county applicants Superintendent S. L. Wilson says, "We had seventeen applicants for certificates at the last examination; most of them school girls in the eighth grade. If some of them were to happen to pass and schools be turned over to these uneducated children, it might well disgust the children with schools and books."

Burleson, Fayette and Washington counties are to have untrained teachers in charge of their country schools for next year if recent applicants for certificates in those counties are employed, according to reports made by the county superintendents to the Texas State Teachers' Association. Of the thirty-nine applicants in the three counties, thirty-one were entirely without experience and not one of the remaining nine had taught as much as seven months. Twenty-eight of the group were less than 19 years of age. "Last year we had 35 teachers working their first year in Fayette county," says Superintendent G. A. Stirling of LaGrange, "and eighteen of them had not taught before." Lee Hensley, Superintendent of Burleson county, says his county will have to employ one-fourth of its teachers next year from among applicants without experience.

Five schools or rooms in McCulloch and Mason counties have remained closed for the present term on account of inability to secure teachers, according to reports of Judge C. H. Garrett, ex-officio county superintendent of Mason county, and W. M. Deans, county superintendent of McCulloch county. To fill the vacancies for next year in these and Llano county, fifteen persons have applied for certificates. Ten asked for the lowest grade certificates authorized by the State, seven have never taught and five of the remaining seven have taught less than one school term. There were 145 teachers in the three counties this year with 5,057 pupils. Judge A. E. Moore, ex-officio superintendent of Llano county alone reports an increase in school taxes for next term and that in but one district.

Neil A. Douglas, wife and daughter, of Littlefield, were here Monday. Mr. Douglas says the splendid rains of the past few days came in time to save the wheat crop in that part of the country, and that a good yield is now almost assured.

THE HOUSE THAT JACK NEVER BUILT

(Lady)
Now Mr. Architect, in drawing up my house plans; Arrange closets for each room, and pantries for pans, A nook and cozy corner, and portere disclosure, And don't forget that each room must have south exposure.

I want colonial porches, beautiful, spacious and wide, Parlors and all other rooms must be on south side; Elegant mantels, and beautiful hardwood floors, Moorish Grilles and four pair large sliding doors.

(Architect)
Your husband will pay two thousand dollars; no more, And that you have outlined will cost over four.

(Lady)
I will have what I want, and finish-ed before fall; I will have a pretty house or no house at all, Specify oak finish and gilded mould-ed border.

(Architect)
Then I went to work with wild and rumbled hair And drew a sketch that showed a closet everywhere.

(Lady)
She saw it and with five words she sealed my doom. I like the plans said she, but I must have more closet room.

(Architect)
Then I drew a sketch, nor sought my rage to hide, I drew a house of closets and left the rooms outside.

(Lady)
Whereat she pointed out amid my fierce despair, I had failed to show a closet underneath the stair.

(Architect)
Now when my wings are yet untried, I linger at the gate, And old St. Peter looks out to see what makes me wait;

(Lady)
He will find me on my hands and knees, searching there To see if they have closets built beneath the golden stair.
