Defrauding Thru Parcel Post the Latest Scheme

Persons who have the habit of paying offhand for parcel post packages delivered C. O. D., without taking the precaution of determining something about the senders, are warned by the Post Office Department to control the habit.

An investigation has been started by postal inspectors into the operations of various persons who have been using the mails to extort. The different persons have all used the same system sending packages of small value at high prices to persons whose names have been selected with considerable care and who were considered likely to pay first and examine afterwards.

Packages in the names of a one-time beauty specialist have been arriving at hotels in the New York section. They contain bottles filled with fluid, which, according to the label, were invaluable for sunburn and tan. They were, however, too small bottles to balance the $7 paid in each case for the packages.

But the latest of these frauds came to light in Quannah this week. More than 40 of the postoffice patrons here received yellow slips in their mail which stated there was a C. O. D. package on which was $1.03. This being a trifling sum, several business men who got such notices addressed to their wives and daughters, dug up the coin and took the packages home. When opened the shipment was a steel needle for embroidery work, valued, at the outside, at 5 cents.

The shipping tags on the parcels showed that they were mailed from Elgetra, this state. Many have been refused by those to whom they were sent, and every one who took out one and paid the $1.03 got stung to the limit. There are many variations of this sort of graft and we may be on the lookout for C. O. D. parcel post shipments from time to time. The graters need the money.—Quannah Tribune Chief.

The Tender Magic of Live Steam

There's tender magic in the live steam with which we press your garments—it's marvelously gentle and yet wonderfully efficient.

This vital force, as it surges through and through the fabric, has the same effect on woolen fibres that life-giving oxygen has on the human system—it rejuvenates, renews life and youth, and at the same time it sterilizes.

Things cannot go wrong with the American Steam Garment Press which we use in pressing your garments—there's no possibility of scorching—there's no iron surface to rust, no hard rubbing to roughen the fleecy woolen fibres and leave seams and pockets shiny.

Keep your garments wholesome and looking fit—you'll find it an investment in personal pride that's profitable.

Chamber of Commerce Items

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is a fact in Lubbock, and a very live, evident fact if you happened to be between the ages of 18 and 30 Wednesday morning—or looked like you might ever be between those ages.

To summarize the Junior Board idea: A co-operative organization of the young men of the town working in connection with and under the general policies determined by the senior directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. The directors or the junior board are chosen by the senior board from a list of all the available young men of the city. One hundred and fifty names were proposed and from this number 21 were recommended for the Junior Board Directorate.

These twenty-one young men were the guests of the senior board of directors at an organization banquet Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Cova. In the absence of President Rix, Vice President Walter S. Posey presided. In his introductory remarks as to the purpose of the meeting Mr. Posey stressed the obligations any citizen owes to the city in which he makes his home and the shift of the standard of success whereby a man was judged at his death.

"In the past when a man died the first question that was asked was, 'How much money did he make?'—That is changing until now the first and greatest question being asked upon the death of a citizen is 'What has he done for his town and humanity?' Chamber of Commerce work has no personal rewards that can be selfishly enjoyed—but it does pay in community friendships, improved standing in the community, greater business growth and appreciation of civic possibilities and satisfaction at being a part of the town in which you live.

Roscoe Wilson briefly sketched the history of the growth and development of this town and section and upon the basis of the past predicted a future whose possibilities were limited only by the capacity of the men who directed the affairs of the city, and their unselfish devotion to the civic development of the town and section. He attributed Lubbock's standing in the State today to the continued efforts of her citizenship through an active Chamber of Commerce through the past years.

"The successful business man keeps up with the progress of the world and especially with the developments being made in his own line of business. Each profession, business and industry has its peculiar methods of operation and each one has its own trade journals. The young business man starting out into the game does well to keep up and ahead of the world through these sources and through visiting other stores, offices and industries along the line of his own."

"Keeping up with the world" was the subject of a short talk made by Percy Spencer during the course of which the above statements were made.

The senior board withdrew and the junior board went into business session to complete the organization, with Secretary Keen acting as temporary chairman.

R. L. Douglas was elected chairman of the junior board, L. Earl Hunt, vice chairman, and F. W. Groce, treasurer.

A membership campaign was discussed and two sides chosen under the directors, Daddy Dickinson and Ralph Bedford. These two teams will compete for members until noon Thursday, August 25, at which time the total members turned in will be counted and Friday following, the winning side will be fed at a junior banquet by the losing side.

Wednesday morning both teams were going good and the junior membership bids fair to pass the regular Chamber of Commerce in point of individual members.

Some of the activities of the junior board will be the maintenance and operation of the tourist park, the marking of highways, the organization and directing of trade excursions, and the completion of the necessary work for the securing of free city mail delivery. Other activities will be undertaken as rapidly as these are completed.

The whole thing in a nut shell simply is: The young men of the city are banding together in a civic organization to help make Lubbock known and appreciated as the best town in the state. They are the men who will direct the affairs of the city in a few years and this is their preliminary training and it will result in good for the city.

There are some towns in which "Nuthin' ever happens" but Lubbock is not one of them, has never been one of them, and as long as the present bunch of folks live here, will never be. The howl is going up from all over the country that business is dead, that the country is going to the dogs, that folks don't do things like they used to—that they can't be interested as in the sweet days gone by.

But while the rest of the world is howling, Lubbock is doing things. Let's just summarize some of the things that have happened in Lubbock for the past several months that prove that statement:—First, Lubbock sold her bonds and paved her streets while more than 350 bond issues for paving in the state are being held up for a better market. They may get a better market—in five or ten years, but she have gotten the value of our paving for that time, our city will have made considerable growth ahead of what we would have done without the paving, and when the better market comes, we will have as much more paving to do.

Building operations have ceased over the whole country, and yet Lubbock has completed more than 150 modest residences, made extensive additions to one church, and started two new brick churches whose combined cost will be more than $100,000 when completed, started a $125,000 hospital building that is going to rank with the best in the state, is building four brick store buildings, and making other extensive improvements in the city.

Money is tight, in fact it is impossible to get money—and yet the Lubbock Elks have completed the purchase of a new home at a cost of $8,000 this past week, and the organization of a $25,000 Country Club has been perfected, the land bought and plans for the improvement of the tract are being made.

All of these are just a few of the minor material things that are being done. The Rotary Club's "Buy a desk campaign," that gave the school 100 new desks; the swimming pool that is adding interest to the life of the city; the new dam across the Yellow House canyon at the county park; The Chamber of Commerce activity, with the street signs, house numbers, tourist park, road signs from Denver to Galveston and from North Oklahoma to El Paso, a publicity campaign that is not being approached by any other city in the state; the Fair hand concerts, improved crossings on the railroad, cotton warehouse—all of these things count in the "something happens" list.

Some of the other things yet to be done and in the process of going over are the potato curing plant that will bring thousands of dollars to the town each year, the encouragement and promotion of more interest in

CREAM SEPARATOR EXPLODES; HURTS TWO

J. W. Slager and son, were badly cut and bruised about the face last Thursday, when a cream separator they were operating blew up. The boy was turning the machine at the time the accident occurred, and his father was standing in front. The milk tank, which contained something like three gallons of milk was blown to the ceiling, and the bowls and disc were also blown over the house, doing most of the damage. The cause was thought that a current of electricity formed in the bowl, which makes several hundred revolutions per minute and forcing its way out burst the top of the bowl.

Out West Where A Man Feels At Home.

Attention has been called a number of times to the above motto that is being advertised as being a part of the policy and disposition of the City of Lubbock. It is now up to the citizenship of the city to live up to that motto.

Do you make a stranger feel at home? A certain pastor of the city recently said that we do not give as much time and thought to the stranger and new comer in our midst as we should. He was speaking more from the churches view-point but his sermon was almost a Chamber of Commerce sermon.

A new citizen in our city told the Rotary Club that same thing Wednesday at noon, "that we are so in the habit of feeling that everybody is welcome and at home that we sometimes forget to make the stranger and new-comer feel the same spirit."

"We have lived here always and know everybody—surely everybody else does too"—is too much our attitude. But notice the first time you walk a block on the streets of the city, the number of new faces you see. They are strangers. A lot of them are new-comers in the city. Smear a grin on your old mug and say "howdy," like you mean it. If you have an opportunity stick out your hand and give him your name and get his. It will make you both feel good, even if he has been living here five years and you have never met before.

More than 100 tourists pass thru Lubbock every day—or between 3,000 and 5,000 folks a month pass through this city and it will take less than an average of two minutes each to send them away from the city talking Lubbock. Whenever a tourist car stops on any street in this city some citizen should drop off of the sidewalk and ask him if there is anything that he needs, anybody he wants to find, any service he wants in the city—whether it is oil or gas, groceries or road direction, or a place to camp, the post office, or Lubbock post cards—make them feel at home and that we are glad to have them here!

A good example of that happened last week. A car with a man, his wife and son stopped on the streets and one of our citizens dropped into conversation with them. In 1904, the woman's brother died here and was buried. They had never been able to get out here before, but had been by the cemetery and had been unable to find the grave of her brother. They were heart sick and discouraged. This citizen went with them. They hunted up old records of the cemetery years ago, went back out there and after a time found the grave. They erected a good head and foot board and marked it so it would be more easily found, and left Lubbock with a kindly feeling of gratitude and appreciation of the courtesy and favors shown them by one of our citizens and the last thing they said before they drove off was, "We will sure remember to speak a good word for Lubbock and Lubbock folks wherever we go."

That beats paid advertising a million times, even as good as paid advertising is.

Tourist Park.

Did you know that Lubbock had a tourists park? Some folks don't. The Chamber of Commerce maintains a free auto tourists park at the Fair Park, with free light, water, wood and shelter in bad weather. A residence keeper is in charge of the grounds. There is a telephone, brick camping furnaces, plenty of post cards, maps, road directions—every service to be found in a regular Tourist Park. Other improvements are to be made in the very near future.

If you want to spend a pleasant late evening now and then, drive out to the park about sundown and meet some of the folks who are camping there. Every evening you will find from six to twenty cars and they are from all over everywhere. It is both pleasant and profitable to meet them and make them feel that we are glad to have them pass through our city, stop over, and leave an invitation for them to come back and stay longer at another time.

There is something for every person in this city to do to make Lubbock a better known, better liked and better reputed town. Hunt out something to do each day. Speak to some stranger, some tourist—lets together make Lubbock the best thought of, best known town in the State of Texas. It is already climbing toward that distinction.

More Post Cards.

When the order for fifty thousand post cards was given out less than two weeks ago it was expected that that number would run the office for the rest of this year.

Almost half of these cards are already gone and a steady stream of folks are flowing through the Chamber of Commerce office every day getting more cards.

One word of caution: These cards cost the Chamber of Commerce money, even if they don't cost you a cent. Don't waste them. A close check is being kept with the post office as to how they are being mailed out after they are asked for by folks at this office, and the reports are not very encouraging.

If more of the cards do not start to being mailed it is going to be necessary that a rule be made requiring you to sit down in the office and write the cards before you leave, in order that they will not be wasted.

As has been said before—the Chamber of Commerce will furnish cards just as long as you will send them—but not as long as you will get them, carry them home and waste them.

Lets send a thousand cards a day for thirty days.

DATE FOR PAYMENT OF SCHOOL LAND INT. EXTENDED

Hon. Sam T. Davis, Lubbock, Texas.

Dear Sir:

The Legislature has passed a concurrent resolution which provides that forfeitures for non-payment of interest shall be postponed until August 25, 1922. The Governor has permitted the resolution to become effective as a matter of fair treatment of people in the West under the financial stringency of the times. Please advise the people in your county to this effect but say to them as it now appears it will be necessary for them to get ready to pay interest by the first of September, next year.

Yours truly,
J. T. ROBISON, Commissioner.

CIVIL PENALTIES ON GER. MANY LIFTED ON AUGUST 31

Paris, Aug. 18.—The allies will lift the economic penalties on Germany September 1, provided she pays the sums due August 31, the Supreme Council decided in its final session today.

The military penalties will remain. An international commission will also be created to inspect customs and prevent Germany from boycotting or discriminating against allied merchandise.

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

Haven't you noticed that this yard has been able to give you better service than ordinary? There's lots of people in Lubbock who now depend upon us to fill their needs in any line of building material. They have learned that we keep the things they must have—the things they want. Of course maintaining a service like this is rather expensive, but then we believe in giving just a little better service if it entails a sacrifice on our part.

Depend upon us regularly and save disappointments.

Texas Variety Stores Lease Howard Bldg.

There is nothing dead around Lubbock. Everything is live and active in this city. New business concerns are coming and the demand for buildings seems to be good. Several store buildings are being erected, and numbers of applications are on file for the buildings before they are completed.

This week the Texas Variety Stores have closed a lease contract with C. E. Howard, for the Howard building, commonly known as the Russell Building around on 11th street, west of the Lubbock State Bank building. The lease covers a period of three years.

The Texas Variety Stores concern has a chain of stores throughout Texas, and is one of the strong firms of the state in this line of business and their coming to this city will mean much to the people of this section, and is a good indication of the future importance of Lubbock, as they are a wide-awake bunch, and keep well posted as to the conditions and future possibilities of every section of the state. The fixtures and furniture for this concern will be shipped out of Dallas in a few days and in a short time this store will be open for business.

Jerroll Smith, a former Lubbock boy, will have charge of the store at this place.

Abernathy Celebrated Completion of the Union-Flour Mill

Friday morning I, with some others from Lubbock, boarded the train for the Big Farmers' Union day at Abernathy. The railroad fare was just a little fraction less than four cents per mile. Why is it that freight and passenger rates keep climbing higher and higher, and wages and produce going lower and lower? We think it's because of big salaries paid to head men and operators, who have subs and clerks to do the actual work while they draw the big salaries and also big dividends. Their interest, dividends and profits, (big one too, or they could not accumulate so fast) on investments, not so bad that, but also on watered stocks, padded expense, advertising, lobbying and everything charged up as expense. Thousands of cars of produce going to waste because of prohibitive shipping rates. Thousands of people staying at home who want to go, but can't afford to pay the exorbitant passenger fare. Is little business at unreasonable rates better than much business at fair and living rates? Seems like the railroad operators think so. Why are the railroad operators so petted and fondly cared for, and the public, the producers and the shippers left to the sweet will and mercy of said operators? Are railroad operators of more importance than production and the public good? If given a square deal the farmers can always be depended on to do their part and do it well, and a fair deal is all they ask.

Well, this is a subject of immense proportions so I must get back to Abernathy.

When we arrived in Abernathy we found District President, F. O. Townsend, District Secretary, Whittemore, Organizer, J. N. Grayson, Flem T. Gillespie, Crosby County president, and others who had preceded us. The people were pouring in by 10 a. m. and by 11 a. m. there was perhaps 2,000 people or more on the grounds and by the time dinner was served, perhaps 2500. It was nearly noon before the Tullia band appeared on the grounds, which was expected much sooner, and on account of which the beginning of the day's program was delayed. However, the speaking had already begun. A young Abernathy gentleman (I failed to get his name) delivered a fine short welcome address, followed by County President, J. B. Adams. Then Organizer J. N. Grayson introduced President Townsend, who spoke about twenty minutes and was just getting well into his subject when the management declared time up—so he quit with a promise to finish in the afternoon, which he did. Also Flem T. Gillespie delivered a fine speech following Mr. Townsend. Mr. Miller, proprietor of the Farmers Union flour mill, had prepared a box and numbered tickets for the ladies to deposit in it, and Mr. Gillespie called up three little girls to draw out one ticket each of those deposited by the ladies. The first ticket drew a 48 pound sack of flour, second a 24 pound sack and third a sack of meal to be brought by the Abernathy Farmers Union Mill. I guess the reason why Mr. Townsend's forenoon speech was cut in half was because of the fact that just a little ways from the immense crowd under and around the big tabernacle, there was a big lot of fine meat being barbecued, and lots of other good things being prepared, so those who knew what was there was anxious to get to it, and those who didn't know were anxious to find out. A long table had been prepared, somewhere between 60 and 300 yards long. I guess some thought it about a quarter of a mile before they got through. I didn't go through the chute, which was about four feet wide, between the table and an improvised fence, through which about 1500 people or more passed, single file, while many waiters were kept busy on the other side of the table, and judging by the plates that were loaded with good things to eat, I should think that everybody was hungry and possessed good appetites.

I was told that 1500 paper plates were handed out to the hungry procession, besides other plates and means of eating, of which there were perhaps 500 more people fed. I think it must have been near 2 p. m. when dinner was all over and the program resumed, which was interspersed with music by the Tullia Band. The exciting evening attractions were a sack race, ladies egg race, gentlemen's cigar race, bronco riding, boys Shetland pony race, and others, winding up with a baseball game between Lubbock and Littlefield.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the occasion and all went home pleasantly, so far as I know, except the falling of the improvised seats at the amusement grounds.

Crops looked well and we crossed the track of a good rain some six miles south of Abernathy.

DIVERSIFIED FARMING WILL MAKE FARMERS PROSPEROUS

In conversation with Prof. J. K. Burke the other day regarding general conditions through which the country is passing, he advanced some splendid practical ideas, and promised to write them for the Review for the benefit of our readers. He says the doctrine of diversification should be stressed and practiced as never before and this is the one solution to our local financial troubles. This country is well adapted to the successful raising of hogs, poultry and dairying, three splendid side lines to successful farming, and Prof. Burke promised to give his views in a series of articles to the Review. We are for anything legitimate that will promote the interests of agriculture and husbandry and will gladly publish the views of our readers, with the hope that an expression of ideas may help us all.—Crosbyton Review.

An Old Indian Custom of Marking Directions to Water

In traveling over the plains of Western Texas, one now and then comes upon little isolated heaps of rock in twos, that at first glance seem not at all remarkable. After a time, however, one notices that one heap is generally about three feet high and the other about a foot lower. The two are always within a few feet of each other, and usually on an elevation or a plateau commanding a view of the country for five miles or more.

The rocks are roughly heaped together, as if left by children at play. At first one is likely to wonder whether they can be ruins of ancient stone buildings but this idea is at once dismissed as improbable, for there is scarcely another stone in sight.

In time one learns the significance of these rock heaps, as he talks with some of the Indians who know by heart all the legends and customs and deeds of their people. According to these Indians when the Great Spirit lapped up the mighty rivers of the plains, he left springs and water basins here and there for the antelope and the Indians. These the antelope easily found by scent, but the Indians had to search long and anxiously for them. Once found, they were seldom lost, thanks to these rude rock heaps.

You may see an Indian crouch down behind the taller heap, sight over the low one, and mark the farthest object in a straight line, which is likely to be a bunch of bushes on the horizon. Then he rides toward these bushes and finds—not water, as he expected but two other heaps of rocks. Sighting as before and taking a rock-faced cliff perhaps, toward the Southwest as a goal he

GAME WARDEN APPOINTED FOR SHAMROCK AREA

Shamrock, August 15.—A game warden has been recently appointed here, it became known today, at the solicitation of local sportsmen and also upon advice of the state game warden. From reports it appears that a large number of non-resident hunters have been coming here daily for the past few weeks and killing prairie chickens by the hundreds. One farmer stated that nearly 200 prairie chickens had been killed on his farm in one day. This, the newly appointed game warden says must be stopped at once, and all persons found guilty of violating the game laws will be severely punished.

PEN COMMITTEE ADVISES GUARDS BE PROSECUTED

Austin, Texas, Aug. 13.—The penitentiary investigating committee authorized to investigate the killing of two convicts by penitentiary guards on the Eastham prison farm last July, submitted a report late today. The committee recommends that the two guards, John Wells and Charles Whitley, be permanently dismissed from the system. They found that the killing was unjustifiable, and that the guards could have overtaken the escaping men if they had tried. The committee recommends that the case be called to the attention of a grand jury by the prison commission, and that the guards be prosecuted if indictments are found. The committee further recommends that guards be instructed not to shoot convicts until all other means of recapturing them have been exhausted. The committee also recommends that a sufficient number of bloodhounds be kept for the purpose of overtaking escaping convicts.

CITY WATER TANK FELL AT HALE CENTER TUESDAY

A very disastrous thing happened to Hale Center Tuesday when the city water tank collapsed.

The tank was just recently built, made of concrete, and was ten feet across and over thirty feet high.

This is a great loss to the town as the funds for building the tank were made up by subscription. Plans had been made for laying a pipe line over the business district of the town and subscriptions had already been made for laying the pipe.

The tank evidently was not built as it should have been and some say it was a good thing it fell as no one was around at the time. Prof. Sears had been up on the tank about ten minutes before it fell.

It is not known yet as to whether another tank will be built or not.—Hale Center Record.

'The Tractor will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life. I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth.'

This tractor has done much—very much—in bringing true Mr. Ford's prophecy; for in it is a machine which has harnessed one of the most dependable, efficient, adaptable, economical sources of power in the world—a machine that saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time—a machine which many farmers claim plows, harrows or drills as much ground in the same time as four, six or even eight horses. And more—a machine that takes care of every power job on the farm.

COTTON BROKER MAKES A CLOSE INVESTIGATION OF COTTON SITUATION; COTTON TO SELL FOR 15 CENTS

New York, August 13.—The writer has just returned from a tour of careful investigation throughout an important portion of the cotton-belt. We was not content with visits to the larger towns and cities, so rode many miles out into the rural sections and quizzed small country merchants as well as the larger ones in the cities and discussed fundamentals at length with prominent bankers and manufacturers.

Frankly, he heard not one hopeful or cheerful note. There was not a single rift in the clouds of gloom. Despair stalked broadcast. The wartime symphony of prosperity and content had been turned into a jazzy jangle by yelping yawkers—a jaundiced yellow of pessimism had superseded the recent resolute aura of abundance. The poor house was getting nearer each day, the country sheriff was bent under the weight of attachments, while courthouse doors were invitingly open to bankruptcy proceedings. It was indeed an indeterminate, awe-inspiring, illuminating indulgence in an iniquitous indigo-hued industrial and commercial attack of acute indigestion. Fortunately, however, these things were purely imaginary.

Prosperity and depression move in cycles, one following the other with the same precision and regularity as the sun and moon. When prosperity is at the top of the cycle the vast majority are gleeful. It is then that amateur sages are cock-sure of the future. The horn of plenty is seemingly inexhaustible. Life is to be lived with laughter and song, skipping and dancing in the never-ending antillating sunshine. But alas! When depression takes its turn at the top of the wheel the exact reverse is true. The majority view with one another in weeping and wailing. Things in general are headed for the demitition bow-wows with no ashes on the slide to retard the decent. Dark, foreboding clouds indicate a hopeless future; panic seems imminent.

The time to display caution, even timidity, is during boom times. It is far more profitable to be courageous, even daring, when conditions are depressed. Even common sense tells us that when prosperity is at the peak we should look out for the inevitable slide down the toboggan instead of plunging with never a thought of tomorrow. All markets are in reality weakest at the top and strongest at the bottom. This is an inflexible economic rule. This very instant we are very near bottom, having touched it a month ago and are now assuredly on the upgrade. A big opportunity is at hand.

Next, let us see what is the exact financial situation. We are firm in the belief that all the country now needs is to have the flood gates of the great Wall Street money depositories (pools) open in order that financial strength may percolate thru the veins of commerce and industry, revitalizing them and permitting the business of the country to become rehabilitated. Three days ago the New York World said editorially—"The farmers need not charity but credit. The cotton they are holding is excellent security. It is a needed crop; artificial financial conditions cannot hold it off the market as a worthless product forever." This is entirely true, too.

PROFANITY

The Masonic lodge of Breckenridge has passed resolutions looking to the suppression of profanity on the streets and in the business district of that city.

It has even been hinted that young some older ones are using words never so punctuate the English language, which they have learned so much profanity from it no longer holds repugnance for them.

Man is the ideal of a boy. Every boy admires a man and in tender years tries to imitate man.

Men quit cussin'. It's little of you! There is nothing to it! You waste words and time when you use profane words. Cut it out!

We understand that one Lubbock woman scored the Avalanche editor at a recent club meeting and accused him of misrepresenting things in Lubbock, when we stated that some of the girls around Lubbock sat in the laps of young men in autos.

We agree with us that the tabernacle propped up good one and that it would be a great boon to the community, and furnish ample audience, but no one seems to take the lead.

It is time for some organization to take this matter up and get it ready anyway, if not before. You know you will have occasion to use such a man. Next year the candidates will address the dear people.

A NEW MONEY CROP

The potato bids fair to soon become an important money crop for the South. Modern warehouses enable the farmers to keep their potatoes in prime condition long after they have been taken from the ground.

Sweet potatoes are grown to a limited extent only in the north and west and east, and even where it is grown the quality is inferior.

That sweet potatoes grow in popularity wherever they are introduced has been proven time and again. The supply never exceeds the demand.

All that is needed to make the sweet potato one of the principal crops of the South is a campaign of education, so to speak, in order to acquaint the people of other parts of the country with its many merits as an article of food.

These things can be done and they will be done. Southern farmers are beginning to realize their possibilities.

They can do with their sweet potatoes just what the people of California have done with their oranges and lemons, and what the people of Oregon have done with their apples.

The development of an industry of this kind in Lubbock will mean much. It will add another item to the long list of diversified crops in the Lubbock territory which will mean greater prosperity for the South Plains.

THE DEVIL

Modern people have taken their conception of a personal Satan not from the Book but from a book, "Dante's Inferno," says Rev. Dr. W. L. Munhall, the noted Bible scholar.

And to the same source the scholar attributes the idea of Hell as a place of fiery lakes and hissing caldrons in the midst of which lost souls tossed in torment while demons leaped and shot in the horrid glare.

But this does not mean that Dr. Munhall does not believe in a personal Devil. On the contrary he says one exists "as certain as there is a personal God."

As for Hell, says the writer, "As certain as there is a Heaven for good people, there is a Hell for bad people. If there is no future accounting and punishment, for the deeds done in the body, then the one deserving the least punishment will suffer most, while the one deserving of most punishment will suffer least, if at all."

SPECIAL SESSION A FARCE

The legislature of Texas has done little! The extra session is at an end, and very little accomplished. It has been a season of blocking. The legislature has blocked the Governor.

It is time for some organization to take this matter up and get it ready anyway, if not before. You know you will have occasion to use such a man. Next year the candidates will address the dear people.

REDISTRICTING

It is clearly seen that the redistricting bill as finally passed is a purely political one. The time of becoming effective has been placed three years hence, which is a clear indication that the legislators now in office have looked well to their own interests in the formulating of this bill.

A writer has stated that in order to be strictly accurate in reporting a wedding, one should refer to the preacher as the "best man."

GERMANY'S INSINCERITY

It must be plain to everybody that the German courts will not mete out adequate punishment to those German officers who were accused of brutal and unfarranted methods during the world war.

Coming at this time, when the world has been wanting to believe that Germany would act in good faith in carrying out the peace terms, this is more than ever unfortunate.

The world will always believe that German officials caused the war, but there has been a general hope that the German people would show that they did not approve the acts of their leaders.

Those who claim that prohibition is not having its effect will please explain why all the courts are having less to do in the line of crime from drink than they ever had to do before.

Why borrow trouble? Chances are you will have some of your own soon enough.

We had a hot time this summer, but what if we had had a political campaign on?

Texas Presbyterians Gain 32 Per Cent in Past Ten Years

Interesting facts for Presbyterians and members of other denominations are set forth in the recently issued minutes of the Southern Presbyterian Church. These minutes cover proceedings in May of the General Assembly at St. Louis, and show the total membership in Texas to be 38,712, a gain in ten years of 32 per cent. The Sunday School enrollment in Texas is 35,077, or about ninety for every 100 church members. The largest number ever reported received on profession of faith, 2,682, is shown in the statistics, and the number of elders is placed at 1,871. A tithe is one who pledges himself to give at least one-tenth of his income to the church. Presbyterians in Texas contributed $381,782 to benevolent causes, which is $9.83 per member. Total contributions to all causes amounted to $1,103,642, or about $28.48 per member. This is the largest amount ever contributed. The report further shows that for the year just closed the membership increased in the entire Southern Presbyterian Church by 29,451, making the total membership 397,058. Receipts for benevolent causes in the Southern church amounted to $4,938,650, or about $12.43 per member. Total receipts for all causes were $12,124,891, or about $24.53 per member. These also surpassed all previous records.—Ft. Worth Star-Telegram.

CATTLE STEADY; HOGS WEAK; LAMBS HIGHER

Kansas City Stock Yards, August 15th, 1921.—Cattle receipts today were the largest of the year, mostly Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, pastured steers. Demand for fed grades, wintered grass fat and the best grades of grass fat steers was active and fully steady. Half fat and common killers sold slowly at lower prices but the decline was modified by a good stocker and feeder demand. Hog prices were steady to 10 cents lower, lambs were 25 cents higher, Utah lambs sold up to $10.50.

Today's Receipts. Receipts today were 26,600 cattle, 6500 hogs and 4500 sheep, compared with 22,500 cattle, 7500 hogs, and 9000 sheep a week ago, and 21,800 cattle, 7350 hogs and 9900 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle. Trade in beef cattle started the week in much the same position as late last week. Best killing grades, especially fed steers, were steady, with the best time last week and the plainer kinds were 15 to 25 cents lower than last Wednesday. However, there was a good demand from local killers and a good outlet on shipping orders. General indications are that the market will continue to absorb liberal supplies readily. Killers are taking more cattle than at any previous time this year, and the feeder trade which has expanded materially will act as a check to any further decline in the half fat class. Cows and heifers were 25 cents lower with trade quiet. Veal calves were steady.

Stockers and Feeders. Inquiry for stockers and feeders was fairly large with prices unchanged. A good many thin steers and sock cows are being sent into the northwest sections that last year had drought conditions. Corn belt feeders are buying a good many fleshy steers for short feeding.

Hogs. Hog prices averaged steady to 10 cents lower. Rough classes showed the decline. Smooth grades in practically all weights were in active demand. The top price was $9.90, and bulk $9.00 to $9.85. Pigs sold up to $10.25. Shippers bought freely. All Eastern markets closed lower.

Sheep and Lambs. Lambs were strong to 25 cents higher and sheep steady. Native lambs sold up to $9.50, Arizonas at $10.25, and Utah lambs $10.50. Wethers are quoted at $5.25 to $5.75, and ewes $4.25 to $5.00. Feeding lambs are quoted at $6.50 to $7.75.

Horses and Mules. Increased supplies of horses and mules, mostly plain quality sold slowly at weak prices. About 150 range horses are ready for the special auction this afternoon.

Texas Leads in Number of Crop Varieties

Washington, Aug. 13.—Owing to the size of the State and the variety of its soil and climate, there are few crops in whose production Texas does not figure as one of the leading states. From cotton, in which it leads by far all other states, down through the entire list of crops, Texas is somewhere near the head of the list on almost every crop. And now the census bureau, in figures of the 1920 census given out today, brings the state up to sixth place in the production of both sugar cane and sorghum.

Four crops are listed under the report on sugar crops in the United States—sugar cane, sugar beets, sorghum and maple sugar. Texas is included, if at all, under the heading of "all other states" with respect to both sugar beets and maple sugar. But it is among the leaders in both the other crops.

Louisiana in 1919, produced more than 68 per cent of the entire sugar cane crop of the United States, with a yield of 2,439 tons, out of a total of 3,561,133 tons for the United States. This was grown on 234,049 acres. Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Florida came next in rank, with Texas producing 130,943 tons in 1919 from 18,867 acres. The same states outranked Texas in the amount of cane syrup made on farms, leaving Texas sixth with a production of 1,631,459 gallons, out of a total of 21,240,966 gallons in the United States.

The leading states in the production of sorghum syrup in 1919 were Alabama, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Mississippi, in that order, followed next by Texas, with 1,689,205 gallons out of a total in the United States of 21,623,025 gallons. The same states led Texas in the yield of sorghum, the latter producing 122,179 tons from 25,589 acres in 1919, out of a total of 1,644,100 tons from 482,043 acres in the entire United States.

WHY IT'S CALLED THE FUNNY BONE

That little spot in your elbow which, when struck, sends a tingling and by no means agreeable sensation through the body, has long been known as the "funny bone." Many persons no doubt have often wondered at the name, for there is nothing amusing in being reminded of it—or rather their existence, since there are two of them, one in each elbow. Proof that the term was used as far back at least as 1840 is found in the following extract from the "Ingoldsby Legends": "They have pulled you flat on your back! And they smack and they whack 'Til your funny bones crack."

As if you were stretched on the rack.

The technical, anatomical name for the bone of which we are speaking is the "inner condyle of the humerus," and in all probability it was the play upon the latter word, by some medical student, that brought the term into use, through his propounding to fellow students the following conundrum: "Which is the funniest bone in your arm? The one that borders on the humerus."

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE CROSBYTON REVIEW

Crosbyton is now enjoying one of the greatest union revival meetings the town has ever had. Rev. Theodore Copeland, the great evangelist of Dallas, arrived last Saturday afternoon and is doing the preaching, and the interest continues to increase and we are confidentially expecting one of the greatest revivals of religion the country has ever had before. All denominations have joined in the meeting and all alike are taking an active part and it is pleasing to note that the Christian people of our town and community are presenting such a united front and are so deeply in earnest, and the unsaved are attending to give respectful attention to the preaching.

Rev. H. M. Reed has just closed a splendid revival meeting at Lakeview over the line in Floyd county, which resulted in 34 additions to the church, 24 of the number being by baptism. Bro. Reed will commence a meeting at Pansey on the East Plains next Saturday night and will be assisted by Rev. W. R. Underwood, Baptist pastor at Lorenzo.

We are glad to hear that our friend W. W. Boyd, has sufficiently recovered from his recent operation at a Lubbock sanitarium for appendicitis, and arrived home some days ago. Now for the longest cigar in town.

BOY SHOT ATTEMPTING TO "SWIPE" WATERMELON

Noel Favers, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Favers, who live one mile west of town, was shot and slightly wounded about the face and arms Tuesday night about 10 o'clock. Shortly after the shooting, W. R. Hopkins, a close neighbor, surrendered to local officers and it is alleged admitted that he did the shooting. Hopkins was arrested and summoned to appear before the grand jury, which is now in session.

Hopkins, it is said, told the officers that he shot the boy as he was attempting to "swipe" his watermelons. He declared that he is making a living off his small truck farm and that he has been having a great deal of trouble in keeping people out of his watermelon patch. He had given many warnings, he said, but all to no avail. Thinking that the young man was some man who was entering the patch, he says he proceeded to shoot.

Six shots from the shot-gun shells took effect in the boy's body, two of which struck him in the face. Dr. J. F. Owens was summoned to administer treatment and later on Dr. J. C. Anderson was also summoned to render medical attention. It is not thought that the injuries will prove serious, though they caused considerable pain. Plainview Herald.

From Where Does a Bank Get its Strength?

Too many people think money the most important source of a bank's strength. Of course money is essential; without it a bank would not be a bank. But with money and without men to guide the affairs of the bank over the rough roads—the bank would never be a success. Men ripened with experience, men who have proven beyond a doubt their ability, can make a bank much stronger than can mere money. They must work together if you, as a customer, would be benefited. Are you acquainted with the men who control the Lubbock State Bank?

LOCAL NEWS FROM THE BORDEN COUNTY GAZETTE

The weather for the past week has been the hottest that has been known here for a number of years. Wednesday afternoon the thermometer registered 111 in the shade, and last Thursday it was 98 at 11 o'clock. West Texas can call the hand of any state when it comes to hot weather. Some days the winds have been hot and the weather is killing vegetation. While working with a young mule Wednesday John Clark got tangled in the rope and had his left ankle dislocated. It made a very painful wound as the ligaments were pretty badly torn. Dr. Hannabag went out and attended to the wound and Mr. Clark is getting along nicely. Showers of rain which fell yesterday afternoon in different parts of the county cooled the atmosphere and gave some relief from the intense heat that has been prevailing for the past eight or ten days. The following shipments of cattle were made from Borden County the first of the week: J. K. Mitchell, three cars of yearlings; T. G. Hudson, one car; Jenkins and Miller, eight cars. W. K. Clark returned Wednesday from a five weeks' trip through Southwest Texas and into Old Mexico. He went as far as Brownsville, and says that most of the country where he went is very dry and crops light, no where were the crops equal to the crops in Borden county. Some of our farmers are busy gathering maize, which is making a very fair yield on most of the farms. Some crops are being estimated at a ton per acre.

SOME LITTLE THINGS THAT AMOUNT TO MUCH

It is a little thing to have the pump down at the corner of the porch and let mother carry all the water she uses up five steps and come through a screen door at that. Of course we could raise the pump to a level with the porch and extend it enough to take the pump inside, but we never think of little things like that when we have so much to do planning handy ways of doing the farm work. It is a little thing to leave steps without a hand rail to hold to in mounting them, but I know of one life such a rail on three steps to a back porch would have saved. Then it makes it so much easier for a tired person to get up with a load of wood or pail of water. I can call to mind several bad falls my friends have had on steps, and all could have been prevented by hand rails. It is a little thing to have the garden way off from the house, but the journey gets long on a hot day when the morning's work has sapped the strength, and the vegetables are to be gathered for the noon meal. Better fence the chickens out than to try to get the garden beyond their reach. It's a little thing to have the pigs and chickens in the door all the time, and the extra work they make mother in keeping things even comparatively clean about the home is overlooked because we do not hear her rebelling. A fenced yard with a grassy lawn would make life so much pleasanter for her, and save her so much sweeping and scrubbing. It is a little thing to plant a row of muddy tracks across the porch and into the kitchen every time you enter during rainy weather, but it is no little matter to get rid of those tracks and the hundreds of others that keep them company. Why not make some good concrete walks and put in some good mud scrapers and fibre mats where they will do the most good? It is a little thing to take mother into your confidence when planning labor saving helps about the farm, but she will enjoy the privilege hugely, and the light in her eyes will make you get busy finding ways of making her life easier. We are prone to take mother and her work as a matter of course, and think little about how things might be arranged to save her steps and lighten her tasks.—Farm and Ranch.

CHEER UP, THERE IS HOPE LEFT AT FORTY

No doubt many a young man whose business or professional career is felt by him not to be a success, arises on the morning of his fortieth birthday in a despondent mood. He is apt to look upon himself as a "has-been" and believe that the future has nothing bright in store. It might be well for such a man to cut out and preserve, for occasional reference, the following: At 40, Ulysses S. Grant, later President of the United States, was idling about the streets of Galena, Illinois, with no occupation, and was generally regarded by the prosperous citizens of that town as a worthless sort of a person. At 40, Julius Caesar was a mere politician, completely overshadowed by the fame of Pompey. It was not until Caesar was 45 that he became a general and began one of the most illustrious military careers in history. At 47, Handel had produced no great musical work, and it was not

Reunion of the Coleman Family At Haskell, Texas

An old time family reunion has been held the past week at the home of Mr. J. W. Coleman of Haskell County, in honor of Mr. George Coleman, who is 85 years old.

The relatives began to gather at Mr. J. W.'s home Tuesday night about sunset, nine carloads coming from the Plains, one from Sweetwater and two from Rule. The remaining arrived Wednesday morning.

One hundred of the relatives were present Wednesday, and there were thirteen absent, who found it impossible to come. The day was made more pleasant by the thirty-nine visitors, who have been very intimate friends with the family for several years.

The day was well filled with happiness. In the morning the boys entertained the crowd by riding calves and young mules. The dinner, which consisted of barbecued meat, pickles, cakes and pies of every kind was served on the front porch at 3 o'clock. Everyone readily agreed that it was time, even the lemonade barrel was neglected for a few minutes until everyone had eaten far more of the feast than was good for them.

After dinner pictures were made and then all gathered in the parlor, or as many as possible, and took part in the singing. After singing some of the young people went driving and those that remained were given spec-

Another feast was spread on the front porch at 7:30. After supper the young people entertained themselves by having a party. The old people assembled on the front porch and discussed everything from the time that Grandpa Coleman sailed from England, when a lad of 14, to present day politics. At 10:30 that night the crowd dispersed to the different homes of the relatives who lived near with hopes of even a happier day on the morrow, for all were to meet again the next morning and start on a fishing trip.

About eighty persons composed the fishing party, and the day was one of the most enjoyable ever spent.

THE WEEK'S BATCH OF NEW HOPE NEWS

We had a good little rain Tuesday afternoon accompanied by some hail. In some places it did some damage.

Mr. E. J. Cowart was in town Saturday.

Mr. Herman Evans was able to return home Friday from the sanitarium. We hope that he will soon be enjoying good health again.

The Monroe reporter suggested that the reporters from the other communities say whether they were against women wearing overalls or no, so here goes. I, for one, do not think it right for women to be seen in public places with them on, but if they have to ride a cultivator it would be different, but do not understand me to say that I approve of them for I do not. I hope this will not stir up a hornet's nest.

The McDole children visited the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Eoff, Sunday, and also Tuesday afternoon.

INTERESTING BATCH OF BADGER LAKE ITEMS

The rain and hail got us so badly last week that we forgot to get our little "say" in the paper. The rain ranged from nothing to three inches in these "diggins," and the hail did lots of damage in places. The cotton was almost completely destroyed, where the hail was the heaviest. Most of the feed stuff will come out and make. The crops are beginning to suffer for rain in the north and northern part of the settlement. The rain was heaviest in the southern and southwestern part of this community.

Rev. White, of Temple, is holding a revival in our midst. He is a very sincere preacher and presents the truth very forcibly. The attendance is good. We are hoping for great good to be accomplished.

Guy Myers was on the sick list a few days last week, but we are glad to report him better at this writing.

Steve Collier was peddling beef one day last week.

Fred Ray is cutting Sudan for Mr. Kendall this week.

Some of our Badger Lake people are attending the Baptist revival at Idalou. They are doing great good in that town and we rejoice with them in their success.

Messrs. Pevehouse, Karr and Collier were out with a petition for a brick schoolhouse Monday. They report that no one had refused to sign. A nice schoolhouse will help put us on the map, so let everybody help to our fullest extent.

E. A. Abney was on the sick list all of last week, but we are glad to see him out again.

Some of the farmers are very busy listing their wheat ground since the rain.

Mr. Ed Nelson's brother, who has been visiting him for some time, has returned to his home at Stanton, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Williamson, of Center, were callers in the Kendall home Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Theodor has been cutting hay for his son, in the Bledsoe community, this week.

Mr. N. M. Hightower and family, visited Clint and Will Hightower, on last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Louise Bentley had another attack of the sleeping sickness last week. She is ok at present.

Mrs. Clint Hightower's father, of Eastland, Texas, has been visiting her for the past few days.

Some of the neighbors enjoyed ice cream and cake at Mr. Norwood's Saturday night.

THE AGE OF A MAN

(By PHEBE K. WARNER)

How old are you? No, we do not mean when were you born, or how many years you have lived. Time may be measured that way but life is not. Life is measured by the things we do and the way we do them.

What we mean is how old are you mentally? If it were possible to separate your mind from your body, and then personify your mind in a body no more developed than your mind, which would you be, a man or a boy? And just how big a man or a boy would you be? And what would you look like if your body had as many defects as your mind? And how old would you be if you were no older than your mental development registered?

Our American army, the pick and flower of American manhood between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one, when examined and measured by every possible standard, averaged thirteen years and four months old mentally. In other words, the world war was won by an army of 4,000,000 thirteen year and four months old boys. The only way it could possibly have been done was because there were a few hundred, yes, a few thousand real men to lead, train, and direct the masses of our soldiers. There were a few full grown mental men in the army. No, not full grown either, because there is no limit to the development of a man's mind. For convenience his body has a limit. But for the sake of the world's progress a man's mind is supposed to get bigger and broader and stronger every day he lives, no matter how many years that may be. Why, there is one of the finest laws of all creation. Where would the world be today if ever man's mind had been limited to twenty-one years of time for its full maturity? Think how we all pity the man who is crippled or deformed, physically.

How often do we hear folks say what a wonderful man he would have been but for his physical misfortune? Yet some of the greatest men in the world's history have been physical wrecks. Why were they great? Because their mind never ceased to grow. Their bodies may have stopped growing when they were thirteen years old but their minds had been growing for fifty or sixty or more years.

Now, what is holding this world back and down this very day more than any other one condition? Is it a lack of time? Is it a lack of physical strength? Is it a lack of numbers in the rank of masculine gender, or is it purely a lack of mental development? Why do youth and old age clash so often in their views? Simply a difference in vision due to the development of mind. Our size, our weight, our number of years makes no difference in our opinions or our judgment if our minds have stood still. Often the discord in a single family is due to the fact that one or more minds in the family have kept on growing while the others stood still. Go to the divorce records today and go to the bottom of a lot of our domestic troubles and you will find that often somewhere in the past two children were married. They may have been twenty and twenty-five years old so far as time was considered, but perhaps only ten and fifteen years old in mind. Later one's mind grew and the other did not. When such is the case it is only a few years until their ideas of things are entirely different. Both think they are right and the other is wrong. You know the rest.

And sometimes the family is a state family, representing millions of members. And some of them grow and some of them do not. But the years of time keep rolling by. And our bodies grow up and folks look like men physically but act like little boys. And naturally a full grown man mentally feels like turning them over his knee and giving them a good sound spanking, but the other fellow is as big as he is when it comes to matching pounds. So what are you going to do about it?

Now what is the matter with Texas? Texas has a few men whose minds and spirits have never stopped growing. In mind and vision they have grown bigger and broader every day of their lives until now they can look out over the whole state and see its needs. But there are so many others who "quitted" in the grammar grades. That's it exactly. They quite growing the day they left the little old school back in the woods somewhere. But because they weigh as much they feel that they know as much as the man whose mind has been growing for forty or fifty years.

Today Texas has the largest rural population in the United States. But mentally we are thirty-ninth in education. If we could all be measured mentally how old do you suppose Texas would be? Would we be as old as the army? What Texas needs is more developed men mentally to be our leaders. All our colleges and universities are not turning out half enough real men to do the work of the state. The greatest need of the rural schools today is more men and women who are fit to direct a rural school. Most of our men who quitted in the grammar grades never had an efficient, inspiring, well trained teacher in all their lives. That is why they quitted so early. That is why they are fighting the educational interests of the state today. They mean all right. But they are mere boys trying to direct the educational interests of a great state.

MINISTER DISCUSSES HIS WIFE'S TROUBLES

Rev. A. H. Sykes, former pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., says: "After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think that I have ever seen anything give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes had been in delicate health for ten months, suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdown.

"I frequently sought medical advice but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it is only a short time until her health will be fully restored.

Tanlac is sold in all leading drug stores.

REV. ROSS RETURNS FROM YOAKUM COUNTY MEETINGS

Ross is one of the pioneer preachers of the South Plains. He organized the Methodist church at Crosbyton with about twenty-four members several years ago, and has organized Methodist churches all over the South Plains. He does most of the preaching in his meetings, and also assists other preachers in revival meetings during the summer months. He has had more than average success in his ministry, and though up in years, is still quite active, and preaches good forceful, religious sermons.

MAN HURT WHEN FORD TURNS OVER NEAR HEREFORD

Ford roadster occupied by two men shot through town last Saturday, hit some loose sand at the turn near the bridge west of town, and turned turtle. One of the occupants, an Amarillo man, was unhurt, but the other received a broken shoulder and three smashed ribs.

The injured man is now in the sanitarium and gives his name as J. E. Davis and his address as Toledo, Ohio. Facts in this case have been hard to secure, but the local impression is that Davis and his companion were pursuing another car ahead of them, suppose to have been stolen from Davis at Amarillo.—Hereford Brand.

PURE BREDS FIND A READY SALE ON MARKET

Graphic demonstration of the what the purebred-sire-on-the-range movement can do for the uplift of grades of cattle in Colorado was had this week at the Denver yards in the 120 mile drive-in of the cattle growers of Middle Park.

The Jones Cattle company, located near Kremmling, for years has followed the policy of using bulls of the best blood with its range herd. While practically all of its fat cattle in the combined drove of 255 head marketed here Tuesday were outstanding in their lines and condition, there were 20 head of steers which caught the eyes of the buyers at once and promptly won the record price of the season on grassers, $7.75 per hundredweight.

For cattle fed during the winter on hay alone and turned out in the early spring to graze, this price was considered exceptionally favorable. Proof of merit, however, came recently when the coffin Packing company, purchasers of the load, reported a kill-out as favorable as any cattle slaughtered in that establishment this summer. The animals were clean cut and uniform and turned out in fine beef, despite the 120 mile journey on foot into Denver.

Dick Jones, with the drive, explained that it was long ago proven to the company that the best pedigreed bulls, though high in price, were in the long run the cheapest to place with their herd. The making of beef is the object of the stockman and it is the pure-bred sire which operates to that end. The animals seen in the yards this week were perfect specimens of what can be accomplished readily with grade cows and purebred bulls on the range—splendidly proportioned evenly meated animals whose quality alone lured the high bids.—Denver Record-Stockman.

HAVE YOU $100?

If you have $50, $100 or more that you do not need right now, why not start it earning? Men who succeed make their money work for them.

$100 will pay for two shares, valued at $100 each, in this Association. The way is simple: Pay your $100 down on two shares. After one year, if necessity demands, you can withdraw this amount with the accumulated earnings. In just a short time your $100 will have paid for $200 worth of stock.

You cannot place any like amount into any other kind of sound investment and expect it to earn you as much as if invested this way.

You can invest $1000 in this Association and within a very reasonable time it will pay for $2,000 worth of stock, at which time you will receive in cash that amount.

This method of pre-paying for stock does away with the annoyance of monthly payments and at the same time gives the man with a few dollars a safe opportunity of investing in something with a high earning power.

This Association invests money only to help purchase or build homes. There is no other investment offering more safety.
