COL. O. L. SLATON IS HONORED BY APPOINTMENT TO A POSITION ON DIRECTORATE OF FINANCE CORP.

Col. O. L. Slaton, president of the Lubbock State Bank of this city was notified by wire Friday of last week that he had been elected a Director in the Agricultural Livestock Finance Corporation, which is being organized at Fort Worth at the present time for the purpose of financing a relief to distressed farmers and stockmen throughout the Southwest. This corporation will have a capital stock of one million five hundred thousand dollars and a loaning capacity of many millions.

Although recognizing and appreciating the honor of having been selected as one of the men who will direct the affairs of this large and helpful corporation, Col. Slaton will not receive any direct remuneration for his services on that board. The expenses to which he will necessarily be out in traveling to and from Fort Worth will come from his own pockets, but Col. Slaton sees a much needed aid in sight from the corporation and deems that what good that will come from relieving the distressed stockmen and farmers of this section by his activity in the affairs of the corporation a duty which he owes the people of the South Plains and one which he proposes to fill.

Col. Slaton is a good man for the place. He has been active in financing stockmen and farmers of this section for years and his knowledge of their needs is first hand. His judgment upon these matters will be of aid to the governing body of such an organization.

Both the town of Lubbock and Col. Slaton have been highly honored by the election of a local man to a governing capacity on such a needful and powerful corporation.

Col. Slaton left Sunday for Fort Worth to be in attendance at the meeting Monday at which time the corporation organization will be perfected.

SOME ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE TEXAS FARM BUREAU WITHIN LESS THAN A YEAR'S TIME

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 31.—Although the Texas Farm Bureau Federation is hardly a year old it points with pride to the long list of achievements in the State. There are 128 organized counties at the present time.

- Following are 16 definite things done in the last 12 months:
1. Established largest growers co-operative marketing association in the world under the name of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association which has a credit of $19,000,000 and which is selling cotton for its members from two to three cents a pound above prices being paid farmers not in the Association.
 2. Established wool marketing association which will handle practically one million pounds of wool this year.
 3. Secured the enactment of model cooperative marketing law by Texas legislature which makes possible true cooperation under sanction of law.
 4. Cooperated with other farmer's organizations in backing diversification campaign in order to keep from having too great a cotton acreage in Texas.
 5. Secured pink boll worm legislation to protect the interests of farmers and to save the cotton crop of the State.
 6. It has assisted South Texas members in the formation of cooperative hay association which has brought increased profits to the growers. We have sold hundreds and thousands of dollars worth of hay to the government and to other consuming buyers.
 7. Organized district watermelon exchange at Hempstead and Weatherford. These growers have received more for their crops than any other melon shippers in the State. A state exchange is to be formed this year.
 8. Organized Cooperative Alfalfa Association at El Paso, which has brought its members from $5.00 to

9. Assisted in the formation of a temporary marketing organization for sweet potatoes.
10. Secured uniformly high prices for cotton seed throughout the State by forwarding marketing information to all County Farm Bureaus.
11. Increased price of peanuts from 15 to 25¢ a bushel where growers were not receiving full market price.
12. Established Farm Bureau Mutual Fire Insurance Department through which members may secure insurance at rates 25 per cent less than current premiums.
13. Cooperated with the American Farm Bureau Federation in its various efforts to secure agricultural legislation before congress.
14. Has under way organization of marketing system for wheat, watermelons, milk, peaches and other farm products.
15. Has assisted in the establishment of many county cooperative enterprises.

RAIL STRIKE SCHEDULED FOR TODAY CALLED OFF BY UNION LEADERS; VOTE WAS UNANIMOUS TO QUIT

The rail strike scheduled for October 30, was averted when leaders of the switchmen, trainmen, conductors, engineers and firemen at a joint meeting adopted resolutions withdrawing authorization of a walk-out and officials of the railroad telegraphers organization announced they would take similar action. These were the only unions which had authorized a strike.

The vote calling off the strike was unanimous by organizations, W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen announced. The official wording of the resolution adopted was that the "strike" be declared not effective.

Pause 2 Minutes And Pray at 12 November 11th

The American people were called upon by President Harding in a proclamation issued to offer a silent two-minute prayer at noon on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, when the body of an unknown American soldier killed in France will be laid to rest in Arlington National Cemetery.

The proclamation calls upon "all devout and patriotic citizens" to pause for two minutes—from 12 o'clock noon until two minutes past 12—"for a period of silent prayer of thanks to the giver of all good for these valuable and valorous lives and for his blessings upon our beloved country."

Directions are contained in the proclamation for the half-masting of the flag on all public buildings, all stations of the army, navy and marine corps and on all American embassies, legations and consulates throughout the world from sunrise to sunset on Armistice Day, when it is the hope of the President that the whole nation shall join in honoring America's dead of the world war.

CORPORATION TAX MEASURE IS LOST

Washington, Oct. 27.—An unsuccessful fight was made today in the senate to write into the tax revenue bill a provision to tax the undistributed profits of corporations. Three separate amendments proposing such a tax were rejected, one without a roll call.

RAILROADS WILL CONTEND FOR CUT IN WAGES

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Railroad heads today declared the nation's carriers would go right ahead with their plans to seek new wage cuts through Railroad Board hearings despite the announcement from the unions that their action in calling off the strike scheduled for October 30 had been influenced by the board's announcement that pay conditions for that class had been settled.

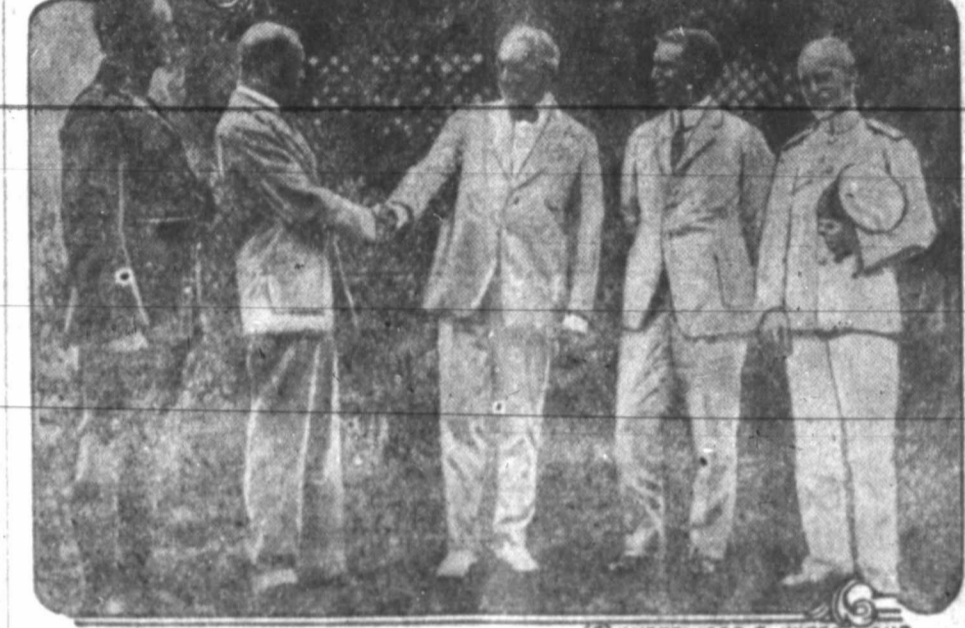

W. M. Crawford, the Red Cross Pharmacy boss, is having a modern residence built on Avenue M, South of the Methodist church.

Unofficial reports were that the firemen's executives had strenuously opposed adoption of the resolution. No one of the presidents would confirm this, however.

L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railroad Conductors said that the unions had decided to call off the strike because of growing public opinion that the strike would be against the Labor Board and consequently the government and not against the railroads.

"It was evident also that the entire Washington administration was opposed to us and that we have had little chance of gaining our objectives," said Mr. Sheppard.

President Harding Now Heads Red Cross

THE PLAINS COUNTRY IS IN VERY GREAT NEED OF BONDED WAREHOUSES TO CARE FOR ITS PRODUCTS

Austin, Texas, Oct. 29.—"No system that has ever been evolved to market gradually and in orderly fashion the products of the farm, ranch and orchard can be operated with success unless behind that marketing system there stands a system of substantial, bonded warehouse or elevators in which to store and conserve these products of the soil until the right buyer at the right price has been found."

This, in substance, was the statement of Charles E. Baughman, Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, here today during a conference of the heads of his divisions, at which the Panhandle section of Texas and its lack of storage facilities for its wonderful crops of wheat and other grains, came in for consideration. A campaign to increase storage facilities in northwest Texas was determined upon during the conference, the campaign to begin the first of the year.

I understand that a movement is already on foot in the Panhandle for the perfection of County organizations which plan to market the crops of that region in an orderly way and upon a cooperative basis," continued the Commissioner. "I feel that it is the part of this Department, in no begrudging fashion, to offer to the people-of-that-section our fullest cooperation in the matter of organizing, wherever they are needed, state bonded elevators in which to store for an indefinite time the grains they produce, thus making more certain of success any plan of co-operative marketing which the farmers of that region may subscribe to."

Hunters are Asked To Watch for Tagged Wild Ducks

Letters of warning have been sent to game wardens and sportsmen through the north and south, advising duck hunters to examine all fowls shot during the present season and report their findings to the Chief Game Warden of Saskatchewan, Canada. Five hundred ducks have been released at that place as an experiment and each has leg bands and a wind band on the right side, close to the body.

The letter is as follows: "Five hundred Saskatchewan ducks have been tagged for the purpose of ascertaining their migration routes to their winter homes. Bands bear the notations: "Manitoba Trading Co." and are numbered. Kindly report date bird is killed, variety and exact locality."

ATTENDING NATIONAL AMER. LEGION CONVENTION

H. H. Griffith and Col. C. M. Mullean, left Sunday for Kansas City, as delegates to the National Convention of the American Legion, which is being held in that city. They go as delegates, representing the Allen Brothers Post of Lubbock. The convention will be in session all week.

Chas. I. Adams of the Guarantee Abstract Co., who has been confined to his bed for the past several days, we are glad to report is now on the job as usual. Charlie had an extreme case of tonsillitis.

J. D. Quick, of the Lubbock Grain & Coal company, left last week for the resorts in New Mexico, for a few days rest.

Commissioner Baughman, S. M. Ramsey, Director of Warehouses, and Judge T. W. McBride of the Warehouse Division, recently spent several days in Dallas during which they called on officers of the Texas Farm Bureau and discussed problems which they have in common. They found the officers of the Texas Farm Bureau strongly behind the new movement for the perfection of a sturdy system of permanent warehouses and elevators in the State.

Mr. Baughman further stated that letters sent to a number of leading organizations in the Panhandle by the Warehouse Division of the Department had brought out the fact that the people of that section are keenly interested in finding a way to lessen the margin of difference between the price paid to the farmer for his products and the ultimate price for these same products by the consumer.

Concluding his remarks at the conference, Mr. Baughman further declared that the warehouse division of the Markets and Warehouse Department stood ready, at any time, to send a special representative to any city within the State to assist in the organization of permanent bonded warehouses or elevators. In fact he made the request that the entire personnel of the field force of the several divisions of this Department take advantage of every opportunity to furnish the office with any information that would aid the Department in rendering assistance to the producer of every section of the State.

Program Being Worked Out for Armistice Day

Plans are being perfected by the Allen Bros. Post, American Legion, of Lubbock, for the Armistice day service to be had at the Baptist church on Nov. 11. All patriotic citizens are expected to be present at this service, as it is the day set aside for the burial of an unknown soldier of America in Arlington National Cemetery. The nation, by proclamation of President Harding will do honor to these soldiers by standing in silent prayer for two minutes, from 12 o'clock noon until 12:02.

An additional program for this occasion will be arranged and appear in the Avalanche later.

YOAKUM COUNTY RANCHMAN IS GORED BY MAD COW

While tending to his herd Thursday last week at his ranch in Yoakum county, a mad cow made a rush at Mr. J. S. Webber and made an ugly and dangerous wound in the lower part of his body.

He was at once rushed to local physicians, who performed a slight operation, and Mr. Webber is resting well at a local hotel.—Terry County Herald.

FORT WORTH BUSINESS MAN MAY ENTER BUSINESS HERE

F. G. D. Shultz, a prominent business man of Fort Worth, is in Lubbock, looking over business conditions here. Mr. Shultz will probably open up an automobile agency in Lubbock. He is well pleased with the town and thinks it has a great future before it.

Cattle Conditions in Texas Improve, Inspectors Report

The outlook for the betterment of cattle conditions in Southwest Texas for the coming year is exceedingly bright, according to Dr. H. Graike, inspector in charge of the animal industry for the State, who returned to Fort Worth from an inspection trip to San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Falfurrias. He was accompanied by Dr. L. G. Cloud, State veterinarian and Dr. L. B. Ernest, official representative of the Bureau of Animal Industry of Washington, D. C.

"We found the condition controlling the eradication of the diseases of live stock greatly improved," he said. "The livestock interests in that section of the State are making preparations for tick eradication for next Spring. The present outlook is extra good. Good progress has been made for the eradication of this disease next year. The importance of the work seems to be more fully realized by cattle owners of that portion of the State, a great deal more than previously. We have received applications for trained supervisors to take up the work in a number of the counties."

"We also found that cattle owners in the more prominent ranch counties are fairly well provided with dipping vats at the present time. In other sections it will only be a matter of providing a few dipping vats in several counties and for small herd owners near the cities."

"The eradication for tuberculosis in some cases in such a great volume that our Federal funds for indemnifying cattle owners for tubercular reactors are inadequate to permit us taking on any additional herds. A number of owners of herds have filed applications; but we cannot go ahead until our funds are replenished. We are confining our work to herds who are already on the list for testing."

Senate Votes to Tax Corporations 15 Per Ct. Flat

Washington, Oct. 2.—After rejecting two proposals for a graduated income tax on corporations—each by a margin of a single vote—the Senate adopted today, 36 to 26, the finance committee amendment to the tax revision bill providing for a flat fifteen per cent tax.

Proponents of a graduated levy, or of some other plan that would prevent the proposed increased rate of fifty per cent in the tax of thousands of corporations making small profits gave notice that they would renew their fight later.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, author of the two amendments, voted today, 33 to 32, said he had been assured by Senator Johnson, Republican, California and Myers, Democrat, Montana, who were absent at the roll call today, that they would support his amendment when next presented.

Senator Walsh also expects to win over some Republicans who voted against him today. The first proposal of the Massachusetts senator was for a tax of 10 per cent on the first $100,000 of income, 15 per cent on the next $200,000, and 20 per cent on all over $300,000, with an added provision that corporations which did not pay an excess profit tax for the calendar year 1920 should pay only at the rate of 10 per cent.

After that had been rejected, Senator Walsh offered it again, with a provision that, in addition to those not paying an excess profits tax in 1920, corporations, whose net income did not exceed 8 per cent of the invested capital should pay only at the 10 per cent rate.

The Wadsworth amendment, providing for a tax of 60 cents a gallon on beer, $1.25 a gallon on wines and $6.40 a gallon on whiskey, manufactured, imported or sold for medicinal purposes, was adopted without a record vote after it had been amended so as to provide for double rates on such liquors unlawfully delivered for beverage purposes, the tax to be paid by the person responsible for the diversion.

At a meeting of the Directors of the South Plains Fair Association last week, Louis F. Moore, was appointed Superintendent of the Fair Grounds. Mr. Moore will have entire charge of the Fair Grounds and buildings, superseding Mr. E. A. Morgan, of the old Board, who filled this office the past two years.

Last Saturday Floydada foot ball squad came over accompanied by a large delegation of rooters, and met the Lubbock team, which resulted in one of the hardest fought games of the season on the Lubbock grounds.

The game was called at 3:00 o'clock, Floydada kicked to Lubbock, and the contest began in dead earnest. Floydada's team averaged 160 pounds and Lubbock team 150, and it was soon seen that neither side would have an easy touch down. Lubbock succeeded in making the first touch-down of the game in the first quarter, but failed to kick the goal which placed the score at 6 to 0, where it remained till the third quarter, when Floydada by a number of successive line plunges succeeded in putting the ball over for a touchdown. They likewise failed to kick the goal which tied the score and though each side played desperately no further scores were made by either team and the whistle blew for the finish with Lubbock in possession of the ball, and making steady gains toward the goal.

The weather was a great handicap to the game in every way. A cold northwest wind was blowing, which was disagreeable to those attending, and also a handicap to the players. The attendance was very light, and the absence of the large number of school children and the usual amount of yells was very noticeable. This however, we are sure, was no fault of the school, or lack of interest in the game, but was on account of the weather, but let the people of Lubbock keep this in mind that the team is at a great expense in bringing these teams here, and they are depending upon the proceeds of ball games. This week, Lubbock will meet Plainview, and every fellow should be on hand to boost Lubbock along. Plainview has a strong team and no doubt it will be a hard-fought game from the first kickoff.

Floydada has a record of four games this season with a total of 223 points against 18 to 0. Newberry is coach and Hollis Moore captain. Lubbock has a record of four games, total 217 against 14. J. C. Marr is coach and Carlisle Tubbs captain. Referee: Ros McWhorter and Reeland Dawson.

Claremont Defeats Clarendon 38 to 0. Childress, Texas, Oct. 29.—Childress administered severe defeat to Clarendon High School Saturday, beating them 38 to 0. Newberry at left half made spectacular end runs to their usual standards. Coffey, however, suffered injuries that forced his withdrawal from the game. Clarendon's line deserves credit for a hard fight.

Vega Beat Team From Normal. Vega, Texas, Oct. 29.—The Vega Outlaws defeated football team from the Canyon Normal here today, 14 to 0.

Canyon High Beats Silvertown 74 to 7. Canyon, Texas, Oct. 29.—Canyon High School football team today defeated Silvertown 74 to 7.

Canyon High is undefeated this year. Claude and Hereford have both fallen beneath the doughty grid team.

Clarendon Ball Player Recovering. Clarendon, Oct. 29.—James Patman, who was injured in a football game at Amarillo recently, and was unconscious for some time, is able to be about again and is feeling much better, but it is likely he will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. Patman was injured in the Clarendon-Amarillo High School football game last Saturday.

Big Spring Says Lubbock is Bluffed. The Big Spring High School Football team lost their first game at Lubbock last Saturday by a score of 29 to 0. Anyways the Lubbock beefs must be convinced that theirs is not the better team as they are afraid to come to Big Spring for a return game.

LITTLEFIELD MAN LOSES HIS COTTON BY FIRE

Littlefield, Texas, Oct. 26.—A peculiar accident happened last night on the farm of John Kling. He had been to the gin with two bales of cotton. The two bales were ginned and as it was late when he returned home he left the wagon still loaded with the cotton out in the yard. In some mysterious way the cotton caught fire and this morning when Kling went out the neck yoke of the wagon and the iron parts were all that was left of the wagon and cotton.

BANK CHANGED HANDS AT IDALOU LAST WEEK

Last week a deal was consummated wherein the bank of Idalou changed hands. S. W. Fitzgerald became the owner. J. L. Brabham retiring. Mr. S. F. Fitzgerald who is formerly from Okmulgee, Oklahoma, took charge first of the week. His family is expected in a few days.

Mr. Brabham will move to Meadow where he is interested in the bank at that place and will be actively engaged with this institution.

The Rural High Schools Will Aid Very Materially in Solving the Educational Questions of the County

Phobe K. Warner in Star-Telegram Can't afford what? Can't afford a county high school. Course not. No little town can afford to build and equip and support a modern high school for the whole county. Yet that is just what most of our small county seats are doing, or trying to do, minus the modern part. Here is the way it is in West Texas: The farmer or the big ranchman wants his children to have a good education. There are not enough children for more than one, or at the most a two-room school out in the country. In such a school the teacher has plenty to do, but no matter how hard she tries she cannot create as interesting a school with two or three pupils in a class as if there were a dozen or more. What happens? If possible, as soon as the children are old enough to go to school the family moves to town to put the children in school. They may buy a home and they may not. They do not have to buy a home in town if they do not want to. The children whose parents are worth two or three thousand dollars has the same advantage of the town school as the man's child who pays a hundred dollars school tax annually. That is democratic, we say. So the rich man's child goes to a good school for eleven years and it may cost the father as much as $5.00 tax a year or the total sum of $55.00 to send his boy or girl through the whole public free school. "But," says the well-to-do farmer with a home wherever he needs one for convenience, "I pay MY school tax out in the country where my farm is. I help But he does not build the kind of a school there he wants his child attend or he would keep his child in the home school. No, he helps to build a school good enough for his neighbor's children who cannot go to town to school. And it is not long until he is losing interest in the home school because he has no interest in it. His child and his school interest is in another school that is not costing him anything. And naturally he is not so very deeply interested in the town school. When you tap him for a contribution for the town school he pays to keep up the country school. When you tap him for the country school his children are going to the town school.

But the hope of Texas is this: Not all of our town farmers belong to this class. But this is true: The town school is overtaxed and running over, full of pupils today because every year the country is coming more and more to town to school. The school roll is increasing but the tax roll is not. Consequently the town school, built by the town itself, is overcrowded to an unhealthy condition for both teacher and pupils; the town teacher is imposed on by extra work, and the rural school is slowly dying of general starvation. What happens again? The country boy or girl that cannot come to town to school drops out along the way and is soon lost from the school roll.

Here are a few facts from our own observations. Suppose you compare them with your county and see where you are. Last year in the primary room of our school there were sixty little tots to be taught their letters and the first year's work. All in the same room—One teacher to keep them all busy and happy. These beside a kindergarten of twenty-five more the first of the year. In the graduating class of the same school there were eight members. Out in the rural schools there were two and three and some places no graduates in the tenth grade. In our town school, a town of a thousand inhabitants, we have graduated one town boy in two years, or an average of a half boy a year. There were four other boys in the two years, but all four from the farms. These boys traveled an average of ten miles a day to go to school, 1,800 miles a year, or 10,800 miles to get their public school education. Their parents had to keep an automobile or a team for that purpose. But they did it. Everybody who sends their children four or five miles to school must keep a team or a car for that purpose. Is there anything cheap about that? Here is what we are all doing: Supporting thousands of poor little dried-up schools and thousands of poor teachers that are high priced at any price to keep all our little schools going. Then every man who can possibly afford it deserts his home school for the town school, because he wants his children to have the advantages of a graded school of nine months. On the other hand the town school does not control enough property to provided the kind of a school the whole county needs. But if we would all go together for a first class high school for all the county, put our high school funds in to one good school for all the boys and girls, give them all the same chance, put the cost of our own private cars and teams together, get a first-class truck, have a regular school route and bring our children to some central high school, we would soon discover that it was not costing us any more but we were getting more for our money.

CROSBYTON MAN FOUND DEAD IN ROSWELL

J. F. Pinkard, who makes his home at Crosbyton, Texas, was found dead in Roswell on the floor of his room in a rooming house. Pinkard had been in Roswell only a short time and seemed to be in perfect health. Judge Parsons held an inquest over the body, and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death through natural causes.

Jim Bryson and son, of Jones county, passed through Lubbock on their way home from the Littlefield country where they have been prospecting. Mr. Bryson says conditions are fairly good in that part of the plains.

BARRIER BROTHERS DEPT. STORE

SOME EDUCATIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT PELAGRA, ITS SYMPTOMS, AND VARIOUS WAYS OF PREVENTION

Pellagra is not a catching disease, but everyone should assist the Health Officer by reporting each case. There is no danger of getting it by being around a sick person, neither should one feel disgraced for having it. Because it is attributed to a faulty or restricted diet, by no means restricted to the poor. In fact although the rich are usually able to purchase any kind of food-stuffs they want it is found that the children of these families are more frequently undernourished and more underweight than the children of the less prosperous families. This is because the children of the rich are frequently allowed to choose their own diet and usually restrict it to sweets, and their bodies are therefore deprived of the required body building foods. The children of the middle-class family are not lavished with luxuries and their diet is usually made up of possibly plain but most frequently a conservative variety of substantial food. Statistics prove conclusively that the nutrition worker while much needed for instruction in the middle class are much more needed among the wealthy. Nutrition instruction in its several phases is being offered by the Red Cross and the Department of Agriculture demonstration agents. Consult these persons in your county and community.

Pellagra was first observed in southern Europe and thought to be due to an extensive diet of maize which is by nature a North American product and only grown in Europe since the discovery of America. The disease was detected in the United States only in isolated cases until the last ten or twelve years. The number of cases, however, have been fast increasing and in some sections have caused much alarm. That it is more prevalent in the south is explained by the fact that in the warm climate there is not the demand for, nor is there available to everyone, the kinds of food which prevent the disease. Especially is this true among the negroes who make up a large part of the population in that area; many of them are not only in such circumstances that they are unable to procure a diversity of food but prefer or are content with a diet composed largely of corn pone, salt pork, and molasses. Recent experiments encourage the conclusion that the disease is affected by an extensive corn diet and lack of proteins. Authorities advocate for both prevention and treatment of the disease an increased diet of proteins; fresh lean meat; milk; eggs; fruits and vegetables.

Symptoms of Pellagra—Eruption is the most telltale characteristic of Pellagra. The disease affects no particular race, age, or nationality. In the United States where it has been discovered for a period of but ten or twelve years, the malady is most prevalent in the southern states and among negroes. When the eruption first shows itself it may look much like sunburn, with subsequent peeling with or without the formation of blisters. Often the inflamed skin turns to a somewhat dirty brown, frequently parchment-like, then quickly becomes rough and scaly or cracks and peels. In many cases, however, the initial redness is not noticed and does not occur, the first symptom being the dirty looking scaly patch of skin.

Pellagra has a preference in making its first appearance on the body. In adults the backs of the hands and in children the backs of the feet are its favorite places. Another peculiar quality of the disease is its manner of appearing simultaneously on both sides of the body parts affected. If the back of one hand, one elbow, one knee, one side of the neck, or one cheek is affected, then usually the other side is also affected. Other suspicious symptoms are nervousness, dizziness, headache, burning feeling in the mouth, reddened tongue, loss of strength.

If Pellagra is suspected, consult your doctor at once. Red Cross Chapters and health agencies will furnish further information.

Diet in Pellagra—There is only one preventive and one cure for Pellagra, according to the best results of medical study, and that is proper diet. Medicines will do little, if anything, to cure this disease, and are useful only in treating some of its complications. Foods differ in appearance and taste. They also differ in what they are able to do in the body. Body tissue must be kept repaired; energy generated to make the body move; iron, lime and other minerals furnished to regulate the body functions, and certain necessary substances, called vitamins, must be used to produce full health and growth. If this diet were followed, there would be no pellagra:

Milk every day—at least a pint. One egg a day. Meat, no oftener than once a day—though the use of egg can lessen use of meat. Some green vegetables each day, such as string beans, cabbage, lettuce, turnips, greens, spinach, celery tops and tomatoes. Fruits, fresh or dried, may occasionally take the place of green vegetables if both cannot be had. Remember that pellagra never lasts long where there is a diet of milk, eggs, green vegetables. It is not caused by eating cornbread and salt pork, but by not eating these other things along with them.

Gardens vs. Pellagra—If every family had a carefully tended garden, and consumed its contents, pellagra would have a short shift, and the prevailing number of cases would quickly be reduced. There is still time to plant gardens for fall, and enough should be planted to give not only a supply for immediate use, but enough to can or dry for use during winter months.

To limit the garden space to vegetables that yield the greatest growth in the shortest time, to use the products in sufficient quantities to fill the daily need and to can the rest is a good policy. About one and one-fourth pounds of fresh fruit or vegetables is needed by each individual every day. Any vegetables or fruit can be canned. It is well, however, to take one precaution in using a canned vegetable—heat to boiling before use.

REVIVING THE GULF TO COLORADO HIGHWAY

A bulletin showing how to can or dry fruits and vegetables can be obtained from the Agricultural Extension Service. A Home Demonstration Agent or a Red Cross Nutrition Worker can give demonstrations of its methods. More chickens and cows are needed, especially on the tenant farms, because eggs and milk are two of the greatest safeguards from the disease.

Plenty of milk, eggs, green vegetables in the daily diet, and there will be no pellagra.

The Spread of Pellagra—What Causes Pellagra? (A) Unbalanced diet with not enough milk, green vegetables, eggs, lean meats and fruit in the daily diet.

Is it catching? (A) No it is not a communicable or a germ disease.

What is meant by an unbalanced diet which causes Pellagra? (A) One example and a frequent cause is a diet composed almost exclusively of corn meal, salt pork, and molasses with little variation, which is much in use in some sections of the south.

What should an "Anti-Pellagra" diet include? (A) Milk, fresh lean meat, eggs, cheese, bread, fruits and green vegetables.

What class of people suffer most from Pellagra? (A) The poor, especially in the rural districts, who are unable to purchase a varied diet. More gardens is the solution to this.

Is the Disease fatal? (A) No, it is usually of slow onset and of several months duration.

Can it be cured? (A) Yes, if taken early.

What should be done when the disease develops? (A) Consult a good doctor at once and follow his directions to the letter.

NOTICE

No. 217. Estate of J. J. Dieter, Deceased. County Court of Lubbock County. To those indebted to, or holding claims against the Estate of J. J. Dieter, deceased:

The undersigned having been appointed administrator of the estate of J. J. Dieter, deceased, late of Lubbock County, Texas, by P. F. Brown, County Judge of said County, on the 23rd day of September, 1921, hereby notifies all persons indebted to said estate to come forward and make settlement, and those having claims against said estate to present them to her at her residence, two miles north of Idalou, in said Lubbock County. She receives her mail through the post office at Idalou, Texas. Mrs. Minnie L. Dieter, by Bean & Klett, Attys.

R. C. Darwin of Slaton was a business visitor to Lubbock Friday.

Walter Clark, of the Rix Furniture Company, spent first of the week in the Brownfield country in the interest of the firm.

Wednesday morning several cars of representative business men of Slaton came to Post to meet with our business men to devise ways and means of advertising the Gulf to Colorado Highway which comes through Sweetwater, Snyder, Post, Southland and Slaton and which is not being used as extensively as it should be. Our business men did not attend the meeting as they should have done because we were not expecting them but a special meeting of the Commercial Club was called for next Monday night and the Slaton Commercial Club invited to be present which they promise to do. So be sure and talk up the meeting and let every business man, farmer and others who are interested be present Monday night.

Notice by Publication in Probate THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting: You Are Hereby Commanded to cause to be published (in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been published continuously and regularly for a period of not less than one year in your County) at least once each week for at least ten days previous to the return day hereof, copies of the following notice: THE STATE OF TEXAS

To All Persons Interested In Estate of Lucy Mandy Miller, deceased, notice is hereby given that J. R. Miller has filed an application in the County Court of Lubbock County on the 19th day of October 1921 for Application for Probate of Will and for letters testamentary which said application will be heard by said Court on the 21st day of November 1921, at the Court House of said County, in Lubbock, Texas; at which time all persons who are interested in said Estate are required to appear and answer and contest said application, should they desire to do so. Herin Fail Not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal, at Lubbock, Texas, this 19th day of October 1921.

Avalanche Will Tell of Lubbock To Many Folks

The Special edition of the Avalanche is still doing its silent service. Aside from being continually mailed out from this office people who are inquiring about this country and to people who are writing specially for this issue of the paper, a lot of them were carried off from the Lubbock and West Texas booths, at the state fair, and 500 copies have been sent to the State Fair at Shreveport, La.,

and Exposition, also a lot to the Cotton Palace and these will be distributed through the medium of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who will maintain a West Texas Exhibit at each of these places. We have heard many people who have sent these papers to relatives and friends in other parts of Texas and to other states say that they have had immediate replies acknowledging receipt of the big paper, and also indicating their interest in this section of the state as a result of reading about it in the Special Edition. We have also heard of a few land sales which this paper is given direct credit for bringing the buyer and seller together, so the direct advantages to be gained by this special edition, to the same number to The Houston Fair tion, to this great South Plains territory cannot be estimated. We have only a few copies of this edition left, but we want every one of them sent out, and you can still obtain a number by calling at this office and tender us the seven cents postage that is required to mail them and we will be glad to fix them up for you as long as they last.

Many Cattle Deals Are Reported From Dalhart

Dalhart, Oct. 27.—Many cattle have been sold in this section during the past few weeks, according to local cattlemen. Cattlemen in general are of the opinion that the next few years will see the greatest shortage of breeding cattle that the United States has ever experienced. They estimate that there is at least a shortage of 50 per cent in the number of heifer yearlings, two year old heifer yearlings, two year old heifers and heifer calves. These cattle are not in the country as most of them have been shipped on the market. With this shortage confronting them, Dalhart cattlemen as a whole are optimistic as to the outlook for the cattlemen who can hold their herd as they believe that the shortage will cause cattle prices to advance a great deal within the next year.

R. L. Duke of Dalhart has sold 814 steer calves to J. W. Jones of Garden City, Kan., at $20. Mr. Duke has been shipping his heifer calves to the Denver market and they have been bringing from $20 to $24.50 a head net.

A Porto Rico sugar plantation owner happened to be in the Dalhart country and purchased through Minter Bros. 300 head of cows from the famous W. & N. Stone herd at $30 a head. These cattle are being wintered in the Dalhart country.

Finch Bros. have sold their entire crop of calves to Iowa feeders, they received $23.50 for their steer calves and $20 for the heifers.

Minter Bros. sold 142 head of two and three year old steers to L. B. Watkins of Dumas for J. R. Beverly at $40 a head.

E. C. Collins cattleman of Channing has sold his 1921 crop of calves to Iowa feeders at $20. Jim Muse of Perico has sold 165 head of steer and heifer calves to a Nebraska feeder at $20.

J. W. Ford of Lamar, Colo., sold 350 head of heifer yearlings that he summered northeast of Dalhart to A. Q. Bonner of Wellington, Texas, at $30 a head.

OPPORTUNITY

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO GET A HOME

The undersigned is cutting up a 6000-acre ranch into farms and is putting it on the market so that the poor man can buy and have a home.

LOCATION—The land is located in Hockley County, Texas, one of the best farming counties on the Plains of Texas.

Is 14 miles from railroad at Littlefield, a station on the Santa Fe on the Slaton-Lubbock-Texico line, and about 10 miles northwest of Elwood, the County Site of newly organized County of Hockley.

DESCRIPTION—The land is practically level and 99 per cent tillable.

The soil is a dark red loam, very rich. Works easy.

Owing to its nature it will stand drouth. We consider the quality of the soil the best on the Plains, peculiarly adapted to the climate of the Plains country.

Water can be had in abundance. The first vein being at about 62 feet, with two veins under it, the deepest one at 162 feet and when reached the water level comes up to the first vein. The land has scattered cat claw over it with some small mesquite bushes and the grass is of the mesquite variety, an indication of the best land.

Tex. Representative Would Revise Present Savings Laws

Washington, Oct. 26.—Representative Parrish of Texas introduced a bill in the House yesterday to correct and modernize the Postal Service System and to provide for the investment in Government bonds of funds on deposit instead of loaning them to banks at two and one-fourth per cent interest.

The Parrish Bill removes the ten-year-old age restrictions and also the limitation of $2,500 which any one person may deposit. Parrish said that financial experts predict that if the Postal Savings system is improved and the funds invested in Government securities the two billion dollar floating indebtedness can be retired from the funds received and the necessity for issuing treasury certificates done away with. It also will have the effect of increasing the value of Victory and Liberty Bonds, he said.

"The Postal Savings Law," Parrish said, "was passed before the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Farm Loan System were created and there is no valid argument against the Government securities."

Citation by Publication THE STATE OF TEXAS To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You Are Hereby Commanded to summon Marie McKinley, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Seventy-second Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said seventy-second Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lubbock County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, Texas, on the second Monday in December, A. D. 1921, the same being the 12th day of December, A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 6th day of January, A. D. 1921, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1410, wherein H. B. McKinley, Jr., is Plaintiff, and Marie McKinley, is Defendant, and said petition alleging that plaintiff has been an actual bona fide inhabitant of Texas, more than twelve months and a resident of Lubbock county more than six months prior to filing his petition herein. That he was lawfully married to defendant on the 9th day of April 1920, and lived together as husband and wife until the 10th day of April 1920, when defendant left plaintiff to return to her former home in Hill County, Texas, for the purpose as she told this plaintiff of getting her personal effects and thereafter returning to plaintiff in Lubbock, Texas.

That soon after defendant left this plaintiff to return to her former home, she notified plaintiff that she did not intend to return to him, and thereupon, plaintiff started an investigation to ascertain the cause of her said conduct and thereafter learned that at the time of her said marriage to the plaintiff herein, she was the wife of one Robinson, who resides in Hill County, Texas, and whose given name is not known to plaintiff and she could not legally become the wife of this plaintiff.

That since the 10th day of April, 1920, this plaintiff has never seen defendant and has not lived with her as his wife since said date, and since ascertaining that she is the wife of another, he can not and will not live with her again. That by reason of defendant's deceitful conduct in attempting to marry this plaintiff while she was the wife of another, she has rendered their living together unsupportable.

Plaintiff prays for judgment for divorce; for costs of suit, etc. Herein Full Not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return

NOTICE

This is to notify the public that the undersigned, on October 15, 1921 has sold, conveyed, and delivered all his right, title and interest in and to the "Merrill Hotel" in the town of Lubbock, to Messrs. Cahill and Sietz, a firm composed of Maurice Cahille and Sietz, and in transactions with said Merril Hotel you will take notice of this change of ownership. 183 J. H. MOORE.

Fred A. Graymore, land appraiser for the Federal Land Loan, spent Friday and Saturday in Lubbock. He left Saturday for the northern part of his territory to pass on lands the owners of which has applied for loans. Mr. Graymore stated to an Avalanche representative that he had passed lands, and recommended the loans on 150 farms during the month of November, ranging on an average of $2,500.00. His territory takes in all the south, and a big part of the north plains, and a large part of West Texas. The Federal Land Banks are receiving application for loans from all parts of Texas and wherever the land is appraised and recommended, the loans are made, at 6 per cent, with 33 years to pay it back. Many farmers are taking advantage of this cheap money.

Frank Hargrove from Robert Lee, Texas, was a prospector in the Lubbock country last of the week.

HONOR ROLL FOR THE FIRST SEMESTER OF LUBBOCK SCHOOLS SHOWS A VERY LARGE NUMBER

The report cards for the first semester were sent out Monday, and should have already been inspected, signed and returned by the parents.

In the high school the Juniors vied with the Seniors for highest honors. Both classes made very fine records. At the end of this next semester the quarterly examinations, which will be severe tests on all grades, will be given. If the Seniors anticipate beating the Juniors, they must use some midnight current, not oil.

We had too many tardies, absences, and hooky players this past grade period. If parents have any doubt about their children being in school they should phone the high school 590, and the secretary will give the information at once. Below is the honor roll.

First Grade:

Boys—Morrison Arnett, Edward Brown, C. W. Charles, Jack Christian, William Davidson, Joe Conrad Davis, Frank Duncan, Raymond Duncan, John Duggan Lytle, Charles Maedgen, Edward May, J. Lewis McCrummen, Joe Culloch, Paul Randolph, Graham Stanfill, Frank Sturges, Jr., Fred Snyder, Jr., Paul Trim, Paul Warren, Eliland Wilson, Donald Wolfarth.

Girls—Virginia Adair, Hazel Berges, Mary Maxine Burrus, Carobell

Burrus, Mary Frances Felty, Golda Fortinberry, Jessie Lee Hensley, Gladys Jones, Hazel Lawson, Hazel Long, Ethel Murray, Mary Frances Nunley, Pauline Randolph, Katherine Smalley, Priscilla Watson, Manon Welty, and Dorothy Wolfarth.

Lubbock and Crosby Have Permanently Established Line

The line between Lubbock and Crosby County has been permanently and mutually established. The commissioners Court of Lubbock and Crosby County having met and agreed upon adopting the line run about twenty nine years ago, and the retracing of the old line was very successful all of the markings having been found except one or two which were in farms opened since the line was run. The new line will be substantially marked with cement markers with iron pipes, and the field notes etc. have been sent to Austin to be filed with the General Land office. This will be a great consolation to the owners of land along this line in either county, as it will settle the line question, and make their titles much more absolute. Next week the new markers will be ready and members of the court in each county will do the work jointly. One of these markers will be placed every three miles on the line.

Third Grade:
Boys—J. D. Ansted, Chlotile Au-cutt, Marshall Bagwell, Welch Bailey, Lennis Baker, Russell Bean, Guy Bratcher, Ira Carmichael, Arthur Chase, O. D. Oldest Cowboy, 92, Glad to Be in the Saddle Again

Childress, Texas, Oct. 22.—H. R. Barton, 92, the oldest cowboy in the United States, has ended his vacation and has returned to his ranch to punch cattle again. Barton two months ago left the Bud Smith ranch in the northern part of this county to take a rest at Mineral Wells and Marlin and returning here this week declared he was glad the trip is over. He feels better and more rested, he said, when he has a good horse under him and a lasso in his hand. Barton has been on the Smith ranch for thirty years. Barton first came to Childress County in 1866 when no white men lived here. Later, during the 80s and 90s, Barton helped in cattle roundups on the site of the present town of Childress. The aged cowboy can ride better than he can walk because of a nervous ailment that has affected one of his knees, for which reason he spends most of his time in the saddle. Just to show that his ninety-two years do not weigh heavily upon him—as long as he is horseback—he often ropes and throws a steer and challenges any man twenty-five years his junior to equal the feat.

D. W. Shanks, state agent for the Buck Stove and Range Co., spent the week in Lubbock, looking after the interest of his company. Mr. Shanks has had on display his line at the Ranking & Sons Hardware store. The display is very attractive both the window and display booths, and it is worth any ones time to make a trip to see this beautiful display of stoves. This firm will discard all other makes of stoves and handle the Buck line exclusively.

THE FEAST.

"Life is just one feast after another in this part of the country," says the Albany, Georgia, Herald. "One fruit after another comes in, and the gardens yield some sort of vegetable delight continually."
It must be pleasant around Albany but it is no less pleasant in any part of the country where people work and plan intelligently.
Blessed indeed is the home where "one fruit after another comes in, and the gardens yield some sort of vegetable delight continually," to feed hungry children and tempt heat-oppressed adults and provide from the surplus some revenue for the family budget.
And people who try can have this in any part of the country.
To the man fortunate enough to possess a little farm or a big garden, with full assortment of fruits and vegetables the season that brings weariness and jaded appetite and boredom to so many city folks becomes indeed "just one feast after another."
It is good to get such a note of contentment in the summer of 1921, and it will carry its own message to many a cheerless man and woman.
It isn't necessarily a milk train, Johnnie, just because it carries a cow-catcher.
There are slackers in peace as well as in war. As you may see by looking around, you.

If This Were Your Washing

A small matter, this—yet only one of the risks incurred in sending the washing "out."

In what you wear, as in what you eat, purity and sanitation are important—and these you can be sure of only in a thoroughly modern laundry like ours.

Consider these things—what you send us is washed in billowy, purifying suds, in four fresh waters; it is rinsed not once, but three or four times, in more clean, clear water. Then ironed at 212 degrees and more, and wrapped, finally in a sun-lit room, and in a dust-proof package. Not mere cleanness—but practical sterilization.

And you'll find it economical, and clothes-conserving, too. Try this modern way by sending us your next family washing. Phone today.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NOTES Poultry Show Being Revived—to Meet in Amarillo

Mr. J. H. Kraft of the A. & M. faculty is taking the place of Mr. Mowery, head of the Animal Industry department. Mr. Mowery is at A. & M. this week.

Visitors during the week have been Messames Jenkins, Conner, Melton, Baumgardner, Greer, T. Teal, and Eurra Rose.

Misses Ethel Sicles, Ethel Mae Whips, Bobbie Lee Wilkerson, Alma Mullins, Ruth Miller, Edna Mae Slover, Norma Mathis of Mr. Gipson's room served delicious lunch to the seventh departmental teachers some of the grades are putting up Hallo- we'en decorations.

The pupils entering this week were Albert Lawson, Cyrus Frost, Alton Abbott, Leon Harvey, Mildred Clin- ton, Dave and L. T. Boone, Leslie Lawson, Norman Seitz, Myrtle Bur-roughs, Bernice Cook.

The Avalanche has a full line of Christmas card samples and we will be glad to have our representative call on you for orders. These sam- ples are appropriate for all lines of business or personal cards. They are engraved, and printed just as you like and you should place your orders now so that delivery can be made promptly, before the big holiday rush commences. Do not place your order with out of town concerns when your printer at home can fill the bill. 15 tf

The Panhandle-Plains Tri-State Poultry Show is to be held at Amarillo, Texas, December 7th to 11th, 1921.

The poultry enthusiasts are re- viving the old Panhandle Poultry Association under the title of the Pan- handle-Plains Tri-State Poultry show, which includes in its territory the Panhandle of Oklahoma, the eastern portion of New Mexico and the SS Panhandle and South Plains coun- ties of Texas. The purpose of the organization is to build up enthu- siasm in the poultry industry.

The officers of the new Associa- tion are: W. W. McDonald, Presi- dent; H. W. Duke, Secretary-Treas- urer; A. P. Morrow, Superintendent; Howard A. Fegguson, Clyde C. Cock-rell and Frank Kiersey, Program and Publicity Committees, all of whom are well-known to the poultry industry throughout this entire section.
There is at present a marked in- terest in the poultry industry in this part of the country, and it is to be hoped that with the plans now under- way the possibilities will be greatly enlarged, and the total production of eggs and fowls for market increased.
Entries will be received from all persons residing within the above de- fined territory, and the catalogue and premium list will be ready for distribution in about ten days, and any one desiring a copy may obtain one by writing to H. W. Duke, Sec- retary-Treasurer.

The Poultry Show will be con- ducted under A. P. A. regulations, and will be judged by men authorized by that organization.

Amarillo is putting up about $1, 000.00, and it is hoped that this sum will be added to by various other means so as to make the interest in the competitive exhibition very keen.

Several communities have given the Association their indorsement and pledged their support. This is in- dicative of a real poultry exhibit, and it is hoped that all of the com- munities within the territory defined will avail themselves of this oppor- tunity to revise an interest in an industry that means much to the in- dustrial development of the country.

125 letters have been mailed to manufacturers of poultry supplies, and indications are that their support will be 100 per cent, and it is prob- able that they will have their expert- representatives attending the show to explain the latest development in the way of poultry supplies.

Another innovation in modern war- fare is trying to make the victors foot the bills.

THE LUBBOCK AVALANCHE

Published Every Tuesday and Friday by THE AVALANCHE PUBLISHING CO. (Incorporated)

JAS. L. DOW, Editor and General Manager
Entered at the Postoffice at Lubbock, Texas, for transmission thru the mails as second class matter.

We greet you with the first edition of the Avalanche as a semi-weekly. We hope you will fully appreciate the effort of the management in giving you this additional service. In doing this the expense of the publication of the Avalanche is increased very materially, and the amount of work is almost doubled, which will mean that close co-operation between the advertisers and the paper will necessarily have to exist if we give you the best service. Business men should arrange to have their ad copy ready when the ad man comes for it, which will mean much in facilitating matters and assist us in giving your advertising more attention, and help in getting better results from the money you spend for it.

SOUTH TEXANS KNOCK THE PLAINS COUNTRY

Two traveling men from San Antonio reached Hereford Thursday by automobile. They expressed themselves as being utterly astonished at the magnificent weather on the Plains. They had laid in a supply of heavy garments, blankets, foot-warmers, chest protectors, etc., expecting to tackle regular Artic Circle weather.

They said that prior to their departure from San Antonio they had called on the local Chamber of Commerce to get some information about this country. They were told, they said, that they were a couple of fools to venture into this country in a car at this time of the year; that the country would probably be snow bound and that using an automobile would be a joke!

The fellow that handed out this line of dope ought to be given a pick and shovel and put to work where his capabilities justify. It is such rotten, stupid, plain ignorance as this that hurts this country more than anything else.

San Antonio has splendid weather itself, but it never saw the day in its history that it produced a brand of weather like the one enjoyed in Hereford today, October 20. The nights are clear, cool and snappy, the days absolutely ideal. California never beat any such weather as the Plains country produces from April to November. And the winter months are badly misstated as to severity.

Why, we have not even had a killing frost as yet, while Hereford men returning from the Dallas State Fair state that frost has killed everything in that section a week ago.

The Brand does not believe there is any malice in these mis-statements. It's just pure, down-right ignorance and lack of information. And about the only way to overcome it, so far as we can see, is to maintain a steady, concise, pre-emptive advertising campaign to the world, telling of the most magnificent weather conditions produced anywhere, from San Antonio, Texas to Los Angeles, California.—Hereford Brand.

There may not be any malice in the misrepresentations of the Plains Country, but it is a peculiar thing to us that they are all ignorant in the same direction. As for us we believe the people of the South and Eastern part of the State just simply want to knock this great country. Some of them are not ignorant, but on the other hand they know that this is the best section of the country, and they would prejudice people against the country if they can, in an effort to turn their attention some where else or have them direct their attention to that part of the country. However, their knocks are really boosts, for in these days of automobiles and fast transportation, it does not take long for a fellow to see for himself, and they come and find the country so different to what has been pictured to them, that they at once become sold to this section, and become boosters for the great South Plains section.

The Avalanche is severely criticised for its position taken in some things that happen in Lubbock, but we have no apology to offer for our stand on anything that pertains to the morals of the city. We believe that we have a right to express our opinion in these matters and if we can do or write anything that will improve these conditions we are only too glad to do so, and while we do not wish to incur the ill will of anyone, we do not compromise with violators of the laws of the land, and especially when the standing of the young people of the community is at stake. The boys of today will be the men of tomorrow, and if we do not want to raise up a generation of gamblers and adulterers, hi-jackers and thieves, steps should be taken to eliminate these things from the presence of the young people. A gambler is a menace to the town. A bootlegger is a disgrace to the community and the sooner any community is rid of either or both with their kindred vices, the better off the community will be. Let's clean up the morals of the city.

There should be an extension of the City utilities to take care of many people who are entitled to it, but who are not at this time receiving any benefits from sewer, lights or water. These matters are being cared for gradually as the proceeds of the various departments will permit, but this is not fast enough to accommodate the people and we feel sure that they would rather help to carry a bond issue to speed up the work, than to wait for these conveniences to be brought to them in the present manner. We understand that the financial conditions of the city will justify the issuance of a good sized bond, and we believe this should be done in the very near future.

Many of the people on the twice a week mail routes are very desirous of having them changed to a daily route. The best way to get this change is for every fellow who possibly can to patronize these routes. Uncle Sam is great on being patronized, and if you tickle him, he is more likely to tickle you.

Send the Avalanche to your friends.

DEFECT IN OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM

We are prone to brag about our educational advancements, and the improvement in our schools, but we sometimes think our schools have gone ahead too fast in at least some respects. There are too many text-books and too many distracting activities in our schools today. Children in schools a generation ago did not use as many text-books as the children use now. They were not taught so many things, but what they did learn they learned thoroughly. The result was that when they grew up they were well grounded in the things they had been studying. Children in school today learn a little about a great many things but they do not learn a great deal about anything. Much of their so-called learning is superficial, and when they get to be men and women they will be inefficient in whatever they try to do. This is bound to be the result. This defect in our present-day school system, which has been growing for several years, has now reached the point where a halt is demanded. Fortunately, the situation is being recognized by many school authorities, and we look for a change in the right direction before very long.

THE CIRCULATING DOLLAR

Now is a good time to pay off some debts and clean the slate, if possible, and then profit by recent sad experiences by using more economy and sanity in expenditures. The endless chain of debt must be broken before business can become as good as it ought to be. If you owe a bed, pay it, or all of it you can. The money will get into circulation and find its way to the man who owes you, and then come back home again. When you pay the man who you are indebted to he passes the money on to the man he owes and so on down the line. A single dollar will pay hundreds of dollars worth of debts, if it is kept in circulation.

SOMEBODY

Somebody did a golden deed;
Somebody proved a friend in need;
Somebody sang a beautiful song;
Somebody smiled the whole day long;
Somebody thought, "Tis sweet to give;"
Somebody said, "I'm glad to give;"
Somebody fought a valiant fight;
Somebody lived to shield the right;
Was that "somebody" you?

The delinquent tax list for the Lubbock Independent School District is now in the hands of the printers and will make its appearance in the Avalanche just as soon as it can be set up. There is a long list of it running back to the year 1916, and there is a lot of money tied up in this list. Some folks of course have been unable to pay their taxes on some of this property, but a lot of them have not paid for other reasons. You will see however, who have been falling down on the support of the schools in Lubbock. If all the money was paid in there would likely be no necessity for the valuation being so high.

Our county jail should certainly have the attention of the county commissioners. The recent jail delivery is said to have been possible on account of the condition of some of the cell locks. There is no use to have a jail if it is not in condition to hold criminals when they are put in it for safe keeping. Somebody or set of bodies are certainly overlooking an important duty, and it is a good job for the next grand jury to thoroughly investigate the condition of the jail and if found as we have been told, should see to it that necessary repairs are made.

A lot of good road work might be done by the gamblers and bootleggers when they are caught. They do not mind so much to pay a cash fine, but a few days on the public roads would cure a lot of them of the taste for cards. We presume there is no law for such act, but it might be good thought for some legislators who should pass some gambling laws with teeth in them against gambling in every form. This should apply to the cotton gambler, the card gambler and every other form of gambling.

The people of Lubbock County who are in favor of the County Agent's office in this county and that of a Home Demonstrator, should make their desires known to the County Commissioners as it will soon be time for the renewing of contracts and making of new contracts and we feel that Lubbock County should have both, and we find that many people are of the same opinion. We are sure that the court will be willing to provide same if they know that the majority of the county wants this service.

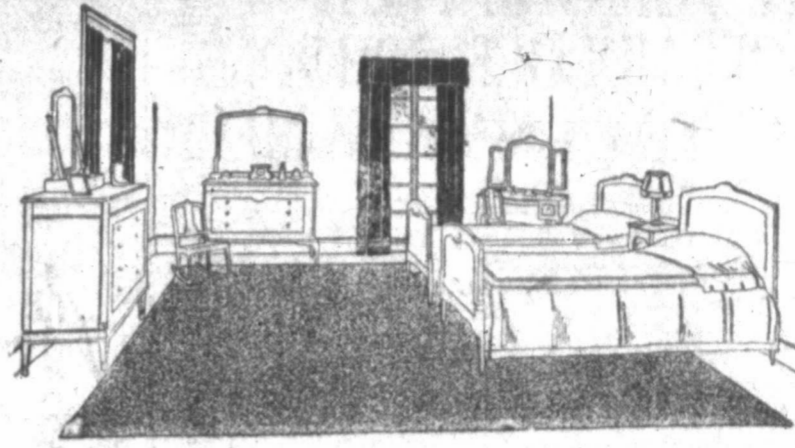

The Avalanche will visit your home and place of business twice a week from now on. Read it closely. Notice the ads in it, you will profit by its publication each week, Tuesday and Friday.

Since the strike has been called off and the men are all back at their posts, the railroads should chop off a big chunk of that high freight rate. The present rates are almost prohibitive.

Most every day we receive requests for copies of the Special Edition of the Avalanche, and many requests coming from far distant places, and from sources that one would hardly expect them. Many of your friends and relatives would appreciate a copy of this big paper and we have a number left, which we will be glad to furnish you if you will pay the postage on same. They were published for the benefit of the South Plains. Send them the Jumbo Edition of the Avalanche.

People who have boys to raise do not care to bring them up in the community where gamblers run pell mell over the law, and it cannot be stopped. The gambling laws are weak, we admit, but public sentiment will make them stronger, and will have a tendency to break the ranks of violators of the law in this respect.

The Panhandle Herald was changed from a weekly to a semi-weekly publication last Tuesday. The Herald is now published by E. E. Manney.

16,225 PEOPLE! WALKED OVER THE KLEARFLAX LINEN RUG LAST WEEK

MRS. M. C. McCRUMMEN WON THE RUG HER GUESS BEING 15,798

This rug was in front of our store four weeks prior to this guessing contest. This means that over 75,000 people have walked over it and it shows practically no signs of wear.

This is just another piece of evidence that a Klearflax Linen Rug will last indefinitely. There is a Klearflax Rug for every room in your house. Let us show you the different colors in which they are made.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOW TO KILL YOUR C. OF C.

- Don't come to the meetings.
- But if you do, come late.
- If the weather doesn't suit you, don't think of coming.
- If you do attend a meeting find fault with the work of the officers and other members.
- Never accept an office, as it is easier to criticize than to do things.
- Nevertheless get sore if you are not appointed on a committee; but if you are do not attend the meetings.
- Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary; but when other members roll up their sleeves and willingly and unselfishly use their ability to help matters along, howl that the association is run by a clique.
- Hold back your dues as long as possible, or do not pay at all. Don't bother about getting new members. Let the secretary do it.
- When a banquet is given tell everybody money is being wasted on big blow-outs which makes a noise and accomplish nothing.
- When no banquets are given say the association is dead and needs a can tied to it.
- Don't ask for a banquet ticket until they are all sold.
- Then swear you have been cheated of yours.
- If you do get a ticket don't pay for it.
- If asked to sit at the speaker's table, modestly refuse.
- If you are not asked, resign from the association.
- If you don't receive a bill for your dues, don't pay.

- If you receive a bill after you've paid, resign from the association.
- Don't tell the association how it can help you, but if it doesn't help you resign.
- If you receive service without joining, don't think of joining.
- If the association doesn't correct abuse in your neighbor's business howl that nothing is being done.
- If it calls attention to abuses in your own, resign from the association.
- If asked by the chairman to give your opinion on some important matters, tell him you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things ought to have been done.
- Keep your eyes open for something wrong, and when you find it, resign.
- When you attend a meeting, vote to do something and then go home and do the opposite.
- When asked for information, don't give it.
- Talk co-operation for the other fellow with you; but never co-operate with him.—Beville Picayune.
- Bruce Bros. of Oklahoma, who have been prospecting in the Plains country to find a location for homes, finally decided to go no further, that Lubbock county was good enough. They each bought a quarter section near town and will at once move their families here for their future home.
- C. L. Adams, of the firm, Guarantee Abstract and Title Co., spent last week in Fort Worth and Dallas on business.
- Hollis R. Moore, one of the Floydada football boys that played here last Saturday, is a brother of our fellowtownsman, Louie F. Moore.

- H. A. Davidson attended the Lubbock county singing convention which met at the Monroe school house last Sunday. A large crowd from Lubbock was present and a good representation from all over the county. It was an all-day affair, dinner being served on the ground, with plenty for everybody. It was an enjoyable day for everyone present.
- J. R. Germany, Walter, Jr., Chock Chase and Wiley Puckett are some of Lubbockites who will be on tap in South West Texas, next Tuesday, when the deer season opens. These boys are already there, camp pitched and raring to go—just waiting 'till Nov. 1st.
- Mrs. Homer Steen, wife of the Editor of the Floyd County Herald, and Mrs. Jack Henry of Floydada, were among some of the visitors from that city Saturday, to see Floydada and Lubbock mix matters on the grid-iron.
- Attorney Percy Spencer returned from Austin, Saturday morning, where he had been before the Supreme Court, arguing a case, wherein he is one of the attorneys, in the suit.
- T. F. Luke made a business trip to Kansas City last of the week.

BIG CROWD ATTENDED SINGING CONVENTION AT MONROE LAST SUNDAY—AN ALL DAY EVENT

In spite of the bad weather the regular 5th Saturday night and Sunday meeting of the Lubbock County Singing Convention met last Saturday night and Sunday with the Monroe Class and we had a most excellent time and a splendid program together with a bounteous spread piled high upon a table about a 100 yards long.

Singers from all over the county were present and some 30 or 40 delegates representing the various classes were enrolled. Also a number of visitors from other counties were present and we were more than glad to have them with us. A mixed quartet from Lorenzo rendered some splendid selections and numbers rendered by the classes in the contest from County Line—Lubbock—Monroe and Acuff were interesting features of the program and Monroe carried off the honors again. The Monroe people sang 30 things by halves and the convention extended that community a vote of thanks for the splendid manner in which it had entertained the convention.

Carlisle was selected as the next meeting place the 5th Saturday night and Sunday in January. Meet us there—loaded for bear.

R. I. Wilson, Secretary.

POST CITY EDITOR SUFFERS FROM PTOMAINE

Do you know what it is? We do. It's several thousand little devils in your stomach and bowels, each pulling the other way. We did not see them but we felt them and know they were there for we are still ailing from a severe attack of Ptomaine poisoning which we fell heir to last Friday afternoon and were unable to leave our home until Wednesday of this week. We are still in a very weakened condition and not doing any more work than is absolutely necessary. If life drags heavily, you have the blues and want something real amusing just try Ptomaine poisoning and you'll forget all your other troubles.—Post City Post.

SHALLOWATER ASKS FOR PASSENGER-FREIGHT DEPOT

Petition of citizens of Shallowater a station 12 miles Southwest of Lubbock for better depot facilities, will be considered at the next regular monthly hearing of the Railroad Commission on Tuesday, Nov. 8. The petitioners allege that the present depot facilities are inadequate for the accommodation of the traveling public.

R. M. Galey of Tuxedo, Jones county Texas, purchased 160 acres of the old East ranch north of Lubbock Friday of last week. Mr. Galey purchased the farm now owned and occupied by Mr. King and intends moving his family to Lubbock immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Ray of Plainview, visited with Mrs. Geo. Arnett, the past week.

WITH LUBBOCK BUSINESS MEN

This week Mr. E. C. Simmons becomes a full-fledged furniture dealer. For several years Mr. Simmons has been associated with Mrs. W. E. Robinson of the Robinson Furniture Company, being Undertaker and Embalmer as well as salesman. He is a young man ambitious to start and operate a successful Lubbock business. His personality which will make friends has already made many in Lubbock and the South Plains country. We believe that he will succeed and sincerely hope so. Visit the new store where you will find a complete line of new furniture. It is located on the South side of the square, east of Miller's grocery.

The buying public of the Lubbock trade territory evidently appreciated the efforts made by the Cash Dry Goods Company and the Leader in their opening sales the latter part of the week. The Cash Dry Goods Company opened on the 27th and according to the management was a successful event all through the week. They will keep their sale going probably ten or more days before closing.

The Leader was crowded with people all day Saturday, their opening day. Tired clerks were in evidence Saturday evening and the management was more than pleased with the sales made and is confident that the public has stopped their buying strike and will continue patronizing the cut-price event until closing date which will be announced in the Avalanche in the near future.

The One-Cent Sale of Rexall goods which has been so successful in the past is starting Thursday of this week and will continue for the two following days at the City Drug Store. This is an advertising proposition carried out by all Rexall Stores and it has been very successful from its inception. Lubbock people will visit the City Drug store this week, of that there is little doubt.

Jed Rix has figured out, on the basis of the number of people walking over the Klearflax Linen Rug during the past week, that 75,000 people have walked over the rug during the four week period prior to the guessing contest. Last week was not a representative week in Lubbock because of disagreeable weather of the latter part and though Mr. Rix's figures are conservative, we believe that more than 75,000 people would walk over that rug in a normal four week period.

That Jed is good in figures, we personally admit. One instance was when he took his pencil and paper in hand and with figures showed the writer that although remaining apparently prosperous in business, a loss of twenty-five per cent on each piece of furniture sold could be sustained and generally was on the basis of freight, handling, investment, insurance, expense of salesmen, delivery, rent and a hundred or more incidental expenses. It is on account of remembering that instance that the writer will not disagree on the number of people walking over the rug in a normal period, but will only state that not less than the amount claimed by Jed walked over the Linen Rug.

Many Lubbock people are acquainted with O. B. Hewitt, very recently of Temple, who is now associated with Jones Brothers furnishing store. Mr. Hewitt married a daughter of P. Von Rosenberg of this city, one of the Lubbock county Commissioners. Mr. Hewitt will not remain with Jones Brothers permanently, but will remain through the heavy fall and winter buying season and likely until Christmas.

SAM S. DENMAN PURCHASES COLBY THOMAS HOME

A deal was consummated the past week whereby Mr. Sam S. Denman, becomes the owner of the J. Colby Thomas home, 1616 West 11th St. Mr. Denman has recently moved to Lubbock from Houston, and is now a member of the firm of Briggs & Denman, Asst. Cashier of the Lubbock State Bank.

The Colby Thomas home is one of the most beautiful homes in Lubbock. We have not learned of Mr. Thomas' future plans, but sincerely hope that he does not contemplate leaving Lubbock.

LUBBOCK COUNTY STILL HOLDS IT RECORDS

This week Frank Beanie of near Abernathy, was in town, and stated that the wife of Bob Gould, of his community was very sick, after an operation, which kept her husband at her bedside, not having a chance to rather his crop, but sincerely hope that he does not contemplate leaving Lubbock.

PRAIRIE FIRE ON SLAUGHTER RANCH LAST WEEK

A costly prairie fire was averted Wednesday evening at the Slaughter ranch, twenty miles north of Big Spring, when the fire was brought under control after a two hours fight. Farmers and ranchmen from all points rallied to aid in checking the fire and several went from Big Spring to assist.

HOG THIEVES GET OFF WITH THIRTY HEAD SAT.

G. W. Burnes, who owns a nice farm and ranch 20 miles northeast of Lubbock, was in town Saturday and reports that one night last week thieves made a rade on his hog pasture and stole 30 head of hogs, including all his meat hogs. He had just advertised a hog sale and this bunch was cut back from the sale. No clue of the thieves have been found.

SUIT CASE STOLEN FROM CAR HERE FRIDAY EVE

H. F. D. Spain, representing a cotton seed firm from Robstown, Texas, and a cousin of J. F. Turner, is in town. Friday evening he drove out to Mr. Turner's home for a short visit. After a few minutes he went out to his car for his suit case and found some one had relieved him of it. Up to this time he has no clue of the thief.

NEAR ACCIDENT AVERTED SUNDAY AFTERNOON

What came near being a serious accident Sunday afternoon, was averted by the quick effort of an auto-driver going west on Broadway towing another car behind. While crossing Avenue I, a little boy undertook to pass between the two cars when the driver saw the danger and stopped in time to keep the little fellow from being pinned between the cars.

COTTON CROP ABOUT HALF OUT IN DONLEY

About 65 per cent of the cotton has been ginned in Donley County, ranging in price from 16 to as high as 23 cents. This price has helped everyone, farmer and business man. The fair price is not high, but the crops are good, and it will help out in many ways. Another crop, while not a new one, has, at the same time, grown this year, and that is the sweet potato. So far about 6,000 bushels have been put in our new storage plant, and many have been shipped from nearby towns.

ADDITIONAL BOUNDARY SURVEY BEING MADE

Austin, Texas, Oct. 27.—Following the introduction of much expert and scientific testimony by the State of Texas in the Red River boundary case, the Federal Government and Oklahoma are putting a third surveying party in the valley to prepare evidence to be submitted at Washington in rebuttal to that now being offered by Texas in Austin.

DEATH OF MRS. HART AT LOVINGTON, N. M.

Mrs. J. W. Hooker of Lubbock, returned last of the week from Lovington, N. M., where she was called to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Hart, who died at that place, Monday, Oct. 21st. Mr. and Mrs. Hart are well known in and around Lubbock and their friends here join in sympathy in the sorrow of the husband and family.

CHILD DROWNED NEAR RALLS LAST WEDNESDAY

The little 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, living 5 miles southeast of Ralls, was drowned about noon Wednesday. The little child was out playing about the yard near a water tank. It is supposed she climbed on the tank and fell in. She was missed by her mother who found the dead child in the tank. H. H. Griffith, of the Rix Undertaking Company went down Wednesday and prepared the body for burial.

SHALLOWATER MERCANTILE STORE BURGLARIZED

The Shallowater Mercantile store at Shallowater was entered last Monday night and a number of wool shirts, pocket knives and jewelry to the amount of about $50.00 was taken. Suspicion is directed to two strange young men who were noticed loafing about the building Monday afternoon, probably about twenty years of age.

ATTENDANCE AT STATE NORMAL GREATLY INCREASED

Canyon, Oct. 28.—The attendance this year in the West Texas State Normal shows some interesting facts. Last year the number of students was 1765; this year, the number at this time has gone beyond 2000. The largest part of the increase belongs to the summer term. The fall attendance this year in the Normal and College classes is about the same as last year. There is an increase among the students in the Training School. In fact, the training school has reached its capacity and students have been denied admission owing to the classes.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN LUBBOCK MOST SATISFACTORY TO LEADING BUSINESS FIRMS OF THE CITY

"Most satisfactorily" is the answer you will more than likely get if you inquire into the outlook of Lubbock and the Lubbock territory of the Lubbock bankers. No, these men don't care for a rush for loans—the good old days have gone—maybe never to return, but that doesn't by no means indicate that a solid prosperity has not started in, because in the opinion of our bankers it has. The days of wild speculation, extravagant borrowing of money have passed but legitimate business will be able to receive all the financial needs essential for business development.

Since conditions are on a solid business basis, when most commodities are being bought with confidence by the wholesalers and retailers alike, there looms up problems that were in sight twelve months ago and about now is the time leaders of business and civic activities are wondering if those things should not be forced to the front.

In the opinion of J. A. Rix, president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, the most important problem before the people of Lubbock and one that must be attended to shortly, is the erection of adequate school buildings and facilities. "Either Lubbock will be just a good town or a City" and upon school facilities, churches, etc., depends much. According to Mr. Rix, there are literally hundreds of people now residents of Lubbock who will not be unless school facilities are not bettered—more housing, room, etc. While there are more chances for getting new citizens and families and retain those we now have by providing better buildings, from a purely business standpoint, the citizens of this City "cannot afford to do without better and more school buildings."

"We recognize that the bond market at the present time makes the sale of bonds almost prohibitive" states Mr. Rix in regard to the proposed bond issue election for building of better schools in Lubbock, but, he states, "the bond market will surely come back. All indications at present time are that there will be ready sales for municipal bonds shortly, and while we are not thinking of selling the bonds now, would it not be a business proposition as well as a feasible one, that we call the election and secure the bonds on the right to make bonds so that when there is a market for them we will be in a position to sell them and start construction on the needed building at the very earliest date."

Better school buildings are first on the minds of Lubbock builders while back of them comes the much needed auditorium. These things, being necessary for the good of the people as well as the town will likely take on form and become facts within the next six months.

Lubbock Golf Course One of The Best in Texas

Visiting golfers who have been on the new Golf Course since it was completed are free to state that it is one of the best in Texas today, and with the contemplated improvements will without doubt be as good as any. The new course has just recently been completed in connection with the recently organized Country Club, and the course has cost up to the present time about $1,800, and work will be continued on this course during the winter, and improved from time to time, as the finances of the club will justify.

The course has a total of 3,251 yards for the nine holes it has two water hazards, several natural hazards in the form of hills and valleys, artificial water and sand hazards and bunkers.

The club is making many other improvements. The big dam across the canyon is just about completed and this will create a basin which will cover approximately fifty acres of ground making one of the finest fishing and boating places in this section of the country. The Club grounds contain about 150 acres of land, and club houses will be erected during the winter, and will be ready for the opening of spring, and the membership which is composed of one hundred of the most prominent and influential citizens of the city will no doubt spend many enjoyable days at this place. The members of their families are entitled to the privileges of the grounds, and it will mean a great deal to hundreds of people of this city.

Texas Leads the Nation in Pure Bred Cattle

Washington, D. C., Oct. 24.—Texas has 113,107 pure bred cattle on its farms, the Census Bureau announced today. Of these 39,743 are beef breeds and 23,364 are dairy breeds. In the nation entire there are 1,981,514 pure bred cattle.

Texas led the nation in pure bred Herfords with 70,921 out of a total in the nation of 405,580. In Jerseys Texas ranked second in the nation, being exceeded only by Ohio.

Pure bred cattle in Texas were divided as follows: Beef breeds—Aberdeen Angus, 2,605; Galloway, 530; Hereford, 70,021; Polled Durham, 5,944; Short Horn, 4,371; all others 6,272.

Dairy breeds—Ayrshire, 19; Guernsey, 59; Holstein-Friesian, 2,973; Jerseys 18,718.

Texas had a total of 1,793 pure bred horses, ranking far down the list in this respect. The pure bred were divided as follows:

American Saddle, 25; Belgian, 10; Clydesdale, 11; French Draft, 11; German Coach 46; Hackney, 8; Percheron, 68; Standard Bred, 116; Thoroughbred, 183; all other breeds, 781.

BOYS ATTEMPT TO PASS FORGED CHECKS BUT CAUGHT

Two boys giving their names as Alton Moore and Felix Morgan, one from Eastland and one from Cisco, were arrested on a charge of forgery Wednesday. They went into the gents furnishing store and purchased some shoes and other articles, amounting to about $34, and presented in payment two checks each for $21.75. The checks were drawn by W. R. Smith on the Lubbock State Bank and made in favor of James E. Hall and Ed R. Smith. The clerk, for some reason became suspicious of the checks, and while the boys were putting on the shoes decided to step over to the bank and investigate, and found that the checks were bogus. In the meantime the boys decided they had better be getting away, so made their exit through the back of the store. The case was reported to the officers and chief of police Hufstader was quickly on their trail and caught them in the canyon north of town, and they are now in jail at this place awaiting their fate at the hands of the law.

And it will soon be time to begin to wonder if Mr. Bryan will run for president again.

Grain Rates Must Be Reduced Says Int. State Com.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 22.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today advised the Texas Railroad Commission that it had rendered a decision reducing the interstate rate on grain and hay in the Western territory one-half of the increase of 25 per cent made by what is known as the "increase rates case of 1920," and rates on coarse grains 10 per cent less than those prescribed for wheat; also reducing the rates on grain products.

The effect of this decision, if applied to Texas business, would reduce the maximum rates in Texas on wheat from 32 1-2c per 100 pounds to 28 1-2c and on flour from 37c to 32 1-2c. These rates become effective on five days' notice and not later than Nov. 20.

"The copy of the official order has not been received as yet, but it is not likely that it will itself affect intrastate rates in Texas," said Commissioner E. Gilmore. "However, should the railways fail to take the steps at once to reduce the intrastate rates proportionate to interstate decreases, the Railroad Commission will have jurisdiction to do so."

Federal Loan Will Help the Stockman-Farmer

Stamford, Texas, Oct. 19.—In an address before the executive committee of the Agricultural-Livestock Finance Corporation, at Fort Worth Monday, Porter A. Whaley, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce indorsed its purposes.

Mr. Whaley emphasized that fact that the loan corporation not only would bring relief to the cattle industry, but would benefit all the agricultural and producing interests of Texas.

West Texas, the most prosperous section of the State, according to the speaker, is in a position to help finance the proposition.

"Fort Worth is the great market for the sale of West Texas products—for its grain, its livestock, its oils and minerals and its cotton.

"West Texas is just as much interested in the expansion of the Fort Worth market as is Fort Worth itself. The growth of the Fort Worth market for the products of West Texas, while essentially dependent upon the co-ordination of both the producer and buyer, cannot reach its prime unites through establishment of long time credit. Short time credit is at hand.

"The Agricultural-Livestock Finance Corporation will give this long time credit. West Texas will subscribe for the quota to stock needed, because she needs the long time credit. With this credit, the production of West Texas will vastly increase, cumulative it is true, and as a result the market center of Fort Worth will expand. The project is therefore, dual, and as a result the project must be put over."

SWEETWATER TAXI DRIVER KILLED BY A NEGRO

Sweetwater, Texas, Oct. 22.—George Edward Morse was shot and killed Friday night at a house on the Crane farm, about two miles north of this place. The house had been vacant until recently, but was occupied by a negro and his wife, who had been picking cotton for H. B. Washam, who had the farm rented.

Several persons have been arrested and several others are being sought. Morse was a jitney driver. As he approached the house, with two other persons, he was shot from the inside.

Lowest Cotton Crop on Record Is the Forecast of the 1920-21 Crop and The Largest Per Cent Gathered

Washington, Oct. 25.—A larger per centage of the country's cotton crop had been ginned to October 18 this year than had been ginned in any previous year to that date in the history of the cotton growing the census bureau's ginning report issued today indicated.

A total of 5,477,397 bales had been turned out by ginneries, which total is 83.7 per cent of the entire crop as estimated by the Department of Agriculture in its forecast of October 3 this year.

The previous heaviest ginning to October 18 was in 1916 when 64.3 per cent of the crop had been ginned.

Round bales included numbered 99,371, compared with 140,099 last year; American—Egyptian included numbered 7,498 bales, compared with 14,312 last year and sea island included numbered 1,204 ables compared with 334 last year.

The ginning report included a paragraph stating:

The Department of Agriculture on October 3, 1921, estimated that the condition of the cotton crop on September 25 was 42.2 per cent of a normal, the lowest condition ever reported, which forecasts a total production of about 6,557,000 bales of 500 pounds gross.

Reports indicate that a large portion of the crop has been ginned.

The heaviest ginning on record prior to this year was that of 1916, when 7,303,183 bales of 64.3 per cent of the crop was ginned prior to October 18. The next best ginning to that date was in 1918 when 6,811,351 bales or 57.2 per cent of the crop was ginned to that date.

Ginnings by states follow:
 Alabama, 426,152; Arizona, 8,125; Arkansas, 149,484; California, 4,012; Florida, 8,127; Georgia, 637,129; Louisiana, 195,115; Mississippi, 512,007; Missouri, 40,333; North Carolina, 444,964; Oklahoma, 347,146; South-Carolina, 494,261; Tennessee, 158,660; Texas, 1,704,766; Virginia, 7,505; all other states, 3,979.

Pioneer Lady Died at Abilene Last Saturday

Mrs. Sarah M. Gill, 63 years old, resident of this city since 1910, died at the home of her son, C. W. Gill, Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock after a prolonged illness. She was born near Cincinnati, O., October, 31, 1858. Besides her son, C. W. Gill, who is one of the city commissioners, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Victor Payne of this city, and two grandchildren, Victor Payne, Jr., and Leah Elizabeth Gill. Mrs. Gill was a member of the Methodist church and lived a consecrated Christian life. She lived in Colorado, Tex., twenty years and came to this city to live with her son in 1910. Her death comes as a great shock to scores of friends of the family in this city and in Colorado, where she was known and loved by hundreds. The remains will be sent to Colorado, Tex., and burial will be made at 10 o'clock this morning, the Rev. Browning officiating. Two brothers also survive, Tom Runyan of Colorado and J. A. Runyan of Coahoma. The deceased had been a patient sufferer for over 20 years.—Abilene Reporter.

ACUFF ITEMS OF THE PAST WEEK

We are enjoying a dandy western gale this morning. The sand is traveling at a very rapid speed, and this is such delightful weather on the maize headers and cotton pickers.

Little Glenn Norris Davis has been suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis, the last few days, but we are very proud to report him gradually improving.

J. M. Boyd took a bale of cotton to the gin Tuesday morning. G. C. Davis was lucky in getting his cotton picked over before these winds.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Rush and family attended singing at the Canyon school house Sunday evening.

The Wood's brothers are improving their place south east of the irrigation farm this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Evitt and W. D. Davis took dinner in M. S. S. Rush's house Sunday.

Mrs. Baucom was called away last week to Mineral Wells on account of sickness, has not returned yet, and Mrs. Kelley is taking her room and Miss Ethel Cox is in the Primary Division.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyd and son, Jesse attended singing at Canyon Sunday evening. Lois and Arville Evitt accompanied them.

Little W. D. Davis was absent from school several days last week on account of a very severe spell of tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Evitt accompanied by Robert Gillock and Carl Stewart motored to Canyon Sunday evening to the singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis took their baby Glenn to the doctor Sunday afternoon.

THE UNLOADED GUN PROVES FATAL AGAIN

The unloaded shot gun proved fatal again Saturday evening, when two negro boys about 12 years living at Southland, were playing with a shot gun, supposed to be unloaded, when it was discharged, the load striking the other in the knee. The wounded boy was brought to the Lubbock Sanitarium. It was thought best to amputate his limb, but the boy died on the operating table. He was buried Sunday afternoon.

W. E. Stapp, connected with the cotton exchange of Houston, is a business visitor to Lubbock this week.

Why Lubbock is the Hub of the Plains

Why Lubbock is the hub will be answered in a series of articles that will appear under this head, leaving the reader to judge for himself whether the town has been correctly named.

Few people even in Lubbock, know that Lubbock has some of the largest wholesale stocks of goods in the state, yet this is true as will be seen by the following:

The Panhandle Cigar Co.
This company was organized in September 1919, by T. G. Shaw and J. D. Quick, who are still the sole owners of the business. At first the business was conducted in the building occupied by the Lubbock Grain and Coal Company on the track at the east end of Broadway, and was afterwards moved to the building just north of the Avalanche office, where it developed a business far beyond the imagination of any one in Lubbock, who has not taken the time to ask about it. It being a wholesale business strictly, of course the general public has not had occasion to become intimately acquainted with the workings of this firm. On the first of October this firm leased the south building of the block of bricks erected recently by the Panhandle Construction Company, on the corner of 14th and I, just South of the Avalanche office, and they are now comfortably located in that building, and here they have what Mr. Shaw, the manager says, the largest humidifier in the South, built of concrete, which is the very best material with which to build them, as it keeps the cigars moist and in fine shape till shipped out. In this humidifier is also placed a humidifier, which aids the former in functioning its important work. This firm carries in stock probably $40,000 worth of cigars, tobaccos and kindred lines. They own three cigar brands exclusively and handle the entire output of these factories throughout the United States, the brands being the well known Hamilton Fish, Shaw's Hand Made and Certified Check, the daily output of which amounts to not less than thirty thousand. These brands are handled by not less than fifty wholesale houses in the State and are sold through special salesmen cooperating with these wholesale houses, besides this about one hundred salesmen are carrying these lines as a side line throughout the United States, which within itself gives Lubbock a wonderful lot of publicity, as the main office is in Lubbock and all orders are billed from this place, and salesmen every day are talking about Lubbock as they present these goods for sale. Four salesmen travel out of Lubbock, making weekly rounds over the territory covered by this point locally. This firm is the largest parcel post customer of the local postoffice, and they literally fill the local office at times with their goods as they are shipped out.

The local working force at present consists of the manager, T. G. Shaw, J. T. Douglas, Sales Manager, Miss Holstead, credit department and the billing clerk, Miss Douglas, Bookkeeper and J. C. Turner, warehouse foreman and wagon man.

This is indeed a great business for Lubbock and is rapidly growing, and there is no telling to what extent this business will grow within the next five or ten years. This is just one of the many business institutions that contribute to the making of Lubbock the hub of the plains and a very important place in the commercial world.

MIDLAND NORTHWESTERN RY. MAY BE EXTENDED SOON

Seminole, Texas, Oct. 26.—Request has been made by the local unit of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that that organization be represented at a meeting to be held in Midland, November 7th, having for its purpose the initiation of plans for the operation of the Midland and Northwestern Railroad. President Jones has announced that the West Texas Chamber will be represented. There is some talk of the outlining of plans for the extension of this railway through Yoakum County, Texas, to Poswell, New Mexico.

PARENTS AS EDUCATORS

Baby's First Tool—Himself

By Martha Gallaudet Waring

When we begin the training of the baby we must never forget that the first thing he should learn to use is himself, and that this first tool should be the God-given ones of his own body—members and brain. We are apt to overlook this in fact, though ready to admit it in theory; therefore let us glance over the beginning of this kind of training.

Freebel, with his never-failing insight into the needs of the developing child, has given us among others the Mother-Play of "Falling-Falling." This, as well as the "Play with the Limbs" and "Pat-a-Cake" should be used with the very tiny baby as soon as he shows signs of conscious activity.

Babies always respond with pleasure to exercises with the soles of the feet pressed against the palms of the mother's hands, and to the careful moving of the arms up and down. These simple exercises begin to differentiate their members for them, thus giving them early control of their bodies. "Pat-a-Cake" comes next and then "Two Little Dogs that are Walking a Mile" played with the feet thus:

"Two little dogs are walking a mile, Two little dogs are crossing a stile, Cross over, cross over, cross over." During the first two lines lift up the baby's feet successively as though walking in the air, and for the last line cross over alternately. Next comes rolling over on the bed and pulling up by the arms, first a little, gradually all the way, before the baby tries to stand or walk. As soon, however, as he begins to pull himself up by objects, show him stable ones that will not rock or move. From then on, it is all a matter of first lessons in using his most important tool, himself.

At the age of two a child who is normally strong and has been properly trained can do any of the following things, adding to his activities almost hourly. He can climb on the chairs or other objects, by which he can steady himself. He can walk and run with ease, also balance against moving objects such as a go-cart. He can open and shut doors, drawers and boxes, and fit coppers or stoppers to their proper openings.

At the age of twenty-two months our baby, who was quite used to going up and down the inside stairs alone, was observed laboriously climbing down them, holding the banister with one hand while in the other he held a rattan suitcase, light but unwieldy. This he carefully lifted down from step to step, climbing after it, with never a slip, so we let him alone and watched. He carried the suitcase down a long hall, carefully opened the back door and descended the back steps into the yard. We followed unobserved into the garage, until we saw him climb laboriously into my electric coupe still tugging at his precious suitcase, and calling to the man "Bill, Mama's chine, choo-choo cars! Tybee! Tybee is the seaside resort nearest us, and the power of that thought-wish had taken him over as difficult and laborious a way as many an explorer's expedition.

Music In The Home.

By Edna Everett.

In speaking of the needs of a poverty-stricken family of our acquaintance, a friend once said to me in shocked and disapproving tones "And they have a piano! Think of it, a piano! And those seven children have not enough to eat, and are always needing help. I think that family deserves no help and no sympathy. A piano, of all things!"

"Fortunate children!" I replied. "Perhaps the piano makes them forget the lack of food and coal and keeps them off the streets. I must call and see that piano," which I did, forthwith.

I could scarcely conceal my astonishment at the transformation in this erstwhile home of poverty and uncleanness.

The piano, which was the only object worthy the name of a piece of furniture, shone from recent polishing, and floor and every object within range of vision had been scrubbed and rubbed to make it a proper associate for the piano.

"Sure," said the mother, beaming with pride and blissfully unconscious of the tales concerning the family extravagance, "it is a grand thing for the children. They don't never go out nights now, and," impressively "you just ought to hear Mary play, never had a lesson and plays everything by ear. And it's the same with Ellen. She plays grand. Oh, they all take turns. It's too bad the girls ain't here to play for you, and the way they keep the house clean! You see their friends come to see them now."

I tried to look my grief at missing the musical (?) treat, expressed my admiration for the piano, my interest in the welfare of the family, and departed rejoicing. My theory had been vindicated.

Music in that home, as in every other, is as much a necessity as food and clothing. Why expect the poor to be satisfied with food alone while their souls starve for the things that make life worthwhile, and, in many cases, barely endurable.

Many complain that the working man is receiving high wages and "wasting" his money on a piano, a victrola, or other musical instruments and in paying for music lessons for his children.

Every child has the right to music in the home. It is essential to health, and happiness. It will keep children in the home and cause them to carry with them memories which may save them in times of temptation.

The moral values of "good" music cannot be overestimated, while the degrading, unrepeatable "jazz" has no more place in the home than the trashy and immoral literature.

Children will go where they find music and song, companionship and happiness. If they find these in the home, they will not search for them elsewhere, and the problem of keeping children at home will be happily solved.

Parents will find the following books helpful: Liberty Chorus Song Book, edited by Anne Shaw Faulkner, published by McKinley Music Co., Chicago; What is Good Music? by W. J. Henderson, published by C. Scribner's Sons, New York.

There are a number of collections of familiar songs, such as Home Songs, published by the Oliver D. son Company, which encourage children to sing with their parents.

Another admirable little book is entitled "Songs for the Little Child," by Miss Clara Belle Baker, and Mrs. Philon Koblasz, published by the Abingdon Press, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York. Old folk music has been used in it with verses by Thetford and Stevenson, as well as original verses by Mrs. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Pierson of Houston, were visiting relatives in the city Friday and Saturday and were visiting at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan C. Berry, near Brown. They were accompanied by their little nephew, Polbie and S. B. Berry of Benjamin, Texas.

J. M. Kilpatrick, of Lorenzo, was a visitor to Lubbock Friday.

Gaines County Bonds Approved By Att'y. General

Judge Stark, of Seminole, was here Saturday, returning from Austin, where he had been in the interest of Gaines County Court House Bonds, which were recently voted to complete the court house and jail which was commenced some three years ago, but not completed on account of financial stringencies. The bonds amounting to $55,000 were almost unanimously voted and have the approval of the Attorney General and Mr. Stark says they are now in the hands of the printers and will be ready for negotiation within a few weeks.

We understand that the contractors and the bondsmen of the contractor who was unable to complete the job on the first contract have agreed to accept the bonds at par on the completion of the building, and that work will begin at once to finish the building which has been standing in an unfinished condition for some months.

Judge Stark is very hopeful that the railroad matters will be adjusted and that the railroad will be put in operation from Midland to Seminole within a short time. This will mean much for the future development of Seminole.

The judge says while the farming interests of his section are not as active as they might be, there has been an enormous lot of feed stuff raised and some cotton this year, and the outlook for that section is brighter than it has been for several months.

OLDEST O. E. S. MEMBER IN TEXAS DIED SATURDAY

Mrs. Helen Marr Eastland, 86, died here Saturday night at the home of her son, Dr. J. H. Eastland, at Mineral Wells. Her body was taken to Waco and buried today. Rev. J. P. Cranfil of Dallas, a long-time friend, officiated at the funeral. Mrs. Eastland was born in Clairmont, N. M., in 1835. She was a descendant of a family which located in Connecticut in 1640. In 1852 she visited an uncle who came to Texas with Stephen F. Austin and then met and was married to Dr. William Davis Eastland, who had raised a military company in Mississippi to fight for Texas as independence. With her husband, who died in 1878, Mrs. Eastland settled in Nolansville, now Belton, Bell County, moving to Waco in 1868 to educate their children, all of whom were graduated from colleges. In 1864 Mrs. Eastland joined the Order of the Eastern Star and was its oldest member in Texas. For the last fifteen years she had made her home with a daughter in Oklahoma City, but spent much of her time here.

Mrs. W. E. Robinson, of the firm of the Robinson Furniture Co., left Monday for Dallas to spend a week visiting her mother.

Less Illiteracy In Texas Now Than Ten Years Ago

Washington, Oct. 20.—Figures gathered from the census of 1920 show there are 295,844 illiterate persons 10 years of age and over in the State of Texas, "illiterate" meaning unable to write in English, or any other language. Of this number 50,424 are native whites of native parentage, 30,219 are of foreign or mixed parentage, and 112,417 are of foreign birth. The number of illiterate negroes is 102,053.

In the total population 10 years of age and over the percentage of illiteracy is 8.3, which shows a slight diminution since 1910, when it was 9.9. In the case of the negroes the percentage declined from 24.6 to 17.8 and in the case of the native whites of native parentage from 3.3 to 2.2. For the foreign-born whites the percentage was 30 in 1910 and 33.8 in 1920.

By counties the percentage of illiteracy ranges all the way from 24.6 in Willacy County to one-tenth of 1 per cent in Hansford County.

TAYLOR COUNTY MAN RE-CAPTURED ARTER 9 YRS.

After nine years of freedom, J. W. Owens, convicted and sentenced in Taylor County, Texas, on a charge of manslaughter, is on his way back to the penitentiary from which he escaped more than nine years ago, a few minutes after he had been turned over to the penitentiary officials at Huntsville by Agent Bud Russell. The story of Owens' life after his escape reads like a novel. Escaping from the penitentiary, Owens instituted for himself a hiding place at the bottom of a dry well, adjoining the home of his wife and children near Abilene, it is claimed. In the well, the fugitive dug out a refuge and, according to officers, spent the most of his days concealed underground. At night he would live in his home with his family, returning to the well at daylight. Time after time officers watched the man's house. They never located him until a few weeks ago.—Whitewright Sun.

ABSENCE OF ONE MAIZE HEAD LOSES LUBBOCK HONOR

According to Jos. W. Jennings who had charge of the Lubbock County exhibit at Dallas, the absence of one maize head, caused Lubbock county to drop from 6th place to that of 18th. When the judges found that the exhibit was short one head they threw that part of the exhibit out so far as they were concerned, and in doing so lost for Lubbock exhibit 250 points which placed us away down the line in order of prize winners. Mr. Jennings says he is still looking for the man that got that head, as he vows that it was there when the exhibit was placed. Briggs says he knows who got it. Anyway it was a "dirty Irish trick," but Lubbock is not grieving over the loss of the maize head as we have ear loads of them just as good and the exhibit was extra good this year and received many favorable comments, and this section received a wonderful lot of favorable advertising by means of the exhibit at the Dallas fair.

Congressman Blanton Reprimanded By Speaker Gillet, By Order of Resolution by Unanimous Vote

Washington, Oct. 27.—Saved from being thrown out of the House of Representatives by a bare margin of eight votes, Thomas L. Blanton, a Texas Democrat, was publicly reprimanded late today by Speaker Gillet in accordance with a resolution of censure, against which no man cast a single vote.

Then a moment later, as he walked out of the chamber with all eyes upon him, he toppled over in a heap. Some of his colleagues who had voted to expel him picked him up and placed him on a lounge. But he did not stay there long. Rousing himself, he stumbled out, the tears were streaming down his cheeks and as he went away he was heard to express the hope that he might never see the House again.

Text of Censure.—In censuring Representative Blanton, Speaker Gillet said: "Mr. Blanton, by a unanimous vote of the House, the ayes 293, and the nays none, I have been directed to censure you because when you had been allowed by the courtesy of the House to print a speech which you did not deliver upon the floor, you inserted in it foul and obscene matter which you knew you could not have been delivered on the floor; and that disgusting matter which could not have been circulated through the mails in any other paper without a crime, was transmitted to thousands of homes and libraries throughout the country, to be read by men and women, and worst of all, by children whose prurient curiosity would be excited by it. Because of that I have been directed to pronounce, and I hereby pronounce upon you, the censure of the House."

Blanton Back in His Seat in House On Friday

Washington, Oct. 28.—Representative Thomas L. Blanton, Democrat, member from Texas, which yesterday received the censure of the House of Representatives as publicly pronounced by Speaker Gillette, was back in his place in the House today, entering the chamber early, prior to the chaplain's prayer. Congressman Blanton retained his seat by a bare margin of eight votes, under the necessary two-thirds when the House yesterday voted 203 to 118 on the resolution of Representative Mondell of Wyoming. Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, proposed expulsion of the Texas member for insertion in the Congressional Record a document described as "unspeakable vile." A few minutes later, however, he heard his colleagues vote unanimously for a resolution proposing that he be publicly reprimanded at the bar of the House.

Blanton Apologizes to the House.—Washington, Oct. 28.—Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, in a letter to Speaker Gillet, read today to members of the House, apologized for inserting in the Congressional Record words considered objectionable.

Blanton was apparently unshaken by his tragic experience of yesterday when he narrowly escaped expulsion and underwent censure and a public reprimand as he appeared today on the floor of the House.

He sat unmoved during the reading of the journal which told of the proceedings in his case, but the nervous fingering of papers which he held in his lap indicated he had not fully recovered from his nervous tension which resulted in his temporary collapse yesterday.

Just before the Blanton letter was presented, Representative Garrett, Tennessee, Democratic leader, asked the House, at Blanton's request, to strike from the record four words which indicated that the Texan had expressed a determination, if financially able, to circulate the undelivered speech expunged by the House with the offending affidavit, precisely as it appeared originally.

"What the gentleman from Texas said was uttered in the heat of debate or in the stress of speaking," Garrett said. "I ask unanimous consent that the words be eliminated from the permanent record."

Representative Mondell, Wyoming, Republican leader, objected, asserting that Blanton had made the statement deliberately and that the House record should not be altered. Representative Walsh, of Massachusetts, in the chair, then presented the Blanton letter which he explained had been shown by him to Mondell and Garrett.

When the reading was concluded there was vigorous applause, mostly on the Republican side. Blanton, sitting in the second row, looked on, but had nothing to say.

Representative Blanton's letter to Speaker Gillet follows: "I am involved in no issue now before the House, hence what I now say is not a sacrificing of any principle.

"When I expressed a wish of being able to place before the country the record expunged, I was misunderstood by my colleagues who believed that I would circulate the objectionable language. My intention was not to do this, but to circulate the expunged record with all the objectionable words and abbreviations contained in the employee's affidavit eliminated and circulated only to show to the country the honest bona fide purpose of my remarks.

"I realize that the judgment of no human is infallible. I bow to the collective judgment of my colleagues, against none of whom I harbor malice, and offer this, my apology to the House, for what my colleagues in their decision determined was an error."

NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK FROM CARLSLE

There was a large crowd at Sunday school Sunday. There are more enrolled in Sunday School than ever before.

A Hard Shell Baptist preacher, whose name we failed to learn will preach Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

Miss Opal Burroughs has returned home after a three weeks visit with her sister near Littlefield.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs was opened to the young folks Saturday night. After interesting games and contests the last act was ice cream and cake. A large crowd was there and all reported a nice time. A number of friends and relatives of town were there.

Misses Bennie Bond and Etta Heffington and Mr. Johnnie Heffington visited in Post City Sunday.

Mr. Peviehouse, principle of our school moved into the teachersage last week. We are very glad to have him with us.

Mrs. Hankins is visiting her mother of Waco.

Mr. Gether is cutting feed for Mr. H. B. Ray.

U. S. SUPREME COURT TO DECIDE WHETHER THE BIBLE SHALL BE TAUGHT IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The right to read the Bible in the public schools is to be tested in the United States Supreme Court by the Presbyterian Synod of Washington State, according to a report recently published in the New York Tribune, one of the chief arguments to be advanced in affirmation of the right being the charge that prohibition of Scriptural reading in the schools has resulted in filling up the jails and correctional institutions. The appeal we are told, will be based on the Declaration of Independence, the Presbyterians claiming that the Declaration is a covenant between the American nation and God, and that the study of the Bible by American children is essential to an understanding of the covenant as well as to a full knowledge of God. "To exclude the Bible from the public schools," contend the Presbyterians in their presentment preparatory to an appeal, "is to violate one of the essential clauses of the opening paragraph of the Declaration of Independence. In the State of Washington the Attorney-General, and later the Supreme Court have rendered an opinion in which the Bible, in effect, is adjudged a sectarian book and deemed to be unconstitutional to read or teach in the State schools." According to the published report. "The Presbyterians declare this ruling erroneous and that the State constitutional provisions so construed are void as in conflict with and repugnant to the principles of the Declaration of Independence. "This ruling," it is added, "makes it impossible to obtain such knowledge in the school system of the State as all citizens are equally entitled to—instruction in the laws of nature and also of nature's God, which latter are spiritual and obtainable from the Bible." "Extensive arguments are presented to show that no State has a right to exclude from its system of education instruction in the science of religion as set forth in the Bible—the only book which sets forth the existence, laws and other attributes of the Divine Providence to which the Declaration of Independence is committed—without this exclusion being repugnant to the Declaration, and therefore void." "The presentment declares that within a few years after prohibiting the Bible from Washington schools it became necessary to create juvenile courts, jails and correctional institutions, and so great was the demand for their use that people of the town and city began to make efforts to supply Bible teaching and moral training of youth attending State schools and colleges and were knocking at the back doors of their schools to which the law required their children to be committed for education, seeking recognition of Bible instruction.

Baal's teaching had increased to over 450 prophets."

But "it is hard to imagine that a worse calamity could befall religion than to have it interpreted to the youth of the nation by our public schools as now conducted," declares The Christian Century (Un denominational). While the Church will never rest easy under a judicial decree which calls the Bible a sectarian book, the remedy is certainly not that being sought by the Washington Presbyterians, it says, and argues that the Bible has been outlawed in the public schools juvenile delinquency has increased.

"There has not been enough Bible in the public schools anywhere in fifty years to make very much difference to the child. It would be more sensible the not yet wholly fair to lay the increase of juvenile delinquency at the doors of the church. The church's slipshod method of teaching religion a half hour a week instead of devoting much larger portions of the time to this task is as notorious as it is fatal. The lack of conscience among church people on religious education is a failure of church teaching. What the church does have a right to ask the state is that the time of a child shall not be so monopolized by secular studies that he can not pursue those fundamental studies which are the foundation of all ethical and spiritual attitudes. It requires in most states no new legislation to secure this fundamental right, since it is already conceded to Catholics, Lutherans and Jews and may be secured by evangelicals on demand."
