County Commissioner Jerry Damron passes

County Commissioner Jerry Damron was found dead at this home on Sunday by his son David. The younger Damron missed his father at church Sunday and went by the commissioner's home. His wife Ginger was away attending a church retreat.

The 52 year old Commissioner had represented precinct 4 on the County Commissioner's Court since January of 1999.

Damron was completing his first term on City Council approves budget for 2002-03

The Muleshoe City Council, meeting regular session Tuesday, approved the City's 2002-03 budget after council person Jerry Hicks' motion to amend the budget and give City Manager David Brunson a $2,500 a year salary increase. The motion passed without opposition. No provision was made to provide a salary increase for Brunson in the original budget. The motion came after the council met executive session to evaluate Brunson. Other city employees raises were included the commission and running unopposed for re-election in November.

It is too late by state law for a political party to file a candidate to fill the vacancy. Damron's replacement will be appointed to the commission by Bailey County Judge, Marilyn Cox. Because of the deadline on printing general election ballots Damron's name will appear on the November general election ballot, said Judge Cox, after consulting the Texas Attorney General's Office.

Judge Cox said she would make the appointment at the proper time after consulting the Texas Attorney General's Office.

Dr. Precure completes training to offer new treatment

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

Dr. Michael Precure, a 1986 Muleshoe High School graduate and chiropractic physician, has recently received specialized training in a new field of treatment for lower back pain.

Said Dr. Precure, "We are very excited to offer this new technology to the people of this area. And we are very proud to be the first to offer this type of treatment in the Texas Panhandle."

The treatment is called nonsurgical disc compression and was developed by a Canadian medical doctor in the early 90's.

"The treatment is really a program of a series of treatments where the patient's damaged spine is decompressed at the exact spinal level of involvement" said Dr. Precure.

In the past, when a patient did not respond to conservative care, medication, spinal manipulation, or therapy, a patient's only other choice for relief lay under a surgeon's scalpel. Now that patient has a very real alternative to risky surgery.

At the heart of this new treatment is the DRX-9000.

The DRX-9000 is state-of-the-art medical equipment that delivers the treatment and is the latest result of many hours of research by physicians and medical engineers at Axiom Worldwide in Tampa, Florida.

It is estimated that more than 80 percent of the American population will suffer a back injury in their lifetime with a yearly cost of over $8 billion.

"Following cancer, low back pain is the second most feared disease among men," said Dr. Precure, "and there are 7 million new cases a year. Of these, 5 million are partly disabled and another 2 million will be unable to work at all."

As a designated doctor for Texas Workers' Compensation Commission, Dr. Precure understands the implications of disabling back injuries. He's also frustrated with the outcome of some of the most troublesome cases that he sees in his work for TWCC and in his own

Traffic stop leads to police dog attack

What began as a traffic stop, became a major incident early Monday when Officer Rodney Stevens attempted to pull over Fernando Romero.

When Stevens stopped Romero, he left his vehicle and ran to his home. Stevens followed Romero to make an arrest. Stevens encountered difficulty with some of the family members and he released the police dog from the police car for back up.

Romero reportedly kicked or kicked at the dog and had to be taken to the hospital for multiple dog bites. He is charged with DWI (more than 3 previous), aggravated assault on a police officer, evading a police officer and interference with a police animal.

Romero's 17 year old son, David, was charged with aggravated assault on a police officer. David was released from jail but Fernando remains in custody.

Mules to take on Chieftains

By DELTON WILHITE

Mother Nature shut out both the Mules and Mustangs of Shallowater with a lightning display that kept both teams off the field. The teams were able to get in some preliminary stretching before the first flashes lit the sky over Mustang Stadium.

A high school football game cannot be played with lightning strikes inside a 20-mile radius of the field of play. The schools have a lightning detector that determines the distance to a strike.

A thirty-minute delay is required following the final strike before the game can start. The final strike flashed at nine o'clock. The game could have started at 9:30 but the field officials had already gone home.

Many games were rescheduled for Saturday morning but both schools agreed to cancel the game and resume the rivalry next year.

Both teams start district against some of their tougher opponents and did not want to risk injury on a field with less than optimum conditions.

"We really wanted to get the game in Friday night and not on Saturday," said Muleshoe coach David Wood. "We did not even consider a Saturday game because we really wanted to get the game in that night. We open district with Littlefield and Brownfield, which are two of the front runners in our district, and Shallowater has Post and Roosevelt."

"The week was not a total loss for us," continued Wood. "We put in a couple of new coverages and added some new offense. We did expand our game in practice and it will help us when we go against a passing team like Dimmitt."

"The kids really wanted to play in the rain and have fun. So it was disappointing for them but it was out of our control — so we just go on. We cannot worry about the things we can not change and work on the

Dabrowski wins football contest

The cancellation of the Mules' games against Shallowater this last Friday brought about some confusion in week two of the Journal's football contest. But when the dust finally settled, a Wildcat came away with the win.

Three contestants fought to the top of the heap last week, but Ed Dabrowski of Littlefield was rewarded for his punctuality.

Dabrowski, Claire Brown of Muleshoe and Tony Nicolas of Farwell each only missed six games in the otherwise brutal contest.

Dabrowski turned his form in on Sept. 5 at 11 am according to his entry sheet.

Brown was assigned a turn-in time and date of 5 pm on Sept. 9 because she forgot to fill in the information herself (Contestants who don't fill in the time and date of their entries will be assigned one by the Journal. This assigned time will be the last day and hour the contest can be turned in.) Nicolas barely made the deadline, having his brother-in-law, Richard Orozco, turn in his entry at 5 pm on Sept. 9 as well.

Rounding out the top ten spots in the week two contest are: Veronica Gonzales, fourth; and tied for fifth, Bruce Bruns, Richard Orozco, J.C. Orozco and Sandra Orozco; Mandy Garner, ninth; and Sue Bessire, tenth, all of Muleshoe.

Gonzales and all the Orozcos each missed seven games, but Gonzales turned her entry in at 2:40 pm on Sept. 9 while the Orozcos didn't get theirs in until 5 pm.

Garner and Bessire each missed eight. Garner turned her entry in on Sept. 6 while Bessire waited until the ninth.

Statistically speaking, 100 percent of this week's contestants missed six or more games, and 60 percent missed nine or more games.

With the new perfect game bonus, games for this year's contest will be more challenging than in previous years.

Contestants will be faced with tougher high school game choices and more Division I-AA college games.

Anyone who achieves the perfect game (all games picked correctly and a tiebreaker guess within ten points of the actual score) will have their photo taken for the paper and will receive $100 from the Journal as a reward.

Twenty-four people missed Wofford's win over South Carolina State, making it the most missed game of the week.

Other games giving contestants fits were high school games Bowie at Pottsboro, West Texas High at Amarillo-River Road, Lubbock Monterey at Copperas Cove and Sands at Sanderson; also, college clashes Maine at Villanova, Connecticut at Buffalo and Sam Houston at Northern Arizona. Professional games giving entries trouble were Oakland at Pittsburgh and Tennessee at Dallas.

The council left the city tax rate the same as the present year; $0.6637 cents on each $100 dollars of property valuation. The ad valorem taxes will be levied and payable on October 1, 2002. Property owners will have until January 31, 2003 to pay up without penalty.

In other business the council approved $1,250 out of the hotel/motel tax funds to the Chicanos Unidos Fathers Day celebration. Council person Juan Chavez abstained because he recently became president of the organization.

The council also passed a "City of Muleshoe Investment Policy". City Secretary LeAnn Gallman will be the investment officer with the entire city council on the investment advisory committee. The policy states: "It is the policy of the city of Muleshoe to invest public funds in a manner which will provide the highest investment return with the maximum security while meeting the daily cash flow demands of the City and conforming to all state and local statutes governing the investment of public funds including, but not by way of limitation, the Public Funds Investments Act".

Democratic voter rally held at Catholic Center

A Democratic rally held at the Catholic Center on Sept. 8 was attended by over 100 Hispanic residents according to Bailey County Chairwoman Linda McGonagill.

"It was a very successful gathering in terms of getting out the message to vote and requests for more information," said McGonagill.

Lubbock County Democratic Party Chairwoman Irma Guerrero and Margaret Del Toro, Chairwoman of Deaf Smith County County Democratic Party, were the guest speakers.

Alfonso Posadas and Noe Anzaldua spoke to the crowd about voter responsibility and the importance of the coming election in November.

Early voting was stressed as it is often the most convenient method of casting a ballot.

A round table discussion including City Councilman Juan Chavez, Anzaldua, Posadas, Johnny Hodges, Joyeline Costen, Don Dyer, McGonagill, Elaine Parker and Patsy yielded talk of voter registration for new citizens as well as previously unregistered eligible voters.

The need for "good" candidates among the Hispanic community was also discussed, and an invitation was extended to the crowd to attend the Celebration of Pete Laney Campaign Caravan coming to Muleshoe at noon on Sept. 23 at the Heritage Center.

MAMC awarded Critical Access Hospital grant

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

AUSTIN—The Office of Rural Community Affairs today announced its Rural Health Unit has awarded a grant of up to $15,000 to Muleshoe Area Medical Center in Muleshoe, Bailey County.

The funds will be used by the hospital to perform a Financial and Operational Feasibility Study for a Critical Access Hospital (CAH) designation for the facility.

House Speaker Pete Laney, who was instrumental in creating the Office of Rural Community Affairs, said the grant gives Muleshoe Area Medical Center an opportunity to increase health care services and provide new programs to the people of Muleshoe and Bailey County.

"Aiding rural hospitals is one of the reasons that ORCA was created," Laney said. "This new agency is helping small towns and communities enhance their lives by identifying needs and working with local officials to meet their goals."

"We are pleased to be able to assist Muleshoe Area Medical Center in their efforts to qualify for the Critical Access Hospital designation," said Mike Easley, Director of ORCA's Rural Health Unit. "This is an important firststep in enabling them to expand services and increase revenue."

ments,

"The Office of Rural Community Affairs applauds the efforts of this rural hospital in exploring all opportunities to provide care to the community. The CAH program is designed to provide an alternative model to allow small rural hospitals to remain viable. Muleshoe Area Medical Center Hospital's administration should be commended for their resourcefulness and dedication to providing care in Muleshoe and Bailey County."

Hospitals that meet certain federal and state criteria may qualify for the CAH designation, which allows for increased service and staffing flexibility and increased reimbursement from Medicare.

The Medical Rural Hospital Flexibility (Flex) program funds the feasibility study for the CAH program. The Flex program also works to bolster fragile rural health services through the development of a network of CAHs and supports CAHs with programs that include: development of a statewide rural health plan; conversion of small rural hospitals to CAH designation; development of rural health networks associated with CAHs; integration and strengthening of rural emergency medical systems; and improving the quality of healthcare services for rural populations.

Freshman Mules overpower Shallowater to remain unbeaten

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal Writer

The freshman Mules remain unbeaten after three games as they overpowered the Mustangs of Shallowater 62-0.

The Mules' place kicker, Ariel Flores, put a lot of wear and tear on his kicking shoe with 10-kickoffs and seven-conversion kicks.

Jarad Flores ignited the explosive Mule offense by returning the game opening kick 80-yards to put the Mules on top only 14-seconds into the contest. J. Flores returned to the end zone twice more in the first period.

He capped an eight play 44-yard drive with a pass reception from Logan Caddell on the Mules' second possession. Juan Carlos Reyes added the two-point conversion to push the Mules lead to 14-0.

Flores' third TD was 40-yard scamper from his wing back spot. Flores' went in motion and took the hand off from Caddell and raced around the left end to pay dirt.

Reyes had a 73-yard TD run sandwiched between Flores, second two tallies to give the Mules a 28-0 advantage after one period of play. The Mules had scored four times on only 10-offensive plays in the first quarter.

Elli Villa notched the Mules only tally in the second frame with a delayed pitch from Caddell. He raced 72-yards to complete a two-play 80-yard drive. A. Flores' extra point kick completed the first half with the Mules leading 35-0.

The Mules found the Mustang end zone in the running clock shortened second half four times. Reyes went in from five-yards out to complete a three-play 58-yard drive and Villa zipped the final nine-yards of a four-play 35-yard drive.

Leading 49-0 after three periods J. Flores' one-yard dive completed a three-play 25-yard drive and Caleb Heinrich added the final Mules TD with a one-yard dive as the Mules advanced 46-yards in six plays.

The Mule defense held the Mustangs to only five first downs during the contest. Jeff Sirkle, Garrett Behrends and Jerry Colunga teamed up to stop Shallowater's only threat of a sustained drive in the second period.

Rudy Gonzales broke up a Shallowater pass in the second period to force the Mustangs to punt. Sirkle recovered a Mustang fumble on the Mule 46 to set up the Mules final tally.

The Mules have a game with the Denver City Mustang freshman Thursday, September 19 at 7:30. It will be the third game of the night as the seventh and eighth grade Mules play Friona in their home openers at 4:30 and 6 p.m.

Very Little in Life Is Better Than a Good Book

Very little in life is better than a really good book. It's almost a miracle, I think, that using various combinations of only 26 letters, lining them up as words, stacking some words up as sentences and paragraphs, swatting white pages with black ink, binding those pages together to form the marvelous windows for the mind that we call books, and inviting a reader to flip through the pages—well, the end result is that a reader with any imagination at all can cross oceans, visit new and amazing places (some of them literally out of this world and some, arguably, more appealing), get into the heads of some of the most interesting people (many of whom have been dead for decades but still speak to that little knot of humanity we call the living), undertake amazing adventures, live a large life—and never leave the chair. Almost a miracle.

Memory is another miracle. Mine is weird. Ask me on Wednesday what I preached about last Sunday, and I'll probably have to stop and think, but phone numbers tend to lodge in my brain and pop up pretty easily. I'm terrible with names, and I consider that a defect (though I also consider that people who come grinning up to you saying, "I'll bet you don't remember my name!" don't deserve to be remembered and do deserve a well-placed kick in the pants). I seem to be somewhat disconnected when it comes to connecting what happened with when it happened. I have no head for dates at all, so it's strange—I'll probably miss the year, but I can usually tell you the season and almost certainly the time of day, where I was sitting, and what I was eating while I was reading a particular book—at least, if it was very good (the book or the meal, and even a lackluster meal is vastly better when devoured and digested along with a really good book).

A couple of years ago I spent months of lunches devouring Stephen R. Donaldson's delicious Covenant Chronicles. I spent a great summer a summer ago flying around on a broomstick with Harry Potter. And as we're about to officially close our present summer (according to the calendar and not the Texas Education Agency), I think I've read 14 of Rex Stout's Nero Wolfe detective mysteries. I've enjoyed every page.

So last night, once I'd spent some more time looking over Mr. Wolfe's shoulder as he tended his orchids, ate one of his personal chef's delectable meals (I bought the Nero Wolfe cookbook recently; I love his taste in food!), and solved yet another murder, I decided I'd better come back to reality (rats!). Reality is over-rated.

I paid some bills. (Double rats!) There's reality for you. I was tempted to start another book (though I needed to pay some more bills), but it was getting late.

But it was getting late. The house was quiet. No phone was ringing. So I bowed to temptation, and I'd love to tell you about the book, but . . .

Words. Little miracles. It is no accident that by far the grandest miracle of all is embodied in the One the Apostle John calls simply but profoundly, "the Word."

Heritage Foundation gets grant

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

The Wes-Tex Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) Area, Inc. has announced that Mulshoe Heritage Foundation has been awarded a matching grant of $500 through the 2002 Matching Grant Program. These grant funds will complement the local efforts to construct and install an entry sign for the Heritage Center.

Wes-Tex RC&D board member Janet Claborn said, "We received twenty-four applications for worthy community projects in twelve counties. Our Grant Evaluation Committee reviewed and rated each proposal based on community need, expected benefits and local commitment. Our goal was to make these funds available to the communities and organizations in our sixteen county area for local projects."

The RC&D program is authorized by USDA and administered by the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS). The individual RC&D councils direct the program to the needs of the local communities. For more information about the RC&D program, contact your local USDA-NRCS office or visit the Wes-Tex RC&D web site at www.westexred.org.

"By far the most difficult injury to treat successfully is the bulging or herniated disc with resultant neurological symptoms and sciatic pain," said Dr. Precure.

Sciatic pain or sciatica is the disabling pain that shoots down the back of one or both legs and is usually accompanied by low back pain. It is usually caused by a part of the herniated disc coming in contact with a nerve root that comes off of the spinal cord. This nerve root becomes the sciatic nerve that courses its way down the back of the leg and provides motor function and sensation to the leg.

Surgeons usually prefer to treat this injury by making an incision in the back and removing the part of the disc that is on the nerve. Depending on the location of the herniation, sometimes the surgery involves only a minor incision and is called a microdiscectomy.

Other times, to get to the disc, the surgeon must occasionally perform a laminectomy. This procedure removes bone from the back of the vertebra. This causes instability and so the surgeon must surgically fuse the vertebra to another vertebra above or below.

"A large percentage of these patients end up in surgery with less than favorable results," said Dr. Precure. One of the main problems with fusion is that it causes the rest of the back joints to wear out faster than they would normally.

The fusion creates a situation where the fused joint causes the joints above and below the fusion to provide more range of motion for the entire spinal column than what they were designed to provide. And recent studies show that as many as 48 percent of surgical patients had a recurrence of symptoms within a year of back surgery.

"We're excited because treatments on the DRX-9000 have proven successful in 86 percent of the patients treated...some of them were even patients with failed back surgery syndrome" said Dr. Precure.

Dr. Precure further stated, "Even many surgeons themselves are looking at the treatment protocol the DRX-9000 has to offer. In fact, Tim Exerhos, M.D., the doctor who trained me on the machine, came here directly from training a neurosurgeon in Dallas."

However, Dr. Precure says that not everyone is going to be a good candidate for the treatments. "As with any type of medical procedure, we cannot expect favorable results with every patient. Sometimes, surgery may indeed be all that is left for a patient and we must accept that as a hard fact," he added.

Dr. Precure said that disc herniations are not the only low back injuries that can be successfully treated with the DRX-9000. He points out that chronic low back pain, degenerative and arthritic back pain, and posterior facet syndrome are on a short list of other problems that can be successfully treated with this new treatment.

With annual health care costs rising exponentially, Dr. Precure was quick to point out that the treatments are also affordable. "On an average, a surgeon's fees will cost around $14,000. With hospital, anesthesiologist, and physical therapist fees a typical procedure could easily run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars." Dr. Precure continued, "That could mean several thousands of dollars in out-of-pocket expenses for someone with insurance...a person without insurance simply could not afford such a surgery."

"Treatments on the DRX-9000 should run less than 10 percent the cost of the surgeon's fees." Adds Dr. Precure, "That's hard to beat, a treatment protocol that, potentially, is twice as effective as surgery and costs less than 10 percent."

In addition, Medicare, workers' compensation and major medical insurance companies are expected to cover the cost.

Dr. Precure finished his training last Tuesday, September 10 and is now accepting new patients.

He has been practicing in Muleshoe for over 6 years and has maintained his practice in the Muleshoe Area Medical Center during that time.

Lazbuddie native sets sights on Olympic shooting title

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

When farmers get bored, says Jay Seaton, amazing thing happen.

"One day my dad and I — all we've ever been is farmers — were just sitting around bored to death," the 18-year-old University of Oklahoma freshman says, "and my dad says, 'Why don't we just go trap shooting?'"

Interesting, since neither the senior nor the junior was a shooter...but the two drove out to a range where a shotgun event sponsored by the Amateur Trap Association was being held, Jay just had to give it a try.

Five years later, the Lazbuddie youth is Texas State Scholastic Clay champion, visiting the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs for the Scholastic Clay Target Program (SCTP) Junior Olympic Development Camp and working with the top Olympic coaches.

And now, even though he's studying forestry at the university — "gotta have a fall-back..." his sights are firmly set on Olympic gold.

"You look around you here and see what's possible," Jay says. "I'm darn fortunate."

Jay is one of 15 SCTP shooters chosen to come to the Olympic campus for three days of training. Some 3,100 young shooters participated in SCTP nationally.

SCTP was developed by the National Shooting Sports Foundation (NSSF) and offers young men and women in grades 6-12 the opportunity to compete as a team for state and national championships as well as college scholarships.

Jay and the other athletes attending the Junior Olympic Development Camp are training and being evaluated on their current shooting skills during their introduction to the more difficult international or Olympic-style clay target events of trap, double trap and skeet. The training is being supervised by legendary U.S. National Shotgun Team Coach Lloyd Woodhouse.

"I've learned so much from shooting," he says. "The responsibility and discipline to practice, to take care of the guns, to be safe. At first, my teachers thought I was crazy, spending so much time shooting. Now they think I'm lucky. I think it's made me a better person, all around."

things we can change."

Friona has gone back to the Broken Wishbone offense they ran when Coach Morton was there and Friona was having success. Nathan Haile plays on both sides of ball and is one of the better linebackers in the area. Weighing in at almost 200 pounds he is a quick strong running back that makes Friona go.

Brock Field is small for a quarterback but he hurt the Mules last year by picking up first downs as the Chieftains scored 24 points on the Mules in the first half. Last year's game was called because of lightning.

"When the lights come on and the Mules and Friona take the field it is always a battle," emphasized Wood. "It is Muleshoe's Homecoming and with all the activities going on it may be a little difficult for us to keep focused — but Friona should help us stay focused."

A bonfire is scheduled for Thursday night and the Homecoming Queen will be crowned at 7:30. Kickoff is scheduled for eight o'clock in Benny Douglas Stadium.

JV Mules and Mustangs finish in a tie

Brady Black, a freshman playing JV, carries the ball as a Shallowwater Mustang attempts to hold him back.

By DELTON WILHITE
 Journal Writer

The JV Mules and the Mustangs of Shallowwater battled to a 20-20 draw Thursday Sept. 6 on the Mules' home field. Brady Black had another stellar night for the Mules with 30-carries for 248-yards.

He also returned a Mustang kickoff 85-yards for a TD and scored all 20 of the Mules' points. In addition to the kickoff return, Black also had touch-down runs of four and 65-yards.

The Mules elected to receive the opening kick and Erwin Lewis covered the Mustangs' short kick at the Mule 41 to begin the game. Jason Height and Black shared the ball handling duties as the Mules marched 59-yards in 12-plays.

The Mules' first tally came with 5:12 left in the first period. Black took a pitch from Tyler Wood wide right from four-yards out to put the Mules on top 6-0.

The two teams exchanged punts and the Mustangs returned the Mules punt from their 44 to mid-field where Jordan Bond stopped the Mustang returnee in his tracks.

The Mustangs covered the 50-yards to pay-dirt in seven plays and scored on a two-yard plunge to knot the game a six-points each on the first play of the second period.

Robby Bomer returned the short Mustang kickoff to the Mule 41. The Mules quickly moved to the Shallowwater 15 before a fumble gave the Mustangs the ball. After gaining three first downs, a holding call left the Mustangs with a second down and long for a first down on their 33.

The Mustangs completed a short pass, fumbled, then a Mustang picked up the loose ball and raced to the Mule four-yard line. Shallowwater plunged over from the four to take their first lead of the night, 12-6 with 2:40 remaining in the first half.

The Mustangs were forced to cut their celebration short as Raul Muñiz returned the kickoff to the Mule 37. Black started in motion from the slot back position and took a handoff from Wood.

He scooted around right end for 63-yards to re-tie the game at 12-12 only 18 seconds after the Mustangs had taken the lead.

Following intermission, Shallowwater returned the Mule kickoff 53-yards to begin their drive on the Mule 32. The Mustangs fumbled on the third play of the half but recovered the ball and advanced to the Mule eight. Two plays later the Mustangs went on top and tacked on the two-point conversion to lead 20-12.

The Mules struck back quickly when Black returned the ensuing Mustang kick 85-yards for a TD behind a teeth-rattling block by Muñiz. Muñiz's block turned Black loose near the mid-field stripe. Black added the two-point conversion to end all scoring with the game dead-locked at 20-20.

Kory Atwood led the Mule defense with 12-solo tackles and four assists. Joel Salcido and Paul Carrion each had eight solo tackles and four assists. Two of Carrion's tackles were for losses and he had two sacks.

Landon Wilson had a fumble recovery and picked off a Mustang pass to halt a Shallowwater drive.

The Mules travel to Friona Thursday to take on the Chieftains at seven p.m.

JV Mules trounces Caprock, 25-7

By DELTON WILHITE
 Journal Writer

The JV Mules continue to punish opponents with their mighty ground game. The Mules dehorned the Longhorns of Caprock 25-7.

Brady Black again led all rushers with 257-yards for the second week in a row.

Black scored in the second period on a five-yard plunge that put the Mules on top to stay. In the third frame Derrick Purdy picked up a Longhorn fumble and rambled 31-yards to extend the Mule advantage to 12-0.

Caprock finally put points on the board late in the third quarter on a five-yard dive and the conversion kick was good. In the final period Black sliced through the Longhorn defense like an expensive steak house knife scoring on runs of 59 and 64-yards.

Raul Muñiz tacked on the final point for the Mules with his conversion kick. Jason Beard was the Mules leading pass receiver with an 18-yard reception from Tyler Wood.

Coach Ron Welch said, "The Mule defense had an outstanding outing with 17 of the 27 Mules recording a tackle. We played a great game offensively and defensively and had a great effort from a lot of players."

Muñiz sack caused the fumble that Purdy returned for a TD and Michael Sexton dislodged the ball and Jorge Mendoza was there to recover for the Mules.

Landon Wilson, Ariam Pérez and Brad Henry each picked off a Longhorn pass.

Sexton recorded nine solo tackles while Josh Shelburne had eight and four assists. Muñiz had seven tackles; Wilson recorded six and one assist while Joel Salcido made five and three assists.

GOOD OLD DAYS

35 YEARS AGO

September 1967-68—A 50 foot right-of-way was dedicated to Roosevelt County on the state line road between Bailey County and Roosevelt County. All the land is for a state line, farm to market road. Approximately one mile was donated to Roosevelt County.

The Muleshoe Airport was the scene of part of a military maneuver "Bold Strike". Ten civilians came by convoy for the evacuation maneuver by helicopter and later army personnel was picked up by helicopter that same day. This was the final leg of the operation which took over a large portion of the Southwest.

Mule's Tale starts its second year with the Bailey County Journal Sunday paper. The page was designed for the general public concerning news and views of M.H.S.

R.L. Brooks, a longtime resident of Progress was killed at 11:55 p.m. on Friday, September 13, 1968, when he dashed onto Hwy 84 at an intersection at Progress in the path of an oncoming car. Jerry King driver of the second car attempted to avoid hitting the man running across the Hwy.

The former Fleeta Smith and Roger Gorrell were united in marriage on September 14, 1968, at Bowman Chapel of the First United Methodist in Lubbock, TX. Mr. Gorrell is currently a subscriber to the Muleshoe Journal.

DOWN THE STREET

By LEAH BELL
Journal writer

Down the street this week, Sandy Zapata, an employee at Winkler Meat Co., told me that her mother, Olga Lozano, who was involved in a car wreck near Needmore on May 16, will be coming home this month.

Lozano has been staying in Hobbs, NM with her daughter, Elba Rivas, while recovering from fractures in her neck, shoulder and ribs.

"She is recovering slowly and her shoulder is very sore. She is still in therapy," said Zapata.

The wreck claimed the life of Zapata's father, Ines.

The Heritage Thrift Store wants everyone to know that they'll be having a "Sack Sale" on Sept. 20-21 and 27-28.

Ladene Spears said there will be "lots of good stuff." She also wants the community to know that fall and winter clothing will be on the shelves by Oct. 4.

Tammy Lueras, owner of Tammy's Kitchen, told me that her kids, Jonathan, Becky and Gabe Flores, are all doing OK in Houston.

The three of them moved to the big city a few months ago and are living together in an apartment. None are attending college this semester (to their mother's dismay), but all plan to start in January. Meanwhile, it's all work, work, work for the siblings.

Cheryl Reyna, an employee of Tammy's Kitchen, wants to brag on her four-month-old niece, Mia, daughter of Bridget and Michael Reyna of Muleshoe.

They say she's growing, changing and learning something every day. This is the couple's second child.

As a concerned citizen and aunt, Cheryl would like the Journal to remind everyone to slow down on West Ave. B.

She's worried not only about the safety of her own family, but for that of the whole neighborhood.

"There are lots of kids in the area and motorists are going way too fast," said Reyna.

Lueras, Reyna and Johnnie Ferris attended the Watson and Cisco Food Show in Lubbock on Sept. 10.

They sampled shrimp, jalapeño peppers, oysters and other goodies new to the restaurant market. By far, the best new product they got a taste of was the Bourbon Chocolate Cake.

Tammy wouldn't let me in on any of the new products she might be carrying so I guess we'll all just have to stop by and see what's new on the menu.

"Babe" Walker of Las Vegas, NV, recently visited her sister, Myrtle Puckett, here in Muleshoe. She started back home on Monday, Sept. 16.

Walker was in town visiting Puckett because of the recent loss of their brother, George Stevenson, of Panhandle.

Puckett has had a very busy couple of weeks. In addition to her sister visiting, Myrtle entertained her son, Eddie, and his wife, Ira Lee, last week. They are from Sweetwater and just came up to visit Myrtle and "Babe."

Alene Bryant is planning a one week stay in Amarillo this week.

She's going to be "chaperoning" her 15-year-old granddaughter, Jennifer, while her parents are away.

Alene's daughter, Terri, and her husband, Terry, are traveling to New York to watch their son, Jeff, play in a golf tournament.

He is attending school on a golf scholarship at St. Bonaventure College in New York. He's toying with the idea of becoming a pro golfer. Right now, though, he is studying to become a lawyer.

Alene promises to let me how she makes it through the week with a teenager!

Cindy Barnes, local Germania Farm Mutual Insurance agent, has moved into her new location at 222 Main Street.

She's busy decorating the place and wants her current customers and prospective clientele to know that she's open and has a few special surprises in her new office.

"I'm excited about Germania's growing business," said Barnes. She sites needing more space for her recent move.

Krista Wilson has been helping Cindy set up her new office. She wants to say "good job" to Judd Baker.

Baker was a featured child in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal's "Spotlight on Kids" last week.

"He's a good kid," said Wilson.

Katherine Schraeder, a financial advisor with Edward Jones here in Muleshoe, is busy handling her 10 and a half month old son, Brett, along with her steadily growing business.

She and husband, Chris, are on full-time alert because Brett has learned to walk and is getting into everything (all you parents know this feeling).

Chris has just taken a job with AGP, the company that bought out Sherley-Anderson Grain Elevators. He'll be in the Bovina office.

Katherine is thrilled because he has been commuting from Hereford and this new job will allow him more time with the family.

Schraeder also told me about her brother, Mark Foley, who is suiting up with the Texas A&M Aggies for the first time this season. He is a junior ag business and animal science double major.

He'll be red-shirted and may not see much action this season. He plays running-back.

Foley comes to the Aggies as an All-State high school player from the highly-successful Iraan Braves. This is his first try at college ball.

J.K. Adams, Bailey County's official rain watcher for the National Weather Service, let the Journal know that he had close to an inch and a quarter of rain at his place down south of Muleshoe last week.

Adams called our office to report an additional nine-tenths of an inch he received on his place Saturday, Sept. 14.

Jorge Barron wants everyone to know that Play, Inc. football for ages three through sixth grade has begun in Clovis, NM on Saturdays this fall. Game times will be different from week to week.

He hopes that the community will come out and support the Muleshoe kids who are playing.

Woody Villa and Benny Parker are coaching the three and four-year-old Muleshoe team who is learning the football fundamentals and playing "flag" games; Barron is coaching the first and second grade flag football players; Frank Baca coaches the third and fourth grade team in their "tackle" games; and Don Wood has the reigns of the fifth and sixth grade team of tacklers.

Local high school student and musician Cory Hunt had a scare during the pre-Labor Day weekend.

He was bitten by mosquitoes during a "gig" he was playing with Jack Stone in Midland and developed flu-like symptoms similar to those of the West Nile Virus.

He was tested by local physicians who determined that he was possibly infected with the virus, but that because of his age, he would bounce back rather quickly.

The doctors were right. His dad, Curtis, told me that Cory is feeling "as mean as ever" this week. He had been complaining of a stiff neck and weakness immediately after the bites but after a few days of rest, he's back to normal.

Georgia Peña recognized for volunteering her time.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

Georgia L. Peña was honored Sept. 13 by the Texas State Board of Education with the Hero for Children award, an honor only fifteen exceptional educators across Texas received this year.

She has been named the Hero for District 15 by the Board, which is represented by Judy Strickland (R-Plainview).

A retired educator who devoted 32 years to students of Muleshoe ISD, Peña returned to the school district as a volunteer because of her conviction that every child needs someone to care about them. She now spends about 16 hours each week at two elementary schools, a junior high and a high school.

The Board sites Peña's willingness to drive a student 140 miles round-trip to visit a doctor for medical treatment as one of its reasons for selecting her for this honor.

For those students in need of medical treatment, she reads test questions out loud to them. She also provides character counts education lessons to students.

"Caring does not just happen," Peña wrote in her essay, "we have to make it happen."

Children want her attention and are rewarded by her loving, meaningful approach, according to her nominator Myrlene Read.

"All of the teachers in my building want her to help in their classes, and she is ready and willing to go the extra mile for any student who needs her help."

In describing why she volunteers, Peña wrote, "I have been so blessed by the children I have been able to help and by seeing them become more self-confident. I will continue volunteering for jobs that help children... and try to influence others to do the same!"
