PLANS FOR LUBBOCK TO ENTER WEST TEXAS LEAGUE COMPLETED

MANAGER JOHNSON, OF AMARILLO AND LEAGUE PRESIDENT NORTHERN ATTEND MEETING

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS ARE APPOINTED

Inside Facts of How to Finance a Team Was Given by Experienced Men Who Have Been in the Game Many Years—Various Methods Were Discussed.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings that has been held relative to Lubbock securing a place in the West Texas Base Ball League, was held Tuesday afternoon in the Justice Court room.

Rankin Johnson, manager of the Amarillo team, and G. W. Northern, President of the West Texas League, were present, and each gave instructive and interesting talks concerning the merits of a base ball team as a town booster and advertiser. Their wide experience in the work equipped them well as assistants in putting Lubbock in the League.

It was pointed out by Mr. Johnson how a team can become not only self-supporting, but even pay dividends to those who bought the original stock.

Base ball enthusiasts have already subscribed one-half of the five thousand dollar stock, and will no doubt have the balance of the stock sold before this article is printed.

A president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer will be appointed from the five directors which were elected by the stockholders at this meeting, who will all serve without pay, as it is thought by those fostering the plan that there is some man in Lubbock who will be sufficiently interested in the league to carry on the work of the secretary-treasurer without further compensation than expenses while on out-of-town tours with the team. It was suggested at this meeting that the secretary-treasurer be given enough assistance that in case a game should be called when it would be impossible for him to go there would be someone else to carry on the work.

It was pointed out by the speakers that baseball is not only being started out clean this season, but under the authority and directorship of Judge Landis would be kept that way from the smallest to the largest leagues.

A great deal of enthusiasm was aroused when Mr. Johnson told his hearers that he was not only in base ball for the pleasure he may get from it, but was going to keep a good clean record for his team at all times that his five-year-old son, Rankin Johnson, Jr., might not have anything to fester the accomplishments of his base ball ambitions. That Mr. Johnson is also interested in his team and Amarillo was emphasized when he said: "I am here today to assist in any way possible to help organize and start a Lubbock team, and shall continue interest in this team throughout its existence, but nevertheless, when I bring my team to Lubbock every man in that bunch is going to do his best to beat your team to a bad score, but they will play clean," which statement met with the approval of every lover of clean sport in the house.

Mr. Northern pointed out that under the two thousand dollar salary limit there was better chance to make money for the stockholders than in the days prior to that ruling.

From a written ballot of the stockholders who were present, five directors were elected from which number the officers will be appointed. The five directors are as follows: E. A. Morgan, Geo. Benson, Chas. Adams, D. N. Arnett and F. M. Maddox, all of whom are well known Lubbock boosters and town builders who will keep the Lubbock base ball record in such manner that we all may refer to it with pride.

After the meeting was adjourned the board of directors got together and appointed from among their number, E. A. Morgan, President; Geo. Benson, Vice-President, and F. M. Maddox, Secretary-Treasurer.

SAM W. CATES GIVEN TWO YEARS FOR ASSAULT

Sam W. Cates had two years added to his penitentiary term in District Court here Tuesday for assault and attempt to murder Sheriff Holcomb here on September 7, 1921.

Young Cates was given four years for forgery in Crosby county and 14 years for the murder of Judge Burton in other trials, making a total of twenty years. He is now confined in the county jail.

INTERIOR DEPARTMENT APPROPRIATION PASSED

Washington, Feb. 8.—The sum of $295,522,112 for the continuation of the interior department's work for the fiscal year 1922-23 was granted today by the house appropriation committee's favorable report of the interior department appropriation bill.

The amount granted is $3,754,920 less than the department requested and $19,578,037 less than last year's appropriation.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Owens on Wednesday evening, a twelve pound boy. Mother and babe are reported doing nicely.

PANHANDLE GRAIN DEALER SAYS CONDITIONS IMPROVING

Amarillo, Feb. 8.—"Conditions over the country are rapidly mending," according to J. N. Beasley, one of the leading grain men of the Panhandle section. Mr. Beasley said that he was certain that the country has passed the turning point in the financial depression. The grain market, he said, is showing an upward slant, with good milling wheat around $1.15 in Amarillo.

In regard to the prospects of the sorghum grains Mr. Beasley said that at present the market was dull but would recuperate shortly.

60,000 Acres in Plains Counties Brings $425,000

A deal has just been consummated through which the California Consolidated people acquire title to 60,000 acres of land in Roberts and Hutchinson counties, south of the Canadian River, the consideration being $425,000.

As an evidence of good faith in this transaction, representatives of the company have deposited a certified check for $100,000 pending the completion and acceptance of the abstracts.

It is understood that the deal is strictly cash and will be closed definitely and final payment made not later than April 2.

This is one of the big deals consummated in the oil field territory but according to dependable information, is not in a class entirely to itself, the other big interests having purchased heavily recently in the regions acknowledged by experts to be dependable.

NEW BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ORGANIZED MONDAY

The Dorcas Class was organized at the Baptist church Monday afternoon. The following officers were elected: Pres. Miss Minnie Puffen; Vice Pres. Mrs. R. A. Barclay; 2nd Vice Pres. Mrs. Geo. W. Foster; 3rd Vice Pres. Mrs. W. A. Stahl; Sec. Mrs. L. L. Lee; Treas. Mrs. B. Dixon; Teacher, Miss Crouch; Asst. Teacher, Mrs. Carl Roberts; Reporter, Mrs. J. H. Wilson.

Joe Herzet was here Tuesday from his farm five miles west of town. According to his neighbors he is about the most successful grower in this section. It is claimed that from the time his crop is planted until too large to cultivate there is no existence of weeds on his farm, to which his success is attributed.

Many Samples of Potash Sent the United States Geological Dept. From West Texas; Broadens Potash Area

The discovery of potash in samples of salts recently received at the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, from new wells bored for oil at two additional localities in Western Texas extends the area in which small amounts of potash salts are known to occur some 30 miles north and 50 miles east of the area of previous discoveries.

Starting from the Means well, which is close to the New Mexico Texas line, in Loving County, about 20 miles west of the southeast corner of West Mexico, the boundary of the area in which potash in notable richness has been found in the red beds runs southward for 30 miles to well No. 1 or the river well of the Pitts Oil Co., about 8 miles east of Barstow, thence east by northeast 130 miles to the McDowell well in northern Glasscock County, and thence north by northwest 50 miles to anything in Dawson County, from which it returns in a west by southwest direction to the starting point. Indications have also been found in the Panhandle. As the wells were drilled for oil, and the easily soluble salts were of secondary consequence to the drillers, the samples recently forwarded, like the samples previously received from this region and analyzed, were accompanied by scant data relative to the water in the wells, the length of time it had been in contact with the salts, the condition of casing, etc. So many unknown conditions must therefore be taken into consideration that it is impossible to say whether the potash-rich salts already analyzed represent beds several feet or only a few inches thick. Core-drilling will have to be done in order to answer these questions. However, those who are drilling for oil in this region are showing more interest in the possibility that potash may be found in their wells and are preserving better samples and furnishing fuller data.

The amount of the potash in the sample from the McDowell well, in northern Glasscock County, is very high, but the determination was made from a single sample, which was apparently rather carelessly collected, for the depth from which it came is given as somewhere between 900 and 1500 feet. A series of samples that have been more carefully collected is now being assayed by the Geological Survey, and the results will soon be available to the public.

Indiana Man Buys Texas Steers and Finds Them Better

Louis Smithberger, one of Nebraska's well known farmers happened to a mighty fortunate accident while buying stock cattle on the Kansas City market some time ago, for among the herds he bought he unobtrusively took a herd of Texas steers, branded with the well-known local brand, Lazy S, and did not discover that they were Texas until in his feeding pens, where he fattens about twelve hundred cattle each year, but as the deal had long since been closed he was unable to return the "offbreeds," (which term is most usually applied to Texas stock in that country), but to his surprise after several days on the feed, found that they were superior to anything he had seen, when some of his friends were told that the fine lookers were from a West Texas ranch they doubted his statements and attributed the Lazy S brand to some mistake. When shipping time came he found that he had been assisted by fate in getting that deal through, and just to prove that he sure enough believes in West Texas cattle made a trip over this section the last week and closed a deal for eight hundred coming two-year-old steers from Mr. Armstrong, a Floyd county ranchman, and will no doubt buy more before returning home.

Texas Cattle are coming to be better recognized every year, and with a keen demand for them on all markets it is unnecessary to state that West Texas will continue to prosper.

Wireless Stations For Lubbock Are Being Installed

The special committee appointed by the Rotary Club to go into the details of installing a Wireless Station for Lubbock has been very busy the past few weeks, though as the men who compose that committee are the kind that do more work than talking there has been little reported on their actions, but we learned Tuesday that they are going forward with the work, but we learned Tuesday that they are going forward with the work, and have the local school boys more enthusiastic about the work than ever, as they see clearly that their dreams of talking part in this great move is rapidly becoming realities.

The committee appointed by the Rotary Club is composed of the following local men, whose knowledge of home to put anything over for the good of Lubbock is never questioned: H. L. Allen, R. H. Martin, Telephone Phillips and Martin S. Ruby.

Mr. Allen is installing an apparatus at his home, near headquarter of receiving instrument was received from the factory Wednesday. When this instrument is completed we are sure it will have a large part to play in the undertaking, for those who are not aware of what can be accomplished through one of these stations will receive a great surprise and be convinced of the merits of Radio.

Important Case In Regard to the Poll Tax Payments

Weatherford, Feb. 8.—The decision handed down by District Judge F. O. McKinsey this morning in the poll tax suit brought by J. B. Stuart and wife vs. Mrs. Jessie Thompson, tax collector, which was tried here Monday in which it was sought to compel Tax Collector Mrs. Thompson to accept ad valorem taxes and the poll tax of Mr. Stuart, without the payment of the poll tax of Mrs. Stuart, sustained Mrs. Thompson in her refusal to accept such payments.

Much interest has been manifested in the outcome of this suit and a large number of Weatherford citizens remained in the court room until a late hour Monday, hoping that a decision might be given out at that time.

Officers of Hockley Co. Interscholastic League Appointed

Austin, Texas, Feb. 8.—The following officers of the Hockley County Interscholastic League, elected by the teachers at their institute, have been received and duly recorded in the State Office of the League which is conducted by the University of Texas:

B. E. Gunn, Lubbock, Director General and Director of Declaration and Debate; Frances McDonald, Ropesville, Director of Spelling and Essay Writing; J. A. Humphries, Ropesville, Director of Athletics.

These officers have entire charge of the county meet which will be held during the month of March, and winners in the various contests selected which will represent the county at the district meet, which will be held in April. The League, as a state organization, has been conducted since 1910, and the next state meet will be the Twelfth Annual State Meet held under its auspices. Last year the League numbered 4095 member-schools, and had 196 county organizations. Advice from the schools of this county indicate that the work will be taken up enthusiastically during the ensuing season, and the county's share of honors captured at the district meet.

Methodist Ladies Will Give a Tea This Afternoon

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a tea at the home of Mrs. James L. Dow, 1630 13th Street, this afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock. The public is invited to attend. A free will offering will be taken for the benefit of the kitchen fund for the church.

The ladies of this church have on foot some most worthy movements now for the improvement of the interior of the church, and this is one of the latest, and we are sure that the people of Lubbock will want to join heartily with them in making this occasion a great success.

Soldiers Bonus Will Cost More Than Two Billion

Washington, Feb. 7.—The soldiers bonus would cost the federal government approximately $2,590,000,000 on the basis of estimates prepared for the house ways and means committee by fiscal officers of the army, navy and marine corps.

This total is predicted upon the assumption that fifty per cent of the men who served with the army and 75 per cent of those who saw service with the navy and marine corps will take cash.

American Legion officers have estimated that not more than half of the army men would elect the cash provision and they took issue today before the committee with navy and marine corps officers who figured that 75 per cent of the men who served in those services would elect to take money.

Captain Philip Williams of the navy Bureau of navigation and Major R. B. Putnam, assistant paymaster of the marine corps estimated that only two per cent of the navy and marine corps veterans would elect to take vocational training; that ten per cent would take the insurance certificates, 6 1-2 per cent farm and home aid and 1-4 per cent the land settlement.

SNYDER BAPTIST CHURCH CALLS A NEW PASTOR

Snyder, Texas, Feb. 3.—The Rev. W. D. Bowen of San Marcos has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church of Snyder, effective March 1. The Rev. Mr. Bowen fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. Jeff Davis, who has charge of the district work of the Baptist Church in a large section of Western Texas.

METHODIST LADIES HAVE MANY SALES

The ladies of the Methodist church were each Saturday conducting cake, pie, doughnut and candy sales in the Robinson furniture store, and meeting with much success so far, and we are sure that as the quality of their goods is better known to those who are making these purchases a constant increase in demand will help them realize their ambition to buy a pipe organ for the church before long.

Saturday was the second day of the sale, and everything placed on the market met with great demand. These ladies have a big job ahead of them in this undertaking, but there is no need to doubt their ability to carry it on to a finish, for the work they have been doing in the past few years has adapted them to most any situation, and their willingness to advance increases as the problems grow.

Fred Friese was here Tuesday from his home at Loveno.

Cisco Man Found Dead On His Wedding Day

Cisco, Texas, Feb. 7.—At the hour set for his wedding here yesterday afternoon, Harry Joyner, of Ranger, was ill from poisoning in his room at a hotel. Joyner and Miss Fern Hubbard, of Cisco, were to wed at 2 o'clock. At 2:30 p. m. the maid at the hotel who made several efforts to enter Joyner's room, but found the door locked each time, notified the clerk and he went upstairs and broke it down.

Joyner was found lying across the bed unconscious.

A physician was summoned and, after an examination, stated that the man was suffering from poison. Joyner died at 5 o'clock this morning.

Miss Hubbard was waiting for Joyner to call for her and take her to the Christian parsonage where the wedding was to take place, when she was notified that he was critically ill.

A thorough examination of the room failed to disclose a bottle that had contained poison. However, in a trash can outside the door a two ounce bottle was found. How it got there and what it had contained are unknown.

A marriage license, a wedding ring, money and a watch were found among Joyner's effects.

Joyner, who was 28 years old, was employed as a telegraph operator by the Humble Pipe Line Company at Ranger. He was a member of the American Legion.

Poison Causes Death

Miss Hubbard declared she believed his death was due to ptomaine poisoning, and the examining physician stated this was possible.

A coroner's jury pronounced that death was due to poisoning of an unknown nature.

DEMING TREASURER HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Deming, N. M., Feb. 7.—Edgar Hepp, former county treasurer, was held to the next grand jury on a charge of embezzling public moneys. Complaint was made by James S. Anderson, of Ranger, Texas, who declared he sent $10 at one time for tax payment, and had a bank send $23 at another.

Receipt of the $23 was never acknowledged by Hepp, according to Anderson. In fact, he was notified the $10 was being held for the remainder of the payment. Eventually the land was sold for taxes.

Clyde Gregg, of Hereford, was a Lubbock visitor the first of the week.

MRS. W. F. DALLEY BADLY HURT LAST WEEK

Mrs. W. F. Dalley, wife of W. F. Dalley, living two miles south of town, sustained injuries which are of a serious nature, and from accounts of the accident that we can get, will probably be a long time getting over it.

The accident happened one day last week while she was hanging out some laundry, she had just finished washing and while doing so, some way she fell and with all her weight on one knee injuring the joint in a way that it was first thought an amputation would be necessary. She was carried to the Lubbock Sanitarium to be examined and dressed and at this time the doctors have hope of saving the limb. Mr. Mc-Bride says it is a very serious hurt, and will take some time before she will get entirely over it.—Abernathy Review.

W. A. Laughlin, of Mena, Arkansas, is in Lubbock again looking after the interest of the Trusting lodge. He is a congenial business man and is always welcomed by his many friends here.

The business revival is coming right along but preachers are needed.

An Exchange says: "In the first place, buy everything you need in some other place. If you have flouring mill send off for all your flour. It sounds better to have it come from a distance, even should the quality be inferior. If you have a brick yard, send off for your brick. It makes a man feel important to ship in a few car loads of brick even if he should have to pay more for them than he would at the home factories. If you have a good job of printing, be sure and not give it to your home printer. Send it to a city press, if it does cost you double what it would at home. You might give your home printers the small jobs, it will save trouble. If you want a barrel of sugar, a sack of coffee, a chest of tea, a barrel of molasses, a wagon load of salt and other things, send off for them by all means. And then you can boast to your neighbor that you buy your groceries in the city. It will cost you a little in freight and time, but then you will have the satisfaction of knowing the fact that your money will not be squandered in building up your own town. If you want dry goods, send to the city. If you want a suit of clothes, do not buy it at home; you might help build up your town, your merchant would get hold of the money and the profits would go to exchanging the wealth of our town."

THIS IS A GREAT COUNTRY

W. J. Clark, of Dickens, and Mann and Ira Clark, of Afton, were visitors in Roaring Springs Sunday. They have been out in Lamb County inspecting that fine Plains land. They think that is a great country. —Roaring Springs Review.

Indeed, this whole Plains section is a great country. It is greater than many people really realize, and its development is bringing out the great possibilities of this wonderful agricultural expanse. This wonderful country will bring forth great things in years to come and many people have already learned of the great possibilities of the South Plains.

China Is the China has long enjoyed the reputation of being one of the world's finest shooting grounds, especially as regards pheasants, snipe and wild fowl, but Arthur de C. Sowerby, well-known here as a naturalist and explorer, says that the game of the country is being wiped out, owing to its wholesale exportation in cold storage to satisfy the demands for this kind of food in Europe.

There are no adequate game laws in force in China and the export trade has been carried on on such an extensive scale as to have completely exterminated the game reserves of the Lower Yangtze Valley as well as of large stretches of Manchuria. Mr. Sowerby is now endeavoring to arouse the Chinese Government to protect the fine game reserves still existing in the interior of the country.

Poppies transported from Flanders Fields to dump heaps of Jersey are adjudged a nuisance and a pest to agriculture by the Federal Horticultural Board. They are to be plowed under at once. The seed of the poppies came over in earth ballast, shipped from France by troop transports. The pathologist of the Federal Horticultural Board believes the reason the poppy blooms in Belgium and France is because the farmers cannot get rid of it.

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant. 10-20

How many men in your recollection have told you about having a chance to have purchased stock in wholesale concerns but didn't take the chance? While some men spend their time thinking and wondering—just on the fence—there are a few who see an opportunity and back their judgment by taking it.

The Panhandle Cigar Company believes it is offering an exceptional opportunity to men who want a safe and sane, yet highly profitable investment. Stock in this company should surely make dividends of unusual magnitude because the business is already operating on a basis justifying this prediction.

A thought for today:
Seek not to know
What pleaseth heaven to hide;
Dark is the abyss of time,
But light enough to guide our souls is given;
Whatever weal or woe betide,
Turn never from the path of truth aside,
And leave the event, in holy hope, to heaven.

On February the second, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. J. Stephens entertained the adult Bible Class of the First Presbyterian church, with a delightfully planned party, at their home on 1611, 12th Street.

The evening was spent in games of various kinds, and the novel arrangement of the contests which gave each gentleman his dinner partner, was cleverly planned. Each lady present was given a Biblical name, and each gentleman likewise, a name of a Bible character, being required to find his partner by mating the names given, according to the Biblical story, thus testing the individual knowledge of those present, relative to their study and reading of the Bible.

During the course of the evening

Mrs. O. E. Sears gave several splendid readings which were appreciated by the class.

Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Davidson assisted Mrs. Stephens, serving a delicious buffet luncheon, at the conclusion of the program. The adult Bible Class is fortunate in having such leaders as Mr. and Mrs. Stephens, and they realize this fact by their service and interest in the class.

Mrs. Overstreet, of 1917 Avenue H, is reported ill, having taken ill several days ago.

WOMEN WE SHOULD KNOW

Clara Barton

Clara Barton was the founder and organizer of the National Red Cross in the United States. She was born in Oxford, Mass., in 1821, and was a graduate of the Clinton Liberal Institute, New York. During the Civil War she did relief work on the battle fields and organized a search for missing men, for the carrying on of which the congress voted $1500 dollars. She was associated with the International Red Cross of Geneva and worked through the entire Franco-Prussian war. She was the first official president of the American Red Cross and was appointed to represent the United States in all international conferences. She conducted Red Cross Relief at Galveston, after the great disaster in 1900 and became president of the First Aid Association (National), in 1905 to 1912. Clara Barton held decorations and service honors from Germany, Baden, Austria, Serbia, Turkey, Spain, Belgium, Russia. She wrote "History of Red Cross," "America's Relief Expedition to Asia Minor." She died in 1912.

Did You Know That—
The word Cigar is Spanish, and is derived from cigarra, the Spanish name for grasshopper. When the Spaniards first introduced tobacco into Spain, from the island of Cuba, they cultivated the plant in their gardens, which in Spanish are called Cigarrales. When one offered a smoke to his friend he would say: "Es de mi cigarra," that is, it is from my garden. Soon the expression came to be: "Esta cigarra es de mi cigarra," this cigar is from my garden. The grasshopper (cigarra) was very common in Spain and cigarra meant the place where the cigarra sings.

The Christmas Tree, which has become an almost universal symbol, and is by most persons supposed to have originated in Germany, has its origin in Egypt, at a period long before the Christian era. The palm tree is known to form a branch every month and a spray of this tree with twelve shoots on it, was used in Egypt, at the time of the winter solstice, as a symbol of the year completed.

NO NEED OF USING OUT-OF-TOWN PRODUCTS

That it is absolutely unnecessary for Lubbock to use anything in the out-of-town, Sears-Roebuck type of goods is further demonstrated that there is no need of sending your car to Dallas or some other town to have a real, better-than-the-original painting job done on it, which has proof in the appearance of a beautiful Chandler automobile now displayed at the Lub-Tex Motor Company salesroom. H. H. Jones, well known local painter, having applied the paint. The car is painted sky blue, with the wire wheels in white, and the running gear in black.

The painting job is absolutely beyond criticism, and Mr. Jones is to be appreciated in Lubbock that the quality of his work cannot be excelled anywhere, whether it is a visiting card, painting job or anything that is at all offered for sale on the Lubbock market.

DISTRICT COURT CASE COMPLETED WEDNESDAY

E. McElroy and Geo. C. Cummings vs. the City of Lubbock, C. E. Parks, Mayor and Guy C. Hufstetler, Chief of Police damage suit for thirty thousand dollars. City of Lubbock and Chas. E. Parks, Mayor, were dismissed from the suit by acting District Judge Russell and the suit continued against Hufstetler, which was determined by the jury that was out only twenty-five minutes, and returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Hufstetler declaring that his actions were within the law, and he was doing his duty in this matter, and assessed all cost incurred against the Plaintiff.

This suit was the outgrowth of the officer and Messrs. McElroy and Cummings failure to agree on the right of the officer to interfere with exhibition music in front of the Lyric theatre, on November, 24. The case was taken up Tuesday and completed Wednesday.

Knox County Sheriff Is Here This Week On Business Matters

In 1908 it became imperative that the people of Knox County elect a sheriff who would conduct the work of that office without partiality and fear, and as a result, W. S. Britton was urged to enter the race, and when the final count of votes was made the decision was in his favor, and since that time his election to that office has been a matter of his name being placed on the list of candidates each term and the people availing themselves of the opportunity to keep one of the best officers in the Lone Star State in their sheriff's office, according to statements of some of the sheriff's friends to one of the Avalanche reporters Tuesday, and a look into what the sheriff and his deputy, Alex Holt, have done to keep the lawless element at bay in that county will convince one that there is no room to doubt these facts.

The sheriff, deputy Holt and Forrest Earnest, were here from Benjamin the first of the week looking after matters pertaining to some of their citizens, and while here took advantage of the opportunity to become associated with the people of Lubbock, and as a result sheriff Britton told an Avalanche reporter that we certainly have something to be proud of in the congeniality and free-heartedness of our people, and their ability to make strangers feel absolutely at home.

The officers of Lubbock were especially courteous to me, and my people, and I appreciate it. There are so few places in these states that a man can feel as much at home as in Lubbock makes me like to be here," he said, but confidentially told us that the careless officers of this county and town have so often caught some of his best bootleggers and gamblers who tried to operate here until they are about to infringe upon his rights, which he proved by pointing to a dusky Knox county citizen who is spending some time in caring for the appearance of the Lubbock county courthouse, who he said was perfectly alright, and that the Lubbock county sheriff had not caught him at anything but bootlegging and carrying just one gun about with him.

That he is also a little hard on the illegitimate manufacturers and salesmen is proven in the fact that twenty-eight stills have been captured by him and his force in their immediate vicinity, which accounts for the statement that "so far as my work is concerned everything is quiet in Knox county," when questioned about general conditions. "Otherwise, however, we are still on the map, and like a good many West Texans would like mighty well to get a good rain," he said. "Such officers as W. S. Britton have had more to do with the general betterment of West Texas than any of us can realize, for to count back to the beginning of fourteen years ago, we will see that conditions were all the more difficult for the execution of an officers work than now, that everyone seems to be imbued with more respect and reverence for the law, as compared with those days when a saloon was the busiest institution in the average town.

JUDGE SPENCER AND WIFE VISITING IN SAN ANTONIO

Judge W. R. Spencer and wife left Sunday for San Antonio in an attempt to renew Mrs. Spencer's health. She has been gradually failing for the past several weeks and it was thought that a change of climate would be favorable for her. Their many friends in Lubbock are eager to hear of a rapid recovery, and their return to Lubbock. Judge Spencer is greatly missed in District Court, but his work is being ably conducted by Judge C. D. Russell, of Plainview, well known in West Texas, and recognized as one of the leading attorneys of this section.

In our rounds Tuesday we called at the Union Milling Co.'s office and we were informed by Mr. Miller, the company's manager, that he had, up to the time we called, exchanged five thousand pounds of flour for wheat. ### ABERNATHY LOOSES TO PETERSBURG IN BASKET BALL

Last Friday, as scheduled, the basketball game came off between Abernathy and Petersburg was played on the Abernathy school grounds and a score of 18 to 20 in favor of Petersburg was the result. It looked for a time it would be a tie game and stood 18 to 18, but the visiting team came in on the last and without making a score the last ten minutes, the game was decided in favor of Petersburg. It was hotly contested from first to last and each side done fine work and each proved themselves ball players.

A large crowd from Petersburg and our home town witnessed the game and much interest was shown by both sides.—Abernathy Review.

How Crops Were Financed

Two Lubbock County farmers told me that they financed the making of their crops last year by taking advantage of the loan value of their life insurance policies, this, at a time when it was hard for them to obtain money from other sources.

A life insurance policy is a secured investment and the cash value is always in reserve for such emergencies as the above.

C. E. Tucker, a prominent citizen of the Stamford country, is here this week prospecting with a view of buying property in this section and becoming a citizen of this country.

R. E. Risinger sold to C. G. Goodman, three hundred head of sheep which Mr. Goodman will put on feed at his feed pens one mile west of town.

The Struve Mercantile Co. is having their store rearranged giving them more room to display their goods furnishing goods. This makes their store very attractive in the furnishing department.

On the 7th of February, Mrs. Ben Struve celebrated her birthday. A lovely dinner was served and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock, luncheon was served to the following guests: Mrs. Fritz Fuchs, Jr., Mrs. Chas. Goeth, Mrs. Moritz Gobel, Mrs. Fritz Fuchs, Sr., Mrs. Fritz Struve, Mrs. Carl Goodman, Mrs. and Mrs. George Struve, Mrs. Elizabeth Goble, Miss Irene Goeth, Mrs. Hilda Goble, Miss Eleanor Struve, Mrs. Gertrude Fuchs, Mr. and Mrs. R. Mr. Goodman started with these sheep to the feed pens at Emporia, Kan., where he expected to feed for thirty days longer, but sold the entire shipment to Robt. Out of thirty-two counties of the state that have been reported, the poll tax receipts that have been issued to date have nearly doubled that of last year. In some counties it has reached more than fifty per cent.

The hotels are crowded and the proprietors report that hardly a night passes but that they have to turn strangers away. The town needs more hotel room, and if some enterprising man with money would build a good hotel he would get good returns on his investment.

What can be done in the way of feeding and fattening young sheep for home use was demonstrated last week by B. F. Struve, when he killed a lamb that has been feeding that dressed out 120 pounds. This shows what can be done, with a little pains, in the feeding of stock on the South Plains.

E. T. Maupin commenced the drilling of a water well for the Union Milling Company Friday on the property joining the mill. This improvement, the company feels, is very important as it will give them plenty of water near by for all mill purposes and in case of fire they will have plenty of water close at hand.

The Community Club met at the School House February 3rd. Ten members were present. The house was called to order by the president. A lot of business was attended to. After the business was disposed of Mrs. Leese gave a review of the First Lady of the Land which was greatly enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. J. O. Castles. At the next meeting, February 17th Miss Bettie Fuchs will be hostess, at which Mrs. Schroeter will give a review of The Man of the Ages.

The boilers at the oil well are going through an overhauling at this time, and as soon as this work is done, drilling will be resumed with the intention of the company to go down to the depth of four thousand feet and possibly further, if oil or gas is not reached before the four thousand feet is reached.

After the stock law is passed, should it be, the town should see to it that a place is provided outside the town limits for a dumping ground, where all rubbish from the streets could be dumped, instead of having it scattered helter skelter over the town.

THE ANTI-LYNCHING BILL A DANGEROUS LAW

The anti-lynching bill which passed the National House of Representatives and now in the hands of the senate, is being attacked by a number of Texas newspapers and condemned by many as a very vicious law, and one that the majority of the people of the state will condemn should it become a law. Under its provision should a man be killed in Hale county by a mob, the people of the county would be forced to pay the family or relatives of the man thus killed for the sum of ten thousand dollars, and the tax payers of the county would have to pay it.

There is not a citizen of the State in favor of mob law, however should this bill pass the senate and become a law as it stands, if a mob of a half dozen men should kill a man, and every man and woman in the county condemn them for it, the county would have to pay them the ten thousand dollars.

We believe that Texas has managed fairly well in taking care of their local affairs without the interference of the national government and it is the opinion of many newspapers and prominent men in the state that the people generally will resent such a law.—Abernathy Review.

Riensi, Miss.—"When I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's medicines I was all wrecked and run-down until I was not able to do anything, but now I am getting along well and have a big, fine, healthy baby boy. Tongue could not tell how much better I felt after taking these medicines. I took both the Favorite Prescription and the Golden Medical Discovery, also two vials of the Pleasant Pellets and had practically no suffering. I will always praise these wonderful medicines. I would never try to go through expectancy again without Favorite Prescription."—Mrs. Mary Owen.

SOME ASPECTS OF FARMERS' PROBLEMS

As an example of integration, take the steel industry, in which the model is the United States Steel Corporation, with its iron mines, its coal mines, its lake and rail transportation, its ocean vessels, its by-product coke ovens, its blast furnaces, its rolling mills, its tube mills and other manufacturing processes that are carried to the highest degree of finished production compatible with the large trade it has built up. All this is generally conceded to be to the advantage of the consumer. Nor does the steel corporation inconsiderately dump its products on the market. On the contrary, it so acts that it is frequently a stabilizing influence, as is often the case with other large organizations. It is master of its distribution as well as of its production. If prices are not satisfactory the products are held back or production is reduced or suspended. It is not compelled to send a year's work to the market at one time and take whatever it can get under such circumstances. It has one selling policy and its own export department. Neither are the grades and qualities of steel determined at the caprice of the buyer, nor does the latter hold the scales. In this single integration of the steel corporation is represented about 40 percent of the steel production of America. The rest is mostly in the hands of a few large companies. In ordinary times the steel corporation, by example, stabilizes all steel prices. If this is permissible (it is even desirable, because stable and fair prices are essential to solid and continued prosperity) why would it be wrong for the farmers to utilize central agencies that would have similar effects on agricultural products? Something like that is what they are aiming at.

Some farmers favored by regional compactness and contiguity, such as the citrus-fruit-raisers of California, already have found a way legally to merge and sell their products integrally and in accordance with seasonal and local demand, thus improving their position and rendering the consumer a reliable service of ensured quality, certain supply, and reasonable and relatively steady prices. They have not found it necessary to resort to any special privilege, or to claim any exemption under the anti-trust legislation of the state or nation. Without removing local control, they have built up a very efficient marketing agency. The grain, cotton, and tobacco farmers, and the producers of hides and wool, because of their numbers and the vastness of their regions, and for other reasons, have found integration a more difficult task, though there are now some thousands of farmer's co-operative elevators, warehouses, creameries, and other enterprises of one sort and another, with a turn-over of a billion dollars a year. They are giving the farmers business experience and training, and, so far as they go, they meet the need of honest weighing and fair grading; but they do not meet the requirements of rationally adjusted marketing in any large and fundamental way.

The next step, which will be a pattern for other groups, is now being prepared by the grain-raisers through the establishment of sales media which shall handle grain separately or collectively, as the individual farmer may elect. It is this step—the plan of the Committee of Seventeen—which has created so much opposition and is thought by some to be in conflict with the anti-trust laws. Though there is now before congress a measure designed to clear up doubt on this point, the grain-producers are not relying on any immunity from anti-trust legislation. They desire and they are entitled, to co-ordinate their efforts just as effectively as the large business interests of the country have done. In connection with the selling organizations the United States Grain Growers Incorporated is drafting a scheme of financing instrumentalities and auxiliary agencies which are indispensable to the successful utilization of modern business methods.

It is essential that the farmers should proceed gradually with these plans, and aim to avoid the error of scrapping the existing marketing machinery, which has been so laboriously built up by long experience, before they have a tried and proved substitute or supplementary mechanism. They must be careful not to become enmeshed in their own reforms and lose the perspective of their place in the national system. They must guard against financial devotion to new doctrines, and should seek articulation with the general economic system rather than its reckless destruction as it relates to them.

JIM SMITH

Jim Smith, dropped in on old Doc Brown

And said that "Things in this here town

"Are 'bout the worst they've been in years

"And for the future I have fears.

"Wheat is down to fifty cents.

"And folks can hardly pay their rents

"The price of cows and hogs and sheep

"Are low enough to make you weep.

"I don't know what we're going to do—

"I tell you Doc, I'm feeling blue."

But Doc was busy drivin' nails

And couldn't listen to Jim's wails;

So Jim put off to call on Jones

And entertain him with his groans.

But Jones was busy grinding corn

And couldn't take the time to mourn;

But Jim kept on around the town

With head bent low and spirits down.

He said that he was out of cash

And soon the world would go to smash.

"Mebby so," said Henry Moore.

"But I've seen times like these before.

"Why, back in eighteen ninety-three

"I couldn't buy a pound of tea.

"But I kept pluggin' just the same

"Cause that's the way to play the game.

"If every soul in this here place

"Went on the street with your long face

"Who'd grind the corn and drive the nails

"And milk the cows and fill the pails?"

"I know that things don't break just right.

"But now's the time a man should fight.

"Go home, Jim Smith and feed your shoot.

"This is no time to rock the boat."

—Swiped.

Effective Remedy Given for Smut In the Wheat

There are two distinct types of smut in grain sorghum, one that attacks the entire head, and the other the grain. The head smut may be recognized by the entire head being reduced to a black powdery mass. If only the kernels are injured, it is called kernel smut.

There is no remedy for head smut. The most efficient way to control this disease is by rotation of crops and burning all heads that are effected. For the seed smut, the ordinary method of small grain treatment for smut may be employed. The best method for this treatment is the ordinary method employed in treating small grain for smut. A solution of thirty gallons of water to one pint of formalin should be put in a barrel. The seed should be sacked and held in this solution until the solution soaks entirely through. This will ordinarily require from three to five minutes. When it is certain that all seed are wet with the solution, they should be poured on a tight floor and covered with a wagon sheet or sacks for from three hours up to overnight, then stirred until sufficiently dry to pass through planter. The seed may be placed on a tight floor and sprinkled or sprayed with solution, stirring at the time, until all seeds are damp. They should then be covered several hours before planting. Under ordinary circumstances, one pint of formalin is sufficient to treat from 40 to 50 bushels. The solution must be used fresh.

PADUCAH HAS ORGANIZED BUSINESS MAN'S LUNCHEON

Paducah, Texas, Feb. 9.—A Chamber of Commerce Luncheon Club has been organized in this city through the efforts of E. L. McCarter, District Manager for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. One of the first matters to engage the attention of the Club will be the arranging of successful exhibits of agricultural products at the All-West Texas display of the Southwestern Exposition.

The only difference between stumbling blocks and stepping stones is in the way you use them.

Mexican Paper Would Stop the Bull Fightings

The newspaper El Universal has started a campaign against bullfighting which appears to give promise of possible success.

In the belief that the present generation of grown-ups enjoys the sport so much that its prohibition is impossible, the newspaper is attempting to keep the children away from the fights, and to that end has placed the Mayor of Mexico City and the Governor of the Federal District, in which Mexico City is located, on record as opposed to boys and girls witnessing the "brutal sport."

Quarter-page pictures of youngsters eagerly watching the gory sights of the arena have been printed and the newspaper asks if this is the sort of environment that makes for culture and refinement. Felix F. Palavicini, editor of El Universal, long ago placed himself on record as unalterably opposed to bullfights, although, in deference to popular opinion, his newspaper carries exhaustive accounts of the corridas. He argues, however, that if the youngsters are now kept away from the fights the next generation will not want them.

Meeting of District Club Women At Canyon Met February 3 and 4 In a Very Important Meeting

The meeting of a committee of the Seventh District Club Women, called to meet at Canyon February 3, 4, for the purpose of hearing the Extension plan offered by the West Texas State Normal College, and of acting on same, was successful beyond the hope of the most enthusiastic.

The College and the Woman's Book Club of Canyon were hostess to the Club women and the most cordial hospitality was shown from the time the letter were met at the trains until they were escorted to same for departure.

Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, Claude, Texas, gave a characteristic speech Friday morning at chapel exercises, which echoed through the succeeding days proclaimed, made deep impression on the students. The rest of the morning was spent in going over the college, which was greatly enjoyed by the women, as was proven by their lingering in the various classrooms.

Luncheon, as well as other meals during the visit was served in Cousins Hall, where Mrs. Witt, matron, was charming hostess. Immediately after the luncheon the committee met the officers of the several girls literary societies of the college, and discussed the benefits that they might derive from, and could give to, the Federation. A business session was then held. Mrs. Goodman being elected chairman of committee, and Miss Neal of Plainview, secretary.

The meeting adjourned for the reception given by the Woman's Book-Club and the Domestic Science Departments, where the visiting ladies met their hosts and hostesses individually the membership of the faculty and their families. Space is too limited to speak in detail of the charming decorations, refreshments and music immediately after, the Domestic Science department was visited.

Another business meeting was then held, at which the instructors, Mr. Morelock, Dept. of Literature, Mr. Jarrett, Dept. of Education, Mr. Sheffy, Dept. of History and Mr. Duffol, Dept. of Sociology, outlined the courses they were offering.

In the evening a concert was given in the auditorium. The college orchestra, under direction of Mr. Wallace Clarke, gave the overture of Der Freischutz, and a suite by Bizet. "The Runagate" a cantata for mixed voices, was also under Mr. Clarke's direction. The concert was deeply appreciated by the entire audience, and we beg to say here, that that audience itself speaks well for the prospects of musical appreciation among the laity.

Saturday morning, prior to chapel period, the committee, visited the Infirmary, a very recent addition to the institution.

Each member of the committee made a brief talk to the students assembled in the chapel. The rest of the day was devoted to business sessions. The plan offered by the College Extension Committee was adopted with a few minor changes. Mr. Humphreys, Mr. Allen and Mr. Marelock were members of this committee and offered the Federation a most liberal plan.

Miss Hamner, Dist. Chairman of Literature will present the outline of courses to individual clubs in the near future.

The courses offered are: two courses in literature, two in Education, two in Sociology, two in history and one in home economics, this last being added at the request of the Woman's Committee.

The feature that distinguishes the arrangements offered by the West Texas Normal College from the Extension work handled by other colleges is this: having studied a course and fulfilled certain practical requirements, a Club Student will be given a certificate which will be valued a credit on her degree.

For this idea we are indebted to Mrs. Warner, who is the outstanding personality in the entire Seventh District, and we believe that in the years to come, women denied more direct educational opportunities, will live to bless her name.

Resolutions of gratefulness and appreciation to the college, Mrs. Witt of Cousins Hall, and the Woman's Book Club were adopted.

Mr. Hill spoke to the women about the college, reminding us that it is our own, and urging that we use it as well as support it. He spoke, in particular of the need of dormitories, especially for the women students, and some one whispered: "Wouldn't it be wonderful if the women of the Seventh District could build a dormitory?" and—well, wouldn't it?

K. CARTER RETURNED FROM SHOPPING TRIP AND VISIT

K. Carter returned Wednesday from a shopping trip to St. Louis, where he purchased a full line of spring merchandise for his popular store.

On the return trip he took advantage of the opportunity to visit his daughter, Miss Edith, who is attending Kidd Key College, who, with two other Lubbock young ladies who are attending that college, Misses Julia Johnson and Vernon Brown accompanied him to Dallas, where they spent Saturday and Sunday, from where Mr. Carter and Miss Edith made a visit to his old home town, Kaufman, where he met many of his friends and acquaintances of thirty years ago, and found that as time had placed them in the same relative positions concerning their ages the visit was a very enjoyable one.

Mr. Carter is a congenial, well-liked citizen, whose personality is not to be forgotten by the many visitors to his store, to which a great portion of his success can be attributed.

The young ladies are getting along fine in their school work, according to Mr. Carter, and are well impressed with their school and the system of training carried out by the faculty.

Amarillo Expecting Thousands at the Annual Auto Show

Fifteen thousand visitors, representing practically all sections of the Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma, are expected to attend the second annual automobile and style show, at Amarillo, March 9, 10, and 11, members of the Amarillo-Panhandle Automotive Association have estimated.

The second annual event promises to surpass the effort of last year, which gained such wide-spread popularity.

Arrangements have been made for adequate display facilities, and automobile displays, accessory showings, refreshment booths, stage amusements, style showings and dancing will all be staged under one roof.

Arrangements are under way for the securing of high class entertainers from the eastern cities, and the thousands of visitors will be given an opportunity to see the very best of attractions.

The annual automobile show was established a year ago for the benefit of the automobile users as well as the dealer, and the first showing was truly an educational treat. The user of an automobile is given the advantage of expert opinion and instruction in the advantages offered in the machines of the several makes, and with his own eyes he is given first hand information as to all makes of cars. The accessory dealer has many things of value for the car attachment, and these attending the annual event may see the attachments in actual operation.

THE LUBBOCK AVALANCHE

Farm Bureau Man Spoke Here Saturday Afternoon

Probably one of the most interesting meetings that has been held for the betterment of our farmers conditions was held at the Justice Courtroom here Saturday when Judge L. Gough, of Hereford, spoke to a large number of farmers who assembled there to listen to his splendid discussion of the problems which confront them and the most practical means to offer their solution.

Farmers everywhere should align themselves in a cooperative marketing system and become business men instead of letting their products be raised and sold year after year at a great loss, according to Judge Gough.

The Judge is not yet an old man, but the long, hard fight he has been making in the interest of the farmers has shown its print upon his face and the strong facial features mark him well as a fighter of the winning class and we are sure that before he lays down the cudgel something will have been accomplished for the farmers of the States far beyond the expectations of those who would scoff at reason and become numbered among the unprogressive element of the day.

Judge Gough did not only send the facts of his proposition home with deliberate and forceful oratory but he was well armed with a series of statistics which were used to convince his hearers of the merits of an organized marketing system.

Every farmer in Lubbock county should subscribe to the principles of the Farm Bureau and test the strength of the farming population en masse against the powers that be instead of taking their products, the result of many days and weeks and months of hard labor, to a "dumping ground" and become satisfied with what they receive for those products regardless of the price received and its alignment with the cost of production.

Remember farmers, if it is a Farm Bureau meeting it is to your better interest to attend and make your presence known.

"The nicest and pleasantest medicine I have used for indigestion and constipation is Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Melard F. Craig, Middle Grove, N. Y. They work like a charm and do not gripe or leave any unpleasant effect.

J. R. Smith, of Brownfield, transacted business here Wednesday.

REDISTRICTING IS TO BE CONTESTED
Austin, Texas, Feb. 7.—Proceedings to test the validity of the representative redistricting act of the last legislature will be instituted soon it was announced after a conference here today of Attorney General W. A. Keeling and Representative Lee Satterwhite of Carson county.

Failure of the legislature to include Swisher county in any of the new districts was given as cause for the proposed action, it being contended that this invalidates the entire law.

CHIEF MARDER IS LIKE A NEW MAN

Popular Head Of Dallas Fire Department Eats What He Wants First Time In Years

The testimony of Joseph L. Marder, or 'Chief Joe,' as he is better known, for eighteen years Assistant Fire Chief of the Dallas, Tex., Fire Department, in which he gives his experience with Tanlac, will be read with interest. Chief Marder who lives at 2403 Grand Ave., Dallas, says:

"When I began taking Tanlac I was in an extremely debilitated condition, feeling generally run down and very nervous and restless. I thought I had heart trouble, as my heart would flutter dreadfully at times and I would get so weak I would have to drop into the nearest chair."

"I can say for Tanlac it has made a new man of me. For the first time in years my stomach is in good shape and I can eat breakfast, bacon or anything else I want and not be bothered afterwards with indigestion. I tell you I think a great deal of Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in all leading Drug Stores.

EXPERIMENT STATION DEVELOPS NEW PROFITIC PEANUT

Several years of exhaustive tests with sixty-four families of spanish peanuts by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Substation No. 11, Nacogdoches, have resulted in the development of a superior high-yielding variety adapted to East Texas conditions. This prolific strain has been increased and there is now a limited supply of seed available for distribution. In order that this supply may be distributed among as many farms as possible, only one peck will be awarded to each applicant, at a nominal charge of $1.00 per peck f. o. b. Nacogdoches. Requests for this seed should be mailed to George T. McNeess, Superintendent, Nacogdoches, Texas.

Mrs. E. C. McNeely, of Snyder, was in Lubbock Wednesday and Thursday.

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Kansas City Stock Yards, Feb. 6th, 1922.—Hogs were 10 to 25 cents higher and lambs 25 cents higher. Hogs sold into a new high position for the winter-packing season, and lambs with a $13.75 top were the highest in more than a year past. Trade in cattle was quiet with a lower tendency in the market. Liberal receipts and lower prices in Chicago caused the weakness here.

Today's Receipts

Receipts today were 13,000 cattle, 13,000 hogs, and 6,000 sheep, compared with 11,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs and 11,000 sheep a week ago, and 6,000 cattle, 13,200 hogs, and 12,700 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle

With receipts fairly liberal, quality ordinary and lower prices in Chicago, the market here for fat cattle was weak to 15 cents lower. The only exception to the general weakness was a few early orders for cows, heifers and handy weight steers at steady prices. The few good fat steers offered sold at weak prices, and most of the other classes were off 10 to 15 cents. Cows and heifers were mostly 10 cents lower, and veal calves were weak to 25 cents lower.

Stockers and Feeders

The supply of feeders was increased materially by the large number of half fat steers offered. Most of them found a country outlet but at lower prices. Thin feeders and most of the stockers were quoted steady. Stock cows and heifers were steady.

Sheep and Lambs

Choice Colorado lambs today sold up to $13.75, the highest price paid in more than a year, and 45 cents above January's top. Other good lambs sold at $13.50 to $13.70. The market was 25 cents higher. Fat sheep were in light supply at strong prices.

Hogs

Hog prices were quoted up 10 to 25 cents, mostly 15 to 20 cents. The least advance was on rough heavy packing and mixed medium weight grades. The top price was $9.25 and the bulk of the good hogs sold at $8.85 to $9.15. Eggs sold up to $9.00. The general character of the demand together with light receipts offered indicate that the hog market is headed towards the 10 cent level.

Horses and Mules

Trade in horses and mules remained about the same activity as last week with receipts showing a moderate increase. Prices were unchanged.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE MUSCLE SHOALS NITRATE AND WATER POWER PLANT HENRY FORD WANTS

Seven and one-half millions of dollars "can be profitably expended" in new work on the Muscle Shoals (Ala.) nitrate and water-power project during the fiscal year 1923, Major General Beach, chief of army engineers, says in his report to the Secretary of War. Work on the project was shut down last April, as a result of the refusal of Congress to appropriate further funds for it, and the Government now is negotiating for the sale and lease of the plant to Henry Ford.

A financial summary prepared by General Beach shows that to date a net total of $15,278,828 has been expended on the project, which, the General says, is about one-third completed, the percentages of completion of the various units being: Wilson dam 45 per cent, powerhouse 11 per cent, locks 10 per cent. The sum expended during the fiscal year ended last June 30 was $7,840,781, the principal items listed by General Beach being:

Dam construction $3,107,800, powerhouse construction $1,017,000, mainline railroads, construction, maintenance and operation, $495,500; general plant, purchase, construction, operation and maintenance, $1,391,200; camp construction, maintenance and operation, $728,500; general expenses, including flood losses, labor recruiting and office expenses, $731,300; lock construction $143,800.

On last July 1 the balance available out of funds appropriated was $398,921 and General Beach says this will be expended by next August, as the expenses of guarding and maintaining the property average $30,000 a month.

"Should additional funds be provided," General Beach says, "The work to be done would be: Construction of cofferdam No. 2 and work thereon, continuation of excavation for lock, continuation of concrete work on dam, and continuation of excavation and concrete construction for powerhouse. The total amount expended for each would depend upon the date and amount of the appropriation. The rate of expenditure should be approximately $625,000 per month.

Discussing the present state of the work, General Beach says:

"All preparatory work, in the nature of camps, roads, railroads, plants, shops, etc., is completed. Earth excavation for the lock is 90 per cent completed and rock excavation 18 per cent. About 65 per cent of the excavation and foundations for the dam are completed, and about 35 per cent of the concrete placed. About 48 per cent of the excavation for the powerhouse section is completed, and approximately 4.6 per cent of the concrete placed.

"Following suspension of construction, property has been collected and stored, rented floating property returned and construction equipment placed in condition for indefinite storage or lay-up. Navigation of the river is completely blocked by the work in its present condition."

Describing the project in some detail, General Beach says:

"The existing project provides for construction of two locks, a dam and a powerhouse, two and seven-tenths miles above the railroad bridge at Florence, Ala., securing a least depth of nine and a half feet at extreme low water for a distance of fourteen and seven-tenths miles, and for the generation of electric power for the production of nitrates or other products needed for munitions of war and useful in the manufacture of fertilizers and other useful products. The length of the entire section is 30.6 miles, its lower end being 265.5 miles above the mouth of the Tennessee River."

EVERY ONE MUST DO THEIR OWN SWIMMING

Two apples were blown from a tree into a lake, and floated side by side.

The water roughened. The apples bobbed about and plopped up and down at a great rate.

"Gracious," said one, "how we apples can swim!"

"You bet!" replied the other. "When it comes to swimming nobody has anything on us."

A duck swam swiftly past. A fish darted like a silver streak a few inches below them.

But the apples kept on congratulating themselves on their swimming, and splashing wildly up and down in the same place.

They never noticed the duck or fish. They never dreamed that their own violent activity was due to the steamboat that ploughed along a mile off shore.

Pretty soon the duck was a mile away, the fish two miles, and the steamer five miles. But the apples lay right where the wind had blown them.

A lot of us are like the two apples. We splash up and down in the fuss somebody else has started, and think we are swimming. But when the fuss is over we haven't moved from where we began.

Nobody can do our swimming for us.

Every man has to swim for himself.

Iowa Farmers Urges More Mules And Horses on Farms—Says They Are Good, Paying Investments

(M. T. Knowles, Monroe County, Ia., in Breeders Gazette).
More horses and mules for farmers, especially for the man who has to hire help to run tractors. I have operated two popular makes of tractors. I have not had much trouble with either machine, because I did not let them "grow old" on my hands. After the third year they had outlived their usefulness, from a profitable standpoint. This is not so as to the horse. I own two mares, five and six years old, that have been in harness every day, except a few days after harvesting, or at foaling time. Last year they raised two mules, one of which I sold at public sale at weaning time for $100. The other one hurt its shoulder, and was lame at the time, and realized only $50. These mares were broken when they were three years old. One of them has helped produce three crops, and the other two crops. One weighs 1,610, and the other 1,510 pounds, a difference due to the fact that one suckled a foal.

I bought a span of three-year-old mules in the spring of 1919, paying $530 for the two. They had not been broken. We broke them with our team of mares, and they made a real span. We hitched them one at a time early in the spring with one of the mares and did a lot of hauling with them, thus hardening them for spring plowing. They were in harness every day except Sunday until I sold them to a mule shipper some time in August for $575—a profit of $45. I paid $290 for the mares at three years of age. The profit from these mares, less service fees of $45, amounted to $160 for the one I have on hand, a total of $200 for the colts, and the mares could not be bought for less than $500 for the two, but they are not for sale. I invested $820 in the four head, and paid $1,325 for a tractor and plow. Of course, the machines do not cost anything, when not in use, but they will not increase in value.

A good farmer who likes good horses and mules should buy good ones and take good care of them. They will put in a crop and sell for a profit, unless they die. Buy good fleshy three-year-old colts, and break them during the winter and spring by doing light work. Their shoulders thus toughened will stand the work in the spring. Buy good leather, wool-faced collars that fit their necks, and are not too loose.

A farmer would be "all dressed up and no place to go" if he could not so to the barn and look at the horses, or on a rainy day loaf in the barn and watch them eat. The boys, too, loaf in the barn on rainy days. If I had my choice of one of the finest automobiles on Michigan Avenue or the Wilson six-horse team I should feel prouder driving the six-horse team than I would the automobile.

We need good horses and mules. Do not think that the man one sees on a tractor is having a picnic. He may have said more than his morning prayer that morning before he got started—cranked until out of wind, cleaned a spark plug, adjusted a carburetor, found he was out of water, and did not have gasoline to start on, and all those things that make life worth while. But the faithful old team is going right along, and all that was said was, "Get up there Fan."

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND LOOSENS TEETH
The Very Next Dose of this Treacherous Drug may Start Trouble.

You know what calomel is. It's mercury, quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it louses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate. 11-18

A JUDICIOUS INQUIRY

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade, says he has often heard druggists ask a customer, who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult and if for a child, they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed. 46-47

The State of Texas owes Lubbock Independent School District a lot of money, school per capita, which we very badly need, but it seems we have little chance of getting it.

The Avalanche is heartily in favor of the baseball league, and will support it financially and through the columns of the paper, provided there is no Sunday playing.

Many farmers in this section think they are having a mighty hard time, and no doubt they are having a hard pull, but after one reads or sees the one crop fellow of East Texas, our farmers are in clover.

A definite program should be mapped out for the progress of the town this year and let the people understand just what it is, and but few will object to it.

The County has just invested a lot more money in road graders, or rather exchanged some of the old machinery for different.

In the selection of officers people often take into consideration qualifications for the office which they seek, from the viewpoint of progressiveness, or from the angle of popularity in the community and seem to lose sight of the moral features of the proposition at all.

We should at once get busy on the subscription for the increase of the capital stock of the Panhandle South Plains Fair Association.

The sewer plant at the court house certainly should have attention before the summer months come. It seems to be inadequate and unsatisfactory, as it is, and we are of the opinion very unsatisfactory.

Some way should be figured out by which Lubbock could have a tabernacle or auditorium for the convenience of large gatherings.

We are informed that the Lubbock Library is going to be opened again very soon. This is a good move, and we are glad to hear that the valuable books that this organization has had stored away will soon be brought out and the public be given access to them.

Some folks fork over $14 to $30 tax on an automobile, and never get a cent's worth of advantage from the tax, and never bat an eye, but when it comes to paying a less amount for the maintenance of the schools they take a severe case of cramp colic, and go into hysterics.

Now comes up the question as to whether the redistricting act was constitutional. This redistricting was made in and by the last legislature, but by some blunder, oversight or something else, Swisher County was left out of the redistricting bill, and some of the fellows back East are taking advantage of this bust, and are trying to declare the bill unconstitutional.

Lubbock needs additional hotel facilities. We have good hotels, but not enough of them or the present hotels are not large enough.

If the church people of this town have any respect for Sunday, they should let it be known and ask the managers of the base ball league to refrain from Sunday ball games.

Wonder why it is that Lubbock has not been able to interest oil mill people in the erection of an oil mill at this place? It seems to us that this would be the logical place for the erection of a plant of this kind, and it certainly would be a great advantage to the farmers and stockmen of the community.

The Commissioners Court should repair the county jail, if reports are true that comes to us. There are many things that should have the attention of the court. The locks, we understand are unsafe, and the building is uncomfortable and un-sanitary.

Lawyers are preparing citations for the foreclosure of tax liens against property on which taxes are delinquent for county and state taxes.

Of course in these days when money is not so plentiful, we do not expect to get everything we need in Lubbock and Lubbock County this year, but there is one thing that we cannot afford to neglect and that is our schools and our fair.

The question of a suitable location for the new high school building is agitating the minds of the school authorities. It is one of the intensely important questions in connection with the school affairs.

Lubbock is trying to operate a six thousand population with a two thousand population water, sewer, light and school system. It is just about as possible as trying to maintain, clothe and feed a 6000 men army with a 2000 men equipment.

If Lubbock does not prepare to take care of the people who come here by furnishing houses for them to rent, with sewer, lights and water conveniences, and provide a school for their children, some other town more progressive will get them. Nuff said.

The hog market is advancing, but with the high freight rates there is not yet much to the producer after the transportation is paid on a big fat porker.

Lubbock is certainly entitled to a better post-office building, and it should be in a real Federal Building when it is changed. Let's go!

It costs no more to raise a thoroughbred than a scrub, but the returns from the results is much more satisfactory in the first case.

A few more rent houses in Lubbock would find ready takers.

Pay your school tax and help the schools to keep going.

THE LINCOLN CORN CRIB ENCOURAGES EATING CORN

Out in Nebraska where they have more corn than they know what to do with the Lincoln Crib proposes to store away some of the surplus which corn growers are finding so burdensome.

With the help of United States Department of Agriculture food bulletins and circulars an exclusive corn menu was planned. The first course consisted of cream of corn au gratin.

The critical corn situation was depicted by a play in which King Corn, too feeble to support himself, figured as the chief character. With him sat Queen Minnie Wheat.

Members of the Lincoln Crib, appreciating the splendid corn preparations which had been served them at the banquet, pledged themselves to eat more corn and corn-fed meat and to encourage others to do so.

ACHILLE RATTI ELECTED AS NEW CATHOLIC POPE

Rome, Feb. 6.—Cardinal Achille Ratti, arch bishop of Milan, has been chosen supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic church to succeed the late Pope Benedict XV.

After the announcement of his election the Pope appeared on the outside balcony of St. Peter's and bestowed the benediction of the thousands who had waited patiently in the rain in St. Peter's Square.

The election was completed without American participation in the conclave, Cardinal O'Connell, arch bishop of Boston, arrived at the moment the pope was blessing the multitude.

F. W. Kazmeier Prepares Valuable Information to Poultry Raisers For Curing Roup and Colds

(Compiled by S. C. Hoyle, editor extension service, A. & M. college of Texas, from material prepared by F. W. Kazmeier, poultry husbandman.)

Roup is easily recognized causing the formation of a running mucous which appears first in the nostrils and eyes. During the progress of the disease the mucous secretion turns into a cheesy substance, clogging up the breathing tubes of the respiratory system, frequently forming in the opening of the windpipe. At first the bird evidently feels much like a person with a bad cold, but eventually loses its appetite and dies. An offensive odor is always present and the cheesy matter often starts forming in the eyes, frequently causing the loss of sight.

Personal treatment is not believed to be practical except in the case of very valuable birds, since a cancerous growth in the windpipe may sometimes be removed with success. Upon examination a noisy rattling breathing in a bird will often be found to be caused by a cheesy formation in the windpipe which practically closes up the opening. This should be removed quickly to prevent suffocation.

This has been successfully done by the following method. Open the mouth side, pull the tongue out as far as possible and hold it in that position. This brings the opening of the windpipe within easy reach. Have a piece of broom straw handy for use in an emergency in case of strangulation. Use two fingers and mercilessly force out the cheesy matter and then swab out the inside of the throat with peroxide of hydrogen. This should take only a few minutes and the bird so treated generally lives unless otherwise affected. Another individual treatment which consumes very little time and has proved very satisfactory, is to dip the head of the affected bird into a 2 per cent solution of potash permanganate.

Preventive Advice
One of the best methods of preventing roup is to avoid infection since the disease is contagious. Always buy birds from uninfected flocks and quarantine all the new stock or birds which have been returned from show fairs. Do not use implements and utensils which have been exposed to infection and do not bring the disease germ to your own premises by visiting your neighbor's infected flock.

Feed the birds well and keep them in dry and well ventilated houses, being careful to provide natural surroundings and highly sanitary conditions. Isolate all birds at once which show the slightest trace or indication of the disease, and watch them carefully during the day and while on the roost. It is extremely important in the prevention and control of the disease that birds showing the symptoms commonly known as "big eyes" be instantly separated from the flock and their heads dipped into a 2 per cent solution of potash permanganate. Disinfect the entire house once a week, including fixtures and birds, with a mixture composed of equal parts of water, kerosene and cresol or zenoleum, applying with a fine sprayer. When signs of the disease are noticeable spray once a day as directed above, taking special care to place the disinfectant on the heads of the birds. Disinfect all drinking water with a stock solution of potash permanganate, using enough to give the water a light wine color.

A new contrivance, called a va-porizer is being tried out. This consists of a small oil lamp, over the top of which is fitted a vessel to be kept full of some disinfectant, such as zenoleum. The heat generated by the lamp causes it to vaporize, disinfecting the air. As a rule this vaporizer should be placed every night so that the wind or current of air will carry the vapor over the birds. This has not been tried out very extensively, but so far has proven very satisfactory.

Some of the most common causes are over crowding of roosts, dirty and filthy quarters, lack of fresh air, roosting on the floor, lice, weak condition from any cause, direct drafts while on the roosts, damp quarters and litter, sudden change of temperature and lack of attention. The greatest cause is lack of plenty of fresh air at all times, without drafts.

Sunshine in abundance is one of the best croup and cold cures and preventives known. In one house where the birds had access to the outside yards at any and all times, it was noticed that the birds contracted fewer cases of colds. Give your birds an opportunity of running out at any and all times. It will keep them strong.

Cull every month and especially early in the fall, disposing of all weak and inferior specimens. It has been noticed that the smallest and weakest birds in the flock are always the first to catch cold. Birds in a weakened condition on account of lice are apt to be attacked with cold and roup. Apply blue ointment (poison) to kill the lice. It has been our observation that hens fed wet mash were more liable to contract colds than those fed dry mashes; also that a draft upon the floor, especially if it strikes the shanks of the birds, is a very common cause of colds. A deep, dry, loose litter has been found to make a very good floor, while cement floors have proven very injurious. Our opinion is that plenty of fresh air, sunshine, dry quarters, strong stock and a daily disinfection, such as previously described, will do more to prevent roup and colds than anything else.

In the states of California and Ohio, and perhaps others, they are now vaccinating to prevent roup and chicken pox. However, this must be done carefully. No doubt time will develop this idea to perfection, and then we will be better able to control these diseases.

Another method worthy of consideration is to breed from naturally immune birds, gradually building up a line of birds which are not susceptible to these diseases. This is being practiced with fair success in the case of chicken pox or sorehead. Constitutional vigor spells success.

Farmers Warned Not to Plant too Much Cotton in '22

Warning is being sent out all over the state by bankers, agricultural agents and chambers of commerce against over planting of cotton for 1922. Owing to the continued drought which has prevailed over the state for the past few months cutting the wheat crop short, the fear is that a large acreage of cotton will be planted causing the price of this product to fall below the cost of production and placing the farmers in the same condition they were in during 1920-21.

The following letter was received here by a local banker, a few days ago, from E. F. Shropshire, Sec'y-Treas. of the Better Agricultural Association of Texas. Similar letters have been received from other sources and it would be a good idea for the farmers to study this question before the planting of another cotton crop:

As a banker, you know the extreme dry weather that has prevailed for some months has prevented the sowing of as large an acreage to small grain as was generally expected. This acreage will be planted to cotton and probably a further increase, at the expense of other food and feed crops, will be planted to cotton, unless heroic efforts are made by bankers, business men and leading farmers throughout the State to prevent it.

No greater mistake, in our judgment, can be made by our people in 1922 than to abandon the safe and sane diversified program as practiced in 1921 in the production of an independent living at home, and get back to an all cotton crop.

No less an authority than Governor W. P. G. Harding of the Federal Reserve Board, in his recent report to Congress made this observation:—"That 3,000,000 bales of cotton grown in a given year will bring to the producers and the people of the South more money than a 13,000,000 bale crop."

We ask you, as a banker and leading citizen of your County, to give us your earnest co-operation and support with your customers and friends, with your Local and County Chambers of Commerce, farmer organizations and local State press in putting over in the next 60 days the program of the United Campaign for Better Agriculture to maintain the present extent of diversified farming and prevent any increase in the present cotton acreage for 1922, as we believe that existing world economic and financial conditions and heavy losses from root rot, boll worm and boll weevil warn us that the best interest of all our people will be best served by this program.

We will appreciate from you a word of approval of this program. Yours very truly, E. F. Shropshire, Manager.

Mexican Population Is Estimated at Over Thirteen Million

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 29.—According to a tabulation of census figures received at Juarez, Mex., the estimated population of the Republic of Mexico is 13,637,779, which is more than a million short of the population figures of 1910. The figures came from the National Director of Statistics and Census, and are based on reports received from all of the States and districts. However, it is explained that figures from some of the States are incomplete, and that the total given in some instances are necessarily estimates. Population of the Republic in 1910 was slightly in excess of 15,000,000.

Mexico City, or the Federal district, has gained 127,196 inhabitants since 1910. The population figures are now 847,942.

The population of Chihuahua State is given as 397,998. The State of Jalisco has the largest population of any State. The table shows it has 1,190,446 persons within its borders.

Vera Cruz is next, with a population of 1,046,054.

More Poultry is Needed On the Farms of Texas

More than $43,000,000 worth of poultry and poultry products were raised, sold or consumed in Texas in 1919. The interest manifested in the industry would indicate that the annual value of poultry to Texas was even larger in 1920 and 1921. The poultry flocks of the State bring to producers a greater income by $10,000,000 than do the dairy cows. Even so, the industry is yet in an undeveloped stage, comparatively speaking. There are many thousands of farms in Texas where a chicken or turkey is unknown. There are many thousands of other farms where nothing but scrubs are kept and these received very little attention. If the industry was developed to a reasonable degree every farm would have its flock of poultry and most of them would have either purebreds or good grades.

No doubt many of our one crop farmers who have held to the opinion that poultry is just an excuse to keep the women folks out of the cotton fields, have taken note of his neighbor who has been supplying the market this fall and winter with turkeys at 30 cents a pound and more, making from one load of turkeys more than many cotton farmers have made from ten acres of staple. If observations of this kind have the proper and logical effect, Texas will continue to lead other States in the Nation in the production of this great American bird.

A few good cows and a flock of good poultry properly attended to has kept thousands of Texas families supplied with many of the necessities of life this past year. There is no excuse whatever for any farmer to be without either. Let the farmers of Texas begin the new year with the resolve to produce their own poultry and dairy products and also their own vegetables and pork in 1922.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE ON BONUS FINANCE PROBLEM

Washington, Feb. 7.—The problem of selecting revenue sources to defray the cost of a soldiers' bonus measure rested today in the hands of the majority members of the house ways and means committee, and the senate finance committee. Informing the majority members of the two committees at a White House conference late yesterday that whatever bonus bill was enacted should carry a revenue provision. President Harding joined in an agreement that they should confer jointly on the question of how the revenue should be raised, with the understanding that when a decision was reached it should be submitted to the president.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN VENTURES TO SPEAK ON MATTERS PERTAINING TO REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION

William Jennings Bryan has come to the front again, after a long silence, and his political opinion is always read with interest. Mr. Bryan has always been considered as a man of vision, and while he has been adversely criticized, he has always had a following because his opinions have been along lines of justice, morality and democracy. Mr. Bryan was with the Democratic leaders this week, to take part in shaping the party policies for the coming campaign, and he believes the Republican administration is facing disaster, because of the gross mismanagement of the business and political affairs of the country. Mr. Bryan was opposed to the anti-lynching bill. He favors a four-power treaty with reservations; he believes it would be a grave mistake for the United States to ratify the treaty without a reservation giving this country the right to act independently in event of trouble. He says independent action is merely implied in the proposal as it now stands, and it should be written into the document in no uncertain terms.

The Commoner thinks the using of taxes on automobiles to pay bonuses to soldiers would create an unfavorable impression, and taking the whole trend of Republican activity, he believes public sentiment is reacting against the administration, and that the prospects are good for the election of a Democratic Congress next fall.

Mr. Bryan is in favor of the agricultural "bloc," believing it to be a happy contrast to what was called "Wall Street bloc," which has operated for thirty years. He also thinks the Revenue Act is one of the strongest arguments against the Republican administration.

Regarding the effects of the present administration on agriculture, labor and industrial matters in general, the Commoner says:

"Farmers make up one-third of the country's population. They are in a worse condition than they have been for more than thirty years. Laborers are dissatisfied because wages have been reduced quite generally, while the cost of living has not been reduced to the same extent. Business is not good generally. The country is not so prosperous as it was two years ago. A great many people are influenced by those conditions in their votes. The Republicans always said that if business was good, no explanations were necessary. But business is not good now."

FORD RETAIL SALES GO OVER MILLION

Retail sales of Ford cars, trucks and Fordson tractors have again exceeded the million mark for the year 1921, according to a statement given out today by the Ford Motor Company.

The Ford factory and assembly plant production figures reached a total of 1,050,740 cars, trucks and tractors for the year, with retail sales by dealers approximating 1,093,000, which in the United States alone surpassed the 1920 retail sales record by 104,213 Ford cars and trucks.

The Ford Company says the outlook for 1922 is decidedly optimistic. In fact, concrete evidences already exist in that car and truck retail sales for December 1921, exceeded December 1920 sales by almost 25 per cent, and Fordson tractor retail sales for the same periods show an increase of over 100 per cent for December 1921, as well as an increase over the total tractor sales for the month of November.

These facts seem to indicate that not only are the farmers buying more freely, but that the general public is becoming more responsive and receptive.

Another point brought out by a comparison of production figures for the past two years show that Ford enclosed cars are gaining in popularity, as 23 per cent of the 1921 production were Sedans and Coupes as against a total of 18 per cent for the previous year.

Recent reductions in Ford car and truck prices brought them to a new low level. The Touring car now sells for $348, the Runabout for $319, the Coupe for $580, the Sedan for $645, the Chassis for $285, and the Truck for $430, all F. O. B. Detroit.

This is the fourth price cut in the past sixteen months. During that time the price of the Touring car alone has been cut from $575 to $348, a reduction of 40 per cent. Reductions on some of the other types have been even greater.

The Ford Company believes that this reduction, while not a large one, is especially important at this time as it should go a long way toward stabilizing market conditions.

Ford is giving employment at present to approximately 40,000 men in his main plant at Detroit, the importance of which is emphasized when consideration is given to the fact that nearly 20 per cent of the city's population is directly dependent upon the Ford Motor Company.

Savings Savings Savings

We are creatures of habit. We succeed or we fail as we acquire good habits or bad ones. And we acquire good habits as easily as bad ones. Most people do not believe this. Only those who find it out succeed in life.

Most of us have found out that there is no quick easy way to get rich. We are beginning to realize that if we ever have anything we must do without some things we would like to have and save nickles, dimes, quarters and dollars.

Our Savings Department offers you an absolutely safe place to leave these small sums until you have enough to make an investment, and will pay you four per cent interest, credited semi-annually.

Any officer of this bank will gladly discuss the Savings Department with any boy or girl or other person who may be interested.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. M. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night. I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.

Some Things Of Interest About Income Reports

Former soldiers and sailors, in filing an income-tax return for 1921, should not include as gross income any amount received under the provisions of the war risk insurance and vocational rehabilitation acts and as pensions from the United States for military or naval service during the war.

The special exemption of $3,500 formerly allowed soldiers and sailors in active service is not continued by the revenue act of 1921. "Persons in active military or naval service of the United States" are allowed only the exemptions granted other individuals. $1,000 if single (or if married and not living with husband or wife); $2,500 if married and the combined net income of husband and wife was $5,000 or less; and $2,000 if married and the combined net income of husband and wife was more than $5,000.

An unmarried soldier, sailor, marine, or ex-service man must file a return if his net income from all sources for 1921 was $1,000 or more or if his gross income was $5,000 or more. If married and living with his wife on December 31, 1921, he must file a return if the net income of himself and wife and dependent minor children was $2,000 or more, or if the combined gross income was $5,000 or more.

Much Treasure Recovered From Sunken Liner

London. — Nearly $28,000,000 worth of bullion has been recovered from the liner Laurentic, which was sunk in January 1917, off the North coast of Ireland by a German submarine.

Operations have been suspended for the winter, but they will be resumed again in the spring when an effort will be made to recover the remaining $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of bullion which is said to be still at the bottom of the sea. Great difficulties have been encountered by the salvage crew, for after three years pounding by the Atlantic swells the liner has been transformed into a heap of twisted debris. Her decks which settled down on the sea bottom, cover an area of several hundreds of feet. The wreck was practically covered with gravel and silt, as is in a position which it received the full force of the Atlantic gales.

This obstruction had to be removed, as far as possible, by powerful pumps placed in position by the divers as the gold was at the bottom of the huge mass of wreckage.

Where Service is Real, Prices Fair and Quality Consistent

She reports that her brother-in-law, Mr. Lynn Knotts, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the sanitarium in Lubbock is improving sufficiently to return to his home in Oklahoma.

As I sat by my window,
And saw the gay crowd
Of school girls and boys passing by,
I recall one bright moment of my early youth,
Which remains as though time did not fly.

I see happy faces,
And hear a sweet voice
From a small tot of eight,
Years or nine.
As she holds a pink heart
For her comrade to see,
And I catch these words,
"My Valentine."

My memory reverts to the first one I got,
With its Red hearts and Cupids in blue,
And the verse said: "I love you, My Sweet Valentine,
Three letters will spell 'all I want, You.'"

I am sure, in our city of Lubbock today,
There is no one exempt from the joy,
Which was given by a Valentine, once you received,
From your sweetheart, a girl or a boy.

Let us laugh with the "Kiddies"
And grown ups as well,
Who embrace this old custom so dear,
In which to remember the one you love best,
And encourage kind thoughts and good cheer.

THEY APPEAL TO OUR SYMPATHIES

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. Many such, however, have been completely restored to health by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets strengthen the stomach, invigorate the liver and improve the digestion. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. When you have any trouble with your stomach, give them a trial. 464f
