

Mennonites Colonizing in Mexico—Will Add Much Prosperity to That Country As They are a Very Thrifty People

The departure of two trainloads of Mennonites from Saskatchewan, Canada, marks the beginning of another big migration of people of that faith. It is one of a series of journeys the Mennonites have been making at intervals since their organization was first formed in the 16th century. This time they are on their way to form a great colony in southern Chihuahua and northern Durango.

The Mennonites came into being after the Reformation. The sect was organized by Menno Simons, a former Catholic priest, from scattered members of the Anabaptists who had come into conflict with the authorities in Switzerland, Germany, Moravia, and Holland and were finally dispersed through the capture in 1535 of Munster, to which various bodies of the persecuted enthusiasts had flocked.

By means of very strict discipline and careful teaching, Menno gathered his followers into a compact, ascetic organization. It spread through Switzerland, southern Germany and Austria, and thence, because of persecution in those countries, to Moravia and Holland.

Finally it made its way to the United States. One branch also located in Canada. The Mennonites in the United States have increased until the membership now is about 65,000, divided into ten sub-sects, each differing a little from the others. One reference authority gives the number of Mennonites in Canada at about 17,000, but it has been understood at least 20,000 would take part in the great migration to Mexico.

The Mennonite doctrine is very similar to that of the Reformed church, the religious tenets being embodied in "A Declaration of the Chief Articles of Our Common Faith," adopted in conference in Dort, Holland, 1632.

They baptize (by pouring) on confession of faith. They are pacifists in principle and practice, holding to a policy of non-resistance. They also are averse to holding office except in connection with school management, and refuse to take oaths. The United States Mennonites claim distinction in that the community at Germantown, Pennsylvania, founded in 1683, made the first protest on this continent against the slave trade.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper is celebrated twice a year, as a rule. In some branches this is preceded by the examination of members as to the state of their souls, and in a number of branches it is either preceded or followed by the ceremony of foot washing.

After having made farm-homes in western Canada and built up many towns and villages as business and social centers in their communities, this division of the Mennonites is removing to Mexico in search of new homes and greater freedom.

The army of immigrants, equipped with household goods, farm implements and perhaps livestock, will be of profound influence in north-

SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION

Theodor's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficacy of Theodor's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour-stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver."

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Theodor's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Theodor's.

ern Mexico. Having broken the Canadian wilderness and made it flourish with crops, they will not be easily discouraged with any obstacle they have to overcome in Mexico where the mild climate and the longer growing seasons will work to their advantage.

With the cooperation of the Mexican government and all possible assistance, they will build up new homes, farms, villages and towns. They will have schools, churches and stores.

Two big developments are under way. The subdivision and colonization of the Terrazan estate is one. The colonization by the Mennonites is the other. Both are important.

The Honeymoon Now and What It Used to Be

Gone are the good old days when John and Mary went bravely to the altar and pledged their troth in the face of the fact that their sole capital consisted of a few silver dollars, two strong bodies, four willing hands and two hearts that beat as one.

In the little cottage by the side of the road were a rude table, two chairs, a stove, a bed and a few stone china dishes.

That was all except the abounding joy of their young hearts, which made the cottage a palace and John and Mary king and queen of their sacred domain.

They expected to share each other's burdens, and they did. They expected success, and it came.

And with success came the looking back to the old days of mutual toil and sacrifice as the happiest days of their lives.

Now, all of this is changed. John must have a car and Mary must wear a squire. The cottage by the side of the road must be a modern bungalow with rugs and period furniture to match father's.

Then, too, the strain of keeping up with the procession often robs life of its simple joys. Mary's demands irritate John, and John's inability irritates Mary. Clashes become more and more frequent until by and by their love dream becomes a painful tragedy.

In this complete age it would be difficult to go back to the old ways of simplicity and honest content. But an emulation of the spirit of simplicity that characterized the old days would work wonders toward restoring life to a more normal plane.—Shreveport Times.

CITIZENS OF LEVELAND TO HAVE POST OFFICE

The Postoffice department has granted a postoffice to Leveland, and the mail is now being carried there, awaiting the regular contract with some local carrier.

Leveland is the coming county-site of Hockley county, and is making growth by leaps and bounds, which is typical of all towns in this section where there is a desire within the hearts of the citizens to progress and we are all mighty proud of the neighboring city.

—May those good people continue to meet with success in their undertakings is a hearty wish from the Avalanche.

AUSTIN MINISTERS TO WAR ON BOOTLEG

An aggressive campaign is to be inaugurated shortly under auspices of the Austin Ministerial Association against what is alleged to be "whole-sale bootlegging in Austin." This announcement was made Tuesday. The ministers claim that liquor is being flagrantly sold in this city and even among students of the university.

Franklin D. Brown and W. J. Duncan, left Monday morning for Santa Fe, N. M., to be in attendance as witnesses in Federal Court now in session at that place. Our readers will recall each of these gentlemen had the misfortune of having a car stolen from them last Fall, which was later recovered in New Mexico. They will probably return the latter part of this week.

District Attorney Gordon B. McGuire of Lamesa, was in attendance at the close of District Court last Saturday. Judge McGuire has had a busy term in criminal matters at this term, as well as a large portion of his time being consumed by assisting the Grand Jury.

W. C. Rylander and S. P. Robbins, both of the Big 3 Agency, of this city, are unable to be on the job the last few days on account of sickness.

State Supervisor Will Visit Lubbock County Schools

Tuesday, March 14, 1922, Grovesville, Hardy, Monroe and Vaughn. Wednesday, March 15, 1922, Cannon, Acuff, McClung and Posey.

Thursday, March 16, 1922, New Hope, Union, Woodrow, Slide and Foster.

Friday, March 17, 1922, Carlisle, Shallowater, Pettit and Caldwell.

Friday will be a Gala Day for the Caldwell people. This community has decided to have an all-day program, and dinner on the ground. Several prominent speakers will be present to deliver addresses, among them Representative R. A. Baldwin of Slaton, W. C. Rylander of Lubbock, and several others I do not recall.

The County Superintendent of Schools and W. H. Bowman will complete their inspection on this date, at Caldwell, and participate in the festivities of the day.

E. R. HAYNES, County Supt. of Schools.

CALOMEL USERS TAKE AWFUL RISK

Very Next Dose of Treacherous Drug May Start Terrible Salivation

The next dose of calomel you take may salivate you. It may shock your liver or start bone necrosis. Calomel is dangerous. It is mercury, quicksilver. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

SHALLOWATER BOY KILLED

Orin Mapes, 8 years and 3 months old son of A. M. Mapes, of near Shallowater, was accidentally killed Saturday, when he fell from a horse on the Mullican ranch, 15 miles northwest of here. He died immediately his neck having been broken. The burial was held at Lubbock cemetery Sunday afternoon. Our deepest sympathies go out to this family in this sad hour of bereavement.

SOME THINGS THE RED CROSS IS FINDING IN LUBBOCK AND YOUR ASSISTANCE WILL BE NEEDED

In reporting the Shoe Incident of the Red Cross in the Tuesday's edition of the Avalanche five pairs of shoes were mentioned and only four stores named as donating these shoes. This was simply a mistake in writing and The Leader's pardon is hereby begged for they are always ready to carry their end of every proposition that comes up. In this particular instance The Leader was one of the five stores furnishing shoes for these children.

Some of the other stores at various times have furnished various other supplies and almost without an exception have seemed glad of the privilege of helping in this good work. You know folks are a queer lot, after all. It was mentioned that one store in town refused to carry their part of this obligation and would you believe it, at least a dozen folks have phoned trying to find out who that was. Just like it makes any difference. Don't you reckon that any man that would feel like that or take that attitude toward such a cause has troubles enough living with himself without having folks talking bad about him on the side? Naturally he is not a member of the Chamber of Commerce, nor the School Board, nor an active worker in any church—infact it is a safe bet that he will vote against the School Tax.

The average man does not stop to think that our little city could possibly have much need for such assistance from its citizens to care for the poor in the city. There were from ten to twenty-five families in Lubbock went to bed hungry last night—while you threw out enough food to feed one whole family. There were fifty children in the city under clothed during the last cold spell—not to mention lack of bed clothes, coal and other comforts, while your closets are stacked full of old clothing that would fit some of them.

The Red Cross has begged for these old clothes—and you are so busy that you haven't taken the time to get it out and send it down to them. One or two have phoned down that they had clothing and because the Red Cross didn't send a car up after it immediately have gotten mad and thrown the stuff away, with, "They will know when I work myself to death getting old clothes for them again." Did you stop to think that the local Chapter of the Red Cross is nobody else except you. That the secretary has possibly fifty families to look after. That requires from two to five miles of walking in a day and that you are just as able to bring that stuff down as she is to come after it—or that you have just as much time and it is just as much your obligation to take it down as George Briggs, the Red Cross Chairman who already gives it a lot of time, using his car to run around over the country looking after special cases, or Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Arnett, Mrs. Oliver or any of a dozen others who have given time, thought and money to the organization.

Come down off of your high horse and help carry a part of the responsibilities of the Red Cross and the other organizations of the city and you will like yourself better and be liked a good sight better by your neighbors, your friends and folks in general.

The Red Cross Secretary went into one home this week with five of them eating, sleeping and having their whole being in one room. Widow with four children, and two of them in bed sick. The boy, about fourteen, with broncho-pneumonia, had been eating beans and potatoes with a high fever—simply because they didn't have anything else to give him and were very thankful to get even that. The Red Cross gave them groceries for the sick, milk and such food, some coal and the Secretary makes regular visits into the home to see that they are cared for.

In another home with four children, they were all sleeping in one room—and without a single bedstead in the house. Their beds being made flat on the floor. They had no coal and not enough cover and actually suffered during the recent cold spell.

A number of cases of this kind could be mentioned but these give you an idea of what is happening right here in Lubbock. There is no use to try to hide it or cover it up as something for the town to be ashamed of. Since the world began cities and towns have had their problems of this kind, but it is only of late years that attention has been directed toward correcting the condition. Oh, spasmodically at Christmas time or maybe Thanksgiving somebody distributed several packages of various kinds among the poor, with out regard to their needs or improvement and that was all.

Constructive charity along a recognized line looking toward a real solution of their problem with the most effective expenditure of the money least, that is the local Red Cross' problem. Help them reach the poor effectively.

Details of Soldier Bonus Measure Are Worked Out by House Republican Leaders

NEGROES DRILLING IN THE MEXIA OIL FIELD

Dusky "Big Slim" Simmons, of Houston, may become the Crippled Croesus of the "Golden Lane."

Big Slim drifted into the Mexia oil fields the early part of the month with a gang of blacks and announced he was ready to start drilling. Big Slim, has his own company. They control a ten-acre lease which they obtained from Mrs. M. B. Kemp, a white woman.

"No white man can own an interest in my company," Simmons declared.

Simmons, a powerful negro, lost a leg in a railroad accident several years ago. He walks with a crutch. Although Big Slim will be the first negro to drill for oil in the "Golden Lane," as the Mexia gusher pool is known, a peculiar fact is that most of his liquid-gold and was owned by negroes when oil was first discovered. Many have disposed of their oil royalties. Some have refused to sell and several are very wealthy.

Andy Eckels, negro grocery store proprietor, former slave, who owns a half block west of Mexia has consistently refused to sell. "I'll take a $1,000,000 for my land," is his reply to all offers. I'm contented here. There ain't going to be no tent nor oil well to dirty up my back yard."

MRS. HINTON OFFERS FOR COUNTY TREASURER AGAIN

Mrs. Mary F. Hinton authorizes us to place her name in the announcement columns of the Avalanche this issue, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer. Mrs. Hinton is now serving her second term as County Treasurer, and desires re-election to that office.

Mrs. Hinton has been faithful to the duties of the office, acting at all times in accordance with the requirements of the office to the best of her knowledge and ability, and we are sure that no more faithful, conscientious, honest person can be found to fill the position.

W. V. Ballew, of Amarillo, is in the first of the week in the interest of J. A. Folger & Company, Manufacturers and Importers.

Washington, March 3.—The working out of details of the compromise soldiers bonus bill was completed today by the special sub-committee of the House Ways and Means Committee of Republicans and it was announced that the re-drafted measure would be presented to the entire committee membership, Republicans and Democrats, next Tuesday.

The perfected plan will be submitted to the majority membership Monday. Chairman Fordney and other members said they did not think it would be necessary to present the bill to a Republican conference, but added the measure probably would not be reported to the House for ten days or two weeks so as to give members ample time in which to study the compromise.

One important change in the original adjusted service certificate title was made today and members estimated that this would reduce the total ultimate cost of the bonus by perhaps as much as half a billion dollars. Under this change the face value of the certificate would be the sum of the adjusted service pay plus 25 per cent instead of forty per cent, as originally proposed plus interest at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent a year, compounded annually.

The maximum interest rates which banks could charge in making loans to the holders of the certificates was fixed at the amount of the redemption rate charged by the Regional Federal Reserve banks plus two and a new provision. If a service man defaulted in payments to the bank and the bank made demand on the government, at the end of three years for the amount due, the government, instead of taking over and carrying the loan, would cash the certificate at its then value.

If all of the service men took certificates and held them until maturity twenty years after their issue, it was estimated that the cost of the bonus to the government would be approximately $4,000,000,000.

It was figured, however, that through borrowing and forefeitures, this cost would be reduced by something like a billion dollars.

A Full Statement of Facts Concerning The Whipping of Catholic Priest at Slaton Last Sat. Night by Masked Men

Slaton, Texas, March 5, 1922.—The following is the statement issued by a mass meeting of Slaton citizens Sunday afternoon, following the tarring of Rev. J. M. Keller, local catholic priest, last night by a band of masked men. The statement was read in all the local protestant churches tonight, and was signed by a large number of leading citizens, both protestants and catholics.

"We, the undersigned citizens of Slaton, Texas, and of Slaton community, desire to make the following statement relative to the tarring and feathering and whipping of J. M. Keller, Catholic priest of St. Joseph Parish, of Slaton, to the effect that an official and authentic and impartial statement of the facts may be received by the world.

"This statement represents the true and intelligent sentiment of Slaton and community, and is signed by both Catholics and Protestants.

"While we deeply regret that such an occurrence was necessary, after repeated efforts had been made to induce said Keller to give up his position as parish priest, yet we express it as our conviction that the occurrence will redound to the best interests of this community, both Catholics and Protestants.

"We wish to make it clear that in our opinion and judgment, as representative citizens of this community, that the action against said priest is not a particle of evidence or indication that there is any ill feeling at all against any person in this community because he or she may happen to be of German blood or of the Catholic faith; but, on the other hand, with the lone exception of said Keller, the kindest feeling and relationship has always existed and now exists between the protestants and catholics of this community, and will continue to exist between all our good and loyal citizens notwithstanding blood or religious faith.

"We wish further to make it clear that there is not a particle of opposition on the part of the good and intelligent protestants of Slaton and community to the parochial schools of this community, but on the other hand said schools are looked upon as an asset to us.

"We desire, further, most emphatically to say that, since the said Rev. Rev. J. M. Keller, catholic priest, who has been rector of St. Joseph Parish since 1916, was taken from his home here last night about 8:30 o'clock by a band of masked men, spirited out of town a short distance and whipped, after which he was treated to a coat of tar and feathers, and left alone at the place of the occurrence to find his way home.

Such is the gist of the story gleaned by Constable W. T. Brown, J. S. Edwards, J. R. McAtee and others who visited the priest at his home upon his return from the party.

The local paper had put on a subscription contest, with an automobile as the prize, which campaign closed Saturday night at nine o'clock and a large number of people were on the streets and about the Slatonite office, when word was received from the catholic parsonage that the priest, J. M. Keller, had been shot. J. R. McAtee and J. W. Nesbitt, prominent citizens and catholics, and among the leaders of the catholic congregation in opposition to the priest, immediately communicated with the parsonage by telephone, and were answered by Constable Brown, who advised that the two girls living in the house in which the priest resided had informed him that a bunch of men had come and carried the priest away. That one shot had been fired, but it was not known whether or not anyone had been hit. It was not until later in the night that the information was definitely gained that no one was hurt.

The two girls living in the priest's home were named Brosch, and were keeping house for him. According to Constable Brown, who was the first one to the house after the priest had been taken away, the girls were badly frightened and did not know whether or not the men were masked. They said the men had told them to go into another room and be quiet and that no harm would come to them. They promptly obeyed.

After the news became known on the streets, J. S. Edwards, ex-banker and ranchman, J. R. McAtee, prominent capitalist and catholic, and others went to the priest's home and found him covered with tar and feathers, and complaining of his heart, but otherwise seemed to have suffered no ill effects from the whipping he said he received. Mr. Edwards went after Dr. W. A. Tucker, who supervised removing the tar from the victim.

Keller told them that he had been jerked and wanted to leave the county by noon Sunday and not to return, and that he had agreed to comply with the demand. He said the men told him that what he had received would be only as a breakfast spell to what would be done to him if he did not go and remain away.

Sunday morning Keller was taken to Lubbock, where he boarded a train for Amarillo, saying he was going from there to Dallas. What his plans are for the future were not disclosed.

Keller has served as rector of the local catholic church since before the war, and he occasioned much unfavorable criticism of himself during the war, being openly accused of being pro-German. It is understood that when he some months ago applied for final citizenship papers in the Federal Court at Amarillo, certain citizens, some of them members of his own congregation, appeared against him, prominent among them being Paul P. Murray, present justice of the peace at Slaton, and that he not only was denied citizenship, but his first papers were revoked by the court. It is reported that Keller later put out the report that he had been to Amarillo and had his first papers restored, but this report has been denied by prominent members of his congregation, who demanded to see the papers, but that Keller did not have them.

Sunday afternoon a mass meeting of prominent protestants and catholics was held in Slaton, at which the many speakers told of the efforts that had been made repeatedly to cause Keller to be removed from the Slaton parish, all of which had been unavailing, and that requests and demands from his own congregation from his resignation were ignored, and those present at the meeting were unanimous in their approval of the action of the tar and feather party. Many stated that such action was the only means of effecting to accomplish his removal. Three protestant ministers of Slaton attended the mass meeting. The catholics present were Paul P. Murray, J. R. McAtee, J. W. Nesbitt, L. J. Strube and W. L. Meurer, all prominent citizens of this community. R. A. Baldwin, local attorney, presided at the meeting.

At the mass meeting an official statement was prepared and signed by all present. The feeling and relation between protestants and catholics of Slaton have always been and now are pleasant and cordial, and the statement issued made it clear that in the opinion of those present the action against the priest was not because of any ill feeling on the part of protestants against the catholics of the Germans, who make up the major portion of the catholic congregation. Also, it was the desire of the meeting to make known that Keller's successor as head of St. Joseph parish would be welcomed and supported by all good citizens of Slaton. One significant paragraph in the statement issued reads as follows:

"We desire, further, most emphatically to say that, since the said Rev. Keller has left Slaton, in accordance with instructions he stated the tar and feather party had given him, that the good people of Slaton will gladly welcome and support his successor as the head of St. Joseph parish, provided he be a clean Christian gentleman of high and loyal sentiments and ideals, and a loyal American. Such a man will be an asset to us and not a liability."

After the mass meeting the crowd went to the parochial school and read the statement to the Mother Superior and sisters there, to assure them that they had nothing to fear. At the close the Mother Superior stated:

"We spent a sleepless night last night, because we were fearful that perhaps the action against the priest indicated ill feeling against us by religious bigots because we were catholics."

It is stated by those who called on Keller last night that he told them the men who waited on him said the party was not any Ku Klux Klan but that it was composed of five hundred loyal citizens of Slaton and Lubbock, who were watching him, and that the tar and feather party were half catholics and half protestants.

MOTHER, QUICK! GIVE CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP FOR CHILD'S BOWELS

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle, or you may get an imitation-fig syrup. 10-13

THE VALUE OF PROPER HEALTH HABITS FOR THE CHILD

By Miss M. Moss Richardson
Member of Consulting Board Bureau of Child Hygiene

No man can adequately forecast the value of proper health habits for a child. From cotton-seed, one produces cotton; from peach trees, peaches; from narcissus bulbs, narcissus blooms. Each seed, slip, or bulb reproduces according to type. In no realm is this truisim better illustrated than in that of health. A man can afford to fail as a grower of cotton, a cultivator of peaches, or a producer of flowers but if a man fails as a parent, he has failed indeed, and great is his failure.

Since the ladder of life has its foot on the ground, the value of that ground, of the physical life can scarcely be over estimated. The parent's first obligation is to start right health habits in the little child. As well might one expect to produce peaches from a rose-bush, as to expect a child nourished on a diet of fried eggs and meat to take naturally to milk and fruit as food.

The open mind of the little child is the medium through which the man seven decades later sees. The mother, then, can well afford to work hard for seven years to inculcate the right habits, knowing that the boy of sixteen will have many of his battles won through right habits grounded in the boy of six. If the baby resents being kissed or cries when he is not clean; if the small son is ill at ease until his teeth are brushed after each meal; or if his sister can not rest with her dolls lying all over the floor,—victory is practically won. This sowing of good habits will produce a profusion of a quick harvest.

A single instance of a quick harvest we older people have reaped is seen in our changed attitude toward the housefly. As children in the primary grades, many of us gleefully sang:

"Baby bye,
Here's a fly
Let us watch him,
You and I."

Now the only possible introduction such a song could receive into the primary world would be via the substitution of the meaningless word Syrt for the mild one Watch. And why? Because the crusade of health and sanitation to the grewsome tune of "Typhoid and the Fly" has reached the nation and the fly must go, even from babyland, and the last realm to get its rights.

Except in rare instances, such as this one just mentioned, our adult population has hardened in habit of health or unhealth, but the little child has an open mind. We can build the wall at the top of the precipice instead of preparing an ambulance or horse to stay at the bottom. Early training in care of the teeth, prevention of colds, or isolation of patients with colds, cleanliness of the body, right sleeping and feeding habits will go far toward constructing the fence of safety. Right health habits, made automatic before the child's memory wakens, will cause the child of ten to feel stronger; the youth of twenty to bless his parents for the self-control they have made possible; the man of thirty to thank them for buoyancy and continued youth; the adult of forty to rejoice in serenity and victory over the hidden enemies; and the grizzled veteran of fifty or sixty to be grateful for his continued usefulness.

Steady nerves, sound health, and mental poise are far more the product of correct health habits than most of us are willing to acknowledge. Now is the time to prepare the soil and the seed and to see that the right seed are planted if we expect our children to rise up and call us blessed. And in achieving this desideratum, an ounce of example is worth a pound of nagging.

Cattle Industry Suffers for Lack Of Information

The greatest drawback to the cattle industry of Texas is the lack of accurate information regarding the available supply of the state. Robt. B. Hammond, a Texas cattle breeder and an Illinois feeder, told live stock men in Chicago a few days ago that if the Department of Agriculture would be performing a valuable service to the stock industry if accurate information was obtainable and made available to all. He stated that the cattle business is on a more or less haphazard basis for the lack of accurate figures.

The live stock report shows that about 375,000 head of cattle have been shipped to northern pastures and most of them were shipped from Texas.

"In spite of the post-war slump in cattle values, in which we all lost heavily, I am optimistic over the outlook.

"During the decline in values many producers lost from forty dollars to eighty dollars a head. It was a depreciation that could not possibly have been averted. Some so-called economists have sought to place blame on the present marketing system, but experience will convince anyone of the value of the competitive market.

"Nothing now affecting the live stock producer adversely can be remedied at the market. Our problems are almost entirely within the sphere of production."

19-YEAR SEARCH FOR MISSING LAD ENDS

Chicago, March 3.—A nineteen-year search for a missing man, which covered Europe, Asia and Australia and twice crossed the Atlantic into America was ended yesterday when Mrs. Idaho Shapiro of Chicago, was notified that her cousin, Bernard Friedman, had been located in New York.

Friedman, when 12 years old, wandered away from his home in Lund, Sweden, according to Mrs. Shapiro. His parents spent large sums of money in an effort to trace him but after several years of unsuccessful search they died. Mrs. Shapiro took up the search. She followed the trail through Europe into Asia and then to Australia. Ten years ago Mrs. Shapiro came to America, married, and settled in Chicago, but still continued the search.

An advertisement in a newspaper in New York finally called him to a younger sister there and the Shapiros were notified. Friedman is expected to arrive in Chicago within a few days.

A big phonograph company has failed. Its business played out.

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 6. The depression in lamb prices late last week proved only temporary and today with normal supplies offered, the market rallied 50 cents, to $15.50. A heavy run in Chicago weakened the hog market and declines spread to other points where receipts were moderate. Here the market was down 10 cents. Cattle receipts were the smallest of any Monday this year, and prices were 10 to 15 cents higher, under an active demand.

Today's Receipts.
Receipts today were 9000 cattle; 12,000 hogs, and 8000 sheep, compared with 13,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs and 11,000 sheep a week ago, and 14,500 cattle, 13,400 hogs, and 11,350 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle.
Trade in fat cattle opened early at strong to 15 cents higher prices, and retained the advance throughout the session. The market closed firm. There was a good demand for fat classes from Eastern Seaboard points, and heavy steers were wanted on an export order. Early sales were mostly at $7.75 to $8.25. Pulp red Colorado steers sold up to $8.05. Heavy cows were 10 to 15 cents higher, and others stronger. Veal calves, heifers and bulls were fully steady.

Stockers and Feeders.
Demand for stockers and feeders was active at strong prices compared with last week's best time and higher than last week's close. A large number of fleshy feeders sold at $7.50 to $7.75.

Hogs.
Chicago received 60,000 hogs today and the market there turned down 15 cents, and caused declines elsewhere. Here prices were down 10 cents to $11.20 and bulk of sales $10.80 to $11.10. At the decline both packers and shippers bought freely. Pigs sold at $9.75 to $10.50. If shippers would distribute supplies more evenly the market would be less liable to decline.

Sheep and Lambs.
Nine double-decks of fed lambs sold at $15.50 and other lambs $14.75 to $15.40 or 50 cents above last week's close. Practically no fat sheep were offered. They were quoted nominally higher.

Horses and Mules.
With receipts about the same as a week ago, there was a fairly good inquiry and prices for horses and mules held steady.

Rented Land Is Equal to Acreage In Seven States

Tenant farmers in the United States "rent land equal to the combined area of Texas, Illinois, Iowa, Arkansas, Michigan, Wisconsin and Florida," Dr. C. L. Stewart, land economist declared recently in analyzing figures issued by the department of agriculture, showing that farm tenancy is increasing more rapidly than census figures indicate. Tenants, he said operate 37 per cent of the farm lands of the country in 1920, representing 42 per cent of the improved acreage and 44 per cent of the total valuation of the improved and unimproved land.

Economists of the department emphasized that if all of the half billion dollars borrowed through the federal farm loan system in the last five years had been used to finance tenants in buying farms, instead of the five per cent of this amount used for land purchases by renters, the loan would have covered the first mortgages less than five per cent of the $28,000,000,000 worth of land under lease.

Rented Acreage Increases.
The 1920 census figures, it was stated, showed that acreage rented had increased 20 per cent since 1910, compared with 14 per cent in the preceding decade.

In point of acreage of all land rented, both Delaware and Illinois have long since passed the half way mark and in improved land rented the half way mark has now been passed in Alabama, Georgia, Iowa, Kansas, Mississippi, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas and Washington.

In value of farm real estate rented Illinois, Oklahoma, Mississippi and South Dakota show percentages above 50. The highest percentage of tenancy shown by any state on the basis of improved acreage is 59.8 for Georgia, while the highest on the basis of valuation is 60.3 for Illinois.

This is the second operation the young lady has gone through with, but the doctors thought the second one was necessary to make a complete cure.

Mrs. Hembree returned with her daughter to Abernathy Saturday evening without the young lady undergoing the operation referred to above. ## Meeting of Committees From Plains Towns and Intermediate Points Called in Fort Worth for March 18th by Ft. Worth Chamber

The Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce has called a meeting for March 18th, to take up the question of further discussing the Fort Worth and Plains railroad. The call for this meeting was sent out last week, and the date set for the 18th, so that it could be held during the fat stock show. This would give all towns who wish to send delegates to the meeting a chance to take advantage of the low rate on all roads leading in to Fort Worth.

Realizing that all West Texas is interested in this proposed road, the officials in charge of the meeting to be held, have determined upon an open program, and no proposed route has been outlined. Towns from all over West Texas have been writing to the Chamber of Commerce stating they will have a delegation at the meeting and each town will have their plans ready to place before the meeting, urging their claims as the most feasible route for the road. However, some of them have expressed themselves that if the road does not reach their immediate section, it will not lessen their enthusiasm in working for the road for the South Plains.

The present importance and future possibilities of this Plains area as a great producing section is indicated from the fact that one portion of it, composed of seventeen counties, produces annually more than 15,000,000 bushels of wheat, 10,000,000 bushels of row crops, 1,000 cars of alfalfa, 2,500 cars of hogs, 5,000 cars of cattle, 50,000 bales of cotton and approximately $10,000,000 in poultry each year.

The Plains territory is said to be the eventual strategic cotton producing area of Texas, due to the fact it is pointed out, that the high and dry country in which it is located, has much better resistance to the boll weevil. An instance of the possibilities of this section as a poultry raising country is cited in the fact that a single branch office of one concern made a profit last year of $38,000 in poultry.

It is also asserted in the analysis of the situation that the Plains country can never be a one-crop territory, as it produces heavily in grain, livestock, poultry and cotton.

No great engineering difficulties of grade and construction will have to be met, it is said, in building the road, with the exception of getting onto the caprock, and this will not prove an excessive cost, it is believed.

BOY SCOUT WORK ENCOURAGED BY KIWANIANS

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Kiwanis Club held at the office of the president, Dr. Hutchinson, it was decided that the club take a part in assisting the various committees on the Boy Scout work in furthering that good work.

Claud McDaniel and Rev. Bowen, both prominent among the work of the young people of Lubbock, were present and presented their side of the question with a strong appeal in favor of the boys, Rev. Bowen representing the scouts and Mr. McDaniel representing his class of Grammar School boys in the Radio work, explaining in detail the progress those boys have made in the work.

Kiwanis, it is needless to say, will assist in every way possible to carry on the work, and we are sure there are many other citizens in Lubbock outside of this organization and those already active in the work who will take an active part in the work.

W. V. Ballaw, representing J. A. Folger & Co was in the city the first of the week, making arrangements with some of the local merchants for a demonstration next week, of his well known brand of coffee. Special ads of these merchants will be found in other parts of this paper.

SAN ANGELO HAS THE LARGEST BABY BEEF CLUB

San Angelo, Texas, March 6.—In conformance with the plans outlined by the All-West Texas joint livestock-dairy-poultry campaign being propagated jointly by the Fort Worth Stockyards Co. and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, there has been organized in San Angelo what is reported to be one of the largest beef clubs in the history of West Texas. Over 70 boys have signed for memberships in the baby beef club. These clubs are being organized by Don Brown, County Agent. Each boy agrees to plant from three to five acres of sorghum grains, which grains are to be fed to the baby heaves. County Agent Brown estimates that as a result there will be at least two and possibly three solid car loads of beef shipped out of Tom Green County this fall.

The little flurry last Tuesday and Wednesday made us all shiver and want to get closer to the fire. The little snow was greatly appreciated by all of the farmers but more would be more appreciated.

SHALLOWATER NEWS ITEMS OF THE PAST WEEK

The County Trustees and Judge Haynes besides others, we did not learn their names passed through this place Tuesday morning on their way to the County Line and Hardy school.

A big prairie fire started in the Spade pasture Tuesday. It was put out within about three miles of this place. It will be quite a loss for the people west of here by losing their grass. There was no estimate of how many sections were burned.

On account of the sand storm Sunday not many were out to Sunday School and church. Our Superintendent and teachers ought to be congratulated for keeping up such an interest as to expect to have Sunday-School such a bad day.

Rev. Clinton preached both morning and evening.

Another number of our Lyceum course was given Friday evening to a large crowd. This number consisted of two young ladies, who entertained the audience well. Our next and last number will be in May.

Mr. Carter spent Monday night with Mrs. T. C. Calley.

Mrs. W. O. Sheely visited with friends at this place Tuesday.

During the cold spell last week a man and three children camped at this place who were in destitute condition as soon as the good people found it out they gathered up a lot of clothing and also took some provisions on to them. How awful it seems to our good people who always have plenty to eat and wear.

If it is not the finest to see poor little children with no shoes or stockings on and only the scantiest of clothing and had to stay in a wagon all covered up to try to stay warm in zero weather. This man said he had raised no crop in three years. How much we have got to be thankful for to know we live in Lubbock county where we do not have the total crop failures.

Late Friday afternoon the community was saddened by the news that little Elrin Mapes had been killed. He was riding a pony, one which he had rode to school all year. The pony stumbled in some way and threw him off with such force that he died before his father could pick him up. His father was riding another horse beside him. His funeral was held at the house Sunday afternoon. Not only will little Orin be missed by his father, mother, sisters and brothers, but by his teacher and all the primary pupils.

THE PNEUMONIA MONTH

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When given cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ-laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.

Dr. O. F. Peebler was operated on Sunday in a local sanitarium for appendicitis. At this writing he is reported as doing fine.

Drillers Held Up On Account of Breaking Drill

The drilling at the Bledsoe well is again delayed by the breaking of the drill stem one day last week. The well is now down to the depth of 8,850 feet and in a very good oil showing formation. After breaking the drill the drillers at once wired for tools to fish out the drill and as soon as it is removed, work will continue and if no bad luck arises they will go 45,00 feet, if necessary, making a thorough test for oil or gas.—Abernathy Review.

BROWNFIELD BOY INJURED BY HORSE KICK

L. C. Green Jr. son of L. C. Green of Brownfield was very seriously hurt last Tuesday by falling from a horse. It seems that the boy had been after his father all day to get him to agree for him to ride. After some time the father noticed the horse came into the lot somewhat excited. Upon investigation he found that the boy had either been thrown or had fallen off, being only five years old.

JOE BOYD INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Joe Boyd, well known local man had the misfortune a few days ago, of fracturing one of the minor bones in his leg. While trying to crank his car on one of those cold days, he forgot to throw it out of gear, and when the motor started the car lunged forward, running over him, with the above results. The accident was not as serious as it might have been, and Mr. Boyd is to be congratulated upon his narrow escape. We hope for him a speedy recovery, and a quick return to his duties.

Improvements in Canyon City For Last Year Amounts to $123,000—Looks Brighter for Coming Year Says J. L. McCarty

Canyon, Feb. 28.—Canyon, the busy and thriving city south of Amarillo, has had a steady growth for the past year and anticipates a better year in 1922. Over sixty-five buildings have been erected or remodeled during the last twelve months. These buildings for the most part have been substantial modern bungalows and represent the homes of permanent citizens. Some few houses built during this period totaled an investment of several thousand dollars. The bulk of the improvement has been in the east part of town. However, the west end of town has not been slow in building. Proximity to the college is probably responsible for the east receiving the greater amount of improvements. Five small business houses have been erected. However, two of these were made necessary by the fire which destroyed the south side of the square. Two business houses were erected adjoining the college campus.

In interviewing Mayor J. D. Gamble it was learned that Canyon is very careful about the water supply for her citizens—$6,000 having been expended on the water plant alone. A new well and a new engine with all new pumping equipment was installed. This has assured the city of an abundant supply of good water. A key rate of 59 cents on fire insurance is a thing of which the town is proud. The college is also proud of its water system, having erected at a cost of $10,000 a water tower with 50,000 gallon capacity. That a new well, and other improvements approximating $19,500 for the water system of the college this year. This making for the entire community, over $25,000 spent on the water supply alone. In addition the college in other improvements spent $30,500, including campus improvements, additional real estate and an infirmary for college students.

The citizenship of the town on raw material spent $70,000, according to local dealers. This means that the usual business depression has not prevented a steady growth. The total of the improvements then is approximately $123,000. Practically every dollar of this amount has been invested in permanent buildings. The coming year should show a larger amount spent on permanent improvements, especially since the proposed street paving is on docket. In addition more bricks will be placed on the south side of the square. One of these will probably be used as an armory for the Canyon contingent of National Guardsmen. With paved streets, an adequate water supply, and an ever increasing number of students to accommodate and an increasing agricultural growth, more business houses will be necessary and already there is need for dwelling and rooming houses. Consequently people are expecting more building for the next year than they have had for the past twelve months.

TEXAN OPPOSES U. S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Chicago, Ill., March 1.—A fight against the Sterling-Towner educational bill, providing for a Federal Department of Education, and an appropriation of $100,000,000 for educational aid, was underway in the superintendence department of the National Education Association here today. The resolutions committee of the department was expected to make a report on the bill late today. Indications were that the report of the committee would be divided with the possibility of a minority report against the Sterling-Towner measure. The attack on the bill was led by Alexander Inglis, professor of education at Harvard. Others opposed to the bill are W. S. Sutton, member of the faculty of the University of Michigan.

NO GOING BACK TO THE FARM FOR US

It has been recommended to Congress by some farmers throughout the country that an appropriation be made to gather in all the black snakes in the country, furnish them to the farmers to turn loose on the farms to assist in the destruction of rats and field mice. Think of it, going out in the field to plow in a field full of snakes. It would be worse than drinking moonshine whiskey. Nothing doing on the farm for us when snake farming is started.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE AT BRIDGE DEDICATION

Dalhart people who attended the opening of the Logan bridge Tuesday report a hair-raising experience at the dedication ceremonies at noon, when the 1500 or more people went on board the bridge for the formal dedication. The bridge is 738 feet long, and 125 feet high—one of the longest and highest arch bridges in the Southwest. While the brass band was playing some soul-stirring music with a rhythm that caused the immense crowd to sway in time with it the bridge itself caught up the time and began to sway with the crowd, the oscillation growing more and more even after the crowd "broke step," until it was found that a serious accident was imminent. It is reported that in the stampede that followed there were a few who fainted, and many who fell down. The effect produced, aside from the scare, was something of a sea-sickness, it is said, and the fright of the impending danger was terrific.—Dalhart Texan.

Fair Grading of Wheat Asked of The United States

Oklahoma City, March 1.—Demand for relief, both on behalf of the farmers and grain dealers, from the "unhappy financial condition of Southwestern farmers so far as sale of the wheat crop is concerned," was made here today by grain dealers from Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas, meeting with Federal Inspectors from the various supervision points of the Southwest. The grain dealers blamed the Federal Inspectors for the present condition.

The entire morning was devoted to a presentation of the case of the farmer and country grain dealer, speakers alleging numerous instances of unfairness in the grading of wheat by inspectors at various points, resulting in price ranges on the same wheat of from 95 cents to $1.30 a bushel. As a result, the speakers charged, the country grain dealer is placed in a position of being unable to tell how much he can safely offer a farmer on a load of wheat and the farmers have been ridiculously underpaid for this year's crop.

J. C. Mytinger of Wichita Falls and Jule G. Smith of Fort Worth were among the speakers for the grain dealers. S. J. Beasley, chief of the grain division of the Department of Agriculture, presided, representing the inspectors and supervisors will be held tomorrow in an effort to get at the bottom of the matter from an inspection standpoint.

NEWS FROM THE LAKEVIEW COMMUNITY

On account of sickness in our family we failed to send in a communication last week.

The blizzard has come and gone, the worst we have experienced since January, 1918. We think stock in our immediate community stood the cold very well as we have heard of none freezing. We did not get very much snow.

We have had some sickness; Lena daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wimberly has been real sick of pneumonia, but is now improving, we are glad to say.

Wesley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Webb, was threatened with pneumonia.

W. H. Gregory was confined to his room four days, barely missed the "flu."

Several members of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smith family are on the sick list.

The stork left a tiny baby girl to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fraley.

Owing to sickness and bad weather the attendance at Sunday School, B. Y. P. U., prayer meeting and community club has not been good. The club met last Friday night. An election of officers was held. We understand that all the old officers were re-elected.

Rev. Britton of Plainview was a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wimberly last Friday.

LUBRICATING OIL AND GASOLINE SWIPED FROM OIL WELL

Somebody, who no doubt needed a little lubricating oil and gasoline, visited the oil well last week during the cold weather, when the drillers were away and appropriated a barrel of oil and a quantity of gasoline, together with a number of drillers tools. The property was missed when the men went to work after the storm of last week. As it happened the drillers found some tools in town that could be used in the place of the ones stolen, otherwise the work at the well would have been delayed until such tools could have been ordered, which would have caused a delay for some time.

It is not likely that the party or parties connected with the theft can be apprehended, as they transferred the oil and gas from the original barrels to other vessels which left no clue for the authorities to work on.—Abernathy Review.

FOUND A CURE FOR INDIGESTION

"I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different medicines. These tablets contain no opium but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.

HEALTH WEEK NUGGETS

By Dr. H. E. Downs

1. Ventilate well the room you occupy, as pure Oxygen is necessary to carry on processes of nutrition.
2. Wear loose porous clothing suited to season, insuring free movement, free ventilation and absorption of body exhalations.
3. If you are an indoor worker get outside several hours of the twenty-four, for fresh air, sunlight and exercise are enemies to disease.
4. Sneeze or cough into your handkerchief and insist on others doing likewise; thus preventing the germs to which you may be host being conveyed to others, or theirs to you.
5. Do not over-eat, especially of meat and eggs, for an overloaded stomach retards digestion and an excess throws unnecessary work on emunctories.
6. Wash your hands before eating; unclean hands may convey disease germs to the food and mouth.
7. Eat some bulky foods and some fruits; residue of the bulky foods stimulates the bowels reflexly and fruits are laxative.
8. Eat slowly, chew thoroughly, as your teeth were not given you for ornament and unless they thoroughly grind food, stomach juices can not convert it readily.
9. Drink at least six large glasses of water daily, as it is a necessary solvent and serves to flush the body sewer.
10. Stand, sit and walk erect; it is the natural posture and gives most space to vital organs.
11. Keep the teeth, tongue and gums clean; decomposing particles of food in mouth, soften the mucous membrane and gives a point of entrance for germs.
12. Balance your day by working eight hours, playing eight hours and sleeping eight hours.
13. Avoid mental worry, as it disturbs bodily equilibrium necessary to health.

Organization Perfected for Building And Operating a Community Auditorium to Be Erected in Lubbock Soon

The Community Auditorium is under way, and is already the same as built, for when a bunch of Lubbock boosters decide they need anything it is just as good as done. This is the reputation they have always had and one they propose to keep. At a meeting of the building committee and trustees this morning in the Chamber of Commerce office, headed by Jed Rix, president of the Chamber, it was decided to proceed with the actual construction of the building just as soon as they collect enough to start operations. This building will be strictly a community affair, built by the community, owned by the community, and used by the community, and the community as a whole is going to back it and put it over.

and at least give them a little encouragement, for it is as much yours as theirs. They are merely saving you the trouble of looking them up. This is one thing of which we have felt the need for some time, and will be a great help to any civic organization in putting over programs which are impossible now on account of no auditorium adequate to seat the crowd. Don't wait for the committee to look you up on this proposition, but exert a little effort of your own and let's put this over in the usual Lubbock style. Here's to the Auditorium—A Reality.

NEWSY ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MOODY COMMUNITY

The farmers night mares were turned to smiles on last Tuesday when so much snow was falling. But the wind blew so strong Sunday, that the sand has just about covered them up. Fear not, "All is well that ends well," and I'm sure we'll have plenty rain yet. A little girl, Juanita, took up her abode at the home of Bill Mears and wife on the night of February 28. Quite a distinction is attached to her arrival as she is the first baby born on the Moody land. Mrs. Bill Murray and Mrs. Harry Palmer and son, Teddy, Geo. visited Mrs. Lillie Swafford Friday evening. Mrs. Bob Swafford spent Thursday evening at Mrs. Bill Chism's. Mrs. Charlie Forgas and children who have been visiting the family of George Forgas, at Meadow, for a few weeks, returned home last Sunday. Mrs. White and Mrs. Teague and little daughter, Juanita, visited Mrs. Bill Mears Saturday afternoon. Bill Murray and wife were out on a campaign trip Thursday. Harry Palmer made a business trip to Meadow Friday. He brought back a truck load of coal. Mrs. J. L. Thorp and children, George, Johanne and Annie Lou,

NEWS ITEMS OF THE WEEK FROM MONROE

The weather man has demonstrated his Arctic weather over here last week and we do not like it. Mrs. Teal has been quite sick in her beautiful home, 1 mile north of Monroe, but is improving. Mr. Teal and wife of Carlisle, have been visiting in the home of their parents here. Prof. Russell's room conducted a box supper on last Friday night, which was enjoyed by all present, but many were absent on account of the cold weather. Mr. Russell made a fine auctioneer and the school boys bought most of the boxes, and they are to use the proceeds of the sale which netted $23.00, for some sport equipment, and we hope they will find much pleasure in the same. Miss Leighman Umphrey won the pie for being the prettiest girl, with Loraine Collier as a close second. Misses Beard and Underwood, of Lubbock, with their gentleman friends, whose names I failed to get, attended the box supper and helped us out, by bringing beautiful boxes to be sold. Mrs. Teal has for her guests, her mother, a dear old lady of 69 years, and her daughter, Vera, who has been away to school. Mr. and Mrs. Matheny spent a few days visiting friends in Hardy community. It is reported that Mr. Will Haney and wife will move to Tulsa. We regret to have them absent from our meetings and Sunday School and they will be kindly remembered by a host of friends here. Mr. Herschal Batey and Miss Tannyhill motored to the boarding place of Miss Thomas who teaches at Center, and brought her back to her home here. Mr. Blev. C. Clutter, wife and son (Clem), of Lubbock, spent a few days in the home of Mr. Jack Merrill and wife last week. Many friends here are in sympathy with the Clutters, because their handsome home in Lubbock was burned last week. Mr. Henry Barber, wife and children, Collen, George and Henry Lee, spent last week visiting at Midland. Rufus Bund and Champ Stephenson killed the "fatted calf" on last Thursday and have been feasting since, with cake and ice cream to make out the second course. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barber had for their dinner guests on last Sunday: Grandmother Stephenson and daughter, Miss Della. Mrs. T. H. Cox, one of our best farmers, has 2 men hired and is beginning a crop for 1922. Girls of Lubbock county, please write to those young men who wish to get married. The one I called No. 1 says I did not make his appeal to you strong enough. So here I come again. I want but few things in this life, but what I do want, is a wife. To spend my money, drive my car, Admire my face, among the stars, To wear my diamonds, read my book And yes, by George, to be my cook. Please write me early and do say You'll marry me the first of May. I am a sport, will you believe, And wear my heart upon my sleeve I could be judge or President. Of the White House a resident, And witty as old "Jeff or Mutt," I make "Walt Mason" look a nut. When Owen Meredith wrote "Lullule," He kinda told you how I feel.

The new building of Joe Baldridge, located on Broadway is fast taking shape as a completed store, and Mr. Baldridge contemplates moving to his new location the first part of next week, already having placed some of the heavier stuff in the building. The plasterers are finishing up in the inside ready for the shelving, which will be rushed to completion, with all possible speed.

PLAINVIEW COOK INJURED WHEN A STOVE EXPLODED

Mrs. Anna Murphy, age about 28 years, was possibly seriously injured early Wednesday morning, when she started a fire in the range in the kitchen of the Plainview hotel, preparatory to cooking breakfast. The extreme cold weather of the night before had caused the water in the water front of the stove to freeze, and when it melted the steam caused the front to explode, and pieces of the stove were thrown with great force all about the kitchen. Parts of the stove struck Mrs. Murphy about the face, the legs, and the abdomen. The wounds on her face and legs were painful, but the doctors fears she is internally injured from the abdomen injury. She is in the sanitarium, and the condition today is worse than at any time since the accident. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bostick, who lives on the A. M. Smith farm near Runningwater. The furniture and equipment in the kitchen were wrecked, the damage being about $500.—Plainview News.

THE COTTAGE GARDENER

ENRICHED SOIL WILL PRODUCE GOOD CROPS

Well Fertilized Plot of Ground, With Reasonable Attention, is Sure to Give Satisfaction to the Grower Who Will Keep the Weeds Out and Provide Sufficient Amount of Moisture.

RICH SOIL SURE TO GET RESULTS

Danger in Use of Too Much Commercial Fertilizer; May Injure the Plants.

AS TOP OR SIDE DRESSING

May Be Mixed With Soil Along Rows During the Period of Growth—Mixtures Containing Much Nitrogen Are Favored.

A limited quantity of high-grade commercial fertilizer can be used to advantage on garden soils even where a considerable supply of barnyard manure has been applied. Commercial fertilizers act quickly and can be used to special advantage where it is desired to mature crops in a short period of time.

The best results can be obtained by the use of fertilizer on land that is well filled with organic matter. However, fair results may be obtained by the use of fertilizer on land that has not been manured and which is deficient in organic matter, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

The great danger in the use of commercial fertilizers is that too large quantities may be applied and cause injury to the plants. It must be borne in mind that commercial fertilizers are a very concentrated form of plant food and, therefore, should be used in moderation.

Amount Needed in Garden. Market gardeners frequently use as much as 2,000 pounds of commercial fertilizer on an acre of ground. This would be at the rate of about 4 or 5 pounds to a plot of ground 10 feet in each direction or 100 square feet. Assuming that the average backyard garden is about 30 by 60 feet in size, 50 to 70 pounds of standard, high-grade truckers' fertilizer would be all that would be safe to apply on a garden of those dimensions. Under most conditions 50 pounds will be the maximum amount to use.

Commercial fertilizers are usually put up in sacks containing 100, 167 or 200 pounds and a good plan would be for two or more gardeners to join together in buying fertilizer.

Methods of Application. There are two or three methods of applying commercial fertilizers. The first and most common is by scattering the fertilizer broadcast over the land after it has been plowed and harrowed, then giving the soil a second and even a third harrowing to mix the fertilizer with it thoroughly. Another method is to apply the fertilizer underneath the rows, the plan being to open the furrow scatter in the fertilizer then, by means of a single-shovel plow or wheel hoe, thoroughly mix the fertilizer with the soil in the bottom of the furrow. The surface soil is then returned and no seeds are planted for a few days until the fertilizer becomes thoroughly incorporated with the soil.

The third method of applying commercial fertilizers is to use them as a top or side dressing along the rows of plants during the period of growth. Nitrate of soda and fertilizer mixtures containing a considerable percentage of nitrogen are generally used for this purpose. When using fertilizer as a side dressing care should be taken that it is not applied too near the base of the plants, but at a little distance from the row, and then it should be cultivated into the upper 2 or 3 inches of soil, so that the small feeder roots of plants will gradually reach it.

Elements in Fertilizers. The three main elements of plant food contained in commercial fertilizers are phosphoric acid, nitrogen, and potash. Nitrogen has the effect of stimulating the leaf growth, and phosphoric acid and potash have a tendency to increase root growth and to mature the seeds of the plants. Root crops and potatoes require a reasonable amount of potash. Corn, beans, and others of the garden crops, which are grown for their pods or seeds, want a sufficient supply of phosphoric acid, while lettuce, celery, Swiss chard, and others of the salad or leaf crops require plenty of nitrogen. The safest plan, however, is to apply an all-round or complete fertilizer having approximately 8 per cent phosphoric acid, 4 or 5 per cent nitrogen, and 2 or 3 per cent potash on land that is to be devoted to general garden crops.

RICH, SANDY LOAM FOR BEETS

Seed Should Be Sown About Time Last Frosts Are Due; Ready for Use in Few Weeks.

Garden beets may be grown in any good soil, but thrive best on rich, sandy loam. The seed can be sown about the time the last frosts are due, and the young beets will be ready for use in 4 to 6 weeks.

Later plantings will give a succession and provide beets for winter storage. The seed should be sown in a drill with about 8 or 10 seed balls to the foot. It should be borne in mind that each seed ball contains from

Young Beets Make Good Greens.

1 to 6 seeds, and that the beets will require considerable thinning. The young beets that are pulled out in thinning may be used as greens during the early spring. Where the beets are to be given hand cultivation entirely, the rows may be placed as closely as 12 to 14 inches apart and the plants should be thinned to 2 to 3 inches in the row.—United States Department of Agriculture.

DRAINAGE IS IMPORTANT

Garden land inclined to be wet should be thoroughly drained before crops are planted upon it. If the drains or open ditches cannot be provided, the next best thing is to plant the crops on slight ridges, so as to get their roots above the water table in the soil.

20,000 Pounds of Poultry Shipped From Abernathy

All day long Tuesday, wagons were lined up at the Harden Produce Co.'s place of business where they were buying poultry from the farmers and others in and around Abernathy. It was a busy scene. They advertised last week that they would receive on Tuesday all the chickens they could get and pay 18 cents per pound for hens, and other grades in proportion to what the hens were bringing. The wagons began to arrive early and all day long they were lined up waiting for their turn to come to be unloaded. By night they had received a little more than twenty thousand pounds of grown chickens. This was a full car load which the company shipped out to eastern markets Wednesday.

This shipment was the largest ever shipped from here at one time, but it is nothing uncommon for the company to make two or three shipments a week of from three to five thousand pounds at each shipment. This is not bad for "our home town."—Abernathy Review.

INDIANA MAN HAS LARGE LAND HOLDINGS IN LAMB CO.

Wilbur O. Stockton and J. G. Sowell, were here Wednesday from Littlefield transacting business. Mr. Stockton has sold his lands around Brookston, Indiana, his former home and in other sections of Texas and has purchased a large acreage of Lamb County lands, together with the lands he bought there when Littlefield was first settled. He is now one of the biggest land owners in that section, and is a Plains booster from the start. Mr. Stockton knows land values, his work having been directed in that way for the past several years, and it is encouraging to see him take land on the great South Plains. He is a live wire, and we are sure that with his help the citizens of Littlefield will soon regain for that little town the prestige it had prior to the war, when it was thought to be the coming town of the plains.

The great South Plains offers splendid opportunities for investors, and the man who is awake enough to see these possibilities early in the game will come out a winner. Mr. Sowell expressed himself as being well pleased with this section, and we are in hopes he will make his home somewhere on the Plains.

Geo. B. Mullins Enters Race for J. P. Pre. One

The Avalanche is authorized to announce Geo. B. Mullins, of this city as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1. Mr. Mullins has been in Lubbock seven years, and served 17 months in the Medical department of the army, at Fort Worth and Galveston, having volunteered for service.

F. F. Mays is in town this week shaking hands with his old friends. Mr. Mays has been visiting for several months in the Eastern part of the State, and says he is glad he is once more back with a live wire bunch, although for just a visit.

REFUSE LEASE OF LAND TO JAPS BY SECRETARY

An association of Japanese of Wapato, Washington, has made application to Secretary Fall to lease several thousand acres of government land. In the refusal of this lease the secretary states that all these lands will be leased to American citizens, with veterans of the World War given preference. He has notified all agencies to this effect. He also stated that as fast as the land now leased to Japanese, would be cancelled as fast as they expire. There are about twenty-two of these leases which have expired and next year quite a large number will expire and none would be renewed.

H. H. GRIFFITH SICK WITH THE FLU AT BIG SPRING

H. H. Griffith is reported this week as being very sick in Big Spring. Our readers will recall that some time ago, Mr. Griffith was sent to Big Spring by the Rix Furniture Co. of this place, to relieve a brother of Mr. Rix here, manager of the business at that place, who was very sick. The latest report from Mr. Griffith is that he has a very bad case of the flu, however, he is doing as well as could be expected.

He had intended returning home this week but will not be able to do so. We certainly wish for him a speedy recovery and may he soon be able to return to his duties here.

WHY BUSINESS "FREEZES UP"

Many Men in Business Do Not Know

Generally speaking, business has this unbusinesslike habit: When everybody's on a buying "jag", business breaks its back to supply demand. It buys, hires, builds and borrows. It expands enormously. Under such conditions, business employs every means that it recognizes to increase output and sales. And it advertises its head off to a public that needs no buying urge. Let buying falter, and what does business do?

- FIRST—It Curtails Advertising*
- SECOND—It Curtails Production*
- THIRD—It Further Curtails Advertising*
- FOURTH—It Hacks at "Overhead"*
- FIFTH—It Still Further Curtails Advertising*
- SIXTH—It Hacks Again at "Overhead"*
- SEVENTH—It Stops Advertising*
- THEN—It Tries to Explain the Situation to the Bank*

In other words, when times are good it pours oil—advertising—on the already well-oiled selling machinery in an endless stream.

When times are bad it uses an advertising squirt-can and wonders why the bearings "freeze!"

People are not much interested in advertising when their pockets are bulging with money to be spent, spent, spent.

But they are intensely interested in advertising when what they spend must be carefully spent. Then they buy what they can afford—and they know advertising tells them where to find it.

Some day, not now, perhaps, but some day, business will learn to conserve its advertising energy when business is flourishing so that it may expend it lavishly to stimulate business when it lags.

Now's the time to spend it lavishly. Those who are doing it—and some actually are—feel the depression much less than the ones who have cut down expenses by cutting down advertising.

Just at the time when people are looking for bargains, and are wanting to get the very best deal for the money, the average merchant quits telling them anything about where these bargains are by Quitting Advertising

You can send your message to five thousand readers in the Lubbock Trade Territory, by placing in the columns of the Avalanche an ad, and you will find that the results will be a stimulation of business, and a general opening up of the pocket books of a lot of people who are holding on to the coin of the realm, waiting for bargains. There is more money in the country than you think for, and this territory is being flooded with mail order catalogues, and if you don't get your advertising right up by the side of those catalogues you are not going to get the business. Speak up, Mr. Business Man, and get your share of the business. It's here if you go after it.

Panhandle American Legion Representatives Hold Enthusiastic and Important Meeting at Amarillo Last Sat. and Sun.

The Posts of the Panhandle of the American Legion were called in to conference to meet at Amarillo the 4th and 5th of March. Quite a good representation of the Posts were present, honoring Wayne Davis, State Commander and A. J. Rhinehart, State Adjutant. In a stirring address of welcome, Major W. H. Brownwell, of Amarillo welcomed the visitors at the dinner given in their honor at the Amarillo Hotel Saturday night. He spoke very highly of the State Commander, having served with him through the World War. Then, upon request of Ed E. Ross, Commander of Hanson Post No. 54, of Amarillo, the visitors of the evening were introduced by Major Brownwell.

knew of, not excepting the Rotary Club.

Wayne Davis of Goliad, Texas, State Commander, in his opening remarks, was very high in his praise of the Panhandle boys for their part in the great World War. He declared that the insignia of the American Legion carries with it the same inspiration, the same purposes, the same responsibilities in civil life, which the uniform of the United States carried with it in the days of the war. Every man who saw service in any way during the war should be proud of the opportunity of wearing that insignia. It tells the world that there was a war, that there are men in our hospitals today, who will live the war forever. The Legion button is the proudest decoration any American can wear. Its bronze or silver center proves honorable service to our country in the past, the blue and gold border that you are still serving your country as a citizen to keep America the way you offered your life that it might stay. Commander Davis also asserted that the demand of today is for purposeful men, and men do not last long in a community today, unless their lives are based upon, and unless they are actuated by the principles of righteousness.

"If the American Legion lives in Texas we must plant our feet upon the firm foundations of honor," declared commander Davis after he had explained certain difficulties into which the organization was recently drawn through the mismanagement of those who had failed to take seriously their connection with the organization. Capt. Cyrus S. Kusbaum, whose service with the American Red Cross at home and abroad was very distinguished, in a torrent of eloquence carrying with it a tender appeal and fiery inspiration, told of his experience with the Ex-Service man in the brief time he used, he paid highest homage to old Glory and climaxed his expressing by saying that the Ex-Service man reflects all the honor, the glory, the patriotism, the history, the principles implied or voiced by the greatest flag the world has ever known. The world war veterans needs no eulogy and no defense—only a chance.

The general tone of the meeting was that the Legion was an organization of service, and is as much a civic organization in a community as any other club or body. If it cannot be of some service to the community in which it is located, it had just as well disband.

After the banquet at the Amarillo Hotel the Legion Home of Hanson Post No. 54 was thrown open and a general reception was enjoyed by all.

The post representatives from the different Posts in the Panhandle were called into conference with the State officials the next afternoon at 2 o'clock at which great enthusiasm was shown, and the men returned to their home posts fired by new ideas and inspirations.

If you don't know what the American Legion stands for, come out to one of the meetings sometime, and you will profit considerably by your experience. The longer the Legion lives, the stronger they will become. It is now only in its infancy, and yet is one of the strongest organizations in America. Let's go for a greater and better American Legion.

PARENTS AS EDUCATORS

Developing Good Judgment in Children

Much of the inefficiency throughout the business world today is directly due to the lack of proper early training in the home. No business system or course in salesmanship and technique can ever quite overcome the habits and mind development acquired while the individual was passing through childhood and the most impressionable years of his existence.

One Monday morning I discovered that I was out of laundry soap because Jennie, our laundress, had not reported the fact before she left the previous week. There was just time for Robert to go to the store before school. "Get five bars of M. B. Laundry Soap," I told him as he started off. Meanwhile Jennie sat around waiting, all because she hadn't told me about the empty soap box the week before. However, while this fact is not exactly the point I am making in this article, yet nevertheless it proves that Jennie had not been taught to use judgment when she was small.

But to go back to Robert. In the course of time he appeared in the kitchen with empty hands. I had told him to get M. B. Laundry Soap but the store had none, and although the grocer wanted him to bring the next best he decided not to spend his money for something I hadn't told him to get. Now Robert is nine years old, and he knew that the washing could not begin until we had the soap. But there were only twenty minutes between then and school time, so I dispatched Jennie herself for the soap and used ten minutes in trying to impress upon Robert when not to conform to implicit obedience. I showed him how to reason that the washing was soaking. And that there wasn't any soap in the house, Jennie was waiting. The clothes had to be washed. And to get them clean we must use soap.

Now it would have been much easier to have said, "Oh, Robert, run along to school; you do use such poor judgment." But some day Robert is going to work for an employer. And that employer will not always be on hand to tell him what to do with the right kind of material is not available. That employer will hire him for that very purpose, namely to do his thinking for him and take some of the responsibility of his department. We can't always get the kind of soap we ask for in this world, and we must make quick decisions and wise ones in choosing the next best thing.

But I was rewarded the very next week. The soap ordeal made its impression on Robert.

One evening "Daddy" telephoned out that he was bringing home a guest for supper. My first thought was, "No bread." So I sent Robert to the store for two loaves of bread. But it was late in the day, and the store had nothing left but graham bread. Robert walked out and started home, then he reflected—actually reflected—as I had suggested to him. There was no bread in the house. A guest was due. Something in the nature of bread and food was necessary. So he returned to the store and said he would take the graham bread. "Two loaves" asked the grocer. Again Robert used his brains. Our family does not care for graham bread. So we would not want any left over for the next day, and he came home with one loaf. I was so pleased I would have hugged him for joy if I hadn't been in such a dreadful hurry to get a hasty meal prepared. But the next day I had a nice talk with Robert, and I found that he had reasoned about the bread question just as I have indicated above, and he said, "Mother, I would have come home without any bread and the store would have been closed before you could send me back if it had not been for the soap."

How I did feel repaid for taking that few minutes on a busy Monday morning to explain how to use good judgment!

Mothers and teachers can recall instances after instance similar to the two mentioned when a child had

Black Silk Stove Polish

Makes a brilliant, silky polish that does not rub off or dust off, and the shine lasts four times as long as ordinary stove polish. Used on simple stoves and sold by hardware and grocery dealers.

All we ask is that you try it on your cook stove, your fuel stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Insist on Black Silk Stove Polish. Made in liquid or paste—same quality.

Black Silk Stove Polish Works Sterling, Illinois

Use Black Silk Air-Drying Iron Cream on irons, registers, stove-tops. Prevents rusting. Use Black Silk Metal Polish for silver, nickel or brass. It has no equal for uniform auto-polishing.
