

THE LUBBOCK AVALANCHE

VOLUME XXIII, No. 5.

LUBBOCK, LUBBOCK COUNTY, TEXAS, TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1922.

PUBLISHED TWICE A WEEK

MANY THINGS ARE DEMANDING ATTENTION OF LUBBOCK PEOPLE NOW

THE BIG COMMUNITY AUDITORIUM IS DESERVING OF THE HEARTY CO-OPERATION OF ALL THE PEOPLE

SCHOOL PROBLEMS ARE MOST IMPORTANT

Immediate Action is Necessary to Prevent a Real Calamity in the Matter of Our Schools. Attend the Mass Meeting of Lubbock Citizens Thursday at the Methodist Church.

You have heard a cow bell in all kinds of places, but it has been a long time since the cow bell got into the class. The Old Rotary Cow Bell was in Saturday night at the traveling men's meeting. When Jed began to waive it around through the air the noise slowed up for with more than 300 men in the hall approximately half of whom were traveling men and visitors, everybody introducing everybody else, telling a joke on the other fellow there was some hub-bub in the air.

Rev. Bowen invoked the blessings upon the gathering and the association of men in all honorable business everywhere and then old Grif was called on to lead the first song: It was a parody on Little Liza Jane: "Says my ma unto me, 'Lil' Liza Jane,

Traveling Men Look Good to Me 'Lil' Liza Jane."
"Grab Him Liza, 'Lil' Liza Jane 'Lil' Liza Jane, 'Lil' Liza Jane."
"Spen's his money nice and free, 'Lil' Liza Jane."
"Way from home, mo't time you see, 'Lil' Liza Jane."
Chorus
"Mean as sin an' likes to flirt, 'Lil' Liza Jane, Means no harm and won't get hurt, 'Lil' Liza Jane."
Chorus

"We'll make our Stake and Settle down, 'Lil' Liza Jane, Gwine to live in Lubbock, town, 'Lil' Liza Jane."

The song was good but the tune was rotten, but what we liked in harmony was made up in volume. Percy Spencer out lined the object of the meeting and was honest enough to admit that he came to eat. His declaration was seconded by every man in the house. But the real welcome Lubbock extends to the traveling men was expressed by Mr. Spencer and put everyone in a high frame of mind to enjoy the feed that followed.

Serving to this number it was necessary to do it in army style that is line up with plate, cup and spoon and help themselves. And the plates some of them carried away made you wonder what the capacity of a real big man might be. Clark Smith did himself justice as a friend to traveling men with one of the best meals ever placed on the table salads, cold meats, relishes, fancy cheese, Bud Wieser, hot coffee and all of the trimmings. There are two things that Clark Smith knows how to do, one is how to be friendly to men and next is how to feed a man. Following the feed Grif pulled a line of string that was pretty rotten about "What I traveled in of Lubbock in '49." But due to his popularity and age he got by with it. Incidentally it is to Grif and his bunch of ticket peddling wide flung invitations that such an attendance was recorded.

Mr. Keen of Chamber of Commerce was announced as having put himself on the program and proved to what length the Chamber of Commerce had gone in it's efforts to entertain the traveling men, but accidents do happen. The party was worth the price. "Every Traveling man is a potential jobbing house. The town is no better than the service it renders it's surrounding trade territory." If you take care of the fundamental conditions of agricultural, transportation, churches, schools and home conditions in a town and maintain a friendly attitude toward the traveling men in the trade territory, jobbing houses, factories, and other institutions will hunt the town out without having to be sought for by the town. "The traveling man is either the best or worst advertising that a town can have." A traveling man's obligations to his town is to report misunderstandings that he hears-discussed in the towns trade territory. These were a few of the statements made by Keen in outlining his subject. "What the Chamber of Commerce wants to do and how the traveling man can help.

Bob Meyers of Plainview, was introduced as having been a traveling man on the Plains for 105 years and proved beyond doubt that he started peddling prunes across the Plains of Texas before Grif was even born. Bob always pleases regardless of whether he is showing a line of goods or a line of another commodity often carried by successful traveling men.

The Home Brew Quartet was the hit of the night. They unloaded in harmony through the bary tones of four black faces since the world began. And believe me that negro Gid Dyess certainly am there. Old Dad Wilson was the colored brother for fair and Holland is—say Holland was so black that he started turning white on the other side. And when he crawled in the hole to dig up those bass notes he sounded like a colored stoker on a tramp steamer. While that hand Organ Tenor, Lee Randall, brought the house down on that "Oh Lawdy Stuff."

All told the Home Brew Quartet carried an awful kick. In the selling contest the following sales talks were made:

Sell the Queen of Sheba a Fordson Tractor for her personal use. In passing through the bary tones of Abernathy of Southland you come upon a girl attempting to commit suicide by drinking butter, convince her that soft soap is a slicker way to do the job. H. A. Davidson won the prize, he sold a pig to Percy Spencer, representing J. D. Rockefeller. He not only sold him the pig but he also sold him enough feed to feed the pig through the year and if the bell had not been brought in he probably would have sold him a farm in Lubbock county to keep the pig in.

Roscoe Wilson awarded Mr. Davidson a big loving cup and in appreciation of his remarkable ability of constructive salesmanship H. A. Davidson came through like a good sport and offered a toast to the traveling men and visitors at this time, and first annual party.

Invitations were extended to the traveling men to visit the various churches, golf courses and the other attractions of our city as guests of the city. The announcement was made that the event would become an annual event to be held in Lubbock each spring.

It was the most enjoyable party as well as the largest attended feed ever attempted in Lubbock. Traveling men have been our friends ever since the first prunes. Besides traveling 125 miles across the country to sell our combination merchandise store, P. O., and bar room their early supplies, and Lubbock appreciates their friendship and good wishes outside.

This traveling man's banquet is simply a big get-together meeting and give the citizens an opportunity to know and appreciate our traveling men better. Hold it by and hold there is another one coming just a year from today and you are to mentioning the fact to the traveling men that make the town.

The Lubbock High School Stock Judging Team Left Saturday for Ft. Worth To Enter Stock Judging Contest There

Prof. Mowery, Animal Husbandry Teacher of Lubbock H. S., left Saturday night with the Stock Judging Team for Fort Worth, where they will enter the contest at that place which will open Monday. The boys here, having had only one year in that kind of work, will compete there with high school teams who have competed there for three years, and there will be from thirty to forty teams in the contest.

A class in a contest of that kind consists of four individuals, selected entirely on their merits in class competition, which in this case has been very enthusiastic. The following boys have been selected to represent Lubbock at the State meet, they having left with Mr. Mowery Saturday night: Roy Davis, Earle Nail, Raymond Boyd and Carl Henley. These boys have been working constantly since their victory at Canyon a few weeks ago, practicing around Crosbyton, Post and Lubbock, and they go to Fort Worth very enthusiastic and confident that they will bring home the Trophies from there. Working with Mr. Mowery, who is very high in his praise of the work of the boys, and is himself very confident of the fact that nothing but the best elements of the team, though they are going up against men and boys of experience.

This is a new branch of study that has been added to the school work, and the value of this work cannot be over estimated, being not only beneficial and instructive to the class, but gives them a range of experience. Then of course Lubbock puts out nothing but the best in everything they attempt. Naturally it is quite an achievement also.

As these boys in their return to Fort Worth, or not, let's make them appreciate their efforts.

LUBBOCK SCHOOLS MUST CLOSE

This is the report of the School Board. SEE what will happen unless the citizens can raise enough money by subscription or by charging tuition to finish out the full term.

- To have less than nine months school will mean:
- THAT LUBBOCK WILL LOSE ITS AFFILIATION.
 - THAT IT WILL TAKE YEARS TO REGAIN WHAT HAS BEEN BUILT UP IN THE PAST.
 - THAT EVERY SCHOOL CHILD WILL LOSE PRACTICALLY ONE YEAR'S WORK.

Are you willing to help prevent this calamity? If so, be at the Methodist Church Thursday evening, March 16th, at 7:30, at which time this matter will be discussed and ways and means devised to give the children what they are entitled to.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

The School Board has done all it can. It is now up to the citizens. The following committee is anxious to know whether or not they can count on your help. You can answer this by being at this meeting.

LIGHT RAIN AND CONSIDERABLE HAIL VISITS LUBBOCK SECTION SUNDAY ABOUT MIDNIGHT—SOME DAMAGE

Local people who have been patiently waiting a visit from the rain man certainly had a few of their wishes come true Sunday night about twelve o'clock, but owing to the fact that the rain was accompanied by a destructive hail storm was not just what it was hoped to be.

The hail did not last but a few minutes, but owing to the largeness of the stones did a great deal of damage, and little moisture was received. In some sections, however, the ground was thoroughly soaked, and in the entire area visited by the storm sufficient moisture was received to enable the farmers to start sowing their lands.

All indications at this time point to a spell before this little bit of rain, as large, black clouds hanging in every direction and weather profits predicted a real storm before this paper is in the hands of our readers.

Sunday's hail storm seemed worst West of Lubbock, and in the north-west part of town, as the greatest damage is reported from that locality. M. T. Warlick, who was in town Monday afternoon, from his farm a mile and a half west of town reported a very damaging hail storm. He had three of the half dozen turkeys, that were roosting on top of the chicken house killed by the heavy hail, and his residence badly damaged by the hail stones. He said his neighbor, Mr. Gaither, sustained heavy loss in the damage of his home, the roof being almost totally beaten to pieces, and the damage from rain before it can be replaced may amount to even more.

The territory covered by the hail storm was not very great according to reports, for which we are all very thankful.

Catholic Offer Reward for Persons Whipping Priest

Dallas, March 10.—Deposit of $2,000 in a local bank by a committee representing the Catholic diocese of Dallas was made today as a reward for any person or persons who shall secure the arrest and conviction in a district court of the persons or persons one or more of them who participated in the brutal assault upon the Rev. J. M. Keller at Slaton, Texas, on Saturday night, March 4, 1922.

Abernathy Drilling In Soft Lime Rock At 3,900 Feet

The latest reports from the Abernathy Oil Well are to the effect that they are now down something over 3900 feet and prospects are getting better all the time. They are now in a soft lime formation, and men who have had experience in this work and are in a position to know, say that this is an oil sand, and indications are that they have the best prospects for oil than any wildcat field they have seen. We certainly wish them success.

Reports were current in town Sunday that oil had been struck and that they were going to blow in the well Sunday afternoon. These reports were all false, and we warn you against rumors of this kind.

Information has been received here that Rev. J. B. Cole, former pastor of the Baptist church here, and now pastor of the Baptist church at Crosbyton, is dangerously ill at Pecos. So dangerous is his condition that his children have all been called to his bedside. We hope for a more favorable report soon. And his many friends here will regret very much to hear of his serious condition.

The man with a smile is the ice man.

Lubbock Candy Company Changed Hands Last Week

Some few days ago a trade was closed whereby the Lubbock Candy Co., formerly owned by R. H. Martin and M. C. Wilhoit, was transferred, going into the hands of J. E. Kuykendall, C. H. Burrus, and T. H. Sneed. These men are all live boosters and progressive citizens and are going into this new business with the one idea: that of throwing themselves into the business and making a go of it.

They will begin active operations in the very near future, and will open an advertising campaign that will let their products be known throughout the Plains. Watch for them.

They have secured the services of R. Smith, of Sherman, as a candy maker and general trouble shooter. Mr. Smith is a man of wide experience in this work, and is one of the best in the State. This company is indeed fortunate in securing his services and we wish for them the best of success in this new undertaking, for business men of this calibre is what it takes to make a town.

Cyclone Wrecks 2 Houses Ten Miles East of Abernathy

Information was received here Monday morning of a severe wind storm that struck about ten miles east of Abernathy. Our information is that this occurred about 12:00 o'clock Sunday night, and covered a territory of about 100 yards wide by several miles in length. The homes of Mr. Nance and Mr. Jim Webb, were completely demolished, and several other houses were shaken from their foundations, causing quite a lot of property damage. No lives were lost, but Mr. Webb was severely injured, and is under the care of a physician. Considerable rain accompanied or followed the storm. About an inch of rain is reported at Abernathy.

As best we can learn, the rain was spotted Sunday night. Some places received as much as two inches, while other localities there were but little and only a sprinkle at places south of Lubbock.

TRAVELERS' BANQUET SATURDAY NIGHT WAS PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED ATTEND THE BANQUET GIVEN FOR THE TRAVELING SALESMEN

THE VISITORS ARE AN OPTIMISTIC BUNCH

They Came in Large Numbers and Enjoyed the Hospitality of the Business Men of This City, and Went Away With a Fond Feeling for the People of Lubbock

The Traveling Man's Banquet has come and gone, but in its place there are three other things of major importance that must be put over in Lubbock immediately. It is funny that town building is like house keeping, never caught up, you can sweep and dust every room in the house and about the time you stop or sit down something else has to be done.

A short course school for the 20-21 of March, just a week from today will be held here. It will be a bigger thing than the Traveling Men's Banquet for that was a one night affair with a three hundred attendance, and this is a two day affair that should total more than 10,000 in attendance for the two days. Lubbock sets her standards for hospitality and it is up to the citizens as a whole, to put them over. The papers have been full for the past two weeks of Short Course items, what it is, what it stands for, and what we hope to do is a last warning that it is up to you to personally invite from one to a dozen farmers and their families to come to Lubbock during these two days. There is no admission charges to any meeting or any part of the program. The subject carries a wide range of interest and will be profitable to every man and woman in the county. We have been very fortunate in securing this excellent talent for our section and it is up to us as a town to show our appreciation by giving them a full attendance, not only of the town people but to encourage the attendance of all of our friends in surrounding towns and rural communities.

This will be our first annual Spring Poultry Show held in connection with the Short Course and a nice list of suitable premiums have been offered by the merchants of the city. The purpose of this show is to encourage poultry production as one phase of diversified farming. The show will be in the Lub-Tex Motor Co. show room and some of the best birds in West Texas have been promised.

As a town and as an individual of the town, let us get behind this proposition and put it over in the way that will report credit to Lubbock and Lubbock County and at the same time be of educational value for everyone that attends.

"The Community Auditorium" Mention has been made of a Community Auditorium project now being worked out and a wide campaign to put this matter over will be instituted within the next few days.

It is a waste of time and energy to outline the needs of such a building. They have simply become so acute that we have no choice in the matter we must have a Community Auditorium. The Traveling Men's Banquet should have been held in the Community Auditorium. The District School meet should be held in the Community Auditorium, our Poultry Show and live stock judging contest, our Chautauquas, Lyceums and local plays should be held in the Community Auditorium.

Lubbock has a reputation of doing what has to be done and for getting what she must have. The Community Auditorium is recognized as an absolute necessity for the full development of the spirit of our town, consequently we will get it and it is up to the individual citizens to carry her end of the load. Hold this in mind when the committee strikes you.

School Board Election

The school question is not put last because of its small importance, but because it is last in length of time.

The school election was called by the school board of Trustees last Thursday for April 15th to vote upon a $150,000 bond issue for the erection of one high school, and three ward schools, all to be of brick and modern in construction and of a size to take care of our school conditions, not only for the immediate present, but for the future. The three ward buildings will be erected one in each of the three remaining corners of the district and one in the S. E. corner, one in the S. W. corner and one in the N. W. corner of the district.

It is a wasting space and an insult to your intelligence to dwell upon the need that has grown for additional buildings to care for our public schools. The enrollment has more than doubled since our last building was completed. Each year shows an increase of from 15 to 30 per cent. If you have any doubt as to the results of this condition take a half hour off and go look over the school for yourself. If there is any one in the district disgruntled, grouchy and ignorant that they plan to vote against the school bond issue all that is necessary to convince them that they are wrong would be to take them through the school buildings.

These are things that Lubbock must have immediately. We have no choice in the matter and when anything comes up that we have to do we do it, that is all.

Wallace L. Barnes Visiting Here From Little Rock, Ark.

Wallace Barnes, of Little Rock, Ark., is in the city this week transacting business and shaking hands with his many friends here. He is associated with the Arkansas Cigar Co., of that place, and reports lots of rain in that section of the country. The trees and flowers are in full bloom, and the birds beginning to sing, and things in general are beginning to lull up toward normalcy and prosperity. Everybody is in fine spirits and beginning to feel the effects of good times.

Mr. Barnes also says that the people of Arkansas are looking forward with eagerness to the annexation of eastern part of Texas including Dallas and Fort Worth to the State of Arkansas, and they expect in the very near future to carry out their plans along this line; of course we can't fully agree with them in this matter, but they are fully confident that they will sooner or later have their wishes granted, probably later.

We are glad to see Mr. Barnes again in a good town and trust that in the very near future he will see his error and come back to the best town in the world, as everybody is eventually going to try to do.

TWO PROMINENT PEOPLE DIED AT SLATON LAST WEEK

Slatonite: Mrs. Kenyon Adams, wife of W. S. Adams, died at 12:40 o'clock last Saturday morning at the advanced age of 75 years. She had been in failing health for many months. She was born May 16, 1847, in Tolbert County, Georgia, was married to W. S. Adams January 11, 1874, at Lumpkin, Ga. She had been a resident of Texas for the past 35 years, and eight years in Lubbock County.

It is a waste of time and energy to outline the needs of such a building. They have simply become so acute that we have no choice in the matter we must have a Community Auditorium. The Traveling Men's Banquet should have been held in the Community Auditorium. The District School meet should be held in the Community Auditorium, our Poultry Show and live stock judging contest, our Chautauquas, Lyceums and local plays should be held in the Community Auditorium.

Let's go.

Frank Miller, aged 44 years, seven months and ten days, died at 5:30 o'clock last Sunday morning at the family home, two miles west of Slaton, after an illness covering several months' duration. Mr. Miller had long suffered from cancer of the stomach.

His wife died about six years ago. He is survived by seven children, his aged mother, Mrs. Susan Heilers, one brother and six sisters.

Mr. Miller was a devout member of the Catholic church, and one of the most substantial and highly respected citizens of his community.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Catholic church, conducted by Rev. Father Conrad of Nazareth. Burial followed in Englewood cemetery.

TEXAS PRISON SYSTEM OBTAINS LOAN OF $700,000; TO BE PAID BACK IN OCTOBER, AT 7 PER CENT

Austin, Texas, March 8.—A loan for the prison system was successfully negotiated today, as forecast in last night's news dispatches. The money will be obtained on a 7 per cent basis without the payment of any bonus or expense items. It will be slightly more than $700,000, the Governor thinks. It is to be repaid Feb. 1, 1923, but no sooner than Oct. 1, next. The money comes from the Brown-Crummer Company, investment bankers of Wichita, Kan., who have representatives here meeting with the Governor, the members of the prison commission and Attorney General. There was a final conference in the Governor's office today, when the papers were signed.

The prison system has not had any cash since about the middle of last December. Its credit was not the best, and the guards and other employees were getting paper and not cash for their monthly services. All of this will be redeemed at once and the system has sufficient funds to tide it over until the crops are made.

To Pay With 1922 Crops.
It is hoped to repay the loan with proceeds from this year's crops, hence the privilege of commencing repayment Oct. 1, the beginning of the harvest season. Today's loan was made necessary by the Legislature refusing to accede to the request of the Governor and Prison Commission for an appropriation of $897,000 to tide it over until the crops are made. When the Governor would not recall the Legislature and submit additional recommendations made by the joint legislative commission which investigated the prison system, a majority of its members decided to vote money to maintain the system. Some of them thought they could force the Governor to call a special session, but he has outwitted them.

Governor Neff made the following formal statement today regarding the successful conclusion of the negotiations:

"To the people of Texas: For some months numerous reports have been in circulation regarding the financing of the penitentiary system. The penitentiary belongs to the people. Like other State institutions, the State is charged with the responsibility of operating it. The Legislature having adjourned without having provided for its operating expenses other than appropriating the proceeds from the labor of the convicts, it was necessary to make other plans. There are 3,300 convicts in the penitentiary. It costs approximately $70,000 per month to feed, clothe, and guard them. The penitentiary has had no money since the first of last December. It is now something in excess of $250,000 in debt for operating expenses."

MISS HENSLEY SEEKING B. A. DEGREE AT BAYLOR

Waco, Texas, March 11.—Miss Margaret Hensley, a freshman in Baylor University, is taking courses leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree. The first year class, of which Miss Hensley is a member, is one of the largest first year classes in the history of Baylor, including over three hundred students.

Miss Hensley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hensley of Lubbock, Texas. She received her preparatory school training in the Lubbock High School, entering Baylor at the beginning of the present year. Miss Hensley is applying herself diligently to the required first year studies. She enters heartily into the work of the clubs which she finds time for membership in. She is a member of the Panhandle Club, and the Calliopean Literary Society.

Texas Loses Suit In Many Transportation Suits

Washington, March 8.—The suit in equity filed by the State of Texas against the Interstate Commerce Commission, involving practically all of the essential provisions of the transportation act of 1920, was dismissed by the United States Supreme Court for want of jurisdiction.

In essential particulars, the opinion delivered by Justice Van Devanter, points out that the litigation concerns vitally the carriers and the United States, and that neither were made parties to the suit.

This means that the suit may be initiated by the State in the regular way in the courts below, and reach the Supreme Court in that manner.

Plains to Have Champion Roper At Ft. Worth Show

In the last issue of two of this paper you probably have noticed that Lubbock claims the champion "Windjammer" and the champion "Chicken Raiser" of the Plains. Lubbock is to be commended for leading along these lines.

But, now, we wish to present to you the champion "trick and fancy roper," of all contests entered by him to this date. Such a one is Milte Goode, of Brownfield, well known throughout this section by the honors and awards received by him in contests with the rope. He bars nothing from rattlesnakes to elephants, when it comes to trickery with a loop. Last year in Shreveport, La., Mr. Goode set a new world's record in trick and fancy goat and steer roping. Also he holds the championship of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado and Wyoming.

Mr. Goode passed through Lubbock Friday enroute to Fort Worth, where he expects to enter the contests in the Fat Stock Show at that place, and we will wager that he will bring back his part of the glory involved.

Such are the products of the South Plains. Come Out and Look Us Over.

Houston Upton Who Shot Two Girls and Himself, Will Live

Plainview, March 9.—Houston Upton, the youth who was found in a critical condition with a bullet wound in his body, in a schoolhouse in the Sunset community in Floyd County, Monday morning, February 27, following the fatal shooting of Gladys Solomon, 15, and Nell Umberston, 13, while they slept at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Martha Umberston, was said to have a good chance to recover.

Upton, who is now in a hospital at Floydada, the county seat of Floyd County, is said to have confessed having fired the shots that resulted in the death of the girls. He also is said to have fired the shot into his own body after having gone to the schoolhouse where he was found.

The Floyd County grand jury is said to be investigating the shooting, but no action has been announced.

HOTEL AT TAHOKA UNDER NEW CHARGE

Tahoka, March 8.—The Leedy hotel has become the property of C. A. Miller of Mineral Wells at a consideration of $9,500. Mr. Miller has taken charge. The building will be completely remodeled and refurbished, it was stated.

FOUR AMARILLO BARBERS TO BE TRIED ON MONDAY

Amarillo, Texas, March 9.—Four Amarillo barbers, John Short, Ben Seanor, R. R. Nations and Harry Barker, will be tried at Canyon Monday on charges of assault with prohibited weapons.

These are the men who are also charged with whitecapping in connection with violence toward J. M. Dendy, proprietor of a local barber college. The men are alleged to have taken Dendy outside the city one night last November and offered him violent treatment. In taking him out of the city, they crossed the Randall County line, which runs along the south city limits of Amarillo. Hence, they were indicted in both counties.

Frank Patton, of Benjamin, Texas, brother-in-law of E. C. Young, was visiting in town yesterday. He was enroute to Hereford to look over a fine bunch of cattle at that place, he being quite an extensive cattle owner.

He is widely known in Panhandle educational circles, having been superintendent at Dalas a number of years and at Paducah 11 years.

Mr. Sone has done much toward building up athletic activities in the schools. He said that he hoped to make plans which he would continue to keep in mind in Canyon, although he did not announce what he expected to do in the future.

MOTHER SAVES SONS LIFE BY CUTTING OFF COWS TAIL

Childress, Texas, March 9.—Joe Eudy, living eight miles south of Childress, today reported doctors believe his little boy, who has been unconscious since Monday, when he was injured in an unusual manner, will recover.

The youngster was playing with a cow, holding her tail, when his hand became caught in the hair and the boy was dragged half a mile before Mrs. Eudy, chasing the exhausted animal with a knife, severed the tail.

NATIONAL BATTERY ORGANIZATION PRACTICALLY COMPLETED IN LUBBOCK ACCORDING TO THE OFFICIALS

The meeting of the members and those interested in the organization of a National Guard Battery for the city of Lubbock, held at the Justice Court room last Friday night was well attended and a very enthusiastic and full-pep discussion was had. Actual organization was entered into, and two officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Emmitt Porter and Albert H. Bouliouin, 1st Lieutenants; M. M. Mitchell, 2nd Lieutenant. The non-commissioned officers in charge of the horses and paraphernalia will be selected later, they being appointive officers by the Commander in charge of the unit.

This is a great organization and should have the co-operation of the citizenship as a whole, for it not only affords good training for those who enter the actual activities of the organization, but is a form of advertisement for a town that can be derived from no other source. The government places forty horses, several, approximately 3 inch guns, and provides full and complete uniforms for the enlisted men. All the feed and other necessary upkeep connected with the Battery is bought locally on a competitive basis, which itself is no small item. The unit is composed of all local men from the Commander to the rear rank rook, and Lubbock is indeed fortunate in having here a man capable of holding the commanding officers job, one who saw service on the front line with the Artillery and who understands the work of that branch of the service.

The requirements of the members of the organization are very lax only requiring an hour and a half drill per week, with a fifteen day period of camp training at some central point in August. They are not subject to call on militia work or any public disorder, except in case of local riot or disastrous fire, in which case they are subject to call and are always ready and willing to go.

The personnel of the officers are men who saw service in the trenches, and who rose to their commissions from the rank of a "Buck-private" in the regular service, and anyone who has had occasion to witness or participate in such a procedure, know that they are deserving of all they receive. Local enlistment headquarters are maintained at the Eik Barber Shop, and those interested are requested to leave their application there. A few more men are yet needed to fill out the quota and just as soon as this is filled, the Government will carry out their part of the contract of establishing a full-fledged Battery here.

Let's go for the Battery, and encourage these boys in every way possible, for they are certainly taking a forward step.

American Legion Hospital to Soon Have 600 Patients

Austin, Tex., March 10.—Provisions for an increase in the number of patients at the American Legion memorial tuberculosis sanatorium at Kerrville, Texas, from 64, the present number, to about 600, will be ready when the final units of the hospital are completed. Contracts for the last units, which bring the total number of units to 20, with a capacity of about 600 patients, were let this week.

L. W. Tittle, a member of the state board of control, said ex-servicemen and civilians are among the patients at the Kerrville hospital at present, with the ex-soldiers in the majority. According to Mr. Tittle the hospital was designed principally for soldiers but also will be used for the treatment of civilians.

The new tuberculosis sanatorium at Kerrville was turned over to the state by the American Legion early last year, after an appropriation of $1,500,000 had been made for its construction. The hospital when filled to capacity will hold more patients than the State Tuberculosis sanatorium at Carlisle, Texas, where civilian patients are treated. The Carlisle institution has a capacity of about 450 patients, according to Mr. Tittle.

The Kerrville hospital units include an administration building, in which the dining hall will be located, the superintendent's residence, a power house, laundry, two help's dormitories, a nurses' home, four one-story dormitories, and six two-story dormitories, according to information furnished here.

POLICE TAKE IN BOOT-LEGGERS SATURDAY

Saturday night Chief Hufstetter and Constable Rhea, upon noticing rather a suspicious character on the streets, proceeded to buy a quart of "hooch" from him, then took him into custody. His name was given as Herman Witt, and he hails from Lorenzo. The local authorities immediately phoned to the Crosby County officials, and search was made of the home of Mr. Witt at Lorenzo. They found booze, together with a full-fledged still and mash, and everything connected with a modern factory of that kind.

Christian College Will Be Moved To Cisco Soon

Cisco, Texas, March 9.—The trustees of Midland Christian College at Midland, Texas, have accepted a proposition offered by the city of Cisco through the local Chamber of Commerce, and with the sanction of the educational board of the Texas Christian Church organization, the college will be located in Cisco before the beginning of the next school year, in September.

The city proposes to expend about $50,000 in repairing and equipping the old Britton College property, one and one-half miles north of town, to be used by the Midland College free from rent for a period of ten years, at the end of which time the school will obtain a deed to the property, now consisting of 100 acres of ground and three buildings, the main school building and two dormitories.

School Athletics As Seen By a College Coach

In an interview with Coach Burton of the West Texas State Normal College regarding athletics in high schools he gave out the following information.

"I have often been asked by teachers and parents whether or not pupils in the grammar grades, as well as in the high schools and colleges, should put their entire time on their books and leave out entirely the work in athletics and other competitive games. My answer has always been, and I believe it always will be, that of all the things with which we come in contact school athletics and other properly supervised games and plays will serve to prepare us for the great game of life better than any other thing. This is true of course only when athletics is held upon a high plane, and when we are taught that to be successful in play we must merge ourselves and our personalities into that of the team.

"Too often when we are graduated from school, or college we are told that the progress of civilization has been waiting on us, and that all we have to do is go out and conquer the world. And 'conquer' is right, for the truth of the business is that the world is just waiting to take a swat at every one who enters the ring. But if every boy and girl learns those principles which are taught on the athletic field and in the gymnasium—to fight, first, keep up courage, and above all to keep that self-confidence and self-respect that is so essential in all games, even in the game of life—the problems we meet after school will be much more easily solved. Then, too, a well-developed mind in a well-developed body will function more perfectly than will the poorly developed mind in the poorly developed body.

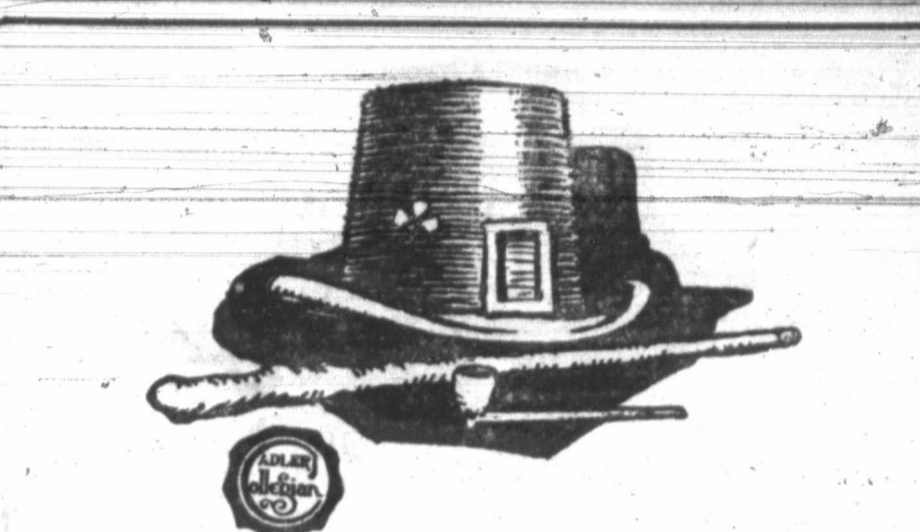

"I believe that athletics has reached a stage of development where it no longer becomes necessary to go into details in its defense. Athletics needs no defense. It is a recognized fact everywhere that athletics has come into our schools to stay. We should encourage our boys and girls to take part in as many kinds of athletics as their school programs will permit. Teach them to win, but to win fairly, and the chances are that when they do enter life after their period of preparation they will win."

HOUSEHOLD MENU HINT

- By Mrs. Monton Baked Apples with Top Milk. Broiled Bacon. Coffee. French Toast. Lunch or Supper. Potato Soup. Apple and Onion Salad. Crisp Rolls. Steamed Coffee Custard. Dinner. Cold Meat, Sliced. Escalloped Potatoes. Buttered Carrots and Peas. Orange Salad with Whipped Cream Dressing. Coffee.

Recipes Potato Soup—Boil six potatoes and when done and pared, put them through the ricer. Have ready a quart of rich milk which has had a grated onion steeped in it for fifteen minutes and a tablespoon of chopped white celery leaves. Add a generous lump of butter, pepper, salt, a teaspoon of sugar and a tablespoon of celery salt. Stir the hot milk slowly into the potatoes, put all into the double boiler and bring to the boiling point. Put the yolk of an egg into the bottom of a hot tureen and strain the soup onto it, stir with ladle and serve at once.

Salted Mixed Nuts—For a change salt mixed nuts instead of one kind. Shell and blanch almonds, shell pecans and walnuts without breaking the meats, and shell and skin peanuts. Then mix them and place them in a cake pan. Pour a little olive oil over them, sprinkle them with salt, mix them up with a silver spoon and brown slowly and thoroughly in the oven. Stir them up from the edge of the pan occasionally to keep them browning evenly.

Tomato and Bacon Toast—Butter slices of toast and on each plate a slice of tomato, two slices of crisp hot bacon and a spoonful of mayonnaise dressing. Serve at once.

Table Notes A new "tile" for protecting the table polish from hot dishes is an oval of silver in Dutch pattern. And it is surprisingly inexpensive.

Very attractive are new luncheon sets of filet that give each cover a square shaped like a tray cloth. This design is particularly appropriate for the refectory style of eating table.

Imaginary Travels Amuse Children—Save all the old catalogues and magazines and lay them up for this game. The game is this: Each child decides in his own mind on some trip he is going to take. It may be a vacation trip, a trip to a wedding in a distant part of the state, or any other trip they imagine they would like to take. Then they begin to cut the articles out of the catalogues that they think they will need on their trips. When each one gets everything cut out that he wants, they take turns in telling a story of their trip and showing the things they have cut out to take with them.

Wages Must Be Reduced When Rates Are Cut

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 10.—Robert S. Binkerd of New York, speaking before The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce today declared that railroad rates can not be further reduced until wages of rail workers have been further cut.

"The wage reductions now sought by the roads," said Mr. Binkerd, who is assistant to the chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, "are for the purpose of enabling the railroads to collect a lesser gross revenue for the shipping and consuming public, while still remaining solvent enterprises."

"The roads," he said, "have been working for reduced rail wages since October last, with the understanding that the reduction received would be passed on to the public in the shape of reduced rates."

"The railways today," he said, "are pleading the cause of the whole producing and consuming public. The policy they are attempting to accomplish in the long run will be equally beneficial to the interest of the railroad employes themselves."

BREEDER OF PRIZE-WINNING CATTLE SEES SERIOUS MISTAKES IN NEW RULES GOVERNING CATTLE SHOWS

Sweetwater Reporter:

Much interest has been aroused among Hereford breeders relative to the change in the show classifications and rules prohibiting nurse cows. Many believe that the change is for the better while others hold the opposite opinion.

Among those who think that the change is disadvantageous to the breeding of Herefords is Henry H. Halff of Midland, Texas. Mr. Halff has built up one of the leading Hereford herds in West Texas and his opinions are valued by cattlemen. Mr. Halff has probably won more blue ribbons at the Stock shows throughout the State than any other breeder.

Mr. Halff has explained his reasons for objecting to the new classification in a letter which was published in The Hereford Journal of January 15, 1922 in the following letter:

"It is too bad that the Hereford breeders are handicapping themselves in so many ways.

"One of the greatest misfortunes of the Hereford cattle is the color fad, and quite frequently we are forced to send to the shambles marvelous specimens of the Hereford breed because they have a little too much white, a little too much red, a spot here or a spot there. I am sure the time will come when this will be changed, and only hope that it will happen soon and we will all realize that Hereford cattle are to eat and that color has no effect on the stein steak.

"If the show classifications are to be changed, let's have them for the good of the breed in general.

"Along this line I would suggest that we eliminate entirely all animals over two years old. We all know that it is injurious to breeding animals to keep them in show condition after they are mature, and if, perchance, there should be an animal worthy of championship honors, or an animal which is superior to all other animals of the Hereford breed he should be doing his duty in the breeding herd and should not waste his valuable time on the show circuit—this for the good of the breed.

"It matters not how good an individual is if he cannot reproduce himself. Instead of taking the money from the young animals the premiums for them should be increased.

"I read in your paper much criticism about feeding show herds, and it seems as if these parties are afraid, that someone will produce a good Hereford. My advice is to let them feed gold dust, cracker dust or anything else that will make a good Hereford, and if it will improve any animal in the breed I would be glad to see the owner carry along a carload of nurse cows to every show calf.

"Some ignorant person might think that the Hereford breeders use nurse cows because the mothers do not give sufficient milk. But what are you going to do when your good breeding cows produce two calves in twelve months and wish to develop a young animal? Many of my best cows are having calves every 11 months, and the reason of this is that I wean my calves early and give the cows a chance to develop another good calf.

"Anyone ought to know that a cow cannot produce a good calf if she is allowed to suckle her calf 11 months, eight of which she is carrying the second calf.

"There are some rules now in the show classification which keep out our best cattle. I refer to the rules which make it necessary that the females of the young herd and all members of the calf herd must be bred by the exhibitor.

"I believe that we want the best cattle on exhibition, and if anyone is rich enough and noble enough to go out and buy show cattle and take them to various fairs, I am opposed to placing my restrictions. At its best the show business is very expensive and there is not one man out of a hundred who can make expenses out of it.—The show business is necessary for the development of the cattle, and we should appreciate and laud and help all good men who are willing to devote their time and money to that purpose."

Then she began to observe them.
Then she not only celebrated them but advertised them.
Then she decided it would be wiser just to observe them.
Then she began to wish she hadn't even observed them.
Then she ignored them.
And finally she denied them.
However, there were always a few kind friends to remind her of them, and to keep the score for her.

Some Important Facts
On account of the demand for higher education in this country, every new schoolhouse is being built on a hill.
Sir Walter Raleigh was the first white man to smoke tobacco, but he didn't enjoy it because he didn't get any cigar coupons.
It takes longer to walk from Savannah, Ga., to Green Springs, Wis., than to Crab Orchard, Ky., but neither place is worth walking to.
Rye, N. Y., is so called because you can't get any there.
A pint of moonshine gin saved a Kansas man's life last week. A friend of his stole it and drank it.

The Wrong Shift
The Boss—I find you've stolen over $500 worth of stock in the week you've worked here. And you were said to be as honest as the day is long.
The Culprit—Sure, I was. But you put me to work on the night shift.

New Jases For Old
You can say what you like of the old girl at home,
But give me a new one each week, I'm wise in the ways of the wild, wicked world;
And words full of wisdom I speak.
If you rush a strange girl she will never get wise
To the fact that your dress suit is hired.
But the old ones will note how much varies the size
Of the tail-coat in which you're attired.

If you have a new Jane you are never afraid
That your chatter is growing too stale;
You can hand her the line that a week ago made
You seem bright to another fair frail.

So, list to the wise words of men who have seen
And know the things whereof they speak;
Get a girl—rush her hard while you are at it—but then Get another one after a week.

SHOWER OF ROCKS IS MYSTERY IN CALIFORNIA
Chico, Calif., March 10.—Showers of rocks that fell "from the clouds" on a warehouse here have baffled the police, neighbors and various official and unofficial investigators.
Today J. W. Charge, owner of the warehouse, posted the offer of a reward of $200 to the person revealing the source of the rocks.
While the town marshal and a committee of newspaper men and others were examining the corrugated iron roof yesterday a shower of large smooth rocks fell, sending the investigators scurrying for cover.
Others, standing on the streets at the time, declared the rocks seemed to come straight from the clouds.
Those employed in the building reported that the mysterious bombardments of the roof had been occurring periodically for three weeks.

MATADOR RAILROAD LOSES ONLY ENGINE
Quanah, March 8.—Not only do the longer railway lines of the country have their times of trouble, but the short lines also have thrust upon them many vicissitudes. For instance recently the Motley County railroad lost its only locomotive by fire. A few days ago its station building at Matador Junction was burned.

Parents are you bringing your children to the Eastern gate, or letting them find the Northern gate, the Southern gate, the Western gate, or not finding God in this life? A great deal of enthusiasm is being created in the Christian Endeavor which meets at 6:45 p. m.

Night service, subject "Sin and it's influence." We were glad to see the full house and the undivided attention that you give. Everyone and everything is looking forward to the meeting that is to begin July 9, a few prayer books are being earnestly carried for the success of this meeting.

ABERNATHY BAND ORGANIZED BY LUBBOCK INSTRUCTOR

Monte Bowron, local band instructor, reports that he has organized a band with twenty pieces at Abernathy and will be actively engaged in taking care of that part of his work. Mr. Bowron has been in Lubbock for many years and is recognized as an instructor of real ability. He has successfully organized a band here, and the music they are making proves beyond any doubt that he knows his business. May the Abernathy band become one of the really noisy institutions in this section is our wish.

POULTRY SHOW WILL BE GOOD FEATURE OF FARMERS' SHORT COURSE HERE MARCH 20-21

Through the efforts of the management of the Farmers' Short Course to be held here March 20 and 21, arrangements have been made for a two days Poultry Show in connection with the Short Course. This show is open to every citizen of Lubbock County. Plans are now being made to make this show an annual event and it is to be hoped that every breeder of standard-bred poultry in the county will avail himself of this opportunity to compete for the prizes offered. The prizes within themselves will not make or break anyone, but the parties donating these prizes have done so to encourage the production of more and better poultry in the county as well as to encourage our people to come out and show what we are doing along this line in the county.

The show will be held in the glassed-in show-room of the Lub-Tex Auto Company, and nice wire exhibition coops will be provided to take care of the birds while here, and feed will be furnished free of charge. The building will be in charge of a watchman at all times to insure the exhibitors against the loss or injury of any of the fowls. Let's all bring our chickens, or a single individual, if no more are available, and help make this, our initial show, a real success.

W. C. BRYAN FOR CITY COMMISSIONER NO. 3

At the solicitation of several tax paying qualified voters of the City of Lubbock, I have consented to be a candidate for the office of City Commissioner No. 3 at the City Election, and ask the support of all qualified voters at the Polls.

To those who do not already know me, I wish to say that I am a man of family, a home owner and have resided in Lubbock about 12 years, during which time, I have been engaged in public business most all the time, and at present am in the garage and accessory business on Eleventh Street at Oakland Sales Co. building, and would be glad for the voters of Lubbock to call and see me anytime it is convenient for them.

I believe in strict law enforcement, and in Economy and Progress, in Good Schools and Churches and the future of the City of Lubbock and expect to make Lubbock my home in the future, whether elected or not. I am opposed to extravagance and waste of any kind, whether public or private, and will stand firm for the right in every instance if I know the right, and if elected, I promise to give close attention to the duties of the office and am yours for service,

W. C. BRYAN.

Poultry Raising Very Profitable In Lubbock County

A recent article in the Avalanche regarding Lubbock having the distinction of having the champion "hot air" peddler in West Texas in which was given an account of "Red" Kuykendall's experience at a recent meeting in Sweetwater does not intimate in the least that Lubbock county's speelers are the only creatures who make a showing as leaders, which has substantial proof in the fact that we have one of the most expert chicken raisers in the entire area of West Texas, and that champion is W. J. Roberts, just an ordinary farmer, who works about a dozen and a half hours per day making his farm pay by diversification, both in crops and stock, and the writer just happened to be hanging around a local produce house the first of the week when Mr. Roberts brought in fourteen nice hens, weighing an average of five and seven-sevenths pounds each, the fourteen bringing a nice sum of fourteen dollars, and seventy-five cents, which Mr. Roberts says is "all velvet," as the hens were self supporting, not a dime having been spent on feed for them. He raised Rhode Island Reds, and said the bunch he sold on this occasion liked a little being thoroughbreds and he is culling his flock of off-breeds. A few months ago he brought in a load of hens of a better breed, which netted the neat sum of seven pounds each, and as during that time the price of chickens was up a little as compared with the price at this time a considerably larger check was received.

There is nothing out of the ordinary about Lubbock County people having nothing to complain about, they are in the best farming what this country is and what its people are doing, and we do not wish for anyone to take our article about him as anything more or less than a commendation for his go-get-ness and willingness to boost Lubbock county, and this article about what Mr. Roberts is doing with his poultry can be repeated many times over by gathering data from our farmer friends who know Lubbock county and have enough energy to work out its possibilities.

If you are not entirely of the belief that this section is a winner as a farming section seek some fellow who has been here several years, and get a little information about what he thinks about it.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY PRES. IS VISITOR IN LUBBOCK

Dr. J. C. Hardy, President of Baylor Female College, of Belton, Texas, is in the city in the interest of his college. He came to Belton some three or four years ago from Mississippi, and in that time has built up the institution from about 400 to 1500 pupils. Dr. Hardy is a great man and we are always glad to welcome such men to our town. He was a guest at the "Stag Banquet," and was high in his praise of the activities of the local Chamber of Commerce. Come again, Dr.

HOW THEY STAND ON SCHOOL QUESTIONS

Under this head we will be glad to print the views of each and every candidate for office on the school question in Lubbock. Every voter has a right to know and the Avalanche wants to help them find out. If you are for the school you will not be opposed to express your views:

Percy Spencer favors Schools

Lubbock, Tex., March 11, 1922.

In your last issue you expressed a desire to know how all the candidates for public office stood on the school bond election. Please list me as in favor of the bonds. At the risk of being misunderstood, possibly, I am going to add that I am more interested in that proposition than I am in the mayor's race. What I mean is this, I am in the race to stay, I intend to use my very best efforts to be elected, and would very keenly regret a defeat; still I have a very high regard for Mr. Inman as a man and as a citizen, and am not conceited enough to think that it would be any dire calamity to Lubbock for me to be defeated. On the other hand, I believe that a failure to provide the schools of Lubbock with the proper equipment and funds would be nothing short of disastrous.

I regard the mayor's office as one of very great importance to Lubbock. I have some very positive views as to how it should be filled, and if elected, I will do what I can to make Lubbock a better place to live in and a better place to own property in, but mayor or no mayor, we would have a very poor town without the best of schools.

Respectfully, PERCY SPENCER.

Longhorns Selected As Name For The Lubbock Baseball Team and Mrs. Roger Pierce Receives the Prize

E. A. Morgan of the local West Texas League says that final reports are in on the contest for a name for the Club at this point. It was quite a task to draw out from a list of several hundred names the one that would suit best without apparently showing favoritism in the contest.

Now, just because the name that you selected was not the one taken by the committee, don't puff yourself and swell up or you might blow away in one of these high winds, but let's get down to brass tacks, and since the name has been selected and the contest closed, it is up to every one to give the "Longhorns" their whole-hearted support, for the fight has narrowed down now to a contest between cities and not between individuals in one city.

Within the next few days, these men will be moving in here with their families, and the main thing is to make them feel at home, and realize that they are coming to "Lubbock, The Hub," and to do this, we must open up on them when they come, and show them the old spirit of Western Hospitality, and make them feel that at last they have found the place they are hunting.

Along the line of a winning team, let us say here that there never was brighter prospects for a winning team from every standpoint than faces the "Longhorns" today. The team that Lubbock got when they closed a deal for the Ballinger franchise was absolutely a winning bunch, being second to the lead when the League was broken up last year. Only a few days ago, an Amarillo visitor was in town, and he made the remark that he would wager 2 to 1 on Lubbock that she would come out in first place. That is the spirit that prevails the country over.

Actual work will be begun about the 20th of March, full paraphernalia having been ordered and will be here in plenty of time, says Mr. Morgan.

Let's go in for a great year in baseball. If you will stand behind your team, we will have a winner. If not, what will be the natural conclusion? Here's to hearty co-operation for the "Longhorns."

Governor Neff Will Visit the Plains Late in April

Austin, Texas, March 10.—With invitations for him to speak at various towns over the state coming in rapidly, Governor Neff is gradually working out the itinerary of his speaking campaign next month when he will discuss "Texas, its perils and possibilities."

He will speak at Childress on April 26, from there he will go to Wellington, Wheeler and Canadian. He plans to speak at a number of other towns in that part of the state.

The governor today received an invitation in the form of a petition from the citizens of Garrison, Nacogdoches County, urging him to open his campaign there. They pointed out that Garrison is the former home of his Secretary, R. B. Walthall.

Federal Roads Bill Increased By 50 Millions

Washington, March 10.—Appropriations of $50,000,000 for Federal road construction next year, $1,900,000 for continuing the trans-continental airplane mail service, and $14,900,000 for re-establishing the New York-Brooklyn pneumatic mail tube service, are additions to the annual postoffice appropriation carrying about $24,000,000, which was ordered reported today by the Senate postoffice committee.

In addition to the $50,000,000 for next year in carrying out the Federal highway act, the committee declared for $65,000,000 for 1924, and $75,000,000 for 1925.

Together the Senate committee added nearly $70,000,000 to the postal budget as passed by the House. Among amendments inserted were provisions for continuing the joint postal commission next year and for investigation for "star routes," contracts for 1919 to 1921 to determine whether there should be readjustments of compensation.

An increase of 100 in the number of postoffice inspectors over the 420 authorized by the House, also was recommended by the committee.

ROTARY NOTES
By L. T. Martin.

There is no wind of March which cuts half so deep as the unkind words of a friend. Better one true friend than a host of kinsfolk.

(Cliff) Hunt, chairman of entertainment committee for Wednesday's luncheon used good judgment in selecting his talent. It was a snappy program and one that will do lots of good and will be remembered. When you have good speakers that say something and every word is driven home for the good it is intended to do, you go away knowing that you have not paid six bits for a luncheon, but for the food for thought you take away with you.

(Lu) L. T. Martin, was called upon to introduce the visitors and call the roll. Calling the roll in Rotary means that you must introduce each member, giving his name, nick name and his business or classification.

Roscoe Wilson, the Club lecturer in his usual impressive manner, initiated the new members into the club. These lecturers are made to new members for their enlightenment as to what Rotary stands for. They should study Rotary code of ethics and they cannot help getting the Rotary spirit. The new members taken in were Chris Harwell, J. R. Germany and F. N. Payne. These men are good timber for Rotarians and will make good members.

C. L. Griffin made an announcement in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs as to the banquet given for the benefit of the traveling men coming into Lubbock.

AMERICAN LEGION REPORTS THE ENTIRE AMOUNT OF THE MONEY SQUANDERED RETURNED TO TREASURY

Austin, Texas, March 8.—When Major Wayne Davis, state commander of the American Legion, paid $15,932.45 to the state treasurer today he closed a debt which had been hanging fire since the middle in which the American Legion memorial sanitarium at Kerrville, was thrown into last year by alleged improper use of funds by then then officers of the Legion.

Paying this debt is indicative of the honorable standard on which the American Legion belongs, according to men who were interested in the Legion affairs.

When the state took over the Kerrville hospital last year the Legion owed $32,089.85, to contractors of this establishment. An attorney general's opinion held that the Legion was liable for these debts and that the Legion should turn over to the state any funds it had on hand in connection with the sanitarium.

These funds, applicable to construction of the sanitarium amounted to $20,879,085. Of this sum it developed that $3,000 was properly returnable to the Daughters of the Confederacy as that organization had donated that amount on a cottage to be erected at the sanitarium. This money has been paid to the Daughters of the Confederacy by Major Davis in behalf of the Legion.

Other bills properly allowed of the funds amounted to $1,947.50.

Thus the net amount due the state came to $15,932.45, which was today paid into the treasury. These funds were applied to the purpose for which they were originally intended.

Eight Business Houses Destroyed At Spearman

Spearman, March 9.—Fire last night destroyed eight business houses on the west side of the principal business street here and two others were damaged. Approximations at the total loss and damage were impossible this morning due to a blizzard that is raging, rendering impossible a close inspection of the ruins.

The fire started when an oil stove in the real estate office of McLean & McLean exploded last night about 6:30 o'clock, and the flames quickly spread to the other buildings in the block, all of which were of frame construction. A large number of citizens assisted the fire department in combating the flames, which work was handicapped due to absence of water facilities here.

The buildings destroyed in the fire were: Crawford Hotel, the City Barber Shop, Arcade Theater, Book Shop, McLean & McLean real estate office, T-Bone Cafe and Halle & Rainey real estate office.

Hon. Lucian W. Parrish, Candidate For United States Senator From Texas Addressed Voters at Courthouse Sat.

Lucian W. Parrish, candidate for U. S. Senator from Texas, spoke at the District Court room at Lubbock Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the interest of his candidacy. He was introduced in a flow of eloquence by A. B. Conley, Jr. of this city. His speech in part follows:

"Mr. Chairman, Ladies and gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to appear before you to-day in the interest of my candidacy for U. S. Senator and I will only take a few minutes of your time to explain to you my views on a few of the great issues facing our country today. If there is any point that I fail to touch to your entire satisfaction, I will be more than glad to discuss the issue with you after my speech.

"The time has come when we must cease revamping and digging up old issues that have long since been forgotten, and turn our faces to the front, for there is too much ahead to be done to waste our time in this way.

"There are four outstanding questions with which we are face to face today, and which we should be and are very deeply concerned. They are: (1) Economy in Government expenses, (2) Revival of business conditions, (3) Restriction of Emigration, (4) World Peace.

"As to economy in Government, let me say that something must be done if we expect to hold our place as a nation, we must curtail our National budget. In 1850, the expense of carrying on the Government per capita was $1.77. In 1920 our national government expense was $57.72. There must be some way by which the awful load of taxes now being carried by the people, and especially by the farming class, the class upon which we all depend, can be lowered. We are taxed to death, and the average man today can barely budge under the load he is carrying. There must be a remedy, and I pledge you on my word of honor, if I am elected to buy I will vote for no appropriation not absolutely necessary for a sane and economical form of government.

"The farmer and producer must get a reasonable price for his products. The farmer is the backbone of any Nation, and if they fail the Nation as a whole has failed. The markets of the East are closed to American trade. Austria, Germany, Italy, Belgium, France and practically all of England, who formally handled our cotton crop are no more in position to do so, and until this trade is restored we cannot look for much better conditions. The reason for this lack of trade is that there is too much inequity in the value of exchange. For example, if a Canadian merchant comes into the United States to buy goods on the exchange market his dollar is only worth ninety cents, thus he loses ten per cent in exchange. The merchants of your town will bear me out in saying that 10 per cent is practically all a man can figure on net profits. Thus you see the Canadian merchant has already lost his profits before he even buys his goods, and what is the result? He closes up his business, returns to Canada, and necessarily buys elsewhere if possible. Our products are not in the world's market and the only sane remedy for this is a system of immediate credit, which can be brought about either by extending the War Finance Corporation, or limiting the Federal Reserve Banks.

"What the farmers need today is some system of co-operative marketing. He has no way of putting his goods and products on the market in a safe and sane way. The fruit growers of California have saved themselves millions of dollars in the last few years merely by putting their goods on the market in a co-operative way. Otherwise, there is too much speculation and too many fingers in the pie between the producer and the ultimate consumer.

"And again we are confronted with the present freight rates, which more specifically affects West Texas, for the reason that we must ship our products to Eastern markets to be refined, and the freight rates being prohibitive as they are now, the producer is going to let his stuff rot in the field.

"I believe in the preservation of State rights, and a tariff for revenue only, an American tariff levied equally upon all sections.

"For our own protection we must have the most stringent emigration laws. It is a well known fact that Europe is dumping her undesirable into our country by the millions, and they bring with them all forms of pernicious and deadly diseases. Also some of the foulest criminals known in history are shoved in upon us, and if we preserve our self-respect there must be immediate steps taken to remedy this would-be calamity.

"At the outcome of the last war, the men who carried the real burdens of the strife were confronted with rank injustice. For instance compare the shipbuilder or the munition worker who drew from $10 to $15 per day and the man in the regular service of his country drawing $1.00 per day. I believe that the Capital of the country should be enlisted as well as the manhood.

"And now to the ladies present, let me say that a woman in the Government employ should have the same pay, if holding equal positions, and I wish to pledge myself that if elected to this office I will devote my effort to the solving and enforcement of these most urgent and necessary problems."

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS FROM THE LYNN COUNTY NEWS

The residence and contents belonging to J. A. Brashear in north Tahoka, was completely destroyed by fire Sunday about noon. It is not known how the fire originated, as the family was attending church services at the time. Owing to the high wind, the local fire company could do little toward combating the angry flames. The residence of R. H. Turner directly across the street was in immediate danger owing to the direction of the wind, but was saved from destruction by quick work of the fire department and hundreds of men and boys who had gathered. The dwelling and contents was valued at $4,500.00. Insurance was carried to the amount of $1,500.00. Mr. Brashear and family were the recipients of many necessary household articles donated by friends and neighbors last Monday evening.

District Judge W. R. Spencer, came down from Lubbock Monday morning and recessed the term of district court until Monday of next week, at which time the grand jury will convene. The judge stated that the docket would be very light during the present term.

Belton Howell, who underwent an operation in the West Texas Sanitarium at Lubbock two weeks ago was able to return home Sunday.

The sight has been purchased near the local depot as a location for a new gin at O'Donnell. It will be the latest model six stand, double air blast. The gin will be erected by Hartberger Brothers of Nox City, Texas. One of the brothers arrived in town yesterday to begin work on the new gin in a few days. He is well pleased with the location and says he will erect a gin that the people of O'Donnell will be proud of.

Mrs. W. S. Swan and children came in Sunday from Eastland and will again make their home in Tahoka. Mr. Swan will follow in a few days. Their many friends are glad to welcome their return here. The family are old time settlers in Lynn county.

Messrs A. D. Erwin and H. L. Wren, of Snyder, and W. T. Raybon, of Lubbock, officials of the Fuller Gin Co., were here Saturday looking their gin over and making preparations to begin work. They assure the citizens that they will do everything necessary to put their plant in first class condition to take care of the cotton crop for the coming season.

Fraudulent Census Enumeration in Some Counties in Texas Has Taken Much Money From Schools Who Were Entitled to More

The annual count of the school children of Texas is now being made. In every school district throughout the state taking of the census was scheduled to begin the first of March and it must be completed by the end of March.

It was something of a surprise to learn last year of census frauds in the state in 1919 and 1920. Nearly all these frauds, which amounted to padded rolls, occurred along or close to the Rio Grande border, where notwithstanding less attention is taken there to education than in other sections of Texas, the state apportionment looked so good that an excessively large share was sought for the schools.

Investigations were ordered and conducted in several districts, some of which were proved to have been unjustly suspected and others to have been guilty of padding the rolls. The state superintendent of public instruction reported that these investigations cost the state $2,388.34 and saved $101,389.56 in names eliminated from the rolls. But the saving of this small sum cannot measure the full effect. "It is my hope," said the state superintendent, "that they may awaken apprehension or arouse the conscience in yet other districts where I believe similar conditions to exist. These facts should not operate in the minds of the public to discredit the school authorities generally. The total number of actual or suspected cases of fraud is very small in comparison with the total number of school districts of the state, and I believe the majority of the census rolls to have been taken honestly and in accordance with the law."

Miss Blanton, state superintendent, was hampered by lack of funds in making investigations and correcting the padded rolls. In a recent communication she complained of the treatment received last summer from some members of the legislature in consequence of her efforts to obtain honest results from the scholastic census, and said it would not be encouraging to other state officials in an effort to fight graft. "If the people desire good government, they should see to it that public officials are upheld in a courageous discharge of their duties," she said. "In my efforts against examination frauds, against text-book graft, against padded census rolls and other abuses, I have borne consequences unpleasant to endure. I am not mentioning these facts as a complaint, but as a warning that if the people desire good government, they must stand behind those who fight its battles."—Fort Worth Record.

How to Operate an Incubator

(By F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Husbandman, Extension Service, A. & M. College)

The rearing of chicks is and always has been a big problem, on the general farm as well as commercial poultry plants. With time, many kinds of brooding systems have been evolved. Of all the brooding systems, the colony house with portable hovers, is the best for general farm use.

On farms, where chicks are to be brooded in flocks of less than 300, we recommend building a house 8'x8' or 10'x10' and high enough so you can work anywhere in the house without bumping your head. In the middle of this house we place a 1-2" mesh wire partition 20" to 24" high, so it is easily struttled. A partition this high will do away with all gates and yet, keep the chicks apart. This gives us two pens of equal size in the house. We place a hover in one or both of these pens, large enough to accommodate 150 chicks.

These houses should always be built portable so they may be moved onto fresh ground each year. Contaminated yards and grounds around brooding crops or houses is a common cause for all kinds of chick diseases, including gape worms. It is a great mistake to raise baby chicks on the same ground year after year. Another good reason for constructing these houses portable, is so they can be scattered about the farm, so the growing chicks, will pick up more grains and insects. Many farmers are recognizing growing chicks as great insect destroyers. Some farmers use turkeys and chickens to control cotton insects.

Where only a few portable houses are used it is best to build them on skids. The skids may consist of 2"x6" tapered at the ends.

We have found the shed roof type of house the best. The rear wall about 5' high and the front 6' high. The door in the south end, facing the house south.

Portable houses are best built with wooden floors, because without the floors, movable houses soon rack to pieces.

It is not necessary to build new houses when other buildings are available.

Old buildings sometimes harbor many rats, hence it is necessary to recognize this because one rat can kill an entire brooder full of chicks in one night. One of the best ways of controlling rats that we have found, is by blocking all buildings about a foot above the ground, and cleaning up the rubbish about the premises. Rats like to hide in wood piles, lumber piles, boxes, etc.

We have found two kinds of brooders very satisfactory—the coal heated and the kerosene. For early brooding and where hard coal is available we find the coal heated colony house hovers the best. The more simple the heater the better. Hard coal should be used. We have found soft coal very unsatisfactory.

The coal heated brooders, are fine in cold weather, because they warm up the entire room more. Coal heaters are safer and provide more heat than kerosene.

The blue flame kerosene hovers may be used in the place of coal heaters. We have found them very satisfactory for brooding chicks in warm weather or late spring. The use of kerosene hovers, always involves some risk from fire. For this reason they should not be placed in or close to valuable large farm buildings. The use of a kerosene lamp always involves fire risk.

All hovers or brooders are about 50 per cent overrated. We place only 250 to 300 chicks in a hover rated by the manufacturers for 500 chicks. It never pays to crowd too many chicks in one brooder.

Electric brooders have not been found very satisfactory because they are stone cold a few minutes after the current goes off. It is seldom a season passes without the current going off at least once.

Fireless brooders are not satisfactory, because it has been found that heat is a very important factor in raising chicks.

Small out-door kerosene heated brooders have not been found very satisfactory. They are too expensive and not large enough.

The first few days, we place a foot-high yard about 12 inches from the edge of the hover all the way around the hover. We do this to keep the chicks close to the source of heat, and to prevent their getting too far away from the source of heat and getting chilled.

We provide one chick size fountain to every fifty chicks. These fountains are so fixed the chicks can not get wet in them. Too few water fountains is a serious mistake. Grit, oyster shells and charcoal boxes are also necessary.

Shallow pie tins, clean boards, heavy card board and common newspapers may be used as feeding dishes or pans. Always provide a sufficient number of these so that the chicks will not have to crowd at feeding time.

For runs or yards we have found common tin about 20" high and 30" long to be very good. We put this yard up in a circle shape, attaching each end of the tin to one side of the chick pen. The stakes about two feet long are driven into the ground to hold up the tin yard.

For an incline for the chicks to get in and out, we have found nothing better than dirt. We take a shovel and fill in enough dirt, so they can readily get back and forth and in and out of the building.

All corners in the house, should be rounded out, the chicks can not crowd into them, while they are sure to do. Chicks like to crowd into corners.

We recommend nailing a piece of tin or sheet iron, under the heater, either coal or kerosene. This will save the floors and reduce the danger from fires.

Where brooders are not used, natural brooding with the old hen is necessary. The common "A" shaped type of coop has been found satisfactory. Shed roof coops and common salt barrels may also be used.

Capons sometimes make excellent mothers. Not all capons, however, will take chicks. The broody hen and coop must be kept clean and free from vermin, by the liberal use of kerosene on the coop only. Copyright 1922 by F. W. Kazmeier.

PARENTS AS EDUCATORS

GARDENING "Oh Painter of the fruits and flowers. We thank thee for thy wise design. Whereby these human hands of ours In nature's garden work with Thine."—Froebel.

Down deep in every child's heart is a love for his mother-earth. How a child enjoys making mud-pies, digging holes, or just sitting in the dirt, working it with his hands! Often the mother thinks more of the soiled clothing and dirty hands than of her baby's developing love of Nature; but why not leave him happy and free in a garden all his own?

If you are fortunate enough to have a yard, by all means let your child have a little corner of it; if you happen to live in an apartment, a window box or a flower pot would make a fair substitute. On the window sill where the brightest sun enters, the box or pot should be placed. Here the little tots can sow the seeds, water and care for the plants as they develop. What a delight to watch the first green shoots burst forth and the tiny green leaves appear! In the window garden, bright-colored or sweet-scented flowers are the best, nasturtiums, sweet-alyssum and pansies from seeds; or tulips, hyacinths and Jonquils from bulbs.

But if your child can have a garden of his own, let him prepare the soil for planting by himself. The ground must be dug and raked over, for which he will need a garden set, easily procured at small cost. Allow him to choose his own seeds or plants even if his choice differs from your own. My small son took about a dozen sprouted onions from my pantry and planted them as a border around my pansy bed, but he has experienced more joy from those onions than I could have had from a hundred poses.

As the seeds sprout and the plants grow, let your child enjoy them to the fullest extent. Tell him stories about his garden, the sun which warms it, the rain that moistens it. And when the blossoms appear, be sure he picks them to his heart's delight, yet always make use of the flowers. Show him what beauty and sweetness they add to a room.

A child, in caring for his garden, weeding, watering and loosening the soil, will learn all the wonderful returns Nature gives us for the work and the care she exacts.

And as the garden blooms, your child's heart and mind will also unfold. He has learned from his little garden more than you could have taught him in words; and he has learned the lesson of growth and development, of work, and its reward, of beauty in all things, and of God, the Giver of all good.

POLICE FORCE IS DOING BUSINESS WITH CRIMINALS

Our readers will recall that some time ago it was reported that the safe at the Long-Bell Lumber Co. had been robbed. Also that a house in the West part of town had been broken into. Chief of Police Hufstader has advised the writer that the thief has been apprehended and has pleaded guilty to both charges.

Not long ago some auto casings were stolen off a truck here in town. This man has also been found and pleaded guilty. Both men are out on bond.

Good work is now being done by our local police officials and they are to be commended for it, even though these may be considered petty offenses, they lead to larger ones if permitted to continue. Let the good work go on Chief.

T. E. L. Class
On Tuesday afternoon of March 7th, the T. E. L. class of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. A. V. Weaver, with Mrs. Waldrop and Mrs. Gunn as joint hostesses. Several items of business were discussed by the class, the most important of which was the treasurer's report that the $150 pledged by the class to the Building Fund, had been paid. The class raised the amount in a remarkably short time and are deserving of appreciation for the good work.

A delicious plate was served to the following ladies: Mesdames F. Barclay, M. Gunn, A. Hall, McCrummen, J. Holland, I. J. Osborne, C. A. Paulger, Roy, G. A. Gunn, Geo. Moore, Waldrop, Elmo Wall, W. C. Raybon, Matthis, F. K. Mitchell, W. J. Morris, W. C. Barnett and Misses Crouch, Fraser, Hawkins.

The class members will be the guests of Mrs. W. J. Morris, 1412 Avenue O, on April 4th.

Announcement

Here is a date, time and place for every woman in Lubbock to keep in mind—and in doing so see that no other party engagement or otherwise is scheduled for that time viz. March 20, Methodist church, 9:30.

For at that time, date and place, the opening meeting of the Community Short Course will take place. As some of you glance at the name, you just naturally conclude that you are not interested in a Community Short Course and straightway forget about it. Let's make a bargain. You promise to read every word I write about this course, and if I fail to convince you: First, that if you attend these two days you are rendering a service to yourself and to your town. Second, by attending these meetings you will carry home with you "food for earnest thought" and a deeper understanding of what Citizenship, Community Spirit and Co-operation means.

Third, you will be more efficient in your home, after hearing the speakers who have made a life study of problems effecting this sacred realm. Fourth, that through your association with the woman from the country, your vision is broader, and your heart is bigger. If I say I cannot prove to you that the above statements are correct, then you may discard this invitation.

The primary purpose of the Community Short Course, March 20, and 21 is to develop that co-operation and community spirit between the city and country, to discuss our problems with them and likewise their's with us, so that our interest and vision may be broadened accordingly. We are dependent upon each other to a large extent and the progress of one effects the other, as does the lack of progress. The secondary purpose of the course is that of a series of lectures to be given by speakers of authority along agricultural and community lines. Mrs. Laws, in her lecture on "Food and the Home," is not only a speaker, but a speaker with a message. She will speak both afternoons and an opportunity will be afforded to ask questions, on the various problems involved in the subject.

Mr. Mobley will speak both afternoons and brings in his lecture much that will be of practical value to the farmer.

And now here's where the real hospitality of the city is put to a test. Just how much will each individual woman in Lubbock do to make this a community course in the truest sense of the word? There will be community luncheons, both days and it is up to the women of Lubbock to extend to the women from the country a welcome worthy of our city.

There is only one way to do that and that is by being there yourself. The Chamber of Commerce will provide the coffee, bread, pickles and sugar, all you need to do is to make up a delicious basket of fried chicken and salad, or what ever you wish, and be on hand at the first luncheon. The meeting place for the luncheon will be announced later through these columns.

March 20-21, Methodist Church. You will prove by your presence that you, as a citizen of Lubbock, are interested in all that pertains to the welfare of Lubbock.

During the past few weeks the Society Columns have been almost void of the usual parties and social affairs. We attribute this fact to the season of Lent, which began on Ash Wednesday and closes on Easter Sunday.

In speaking of Lent, perchance some wonder what the exact meaning of the word is. The word is Anglo Saxon and means "the season of spring." This annual fast of forty days, as a commemoration of Christ's fast of forty days, described in Matthew 4 and 2, and as a preparation for Easter, the abstaining of amusements, and eating of hearty food, is enjoined by Greek, Roman Catholic, English and Lutheran churches.

No-Name Club

The No-Name Bridge Club met on Thursday evening, March 9 at the home of Mrs. J. R. Germany, with Mrs. Dr. Reed as joint hostess.

The club members for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Weelock, Mr. and Mrs. Hurd Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, Dr. and Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Germany. The guests present were: Miss Bellah, Mrs. J. O. Smith, Mrs. Lotspeich, and Mr. Sylvian Sanders.

A delicious salad course was served, of tuna fish salad, sandwiches, olives, potato chips and coffee. The date and place of next meeting will be announced later.

Smile a While

A wealthy Texan died and left $100,000 to a girl who had refused to marry him, showing that gratitude is not a lost virtue.

"What makes girls run about the way they do?" snarls a petulant clubwoman and a timid exchange suggests that they may be trying to find their mothers.

The following lines hold a sweetness and rare truth, under the lighter style of expression.

Heaven

If I should die before you
I would find heaven
So incomplete without you
That good St. Peter
(And my own particular Guardian Angel)
Who is doubtless looking forward
To a permanent vacation when I get (to heaven)
Will have a hard time
Holding on to the end of my new white robe
To keep me from toppling over the parapets
Looking for you.

And I guess they'll sigh and say:
"Goodness, I wish he'd hurry up and come
To this very silly girl!"

And every time you do something
That might count against you,
They'll cross the fingers of the hand
That isn't holding me,
And pray and pray and pray:
Some lady angles who when on earth
were disappointed in love
May say wistfully:
"What more can she want
Than the pearly gates and the street
of gold,
Not to mention her halo and the harp!"

There's no satisfying some folks!
But St. Peter and Guardian Angel, being a saint and an angel and therefore full of patience Will laugh in their beards and hang on to me.

And when I see you coming up,
Up thru the little white clouds and
the silvery stars,
I shall fly to my house of jasper,
and powder my nose with stardust,
And straighten my halo and tune up my harp.

And sit in the very frontest window
Facing the street of gold,
And I shall pretend I have been nonchalantly sitting there Ever since I came to Heaven.
And St. Peter and My angel,
Will hitch up their robes,
Glad of a chance to rest,
And my angel will say:
"Why doesn't she run and meet him
And tell him how much she's missed him?"

But St. Peter, being wise, and a keeper of the portals of Heaven
Ever since there were portals,
Will wink his eye and say:
"Give her time, Boy, give her time!"
And I, having you with me,
Will recognize at last
The niceness of the houses of jasper and the streets of gold.

The becomingness of the halo and the pleasure of the harp
Together we'll go shopping for yours
And we'll learn to play duets on our harps
And a nice game like quoits with our halos
And we'll look up our best ancestors and friends
And go calling on them in blue and gold taxi-stars.

And we'll thank God personally for giving us each other.
And this, my dear, will be Heaven.
Mable Cleland Ludlum.

Just Sew Club

One cannot but comment on the clever originality of the name given been recently organized, and at the same time compliment the one who elected were as follows: Mrs. F. N.

Payne, president; Mrs. B. F. Maxie, afternoon.

If any of the ladies require assistance in the cutting out of the garments they are requested to call Mrs. L. H. Simpson and she will furnish patterns. These meetings are well worth while and apart from the valuable work they accomplish, a splendid opportunity is afforded for a social chat and a discussion of the various problems before the church. The association and co-operation in itself is worth much and adds to the life of the individual member a deeper significance and understanding of her responsibility as a unit in the working of the whole. Shortly we will give a sketch of the origin and growth of the organization.
