HIGH SCHOOL GREET THE WINNING STOCK JUDGING TEAM THURSDAY

MARCH IN ORDER FROM THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING TO THE DEPOT AND GIVE TEAM HEARTY GREETING

BUSINESS CLUBS AND CITIZENS ARE PROUD

The Team Won Highest Honors and Highest Individual Score Was Won by Raymond Boyd of This City and Lubbock Is The Talk of the State In This Achievement.

Lubbock is still on the map, and this time we are indebted to the Lubbock High School and its unmatchable class in Animal Husbandry and first of all those four young men whose superior knowledge in the work made their class supreme champion in all Texas, and still right in the middle of the list we will place the individual champion of Texas, Raymond Boyd, a Lubbock boy, who outstripped all records as an individual judge, and who helped his class become recognized by the shrewdest classes in the state as their superiors in the judging world.

Lubbock is proud of those boys. Lubbock High School is proud of those boys. The Avalanche is proud of them, also, and if there is an individual in this section who is not, we are compelled to say there is one heart in this section which does not beat in unison with the spirit of progressiveness so manifest in those we know.

Whether the rest of Texas admits it or not we will admit that we believe that in the young man who beat the ninety-six contestants on March 15th in Lubbock will prove the champion of the states, and why not? He is from Lubbock. Lubbock is in Lubbock County, and the whole section is in Texas, and if that is not a place for a winner, we lose again.

The team in stock judging here has been in the work only a few months, and when it is remembered that these boys were pitted against classes of long standing champions, against teams which have met on several occasions of this kind before our Champions even knew the abc's of stock judging, we will recognize their disadvantages and attribute their winning more to superior training, closer application and level headedness.

The Lubbock Kiwanis Club, the Lubbock Rotary Club and the Senior and Junior Chambers of Commerce must remember that in these boys' victory on that occasion they brought back to Lubbock the most beautiful, most expensive and most sought loving cup that has ever been brought here—and it seems to the writer that in recognition of their steadfastness on that occasion we, as a town, as progressive citizens and as backers of those who win will surely place beside that cup something which will last throughout the lives of those boys, a monument to Lubbock Business Men's high regard for them. Texas has given to her champions something of which we all have the right to be proud, and since it was won by one of our own rank, let's show to the world that likewise Lubbock will offer something of which we will all be proud.

The honor of being a winner is possibly the most wanted achievement in the life of any individual, and that those boys were made to feel more keenly their accomplishment by the entire body of the high school turning out to meet them on their arrival in Lubbock yesterday afternoon it is here we will commend the thoughtfulness of the entire faculty for having so orderly conducted the mass of ambitious students to the depot, for having taken a part in cheering the winners, and for showing to those boys that the High School is glad to claim them as its own.

In another place in this issue is an article more thoroughly explaining the work those boys did, and we will say that their trip to Fort Worth has certainly added volume to the history of Lubbock where its recorded achievements of this town and its people.

CANYON WILL VOTE ON CONSOLIDATION OF DIST.

Canyon, March 14.—An election will be held in Canyon Saturday March 18, on the question of consolidation of the Canyon Independent School District and the common school districts Nos. 2 and 18. The school buildings in districts Nos. 2 and 18, which have been used for school, social gatherings and churches, will remain in the communities to be used for church purposes and as social meeting places.

The present high school building in Canyon will be converted into a ward school, and a new high school will be erected to accommodate a large number of high school students which the consolidated school will bring to the high school here, if the election carries.

SHAMROCK BAPTIST CHURCH DESTROYED BY FIRE MON.

Shamrock, Texas, March 15.—The Baptist church was destroyed by fire Monday morning. Lightning caused the blaze. A north wind blew small bits of fire to houses south of the church but rain at the time prevented further blazes.

Some Things the Red Cross Is Doing In Lubbock, Which Shows It Is Very Deserving of the Support It Gets

Considerable interest has followed the work of the Red Cross in the city during the past fall and winter, and at this time a great deal of interest is being focused on our schools, the need of additional equipment, more room, and various other problems, but do you stop to realize how many children in the city of Lubbock of school age who are not in school in spite of our so called Compulsory Education laws? In one afternoon the Red Cross secretary found twenty-six children of school age who are not in school, in addition to the three that she put in school that morning—making 29 children out of school. Just an idea as to why some of these are not in school might be of interest, for it is the problem of the Red Cross secretary not only to care for the needy, but to find out what is the cause of their trouble, and if possible, find some constructive solution to this problem.

There were two children, a boy and girl, eleven and thirteen years of age, whose father took them out of school to help him and his wife make a living. They learn about as much at home any way. About all they do up there is to cut paper, paste corn on maps, and the like. When I went to school, all I had was a blue-back speller. (And it is a serious doubt as to whether he got anything out of the speller or not). He recently bought an automobile, and is evidently in financial condition to send these children to school. Some of the children were expected to be sick, or had been sick, or their parents thought they might get sick. One strange case is a boy of eleven years of age, who had been hurt two or three months back in some way, and is unable to go to school, according to his mother; but he is able to ride a donkey, play all day long, and make a nuisance of himself in his neighborhood. Then there were four who couldn't go to school because they didn't have any shoes. Through the Red Cross, the merchants gave them shoes, and now they have the sore throat, and one of them lost his book card. A boy of twelve doesn't go to school because he hasn't any shoes, according to his mother. His sister of ten is not allowed to go to school because her mother needs her help. Two children, thirteen and fourteen don't go to school from one family because they haven't the "proper" clothes. There were five in one family, 7-10-12-14 and 16 years of age, who haven't been to school any this year because the father hasn't had a regular job and has been unable to buy clothes for them. The Red Cross gave them clothes, arranged for some shoes, and has started them to school. Three children, 10-12 and 13 years old of one family don't go to school because they don't have any shoes.

Lubbock is Strong For the Fort Worth Plains Railroad

Fort Worth, March 14.—"Lubbock is coming 100 strong to attend the general railroad meeting at Fort Worth, Saturday," declared Fred Snyder, ranchman of Lubbock, who arrived Monday. "We are strong for horse raising for the new railroad, and we're going to know the reason why, if Lubbock does not get this pike," he said. Snyder is well known all over the state as a cattleman. His father formerly lived in Georgetown.

"We received two inches of rain last night," Snyder said. "We were not particularly needing moisture, but, like other West Texans, we can always stand a little more of that stuff."

Sam Arnett, Lubbock county stockman, arrived Monday. Mr. Arnett is known throughout the South Plains sections as one of the leading livestock men. He rejoiced to know that additional rains had fallen Sunday over that territory.

Senator W. H. Bledsoe of Lubbock is one of the advance guard who have come to "put over" the Fort Worth & Plains railroad. Judge Bledsoe is prominent in the state legislature. He has directed much wise legislation of recent years.

Marcus Snyder, cattleman of Colorado, the new oil mecca of West Texas, has arrived. Marcus is an old Georgetown boy. Snyder says that Colorado is going to give an open-house Tuesday to celebrate the bringing in of a big oil well in his section. The Morrison No. 2 is reported to be good for from 500 to 1,000 barrels a day. Many new locations have been made, and operators and lease holders are falling into Colorado by the hundreds. Excitement is now at a high pitch.

FUNDS ON HAND TO FINISH CLARENDON BAPTIST CHURCH

Clarendon, Texas, March 13.—Funds have been subscribed to complete the annex to the First Baptist church. Plasterers and carpenters are going forward with the work rapidly.

Upton Indicted By Grand Jury for Murder

Floydada, March 15.—Houston Upton, the young man who was found wounded in the morning of Monday, February 27, following the fatal shooting of Gladys Solomon, 15, and Nell Umberson, 13, at the home of Mrs. Martha Umberson, a widow, in the Sunset community in Floyd County, has been indicted on a charge of murder by the Floyd County grand jury.

Upton, who is only eighteen years of age, was thought to be fatally wounded when he was found, but his condition is said to have steadily improved since his removal to a hospital here the day of the tragedy. It is now believed he will recover.

The wound was self-inflicted, according to statements officials declare he made shortly after he was found.

The two slain girls, together with Vera Wilson, a neighbor girl, were all sleeping in one bed at the Umberson home, where the tragedy occurred.

According to a statement made by Miss Wilson following the shooting, the tragedy was the outgrowth of a lover's quarrel between the Solomon girl and Upton, who were sweethearts. The two quarreled Sunday afternoon after they with others, had attended a B. Y. P. U. meeting at the neighborhood school house. Upton is said to have visited the Umberson home and talked with Miss Solomon once during the night before the shooting occurred at 2 o'clock in the morning.

Upton is a son of J. H. Upton, a prominent and well-to-do farmer and business man of Floyd County.

SENTENCE OF ROWAN AND LUNA AFFIRMED

New Orleans, March 14.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today affirmed the decision of the District Court at Dallas, in the cases against Albert L. Rowan and R. Ben Luna, convicted of complicity in the holdup of the Jackson Street postoffice sub-station in Dallas, Jan. 14, 1921, and sentenced to 25 years at Leavenworth prison.

Twenty-two Deaths Toll of Tornadoes Monday and Tues.

A known death toll of twenty-two was collected by tornadoes in the Southwest last night and early today. Ten were killed in the village of Gowen, Okla., near McAlester, and six negroes lost their lives at Gethesemene, Ark.; two were killed at Sulphur, Ark.; two were killed at Sulphur, La., and one at Citronelle, Ala., according to a compilation late this evening. The list of injured will be in the hundreds and the damage is expected to run well into the millions.

The tornadoes were part of a general rain which fell throughout the Southwest last night from Hannibal, Mo., on the Mississippi river, to Amarillo in the Texas Panhandle. Sections of this great grain and stock raising area, which have experienced an almost waterless winter, are now menaced by floods. Streams through Arkansas are reported to be bankfull. Four inches of rain fell at Fort Scott, Kan., and a part of the city already is inundated. The Neosho river at Iola was reported rising at the rate of six inches an hour.

REV. COLE REPORTED SOMEWHAT IMPROVED

Rev. J. B. Cole, a beloved former pastor of the Baptist church in Pecos, is quite ill at the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lillie Cole, where he and his wife came for a visit a few days ago. A daughter, Mrs. Lula Dorsey, of El Paso arrived here Thursday to attend the illness of her father. Rev. Cole preached at the Baptist church Sunday to a large congregation of friends, who were delighted to hear his voice in the preaching of the gospel of which he is so worthy a minister. He was stricken Monday with an old chronic malady, and while his condition is not regarded as serious, his physician states that he will have to reconcile himself to staying with his couch for several weeks.—Pecos Enterprise.

BRISCOE FARM BUREAU ONE OF THE MOST ACTIVE

Silverton, March 14.—Although the Briscoe County Farm Bureau is about the youngest in the State, it is by no means the least active. New members of the farm bureau and of the wheat, cotton, wool and other associations are constantly being added, and it is the purpose of the members of the farm bureau to stage "Farm Bureau Week" at an early date and secure the county's quota of wheat for the wheat growers' association, which is being organized by the farm bureau.

A Favorable Report Is Ordered On the Soldiers' Bonus Bill By The Ways and Means Committee

Washington, March 14.—A favorable report on the long-controverted soldier bonus bill was ordered today by the House Ways and Means Committee by a vote of 19 to 5. Chairman Fordney plans to submit his formal report tomorrow or Thursday, but said the time of calling the measure up in the House would not be fixed definitely until after the return of Speaker Gillett, who is in Florida, with President Harding.

The vote on the measure today in the committee was taken ten minutes after Secretary Mellon, Comptroller of the Currency Crisinger and Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board, had been questioned for two hours in open session as to their ideas of the bank loan adjustment certificate plan. The five members voting against favorable report were Garner, Texas; Kitchin, North Carolina; and Collier, Mississippi, Democrat, and Treadway of Massachusetts and Tilson of Connecticut, Republicans. All members of the committee were present with the exception of Mr. Kitchen and Representative Chandler, Republican, Oklahoma whose votes were cast by proxy.

Before the final vote the committee, 19 to 5, an amendment offered by Representative Backarach, Republican, New Jersey, to impose a

Everything is lining up favorably for the opening of the two days' Short Course, which will be given by the International Harvester Company, beginning next Monday and continuing through Tuesday. In connection with this course there will be held a poultry show, to which all those who have fine chickens, or who are interested in the poultry business, are cordially invited to attend. Arrangements have been made with the Lub-Tex Motor Company to use their large glassed-in show rooms, for the poultry show, and it is expected that there will be a great display of prize-winning chickens to this show.

There has been a good list of prizes donated by the business men of the town, and the people of this country are looking forward with much interest to these two days of instruction, and showing of fine chickens.

Every citizen of Lubbock and the Lubbock trade territory should take the responsibility upon himself to get a greater interest aroused in the two days course of lectures, and make your plans early to be here during those two days.

This course is not for Lubbock city people alone, nor is it for the people from the farms exclusively, but it is hoped that it will be a community gathering in the truest sense of the term. Make these two days the greatest ever known in this town for the uniting of the efforts of the town and country people in an effort to improve conditions.

Lose sight of the fact that you live in town, on Broadway or 'steenth street, section 96, block 43, or that your telephone number is 14 or 90014xyz, and all work together for a great time. Break down the line which so often divides the rural citizens and the city dweller, and come together in a united pull for the betterment of the South Plains. Come and hear these experts in their line of educational work and you will be benefitted yourself and will benefit your community.

Remember Monday and Tuesday of next week is the time, and the program of the two days will be found in another part of this issue. Note the following rules in regard to entry of chickens in the show and be governed accordingly:

All exhibitors will be expected to comply with the following rules and regulations:

1. No person will be permitted to handle any birds other than his own, except the superintendent in the performance of his duties.
2. Unhealthy birds will not be received or if they develop any illness during the show they will be removed from the exhibition hall.
3. No exhibit will be removed from the hall until the afternoon of the last day of the show.
4. Birds for sale will be accompanied with a price tag that will be placed on the coop. Return tags are requested with each shipment.
5. Advertising matter will be placed on such coops as may be desired following the decision of the judges.
6. A pen shall consist of a male and four females, and may be shown singly and in pens.
7. All entries must be in by 10:00 o'clock Monday, March 20.

period of three years a one per cent tax on wholesalers designed to raise $50,000,000 with which to finance the bonus.

Those supporting the amendment were Republicans, Longworth, Ohio; Backarach, Mott of New York; Tilson and Watson of Pennsylvania.

Under an amendment suggested by Governor Harding and adopted by unanimous vote, the banks making original loans on the adjusted service certificates rediscounted by other banks authorized to make original loans on the certificates. Governor Harding objected to having the certificates rediscounted by federal reserve banks, saying the general economic effort would be unfavorable.

The committee rejected an amendment by Representative Oldfield, Democrat, Arkansas, proposing to restore the original cash provision in place of the bank loan amendment and reimpose he excess profits tax as a means of raising the required revenue. Another amendment to restore the war time maximum income surtax rate of sixty five per cent also was rejected.

West Texas Folks
Still After That
Ft. Worth Road

The calamity howler who says that the West has reached its zenith has nothing tangible to substantiate his statements. If he thinks that the 1918 drought proved conclusively that the West will go no further agriculturally, and industrially, here are some misapprehensions. If the calamity howlers in the railroad world fears that the total volume of traffic the West offers has already been reached, he should study some of the proceedings of the main railways of the West at the present time.

The Santa Fe railroad company is making preparation for increased tonnage on its line. Steel rails of 120 pounds to the yard being laid from Slaton to Sweetwater speaks louder than an editorial on development. Widening roadbed, ballasting and substituting 84-pound steel on the Texas & Pacific railway from Baird to Sweetwater indicate that the great east-west line "bursting the West in the middle" has faith in the West. The story of railway progress and improvement in many parts of the West could be carried on indefinitely to refute the theories of the calamity howler. After all, it is the men and corporations with means that need faith, and having faith are willing to invest in confidence that their money will be like the bread cast upon the waters. The calamity howler has a reason for howling—he never sees the future. He judges the future by the troubles of the present.—Fort Worth Record.

THIS FELLOW'S AD GOT LONG DISTANCE RESULTS

One out of many. A few days ago, one of our local men placed an ad in the Avalanche saying that he was in need of a secretary hand and bill. In a very few days he received a letter from New Berlin, New York, stating that they had a bill that they felt sure would fill the requirements, and would be glad to sell to him. Our friend possessed himself as being quite surprised.

People Have Been
Illegally Paid

Washington, March 8.—Approximately 80,000 Government employees holding their positions by presidential order, are held to be not entitled to the benefits of the retirement act in an opinion rendered by Attorney General Daugherty and transmitted to the Interior Department, which administers the act.

Secretary Fall in announcing the opinion today said that out of 8,000 employees who have been retired under the act, 6,400 had been receiving compensation illegally and that upon receiving of the Attorney General's ruling an order was issued that no more certificates for payment be issued.

The Attorney General's opinion held that only those in the Government service holding their positions as the result of competitive examinations were entitled to the benefits of the retirement act.

FEDERAL FARM LOAN BANKING
SYSTEM REPORTS $3,500,000 LOAN-
ED TO TEXAS FARMERS FOR 1922

Houston, March 7.—Loans exceeding $3,500,000 have been made to Texas farmers since the first of the year through the Federal farm loan banking system. According to reports just completed in the office of John V. Vandemark. Total loans during January amounted to $2,000,000 while loans made during the month of February amounted to more than $1,500,000.

The average amount of loans made through the 350 farm loan associations of the tenth land bank district since Jan. 1 was $3,000, although some run as high as $10,000. According to Mr. Vandemark, no one community has been favored, or rather required to ask favors in excess of the average for all parts of the state. The loans have been well distributed, and are gradually increasing. It is estimated that loans during the present month will run as high as $2,000,000.

"The federal land bank system is loaning more money now than ever before," said Mr. Vandemark Monday.

"The last regular bond sale was the largest ever conducted by the system. Every section of the country is being reached, and judging general conditions from reports reaching the Houston office, farm industries are due to prosper during the coming year.

"Farmers throughout the state are more optimistic. They have a good reason to feel better toward the business world at large as they are getting better prices for their products now, while implements and other farm utilities are much lower in cost than they were a year ago.

"Farmers are making no particular attempt this year to diversify their crops, but conditions are favorable for an especially good farm year," he continued.

An Interesting Ruling on the Question of Transfers from One District to Another Especially in the Independent Districts

Floydada Hesperian: County Superintendent W. B. Clark has had the problem of the tuition charges for pupils transferred from one district to another on his hands throughout practically the entire school year. Because all school districts have had to figure their budgets very closely to stay within their means, and more especially the independent districts, the problem has been one of considerable moment to patrons and trustees alike for the past few months.

Heretofore, for a number of years no districts charged tuition to transferred pupils at any time during the school term, because funds and seating space were sufficient to take care of all needs without making this charge. In a number of instances pupils, within the scholastic age in common school districts, but too far advanced in their work for common school work, especially in one-teacher schools, where the seventh grade work is the highest that is taught, the student has started the term in a neighboring school, the parent transferring the state and county apportionment, but unable by law to transfer any local tax to help pay for the schooling of the student. Such a situation is the one on which the judge has asked for a ruling. Should the patron who sent his child outside the district and transferred the county and state apportionments to another district, have to pay the tuition of the pupil after the time for which the apportionments will pay, or should the school district to which the patron pays a local tax, pay this tuition charge, if any is due? The ruling of the State Superintendent is based on the idea that what ever action is taken should be based on the rule of "the greatest good to the greatest number." Miss Blanton says: "Replying to your letter of February 20th, I am of the opinion that an independent district should not give free tuition to transferred pupils for a longer time than the county funds. The question as to whether or not the tuition for the remainder of the term should be paid by the local school district, or by the parents is one which is within the discretion of the school board. If the rural school from which they were transferred had a term of seven months then the transferred pupils should not claim free school privileges in the independent district for any longer time. I have held that a district may pay tuition in order that a child may have a term of school equivalent to that furnished the children in the district, if the payment of this tuition does not shorten the term of the rural school, or impair its efficiency. The whole question should be decided according to the greatest good to the greatest number."

Basing his ideas on the above ruling Mr. Clark, in a suggested solution of a problem arising in which patrons and trustees of Ramsey School are interested jointly with Lockney Independent School District said: "I would suggest that it would be to the best interest of all for Ramsey to pay a reasonable tuition out of her local fund for all of her transferred pupils in the eighth grade or higher grades, to Lockney rather than have the Ramsey teacher take up part of his time with new classes added by reason of having to teach these higher subjects."

PUBLIC OPINION

Sabbath
Supported by the efforts of many of the best people of Washington City, Mexico, has been introduced into Congress asking for a law for the maintaining of the sanctity of the Sabbath in the District of Columbia. This has brought forth the opposition of those who wish to secularize the Sabbath by making it a day of labor, a day of recreation and amusement, with the work attendant upon such courses. This opposition is formulated by and centered in an organization known as the Religious Liberty Association, with C. S. Longacre as general international secretary, Trinidad Park, Washington. The Presbyterian has this to say in commenting on the matter: "A society opposing the sixth, eighth, or ninth commandment might as well call itself a Religious Liberty Association as one that opposes the fourth commandment. It is one law and rests back on the divine authority. Grant the right to break one of these laws, and you grant the right to break any of them. According to the Word of God and the testimony of history, the maintenance of the Sabbath is absolutely necessary for the preservation of the life and morals of this nation. Every Christian and every loyal American should rise in opposition to this influence against the Sabbath in its efforts to bring about in this country some of the moral and religious looseness which is now devastating some of the nations of Europe. We want no liberty that is not wed to righteousness and godliness."—Avalanche.
The above Avalanche Sermonette by the Office Preacher appeared in the March 3rd issue. At the same time a petition was being circulated in Lubbock protesting against the enactment of said law and nearly every Lubbock citizen to whom it was presented, signed it. Why did they do it? Because they believe in religious liberty. A leading tenet of pure Americanism and pure Democracy is clearly set forth by the founders of our government. The separation of church and state, the coalition and consequence of which is so clearly and graphically set forth in the history of Rome and the dark ages. Religious liberty was the great slogan that brought many good people to the shores of America in early days and still they come. Liberty? What greater boon to humanity than liberty? Its opposite is tyranny and slavery, and who wants that? "Give me liberty, or give me death," said Patrick Henry. Take away liberty, religious, political and economic and what's left? The sweet is extracted and bitter remains.
You say we have the Jewish Sabbath and also the Christian Sabbath. If so does not that make two sabbaths? Well, some conscientious people keep the Jewish Sabbath unto the Lord as a holy day, and some keep what is called the Christian Sabbath—Lord's day—Sunday or first day of the week. Both honest, sincere, devout and conscientious. Who is to sit in judgment as to who is right? There is one that judgeth righteously. "Shall I dictate how you shall worship." God may verily. Can we legislate religion into people? I tell you nay. Can we force it into them by fines, punishment and imprisonment? It fails and reacts. Can we inject or shoot it into them? Never. God, in His wisdom leaves it to man, as an individual matter, and says "I will judge, I will repay." Let no man judge you as to an holy day, and Paul says: "One man esteemeth one day above another, another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind." Rom. 13-5.
If the 10 Commandments are now binding, and if the 7th day is the Sabbath, then why hasn't the Jew, the Saitarian, the Advents and other like believers just as much right to force us by civil law and punishment to keep Saturday as we have to force them in like manner, to keep Sunday?
Honest, sincere gospel preaching, reasoning and right living is the true proper and only source for producing and cultivating pure and undefiled religion and winning souls to Christ. Understand, I am not saying what day we should keep,

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS FROM TERRY COUNTY HERALD

News was received here recently that J. N. Lewis, member of the firm of Lewis Brothers & Co., had received the contract to carry the mail to and from Tatum, N.-M., and all intermediate points, for four years, beginning July 1st, at $4,440.00 per year. While Jim has an interest in the big store at this place, he is absolutely an outdoor man, and this job will certainly suit him, and we bet he will give the people good service. Joe Joplin is the present carrier, and we have never heard a kick, and in fact the people along the route petitioned for him to remain, but as his bid was quite higher than that of Mr. Lewis, he lost out.

Grandpa Swan died in this city at the home of his son, G. B., last week at an advanced age, and was buried in the Brownfield cemetery. An obituary will appear later from the pen of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Baughman. Herald extends sympathy to the bereaved.

News was received here last week and was confirmed that Mr. T. G. Price had been appointed postmaster at Brownfield for a term of four years by the President. Mr. Price had been acting postmaster here since last September, vice W. G. Hardin, resigned, and had made good, and his appointment as postmaster was pleasing to many of our citizens. Mr. Price has made many changes in the postoffice for the better, and among them being that the office is now always open to those who have boxes, and if one happens to be late in arriving at night, a match is all that is required to secure their mail. He has proved accommodating and obliging to the public, thus becoming a popular postmaster in just a few months.

They were not expecting a snake when "chug" went a frog. It was a crowd of real old timers—Terry County pioneers—who stayed with it through thick and thin and had their goods freighted to them a distance of 100 miles by wagon that rushed the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Randal, Monday night of this week. Such games as 42, Fleuch and Patent Medicine were played, intermixed with Victrola music. Among the guests of the evening, were Messrs. and Mns. J. N. Lewis, Longbreake, Titernan, Bragg, Bob Snodgrass, Hurst; Mns. Welch and Bragg, Dock Powell and Misses Nancy and Lizzie Dumas, Myrtis Walker, Dora Daugherty and Mr. Sam Pyett. Many others were invited, but on account of sickness and other hindrances, were unable to attend.

Every citizen of the entire South Plains can afford to take off two days, in order to be present. ### LIVE STOCK ACTIVITIES

J. D. Dulaney reports the sale of five registered Hereford cows with calves to J. S. Arledge of Bronte. Mr. Arledge, like many other Hereford men in this section, is using Dulaney stock to start a herd of registered Herefords. The price was not given but is reported as satisfactory, in fact Mr. Dulaney stated the five cows and calves brought as much as 50 good grade Herefords would have brought. This makes 48 head sold from the Dulaney herd the past month. Sweetwater Reporter.

Floydada Ships Five Carloads of Cattle.
 Floydada, Tex., March 12. Floydada shipped five more cars of hogs last week. The week before the same number of cars were shipped. These hogs went to the California markets. Mr. Armstrong, local dealer, declares the hog business is getting better every day, and he is getting hogs from a thirty mile radius on account of there being such an active, strong market for them.

J. F. Ferguson loaded out the sale of cattle March 5th for the Fort Worth markets. These are to assist in feeding the great number of people that are expected at the Great Southwestern Exposition at Fort Worth which opens March 15th. Mr. Ferguson shipped two loads of cattle a few days ago which brought him $5.95 on a market which was running $4.50 to $5.00. That was a bunch of short yearlings which averaged 837 lbs. The success of Mr. Ferguson's selling lies in the fact that he gets away with some of the feed he raises. He sells his maize and kafir in calf skin packages instead of selling it in bundles. He raises a great deal of feed, and then in turn feeds a great number of cattle. He has practiced this so long that today he has real money in the bank. And when he goes to market the buyers there know they will get good stuff from him and are always ready and eager to obtain it. Roaring Springs Review.

During the snowstorm last Thursday night a Denver Road snowplow ran over and killed thirty-eight head of cattle between Dalhart and Amarillo. The engine crew did not know the cattle were in the cut and several "bucks" were made into the drift. The dead cattle were not discovered until after the snow melted. Childress Index.

Hog cholera in a very virulent form is now in Hale county on the farm of Ed Boyd, several miles west of here, and 25,000 doses of serum has been ordered to be used in inoculating hogs against the disease. Dr. S. C. Ross, local veterinarian, and Dr. Porter of Amarillo made the examination, and pronounced it the worst infection that has been in the county in years. Quarantine and every other effort will be used to stamp out the disease.—Plainview News.

MANY ROAD CLASHES ARE REPORTED IN TEXAS

Austin, March 14.—Out of 12,000 persons killed on the highways in the State last year, 7,000 were struck down at grade crossings, according to Captain J. D. Fauntleroy, State Highway Engineer.
 "Investigation has shown that one motorist of every three is careless at grade crossings," Captain Fauntleroy said. "They approach the crossings at reckless speed without taking due notice of approaching trains. One railroad alone reported 1,909 motor vehicles wrecked in three years."

"A total of $4,500,000 was paid out in death claims by American Insurance companies for the 12,000 persons killed last year. In addition to the fatalities there were 1,500,000 non-fatal injuries."
 "During the past three years the state highway commission has made provision for the elimination of approximately 150 railway crossings."

Begin Early to Combat the Flies—Prevent Disease

Austin, Texas.—The common house-fly is the chief cause of typhoid fever and it also transmits such diseases as tuberculosis, dysentery, anthrax, cholera and diarrhea, states D. E. Breed, Executive Secretary, Texas Public Health Association.

Flies thrive in such places as cess pools, manure, decomposing vegetable matter, etc. It takes the eggs a week to hatch so their breeding places should be removed or disinfected at least every five or six days.

To secure comfort as well as protection against infection by flies and other insects every one should see that the house is properly screened so that they cannot gain admittance to the home. It is much better to screen the house and prevent their entrance than it is to try to kill them with swatters after they have gained entrance. If the breeding places of flies are destroyed and houses properly screened the spread of many diseases will be materially lessened.

Now is the time to start the campaign against the fly as his army at this time is very small. However the fly increases so rapidly that unless we wage an unremitting campaign against him from this time until every house, town and country is free from this pest, our earlier efforts will have been in vain.

AN INTERESTING BATCH OF MOODY NEWS ITEMS

Yes, sure enough it did rain last night, and fortunate indeed were those whose house did not leak. It has been so long since a good rain that some of the roofs had forgotten whether the water belonged inside or outside of the house.

And the snow, too, Thursday! Wasn't that great? Many an old snow man stood sentinel about the school ground to testify that the pupils were present on that day.

T. C. Swofford and Harry Palmer made a business trip to Lubbock Monday. They brought out a truck load of miscellaneous freight for the garage and store at Ropes and for the store at Moody.

Meddames Bob and John Swofford visited in the Bill Chism home Monday afternoon.

Fred Reeves and Howell Tipton, of the L. F. D. Ranch, were in our community Monday on their homeward trip from the Whaley and Jones ranch. Fred returned some stock to the Whaley and Jones ranch Wednesday.

J. A. Stroud, sheriff of Hockley county, was in Moody vicinity on official business Monday. He was posting notices of the coming school trustee election.

There was quite a crowd who gathered at the Bill Murray home Monday to enjoy a social evening. There were various amusements and plenty of good music made by a combination of violin, guitar, piano and snare drum. Pop corn was served to the guests and it was seasoned—just right.

Two Snyder men of Stonewall county arrived Monday to visit their sister, Mrs. Patterson. One of them contemplates putting in a barber shop at Moody.

Weldon and Mrs. Teague and Mrs. Gunn and daughter, Oree, went to Lubbock Tuesday. Mrs. Gunn and Oree remained so that Oree might take ear treatment from a specialist there. Mrs. Gunn came home Tuesday. She is very much encouraged. She says there is a very marked improvement in Oree's condition since she began her treatments.

Annie Lou Thorp spent two nights with Willie Teague the past week.

Don and Hecher Swofford spent Saturday with Johnnie Sharp.

Mrs. J. L. Tharp visited Mrs. Claud Havens Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. White took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Pepper Sunday. Mrs. Pepper says this was her first opportunity to use her wedding presents.

Ulis King, Mr. White and Clay Walker made a business trip to Lubbock Tuesday.

Ulis King, Mr. White, Mr. Pepper and Mr. Patterson were Lubbock visitors Friday.

T. C. Swofford took a truck of feed to Ropes Friday as they are loading a car for shipment. While on this trip, T. C. happened to a very painful accident. He went to unscrew the radiator cap when the force of steam blew the radiator cap some distance and scalded his left arm.

Mrs. Bill Chism called on Mrs. Bob Swofford Tuesday afternoon.

Earl Nickell returned to school Wednesday after several week's absence.

Charlie Copeland of the Dr. Dean ranch, spent Friday night at the Murray home.

Clay Walker, who has been working for John Swofford, is now working for Mr. King. He took some mules to Lubbock Sunday, for Mr. King.

Mr. Bill Chism left Wednesday for parts in New Mexico. But he only got to the Slaughter ranch headquarters when the snow struck. Upon investigation he found that the snow grew worse the farther he went so he returned home Friday evening.

A crowd assembled Wednesday to watch our boys play their first, real practice baseball game of this season. They all did well and give promise of being a fine team.

Prof. Teague and family visited in the Claude Havens' home one night last week. When they drove up, the light was burning very brightly but no honk! honk! of a car could arouse any one. The visitors became apprehensive. They knew something very interesting, must be holding their attention, so that they thought by being very cautious that they could hear Claude dealing out some of his "campaign dope" to his wife. (He is candidate for county treasurer.) But imagine their surprise when they found Mr. Havens reading the Bible and Claude sitting in at least two feet of her listening intently.

On the left, navy tricotine suit. Jacket with box back, cut through at waist. Bell sleeves; tuxedo collar; changeable silk lining. Silk embroidery.

WEST TEXAS COUNTIES HAVE GREAT VARIETY OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS AT STOCK SHOW IN FT. WORTH

Fort Worth, March 14.—The agricultural exhibit of the "Empire of West Texas" on display at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show "hits 'em in the eye" and it is as "easy to look at" as one of the "Venetian sunsets" of the land from whence it came. It is complete in every detail. Every variety of farm product grown in West Texas, from a whip-poor-will pea to a bale of cotton and a bale of alfalfa hay, is in the exhibit, and when that statement is made it covers a wide range of West Texas farm products.

Twenty towns were represented Sunday and almost an equal number were expected to send in exhibits. Only one East Texas county was represented.

At the exposition hall such prosaic objects as ears of corn, heads of milo maize, kaffir corn, feterita, darso and other grains, backed by wonderful display of peaches, pears, plums, vegetables and berries of all kinds has been converted into an interwoven colorful photograph of the foundation upon which the "empire of West Texas" has been built.

Many Colors Seen

The display occupies perhaps sixty feet of one of the main exposition buildings. The exhibits are banked at a sharp angle, much after the manner of tiers of seats. At one end ears of corn that are of many colors of the rainbow occupy the boards. The blood red of the Bloody-Butcher is offset by a variety in color and behind it, perhaps, is a layer of yellow that glints like dull gold. At the other end of the exhibition space is the heads of the small grain. There, too, the color scheme is carried out. The red of darso is touched by the gray of kaffir corn, or the almost colorless sudan grass.

In the center, tier on tier, are the jars of fruits and vegetables, prepared by the housewives of the western part of the State. Pecans also appear in the center of the display. Pecans of mammoth proportions with papershell hulls.

At the foot of the sloping exhibition space are many pecks of purebred field seeds, and hampers of sweet potatoes. Among the former is a peck of purebred dwarf milo maize seed, and also three varieties of peanuts, which are Spanish, Red Spanish and Jumbo.

Many Products Exhibited

The score of the display may be understood from the following named farm products that are on exhibition: Peanuts, ear corn of all varieties, red maize, sudan grass, short kaffir, feterita, darso, redtop canes, bundles of wheat and oats, miniature bales of cotton, pecans, and almost every edible that can be put into a jar. Also field seeds from the following products: Black emmer, speltz, soft and hard wheat, blue goose and whip-poor-will peas, velvet beans, seeded ribbon cane, red and white oats, white and red maize, white and red kaffir, Winter and Spring wheat.

Among the exhibition is also elev-

Another departure is to grading of sweet potatoes for prizes. To be eligible they must be packed in bushel basket and the packing will be a factor in awarding the prizes.

Jesus nobly bore all he did bear for you as though there were no other persons in God's world but you and me, and I verily believe if there had been nobody else in the world but just me and I had needed Jesus to die for me I think he would have done it. And the thought makes me love him.

Nobody is truly happy that doesn't love God. There may be a temporary illusion of happiness, an excitement, but that doesn't last. I am talking about the peace of God that flows like a river; the peace that abides when money and friends and health are gone; the peace of God that passeth all understanding; the joy of the Lord which abides as our strength and constant companion. That will be determined.

When you saw that big leviathan of the deep, the Aquitania, in the ocean, it was a beautiful sight; a glorious sight; but when you saw the ocean in the Titanic, that wasn't a glorious sight. And when the ocean got into the Titanic, the Titanic went to the bottom. When the Church of God is in the world bearing witness for Christ, she is a glorious sight; but when the world gets into the Church, look out, look out, look out.

"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." And you know when a man is that, or a woman either, the Spirit reveals itself in every detail of life. It will come out in the home, whether it is your own home or the home of somebody else, whether you are man, or a mistress or whether you are servant or are paid for your services, whether you are high up or low down. It does not matter what color you are or whether you live in a palace, the White House, a log hut, or a gipsy tent.

I ask again. Does it concern you that you have got a soul. Does it concern you that some day that soul is to face God and give an account of every word and of every thought and of every deed? Does it concern you? What is your relationship to Jesus Christ? I ask, and to God the Father, and God the Holy Ghost? What is your relationship to eternal things, since you are a spark of divinity that will live when planets and the moons and stars go out like sparks from a blacksmith's anvil, since you have got on an eternal tramp with Almighty God somewhere? Does it concern you? Does it concern you? Do you care?

The carelessness of parents is held responsible for much of the lowering of moral standards among young people today. One of our exchanges quotes a Chicago dance hall manager as telling a group of clergymen of the Episcopal Church that the lowering of moral standards resulted directly in letting down moral standards. He places the blame on modern "jazz" music for much of the immorality that is found in large cities among young people today. Very significantly he laid the responsibility heavily upon parents when he said: "There is nothing wrong with the morals of the boys and girls of today. They are the same as the boys and girls of yesterday. The difference lies in the poison we feed them and the example we set them—in the things they are being taught today and in the carelessness of parents."—Christian Observer.

We have no faith in the old saying that "a good beginning makes a bad ending," nor in the converse that "a bad beginning makes a good ending." The way to end right is to begin right; and the way to begin the day is by establishing communion with God through reading his Word and through prayer. As a recent writer has said: "A little contact with the Scriptures at the beginning of the day is like the touch of fresh water upon the face. It clears our mental vision; it freshens our better instincts; it steadies our spiritual pulse. Not seldom some verse will come home to our spirits, with a new meaning and a new power and will thus sing all day in the background of our thoughts like some strain from some lovely and remembered music." If we begin the day right ourselves, it is more than likely that we shall help somebody else to finish it right.—New Orleans Christian Advocate.

THE PNEUMONIA MONTH

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.

STOCK FEEDING BRINGING GOOD RESULTS AT POST

Stamford, Texas, March 15.—That marketing sorghum grains in the form of finished beef is very profitable was again demonstrated to feeders in Garza county. A letter from J. F. Hartford, Post City, to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, says that four cars of steers sold at Kansas City a few days ago topped the market that day. Two cars of these steers in this shipment averaged 1187 pounds and brought 8 cents per pound.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE URGES FARMERS TO USE THEIR FEED BY FATTENING HOGS FOR THE MARKET

Washington, March 9.—As the secretary of agriculture, Henry C. Wallace, sees it, the biggest thing that the communities can do right now to help the farm situation along is to push the feeding of corn to hogs. The banks can do more toward this than anybody else, the country banker by lending more freely to the farmer on corn so he can carry his hogs along; the city banker by extending aid to the country banks. Business men should encourage more feeding of corn.

Things have picked up a little in agriculture. The high level of prices affords belief that the bottom has been reached and there should be a steady improvement, even if it is slow. But as long as the surplus corn hangs over the market, it prevents the recuperation there should be in grain prices. More than that, hogs are coming to market on an average of three to ten pounds lighter than they did last year—when, with the profit there is in feeding corn, they should come in heavier.

We have more corn than we have a market for, at a fair price, said Secretary Wallace. "That is why corn has been so cheap. Past experiences shows that in years of extra heavy crops those forehanded farmers who have been able to hold their corn for two or three years usually have made good interest on the money used in holding it. At the present time, however, fewer farmers can afford to hold. They are anxious to get out of debt and want to turn the corn into cash.

"Now, it will be very much better for everybody if more of this corn is fed to hogs, and for two reasons. At prices at which hogs are now selling, the farmer will net from 60 to 85 cents a bushel for his corn fed to hogs, depending on the distance from market. That is almost twice as much as he can get for his corn when sold as grain. Second, the more corn we feed to hogs and to cattle the more corn we will get rid of. The thing to do now is to get rid of the surplus corn. If we carry it over it will hang as a dead weight over the market and keep corn prices depressed unreasonably."

INTERESTING BATCH OF BADGER LAKE ITEMS

My! These cold days make a fellow think Spring is a long way off. The cold weather of last week was pretty bad, but the snow of this week is fine. Will help the land quite a lot. Makes us hope that the showers will get heavier.

School was suspended during the cold spell last week, on account of no coal. Have coal now, so everyone is going to school.

Several from our settlement sold sudan last week. Most of it was loaded at Idalou.

Mr. Norwood had quite a runaway a few days ago. The horse got loose with the buggy and ran 2 or 3 miles. The buggy was completely torn up. The horse ran through several fences, but only received a few scratches.

Mrs. Guy McNeely and baby are kept indoors this week with the "flu," or Lagrip. Certainly hope it isn't the flu and that they will soon recover.

Some of the men have been fencing. They are opening up a lane between the Sears section and A. J. Towles land.

Several in the northern part of the community were quite badly excited when a black racer, driven by Bill Shaw, went racing through the community. All the excitement died down when we noticed he was headed north, for we knew when he got as far as Miss Tannie's the car would stop through force of habit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Haney moved to Tulla the first of the week. We are sorry to have them leave us, but hope they like their new home, and wish for them all kinds of success.

MOTHER! CLEAN CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation, poison, sour bile and waste out of the bowels, and you have a well-playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. 10-20

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM CROSBYTON REVIEW

We are glad to report a new Methodist church to be built at Idalou right away, a contract for material having been closed with Murphy, the lumberman this week. The building when completed will be a modern and commodious structure and will fill a much needed requirement in our progressive sister town.

Clifton Dennis returned Tuesday from Colorado City, where he accompanied his brother and sister back to their home last week. He says the oil well came in at that place while he was there. He witnessed the oil going over the derrick and says the excitement is quite intense.

Mrs. O. H. Seiber was sworn in as postmaster last Saturday, succeeding Mrs. Kate G. Burke who has held this office so long and faithfully. Miss Eunice Carmack retains her place as assistant postmaster and Mr. Seiber will assist with the early morning mail. That we will continue to have the same good service under the new postmaster that we have enjoyed in the past goes without saying, but let us give encouragement instead of fault-finding, and thus help to improve the service if possible.

The officers of the Crosbyton Circuit of the Methodist church have just purchased a couple of resident lots from the C. B. Live Stock Co. on the next block north of the Methodist church and will erect a parsonage on same right away for their pastor, Rev. J. E. Yeates. This circuit embraces four or five new church organizations located within the Crosbyton trade territory and here is the logical place for the home of their pastor. Watch Crosbyton grow.

Farm Bureau Directors Authorize Finance Committee to Make Application for $20,000,000 In Credits

In authorizing the finance committee to make application for $20,000,000 in credits to handle the cotton pool for the coming season in Texas, the board of directors of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association Wednesday issued a statement to the effect that if the crop is normal the association will have signed contracts for at least 500,000 bales before the next selling season.

John T. Orr, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, said that the federation will have a membership of 100,000 by the close of 1922. Directors from all over the State expressed the opinion that the cotton acreage will not be materially increased and that in most cases where oats were killed out by the recent freeze the land would be replanted to oats or put in corn.

Sylvan Lang, attorney for the association, was authorized to bring suit against members who have willfully violated their contracts with the association during the last year. President Orr said that only a few members had violated their contracts and that several growers who were ready to deliver cotton before the association was ready to receive it would be released from contract.

To Meet Eugene Meyer
A request from Eugene Meyer, managing director of the War Finance Corporation, that as many of the directors as possible meet with him in Dallas on March 17, when he will confer with federation officials, was received and most of the directors are planning to return here on that date. It was stated that Mr. Meyer will only be in the city from 3 until 6 o'clock in the afternoon and there will be no program of entertainment other than the conference at Chamber of Commerce headquarters. All Dallas bankers will be invited to attend the conference.

The positions on the executive board vacated by the death of two members and the resignation of a third will not be filled at this time. Letters were read from export buyers yesterday complimenting the association on being always ready to sell cotton in even-run grades and lots at shipside for quick delivery. Also in the ability of the selling organization to fill orders for the exact class desired without the buyer having to take other grades to fill out the order.

The final session was concluded yesterday afternoon.—Dallas News.

DEAD BEATING THROUGH THE WORLD

A New York newspaper tells the story of a woman, who lived for years by making bad debts. This woman in common with numbers of other people assumed that the world owed her a living, regardless of how she got it and this was the method she chose to get her's, and succeeded for a long while to put it over. This idea is a false one. The world owes every one comfort, home and happiness, but these are not for the drone. One is expected to work for them. In this great country there is a great expanse of resources in the land, in the soil, in the avenues of commerce, in art and in the various crafts, in the water and in the air. The home is the reward of the toiler. Comfort comes after one has possibly toiled for many years in the preparation thereof. Scarcely anything is attained without a certain amount of toil, when it is, it is scarcely ever appreciated in the proper manner. The man who goes forward with a determination to win, is the fellow who is deserving of the good things of the world, and a person will never get more out of a proposition than they put into it. Business successes are the result of someone having put something real into it. Possibly not the one that is realizing so great from them now, but there was much put into the deal to give it the proper start. One may get through a while on the theory that the world owes them a living, and on the bad debt system, but they reach the end of the row after while and they dare not try it over, while the honest toiler can try and try again if he fails to succeed the first time, and each time he finds more people willing to boost him along, and help him to attain the heights to which he has staked his faith. Reflections on fancied wrongs ruins many lives. Men who beat their bills, women who choose to live without toil are always warped in their mentality. The warped character by inward signs as well as outward is as evident as a warped body. The world owes a living to all. But the price is implied. The world, mother nature, will pay the aggressive man or woman. The defective is of course the burden of society. He must be cared for. But for a person of normal will power and ordinary health to quit ignominiously, taking from others by bad debts, is criminal. The person who fails to pay debts is a parasite and a cheat. Others must bear the burdens of their default.

EX-COMMANDER OF AMERICAN LEGION ACCUSED OF SHORTAGE OF FUNDS.

Sheriff Carl Smith, of Fort Worth, in a long distance telephone conversation Thursday with the sheriff's office at Austin, was notified to arrest Dr. Guy O. Shirley, of Fort Worth, former State Commander of the American Legion of Texas, on a warrant in connection with an embezzlement charge, which dealt with an alleged shortage in American Legion funds during the period Shirley headed the State Department.

Immediately upon the filing of the complaint in Justice Court in Austin, the warrant for Shirley's arrest was issued, Major Wayne B. Davie, the present State Commander being present at the time.

While no specific amount is mentioned, it is said that the complaint grew out of the alleged shortage of American Legion Trust Funds connected with the tubercular hospital at Kerrville last year. Major Davis yesterday paid approximately $1600 into the State Treasury to close a debt the Legion owed the State, made when the State took over the Kerrville hospital. He said that this sum, together with others, totaling approximately $20,000 had never been accounted for.

Dr. Shirley, however, saw fit to be out of town and left a sign on his door which reads: "Am sick; out of the city. Dr. Terry will look after my practice while I am away." We wonder who will continue to look after his practice.

The American Legion "has been in bad", but after an interview with the local officials, we feel that on behalf of the American Legion, a little explanation is due here as to how this came about. The fault is not one of the Legion, in the true sense of the word and we feel that the Legion should not be censured as a whole, and we are betraying no secret when we make this explanation: The following statement by a member of the American Legion is given.

"In 1919, the people of Texas, realizing the need of some way to take care of the tubercular ex-service men of Texas, organized what was known as 'The Benovolent War Risk Society.' They proceeded by public subscription to raise money for the erection of a hospital to care for these men, and in this way raised something like $300,000, then, realizing that the Legion could more satisfactorily handle this matter, agreed to turn it over to them.

The Legion accepted this with the idea of soliciting State aid, in carrying on the work, but found out later that the State can not donate money for this purpose. The Legion then entered into and closed an agreement with the State whereby the State appropriated enough to finish the work, and would give preference of entrance to ex-service men, the Legion turning over all their holdings in the Kerrville hospital, except a balance of cash on hand amounting to $21,000. Dr. Shirley immediately wrote and demanded the treasurer of this fund to send same to him, which under protest was finally done, and Dr. Shirley proceeded to spend this, as he says, "for the best interests of the Legion."

Now, whether Dr. Shirley spent this rightfully or wrongfully is a question to be decided by the courts of the State, and is probably not of interest to the public, but they are interested possibly in whether or not the money was returned to be used for the purpose for which it was donated. And we are more than glad to report that this has been returned to the State and will be used for that purpose.

This man has already been expelled from the Legion. And we are certainly glad to rid ourselves of such as this, and although the Legion in every State in the Union has more than doubled in membership in the last year or two, the Department of Texas has had a "black-eye" since this occurrence, but thanks to our Department officials, and the organization as a whole, we are now ready to begin again with a clear slate.

The Legion is an organization that is here to stay, and the older it gets the stronger it will become. On behalf of the American Legion we wish to pledge ourselves as an organization for service, and if we can't be of some service to the community, State and Nation, we have no purpose as an organization.

Do you know what the Legion stands for? Below is an excerpt from the preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion:

"The purpose of this organization is to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity all principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness; to maintain law and order, a representative form of government, and White Supremacy; to uphold and defend the constitution of the United States of America."

The organization is absolutely non-partisan and shall never be used for the dissemination of partisan propaganda, or for the promotion or destruction of any person's candidacy for public office.

IDLENESS CURSE TO YOUNG FOLKS

We are very sorry to report that two more of our young men were recently arrested and put under bond for alleged burglary of the Bird & Dean store of this city, and the dry goods running into the hundreds of dollars placed in the vaults of the county for evidence against them.

These two young men come from two of the best families in the town, and upon every hand, we hear expressions of deep sympathy for these dear fathers and mothers for the humiliation these stalwart boys have brought upon them.

The trouble lays in idleness, for the old saying that "idleness is the devil's work shop" is just as true today as it was the day it was uttered. We believe if the laws of the state would either force people to work or stay off the streets, there would be much less crime committed. Yes, this is a free country, but still the laws is supposed to protect each individual from depredations by others. The world owes no one a living.

When God planted the first couple in the Garden of Eden, and they were later driven out for disobedience, he put on them the responsibility of making their living by the sweat of their brow. Therefore those who do not work and live on the fruits of others are drones, and there must be laws to protect innocent people.—Terry County Herald

It is a very regrettable thing that boys or girls of good families should bring disgrace upon their parents and other relatives, yet it is often true, and it seems to be caused mainly by allowing the child to loaf, and be idle. One seldom ever hears of a real busy fellow getting into trouble of this kind, and why parents will encourage their children in idleness is something we could never understand. It makes no difference if one does have enough coin to keep the son or daughter without work, it would be much better for the child if he or she was required to have a job of work of some kind to occupy their time, if for no other reason than to keep the mind occupied. The average child's mind is going to be busy at something. It will either be good or bad, and usually it is bad when it is allowed to turn into the channels of idleness. Keep the young minds employed, and there will be less probability of such disgraceful things as some prominent families experience.

WHEN PARENTS LOSE CONTROL OF THE CHILD.

A number of Lubbock boys were up before the police court Thursday morning for disturbing the peace. They were taken in charge by the authorities at a late hour Wednesday, and were requested to appear before the Mayor the next morning. These boys probably were not violating the laws of the city because they were mean, but they were mischievous. They probably were trying to have what they called fun out of the officers, but were at the same time causing disturbance, and as a result were turned in. The hour was late enough that these youngsters should have been at home, and some very prominent people will be humiliated by their son's name appearing on the police court docket as having violated the laws of the city. Better know where your boys are. We admit that this is a task. The picture shows call them, and keep them late. Society calls them, and keep them away from home late. So many calls these days for the young being away from the home, that it is really a hard proposition. But parents, let's do our best, and in the face of all these calls, let not the call of home be outstripped, for in the authority of the parent over the child remains the only hope of saving the young people of the land from utter ruin.

Some towns have been penalized because of their bad fire record during the past year. Every citizen can help to keep Lubbock on the reduced rate if they will use proper precautions. Be careful with fire and save the people of Lubbock thousands of dollars on insurance premium rates.

Interest yourselves in electing men to the office of school trustees, and you will probably not have so much to kick about. When men are elected to office and you do not have enough interest in the election to vote, you have not right whatever to complain at who is elected.

So important is the schools of our city that no person should be elected to any public office who is not in favor of every progressive movement for the schools of this city and county. Make 'em express themselves or don't vote for 'em.

Now since the rain there should be some real good work done on the country roads, and we are sure the commissioners will see to this, and the Lubbock roads will be greatly improved.

Wheat Was King of American Crops For the Year 1921

Washington, March 14.—Wheat was king of American agricultural exports in 1921.

An analysis of the 1921 exports of thirty-two of the principal agricultural products grown in the United States made public today by the Department of Agriculture shows that more wheat was exported during last year than in any preceding year in the history of the country and that for the first time the export value of wheat and flour exceeded the value of cotton exports. Exports of corn in 1921, including corn meal converted into terms of corn, were larger than in any year since 1900. Since 1919 the United States has become an exporter of rice, the exports of 600,000,000 pounds in 1921 being more than twenty-three times the average annual rice exports in the five years period 1910 to 1914.

The principal agricultural exports during 1921 and their declared values were:

Wheat and wheat flour $551,000,000; cotton $534,000,000; pork and pork products, including lard $246,000,000; leaf tobacco $205,000,000; corn and corn meal $97,000,000; sugar $49,000,000; rye $41,000,000; condensed and evaporated milk $38,000,000; cotton seed oil $24,000,000; rice $21,000,000 and barley $21,000,000.

Cotton exports in 1921 totalled 6,178,000 bales of 500 pounds each with a declared value of $534,242,100 as compared with 6,159,000 bales valued at $1,136,409,000 exported in 1920.

MARKET REPORTS TO BE GIVEN TEXAS BY RADIO

Vernon and Sweetwater are to have daily market reports by radio, is the report recently given out by these two towns. Not only will they receive market reports, but will send out the correct time, as well as listening to sermons, concerts, etc. All this has been made possible by the University of Texas who will broadcast these reports every day at 3 o'clock.

Some rural districts have arranged to have stations put in their communities where they can have advantage of the daily markets which will be first hand. They will also be in a position where they can hear public speaking, sermons as well.

DUCKS BLINDED BY RECENT DUST STORM

Down near Cisco, Texas, the dust storm of last week was so severe that the birds and fowls flying through the air became so blinded that they could not see their way and would come to the ground where they could be picked up at one's leisure. One man, while driving to town noticed a flock of ducks acting in a very peculiar manner and after watching their peculiar ties for a few minutes noticed them settle to the ground, and upon investigation found them totally blind and could walk among them as he could among barnyard fowls. On close examination he found them blind, supposed to have been caused from the sand storm that had been raging for a couple of days.

Dr. Burwell, Who Preached Here Several Weeks, Fell Into Long Sleep After Returning to Home in Dallas

After a deep sleep lasting six days the Rev. H. W. Burwell, 3423 Oaklawn avenue, well-known Dallas Presbyterian evangelist, awoke Monday morning and appeared perfectly normal. While conducting a revival in Lubbock, two weeks ago, he contracted influenza and returned home last Tuesday. He went directly to his room and fell into a slumber. When aroused for dinner he went to the table and there fell again into a strange sleep, which hung over him until Monday morning.

One year ago the Rev. Mr. Burwell and Mrs. Burwell returned from the Orient, where they spent eight months traveling in the mission fields of the Southern Presbyterian church, and in that time visited many of the stations in Japan and China. Near the completion of the journey, he was considering remaining in China in mission work when he became afflicted with Chinese pink eye, while at Nanking. His condition became so serious he was removed to the hospital of a famous English specialist in Shanghai. Returning to Dallas, for several months he was under treatment of a local specialist.

He had never fully recovered from the Chinese disease, according to Mrs. Burwell, who believes that there is still poison from the disease in his system.

Blood tests have been made and attending physicians are making a close study of the case.

During the last week it was possible to arouse him long enough to administer food and medicine. He would also answer questions, but would drift back into the sleep.

Since he awoke Monday morning, according to Mrs. Burwell, he has been normal and has taken several short naps, and has shown no signs of lapsing back into the stupor.

"He is unaware that he has been sleeping almost continuously for a whole week," Mrs. Burwell declares.

It will be remembered that Dr. Burwell spent several weeks here, pending the employment of a regular pastor for the First Presbyterian church, and he made many friends while here, who will regret to learn of his afflictions. Dr. Burwell is an able minister, and it was with regret that the congregation here could not secure his services permanently.

3 INCHES OF RAIN IN THE RALLS COMMUNITY

Ralls, Texas, March 13.—More than three inches of rain had fallen here up to 4:20 o'clock this afternoon and up to that hour it was still raining. The west part of Crosby county seems to have been fully soaked, according to reports reaching here.

This guarantees a good season for spring planting and it will probably save at least one-third of the wheat crop.

The whiskey taken, 156 quarts, consisted of four well-known and highly respected brands, and as stated by the owner, would have sold for $20 a quart in Tulsa.

District Attorney McGuire was called over from Lamesa and placed the party under a $1000 bond, and being unable to make same, is safely domiciled in the Lamesa jail.

The car driven by Gowan is an eight cylinder, late model, Cadillac, and is held here.

Later—As we go to press, early Saturday morning, C. E. Rollins, who is connected with the garage where this car is being held, found another 100 quarts securely hidden in the front and back cushions, bringing the total up to 256 quarts.—Seminole Sentinel.

E. A. Miller, Sweet Potato Specialist of A. & M. College, Writes of the Diseases And Curative Steps Peculiar to Them

There are some diseases of sweet potatoes which are doing considerable damage to the potatoes in the field and while in the storage houses. The worst of these is the black rot which is being scattered over the State by infected slips and unless potatoes are carefully selected and created, it will become worse from year to year. Black rot is usually carried from the seed bed to the field by infected slips. From the field it is brought to the storage houses, where it may spread and from there it is taken back to the seed bed unless the potatoes are selected and created.

For these reasons all growers of slips whether for home use or for commercial purposes, are urged to use the following method in order to grow good healthy slips.

Before bedding, be sure to carefully select the seed potatoes and discard all that show any black spots or other signs of diseases. Then dip all of the sound potatoes for ten minutes in a solution containing one ounce of bichloride of mercury (corrosive sublimate) to eight gallons of water. This solution will kill the disease germs on the surface of the potatoes, but cannot reach those which have already gone through the skin and hence it is very important to select the potatoes carefully before being dipped.

The dipping can be easily done in a shallow vat or in barrels or half barrels. Wooden vessels should be used as the bichloride of mercury is corrosive to metal. This solution is poisonous and should not be left where livestock or children can have access to it.

A handy way to do this dipping is to place the potatoes in bushel baskets and then immerse them in the solution for ten minutes. They are then ready to be placed directly in the seed bed, after the solution has drained off. While they are being bedded another lot can be dipped. This method is very simple and extremely important to keep down serious diseases.

Two Injured In Tornado In Floyd County

Floydada, Texas, March 13.—A hurricane which covered a width of some 300 yards and extended in a northeastern direction across Floyd County last night for about ten miles, did heavy damage to farm property and injured at least two persons, one of them seriously. The blow accompanied one of the heaviest rains in recent months, about half of Floyd County having a two-inch rain, although only a light shower fell at this point.

The known injured are T. B. Price nine miles west of Floydada, and his grown son. Their home was destroyed. The boy's back is broken. It is believed. In the growing list of property damage are several barns and outhouses in Pleasant Valley. Jerome Watson and Mrs. Childress are said to have suffered the most serious property damage, white fences, telephone and power lines are torn down for a distance of several hundred feet.

Floydada may be in the dark tonight on account of the destruction of the power lines through wind damage done here and only light rain fell.

Floydada Seeking Shorter Route to Railroad Points

Floydada, Texas, March 13.—Because Floydada is vitally interested in getting a shorter and more direct route to Fort Worth, there is being considered a plan for running an automobile service line from Quanah, a distance of 110 miles, by way of Matador and Paducah, making the trip each way daily. C. C. Wright of Floydada is making plans to install this service, which will run on a schedule, leaving Floydada at 3 p. m. and arriving in Quanah at 8 p. m., and leaving Quanah upon the arrival of the Fort Worth & Denver train in the morning, arriving in Floydada about noon.

It is declared such a line would enable people in Floydada to make the trip to Fort Worth in fourteen hours, whereas the best time that the trip can be made now is something like twenty-five hours. An average of one to two business men go to Fort Worth daily, and many from intermediate points. Attention is called to the facts by its proponents that this line would in a measure indicate the possibilities of a Fort Worth to Plains railroad, and is put on only to serve the present emergency. With an automobile line placing Floydada within thirteen or fourteen hours of Fort Worth, only one of the advantages of a railroad connecting the same territory is suggested.

Mr. W. B. Copeland is on the sick list this week and is in the sanitarium for a few days. We hope he will soon be able to be back home again.

Messrs. Goosby and McClelland were in town Monday.

At this writing there is a slow rain falling which is very much needed so the farmers can go to plowing. They can now go to work and not be wearing such long faces. This is the first rain which amounted to anything we have had in about six months.

Mr. Dud Arnett and family were in town Monday on business.

Mr. Willis Harwood spent Saturday night with the Davis boys.

How's Your Appetite? Headache? Weak?

Good Looks Follow Good Health
Saratoga, Texas.—"A year ago I tried several different medicines, but kept getting worse and felt that I never would have good health again. I became so poor and weak I could hardly do my housework. I suffered from loss of appetite, headache, constipation, shortness of breath, also functional disturbances. Sometimes I would have spells of indigestion and weak sick spells and thought I would die. I never expected to be well any more. At last I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets (sold by druggists) and now I can truthfully say I am in better health than I have been for several years. I advise all women suffering as I did to take Dr. Pierce's medicines. If there are any medicines on earth that will help women who are broken-down in health, these will."—Mrs. Winnie Comer

Miss Blankenship Married in I. O. O. F. Hall Sat. Evening

Following is an account of a wedding that occurred recently, the young lady is a daughter of Mrs. Ella Blankenship, who at one time resided in this county and in Lubbock. She is also a niece of Mrs. A. W. Blankenship, of Lubbock. J. Lowery Vining and Miss Estelle Blankenship were married Saturday evening at the Odd Fellows' Hall. Dr. C. C. Seelman of the First Methodist Church officiating. The ceremony took place before an improvised altar banked with palms, ferns and white roses. Above the altar was suspended a large white wedding bell of pink and white sweet peas.

The bride was attended by Miss Jenette Bedell as bridesmaid. She wore a frock of pink georgette, trimmed with lace and beaded, and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Miss Thelma Chatman was maid of honor, in a frock of pink georgette, trimmed with lace and ribbon, and she wore a corsage of pink and white sweet peas. Little Fred Stulce was ring-bearer and little Misses Lucy Gerloff and Mary Adeline Gellett, in frocks of pink georgette over pink satin, scattered sweet peas and rose petals before the bride.

The bride entered on the arm of J. F. Mitchell. Her gown was of white lace over silver cloth, trimmed with rhinestones, and her long tulle veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. The groom entered with John A. Vining, his brother, who attended him as best man.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held. Members of the Rebecca Lodge cut the cake and served punch. Miss Jenette Bedell presided at the bride's book. At the close of the reception the Union Canton Drum Corps No. 6 gave the benedict's farewell taps.

Mrs. Vining is a 1920 graduate of the Odd Fellows' Home in Corsicana and has many friends here, both in club and church circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Vining left immediately for Wichita Falls, where they will be at home for the present.

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Cattle and Hogs Lower, Lambs Stronger.
Kansas City Stock Yards, March 13th.—Cattle receipts here were moderately larger than expected and materially above requirements in Chicago. Prices were sharply lowered, under a slow trade, and here a 15 to 25 cent decline was quoted. Hog prices were down 10 to 25 cents, and fully 75 cents lower than a week ago. The top price at Eastern markets fell below 11 cents for the first time in several weeks past. Sheep and lambs were strong to 25 cents higher.

Today's Receipts
Receipts today were 13,000 cattle; 12,000 hogs, and 6,000 sheep, compared with 9,000 cattle, 12,000 hogs, and 8,000 sheep a week ago, and 12,000 cattle, 17,300 hogs, and 9,550 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle
Chicago had 24,000 cattle, and 5,000 calves, the largest supply on any Monday in some weeks past. The heavy run there truned prices down and caused declines elsewhere. Here fat steers were off 15 to 25 cents. Trade opened slowly but as soon as the decline was established there was a free movement over the scales. Choice steers sold up to $8.50, and steers and heifers were quoted steady with receipts small. Veal calves were lower.

Stockers and Feeders.
Though some choice stockers and feeders were quoted steady the bulk of the thin grades sold slightly lower. Trade was fairly active. Inquiry came from both feeders and grazers.

Hogs.
The hog market showed further weakness and prices in the extreme were down 10 to 25 cents, an average of 15 cents under last week's.

"When my wife began taking Tanic she had been living on liquid food for a long time, but now she eats anything she wants and everything seems to agree with her," said J. G. Randall, 2408 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas.

"I don't believe she knew a well day for three years and I was very much worried about her as I could just see that she was dwindling down in weight and losing strength every day. She complained a good deal, too, of her heart fluttering and—well—thought she had heart trouble of a serious character, but we now know that it was entirely from her stomach.

REPORTS FROM VARIOUS POINTS IN WEST TEXAS COVERED BY THE RAIN WHICH FELL MONDAY AND TUESDAY

For the first time in months the Midland section of West Texas is thoroughly drenched. At 10 o'clock Monday morning a half to an inch of rain had fallen over a large area, according to a telegram from H. L. Spiller, secretary of the Cattle Raisers' Association.

Midland, Texas, March 13.—One and a half inches of rain fell here last night, breaking the drouth of eight months' duration.

Maryneal, Texas, March 13.—Rain covering Maryneal territory fell this morning, accompanied by considerable hail. No damage is reported. The rain was badly needed.

Colorado, Texas, March 13.—Rainfall at Colorado last night amounted to .35 of an inch, was accompanied by a strong wind. The electric lines of the West Texas Electric company are out between Colorado and Sweetwater. Following the recent snow, the rain will do much to benefit farmers and cattlemen.

Hutchinson, Kan., March 13.—A heavy rain started to fall at 5 o'clock this morning in this section of the wheat belt.

Abilene, Texas, March 13.—More than half an inch of rain fell here last night, the heaviest single shower since Jan. 9, will be of great benefit to growing grain. Some hail damage is believed to have been done north of Abilene.

Clarendon, Texas, March 13.—Rain amounting to one and one-third inches fell here last night. With the recent snow this section is assured of sufficient moisture for Spring plowing. The weather is still cloudy and prospects are favorable for more rain today.

Brownfield, Texas, March 13.—Good rains fell over Terry County last night, breaking a drouth of more than six months. The farmers will now prepare land for coming crops.

Slaton, Texas, March 13.—Slow rain fell over this section of the Plains Sunday night to the amount of one-half inch, seemingly general. The weather remains threatening.

Thockmorton, Texas, March 13.—Thockmorton county was visited by a good rain this morning, being enough to put out stock water-hauling. It covered the county.

Seymour, Texas, March 13.—Three eighths of an inch of rain fell here at an early hour this morning and cloudy, threatening weather with showers have been general over the county today. Reports indicate that the rain was heaviest in the eastern part of the county where lack of stock water has been a problem for several months and it is thought sufficient has fallen to relieve the situation. With the snow the early part of the month and these showers the total precipitation this month is about one inch. Ample season for corn and seed planting is assured and the small grain which has survived will be greatly benefited.

Odessa, Texas, March 13.—Ector county received a quarter inch of rain last night and today. Indications are good for more.

Sweetwater, March 13.—One-half inch of rain fell in Sweetwater and most of Nolan county early Monday morning. Ranchmen from various sections report their tanks amply replenished for stock purposes. Sweetwater creek, just south of town, rose several feet. Farmers generally are relieved.

Canadian, Texas, March 13.—A slow rain fell all night and still was falling at noon today. The precipitation amounted to about two inches, with a snowfall during the last two weeks of fifteen inches. The Panhandle has the finest prospects in many years.

No Worms in a Healthy Child
All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

THE FLU EPIDEMIC AT PAMPA CLOSES SCHOOLS

Pampa, March 14.—School has been discontinued here for the remainder of this week because of a recrudescence of the "flu" epidemic. The disease has forced so many students out of school, and because of the possibility of further spread of the disease, classes are discontinued until March 20.

SHALLOWATER ITEMS AS WE HEAR THEM

The little girl of H. C. Gaithers happened to a very painful accident one day last week when the door blew shut catching her fingers, cutting off about half of the first joint. Mary Beth Sheeley visited with Mary Bowles Sunday.

S. M. Sooter and family and Ted Sooter visited with relatives at Slaton Sunday.

Some of the junior young people spent Saturday evening playing forty-two at the B. E. Need home.

Among those on the sick list at this writing are the Chester Wright family, Tueltight Baker, and the little baby of A. D. Henson, Jack Brown's family and others.

Opal Warren of Lubbock visited with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Gaither the last of the week.

George Blingart drove to Littlefield Friday, returning in the evening.

Sunday evening a large crowd gathered at the School house with the Hardy people and organized a singing class.

Word has been received at this place that we have $1500 for a park plans will be made as soon as possible to use this money, by the people of this community.

On account of a misunderstanding about the dates, Rev. Picken did not come out until afternoon, instead of the forenoon as the people expected.

The farmers are sure wearing broad and happy faces these days and all of them are as busy as bees in the summer, for we got what? yes, we got a good rain and the farmers are plowing sod and getting the ground ready to plant the crops.

Now Faultinder and Mr. Grumbler, do you think all your dry weather talk did any good? Just remember it is the fellow who sticks to a thing and doesn't give up, if every thing is against him, is the one who will win out.

Hurrah, for West Texas, Lubbock county and Shallowater.

Last Friday evening one of the most interesting programs was given by the speakers in the declamation contest for our school.

There were six junior girls. First being Mary Bowles giving "Fleur-de-lis" in a most pleasing manner; next was Lucile Bowles gave "The Battle of Belleau Wood," holding the audience with her pleasing voice and winning ways. Number three was Mammie Calley giving "Hiawatha." Although this reading was very difficult she was at home on the stage with it. Number four was Tueltight Baker, giving "The Blue and the Grey" in a most forceful and pleasing manner. Number five, Wyvan Mason in "How Did You Die," although she was younger than the rest, she gave her reading well. Number six, Gollia Mason gave "Down in Sunny Tennessee" in her charming way and handled her reading splendidly. The Junior boys were next with only two in the contest. But both were excellent speakers. It was hard to tell which was best. Marvin Sooter gave "A Toast to the Flag" in a very feasible way and showed a well trained voice. While Allen Mason, the other contestant was everything any speaker could wish of themselves. The senior girls were Ina Redwine and Ada Moore. It was hard to tell which was best of these also. Ina Redwine in "A Toast to the Flag" and Ada Moore with "At the Grave of the Unknown Soldier." Both gave their reading exceptionally well.

The Judges, W. D. Watkins, W. C. Rylander and Judge Klett, pronounced Tueltight Baker as being first, Lucile Bowles, second and Mammie Calley third in the junior girls' contest. The junior boys, Allen Mason, first; and senior girls, Ina Redwine was given first place. Boxes of candy were given those getting first place and a dollar gold piece to Allen Mason for having the most points.

Miss Carter is to be congratulated on the interest that was taken in this contest, as every member was just as good as the other and the judges spent a good while on making the decisions.

The boy and girl winning first place will go to Lubbock Saturday for the county contest.

The many friends of Rob Davison and Miss Myrtle Delaney were surprised to learn of their marriage March 4th at Miss Delaney's home in Arkansas. Mr. Davison has been one of our foremost farmers since he came back from the Navy, having served as an electrician during the war. He sold his farming outfit last year to L. W. Hardy, with whom he had been staying and went to Collins county. Miss Delaney has been a very successful teacher at both the Shallowater and Grovesville schools. She was loved and respected by her pupils, all of them wishing Miss Myrtle would teach next year. May success and happiness go with them through life is the wish of all their friends.

Poultry Show and Farmers Short Course, Lubbock, March 20-21.

ONLY TWO PILES OF ASHES

The house burned the day before they were ready to move in. Not daunted, but in high spirits, the family set up housekeeping in the garage. An agent tried hard to insure the husband, but he said that he would not sign an application until the ready money needed for the house to be built at once was all provided for. Within a short time the man caught cold and died—and the widow sold the lot and garage to pay the cremation expense. The ashes of the house and husband are all that are left to the widow who faces the world as home-maker and provider—twice the job her husband found too difficult to perform.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ABERNATHY REVIEW

Clarence Schulz attended the automobile show at Amarillo last week.

Herman Schulz and C. G. Goodman left Tuesday morning for Fort Worth on business for the Bledsoe Oil and Gas Co. and incidentally take in the Fat Stock Show.

Howard Pearson and his aunt, Miss Willie Pearson were detained at Plainview for two days during last week's snow storm. They were there the first part of the week and after finishing their business started home on Thursday, not thinking the storm was so bad, but after getting out a few miles from Plainview found it was so bad that they decided to return and wait till next day. After starting back to town they found they could not make it so they were compelled to spend the night at a farm house just this side of town.

The Junior B. Y. P. U. were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Stratton. They were pleasantly entertained with games, music and select reading, after which Mrs. Stratton served them with delicious refreshments. Twenty-one of the class were present, who answered to the roll call as follows: Tennie Groves, Douglas Adkinson, Gladys Houston, Susie O'Neil, Gertrude Pool, Newell Goodwin, Eugene Legg, Harold Fair, Carl Reed, Edwin Crow, Raymond and John Clark, Lois and Lizzie Ruske, L. B. Conrod, Francis Castle, Willie Bell, Joe Stratton, Ina Mae Stambaugh.

It has been decided among the teachers of the Abernathy school that the contestants for championship, winners to contest in the county's first place, will be divided, part of the program in the afternoon and part in the evening. The contest in declamation will take place from 1:00 to 2:30 p. m. March 24th. Athletic contests will be held from 2:45 to 4:15. The contestants in debating will hold their try out in the evening from 8:00 to 10:00 p. m. The winners in these contests will go to Plainview the next day to contest for first honors there.

Miss Effie Daniels, niece of Mrs. J. N. Daniels, who has been spending the winter here, left last week for her home in De Leon, Texas, to be away for the summer.

E. B. Rosser made a business trip to Plainview Tuesday.

A. M. Medley and family arrived in Abernathy first of the week from their home in Wilson and will make their home here. We understand Mr. Medley will go with one of the local elevators as bookkeeper. He was at one time in the grain business in Abernathy and is familiar with this kind of work.

Not much change to be seen "in our own home town," towards beautifying it. Interest should not lag in this work. With a little effort Abernathy could be made a pretty town to live in, and known as the city beautiful of the South Plains. This work should begin now and every week a clean up week till Abernathy was made to rank first as the cleanest little town in the country.

Rev. J. T. Howell preached two very interesting sermons Sunday and Sunday night to a good size congregation.

O. W. Fry living in the northeastern part of Hale county, lost his home and barn last Monday, when something about his heating plant went wrong, which caused the fire to break out in the kitchen and before it could be extinguished the entire building and most of the furniture was consumed. We understand the house was insured for about $3,000 and one thousand on the furniture with two hundred on the barn.

When our radio station is installed we will be able to give all the latest news from many parts of the country, also the daily market reports.

E. G. Brown and wife left last week for Friona, where they will visit friends for a few weeks, after which they will return to South Texas, their old home, where they will reside. Mr. Brown was for a while connected with the Union Milling Co. of this place.

We are planning for a great meeting. Good preaching, first class song service, plenty of workers and we invite you to come every service. Revs. Allie and Emma Erick will be our Evangelists.

They held the meeting last year. Yours in His Service, Rev. W. B. Pinson, Pastor.

BAND ORGANIZED AT IDALOU INSTEAD OF ABERNATHY

Last issue of the Avalanche it was stated that Prof. Monte Bowron had organized a band at Abernathy, when we should of said the band was organized at Idalou. Prof. Bowron says he has prospects of a very fine class over there, and they have a number of good band men, who have had much experience, and have some very fine instruments, and Idalou will be heard from in the very near future, according to all reports.

The grandstand will be moved from the center of the park to the southwest corner, facing the race track and the diamond. A modern and up-to-date grandstand will be built, together with bleachers for us fellows who are possibly not in line for a seat on the cushions.

The boys will all be here in a few days and workout will be started. A challenge has already been issued and accepted for an exhibition game with the local Methodist Sunday School League, which will be staged in the very near future.

According to the Health Boards Report There Are No Epidemics In Texas, But Many Deaths Are Reported

Austin, March 16.—Although, that while there are no appreciable epidemics in Texas and in some sections very little sickness, the state board of health stated that an appraisal of the state's health showed "much room for improvement."
"Of 35,000 deaths reported," the statement said, "14,000 were caused by preventable diseases. Of some 2,000 blind in our state institutions, a large percentage of this blindness could have been prevented by a few drops of silver nitrate dropped in the eyes of these unfortunates when they were new born, according to

Dr. E. E. Bramlette, superintendent of the blind institute.

"According to Dr. W. O. Talbot, neglected teeth frequently is the predisposing factor leading to many incurable chronic conditions of later life. Of the estimated sum of 50,000 sufferers from tuberculosis, many could have been saved by using sanitary drinking cups, securing better ventilation and correcting their habits.

"There are some 10,000 defective blind and blind in Texas. It is, however, within the control of the educated and intelligent to prevent such future conditions. The asylums are overflowing, insanity is increasing, taxes increasing and human suffering increasing. Why not take stock of this deplorable condition and plug the leak by marriage law enforcement, suppression of venereal diseases and other simple devices?"
"Estimated figures for 1921 show that there were 1,200 sufferers from typhoid fever, 2,200 diphtheria and 200,000 cases of malaria and 1,781 cases of smallpox were reported. All of these diseases are preventable."
"Typhus fever is gaining a foothold in our state, fourteen cases having been reported. This disease is caused by a louse which refuses to live anywhere except in filth.

"In the state, there are five full time county health officers; there is room for 247 more. There are three full time city health officers with room for 322 more. There are three city sanitarians, room for twenty more. Forty towns are battling against malaria while there should be 160.

Less than 10 per cent of the milk cows are examined for tuberculosis. Seventy-five counties have county nurses and 180 are without county nurses. Two towns enforce rat proof ordinances; forty others should. Two hundred towns have sanitary sewer systems. Over a million people still use the antiquated typhoid, hookworm spreading system of night soil disposal.

"The water supply is safeguarded in forty towns while twenty are un-ing contaminated water. In other towns, the water supply is subject to periodical contamination. Thirty-two towns have garbage incinerators while over 200 towns maintain dump ground which are incubators for organisms and insects.

LITTLEFIELD MEN ATTEND "STAG PARTY" HERE SAT.

Gus Shaw and Hamilton Sheppard, of Littlefield, were among the out of town visitors to the "Stag Party" given at the Elk Hall by the local Chamber of Commerce Saturday night. Mr. Shaw is associated with the Lamb County Mercantile business, having spent a good many years selling ladies ready to wear for a New York firm, and it is needless to say his being associated with his nomadic brethren here Saturday night was an occasion of much amusement for him. "Ham" Sheppard is principal of the Littlefield schools and is a live wire whose activities in school athletics in this section has made him well known and admired by local sports fans of the Lubbock High School, Plainview and other schools with whom he has been associated since coming to this section of West Texas.

Fellow in Dallas Forges Checks on Brownfield Banker

A wire was received by the First National Bank, of this city one day last week, from a prominent business firm of Dallas, asking if W. A. Bell was good for his accounts. The President of the bank, Mr. R. M. Kendrick, at that time being away at Kansas City, Cashier Bell answered the wire himself, saying he knew nothing of a W. A. Bell being in Dallas. Another wire came directly followed by a long distance talk with Mr. Bell, and of course he told them they were victims of a forger.

In the next day or two a letter arrived from one of the swindled firms apologizing to Mr. Bell, and describing the forger as a "young man" and that he had been lodged in jail.

He seemed to be pretty familiar of the banking and business interests in Brownfield, as he represented himself as being W. A. Bell, cashier of the First National Bank, said R. M. Kendrick was president. He gave W. H. Dallas as president of the Brownfield State Bank, but missed it on the cashier, giving O. T. Halley, former cashier, instead of Morgan L. Copeland. He also represented that he was Sec. Treas. of the Brownfield Light and Ice Co., which is true of the real W. A. Bell, and that he was there to buy supplies to put in the plants.

Lovington Calls a Railroad Meeting for 17th of March

Lamesa Reporter: That Dawson County must have a rail road that will connect directly with the main markets of the world, goes without saying. We have had this jerk water Santa Fe branch and it seems hopeless to ever get any service worth while from this road in way of extension. There are thousands of acres of land both east and west of us undeveloped because of lack of rail road transportation. That a road through this vast rich territory will be a success financially, is conceded by all who are in any way acquainted with the country. Its soil is rich and its people are only waiting for the glad day to come to develop it and make it as good as some of the best land in Dawson County. Rail roads are beginning to realize the vast possibilities of this section and in a knowledge of these facts, our people along the proposed routes are getting busy and the various Chambers of Commerce are getting on the job. Gail and Snyder last week had a meeting and now comes the call from our sister, Lovington, N. Mex., for a meeting for the 17th of March looking to the building of this same road which shall connect Waco and Fort Worth with the great West. The greatest country on the globe today. All towns interested from Rotan to Roswell, N. M., should have a full attendance. Go to Lovington March 17th and lend your strength to this move which means more to this country than all the Chambers of Commerce can possibly put over.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Treachorous Drug can not be Trusted and Next Dose may Start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel! It is mercury; quicksilver. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate. 11-11

Population of the Texas Prisons Continues to Increase, According To the Reports for the Year 1921

Austin, March 11.—During the calendar year of 1921 the net Texas State prison population increased 594, there having been 2,561 convicts on hand Jan. 1, 1921, and 3,155 on Dec. 31, 1921. Of the releases, discharges constituted 51 per cent; pardons 10 per cent; escapes 30 per cent; paroles 6 per cent, and deaths 3 per cent.

Harris County retained its lead by sending 127 new convicts; Tarrant, with 90, displaces Dallas for second place and Dallas is third with 73, while El Paso comes fourth with 69 and Bexar fifth with 47.

Burglary was the leading crime, 449 burglars having been received, while forgery and liquor law violations were tied for second at 178 each. Miscellaneous: Theft 168, Murder 114, robbery with firearms 66 and assault to murder 59. Liquor law violations increased from 38 in 1920 to 178 in 1921.

Sentences varied from one year to life; 719, or nearly one-half of the new convicts, were short-termers with two years to serve.

There was an increase in the number of convicts received between the ages of 16 and 20 years, being 255 against 244 in 1920. A much greater increase is shown between the ages of 60 and 70, the figures being 19 and 11, respectively. Other ages showed marked increases.

During 1921 there were 768 new white convicts and 653 negroes received. Of the 1,501 received there were 238 illiterates as compared with 236 the previous year, while those with education from common to good were 1,373. There were 397 convicts recaptured, 89 returned from parole, 765 discharged and delivered to Sheriff, 156 pardoned, 451 escaped, 34 died, against 33 the year before, and 74 paroled. Nineteen died of gunshot wounds.

A total of 2,628 convicts are housed on the State farms; 341 in Huntville prison, 167 on leased farms and 19 in insane asylums.

In 1921 the new convicts included 707 married, 828 single, 47 widowed and 19 divorced, 1,432 were temperate in habits and 169 intemperate; 1,322 were tobacco users and 17 females; 1,448 were serving their first term; 128 second terms and 25 third terms and over.

Convicts continued to increase this year, as there were 3,186 on hand at the close of January, an increase during the month of 32.

The foregoing data was filed with the Governor by the State Prison Commission, it having come from the criminal record department.

Lubbock Will Have Radio Sending and Receiving Stations

The Avalanche is grateful to N. J. Nash, local employee of the Santa Fe, advising that there is a great amount of action being taken to install a receiving and broadcasting station in Lubbock.

It is unnecessary for us to comment on the merits of this proposition to Lubbock, as it has long been under discussion and is sanctioned by leading business and professional men of the city.

Mr. Rich has joined hands with Claude McDaniel, local wire chief for the S. W. Bell Telephone Co., whose wide knowledge of the work and appreciation to it is greatly responsible for the "Bug" to have become so strongly circulated throughout Lubbock. Following is a letter received from Mr. Rich concerning the work, for which we are very grateful to him. We appreciate their soliciting the assistance of the Avalanche in getting this work started, and will be glad to help in every way possible.

Editor Avalanche,
Dear Sir:

I met you some time ago and I want to talk further to you about Radio. There are great possibilities in store for Lubbock if they will install a local broadcasting set; but first we have got to arouse interest. I have had four years service with the Marine Corps along the Radio line and I hold a commercial license so I know where of I speak. I want to get the co-operation of the Avalanche in building a set for Lubbock. If I can get that I can get some good news, for only tonight I heard that Colorado and New Mexico were having snow and we will probably get a shower of it ourselves. This came out as Radio Weather reports. Besides present weather conditions the forecasts are given daily and all markets are broadcasted also all conditions of the markets. Then besides, there are about twenty high powered radio stations that broadcast music also gram doperas. This happens every night. There are the following stations that broadcast every night and here I mention a few that are heard from by Mr. H. L. Allen. There is station WWJ who sends news and weather also music. This station is at Detroit, Michigan and is heard by Mr. Allen every night that he cares to hear him. Then there are these: 5MU at Kansas City sends weather, music and also press news; also WRW at Kansas City who sends music and news; 5DG of Denver; 5ZC of Dallas, KYW of San Francisco, all these send music, news and weather. They are heard nightly by Mr. Allen who is the owner of a good receiving station and who is also an old radio "Bug." Preaching is heard every Sunday night by Rev. Truett at Dallas and also the local Dallas station broadcasts news and weather reports. Practically all of these stations send the market news also. Then there is 5XU at Austin, operated by the State and the Federal Government, which sends to all farmers over Texas. This station is solely for the farmer and can be heard by them for the expenditure of only $36.00. Radio has come to stay and Lubbock must get on the map. I am an old radio operator and am in a position to tell the people of Lubbock the benefits they can get from radio. I can furnish you all the news you want. At present I am on the second track here and am an old operator by trade. Norville J. Rich.

Harding's Plan to Make America Supreme On Seas

Here is how the Government plans to aid the growth of an American merchant marine through a subsidy plan presented to Congress by President Harding:

1. Liberalization of restrictive marine laws.
2. Shipping Board to sell remaining Government ships, not by competitive bidding, but by prices to be fixed by it.
3. Establishment of a $125,000,000 loan fund, from which shipbuilders can borrow money at 2 per cent.
4. Reduction of income taxes on shipping corporations equal to 5 per cent of value of goods shipped under the American flag.
5. Government to waive all such income taxes when the amount of taxes is to be applied to the cost of new ship construction.
6. Establishment of regulations compelling 50 per cent of all immigrants coming to America to travel on American ships.
7. Establishment of a merchant marine naval reserve comprised of seafaring Americans in merchant marine service.
8. All Government transportation to be done in American ships, including army and navy transportation.
9. Extension of coastwise shipping laws to include the Philippine Islands.
10. Direct Government aid to be withheld when companies are earning more than 10 per cent profit when Government aid has been extended, all over 10 per cent to be turned over to the Government.
11. Ten per cent of all customs duties are to be devoted to a revolving fund (about $30,000,000 annually) to provide means of extending aid.
12. Tonnage taxes (amounting to about $2,000,000 annually) to be paid into same fund.

A. P. SEITZ WILL ERECT NEW FILLING STATION

A. P. Seitz, well known local man has let the contract for, and will in the very near future begin the erection of a modern filling station on the corner of Broadway and Ave. G.

The old buildings and stables now located there will be torn out, or moved away being replaced by a new and up-to-date filling station of frame structure and stucco work, with a composition roof. The building will be 36x36 and will have all equipment necessary to a modern filling station.

This is just another necessary step in the building of a town, and we are glad to see Mr. Seitz taking this step toward the beautification of that part of the city, for it is very much needed and will add greatly to the attractiveness of that section, where there are already several nice buildings under construction, or just completed.

FOUND A CURE FOR INDIGESTION

These tablets contain no opium but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.

IN MILADY'S REALM

BY MRS. CURTIS A. KEEN
Residence 1119 Fourteenth St.

A thought for today:
"Music is the harmonious voice of creation, an echo of the other world, one note of the divine concord which the entire universe is destined one day to sound."—Mazini.

The Eternity of Music
Music was the first sound heard at the creation when the morning stars sang together. It was the first sound heard at the birth of Christ when the angels sang above the plains of Bethlehem. It is the Universal language, which appeals to the universal heart of mankind. It greets our entrance into the world and solemnizes our departure and there must come a time when it will be the only suggestion left of our humanity and creation, since it alone of all things of earth is known in heaven. The human soul and music are alone eternal.—Geo. P. Upton.

The Wednesday Needle Club
The Wednesday Needle Club met on March 8 at the home of Mrs. Bacon with Mrs. Atkins as assisting club hostess. A dainty salad course was served to the following ladies: Mesdames Hilburn, Copeland, Cosens, Stevens, Sensabaugh, Robertson, Klett, Briggs, Robbins, Wagner Ellis and Davidson.
Mesdames Maddox and Hilburn will be the hostesses at the Hilburn home at the next meeting.

Music and Dramatic Club
St. Patrick's day, March 17, announced one of the most delightful programs ever given in Lubbock. The Music and Dramatic Club, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association, will give the following program at the High School auditorium.
Orchestra Numbers. Under the direction of Mr. Raleigh Brown.
Solo—Mrs. Smith.
Violin Duet—Miss Mary Meador and Mr. Brown.
Reading by Mrs. Sears.
Violin Solo—Mr. Brown.
Solo—Mr. Griffin.
Solo—Mrs. Hilton.
Solo—Mr. Inmon.
Chorus Number—Coral Club.
Chorus Numbers—Boys Band.
The above program gives you an idea of the treat in store for you on the seventeenth. The Parent-Teachers Association are counting on the support of every citizen in Lubbock and are anxious to make enough money to finish some of the good work the club has been doing, in the line of school equipment and general school needs. If you can't be present, buy a ticket anyway, and pass it on to some one who can. Tickets will be available from the members of the Parent and Teachers Association or at the High School that evening. Everybody come.

"Let me make the songs of a country, and let who will make its laws."—Fletcher.

"Songs are able to change the feelings and condition of a state."—Cicero.

"Music is Love in search of a word."—Sidney Lanier.

The Power of Love
That we pardon in the degree we love, is a truth that carries with it a weight beyond our ken. It ranges in its applicability from the highest relation of human life. No sacrifice is too great, no pain too severe, no prayer in vain, which is offered for one who holds an inner place in the kingdom of Love. Perchance it is our determination, as wife or sweetheart, to preserve the ideal, around whose head we have spun a halo of the purest gold, to satisfy the longing to place Love as we have idealized it, on Loves Own High Pedestal—be it what it may, forgiveness is ever given in true proportion to love.

In mother love another note is sounded that whispers of a love that knows no changing, even as the love of the great Keeper of all it is a love that speaks but one language and knows but one creed. From the moment the heart first knows its secret, before aught is whispered to another soul, mother love is supreme, and oft are the whispered and unspoken prayers which are wafted to the throne of the Most High, and which rest as a benediction, on the budding life, through all eternity. The pain and travail are as naught and it is as though the prayers of all the ages had been answered, when the tiny pilgrim is placed in its mothers arms, a life to guard. And so from the toddling steps to the full grown man the love from the mother heart pours out, ever the same. Yesterday, today and tomorrow. Could we estimate pardon in proportion to mother love it would be as boundless as heaven and as enduring as the work of the Master of all Architecture.

Shall we not consider then the hasty criticism and the quicker condemnation and weight Love, and in so doing the most precious of life's jewels, ere we seek too late and find that we are weighed in the balance and found wanting."

At last the Library books have been unearthed. After a careful examination, find that many are badly damaged and more than ten hundred of the latest published have been taken from where they were stored and never returned. Will be glad if all who have the welfare of the Library books, will return them at once to the Secretary, and pay usual dues for the time they have kept them out. This committee will be glad to donate books to a Library when organized and ever ready to lend a helping hand for the advancement of anything for the good and uplift of Lubbock. Secy. Lubbock Welfare Library.

It was cut by all and each one eager to find what each had cut, the dime, thimble, penny or button and each enjoyed the afternoon to the fullest extent.

Miss Gladys Sides, assisted with the children in games and interesting contest, each one making as many words as they could out of the little Master's name, Harmon Jenkins.
