C. OF C. HAVE ENTHUSIASTIC HIGHWAY MEETING WEDNESDAY

BUSINESS MANAGER OF THE AUTOMOBILE CLUB OF TEXAS AND STATE CHAIRMAN OF HIGHWAY COM. PRESENT

CLOSE IN GROUNDS SHOULD BE PROVIDED

The Camp Ground Tourist Is Worth Catering to, As He Spends More Money and Carries Good or Bad Accounts of the Town - As It Appears to Him—Make His Stay Pleasant.

At a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday morning, called by President Rix, a question of most vital importance to the development of Lubbock and surrounding territory was brought before the body: That of good roads and a highway through the State.

Visitors at this meeting were Hardy Sammons, business manager of the Automobile Club of Texas and Judge Curtis Hancock, chairman of the Club's State Highway Commission.

Judge Hancock, in a very few words gave an outline of the benefits to be derived from a state marked highway, stressing the fact that Lubbock as the center of development of the South Plains, cannot afford to pass up such an opportunity. He was high in his praise of Lubbock and the South Plains territory. Good roads can be built here, he says, on the Plains cheaper than any other place for the simple reason that on account of the natural lay of the land, none, or very little, at least, of expense will be incurred in leveling.

Hardy Sammons then in a very brief way gave an outline of the highway as mapped out by state and national authorities, the benefits derived therefrom, and presented the development program to be put on this highway, emphasizing the fact that a state marked highway is inestimable in value to a live and progressive country.

The highway in question is designated as Official Highway No. 7, as designated by the State Highway Commission, beginning at Logansport, La., and belting the State from Southeast to Northwest, through the following points: Center, Nacadoches, Alto, Rusk, Palestine, Fairfield, Mexia, Waco, Gatesville, Goldthwaite, Brownwood, Coleman, Buffalo Gap, Abilene, Sweetwater, Roscoe, Snyder, Post, Lubbock, Littlefield, and to Farwell.

The five mile stretch of sand south of Muleshoe, which is such a bugaboo at the present, even now causes only a slight loss of time, but on this highway will be eliminated. The bonds for the construction of this highway have already been sold, and the company will immediately construct of this eight miles on the Roger Q. Mills highway.

A campaign is now under way in connection with Anderson and Freestone Counties, for a bond issue, which issue is to include the construction of a $100,000 steel bridge across the Trinity River at Bonner's Ferry. With these improvements, the Roger Q. Mills highway will have more than 300 miles of any cross-state highway road in the state of Texas or Louisiana.

The Roger Q. Mills highway catches all the travel off the famous Jefferson Highway, and crosses every North and South Highway in the State. At Farwell it intersects the Postal F. F. Obo Pass, on which the Santa Fe Railroad spent millions of dollars in cutting through. This affords a most direct route to all Colorado and California points.

The Roger Q. Mills Highway is a highway of necessity, says Mr. Sammons, saving from 200 to 300 miles for tourists going to Central or South Texas points. As an East and West highway it is an absolute airline through the state.

The entire route of this highway which means so much to Lubbock and her territory will be logged, worked, graded, and advertised thoroughly throughout the Touring and Information Bureaus of the entire country.

The importance of this highway cannot be overestimated, and the value of such a road is inestimable to any country, for it brings to and through our city annually thousands of tourists, whom, if the right impression is made on them will be a better advertisement to our town than many times the amount that the highway would cost if spent in newspaper publicity. A satisfied customer or visitor is absolutely the best advertising that can be secured, even disregarding the cost.

In this connection, let us also stress a little the worth and value of a Free Auto Tourist's Park in the city. By all means we should awake to our needs along this line, and the opportunities we are letting slip by the neglect of this tourist class of people. It is true enough that we now have a tourist park, but where is it? Of course it is better than nothing, but it is certainly not up to the standard that Lubbock sets for her other improvements.

and being so far out of town he is going to stay there rather than come into town, probably to the restaurant, to the picture show, or to our merchants to buy a little article of some kind, either wearing apparel or something to eat. The next morning he gets up, and decides that it is so far back up to town that he will not take the time to come back before continuing on his journey. Therefore he does not even get the chance to see the town or any of its citizens.

There are two classes of tourists. The Hotel tourist and the Camp Site tourist. The Camp Site tourist is by far the most valuable to a town in general. Ordinarily they will spend more money in a town by a great deal, than the other class. The average tourist coming through carries by cooking outfit and camp stuff with him. While here he has to have something to eat, or a piece or two of wearing apparel, or possibly he has blown out a tire and must buy another. Probably before he gets out of town he has spent $50 or $100, and if he is properly entertained while here he is going on with a good word for the town. What we need is a close in park equipped with modern conveniences, where this class of people can enjoy a visit with us. Naturally they will feel better toward the town, and we will feel better for the satisfaction gained.

If we are going to build a town, let's build one worth while to every one concerned, and if we can please the traveling public we have gone a long way toward the building of an ideal town.

Let's go for the Interstate Highway and a bigger and better Free Tourist's Park. We can do it, if we will.

Col. Mullican Underwent Operation Last Friday

Clark M. Mullican, well known local man, was operated on in one of our city sanitariums the latter part of last week. He is doing fine, and has been a very remarkable case.

Colonel Mullican, as we all know him, went on the operating table Friday morning for appendicitis, under a local anesthetic. His folks knew nothing about his intentions, his wife being in Dallas, but he decided that he would have the operation over as it had to be done sooner or later.

A telephone was put in his room, and while the operation was in progress, a call was put in for his wife in Dallas. Immediately upon being placed on his bed from the operation, he called up his mother in town, and told he had just been operated on for appendicitis, and to come down to see him. Then ten minutes later he left the operating table, he talked to his wife in Dallas, giving her the news. On Saturday morning, following the operation on Friday, he shaved himself in bed, with just as much ease as if nothing had happened.

Colonel Mullican made the statement that he had not had a pain, and had had no hypodermic, as usually accompanies a case of that kind. He is resting easily and will be out in a very few days at his usual duties.

We are glad indeed to hear of the Colonel's successful operation and that he will soon be at his post again. He is a forward looking and successful citizen, always in the harness for the betterment of his town.

WHEAT HAS BEEN HELPED BY THE RECENT RAINS

Winter wheat has been helped immeasurably and the ground is now in condition for plowing over the major part of this territory. Farm work can be pushed rapidly and turned over in preparation for row crops. It is likely that considerable more of the winter wheat than anticipated will show up, now that the fields have had a thorough soaking. In a number of localities, the farmers have been planning to plant spring wheat though that crop is not recommended for this section. Around Farwell some of the growers have become interested in the Kubanka durum, which is said to be rust proof. It has been tried in that section but it is reported as exceedingly drought resistant; and a good yielder.

Beans as a row crop are attracting rather more attention in the Panhandle than usual, this spring, and it is likely that there will be some increase in the acreage planted to this crop. Broom corn is also looked upon with some favor, owing to the low price brought by the sorghum grains last fall. Plainsman.

RAILROAD MEETING AT FORT WORTH WILL NO DOUBT RESULT IN MUCH GOOD FOR FT. WORTH AND PLAINS

"Say, but there were some paper railroads built at the Fort Worth meeting last Saturday" was the report made by Secretary Keen upon his arrival in Lubbock Monday after attending the railroad meeting as a representative of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

"Of course there was nothing of a very definite nature completed for it is generally conceded that the financial situation will have to adjust itself somewhat more satisfactorily before any great action can be had toward the actual construction of this line. But that such a line will be built there isn't the slightest doubt in the mind of any one acquainted with the conditions that make such a road not only logical but necessary.

"Fort Worth is awake to the absolute necessity of having a direct railroad connection with this section if they are to maintain their present standing as the market and distributing center of West Texas. She has spent the last twenty years developing West Texas for her own and she does not propose to stand still and let the California, Kansas City and other distant markets take the bulk of her livestock and grain produced in this section at this time.

"Within the last year more than 1200 car loads of livestock have moved to California and Northern Markets that normally should move to Fort Worth markets. An even greater volume of grain, feed and other farm crops are moving to Kansas City, New Orleans, and Galveston markets, direct and without passing through Fort Worth. The same thing is true in regard to cotton that is passing directly to the sea ports via Temple and South instead of through Fort Worth. All of this means a lessening of the prestige of Fort Worth as the financial, commercial and marketing center of West Texas and they are ready to go any length in remedying the situation.

"The spirit of the meeting was most harmonious and fairly representative of West Texas as a whole. Several of the smaller towns brought full cars of representatives, particularly from the so-called Southern route, evidently with the intention of swamping the convention and locating the railroad. They made a good showing and received a great amount of favorable publicity from their efforts.

"Possibly first among these, the point of showing made and publicity gained therefrom" was our neighboring city, Slaton. They were there with a full car of strong boosters, in white hats, ribbons and all the trimmings. Secretary Bailey had the delegation well organized and held them together in good shape and secured plenty of attention, both Friday and Saturday. Post City was also very much in evidence with a full car of boosters and between these two special Pullman loaded small towns like Lubbock and Plainview were hardly noticed, although both of these towns had strong delegations on hand, not only in the convention, but doing legwork on the side.

"The only tangible results to be accorded to the Fort Worth meeting are those of additional publicity, a focusing of public opinion as to necessity of the connection and the appointment of a General Chairman to muster the proper forces for the encouragement of the project. President W. M. Massie of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce was elected permanent chairman to a West Texas railroad committee, with Secretary Shannon of the same organization as permanent secretary, and they were given the authority to appoint such directors, sub-committees, and assistants as they deem necessary for the proper encouragement and promotion of the project, and were given a free hand in handling the entire matter previous to the time they have something definite to place before the people of West Texas.

Funeral Services of A. B. Conley, Jr. Conducted Tues.

The people of Lubbock certainly proved to the friends and relatives of A. B. Conley, Jr., their appreciation of his services as a progressive citizen, his kindness as a personal friend, and his alertness to all things which were designed to create better conditions in Lubbock when he remains were laid to rest in the local cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Placed in the honor of the most beautiful flowers obtainable, the remains were viewed by his friends and relatives at the family home when funeral services were conducted by a close friend of the deceased, Rev. W. A. Bowen, pastor of the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. The beauty of this occasion was equaled only by its sadness. Possibly for the first time after the announcement of his death his friends realized in full the great loss to them, to the relatives and to Lubbock, and their floral offerings in respect to him having increased one's ideal of one who could command the respect of so loyal friends.

Mr. Conley has been associated with the people of Lubbock during the past several years, and his passing was a complete surprise to the many people with whom he has been associated, as only one week before his death he was going about his work in that same optimistic spirit that characterized his every action.

Funeral services were concluded at the Cemetery, by the various branches of the Masonic order. The procession that followed the remains of deceased to the cemetery was probably the largest ever seen in Lubbock, which speaks the esteem in which this man was held by the people of this community.

H. L. LANE GOT PRIZE AT THE CASH DRY GOODS STORE

The Cash Dry Goods Co., Wednesday awarded the key to the lock box in which was $25 in cash. This was a contest put on by the firm in an endeavor to work up a little enthusiasm and interest during their recent sale.

H. L. Lane was the lucky man in this event, who of course was well pleased with the outcome, and left with a smile across his face, naturally a good booster for this live and progressive firm.

Jake Gamble of Floydada is in Lubbock this week, looking after business matters.

J. C. Keller, Sheriff of Yoakum County, was visiting in Lubbock Monday morning.

The deeds of good old St. Patrick was not forgotten last Friday by some of old Eron's descendants in wearing "of the green" in memory of the good deed he done in driving all the snakes out of Ireland.

It is dangerous for some women to go to the woods where echoes answer back, they would talk themselves to death.

Bledsoe Well Is Now More Than 4,000 Feet Deep

The Bledsoe Oil and Gas Co.'s well has been shut down for the last two days awaiting a few feet of new cable to splice the one now in use at the well. The well is now about forty-one hundred feet deep and the one that has been in use was getting too short for the depth of the well, and to guard against more trouble the drillers thought best to add a new section.

The formation they are now in is still looking good and very promising to the company. The report is that they are in a hard lime formation with considerable oil showing, and if this continues oil may be struck at any time.

J. E. ALEXANDER RETURNS FROM OKLAHOMA TRIP

J. E. Alexander of the Texas Land Exchange, made a trip to some South Oklahoma points in the interest of his firm last week. He is a live booster of the South Plains, and carried with him a bunch of circulars advertising not only his own business, but the South Plains as a whole. He says he handed out something like 7000 of these circulars on the trip, and many of the people up there have already expressed themselves as desirous of coming to this territory, and in fact, are coming as fast as they can turn their stuff loose there.

They have had a good rain and plenty of snow in that section lately, and everybody is in fine spirits. The crops are looking good, and especially through the wheat belt.

Mr. Alexander is a persistent believer in advertising, and a live progressive booster for his town and country, and he advertises not merely for his own interests, but takes in a scope whereby we all profit.

CHARLES FERGUSON IS S. M. U. DEBATER IN OKLA.

Rev. and Mrs. C. N. N. Ferguson have received word from their son, Charles, who is a student at the Southern Methodist University has been selected as one of the debaters from the University to represent them at Oklahoma City. This is indeed quite an honor, and is a sure indication of the real merits of the one who is chosen out of the large student body of that great institution. Again Lubbock is honored!

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday evening, March 29th, under the auspices of the Senior Erworth League of the Methodist Church of this city, the Glee and Mandolin Club of the Southern Methodist University will give a concert at the Methodist church.

This club comes to our city very highly recommended as high class entertainers, and we are guaranteed a high class program. If you like good music, bear the date in mind and come out and get your 75c worth.

Nothing much doing in local news this week, every one is so blasted busy they won't even look at you when you meet them with a smile.

FINE SHOWING OF PRIZE WINNING BIRDS AT THE SHOW THIS WEEK

MANY DIFFERENT BREEDS REPRESENTED, AND ALL WERE EXCELLENT SPECIMENS OF THEIR TRIBE

THIS WILL BE MADE A PERMANENT EVENT

Poultry Dealers Delighted With the Idea and It Will No Doubt Receive hearty Support of the Business Men of Lubbock—Poultry Industry Rapidly Developing in This County.

The two days poultry show held in connection with the Farmers Short Course was an entire success in every respect. The number of birds entered, no doubt, would have been considerably larger had not so many of our farmers been busy putting up their land. However, all entries were of exceptional quality which in a way offsets the small numbers. The management of the show was well pleased with the interest shown in the proposition and feels sure that we can have a bigger and better show next winter and plans are now being laid to have an annual winter show and throw it open for competition to the world.

The merchants of Lubbock made the show possible by giving liberally of their merchandise to be offered as premiums to the winners in the various classes. These premiums were all useful articles and will be greatly appreciated by those who won them. In order not to make the show a burden on anyone, no effort was made to provide premiums for more than one place in each class, so awards were only made on first place individuals and the best pens, also on the best male bird and the best female bird in the show.

Four hens from representative breeds exhibiting in the show were selected for a culling demonstration at the Short Course, and of this number a Rhode Island Red hen owned by Mrs. Ed. Schroeder made a very creditable showing from the standpoint of capacity for egg production.

The award for the best cock bird in the show was won by J. W. Jennings on a Light Barred Plymouth Rock cockerel, and the award for the best female bird in the show was won by J. B. Potts on a Rhode Island Red hen.

There were 250 chickens and 5 turkeys entered in the show consisting of 59 pens, representing about 25 different breeds.

Mrs. F. N. Payne the official hostess to the show took over all eggs produced at the show, and states that she will hatch these eggs and be a strong competitor next winter in all departments.

The feed for the show birds was furnished free gratis by one of our enterprising feed dealers, Mr. H. A. Davidson, local dealer for the Ralston Purina Company.

Following are the awards in the various classes:

Best pen Mammoth Bronze Turkeys, Mrs. J. C. Wayland. Best pen Bourbon Red turkeys, Mrs. M. D. Newton.

DEATH TOLL FROM AUTOS INCREASING

It is estimated that a life is snuffed out every thirty minutes during the twenty-four hours. This is staggering, but the National Safety Council stated that fifteen thousand persons lost their lives last year, an increase of 4,000 over the year before. According to their estimate for each fatality there are twenty accidents in which the injuries are either serious or trivial. In some states where they have stringent laws regulating drivers speed the loss is not so great. In these states they have greatly lessened the loss by revoking the license of those who are convicted of careless driving, no matter if the results are serious or not. It is claimed by the Safety Council that since the trucks have come in the danger has increased. By a close study and comparison, it is proven that they are more dangerous than the freight engine which follows a given track.

THE CROP OUTLOOK IS MUCH BETTER

You betcha there's a crop outlook! And it's a pretty good looking one, too!

Who ever suspected that March had nearly four inches of rain up her sleeve just waiting for the opportune time to let her go! But it sure came in handy and nobody is complaining. It looks likely to precipitate more, too, at the present moment, and the Weatherman has announced that it "probably" will. Reports indicate the rain of Monday was heaviest at Amarillo where 2.43 inches fell during the first "spasm." Later an additional .68 was received. All the north Panhandle counties got a good rain but it was not so heavy on the South Plains, only light showers being reported from Lubbock south. Eastern New Mexico and Western Oklahoma shared in the "probably" and it is great good fortune but the rain did not extend as far west as Tucuman, Car.

WHAT WE STAND FOR AS TRUSTEES OF THE SCHOOLS OF THE LUBBOCK IND. SCHOOL DISTRICT IF ELECTED

It is our understanding that our names are being presented as candidates for Trustees of the Lubbock Independent School District. We do not desire the office, but have consented to serve if elected, knowing exactly how we stand on the issues before the voters of this school district, will say that we are in favor of the bond issue now before the public, and if elected will be in favor of using as much of the proceeds thereof as may be necessary to erect and equip sufficient buildings in Lubbock Independent School District to take care of all children, including high school building and such ward buildings, in town or out of town as may be necessary.

We are also in favor of raising the tax rate to such amount as may be necessary to maintain the schools for at least nine months each year including high school with full affiliations with the University of Texas. And in addition thereto, if there should be available funds, we are in favor of adding two more years to our high school, the equivalent of a two year junior college course, so that all children living in the Lubbock Independent School District may acquire a junior college education without leaving home.

We do not believe in extravagance with public funds, but do believe in giving the boys and girls of Lubbock the best educational opportunities possible, right here at home.

If elected, we will try to carry out above policies.

Baptists Raise Enormous Sum For Carrying On the Work in the Various Departments of the Church

Dallas, March 13.—Of the $30,356,391 in cash received by the Baptist $75,000,000 campaign to date, the Baptists of Texas have contributed $5,148,754.68, it is announced by the Baptist headquarters in this city. Of the total receipts $28,799,911.15 came in through the payments of regular campaign subscriptions and the remaining $1,556,348.26 in special contributions to designated objects fostered by the campaign.

Of the regular contributions throughout the territory of the Southern Baptist convention, foreign missions has received $5,434,012.53, home missions $3,562,300.67, state missions $4,954,813.26, Christian education, embracing the 120 Baptist schools, colleges and theological seminaries owned and controlled by Southern Baptists, $7,192,442.79; hospitals $2,004,099.16, orphanages $2,103,783.33, and the relief and annuity board, which ministers to aged dependent preachers and their families, $799,126.99.

While the larger funds that have come in as a result of the campaign have made possible the strengthening of every Baptist institution and interest within the state, they have also enabled the Baptist churches of Texas to have a much larger share in the world-wide work of southern Baptists in which they have always been among the leaders. From their contributions the sum of $724,952.55 has gone to foreign missions, $447,250 to home missions, $104,960 to Southwide educational objects and $139,097.28 to ministerial relief.

Indicative of the larger things which the campaign has made possible in the Baptist work of the state, the sum of $687,594.66 has been invested in state missions, while the following appropriations have been made to various Baptist institutions. Baylor university, Waco, $173,400; Baylor college, Belton, $121,593.42; Howard-Payne college, at Brownwood, $52,012; Simmons college, Abilene, $86,700; Southwestern seminary, Fort Worth, $86,700; Burleson college, Groesville, $17,340; Decatur college, Decatur, $17,340; College of Marshall, $7,340; Rusk college, Rusk, $17,340; San Marcos academy, San Marcos, $17,340; Wayland college, Plainview, $17,340; Orphans' Home, Dallas, $52,020; Baylor hospital, Dallas, $104,040; Central Texas Sanitarium, Waco, $43,335; Baptist hospital, Houston, $82,365; Abilene sanitarium (projected), $17,340; San Antonio sanitarium (projected), $26,010; Brownsville sanitarium, (projected), $4,335.

While Texas has paid in more money into the campaign than any other state, its subscriptions were also much larger and a statewide campaign is now on among the churches, looking to bringing the payments up to the highest possible standard by May 1, when the books of the Southern Baptist convention close for the year. This campaign is under the leadership of Dr. S. S. Groner, state secretary, of this city.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. ## The County School Meet Was Great Success, Even Though the Day Was Stormy and Many Could Not Attend

Lubbock County Interscholastic League Contest was best ever.

The League contests for the county Saturday, March 18, were a decided success, from the standpoints of interest, crowd, number of contestants, and the unusual good will and feeling of all concerned. The weather man through all the years of the League here, has brought us the usual standstill on that day and he was on the job this time. The sand and wind interfered with the athletics, but everything moved like clockwork with that exception. Prof. Atkinson, Principal of the Lubbock High School, says he has taught twelve years here and that this event surpassed by far any league meet held previously. Mr. Bishop, Principal of the Hunt building joins Mr. Atkinson, in giving to the Rural declaimers their just rewards in praise, saying the Rural Declamations surprised folks the greatest of all. Not that the ruralites were thought "not" capable of speechifying, but principally, because they had never shown they could deliver the goods. Here's to the future rural declaimers of Lubbock County. May they keep up the record.

The debates, boys and girls, were up to the standard and real good spelling, essay, tennis, etc. all went thru in the new spirit of vim and vigor, with which the people of Lubbock County do things.

Lubbock High had no competition in track and field, being class A.

Slaton was the winner in the town teams of athletics, being pitted against all rural boys, also winning 61 points in athletics.

Carlisle Rural was second with 41 points, in athletics, and Lubbock Juniors third with 27 points, Canyon 17 points.

When the Director General gets full information from the different Directors, a full account will be published, with all names of winners. Also the Grand Champion School of the County in points won in all departments will be declared. The championship lies between Slaton and Carlisle. Slaton scored highest in athletics, but Carlisle scored highest in education.

The Director General wishes to thank everyone whose efforts and presence helped to make the meet a success. The teachers in particular who brought out the latent powers of the pupils. The Directors, who composed the Executive Committee, especially, are tendered his warmest thanks for their hearty support in the work. All judges and workers, in anyway, thanks.

The assistance of the Avalanche is also greatly appreciated.

W. M. PEVEHOUSE.

Every farmer is plowing these days, getting ready to plant a bumper crop. Don't make the mistake of planting too much cotton. Plant a good big truck patch and what we don't eat we can can it for winter use.

We sure were glad to hear of that agriculture paper that is to be printed on the Plains. The experienced farmers should contribute articles to this journal as farming is far different from the Eastern and Southern counties of Texas.

The same methods applied to those counties will not apply to the Plains portion of the State and listen ladies, there is to be a poultry and a household page too. Hurrah! for Lubbock, it is looking after the needs of the Plains people.

Brother Morrison will preach next Saturday night and Sunday. Come out and hear a good sermon.

FOUND A CURE FOR INDIGESTION

"I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different medicines. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to, now," writes George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. These tablets contain no pepsin but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.

Austin J. Mathews and wife and Joe Hess and wife went to Brownfield Saturday. Mr. Mathews in the interest of the Avalanche and Mr. Hess to advertise the Farmers' Short Course. The ladies went along to look after the men, and were successful in getting them there and back, even if A. High Wind did try to prevent it.

TELL ANY MEMBER OF THE AVALANCHE FORCE ABOUT WHAT YOUR TEAM OR CLUB IS DOING AND HELP US KEEP THESE COLUMNS FULL OF LUBBOCK'S ACTIVITIES IN THIS LINE.

Announcement
The establishment of a club of the West Texas League in Lubbock will naturally create a great deal of interest in baseball. Owing to the fact that the Lubbock Country Club is full of rattling good golf players and other varieties of sportsmen, there will be a great deal of news along that line which we will be glad to furnish. Owing to the fact that the young men of the Methodist Sunday School have organized a baseball nine and are challenging all comers from the Longhorns up we will have a little to tell about their successes and failures, and owing to the fact that the Avalanche is a newspaper for all our people we are going to do our dead level best to establish a sport column to merit the attention of all those interested, and if possible create a little interest in these affairs.

Let's go.
S. S. vs. LONGHORNS
In a fast and snappy baseball game Wednesday afternoon between the local Longhorns and the Cats of the Methodist Sunday School, the Cats were beat out to the tune of about 10 to 0.

The weather was ideal with the exception of a little wind at times, but was hardly noticeable, causing very little inconvenience to the players.

It seemed that a free-for-all pitching battle was had, for almost every round a new one was installed, this of course being just a practice game, but some mighty nice work was done on both sides of the lineup. In the first inning or two the Longhorns seemed to have very little respect for the "Apple," for they binged it freely and hard, during which time they piled up several marks on the board. Soon they lost their hitting eye and seemed to calm down to real baseball, and a good game was witnessed from then on.

Manager Allen is very enthusiastic over the way his men are starting the season, for they are really a hard hitting bunch, and are alright when it comes to grabbing the "apple" from the elements.

The spectacular feature of the game was the hard binging of the Longhorns, for they are certainly on the job when it comes to that feature of the sport, however, only one homerun was recorded, but it was a hot one, and a clean swipe. The boys have started real honest-to-goodness training for the season, and are beginning to work out the sore spots. In a very short time they will be rounding out in shape for a clean-up in the League. The season proper will open April 20th, and the Longhorns will go south for a time before they have a series on the home grounds.

Hanna: Newton, J. Hanna died March 18th at the home of his son, Mr. J. Q. Hanna, of Lubbock. He was 73 years, 2 months old. At about 35 years he married and reared a family of five children, four of whom still survive. The mother and one of the children having passed over some years ago. In his younger days he professed faith in Christ and became an honored member of the Methodist church.

As a Christian he was unassuming but enjoyed the confidence, love and respect of all who knew him. At 4 o'clock p. m. the 19th the writer conducted the funeral service at the grave and we laid his remains in the Lubbock cemetery to await the resurrection of the just. The floral offering was modest, but rich and beautiful.

We expect to renew his acquaintance again in the sweet by and by. Quite a goodly number of friends and neighbors paid the deceased a tribute of great respect by being present at the funeral. For hope and consolation we would point the bereaved ones to our blessed Christ the Lord. I have conducted many, many funerals during my fifty years of ministry and the serious question always comes up: "Who will go next?" Will it be me? or will it be you?

Let me beg all therefore to so live as to make sure their preparation for the great and the boundless future.

Chief of Weights and Measures Says Public Pays For Ninety Percent Of Weights and Measure Errors

Austin, March 14.—More than 90 per cent of the mistakes made by merchants in weighing and measuring are made against the buying public, according to Kit Robinson, chief of the weights and measures division of the state markets and warehouse department. Inspectors' reports show, Mr. Robinson said, that conditions are improving, but there are too many violations reported for all of them to be honest mistakes.

"Manufacturers, producers and trades people are not proceeded against in court on flimsy charges or on their first offence," he said, "but everybody is given an opportunity to show proper respect and regard for the law. There are unscrupulous dealers in all lines of trade, however, and it becomes necessary to give object lessons."

Mr. Robinson exhibited several inspectors' reports to illustrate violations of the law which affect the buying public. The reports showed that 125 short weight scales were condemned in one city alone. In another smaller city, according to the reports, the gas pumps were found to be defrauding buyers of approximately 3,500 gallons of gasoline in the course of a month's business. One case reported concerned a dealer who was delivering less than three gallons of gas on a five-gallon sale. In another instance, a report showed, seventy-one out of eighty-one packages of commodities delivered were found to be short weight. Unprincipled wood dealers, another report stated, admitted delivering one-half a cord of wood while, collection was made for a full cord. Small buyers were found to be paying not less than $25 a cord for blocks.

"In two of the most popular commodities—bread and butter—a great saving has been brought about by requiring the delivery of a sixteen-ounce loaf of bread instead of the thirteen-ounce loaf. Butter is watched strictly. Bread is the only commodity in which any tolerance is shown in permitting sales, which is allowed after the bread is twenty-four hours old.

"The inspectors have saved many dollars for the state in flour inspection work. Many inspections developed a shortage of one pound or more for the forty-eight pound sack. One pound on each such sack means a half million dollars a year to flour users in Texas. A saving of half a pound to the sack means a saving of over a quarter of a million dollars.

"While the primary object of the division of weights and measures is to standardize all weights and measures there is apparently no limit to the amount of educational work yet to be done," Mr. Robinson said.

THE PNEUMONIA MONTH

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ-laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.

MRS. RUSH IS VISITING DAUGHTER IN SAN ANTONIO

Mrs. S. S. Rush leaves this a. m. March 18, for San Antonio. She will visit her daughter, Miss Bess Rush of that city, for several months. The later has been employed by the Government in Fort Sam Houston since she left Lubbock in June of 1918. She has been favored with this extended employment because of her efficiency in office work. Since she is kept very busy and cannot return to Lubbock for a visit with homefolks and friends, she heartily urged her mother to come for a few months' visit and tell her about her old time friends and Lubbock.

Services will be held at the Episcopal Church next Sunday, conducted by Bishop E. A. Temple, of Amarillo. All members and friends of the congregation are urged to be present.

A NEWSY LETTER FROM THE HARDY COMMUNITY

(Delayed)
According to promise, I will give readers of your valuable paper the news of our community.

Health is not at all satisfactory as there is quite a lot of flu. The none very serious that we have heard of, and of our neighbor, Mr. Pate Hardy is in the sanitarium in Lubbock. He was operated on for appendicitis. He was reported as getting along fine yesterday. We join with his many friends in the community for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. B. Adams is home from the sanitarium, where she had an operation performed. Her many friends are glad to see her at home again. However, she is reported as not doing as well as she might.

Our Hardy and Shallowater boys are very enthusiastic over the outlook for this season's ball playing. They pulled off a box supper last Saturday night for that purpose, when the smoke cleared away they saw lying before them $95.00. Hurrah! for our boys and what's more, they can play ball equally as well as they can hustle cash.

Well I must say that Hardy is on the map when it comes to most any thing that is for the good of her people. Our school is second to none, with Mrs. Wade Hardy as principle and Mrs. Charley Merrill as assistant. Our school started September 1st. Will run until about the first of June.

We had a lively Sunday School with an average of about 50 in attendance last Sunday but not least our young folks do some of this singing they sing every Sunday night.

Everybody is invited to attend our Sunday School Singing. We also have preaching three Sundays each month, on the fourth Sunday afternoon by Rev. Tennis of Plainview, and the first and third by Rev. McMeer of our community. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Well, today and tomorrow is the dates for the Farmers Short Course. Some of our people went today, which the rest will attend tomorrow. Our worthy teacher will go with them tomorrow.

If this escapes the waste basket we will come again.

GIVE EX-SERVICE MEN EMPLOYMENT

In the United States today there are approximately 700,000 former service men out of employment and unable to get work of any kind.

The American Legion has started a campaign to find work for these men. Comrades in the face of death during the war, they are going to stick to their buddies now in the problems of life.

These men do not ask for charity. All they ask for is a chance to gain an honest livelihood, and an opportunity to begin constructive work.

If we can catch something of the spirit of the Legion itself, and realize the patriotic duty which rests upon each of us to back up these men as they protected us in war, we might at the same time do something for ourselves by speeding up the business of the nation as a whole.

As it was the duty of these men to respond to the call of their country in danger, so it is now our duty as patriotic citizens to at least give these men a fair chance to come back into their own.

The press of the State will be sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. J. S. Engleman, wife of one of the owners of the Tula Herald.

Many of the alleys need a genuine cleaning up. Spring time will be creeping in on us soon, and fly time will also be here before long.

OBITUARIES

Salmon P. Stubbs was born Sept. 19, 1844, at West Elkton, Ohio. He died at his home in Lubbock, Texas, March 19th, 1922, at the age of 77 years and 6 months.

He lived in his native state until the outbreak of the Civil War, at which time he enlisted in the Eleventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served throughout the war.

At the close of the war he moved to Iowa Falls, Iowa, and was there married to Miss Rachel G. Hunt, August 26th, 1865. He lived on a farm at that place until 1872, then moved to Sterling, Kansas, serving nine years there as Postmaster, resigning to accept a position as special agent of the Interior Department.

He moved to Lubbock in 1906, was later appointed Postmaster here and served in that capacity from March 29th, 1909 until July 1st, 1913.

Mr. Stubbs was very active in politics in his younger days, and was a warm personal friend of John P. St. John, John J. Ingalls, Chas. A. Curtis, and many other Republican leaders of national reputation at that time.

Mr. Stubbs was preceded in death by his wife, she having died here April 26th, 1917. He is survived by his four children, C. F. Stubbs, M. J. and T. R. Stubbs, and Mrs. Nell Green, all of whom live in Lubbock.

Mrs. Emma S. Reed Called Mrs. Emma S. Reed, born June 2nd, 1857, at Victoria, Texas, died at her home here on March 20th, 1922, at 10 o'clock p. m.

Shortly after her birth her people moved to Indiana, where they resided for a while, then moved to Illinois and Missouri for a time, later returning to Texas.

On October 21st, 1875, at Ennis Ellis County, Texas, she was married to H. B. Reed, which union has been blessed with eleven children, all of whom are living today.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed moved from Ennis to Navarro County soon after their marriage, where they lived for two years, going from there to Eastland. They resided there until 1894, when they came to Lubbock, landing here Dec. 2, 1894, where they have resided since.

She was a member of the Methodist Church at this place, and had lived a devout christian life.

Mrs. Reed has been sick for a number of years, having had an operation some twelve years ago, from which she had never recovered. The last several months she had been confined to her home.

She is survived by her husband, H. B. Reed, and eleven children. Also leaves behind her a host of friends who regret to hear of this sad occurrence, but are consoled by the thought that in store for Mrs. Reed is a reward greater than could be bestowed by mortal man.

May the blessings and comforting touch of the Holy One be with this family in this sad hour.

HOW THEY STAND ON SCHOOL QUESTIONS
Editor Avalanche:
Having noticed in your paper you wanted views of the various candidates for office, on our schools and other progressive movements, I want to say that I stand for the best school buildings and faculty that money and influence can get. I voted for the raise in the tax rate from fifty cents to one dollar on the $100.00 valuation, and it was the keenest disappointment I have experienced when that issue did not carry. I am for the highest possible standard of morals in the city.
As for my fitness for the office I am seeking, I have only my record of the past six years to offer. Let the voters be the judge of that. I am not a candidate of any clique, clan or organization. I have the interest of Lubbock at heart, and want to see the city forge ahead and occupy the position she justly deserves. Just a word as to the other three members on the board of commissioners with me, who are offering for re-election, there has never been anything but the closest cooperation between us, and we have always worked for the best interests of the people of this city and the public in general, and we have been confronted with many difficult problems, and as to whether they have been handled in a business like manner it is for the public to judge.
Respectfully,
L. H. SIMPSON, Com. No. 1, and acting Mayor.
Don't overlook that handsome bargain. Western Windmill Co.

Jackson, Miss.—"My trouble was feminine weakness. I suffered misery at times and was weak most all of the time. I was reading in a newspaper about Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I saw that I could order one of Dr. Pierce's books, the "Common Sense Medical Adviser," from him, so I did, and I found my complaint was a woman's trouble. I started on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and an old lady to say it did me all the good in the world. I had three doctors; they all said that I had to be operated upon, but after using the Prescription I began to feel better. I have now taken three bottles and feel fine. Am glad to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to all my friends."

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO THE ALLEN BROTHERS POST, AMERICAN LEGION

The following letters will be of interest to members of the American Legion and friends of the Legion:

Austin, Tex., March 11, 1922.
Mr. Wayne Davis, Commander, Texas Dept. American Legion, Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sir: I read in the newspaper yesterday that the American Legion, Texas Department, had paid to the State the $19,000 that developed as a moral, if not a legal, debt due the State at the time the State took over the Kerrville Sanatorium. I hasten to congratulate you and the entire membership of the Legion in Texas for having assumed and paid this indebtedness rather than have any question raised that would have tended in the least to have reflected on the good name of your organization. This patriotic and generous act on the part of the Texas Legion should commend it to all the people and especially to all the ex-service men in the state. The unanimity with which your department assumed this indebtedness and the readiness with which it paid it, has been demonstrated beyond question that the Texas organization of the Legion is living up to the high standard of citizenship embodied in its constitution.

Because of the record being made by the Texas division, it seems to me that every ex-service man should desire to affiliate himself with this organization. As State Commander, you deserve special credit for having led your department over the top in the paying of this $19,000 indebtedness. Sincere congratulations to you and the splendid organization of which you are the honored commander.

Very sincerely yours,
PAT M. NEFF,
Governor of Texas.

Mr. Wayne Davis, Commander, Texas Dept. American Legion, Dallas, Texas.

My dear Mr. Davis: I am complying with your request received through the Treasurer of Texas Division, Mrs. W. E. Langston, of Fort Worth, in signing acknowledgement of receipt for $400, known as the Bungalow Fund, returned by the American Legion to the Texas Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

This statement I am enclosing as also requested, to Mrs. J. C. Muse, Chairman of Bungalow Committee, U. D. C., who will receive the money transferring same to Treasurer Texas Division and pass the receipt to you.

The Daughters of the Confederacy fully realize the sacrifice it has been necessary for the Legion to make, to replace this sum of money which was raised for the benefit of the disabled comrades, and congratulate the Texas Department on the way they have handled a difficult situation. Our sympathy has been with them always in their task. While the necessity for the Bungalow no longer exists, as the instigator of that movement and as President of the Texas Division, I shall at the proper time, recommend that a large part of the Fund shall be used for Educational purposes, in such manner that the younger and less fortunate Soldiers of the World War will benefit thereby.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy—during the entire period of the War—devoted themselves to the cause of helping the Soldier at home and abroad. Since the signing of the Armistice, they have raised a sum of $50,000 known as the Hero Fund, the revenue from which is used as Scholarship or Loan Fund, for World War Soldiers and will be for four years. After that period it still remains a Memorial to their valor and patriotism and will educate descendants of Confederate Soldiers.

With the hope that your organization will yet recover the funds due them by "mismanagement", so they may promote the interests of their comrades in need, more readily.

Very sincerely,
(Signed) Decca Lamar West
President Texas Division U. D. C.

Baptist Church People Doing Fine Work With the Mexicans

Religious Work Among our Mexicans:

Last January by the invitation of Judge and Mrs. E. R. Haynes, Mrs. Ben T. Owens of Slaton, organized a Mexican Sunday School in Lubbock. The work has grown until on Sunday, March 12, when a number of the Baptist laymen visited this school, they were surprised to find the house full and a number being unable to find seats. At this hour, Mrs. Owen preached for them in Spanish and it was almost pathetic to see the eagerness with which they attended to every word that fell from the lips of this godly woman. The results have been most gratifying. Already two have professed faith in Christ and await baptism. The Baptist laymen have promised to furnish the literature and song books, which will be printed in Spanish, as this is the only language which the older ones can read.

They are also badly in need of an organ. Can not some good Christian donate this for the good of these people who are among us and whose hearts are so open to missionary work?

Or, if we can buy one at a small cost, the T. E. L. class of the Baptist Sunday School will be glad to secure it in that way.

The Mexicans are very fond of music and an organ would be much appreciated and greatly rid them in their worship.

Mrs. E. R. Haynes.

SMALL BLAZE MONDAY NIGHT—LITTLE DAMAGE

Monday night about 10 o'clock the fire alarm was turned in from 15th street, between Avenues N and O. An immediate response was made by the department and very little damage was done to the house, which was occupied by the family of Mr. Stanley. The house caught from an oil stove, apparently on the wall at the back of the stove, spreading immediately to other parts of the room, and would have had the house enveloped in a very short time, but for the arrival of the Fire Department. As it was, practically little damage was done, except to the one room.

LUBBOCK DRAMATIC CLUB GIVES GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

On Friday evening of last week, the Lubbock Harmony and Dramatic Club gave a musical entertainment at the school house under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association.
A great program was given, consisting of twenty-eight numbers, and was rendered as if by artists of the old style, in fact was rendered by artists in a most artistic manner. The program was greatly enjoyed by all present and great compliments have been passed on the club as being one of the best of its kind ever heard.
The club is composed of all local talent, and they are real musicians, and are certainly deserving of the support of the town. It is something we need and something we hope to keep, and let's let them know that we appreciate their efforts. Tell them about it. It helps.
Dr. A. B. Conley is here for a few days. He was present at the bedside of his son, A. B. Jr., several days before he died, and will remain here several days before returning to his home.

ENTERTAINMENT POSTPONED BY METHODIST S. S. CLASS

On Tuesday evening of this week March 21, the Young Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday School had made plans to entertain the Philathea Class with a banquet in the basement of the church, but on account of the grim reaper, death, it has deemed wise to postpone this entertainment until some future date, which will be announced later.
Dick Coffee, of Big Spring, was a guest at the home of Mrs. Coffee, from Sunday to Wednesday.

Winners in Track Meet Here On Last Saturday

The county track meet held here Saturday was a decided success, although the weather man and the elements in general were somewhat opposed to an event of that kind. The boys all entered the contest with fine spirits, realizing that they must put forth extra efforts, and combat not only the contesting teams, but also the elements.
It is quite a proverbial saying that a track meet on the Plains cannot be carried out in its fullest scope without the aid of a nice sandstorm, and truly it should have been a great success if that is the prime factor involved.
Lubbock High School did not enter the track events as the schools are listed into classes in order to make the work of elimination quicker and more satisfactory, and also to give the smaller communities a fair chance for competition among themselves, it being deemed a little unjust to match these smaller communities with a larger place where they have a wider range of men to select from. Lubbock is given Class A.
Following is a list of the winners of the track events:
Class B Track Events: 100 yard dash, Carlisle 1st; Canyon 2nd. 50 yard dash, Slaton 1st; Carlisle 2nd. 220 yards run, Carlisle 1st and 2nd. 440 yard run, Carlisle 1st. 880 yard run, Slaton 1st and 2nd.
Class B Field Events: High Jump, Slaton 1st; Canyon 2nd. Pole Vault, Slaton 1st; Canyon 2nd. Shot Put, Slaton 1st; Canyon 2nd. Running Broad Jump, Slaton 1st; Carlisle 2nd.
Juniors Track Events: 50 yard Dash, Lubbock 1st; Slaton 2nd. 100 yard dash, Lubbock 1st; Slaton 2nd. 440 yard relay, Lubbock 1st, Carlisle 2nd.
Juniors Field Events: High Jump Lubbock 1st; Slaton 2nd. Running Broad Jump, Slaton 1st; Canyon 2nd. Chinning Bar, Slaton 1st; Canyon 2nd.
This contest consists only of the Class B schools and the Juniors, entitling the winners to participate in the district meet to be held sometime in the near future.
A report of the declamation contest will be found elsewhere in this paper.

BRISCOE TO ERECT A NEW COURTHOUSE

Silverton, March 17.—The Commissioner's Court of Briscoe County, has voted to build a new courthouse at Silverton, the county seat. Several representatives of construction firms are meeting with the commissioner's court this week.
Silverton, the county seat is an old town. The old courthouse is a light frame structure, and a building of a new modern building will contribute to the building of several brick mercantile buildings it is thought.
It is the intentions of the commissioner's court to get the courthouse built as soon as possible. Warrants will be issued to raise the necessary money.

How Firestone Has Reduced the Cost of Tire Service

Size	Jan. 1921 Prices	Jan. 1922 Prices	Reduction
30 x 3 Fabric	$18.75	$ 9.85	47%
30 x 3 1/2 "	22.50	11.65	48%
30 x 3 3/4 Cord	35.75	17.50	51%
32 x 4 "	56.55	32.40	43%
33 x 4 1/2 "	67.00	42.85	36%
33 x 5 "	81.50	52.15	36%

HOW the cost of building quality tires has been brought down to the lowest level in history was explained by H. S. Firestone, President of the Company, to the stockholders at the annual meeting on December 15, 1921.

- All inventories and commitments at or below the market.
  - Increased manufacturing efficiency and volume production reduced factory overhead 53%.
  - Selling costs reduced 38%.
- Mr. Firestone stated, "This reduction in prices is made possible by our unusually advantageous buying facilities, and the enthusiasm, loyalty and determination of our 100% stockholding organization."
"Due credit must be given to Firestone dealers who are selling Firestone tires on a smaller margin of profit. This brings every Firestone saving direct to the car owner."
The saving through first cost plus the saving through high mileage doubles Firestone economy and is daily adding new fame to the Firestone principle of service—

That fire does not mean that your home or other property is any more apt to burn than anything. You will immediately realize the same need of insurance every time you give it a little thought—the fire is only a reminder—act before it is too late. Insure in a RELIABLE COMPANY. ## School Will Finish Term By Means Of Tuition and Public Donations; the Money Is Now Being Raised for Same

"The Lubbock schools shall not close" is the sentiment expressed by any citizen you meet on the streets who is fair and broad minded enough to stop and think what it would mean to us if our schools should be forced to close before the work is finished for the term. The authorities have a certain schedule of work which is pre-arranged for the year, and must be carried out to the fullest if our schools are to keep their present high standing and affiliation with the higher institutions of learning.

If the present tax is inadequate to care for the needs of our public institutions, by 11 means something should be done to stimulate interest along this line, for we cannot afford to sit with our hands folded, and let opportunity pass us by unnoticed and unheeded.

To meet the present emergency now facing us, a committee of public spirited citizens has been appointed, and at a meeting of this committee in connection with the school board lately, subscriptions were made amounting to about $2200, and it was decided that a campaign should be started, whereby the deficit could be raised. By this plan a monthly tuition, for one month only, is tentatively levied against every student in the schools and the parents of these students are given an opportunity to take up this tuition. If, perchance they are unable to do this, or are possibly unwilling this amount will be assumed by public subscription by the men who are interested enough in the present standing of the school and the town, even though they have no children, and are not directly interested in that capacity.

This campaign will be started immediately and every man and woman in the school district will be given a chance to help along this great cause. Arrangements for the carrying out of this has been left in the hands of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary and Kwanis Clubs. Something like $4000 is yet to be raised if our schools are to continue, and it is up to the citizenship of this district to put this movement over.

Our schools are known and recognized the country over as one of the best. We don't hesitate to recommend it and advertise it as such. Is it fair to your children or to the other man's children for you to knowingly disregard such a call? At least when this committee calls on you, show them a willing spirit, for there is no doubt in our minds whatsoever as to the outcome of this movement. It will go overwhelmingly for progressiveness. Such is the spirit of Lubbock and her people.

Tripple Killing at Childress Last Friday Following Quarrel Between Lovers—Participants Dead

Childress, March 17.—Three people were shot dead here this afternoon.

Joe Scott, 18, and Mary Belle Leach, 16, were shot and killed by Ben Crowe, who then shot and killed himself, according to the verdict at an inquest late this afternoon following the tragedy.

Testimony developed that Crowe approached Scott, a railway employe as he was standing on a working platform and handed him a note. While Scott was reading the note, Crowe shot him through the heart with a pistol, witnesses said.

Scott spoke only a few words after being shot. He asked that a doctor be called quickly. An ambulance was called, but the youth died before it arrived.

Crowe then returned to his home, where he shot the girl, who was his stepdaughter, witnesses said, and he then put a bullet through his own brain.

The trouble impended is indicated by several notes which various persons received alluding to a row with Scott. One of these notes directed disposition of his children and another of his insurance.

It is said that Crowe had been brooding over his troubles for several days, and that Thursday night he met a young man down town and made threats, but was persuaded he was talking to the wrong person.

Messages Found
Scott was the son of Mrs. H. A. Richardson of Childress. He was an employe of the tank gang of the Fort Worth & Denver. His father who left here several years ago was last heard of in Amarillo. Crowe also was a shop workman. Both of the men had good reputations.

After the bodies were removed to the morgue letters were taken from Crowe's pocket addressed to his son Robert, daughter Sudie, and to the public. A letter found on Scott also was made public.

Letter to the Public.
March 16, 1922.

"To whom it may concern:
"I don't want any one to blame no one for what I did for no one knows. I have not told brother what I am to do. I wired for him to come and will leave instructions in my pocket. I wanted him to see after mother and Jim. I have had trouble and sickness until I can stand it no longer so I will try and settle it all and as God is my help no one knows what I am to do."
B. R. Crowe.

Letter Given to Scott
"Joe, I came to you like a man and talked to you and it did no good. I told you what I would do if you did not stop getting Mary to step out with you. You know what you tried to do last night. I know it was you, so I will give you one more chance to go with me and tell me what you have been doing and stop it or I will do what I told you I would do."
"B. R. Crowe."

Sheriff Gives Version

Childress, Texas, March 17.—After shooting and instantly killing Joe Scott, 18, a fellow employe of the Fort Worth and Denver shops, and Mary Belle Leach, 16-year-old stepdaughter, B. R. Crowe, 30 years old and a long time employe of the Denver shops killed himself instantly at his home, six blocks away from the first killing.

Anger toward the young man and the girl on account of friendship between them is, according to Sheriff Jim Crane, who investigated the triple killing, the reason for Crowe's actions. A letter found on the body of young Scott, which is believed to have just been given him by Crowe before the killing, is said by the officers to have warned Scott not to come to the Crowe home and slip the girl out.

"Joe, I went to you and talked to you like a man," a clause in the letter reads, according to the sheriff.

Calls It Frame-Up
Young Scott was shot once with a

.32 automatic while standing on the platform at the store maintained at the shops. He died instantly, shot squarely through the breast. Crowe then ran six blocks north of his home.

Meeting his step-daughter just inside the door, Crowe told her that he had just "killed Joe," and expressing the belief that it was all a frameup against him, Crowe then shot the girl just above the right eye, killing her instantly, according to the reports made by investigating officers. His own daughter, and his brother, R. S. Crowe of Myra, who were at the house, made their escape. Sitting down in a chair, Crowe then shot himself just over the right ear, the bullet penetrating the brain and producing instant death.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE PLAINVIEW NEWS

Mrs. J. S. Englemann, wife of the publisher of the Tulsa Herald, died last night very suddenly from acute indigestion. She was a young woman, and quite a leader in the town. The sympathy of the newspaper people of the Plains go to the bereaved husband in his great loss.

A. M. Hove, associate editor of the Earth, industrial magazine published by the Santa Fe railway system, is here attending the I. H. C. Farm Short Course. He is doing a wonderful work in the development of the sections through which the Santa Fe railroad runs.

The state supreme court a few days ago handed down a decision in the case of the State of Texas vs. J. H. Wayland, et al, vs. Chas. F. Vincent, mayor, et al, which involved the constitutionality of the Plainview city charter adopted by the legislature in the spring of 1917, the court holding it to be null and void. The city won in the district court here, but the court of civil appeals in Amarillo held the charter was illegal, and this is upheld by the supreme court. The legislative charter was superseded by a new charter drafted and adopted by a vote of the people in the spring of 1920. Attorney W. W. Kirk, who represented Wayland, et al, says the effect of the decision is that all taxes assessed against property in the territory taken into the city by the legislative charter will not have to be paid for the four years prior to the new charter.

ITEMS FROM THE TERRY COUNTY HERALD

The writer had quite a little conversation with Uncle John Lovelady, of Post, Texas, just before train time Saturday. Uncle John has quite a nice sheep ranch in this county and comes up occasionally to look after this end of his business. He is still hale and hearty, despite his advanced age, and his mind is as clear as a bell. Uncle John settled near where Justiceburg now stands in 1874 when this whole end of Texas was a sure Wild West proposition—a howling wilderness, indeed. He told us a story about a bunch of the young sprouts of that day and himself on a buffalo hunt in those days, and about mid-afternoon one day, these young men, especially one of them became very thirsty for water. He said they began to hunt water, but the creek seemed to be as dry as a bone, but he told the boys that water must not be far off as the Indian signs were in evidence around there. Finally, he said, I found the water between two cottonwoods and hailed the other fellows. Being asked if there was enough water for the horses, he replied: No, there was scarcely enough for the men. He said the young man that was so thirsty stuck his whole face in the water when he lay down to drink. He said it was only a seep, and afforded little water. The Indians had dug out a small place with their tomahawks.

Albert Curry of Lynn county, was over this week and reported that they received good rains the early part of this week, and that he was preparing to put in a crop. Albert was employed by the Herald until recently, when business took flight to some unknown clime that we do not wish to mention in these columns, but he has promised to be with us again when the promised Republican prosperity reaches us. Albert is one of the most moral and trustworthy boys we have ever had dealing with, and we predict he will make a par-excellent printer some day.

A young man of the community came pretty near passing in his check last Saturday night from drinking corn whiskey. He was rushed to the local hospital where the stomach was pumped out, and at this time he is seemingly alright. Quite a number of these boys, for it means slow music over your remains sooner or later.

We are sorry to report that Ray Brownfield and wife lost their two months old infant girl at the local sanitarium, last Saturday morning at 8:30 p. m. The little one had never been well, but everything was done possible to save it. The little body was layed to rest in the Brownfield cemetery Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of M. V. Brownfield by Rev. J. W. Baughman.

Merry Bidders Club

Mesdames Hal Bradley and Jim Kimmel were club hostesses at the regular meeting of the Merry Bidders, at the Bradley home, on Tenth street. ### Lois and Ruth Foster Entertain

On March the eighteenth, at the home of George W. Foster, Misses Lois and Ruth Foster entertained about forty guests, with a delightful 42 party. After a pleasant evening of forty-two, a tempting lunch of chicken sandwiches, potato chips, olives, marshmallow pudding and coffee with whipped cream was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Dupre, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Waldrop, and Misses Maxie, Starnes, Rushing, Jones, Benson, Pryor, Cowan, Cowart, McCue, Thomas, Marr, Richmond, Crane, Craven, Messrs Posey, Boyd, Haynes, Moore, Allen, Slagle, Bedford, Fynum, Bellah, Neeves, Lewis, Reed, Marr, Cowan, Peterman, Bishop.

Literature

The literature of India is vast beyond comprehension. The library of one of the kings is said to have been so large that a hundred Brahmins were employed in taking care of it. Literary activity in India is as great today as in the past and vast stores of learning are accumulated there. The most ancient of Hindu literature is the Sanskrit, a branch of the Indo-European group of languages, which includes the Persian, Greek, Latin, Teutonic, Slavonic, Celtic, and Scandinavian. The Sanskrit bears the closest resemblance to the primitive language from which all the others sprang. The Sanskrit is the sacred language of the Brahmins and although it is classed today among the dead languages, it is kept alive among the writings and conversation of the priestly caste, and has furnished a rich storehouse for European scholars.

Sanskrit appears in its most ancient form in the Vedas, which date at least one thousand years before Christ. The history of Sanskrit literature divides into two periods, the Vedic and the classic. These two partly overlap each other, but the later Vedic works are distinguished by the subjects with which they deal and their archaic style. The word Veda, means knowledge, and books of knowledge. These sacred books are divided into four classes by the Brahmins: first, Rig Veda, or the lore of praise hymns, second, Yajur-Veda, the lore of prayer; third, Sama Veda a lore of chants; 4th Atharva, Veda, devotional services to be used in sacrifices and other religious offices. Many speculative philosophies have had their birth in India some of them in strict disobedience to the teachings of Vedas. Five centuries before the Christian era a newer and purer religion was taught by the monk of royal birth, who became known as Buddha; the Enlightened one. He taught his people to live in charity, one with another and to practice truth and morality and to overthrow caste and to abolish the Brahman sacrifices. The sacred books of Buddha are called the Tripitaka. They are written in a dialect of the later Sanskrit and are larger than the writings of the old and new testament. It would be impossible to acknowledge the full indebtedness of western literatures to the literary thoughts of India. We have borrowed from every department but nowhere have we found treasures richer in romance and fairy tale than here. Stories written in far away India have been the delight of our story tellers. India is rich in literary treasures and we are richer too, because we have borrowed from their storehouse.

Parent-Teachers Association

Last Friday evening the Music and Dramatic Club rendered a most excellent program at the High School auditorium, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association. The program rendered by these most prominent and accomplished members of Lubbock citizenship was one that would have been a credit to any of the larger cities of the state. Indeed the rare talent and the ability for excellent rendition, possessed by these members is recognized and appreciated in a number of our larger and most progressive cities.

Lubbock is proud of these talented and accomplished citizens and those who were fortunate enough to be present upon this occasion were delighted and enthusiastic in their praise and appreciation of the program rendered.

Another thought: Life is measured by the soul's advance. Life, whether in this world or any other, is the sum of our attainment, our experience, our character. The conditions are secondary. In what other worlds shall we be more sure than we are here.

Community Short Course

The Community Short Course has come and gone and those who attended could not but feel that it has been worth while and hope that it will become an annual event in the history of the city and country. The noonday luncheons were a feature that brought the folks together in a social chat, in a way nothing else could—and the joy in seeing the kiddies hustle around the big tables, and consume the good things before them, was a sight that made us all wish that we could be youngsters again.

Mrs. Laws lectures were particularly helpful and the mothers who were present could not fail to carry home with them a real storehouse of knowledge. Her comparison of the health conditions in the city and country, was startling to most of us, and the little heed we are prone to give to diet is responsible for the figures quoted.

E. M. M. Club

Miss Eva Franks proved to be a delightful hostess to the E. M. M. Club which has been organized only a short while. Last Friday after a hasty preparation, all the members took advantage of the opportunity of spending the week end at Evas home in Sudan. About 5:30 all being ready, we started and made a hasty trip, reaching her home about 8:15. Saturday being rather windy day, we were compelled to spend the time indoors, but did so to the best advantage. The day was spent in reading, making candy, and other amusements enjoyable to a girl. Sunday being a beautiful day, pictures were taken early in the morning, and then all went to church. After church we again went to Eva's home, where we enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner that not being the first delicious repast we had devoured. After dinner more pictures were taken, and soon preparations were made to return home. It was with a feeling of regret that we bade good-bye to Sudan, but still we were glad to be returning to Lubbock. We know that a more delightful weekend was never spent, and hope that we may soon have the opportunity of visiting Sudan again. The ones who were fortunate enough to enjoy this trip were Misses Sylvia Wilson, Almeda Murray, Pauline Trippett, Pearl Warren, Annie Simpson, Ala Burrus, and the hostess, Eva Franks.—A member.

Paul P. Murray and J. W. Baker were among the Slaton visitors in Lubbock Monday.
