

THE LUBBOCK AVALANCHE

VOLUME XXIII. No. 10.

LUBBOCK, LUBBOCK COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1922.

PUBLISHED TWICE A WEEK

MARTIN UNANIMOUSLY CHOSEN AS SECRETARY OF C. OF C. TUES.

HE WILL ASSUME THE DUTIES OF THE OFFICE ON THE FIRST OF APRIL—IS A LIVE WIRE—SUITED FOR JOB

KEEN WILL TAKE UP MAGAZINE WORK

Will Be Actively Associated With The New Agricultural Journal Here As Editor—Will Also Handle a Lot of Publicity As Correspondent for Out-of-Town Papers and Magazines.

Askes to ashes, dust to dust. If others won't do it, the Secretary must.

If he writes a letter, it is too long, if he sends a postal, it is too short; if he attends a committee meeting he is butting in; if he stays away he is a shirker; if the crowd is slim at a luncheon, he should have called the members up; if he calls them up, he's a pest; if he duns a member for his dues, he's insulting; if he does not collect them, he's lazy; if a meeting is a howling success, the entertainment committee is praised; if it is a failure the Secretary is to blame; if he asks for suggestions he's incompetent; if he doesn't he's bull headed.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Tuesday the resignation of the present Manager, Curtis A. Keen was accepted to become effective April 1st and Mr. L. T. Martin, a citizen of this city and formerly president of the Farmers' National Bank, was elected to fill the place for the coming year. Mr. Keen came to the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce from Clarendon, in August 1920. His work here speaks for itself and his resignation came as a surprise to the Board of Directors, but will still remain a citizen of Lubbock and will continue to be active in the promotion of the interests of the town and section. As Managing-Editor of The Plains Agricultural Journal, he is entering a field that offers an unlimited opportunity to be of service to the entire Plains and West Texas in a broad, constructive way, and in a work very similar to Chamber of Commerce work.

Mr. Martin has made Lubbock his home for several years and is well known, not only in the city, but throughout the South Plains and West Texas section. His marked ability in putting over the Farmer's Short Course, the Red Cross drive and other civic problems as well as his excellent standing as a business man and a citizen makes him a most desirable man for the managers position with our Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Keen will work with Mr. Martin for thirty to sixty days so as to continue the smooth running of the organization and thus protect the best interests of the city and section. Both of these men have the interests of the city at heart and with a full hearty spirit of co-operation on the part of the citizenship of the city of Lubbock, will continue to be known as one of the best in West Texas.

"Possibly the greatest regret in leaving the Chamber of Commerce is the man that is to take my place," said Mr. Keen, when asked about the change by the Avalanche Reporter. "He is just so efficient and good in putting things over that I am afraid that he will show me up as a regular 'Gold-Bricker' on the job. Anyway L. T. is going to make the organization a mighty good Secretary and if he receives the co-operation that it has been my pleasure to enjoy I know that things will happen regularly."

"Do you know, that after all the hardest part of a Secretary's job in Chamber of Commerce work is picking the right town. If he picks a winning town, with the right sort of folks living in it, who are not afraid to do things and then just kinder keeps up with them he will build an awful reputation as a good Chamber of Commerce Secretary. But on the other hand, if he is the best Secretary that ever got cussed by the old Non-Setter and Aginers and picks a dead town that is afraid to start things because it might cost the individual citizen a little time and money—why I don't care how hard he works, he pretty soon becomes known as a dead Secretary. I know what I am talking about there. We see it happen every year in Chamber of Commerce work. A real Secretary will go to some town because they pay a better salary than the town he has been in—and then he sinks out of sight. The salary is all that town gives their Secretary—when he needs just as bad or worse, a little support, co-operation, and encouragement."

"I am glad to get out of Chamber of Commerce for one or two reasons—the first of these is that I can say what I think about what ever I think and about who ever I think about it after looking him over. I think I can get away with it, there are a whole flock of old, stick in the mud aginers in Lubbock that I have wanted to unload on for a long time and when I go out for the Chamber of Commerce office on April first it is my personal business what I think about anybody or anything, how I vote or don't vote and the organization is not responsible for what I do or think."

"You know, a poor Secretary, like a teacher, a preacher and to a certain extent a doctor, is kinder the property of the whole community. They more or less own you and with certain exceptions you are not supposed to express your own personal convictions too strongly. It might hurt the organization, the church, or the school. It will most certainly hurt the feelings of some of the members of the organization, the patrons of the school and the members of the church and that in turn will, of course, hurt the organization, the school and the church. None of these folks are supposed to get into politics—and it is right that they should not—for they represent the town as a whole and not any one political side or question—unless it very definitely concerns the development and improvement of the town, school or church beyond all possibilities of a doubt. For example, it is understood that a Chamber of Commerce is for street paving, lighting, water main extensions, etc., just like a teacher is supposed to be for better school buildings, etc. But Chamber of Commerce cannot and does not dabble in politics.

"I'm out now and I can do and say what I dinged please. If I want to run for Justice of Peace, that is my happy privilege and I may exercise the right some day."

"But I am still for Lubbock. In starting The Plains Agricultural Journal we had two things in mind. The first of these was to be of real service to the Plains and West Texas in a broad constructive way. The next was to get into something that would make it possible to make Lubbock our permanent home. Mr. Griffith and I came to this city because we believed that it was a good place to live in and to work in. Our experience has convinced us that we were right in coming here and we believe we are right in being ourselves up to stay here. Lubbock suits us—if we can suit Lubbock enough to get beans and bacon we will be here for a long time. When you want to get rid of us—just stop supporting our Journal and we will starve out."

"I cannot leave the Secretary's office without expressing my appreciation of the co-operation and support the citizenship as a whole has given me, especially the Board of Directors. I have worked with all sorts and kinds of men in the sixteen years that I have been on my own, but I have never worked with a bunch of men that were as fair, square and unselfishly interested in doing the proper things for the town or the job in hand. Most always you will find one or two men on a Board of Directors that has a private axe to grind, that wants to run or ruin the organization and other selfish attitudes. But I have never found any indication of such a spirit in the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors. There is but one question discussed when any problems come up and that is: 'Is it for the good of the city of Lubbock?' If it is they get it. If it is not they turn it down. That's all here is to it."

"As I have repeatedly stated, Lubbock's possibilities are limited only by the capacity of her leaders, plus the co-operation of her citizenship. Her leaders are the right sort so let's get behind them. Let's go."

Lubbock County Educators Acted As Contest Judges

Last week County Supt. E. R. Haynes, accompanied by Bob Crump, and Misses Brownice and Klen, of Shallowater, went up to Olton, to act as judges at the Interscholastic meet held there.

Mr. Haynes reports a fine trip and an enthusiastic meet. Olton is the county seat of Lamb county, and although there are only five schools in the county, namely Olton, and Littlefield and three rural schools there is a great deal of enthusiasm along the line of competitive athletics. Each school had winners in some branch of the sport.

Olton maintains a fine school, a nice brick building, eleven grades, six first class teachers, and a fine bunch of big-hearted co-operative school patrons. A very strong, natural school rivalry exists between the two towns of Littlefield and Olton, which, in itself made the meet worth while, for the boys certainly gave all they had to make this meet a success, and it was a success from every standpoint, not only for the schools but for the visitors as well. Mr. Haynes is high in his praise of these schools through Lamb county.

Life is measured by the soul's advice. Life, whether in this world or any other is the sun of our attainment.

Things and Cheap Men Are Always Expensive; It Is Important That Municipal Plants Be Kept in Competent Hands

A tin plow point would cost less than a steel point but what would it be worth as far as results are concerned. You save money by getting the best. The same holds true in operating a light plant. Cheap oil could be had to run cheap engines and deliver cheap service. At the close of a recent contract for a certain grade of oil suitable for the proper lubrication of the engines in use at the plant it was necessary to use an inferior grade of oil for a few days. It cost the city almost $500 to repair the damage resulting from the use of the inferior oil. Cheap oil was expensive.

Cheaper engines could be installed in the plant. But they would cost heavy repair bills, be out of use part of the time and leave the town in darkness. They would be expensive savings to the city.

A cheap man could be found to operate the city's business. In fact a hundred men could be found without going out of the city who would jump at the job at $150 a month. But it would be a rather expensive cheapness. The technical experience necessary to operate a business the size of that operated by the City Manager is not picked up by every Jack-Leg mechanic in the country. Neither does such experience go begging for a job. The average paid City Managers throughout the United States is better than $4,000 a year for cheap men, have been found to be expensive when the city finished paying for them.

With an investment of $89,283.00 the city made a profit of $15,754.51, less 5 percent set aside for depreciation in value of plant and equipment, or $4,464.15, leaving a net profit of $11,290.36 or 12 percent on the investment. That is made in spite of the lowest rate to be found in the state of Texas with one or two exceptions. And yet corporation utilities say they lose money at practically double the rate charged by the municipal plant.

The best efforts of business men have made these records possible. It would be a mistake to make a full change right in the middle of the stream. Let's keep men that we know can handle things.

Twentieth Century Club Meets, Honoring President of Seventh District of Federated Clubs, Mrs. Goodman

Of much interest to the Twentieth Century Club, was the meeting of the Club on Tuesday, March 28.

Honoring the president of the newly organized Seventh District of Federated Women's Clubs, Mrs. Goodman of Abernathy, the club assembled at one o'clock at the Lubbock Inn, where a delicious lunch was served to twenty-five members and guests. After lunch, Mrs. Charles Goodman was introduced in a few well chosen words by our president, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson. Mrs. Goodman, in her pleasing way, then spoke to us of the importance of organization among the clubs of the country, and of the benefits to be gained by the various communities, as a result of regular meetings of a County Federation of Women's Clubs. After an open discussion on this subject, the entire party went to the Methodist Church for the regular business session.

Acting upon Mrs. Goodman's suggestion it was decided to invite every club in the county, eligible to federation, to send delegates to Lubbock on April 8th in order that interest in the County Federation might be revived again. This invitation has been issued through Mrs. Ed Schrader, the County Federation president, and it is to be hoped that representatives from every community be present at this time. Mrs. Goodman will be with us again on this occasion, and the Twentieth Century Club as hostess will serve lunch to all the delegates.

Mrs. Percy Spencer was elected delegate and Mrs. E. L. Klett alternate, to the meeting of the Seventh District Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Plainview, April 20 and 21st. Many of the members are planning to attend this meeting also.

The S. M. U. Glee and Mandolin Club Gave Splendid Entertainment at M. E. Church Last Wednesday Evening

One of the most enjoyable programs of the year was heard Wednesday night at the Methodist church when the Glee and Mandolin Club of the Southern Methodist University gave a concert and program under the auspices of the Senior Epworth League of the local church.

If you missed this program you are just that much the loser, for it was certainly put over in grand style, and was not only entertaining but shows that the higher institutions of learning not only develop the literary side of their student body, but develop their artistic talents as well.

The Club is composed of the student body of the institution all of whom are artists, although they are nothing but youngsters, and they proved themselves as artists in this entertainment. They carry with them, not only a Glee Club of merit, but a Mandolin Club, deserving of all the praise and glory bestowed upon them, and the audience was lavish in their applause of each and ever number, calling them back again and again, attesting their appreciation of the high class entertainment and their artistic talents displayed. Their program consisted of choruses, special numbers on both wind and string instruments, solos, male quartettes, and orchestra selections.

Their director, Harold Hart Todd, professor of piano and theory, in the institution, is certainly to be congratulated on the efficient manner in which the program was carried out. He is a man of high ideals, highly cultured, and capable in the art of music.

Lubbock is indeed fortunate in having the pleasure of listening to these young men, all artists, and let us flatter ourselves in wishing them an early return to our city.

Bruce Spencer and wife, of Falls, paid a short visit to the city the first of the week, and while here attended the concert given at the Methodist church Wednesday night. Mr. Spencer is connected with the Johnson and Spencer Drug Co. at that place. He is a live and progressive booster for his town and the South Plains.

A. Grange Oil Company and Refinery at El Paso. Celebration arranged by the Colorado and Westbrook Chambers of Commerce. Ten thousand people are expected. ROTARIANS HAD BIG ATTENDANCE AT WEDNESDAY NOON LUNCHEON

THE LUBBOCK BASE BALL TEAM WERE GUESTS OF VARIOUS MEMBERS OF THE CLUB THIS WEEK

STOCK JUDGING TEAM HONORED GUESTS

They Told of Their Trip to Fort Worth and How They Won the Honors and Cash Prizes—Manager of Ball Team Says the Boys Will All Be Boosters for Lubbock This Summer.

The Rotary club had a most interesting luncheon program Wednesday at which a large number of guests were present, including the Longhorn baseball team, and the club had as its guests the stockjudging team that went to Fort Worth, and brought back the honors.

The program of the day was in charge of Lige Robertson, and he had a snappy program. George Briggs was the first on the program, and spoke of the accomplishments of the class in animal husbandry, and of the team that went to Fort Worth. At this time Prof. Mowery, instructor in the Animal Husbandry department of the school told of the trip to Fort Worth, and how the boys were really handicapped in their judging, but was loud in his commendation of the team, and the way the boys had worked in the preparation for this trip. They are a loyal bunch said Mr. Mowery, and never shirk when called upon to perform their part at any time and any place. Raymond Boyd then told how they won the honors. He said it was because they went with a strong determination to win, and while he won the first place as an individual he was more anxious for the success of the team than for himself, and they all went resolved to their very best, and we all know the result.

Miss Huff field representative of the Red Cross was present and spoke briefly of the work of that organization here. She gave a brief outline of some of the work that the secretary was doing here. She sighted that the local secretary had been called on in many instances and within the past thirty days, had rendered assistance to thirty families, eleven of which received financial aid. These eleven families under the direction of the secretary, Miss Ellis were given the needed assistance at an outlay of $46 by the Red Cross, which was made possible by the good co-operation she has with the various societies of the town. Miss Huff says that the same assistance if given by other than the Red Cross would have cost not less than $80, on account of the economic methods of the organization. Other good work that the local secretary is doing is in connection with the schools. She recently made a survey of the town in the interest of the schools. She obtained a list of the children who were supposed to be in school, but were not, and called on the families to ascertain the reason. She found thirty-two children who were out of school, and made it possible for twenty-three of this number to return to school, by supplying them with necessary clothing, which they claimed was the reason they were out of schools. In the face of these conditions and the many demands upon the Red Cross for financial aid, has brought about a depletion of the treasury, and we still have eight months more of the year, before the next annual drive will be made. It will then be necessary to raise an amount of fifty dollars per month for eight months if the work of the Red Cross is carried on, said Miss Huff.

Mr. Morgan, president of the base ball club was called on to introduce members of the ball team, and spoke a few minutes as to what the base ball club meant to Lubbock. He stated that the game was the American game, and people were enthusiastic about it, and the reason for a high class team was to give the people of this community something really worth while from point of recreation. He spoke of the financial benefits pointing out that the big games would be the means of bringing thousands of people to the town during the season, who otherwise would not come. It gives an opportunity of better acquaintance and from an advertising standpoint it is one of the best investments that the Lubbock people could make. Lubbock will be prominently before the people in the daily press, and in base ball towns. He urged that the people get right behind the team, and back them up in their games, at home and abroad.

Mr. Allen, manager of the team, then spoke in behalf of the team. He stated that base ball now and a few years back is quite different. He said the men who composed ball teams now, were men of high type and character, and they no longer had to sleep in wagon yards and feed barns, but could, and did go to the best hotels, were considered among the highest class of citizens. He says the men composing the Lubbock team are a fine bunch of fellows and will be a credit to Lubbock. He says they will be boosters for Lubbock everywhere they go, and assured us that the team would never be guilty of any act that would reflect anything but honor on the city from which they come. He said they were going to work hard for the pennant this year, but he never promised that they would win it, because there are seven very good reasons for not making this promise—it is an eight team League.

MISS EPIE EDSELL IS SUFFERING FROM EYE DEFECTS

Miss Eppie Edsall, daughter of H. V. Edsall, of this place is reported this week as being practically unable to continue her studies on account of the condition of her eyes, on which account she has been under treatment continually since the first of the year. She is attending school at Ward-Belmont College, Nashville, Tenn.

It is with deep regret that the friends of Miss Edsall hear of this and we wish for her a speedy recovery and resumption of her studies.

TULIA MAN DIES FROM INJURIES IN AUTO WRECK

Tulia, March 27.—Kick from the crank handle on a gasoline engine used to run the Porter Grain Company Grain Elevator here, is believed to have caused the death this afternoon of W. A. It is believed the crank handle struck him in the head when he attempted to start the engine. He leaves a large family.

Important Meeting Of The National Guard Battery Fri.

Friday night at the Justice Court room in the Southwest corner of the Courthouse will be held one of the most important meetings yet held of the local Battery of the National Guard.

On account of business requirements and other duties, Capt. Peterman who formerly was in charge of the Battery, has been forced to give up the work, however a man of equal competency and ability has been secured for this position. Earnest A. Conley, who saw quite a bit of service overseas during the war in the Artillery branch of the service, has been placed in charge of the Battery here, and work is progressing nicely along the line of organization, and things are beginning to look rosy for the boys.

At the meeting Friday night many matters of importance will come up for discussion, and it is urgently requested that a full quota of the boys be present. The final examination papers necessary to the Federalizing of the battalion will be completed at this time, and before long it is expected that the battery will be going in full force.

The officers in charge of the Battery have been selected, and are as follows: Captain Earnest A. Conley, 1st in command; 1st Lieut. Elbert H. Beulheim; 2nd in command, assisted by 1st Lieut. M. M. Mitchell and 2nd Lieut. H. H. Griffith. The non-commissioned officers are appointive and will be appointed at a later date.

Not only the members are expected to be present at this meeting, but those interested in the work are urged to come out. Let's give these boys a good crowd and a great meeting.

On Friday, March 31st, County Supt. E. R. Haynes and City Supt. M. M. Dupre will go to Tahoka to act in the capacity of judges at the interscholastic meet to be held at that place.

HARDING'S PRAYER FOR U. S. IS THAT FOLK BECOME MORE GOD-FEARING AND GOD-LOVING

Washington, March 24.—The church can render no higher service at this time than to put forth its utmost influence in behalf of "frank and willing obedience to the law of the land" President Harding declared tonight in an address before the Bible class of Calvary Baptist Church.

Without giving too much weight to alarmist expressions, the President said, "we must nevertheless recognize that there is a very apparent tendency to a lighter and more frivolous view of the citizens relations to both the state and the church."

Declaring his belief in the part which religious reverence has played in American achievement, the President said:

What He Would Pray

"If I were to utter a prayer for this Republic tonight, it would be to strengthen us in religious devotion and make us abidingly a God-fearing, God loving people.

"There is no relationship here between church and state," the President said, "religion has its unalterable place along with civil and human liberty in the very foundation of the Republic.

"I fear it is forgotten sometimes. In the experiences of a year in the presidency there has come to me no other such unwelcome impression as the manifest religious intolerance, which exists among many of our citizens. I hold it to be a menace to the very liberties we boast and cherish.

"I do not fail to recall that the religious life makes for the simple life, and it would be like a divine benediction to restore the simpler life in this Republic.

"There is a good deal of loose talk nowadays about the cause of the spiritual demoralization of the community, which it has become popular to attribute to the abnormal conditions that were incident to the war. But in fact, the war is not wholly to blame. Before the war started or was dreamed of, we were already realizing the tendency toward a certain moral laxity, a shifting of standards, a weakening of the sterner fibers. I think we should do well to recognize that intellectual and moral evolution of the community. It would be a grievous error to allow ourselves to feel too confident that this is only a temporary and passing aspect.

Urges Respect for Law

"Take for example, the matter of regard for the law. Without giving too much weight to alarmist expressions, we must nevertheless recognize that there is a very apparent tendency to a lighter and a more frivolous view of the citizens relations to both the state and the church. We can hardly hope for a restoration of the old ideals in religion and in moral conduct, so long as this tendency to disregard the law shall continue. It is absolutely essential to the maintenance of a secure society and to the attainment of a proper moral plane, that the law should be recognized as sacred and supreme.

"Whatever breeds disrespect for the law of the land, in any particular department of our community relations, is a force tending to the general breakdown of the social organization. If people who are known as leaders, as directing influences, as thoroughly respected and respectable members of society, shall in their respective communities become known for their defiance of some part of the code of the law, then they need not be astonished if presently they find that their examples would be, with the result that the law in general comes to be looked upon as a set of irksome and unreasonable restraints upon the liberty of the individual. Our only safety will be in calculating an attitude of respect for the law, as on the whole the best expression that has been given to the social aspiration and moral purposes of the community."

CHIROPRACTIC

CONSISTS ENTIRELY OF ADJUSTING THE MOVABLE SEGMENTS OF THE SPINAL COLUMN TO NORMAL POSITION

What Is Meant By Straight Chiropractic?

Every trade, profession or occupation combines the extremes of efficiency and inefficiency. Chiropractic is no exception to this rule and it is a lamentable fact that there are many who call themselves Chiropractors whose only qualification is a diploma from a correspondence school or a "diploma mill" and to whom the profession seems simply an easy method of getting a living. These incompetents invariably attempt to conceal their lack of skill by filling their offices with catch-penny devices instead of filling their heads with knowledge, and then pose as "broad-minded" people who consent to use their superior judgment to pick the good out of every method for the benefit of the dear public. Perhaps their "broadness" consists entirely of a willingness to perpetuate themselves professionally by any method except that of attaining proficiency.

STRAIGHT CHIROPRACTIC is a term used to distinguish those who understand and practice Chiropractic from those who CALL themselves Chiropractors and practice anything that promises a dollar.

A Straight Chiropractor is one who knows from observation and experience that Chiropractic is right. He feels the impulse of the big idea. When he contemplates studying Chiropractic his first concern was to select the best school, and when in school to work honestly and conscientiously to master his studies and to attain proficiency. His diploma to him means long hours of honest, intelligent, painstaking effort, and in his practice he PROVES that disease is caused by pressure on the nerves at the point where they leave the spine.

He confines his efforts to locating and adjusting, by hand only, the misaligned vertebrae and will not stoop to a method of extracting money. He does not cease studying when he leaves school and his pride and joy in his efficiency in getting the sick well. He is more concerned with health than with dollars and as a result patients seek him.

Always he lives and works with the big discovery and marvels at the wonderful results. To him Chiropractic is a growing necessity.

He radiates enthusiasm and confidence, for he knows his business, and in season and out of season he teaches and practices what he knows to be true.

In his office you will find no hot lamps to warm the chilly; no Violet Rays to counteract the blues; no stretching machines to make the short lengthen; no dietetic fads to find the food a weakened stomach will digest; no salts, sulphur or electric baths to forcibly eliminate the poisons; no vibrators to stir the sluggish into life; HE KNOWS that the Supreme Architect and Builder designed and built the human body, and when the machine does not run properly an adjustment is all that is required. He scorns the catch-penny confessions of incompetency and confines his efforts to learning how to locate and correct the cause of disease. He will not prostitute his science for money and you will find the space in his office filled with waiting patients instead of catch-penny devices.

STRAIGHT CHIROPRACTORS work UP to a standard instead of DOWN to a patient, Prejudice, or Price.

When you take Chiropractic Adjustments you should at LEAST insist on STRAIGHT CHIROPRACTIC. The following are the only offices on the South Plains practicing "STRAIGHT UNADULTERATED CHIROPRACTIC."

The Economy of Building

—at this time can be made clear by a little figuring. The price of lumber is right, and the money a building will save you to care for that machinery will more than pay the cost of the material and construction.—Come in and let's talk over your building problems.

Successful Way of Slowing Down The Speedsters

The other day up in Detroit a youngster was arrested for speeding and it was handled rather effectively in court. He was fined $100, although that was probably no more than a formality of the law since $100 meant nothing to this particular defendant; but he was sent to jail for five days, and that appears to have been full of all sorts of meaning to the soft-handed specimen of irresponsibility before the bar of justice. In addition the judge recommended that the right of the defendant to drive a car be taken away from him for a year.

The idea of depriving the speedster of the temptation to speed by way of aiding in his reformation and in the safety of the rest of the population of the country is not a new idea. But it seems to be a good one. Slapping a fine onto a devotee of the open throttle and the roaring exhaust has proved ineffective except in helping to finance the extra police effort made necessary by speeding. But the prospect of being exiled from the accelerator and the cut-out for a year is a punishment calculated to reach the inmost recesses of the speedster's heart and cause the fear of the law to enter there.

It is eminently logical. There is every likelihood that it would be the strongest deterrent of reckless driving that could be enforced. The need for such a deterrent can not be questioned.—Dallas News.

TEXAS IS SIXTH STATE IN NUMBER OF HOMES OWNED

Texas is fifth State of the Union in number of homes and sixth in the number of such homes owned, Charles D. West said Thursday. "There are 1,017,413 homes in this State, according to the United States census in 1920. Only New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio had more. In Texas, 421,875 were owned homes. The same four States and Michigan have a larger number owned. Ten other States have smaller percentage of homes owned, and one other, Arizona, ties Texas on that score. Only 12.2 per cent of Texas homes are mortgaged. Twelve other States have a smaller percentage of mortgaged homes.

"Dallas seems to be leading Texas cities in number of homes and in number of owned homes. It is certainly building more homes at this time than any other Texas city."

Colorado Man Shot But Will Recover According to Report

Colorado, Texas, March 24.—R. L. Porter, who was shot three times with a .38 calibre Colt's revolver Monday of this week during an altercation with Joe Bowman, will recover, attending physicians stated Friday. Porter was brought to Colorado yesterday and following an x-ray examination of his wounds, he was declared not seriously hurt.

One of the shots shattered Porter's left arm and the other two entered his back just below the shoulder, lodging in the breast immediately above the abdominal cavity. It was at first thought that the bullets had penetrated the man's left lung.

Porter is under treatment at the Coe Hotel and reports from there indicate that he will be able to return home within the next few days.

Bowman is out under $5,000 bond pending appearance before the Mitchell county grand jury, which will convene at Colorado Monday, April 24.

The Dallas Catholic Diocese has posted a reward of $2,500.00 for the apprehension of those who carried and feathered priest Keller at Slaton recently. Now we imagine that any detective that goes to nosing into that matter over at Slaton will just about come out with a good coat himself, and with other gentle reminders to tend to his own business. That $2,500 don't look good to us as hard as the times are.—Terry County Herald.

Are You Run-down, Weak or Nervous?

If So, You Cannot Afford to Overlook This.

San Antonio, Texas.—"For a long time I had suffered with a weakness that was brought on by over-work and worry. Through this I became all run-down and extremely nervous. I had scarcely any strength left—the least exertion I would be all in. I was a physical wreck when I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it was very quick in building me up in health and strength, and I was so much better after taking this medicine that I feel I can safely recommend it to others."—Mrs. N. A. Briggs, No. 614 Adams Street.

Health is wealth. Do not neglect the most valuable asset you have. If you are troubled, write Dr. Pierce, President, Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., and receive good medical advice in return, free of all expense, or send 10c. for trial pkg. of tablets.

The world may now be at peace, but war still continues in some households.

Six West Texas Towns Are After the 1923 Convention of West Texas Chamber Commerce—Membership Growing

Stamford, March 26.—As the time draws near for the holding of the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce interest increases in the probable entrants for the next meeting place. Up to a short time ago two towns were known to have announced their intention to ask for the 1923 annual event? That number has been increased to six up to this time, according to reliable reports.

The towns which are now bidding for the next session as reported, are Brownwood and Sweetwater, which had previously announced; and Cisco, Midland, Childress and El Paso. Brownwood has consistently advocated its intention from the last annual meet at Ranger last February. Sweetwater announced its entrance into the competition sometime ago through Mayor George H. Sheppard. Cisco decided to get into the race a few weeks ago. Midland has suddenly loomed strong by the recent announcement. Childress is expected to be a strong contender, securing much of the support of the towns along the Fort Worth & Denver from Fort Worth to Amarillo. El Paso is the most recent competitor. It is said that the latter city, though not a strong unit of the organization, will make unusual inducements to attract voters for that city.

In addition to the six cities which are now said to be in the race, it is understood that several other towns are considering the advisability of making an effort to obtain the convention. Among these is Abilene. Abilene entered to the 1920 convention and so well did it entertain that many are willing for it to go there for another year.

Of the towns at present in the race, Cisco, Sweetwater and Brownwood were in the race at the Ranger convention. However, Plainview won out, with Sweetwater a close second.

The entrance of so many towns in the contest is auguring extremely well for a record attendance at the Plainview convention May 22 and 23. An attendance prize has been offered for the winners on the plains. Tahoka, Canyon, Rails and several other towns are reported working up interest in their towns, being represented to the highest degree, guaranteeing that the convention this year will eclipse that held last year at Ranger.

Hale County Will Increase Its Cotton Acreage

It is anticipated that a large acreage of cotton will be planted in the Plainview territory this year. The farmers are already planning on the amount they will plant to cotton, and are planning on their seed for the spring planting. Several business houses of the city are handling cotton seed this year, and one man has shipped in a car of fine seed from Oklahoma.

The Plainview Gin Company will also handle cotton seed, and will probably have a car on the track some time during the month of April.

Winfield Holbrook, manager of the Texas Land and Development Company, states that a large number of the tenants on the company's farms are planning this year to plant a good sized acreage to cotton. Various estimates place the 1922 cotton acreage in the territory tributary to Plainview at 6,000.

The Plainview gin is in excellent shape, only a few minor repairs being necessary before the season starts. At Tulia the gin is to be repaired and made ready for the fall opening.

Some comment is being made on the shortness of the season. Year before last the season was a short one, so that cotton had no time to open. But last year the season was longer and cotton had plenty of time to mature and be gathered before cold weather set in. It is not thought that any shortage of help will be experienced this fall in gathering the crop, as last year there were many inquiries about the possibility of getting work in the cotton fields here.—Plainview Herald.

THE PNEUMONIA MONTH

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.

NORD SAYS THE CHANGE IN WIFE IS WONDERFUL

Can See Her Improving Every Day Since She Started On Tanlac. Had Suffered Five Years From Dyspepsia.

"My wife is improving so fast since taking Tanlac that I can almost see the change for the better every day. Already she is beginning to look like a different person," said Hyman T. Nord, 2408 Lucile St., Dallas, Texas.

"It certainly is remarkable, in fact, I just can't understand it, but it's true, that Tanlac is rapidly overcoming five or six years' trouble that my wife had from indigestion and stomach trouble. For the past five or six months she has been in an especially serious condition and I was very much alarmed about her. She is on the road to health now, however, and at the present rate at which she is improving in a short time she will be as well and strong as she ever was in her life. Since Tanlac is the only thing that has ever helped my wife, although we had tried many different medicines and treatments, I am convinced that it has extraordinary merit."

Tanlac is sold at all leading drug stores.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM LYNN COUNTY NEWS

Mr. L. B. Jones and Miss Ora Huffman, popular young people of the Midway community, were married Wednesday afternoon by Rev. E. M. Brunson, Baptist minister residing in that neighborhood. They have the best wishes of a host of friends and acquaintances for a happy wedded life.

R. F. Nevels is reported to be in a critical condition at this writing (Thursday) and his death has been expected hourly by his immediate family and close friends during the past ten days, he having been confined to his bed at the Nevels ranch in the north part of the county, the past four months. Owing to his advanced age and afflictions his life has been despaired of, although everything is being done known to medical science to prolong the life of this old time and highly honored citizen of the plains.

J. W. Lovelady, prominent ranchman of Colorado, Texas, was in Tahoka the fore part of the week looking after business matters. Mr. Lovelady, in conversation with a News reporter, stated that he worked on the old Slaughter Ranch in Lynn county in the year of 1874. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the wonderful growth of the city of Tahoka and the progress of the county as a whole. He left for Brownfield Wednesday, where he will remain a few days before returning to his home in Colorado.

Mrs. V. Jolly, of the Lynn community, was buried in the Tahoka cemetery Sunday afternoon. A large concourse of friends and relatives followed the remains to its last resting place. Mrs. Jolly leaves her husband and nine children to mourn her departure from this life. The bereaved ones have the deepest sympathy of the citizenship of the county in the loss of their loved one. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor of the church of New Lynn. Deceased was 40 years of age.

The Methodist denomination of Tahoka recently took a collection for Rev. Ross, Methodist minister, of Lubbock, toward building him a home in that city, amounting to $100.00. All of the churches over the Lubbock district were called on for a free will donation. Tahoka can always be counted on in doing her full share when it comes to donating to the poor and needy. Rev. S. J. Upton, the local pastor, stated that the above amount was raised in cash within a few minutes.

Norman Swofford, the little son of Mrs. Van Swofford, had the misfortune to break his leg last Sunday afternoon while engaged in a friendly bout with his chum, Paul Miller, Jr., on the west side of the public square. The little fellow suffered quite a good deal of pain from the break, and will be laid up for several days on account of the injury.

A MILL FOR PRODUCING BALANCED FEED

Ballinger, Texas, March 30.—The Young Men Business League announces the location of a new industry in Ballinger in the form of a milling company whose principal output will be a balanced feed for horses, hogs, cows, sheep and chickens. The ration prepared by this company will be based on information furnished by Federal and State Experiment Stations.

This industry is financed by local capital which is interested in developing the poultry and dairy industry of Runnels County. Poultry and dairy experts have said that this section is an ideal one for the raising of Poultry and dairy cattle, and for the raising of the feeds best suited for these animals.

The local commercial organization and the county agents department are urging every Runnels County farmer to stock their farms with chickens, sheep, hogs, and one or two dairy animals.

LUKE RIELLY SAYS, "THE RAT DIED BEFORE REACHING THE RIVER"

"Since moving near the river 2 years ago, we've always used RAT-SNAP. Watched a vicious water rat, nibbling at RAT-SNAP outside the house. About 15 minutes later he darted off for the water, to cool his burning stomach, but he died before reaching it." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by City Drug Store and Cole-Myrick Hdw. Co.

THINK WHAT YOU OWE THE TELEPHONE GIRL

The Telephone girl sits in her chair, And listens to voices from everywhere.

She hears all the gossip, she hears all the news, She knows who is happy and who has the blues;

She knows all our sorrows; she knows all our joys, She knows every girl who is chasing the boys;

She knows all our troubles, she knows all our strife, She knows every man who is mean to his wife;

She knows every time we are out with the boys, She hears the excuses each fellow employs.

She knows every woman who has a dark past, She knows every man who's inclined to be fast;

In fact, there's a secret 'neath each saucy curl, Of that quiet, demure-looking "Telephone Girl."

If the Telephone Girl would tell all she knows, It would turn half her friends into bitterest foes.

She'd start a small wind that would soon be a gale, And engulf us in trouble and land us in jail;

She would let go a story which, gaining in force, Would cause half our wives to sue for divorce.

She would get all the churches mixed up in a fight, And turn all our days into sorrowing nights.

In fact, she would keep all the world in a stew, If she told a tenth part of the things she knew.

Now, doesn't it set your head in a whirl, When you think what you owe "The Telephone Girl."

SAN ANTONIO COTTON MILL MAN INTERESTED IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Haley, of San Antonio, are guests at the Cova Hotel in this city. Mr. Haley is interested in the Planters and Merchants Mills, an ad which appears in this issue, explaining his work here. He is very confident his proposition will meet with favor

INVEST IN BIG TEXTILE COMPANY

The Planters and Merchants Mills will construct a chain of cotton mills throughout the State of Texas.

Mill No. 1 will be located at New Braunfels for the manufacture of "Blue Bonnet" Gingham.

This will be the first gingham mill in the state and has the advantage of dependable water power, plenty of raw cotton, labor about 30 per cent lower than the East, and market for several times the output.

Many cotton mills without the advantages of our Mill No. 1 have paid for themselves the first few years of operation.

A string of Cotton Mills in Texas, Financed by the Growers Themselves, with possibly a little outside assistance, will enrich the State, the Growers and leave the profits where they belong—with the grower of the raw material. By all means let us have more textile mills in Texas.

Financial Report by the City Secretary of the City of Lubbock

Lubbock, Texas,
March 24th, 1922.

Honorable C. E. Parks, Mayor.
L. H. Simpson, Com. No. 1.
Geo. C. Wolffarth, Com. No. 2.
J. O. Jones, Com. No. 3.
W. S. Posey, Com. No. 4.
E. S. Ruby, City Manager.
Lubbock, Texas.

Gentlemen:

In compliance with your request, I this day submit the following report for the period of February 1st, 1922, to January 31st, 1922, for your approval.

Cash on hand to the credit of all City funds, January 31st, 1922, $ 95,332.24
Less outstanding warrants, 1,983.86
Total, $ 93,348.38

This amount being distributed as follows:

General Fund	$ 2,205.10

Sewer Operating Fund	300.00
Street Operating Fund	2,300.00
Interest and Sinking Funds	16,741.13
Total	$ 33,348.38

In dollars and cents, it makes no material difference to the City, as a whole, by leaving these amounts to the credit of the Street operating departments, Water Departments, or Light Department, but in order that Mr. Ruby may act intelligently in the management of the affairs of various departments, it is necessary to let each department bear its own expense of operation, and receive the revenue therefrom. As a matter of information, if this was a privately owned corporation, a Profit and Loss statement of the Light Department would show a gross profit for the year ending January 31st, 1922, of $ 15,754.51
Less reserve for Depreciation five per cent on value of plant and equipment, $89,283.00, 4,464.15

Canyon School
To Participate in Track Meet April 1

Canyon High School has signified its eagerness to participate in the track meet which is to be held here April 1st. Plainview, Lubbock and Amarillo high schools have announced their intentions previously of joining the meet. At first this meet was arranged between Plainview and Lubbock high schools, and Amarillo, hearing of the arrangement, asked to be allowed to join in the meet. It is now anticipated that other high schools will want to be in the meet, which will include all sorts of track and field events.

The old race track, at the lake just north of the station, has been secured and will be used for the track meet. A small nominal charge will be made for admission to defray the expenses of the meet.

It is hoped by the promoters to make this a permanent institution, to be held in Plainview every year. Tennis contests will be held at the high school beginning at 10 a. m. The other preliminaries will be held at the race track at 10:15 in the morning. It is suggested that all contestants report to the men in charge at the high school at 10 o'clock. A number of capable men have been secured to act as officials.

BUSY BEE CAFE CHANGED
HANDS LAST MONDAY

On Monday night of this week a deal was closed whereby the Busy Bee Cafe owned and operated by A. A. Bratcher, was transferred to Allen and Gobez.

Sled Allen, manager of the Longhorns, and Elmer Gobez (Gobz) third sacker, assumed active control of the cafe Monday night, and will be at home to their friends there with everything in the way of good eats.

They will raise the place, if possible, beyond its present standing in a sanitary way, and everything will be strictly sanitary and up-to-date. They will have tables for ladies and gentlemen, courteous and genial treatment to one and all, and service that is beyond reproach.

"Baseball will be the first consideration," says Mr. Allen, "for that is what we're here for, and we are certainly going to give our best efforts to that. After the season, all our time will be devoted to the business."

THE LUBBOCK AVALANCHE

VOLUME XXIII, No. 10.

LUBBOCK, LUBBOCK COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1922.

PUBLISHED TWICE A WEEK

Newspapers Show the Growth of Texas Some Dated as Far Back As 1730 Are Found in University Library

Austin, March 26.—Embraced in the archives department of the University of Texas library are many interesting papers pertaining to the history of Texas in its various phases. Mrs. Mattie Austin Hatcher, archivist, is in charge. The collection is the result of twenty years' careful compilation.

Earliest papers secured were the Bexar manuscripts which consist of a detailed history of Texas under the Spanish and Mexican regime of 1730, the date of the first permanent settlement, until 1836, when the Mexicans were driven from Texas.

Descriptions of the introduction of Anglo-Americans in Texas are contained in the Austin papers. These show how the Anglo-Americans worked side by side with the Mexicans until the contest between the liberal and autocratic governments led to the expulsion of the Mexicans.

Texas history from the republic in 1836 up to almost modern times can be found in the Ashbel Smith papers. Ashbel Smith served as Texas diplomatic representative in the courts of France and Spain. He gave an idea in the papers of Texas' stand among other nations.

Many smaller papers present Texas' entry into the Union and her relations with the United States. Chief among these are the Waddy Thompson and Butler papers. These men were United States representatives in Mexico. Papers are included here bearing the signatures of such men as Andrew Jackson and Daniel Webster.

Collections showing growth in sections of the state include the

Each remedy is packed in one carton and the cost of the combined treatment is 35c. Just ask your druggist for HAYES' HEALING HONEY.

Maverick papers, which carry Texas from the early thirties through the Civil war; the Throckmorton papers, which give the history of the Civil war period, and many other interesting and valuable collections.

Additions are constantly being made in the form of letters and manuscripts of more recent history of the state. Manuscripts, rare maps and an immense collection of transcripts of documents in the archives of Mexico and Madrid. Document transcripts vitally connected with the history of Texas are beginning to be secured from the British and French archives. Manuscripts included in the Garcia library constitute the latest addition to this unusual collection.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL AT TRENT

The greatest revival in the history of this little city has recently closed at the Methodist church. The pastor, Rev. B. Y. Dickinson, was assisted by Evangelist R. B. Freeman, of Abilene, and Singer Alfred R. Wells, of Dallas. This man has just recently re-entered the evangelistic field and little is known of his work in these parts, but it will not be a long while until his services will be in great demand. Such preaching, we are told, has never been heard here. Some of the older people say it was of the old time camp-meeting type.

Record crowds were in attendance from the very beginning. There were 180 reclamations and conversions, for a large part among those already members of some church, but who had been dormant in their Christian experience; over 50 names for membership in the Methodist church; 31 young people surrendered for the ministry or mission field, and as a direct result of the services the Trent church will take the full time of a pastor, the other country points forming a new circuit to be manned by Rev. C. S. Moore.

BUSINESS VS. POLITICS

The City of Lubbock is the BIGGEST BUSINESS IN TOWN. It represents more Capital, and touches more folks than all three of the banks put together.

Its Problems Demand Experienced Business Men

The records of the Present Commission stand for themselves.—From Bankruptcy to a Solid Foundation in Four Years is no little achievement.

Don't Change Horses in the Middle of Stream

But the problems of the City are not all solved. They demand the same untiring direction of the Same Untiring Business Men of Recognized Ability. A completely new bunch would be a dangerous change, regardless of who the new men might be.—GOOD MEN WERE DRAFTED TO SAVE THE CITY IN 1918—THEY HAVE MADE GOOD. THEY HAVE CONSENTED TO SERVE ONE MORE TERM.

Lets Keep Them Instead of Trying to Break in a New Bunch

(Then amend the City Charter so as to elect 2 Commissioners every year instead of 4 every other year and thus have experienced men in office at all times, familiar with the business of the City)

Cholera Infection Confined to One Hale County Herd

Cholera among hogs in Hale county has been confined to one farm according to Dr. R. H. Harrison, of the State Livestock Sanitary Commission, who has been in Plainview this week.

Dr. Harrison has inspected several herds. The hogs on the Robt. M. Malone ranch are affected with an intestinal parasite, caused by allowing hogs to follow a bunch of hogs in the feed lots, according to Dr. Harrison. The only case of cholera reported is in the hogs of Boyd & Gunter.

Dr. Harrison strongly advises immunization of hogs. He states that there is much danger in trying to immunize yourself. The serum treatment, which under the law a farmer can administer himself, offers immunization for only a comparatively short period of time. The virus treatment offers immunization for the life of the hog. The virus should be handled carefully, for often cases of laboratory infection among hogs results.

The Texas A. & M. College is furnishing virus and serum. When asked about this serum Dr. Harrison stated that it is good. Major A. L. Ward, swine husbandman for the extension service at the college, recently stated to a representative of The Herald that the virus and serum from the college can be purchased at a substantial saving, being cheaper and just as good as that furnished by commercial concerns.—Plainview Herald.

BATTLE OF SAN JACINTO

April 21st is the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto. In the Magazine Section of the Lubbock Avalanche which will be issued the 7th is an official report of the battle as written by General Sam Houston himself.

This eight-page Magazine Section will be folded with our regular issue. Look for it and read not only the "Battle of San Jacinto," which gave to Texas her independence and freedom from Mexican dominance, but read two other interesting features in this section: "How Much Oil Can a Gusher Produce," and "Livestock Exhibits at the Fat Stock Show." Our Magazine Section appears once each month. It is brimful of good reading and worth alone our price of subscription.

FOUND A CURE FOR INDIGESTION

"I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different medicines. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now," writes George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. These tablets contain no poison but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.

ROTARY NOTES

By L. T. Martin

The regular weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club met at the Manhattan parlors Wednesday with over fifty present. The meeting was called to order by President Walter Myrick.

Secretary Keen was called upon to introduce visitors after which he made short talks on 18th District Conference of Rotary Clubs to be held at Mineral Wells, March 27 and 28th, urging all members who possibly could to attend.

Sam E. Cole, of the firm of Cole-Myrick Hardware Co., and Dr. Geo. Reed, dentist, were made associate members of the club. Rotarian Roscoe Wilson, giving them the lectures and instructions in Rotary. Roscoe is a past master, when it comes to initiating new members into the workings of Rotary.

L. T. Martin, in making his report on the International Harvester Co.'s "Two Day Short Course," praised the team work of the committee, in putting over (according to the lecturers making these Short Course tours the best meeting both from a standpoint of attendance and interest of any town in the following nine states: Crew number one making Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, and Oklahoma. Crew number two making Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Texas. These teams have been out nine months. Lubbock went over the top in attendance with a little over 7500 people. This being 500 more than Childress and 1000 more than next best town on the list. The lectures were equal to any of the Chautauqua lectures, and Lubbock is duly grateful to International Harvester Co. for the good they have done this community. In behalf of the people I wish to thank the Trustees of the Methodist church for their kindness in putting the church at our disposal for holding these meetings.

J. W. Jennings made a report on Poultry Show, held in connection with Short Course. President Walter Myrick and his committee is deserving of a great deal of credit for putting over one of the best poultry shows ever held in Lubbock. The culling demonstration on chickens brought to "Short Course" meeting by Jennings was both interesting and instructive. The culling demonstration was given by Mr. Mobley and many favorable comments were heard as to the culling demonstration. Yes, Jennings' chickens scored highest for laying and some asked J. W. what he gave Mr. Mobley for scoring his chicken the best. Nothing doing, as Mr. Mobley did not know the owners of the chickens over for the culling. Why should he pick out chickens to out class his own.

The most of the luncheon hour was devoted to a memorable service in honor of our friend and associate, A. B. Conley. Words fail me, when I would tell of the wonderful talk Bro. W. A. Bowen made on the death of Dolph. He and brother Bowen were very close friends and words just fail to express the beautiful tribute conveyed by Woody on this sad occasion. It came from the heart of one who would bring just tribute to the memory of one, who was in every way, worth of our respect and regard. At the close of the memorial service Curtis Keen offered the following toast: ("Gentlemen: I propose a toast of silence to our departed brother, friend and fellow Rotarian, Dolph Conley. May we as individuals and as a club as wholeheartedly live the motto of Rotary, "Service above self"—He profits most who serves best" as did he. To the memory of a true Rotarian, Dolph.")

Roscoe Wilson, W. A. Bowen and L. T. Martin committee on resolutions, reported the following:

At a regular meeting of the Lubbock Rotary club, held Wednesday, March 22, 1922, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, in view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and associate, Adolphus R. Conley, Jr., and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it,

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way, worthy of our respect and regard,

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased in their hour of trial and affliction and devoutly commend them to the keeping of Him who looks with pitying eye upon the widowed and fatherless. That while we deeply sympathize with those who were nearest and dearest to him, we share with them the hope of a reunion in that better world where there are no partings.

Resolved, That these resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased, as a token of our respect and veneration for the character of a good man, gone to his rest, and of the interest felt by the Rotary Club in those he loved and cherished.

Roscoe Wilson.

Rev. W. A. Bowen.

The following visitors were present: M. M. Mitchell, of C. A. Keen; W. O. Stevens, of R. H. Martin; E. L. Klett, of F. N. Payne; Dutch Malone, of L. T. Martin; M. C. Harris, of Dallas, of C. E. It gives me a great deal of pleasure to write the biography of my friend Bud, for this week's news. As I was unexpectedly ordered to attend the Rotary Convention at

DYED A SWEATER

AND SKIRT WITH

"DIAMOND DYES"

Every "Diamond Dyes" package tells how to dye or tint any worn, faded garment or drapery a new rich color that will not streak, spot, fade, or run. Perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. For fifty-one years millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of wear to their old, shabby waists, skirts, dresses, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything!

Mineral Wells, just a short time before train left, his biography will not be as complete as I would wish owing to lack of information on certain lines, but I will give you what I have:

John Oliver Jones was born January 17, 1871, in Collins Co., Texas. When about 17 years of age, went to Benjamin, Texas, and was foreman for H. G. Bedford on his cattle ranch. On March 4, 1893 he was married to Sallie B. Bedford, daughter of the man he worked for, a prominent cattle man of Benjamin, Texas. From this union there are the following children: Russell Jones, of Tahoka; Frank B. Jones, of Lamesa; Mrs. Ruby Raley of Wichita Falls; Dick Jones and John Oliver Jones, Jr.

Mr. Jones went into the cattle business for himself at the age of 23 years with Uncle Bille Ward, a prominent cattle and ranch man of Benjamin, Texas. After ranching in the Benjamin country for several successful years he moved to Terry Co., where he had nine more successful years as a cattle man. In 1915 he showed his good judgment by coming to Lubbock to make his home.

In 1917, together with Maaden and of the Security Sign Co. of Lubbock, he and owner, had land on Eleventh street.

We do not want to be exacting but we must demand some things of you, if you expect us to come up to the notch.

ELIMINATE THE DROUTH

One of our leading ranchmen, who has frequent opportunity to attend gatherings in the large cities, where representatives from all sections of the State meet and talk about conditions of their respective localities, suggests that there is one word which the people of West Texas—and the Plains Country in particular—should eliminate from their vocabulary, and that word is D-R-O-U-T-H. Here is the idea: Of course, we know that all West Texans are proud of their magnificent country and never miss an opportunity, when abroad, to boast of its magnificence and wonderful resources. However, as our friend says, they all to frequently make the mistake of qualifying their boast talk in a manner something like this: "Yes, sir, we have the greatest country in the world—that is, it would be if it wasn't for drouths." And there you are. Such statements coming from a West Texan are sure to have great weight with people who have never been in West Texas and know absolutely nothing about the country and, quite naturally, the become prejudiced against what is in truth the finest country on earth. Because the word "drouth" conveys to their mental vision the picture of a perpetual condition of barrenness—a country where crop failures are the rule. Surely, every West Texan will resent the spread of such false ideas!

Therefore, let us eliminate the word "drouth" in speaking of the Plains Country. This is not a "drouth" country. So cut it out!—Lamesa Journal.

The term drouth is the result of pessimism. The idea was started through prejudice. It was conceived in ignorance, and born of prejudice, and has become a habit, by people, through its continual use, till even people who know better use it unadvisedly, and to the detriment of the great West. Rain statistics have proven that this is not a drouthy country. Crop statistics prove that this country will produce more, and the farmer will clear more money in this country than the average black land, so-called farming sections of the State, and the sooner drouth is stricken from the descriptive words of this country, the better it will be for all concerned. This word has kept many a poor fellow from coming to this great country, where he might have had a good home of his own, with land and cattle and a prosperous well fed, well clothed family about him, but on this account is still fighting boll weevils, grab grass and a multitude of other pests, and giving a landlord the biggest part of what he earns. In the language of the Journal, cut it out!

THE ELECTION OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES

On the first of April, which is Saturday there will be held an election for the selection of four members of the school board of the Lubbock Independent School District, and this should be an important matter to the patrons of the school and all those who are interested in the growth and development of the school in Lubbock. So far as the Avalanche is concerned we can see no special objection to any of the parties offered for the place, and we have no fight against any of them. They are all good friends of the Avalanche and we are sure they are interested in the schools and will be in favor of anything that is for the betterment of them. What we want to do if possible is to impress upon the voters of this district to vote, Saturday so that those who are elected will be chosen by a majority of the people, and not by a mere handful of voters. Those elected will feel better satisfied that the ticket elected was the choice of the people rather than just a few of the patrons of the school. So vote for the people you think will make the best trustees, and help to make the school better. We believe any or all of those who are on the ticket will be competent for the place, and trust that the office carries with

TIME ABOUT FAIR PLAY

It is time now to put your chickens up! You have been allowed to let them run at large over your neighbor's yard and garden spot all fall and winter, but now since the balmy days of spring have come, and people want to plant flowers and garden, it is time for you to put your chickens up, and give your neighbor a chance to grow flowers and raise a garden for the next few months. Time about is fair play, and you should be willing to do this. If you should unfortunately have a disposition that is so selfish and mean that you want everything your own way, and you persist in your chickens scratching up all your neighbor's efforts, it will not be considered an unchristian act if said neighbor uses the heads of your favorite pullet as a target, and save you the trouble of keeping her away from their flower beds and garden. In all sincerity, be neighborly, be fair. Give those who want to raise a garden and flowers a chance. There is a law to compel you to do this, but why should a fair-minded person wait for the law to force you to do that which is right and neighborly. We have had numbers of complaints come to our office, and people are wanting to get started on their gardens.

FEED YOURSELF FIRST

The Farm and Ranch Says: "The legislative bodies of the world, assisted by the advice of financial experts and noted economists, are trying to find a way out of the economical difficulties created by the war. In this work the farmer can have but little influence except in an indirect way by producing food and fibre for the world's demands. Farmers should not expect too much from the Government or from business interests. It is better to play safe and produce for yourself, your family and your livestock first, and then if you can, a surplus for the market."

"Every farmer has an opportunity to live well even though party clothing in the family is scarce. If the food and feed for the family and the animals, or a large part thereof, is produced at home, the chances are that company clothes will be obtainable if desired."

ANIMAL HUSBANDRY BOYS RECEIVE CASH PRIZES

Superintendent M. M. Dupre, this week received from the Fort Worth Stock Show prize committee, two checks to be delivered to the two prize winners from the Lubbock school, who brought Lubbock to the front in the recent stock-judging contest, held in that city. One check was for $50, to Raymond Boyd who made the highest score of any individual in the contest, and $10 to Roy Davis, who won individual honors further down the line. It will be remembered that this team won first as a team, and one member won first in individual judges. This is quite a worthy distinction, and all of Lubbock is proud of the splendid showing this team made and the progress in a general way this department of the school is making.

CITY SECRETARY'S REPORT

In another part of this paper you will find the report of the Secretary of the City of Lubbock, giving a detailed statement of the financial condition of the City of Lubbock. This report deserves the close reading and study of the voters of this city. Many reports have been boosted out through town about various things that have alleged to have been done, but this report will serve to furnish authentic information regarding the finances of the city. You will be called upon to vote in the election of City officers next Tuesday, April 4th, and you should be prepared to vote. The most important thing is to have competent business men in charge of the City business, as it is one of the largest business concerns in the city and affects more people.

The seriousness of the condition of our schools was shown in the report made by the State Inspector, who was here several weeks ago, and went through the schools here and made recommendations to the State Department of Education. This report was published in the Avalanche Tuesday, and should be an eye opener to the people who have not seriously considered the condition of the schools at this place. The Lubbock schools are in a very crowded condition. They are lacking in equipment, and cannot possibly do the best work under the existing conditions. On the 15th of next month, we will have an opportunity of improving this condition by voting bonds for the erection of a new high school building, and also for the erection of three ward building in this district in the rural portions of it. This election is now only a few days off, and we should keep the date in mind and vote. Too many staying at home who are favorable to the bonds might be the cause of its defeat. To lose this election would be a very fatal thing for Lubbock.

President Harding has been petitioned to pardon 150 draft evaders at Salisaw, Oklahoma, but the president merely referred the matter to the pardon board. The plea for pardon in each and all of these cases is based on ignorance of the law. This is a terrible indictment upon the intelligence of the people of this country. As much as was written and spoken regarding the draft laws and the raising of the army, certainly should have been sufficient to inform anyone, whether they could read or write what was expected of them during the wartimes. We are rather of the opinion that this is a hatched up excuse, to cover up the real reason—disloyalty to the government, and that they should remain in prison as punishment for disobedience to the laws of the State and their government, just the same as any other law-breaker.

The few try-out games on the fair ball grounds, brings out the necessity of getting the grounds in better shape. This should be done at once. One ball fan said it was more a matter of bravery to play on the Lubbock diamond than skill. This should be corrected.

Any qualified voter can vote in the election of school trustees, and for city officials. Yes, ye legal voters, get the benefit of your voting franchise, and let the vote be representative of the city, and not just a few people.

OUR "HIGHWAY MORALS" (?)

It is no secret that men of prominence in outstanding numbers, have proclaimed the fact that the morals on the highways about Amarillo, are most deplorable. Several months ago two young girls were found "walking in" following an automobile ride. This was just one of many such incidents, or—worse.

The following press dispatch out of Dallas under date of March 21, is of interest, bearing on the point in hand:

"Probe of the morals on highways around this city will be started Tuesday by the grand jury, it was announced today. Two boys and a girl who is only 16 years old will be called before the jury to testify. They were arrested by officers recently near S. M. U. It is charged that the two young men attempted to criminally assault the girl."

The Dallas grand jury has unquestionably been forced to take cognizance of the unhealthy condition of morals on the highways near that city. This leads to the question: Will the Potter county grand jury be able to get anywhere with an investigation into matters of a similar nature?

It has been said that Amarillo is not worse regarding such matters than are many other considerably sized communities, and perhaps even less consequential centers. But, this does not in any manner do away with the desirability of a bettered condition for this city and the surrounding territory. For unfortunately the evils of other communities do not produce virtues in this one.

If as a matter of fact there is a service which may be performed in support of a better state of morals for Amarillo, the grand jury may be relied upon to perform its full measure of labor. The personnel of the grand jury is such that none will question for a minute this assertion. The work of the present grand jury will be watched with keenest interest, in view of many statements which have been made publicly, as touching the low state of morals presumed to be prevailing on the highways near this city, and elsewhere, for that matter.—Amarillo News.

Of course, not every boy and girl that goes auto riding, do so with evil motives, and hundreds of them are perfectly innocent, but when it comes to the daughter being out on the public highway alone with some "gink" with the curtains down and the lights turned out, there is a good chance for your daughter to be talked about, should it be found out that she is in company with such a character, and this late at night auto riding is not calculated to make the very highest type of manhood or womanhood. So far as we know individually, we could not say that we have ever seen anything of this sort because we are seldom ever away from home after night—not that we are afraid of the dark, or afraid of being hi-jacked, tarred or feathered or anything of the kind, but just simply do not have any business out at that time, neither does your son and daughter, especially auto riding out of town, but we hear automobiles running most any time of the night, and pass our home, and we can hear the laughing and talking of young folks, in the wee hours of the night. We submit that this is not good for the physical, mental, or moral condition of the boys and girls, and the parents should have enough interest in them to at least try and prevent its wholesale practice.

SUCCESS TO HAYWOOD

"Big Bill" Haywood has been granted concessions in Russia to develop the mineral wealth of the Ural mountains, and has sent to the United States for an army of I. W. W.'s to do his work.

The American people do not hold any special grudge against Russia, but let us hope that the entire tribe of I. W. W.'s will follow its leader to that "land of opportunity," and stay there. Russia couldn't be made much worse than now, as a country in which to live, and if the big fugitive from American justice can take his tribe over there, it will relieve this country of a troublesome political and industrial cancer—Amarillo Tribune.

Yes, and while he is taking a bunch of the I. W. W.'s, we suggest that he include a bunch of sorry Democrats, a large number of worthless and we might say disloyal Republicans a car load or two of trouble-making Socialists, and finish out the consignment with a collection of grafters, bootleggers and white salve vendors. Make it a motley crowd and they will best suit that country, and "Big Bill" will feel more at home if he gets a bunch of his kit and kin together over there.

Terry County and the South Plains are not the only sections of the State that are enjoying the pleasures of sandstorms this year. The editor had letters from two brothers last week, one in Fort Worth and the other in Johnson county, and both reported very bad sandstorms on the 9th. We had a small snowstorm on that date and rather high winds, but nothing to compare with the Sunday before that date.—Terry County Herald.

Yes, they have sandstorms, and dust storms, and floods and douth, and cyclones, and many other things equally as bad if not worse than what we have in West Texas, but the people down in that country are not willing to believe it. They also have boll worms, and weevils, and mortgages, and chiggers, and ticks, and flees and chills and a great many other things that we do not have, still they will continue to live in that country, for fear they will starve to death out here, when as a matter of fact we have to ship them feed for their work animals and milk cows, and also send them money to educate their children, and their negroes' children, who never pretend to go to school. Come to West Texas, folks and get rid of a lot of those useless luxuries, get down to living at home, and enjoy life in true West Texas style.

OVER PROTEST OF CITIZENS

Post, Texas, March 28.—In spite of protests from the Woman's Culture Club, Parent-Teachers' Association, president of the school board, the churches and the best citizens of the town, the screen production of Clara Smith Hamon was shown at the local theatre last night to a small crowd.

Why is it that an institution in a town the size of Post will deliberately run a thing like that over the protest of the very best class of people in the city, just merely for a few dollars and cents, is something we cannot understand, and the proper spirit of town building and consideration for the moral uplift of the community is not to be found in a man who will do such a thing. Surely there are plenty of pictures to be had without bringing such scandal mongers into town and parade them before the young and rising generation. Indeed, some people sacrifice much for the gratification of their desire for money.

SOME OTHER DAY

By W. Brant Hughes.
Some other day I'll pay
That debt I owe.
And though it's due
And belongs to you
I'll let it go
Until some other day.

Some other day I'll say
The word that'll mend
The hurt I've done
By slaving idle.
And regain my friend
Some other day.

Some other day I'll pay
And seek my Lord.
I'll do his will,
My mission fulfill,
And believe his word
Some other day.

But some other day
Is far away.
With the debt unpaid.
My life may end;
Still lost, my friend,
And my prayer unsaid
Some certain day.

Cheerfulness
To begin the day with a song in the heart is already to have conquered half a day of toil. Pessimism, dolefulness, solemnity are not good form. A sense of humor is the sauce that savors the daily routine. It is an aid to perspective and a sure guide to proportion. A sense of humor betokens a good disposition, and a good disposition makes daily tasks pleasant and turns indifference to good will.—Marshall Field.

A strong fight is going to have to be waged against the use of cigarettes, if the rising generation is saved from wreck and ruin. The most stringent laws should be passed regulating the sale of cigarettes, and their use generally discouraged. It is no recommendation to a young man when he applies for a position that he is a habitual smoker of cigarettes.

We think that the School Boards throughout the country should see to it that no man or woman is employed to teach in the public schools who is addicted to the tobacco habit, especially the use of cigarettes.

Dancing schools may be alright for some folks, and if they want their children to take lessons, that's their business, we presume, but we do not believe that a person that dances is fit for a school teacher, and we do not believe that the school board has any right to place such people in charge of their children of the Lubbock schools or any where else.

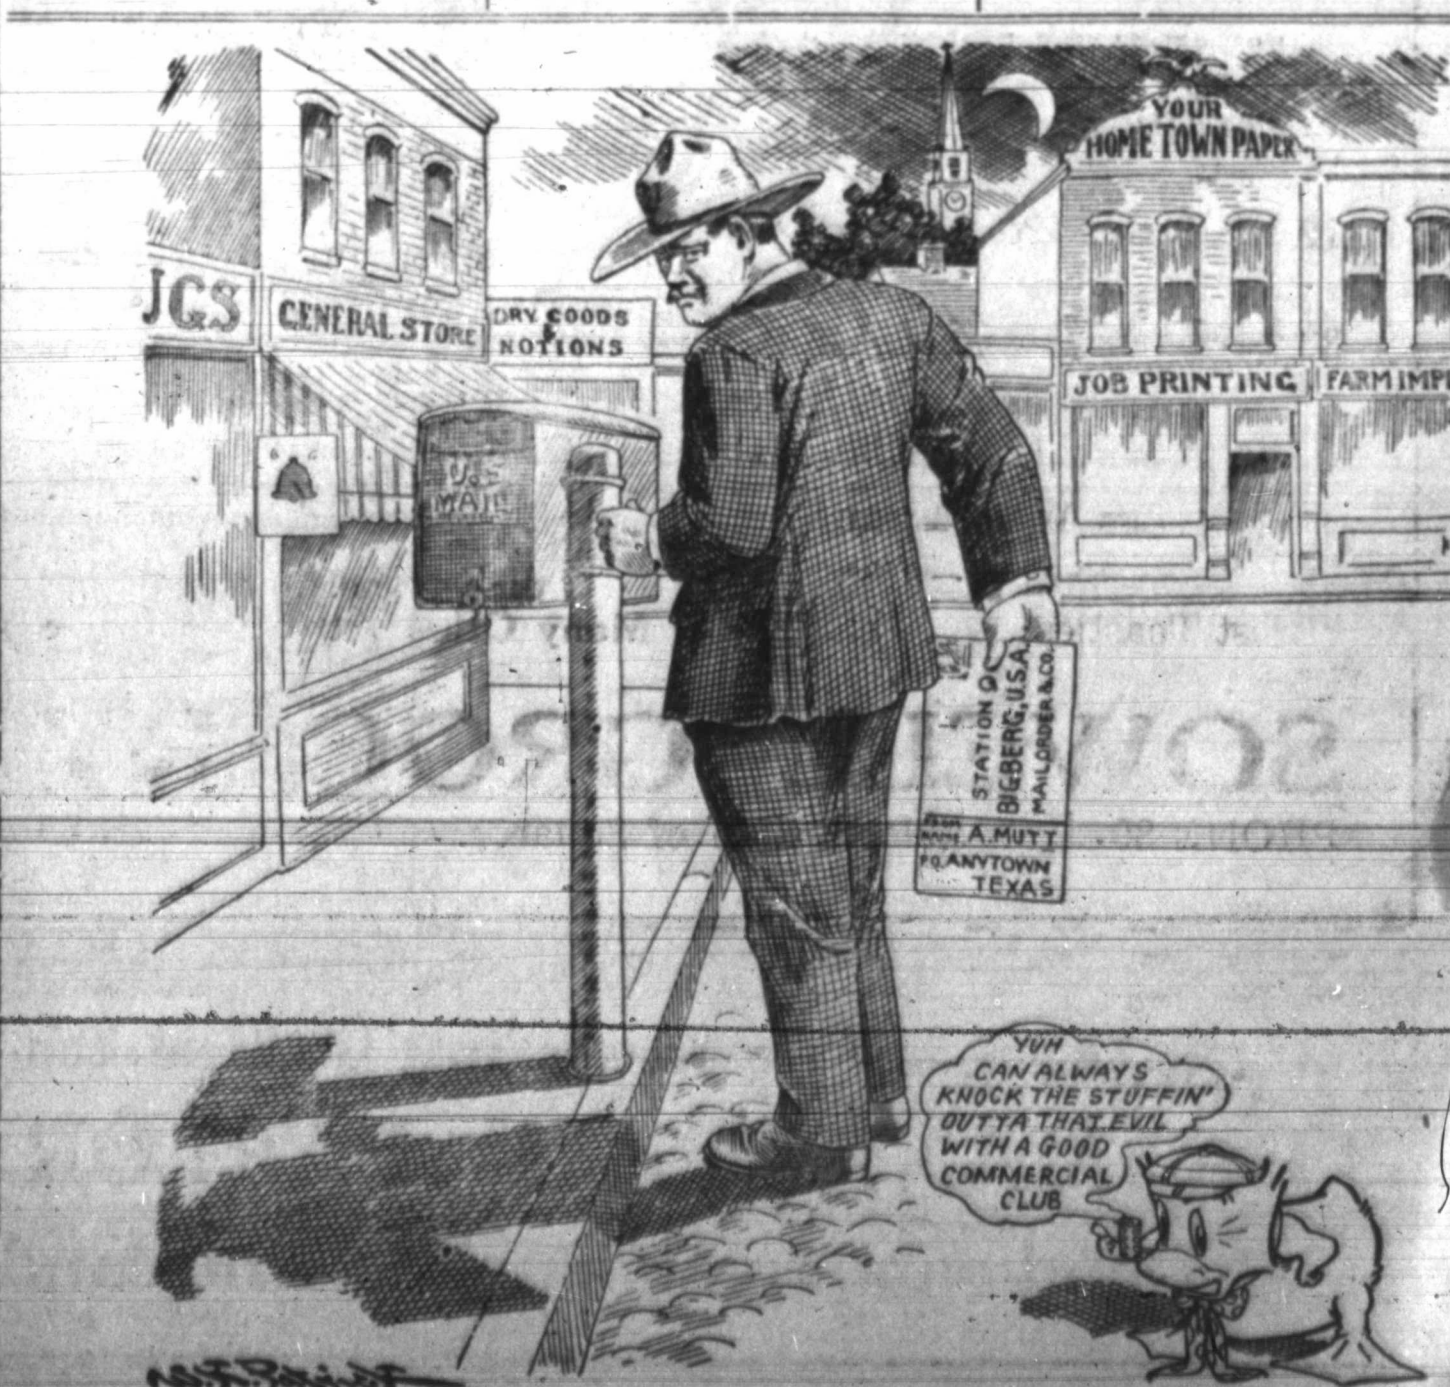

Card parties may not be hurtful to some folks, and possibly the majority of people never become gamblers by reason of having learned to play, but if one boy in Lubbock becomes a gambler, and possibly a murderer, as often they turn out all the excuses and argument in favor of the home playing will never offset that calamity. What if it was your boy that demon set his fangs in?

Out of the six thousand people living in Lubbock less than 1500 ever darken the doors of the church in the several Sunday Schools of this town. That's a terrible state of affairs.

Some folks have fits about Sunday picture shows and play golf half of the day.

Preachers from all parts of the country say it takes courage now to get married, that may be so, it always took that.

Come to Lubbock.

Seventy-Seven Klu Klux Klansmen Parade In Streets of Plainview Last Saturday Evening Carrying Banners

About 10 o'clock Saturday evening seventy-six masked men, wearing the official uniform of the Ku Klux Klan, paraded the streets of Plainview, walking up Broadway to the Wayland hotel, east one block to Ash street and thence north, turning east and north to the vacant lots near the old Knight place. The marchers carried a U. S. flag and a large cross, the cross on the right of the flag. They wore white robes extending to the ankle of most of the Klansmen and high, pointed caps, extending down to the shoulder, masking their faces.

Many of the marchers carried banners bearing such inscriptions as "We hear everything." "We are 100 per cent American." "We stand for the American flag only." "Here Yesterday, Today and Forever." "Is Society Safe for Your Daughters?" "Help Us Clean Up." "We Are for Separation of Church and State." "For Sanctity of Home and Purity of Womanhood." "America First, Last, and Always." "We Stand For the Law," and "Don't Follow Us." From about Seventh and Broadway, Sheriff J. C. Terry escorted the parade, turning the traffic north and the parade east at Ninth and Ash. A number of cars containing curious persons were driven to where the cars belonging to the paraders were parked. As the Klansmen approached their cars, several shots were fired and a fusillade of shots followed. No one was struck and it is the general opinion that the shots were fired to frighten away those who were gathered and were not members of the organization.

MEMORY

—All men die! Most men love their families and want to provide for them. They want to keep the respect of their families.

—When a man dies and a good lady with several fine children left penniless upon the mercy of a world that is most unkind, and the test of memory begins.

—It is but natural that your wife and children will respect the memory of you, after you are dead and that memory will be made more sweet if they are provided for.

WHAT YOUR SKIN NEEDS

Conscientious care must be used to keep the tiny pores and cells active, otherwise dangerous sluggishness is apt to result. Accumulations of oil, perspiration, dirt, rouge and powder, clog the pores and produce blackheads, pimples and other blemishes.

Powder, cold cream or rouge may conceal this condition, but a thorough cleansing every day with soap and water is the only cure. This will stimulate the skin to natural activity, and help it to do its own beautifying. Smoothness of texture and a natural rosy color will reward your efforts.

German Colonists May Locate In Texas Soon

El Paso, March 24.—Southwest Texas may be chosen as a colonization site by 2,000 families of German descent now living in Southern Russia, according to C. H. Gloeckler, agent of the colonists, who is looking over undeveloped land in this section.

The colonists are dissatisfied with the Soviet regime in Russia, he said. Their ancestors emigrated to Russia during the Napoleonic wars from Baden and Wurtemberg. Each family was given a plot of land, a plow and a team of horses by the Russian Government. They have been farmers since their emigration. About 10,000 persons are reported to be in the group that contemplate moving to America.

FLOYDADA PEOPLE VISITS FRIENDS IN LUBBOCK

Rev. J. Pat Horton, pastor of the 1st Baptist church of Floydada, J. E. Swinson, and wives, and Miss Lella Windsor of Floydada, were here Tuesday of this week. Some of the members of the party were here to receive treatment from one of our eye specialists and visiting with friends in Lubbock. Rev. Horton was formerly pastor of the 1st Baptist church of Post City, and has been at Floydada the past year, and while here met with many of his old friends from Post City who have recently moved to Lubbock.

They spent an hour at the Fair Park watching the "Longhorns" who are now in training, and were favorably impressed with Lubbock's showing in the West Texas League for the coming season. Battle and Hubbard, who are making a splendid showing in the try-out, are Floydada boys and made fine records last year with "Skinny Moore's Bunch," and we sincerely hope that Sled Allen, Manager of the Lubbock Longhorns, finds good material in these boys and puts them on regular.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS FROM LAMESA JOURNAL

Judge W. R. Spencer opened District Court here last Monday. His charge to the grand jury was an exceptionally strong and forceful one. The case of Scott Jordan, charged with burglarizing the Lamesa Tailor Shop was taken up Tuesday. Jordan was given a two years' suspended sentence. Another young man who attempted to elope with someone else's girl, was also given two years' suspended sentence. Several divorce cases were disposed of. The case growing out of a shortage found in the county funds at the close of Mr. Wooten's term as county treasurer, was taken up Wednesday and finished Thursday. Judgment for $11,900 was rendered against Mr. Wooten and his bondsmen. We understand the case will be appealed.

M. Shaw pulled off a big deal this week when he sold for J. Roderick Weaver 960 acres of land one and one-half miles north of Lamesa to the minor heirs of Mrs. Bobbie Terry of Stephenville. Consideration $33,600 cash.

The Statement of This Big Spring Resident Will Interest Our Readers

Our neighboring town, Big Spring, points the way in the words of one of its most respected residents.

G. D. Griffice, proprietor of blacksmith shop, Dannels St., Big Spring, Tex., says: "Bending over the anvil constantly, put my kidneys in bad shape. I had pains in my kidneys and if I bent for any length of time it was hard to straighten again, my back hurt so. There was a constant ache in my back, and I was also troubled with my kidneys acting too freely. Doan's Kidney Pills soon eased up the pain in my back and regulated my kidneys. Before long I was entirely cured and my work doesn't bother me now at all."

Congressman Lucian Parish of Henrietta Died In Hospital At Wichita Falls After Long Fight for Life Following Accident

Wichita Falls, Texas, March 27.—After a gallant fight against overwhelming odds, Congressman Lucian Walton Parrish, of Henrietta, candidate for the United States Senate, died at a local hospital at 9:50 o'clock tonight as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Roby on March 15.

Congressman Parrish was a candidate for the democratic nomination to the United States Senate and was on a campaign speaking tour when an automobile containing him and a companion went off a bridge, Congressman Parrish suffered a fractured jaw in addition to other injuries.

He was brought to a hospital here where attending physicians did not regard his condition as serious. For several days he showed marked improvement, but later his condition was complicated by cerebral meningitis. He then became gradually weaker until his death tonight.

History of Life

Dallas, March 1.—Mr. Parrish was a native of Grayson County, Texas, having been born at Van Alstyne, January 10, 1878. He acquired his education in the public schools of Joy, Texas, later attending the Bowie Public school and Denton State Normal, and finishing with a seven-year course at the University of Texas, taking the degrees of bachelor of arts, master of arts and bachelor of laws. He paid for his education by his own labor.

He was exceptionally active at the University serving as president of the students association, captain of the football and track teams, and participating in oratorical and debating activities. He was at one time champion hammer thrower of the South.

For ten years he was engaged in the practice of law at Henrietta, his home being at that place at the time of his death. He was especially active in the affairs of his city and county, serving as chairman of the democratic executive committee of lay county in 1917-18, chairman of the Henrietta school board and as president of the Henrietta Chamber of Commerce. He was a member of the Masonic, Knights of Pythias, Elks and Woodmen of the World fraternities.

First Office in 1918

Mr. Parrish married Miss Gladys Edwards of Henrietta, in 1912. Besides his widow, he is survived by two children, Mary and Lucian Parrish, Jr.

Prior to his election in the Sixty-Sixth Congress in 1918 Mr. Parrish never had public office. While a member of Congress he served on the committee on mines and mining and accounts. His Congressional district includes the following counties: Archer, Baylor, Clay, Cooke, Denton, Jack, Montague, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wise and Young.

Superintendent E. R. Haynes Urges Close Co-Operation Between Parents And the Teachers in School Work

Each child is the offspring of a hereditary tree from which all his possibilities come. Which of these shall develop depends upon his father and mother, on his brothers, and sisters, on the neighborhood, on the business, religious and social relations into which his home enters,—in short, upon all the influences affecting him, of which school is one.

Education is the purposive shaping of all these influences, so that the child develops into a good man, not only religiously, though I put that first, but also able to make a good living in some useful way; a good husband, father, citizen, able of all the claims made upon him to estimate justly the relative value interest, and so to lead an efficient life.

The three R's should only be a means toward the real end; that of teaching the fourth R—Right living. Of course the teacher ought not to have the largest part of this work to do, and for her share in it, she should have the heartiest co-operation of the parents.

No matter how hard she tries, and how conscientious she is, without support in the homes the few hours in the school with her influence will scarcely suffice to counteract the many hours of relaxed discipline outside. There are many hindrances to the work, but none greater perhaps than the ignorance and indifference of parents.

All parents do not have a proper conception of educational work. A majority do not regard it as a process of character building. They think the child should be crowded through books, the contents of which they would have jammed into his mind without regard to assimilation.

They are apt to insist on promotion without considering the acquiring strength of the child. They have learned to regard the mind as a receptacle to be filled, rather than an organ to be developed in all its faculties. They clamor for old-time methods with their waste of time and energy. They assume to know more about the work than the teacher who is devoting her life to it. They handicap her in her work and encumber her life with trials that do not justly belong to it. They unconsciously become stumbling blocks to their own children.

There are in every community people who look upon the teacher as the natural enemy of their children and vigorously uphold them in any misdemeanor or impudence, and listen raptly to the wildest misrepresentations. Though having repeatedly punished unmercifully their children for mischief and falsifying, they inconsistently deny the teacher the exercise of even the mildest forms of correction.

To listen to the tales of a child who has a supposed wrong is a great mistake and injustice to the teacher, for the very words of the teacher repeated by the child take on a different tone and meaning, and for a parent to criticize the teacher before a child, or allow the child to criticize the teacher is to teach him insubordination.

Then too, home conditions are responsible for much school disobedience. The child who is allowed to disregard his parents' commands will not be prompt to obey those of his teacher. Still harder to deal with are those who suffer from an unequal home treatment, being allowed to dawdle and disobey from time to time; and then be brought to task and treated with undue severity on some occasion when the parent is irritated.

When a mother says she has not the heart to correct her child; that a child's care-free years are so few that she would rather overlook the little faults and let the child have a "free" unhampered life, its sounds plausible and human. But one hard unavoidable truth remains that she cannot change.

Some day that child will be punished for what the mother now chooses to overlook. Then both mother and child will think the teacher heartless and cruel.

How much better for all concerned if the mother had exacted obedience and discipline, lovingly and intelligently when the faults were so small. No man has ever gone through the world with any success whose early training has not taught him that his will is not supreme.

We must all obey the laws of Nature; if we will have health; the laws of man if we will have liberty; the law of conscience if we will have peace.

There are parents who do not think it necessary for their children to attend school regularly, and who think punctuality is far from being an absolute necessity. There are those who wanted some other teacher employed and are trying their very best to make life as nearly unbearable for the present incumbent as they can, but there are those who stand at the teacher's back and uphold her through thick and thin.

This latter class are those who believe children should be seen and not heard at all times, who believe in having, not only the respect, but also the love and confidence of their children, who see that their children keep good company and are at home after night-fall, who know how lessons have been learned and recited at school through daily interest in school work, who discourage tale-bearing with its fangs of exaggeration, and who strive in every way to aid instead of to multiply the cares of the instructor.

Perhaps you may think that I take the teacher's view of the question entirely, and am insisting too much upon the co-operation of the parents with the teacher, but my experience as a teacher has taught me to believe that the fault, if there be any, lies with the parents, and if they will only stand by the teacher in word and action, that teacher will not fail to do her part in the work of training the child.

However, the teachers should be reminded that the reputation of a school depends to a great extent upon the way in which the parents regard it, and their opinion is usually formed by the reports which the children carry home.

It is therefore important that nothing be said or done by the teacher which may be misconstrued by the public. If it be possible, and it ought to be possible, let each pupil feel that you are truly interested in him. In no other way can you gain such a hold on the pupil, or better arouse the parent's interest in the school.

When you meet a parent, if you can honestly do so, do not fail to speak pleasantly of the child. In this way you will gain the good-will of the parent and arouse the self-respect and ambition of the pupil, since he will regard himself as an object of interest to his teacher.

Do not fail to invite the parent to visit the school, and when they come make them feel at home, but do not make any change in your usual exercises. Your school is very sure to be successful if you arouse the parents' interest in your work.

"Show me that boy who nightly bows at mother's knee to pray: Who wears her golden precepts in his heart;

Who lays his hand in hers and seeks her counsel day by day; Whose path in life from hers lies not apart,

And thus his future I'll decree; His name in honor will climb high." Show me that youth whose good right arm encircles mother's form; Whose lips fear not to kiss her faded cheek;

Who lives for her, to shield her and protect her from all harm; Who comforts her when she is old and weak;

And in the coming years I see, A man for eternity.

Show me that man whose life is pure, that man who claims success; Show me that man who treads the ways of fame;

That man whose deeds adorn the name of truth and upright-ness; Whose soul knows not the tarnish blush of shame;

And in his glory thus arrayed Behold a man that mother made."

Paint Up, Brighten Up, Cheer Up--With Long-Bell Paint

Isn't it surprising how a little paint will brighten up an old building—and make it last much longer?

Ever notice how Dame Nature paints every thing she produces—Greens for Spring—Yellow, Gold and Brown for the Fall. This world would be a gloomy place without color.

We should gladden our dwellings and outbuildings with color as nature does all out-doors.

"SAVE THE SURFACE AND YOU SAVE ALL" That's true and important, for it means that PAINTING IS ECONOMY. Paint seals up the pores in lumber, shuts out the moisture, prevents decay and the building lasts twice as long when it's painted regularly.

You put yourself under no obligation by asking for our color card and estimate of the paint required. We handle paint of the best quality and will cheerfully figure the cost of your painting job.

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 27.—Heavy receipts in Chicago weakened both the cattle and hog market there and tended to cut down demand elsewhere. Here receipts were about the same as a week ago, though short of a year ago. Trade in cattle opened slowly with bids lower, and finally settled on a 15 to 25 cent decline. The hog market was steady to 15 cents lower, though late trade was fairly active. Sheep and lambs prices were fully steady.

Today's Receipts
Receipts today were 13,000 cattle, 16,000 hogs, and 9,000 sheep, compared with 13,000 cattle, 9,000 hogs, and 12,000 sheep a week ago, and 15,250 cattle, 15,375 hogs, and 12,000 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle
Trade in fat cattle opened slowly at sharply lower bids, but settled on a steady to 25 cents lower basis. Choice handy and light weight steers and heavy steers were about steady on shipping orders, but local killers were lower and the shipping margin between here and the lake market caused the decline here. Cows and heifers were steady to 15 cents lower. A number of good cows sold at $5.75 to $6.25, and heifers $6.00 to $7.25. Veal calves and bulls were steady.

Stockers and Feeders
Demand from feeders for fleshy steers for a short finish has decreased materially in the past ten days, and packers are taking most of that class. Thin steers, cows, and heifers are in active demand, mostly on grating accounts. Prices were quoted steady to 15 cents lower.

Hogs
Hog prices were steady to 15 cents lower, mostly 10 cents down. The greatest decline was on rough packing grades. Some of the choice light and medium weights were steady to shippers. The top price was $9.85 and bulk of sales $9.50 to $9.80. Pigs sold readily ton $9.50. The general weakness in the market was attributed to heavy receipts in Chicago with shipping demand small.

Sheep and Lambs
Ten double decks of Colorado lambs sold at $15.00. A number of clipped lambs brought $12.50 to $12.75, fall born Texas wethers $9.50, and fresh shorn Texas wethers $8.75. The general market was quoted steady. Demand was active.

Horses and Mules
Horse and mule receipts were 700. Opening trade in horses today promised a fair volume for the week. Indications are that prices will hold steady this week.

CALOMEL MAY TURN ON YOU NEXT TIME

Next Dose You Take May Salivate and Start World of Trouble

Calomel is mercury; quicksilver. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel. It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 85

Many Legislators Believe That It Will Finally Work Around to a Pension Proposition for World War Vets

Washington, March 26.—The prediction of Uncle Joe Cannon that the Government eventually will adopt a service pension for veterans of the World War finds support in responsible quarters.

Many legislators and executive officers believe that the hundreds of millions now being spent are just the beginning of the huge drafts to be made on the Treasury in years to come. A number of Senators, in fact, will oppose the pending soldier bonus bill in the belief that it opens the Federal pocketbook to expenditures like those which followed the Civil War, except on a vastly larger scale.

One of the highest officials of the Government recently said in private conversation that he expected to live to see appropriations on behalf of veterans exceeding a billion dollars yearly.

Billions
The soldier bonus bill, as passed by the House, would entail expenditures of more than $4,000,000,000 during the next twenty years. During the same period compensation, hospitalization, vocational training and insurancy claims, if continued in their present volume and rate of increase would cost in the neighborhood of $10,000,000,000.

That's $14,000,000,000 in twenty years without accounting for any pensions. Some idea of what pensions would entail may be gathered from a comparison with the payments made by the Government after other wars. Pensions on account of all wars, from 1790 down to 1921 total $6,089,536,537. Of this amount $5,749,355 went for the Civil War and more than 200,000 Civil War veterans and 218,000 widows are still on the pension rolls, fifty-six years after the struggle ended. In 1898 Civil War veterans received pensions numbered 745,822.

Those eligible for pensions as a result of the World War number about 4,800,000, while the total of those who served in the Civil War numbered but 2,213,000.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I have decided to make the race for the office of County Attorney of Lubbock County, and because of the fact that I am not a member of any club, clan or organization of any kind who would attend to the publicity matters for me, I deem it necessary that I give just a few words of information in regard to myself in order that the voters of this County may better arrive at their decisions as to how to cast their votes.

First: I wish to offer an apology to the political boss, if there be such a thing in this County, for not asking for his advice and opinion before entering the race.

Second: I feel that I should tell you something of myself and ask that you make some investigation of my character and reputation. If after you have satisfied yourself as to my life, character and ability, you can conscientiously cast your vote in my favor, do so, and it will be appreciated.

Since the age of sixteen I have been an orphan and without any means whatever with which to educate myself except that little portion of the will power which I inherited from my father and mother. God bless them, but by sweeping floors, making fires, doing barber work, clerking and doing numerous other things that I could get to do, I have managed to work my way through school and then by correspondence and Summer work I have done considerable work toward a degree. I have completed two correspondence courses in law from a reputable school of law since I have been teaching literary school. I am twenty nine years of age and have served ten terms in the school room. The first term I was the assistant. All the other terms I have been either the Principal or the Superintendent. My last two schools were at Idalou in Lubbock County.

I do not ask you to vote for me because of my qualifications as a singer, teacher or as a charitable gift (we do not need men in office because they are objects of charity; we need men who can and will carry out the law) but because I AM WHAT I AM, and because I promise you faithful service and rigid prosecution of all the laws of our State and County.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILLICONE given regularly for two or three weeks will purify the blood, improve the digestion, and give the child a "vital strengthening" tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

On Tuesday evening, on the local diamond, the High School took a fast and snappy game from the Methodist Sunday School Club by a score of eight to seven.

The game was featured by errors on both sides, but more especially by the Sunday School Club, which seems to be their mainstay, however, they are working somewhat against difficulties, as they have very little time for workouts.

Hard slugging was the spectacular feature of the game, as both teams seem to have very little respect for the "Apple" in that capacity, and a good game was enjoyed by the small crowd gathered for the exhibition.

Clovis took the first half of a two-game pre-season exhibition series on the local diamond Wednesday afternoon.

The batteries were evenly matched, neither seeming to have much of an edge over the other, however, hitting was engaged in freely by both teams. Three-baggers dotted the game throughout from both sides of the ring, interspersed with many two-baggers and singles.

The spectacular event of the game was the homerun driven to deep center in the last half of the eighth frame by Langford, scoring King ahead of him, tying the score, but the Longhorns were unable to make further gains the rest of the game.

The tie was broken in the first half of the seventh, when Schmidt walked a man with the bases full, thus forcing the winning run across the plate.

The plays by innings as follows: Clovis hitting first.

1st Inning: Hall bingled first ball pitched for a three-bagger, Wilburn singled, scoring Hall; Tucker out at first by pitcher; Holloway struck out; Curry struck out.

10th Inning: Schmidt relieving Green on the mound for Lubbock. Shaw out, pitcher to first; Boyle flew out to King; Hall out, short to first.

Brown took first on shortstop's error; Langford hit into double out; Gober flew out to right.

11th Inning: Wilburn singled; Tucker walked, advancing Wilburn; Holloway struck out; Curry struck out; Rowe flew out to deep center, and on account of King's quick return, Wilburn was unable to score from third, filling the bases; Schmidt unable to locate the plate, walked a man, forcing a man across the plate for the winning run; Shaw flew out to Langford.

Battle out second to first; Allen out on pop-up to third; Schmidt walked; Speegle singled; Goodlet out, infield fly to short.

12th Inning: Wolf relieving Boyle on the mound for Clovis. Wolfe flew out to third; Hall out, pitcher to first; Wilburn walked; Tucker struck out.

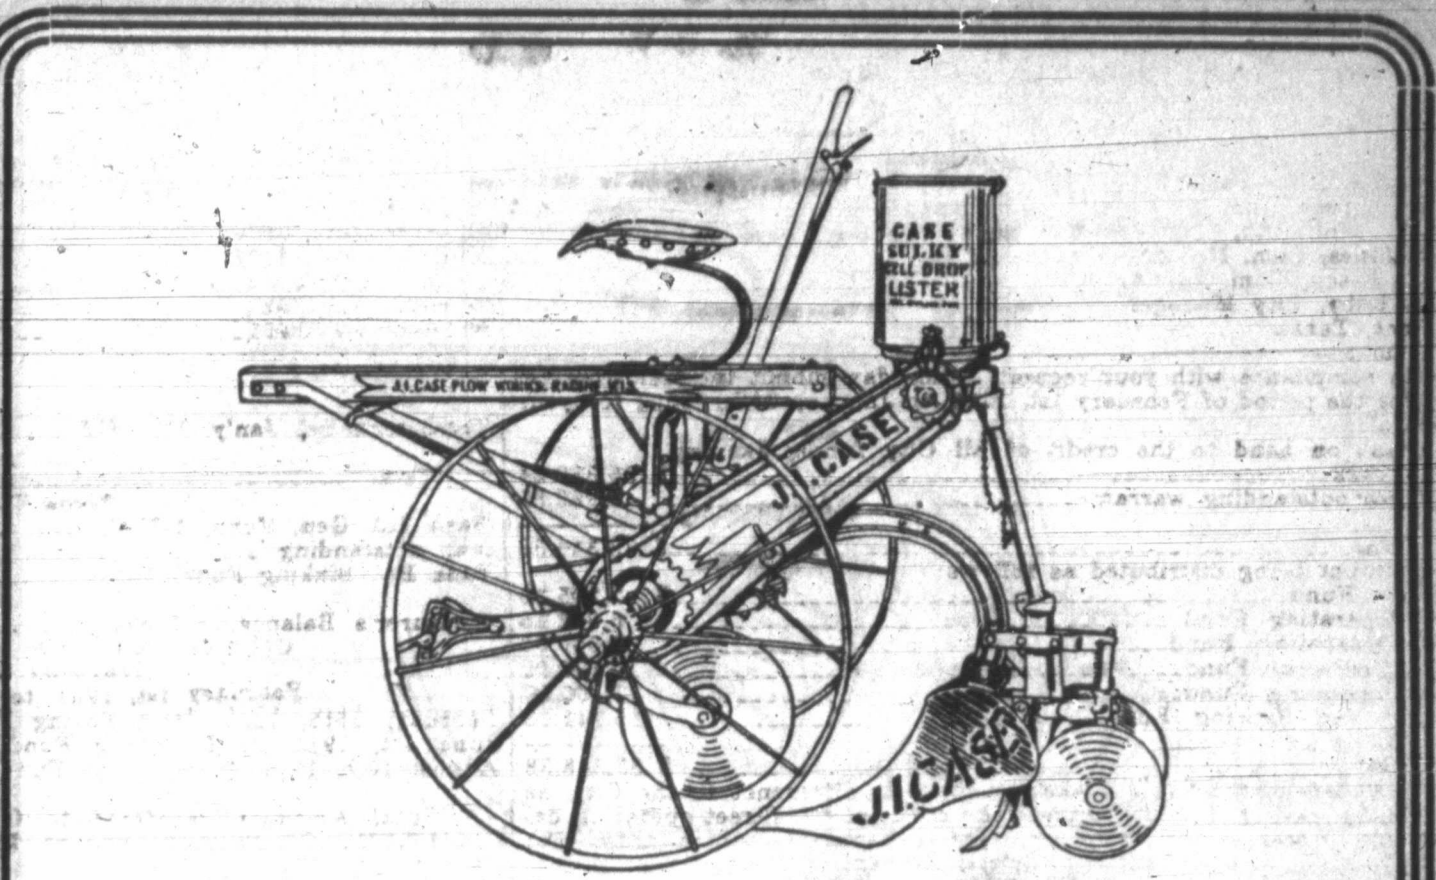

King doubled; Brown out second to first; Langford hit down first base line for home-run, but hit foul by about a foot, the next pitched ball he drove over center for a home-run, scoring King ahead of him; Gober out, pitcher to first; Battle out, short to first.

13th Inning: Warren relieving Wolfe on the mound for Clovis. Holloway takes first on Speegle's error; Curry to first on Goodlet's error, advancing Holloway; Lee, pinch hitter for Rowe, flew out to King; Bupp took first on fielder's choice, forcing Curry out at second; Shaw singled, scoring Holloway; Warren, hitting for Wolf, out third to first.

ONE FOR THREE MONTHS

Dr. Council, the pioneer Chiropractor of the Plains, left Wednesday for Chicago, Ill. to take three months' special training in his professional work. He left Doctor Jennie G. Romabacher in charge of all of his offices and business. Dr. Jennie is a three year graduate of the National Chiropractic College of Chicago and holds a license from the Illinois State Medical Board and also a license from the New Mexico State Chiropractic Board. She has also had eleven years practical experience as a Chiropractor.

Doctor Jennie is well known on the Plains, having been with Dr. Council since last October when he "fired" all interior help.

Doctor Jennie will have other good help in the offices during my absence, and I feel safe in leaving my business in her charge.

Thanking you all for the splendid patronage that you have given me for the past four years and hoping to return July first better prepared than ever to serve you. Remember that we make calls to all parts of the Plains and that we are still located in the Burrus Bldg. Phone 540.

GEORGE W. FOSTER IN RACE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

Lubbock, Tex., March 30, 1922. To the Voters of Lubbock County, Texas.

I am hereby making my formal announcement as a candidate for County Judge of Lubbock County, subject to the Democratic Primary, July 22nd, 1922.

I have resided on the Plains for the last 23 years, eight years in Floyd County, fourteen years in Dawson and one year in Lubbock County. During this time I have taught school, stock-farmed and engaged in the mercantile business. I am at this time operating a garage in Lubbock.

I was elected County Judge and Ex-officio Superintendent of the schools of Dawson County, Texas, in 1912, 1914 and 1916, and I cheerfully sold it an investigation of my record there, both as to my qualifications and the enforcement of the law.

If the voters of the county believe me worthy and efficient, I solicit their votes and influence only upon my merit, and I assure you that if I am elected, I will serve you to the best of my ability, without fear or favor to anyone.

Yours respectfully,
 GEORGE W. FOSTER.

President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, Explains The Demands of the Mine Workers

Indianapolis, March 26.—President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America, has given his interpretation of the miners' demand for a six-hour day, five-day week, being a part of any new wage agreement affecting the soft coal industry. In a formal statement he said:

"There has been so much misunderstanding among the people as to the real meaning of the position of the United Mine Workers of America with regard to the proposed six-hour day and five-day week that I believe something should be said that would set the public right on the subject. It has been charged by coal operators that the miners are demanding more pay for less work. The principle of the shorter work day does not mean anything of the kind. They do not ask for the six-hour day as the maximum, but they do ask that they be given reasonable assurance that they will have reasonably steady employment six hours a day throughout the year.

"Under present conditions the miners work eight hours a day only a small part of the time each year. In 1921 they were employed only about 40 per cent of full time and were idle 60 per cent of the time. They were employed only an average of about 125 days in 1921, out of the 300 or more work days of the year. They cannot make a living for their families under such conditions. Last year they earned an average of approximately $700 per man.

"The bituminous mines of the country have a capacity of 700,000,000 to 800,000,000 tons a year. In normal times the demand is for approximately 500,000,000 tons a year. If the miners had reasonably steady employment they could and would easily produce in a six-hour day enough coal to fill every possible requirement. If it can be done in a six-hour day, why should miners be required to work eight hours a day only a part of the time?

"Many years ago miners were compelled to work ten, twelve or more hours a day, and when they made their fight for a shortening of the workday to eight hours they were met with the same kind of fight they are now facing in their request for a six-hour day. But they won, and the country has had all the coal it could use ever since.

"The six-hour day is not a scare-crow, nor is it a menace to the country, as some employers would have us believe. It is simply a humane principle."

DEAD LETTER CLERK FINDS INTERESTING PACKAGES

Chicago, March 24.—A postal clerk sorting dead letter parcels for the annual parcel post auction next month found a package labeled "knives and forks" mailed from Ireland to an unreadable Chicago destination.

Opening it to catalogue the contents he discovered the Irish tableware had been distilled and bottled. Two quarts of "cutlery," according to the official records were poured into the sewer.

The clerk tried a package labeled "cake." The white leinged exterior was beautiful to look at, but age had not improved its qualities. The cake was shoved aside, falling off the table. The fall shattered a quart of old rye "filling."

Beef Can Be Made Profitably From the Dry Land Crop

Feeds produced under dry farming conditions in northeastern New Mexico can be used in making satisfactory gains on steers according to the conclusions reached at the close of the steer feeding test at Tucumcari on March 4. The feeding of such feeds makes a market for much of their home grown feeds which have a comparatively low market value.

Thirty head of yearling steers were placed on feed November 12 and fed until March 2, a period of 110 days. They were divided into two lots of 15 each. Lot 1 was fed a ration of sorghum fodder, cottonseed meal and ground milo. Lot 2 was fed a ration of kafir silage, cow pea hay and ground milo. After placing a conservative value on the steers at the close of the experiment, Lot 1 made a profit per steer of $3.81 while Lot 2 made a profit of $3.39.

The Sorghum which was used as a roughage in one lot proved to be very palatable and nutritious, says Professor Lantow of the Agricultural College in discussing the results of the experiment. The cow pea hay used in the other lot to furnish both protein and the necessary roughage proved to be a very valuable leguminous feed which can be produced under dry farming conditions.

Approximately 100 farmers and stockmen were in attendance to observe the close of the experiment. Mr. John Hicks, the veteran cow man of Cuervo and Mr. O. S. Greaser of Obar were present and made short talks at the meeting. Some interesting crop data covering a period of years was presented by means of charts by President Kent of the Agricultural College. These charts showed very clearly the yields of the different varieties of feeds used in the experiment. One of the roughages that showed up especially well in yields produced was the Sorghum and as previously indicated, this also showed up well in the feeding test.—Mountainair Independent.

Chicago, March 18.—Mark T. McKee of Detroit, in an address here, in which he outlined a plan for a $10,000,000 home for motherless and fatherless children to be established by a benevolent society, presented some startling statistics relating to children.

"There are 25,000,000 children of school age in the United States," said McKee. "Six million never see the inside of a schoolroom. Ninety-three out of every 100 never get beyond the elementary grades.

Law and Order Are Very Essential And the "Good Citizen" Who Breaks Them, Personally Will Pay Ultimately

Coincident with the extension of laws to control many phases of human existence and conduct formerly considered matters of personal concern there has grown up in this country a dangerous disregard of law which can only have one result—disaster to our institutions and our human society.

Disregarding, for the moment, the much debated question as to whether legislation of the type referred to is wise, let public attention be focused on the one paramount question of the day—if civilization is to survive—the maintenance of the orderly institutions of mankind.

The "good" citizen, fond of beverages now proscribed by law, enjoying games now under legal ban, self-indulgent in habits blacklisted by the state, taking the law into his own hands, feels that he is an exception to the rule and goes on as he has before, with a few precautions against any officer of the law who may commit the indiscretion of catching him.

Back in his head, somewhere, he has a conscience-saving notion that the various restrictive laws he is breaking were enacted for the benefit of those classes of the citizenship which are not possessed with the degree of education, refinement and resources with which he is blessed. "These laws are for the other fellow," he excuses. "For the fellow who cannot control himself, for the bum in the gutter. I know better. I can look out for myself."

Yet cold shivers run up and down his spine when he sees Russia red with bolshevism; when he reads of communistic and radical revolution in South Africa, and treason preaching in Kansas or Chicago or New York. He throws up his hat and cheers at Calvin Coolidge breaking the police strike in Boston with the slogan of "Law and Order." He contributes to this organization and that which speciously promises to work for 100 per cent Americanism. He calls up the editor of his favorite newspaper and chides him for running news of socialistic or communistic happenings, and declares that some of his writers are giving aid and comfort to those who would tear down the republic. He is afraid, with a nameless fear, that the masses—as he calls them—will break the self-imposed restraints of law and order and ruin him and his snug little world.

No, Mr. "Good" Citizen, with your private stock and the private bootlegger you so laughingly boast of, with your whipping party or special privilege, the danger to the nation lies no more in the other fellow than it does in you. Law and order in a democracy like our are self-imposed restraints for the common good. They are sacrifices by each citizen of some of the things he personally would like for the greater good of all. If some sacrifice and others do not we have no democracy. If some break law they break down civilization.

Not as a prudish, censorious, joy-killing newspaper, but as a journal devoted to the maintenance of those institutions we all hold dear, The Record urges those who are best fitted to lead to set the example for those who have less of training to guide them.

This is no moment to weaken the dike that holds back the roaring flood of disorder and bolshevism. The trickling stream that looks so little now will be the resistless torrent pouring through the breach tomorrow. It is law and order now or anarchy. And that goes for everyone.—Fort Worth Record.

EVERY FARMER SHOULD HAVE FLOCK OF SHEEP

N. S. McGee, for many years a business man of this city, but now farming near Saint Francis, was in Amarillo Saturday, attending to business matters. When asked concerning the wheat on his own and nearby farms, Mr. McGee said: "I have turned two hundred head of sheep on my wheat, and they are doing quite well. I think that I will have more profits from the wheat in this way, even if the sheep kill it out, than I would to harvest it. Even while this is true, I am impressed with the belief that the wheat will not be damaged by reason of this grazing."

"Every farmer in all this country should have a flock of sheep of some size, the exact number depending on the facilities for handling. There is money in sheep through the medium of the wool and likewise the flesh. The sheep may be grown more cheaply than any other animal on the farm."—Amarillo News.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You Are Hereby Commanded to summon John Ridge, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lubbock County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, Texas, on the second Monday in June, A. D. 1922, the same being the 12th day of June, A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 14th day of March, A. D. 1922, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1561, which Cora Ridge, is Plaintiff, and John Ridge, is Defendant, and said petition alleging that plaintiff has been an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, more than twelve months and has resided in Lubbock county, Texas, for more than six months next preceding the filing of this suit.

That on the 6th day of June, 1916, plaintiff was legally married to defendant in the state of Oklahoma and continued to live with him as his wife until October 2nd, 1919.

That plaintiff during the time she lived and cohabited with defendant, had one child by him, to-wit: A girl named Lorena, who is now four years old; during all of said time she conducted herself with propriety and, managed the household affairs of her husband with prudence and economy and treated him with kindness, but defendant within about three months after said marriage began to curse and abuse this plaintiff and continued to curse and abuse her, and threatened to kill her; numbers of times defendant beat and abused the above mentioned child and that on the 2nd day of October, 1919, defendant fell into such a rage, plaintiff became afraid of him and sought protection with a neighbor; after plaintiff went to said neighbors house defendant left the County and plaintiff has not seen or heard from him since, neither has he contribu-

Why Do Banks Insist

Upon their borrowers taking care of their notes promptly on their due date?

If you make an appointment with a friend and fail to keep the appointment, or advise your friend that it will be impossible, you have not kept your promise and quite likely you have disappointed your friend.

When you borrow money from a bank you give a note which is your promise to return the money at maturity. If you do not make payment as agreed and fail to advise your banker why you cannot, you have not kept your promise, and quite likely disappointed your banker friend.

The man who promptly meets his maturing obligations, or explains why he cannot, is not only showing a proper regard for his "Promise" but is building himself additional credit. One who does otherwise is destroying what credit he has.

April-Fool's Day.

April the fourth month of the year derives its name from a Latin word, meaning to open, and is thus very appropriate insofar as this is the month of opening buds. The first day of April is known as April Fool's Day, but the origin is not clear, though thought to be a French custom, but however, that may be it is just as well for the one who falls into a snare to take the matter goodnaturedly. In English speaking countries one who is opposed upon it is called an April fool; in France, an "April Fish," and in Scotland the term applied is "gawk". Chambers suggests that an appro-
