San Antonio Wins Knight Templar Drill Contest Cup

Fort Worth lost the loving cup in the Knights Templar drill competition at the Coliseum Thursday afternoon by less than one point, San Antonio shading her with 96.8

against 96-flat, according to the figures of the three regular army officers who judge the contest.

Waco and Dallas Commandery No. were at first announced as tied for third place, but a five-minute dual competition decided in favor of the Brazos River city. About 1,500 viewed the contest.

"It's all in love, and war," said Bob Spain, who drilled the Worth Commandery team, refusing flatly to "alibi."

His brilliant and complicated maneuvers with a full complement of twenty-four men, brought repeated cheers from the spectators, as did his effective use of the "to the rear" movement during the cross and triangle formations.

While the Alamo City team used only eighteen men and were content with the simpler maneuvers, it was admitted that they drilled cleanly, and with snap.

The Waco drill team had a whole bag full of tricks, in the way of formation. They early won and kept the support of the spectators, however, by the original and startling effects they created.

The team of Dallas Commandery No. 6 was first on the field, following the exhibition drill by the De Molay team. Neal Crawford, commanding them, is a major in the high school cadet corps, and showed some maneuvers that were both beautiful and difficult to execute. Music was rendered by the consolidated De Molay and Masonic Home bands, under the direction of Ed Armstrong.

The Waco drill team appeared second and that of Alancree Commandery, Dallas, third. Wichita Falls came fourth, Fort Worth, fifth, Vernon sixth and San Antonio last.

The judges were Maj. Sam-Inman McCants, First Infantry, Camp Travis; Capt. A. L. Tuttle, infantry officer assigned to duty at A. & M. College, and Capt. Calvin S. Richards, Fourth Field Artillery, Camp Stanley.

F. R. Newton commanded the winning San Antonio commandery, Bob Spain the Worth Commandery and F. L. Booth the Waco commandery, Col. Fred Logan commanded Dallas Commandery No. 8, which lost third place to Waco.

Drill time was in fifteen minute periods, with a cornetist from the band sounding the calls. Decision of the judges was quickly given in the case of the first two places, and shortly after in the case of third place.

MRS. LUCY A. FOSTER DIES HERE SATURDAY

Mrs. Lucy A. Foster, born Aug. 8th, 1838, in the state of Georgia, died April 21st, 1922, at the home of M. L. Waldrop, of this city.

Mrs. Foster is the mother of Mrs. Waldrop, and for the past three years has made her home here with her daughter. She had been a member of the Baptist Church for 72 years, and lived a consistent, consecrated christian life, and was much loved by her many friends here.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment following immediately at the Lubbock cemetery.

We extend our deepest sympathies in this sad hour.

Servant of God: Well done. Rest from thy loved employ. The battle's fought, the victory won. Enter thy Master's joy.

Mrs. Lucy Foster was born August the 8th, 1838, was called home April the 21st, 1922. When twelve years of age she acknowledged her Savior, and united with the Baptist church and for seventy-two years lived a consistent member of that church.

She leaves five children and one adopted daughter to cherish a devoted mother's memory. All her life her creed was fidelity to God and love of home and children, and with patient hands and tireless energy administered to the comfort of her loved ones, and her receipt as a Christian is a shining example of self-sacrifice and faithfulness.

The world is better for such a woman having lived, and the luster of her unyielding fidelity to right, sheds a halo around her; as a neighbor, she was generous, and no needy one ever left her door without a word of cheer, or empty hands.

For weeks her life hung in the balance and every hour, every moment, of the time was watched with tenderest care by the bereaved family. Yet the thin thread of life was at last broken and the spirit returned to the God who gave it. Such bereavement is hard to bear and words of sympathy from earthly friends offer little consolation, yet there is one whose tender sympathy can soothe the troubled soul and whose balm can heal the wounds and the broken heart and to his boundless love and mercy we would point the grief-stricken family.

The remains were laid to rest in the Lubbock cemetery. But not forever in the tomb where thou art laid thy kindred will find room a few more days, a few short years of pain, and one by one will come to thee again.

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE LAMESA REPORTER

On last Friday while George Shumake and S. E. Shipp were driving some horses, they separated, each taking a different course, and later Mr. Shumake noticed Mr. Shipp's horse without a rider and went to look for him and found his horse had stepped into a dog hole and Mr. Shipp lay dead on the ground with his skull crushed. Mr. Shumake at once summoned aid but nothing could be done. The body was brought to the Guin Undertaking establishment and from there to the residence in the country from whence it was buried Saturday morning. The accident occurred about eighteen miles northeast of town. Mr. Shipp was a member of the Baptist church and a good man and a good citizen and our people in general deplore his sad death. To the bereaved family and friends we extend our deepest sympathy.

Lamesa band is coming on at a good rate. An orchestra was first organized by Mr. and Mrs. Horner. Mrs. Horner is thoroughly educated in music and has taken the instruction of the boys and their advancement is astonishing for the time she has had them. The instruments for orchestra and band now consists of two violins, two clarinets, two saxophones, two trombones, one cornet, a base horn and a flute. There will be added some more instruments and drums and they are off for a real band. We believe that the town should encourage these folks every way possible. Every town needs a band and the Chamber of Commerce could spend money no better than to assist this band.

E. Trice, last week, sold his home place to Ollie Kendrick of Rotan, at $50.00 per acre cash, and bought the home of John L. Vaughn—here in town. We welcome Mr. Kendrick to Lamesa and Dadson County and had decided that if E. Trice had made any move like he intended leaving Lamesa, to have him locked up by the sheriff until we could trump up charges of some kind against him. He has left Dawson county the last time we are going to stand for it. We need him and he won't stay away. We had this article up last week, but when we made up the paper, some way side-tracked it.

Cap White, Charlie Atkinson, and L. M. Carns, all of Childress, were here the latter part of last week prospecting, and within the very near future they expect to buy in this section and locate.

Mrs. C. T. Jackson returned the latter part of the week from Oklahoma, where she had been for some time visiting.

BLANTON IS GRANTED LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Washington, April 19.—At his own request, the House of Representatives today granted Representative Thomas L. Blanton of Texas an indefinite leave of absence. The request was unanimously agreed to, according to the Congressional Record. Leaves of absence are granted upon the application of a member in person or by some one for him, who states the cause for which the leave is desired. The application tendered by Mr. Blanton read: "On account of needing rest after five years' continuous hard work."

Mr. Blanton has not disclosed how he will spend his indefinite leave or where he will go. According to the printing department, Mr. Blanton has ordered 100,000 copies of the speech which he made in the House when he read into the record himself letters of commendation from various sections of the country, and in which the writers of the letters sought to take the House of Representatives to task for attempting to expel him under the Mondell resolution.

The letters to Mr. Blanton are said to have been in response to a copy of the speech upon which the expulsion resolution was predicated, sent out by Mr. Blanton. Following Blanton's speech, during which the letters of commendation were read in the record, Representative Mondell took the floor and directed the attention of the House to the "indecent and offensive language" inserted into the record by Blanton, and which was made the basis of the expulsion resolution.

Two other members were also granted leave of absence at the same time action was taken on the request from Mr. Blanton. One was on account of a death in his family, and the other was on account of illness.

HUBBERS WALLOP NITROS FOR FIRST OF SEASON

Sled Allen's sluggers took the opening game of the season Thursday from the Ranger Nitros on the Ranger diamond, by a score of 11 to 6. With the bases full in the first frame, Langford laid one in deep outfield, and in the third, a walk, coupled with Gober's three-sacker drove Holden from the mound. Roberts went in and held the Hubbers for a time, but was unable to check them very materially. Errors, especially on the part of the Nitros, were responsible for the heavy lead of the visitors.

Schmidt led the Hubbers on the mound and allowed only 12 scattered hits, which were very ineffective.

Gober poled one for a homer, while the two four-sackers by Langford were responsible for five of the runs gained by the Hubbers. The box score:

HUBBERS TOOK THIRD GAME FROM NITROS AT RANGER IN GAME THERE SATURDAY

The Lubbock Hubbers took the third straight from the Ranger Nitros Saturday afternoon by a score of 6 to 4. The Hubbers played errorless ball, while the five piled up against the Nitros were very costly to them. King's heavy slugging, two singles and a triple, was responsible for four runs. Hubbard held the Nitros to five hits for the five innings he worked, when he was hit and forced to go out, being relieved by Swenson.

Hubbers Have New Junior Pres.

E. A. Morgan is this week walking the streets, or rather the air a little above the street, with his head high in the air above us common folks, on account of the arrival of his new boy on last Friday. Morgan says he is a great, husky lad, and worth his weight in gold. He wired the Lubbock Hubbers at Ranger, who were playing there that day that they must win in honor of the club, and no doubt this was the direct cause of the victory of the Hubbers on the second day of the series. Mother and babe are doing fine, and we extend heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Morgan in this happy hour.

LUBBOCK HI TOOK FOURTH STRAIGHT FROM PLAINVIEW HI HERE SATURDAY P. M.

Lubbock High took the fourth straight from Plainview High on the local diamond Saturday afternoon by a score of 6 to 5.

It was seemingly a pitchers duel from the beginning, but at all times of the fracas, Woolridge seemed to have the upper hand retiring the men in order through the fourth inning, when he loosened up slightly, and allowed them to get on, with the exception of the third stanza, when the visitors ran in one on an error.

Lubbock Hi Winners

Friday afternoon on the local park, the Lubbock High School, "Hard Nine" beat out Plainview High by the score of 10 to 9.

From the lead gained by the local boys in the first stanza, when they pushed across three runs, it looked as though it was going to be a rather one-sided affair, but the visitors tightened up and settled the fracas down to a real ball game. Hard slugging by them, coupled with the thirteen errors made by the locals gave the visitors a lead in the latter frames, but the Lubbock boys rallied in the eighth, and ran in five, giving them the winning run. Ater's marked one in the second for four a late.

AMARILLO HIGH WINS OVER NORTH FT. WORTH IN THEIR THREE GAMES

Amarillo lost the first of a three game series Friday afternoon to North Fort Worth on the Amarillo diamond, but won the two games played Saturday, entitling them to the championship of that district. The games were all hotly contested and close, the score on the first 4 to 3, the second 6 to 5, and the third 3 to 2.

Amarillo now claims the championship of the state, but as yet they have not met the local Hi team, and until they do and defeat them, they are not entitled to carry that honor. The local boys feel confident they can put one over on Amarillo, and if the present plans mature they will be here Thursday and Friday of this week with the locals, when the championship of the north and west will be decided. Watch for further notice of this game, and let's see the locals wallop the "Champs," by giving the ma good crowd and lots of "roots."

POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK

People everywhere are learning that it takes co-operation along all lines to render efficient service. The government is anxious to render more efficient service in the postal department. May 1-6 has been designated as improvement week and employees throughout the entire country are asked to do all in their power to render better service and to try to impress upon everyone the importance of closer co-operation.

Postmaster General Work issues the following statement:

"The postal service of the United States affects more people in this country either directly or indirectly than any other agency whether it be public or private. It was established and is maintained for the benefit and use of the people, by the people, and for the people. Our ideal postal service, therefore, is that service which discharges all of the functions of the postal establishment to the satisfaction of all the people all of the time. I believe that this accomplishment will be more nearly attained if every postal employee from the Postmaster General throughout the service will do all of his duty and do it all of his time. There is no unimportant person or part of our service. It is a total of human units and their co-operation is the key to its success. In its last analysis, postal duties are performed for our neighbors and friends and should be so regarded rather than as a hired service performed for an absentee employer. I pledge to the public my earnest purpose to this end and invite the whole-hearted efforts of all officers and employees accordingly."

We would not undertake to say that the people could improve the service in the Lubbock postoffice, and we are not unkind enough to say that the service is not what it might be. We are frank to say however, that we believe the postmaster and his employees are doing their best, and that they are efficient in their work, in every department of the office. The trouble is the Lubbock postoffice is not equipped to do the work that would serve the number of people that it is serving in the best possible manner. Lubbock has outgrown her schools, her postoffice, her municipal plants, and many other public enterprises, and the only thing that will give us the service that we should have, and the service the postmaster and his clerks would like to give, is new equipment and a more modern and new building, adequate to the needs of the town, and several additional clerks, city delivery, and a few more daily rural routes out from this point. It's your move, Uncle Sam. Lubbock is doing her part, and until you give us something to do with, we cannot keep up the pace you have set for us.

A disgraceful occurrence was witnessed on the courthouse lawn last week, during the school meet here, and school children were the characters involved. It would bring shame to the families connected with it, if they only knew, but these youngsters were away from home. It was not Lubbock boys and girls, but had the meet been in these young people's town it might have been Lubbock youngsters. The thing that we bring to your attention is the way we are letting our young folks drift. We are turning them loose, and letting them drift, and the devil is in his height of glory. It looks like this day and time, parents have quit trying to control their offspring, and they are allowed to run together in places where they should never go without the guardianship of older and more mature minds. In our minds there is entirely too much of this sending of pupils away from home to these school affairs without proper guardians and if the practice is continued it is sure to terminate in much grief. We do not know the names of the young folks involved in the above mentioned occurrence nor do we know where they were from, but we have an officer's statement to the effect that such things happened and we are merely throwing this out as a warning, and parents should take it seriously, and not as a mere passing occurrence. It is time for folks to wake up to the conditions that exist, and take a stand for the right, and get back to the old custom of controlling their children.

President Harding is not in favor of the Soldier Bonus Bill unless it carries with it some provision, or some means by which the money is to be raised to pay off with. President Harding is absolutely right in this matter. This thing of heaping accounts and bills, upon bills against the people with no means in sight to pay off is not good business. We believe the most important thing to do is to get business to going, get the products of the country back on a paying basis, and put all the people to work. Employment will do more to help the soldiers get back on their feet than all the bonuses in the world. If they should be paid a nation or two of cash they will squander the greater part of it in a few months, and business concerns would be taxed bloodless to raise the money. All the American soldier needs is employment, and they will make their own way. Of course those who were injured in the army, or from the effects of the army, or have contracted disease, should by all means be taken care of and cared for well.

A "PEPTIMIST"

An optimist is a man who believes that the seed he plants in the garden will grow and look as good as the pictures on the package.

A pessimist stands beneath the tree of prosperity and growls when the fruit falls on his head.

A "peptimist" is the happy medium between these two.

He doesn't believe with the optimist, equal to the picture on the package—that the seeds will produce something, but he does believe they will grow and bring some return for his labor.

Should the fruit from the tree of prosperity fall on his head, he rubs the bump and grabs the fruit. When the weather report says "fair and warmer" he believes it—and carries his umbrella.

Like the optimist, he sees the bright side of things and goes ahead, but he also sees the dark side and prepares to meet it.

And here lies his success—looking not alone on the dark side, but seeing both sides clearly.—Ex.

It is just one thing after another. Old calamity howler, and his associate, A. Tightwad, are going to have an awful time. In fact it is just going to be one nightmare after another in Lubbock. This old town is going to grow some. We are just now getting up steam, and the way we will go in a few months will astonish even the most optimistic. Our condition in matters of fire protection, is not exactly favorable according to reports. The re-rating is going to work a hardship on Lubbock folks if there is not quite a relief given in the way of additional water supply. A large percent of the new dwelling houses, as well as some of the business concerns are so far removed from fire plugs, that the insurance rates are almost sure to be raised, and the amount of increase will more than pay the cost of additional mains and extension of the water system in a few years at least. A bond issue to extend the water works system is necessary and the sooner this is put over the better it will be for everybody.

If you have not driven over the town in the past three months, you would be surprised at the amount of building that is going on. The residence section of the city is absolutely dotted with new buildings and the number would be surprising to the most optimistic fellow in the city. There is this conditions in connection with this, however, that is not favorable, and that is the fact that many of these homes are far removed from any protection from fire. The water mains are half a mile from some of them, and they are likewise away beyond the limits of the sewer system, and the electric lighting service. This fact is counting heavily on our re-rating of the fire insurance companies, and if something is not done, and that soon, to correct this condition the insurance rates will cost the property owners several thousand dollars every year, besides the awful conditions of being without fire fighting facilities within a reasonable distance from them.

Fatty Arbuckle was very much shocked when he learned that all his movie contracts had been cancelled. Fatty was probably no more guilty of the murder of that girl than the balance of the crowd that he was with, but it proved that there is a wonderful lot of wickedness where lot of the so-called popular pictures are made, and while we are confident that there are thousands of others in the movie business who are just as corrupt as Fatty, there is a time to call a halt, and this is just about as good a place to begin as anywhere, and Fatty can probably stand the shock, just as well as anyone else in the movie business. Let's have clean pictures, with good morals, and less of the suggestive things, and then may the business flourish and continue to grow.

A town without a program is advancing blindly, if at all. Lubbock should have a well thought out program, and get on the job for the accomplishment of the things most needed for the immediate needs of the community. As we have heretofore stated we are in great need of many things to bring the town up to the requirements of the people who reside here, but there is always certain things that are needed just a little worse than something else. The thing to do now is to select these things, and go after them to win. Lubbock must have better fire protection, or our insurance rate will be raised to an intolerable figure—a figure that will put most any kind of tax rate to flight.

Some of you merchants do not deserve a dollar's worth of business. You vote against the progress of the town, and then wonder why greater progress is not made. You do not tell the people about what you sell and then wonder why the mail order houses get all the business. That is the reason you hide your stock in the shelves, stand in your stores and look so blooming grouchy that if a person by chance should venture to approach your door, he would not have the courage to enter. Get the grouch off your face. Open up and advertise your business. Fight for your rights. Buck the mail order house, or the bankrupt court will get you sure.

Isn't it funny that man who thinks he is a business man will get up in the morning from an advertised mattress, shave with an advertised razor, take off advertised pajamas and put on advertised underwear, advertised hose, collar, tie, seat himself at the table and eat advertised breakfast foods, drink advertised coffee or substitute, put on an advertised hat, light an advertised cigar, go to his place of business and turn down advertising on the ground that advertising doesn't pay?

The camp grounds for tourists should be made very attractive in as much as it will be noticed by thousands of people who pass this way. They may not pass through Lubbock but once, but the impression they get of the town when they do pass will be scattered abroad, whether for good or for bad. Tourists remember only the places where conditions really attract their attention. If Lubbock's camp grounds are not attractive, they may have the wrong impression.

We believe that Lubbock should have the name carried on every car that belongs in this county, or this city at least. It would be a great advertisement for the town. Every car would speak for itself, and identify its relationship with the "Hub of the Plains."

Passage of the McNary Bill Now Thought Favorable

President Harding's approval of the McNary reclamation bill does not assure of its passage, but it gives it a powerful recommendation. The bill provides for the creation of a revolving fund of $350,000,000 for the development of western and southern reclamation and drainage projects.

Thus a permanent fund would be established so reclamation work could be carried on interruptedly. At present it is periodically handicapped by shortage of money. At the present time reclamation work depends on money derived from the sale and leasing of certain public lands, and from the return to the government of funds invested in completed projects. There is never enough at any time. Sometimes work on projects under way have to be curtailed for lack of money, and approved projects are postponed because there is no money available to start work on them.

The Rio Grande project has been delayed for lack of funds. It could be finished in comparatively short time if the money were available from some such reclamation treasury as the McNary bill proposes to establish.

The San Carlos project in Arizona has never been undertaken. The chief reason has been lack of money. Other projects came ahead of it for such allotments that were available.

If the Boulder canyon project of the Colorado river, the greatest reclamation work ever contemplated, is ever constructed, it will be by the aid of some such fund as this. It will never be built with few and uncertain millions. To build two, four, or six dams on the Colorado—depending on the size of the project as finally approved—and to provide for the development of millions of horsepower, a great fund constantly available will be essential.

The southwest's biggest period of development is in the future. Growth in wealth, population and production is still to be realized. The southwest realizes this, but no better than secretary of the interior, Fall, president Harding, the governors of the southwestern states, and the senators and representatives from these states.

It will take a strong organization to make possible reclamation development on a grand scale. The first step is the passage of the McNary bill. Congress should understand that the west is united for it. Southern states which have drainage problems should unite for it also. Both sections can depend on it that they will have an earnest champion in president Harding, ably seconded by secretary Fall.—El Paso Herald.

Harding Threatens To Veto Bonus Bill If Passed

Washington, April 19.—President Harding again served notice on the Senate today that means must be found for financing the soldiers' bonus or that he will veto the bill.

The unmistakable reaffirmation of the President's previous attitude toward proposed bonus legislation was conveyed by Senator Watson of Indiana, administration spokesman, after he conferred with the President at the White House. Watson suggested that there were two ways out of the tangled bonus situation which he described as "fraught with grave difficulties." That a revenue raising provision like the sales tax to provide money for the bonus be attached as a "rider" to the pending tariff bill if a bonus bill is to be passed by the Senate within the next three or four weeks, as a number of Senators are demanding. That final action on the bill be deferred until the end of June when Watson estimated that $4,000,000 in bonds issued on the basis of payments of the British debt to this country would be available for financing the bonds.

Women's Federated Clubs Will Meet In Plainview Thurs.

Plainview, Texas, April 20.—With the largest opening day attendance recorded this year at a district convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Club, the Seventh District opened its first annual meeting here today with 350 women present.

Representing fifty counties, the visitors were able to establish new attendance figures despite the fact that their district is the "baby district" in Texas, having been organized last November at Fort Worth. "Education" was the subject of an address given by H. W. Morelock of the West Texas State Normal of Canyon. "Texas has no definite program of education," Morelock declared as he told of the ills of the educational system in this State, "and it is the purpose of the normal colleges to outline the State educational policies."

Necessity for better trained and better educated instructors was stressed by the normal college speaker. Addresses of welcome were given by Mrs. Carl Goodman of Abernathy, president of the district; Mayor J. M. Waller of Plainview, President A. E. Boyd of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Nina McComan of Plainview and Mrs. C. C. P. Blanchard of Amarillo. Reports by Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner of Claude, district club extension chairman, were that twenty-five counties in the district now are represented by clubs that are members of the federation. "Seventeen new clubs have been formed in five counties since the creation of the Seventh District," she said, "and it is now our aim to have at least one club in every county by 1924."

State officers here attending the convention are Mrs. Lee Joseph of San Antonio, who is the State president; Mrs. R. B. Buchanan of Fort Worth, Mrs. Mark Henry of Crowell, Miss Elizabeth West of Austin, Mrs. E. Spell of Waco, and Mrs. W. C. Martin of Dallas.

About 150 delegates are the guests of the Plainview Federation of Women's Clubs and the Hall County Federation. Federation to meet at Clarendon, Plainview, April 21.—Clarendon was selected as the next place of meeting of the Seventh District Convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, in session here today. Quannah was also bidding for the annual meeting.

More than 200 women are in attendance, prominent Club women from all sections of the state including Mrs. Lee Joseph of San Antonio, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. The meetings of the Association were presided over by Mrs. Carl G. Goodman, of Abernathy, president of the Seventh District Association presided at the business sessions.

A feature of the meeting was the social evening last night at the Methodist Church, designated presidents' night, and presided over by Mrs. J. Frank Potts of Hereford, first vice president. Home management, and topics of current interest, to the exclusion of politics featured all sessions. "The attendance at the meeting surpasses all other district conventions thus far held in the state," Mrs. Joseph said in her address. The convention adjourned Friday afternoon.

Hundreds of thousands of people all over the country are now taking IRONIZED YEAST tablets for health, with results which in many cases are actually astonishing. For thin folks to gain five pounds or more on the very first package is not unusual. Complexions blotched with pimples, etc., are very often entirely cleared up within 10 to 14 days. As for increasing "pep" and energy, apparent "miracles" are reported by folks who were formerly run-down, weak, and lacking in physical and mental vigor.

FREE! Mail coupon below for Amazing Three Day Trial Treatment of IRONIZED YEAST. Watch the Results!

Here Is The Secret! Nature intended that you should have a well developed figure, with the clear skin, and rugged strength that goes with it. And if you are now thin and run-down it is because certain of Nature's laws have been disobeyed. Nature requires that you get a proper amount of vitamins and iron into your system. But these two essential elements are lacking in the modern diet. That is why so many of us are thin and run-down.

Yeast Best When Ironized The thing to do is to supply this lack by taking with each meal two tiny IRONIZED YEAST tablets which contain in highly concentrated form, a specially cultured yeast grown under the strictest supervision for medicinal purposes—a yeast unequalled for its richness in the essential Water Soluble B vitamins. In addition it contains the correct amount of the two other vitamins—Fat Soluble A and Water Soluble C—which are equally important to health. These three vitamins bring excellent results even if taken alone—but when taken with a proper amount of easily assimilated organic iron, as in IRONIZED YEAST, these results are secured often in just half the usual time!

Watch The Results! Note how IRONIZED YEAST immediately increases your appetite—how it enables you to get real joy out of every morsel of food you eat. See how quickly it drives away pimples, blackheads, etc., and how your newly acquired "pep" makes hand work or play a pleasure instead of a task. IRONIZED YEAST today! Pleasant to take—will not cause gas or in any way upset the stomach. Each IRONIZED YEAST tablet wrapped in airtight special directions for children. Go to your druggist or mail coupon today—NOW!

WARNING! Not all yeast will give the desired results. There are certain types of yeast which have absolutely no value medicinally. By insisting on the genuine IRONIZED YEAST, and refusing cheaper imitations or substitutes you can be sure that you are taking a vitamin tonic treatment which is unsurpassed in effectiveness, convenience and genuine health-building value.

State Schools Will Be Probed By Committees

Austin, Texas, April 21.—A definite program for looking into the affairs of the higher educational institutions of Texas was mapped out today by the committee created at the last legislative session to investigate the state's educational institutions. Such was done at an all-day meeting of the committee held at the capitol.

This committee was created by a resolution during the special session last summer when the educational appropriations bills were under fire by the retrenchers and anti-retrenchers. Today's meeting is their first since the members were appointed. The fundamentals of the higher educational institutions were divided and given to sub-committees to look into General control of the entire education system, special function of the higher educational institutions were the heads under which the work was divided.

Dr. O. H. Cooper, of Abilene, chairman of the committee, presided today. Only six of the nine members were present.

Pick 'Em Carefully

Mr. John D. Rockefeller recently addressed a class of young men on the subject of matrimony. He told them that the most important thing in a young man's life is to use great care in picking out a wife. But, in the first place, no young man should pick a wife. He should, according to our modern standards, pick a single woman. It is believed to be safer, if experts are not wrong. Most important, however, is the well-known fact that no young man ever picks a girl to be his wife. It is next to impossible. It used to be done in the old days when the man saw the woman he wanted and dragged her to his cave home by the hair.

It is done still among some of the uncivilized tribes of Africa, where the men still have the women terrorized.

But here in this year 1922, in these United States of America, does a young man pick the girl? No, indeed. He thinks he does, but he doesn't. The young lady picks him, and she picks him good, and when she has made up her mind that he is the young boob who is destined to be her meat ticket, he has no more chance of escape than a bunch of wax flowers under a glass globe in the parlor.

The young sap thinks he is doing the courting, and he is, in a way. He is doing it by proxy for the young lady. She directs the whole affair like a field marshal. She regulates the temperature, hot or cold. He proposes at the exact moment she plans upon. His language is his own, for, of course, she can't write the speech out and hand it to him, for that wouldn't look well, but the impulse is hers.

The grand old 'Come hither' used from the days of Cleopatra is the thing that makes husbands of us all.

So pick 'em carefully boys; pick 'em carefully. You might get the wrong party, the same as on a telephone.

Indoor Gardening

Spring means planting time, when almost every householder gets out his rusty hoe and tries his hand at raising something. It means work, lots of work, out in the backyard garden to raise even a fair crop of vegetables. There is much more pleasure, and a great deal less effort, in doing your gardening indoors. Here are a few simple directions which, if followed faithfully, will certainly show results one way or the other:

Plant your feet far apart when the landlord appears.

Disturbances may be raised in a small apartment but they require a great deal of attention and fruit is inclined to be pithy.

Coal cannot be raised from the seed. If it does not thrive in your furnace, try spraying with gasoline. The common or garden variety of spot makes a hardy trailing plant for the home. Plant it in the late fall and it will trail all over your best carpets and curtains.

Plumbing should be carefully nurtured during the winter months, as it is highly susceptible to low temperatures. The hot-and-cold blooming faucet is a great bathroom favorite.

The leaky roof is a hardy perennial. When crossed with a heavy snowstorm, it yields a heavy flow.

Rent is particularly hard to raise, but still it manages to crop up every month.

Let's Have Some Views

With all their energy in getting action pictures of current events, the movie news reel people have not yet succeeded in getting any pictures of a celebrated murder being done.

These murderers are surely bashful about publicity.

Consoling

Landlady (to jilted maiden) - Now don't you be downhearted, dearie. You'll get over it. Why look at me. I was jilted by three fellows and had two breach of promise cases, but bless you, I've lived to bury a couple of husbands.

Big League Prospects

April is the month of diamonds—that is, baseball diamonds. They're all at it, even the big leagues.

Although the season is not yet a month old, we are able to make a few predictions as to the outcome of the races in the big leagues, as follows:

Although there are eight clubs in each big league, only one club of each outfit will win a pennant.

The season will close with the usual world series and after that we will know who are champions of the "world," including the South Pole.

Babe Ruth will get a few home runs during the season.

Outside of these few predictions, it is not safe to venture further guesses as to what will happen.

Anyway, it's too hot for mental exertion.

An Objection

Sam—Why don't you laugh and grow fat?
Slim—And have the rest of the world laugh at me?

Our Baby

Our babe has come from God knows where,
Our hope, our joy, our pride to be;
His pink-toed feet and curly hair
Have won our ardent fealty.

Our life is his, our love his slave,
We'll live the years for him alone;
In joy free, in sorrow brave,
With tender care we'll guard our own.

SILAS CHAMBERS DIED SUDDENLY SATURDAY A. M.

Silas Chambers, age 57 years, 3 months and 5 days, died suddenly Saturday morning at the home of his brother in East Tahoka, and was laid to rest in the Tahoka cemetery Saturday afternoon.

"Uncle" Silas, as he was familiarly known by Lynn County citizens, was born in Scott County, Miss., near Hillsboro, January 10, 1835. He came to Texas shortly after the civil war, and was in Sibby's tour to Santa Fe and the recapture of Galveston. He was converted and joined the Baptist church during or shortly after the civil war, and was a regular attendant at all services up until the past few weeks.

Mr. Chambers came to Lynn county in 1903, and continued his residence here until his death. "Uncle" Silas was able to walk down town on Wednesday before his death Saturday. He was a familiar character in Tahoka and will be greatly missed by many citizens who are accustomed to seeing him daily on the streets. —Tahoka News.

CURE PATIENTS BY DIET OF GOAT MILK

El Paso, April 18.—El Paso is soon to have the first "goat milk diet sanatorium" in the United States, according to the announcement of Dr. G. W. Chapman, medical missionary and world traveler whose experiences include being captured by African cannibals. Dr. Chapman came to El Paso recently from Quincy, Illinois.

Negotiations for the purchase of a hospital site are in progress, the doctor said. It will be built to accommodate 25 patients, and additions will be made as the need arises.

"I propose," he said, "to cure every form of sickness that can be cured without the use of a knife. This will be done chiefly by a diet of goat's milk, fresh vegetables and fruit, proper exercises and daily lectures on spiritual and mental health.

Chicago, April 21.—Silas Evans, president of Ripon College, Ripon, Wisconsin, presented his objections to the educational views of some specialists like Henry Ford, Thomas Edison and William Jennings Bryan, at a meeting of the Presbyterian Union last night.

Congress Appropriates a Million Dollars for the Relief of the Needy; Terrible Damage By Flood Waters

Pine Bluff, Ark., April 21.—Telephone calls here from Lake Village, Arkansas, said the Mississippi River levee near there was weakening and showed signs of breaking, despite efforts of hundreds of workers, and residents were moving their household goods and effects into the second floors of buildings.

Arkansas City Levees Weakening.
Arkansas City, Ark., April 21.—Signs of weakness in the levees on the Mississippi side of the river between here and Greenville, Miss., developed last night according to reports and a hard fight to hold the levee is being conducted. Local levee officials who conducted an inspection reported that hundreds of men are at work raising the levees near Greenville, and that the levees on the Mississippi side are in more danger than on this side. The local situation was reported as very favorable.

Chairman Madden said the resolution made no drain upon the Federal Treasury, as it merely authorized the use at this time of part of the appropriation soon to be available, and would be deducted later from the bill's total.

Good headway has been made, he declared, in constructing levees so as to prevent flood disaster. "Without the work already accomplished the water now, he said, would be raging through the valley, causing great loss of life."

LOCAL NEWS FROM THE CROSBYTON REVIEW

C. H. Wilson, a well known citizen of this place, was found dead in bed Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ben Ellison in the south part of town. He expired about 9 o'clock Sunday night and death must have come some time in the early part of the night. A vial that had contained chloroform was found near the bed and he had evidently produced death by inhaling this deadly drug. An inquest was held by Justice of the Peace J. M. Mabe who gave a verdict that the deceased came to his death by inhaling chloroform with suicidal intent.

Rev. J. E. Cole who has so faithfully labored as pastor of the Baptist church at this place for the past three years, asked to be relieved of his charge and preached his farewell sermon to the congregation last Sunday at the 11 o'clock service, and he and family are moving this week to El Paso where they will reside. No preacher has ever lived in Crosbyton who made more friends than Bro. Cole, and all denominations alike join in wishing he and family the best of health and fortune in their new home.

A full train load of four-year-old white face steers from the Half Circle S Ranch were shipped from Crosbyton Wednesday to some place in Kansas, where they will be placed on pasture a while before going on the market. This trainload shipment consisted of 32 cars of as good beef steers as one would wish to see, and it reflects the increasing volume of livestock business at Crosbyton.

W. R. Ingram and A. J. Guthrie were the successful bidders for the U. S. mail line running from Midland to Lovington, N. M., and left Monday evening for the former place on business regarding same.

H. D. Chipley came in Monday from Lubbock after a two-week absence and reported he had been very busy selling Hockley county land.

Our young friend, J. Fred Cole was ordained as a Baptist minister at the Sunday night service at the Baptist church in the presence of a large congregation, Rev. J. M. Harder of Falls conducting the ceremonies.

The young minister is a son of Rev. J. B. Cole, and by religious training is well fitted for this work and his many friends are expecting much of him. However, he does not expect to enter actively in ministerial work until after pursuing a course of study, and will be engaged for a while in business at El Paso, for which place the family left yesterday.

$1,000,000 is Appropriated.
Washington, April 21.—One million dollars for control of flood waters of the Mississippi River, now at the highest stage in years, was made available immediately by a resolution rushed through the Senate and House today within an hour after the proposal made by Southern members had been approved by Secretary Weeks and Director Dewes of the budget.

In presenting the resolution, Chairman Madden of the Appropriations Committee explained that nearly $1,000,000 was carried in the pending army bill to be handled by the Mississippi River commission under the flood control. This fund would not be available until after July 1, but Madden declared an emergency existed and without immediate help there was danger of tremendous loss of life and property damage, for otherwise the flood waters might overrun the levees and extend to the valley.

Secretary Weeks in a letter to Congress, urging immediate consideration of the relief resolution, said the flood stage was extreme and that the water was higher at places than ever known before, that along many stretches it was above the levees.

The loss of life, should the levees be unable to stand the strain much longer and break, would be incalculable and would result in a great national disaster, Secretary Weeks

DEFICIT IN TREASURY MAY BRING NEW TAX

Washington, April 20.—Levying of additional taxes probably will be necessary to meet the deficit of more than $350,000,000 forecast for the fiscal year of 1923, by Secretary Mellon, it was said today at the Treasury.

Treasury officials discussing the expected deficit said that no consideration had yet been given to means of meeting the deficit but that it was apparent it would probably have to be raised by taxation. Whether the deficit would run as high as $500,000,000, as estimated by some Treasury officials, could not be accurately determined, it was said.

Officials asserted however, a considerable deficit was certain.

A verdict of suicide was returned this morning by Justice Fenlaw.

WILL MR. ROSS TELL US?

An article appeared in a recent issue of the "Lubbock Avalanche," signed by Mr. J. W. Ross and written in appreciation of Dr. Keenger and the Lubbock Sanitarium. That part is perfectly all right, we like to see credit given where credit is due, but Mr. Ross also stated that "a little twelve year old girl was brought to the sanitarium with a very bad case of appendicitis. She had been treated by some rubbing doctor till she was nearly dead." " " " this little girl is just one of many I have seen in the sanitarium." Now I would like to have Mr. Ross state the name of this little girl, or her parents and also the name of the "rubbing doctors" who had treated her. As "rubbing doctor" is the local term used to designate all druggies practitioners, no matter what system they use, it is rather indefinite.

We would also like to ask Mr. Ross who the "many others" were he saw, for while he does not say these "others" had been treated by "rubbing doctors," the connection implies it.

Now Mr. Ross come clean with us and tell us the names of these people and the "doctors" who nearly killed them.

I am the pioneer Chiropractor of the South Plains and in my years of practice have been able to save hundreds of people from the knife and the loss of the organs which God gave them and I do not like "slams" at my profession, whether they are aimed at me personally or not.
