KIWANIS CLUB ENTERTAINED THE ROTARIANS WITH LUNCHEON THU.

ABLE SPEAKERS FROM BOTH CLUBS MADE INTERESTING TALKS—DESIGNED TO PROMOTE FRIENDLINESS

LADIES OF BAPTIST CHURCH SERVED "FEED"

A. B. Spencer, President of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Spoke in Appreciation of the Work These Bodies are Doing for Lubbock and Promised News on Railroad Situation Soon

Just what elements that are necessary in the making of a town may not be thoroughly known to us, but we believe we saw it all in one house Thursday noon, when the Kiwanis Club, celebrating their defeat in baseball by the Rotary team, banqueted the winning club, at the Robinson Furniture store building.

President Hutchinson introduced the chairman of the day, E. R. Haynes, who immediately started things going, by introducing umpire of the game, "Red" Kuykendall, and asked him to explain the reason for the Kiwanians being defeated by the Rotarians in that eventful game, but owing to the fact that "Red" had made hair splitting decisions for both teams, and has somewhat fear of the slinging of table hardware, didn't explain the game in detail, and brought his "speech" to a close by stating that he was glad the game had been played and that the celebration was made in the manner it was.

Smylie Wilson, while a little off of "Red" welcomed the visitors in that long, drawn-out oratorical method, known only to the Kiwanis spell binders, which met with approval from his hearers.

J. A. Rix, better known as Rotary Jed, responded to the words of welcome, and inasmuch as he is about the best speaker the Rotarians have, got by with it in all the pomp and exactness with which he transacts his personal business affairs. Jed is alright, and the jokes he sprung on the "bunch" were appropriate and to the point.

A. B. Spencer, of Crosbyton, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, made a very interesting talk in regard to the Fort Worth-Plains railroad, and said it was his opinion that some concrete action would be taken toward establishing that road before many days. Many complimentary things were spoken in regard to the splendid spirit of co-operation that exists here, and assured his hearers that he was always glad to be in Lubbock and to associate with the people who have made the existence of this wonderful spirit possible.

The Kiwanis Club, while a young creature, has had the opportunity to introduce to the people of Lubbock some of the most alluring spell-binders in the city, and pleased those who were fortunate enough to hear the address of Judge G. W. Foster, on "Mutual Benefits to accrue from such meeting as this." After kidding "Red" about his crooked eye, and a crooked disposition, the Judge settled down to talking on the more serious part of the subject, bringing home to his hearers many facts relative to better living to make better towns, and said that so far as he is concerned Lubbock needed no citizen's whose conception of town loyalty was to live in a house here, pay taxes on a little property, and set back to see what the other fellow is going to do to enhance the value of that property. "What it takes to build a town is those elements of character that go to making a happy individual, whose conception of life is to be busy all the time doing something for the good of his neighbor," is about the way the Judge summed up the work of making Lubbock.

The same subject, from a different angle, was discussed by Rotarian W. S. Posey, who went beyond, even a Kiwanian's doubt, that the Rotary Club is well stocked with stump speakers of the ablest variety, who claimed the Judge had used up his "Thunder," but when he had gotten through with Kiwanian Kinch Carter and Smylie Wilson, and Rotarian James L. Dow it didn't look like anything had been left out, he romped on those boys from the time they landed in Lubbock until the doxology had been sung at that meeting, and from all accounts he was right about it for they offered no comeback whatever. Anyhow Walter Posey has learned the great lesson of "Service before self" and has never laid down on the job of serving the town of Lubbock in the most efficient manner possible. What he got on the boys about was the fact that when they all came to Lubbock there was plenty time for discussing everything from business to politics and used this as an illustration to drive home the fact that Lubbock is now a busy town, and as time for friendly arguments between the businessmen is forgotten in the rush of present day business demands, such meetings as the weekly luncheons of the clubs was necessary to keep alive the fire of friendship established and maintained throughout the days that have passed.

Miss Ida Lou Posey gave two beautiful, interesting readings, and never to be forgotten was the music furnished by Raleigh Brown and his orchestra.

The club members were highly pleased with these numbers, and Miss Posey has established a reputation as an ideal entertainer in Lubbock.

The Baptist Ladies Auxiliary served the delicious spread, and the ice cream was furnished by the Clover Leaf Creamery, with neatly printed cards laid at the side of each plate, bearing the following message: "Compliments of the Clover Leaf Creamery, Lubbock, Texas, in appreciation of your support in building a home industry." The creamery management, however, has not waited for the other fellow to develop that industry, but through the manufacture of pure, wholesome products has established a school in Lubbock to stay, welcomed and appreciated by every progressive citizen in Lubbock.

Lubbock Girls Participate In Fashion Show

Miss Blanche Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bacon, and Miss Frances Conley, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Conley, Jr., both of Lubbock, have been prominent in the social activities which attended the closing days of school at Ward-Belmont, Nashville, Tenn. They took part in the Fashion Show which was given by the students of the Domestic Arts and Science departments last Friday evening.

On Wednesday evening they attended the traditional all club dinner as members of the X. L. Club and in mid-May they participated in the May Day festivities which were observed according to the old English custom and which were witnessed by more than two thousand spectators.—Ward-Belmont School Notes.

The above was received at our office Thursday and we are glad to note that these young ladies have won such high honors in their school, yet, in all the enthusiasm with which this announcement was received, there was not a note of surprise in it for us, as these young ladies have taken a leading part in the social activities of Lubbock, and their absence was keenly felt in social centers, and the people of Lubbock welcome the close of their school with enthusiasm and gladness, knowing they will return to their home town soon. Both, however, are out of school at this time, Miss Conley is visiting in Roswell, N. M., and Bridgeport, Texas, and Miss Bacon is spending a short vacation visit with relatives and friends in Oklahoma.

The showing the young people of Lubbock have made in the various institutions of learning throughout the country reflects well upon their early training in the schools of Lubbock, as well as upon their abilities to grasp every opportunity with unwavering determination to come out winners in the end, and we are glad to know that such is the sturdy citizens of Lubbock—they are winners, every one of them, with few exceptions, and the fact that Lubbock is taking her place among the really big places of the State is not alone attributed to the fitness of the material possibilities surrounding the city, but more than anything else to the willingness, capabilities, and sturdiness of her people.

The above mentioned young ladies will be heartily welcomed on their return to Lubbock, and the Avalanche extends sincere appreciation of the courtesies shown us in having been furnished the above account to the Ward-Belmont School Note correspondent.

CHRISTIANS WILL HOLD MEETING IN AUDITORIUM

A. N. Julian, pastor of the First Christian Church of Lubbock, announced that a revival meeting will be conducted in the City Auditorium beginning Sunday, June 18th, and lasting for two weeks.

W. C. Wright, pastor of the church at Plainview, will do the preaching, and as he is favorably known throughout the Plains, his bid to be a religious feast from every viewpoint, as good singers will be in evidence during the meeting, and as there is already a spirit of revival in all the churches, it is evident that Mr. Julian has called this meeting at an opportune time, and it will in all probability be a great success.

It is time the mothers and fathers of this country take some interest in the welfare of their children, and the relations of their children to the church, and we are anxious for the summer meeting time to be in full sway.

J. C. Stanford was in town Wednesday from his farm in the Slide community, accompanied by his brother, F. L., of Williamson county, Texas.

Sterling P. Strong, Candidate for United States Senator From Texas Addressed Voters Here Wednesday

Aims and principles of the Ku Klux Klan were espoused; the Republicans were taken severely to task for the iniquitous provisions of their tax bill, and voters were warned that a concerted effort is being made in every state of the union to nullify the existing liquor laws, in an address delivered at the court house Wednesday night by Sterling P. Strong, Democratic candidate for United States senator. Mr. Strong is well-known to the people of West Texas and the Panhandle, and greeted many of his old friends before and after the meeting.

"In every campaign matters are dragged in as issues for political purposes," Mr. Strong said, "and this campaign is no exception. You people read in the papers some weeks ago of a commotion we had in Dallas, my home town. At that time Mount Crane and Mount Crane, and Mount Colquitt were in a hot war about to spew forth lava that would inundate the country for miles around. Some people, becoming alarmed, moved to higher ground for safety. But after the smoke had cleared away it was found that no lava had been belched forth, and it was only hot air, and had gone straight up, and hurt no one."

"Now there have always been organizations in this country, many of them secret organizations. And some of them have been composed of men who owe more allegiance to some foreign power than they do to these United States. They have never been in the majority at election time, but they have held the balance of power, and have voted with the party they were backing, electing our public officers from the president down. No man has ever contended that they have not a right to exist, so far as I know. But now comes an organization composed of native-born, Protestant Americans, who believe that they can take hold of the steering wheel and run this government better than those who owe their allegiance to some foreign power, and a howl goes up from one end of the country to the other. This organization of which I speak is the Ku Klux Klan, and it stands for the principles for which I have been fighting for the past twenty-five years—it stands for upholding the constitution and laws of our country; for white supremacy; and for our free public schools; the sanctity of our homes and families; our Christian religion. And many of these other organizations do not stand for these things. I am opposed to them in any form, and the Klan is opposed to mob law, and I declare to you that if there is no mob law in this country until it is brought about by native-born, Protestant Americans, then there will never be a reign of mob law in this country. I regret that this matter has been dragged into this campaign as an issue, but I believe that it has about been disposed of, and that we can now go forward and discuss the vital issues without further interruption."

Mr. Strong drew applause from his audience when he said he favored any legislation that would prevent foreign immigrants from entering the United States until he or she could speak, read and write the English language.

"There is an organized effort being made in every state of the union," Mr. Strong said, "and in every congressional district, to nullify or destroy our liquor laws, by electing congressmen and senators who will vote for the return of light wines and beer. This move is being made because the supreme court has ruled that congress has the power to say what percentage of alcohol shall be contained in our beverages, and you all know that if light wines and beer return, it will only be a crack in the door, and that the door would soon be wide open, and there would be established in this country a regime compared to which the old days of the saloon would be decent. The wets, of course are treating the matter lightly, and are saying very little about it. But that is all the more reason you should be on your guard."

Mr. Strong explained how the Republicans, when they gained control of the affairs of the federal reserve system, adopted tactics which resulted in a decline of prices all over the country, causing a loss of millions of dollars to the farmers and stock raisers.

"Under the Democratic administration member banks in the federal reserve system were told to loan money to the farmers and stock raisers so that they might hold their products for a good price, and this was done. Then when the Republicans came into power the federal reserve board told the member banks that money borrowed by the farmers in order to hold their wheat and cattle and cotton for better prices constituted speculation, and that this class of paper could not be carried. The banks were told to call in the loans, and the farmers were compelled to throw their products on the market at a sacrifice. Prices tumbled as a consequence, and the effect of the board's action is still being felt."

Mr. Strong declared that if elected he will use all the power the position of United States senator confers to compel the acceptance by the government of the offer made by Henry Ford to take over and operate the water power plant at Muscle Shoals, at Florence, Ala., for the benefit of the people. Big business, he said, knowing that Mr. Ford would manufacture products and sell them to the people at half what they are paying now, is responsible for the failure of the government to accept Mr. Ford's offer.

Mr. Strong pleaded for a house-cleaning in politics, and predicted this will come speedily now that the women have the ballot, as they are "born enemies to dirt."

He argued that religion has its place in politics, for if it were not so our religion would be placed in too narrow a channel. The church, he said, does not go into business when it teaches purity in commercial affairs, and it does not get into politics when it urges a purification of politics.

"There are men who claim to live cleaner lives than their fellow-men because they have nothing to do with politics," he said. "But I say that the man who makes politics corrupt is a coward, but no more so than the man who refuses to make politics clean. It is cowardly not to fight for what is right and decent."

Mr. Strong spoke Thursday afternoon at Snyder and Thursday night at Colorado City.

State Bankers Will Attend The Meeting at Austin

Austin, June 6.—Texas State bankers are responding readily to the call issued by Ed Hall, commissioner of insurance and banking, for the State bankers' conference which is to be held at Waco, Thursday and Friday, June 15-16, according to Commissioner Hall.

The conference, Commissioner Hall stated, is not for the purpose of organizing a separate State association, but he insists that the bank section of the association should be allotted ample time in which to consider all business of interest to the State bank system and the rendering of a progressive program.

Calling of this conference was inspired by the action of the association at the recent meeting held at Fort Worth in limiting the State bank section of the association only a few hours in which to discuss "important problems confronting the State bankers at this time," said Commissioner Hall.

Governor Neff has accepted an invitation to attend the conference and his constructive will be "Forward Looking of Constructive Future." Those, H. Loya of Dallas, has also accepted invitation to address the conference on "State Bank Laws and Guaranty Fund."

NEW GIN WILL BE BUILT AT BROWNFIELD

Brownfield, Texas, May 27.—Work has begun on a new gin plant for Brownfield. The West Texas Gin Company has operated a gin here for three seasons. This will give Brownfield two good plants.

ing made in every state of the union," Mr. Strong said, "and in every congressional district, to nullify or destroy our liquor laws, by electing congressmen and senators who will vote for the return of light wines and beer. ## TAHOKA TO PAVE CITY SQUARE AND STREETS

Tahoka, June 6.—Tahoka has just installed a 100-foot tower and tank with capacity of about 75,000 gallons of water with large main and fire plugs laid out erected in all parts of the city giving abundant water supply and fire protection.

The town has also just recently installed in addition to its old light plant a new electric plant modern and up to date in all of its appointments together with street lights on all main streets and in addition to this on June 3 the voters of this city turned out en masse and voted by an overwhelming majority to pave the square and a block each way from the square, there being only 57 votes against the paving.

Many new homes are being erected and a large two-story brick hotel will be built immediately. Also other large brick stores are now in progress of construction. Although it is midseason a building boom is now on in Tahoka, and Lynn County. People are coming here daily to locate their homes and build their own houses as there is not a vacant house in the city or county.

SENATE NOT TO GET BONUS BILL AT ONCE

Washington, June 5.—The soldier bonus bill will not be presented in the Senate for several days, it was said today at the office of Chairman McCumber of the Senate Finance Committee. Convinced that the legislation will lead to a long fight, some Republican leaders are strongly opposed to sidetracking the tariff for its consideration.

On the other hand, some proponents of the legislation are anxious for speedy action as the executive departments which will have charge of administration of the legislation has elected that it will take six months to get the machinery into operation.

The Cotton Crop Conditions Not at All Favorable

Dallas, June 6.—Though buffeted by torrential rains and harassed by swarms of boll-weevils, Old King Cotton will be in the running this year, according to figures obtained from the Texas Farm Bureau Federation here. Held back by unfavorable weather, from three weeks to a month, all over the state, the monarch of Texas, under the warm rays of the last few days, is fast overtaking the handicap.

From statistics, gathered from the entire state, it is estimated the crop will average around 50 per cent as compared with 71 per cent for the same date last year. Although figures for this year are smaller than those of the year previous, the acreage will show an increase from 8 to 10 per cent over 1921. Last year's acreage was considerably below normal.

Planting, due to the floods this year, is about 75 per cent completed. Considerable planting yet remains to be done, chiefly in the lowlands where the ravages of the flood waters were worst. However, with hot, dry weather for a month or so this work will proceed rapidly. Chopping is only from 40 to 50 per cent completed in South and Southwest Texas and from 20 to 25 per cent finished in the central portion of the state. Stands, while irregular in some localities, are, as a rule, fair to good and the plant is in healthy condition.

Progress has been made in cultivation, where the weather and the soil would permit, but there are many complaints of foul fields, caused mainly by weed and grass having grown up before farmers could plow after the rains.

Damage from boll weevils will be heavy this year, according to the number of reports from communities where the pest is already present.

The extent of weevil damage will be determined by the weather from now on, according to Farm Bureau officials. The delayed start of the crop with the resulting lateness in maturity, gives better opportunity for the damage of the weevil to be more serious than if the crop had gotten away to a normal start.

What is needed now, more than anything, is hot, dry weather to enable farmers to get into the fields to finish planting and cultivation. With favorable weather the lateness of the crop can be overcome to a certain extent and the condition of the crop will show a steady improvement.

Carlsbad Sheriff Slain by Escaped Tex. Convict Tues.

Carlsbad, N. M., June 5.—Saturday night at Hope, a small town 60 miles northwest of Carlsbad, Sheriff George Batton was killed and Deputy Stone Wilburn slightly injured in a gun battle between the officers and an escaped Texas convict named Bonilla, wanted at the penitentiary to finish serving a sentence of 12 years for murder.

Sheriff Batton and posse located the Mexican in a shack near Hope and, surrounding the house, demanded his surrender. Two women opened the door and invited the officers to enter, saying no one was in the shack but themselves. The women were ordered to light a lamp, which they did, and stepped outside. Batton and Wilburn entering, one by the north and one by the south door. Wilburn discovered the Mexican hiding behind a bureau, which had been drawn across one corner of the room. Wilburn fired, extinguishing the light and striking Bonilla in the side and coming out the back. Batton entered the door and fired five shots in the direction of the Mexican, all going high but in a space that could be covered by a hand. Batton was in the doorway, in the light of the moon, and one of Bonilla's shots entered his abdomen and killed him instantly. Wilburn was shot in the side, but the bullet was deflected by a rib and came out the back. Wilburn's last shot killed Bonilla, striking the jugular vein. The Mexican died instantly.

The bodies of the dead officer and Mexican were brought to Carlsbad, while Wilburn was rushed to Artesia for treatment.

Sheriff Batton was a popular officer, noted for his bravery, and his death is mourned by every citizen of Eddy county. He will be buried Tuesday at Carlsbad, by the Woodmen of the World.

Dr. W. E. Garnett, of A. & M. College, was in Lubbock Thursday, looking after the interest of his work of compiling data for the publication of a bulletin on the best examples of community organizations, the accomplishments of such organizations, and the value to the state of the work.

Dr. Garnett certainly found a nest of what he was looking for in Lubbock. We have more active agencies for the advancement of Lubbock and the rural districts comprising Lubbock's trade territory than any other town in West Texas, we sincerely believe, and the fact that all these organizations are functioning enables us to boast of their success, and that they, under directions of specialists in every line, are making a reputation for themselves and the Plains, makes us proud of their every principle, motive and aim.

Dr. Garnett expressed favorable impressions in his views of the Plains, and just to prove that Lubbock is recognized by others than ourselves, he said in most all the points in Texas he had visited he heard more and more of the organizations in Lubbock, and that when he finally reached our city and found that all the reports were true and even failed, in some instances, to cover the situation as it is, he was not surprised to find our people working so harmoniously for the advancement of their home town.

Such comment as Dr. Garnett has heard about Lubbock is a great magnetic force that ever draws the best people from everywhere to our midst, and as soon as they find themselves so enveloped with the spirit of go-get-it-ness that predominates here organizations, find ambitious, alert, industrious members to further their cause, and we are sure that when the proposed bulletin is ready for inspection, we will find Lubbock getting the advantage of the work her people are doing, with a nice lot of substantial advertising that will add just that much to the endless chain of advantages that are making Lubbock the greatest commercial and industrial center on the Plains.

The fact that the trade territory adjacent to Lubbock is comprised of some cultivated farms with thousands of acres of fine lands that are waiting development, is an indication of the needs of the times for greater development, and better means of accomplishing the work with maximum effectiveness on minimum cost.

We are glad to testify to the advantages to the various institutions of learning taking interest in this section. Only last Wednesday we were given a complete demonstration of the advantages of having the A. & M. College interested in the Plains, when, through the courtesy of the Animal Husbandry instructor of the high school, R. C. Mowery, we were taken to the homes of some of the students in Vocational Agriculture.

We found every one of them owners of fine herds of thoroughbred hogs, which are already proving a great means of money making, though the work was started only a few months ago. The clearest demonstration of what well directed efforts in this line will do, was shown on the Boyd Farm, where Raymond Boyd, state stock-judging champion, is putting the theories he has worked out in the class room, into actual practice, and has twenty-seven fine hogs to his credit, among which are four brood sows, one herd boar, and twenty-two spring pigs, which are all of the very highest type, and can be sold on the open market at a premium to those who might wish to start the business of hog raising.

Professor Mowery calls on the boys regularly, helping them in every way possible to solve the problems that come up in their work, and, with his help, every one of them has made a success of the business that will eclipse all achievements in that work of the old timers who thought that all there is to hog raising is to "pour the feed to them and let 'em go."

We look upon Dr. Garnett's visit to this section as the working out in a broadest sense than to learn them the secrets of helping one another to accomplish more for our people than anything else.

The fact that only a few years ago Vocational Agriculture was a matter of experiment stands out as bold emphasis of what can be accomplished in the future by hard work, and there is nothing which is designed to help the farmers in a broader sense than to learn them the secrets of helping one another to accomplish more for our people than anything else.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wiggins, and little daughter, Christell, of Crosbyton, Wyoming, are in Lubbock the guests of Mrs. Wiggins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dievel.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is

Santa Fe Does Not Contemplate Any Railroad Building in Texas During the Next Year, Says Gen. Mgr.

Dallas, June 4.—Representatives of the Cleburne Chamber of Commerce, who joined with the Dallas Chamber of Commerce in presenting a proposal to the Santa Fe Railroad that a line be constructed from Weatherford to Crosbyton, utilizing the present route from Dallas to Cleburne and from Cleburne to Weatherford, were given no encouragement when they interviewed G. F. Pettibone, general manager of the Santa Fe lines in Texas, yesterday in his private car here. Pettibone listened to the proposal and in an interview given to the Star-Telegram this afternoon he makes it clear that the officials of the Santa Fe had no plans for the construction of a railroad from the Plains to any Central Texas point which would justify their discussion, at the present time, proposed routes.

Pettibone's Statement.
The formal statement of Pettibone follows: "The interview with the Cleburne and Dallas representatives does not indicate, neither should it be taken as giving any assurance that the Santa Fe company will in the near future undertake additional construction through the Plains country. I have no information which would warrant the assumption that our company is intending to build at an early date. If, and when, the Santa Fe company decides upon building a railroad through the Plains country it seems to be it will then be time enough to consider the route which the road should take."

Pettibone has recently visited the Plains country, but he said he had not made any tour of the inland region. He refused to talk about the attitude the Santa Fe company would have toward a projected line. Neither he nor G. C. Merritt, his chief engineer, have any knowledge, he said, of any surveys that have been made north of Weatherford toward the Plains.

Are After Market.
W. S. Whaley, Cleburne banker, and one of the Cleburne business men who came to Dallas yesterday to talk with Pettibone, attended the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Plainview last week. While here he discussed the possibility of extending the Santa Fe's branch line, between Cleburne and Weatherford to different Plains cities. He got but little encouragement.

The Plains cities are after a market for hogs and wheat, and with Fort Worth the largest hog market and the largest primary wheat market in the Southwest, these cities were not easily convinced that a road to the south of Fort Worth would be of any great advantage.

Pettibone said that the addition to the Santa Fe depot in Fort Worth were status-quo, as outlined in recent statements he has made.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Treacherous Drug can not be Trusted and Next Dose may Start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel! It is mercury; quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

J. O. Smith, tile tickler, of the Lubbock Drug Company, was able to resume his work Tuesday after a short illness, and we are glad to report that at this time he is getting along fine and dandy.

SHERIFF'S NOTICE OF SCHOOL BOND ELECTION

State of Texas,
County of Lubbock.
Common School District No. 20
To The Resident Property Taxpaying Voters of Common School District No. 20.

Take Notice that an election will be held on the 27th day of June, 1922, within said district, in obedience to an order of the county judge of this county made on the 27th day of May, 1922, which is as follows:

On this the 27th day of May, 1922, there came on to be considered the petition of S. D. Pate and twenty-one other persons asking that an election be ordered upon the question of issuing bonds of said school district for the purpose of constructing and equipping a public free school building of brick or brick and tile material within said district; and

It appearing to the satisfaction of the county judge of said county that said petition is signed by at least twenty qualified property taxpaying voters of said district, and otherwise in conformity with law, he said judge is of the opinion that said petition should be granted, and said election as prayed for should be ordered:

Now, therefore, I, P. F. Brown, in my capacity as county judge of Lubbock County, Texas, do hereby order that an election be held on the 27th day of June, 1922, which is not less than thirty days from the date of this order, at the school building in said common school district No. 20 of this county as established by Act of the 35th Legislature of the State of Texas, 4th Called Session, H. B. No. 175, Chapter 27, Section 3, at which election, in accordance with said petition, the following proposition shall be submitted to the resident qualified property taxpaying voters of said school district for their action thereupon:

—Shall the Commissioners' Court of said county be authorized to issue bonds on the faith and credit of said common school district to the amount of $10,000.00, to become due and payable serially, $500.00 three years from their date and $500.00 each year thereafter up to and including the year 1940, and $1,000.00 each year thereafter during the years 1941 and 1942, both inclusive, and bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed 6 per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, for the purpose of constructing and equipping a public free school building of brick or brick and tile material in said district, and if there shall be annually levied and collected on all the taxable property in said school district for the current year and annually thereafter while said bonds, or any of them, are outstanding, a tax sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds and pay to the principal as it becomes due.

S. D. Pate is hereby appointed presiding officer for said election, and he shall select two judges and two clerks to assist him in holding the same, and he shall, within five days after said election has been held, make due return thereof to the commissioners' court of this county, as is required by law for holding a general election.

None but resident qualified property taxpaying voters of said common school district shall be allowed to vote at said election.

The ballots for said election shall have written or printed thereon the following:

"For the Issuance of the Bonds and the Levying of the Tax in Payment Thereof."

"Against the Issuance of the Bonds and the Levying of the Tax in Payment Thereof."

Each voter shall mark out with black ink or black pencil one of the above expressions, thus leaving the other as indicating his vote.

"PROSPECTS WERE NEVER BETTER," SAYS GIN MAN

W. T. Raybon, manager of the Fuller Gin Company, of Lubbock, returned last week from a trip over the trade territory of Lubbock, having spent several days visiting his friends and customers.

When asked as to what he thought of present conditions, Mr. Raybon declared it his opinion that the fall business that Lubbock will receive through increased crop acreage will surprise the most optimistic businessman in the city, and further stated that the farmers are all in better shape than people thought.

With hundreds of acres of new land planted to crops, and the splendid rains to make things boom on that land, it is certainly evident that something will happen here this fall, at harvest time, that will cause us all to forget the spring hail storms, and turn our thoughts again to stabilized business and the pursuit of happiness under a new era of prosperity for the Plains.

Mr. Raybon has been in Lubbock long enough to realize that the merchants here are going after the fall business well armed with square deals and attractive propositions for the producer, and that the association of the problems of the farmer and the business man will be a great factor in making Lubbock county known for its well to do people, big farms, fine stock and the general spirit of good fellowship that is so paramount here.

In the meantime, if you are interested in making your home in a city that is built upon the solid foundation of square business relationship and helpful friendliness between the farmer and business man, come to Lubbock.

Most Fatalities Due to Carelessness of the Individuals

The department of the traveling public has a greater influence on railway safety than is generally known, and the Safety Section of the American Railway Association in an appeal for the conservation of human life and limb gives some illuminating facts on the subject.

Of the 229 fatalities occurring in railway passenger travel during the year 1920, about two-thirds were cases in which the individual himself was in some way involved in the chain of circumstances. For example, 28 persons were killed by falling from coach steps, 18 by falling from moving trains, 64 by being struck or run over, and 10 met their death by deliberately jumping from trains while mentally deranged to escape penal servitude. More startling still is the fact that 64 passengers were killed and 1,299 injured in getting on or off moving and stationary trains.

Once seated inside a railway car the traveler is in about the safest place in the world, and it is generally his own acts in gaining or leaving such position that create any hazard. Notwithstanding the wonderful safety of passengers on the railways of the country, it is in the power of each of the billion travelers carried annually to make himself still more safe by being careful.

RADFORD GROCERYMEN VISIT LOCAL HOUSE

Saturday was "Radford Day" in Lubbock, as a host of the Radfordites, from their respective offices in several neighboring towns called on the local manager and his unmatchable crew of salesmen.

Under the close direction of C. B. Musgrove, the local Radford house has enjoyed splendid business within the past year, and after these representatives looked over the books they declared the Lubbock trade territory the best one in which a Radford house is located.

The force of the local house is: C. B. Musgrove, manager; W. E. (Tarzan) Lyle, E. H. Boulton and J. O. Haynes, salesmen. While the first two salesmen, Lyle and Boulton, look more like Mutt and Jeff than grocerymen, they are both heavyweights in the business, and the third man, Mr. Haynes, is noisy enough to make the three a winning team, which their books show. The visitors were: John Plummer, manager Amarillo house; A. J. Allison, manager Plainview house; H. C. Cabbaness, salesman, of the Plainview house, and C. O. Savage, salesmanager of the company.

BORDEN COUNTY CITIZENS ARE TRYING FOR RAILROAD

A railroad through Borden County is something that is very badly needed, and our Chamber of Commerce is putting forth its best efforts to secure a railroad. There are other things that the Chamber of Commerce could turn its attention to and do good service for the county. Among other things are good roads, they are always worth the money. The appearance of Gail could be very much improved by cutting the bushes and grading the streets, then the next in order will be a big 4th of July barbecue. While seeing that we get all these, keep a summer camp ground in mind and we'll get it. All things come to those who watch and wait and work while waiting.—Gail Gazette.

PROMOTION OF RAILROAD WEST WILL BE EASY MATTER

According to our best informed citizens the promotion of a short railroad west of Lubbock to the State line would be an easy matter for promotion this summer and fall. According to one of our citizens, $1 an acre bonus through the affected territory would easily build this line and it is presumed that such a bonus would be available.

According to L. T. Martin, secretary of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, he is in course of communication now with a well known railroad promoter and if the Santa Fe system does not voluntarily start the road west, it is freely predicted that the shore line will be built by promotion.

WHY GAMBLE?

No one knows what cotton will be worth at any date in the future. To raise a crop figuring that cotton will bring so much, is to often raise a crop at a loss. In our opinion one should try to raise a good crop with the least possible expense—that's what we've said before—then enjoy the fruits of such economy regardless of the market conditions.

Disease Is Fatal to Many Thousand Cattle in Texas

Houston, June 2.—Upwards of 10,000 head of cattle have died of the so-called "down-in-the-back" disease in the Gulf Coast country during the last two years, according to information received at southeastern division headquarters of the Texas Chamber of Commerce from cattlemen who have asked the state chamber to use its influences in assisting to stamp out the disease.

The disease which was first noticed among cattle at Cypress in Harris county about two years ago and has spread rapidly since that time, and is now found at many points in Harris and surrounding counties. Cattlemen of this region have made strenuous efforts to find a cure for the disease but little progress has been made.

The Texas Chamber of Commerce has addressed communications to the governor of Texas and to Texas senators and representatives in Congress urging that an experiment station be established and that a cure be effected for the malady.

MAKE YOUR FAIRS CLEAN.

About this time of the year the various fair associations are preparing premium lists, booking attractions and selling concessions. Selling concessions is an easy matter, if the committee in charge is only looking for easy money with which to help pay the expenses of the fair or exhibition this fall. If, on the other hand, members of the committee have a real honest desire to protect the patrons of the fair, the most of whom may be their neighbors and friends, as well as to furnish them with entertainment, they will scrutinize closely every proposition presented, and be guarded against the smooth talking individuals who so cheerfully offer the Association 20 per cent of their receipts.

There are State laws against gambling even though the game may be square and the players given a fifty-fifty chance. Poker games between friends are frequently raided and the participants hauled in before the court and fined, but let the gambling devices be in the form of doll racks, wheels of chance and various games installed in a street carnival or on the fair grounds, and both fair officials and officers of the law endorse them by permitting them to operate undisturbed and by accepting a percentage of the proceeds.

It is a well known fact that the games of chance operated on the fair grounds of the country are crooked. There isn't a square game among them. The wheels are either controlled by the operator, or else permanently fixed so that the player has less than one chance in a hundred of winning any object worth the dime he spends to play. It may be said that a large number of persons play the games with a full knowledge that they are due for a skinning on a small scale, but these are not the victims that the concession owner is looking for. They are merely an incident in his day's work. These smooth individuals, with their "Touts" or "Come-ons" working in the crowd, pick out the man or boy who visits town only at rare intervals, and who is out for the one big time of the year. They determine the amount of money he has in his pockets, and by gaining his confidence, fleece him of the entire amount. If they can't do it with the game they are openly playing, they usually find other means.

Fair Associations' officials who grant concessions to gamblers and fake shows may do so on the theory that the public is out for a good time and that they are fully aware of the chances they are taking, but this is only true of a certain proportion. Officials who knowingly sell concessions of this character are guilty of taking an unfair advantage of their patrons and participate in robbing them of their hard-earned money.—Farm and Ranch.

The Avalanche is of the opinion that the people in general would be much better off if the nasty, dirty carnivals, and vulgar shows were not brought to town during the fairs. There is always a lot of dirty, undesirable people with the carnivals. The one we had last year was represented as being a clean aggregation, and after it came how many of the stands and joints were closed up by the officers because of their violation of the State laws, for operating games of chance, etc., and then only about ten per cent of them were closed as should have been. And with all this, our high schools boys were placed down there to take tickets in order to pay some of the expenses of the school. It's a shame that the people of Lubbock cannot take better care of the needs of the school, and we believe that the management of the Fair Association should be very careful in getting a bunch of undesirable people here to entertain the folks during the fair.

NEW GAMBLING LAW SUGGESTED

As long as gamblers can pay their fines and escape publicity, they are going to continue to gamble. The laws of Texas should be changed to read about this way: "Anyone found guilty of gambling shall serve one week in the county jail for first offense, two weeks for the second offense, one month of the third, and one year for the fourth, and he shall pay his own board bill while in jail, and his name shall be posted in four of the most conspicuous places in the city, and also run in the local paper three issues, and the gambler shall pay for same at the regular advertising rates. And there shall be no suspended sentences, and no continued trials." This would stop the practice instantly, and for good measure, those who play cards in homes for the society column, for prizes, should be included under the head of gamblers and fined, this money to go to a fund to pay a kind motherly somebody to take care of the children of these card players while they are engaged in pulling society stunts, so that the little folks will not be pushed off on their neighbors or run wild on the streets and alleys while mothah is away.

The rains are coming nicely, just enough to keep things in fine growing condition. It looks like a great year for the farmers, and that means general prosperity to this whole section of the State.

RIVALRY JOIN HANDS

County lines on the South Plains are fast being removed, and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is having a great deal to do with it. The people of the South Plains are getting too big to let an imaginary line stop their forward movement; they are too broad to live in their own small ball-wick alone. To illustrate, in the recent issue of the Plains Agricultural Journal, published at Lubbock, the Lubbock and Plainview Chambers of Commerce carried a page ad jointly. Come to the South Plains.—Terry County Herald.

The time for littleness is passed, and the people of West Texas, are not much on that any way. Once in a great while a narrow minded fellow of small calibre gets in a community, and causes some trouble along this line, but as a rule the Plains country is a unit in the work of development, and while there is strong rivalry, there is enough common-sense mixed in with it to keep things going in good shape. The Plains country is a big scope of fertile soil and it is largely undeveloped, and there is room for every town and community to grow and expand without interfering with his neighbor in any way, and therefore the friendly feeling that exists between the various towns, along lines of development. The Plains of Texas invite you to come and join this band of empire builders.

HALE COUNTY TO HAVE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

Hale county is to have a superintendent of public instruction. The office was created automatically Saturday afternoon when a count of the recent school census was taken. It was found that there were 3004 students enrolled in the rural schools, the requirement for the superintendent's office being 3000 scholastics. Two prominent school women of the county are candidates for the office.

It was by the skin of their teeth that they got Hale county over the line. Lubbock crossed the line last year and had an increase this year of 828 scholastics. According to the report of Superintendent Haynes, we had 3785 scholastics last year and 4605 this year, which places us more than 1600 school children ahead of our sister county to the north. The progress of Lubbock has been rapid, and the strides she will make in the future will be more rapid than in the past.

Marbles, yes, marbles, those little round things that you thump. It's a most fascinating game. We have played till our thumb nail was worn to the quick and still played. It is attracting the attention of the boys all over the country just at this time, and is a good game. We admire a boy that is a good marble player—we enjoy seeing him take a shot at his opponent and hit him "kerplunk" and send him a winding far away from the cherished goal. There is a science in it, and a nice sociable game is worth while, and the parents of boys should encourage marble playing, but there is one feature of it that must be closely watched, and that is the gambling part of it. "Keeps" for instance. This is just as bad as a poker game, and the young Americans are liable to fall into this habit if they are not told of the evils of it. We understand that something like a dozen boys have been arrested already charged with playing keeps, and will have to appear before the grand jury, or some other august body and give an account for this violation of the law, as it is a violation of the gambling laws, and there is probability of others getting into the same trap, if they are not told about it, and given to understand that it is wrong.

These little fellows, we are confident, are innocent offenders, and merely need the instructions of their parents or guardians, which they are entitled to. Many people never talk to their children of the evil of things, and they have to learn of their wrong doings by actual experience which is sometimes not only disgraceful but disastrous, and the same might have been averted had the youngsters been given so parental advice and counsel.

One of our County Commissioners got after us last week because we said something about the bad roads in Lubbock county. He intimated that the roads in his precinct were in good shape, and we will admit that we had not been over any of his roads if they were good. We hear much complaint about the roads, and the condition of the highways in this county is attracting much attention of the tourists. A Lubbock man who was making his way back to Lubbock from the Southern part of the State said to the Avalanche man: "I boosted Lubbock all I could to the tourists wherever I saw them. Some were coming and some were going, and I found that Lubbock road conditions were advertised clear to the coast as being too bad to make a very favorable impression on anyone, and some of them said they would never go by the way of Lubbock again until the highways through the county were fixed." Lubbock as a town will lose much by the condition of the roads, and the county as a whole will suffer from point of development.

There are many new homes being built in Lubbock, and every one built is that much greater demand upon the water system of their city, and adds that much more to the responsibility of the fire department of this city. Both of these are inadequate to the needs, and the inadequacy of these important utilities, is a handicap to the town. We are of the opinion that Lubbock should at once take steps to increase both the water and sewer system and also the City light plant. These facilities must be kept up to the requirements of the town, and the money invested will be well spent.

Gov. Neff has come forward with the announcement that he will be a candidate, or rather is a candidate for re-election to the office of Governor of Texas. It was unnecessary for him to make this announcement, as we all knew he would want the office again. He says his past record is the best recommendation for his re-election. May be this is true.

Oh, Mr. Marvin Jones, can't you get us a new postoffice building? Fact of the business we should have a real federal building. One that will do justice to the demands of this city. Lubbock is certainly entitled to this much consideration.

WHAT OTHERS SAY AND HOW THEY SAY IT

AGRICULTURE NEEDS REMEDY

The cost of farming is increasing, due to the fixed overhead and operating expenses, evidence of which is found in the growing farm mortgage indebtedness. Not only is this increase likely to absorb all profits, but according to W. J. Drummond, chairman of the board of governors of the International Farm Congress, it is likely to make it impossible for American farmers to compete with the farmers of other countries without a degree of protection and assistance that cannot be expected. Protection for raw material has long been needed, but in recent years it has become more imperative than ever. It was sought for many Texas products a generation or two ago; it has now become a virtual necessity if production is to continue in this state. And what is required in Texas is required equally by producers in other states.

During the years 1910 to 1920 the farm mortgage indebtedness increased more than three billion dollars. It is claimed that since the 1920 census was taken the indebtedness on farms operated by the owners has made a further gain of more than two and one-quarter billion dollars. If farm ownership had increased it might be reasoned that a gain had been made, inasmuch as many farmers might have gone into debt to buy and improve farms; but the number of farms operated by the owners is virtually the same as in 1910, while 40 per cent of all farms are operated by tenants.

If cities are to continue prospering and growing, the agricultural interests attached to each must prosper and gain. There should be more farms operated by the owners and less tenant farming, and this will not be until farming is again profitable. The interest charges make a heavy burden that must be taken care of, and this reduces the buying power of the farmer. If he can obtain adequate prices for his products he can pay these charges and gradually reduce his indebtedness. When he can not do this, but is running behind year after year, it is to be expected that he may become discouraged, abandon farming and join the ranks of the wage-earners, which, in proportion to the producers, is far too large now.

Any falling off in production must be combated. It is the lifeblood of trade which is necessary to the prosperity of the nation. It is claimed that agriculture is headed toward "the short road to ruin." If this may be headed off by protection for raw materials, that protection should be given speedily. It is an economic question that has numerous angles and always arouses debate, but as it is the only remedy that appears possible there should be no delay in applying it, so the cure may be effected speedily.—Fort Worth Record.

ENFORCE LAW AND ORDER

There is not a citizen of the state of Texas who gives the matter a moment's thought who will not agree that the recent orgy of lynching and the so-called race riots which have flared up here and there have done the reputation of this great state an injury which it ought not to be called upon to suffer. Worse than that, they have done the state itself an injury, for they have promoted a breakdown in respect for law and in public order that can have but one result if carried to its logical conclusion, it is time for thinking men to act and all men to think.

The unfortunate reaction to most denunciations of such breaches of law and order is that unthinking persons consider them attempts to condone the crimes for which men are lynched, and to exalt those not worthy of exaltation. That is far from the spirit and intent of this writing. The Record believes that punishment, swift and sure, should follow all crimes and public interests and welfare demands that it be particularly swift and sure and an example to others in the case of such revolting crimes as that for which lynching is usually meted out.

But, as the years go by and conditions do not seem to improve, the thought is borne home with increasing force that we have not found the cure for atrocious crime nor for illegal punishment because we have not reached the cause. And that cause lies in the faulty administration of justice. If justice was swift and sure, excuse for lynching would pass out of existence, and public sentiment would undoubtedly back the legal and just method of upholding the law and punishing its assailants.

Texas is confronted with a situation that demands careful thought and appropriate and effective action. Every individual who believes that the maintenance of law and order is essential to the welfare of the state, as well as to the safety of the individuals who make up the state should make himself heard for the prompt, just and effective administration of law and the suppression of lawlessness. The organizations which have law and order as their aim should focus public opinion so that we may have an effective government of the people.

The Ku Klux Klan, locally at least, has, so far as newspaper information goes, given no cause to make people believe its professed devotion to law and order is not just what it expresses. Despite differences of opinion as to the wisdom of a masked organization there will be no citizen who will not applaud the accomplishment if it can use its great and legitimate influence to uphold Americanism and law and order through calling public attention to the necessity of selecting judges and peace officers who will discharge their duties fearlessly and impartially and who will substitute prompt justice for mob rule.

If it can impress upon the citizenship as enthusiastic and effective jury duty as some citizens have given to mob activities it will have accomplished a great thing.—Fort Worth Record.

MISS LENA GRISWOLD GRADUATES FROM S. M. U.

Announcements have been received in Lubbock of the graduation from S. M. U. of Miss Lena Griswold, daughter of Rev. J. T. Griswold, at one time pastor of the Lubbock Methodist church.

Miss Griswold has many friends in Lubbock who are glad to hear of her success. She will prove a great asset to society, her ability to cope with every situation being recognized by all who know her. The Avalanche joins her many friends here in extending congratulations, and assure Miss Griswold that her return to Lubbock for the summer vacation would be a pleasure to us all.

MAIL CARRIER IS INJURED BY HORSE LAST THURSDAY

Mr. Crume, the mail carrier was considerably bruised about his arm and shoulder one evening while putting his horse in the barn, a young calf suddenly entered the barn behind the horse causing him to lunge forward throwing his weight against Mr. Crume, crushing him to the wall. Mr. Crume was able to be on his wagon next day but Kelly Crume assisted in handling the mail bags.—Farwell Tribune.

GROCERY BUSINESS CLOSED AFTER BUILDING WAS SOLD

T. B. Sowell, local groceryman, exchanged his building to Joe Earhart for a nice one hundred and sixty acre farm in the canyon community and sold all his stock making ready to vacate. We are mighty glad to learn that Mr. Sowell will possibly re-enter the grocery business here as soon as a desirable location can be obtained.

HORSE FALLS UPON AND KILLS ROBY BOY

Roby, June 5.—Spurgeon Hollibaugh, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hollibaugh, was instantly killed by being thrown from a horse. The animal stumbled and fell on him. He was a graduate of the Roby grammar school this term. Funeral was held Sunday with interment in Roby cemetery.

PENSION WARRANTS MAILED BY STATE

Austin, June 5.—State Comptroller Lon A. Smith announces that all warrants for Confederate pensioners were deposited in the mail with promptness. Twenty-five dollars per quarter, which is the constitutional limit for Confederate pensioners, will be paid the soldiers and widows Sept. 1 this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gree, who has been in Lubbock for several weeks with Mrs. Green under the care of local specialists, returned to their home at Clayton Monday, accompanied by Carl Hunt, who will spend several days visiting with them there.

Will Gartin, one of Lubbock county's best farmers, residing in the northeast part of the county, was a business visitor in Lubbock Wednesday. Mr. Gartin is very enthusiastic over crop prospects, and is banking heavily on a big crop this year.

Little Granville Johnson, Jr., son of the energetic Lubbock Drug Store proprietor, was reported to be very ill at the Johnson home the first of the week. The very best specialists available were summoned, and we are glad to report his condition much improved.

Individual units in the wide world of humanity are held together by the law of attraction—else, by the law of repulsion, they drift far apart.

CLYDE GIBSON BECOMES PART OF SIMMONS BUSINESS

Clyde Gibson, instructor in the Lubbock schools through the past term, is now in the Simmons Furniture Store, where he is employed as bookkeeper and general salesman, he also owns an interest in the business.
Mr. Gibson has been in West Texas for the past fifteen years and his wide acquaintance with the people of this territory equips him well for the place, and we are sure he will prove a great asset to the business.
The Simmons Furniture store is taking leaps and bounds in development, the stock having been enlarged recently, which makes a great step forward for the business.

LETTER CARRIERS FORM ORGANIZATION

Slaton, June 5.—The rural letter carriers of Lubbock, Lynn and Garza Counties recently met here and formed a Rural Letter Carriers' Association.
Officers elected follow: Mark Burns, Wilson, president; George DeShazo, Lubbock, vice president; Foster Carroll, Slaton, secretary-treasurer. Future meetings are scheduled.

Four Entrants in Race for Governorship of Texas

With Governor Pat M. Neff formally announcing as a candidate for re-election to the office of Governor of Texas, and Harry T. Warner of Paris, editor of the Paris Morning News, also entering the fight on the last day for filing applications for place on the ticket, Texas voters will decide between four candidates for Governor in the July primary.
Other entrants are Fred S. Rogers of Bonham, and W. W. King, farmer-cake owner of Sabine County.

Warner Would Aid Schools

Paris, June 6.—Harry T. Warner, editor of the Paris Morning News, will Monday file his application with the secretary of the State Democratic committee as a candidate for governor.
In a preliminary statement, Warner says: "I have been hopeful that Judge Napier or some other strong candidate with time to do so would make an active canvass against Governor Neff for a second term and am most regretful that Judge Napier has been compelled to withdraw. I shall be able to make only a very partial canvass, of course."

"Considering the plight of the schools of Texas—city and rural—I shall devote myself principally to that matter. But I am also of decided opinion that Governor Neff has fallen far short in many other matters and that he is lacking in the moral courage which should be possessed by the executive of Texas. The plight of the schools of the State is most pitiful and yet the Governor, with petitions, letters, telegrams and memorials piled high upon his desk (unless he has thrown them into the waste basket) delays in calling a special session of the Legislature—the only thing which may be legally done—to find a remedy for the situation."

"The members of the Legislature are fully as patriotic as is the Governor; and his strictures upon them are not deserved. I am convinced that the members of the Legislature, would if called together, speedily find remedy for the deplorable condition of the schools of the State; and in his stubborn refusal to adopt this course Governor Neff is adding to the perplexities of the dilemma which confronts thousands of teachers, other thousands of trustees and more than a million school children, with their parents. There is no issue so pressing at this moment as the future of the public schools of the State—and I charge that Governor Neff is now directly responsible for that condition—in that he has without just cause and with no plausible reason refused to take the constitutional step to provide a remedy."

Printers Indorse Warner

Waco, June 6.—Newspaper men and printers of Waco, Governor Neff's home town, last night started a club to support Harry T. Warner's candidacy for Governor of Texas. Warner, in addition to being an editor has been a member of the Typographical Union since he was a youth.

BAPTIST LAYMEN WILL HOLD MEETING FOR METHODISTS

The Baptist Laymen will conduct a meeting for their Methodist brothers at the Methodist church Sunday at 3 p. m., which bids fair to be one of the most successful meetings held in Lubbock for some time, as according to lay leaders, J. T. Inman of the Methodist church, this is the first time the laymen have gotten together in a joint meeting since the Methodist church was completed, and there is a strong demand for their close co-operation in every manner, the complete realization of which has been an incentive to combine their efforts, which we are mighty glad to welcome.
The churchmen of all denominations have something to do, and the closer they work together the more they can accomplish, and we are looking forward to this meeting being one of the most interesting ones held in the church in many days.

"I GOT REAL MAD WHEN I LOST MY SETTING HEN," MRS. HANNAN

"I went into the hen house one morning and found my favorite setter dead. I got real mad. Went to the store and bought some RAT-SNAP and in a week I got 35 dead rats. Everybody who raises poultry should keep RAT-SNAP." Three sizes, 25c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Cole-Myrick Hdw. Co. and City Drug Store.

Neil H. Wright, district agent for the Southland Life Insurance Company left Wednesday morning of this week for a hurried trip to Hereford and the Hereford territory. Mr. Wright will return home Friday.

THE HOME OF THE SOUL

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely "used up" as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Deep in your heart, the one you despise is greater than yourself; the great in heart despise no one.

COTTON CROP COMPLETELY DESTROYED BY HAIL

L. P. Nicholson from the southwest corner of the county was in town Wednesday to buy cottonseed for replanting. He reports that he had 180 acres of cotton up and looking fine when the hail came Thursday night and seriously damaged it and another Sunday night completely wiping out the crop.
Mr. Nicholson's case is another one in which it is proven that you cannot keep a good man down, as he expects to raise a bumper crop of cotton, which will be planted within a few days.

We are glad that the farmers of the Lubbock section have learned enough about farming on the Plains to know that there is no need of giving up the idea of raising a big crop every time something happens to hold it back a little. They just take another hitch in their belt, snap out of it, get their teams into the field early, and keep them going until a really big day's work has been accomplished.

While we realize that the farmers will come out of the hail storm in an optimistic atmosphere, and do their dead level best to make it a thing to be forgotten long before harvest time, it was a regrettable circumstance indeed that so many acres of fine growing crops were destroyed.

MISS CRAVENS TO ATTEND SCHOOL OF EXPRESSION

Miss Eula Mae Cravens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Cravens, left Sunday for Waxahachie, where she will spend thirty days in the Curry school of Expression, going from there to Boston, Mass., where she will enter the same school and complete the work under the most able instructors in the state.

Miss Cravens will return to Lubbock in time to take up her work at the beginning of the 1923 term in the high school, which place she was elected by the board of directors, they having selected her for this work after close consideration, realizing that the students of expression in Lubbock deserve the very best talented and learned instructor available.

Her many friends in Lubbock, while regretting her absence from the city for this time, are glad indeed to know that she is being given this opportunity to study the work, as it is believed she will develop into one of the most competent instructors in Texas before many years, her ability is now appreciated by all who have had occasion to become acquainted with her work.

The Avalanche joins her many friends in wishing for her a most successful term.

STORM DAMAGE AT FARWELL LAST TUESDAY NIGHT HEAVY

The rain and hail storm that swept over Farwell, reaching about a mile west left considerable damage in its trail. The Cruce Building had great holes beat in the asbestos roof and every one in the building was called on to scoop up water with dust pans and shovels, sheets of water ran down into the Red Cross Pharmacy but fortunately did not damage the goods.

Mary Oliver's farm joining Texico on the west had the house damaged and the orchard stripped of leaves and fruit. Mr. McDaniels beautiful orchard just on west was ruined. This was a young seedling orchard and the prospect were never better for a fine crop. Mr. Treble lost some fine hogs, when the hail beat on the barn the animals rushed out into the storm and many were killed. His mules ran into the wire fence and were badly cut.

The Ross home two miles south was stripped of shingles and glass broken out.

Mr. Blair's home was damaged on roof and all north windows were broken out. The trees at the Osberne farm were stripped of leaves and fruit.

Owing to the hail and windstorm, the power plant was put out of commission, and that prevented us from using our big cylinder press. We were forced to put out the Tribune on our job press by foot power. So that is the reason for this kind of a paper.—Farwell Tribune.

Rev. B. Y. Dickinson, wife and children, accompanied by two of Trent's young ladies passed through Lubbock Monday enroute to Clarendon, where they were going to attend the Epworth League Convention of the Northwest Texas Conference, in session at Clarendon this week. Rev. Dickinson was pastor on the Lubbock Mission for some time, and is well known by the people of this city. He is now pastor of the church at Trent, and is getting along nicely in the work.

Miss Blanch Bean, daughter of Judge and Mrs. George R. Bean, of Lubbock, returned home Sunday from Denton, where she completed a course at C. I. A.
Miss Bean, while there, took a course in Linotyping, the art of which she declares very interesting, and expressed a willingness to cast her lot in the publishing world which we assure her will prove very interesting at all times, and amusing part of the time.
Miss Eppie Edsall, daughter of

H. V. Edsall, returned Saturday from Nashville, Tennessee, where she completed a term in Ward Belmont College. Miss Edsall is an energetic young lady, and we are sure she has accomplished some wonderful work during the time spent in that school.

PARENTS OF GEO. W. FOSTER ENROUTE TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Foster, of Floydada, passed through Lubbock the first of the week enroute to California, where they will spend the summer, stopping off here long enough to visit a few days with their son, Geo. W. Foster, of the Foster Auto Company, of this city. While the father is about as young looking, and even appears more alert than the youngster, they are both hustling citizens, and we are in hopes Geo. W. will some day persuade him to make his home in Lubbock where his parents are appreciated, and where they receive a splendid reward for the good they do, inasmuch as Lubbock is growing to the favor and satisfaction of everyone whose efforts have been directed to its advancement.

We were mighty glad to have the Floydada booster visit our city, and to bid him welcome could be like asking a neighbor to feel at home in his own house, for Mr. Foster has been coming to Lubbock off and on for the past twenty years, and relates many interesting and amusing incidents of the times he first visited this section.

One of the most interesting, however, is the fact that the first automobile he ever enjoyed the sight of, was in Lubbock, the coming of which he says, was somewhat nerve shocking and was inspiring to the pioneer onlookers who declared the "speed demons" a menace to society, inasmuch as unthoughtful persons would be so reckless in letting the speedy machines run too fast to be very safe.

LOCAL SPORTSMEN ATTEND HUBBER-SWATTER GAME

"Red" Kuykendall, George Benson and Emmett Porter, enthusiastic Lubbock baseball fans, whose interest and confidence in the Hubbers is not to be questioned, spent Sunday in Abilene, where they attended a game between the Lubbock Hubbers and Sweetwater Swatters.

The game was a good one through out, and we are sure the Lubbock men had their part of the fun.

They are live boosters for the Hubbers, and know that Lubbock stands a one hundred per cent chance to carry off the pennant at the end of the season, and bring home the beautiful cups and other trophies accorded the winners.

Large Crowds Attend the Formal Opening of R. & R. Lindsey Monday Night to See "Beyond the Rocks"

One of the largest theatre crowds that has been in a local theatre for many months, attended the R. & R. Lindsey Monday night, at the formal opening of the attractive and well directed play house.

Mr. Ed Rowley, manager, made every investment and every effort possible to make that a really big night for his show, and that his efforts were crowned with success is only natural, for the people of Lubbock have become so well acquainted with his method of doing things since he has been in Lubbock, they knew the formal opening would be something worthy of their attention, as Mr. Rowley had advertised his opening picture, "Beyond the Rocks," featuring Gloria Swanson with Rudolph Valentino.

"Beyond the Rocks" was an exceptional picture, and it was after much thought and consideration the picture had been chosen for the occasion.

Long before the picture was to start large numbers of people began to assemble, the streets being lined with automobiles, and the sidewalks crowded with pedestrians and when the first show was over, those who had been unable to enter for the first showing marched into the theatre, crowding it to full capacity, making two large crowds that saw the wonderful love drama.

Mayor Percy Spencer made a short talk, complimenting Mr. Rowley for his progressiveness in giving Lubbock a real theatre.

The Lindsey is certainly a beautiful theatre, and under the management now controlling it, is showing the very best pictures possible, which is greatly appreciated by all Lubbock.

J. D. Lindsey, owner of the theatre, was mentioned by Mr. Spencer as having made this show possible by providing the splendid building, and at that time the audience gave their approval of what was being said by enthusiastic cheering.

The "Home Brew" Quartett gave two comical numbers, which received much applause.

H. M. Rogers, manager of the R. & R. at Sweetwater, was among the out of town visitors to attend this program. Mr. Rogers expressed himself highly elated over conditions in Lubbock, and said he was mighty glad the R. & R. people were fortunate enough to have established a house here.

Hugh Owens, assistant manager of the Paramount Picture Company, with headquarters at Dallas, also attended the formal opening.

Mr. Rowley is starting a "patronize the Lindsey" campaign with wonderful success from all appearances, and we are mighty glad to notice that he is going about his work with a spirit of free-heartedness that endears him to the entire citizenship of Lubbock.

That the children of the town might be given an opportunity to attend the theatre, he has made arrangements with a local civic club of women to arrange to have all children under five years old attend without charge.

Important Bill Is Ready to Go To Congress

There is now pending before Congress, with splendid prospects of passage, a bill introduced in the House by Mr. Smith of Idaho, being H. R. 10614. The same measure has been introduced in the Senate by Senator McNary of Oregon, which is to be known as the National Reclamation Law.

The proper reclamation of such lands is not a matter for private enterprise. Private enterprise can only be attracted to work of this kind through hope of profit, and the margin of profit has to be very large to compensate the enormous outlay involved in the reclamation of these large areas, and also to compensate for the risks involved in their development and colonization. The real purpose that should be behind enterprises of this kind is that of public policy. It means the development of our national resources, which are now worse than useless, the providing of homes and farms, and the building up of commerce and industry in sections, which, under present conditions, are desolate wastes. By providing a large revolving fund for the construction of these enterprises under the management and control of the United States Reclamation Service the entire cost to be ultimately repaid by the lands benefited. The Smith-McNary Bill if enacted will ultimately reclaim every acre of these lands.

If the measure passes it will open up to the country the greatest program of internal improvements ever attempted in the United States. The purpose of the bill is to reclaim arid and swamp lands through Federal and state co-operation.

There is at the present time susceptible of reclamation some 20,000,000 acres of arid and semi-arid lands, and 80,000,000 acres of swamp lands scattered in every state in the Union, which is subject to reclamation under the provisions of this bill. No state in the Union has a greater area of both classes of lands needing reclamation than the State of Texas.

It is a well known fact that when reclaimed both arid and swamp lands are the most fertile that the country affords. One thing that is not generally appreciated is that individual initiative is incapable of coping with the reclamation of these lands. It requires vast engineering works to achieve their reclamation, and unless these works are properly constructed, and efficiently operated, the individual settler finds himself facing disaster. These enterprises have been largely left to private capital. The temptation to exploit the settler is very great, and in many instances most wonderful and productive sections have been ruined through imperfect engineering, cheap construction and exploitation of the settlers. The Reclamation of these vast areas requires Federal and State supervision, and encouragement. The Smith-McNary Bill is the result of a conference of reclamation experts, and all details of the bill have been thoroughly and carefully worked out, and represent the best thought and experience which the nation affords.

SLIDE-NEWS ITEMS OF THE PAST WEEK

The rain and hail of last Thursday night did a great deal of damage, beating most of the feed and cotton into the ground. Most all of the farmers had all of their crops to plant over, which will cause all of the crops to be late in gathering.

Mrs. Roy Turner and two children, from Dallas, and Mrs. Atkins, from Rosebud, came in Friday morning to spend a few days, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Arnett.

Among the visitors in Lubbock Thursday were C. L. Reiger and family, C. A. Hubbard and wife, Mrs. M. L. Williams and two children, Sam and John Moore.

Several from this community attended Brunk's Comedians the past week, despite the rainy weather.

Miss Emma Harriet spent the week end with the Foster girls, of near Lubbock.

Herschel Davis, Joe Reiger and Cleburne Staggs went to Woodrow Friday evening to attend the school program.

Mr. Marion Coleman and wife returned home, after spending a few days at the Reiger home.

J. T. Ellison from Lubbock, spent the week end with L. D. Stanford.

Wayne Terry and brother, and Mitchell Crouch, from near New Home, were at the store the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore have been gone about a week, visiting relatives in Mills County.

Since I have started the happenings, we have had about 1 1/2 inches of rain and enough hail to finish the rest of the cotton crops that were left. Everybody is out looking for cotton seed.

Rev. Pickens came out Sunday night to fill his regular appointment, but on account of the inclemency of the weather, there was no service held.

Messrs. Clarence Farris and Eurban Hobby spent Sunday night with the Davis boys.

Several in the community attended the all-day singing at New Home last Sunday. All reported a nice time.

Don't forget the free concert Friday night, June 9. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Misses Hettie Morris and Hattie Rosenbuch, and Mr. J. M. Marcy, from Woodrow, were in the community Sunday evening.

Mr. Edwards and daughter, and Edith and Jewell Harlan, from Slaton, visited at the Davis home late Sunday evening.

Misses Alice and Jessie Gray and Pearl Neal, and Messrs. Wade and Wayman Smith and Dolph Izard, all of New Home, were at the store Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Foster, school teacher, from Wilson, spent Monday in the community.

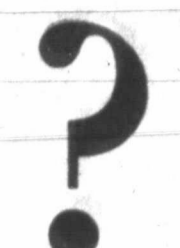

Joe Bailey Reiger and Cleburn Staggs spent Saturday night in Lubbock.

Grady Harriet and brother, Genes and R. A. Wisener were in the Posey community, and near Slaton Monday, looking for cotton seed.

Mr. J. C. Stanford was in town Monday, transacting business.

Mr. Mitchell and Lay Crouch, from New Home, were at the store Tuesday, enroute to Slaton after cotton seed.

W. B. Copeland and Lonnie Williams were transacting business matters in Lubbock Monday.

THE MOST POPULAR WAY TO GET KILLED ACCORDING TO THE LATEST LIST OF CASUALTIES

Whenever you use a ladder, remember that it is the most dangerous device in existence. Ladders continue to cause more accidents than anything else. This is shown by insurance experts' latest check-up of fatal and non-fatal casualties. In the last few years, accidents killed or injured more Americans than the total war killed on both sides in the World War. Human deaths by accident in the United States average around 60,000 a year, or 165 a day, according to the census.

You are, of course, "afraid of getting injured." And of what are you most afraid? Autos, probably. Yet for each 67 people killed by autos, 68 are burned to death, 86 die in railroad accidents, 56 are drowned, 26 die in mines, 34 are asphyxiated by gas, 21 are killed around machinery, 23 by street cars, 23 by bicycles and horse-drawn vehicles.

And, topping the list, 111 are killed by falls—from ladders, out of windows, down elevator shafts or slipping on icy sidewalks that could be made safe by sprinkling of ashes. Read those figures a second time, record them indelibly in your brain, and you'll know what to be careful of unless you want to meet the undertaker.

Nearly all accidents are the result of carelessness—taking needless chances in the face of danger.

Obviously, then, nearly all accidents could be prevented. The prevention of accidents, according to safety engineers, is about half safety devices and half personal caution.

It is now 22 years since Dr. William H. Tolman returned from Germany, where he had been studying accident prevention, and started the Safety First movement in our country. That movement has worked wonders. For one thing, it has reduced railroad deaths to a third of what they were in 1907.

The trouble with the Safety First movement always has been that it is spasmodic. Between celebrations, the public gets lulled into carelessness, then accidents burst forth again on a big scale and another Safety Movement is started.

To keep the Safety First fire burning constantly, several hundred prominent citizens have just formed a national Society for Prevention of Accidents.

To help in this movement and protect your own life and body, you merely have to observe two simple rules: First, keep your eyes open. Second, be cautious, take no chances.

RECENT RAINS BENEFIT CROPS IN SPUR COMMUNITY

Spur, Texas, June 6.—The rain the latter part of last week, which fell over the Spur country was a wonderful benefit to growing crops. Cotton has all been planted with practically a perfect stand. Farmers who have been farming in this section for the past twelve years state that prospects were never brighter than at this time for a bumper crop.

The Spur Public School graduates held their play "Nothing But the Truth" at the Gem theater last night. There were twelve members of the graduating class this year.

The School Board of the Spur Independent School District are adding to their teaching corps, in addition to the Domestic Science teacher, a Vocational Agriculture teacher, who will devote most of his time to Agricultural Experiment work.

S. R. Bowman, a prominent farmer of near Spur, has just finished cutting alfalfa, which was planted last September, and which made a yield on first cutting of two and one-half tons per acre.

On account of the heavy rains at head of Salt Fork and Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River, train service into Spur has been discontinued—the railroad bridge over the Double Mountain having been washed out. Train service was resumed Sunday.

Mr. R. B. Johnson, County Agent, will make another Co-operative shipment of live-stock from Spur about the 30th of this month to Fort Worth market. Indications are that there will be from fifteen to twenty cars of hogs and cattle to go to market at this time.

BEXAR LEADS ON WINE-BEER PETITION

Temple, June 5.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson and Milton Everett of San Antonio, left here at noon today for Waco to file with Secretary Hale of the Democratic State Executive Committee a petition asking that the wine and beer proposal be submitted to the voters in the Texas July primaries in order to ascertain the wishes of the people as to legalizing these beverages.

The petition, it is said, is signed by 56,401 duly qualified voters representing 183 counties. Bexar leads the State in praying for relief from Volstead law aridity with a total of 11,783 signers. Dallas County 1,631, Comal, 1,645, Harris 6,084, McLennan 1,275, Tarrant 422 and Bell 1,037 signers.

CLOUDBURST HITS IN SECTION NEAR TULIA

Tulia, June 5.—A cloudburst visited the town and immediate section of the county Sunday afternoon about 4:30, doing much damage to gardens and growing crops. About three inches of rain fell in less than 30 minutes, accompanied with considerable hail. Some of the hailstones were as large as three inches, which damaged the shingle roofs, causing many of the houses to leak.

The cloud came up suddenly, catching lots of people out riding. There are several complaints of having to leave cars in the ditches along the roads, and some lost the tops of the cars by hail. One car plunged off the embankment of the South Tenth bridge, falling about ten feet into the water. The driver escaped by jumping clear of the car.

LUBBOCK MAN BUYS POLO PONY IN BAILEY COUNTY

An odd incident in the recent sale of the Jno. L. Wilson ranch in Bailey county was related to The Brand Tuesday by Mr. Wilson. Earl Wilson raised a very fine cow pony known as "Blue Dog" an animal of unusual quickness and intelligence. The pony will cut out a prairie dog from its hole as readily as he will crowd a cow or steer.

Wilson purchased the stock cattle on the ranch, also acquired the pony for $350, and will train him as a Polo Pony. Polo ponies are rare and the sport requires speed, dexterity, nimbleness and intelligence in an unusual degree. Blue Dog will make a great polo pony, it is confidently believed by those who have studied the animal.—Hereford Brand.

A. W. Beck, of Rails, was among the out of town visitors on the streets of Lubbock Wednesday.

HERE'S A LIST OF THOSE WHO ARE SEEKING TO BE ELECTED TO STATE OFFICES IN TEXAS

Waco, June 5.—The time limit for the filing of names to appear on the ticket for state officers in the July primaries expired at midnight Monday and a complete list of all the candidates for state offices was released by Joseph W. Hale of Waco, who is secretary of the state democratic executive committee.

The list shows only four candidates for state offices will be without opposition in the July primaries.

Of the 39 candidates, the name of Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, candidate for United States Senator is the only one of a woman appearing on the list. Offices of United States senator and lieutenant Governor are the most popular so far as candidates are concerned, eight aspiring to the former office and five for the other. The list as given out by Secretary Hale and which will in all probability be a duplicate of the July primary ballot as follows in full:

United States Senator: Earl B. Mayfield, Austin; C. A. Culbertson, Dallas; Clarence Ousley, Ft. Worth; Robert L. Henry, Waco; James E. Ferguson, Temple; Sterling P. Strong, Dallas; Cullen F. Thomas, Dallas; Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, Temple.

SHALLOWATER LOSES TO ABERNATHY TEAM

Tuesday afternoon the Abernathy Bulldogs beat out the Shallowater Broncos 9 to 8. The game was exciting from beginning to end, the score always being close. The contest ran ten innings, both working hard for the winning run.

The score by innings: Abernathy 040 100 300 1-9 8 3. Shallowater 200 000 204 0-8 6 8.

Hardisty, Stambaugh and Riley; Gaither and Baldwin.

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with backache, dizzy spells, queer fains and irregular kidneys—give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. E. G. Sholtz, 401 Pine St. Big Spring, Tex., says: "I had pains in the small of my back that were awful. It was worse than toothache and when I bent, my back hurt so I could hardly straighten. I became so nervous, the least thing irritated me and I was bothered with dizzy spells when spots before my eyes blurred my sight. I couldn't get much rest and I got up mornings feeling all tired out and without enough ambition to do anything. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and the trouble soon began to leave me. Before long I was entirely cured and I have had no return of kidney complaint."

Manufacturers of Hog Remedy Will Possibly Locate Distributing House in Lubbock—Representatives Here Tues.

In the business turmoil of activities in Lubbock, some may think the original industries of profit may have been forgotten, but such is not the case. It is a fact that the business men have been very busy developing the city of Lubbock, but they have kept a shrewd eye on the development of their own lines of business, and in the shuffle of rapid development, nothing has been left undone to stand as an eye sore to the fair appearance of the greatest agricultural section on the Plains, and now comes Fred Boerner, local hog breeder and says that Lubbock will possibly be made distributing point for a Moorman Manufacturing Company house, which is the distributor of the greatest worm expeller for hogs in use today, according to Mr. Boerner and other prominent breeders of this section, who have had the problem of eliminating that menace to that industry before them constantly for many years past.

"Tanlac Has Restored My Health So Wonderfully I Simply Can't Say Enough For It," Declares St. Louis Resident.

"Tanlac has meant so much to me that I just can't say enough in its praise," said Mrs. O. Dedier, residing at 3133 Gravius St., St. Louis, Mo. "Before I took this medicine my ailments had become so numerous and distressing that I hardly had any ease or comfort. I suffered from sour stomach, gas and indigestion nearly all the time, and my head ached fearfully. I had such severe pains in the small of my back that I could hardly get up or down. Dark spots would come before my eyes and I would get so dizzy it was all I could do to stand on my feet, and sleep was almost impossible for me. "After seeing my husband improve so much by taking Tanlac I began taking it, too, and my troubles are not only gone, but I have actually gained ten pounds in less than a month's time. I am just like a person made new and of course I think the world and all of Tanlac." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

MONROE NEWS ITEMS OF THE PAST WEEK

On the 4th Sunday afternoon, the Methodist preacher from Abernathy delivered a fine sermon to an interested audience at this place.

The Farmers' Union held a free-for-all meeting on last Friday night. Mr. Paul Morgan spent last Sunday visiting friends—or friend, in Lubbock.

Mr. Tom Lane, wife and little daughter Florine, and Mr. Clyde Tapp, wife and daughter Juanita, all of Lubbock, visited in the home of C. C. Stephenson and wife, on last Sunday.

Mrs. Teal spent a few days last week visiting one of her daughters, near Slaton.

Mrs. Clarence Williams left last Saturday for a visit in her old home in Fannin County, at Savoy and Bonham, Texas.

Miss Irene Cox came home on the midnight train last Saturday from Canyon, where she has finished the Sophomore term of the W. T. S. N. C. Miss Irene has many friends that rejoice with her in the success of her school work, and we feel very proud of her ability as a teacher, with a permanent certificate, this being the last term of the Sophomore class for Miss Leola and she will attain her permanent certificate at the close of this summer term, and with her efficiency as a teacher, will be capable of conducting a school next winter of which any trustees may be proud.

Mr. Adrain Merrill and Miss Leola Cox left last Tuesday for Canyon, to attend the Summer Normal at the West Texas State Normal College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thaxton of Ralls, passed through here last Sunday enroute for a visit with the lady's parents, the Tannahills near Abernathy. Frank Tannahill returned home with them for a short visit.

Leon (Red) Thaxton, of Ralls, visited Hiram Cox a few days last week.

Mrs. Williams, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Seal, is improving after a few days illness.

We are pleased to note the compliment paid to our old neighbor, Rufus Bundy, by a reporter of the Avalanche in regard to Mr. Bundy's course in the Lubbock Business College. We consider Mr. Bundy very bright and a gentleman and one who is worthy of all confidence—and we wish for him a great measure of success.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham were callers in the Smith home on last Sunday.

Mr. J. A. Long and family, were callers in the home of Mrs. T. H. Cox on last Sunday afternoon.

Badger Lake and Caldwell baseball boys were playing Monroe boys last Monday evening, in a pasture near the Matheny home.

Our trustees have given the school to Prof. Delaney as principal; Miss Thomas as intermediate, and another young lady as primary teacher. I did not get her name.

Free Potato Slips For Farmers in the Hail Swept Zones

W. N. Haynie was in town Wednesday from his fine farm, one mile north of Bowle's Dairy, and called on the Avalanche to let us know that he had made arrangements to supply the people of the Lubbock territory whose gardens were destroyed by hail with free sweet potato plants, urging they call at his farm and get all they want.

He has a nice lot of hot-beds, which produce about twenty thousand plants each week, and he said that from the time this notice had time to reach the farmers in the hail district he would not sell to anyone who was not hailed out, and that all the plants would be saved for free distribution for those who lost their gardens by hail.

This is indeed a commendable offer Mr. Haynie is making his friends and neighbors, and we are sure they will receive this notice with pleasure.

The bigness of the Plains lies not only in its vast undeveloped acres of the finest lands anywhere, but to the big-heartedness of her people is this bigness, more than anything else, attributed, and we are indeed glad to give circulation to a notice of this kind, realizing the spirit with which this offer is made from Mr. Haynie, we know it is something to be appreciated, and which he will be glad for the people to accept.

FARMER APPLIES BUSINESS PRINCIPALS TO HIS WORK

C. E. Bradshaw was in Lubbock Tuesday from his farm southwest of town, and reported to an Avalanche representative that one hundred and fifty acres of cotton had been destroyed by hail on his farm in the Thursday's hail storm. "All that kept the heavy rains of Sunday night from ruining the crop was that there was nothing left for it to ruin," he said, and when we noticed that he was taking the loss without any apparent worry, we learned that he had applied practical business principles to his farming work, and has the crop insured against hail, the inspector had already made the adjustment, and for a one hundred and fifty dollar investment in insurance he received in return a nine hundred and sixty-eight dollar voucher from the company in which he had been insured.

Farming requires more and closer application of business principles than any other work, and we are glad to notice that Lubbock county farmers are awake to that need, and are filling the bill with real business efficiency.

HEAVY FINES ASSESSED 4 LUBBOCK GAMBLERS THU.

John McCulloch is on the job running in all the gamblers possible and his Thursday's catch was quite successful.

Having decided that there was more fun in catching gamblers than eating, especially on this occasion, he stayed up town at the noon hour Thursday to see what was going on while most of the town people were enjoying their noon-day meal, and sure enough he got the right tracks, entered an office in the main business district, and politely requested four men who were engaged in gambling to go with him to the courthouse.

The justice was not very liberal with the poor fellows, a tax of twenty-five dollars—and—seventy cents being assessed three of them while the fourth who had been up before the judge for the same act before, had an extra ten spot attached to his assessment, totaling a neat sum of thirty-five seventy, all the fines were paid on the spot. ## LAND OFFICE PREPARES LIST OF SCHOOL LANDS THAT WILL BE OFFERED FOR SALE AFTER SEPT. 1

Austin, June 6.—A list has been prepared in the general land office here, under the direction of Commissioner J. T. Robinson giving an outline of school lands that will be placed on the market September 1. This is the forty-sixth list compiled by the general land office and most of the land is subject to be forfeited for non-payment of interest, and such as may not be paid on will be forfeited and come on the market on the above date. Bids on the land will be received at the general land office until 2 p. m., September 2, at which time applications will be opened.

It is stated that no residence on the land will be required and all tracts containing less than 80 acres must be sold for cash. One-fourth of the price offered (except for tracts less than 80 acres), and a note to the state for the remaining thirty-nine-fortieths, bearing 5 per cent interest, must be in the general land office on or before 10 a. m. September 2. Interest is due November 1 each year, and unless paid the sale will be subject to forfeiture and the land will again be offered for sale.

With reference to the minerals it is stated that while the act under which this land is being offered for sale says oil and gas and other minerals are reserved to the state and for that reason the applications also say the minerals are reserved, yet by chapter 81, act approved July 31, 1919, the state relinquished to the owner of the soil fifteen-sixteenths of all oil and gas that may be in the land subject to prior outstanding oil and gas permits, thus retaining only one-sixteenth royalty interest to the state. The owner of the soil also has, or will have, at the termination of any outstanding oil and gas permit, the right to sell and lease oil and gas rights subject to the state's royalty, and in so doing the owner of the soil gets the benefit of all bonus for the land, but the purchaser or lessee of the oil and gas becomes liable to the state for 10 cents per acre annually in addition to the one-sixteenth royalty. The purchaser of land on which there is an outstanding oil and gas permit gets no interest in the oil and gas that they may be therein unless such permit should be terminated before oil and gas should be discovered in the land.

When the land is sold by the state it becomes subject to taxation. The land that is to be placed on sale can not be purchased by any corporation.

According to Land Commissioner Robinson the Texas public free school fund now amounts to approximately $72,000,000.

Approximately 58 per cent of the counties of the state are represented in the list wherein lands will be placed on the market. The list shows that there are 146 counties represented in the list compiled by the land commissioner.

HOLD EXAMINATIONS FOR GUARD OFFICERS

Austin, June 6.—An Examination of officers of the Texas National Guard is under way in the Adjutant General's Department before an examining board, and is expected to be continued for the next two or three weeks. While there are over 200 officers to be examined as to their qualifications, the bulk of the examinations are to be conducted by mail. The National Guard officers residing in this vicinity will come to Austin personally to take the examination while those residing in distant portions of the State will take the examination through the mail.

The examining board is composed of Col. William S. Faulkner, U. S. A.; Maj. William L. Culbertson, U. S. A., regular instructors of the Texas National Guard; Capt. S. A. Woolsey, medical corps of the Texas National Guard; Maj. Timothy J. Powers, assistant quartermaster of Texas National Guard, and Maj. Charles M. Crawford, assistant adjutant general.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S CASTLESS-CHILD TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or digest the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50¢ per bottle.

Mrs. A. C. Sherwood returned last week from Fort Worth, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wright. Her many friends in Lubbock will be delighted to learn of her return.

PICNIC GROUNDS ARE BEING IMPROVED

Yesterday work was begun on the ground just east of the Beacon office, running through two blocks, which is being put in shape for the big barbecue here July 3rd and 4th. A road grader is being used, and the grounds thoroughly graded, cleaned, and will be rolled and packed. Tables on which to feed the multitudes will be erected on these grounds, and a band stand is to be constructed.

A large tabernacle will be erected for shade.

The committee is at work on the meat, and the people are responding most liberally with donations of beef, mutton and hogs. There will be plenty of meat donated.

The concession committee and the entertainment committee have both had meetings, and a tentative program has been worked out. Mr. C. R. Wilkinson, chairman of amusements and concessions committee, is lining up attractions for the occasion. A big carnival will be secured, along with other attractions.

The work is moving nicely along and in ample time everything will be in readiness for the big event to last two days in Lockney. Just an old time jollification of Plains and West Texas people, with a broad invitation to the people down in the sticks to come out and get some good meat and Plains air.—Lockney Beacon.

SOME FOLKS STILL WANT THEIR BEER

Waco, June 2.—Petitions, asking that an amendment be placed on the ticket legalizing the sale of beer and light wines will be presented Sunday to Secretary Hale of the democratic executive committee. The petitions will be brought by Milton Everett of San Antonio, chairman of the national association against the prohibition amendment, and by former Governor Ferguson of Temple.

The executive committee at Austin, June 12, will decide whether the amendment shall be submitted to the voters in the primary elections on July 22.

LUBBOCK ATTORNEY SPENT LAST WEEK IN POST CITY

Judge W. R. Spencer returned Sunday from Post City, where he spent last week attending to legal matters in the district court. Judge Spencer is really one of the big attorneys of West Texas, and Lubbock is proud to have him represent the people of the Plains in all legal matters in which there is need for a strong fight for the right.

He is District Judge of the Lubbock district, and our courts are well directed under his management.

POSTOFFICE BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

Washington, June 6.—The house late this afternoon passed and sent to the President the postoffice appropriation bill carrying $865,000,000. Included in it is an item of $50,000,000 added by the senate to provide federal aid for routes in road construction work.

The vote on the bill was 215 to 26. President Harding is expected to sign it immediately.

P. F. Young and family, of El Paso, arrive in Lubbock Monday, having made the trip by automobile. They are now comfortably located at 1214 Tenth street and Mr. Young will immediately get into business here. He told an Avalanche reporter a few hours after his arrival in Lubbock that he had had his eyes on this section for many years, and had made an attempt to settle on the Plains further north, but the call to Lubbock was too great, and he finally made arrangements to come here.

MANY HEAD OF CATTLE SHIPPED FROM CLOVIS

Clovis, June 5.—Clovis is becoming a shipping point for cattle. Fourteen carloads of cows and calves were shipped from here this week by G. M. Commission Company of Amarillo. It is said that Clovis, Mule shoe, Portales, Bovina and Harford each will furnish 1,000 head of cows and calves in an order comprising 5,000 all to be shipped to ranches in Wyoming and Montana.

Over 600 head will be shipped from Clovis between the 1st and 25th of June.

To Stop a Cough Quick

take HAYES' HEALING HONEY, a cough medicine which stops the cough by healing the inflamed and irritated tissues. A box of GROVE'S O-PEN-TRATE SALVE for Chest Colds, Head Colds and Croup is enclosed with every bottle of HAYES' HEALING HONEY. The salve should be rubbed on the chest and throat of children suffering from a Cold or Croup.

The healing effect of Hayes' Healing Honey inside the throat combined with the healing effect of Grove's O-Pen-trate salve through the pores of the skin soon stops a cough.

Both remedies are packed in one carton and the cost of the combined treatment is 50¢.

Just ask your druggist for HAYES' HEALING HONEY.

A. B. CONLEY, JR.'S REMOVAL SALE

DATE
9th
UNTIL THE DAY WE CLOSE

Right at the time merchandise is taking an upward turn, we are throwing our entire stock on the Slaughter Block. We have cut the price on every article in the house, some of course a great deal more than others. Our reductions varying from a 50 per cent discount down to a 10 per cent discount.

We are going to move sometime in the near future, but, first we are going to let our customers move as much of our stock as possible. There will be no 10 yard or 2 pair restrictions. We will sell anyone everything they want but the style of the Firm and the fixtures. When we open in our new home we want as new a stock as possible. In order to have one we must first sell the stock we have on hand.

Much of our merchandise is new. Has just arrived for our Spring business. It will go at the same reduction.

STAMFORD'S CLUB NEW HEAD.

Stamford, June 2.—W. E. Bizzell, a cotton man prominent in local business circles, has been elected president and manager of the Stamford Base Ball Club in the West Texas league.

Mr. Bizzell has been vested with complete authority over the team and announces that he will continue to strengthen the club until it begins rising in the percentage column.

Stamford will inaugurate Sunday baseball on June 4 when the Abilene Eagles and Colonels clash here.

HUBBERS SHUT OUT RANGER FOR FIRST OF THE SERIES

In the snappiest exhibition of the season on the local park, the Hubbers shut out the Ranger Nitros Tuesday, 6 to 0.

only one bobble, and picked up some "hot runs" that looked almost impossible.

The locals came back in the 8th with two runs, Langford passing free, but went out on Brown's bunt.

A. B. CONLEY, JR., DEAD IN LUBBOCK, TEXAS

News of the death in Lubbock, Texas, of A. B. Conley, Jr., one of the leading merchants there and formerly well known in Tampico, has just been received by The Tribune. Mr. Conley died March 19 and was buried in Lubbock March 21, under the auspices of the combined Masonic bodies there.

Mr. Conley was a past president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, past district deputy of the Elks for West Texas, held many offices in the Masonic Lodge including Chapter, Commandery and Shrine, and was at the time of his death director of the Chamber of Commerce, director of the Rotary Club, an officer of Khiva Temple, an officer of the Lubbock Commandery and active in civic, social and business matters of the city and section.

He was born in Montgomery, Ala., fifty years ago and is survived by a wife, three boys and three girls who live at Lubbock, and his father, A. B. Conley of Decatur, and a sister, Mrs. W. L. Rush of Decatur.

His death followed illness of less than a week, and developed from influenza. The business houses of Lubbock closed in honor of his standing in the community.—Tampico Tribune.

Southern Pacific May Take Over the Orient R. R. Soon

Interest has been aroused during the past few days in reports that the Southern Pacific Lines might take over the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway, which, according to the statements its present management is about to give up the ghost unless federal assistance, through the rail labor board and the interstate commerce commission, or purchased by some other system, saves it. At the recent convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Plainview, the plight of the Orient was discussed with some concern, not only by delegates from the communities directly on and adjacent to its line, but by representatives from all parts of West Texas. At that time it was stated, upon apparently good authority, that service on the Orient would be suspended within thirty days if relief failed to come.

Color to the Southern Pacific story, which was somewhat discussed as a rumor at the convention, is given by three facts. One is the connection of the Orient with the Southern Pacific at Alpine, giving that road a long tap up within striking distance of Kansas City, and the relationship of the Orient's lines in Mexico, now disjointed, to Southern Pacific rail strategy in the southern republic. The second is the general belief that the Southern Pacific and Rock Island may become one system at some not far distant time, as is foreshadowed by the Ripley rail consolidation plan now being considered by the interstate commerce commission. The Orient would form a convenient link between the Rock Island and Southern Pacific systems. The third fact is the expected presence in Texas within a short time of one or more directors of the Southern Pacific, whose interests are affected by both roads.

For Fort Worth such a purchase would be significant, if the Southern Pacific could be induced to construct the proposed Fort Worth-Plains railroad, linking the Orient with Fort Worth and with the Plains.

The Santa Fe has been considered by some judges of railroad conditions and strategy the logical system to build the Plains connection, for the Plains are at present an almost exclusive Santa Fe empire. But there are reasons why the Southern Pacific might be interested, one of them being the possibility of a line from North Texas to the Pacific Coast, eliminating the long haul via Hearne and San Antonio.

The student of railroad strategy has many interesting moves on the table of Texas to observe just now. With the developments connected with the Katy's sale of its disconnected East Texas lines to Beaumont interests and of its Shreveport-McKinney line to the Louisiana Railway and Navigation company; with the struggle for control of the International & Great Northern, and this new Orient situation, to say nothing of other moves, there are

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE TERRY COUNTY HERALD

State Weight and Measure inspector, G. R. Scott, with headquarters in Lubbock, was here recently trying out the scales and filling stations of local dealers. Mr. Scott, when he had finished his job here said he found both the scales and filling stations in fine condition, and that we might say that the people who trade at Brownfield are getting full weight and measure. He said the condition here averaged above any small town he had inspected, and said our merchants are entitled to all the bouquets we feel like handing them. Mr. Scott for several years was the editor and proprietor of the Hale Center Record, and we met him at the State Convention two years ago at Dallas, and of course the Herald was the first joint he inspected, but we imagine more to get a whiff of printer's ink than anything else.

There were 45 cars of cattle loaded out from Brownfield Friday evening, this being the herd driven thru the country from Midland, Texas, on the T. & P. Railroad, 125 miles south of here, to Dalhart, one of the extreme points of the Panhandle to the north. The parties were unable to get sufficient water for this number of cattle (1900 head) and had to stop here and load out. The only place a herd like this can water is in the big ranches. And this time of the year, when we have little wind to turn the mills the ranches are nearly always short on water.

Arnet Bynum and wife were on their way to the Methodist church last Sunday night about dark, and were pushing their baby in the perambulator in front of them when they met a car driven by one of the Jeter boys who live south of town, and the light from the car so blinded Arnet that he was unable to see which way to go. The car knocked Arnet and the perambulator out of the way, and wrecked one wheel of the baby buggy, and threw the baby out. No one was seriously hurt as luck would have it. People should be very careful how they drive on crowded streets and it will not hurt anything if the city government would enforce the dimmer law if they have such a law, or we are going to have a serious accident, one of these days.

While helping to load out a freighter with a truck of oil and gas at the Magnolia Oil Station last Friday, the manager of the concern in Brownfield, Tom May, was painfully hurt. It seems that the loading was finished and the truck man started up, and ran into a piece of piping, which turned and he could not pass over. Tom thinking he would reverse the truck, put his hand under the pipe to move it when he did, but instead the driver put all power on forward and rolled the pipe with the weight of the truck over on Tom's hand. Tom was hurried to a local physician who dressed the hand, and he is getting along as well as could be expected now.

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.

A PROMISING CITIZEN MAKES HOME IN LUBBOCK

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Coleman, Friday, June 2nd, a fine seven pound boy.

Mother and babe are getting along fine, and the youngster has expressed a desire to remain in Lubbock and become a visible part of that great spirit that has made Lubbock the greatest town in West Texas.

We are always glad to welcome new citizens to the town, and extend the young Mr. Coleman a glad hand of fellowship and good will.

Fry, No. 1466 on the Docket of said Court, and to me, as Sheriff, directed and delivered, I did, on the 27th day of May, A. D. 1922, at 9 o'clock A. M., levy upon the following described tracts and parcels of land situated in Cochran and Yoakum Counties, Texas, and belonging to H. B. Smith, to-wit: All of Section Two (2) in Block "Q", containing 640 acres of land in Cochran County, Texas, and all of Section Three (3) in Block "Q" containing 640 acres of land in Cochran and Yoakum Counties, Texas; levied on as the property of the defendant, H. B. Smith, on the 4th day of July, A. D. 1922, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. on said day, at the Court-house door of Hockley County, Texas, in the town of Leveland I will offer for sale and sell at public auction, for cash, all the right, title and interest of the said H. B. Smith, in and to said property.

Witness my hand, this 27th day of May, A. D. 1922.

(Seal) J. A. STROUD,
Sheriff of Hockley County, Texas 28-4t

Ku Klux Klan Send Representatives to Church in Slaton and Contribute Neat Sum to the Church—Public Letter

Rev. Jno. P. Hardesty,
Pastor Baptist Church,
Rev. A. V. Hendricks,
Pastor Methodist Church,
Slaton, Texas.
Gentlemen:—

Herewith we respectfully present to you this communication, which we request be read to your congregation, and given to the press.

No fact is better known to the world than that the Ku Klux Klan stands for Righteousness, both in private and public life. This peerless organization now outnumbers in membership any other secret society in the world, and is composed of hand picked men who stand for square and uncompromisingly for law and order, 100 per cent Americanism, white supremacy, our pure womanhood, and a moral, law abiding community.

The Ku Klux Klan has two classes of enemies, namely, the lawless, criminal elements on the one hand, and the good, upright citizens on the other, who are yet ignorant of the principles, objects, purposes and ideals for which the Klan stands, and the great need of its existence in our American life. We are the uncompromising enemies of those first named, and the loyal, dependable, effective and ever present friends of the class last named.

We desire to take this means of announcing that recently Slaton Klan has been organized, with a very large membership composed of worthy, tried and true citizens of Slaton and community, all native born, Gentile, white men, bound together by a solemn and binding oath ever to support and uphold the Constitution of the United States of America and of the State of Texas and all constitutional laws. The members of this organization do not stand for self, but for others. Our motto is: "Duty, without fear and without reproach." The white robes and hoods you have this night beheld symbolize the effacement of self, and are emblems of purity, honor and righteousness. We are determined in the cause of right, justice and liberty, covering up our identity, and seeking unselfishly to serve the highest interests of humanity. No favors do we seek for ourselves; we are contented with the good we can do, and we shall ever fight without quarter for the ideals for which we stand. The ideals of the white man of the American, we shall preserve and protect unswerving against enemies from within and without. Let all friends of these ideals rally to our standard; let all enemies beware.

We wish to assure you that we are the friend of the churches. No one who does not believe in the tenets of the Christian religion can be one of us. You stand for and preach the great principles of conduct and of life for which we stand. Your cause and our cause are one. We pledge to you our constant and effective support at all times. We stand solidly back of the support our established courts and all true officers of the law. We demand the enforcement of the laws and orderly administration of justice through the courts. We pledge to them our best and most diligent efforts in their work. We denounce mob violence, and we denounce weak, unscrupulous, prejudiced and timid officials, and call upon all true citizens to help us elect officers who are worthy and competent.

Our work is in and about Slaton. We propose that this shall be a clean moral community, where we can rear our children in a clean, wholesome atmosphere. This is not the condition at present. We know the enemies of our daughters, our womanhood and our homes. Our eyes are open; our ears are alert. The gamblers, blackguards, swindlers, defrauders, bootleggers and instigators of crime must go or reform. We denounce loafing about our streets by parasites who have no visible means of an honest and honorable livelihood. We see, we hear and we gather evidence. These criminals are known to us but they do not know us.

We desire to make it known that we are the loyal friend of every true man, woman and child everywhere, and none such have need to fear the Ku Klux Klan. We are your devoted, untiring, ever present friends. We stand for honesty, morality and all that is high, noble and true in American life. We oppose unrelentingly all persons, acts and things that are the enemies of these principles and ideals.

The Ku Klux Klan is not in violation of law. The wearing of robes and masks violates no law. Despite all calumnies and misrepresentations of our enemies, the Klan has committed no crime, but opposes criminal acts and lawlessness in whatever form and from whatever source.

In conclusion, we trust that you will find it in your hearts to accept and use the One Hundred and Ten Dollars in currency which we herewith hand you, in the same spirit in which it is presented. It is a small token of the esteem in which you and each of you are held by the members of Slaton Klan, and in appreciation of the great work you are doing for our city, our homes and the cause of righteousness.

In the name and for the glory of God, Country and Manhood. We also herewith hand you a card upon which is printed the principles for which the Ku Klux Klan stands.

Yours for Righteousness and a clean Slaton.
Respectfully yours,
Slaton Klan No. U. D.,
Realm of Texas,
Invisible Empire,
Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

SERVANT GIRL WOULDN'T GO IN CELLAR, FEARING RATS

Mrs. Tepper, Plainfield, N. J., says "Rats were so bad in our cellar the servant girl wouldn't go there. Bought some RAT-SNAP and it cleaned all the rats out." RAT-SNAP destroys rats and mice. Absolutely prevents odors. Comes in cake form, no mixing. Cats or dogs won't touch it. Three sizes, 3c, 6c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Cole-Myrick Hdw. Co. and City Drug Store.

Bear in mind—there may be millions of copies but there can never be but the one original.

At last, character never rises above its plane of thought.

---AND THINK

It pays the man who is trying to get ahead to pause every now and then and consider results experienced in the past. Deep reflection often brings to mind things that are valuable in applying to every-day business.

We think that now would be a good time for you to do that very thing. Prosperity is now about on hand and there are big lessons already learned if we but apply them to a useful purpose in the present and future.

When you are making money is the time to save part of it. The time comes to all of us when our earning power is diminished or shut off for a time.

A savings account here will aid you; a checking account here will help you—and we'll appreciate either or both.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to cause to be posted for twenty days, exclusive of the day of posting, in three of the most public places in Lubbock County, one of which shall be at the Court House door, and no two of which shall be in the same city or town, and also, cause to be published in the newspaper published in Lubbock County, for more than twelve months, for twenty days, copies of the following notice, which has this day been filed by me, to-wit: No. 239, Estate of R. H. Lowrey, deceased, in the County Court of Lubbock County, Texas, in Probate.

To all persons interested in the Estate of R. H. Lowrey, deceased: You will take notice that at the end of twenty days from the service hereof, we will apply to the Clerk of the County Court of Lubbock County, Texas, for a commission to take the deposition of J. E. Chase, who resides at Newcastle, in Young County, Texas, in answer to the direct interrogatories propounded to him, a copy of which is this day filed with the Clerk of said Court in the above cause, to be read as evidence in behalf of S. E. Lowrey, W. S. Posey, and R. L. Lowrey, applicants for the probate of the Last Will and Testament and Codicil thereto of R. H. Lowrey, deceased, on the trial of said cause.

HOW WOULD THIS LOOK ON YOUR LOT

Why shouldn't a garage be good looking when the cost is no more.

The gothic roofed garage pictured above is an ornament to any property and its cost is no more than for the usual unsightly kind.

It is no longer necessary to disfigure a property in order to provide shelter for a car. We furnish complete plans and all material for a gothic roofed garage—any handy man can build it, but you can't beat a carpenter at his own trade. See us for plans, material and cost.

WHY SUFFER FROM RHEUMATISM?

Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment? The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

EL PASO WANTS CONNECTIONS WITH SOUTH PLAINS

Seminole, June 3.—The El Paso Chamber of Commerce, working on a suggestion of H. W. Rowe, receiver, will launch a movement for the completion of the Midland & Northwestern railroad from this city to Seagraves, a distance of approximately eighteen miles, giving El Paso a direct connection with the heart of the Plains section. The connecting lines would be Texas & Pacific to Midland; Midland & Northwestern to Seagraves.

The Midland and Northwestern is one of the short lines of West Texas which has not operated in several months. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is very much interested in this line and desires to see it give the people of Seminole and intermediate territory a dependable service. With the breaking up of large bodies of land, it is believed this object can be achieved.

The national house, a few days ago, passed by a vote of 222 to 73 a bill which authorizes the deportation of aliens convicted of violating not only the federal, but state prohibition laws, as well. The bill also penalizes aliens violating federal or state narcotic laws. The measure was violently attacked by "wet" sympathizers, but availed nothing. —Fort Worth Record.

We Give Standard Willard Service on All Batteries

With our experience and equipment we have a notion that we could work out a pretty fair sort of battery service without much help.

But we also have an idea that it wouldn't measure up to the brand of service developed for our use by the Willard Storage Battery Company.

As Battery Headquarters we have the benefit of their years of experience, and of the definite national standards of service they have been able to develop as a result.

Come in! No matter what make of battery you happen to have it needs the sort of attention provided by the Willard Standard of Service.
