LUBBOCK INVADED BY AMARILLO BOOSTERS, BUT NO DAMAGE DONE

RAT TA TAT TAP OF THE DRUM CORPS AND DISTINCTIVE TONES OF BRASS BAND ANNOUNCED APPROACH

THOSE FELLOWS KNOW HOW TO HAVE FUN

Odes to Lubbock, Keen and Martin Were Sung With Enthusiasm, While a Bank President Showed Us the Latest Thing in Dancing. Attractive Lady Escorted the Delegation.

Well, well! That Amarillo Booster Brigade has finally visited Lubbock, and if there is anyone in this town who, through association with those live wires, is not most favorably impressed with the spirit that has helped to develop that city, we are badly fooled.

Amid the ratta ta tap of the snare drums, mingled with distinctive tones from the large brass band, the delegation, led by L. T. Martin and the manager of the exposition, marched through the main thoroughfares, throwing hither and thither advertising souvenirs of every description, designed not only to attract one's attention to the individual's business, but also to place Amarillo foremost in the minds of the people, a characteristic which each and every true city patriot should see gets into his advertising.

The delegation was hardly half through their march when businessmen of Lubbock closed their minds from business, walked upon the streets to greet their visitors, and to mix and mingle the hearty spirit of co-operation so necessary in the development of great cities in West Texas.

After the "bunch" had sung several odes to Lubbock, Amarillo, Curtis A. Keen and L. T. Martin, the chairman of the entertaining committee introduced Lubbock's secretary-manager, L. T. Martin who welcomed the visitors, response being made by the Mayor of their city, who in a brief message, told the bunch that Amarillo stands ready at all times to join hands with Lubbock in a concerted effort for the development of two great cities.

"We like the city of Lubbock and her people. You show every indication of progressiveness. Your paved streets, wonderful buildings, extraordinary trade territory and the things you are doing represent a great tangible spirit that makes for greater things, and we admire you for that. We do not want to take anything from Lubbock. We would do nothing to hinder or retard the progressiveness here, and assure you that if we are extended the same kind feeling and respect, these two cities will continue to grow, their peoples will remain happy, prosperous and progressive," he said, to which absolute approval was indicated through the many cheers which went up from his hearers.

There is no getting around the fact that Amarillo knows how to play. Those fellows pulled some fine "stuff" here, which was marked with enthusiastic willingness to work on the part of each and every individual. They literally "took in the town" among the most interesting and entertaining stunts of the bunch was a bank president, whose name we failed to catch, who pulled off the very latest dancing stunt that has been brought to Lubbock. The band, drum corps and many spectators made enough fuss for the actor to get enthusiastic about his work, and the things he did are unimaginable for a man of his age. He proved that the Amarillo businessmen know how to play the most winning character in one's opinion, with which a grasp could be possessed.

That was a fine looking delegation, and that Amarillo is the home of some mighty good looking "wimmen" was shown in the fact that possibly never before has a more attractive lady visited this city than the escort of that delegation. With beautiful auburn hair that hung in delicate curls about the shapely, (very shapely indeed) neck and shoulders, an olive complexion, most noticeable and well tailored gown of Indian woven tweed, slippers of the very latest fashion, and hose directly from the style centers of the world, Miss Pressman, of one of the leading newspapers of that city, appeared in all the radiance and grace known only to the leader of such extraordinary expedition, whose appearance in Lubbock attracted the attention of a score of admirers.

The delegation was divided into two groups for the noontime lunch, seventy-five having been entertained at the Manhattan Cafe, and fifty at the Merrill Hotel, where most enjoyable entertainment in which Lubbock and Amarillo businessmen participated, was enjoyed.

We were glad to have those fellows come to Lubbock. We were glad to have them become acquainted with this city, and we are again glad to be said truthfully that the Plains towns of importance are not pulling together. Lubbock is for Amarillo and Amarillo is for Lubbock, bound by similar ambitions, friendly though common love and respect for one another, and all pulling for the development of the greatest section anywhere, jealousy is unnecessary, superstition and selfishness are forgotten in the bigness of the work in which the people of these great towns are engaged.

W. S. Diffendaffer Died Last Saturday P. M. at His Home

W. S. Diffendaffer died at the home of Rev. B. C. Ross, two miles southwest of Lubbock, after an illness of long duration. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church at three o'clock Friday afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Lubbock cemetery by the Woodmen of the World, of which order he was a member.

Sketch of His Life.

William Shelton Diffendaffer was born in Denton County, Texas, on August 6, 1866. His sojourn on earth was 55 years, 10 months and 9 days. His father and mother were both taken away while he was yet a small child, leaving him to shift from pillar to post and from place to place. He professed religion in early boyhood and lived a consistent Christian life and a member of the Methodist Church, South. He served as Sunday School Superintendent, Steward, and other responsible positions in the church. His father was a Methodist preacher of the Sixties, who served well his days and generation, and under whose ministry many noble Christians were born into the kingdom, one of whom is H. T. Hill, late of the West Texas Conference.

Mr. Diffendaffer had been a constant, yet uncomplaining sufferer for the past seven years. Three years ago his eyesight failed him entirely, which of course added much to his afflictions. Still he bore it all patiently and joyfully, anticipating a brighter day, when he would be released from all suffering, which he was, Friday afternoon, when he calmly crossed over.

CHAS. BURRUS JR., IN LOCAL SANITARIUM

Chas. Burrus Jr., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burrus, pioneer of Lubbock county, is in a local medical and surgical institution, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis Saturday evening.

Charles and his brother Burton, accompanied their parents to the Jim Burrus ranch fifty miles west of town Friday, and Charles began to suffer early Saturday morning. After a few hours it was deemed necessary to bring him to town, the fifty-mile trip being very hard on him indeed, as the examination made immediately upon their arrival in town revealed that his case was long developed, and the appendix was in danger of rupture, therefore the operation was made as soon as possible, which we are glad proved successful from every view-point, and he is resting well at this time.

Many friends called at the sanitarium to visit him Sunday, who wish for him an immediate return to health.

Charles has been employed at the Lubbock Candy Company since school closed, and his absence is keenly felt by his fellow workers.

1400 STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED IN NORMAL FOR SUMMER

President J. A. Hill reported this morning that there were 1400 students attending the summer quarter of the West Texas State Normal College.

A number of students have enrolled during this week, and others are expected to come. The enrollment is now far above that of last year.

Of those enrolled about 400 are here preparing for the state examinations, while the remainder are taking the credit work.

There are still many rooms in the city available to care for those who will come late.—Randall County News.

LOCAL ITEMS CLIPPED FROM CROSBYTON REVIEW

W. M. Turner, a young man connected with the Texas Company at Plainview, and Mrs. Clara Mitchell of the same city, were married at the Methodist parsonage in Crosbyton last Friday afternoon, Rev. H. C. Gordon officiating.

Judge Pink L. Parrish has resided in Crosby county for the past twenty years, and the other day he remarked to the Review man that he had never seen such a good crop prospect in this country as we now have. With the good bottom season in the ground that he has he says it will take very little more rain to make a bumper crop.

F. M. Malone, schoolman of Haskell county, was a Lubbock visitor the first of this week.

LOCALS FROM THE TERRY COUNTY HERALD

Tom May and family and Simon Holgate and family, left this week for Devil's River, near the Texas-Mexico border, to fish for a few days. They will be joined in San Angelo by A. M. Brownfield and family, who are now visiting at Sterling City.

In the recent election in the Loop, (Gaines County) school district, the proposition to raise the tax rate from 50 to 75 cents on the $100 valuation, and also the proposition to vote a bond issue of $7,000 to erect a brick school building, were both defeated, and as a result, it is said there will be no school to amount to anything in that district, as the school population has grown from 25 to 75 in the past twelve months. With the rapid increase in population in this part of the country, it is a real proposition to provide adequate schools, and the people can surely set back the development of the country by defeating school propositions.

REPRESENTATIVE N. M. M. I. IN LUBBOCK SATURDAY

H. P. Saunders, Jr., of the N. M. M. I., at Roswell, was in Lubbock the first of the week, looking after the interest of that institution, soliciting students for the next term.

The New Mexico Military Institute graduates took an active and conspicuous part in the winning of the last war, and any young person given an opportunity to attend one of Military schools, could not in our estimation, avail himself of a greater opportunity than that of attending the one at Roswell.

There are several graduates from that school in Lubbock, men of whom the city is proud, and who take an active part in the development of social, religious and industrial life of the city.

COURTROOM A FRIENDLY PLACE FOR SEMINOLE MAN

Buck Curry, of Seminole, with the First State Bank, of that place, was in Lubbock Saturday and called at the court house to visit with his old friends who are in the business of law practicing.

While we did not get it clearly, we understand that somewhere back in the history of his yearlings he became associated with the lawyers and jurists as a District Judge, and the scene of a legal contest is sport for him, and inasmuch as Lubbock attorneys are live wires, and know how to stage a real "fight" we are assured his visits here will be a source of much wholesome entertainment. Judge W. R. Spencer, of the District Court, is an able attorney, and to associate oneself with him, to become acquainted with one of the hardest fighting lawyers in West Texas, and we do not blame Mr. Curry for the interest he is taking in the Lubbock courts.

AVALANCHE MARRIED AT FORT WORTH SATURDAY

H. A. Mabry, of the job printing department of the Avalanche, who has been visiting friends in McKinney, returned to his work Monday, and revealed the fact that he was married at Fort Worth Saturday evening, to Miss Maudie Brumbaugh, of McKinney.

Miss Brumbaugh is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brumbaugh, of Greenville, Texas, and Mr. Mabry is indeed fortunate to have secured for his life associate, one of such accomplishments and abilities of Miss Brumbaugh.

They are now comfortably located in Lubbock, and Mr. Mabry's friends of the Avalanche force and the town, are glad to welcome them.

LOCAL ATTORNEYS TAKE BAR EXAMS AT AUSTIN

Attorneys C. W. Beene and Owen W. McWhorter, left Friday of last week from Austin, where they took the bar examination.

Both are young men of exceptional legal ability, and are taking their places among the really active attorneys of West Texas. The only thing that worries us about them is that they both deserve the best consideration of the voters, and there is only one office of County Attorney and they are both after that one. "This is a pity" that there are not enough county offices to give every good man who runs for one an electing vote.

SNYDER WILL HAVE BRASS BAND IN NEAR FUTURE

Snyder, June 15.—The Snyder Chamber of Commerce will guarantee the support of a brass band, which is being organized here. The band idea was taken from the recent West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Plainview. H. P. Leavell, for five years with Brunks' comedians, has been engaged as bandmaster.

COTTON DESTROYED IN BROWNFIELD SECTION

Brownfield, June 15.—The extremely heavy hailstorm of several days ago almost totally ruined the crops in the eastern part of the county. An appeal to interests in this section for all available cotton seed for replanting has been made.

Royce Waters, who has been attending A. & M. College the past term was in McKinney enroute to his home at Lubbock, Texas. He spent Tuesday and Tuesday night in this city the guest of his aunt, Madame D. L. Nelson, W. L. Sullivan and J. O. Wilcox and families.—McKinney Examiner.

1,300 CHRISTIAN WOMEN KILLED BY TURK TROOPS

London, June 14.—Charges that 1,300 Christian women and children were taken by the Turks from Smyrna on the Black Sea to the interior and massacred near Kavak two weeks ago are contained in a telegram received by the Greek defense committee here from Archbishop Helotisa Metaxakis, Greek patriarch of Constantinople.

The British Government has agreed to the French proposal to limit the period to be covered by the investigation into atrocities in Asia Minor to the last year, it was said in well informed circles today, but has declined to attempt to punish the guilty in view of the American attitude which favors merely making known the facts in the case.

The British have also declined to reinvestigate alleged Greek excesses during the evacuation of the Dardanelles.

The appointment of a commission for the Asia Minor investigation, it was said, is to be left to the four commissioners in Constantinople.

REV. B. F. TINGLE OF ALABAMA HERE THURSDAY

Rev. B. F. Tingle, a cousin of G. H. Hilton was here this week on a visit. He had been holding a protracted meeting at Plains assisting Rev. Oden, pastor of that church, and reports a very fine meeting. Rev. Tingle was here some twelve years ago, and was very much surprised to see the growth of Lubbock and the development of the South Plains country in general. He says "if people could get the people of Alabama to once see this country, everything would be for sale there." While here Rev. Tingle enjoyed a reunion meeting of the Hilton families when forty-one relatives assembled at the home of Mrs. S. L. Smith in the New Home community Monday and enjoyed several hours singing and otherwise enjoying themselves. Rev. Tingle will visit his sister, Mrs. Pinkston, at Paducah, after which he will return to his home in Alabama.

CONCERT FOR PIANO FUND AT MONROE SATURDAY NIGHT

A concert will be given at the Monroe school house Saturday night by the Everton-Edwards musicians of Lubbock.

Admission charge will be twenty-five cents, proceeds to go to the piano fund. The people of that community are to be congratulated for having purchased the piano, and it is indeed fortunate that the Lubbock musicians will take an active part in helping them meet the payments. We understand the Everton-Edwards people will render a concert free of charge, and that all the money derived from this meeting will go to the piano fund.

JONNIE GETS FOUR MORE GAMBLERS SATURDAY

John McCulloch, well known local law enforcer, has four more gamblers to his credit, and we are mighty glad to learn again that Justice of the Peace Smith administered the law well and proper, and the fellows were taxed enough to make them realize that gambling in Lubbock is a very expensive pastime.

At a little after four o'clock last Saturday afternoon, Johnnie made an informal call on the Broadway street, and on reaching the third floor discovered that there was a game going on in room seventeen, which he immediately entered, taking his victims to the courthouse.

Two of the men who had been caught at gaming before were fined $37.70 each, one $35.70, and the fourth, who had never been caught gaming before was fined $25.70.

When officers and judges work together impartially and without fear for the suppression of gambling and kindred criminalities, the lawless element is made to take notice, and often seek better fields for their activities.

Hop to them fellows. The people of Lubbock county want you to administer justice in every case, and to inflict punishment upon those who are unmindful of the law, and their duties to civilization.

ROBERTS SPEAKS TO VOTERS OF CROSBY COUNTY

Chas. W. Roberts, candidate for Representative of the 119th District, arrived in Lubbock Saturday from Crosby County, where he spent a week in the interest of his campaign.

Everything in that section looks mighty good for a bumper harvest, and all the farmers are well along with their work, according to Mr. Roberts.

In the meantime he was very active in the interest of his campaign, having made five speeches to the voters of that section while there.

Miss Eva Everton arrived in Lubbock Thursday, from B. M. U. where she completed a course of study the past term. She is the daughter of E. M. Everton, formerly of Wichita Falls, who came to Lubbock a few weeks ago to go into the music store business. Miss Everton took a conspicuous and important part in entertainments pertaining to the school work through the term, is a talented musician of extraordinary ability, and is heartily received at Lubbock, though this was her first time to be in the city, the family having moved here from Wichita Falls while she was away to school.

CHARTER PRESENTATION MEETING OF KIWANIS CLUB HELD THURSDAY

DR. STOUT, OF TEXAS WOMEN'S COLLEGE, ADDRESSED MEMBERSHIP URGING APPLICATION OF PRINCIPLES

METHODIST LADIES SERVED THE BANQUET

Was the Most Ideal Meeting the Club Has Held, and Through the Teachings of Dr. Stout Better Work Will be Accomplished By the Kiwanians in the Future.

Charter Presentation meeting for the local Kiwanis Club was one of the most pleasant and entertaining occasions the club has enjoyed since its coming into existence, three and a half months ago.

The program committee certainly did justice to themselves and the club in arranging the entertainment.

The Methodist ladies served the banquet, which was mighty good, and a credit to their culinary abilities.

President Hutchinson called the house to order at about eight thirty, introducing E. L. Klett, chairman of the day, who was greeted with enthusiasm by the assembly with readings of much success, the club having on several occasions proven itself a singing club, certainly maintained that reputation, at the close of which the chairman announced eating time, which was a mighty good time for all indeed, as everything that could be hoped for was spread upon the long tables, daintily dressed, attentive waitresses offered every courtesy and attention to the participants in that great feat, at the close of which roll call was made, and it was regrettable indeed that several of the most enthusiastic Kiwanians were out of town, and others were unable for other reasons to attend.

Mrs. Joe Hilton, accompanied by Miss Winnie Bates, gave two beautifully executed numbers, which were appreciated and enjoyed beyond expression.

Mrs. Curtis A. Keen, in a very able manner, gave a very beautiful and thought inspiring reading, and when she was compelled, by cheerful insistence on the part of her hearers, to give the second one, a comical one was properly given, which received much applause. Mrs. Keen has been very generous with the Club, having on previous occasions entertained the members with readings of exceptional beauty and appeal.

Kiwanian, Mayor Percy Spencer, in an appropriate, brief message of welcome to the distinguished guest, Lieut. District Governor, Dr. H. E. Stout of Fort Worth, introduced him, from whom a very entertaining, instructive Charter Presentation address was heard.

Dr. Stout is a Kiwanian who knows the principles on which the Club is founded, and we were indeed fortunate to have had him visit Lubbock, and to give the members here a higher conception of their duties as Kiwanians, and a more enthusiastic view of their responsibilities as citizens of the city in which we live.

He was favorably impressed with

LEAGUE SOCIAL WILL BE GIVEN FRIDAY EVENING

The social committee of the Epworth League of the Lubbock Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has been very active the past several weeks, and to bring a few of their accomplishments to light, a social is planned to be held Friday evening, which all Leaguers are urged to attend.

Sunday evening's program, led by Miss Blanche Bean, was exceedingly interesting, as Miss Bean and others had spent considerable time in arranging the program, and urging attendance, their work was awarded, as the largest attendance in some time was present. Social meetings and their value to the League were discussed.

YOUNG PEOPLE WED AT LITTLEFIELD SUNDAY

L. Leonard Ogden, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. E. B. Leonard, and Miss Verna Ogden, June 18th. The writer officiating. Mr. Leonard is a young and prosperous merchant at Ranger, Texas, and Miss Ogden has been engaged as a stenographer at the same town and came home to be married. These young people are both of high standing in church circles and constant workers for the cause of right.

Rev. D. C. Ross.

OKLAHOMA MEN HERE ON A PROSPECTING TRIP

T. W. Stratt and son, H. B., and W. N. Bonds, were here last week prospecting.

The father and Mr. Bond are from El Reno, Oklahoma, while Mr. H. B. Stratt is from Fort Cobb. They are highly pleased with Lubbock County and the Plains, and were certainly in hopes they will invest in property here.

A. G. Gilber, formerly of the Aberdeen, was here last week.

Those who are in every respect, the value of making a town better by working for its advancement.

Lubbock. "The people here are to be congratulated for the splendid building they have accomplished, and the appearance of the town," he said.

As president of the Women's College at Fort Worth, Dr. Stout has had a wonderful opportunity to study human nature, and expressed the opinion that Kiwanis Clubs and all other similar organizations have a conspicuous part to take in guiding the destiny of the people of this country, referring to the home as the stronghold of modern civilization, where the men and women of tomorrow learn the principles of the golden rule, from where the light of which is cast upon the days of the future.

With a common love and high respect for creators of God's likeness, Dr. Stout is rendering a service to the people of Texas, and other sections so far as that is concerned, which cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, or bound into a tangible mass or form. Service to all mankind is emanated from his splendid teachings, a higher regard for the greatness of clean living and constructive efforts being impressed upon the minds of those with whom he is associated.

A historian of exceptional understanding of world conditions, Dr. Stout classified the peoples of the earth into two groups. One of which has builded upon the sound foundation of mental wealth, while the other, grouping in ignorance, selfishness and disregard for their fellowmen, built their nations upon the unstable and destructible foundation of material wealth, crumbled beneath the load of their own wrongdoing, which, he says, should be taken to heart, and looked upon as a great lesson to all builders of nations.

In a most impressive manner, and with words of instructions, eloquently spoken, the Charter was presented by the chairman, E. L. Klett. Mrs. Frank Barclay and Mr. Luther Meredith were booked for the closing number, but as Mrs. Barclay was out of town, Mr. Meredith was persuaded to sing alone, which he did with much effect, and when the first number was finished, and he had been compelled to sing another, "I'm Just a Second-Handed Rose," was given.

The Kiwanis Club in Lubbock is here to stay and build, and with the spirit that prompts the members to go forward, ever expanding in the fertile field of opportunities for them, it is making rapid headway in becoming one of the most effective organizations in West Texas. There are sixty-two members in the club at this time.

PRINTER ROUNDS OUT 25 YEARS AT MCKINNEY OFFICE

Will J. Edwards, linotype operator and foreman of The Examiner office, has just rounded out a quarter of a century of service with that paper. He was reared in McKinney and began his apprenticeship with The Examiner editors, when a small lad. Industry, perseverance and fidelity to duty and employer have ever characterized Will, who has long since become an expert at his trade. Such a splendid record on one job is a credit alike to both that splendid power and its trusted foreman. Mr. Edwards is happily married, has three fine little children and has a good home of his own and other means besides. He is an honest, modest, Christian gentleman who is unhesitatingly esteemed by all of his acquaintances.—McKinney Examiner.

BEASTLY OLD CANE GOT TOO DEVILISH

Wichita Falls, Texas, June 15.—Walking canes are becoming so strong in this neck of the prairie that they are almost walking alone. A well dressed stranger accompanied his "stick" down the street this afternoon.

He literally strutted his stuff with the cane, swinging it rather cleverly with an English twist. But the beastly old thing got devilish. It fell from his hand. Chief of Police McCormick, who was trailing behind, became suspicious. He invited the owner of the cane to tip its lid. The walking stick contained a pint of honest-to-goodness liquor.

BROWNFIELD EXPECTS BUMPER COTTON CROP

Brownfield, June 15.—From 3,000 to 10,000 bales of cotton and 500,000 ears of corn will be shipped from the Brownfield country this season, according to present prospects. About two inches of rain fell last week and although the hail did considerable damage, Terry County is in monumental clover.

Militarist Spoke at Lindsey Theatre Thursday Night

Col. Edward Coppock, assistant Chief of Staff of the 90th. division with headquarters at San Antonio, was in Lubbock three days this week on military duty, the object of which was to deliver to the people of Lubbock, and all other places where he is enabled to speak, the importance of turning the military policies of the United States into the hands of the people, and in two addresses, one at the Rotary Club Wednesday noon, and at the Lindsey theatre that evening, explained in detail the gigantic program now on foot to maintain a reserve army sufficient to meet any emergency which may arise. He pointed out how, in past years lives of strong, able men were needlessly wasted because of insufficient training for one thing, and their being misplaced for another.

The program as now outlined is to place every man of past military service into the place in army service to which he is best suited by his business, profession or education prior to entering the army service, and which, according to statistics, is the best means of placing men on a most successful basis. Before entering a division, the young men are put through three training courses, known as the Red, White and Blue courses, the completion of which entitles them to a place in a division, these divisions are properly equipped, but the equipment is stored in the various camp depots, and not put into use until on such occasions where the men are called together for service. Lubbock was very glad to welcome Col. Coppock to this city; and many people enjoyed his instructive talks.

Director W. T. C. of C. VISITED HERE WEDNESDAY
Dr. O. H. Lloyd, of Vega, member of the Board of Directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was in Lubbock Wednesday looking after the interest of the Wheat Growers' Association in which he is interested.

While in Lubbock, Dr. Lloyd called on the Avalanche, and spoke many compliments of this section of the Plains and the progressiveness of her people.

Needless to say he was a welcomed guest, we are always glad to be associated with the men who possess abilities to know the commercial and industrial possibilities, and to be able to recognize the true spirits of the people, in whatsoever country he may visit.

COONS PARTICIPATE IN SHOOTING SCRAP TUESDAY

The Negro section of Lubbock was the scene of much excitement Tuesday evening when two coons became enraged over alleged cheating in a card game, a fist fight being hotly contested by the two.

One of the negroes, after having had little luck with the tame method of warfare, left the flat, and after spending a few minutes in town, went back armed with a sixshooter.

His adversary, in the meantime, got out his pistol, but on being run away from the house where he was boarding by the proprietor, fled to a nearby outbuilding, and on reaching the place discovered the other negro, who immediately started shooting, five shots being exchanged, but as they were about one hundred yards apart, and the one who had the pistol tried to run and shoot at the same time, no harm was done.

They were brought before the city court Wednesday morning, and after paying a fine for city disturbances, were taken to the county court, where a one hundred dollar fine and costs was meted out to them.

J. R. French, of Lamesa, was here on business Friday.

POOR KID—SOMEONE IS ALWAYS TAKING JOY AWAY

One of the biggest boosters the Amarillo delegation had along Friday was Mr. Gilvin, of the real estate firm of Gilvin & Gilvin of that city, who carried with him a bunch of cards, on which was printed the name and location of the firm, together with the picture of a crying baby, which he tried to explain was crying because it had discovered its thoughtless parents had bought real estate from some firm other than Gilvin & Gilvin, but a Lubbockite had a different interpretation of the meaning of the crying child, which was sprung on the realtor. "Wrong firm, nothing," he said. "That kid's parents just bought the property in some other town than Lubbock, and he has a perfectly sound right and reason for the sob stuff." But as the train left about that time we don't know whether or not Mr. Gilvin was convinced of the substantiality of the latter interpretation.

E. C. Barnett was in town Saturday from his fine farm six miles northwest of Lubbock transacting business. Mr. Barnett is one of the live wires of the Plains farmers, and knows how to make every day count, which is always proven at his farm in the fall harvest.

Soldiers May Home- stead 640 Acres of New Mexico Land

A wire was received at the office of Adjutant Bennett Slagle, of the local American Legion Thursday, stating that all comrades interested in home-steading in New Mexico should go to Fort Sumner, N. M., soon, as the best lands were going fast, and from our understanding of the telegram the opportunities are exceptionally fine, and should be grasped with enthusiasm and confidence.

It is stated in the wire that if a soldier had seen nineteen months service, only seven months residence was required to obtain six hundred and forty acres.

It is set out in the telegram that any soldier who would avail himself of this wonderful opportunity, use his head right, would make a stake in that proposition, and we are confident of the substantiality of that statement.

The telegram was received from C. H. Floyd, Commander, Fort Sumner, N. M., and anyone desiring information should get in touch with him. The message closes with the instructions that "full information will be given at your expense." New Mexico lands are someday to prove very valuable, we believe, and insist that the ex-soldiers at least look into the matter in order that the proper information of what our government is offering them may be received.

BALLOTS CALL FOR STRIKE, IT IS SAID

Chicago, Ill., June 14.—The United States Railroad Labor Board today signed a decision cutting between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 from the wages of additional classes of railroad employes, principally the clerks, station employes, express handlers and signalmen.

The new order which will bring recent wage cuts by the board to $150,000,000 annually will affect approximately 300,000 men and will be effective July 1, when the maintenance of way and shop employes also will receive wage reductions.

As the order was signed, an announcement came from the offices of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor here that the first strike ballots had been returned and that shop employes were voting overwhelmingly for a walkout. The strike ballots were recently sent out by the American Federation of Labor railway department leaders, returnable June 30. Later the time set was advanced to June 25, and it is reported that a strike may be called for July 1. The first ballots received were almost unanimous for a strike, it was stated.

It was also said the Brotherhood of Clerks, Express Handlers and Station Employes have received their strike ballots in advance of the labor board's decision which will probably be made public Friday. This decision will hit the "white collar" forces of the railroad unions.

No decision is immediately in sight for a wage cut for the 85,000 railroad telegraphers, according to the officers of the labor board. This class of employes will not receive a reduction until August, according to best information.

The pending decision is signed by the three railroad members and the three public members. A dissenting opinion by the three labor members will be entered in which the reduction will be criticized as being "unfair and unjustified."

FLOYDADA POST PLAN BARBECUE JULY FOURTH

Floydada, June 16.—The Landrum Post, American Legion, had a number of representatives present at the regular meeting of the McDermitt Post, American Legion, at Floydada. The object of the joint meeting was the completion and arrangement of plans for the program to be given by the Legions of the South Plains at the Lockney picnic and barbecue July 4 and 5. At that time, according to the plans made by the Posts Monday night, one of the biggest military exhibitions ever given in Floyd county will be pulled off. A great deal of enthusiasm is expressed by Commander Nelson of the local post of the American Legion, relative to the Lockney celebration. It is planned to make the American Legion end of the celebration an annual Fourth of July affair.

"SOLD ME AUTO; TOOK AWAY GASOLINE," SAYS FERGUSON

Austin, Texas, June 14.—"They sold me a high-powered automobile, but took away all the gasoline" former Governor James Z. Ferguson said, in commenting on the action of the Democratic State Executive Committee in placing his name on the ticket and refusing to recognize his beer and light wine platform plank and barring all but "dyed in the wool Democrats" from the July primaries.

He declined, however, to make any extended comment on the subject, saying that he wanted to have time to think the matter over before making any formal statement as to the situation in which the committee left him.

"I am feeling a good deal like the little boy when the calf ran over him," the former Governor said. "I am not saying anything just now, but later I may have something to say when I have had time to size up the situation and find out just how it all happened."

He did say that his "high-powered automobile" would be quite noticeable in the July primaries, although as yet he has not decided on just what fuel he will use for the locomotive power.

FLOYDADA ORGANIZES BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

Floydada, June 15.—A Floydada Baseball Association was organized by a number of Floydada baseball fans. R. E. Fry, J. R. Yearwood, and Walter Collins, were appointed directors of the association and were instructed by the association members to employ a manager and captain to make selection of the players and attend to other business of the team. It is expected to make the team up entirely of local men and have no professional men employed. Players have been developed in the Floydada Sunday School League and it is from this league that most of the players will be drawn.

Mrs. J. W. Burleson left Sunday for Mineral Wells, where they will spend about two weeks visiting.

BIG SPRING LUBBOCK

Preserving Eggs for Home Use

(By F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Husbandman, A. & M. College)

As a general rule eggs drop in price during the spring and summer months, and go up in price during the fall and winter months. For this reason it has been found practical to preserve eggs when they are cheap, for home consumption, when they are high in price. It is not practical to preserve eggs as a commercial undertaking, because the eggs must be sold as preserved eggs and not be sold as perfectly fresh ones. Preserving low priced eggs for home use, makes it possible to sell the high priced eggs in the fall and winter.

Kinds to Preserve.
Infertile eggs are the only ones to preserve, and these infertile eggs should be perfectly fresh. In warm weather they should be collected twice a day and placed in the preservative as they are collected. Dirty shell eggs or bad eggs or cracked ones should not be preserved. Eggs that float when placed in the solution are not fresh and should be discarded.

When the shell of an egg is only slightly soiled, a cloth dampened with vinegar may be used to remove such staining. When eggs are purchased, they should be carefully candled, because one bad egg may spoil the rest in the container.

Methods.
Of the various ways of preserving eggs, the water glass method is considered the best. The present price of sodium silicate (water glass) is from 25 to 35 cents a quart. At this price it will cost approximately 3 cents per dozen to preserve eggs. Do not use the solution a second time.

Use one quart of sodium silicate to nine parts of rain water that has been boiled and then cooled. Place in a five gallon jar or crock. This will be sufficient to preserve 15 dozen eggs. Place the crock containing the eggs in a cool and dry place, well covered to prevent evaporation. Two or three sheets of waxed paper covered over and tied around the top of the crock will prevent evaporation. Eggs may be placed in the solution as gathered. At least two inches of the solution should cover the top eggs. If evaporation reduces the liquid, add enough to keep the required two inches above the eggs.

Lime Water Method.
Sodium or water glass can be purchased in most any drug store, where it is impossible to get this, the lime water method may be used. This is not considered quite as satisfactory as the water glass method, because in some instances eggs so preserved have tasted slightly of lime. This may be due to the fact that some eggs have more thin and porous shells, allowing the solution to penetrate through the shell.

Shake two pounds of unslacked lime with a little water and add five gallons of water that has been boiled and allowed to cool. Allow the mixture to stand until it appears clear and the lime has settled. Then dip the clear lime water out and pour over the eggs until the top layer is covered by two inches of the mixture. We prefer an earthenware jar for the container.

Using Preserved Eggs.
Use the preserved eggs that were put up in the solution in the summer first, because they will not keep as long as those preserved in the spring. Eggs will keep from spring until winter in either of the previously described preservatives. Before boiling preserved eggs, puncture a small hole in the large end of the egg penetrating the air space, thus allowing the air in the egg to escape when heated and prevent the cracking of the shell. The yolk and white of preserved eggs do not possess the firmness of fresh eggs. Age deteriorates the membranes. Preserved eggs do not possess the firmness nor the flavor of fresh eggs.

Selling Preserved Eggs.
Preserved eggs cannot be sold as fresh eggs. They must be sold for what they really are. They are chiefly for home use, are also an economical factor in reducing the cost of living. Eggs in the spring selling for fifteen cents a dozen may be preserved at additional cost of three cents and used for at least fifty cents and sometimes more per dozen. Storing eggs as a commercial proposition requires cold storage facilities.

Cold Storage Eggs.
Storing eggs in cold storage is a business in itself. The great danger lies in the fact that when eggs are purchased a certain percentage are bad, unless they are removed by careful candling, they are apt to spoil the entire case. A cold storage plan can only keep the egg the way it is put in. The charges are reasonable but the danger lies in the fact that it is difficult to buy good fresh and infertile eggs for cold storage use.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

Advertisers, contributors and all parties interested in the Avalanche please remember these things: We print the Tuesday Avalanche on Monday, press hour, 3:30 p. m. Friday Avalanche on Thursdays, press hour 3:30 p. m. Please have copy for local notices in not later than noon Mondays and Thursdays. Ad changes and copy should not be later than 8:00 a. m. Mondays and Thursdays. It takes a schedule like this to get your ads in the paper in good shape, and helps us give our readers better service, which means that the paper will be of better service to you, which we earnestly desire it to be. We do not want to be exacting but we must demand some things of you, if you expect us to come up to the notch.

Now is the best time in the world to get in after the people of other states to come to his great country and become citizens here. In the Northern states where the land has reached the high water mark, and some of it is selling for five and six hundred dollars an acre, there is not much chance for the young man to get a home in that country. We believe one of the most effective methods of getting people to this country is to have professional representatives from various communities. We mean practical men—men who know farm land and men who know crops, and know what land is worth, to come down here and look over this country and make a thorough investigation of the farming conditions, and report back to his people. A thousand dollars spent in this way by the Chamber of Commerce would bring more people to this section, than ten times that amount of literature, and we are in the printing business, too. What we need in this country now is more farmers. Get an energetic farmer on every quarter section of land in the Lubbock trade territory, and you will see Lubbock grow faster than ever before. The paved streets and the new hotels and brick business houses will take care of themselves. We must get this rich agricultural land to working. This is the greatest resource in this country, and it is one worth while that we work on the job. This, we believe, could better be carried on through the Chamber of Commerce than any other way.

The Avalanche does not propose to straddle the fence on any question, and we have never failed to take sides on a question when we knew we were right, but there is one question that we have been unable to decide just which is right and which is wrong. Fact of the matter is, we are rather up a tree on this question. We have given space in the paper to a number of articles regarding the work of the Klan, and some things they have done, and in this issue will be found an article entitled "The Other Side of the K. K. K." by W. P. Florence, of Slaton. Mr. Florence takes a strong hand against them, or rather their methods of doing things, and to us, his arguments are worthy of consideration, and in order to give our readers both sides of the question we are allowing this article space. As Mr. Florence states in this article, there are many things that the K. K. K. stand for that we endorse, but the method they use do not get the endorsement of the people in general.

OTHER SIDE OF K. K. K. By W. P. Florence, Slaton, Texas. So much has been said from press and rostrum on the Ku Klux Klan, mostly excusing and encouraging them, that I feel it a citizen's duty to say something on the other side, especially to let the world know that at least one good citizen of Slaton does not endorse the K. K. K. methods. Deep, sober thinking forces the conclusion that if the K. K. K. with their past nature and methods, continue to grow in popularity, our free democracy in all but name will end. For all elections, court actions, and most preaching will be subject to the will of the "Invisible Empire." Yet, I am not greatly alarmed, as I see in the Ku Klux Klan, so far only an eruption on the body politic, caused by impurities and badly functioning which I think will soon be counteracted by better thinking. Thought, like the white corpuscles,

Remember tomorrow is the day for the tax election. From the way you folks seem to treat this matter, you are indifferent, and the result is liable to be disastrous. You had better wake up if you expect the schools of Lubbock to go forward, and do the work they are expected to do. We have voted bonds recently to build a new high school, now we are bound to have more taxes to bear the expense of carrying on the school. There will be more expense than ever before. The educational plant will be larger. It will have several hundred more pupils in it than ever before. It will require more teachers to instruct these pupils. It will require more coal to heat the buildings, and it will require more expense everywhere. An increase of forty cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property is asked by the school board, and they should have taken the other ten cents and made it a dollar. This is none to large for the work there is to do and the way it has to be done. The board is not extravagant. They are about the most economical set of men we ever saw. They have cut every corner, and the school is being run on less money than we dare say any other school in the country, yet much more is expected of them than any other in this section of the country. Teachers are paid about the smallest salaries of any class of professional people, though a lot of folks raise cane about the cost of running the schools. There should be enough really progressive people in this community to put this tax election over at least ten to one, and if the people will go to the polls there will be no question as to the result.

Another street marking and house numbering campaign is badly needed in Lubbock. Since the last campaign was made there has been several hundred houses erected in Lubbock and but few of them have been numbered. The street marking campaign was not completed, inasmuch as some of the streets have no marking at all. There will never be definite action taken toward free mail delivery till these two things especially are taken care of. The matter of cement walks is going on well, and many blocks of these much needed improvements are now under way. Let us keep up our end of the doubletree and urge Uncle Sam to keep up his, so that we can get all the conveniences and necessary equipment we need to take care of the postal service in Lubbock.

Lubbock is not professing a building boom, but honest to goodness, residence buildings just simply come up within a day, and it is hard for a lot of people to believe that buildings can be put up so rapidly. Sunday a week ago, three small piles of brick were noticed on a certain block in Lubbock, and by last Sunday, three nice residence buildings were noted gracing this same block. But forces of carpenters are put to work on these buildings and it does not take long to put them through to completion. Material is easy to get and hence there is no delay in building.

The Chamber of Commerce this week erected a beautiful sign at the entrance to the Tourist Park. This was the work of our local artist H. H. Jones and is truly a work of art. The sign stands directly in front of the park entrance, and bears the words: "Free Tourist Park, Free Shelter, fuel, lights, water and baths," bearing this inscription on both sides, those coming and those going can easily be directed to the park. We are advised that the sign was erected upon the recommendations and by the assistance of both the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce.

It is fly swatting time and also weed cutting time. Either of these are a menace to the health of the community. Flies should be kept out of the house, and as much as possible their breeding places destroyed around the premises. They are hatched in filth, and no place in town should be filthy. Cut the weeds and destroy them.

spooks and goblins. With our intelligent citizens, among whom are the most dangerous criminals, such methods as that of the Ku Klux Klan will only engender resentments and resolves to meet force with force and cunning with cunning and devilment will be increased. Might, terror and intimidation never did and never will make right. It is indeed hard for a reasoning mind to harmonize the idea of an "Invisible Empire" ruled by "Supreme Kleagles," and "Grand Goblins," and other royal spooks with 100 per cent Americanism. And the idea that our government needs the partnership or assistance of that "Empire" in its administrations would have been shocking to an American patriot.

I fear the Klan movement will weaken faith in our government. We could put out of business in a few hours the strongest bank in our town by starting agitation movements purporting to be necessary to make that bank efficient. The same psychology will apply in government. The Klan will supplant the government in the hearts of all who regard it as necessary to a proper rule. All good citizens heartily endorse most of the principles publicly advocated by the Klan but many of us can reason to no other conclusion than that its nature and methods will tend exactly opposite to its purposes. There cannot be serious doubt that public sentiment so favorable to such deeds as the tar and feathering at Slaton tended to encourage the mob that shed blood at Wilson. And to doubt that such deeds will increase as the activities of the Ku Klux Klan increase is unnatural.

If the same citizens that compose the Ku Klux Klan would spend the same time and money and thought in combining and co-operating as American citizens in helping our government to be more efficient as they do as members of an "invisible empire" the results would be much better. Our government provides for us in every way, and wrong-doing and makes it the duty of every citizen to help enforce the law. The excuse usually made in justification of Ku Klux Klan is that our courts and juries are too lenient. But the best that can be said of the Ku Klux is that they are the same material, or the same grade of material that compose our juries and officials. Then why can't they deal with criminals the same in law that they would in disguise and darkness. If the law will not permit proper action then correct the law. The answer is lack of moral courage. We are afraid if we boldly enforce the law we will be hurt in business or influence. Therefore we go under mask to do what we ought to do openly and thereby cultivate our cowardice. No race can maintain or gain supremacy except by building constitutional character which is done by performance of duty and that must not be done with supreme cowardice. To foster our cowardice with disguise will tend toward race inferiority instead of supremacy. Can any one conceive of Jesus Christ as being a Ku Klux Klan or acting behind a mask? But he did openly and boldly take the law in his own hand one time and whipped the gamblers out of the temple. I claim that citizens even now should do likewise in certain aggravated circumstances. If these suggestions for enforcing law and order be followed it will not be necessary to profanely divert the cross of Christ from being an emblem of meek and lowly sacrifice to a flaming emblem of terror and intimidation as did Constantine of another empire. With best feeling toward all Ku Klux Klan members. —W. P. FLORENCE.

P. S.—I've had in mind for some time to print the above article and hoped to have it done before developments occurred that would make it seem personally antagonistic to any one. But developments were too fast for me. It will seem strange why I would presume to put in my little say against that of so many weightier ones and in face of seemingly unanimous demonstrations in favor of the movement I oppose. But I learned as a teacher and student in large classes that I could often prove by figures that I was right on mathematical propositions when all the rest were against me. And I believe the same thing probable on other propositions that cannot be so visibly demonstrated. Then when I have such vivid impressions of the right and wrong of a proposition with such keen desire for my fellow-men to know them my conscience will not let me rest till I make them known without referring to what might be thought of me. It is argued that no law breaking has ever been proven on the Ku Klux Klan. Well, one of the greatest objections to it is that its very nature of secret masquerading with its popular influence makes it impossible to prove anything on it that it does not wish proven. It is argued that other organizations had started the same kind of methods. But for one faction to do wrong because another has, is not good moral time. It is argued that the criminals are against the K. K. K., but that statement cannot be proven. To summarize, the nature and methods of the K. K. K. are un-American and smack sharply of treason. They are not truly Christian. Going under cover to do things we haven't the courage to do openly is cultivating a characteristic that will degrade the race. Most important of all is that the K. K. K. with their methods will encourage criminals to like methods, will cause strife and enmity among citizens, weaken confidence in our government, and lack of peace will be increased.—W. P. F.

FLYNN KILLED OKLAHOMA OFFICER, SAYS SHERIFF

A telegram was received by Chief of Police Jim Robinson, Saturday, from the sheriff of Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, stating that W. H. Flynn, at one time sheriff of Lubbock county, had killed an officer at Oklahoma City. If we understand the telegram right, Flynn was serving as an officer also, and killed a man with whom he was associated in that work. Details of the killing have not been received, and the Avalanche will carry the story in detail in our next issue. Flynn was sheriff of Lubbock county twelve years.

EMPEROR OF JAPAN BUYS AMERICAN GAS HEATERS

A recent telegraphic order by the Emperor of Japan to American manufacturers for two automatic gas water-heaters resulted in considerable editorial comment in the newspapers, among them the New York World, which was thus: "The emperor of Japan has fabled to Pittsburgh for a number of instantaneous water-heaters. No doubt by this time those handy little burners are already on their way to the Mikado's palace in Tokio. From the comfort-loving West to the luxury-loving East the little water-heaters must naturally follow in the wake of the American bath tub. That said, bath tub, once an object of derision, then of envy, may be found almost anywhere on the face of the earth—with or without plumbing. So if the culture of America has not yet made itself felt in the world, the comforts of America have. To show the world how to get water and heat, gas and electricity, by the turn of a screw or the push of a button is something. And, after all, culture and the bath tub are not so far apart as might appear."

AT THE CHURCHES

The Avalanche Church Notes scribe is going to place first under this heading the account of what the Epworth League is doing, for it is first in the minds of the young people, and we have observed that if properly instructed in the duties of church work while they are young, people stay with the work in their older days with more courage and ability, and for this reason we are going to make special stress on the work of the Epworth League. The meeting was called to order by Miss Blanche Bean at 7:30, when one of the most interesting and instructive meetings of the spring was put into motion. Young people of that league have learned that no one else is going to do the work for them, therefore have gotten into the harness themselves, and are learning the fruits of honest labor. Miss Bean sent out well-written notices to each one to take part in the program, requesting that they talk from practical viewpoints instead of from the topics of the Era, which they did with much effect, making their parts of the program more interesting than ever.

E. E. Hailey, who represented the Lubbock District at Clarendon, made a very interesting account of the work they did on that convention, and it is encouraging to note that while Lubbock District had only eight representatives they made Abilene, with her thirty-five representatives, have to hustle to keep in the lead. The work Mr. Hailey accomplished for the Lubbock District is absolutely wonderful, inasmuch as with only a few to carry out the work they made teamwork the most interesting feature, and pulled together so harmoniously that the Lubbock group was the most attractive delegation at the conference. It is said that they had not been there but only a few hours until the name "Windy Delegation" was used to designate them, which shows that they certainly must have created a great deal of enthusiasm, and the fact that the votes stood seventy-two for Lubbock and seventy-six for Abilene on the final count, is proof enough that they certainly did some wonderful work. The Lubbock League is giving an entertainment Friday night in their honor, to which all the Lubbock District Representatives are invited.

Interest in Bible Study grows. Now that the 200 in attendance is so often passed, may we set a higher mark. If you do not love to study God's word, come next Lord's Day and you'll better appreciate the sermon that follows.—Come, we need you. Nine courses in Salvation (text: Thess. 2:13-14), was the subject for discussion at the morning hour. Bro. Smith spoke of God as the original cause; the blood of Christ and the Holy Spirit, the revealing cause. At another hour the remaining causes will be discussed. Many scriptures were quoted. A few follow: John 3:16; 2 Cor. 5:18; Titus 3:5; Rom. 5:1; Rom. 8:3; Heb. 9:2-6; John 10:17-18; Heb. 5:8-9; John 15:26; Eph. 3:5, and 1 Cor. 2:9-10. At the evening hour the church met at the tabernacle to hear Bro. Julien very ably discuss "points on which we all agreed." 'Twas an hour of much interest and we trust of profit to us all.

Rev. J. M. Lewis, who has been away on a two weeks' vacation, returned home last week, and conducted the regular services Sunday. A large crowd was out to welcome him home again, and to listen to his splendid sermon. The evening hour was fully as well attended as was the morning hour, as the interest in the people are taking in church work is growing stronger all the time, and it is believed that

WOODMAN CIRCLE LADIES SURPRISE POPULAR LADIES

On Wednesday evening, June 14, members of the Woodman Circle assembled at the home of Mrs. R. W. Heim in honor of her birthday. Without an inkling of the party that had been planned a week before, Mrs. Heim was asked to bake a cake for supper at the hall. Two gallons of ice cream were brought along in one of the cars and the crowd entered the house at the moment Mrs. Heim was ready to depart for town. Her charming personality easily overcame her surprise and our day was saved—we were most cordially welcomed. Progressive "42" was played until a late hour and refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Heim, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thorp, Mesdames McElroy, Mitchell, Brown; Misses Maggie and Annie Mallard, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mallard—also Mr. M. Laughlin and Mr. P. H. Johnson as guests of the Circle.—Sovereign.

Mr. and Mrs. Caster and little son, of Ozona, are here visiting Mrs. Caster's sister, Mrs. Geo. Turnbow, who is in a local hospital.

HUBBERS TO "SPUD-IN" GASSERS TODAY

Well, boys, here they go. At last, we get a crack at the supposed pennant winners, the Amarillo Gassers, and we are going to have a chance to see whether Gas can be penetrated or not, and fellows, believe me, something is going to pop. It might be a good idea for the fans to dig up a bunch of gas masks for the occasion, otherwise they might be forced to suffer "asphyxiation" for Sled Allen's gang are all set for the big celebration of blowing up those Gassers and cinching the pennant. This series is going to be a great factor in deciding the pennant winner for the first half of the season. The Gassers have lost two out of three games with the Clovis Buzzers, and stand a mighty good chance of losing the last one as this paper goes to press.

We are gradually creeping up on them now as they lose, and if we can take the three games here beginning today, we have practically cinched the first half, for Amarillo finishes away from home, and although the Hubbers are away after the Amarillo series, they have the reputation of winning more games on the road than any other club in the League, and no doubt are going to keep up this reputation. Three games won, if Amarillo loses, will put us at the head of the list, and these games here are the ones we are after.

We understand that Amarillo has already chartered a special train for the opening day, and will bring something like four or five hundred enthusiastic fans, and they are going to help those Gassers fight as they never fought before. It is up to us to turn out, and keep them in the limelight as far as "rooting" is concerned.

This series has been thoroughly advertised through the country, and people are going to come from all parts of West Texas to witness this contest. The park has been rearranged so that cars can be parked all round the outfield, and there is going to be plenty of room for everybody.

Tune up "them" megaphones and "hollers", and come out with the intention of using them. The town is going to close up tight, it is said, at least for the opening game today, and everybody is going out, not only for an afternoon of enjoyment, but for the purpose of "blowing" up that Gasser aggregation. It must be "busted," and can be done.

Lefty Ward, the new annexation from the Abilene Eagles, the going "Southpaw" of the West Texas League, is gottin' all set for the occasion, and will probably deliver to the Gassers today.

Joe Cantrell, the hefty right-hander from Shreveport, says that one game is cinched, for he has blood in his eyes for one of those games. Woodriddle and Green are "settin' on the world," and rearin' to get to that bunch. Boys, I'll tell you, barring the elements and "nigger luck," nothing can keep this bunch from pushing a needle or stick into that gas bag and blowin' her sky high.

Come out today and the two days following, and don't forget the noise makers. Tune 'em up before leavin' home.

HUBBERS TAKE FOURTH FROM THE BRONCHOS

The Hubbers made it four straight from the San Angelo Bronchos Thursday when they took the last of the series from them 9 to 6. Henry, San Angelo Southpaw, was wild from the beginning, walking eight men, and allowing eleven hits. He gave Guber four free passes out of five times up.

Swenson had two bad innings for the first two when the visitors counted four runs, but after the second he settled down to real baseball, and only two hits were gotten off him in the seven following innings. He allowed seven hits in all. The locals came back in the first frame for two runs, in the second for one, then the game rocked along until the fifth with San Angelo holding a one-run lead. In the fifth King lead off with a two sacker, Langford singled, scoring King, then stole second and scored on Brown's single. In the sixth Allen lead off with a long two bagger to left, starting a rally that netted two runs. Again in the seventh with two men on "Skipper" poled a hot two bagger, scoring both.

The visitors could not count any more until the ninth, when Jackson, hitting for Henry, singled, McBride singled, and both scored on Greer's two bagger, but on trying to stretch it to a three bagger was caught out at third. Robinson filed out to King for the third out.

The spectacular fielding of Battle and Langford beat out several hits. The score:

HUBBERS WALLOP ABILENE EAGLES LAST FRIDAY
Friday afternoon the Hubbers beat out the Abilene Eagles on the local lot 5 to 2. Cantrell was never in any danger, gaining a lead in the early innings which could not be overcome. One was counted in the second by the locals, another in the third. Then in the fifth Gober doubled after two men were down, and King drove a high one out over the netting in right field, almost rattling the boards on the park fence, for an easy homer, scoring Gober ahead of him. Again in the sixth on two singles and an error another was counted.

Although Cantrell allowed ten hits, they were well scattered, except for the seventh, when the visitors made their first and only count. Four hits were gotten in that frame, and half as many runs. Hays, for the visitors, blowed one free pass, and twelve hits. The two baggers of Gober out of three times, King's double and homer out of three, and Brook's two singles out of three, featured. HUBBERS DROP FIRST GAME TO SWATTERS SATURDAY

The Hubbers dropped the first of a three game series here Saturday to the Sweetwater Swatters 4 to 3. It was a pitcher's battle between Ward and Richburg, both Southpaws, and but for the third inning when Sweetwater chased the winning run by the assistance of Empire Spencer's apparent blindness, Ward had them on his hip. The Hubbers counted two in the first frame, and one in the fourth, but lack of hitting in the pinches lost the contest.

Ward struck out eight and walked seven, while Richburg struck out ten and walked six, each allowing six hits.

The game was played in a cold breeze from the south, and was one of the longest yet played on the local park, taking two hours and fifty minutes. The score:

HUBBERS SHUT OUT SWATTERS FOR SECOND OF SERIES
Woodriddle was too much for the Sweetwater Swatters here Sunday, when he gave them their third successive shut-out for the season, 4 to 0. He was never in danger except in the seventh, when the first three men up singled, filling the bases. Then things began to tighten, Pipkin grounded to Brooks, who forced White at the plate, then Curris and Gressett cut three hefty whiffs and took the bench.

The first count of the locals came in the third when Speegle singled, was sacrificed to second by Gober, King walked, Langford whiffed for the second out, King and Speegle pulled a double steal, scoring on Brown's three-bagger to left. Battle struck out. In the fourth Woodriddle singled after two men were out, and scored on Speegle's triple. Speegle was caught out at the plate on a muffed ball by Pipkin. Again in the seventh, Langford doubled down first base line after two men were out, and scored on Brown's double to right.

Woodriddle was seemingly invincible, allowing but seven hits which were well scattered, and except in the seventh nobody got beyond second. He whiffed four and walked one, and hit a couple out of four times up. The hitting of the locals for extra bases in the pinches, and Horny's brilliant catch of Brook's long fly to the netting, featured. Brown got a triple and a double out of four trips. The score:

LEFTY WARD ANNEXED TO HUBBERS' LINE-UP

Friday a deal was closed between the Hubbers and the Abilene Eagles where the Hubbers annex to their pitching staff "Lefty" Ward, in trade for whom they give up "Sweet" Swenson.

"Lefty" has been with Abilene for the greater part of the season, and has some mighty good wins to his credit, and he is going to make things pop in one of these games in the Amarillo series. The Hubbers, lacking a "southpaw" on their pitching staff, gave up a good right hander in order to annex a "southpaw." Although Lefty looks like a kid, but his work on the diamond proves him to be beyond that when it comes to baseball. Look out, Amarillo, we are after that pennant.

Umps Spencer's introduction of himself, "The same old blind Umpire," we are tempted to believe is sometimes true.

FORAGE FOR HOGS ON TEXAS FARMS BY SWINE HUSBANDRY-MAN OF EXTENSION SERVICE

Economic production is the outstanding need of the agricultural world today. Every state in the Union is guilty of dissipating products produced or of inefficient production in some form. As for Texas I know from experience as a stock farmer and observations in my travels over the state as Swine Husbandman of the Extension Service of the A. & M. College, that we are grossly neglecting our permanent pastures in the scheme of livestock production, and along with this sin is the failure to grow forage crops and plan out a system of crop rotations. My co-worker, Mr. A. K. Short, Agronomist in the Extension Service, offers as suggestions the "Crop Rotations" which appear in this article. The most good from forage crops is obtained when hogs are fed two pounds of grain per hundred pounds of live weight. Experiments show that hogs make the most economic gains when given the grain in addition to the pasture crop. This is true even when hogs are running on cowpeas and velvet beans. In general it is best to have several grazing lots and change the hogs from one to the other as the pasture becomes short. This allows the pasture to recuperate and to better furnish fresh palatable feed. For best results do not graze too closely. While pork will cost only one-third to one-half as much when pastures are used as when concentrates are used alone it should be remembered that fresh water and a good mineral mixture is an aid to the growth of the hogs and saves pastures. Good forage will save two pounds of grain for every pound of pork produced.

Mixed Cropping System For Grazing Purposes.
In planning a cropping system for grazing the principal points to be considered are:
1st. Plant the variety of crops and acreage so that there will be sufficient grazing throughout the entire year.
2nd. Plant several different types of grazing crops so that there will be a maximum consumption of forage by the hogs at all times. The increased profits that may be derived from hogs are based primarily upon the grazing crops consumed and the amount consumed will be in proportion to their appetite and capacity. The appetite is increased as the appetite is satisfied. Throughout most of this state winter grazing crops are based upon small grain. From the grazing standpoint there is little difference in the amount of pasture furnished by the different varieties. However, it should be remembered that from the standpoint of constitution to resist freezing they will rank rye, wheat, barley and oats in the order named. Barley and oats will probably make most rapid growth under favorable conditions, while during the extremely cold weather rye and wheat will make more growth. Rye will always prove the best on the extremely poor clay soils.

When small grain is to be used for grazing only it is often more desirable to plant at least twice the amount per acre as is used for grain production. A closer sod can be secured by using a grain drill planting one half the amount in one direction then running the drill at right angle planting the remainder. The field of small grain used for winter grazing may be planted to Sudan grass or sorghum in early spring. This should be planted as soon as danger of frost is over by using a corn planter with shoe attachment instead of plow. As soon as the small grain has matured or ceased to furnish grazing the other crops should be plowed out.
Cowpeas, sorghum or Sudan may be sown broadcast or planted in rows after small grain is gone. In planting crops after small grain it is desirable to use some form of surface packer to insure germination.

Rape may be planted with small grain in the fall. The grain should be planted at the usual rate per acre with grain drill or broadcast. Then three or four pounds of rape per acre should be sown broadcast, then covered with light harrow or drag.
Peanuts may be grown between corn in wide rows and the entire field hogged down or the corn gathered and the hogs allowed to gather the peanuts and waste corn. Velvet beans must be grown with support for best returns. They may be grown in corn rows or between corn in wide rows. The entire field to be hogged down or corn gathered before turning hogs in. The best returns from velvet beans will be had by grazing fields with both hogs and cattle.

He literally stuck his ruff with the cane, swung it rather cleverly with an English twist. But the beastly old thing got devilish. It fell from his hand. Lubbock County Federation of Clubs Had Very Interesting Meeting— Following Is the Secretary's Report

(Delayed by illness.)
Lubbock County Federation met in regular session Saturday, May 22. The civic league acquitted themselves wonderfully as hostesses. A short business session was held in the morning perfecting the constitution reports of the different committees. Membership committee had twenty club applications. Five rural and fifteen town clubs. Rural ladies do you intend for the town clubs to outnumber you?
Home demonstration committee favorably reported success as securing a demonstrator for a year.
Lunch was called at 12:30—sure enough dinner awaited seventy in the basement of the Methodist church. Here we drank, ate and was merry.

Mrs. Wagner welcomed the clubs. Mrs. Ed Schroeder replied. Mrs. Carl Goodman in her dear way told us of the District Meet, how to build and further the Federation work. Discussion and way started for a county library. How the rural clubs could further civic pride. Plead for our town sisters to burn and dispose of their garbage in another way besides dumping along our county roads.
At 2 o'clock business was resumed. Mrs. Sowder, chairman of the committee on revising constitution, patiently resumed the work with Mrs. Stubbs in her humorous way, correcting mistakes. This is how it was passed on.

IS A WATERMELON FRUIT OR VEGETABLE

In a suit recently filed in the court of civil appeals at Galveston, Texas, the question involved is whether the watermelon is a fruit or vegetable. The style of the case is the American Railway Express Company vs. the Magnolia Fish and Oyster Company of Houston.

From the report it appears that the Magnolia Fish and Oyster Co., expressed a carload shipment of watermelons from Brownsville to Houston. The Brownsville express agent is alleged to have quoted the vegetable rate, which was lower than the fruit rate. Now the express company is praying for judgment in the sum of difference between the two rates, claiming that watermelon is a fruit. County Judge Roy F. Campbell of Harris county held the vegetable rate should apply and gave the defendant judgment, whereon the express company appealed the case.

It is pointed out in brief of the American Express Company that Webster defined a watermelon as "the large oblong or roundish fruit of a cucurbitaceous vine, of many varieties, which is fairly clear with the exception of one word.—Childress Index.

FLOYDADA ORGANIZES BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

Floydada, June 15.—A Floydada Baseball Association was organized by a number of Floydada baseball fans. R. E. Fry, J. R. Yearwood and Walter Collins were appointed directors of the association and were instructed by the association members to employ a manager and captain to make selection of the players and attend to other business of the team. It is expected to make the team up entirely of local men and have no professional men employed. Players have been developed in the Floydada Sunday School League and it is from this league that most of the players will be drawn.

Mesdames Artie M. Sheppard and Ethel Griffin, of Hale Center, were shopping in Lubbock Friday.

and success of our fellow publishers, and it is with great pleasure we tell our readers of the Lynn County News, and its matless editor-manager, Bob Haynes, and a few of the things that paper has enjoyed within the past few months.

Bob went to Tahoka several years ago, where he started giving those people one of the best weekly newspapers on the Plains. Long hours of tedious work were required for the set-up of the sheet, but as the editor is a hard worker and knows a good thing when it is viewed, took a hitch in his suspenders and went after the work with enthusiasm, and a desire to give those people the very best service possible. Months passed by, and Bob made every issue of the News a little better than the last one. Advertisers saw the improvement as it was made, and increased their space accordingly. People talked of the paper, and what it was doing, and subscribed for it for many friends, who in turn became interested and made circulating that paper an endless chain of pleased readers.

Time went by, but Bob soon saw that business was crowding out his method of printing the paper, and called on the Avalanche mechanical department for much of his straight matter, which, we are mighty glad to state, he got mighty good service on at all times, and therefore the paper took another step forward, for as soon as he was relieved of so much typesetting he put all his time and energy into the paper developing the other lines more thoroughly, and now the great climax has come.

The Lynn County News and Bob Haynes are no more known among the small newspapers of West Texas, for the recent installation of a linotype, on which he can do all his straight matter work, and a great deal of the advertising, enables him to go forward in a much greater rate, and it is known to all who are acquainted with him that he will grasp every opportunity, and make the very best of the advantages the machine gives him.

He was in Lubbock Thursday transacting business, and we enjoyed a conversation with him. He is so thoroughly sold on Tahoka and the possibilities of Lynn county that we were made want to take a visit to that section. He knows the Plains as do all the pioneers, and while he is not old enough to be classed as a pioneer in one sense of the word, he is in another, that being so far as newspaper work on the Plains is concerned, and through his experience knows something about what the people of his community expect of their newspaper, and is in every way meeting up with their highest expectations.

With this machine he is equipped to care for the work of a much larger issue, and we are sure that before many months the shop will be again outgrown by the fast advancing newspaper and job business.

But all the credit is not due Bob himself. Mrs. Haynes, Bob's boss had a hand in bringing the News to the front. She has worked hard by the side of her husband in bringing the News forward, and deserves a lot of credit for the success of that paper. The Avalanche is proud of the newspaper achievements of the South Plains. There is not a sheet printed above the caprock that is not a credit to the town in which it is published, and reflects credit on the publishers throughout this great section. The high quality of the South Plains and Panhandle Newspapers is recognized by newspapermen of ability throughout the United States and the people of the Plains country stand nobly by their newspapers which is largely accountable for the whole thing. Loyalty will win.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS FROM LYNN COUNTY NEWS

Miss Inez Ketchum, of San Saba, Texas, is in the city this week giving a course of instruction in Sunday School, and B. Y. P. U. work, at the First Baptist Church. Miss Ketchum is an expert in this line of religious work and a large class is taking the course each afternoon and evening during the week. She came to Tahoka from Brownfield, and is sent out under the direction of the State Board.

The rural carrier examination was held in Tahoka last Saturday, under the supervision of Claude Peak, of Lubbock postoffice. Six applicants stood the examination for the vacancy on Route 1, out of Tahoka, which had been held until recently by D. A. Parkhurst, who was appointed postmaster. Mr. Parkhurst stated that nine applications were sent in to stand the examination, but that only six of the applicants made their appearance. It will probably not be known for several weeks yet as to who Uncle Sam will appoint as the regular carrier on Route 1. E. M. is acting as carrier at the present time.

Two modern brick store buildings are well under way at O'Donnell. The buildings will be 25x80 feet, and will be completed by the first of August. Hart Tradway Grocery and Dry Goods will move into one, with an up-to-date stock of goods, including a new line of shoes. The other building will be occupied by the Jones Dry Goods Company, who have several department stores in the Panhandle. A new and complete stock of goods will be put in.

Construction is being done on the W. Small brick address house on Porterfield and Main is progressing nicely. A large force of workmen are employed and the walls will be completed within a short while.

Tahoka defied Post City on the home grounds in a fast game last Saturday afternoon the score standing 4 to 3 at the end of the ninth inning. Stars of the twinning for the locals and received strong backing in both the in and out field. A large crowd witnessed the exhibition. The Post ball club is a good one, but they were not fast enough to go around the Tahoka boys.

Workmen began construction on the new fire station located on the lot in the rear of the Anchor Filling Station and facing north, which is being erected by the city, early yesterday morning, and same will be completed within a short time. The city has already on hand a fire truck and several hundred feet of hose and with the erection of the station, Tahoka will be equipped with a first class fire fighting apparatus. The building of the fire station will necessarily cut down the insurance rate within the business section and also the resident section where fire plugs have been installed.

It was announced by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Doshier of the First Baptist church, that the annual revival meeting will begin on the fourth Sunday in July, at the eleven o'clock service. Rev. R. E. Smith, prominent state-wide evangelist of Waco, has been secured to do the preaching, and a great meeting is assured. It is probable that the meeting will be conducted under a tabernacle, as the weather is likely to be extremely warm at this time, and will also provide more room for the large crowds that will be in attendance. The public is requested to remember the date set for the revival and prepare in advance for the services which will assuredly bring good results for the general good of our community. Other advance notices pertaining to the revival will appear in the News from time to time.

GIRL SCOUTS HAD AN EN- THUSIASTIC MEETING WED.

The Girl Scouts had an enthusiastic meeting Wednesday, June 14. All the girls are taking great interest in the drills given by Mr. Mowery.

Twenty of the girls have now passed the Tenderfoot tests. One of the requirements is that each girl earn the money for her uniform. In order to do this the girls have decided to care for children at twenty-five cents per hour, or fifty cents for an afternoon. Any mother wishing to leave her kiddies may feel assured that they are being cared for and entertained. Mrs. Boerner and Mrs. Spencer will vouch for the absolute reliability of the girls sent and any mother may secure them by phoning either of these ladies.

The next meeting will be at nine o'clock Wednesday, June 21, at the Methodist Church.

Superintendent of Crittenton Home Who Has Charge of Unfortunate Girls Blames Parents for Large Percent of Wrongdoings

Disregard by parents for the manner in which their daughters choose their recreation is the problem with which Miss Mary E. Heartwell, for twenty-five years superintendent of the Florence Crittenton Home, has had to deal. Miss Heartwell, after thirty-one years of social service work in Detroit, resigned her position a few days ago.

A quarter of a century of work with delinquent girls has shown Miss Heartwell, among other things: That youth today is so intoxicated with recreation to the exclusion of everything that is wholesome and mentally interesting in life that there is an increasing need for such institutions as the Florence Crittenton Home.

That the real cause of delinquency is with mothers, fathers and guardians.

That the place for every woman is in a home at an early age.

"We should not blame too harshly the girl who strays from the path of accepted righteousness," she said. "Mothers have so surfeited themselves with gadding about to women's clubs, bridge luncheons and nerve-wrecking bargain hunting expeditions in downtown stores that it is a wonder that daughters left to their own destinies, have a decent remaining thought in their minds."

Blames Joy Rides

"First of all, no girl wants to 'go wrong,' but she will almost invariably yield to temptations when she has been petted by a dotingly blind parent and made to think that she is utterly exempt from shouldering any of the duties of the household and does not even as much as tidy her own room, assist with the supper or wipe the dishes.

"This is the sort of girl who has time to primp, to rouge her cheeks and apply the lip stick and eye brow pencil as a bait in attracting the other sex. The parent allows it because she herself is in favor of a good matrimonial catch financially. Little does the mother bother with the thought that approved recreation and a man with clean morals and high ideals spell marital happiness for the girl.

"Unchaperoned motor car rides constitute one of the biggest factors in the swelling number who are given aid at the Crittenton Home. During the past year, there has been more increased delinquency from this cause than from any other source. Heart to heart talks with the girls who entered the institution revealed this condition and still mothers encourage their daughters to choose the man with the car for a friend."

Arguing against a career for a woman, Miss Heartwell declared that success in any line of business is an unnatural expression of the energy that would have gone to make a good home organizer.

Marry at 23

"A girl should be married at the age of 23 years to make the best wife," said Miss Heartwell. "When she is married she should give up all thought of employment and follow the natural dictates of her heart which, of course, is to raise a family. The matter how small the home is there is always plenty to do after it has been tidied up. The mother can learn to sew just as well as her grandmother did, and if she works outside she is not able to prepare a good evening meal for her husband."

Many a good man lived a hard life because he thought that fortune would come through luck.

There are men who become independent on the information secured through the failures of others.

Begin buying lubrication instead of just "oil"

Poor oil—regardless of price—is the most expensive automobile accessory you can buy. Good oil of the wrong type is equally so.

Seventy-five per cent of all motor repairs are due to faulty lubrication—the use of oils poor in quality or wrong in type. Think of it!

You cannot afford to buy just "oil." You must make certain the oil you get is the proper lubricant for your particular car.

Here is the way to make certain. Drive your car to the nearest SUNOCO dealer. He is a lubrication specialist and will specify the exact type of SUNOCO Motor Oil that meets all the requirements of your engine.

Then use SUNOCO exclusively. You'll avoid carbon troubles, get greater engine power and mileage, pay fewer repair bills and keep up the resale value of your car.

A HOME OF WHEELS BEING USED BY PARTY

An up-to-date home on wheels, owned by J. C. Baldwin and family of Corpus Christi, appeared in San Angelo Tuesday and will be in Ton Green county for several days while its owners along the streams enjoy an outing near San Angelo. The speedy little home, 14x7 feet, is mounted on a Dodge Commercial chassis and has every modern convenience. While parked on one of the downtown streets of San Angelo Tuesday afternoon it was examined and admired by a large crowd which assembled quickly. The body of the "home" is made of red wood, spruce, pine and steel, all joined by bolts and screws, without a nail in it.

Running water in the car is one great advantage, while a lavatory is at one end, as modern as in any home. A large mirror and numerous box-like pockets are built on the wall. Shades are on each of the several windows. A Victrola is carried in the roomy car for amusement while on the West Texas tour. A wardrobe is built in. Under the bed of the car a roomy box is constructed in which different things are kept. A gas stove is tucked away from view on one side of the engine, while on the other side of the engine various groceries are kept. Electric and presto lights are used. Rugs on the floor add to the appearance of making the room look more like home. A davenport which is used during the day as a rest is unfolded at night and used as a bed. A large table which folds up snugly to the wall and folded chairs which take up little room until used are room saving articles. Five besides the driver, comfortably ride in the car.

Other members of the party, in other cars, were Geo. B. Baldwin and family of Mexia and Mrs. J. G. Stovall and family of Waco. The party had been away about six weeks and came here from the plains country. They will spend a week or ten days in San Angelo and vicinity then a short visit on Devil's River and then into Old Mexico.—San Angelo Standard.

M. L. TURNER TO TAKE OVER LOVINGTON LEADER

M. L. Turner of Madisonville, was in Lubbock for a few hours Friday, enroute to Lovington, N. M., where he goes to take charge of the Lovington Leader, the weekly newspaper of that place. Mr. Turner is an experienced newspaperman, having followed the profession for forty years, and established the Madison weekly paper there twenty-six years ago, and continued with it till three years ago when he sold out and thought he was going to quit the business, but the lure of the printer's ink was too strong, and he is getting back in business again.

Lovington is a good inland town and we are sure that Mr. Turner will aid much in its development through the columns of the Leader.

A thought for today—
Nature reveals the spirit of God—
All about the city is God's Outdoors, where He revealed in His Unscarred handiwork. Seek Him in the pages of His Book of Truth, seek Him in the running brooks and rustling trees, in mountain, vale and plain—for all nature reveals the spirit of God.

"Strength for the day! At early dawn I stand
Helpless and Weak, with unrested eyes,
Watching for day. Before its portals
A low black cloud—a heavy iron hand,
Slowly the mist is lifted from the land,
And Pearl and amber gleam across the skies,
Gladdening my upward gaze with sweet surprise,
I own the sign; I know that He whose hand
Hath fringed these comber clouds with ruby gray,
And changed that iron-bar to molten gold,
Will to my wandering steps be guide and stay;
Breathe o'er my wavering heart His rest for aye,
And give my waiting, folded palms

to hold
His blessed morning boon—strength for to-day."

Denman Bridge Party.
A delightful bridge party was enjoyed by a number of ladies when Mrs. J. N. Denman entertained in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Walter Graves from Fort Worth, on Saturday afternoon.

The pretty Denman home was dainty in bowl clusters of pink and white roses. In the serving of the delicious lunch, of white salad in little boxes made from crackers, sandwiches and olives, and iced chocolate, an attractive color scheme of yellow and white was used, nasturtiums as the plate favors. The ladies present for the afternoon were: Mesdames J. W. Graves, Slaton, Posey, Cooper, Winn, Woods, Mast, Friend, Hurlbut, Griffin, Johnson, Stevens, Hutchinson, Dick Arnett, Bennett of Austin, Earnest and Elmer Conley, J. T. Krueger, J. R. Germany, Jackson, Oliver, Vickers, Quillen, Meador, and Miss Delia Wilkinson.

High score was won by Mrs. Leland Mast, and consolation by Mrs. Vickers, while the honor guest Mrs. Graves, was the recipient of a Sheffield salad tray.

Children's Picnic Party.
Last Tuesday afternoon, about twenty-five little tots spent the hours from 4:00 to 6:30, at the Karper Experimental Farm, where a picnic party was enjoyed. Twenty of the children were those little ones who make up the Story Hour Class, under the direction of Mrs. Curtis Keen.

A children's party is given each month by Mrs. Keen, and the kiddies came home asking if they couldn't have another one "tomorrow," which expressed the fun they had. Streamers of many colors flew from the cars and jolly games were made a part of the program. Mrs. E. L. Klett and Mrs. Cliff Hunt were of the party, very kindly giving the use of their cars.

The children present were: Mary Thomas, Carrie Jane Thomas, Ruth Wagner, Helen Wagner, Janette Barnett, Elva Mae Hunt, Margaret Caldwell, Billie Bloom, Catherine Klett, Mary Wilson, Joan Sears, Martha Cosby and her sister, Mary, as her guest; June Wheelock, Jon Rosson Pierce, Paul Woods, Billie's brother, J. L. Stinson, the two little Karper boys, and Evelyn Morgan.

The Story Hour Class meets Monday, Wednesday and Saturday at 10:00 a. m.

The Society Editor has heard that some of her friends were displeased because some of their parties were reported. Of course she regrets that they are displeased and sorry that their parties were overlooked, but in spite of the pleasure she might get out of being a mind reader the fact remains that as yet she hasn't that exceptional faculty and can therefore only report the parties that she hears about, and of times she has to do that by guess work since it is almost impossible to get any one to give her the details of the parties that she hears about.

Since taking this department of the Avalanche, she has given her best efforts toward making the Society Notes interesting and fair to everyone—but unless you phone the notes of your party to her it is impossible for her to know who gave the party, who was there, what was served, or any of the other little details. And it is a physical impossibility for her to phone every Society Matron in town each week for news. Many of those whom she does call do not seem over-anxious to give any information—and since the world will continue to wag along without such notes—she does not bother you kindly.

Remember those things the next time your party is not reported to suit you and try a little harder to co-operate with the Society Editor.

Mrs. W. O. Stevens and son Bill, Miss Ruth Slaton and Mary Alice Johnson, motored to Post, on Saturday, returning Sunday evening with Mr. Stevens.

Mrs. O. B. Vernon of Amarillo, and her two children, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Friend.

1911 Needle Club.
The 1911 Needle Club met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Beall on Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Meador as joint hostess. Dainty refreshments were served and a splendid meeting reported.

Mrs. T. J. Bennett of Austin, Texas, gave a "Loge" party to a number of her lady friends, who have so beautifully entertained her, and made her many visits to Lubbock so pleasant. The boxes presented quite a gala appearance—the ladies in their beautiful summer dresses, and each with a balloon to match its color. After the show Mrs. Bennett and the honoree, Mrs. Mullins of Temple, Texas, led the way to the Manhattan where delicious ice cream, angel food cake and punch were served. Later, Mrs. Mullins was given a lovely fan, as guest prize, while Mrs. Cooper held the lucky number, which gave to her a similar fan. The following guests enjoyed Mrs. Bennett's hospitality: Mesdames Mullins, Wright, Krueger, Powell, Hurlbut, Slaton, Cooper, Mast, Winn, Vickers, Dugan, M. J. Smith, Meador, Rix, Posey, Clark Smith, Howard, Hunt, Stevens, Kimbro, Jackson, Hilton, Boles, Griffin, McLarty, Overton, Hutchinson, Friend, G. Johnson, J. S. Johnson, Denman, Beal, Taylor, Wheelock, Maedgen, Robbins, and Miss Delia Wilkinson.

Miss Lou Ware of our city, received by parcel post a few days ago a box of beautiful Cape Jasmamines and Magnolias from her friends in Bryan, Texas, her former home, and the place she still calls home. Miss Lou says such acts are in part "the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still," and sends her most pleasant thoughts "clad in living green" to her friends of by-gone days; also can say in all truth:

My thoughts are music when I think of them,
And yet these lines are mute;
I could not sing unless like Israel
My heart-strings were a lute.
But when I lie at last with closed eyes,
And brow serenely white,
Come near and read upon my quiet face
The lines I could not write.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST

DOES IT PAY?

To buy a cheap pair of shoes? Does it pay to buy a cheap suit of clothes, or hat?

Does it pay to have an inexperienced doctor to hasten the death of your wife or child?

YOU KNOW THE ANSWER

Then why carry your tires to a cheap vulcanizer, or an inexperienced one to have them repaired.

THINK IT OVER

Then come to see us for better vulcanizing.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DIED AT SHALLOWATER HOME

Hugh B. Killin, of Shallowater, died at his home at that place Saturday, June 17.

Born in Ohio, January 24, 1866, where he lived for about forty years, Mr. Killin made that state and the community in which he lived a substantial and worthy citizen, whose splendid conduct merited the approval and friendship of all those with whom he was associated.

He was married to Miss Synthis Bates, March 22, 1899, to which union five children were born, two boys and three girls, four of whom survive him.

Coming to Lubbock County from Colorado several months ago, Mr. Killin made many friends here who regret very much the loss the community will sustain in his death.

Funeral services were conducted at the home in the Shallowater community Sunday afternoon, by Bro. Baker of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Lubbock, and the Masonic fraternity closed the services at the Lubbock cemetery, he having been a worthy and honored member of that organization for the past eighteen years.

Many friends and relatives attended services at both places in honoring the life of the beloved man.

W. R. Standifer, county surveyor of Lynn County, is in Lubbock attending District Court. Mr. Standifer was at one time a citizen of Lubbock county, and has many friends here, who are always glad to have him visit Lubbock.

He is a long time dead who needs neither a model nor an ideal for his imitation.
