GREAT HARDWARE AND SPORTING GOODS CONVENTION HELD AT NEW HAVEN

The Western Windmill Company, the local hardware, windmill and sporting goods dealer is one of the more than 4,000 members of the National Association of Winchester Clubs, which held its second annual convention at New Haven during the last week in June. While unable to attend this year, the following report has been furnished of this most interesting event:

The convention was attended by about 1200 of the foremost hardware and sporting goods dealers of the United States, many of them accompanied by their families. This number gives one an idea of the importance attached to being a member of the Winchester clubs. They came to New Haven from every state in the Union, generally in special trains with the word "Winchester" streaming from every car. The railroads took exceptional care of the Winchester folks, granting reduced fares and doing everything possible to make the trip an enjoyable one. From New York the representatives from the South and West were carried to New Haven by the steamer Highlander, an 85 mile trip around New York City and on Long Island Sound. In New Haven nothing was left undone to make the convention a memorable one.

In addition to the general assembly sessions of the convention, there were conferences in advertising, merchandising, store arrangement and display, accounting, selling in its broader aspects, sporting goods, guns and ammunition, fishing tackle, cutlery, flashlights and batteries, skates, tools, and other Winchester lines, alternating with tours of the big Winchester factory, and inspection of its products arranged in a special display room.

On Sunday evening before the convention the assembled guests attended an organ recital at Woolsey Hall, Yale University, which boasts one of the finest organs in the world. Outside of the regular convention sessions the visitors were entertained at a cabaret and dance, a radio exhibition and concert; a clam bake and field day; the final feature being a banquet held in the big dining hall of Yale University and attended by about 1200 people. The ladies, when not attending the convention assemblies, enjoyed moving pictures, tours of Yale University, the Winchester Plant and the city of New Haven, social gatherings and other features that go to make an ideal trip. They saw some of the world's best tennis players at the New Haven Lawn Club, visited Yale Bowl, listened to a talk by Sales Manager Maycumber given by radio and were guests at the big clam bake and banquet.

A newspaper was printed daily giving the news of the convention and intimate notes about many in attendance. One of the outstanding privileges of the convention was the inspection of the Navy flotilla consisting of 13 submarines, two destroyers, and two mother ships, the Bushnell and Savannah, anchored off Lighthouse Point in New Haven harbor on the day of the clam bake. Government launches and private boats carried the visitors to the flotilla and many went on board the naval vessels. The Navy Department sensed the educational possibilities of this great gathering of representative business men, many of whom come from inland cities and seldom have an opportunity of seeing vessels of the navy. It was a treat for the convention people and, no doubt, fulfilled every purpose the Navy Department had in mind. Commander Davis, the following day, spoke to the convention on the "Aims, Needs and Purposes of our Navy," and his talk was indeed an interesting one.

Just to listen to the talks of President John E. Ottorin of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company would have made the convention trip worth while. He endeared himself to everyone present long before the convention closed and every time he appeared he was given an ovation. He told of the success of the Winchester Plan giving a great deal of credit to the enterprising dealers connected with the most modern method of merchandising and distribution, and also outlined plans for a still greater Winchester.

Charles A. Ireland, of Ionia, Michigan, was chosen president of the National Association of Winchester clubs. A. J. Osborne of Holyoke, Mass.; Warren Taylor of Gonzales, Texas, and George Brown of Punxsutawney, Penn., vice presidents. W. R. Sloan, Logan, Utah, treasurer, and W. J. C. Stockley, New Haven, secretary. The retiring president, Mr. Woodward and the secretary, Mr. Stockley, were given tokens of esteem by the dealers in appreciation of their services. The woman's auxiliary selected the following officers: Mrs. L. T. Hammersly, Puente, California, as president; Mrs. F. X. Becherer, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. J. L. Emight, Sacramento, Cal.; Mrs. Warren Taylor, Gonzales, Texas, vice presidents; Mrs. W. R. Sloan, Logan, Utah, treasurer, and Miss H. M. Robinson, New Haven, Conn., secretary.

ANOTHER POWER UNIT ADDED TO TEXAS UTILITIES

The Texas Utility Company's branch here has just received four cars of equipment for the plant, which when installed will add another unit to the already powerful plant.

Principal among the equipment received is the five hundred and fifty horsepower motor, which is capable of carrying on all the work of the plant, and as there is one of equal size now running, it will enable the company to keep operating while one of the units is out of commission.

There is some wonderful machinery in the plant here, and the company has an opportunity to take a leading place in the development of the trade territory of Lubbock.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine sets thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

BUICK AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE ON BROADWAY SUNDAY

Two Buick automobiles, one of which was a Cockrell service car, collided near the railroad crossing on Broadway Sunday evening, tearing both cars up considerably, but fortunately no one was hurt.

The accident happened just after the ball game, when everyone was making a rush to get away from the crowds and be relieved of having to take so much dust.

As both cars were badly damaged the drivers felt that the accident was unavoidable inasmuch as both were equally to blame for its occurrence, no damage was assessed either more than the expense of each putting his car back into running condition.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Treachorous Drug can not be Trusted and Next Dose may Start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quicksilver. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate. 11-11

PARENTS AS EDUCATORS

Beginnings in Language and Literature
By Martha Gallaudet Waring.

The three most wonderful things in nature have always been to me, the unfolding of a flower, the dawn of a new day, and the way in which a child learns the use of language. There are never two of these exactly alike; they are always happening and always different.

I have watched three children closely and their way of learning to talk has been absolutely as individual as are the children themselves. The eldest began at nine months to say mama, dada, man, boy, dog and so forth, and after awhile, come, go, stay, run, and all the necessary verbs, and then the connecting words, in such absolute agreement with the best authorities on "learning to speak," that I began to plume myself upon it as a personal matter. It is interesting to note that this interest in language, in words and their exact meaning and accurate use, has always been a part of the child's development.

My personal vanity as a good trainer in language received a shock when the second baby came to the speaking age. Not a word would she say, "Uh-hum" doing a duty for everything; and so clever was she and well developed mentally that it was almost uncanny to see how she conveyed her entire meaning and got what she wanted without words. We tried encouragement, discipline, and example (as her sister was then five) and when we had begun to feel disconcerted, she suddenly at about eighteen months, burst into whole sentences run together such as "Give it to me," "I don't want to do it" and others of which not one single word was clearly defined, but as a whole perfectly intelligible. As she grew older she showed the same impatience of language as a means of communication, making a language of her own to which she clung until she was six, which was intelligible only to her family and playmates, as strangers could make nothing of it, a fact which rather pleased her than otherwise. "Me don't min' if dey tant understand" was her frequent remark while we were trying to train her out of it. We had at six to have recourse to expert help in proper articulation. There was no physical defect, and now her enunciation is unusually clear and she reads better than any child of ten I have ever known.

Why should such things be in children of the same family, with the same training and the same environment? It is an interesting problem. The third child being a boy, I have watched for his use of language with great interest, and find that at his present age of two, he has a large and growing vocabulary and very clear enunciation with a slight tendency to let go the "s." He does not, like his eldest sister, substitute "t," or like a first cousin, put an "h" everywhere. This little girl when learning to talk was most amusing on account of this propensity. "Hum and hee the ho" was "Come and see the show" and she was often a puzzle to her elders. My own little girl of her age was always understood and this is the dialogue I heard one day when they were having a tea-party. "Alice, I huck a hork in hase and it hell on the hoor" and then from my own baby, "Oh, you mean you tuck a hork in your face and it tell on the hoor!"

The best helps to a good and early use of language as far as my experience goes, are first, no baby-talk talked to the child, then all the nursery rhymes that there are, told over and over again until they are known; then all the best and simplest stories that have become Baby classics, told again and again in good language or in the words of the books; especially containing much repetition. My two-year-old is already laying the foundation for good literary taste by saying the last word on every line of the nursery rhyme, with occasional delightful variation drawn from his own experience such as this one—

"If I had a pony that would not go, Do you think I would whip him, Oh, no, no, no, I'd put him in the barn and give him some tea And treat him kindly the rest of the milk!"

No child should lose the delight of the first flight into the realms of fancy. Not to know "When I was a Bachelor" and "The Old Woman of the Shoe"—not to sympathize with "Dapple Gray" and "Simple Simon"—not to enjoy all the hosts of nursery friends of birds, beast and very human beings—why, a child has not begun life without them! Nothing can make up for this early loss. Besides everything else, these "right beginnings" give a right use of words, enlarge the vocabulary and make the foundation that will stand the child in good stead all the days of his life!

THINGS TO REMEMBER

Advertisers, contributors and all parties interested in the Avalanche please remember these things: We print the Tuesday Avalanche on Monday, press hour 3:30 p. m. Friday Avalanche on Thursday, press hour 3:30 p. m. Please have copy for local notices in not later than noon Mondays and Thursdays. Ad changes and copy should not be later than 8:00 a. m., Mondays and Thursdays. It takes a schedule like this to get your ads in the paper in good shape, and helps us give our readers better service, which means that the paper will be of better service to you, which we earnestly desire it to be. We do not want to be exacting but we must demand some things of you, if you expect us to come up to the notch.

THE OFFICIAL BALLOT

On this page you will find a copy of the official ballot, as it will appear at the polls Saturday. You should study this ballot carefully and familiarize yourself with the people whose names are on the ticket before you vote. If you do not know the various candidates, make some inquiry about them. It is your duty to inform yourself along this line before you vote. You might vote against the best man on the ticket because you do not know the candidates. You might vote for some fellow who does not agree with your conscience in the matter, and you would not for anything vote for them if you knew. For this reason we are giving you this copy of the ballot that you may look it over and take time to decide on the men you are going to vote for before going to the polls.

COLORADO RECORD ADDS ANOTHER GOOD EDITOR TO STAFF.

The Colorado Record is fast increasing its editorial staff. Last week another good writer was added to the list, and while it was not known that the said writer had been placed in that honorable position, his writings appeared in the last issue of the Record in the editorial columns of the paper, however this editorial was a week or two later as it appeared originally in the Avalanche but was used verbatim in the Record without any credit two weeks later. The Record has a great habit of using editorials from the columns of other papers without giving credit. They are usually courteous enough however, to change the name of the town as it appears in the article and substitute Colorado in its place. A few weeks ago it contained a good editorial from the Lockney Beacon and then was followed by a good one from the Avalanche entitled "They are coming West." This same editorial was copied in a number of State publications but was given due credit. We do not know what the Record thinks about it, and we are not going to say what we think about it, but if we did say it, it would be just about the same thing we said about that fellow who took 100 feet of new hose off our lawn the other night without asking our permission. Now if the editor of the Record has not sense enough, nor time enough to write his own editorials we will be glad to furnish him a string of good ones absolutely free and will guarantee that they will not be printed in the Avalanche before he has a chance to produce them. It must be really embarrassing to the Record man when he knows that some of the readers of the Record are likewise readers of the Avalanche and have already had the pleasure of reading these editorials before they appear in the Record.

ON THE SIDE LINES; OR POOR LOSERS

We have little respect for a fellow that is a poor loser. We think just about as little of the fans of a town who take down with the "don't's" as soon as things break against them. Lubbock people are poor losers when it comes to sports. Lubbock's league team is away above the average as was shown by their close race for first place in the first half of the ball season. As long as they were on top the fans were strong and very much in evidence, but as soon as the break came, and they lost a few games, the fans began to tuck themselves away in some secluded spot, and kept very quiet till the old Hubbers began to crawl out of the hole again, and then Mr. Fan began to crawl out too, and the better the Hubbers came the closer the fans crowded about them and of all the whooping and hollering you ever hear it comes off. If you expect to make the Hubbers really winners—top-notchers—pennant bearers, you fans will have to get off the old "mum" stuff and get in there with everything you have. A little encouragement goes a long way and a lot of it goes farther. Back up the ball team if you expect to have one that will be a credit to you. Grouching about a few losses will never get the team anywhere. Support them with your presence every week day they play, and then there will be no reason for Sunday base ball. The past week have been good games—better than most any games played in the West Texas League so far as the scores were concerned—yet there have been but few people in attendance, and the club is no doubt running now at a loss.

Get on the side lines with a lot of enthusiasm and make the Hubbers hub everything that comes this way. They have the stuff. Make them use it. They are never going to do their best with a lot of achers and grouches on the side line.

Things seem to be dragging unduly in the matter of the South Plains fair this fall. It is high time something definite was being done toward getting things in line for the big fair if we are going to make it a success.

Lubbock should have city free delivery of mail. Other towns with less postal receipts have been granted this service. Why not Lubbock, where it is really needed?

LUBBOCK CONTINUES TO GO FORWARD

Lubbock continues to go forward! Her people are almost a unit on matters pertaining to the progress of the town. Some months ago they voted eight to one to build a new high school building. This bond issue, which was for $150,000, was for the purpose of building one high school building in Lubbock and three ward buildings within the Lubbock Independent School District. Contract has been let for the high school building and plans have been drawn and bids will be received for the building of the ward buildings, which will be in the rural parts of the district, in a short time. Soon after that election another was held to raise the tax rate for maintenance of the schools, from 50c on the $100 valuation to 90c. This was carried by five or six to one, which will provide money enough to carry on the work of the school as it should be. Tuesday of this week the question of issuing city bonds to the amount of $150,000 was carried to the tune of more than nine to one. The victories won in the three elections puts Lubbock in a position to continue to go forward, and there is no question that greater progress will be made in affairs in this vicinity than ever before, and Lubbock is now lined up for one of the most gigantic building programs that has ever been known to the Plains. It is a well known fact to people for many hundred of miles around that Lubbock is one town that is really doing big things, and that she is outgrowing any other town of its size in the West is conceded by her keenest rivals. This is due to the fact that Lubbock people are sticking together. It is due to the constructiveness of the men who have charge of affairs. While a lot of debts are being created for the public to liquidate in years to come, it is done only for the necessary things to keep the town growing, and by so doing keep everything alive and on tip toes. A live wire is never lacking when it comes to making those who come in contact with it, move about, and for that reason a million dollar debt can more easily be paid by the town when it is alive and going than if dead, nobody wants to have anything to do with dead things. The live ones are the ones that attract attention, therefore the few thousand dollars in bonds that have been voted will be easily paid, and our city and our schools will push on and on, and take their places in the front ranks. Enough people will be attracted to Lubbock and to her schools to bring in revenue enough to retire the bonds we have voted and then some. Then why will thirty-five or forty people continue to throw monkey wrenches in the machinery in an effort to thwart the progress of the community is more than we can figure out. We are truly glad however, that we have so few. They must be a miserable little bunch, but we have no sympathy for them.

SMALL FARMS

West Texas is passing from the cow range stage to become a country of farms. This in no wise should be looked upon as a discredit to the cow. The cattle business in other years has occupied the premier position in the industrial growth of the Panhandle-Plains country, but the home-seeker demands his inning and land has become too valuable to devote vast acreage to the growing of cattle alone.

The thriving towns have found that the trade from the big ranches is not so valuable as from that of several established farms on the same area and there is a growing hope that the big ranches will be subdivided and settled up by local farmers. It has already been done in many places and the increased volume of trade coming to the market towns is plainly noticeable.

There is a growing demand for farming lands in West and Northwest Texas and the coming of progressive farmers with advanced knowledge in scientific and intensive farm methods is transforming the Plains country into a land of farm homes. The cattleman is doing his part to bring about these conditions and is realizing more profit from his improved herds on restricted areas than he did in former years with the pioneer herds that roamed over the unbroken and unfenced western country.

The time is coming when a section of land heretofore used as grazing ground for a few head of cattle will be transformed into well tilled homes for four progressive families. These changes are coming and with them is coming all the marks of progressive civilization—more and better public roads, substantial farm buildings, stronger schools, churches and social centers throughout the rural precincts, and the town schools, churches, societies and merchants will get their full share of the social, intellectual and economical and commercial benefits. There may not be so great a percentage of wealthy families, but the country will be rated for its wealth of happy, prosperous and contented home owners.—Amarillo Tribune.

From what we learn about the tourist camp grounds in Lubbock they are a disgrace to the city. If this is true, for the sake of common decency, why don't we get in after the proposition and get everything in keeping with the city. The idea of Lubbock not having a real, up-to-date camp ground is a shame, and the tourists are going to give us a black eye right where we deserve it if we do not get busy and change the conditions some.

Diversified farming is the salvation of the farmer. Lubbock county is in the middle of the diversified farming section of the West, and that places us in the middle of the best country anywhere for the farmer who wants to get a home in this section of the country.

Republican Senators in conference voted 30 to 9, against laying aside the tariff measure and taking up the bonus bill. A resolution has been adopted favoring final disposition of both tariff and bonus legislation at this session and before any adjournment be taken.

Carelessness concerning the subject of art in its various forms and indulgence of the insidious and growing taste for what is more or less impure lowers the tone of thought, speech, and action in more lives than some intelligent persons have taken time to consider.—Christian Advocate.

HARD SURFACE ROADS SHOULD BE AT LEAST 18 FEET

A minimum width of 18 feet for hard-surface roads is recommended by the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture. The maximum width of truck body generally permitted is 8 feet, and 5 1-2 feet is the ordinary clearance width of automobiles. At an average speed of 30 miles an hour it is unreasonable to expect the driver of an automobile to drive with the wheels closer than 1 1-2 feet to the edge of the pavement, says the bureau. For trucks, at an average speed of 15 miles an hour, this distance should not be less than 1 3-4 feet on account of the great width of the rear wheel. Three feet seems to be a minimum safe clearance between bodies. Inasmuch as a certain amount of truck traffic is to be expected on all main country roads, the minimum width of surface should be 18 feet wide to provide these clearances when an automobile meets a truck.

Where the frequency with which trucks pass each other becomes a big factor, as in the neighborhood of large cities, the minimum width of pavement should be 20 feet to provide a clearance of 3 1-2 feet and a safe distance of wheels from edges of pavement.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Arnett, of Colorado, who have been here for several days visiting relatives, left Saturday for Tulsa, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Curry. From there they will go to Higgins, Texas, to visit two of Mrs. Arnett's brothers, and from there they will return to their home at Colorado, Texas.

ORIENT WILL NOT BE ABANDONED JUST NOW

Austin, July 17.—Railroad Commissioner Clarence E. Gilmore is "very hopeful" that plans suggested at the recent conference in Washington concerning continued operation of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway will eliminate possible abandonment and discontinuance of operations. He returned Sunday from Washington, where he attended the conference called by Chairman McChord of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Steps were taken to increase the road's through freight, Mr. Gilmore said. Other railroad representatives are to confer in Chicago this week to arrange, if possible, to route more through freight over the Orient. Mr. Gilmore said numerous other plans were discussed in event this one failed. Grain men and other commercial enterprises dependent on the Orient need have no fear that they will suddenly find themselves unable to remove their commodities due to the road's abandonment, Mr. Gilmore said, for in event the road ceases operations ample time will be given to move all freight on the line at that time.

ITEMS FROM THE NEWS AT PLAINVIEW

Attention is called to the fact that all voters who expect to be away from their voting precinct or out of town on July 22, the date of the democratic primary, can vote between the dates of July 12th and 20th by calling at the office of the County Clerk and making out the proper affidavit. After making out the form at the County Clerk's office, the voter will be given a ballot, which he or she can fill out and vote just as though it was on election day.

Yesterday morning the mixed train on the Plainview-Floydada branch line was several hours late. It is stated that the man who takes care of the locomotive at Floydada at night struck in sympathy with the railroad men out on strike, but did not inform the railroad people. Early in the morning when the train crew went to take the train out the locomotive was found to be cold, and they had to fire it up, and get up steam, which took several hours.

The city council, following a conference last week with Messrs. Kelso and Wurdock of St. Louis, head officials of the Texas Utilities Co., closed a contract with the local plant for the installation and maintenance of one hundred additional street lights, to be placed mostly in the residential section of Plainview.

TONY Q. DYESS
Candidate for Tax Collector

Having been busy conducting song services for the last four weeks here in town I suspect there is a number of voters I haven't talked with, but want to say right here, that no one will appreciate your vote and help like I will in the coming election. Should you good people elect me, I'll not only be on the job at the office when you call, but will have "set" dates at Slaton, Idalou and Shallowater to collect taxes and thereby save time and expense at the busy time of the year for you. HOW FAST DO THE JACKRABBITS RUN

Perhaps the jack-rabbit of the western plains is the fastest creature that runs on four legs. Many conjectures have been made as to how fast he can travel, but nobody seems to know exactly. So a few members of the Motorcycle Club of Colorado Springs decided recently to find out. They captured a few of the little beasts and then turned them loose, pursuing them on fast motorcycles for five miles and timing them all the way. The motorcycles had to be sent at top speed to keep up with them.

The speed of the rabbits for the first mile was fifty miles an hour. The second mile was covered at forty miles an hour. Then they kept up a steady pace of thirty-five miles an hour until the motorcyclists abandoned the pursuit out of regard for the safety of their necks and machines.

ONE DOLLAR SAVED REPRESENTS TEN DOLLARS EARNED

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. This being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

FORMER CHIEF CLERK GETS TWO YEARS SENTENCE

Austin, July 17.—The jury in the case of Lon D. Morgan, former state treasury chief clerk for alleged misapplication of state funds returned a verdict of guilty and assessed the punishment at two years in the penitentiary this morning.

The jury had been out since Saturday afternoon and at one time reported to Judge Hamilton that they could not agree.

This trial was on one of ten indictments returned against Morgan for alleged misuse of state funds, the aggregate approximating $15,000. The indictment in this case was for $645. He is yet to be tried on the other nine.

100,000 TONS BINDER TWINE USED ANNUALLY

Washington, July 17.—Binder twine, the troublesome stuff that snarls up the machinery and the farmer's temper on hot harvest days, has acquired a tonnage rating in Washington. The department of agriculture has just figured that 100,000 tons of it are used each year in binding the small grain crops of the United States into sheaves.

Tomato Soup
One can tomatoes, one-fourth teaspoon baking soda, one quart milk, one-third cup of flour, one-fourth cup of butter, three teaspoons of salt, one-fourth teaspoon of pepper. Put tomatoes into saucepan, cover them, cook at simmering temperature for one-half hour; press thru strainer and add baking soda. Make a white sauce of remaining ingredients, remove from fire, add hot tomato sauce to white sauce and serve immediately.

No Worms in a Healthy Child
All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. "Pleasant to take" 60c per bottle.

Ice Box Cake
One pound of milk chocolate, 3 eggs (separated), two tablespoons hot water, one tablespoon sugar, one dozen lady fingers, whipped cream. (In buying the milk chocolate, if you go to a grocery store you can buy it cheaper and it is just as good as that bought at confectionery store.) Heat the milk chocolate, sugar and water in double boiler; when melted remove from fire and add to beaten yolks of eggs. Fold in whites of eggs beaten stiff when mixture has cooled. Pour the chocolate mixture into a dish lined with lady fingers, alternating with lady fingers then chocolate. Allow it to stand over night in ice box or cool place. Serve with whipped cream.

Tomato and Cucumber Salad
Use medium sized tomatoes, pare them and hollow out center. To the tomato removed from center add chopped cucumbers (that have already been standing in salt water) and refill tomatoes, covering the whole with a generous spoonful of mayonnaise dressing. Sprinkle the top with nuts and serve on lettuce.

Suggestions
Steel knives are nice for steaks and chops, but they require special care. They should never be put into water to stand, but should be held in the hand while being washed, then wiped perfectly dry.

An economical way to settle coffee is by means of a pinch of salt. An egg is unnecessary in making the beverage if the salt is used.

In sweeping a carpet, keep the broom close to the carpet and sweep with the grain of the carpet.

Two teaspoons of cream and tartar and one scant teaspoon of baking soda are equal to three teaspoons of baking powder. Use one to one and a half teaspoons of baking powder to one cup of flour.

Use for the old record—A discarded graphophone record, either whole or in part, makes an excellent lightweight bread board which can be kept in the breadbox.

In preparing carrots or turnips for creaming, the flavor is very much improved if they are boiled with their skins on which are then easily removed without any waste.

If you like clear gravy, you will have it if made with cornstarch instead of flour. If flour is used, beat with an egg-beater before putting in pan. Your gravy will be nice and clear, not lumpy.

KANSAS CITY MARKET

Kansas City Stock Yards, July 3, 1922.—With Tuesday July 4, the usual holiday at the stock yards, opening receipts for the week were small, though in line with expectations and prices were generally strong to higher. Fat cattle were strong to 25 cents higher. Prime heavy steers sold up to $9.90, a new high record price for the year. Hogs were strong to 10 cents higher and sheep and lambs 15 cents higher.

Today's Receipts
Receipts today were 7,000 cattle, 8,000 hogs, and 6,000 sheep, compared with 9,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs, and 6,000 sheep a week ago, and a year ago was a holiday with no arrivals reported.

Beef Cattle.
Trade in fat cattle opened early with killers anxious for the offerings. A strong even demand prevailed throughout the session with the average advance placed at 10 to 15 cents, and in some cases grass fat steers were up to 25 to 35 cents. Prime native steers sold at $9.75 to $9.95, good to choice steers $9 pp. Some Texas steers caked on grass brought $8.35, and straight grass fat steers sold at $6.60 to $8. No South Texas steers arrived. Cows and heifers were 15 to 25 cents higher. Veal calves were strong.

Stockers and Feeders
Thin cattle were in moderate supply, and volume of business was held down on that account. Prices were firm. A good many orders were unfilled.

Hogs
Hog prices were strong to 10 cents higher and about up to the high level made Thursday of last week. The top price was $10.50, and bulk of the offerings sold at $10.35 to $10.55. Figs sold up to $10.50. Offerings were short of urgent requirements and the supply was cleaned up in a short time. Indications are that receipts from now on will be limited until transportation conditions are more settled. Today's small receipts were attributed to the holiday, July 4.

Sheep and Lambs
Most of the good lambs here were natives that sold at $12.50 to $12.85. They were quoted 15 cents higher. Sheep were quoted steady. Ewes sold at $4.50 to $5.65 and wethers $5.75 to $6.75. There is a good inquiry for breeding ewes and feeding lambs.

Horses and Mules
No new developments were reported in the horse and mule markets. Receipts were less than 100 head, and demand was limited.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY BADGER LAKE SUNDAY S. July 16, 1922.

Whereas, we have been informed that the Honorable Commissioners Court of this county recently gave the Lubbock Baseball team the permission to use the county park on Sunday, and that Mr. Wheeler was the only commissioner in said court to vote against the Sunday baseball.

And Whereas, our country's laws are supposed to be for a Christian nation and a Christian people, and against the desecration of the Sabbath.

Be it resolved that we condemn the action taken by the majority of the commissioners in the case above mentioned.

Resolved, that we most heartily commend the action taken by (our commissioner) Mr. Wheeler.

Resolved, that we should refuse

The Conductor's Time Was Wasted in Making Change

The passenger got on the train without a ticket. He was asked to pay a cash fare amounting to 1c per mile more. He didn't have nothing less than a $10 bill and to get payment for the transportation the conductor was forced to waste time by hunting up change to collect the fare.

THE SAME PRINCIPLE APPLIES TO THOSE WHO PAY CASH FOR ICE

The railroad company would rather you bought a ticket in the regular way and at a cheaper rate than to have you pay the conductor cash—and for the same identical reason we ask our customers to buy ice books.

HERE ARE A FEW THINGS TO REMEMBER WHEN YOU BUY ICE BOOKS:

If your requirements are as much as 12 1-2 pounds per delivery (not day) and less than 50 pounds, you are entitled to ice books containing checks to pay for 300 pounds of ice and the rate will be 70c per hundred pounds.

The Cash rate is 80c per hundred pounds.

If your requirements are 50 pounds or less than 100 pounds per delivery (not day) you are entitled to a 1000 pound book which costs you only 65c per hundred. A saving of 15c per hundred pounds.

If your requirements are 100 pounds or over per delivery (not day) you are entitled to a 2,000 pound book containing 100 pound coupons and the cost then is only 60c per hundred pounds. A saving of 20c per 100 pounds!

We are wanting to give Lubbock people the best ice service in West Texas and we desire the co-operation of our customers in aiding us along by the purchase of Ice Coupon Books.

LITTLE DAUGHTER OF SHERIFF IS RECOVERING

Sheriff Holcomb announced Monday that his little daughter Eunice, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in a local hospital was able to be taken home Monday, and will in all probability be able to be about within two more weeks.

The operation was made almost too late, as the appendix had ruptured, complicating the case greatly, and it is indeed fortunate that the little girl was able to recover from the attack.

People of Canyon Community Will Install Canner

Lubbock county community people are making a wonderful record for community work, the latest news of interest that has come to our notice was a meeting held at Canyon school Friday night and plans for purchasing a community canner were discussed.

A community canner is a real addition to any community, and especially in Lubbock county at this time, for the large fruit crop will save hundreds of dollars to the farmers, who have the opportunity to can sufficient amount of it to be a noticeable item on the grocery bill, and it is to be remembered that there are a good many people who do not know anything about canning, and lack of knowledge in the art should not be any cause for that person doing without canned fruit, vegetables, etc., when the County Home Demonstration agent is willing and capable of giving valuable instructions in that work.

The meeting at Canyon was attended by County Agent Jennings and County Home Demonstration Agent Mabel Marsh, who were instrumental in making it the success it was.

The best type of canner for the purpose will be purchased, and a committee was appointed and instructed to have the canner at its proper location by the first of September, which will be a mighty good time to start that work. The people of the Canyon community have made rapid progress in all work of that nature, and we are sure that the canner will be profitably and properly used by them.

Mr. Jennings and Miss Marsh are sparing no efforts in making their work just as valuable to the county as it is at all possible, and are to be congratulated for the exactness with which they have completed every task.

They are now busy gathering field products for exhibits at the Panhandle and South Plains and Dallas Fairs, two of the greatest agencies in Texas for encouraging better farming, and anyone desiring information on what kind of exhibits they might enter should visit them at their office in the court house.

Mr. Farmer, back the county agent and home demonstration agent. They are your best friends, and are working incessantly in your interest.

LOCAL PEOPLE RETURN FROM FISHING TRIP

O. V. Bagwell and family returned Thursday, from a fishing trip along the Concho and Jim Ned Rivers.

We are glad to know that the trip was an enjoyable one, and the fact that Mr. Bagwell is in fine health again is gratifying to his many friends. He has been in failing health for some time, and the trip was made on the advice of his physician which proved as beneficial as it was hoped to be.

Mr. Bagwell is a realtor of exceptional sales ability, and the fact that his health somewhat retarded his activities has been a source of much regret to his acquaintances.

SHALLOWATER NEWS ITEMS OF PAST WEEK

Mrs. J. C. Bowles and children, left Tuesday morning for California, where they will visit with Mrs. Bowles' sister, Mrs. McLean, at Filmore.

Ina Redwine returned home from the sanitarium Saturday. Her many friends are glad to have her back with them again.

Monie Sooter has been in Lubbock the past week, taking treatment for appendicitis. The doctors do not think she will have to undergo an operation.

Mrs. Lang Anderson and children, of Oklahoma, came in one day last week and will spend the summer visiting friends and relatives.

The L. Hardy family, spent the week end with relatives at Dimmitt.

A number from this place attended the Methodist conference at Grovesville, Sunday.

B. E. Needles is having a cement floor put in his garage. He is also installing a partition to separate the work room from the front. He has put in a large window at the front.

Mr. Gentry is doing the work.

The lumber yards reports that Mr. Maxwell is building several sets of improvements on his place south of here.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NUMBER ONE

I am a candidate of Justice of the Peace. I have been working hard to see all of the voters but there's a good many that I haven't seen, and I take this means of asking for your vote.

I am 22 years old and have been living in Lubbock for seven years, and ask you to look up my standing as to being a law-abiding citizen.

I am young and this is my first time to run for an office of any kind. I am qualified to fill the office and if elected will show no partiality to anyone.

Let me one term anyway, help me get a start because I don't intend to stop in this office if I can get higher—but this office is a good stepping stone for higher ones. I have never been tried before a court of any kind, nor have I ever been before a grand jury.

If I am elected, I will perform the duties of this office with the best of my ability, which is all anyone can do. You won't miss the vote and you can help me get the office.

Thanking you in advance for your vote and influence, I am,
GEO. B. MULLINS.

BALCONY OF THE LEADER STORE

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 1

Since my friends announced me for County Commissioner from Precinct No. 1, I have been too busy in my crops to make an active campaign for this office. I have been asked where I stand on certain matters of importance in the County's affairs and to make myself plain I put out this brief statement:

1. I am in favor of the County Commissioners co-operating with the State and Federal Highway Departments in every reasonable manner with a view of getting State and Federal Aid on our Highways.
 2. I believe that it would be better business for the Commissioners to give up the money they are now getting for working the roads in their various precincts and with it hire a competent County Highway Supervisor for the entire county, to care for the highways of the county under the supervision of the entire Commissioner's Court instead of under the direction of any one commissioner, as at present.
 - In other words to work the roads of the county as a whole instead of any one precinct or part of a precinct—and without favor to any town, community or road.
 3. I believe the County's business should be handled in a broad, constructive manner with the same care and forethought given to ones private affairs—and above all—without petty jealousies between any towns, communities or parts of the county. The County is a unit and should be so handled.
 4. I stand for a just equalization of all property valuations for State and County Taxes both town and country.
- I did not solicit this office until my friends announced me. If I am elected I pledge my word that I will give my very best to making you a good commissioner.
- Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

ABSENTEES OUT OF STATE ON ELECTION DAY LOSE VOTE

A question has come up whether a voter can be absent and out of the State on election day and cast his ballot before leaving. So much interest was manifested that County Attorney Robert L. Brumalow wired the Attorney General at Austin, the following:

"Is it lawful for voter to leave State and be absent on election day and cast his voter before leaving under the absentee voting law?"

Attorney General Keeling immediately wired Attorney Brumalow that it was not lawful.

This means that several Childress voters who have cast a vote and left the State will lose their votes. Some eight or ten votes have been cast and the voters are now in Colorado and other Western States. These votes can be counted unless contested but it is said that several will be contested by candidates.

As the attorney general's department has ruled in the matter the election judges must abide by the decision.—Childress Index.

REMINGTON SALESMAN TAKES OVER TYPEWRITER SALES CO.

A. N. Haraway, Remington typewriter salesman, who is well known on the plains, is here to take charge of the Typewriter Equipment Co.

Mr. Haraway is one of the best salesmen that has ever made Lubbock, and his many friends are glad to have him make Lubbock his place of activity. While Lubbock has been his home for some time, he has been quite nomadic, and has been here only at intervals, as he makes his territory aggressively, and doesn't have time to stay in one town very long to let them know that he has typewriters on the mind.

Mary Katherine Norfleet, daughter of E. E. Norfleet of Hale Center, is in a local sanitarium, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis last week.

John Denman, of the Lubbock State Bank, went to Floydada Sunday to visit relatives, and was accompanied home by his family, who had spent a week there.

LUBBOCK IS HEADQUARTERS FOR ANOTHER SALESMAN

H. A. Farrell and two children, arrived in Lubbock this week to make their home.

Mr. Farrell is traveling salesman for the Hackley-Tandy Leather Co. of Fort Worth, and is making headquarters here because of the convenience of making Texas' best territory from the most practical point.

Lubbock gains something worth while every time a traveling salesman comes here, and we are glad to welcome them, and realize fully the important place they take along the line of development of this city.

Mrs. A. L. Kirkwood and daughter Irene, left last week for Abilene, where they will make a short visit, going from there to San Antonio, where Mr. Kirkwood is employed by the John F. Noel Electrical Company. Mrs. Kirkwood has been an active worker in the Baptist church, and will be greatly missed by her co-workers in that church and its auxiliaries.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. S. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. "I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person. "Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it." Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. R.S.P.

M. Rhodes was in town Monday from his fine farm four miles south of town. Mr. Rhodes is one of those much talked of farmer-stockmen, and has found mixing the work a paying proposition on the plains. Everything out his way is looking good, and but for the fact that a little more rain could be used at this time nothing would be lacking to make things really hum.

WEST TEXAS' LARGEST DAIRYMAN HERE TUESDAY

J. C. Orr of Crosbyton, one of the biggest dairymen in Texas, and with his associate, S. A. Guy, operating one of the most costly institutions in the State, the first venture of its capacity on the plains, was here Tuesday transacting business. Mr. Orr is the most progressive stockman in the state, and the expense at which he has gone to stock his farm near Crosbyton with thoroughbred cattle places him and his associate among the men who are spending huge sums in the development of the dairy industry in the state. He is one of those busy men who always has enough time to spend a few friendly words with those with whom he is associated, and when questioned as to his opinion of Lubbock and the adjacent territory he spoke optimistically of our future, and expressed a desire to become interested in Lubbock county property.

We were mighty glad to have had an opportunity to get offhand information from Mr. Orr as to the dairying possibilities of the plains, and any one familiar with the things he and Mr. Guy are doing near Crosbyton, will certainly feel that he has great confidence in this country.

Exerpts From the Sermon Delivered By Rev. J. P. Hardesty, Pastor of the Slaton Baptist Church in Reply to Letter

Some time ago the pastor of the Baptist church at Slaton, Texas, received the following letter:
Lubbock, Texas, 7-4-1922.
Jno. P. Hardesty, Slaton, Texas.
You are in for it. We attended several of your sermons in Slaton, and also one here. We don't like your ideas. You are too much K. K. and talk too much about other denominations. If you don't get out of this country in 10 days you will go out feet first. TRY US AND SEE.
We do not go to church but we are 100 per cent American.
(The above letter bore no signature except that of a skull and crossbones, with four red dots around the skull. It was printed with pencil, and the address had the name spelled differently from the inside.)
The pastor will make public reply to the above communications in his pulpit Sunday night. He will call a spade a SPADE. He will deliver some hot shots and tell the people where he expects to move to. The line is drawn between the crooks and righteousness in this town and the people are getting lined up on the side they belong on. Come!
JNO. P. HARDESTY, Pastor.

The following excerpts of the sermon are given, which was a reply to the letter received. There was much more said by the pastor regarding his statement made in Lubbock address several weeks ago, but these are the words bearing directly upon the letter:
My friends, I am going to speak slow and deliberately and measure my words and phrases. I have two reasons for doing so. In the first place I want everyone to hear and understand, and in the second place our good friend, Mr. Turner, who is a stenographer for the railroad, is afraid he will not be able to take the address if I should speak too fast.
I wish to read the following scriptures. The first is found in Matthew 10:34-36:

"Think not that I came to send peace on the earth, I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I came to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, and a man's foes shall be they of his own household." Matt. 10:34-36.

The next Luke 12:49-53:
"I came to cast fire upon the earth; and what do I desire, if it is already kindled? Think ye that I am come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, nay but rather division; for there shall from henceforth be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. They shall be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law." Luke 12:49-53.

I have read these two scriptures in order that you may understand that the gospel of Jesus Christ brings about division among men; that while Jesus Christ was proclaimed the Prince of Peace, yet at the same time the peace and the light which He brought into the world also brought with it division and confusion. And the next scripture which I shall read will show why the coming of the Prince of Peace brought confusion and division. This scripture is also the language of the Savior, and is found in John 3:19 and 20.

"And this is the judgment, that the light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, for their works are evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be reproved." John 3:19-20.

Now, my friends, that is the reason why Jesus Christ stated that he came to bring division; because in the very nature of his mission to men he has brought light from heaven. As this light drove away the darkness that was upon this earth, it uncovered the evil deeds of men; and "men," said the Savior, "love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil," and now that is the trouble with Slaton. There are many men and women among us without the gospel of Jesus Christ. There isn't anything wrong with the religion of Jesus Christ. The trouble is that there is something wrong with the men who love darkness rather than light. Men love darkness because it enables them to hide their evil deeds. And whenever the searchlight of the gospel of truth is turned upon men's lives it naturally reveals their crooked deeds; and, therefore, they hate the light which thus brings to the notice of men the deeds of evil they practice.

There is a question in the mind of each of you; there is the same question in the minds of hundreds of thousands of others who have read the account of the anonymous letter that I received a few days ago, as to the author or authors of this letter. As to the individual or the group of individuals, I want to say this, since a number have suggested to me that a certain religious denomination in this country is responsible for it. I do not believe that the Catholics are the authors of this anonymous letter; I do not believe that a Catholic in this country or any group of Catholics wrote it. I would not say whether it gives them any comfort; that is a matter for them to decide; but it is my candid opinion that the Catholics did not inspire the letter; that no Catholic wrote it. That is my candid, sincere belief.

I do know that one Catholic man approached me on yesterday and said to me: "I have a $0-30, as fine a gun as a man ever brought to his shoulder and as straight a barrel as he ever looked down, and if you need any assistance from me the only thing you have to do is to blow your whistle and I will be right there." I know there is one 100 per cent American Catholic in this community, whether there are any more or not. I do not say that there are not any more, but I believe I can vouch for this one.

The question naturally came into the minds of some of you because of one statement contained in the anonymous letter, which I shall repeat: "You talk too much about other denominations."

During the revival meeting which was held in the Methodist church, and which was co-operated in by the Methodists, Presbyterians, the Christians and some Catholics, the only denomination that I mentioned adversely was the Catholics. I said in one of my sermons during the recent revival that there were men in this community who would pick me off in the dark, or the Methodist pastor in this town, if they thought they could do it and get away with it. You believe now that I was somewhere within reach of the solemn truth about that matter. I told you that men were bad in this town; that they were openly defiant of the laws of our country and were blatant and bold in their nefarious deeds in this community. Many of you, the most of you believed it. Perhaps some of you had a question in your mind as to whether or not that was true. You do not have any question mark as to that statement now, I am sure. Would this letter have been written if the pastor of this church had not taken a public, definite stand against evil in this town? If he had not committed the good people of this town and community to a program of righteousness as against certain well known in the community who are living by gambling, bootlegging, etc.? Against certain characters who are parasites on the business and social life of this community? Against rapists, flappers, jelly-beans, vagrants, burglars, automobile thieves, etc.?

The answer to this question is easy. NO! It would not have been written or mailed to me. Neither, on the other hand, would all this wickedness have been slowed up. It would have continued to go on in the same old way.

But, when a man clears up a piece of new ground, or a piece of ground infected with weeds and four undergrowth he has also to clean out the rats, snakes and skunks that infest such a place. The gutter must be cleaned out in the interest of the public health of the community. So of the moral health of a community. And our attitude toward the moral skunk should be the same as that for the material animal; the same as toward a mad dog, or any other animal that would harm his children and his home.

I do not consider this a personal matter. It is thrust at the good citizenship of this community who gave their enthusiastic and unanimous endorsement to my stand for a clean, righteous town in which to live and rear and educate our families. In that respect it is a community affair. If I had kept this letter a secret the author, or authors of it would have concluded that I had taken cold feet or the limber neck and that I was afraid to continue in my program for a fit community morally and religiously. They made a bad guess if they thought I would take that attitude on the matter.

There is an idea prevalent in the minds of many people that preachers are spineless creatures; that they are physical cowards; that their calling is one of peace, preaching the gospel of love and grace, and are therefore afraid to go up against the rough and tumble element of society. But I want to say to you that God never called a man of the spineless variety to preach. God calls men of moral and physical courage—men who are not afraid to LIVE for Him, but men who, like John the Baptist, Paul the Apostle, Jeremiah the Prophet, Moses the Commander and Law Giver, Joshua the captain of the hosts of Israel, David the giant killer, Elijah the false prophet killer, and countless thousands of others who have sealed their testimony with their warm red blood, and who, like the Man of Galilee, are willing to be crucified on a cross of hate for the extension of His kingdom to the ends of the earth. A man does not HAVE to live, but he does HAVE to live like a WHITE man and like a gentleman.

The constitution guarantees to every citizen of this country the right of TRIAL by jury after a proper indictment according to due process of law. Now, what am I charged with, and who makes the charge? The author of this anonymous letter charges me with having "ideas" not in harmony with his. Because I have dared to "speak out in meeting" and give my position on law and order and call attention to the fact that the laws of both God and this country are being disregarded, that the sanctity of the home, the honor of our manhood, the virtue of our womanhood are all trampled beneath the feet of those who would run rough shod over these sacred things, therefore, without having a chance of open trial to ascertain by testimony my guilt or innocence, the man or group of men, who sent this letter, would take the law into their own hands and pick me off in the dark. And yet they claim to be 100 per cent American.

Finally, And now my friends, where shall I move? (Voices over the house: "Stay right there in the parsonage.") I don't like to move. We have moved so much now that our furniture is worn out moving it. We keep it on wheels all of the time. It is said that three moves is equivalent to a burn. If that is so then we have been burned out nine times for we have moved twenty-seven times in the twenty years my wife and I have been married. Friends, I don't want to move. I like Slaton better all the time. I have thought I would like to make this my permanent home. When I shall have finished my service with this good church, somehow, I think I would like to continue to live here until I get old, and then have my body to rest quietly in the cemetery here. I have often said that if I had to be sick, or any of my family should have to go through a spell of serious sickness I would like for it to be here. I have never seen a finer class of people when it comes to caring for the sick and those who are in any sort of distress. I believe you can start a subscription list beginning at the Singleton hotel on the corner, and by the time it gets through the business district and reaches the other corner more money will be raised in the least time of any town I have ever known. If I had to die I would like to die in Slaton. I would like for the people of Slaton to have the last look into my face. I believe in you and love you. I believe you would go with me to the last ditch. I believe we have as fine a bunch of railroad men in this town as can be found on the earth. They are 100 per cent men. Although their skins are often black with the coal and grease in which they work their hides are white and their souls are white. I believe, too, that in this strike now on that their cause is just. I believe they are making a clean fight for what is right and fair, and I am with them to the last limit.

And now, my friends, I believe I will let you say where I shall move. I believe I will let you vote on this question. And if you say for me to move I will have to do so. (Cries: "Stay right there. We are for you.") If you say stay then we will just move back into the parsonage, where we are now. I am going to put this to a rising vote. Every one present, whether you are a Baptist or not, who wants me to stay in Slaton, stand up and remain standing. And if there is one who does not stand I want you to see the color of his eye. The line is drawn tonight, not K. K. K. and anti K. K. I believe ninety per cent of you would stand for the principles advocated by the K. K. K. But that is a different matter altogether. All who are committed to the program of righteousness advocated by this preacher may stand. (Entire audience stood and clapped their hands). Thank you, my friends. THE FARM HOME

- The heart of the farm is the home.
- More important than the size of the wheat crop or the quality of the hogs is the influence of the home with son and daughter.
- Success at farming may be measured by the kind of a home the farm provides the wife, and the boys and girls.
- Our character, tastes and habits are largely the product of the home environment. Money spent to improve the dwelling place and the farmstead, is money well spent.
- We invite the home loving to use our plan service and to talk over with us their plans for improvements. We have practical suggestions to offer those who build or remodel.

AN INTERESTING OLD LETTER
REPRODUCED IN CROSBYTON REVIEW

The Review has in possession a very interesting letter written by Judge W. C. Dockum, who was the second County Judge of Crosby county, dated at Estacado, October 10, 1889—thirty three years ago—reporting to the Hartford Insurance Company a fire that came very near destroying the court house. Following is a copy of the letter that may prove interesting to our readers:
"Gentlemen:—I notify you by this my sworn statement of the damage done a certain two-story frame metal roof building occupied as a court house, situated on lots 5, 6, 7 and 8, block 65, in the town of

Estacado, Crosby county, Texas, by fire during the morning of October 10th, about 2 o'clock a. m. The cause of the fire was about as follows, supposed to have begun under the floor of the Treasurer's office on west side of building at "X" as shown by sketch hereto attached and marked "Exhibit A," and thence north into County Judge's office under floor, thence east across hall into Clerk's office and then up the east wall of the Clerk's office and up the wall of the main court room on second floor to nearly the roof. The floor and sleepers or sills supporting the floor in the Treasurer's office is wholly a loss, being so much damaged that it will have to be entirely restored. The ceiling and east wall of the Treasurer's office and the wall between the Judge's office and the Treasurer's office are greatly damaged and will require considerable repairs. The fire went up the wall between the Judge's office and Treasurer's office to the floor of the second story and then went east on second story floor to about opposite Clerk's office, damaging the same to that extent that it will be required to be repaired. About half of the floor of the County Judge's office will be required to be restored as well as that of the ceiling of the same and the door of the same office will have to be renewed. Some of the sleepers in the Judge's office, I believe from appearances will have to be replaced with new ones. The course of the fire across hall so damaged the floor of same and two sleepers under same that the latter will have to be restored and the former repaired. The west wall of the Clerk's office is so damaged that it will have to be greatly repaired. The floor of the Clerk's office was so damaged that it will have to be considerably repaired and two sleepers under same renewed. The Treasurer's, Judge's and Clerk's offices will require a new coat of paint. The paint on the north end of building was considerably blackened by smoke and should be repainted. The east wall of second story where fire went up same will require to be repaired.

The value of the building before the fire was $6,000, and the same is the property of Crosby county, and the damage done said property by the fire above described is to the best of my knowledge, after carefully examining same is a loss to the amount of $950.00. Said building was used by the county as a court house. Room No. 1 as per attached sketch is used by the County and District Clerk for an office and Room No. 2 as a vault for the county records and Room No. 3 by Sheriff for an office and Room No. 4 by Assessor and Surveyor for an office, and Room 5 by Treasurer and County Attorney for an office and Room No. 6 by County Judge for an office. The second floor was used as a court room in which the different courts were held, except two rooms in south end of building on second floor which were used for witnesses and jury rooms.

"The fire is supposed to have originated about 2 o'clock a. m. on the morning of October 10th, 1889. The cause of the fire is not known, there having not been any fire in the building for two weeks or more before the fire."

Miss Bessie Myrtle Murray, Poultry Specialist, Says Our Need Is More and Better Poultry for South Plains

There was a time when the chicken business was considered the woman's job. A woman with both a weak back and a weak mind could easily manage it. That was when we raised chickens and not poultry. Chickens are small creatures which contain still a greater variety of tones and hues that live in back a certain and there for their food because she does not produce enough to pay for her feed. Poultry is a bird that has been bred for certain type, is covered with a certain color or combination of colors that the Divine creature designed for that particular type of bird.

Every bird of the entire flock is so near alike that you cannot tell at which bird we are looking. She is so constructed that she not only produces enough eggs to defray the expenses of herself but she bears her part of the upkeep of the family. She has become a real business hen and oftentimes assists materially in paying off mortgages and sending children to school.

The poultry industry has been growing by leaps and bounds the last ten years. According to the United States census bureau in 1910 there were 12,719,572 fowls in Texas ranking sixth among the forty-eight states. In 1920 the number of chickens had increased to 18,062,744, the state moving up to fifth place in importance.

Nationally speaking the hen is a billionaire. The poultry industry in Texas is of much greater value than many of us realize. It overtakes dairying according to the United States census bureau of 1920. The value of poultry products produced in this State was $38,190,568 000. It equals the combined value of swine and wool.

While the Texas hens lay enough eggs in one year to reach around the world at the equator and start on the second lap with only 10,000 miles to go, she has not yet produced enough to supply the demands of Texas consumers. Her efforts would pave a road sixteen feet wide from the Gulf of Mexico to the Red River, and allow 65,000,000 eggs for breakfast and careless handling, yet she does not do enough. We must have more hens and better ones.

It is true that many carloads of eggs are shipped into other states. But it is also true that we buy these same eggs in their cold storage condition, at fancy prices later on. This suggests the advisability of the establishment of a few cold storage plants and a saving of freight in both producers and consumers.

There are 436,033 farms in Texas, 60,000 of which have no poultry at all. The average farm has about 58 birds. Every farm should have from 100 to 200 good standard-bred-to-day hens. At a very conservative estimate each hen will produce a net profit of $2.00. This alone would make the eggs worth $36,125,488. The average hen in Texas produces about 61 eggs per year while it takes an average of 100 eggs to pay the expense of a hen.

These figures do not apply to the hen on the range which receives but little attention, for as producer they rank lowest. They do their own foraging a large portion of the year. Such poultry may be classed as neither profitable nor unduly expensive.

Texas needs "more poultry and better poultry," and a thorough and systematic stamping out of the scrub chicken. Standardization of both poultry and poultry products is needed. Just so long as we have the Dukes mixture just that long will we have a variation of sizes, shapes and colors of eggs. The egg that brings the best price is the egg that is uniform in size, shape and color. The egg itself should not only be attractive, but it should be put up in attractive containers. Standardization of breed would mean much to the poultry industry.

Not only is an attractive product desirable, but a product that will keep is absolutely necessary. The infertile egg will keep indefinitely. Texas loses annually about $1,250,000.00 on fertile eggs from May until October. The male bird is not needed on the yard except during the breeding season. To produce infertile eggs during the season means the death of thousands of roosters. It also means a saving of bushels of feed, in addition to the amount of money saved by the production of eggs that will keep, because the demands for poultry and poultry products are still on the increase.

In speaking of pre-war and after-war condition Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, Dr. Ball says, "Poultry showed an actual increase in purchasing power, while all other farm crops except buckwheat showed a decrease." According to the Federal Crop Reporter the prices of chickens are 67 per cent above the five year pre-war average; eggs are 73 per cent higher.

There has been no material slump in poultry and egg prices in spite of the fact that the hen has continued on the job every day in the year. Instead, there has been an increase in production and consumption of both eggs and poultry.

Mexico furnishes an attractive outlet for the poultry market in Texas. Reports and data obtained at the port of Laredo indicate that during the period from January 1921 to September 1921, 3,947,907 dozens of eggs passed through into Mexico City through that port. As there are a number of points of entry in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, the total business of all the places is great. During the same period 5,957,247 bushels of corn, 811,141 bushels of wheat passed through Laredo. Those figures are given to indicate the importance of the relationship of the poultry industry in this State and Mexico.

The greater part of the poultry and poultry products used in Mexico are bought in the United States. Previous to the Revolution, poultry shows were regularly held in all the largest cities. At these places active poultry associations fostered the industry. At present considerable interest is being aroused to revive these shows. The National school of Agriculture at Mexico City is devoting much time to agriculture. Good breeding birds are scarce. They are looking to the United States for both good breeders and good eggs.

Vote for H. L. (Bud) Johnson for Sheriff. 39-41

To the Voters of Lubbock County:

I have made an effort to meet and talk to personally every voter in Lubbock County, but it is impossible for a person to see every one, but I hope those I have not been able to see, will accept this message as a personal invitation to vote for me for SHERIFF OF LUBBOCK COUNTY.

A great many of the voters of this County have known me for a good many years, having lived in Lubbock County for twenty-one years, all of which time has been spent on the ranch and have never before asked the voters for any public office. To those who are not acquainted with me I urge that you ask others as to my standing as a citizen and as to my qualifications for the office I seek.

I realize that present conditions demand a rigid enforcement of laws and that conditions cannot be bettered by lax enforcement. If elected I will strive with the co-operation of other officers and the law abiding people to see that the laws are enforced fairly and impartially to all classes alike.

I will greatly appreciate your vote, and anything you can do to assist me in election to this office, and especially solicit the vote of the ladies of this county.

Respectfully

H. L. (BUD) JOHNSON.

Geary Redman, of the mechanical force of the Avalanche, is taking a correspondence course in Architectural Drafting, and thus far has proved himself capable of untangling the problems that confront one in that work. Three examinations on his papers have been made, and the high mark of ninety-five made on each, and another plan was sent to the school Monday, which will no doubt come out fully as favorable for the ambitious printer. He is studying under the direction of the Engineers' Educational Company of Chicago, a recognized school, and will continue the work. Young Redman is the son of Editor Redman, of the Abernathy Review, and has been given many educational advantages which we are glad to know he took complete advantage of, and will some day take his place among the really big men of the country.

ABERNATHY NEWS
FROM THE REVIEW

Seven of the leading stock markets on and west of the Mississippi River, according to the Horse and Mule Association of America, show a large increase in the sales of horses and mules over the first six months of 1921. Out of seven of the largest horse and mule markets of the United States, reports the sale of 76,098 up to June 1, 1922, against 62,451 in the same period last year. Other markets show a decrease so slight that considering the stock demands of 1922 business, a general increased proportion of horse use is clearly indicated.

All voters who expect to be away from home on July 22, can vote in the primary between the dates of July 12th and 20th, by calling at the County Clerk's office and making out the proper affidavit, form for which will be furnished by the clerk, and the voter will be given a ballot which he or she can vote just as though it was on election day.

R. M. Hardesty, who was appointed at a meeting of the county election board as judge of the Abernathy election, has appointed for his assistants, J. C. Arnett, M. Z. Holland and J. M. Fields. The polls will open promptly at 7 o'clock Saturday morning and will close at 6 p. m.

W. B. Crow and family, from Coleman, are here for a two weeks visit with friends and relatives. Mr. Crow is the son of E. F. Crow and a brother to Mrs. Lee Crow. Monday afternoon about forty or fifty of the young people and married folks of the town drove out in the country about thirty miles and entertained themselves with a camp-fire supper. Everybody reported a very enjoyable time and declared Rev. and Mrs. Hunt among the best of chaperones.

Tom Lauderdale and Mr. Pierce, from Breckenridge, arrived in Abernathy Monday morning to spend a few days on business. They report crops needing rain, especially corn. While cotton is holding up very well but if rain don't come in the next few days, that too will suffer. The oil situation is looking up. Several new wells have been brought in lately and new ones being put down. The new field around Cross Plains is proving to be something worth while. Two or three new wells have been brought in during the last few days which are proving to be good producers.

W. T. Hall was in town Monday, and stated that the members of the Nazarene church were making preparations for a protracted meeting to be held at the Science Hill school house, embracing the 2nd and 3rd Sundays in August. The meeting will be under the direction of Rev. S. L. Wood of Plainview. The Science Hill school house is located six miles north and three east of Abernathy, and Mr. Hall says everybody is invited to attend this meeting.

C. G. Goodman has been busy this week with a party of home-seekers from Mexia, showing them over this country. They are much taken with what they saw of the country and as they are here to buy homes, it is very likely they will invest and become citizens of this section.

T. J. Ellard, father of James T. Ellard, arrived a few days ago from his home in New Mexico, and will spend several weeks here visiting his children and friends. Mr. Ellard likes where he is, but being an old citizen of the south plains, cannot be satisfied away, and thinks he will move back some time in the near future. They will come back to their "old home town."

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moore of Lubbock, the latter of whom is a sister of Rev. J. T. Howell, were in Abernathy Monday buying fruit and visiting. Rev. Howell and family returned to Lubbock with them where they spent a very pleasant two days visit.

Home-seekers are coming in almost daily looking after land and homes in the Abernathy country—some are buying while others come and look and go away well pleased with the looks of the country and intimate that they will locate somewhere in this immediate section.
