MEAGER REPORTS SHOW CAPTAIN AND TWO RADIO OPERATORS LOST LIVES IN ACCIDENT ON VESSEL

Accident Occured During a Norther Says Message from Consul Wood Stationed at Vera Cruz

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Tragedy follows the cruiser Tacoma which went aground at Blanquilla reef off Vera Cruz harbor. Her commander, Captain Herbert G. Sparrow, is dead from an accident aboard the ill fated vessel, in which two radio operators also lost their lives. The accident took place during a norther, according to the message received at the State Department Tuesday night from Consul John G. Wood at Vera Cruz, announcing the death of the three men.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Although the chief accusing witness was compelled to admit several acts which might be construed as indications of his own character, the first day of the trial of William H. Anderson, superintendent of the New York state Anti-Saloon league, charged with forgery, elicited statements that: Anderson caused the books of the league to be juggled. Anderson compelled a fund solicitor to divide commission. Anderson wished to "fool the Rockefeller" who were heavy contributors to the prohibition campaign, by concealing the fact that fund solicitors received a commission on the contributions. As a parenthetical note it may be stated that the Rockefeller withdrew their support from the Anti-Saloon league of New York when they learned of the alleged deception. Anderson went on trial on the first of the indictments against him Tuesday before Justice Tompkins in the criminal branch of the supreme court. O. Bertall Phillips, who was a solicitor of the Anti-Saloon league of New York from 1917 to 1922, under a contract salary of $7,500 a year, plus commissions, was the chief witness. Phillips said that in the second year of his employ he paid Anderson 50 percent of his earnings above $10,000.

Chicago Judge Rules Birth Control Clinics Legal in Illinois. CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 22.—Chicago women have the right to say whether they want children or wish, on the other hand, to know how to keep the birth rate down, Judge Harry Fisher has again ruled. Deciding against a motion brought by attorneys representing the city to set aside his previous decision allowing the Illinois birth control league to hold clinics here, the jurist said he believed poor people should have access to the knowledge disseminated through such clinics. Club women, who were in court were elated over the decision and announced their determination to resume the clinics at once.

REBELS ROUTED BY FEDERAL ATTACK

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 22.—Rebel forces in the state of Jalisco have been split up and are being pursued by the federales, according to a telegram from President Obregon who is directing the campaign on the western front. One federal column is pushing forward to Guadalajara, held by the rebels, but is meeting with no resistance. Other columns are following the retreating rebel bands. Obregon predicts they will enter the city Thursday. The newspaper El Universal, commenting editorially on the American naval demonstration before Vera Cruz, expresses regret that the revolution has given the United States an opportunity to patrol Mexican waters with a strong force. The newspaper professes to see in the demonstration evidence of a stretching of international law, and says that American intervention in Santo Domingo, Cuba, Haiti and Nicaragua has been of a "humiliating" character.

SENTENCED TO DIE FORTY HOURS AFTER CRIME. OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 22.—Forty hours after he had slain Jack King, lunch stand proprietor, Hoyt Howington, 21, was sentenced to die April 4, in the electric chair. Howington confessed to the murder, claiming he was intoxicated.

FAILED IN LIFE BUT WAS SUCCESSFUL IN LAST DESPERATE TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Fred Milford, at the age of 35, has achieved a "success." It was his first and his last, according to his own testimony. The body of Milford was found, fully clothed, on a bed in a cheaply furnished room near Greenwich Village. He was dead from self-inflicted asphyxiation. For the past five weeks he had earned a bare living as a bus boy in a nearby restaurant, but the clothes and the books that were found in the room, bore strong witness that he had once been accustomed to far better things in life. Most poignant of all was the note he left. It said: "To whom it may concern: "If I succeed in the act I am about to attempt it will be the first success of my life; likewise my last. You are at liberty to dispose of my body in any way you choose. Please send my suitcase and my personal effects to my sister, Miss J. May Milford, Blanca, Colo. "According to prevalent ideas, this is a cowardly act that I am committing. Be that as it may, I offer no excuse except that life in this world is for men made of sterner stuff than I. "I shall now see what, if anything, lies beyond." "Fred Milford, deceased."

PARIS, Jan. 22.—The committee of experts headed by Brigadier-General Charles G. Dawes, has decided that the fiscal rehabilitation of Germany necessitates the creation of an independent gold bank, it was learned Tuesday in an official communication. It learned that the experts have in mind the creation of a new German bank of emission, keeping its reserves and assets in a neutral country, possibly either Holland or Switzerland.

Blinded By Liquor. CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 22.—Antone Wash started out on a toot. He had forty gallons of moonshine to work on, but a few drinks were enough. Police found him stretched across a bed, seriously ill and blinded by the fiery liquor.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 22.—Some action may be taken against principals in the shooting of Courtland S. Dines by Horace Greer, Mabel Normand's chauffeur, Justice Hanby hinted at the preliminary hearing of Greer Tuesday after charging a collusion among the attorneys and witnesses to withhold important evidence. Lawyers in the case were upset by the judge's sensational announcement, which was prompted by the "I don't remember" and "I don't know" that featured the testimony of Dines, Miss Normand and Edna Purviance as to what happened when Greer fired the shots in Dines' apartment New Year's night. "This whole proceeding appears to me as a deliberate attempt or conspiracy to keep from the court many things that the court should know in this examination. For what reason I do not know," Justice Hanby said angrily. The judge showed that Dines' "lapse of memory" when his testimony was taken Monday at the hospital had irritated him. Accusation of the collusion was made when defense attorneys objected to certain testimony by Police Officer Bain, to whom Greer told his story immediately after the shooting. "It seems to me that this evidence ought to be put in this proceeding. If this man Dines has made statements that are contradictory to the statements he made Monday or the statements that he should have remembered Monday, considering his condition, it seems to me that I should know that as a magistrate," Justice Hanby said after the objection had been made. "It may have some bearing upon the dismissal of this case or the holding of this defendant for trial. I think I shall allow the witness to testify," he announced. Later when the defense again objected to part of Bain's story of Greer's coming to the police station and of the condition of Dines' apartment after the shooting, Justice Hanby charged there was a conspiracy afoot to withhold the facts.

REBELS GUARD U. S. SHIPPING CLAIM BLOCKADE NOT INTENDED AS EMBARGO AGAINST AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The proposed blockade of Tampico, which was "postponed" by the Huerta forces after Secretary of State Hughes transmitted a sharp note to rebels indicating that no such action would be countenanced, will be conducted in such a manner that all legitimate American shipping may pass through the oil port without molestation, Alvarez del Castillo, diplomatic agent of the Vera Cruz government here, said Tuesday night. Meanwhile the stand taken Monday that Vera Cruz harbor would not be mined unless the federal gunboat Bravo sailed from New Orleans was reiterated by the de la Huerta representative. It was said that the sailing of the vessel has been indefinitely halted. Reports that American oil interests in the Vera Cruz zone were contemplating the withdrawal of their employes because of fears of violence at the hands of the Mexicans over the occupation of Vera Cruz by the cruiser Richmond, were deplored by del Castillo, who assured oil men that no ill was borne toward them by the populace. Meanwhile the senate foreign relations committee has voted a favorable report on the proposed recognition and it is understood that an attempt will be made to speed the passage of the treaty through the senate so that ambassadors may be exchanged.

WILHELM NOW IN BERLIN. BERLIN, Jan. 22.—Both Princess Hermine, wife of the ex-kaiser and ex-Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm are in Berlin. It is understood that the former crown prince has come here to discuss possibilities of his being a candidate for election to the German reichstag, or even president of Germany.

SEES NO CHANGE AFTER DEATH OF LENINE. DURING MY VISIT IN RUSSIA LAST SUMMER, I WAS UNABLE TO SEE LENINE BECAUSE AT THAT TIME HE WAS QUITE ILL, BUT I DID SEE TROTSKY AND I HAD TALKS WITH OTHER SOVIET OFFICIALS WHICH GAVE ME A GOOD INSIGHT INTO THEIR GOVERNMENT. IN ADDITION TO THESE TALKS, ONLY MONDAY NIGHT I HAD A LONG CONVERSATION WITH COLONEL WILLIAM HASKELL, WHO WAS IN CHARGE OF AMERICAN RELIEF IN RUSSIA, AND WHO I THINK IS ABOUT THE BEST INFORMED MAN IN THIS COUNTRY ON RUSSIAN AFFAIRS. WHEN I SAY THAT I DO NOT THINK ANY GREAT CHANGE WILL OCCUR IN RUSSIAN AFFAIRS, I THINK I SPEAK ADVISEDLY, BECAUSE ACCORDING TO THE LATEST REPORTS, TROTSKY HAS BEEN RELEGATED TO A LOWER PLACE IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF RUSSIAN AFFAIRS. LENINE WAS A MODERATIONIST. HE WAS A MAN WILLING TO COMPROMISE AS HE SAW THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COUNTRY AT STAKE. HE CAST ASIDE A GREAT MANY OF THE IDEAS WITH WHICH HE STARTED THE COMMUNIST REGIME, AND IN THE END HE GAVE UP PRACTICALLY ALL OF THEM WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE OWNERSHIP OF THE LAND, WHICH HE FIRMLY KEPT IN THE HANDS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT. THE MEN NOW IN CHARGE, KAMENOFF IN PARTICULAR, WILL CARRY ON THE POLICIES WHICH THE GREAT RUSSIAN TRODKY DICTATED FROM HIS SICK BED. WITH THE OUSTING OF TROTSKY, THE FRUIT OF THESE POLICIES SEEMS ASSURED. TROTSKY WAS A RADICAL WHILE LENINE AND THE MEN NOW IN POWER WERE MODERATIONISTS. THE CO-OPERATIVE MOVEMENT IS GROWING. WHEN I WAS IN RUSSIA IT HAD REACHED THE POINT WHERE ITS STABILITY IS ASSURED, AND I THINK THAT IT WILL GROW INSTEAD OF SLACKEN. THE DEATH OF LENINE WAS UNFORTUNATE, BUT I BELIEVE THAT THEY WILL CARRY ON WITH HIM, AS HE HAD DONE, TO ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES, DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS.

CHARGES OF SENATE DENIED BY SINCLAIR

HAVRE, France, Jan. 23.—Harry F. Sinclair, American oil magnate, summoned by the senate committee investigating the Teapot Dome scandal in Washington plans to remain in Europe for several weeks. "I have already denied the charges against me on oath and I shall repeat the denial at my conveniences," Sinclair told the United News correspondent as he landed here from the French liner Paris. "I shall remain in Europe several weeks, because of my many interests here."

RUM RUNNING TREATY BE SIGNED SOON

LONDON, Jan. 22.—The Anglo-American treaty regulating the search and seizure of rum runners off the American coast will be signed shortly, according to authoritative information. Sir Auckland Geddes has been authorized to hand Secretary Hughes the draft of the treaty, which has been approved by both the British government and the dominions.

CLAIM COOLIDGE WILL KILL TAX MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—President Coolidge's refusal to budge from the principal provisions of the Mellon tax reduction plan, including the 25 percent surtax proposal, was coldly received by leaders in congress, where the movement for compromise is strong. Representative Longworth, of Ohio, republican floor leader, said when informed of the president's insistence for low surtax rates, that he had not changed his position for compromise rates on the Mellon plan. Longworth voted for a 32 percent surtax before, and favors some such figure, or even a higher figure—if necessary for agreement—in the present bill. Representative Garner, of Texas, ranking democratic member of the ways and means committee, declared flatly that the president's position would kill a tax bill in the congress. Representative Green, of Iowa, chairman of the committee, made it plain that he favors a higher surtax rate in spite of the president's disapproval. At the White House Tuesday a spokesman for the president stated that Coolidge was still opposed to any change in the fundamental principles of the Mellon plan.

RUSSIANS DUMB AT DEATH OF LEADER

MOSCOW, Jan. 22.—As a vivid world figure passes into his worry with death of Nikolai Lenine, the all-Russian soviet congress prepares to carry on the work to which the leader gave his life. Political observers here believe that Stalin, minister of nationalities, will succeed Lenine, although all admit that none can really fill the place of the governing mind of the revolution. In the wide streets of Moscow and Petrograd, which when Lenine died, were already draped in black bunting for commemorative services for the 1915 massacres, the Russian people whisper of Lenine's death. It is as if the sun had fallen from the heavens, or the oceans swallowed up a continent. "He is dead," they say, wondering—for so strongly did his flaming mind stamp Russian life that people had seen him as a national symbol, forgetting that he was but a man, and could die. Meanwhile however, the government functions quietly and normally. Leaders know that Lenine, absent from the Kremlin for two years, has long since ceased to be a vital factor in governmental affairs. Out of the group of men who have carried on in his absence, will come Russia's new chief. Zinoviev and Kamenev, as mentioned as successors. But general opinion inclines to the belief that Stalin will take Lenine's place.

FORD OFFER ON MUSCLE SHOALS FACES CONGRESS

LEADERS PREDICT PASSAGE OF MEASURE IN BOTH SENATE AND HOUSE

BY THOMAS L. STOKES (U. N. Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Henry Ford's offer for the government plants at Muscle Shoals Alabama, where the automobile manufacturer plans to produce electrical benefits for a wide territory, and to furnish power to manufacture fertilizers sheeplly, is virtually assured of getting to the floor of congress, after its long wait in the house military affairs committee. The committee will report the Ford offer favorably, in preference to the recent offer of associated power companies, headed by the Alabama Power Company, it was learned Tuesday on investigation by the United News. An insistent demand has grown in the committee for quick action on the measure, and it is expected that a bill embodying the Ford offer will be favorably reported to the house within two weeks. The nine democrats on the committee favor the Ford offer. At least four republicans will support it with a possibility that others who have been undecided will accept the majority. Chairman Kahn is among these. At least six republicans are expected to oppose the Ford proposition. There are 21 members on the committee. While the committee has investigated the new offer presented by three southern power companies, the presentation of the case has not changed the opinion of those who have been supporting the automobile manufacturer's offer. However, some of the republican members who have formed no final opinion were impressed by the new bid, and may decide to support it in a minority report to the house, if the provision for the sale of power for the manufacture of fertilizer by an outside concern proves acceptable. This offer, linked to the power companies' proposition but independent of it, is expected to be laid before the committee Wednesday. Representatives of the associated companies who appeared before the committee Tuesday declined to give the name of the concern to whom the power is to be supplied for the manufacture of fertilizer. This secrecy was not well received by several members of the committee, and inquiries were made as to whether the offer was coming from the "fertilizer trust." Several members of the committee expressed the opinion that the new offer is weak in what the farmers of the country are most interested, because it provides for the manufacture of fertilizer by a separate concern, which will require a separate government contract, whereas the Ford offer includes the manufacture of fertilizer and power in one proposition. Strong supporters of the Ford plan declare that the offer of the power companies is aimed, primarily, at the power development, and that the fertilizer proposition was included merely to win the support of the committee. The committee, however, will give a full hearing to the proposition and will consider it, along with the Ford offer, after the case has been fully presented. Though there are rumors in the air of other concerns which have offers, the committee has decided to close the door after the power companies have finished. Chairman Kahn is anxious to get a measure to the floor of the house, and will make every effort to that end. It is being predicted by democrats that the Ford offer will pass both the house and the senate. No one, however, will say whether the measure will be fully considered at this session. Democrats now have a way to get the bill to the floor of the house through the recent change of rules. Its consideration may be held up there however, because of the opposition of progressives to the Ford offer.

FATHER OF LOCAL MEN KILLED BY TRAIN MONDAY

J. T. Pugh, of Lubbock, left Monday evening for Greenville, to attend the funeral of his father, B. A. Pugh, who died at his home there Monday morning.

The deceased was born in Montgomery, Alabama, in 1839. He moved to Texas in 1880, settling at Greenville, where he lived until the time of his death.

Mr. Pugh was an ardent church worker, joining the Baptist church in 1890 since which time he has been an attentive member.

Mr. Pugh was in the best of health up to the time of his death, which occurred when he was hit by a fast-going passenger train, and because of his cheerfulness and alertness in greeting his friends, and because he had become such a great part of the community life of Greenville, his death was indeed a shock to the entire citizenship.

His wife died in 1911, and the couple is survived by eight sons: L. H., M. O., E. H., J. T., J. H., C. F., M. A. and J. R. Pugh, all of whom live at Greenville except J. T. and E. H., who reside at Lubbock, and J. H., of Dallas.

LEVELAND DESTINED TO BE IMPORTANT TRADING PLACE

For sheer beauty of outline the vicinity around Leveland, the county seat of Hockley county, cannot be surpassed. As far as the eye will sight there is nothing to obstruct the view. Leveland is situated in one of the fastest developing counties of West Texas and one that is favored with a soil unsurpassed in Texas. All conveniences (with exception of ice and electricity) of a modern village is found in Leveland.

WALTER TAYLOR WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA

Special to the Avalanche

GLENDALE, Cal., Jan. 19.—I drove into Los Angeles the latter part of October. A few thousand autos and a flock of street cars were going swiftly both ways on main street. I figured from the speed they were making that all of them would soon be to where they were going and leave an opening for me to cross, so I waited. The endless chain of cars thickened. Soon an officer touched me and said roughly, "You can't stop here." I could not go ahead, so I backed out through an alley. I backed over a wheel barrow of coal and two big sacks of evening newspapers and drove 40 miles around the city to the town of Glendale, which is nearer my size and caliber.

They have more traffic laws here than a Lubbock lawyer could learn in a year, and they change them every few days. On last Saturday, they painted signs on the pavement in front of all the school houses which read, "School Stop." I was one of thousands who failed to see the signs, and drove over them without stopping only to be arrested at the next corner.

Everything here has been commercialized. Even to sand, sea and sky. They sell more blue sky in one day than Lubbock County sells of blue weeds in a year. They sell great slugs of climate to new comers and the purchasers are able to locate but little of it afterwards. They kill and cripple in this city by motor cars an average of about 5 per day. Like a bed of ants, the live ones carry the dead ones out of the way and hurry on about their business.

Nearly all of the streets in Los Angeles are crooked and some of the people are too. Of course there are a lot of good people here and some of them are in bad company. One peculiar condition here is that cats and dogs stand higher in high society than poor white people. Well-to-do cats and dogs ride in fine autos by the side of their human chums. Sick and homeless cats and dogs are given free board and lodging in specially prepared hospitals, while poor dependant human beings are sent to the poor house. I like a good country Coon Dog that lives in the yard, but I despise a poodle that lives in the house and stoops so low as to lick the face of his filthy master or mistress. I would not allow a poodle dog lover to park near my hunting camp. Am I going back to Lubbock? Well I should SHA SHO.

SPECIAL ATTENTION IS BEING GIVEN THE SOLDIERS' CLAIMS BY THE LOCAL CHAPTER OF AMERICAN RED CROSS

Miss Mae Murfee, secretary of the local chapter, American Red Cross, reports that though there are many unfortunates in Lubbock in need of such assistance as the Red Cross can give, that these cases are confined only to those unable to work or who are compelled to stay away from jobs on account of having to care for other members of the family who are ill, for there is a demand for housekeepers, cooks, laundry workers, etc., that cannot be met, and which is sounded from Lubbock, Littlefield, Shallowater, Wilson, and other places in this trade territory.

"There is no need of one going hungry, without clothes or having to ask for help if they are able to work, and this organization has a big job on its hands to take care of those who cannot work though they want to," Miss Murfee declared, pointing out that she is spending the greater portion of her time looking after the truly needy cases.

The board of directors of the Red Cross are fortunate to have secured the services of Miss Murfee to occupy the place vacated when Miss Mina Ellis went to Casper, Wyoming, to take secretaryship of a newly organized Community Chest, for Miss Murfee has been alert in dealing with the many cases called to her attention.

Red Cross work is not so pleasant as some might think, for though there is a great deal of personal satisfaction in lending one's efforts to comforting those who are in need, Miss Murfee stated Tuesday that the biggest problem in her work is to restrain those who would ask for the last dime the organization possesses whether their needs justify it or not, and in inducing others who are greatly in need to accept of the organization the barest necessities of life.

Miss Murfee's experience in dealing with people, having been a teacher for some time and having worked in special war relief organizations during the war, gives her an advantage in handling the problems of her office that makes for greater efficiency in her work as well in effectiveness of the organization's charity program.

Miss Murfee gives attention to the problems of ex-service men in making claims through that office with the Veterans Bureau, and has already made favorable disposition of many of these cases.

Just recently an ex-service man of near Roswell, New Mexico, came all the way to Lubbock in order to make application for compensation from the Veterans Bureau through the local chapter of the American Red Cross, and in due time his claim, which was justifiable in every detail was accepted and properly acted upon by the officials of the bureau, and he has now received an amount that enables him to enjoy at least a few of the comforts of life to which he is entitled.

SITE OF NATIONAL PARK IN EAST IS BEING SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 22.—The proposal to establish a National Park in the east is receiving renewed consideration.

Several bills providing for funds and locations have been introduced in this session of congress. Senator Swanson of Virginia has a bill providing for the use of 5,000 acres centering about High Knob Mountain, Virginia, to be known as Appalachian National Park.

Other bills would authorize the creation of a park of 15,000 acres in the Cumberland Gap region of Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, to be known as Lincoln National Park and the acquisition of the land including Mammoth Cave, Kentucky, to be known as Mammoth National Park.

"The recommendation of the director of the National Park Service in his annual report that a section of the Appalachian Range be established as a national park has created widespread interests," said Secretary of the Interior Work, outlining the proposals under way.

"The existing National Park System is the finest in the world. In making any additions sites should be chosen that will be in every respect up to the standard, dignity and prestige of the existing National Parks and National Monuments. A thorough study therefore will be necessary before any definite conclusion can be reached."

Tillie Clinger says the reason she is leaving her present boarding house is because the steak is so tough the boarders are getting that way.

LOCAL PEOPLE AT HOME FROM VISIT TO FATHER

E. L. Meredith and Mrs. L. H. Holt are at home here after having spent several days at Austin at the bedside of their aged father, J. N. Meredith who has been seriously ill but who has made much improvement.

They were at Austin when Mr. Meredith celebrated his 82nd birthday, and though he was not expected to live for a while his birthday found him greatly improved and in fact on his way to recovery.

The case was reported by the physicians in charge to be very unusual, in that Mr. Meredith was for three days in what they thought was positive danger, but rallied and gained strength.

MOST DARING PICTURE EVER SCREENED COMING TO R. & R. LINDSEY FRIDAY

Lottie Pickford, charming and vivacious sister of Mary and Jack Pickford, starring in the world famous white slave picture, "The House of Bondage," will be shown at the Lindsey Friday, and no children will be admitted under 16 years of age.

This a picturization of Reginald Wright Kauffman's books, which is claimed by many to be almost too vivid to be acceptable to the average audience. The film story, which is told in six reels, is very realistic. Indeed, that is the chief aim of the management, realistic not sensationalism. Plays dealing with the social problems are of complex nature at best. That they may give publicity to conditions as they exist so that these can be remedied, and yet not offend the public sentiment in any way is no easy task. It is generally believed by many social workers that the dangers of immoral places existing in the larger cities should be known, that young and innocent may be warned and certainly this photo play shows great sincerity of purpose and a natural sequence by which the thoughtless school girl leaves home and becomes entangled in spider web of one of the cities notorious resorts.

WOULD DISPLACE NEWLY COINED SCOFFLAW

BY RODNEY E. DEUTCHER
United News Staff Correspondent.

SAUGATUCK, Conn., Jan. 22.—Down from the Connecticut hills, from a little old-fashioned village where the term "effete east" is still met with loud and raucous laughter and where hard cider and New England rum continue as more than mere memories, a busy little housewife has thrown the gauntlet to other New Englanders who last week sought to blast, with or and totally annihilate anti-prohibition sentiment with the prize winning contemptuous epithet "scofflaw."

Mrs. Rose Scott is an old-fashioned mother in an old-fashioned town. She admits it. She is bringing up two fine, healthy specimens into young manhood. Their attendance is regular both at the public school and at the Sunday school. And there is no definite proof that Mrs. Scott ever violated the Volstead act in her life.

But this word "scofflaw" which raised only a mild sneaker in the speak-easies and blind pigs of naughty New York, got under Mrs. Scott's skin.

And so, she has offered a prize of $100 for the best invented word that will serve as an antithesis to "scofflaw."

The two entrants in the Massachusetts contest who coined "scofflaw" split a prize of $200, but Mrs. Scott, who lives in a plain but neat little home here, says she isn't as wealthy as some of the "professional prohibitionists" and fighting prohibition isn't her business, anyway.

Chances are that some very bad

BROWNFIELD METHODISTS ARE PLANNING TO BUILD

BROWNFIELD, Texas, Jan. 22.—About the first thing that Rev. J. P. Watson announced publicly after his coming here in November, was that the Methodist people would build a suitable place of worship this year.

He seems to be keeping the faith, for the building committee is now hard at work, and before the end of the year, we believe that the local hustling pastor with his energetic congregation will be right along with the Baptist folks in making east Hardin street shine with new and modern churches. They will have the help and encouragement of the entire town.

Our understanding is that they will build a house to cost around twenty-five thousand dollars and will endeavor to complete it this year.

Let the good work go on.

names will be entered in Mrs. Scott's prize contest. Some persons who have had to put up with the various makes of bootleg whiskey and synthetic gin, are said to consider prohibitionists in terms also unprintable.

But Mrs. Scott isn't that kind of a woman; she thinks application of the term "scofflaw" is unchristian-like.

"I feel that a word should be invented, which is antithesis of scofflaw, but without its sneer," she told the United News. "There's a bitter sneer in scofflaw."

"We believe in the bible and in respectable living," she explained. "Centuries ago puritan reformers, obstinate in their own views, crossed the seas to secure liberty of thought and action. They succeeded at the expense of removing the Indians."

Mrs. Scott, be it said, is not one of those who believes that prohibition made such a mess of America that the country ought to be given back to the Indians forthwith. She continued:

"Today there are millions of people like those old Indians in their desire for personal liberty and in their willingness to think and do what they consider right. There are those of us who feel we are being grossly imposed upon.

"It is difficult enough the exit in the multiplicity of existing laws, the worst at present being the crime of taking a glass of beer instead of a bottle of sarsaparilla, and now, to add insult to injury, the word scofflaw has been devised."

"Those who think of a word to counteract scofflaw, are to send it to Mrs. Rose R. Scott, Saugatuck, Conn., before the tenth of February. A committee will select the word. I will let some good people pick the committee. Better still, I will be glad if some society takes this offer and carries it through to conclusion. I will turn over to them the hundred dollars that I offer."

"My only interest is a patriotic one, with the thought of bringing to my little family to respect our laws."

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Jan. 22.—Signing of a contract for the erection of a new $150,000 hostelry—to be the finest southwest of Houston—is the Rio Grande Valley's latest bid for recognition as the garden spot of the Southwest.

The hotel will have 300 rooms, all modern conveniences and luxuries, and many novel features not incorporated in other Texas hotels. It will be built along architectural lines similar to the Galvez at Galveston.

L. H. Edwards of Brownsville, is at the head of the company erecting the new hotel. The building will be opened on next Thanksgiving Day.

MORE FUNDS NEEDED FOR THE LIBRARY

The drive for funds for the Library is still on, and while the soliciting committee has visited the majority of business houses of the city, and most all individually have had an opportunity to contribute to the upkeep of the library, there is an urgent need for more funds to carry on the work for the next twelve months.

During the year the library will be moved to its new quarters in the City Hall as provisions are being made for taking care of it and there will be some added expense in moving and re-arranging the library and hence the Association should have several hundred dollars more available funds in order to carry on the work successfully.

A list of the contributors as well as the amount they are paying will be published in the Avalanche during the coming week, and if you are not on the list you should get on the dotted line within the next few days so you will be reported along with the others.

SEEKING LAND IN THE PANHANDLE

The General Land Office at Austin is authority for the statement that there is much interest being shown in the land in the Panhandle of Texas. Since it has been generally known that the State of Texas has recovered from the Capital syndicates something like 60,000 acres of land, there has been much inquiry regarding the land and the General Land Office is practically flooded with letters inquiring about this land.

Sales will be made to those who will pay the most for it, provided the price offered shall not be less than the price fixed on it by the department. One-fourth of the price offered must be paid in cash and a note bearing five per cent interest must be given for the balance.

The fact that so many applications or inquiries have been made regarding the land, is conclusive evidence that many people have grown tired of renting and working their lives out on the farms of the east and they are wanting to come west, get a tract of land and start anew.

It means that the fellow who predicts that the towns are outgrowing the surrounding country, and that there will be a slump that will ruin everybody, will be disappointed and he will have to wait for many years to get homes and lands at his own price. True there may be some hard years, but with the proper exercise of judgment the calamities of past years need not be repeated in this country.

THE CHANGING OF AN EMPIRE.

It is almost equal to this. The great South Plains and Panhandle of Texas and eastern New Mexico embraces territory that is equal to a good sized empire, and is a territory that is of varied crop production that makes it one of the rich real sections of the United States.

As a result of these various conditions much of the pasture lands are being rapidly converted into cotton fields. A pioneer ranchman says "a man cannot longer afford to raise stock on this productive soil. The crop yields are too heavy and the price of cotton staple too high to justify pasture holdings."

The net debt of the United States is nearly $31,000,000,000 of this $22,525,000,000 is the direct result of war, and nearly one-half of that is because of loans to other nations. State debts seem to have increased 175 per cent during the past 10 years, and now amount to a huge sum.

KEY PUZZLE CONTEST CLOSED TODAY WITH GREAT INTEREST HAVING BEEN SHOWN BY ALL THE READERS

Climaxing one of the most interesting contests ever staged by the Avalanche, the contest editor last night, after considerable study, announced the prize awards. More than a hundred papers were submitted, all of which were drawn up in good shape, and it was no easy task in deciding the winners. Completeness of arrangement, neatness, and artistic design were the three ruling essentials in the decision, and owing to the number of telephone calls that were received in connection with the contest, inquiring as to its outcome, more than ordinary interest was taken, not only by the actual participants, but by the hundreds of daily readers of the Avalanche.

COACH HUNTER'S WESTERNERS TO MEET IDALOU AT HI SCHOOL GYM TONIGHT IN POST-SEASON AFFAIR

Following the defeat suffered at the hands of the Idalou quintet several days ago, at which time the championship of the county was wrested from them, the local Hi cagers tonight will meet this fighting squad from the sister city on the east.

Coach Hunter has been putting his men through intensive drills for the past several days, and it will be a little different squad that will face the visitors tonight to the one which they fought for championship the other day. According to the version of many who saw this last contest, the local lads were stricken with a sore attack of "hard luck," and although they offered no alibi for the loss, taking it in the spirit of "you're better than we are," they were playing against odds, as they were neither accustomed to the outside court on which they played, nor to the goals which some claim were unofficial.

Anyway, the championship is all settled now, but this exhibition on tonight will give local boys an insight into the probability of a Lubbock county champion going to the state meet, as Idalou has defeated Cone, and Cone held Ralls to a 24 to 23 count. Ralls is the undisputed champion of Crosby county, and will meet Idalou in the near future for a decision of an inter-county champion. The local lads haven't met Ralls this season, but from the above relations some smattering of a conclusion can be drawn as to how the Lubbock county champions will fit against the Crosby County lads.

Harry Hunter says that he only had the team that met Idalou the day they were defeated, only about ten days, and with the additional ten days or two weeks he has had them since that time, a different tune should be sung tonight at the high school gym. Then the spirit of "fight" is keener now, if possible, than it was at Idalou, although that was a mad scramble from beginning to end. The local lads are determined to get revenge, while the visiting cagers insist that it was their just deserts; and they refuse to be bamboozled into the belief that it was not theirs.

The exhibition will be called tonight at 7:30.

LOCAL MAN PLANS ATHLETIC BODY AMONG SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF CITY TO PROMOTE RELIGIOUS INTEREST

Plans are practically complete, according to Jas. W. Goodman, local attorney, for an interdenominational athletic competition in Lubbock. Tentative plans for the organization were drawn up last night, and pending a future meeting of different representatives of the several churches of the city, final arrangements were postponed.

The name of the proposed association is to be the Lubbock Sunday School Athletic League, with the object of promoting a common social and religious interest among the Sunday Schools of the city, as well as to develop the moral, religious and physical being of the personnel of its membership. Also to develop a true sportsmanship of fair play.

The membership will be open to all Sunday Schools of the city, and according to Mr. Goodman, will be controlled by regularly elected officers, together with a board of trustees, which board will be composed of one adult representative from each church having membership.

This body will have absolutely full control of the workings of the organization, and its rulings shall be final in all matters.

All manner of regular high school or college athletics will be open to the contestants, including baseball, basketball, tennis, track, and others which may be added from time to time. Competition will be divided into three groups, viz: senior boys, or boys over 16; junior boys, or boys under 16; and girl's division.

Certain requirements, which are included in the Constitution and By-Laws also must be met by the entrant in any contest. One of these is that to be a legal contender in any event, the contestant must have been a regular attendant at some Sunday School for a period of not less than 30 days, and must continue to be a regular attendant for two Sundays before he can participate in any contest.

SAM LANGFORD LEAVES FOR HOME AT GEORGETOWN TODAY

Sam Langford, claimed as a Lubbock product to the baseball world, is to leave today at noon for his home at Georgetown, where he was called on account of the condition of his brother, who is very sick.

He will entrain from that place on the first of March for Lampassas, where he will join the Des Moines club of the Western league to open spring training. Sam was sold by the local club year before last to the New York Yankees, where he reported the following spring. He was farmed out by them to Atlanta, from where he was soon recalled and sent to Macon, both in class A ball.

At the end of the past season Sam went to Des Moines, in the Sally league, in a trade, and now belongs to this club outright. He has already signed his contract and will join the club when they come south for spring training.

RICKARD'S ACTION PROBABLY DEFEAT BILL TO KILL BOXING IN N. Y.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 22.—The Walker boxing law, under whose protection numerous prize fighters and fight supernumeraries make their living in this state without resorting to work, probably will be spared after all in the present session of the legislature. Some bill is likely to pass both houses, however, providing closer supervision of the ticket sales and perhaps revising the prices downward.

A fortnight ago there was great enthusiasm in the legislature over the opportunity to kill boxing. But then Tex Rickard went to Washington and performed a priceless favor for the New York democrats by swinging the national convention to New York. Meantime, about a dozen New York sport writers were given permission to defend the game in their writings which they did, mainly by pointing out that there had been no palpable fake fights. Another point in favor of the boxing business was Rickard's promise that he would not promote any championship bout during the convention. This was assurance that Rickard did not intend to "mop up" financially by taking advantage of the presence of the delegates and sightseers. Rickard had helped the New York delegation land the convention by supplying the $55,000 which topped San Francisco's bid, there has been a noticeable decrease in the opposition to the fight business. Reformers still haunt the assemblymen, demanding that Walker law be revoked and the game be killed, but sentiment seems to be overwhelmingly against them.

CLAIM SUPREME HEAD BOXING INEFFECTIVE

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—If William Muldoon becomes high commissioner of the National Boxing Commission he will be a monarch of questionable authority. The National Boxing Commission, which is holding its convention at Louisville, Ky., is considering the nomination of Muldoon to be a sort of Judge Landis and Will Hays in the boxing business.

However, the baseball business which Landis rules and the movie industry which Hays governs from a safe distance, are much more effectively organized than the boxing business.

The National Boxing Commission claims to embrace about 19 state and municipal jurisdictions. In these places, it is said, the rulings of one local governing body are recognized by all. But the national commission does not include the New York state commission in its membership for the reason that Muldoon, himself, when he ruled the game in New York, sprung the Washingtonian principle of "no entangling alliances."

Without authority in New York, the national commission, even with Muldoon on the throne, would still be without any influence in the biggest market of the entire fight business.

WINS DECISION BY RUSH IN LAST FOUR ROUNDS

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 22.—Frank Genaro, American flyweight champion, won a close decision from Johnny Sheppard, of Woburn, Mass., in a 10-round fight here Tuesday night.

Genaro, who was doped to win without extending himself, was completely frustrated in the first six rounds by the hard punching Massachusetts lad, but more than evened the fight by swarming all over Sheppard in the last four rounds.

SAILORS NOT PERMITTED TO STAGE FIGHTS IN N. Y.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—On representation that sailors of the Atlantic scout fleet engaged in "prize fights" at Madison Square Garden, New York, recently, Secretary of the Navy Denby has ordered the discontinuance of such exhibitions. This announcement was made at the White House on behalf of President Coolidge, whose attention was called to the Garden bouts. The president then discussed the matter with Denby.

HOPPE TAKES LEAD OVER SCHAEFER IN BILLIARDS

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 22.—Willie Hoppe gained the lead over Jake Schaefer in their title match by running out the second block with a score of 631 to Schaefer's 239 Tuesday night. The score now stands Hoppe 1,000; Schaefer 739. The final block will be played Wednesday night.

Hoppe was in the best of form and made the two high runs of the evening with 182 and 172. Schaefer made the only scratch so far in the ninth inning.

California Flyweight Wins

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—George Marks, highly touted flyweight from California, who is scheduled to meet Pancho Villa for the world's flyweight title at the Garden February 8, won the judges' decision over Buck Josephs, a tough New Yorker, in a 10-round bout at the Pioneer Sporting club here Tuesday night.

VALUE OF PLAINS NOW BEING RECOGNIZED

Attorney Ed J. Hamner, of Sweetwater, is here to attend the January term, 72nd Judicial District Court.

Judge Hamner is one of the great boosters of the South Plains and West Texas.

He reports that while he had had no experience whatever in cotton growing, he decided three years ago to cultivate two hundred acres of the Knox ranch land in Garza county, near Post City. He was successful in placing this land in the hands of an experienced cotton farmer, and though a goodly portion of the two hundred acres was put in feed, Mr. Hamner received a total rental the first year from the cotton of $6.50 per acre; $7.00 the second year and the third year, from the cotton just ginned and sold, he received a total of $11.00 per acre.

"These figures show the net profit to me on the entire two hundred acres, the acreage in feed being made up into the average, as the feed will be used in the production of the 1924 crop," Mr. Hamner said.

Mr. Hamner pointed out that this land had been valued at an average of about $15.00 per acre, and that such figures as he has will soon prove that it is in the $45.00 per acre class, and will in all probability go to that price before many seasons have passed.

"These Plains will some day be recognized as the cotton growing section of the entire South. The numberless acres will soon be planted to this profitable crop, and land values will go sky high as compared to the present prices," is in substance, the remark made by Mr. Hamner in commenting on the situation.

A. E. Whitehead, of Slaton, was in Lubbock Tuesday on business.

REFORMED WRESTLER TO CONTEST MIDDLEWEIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Paul Berlenbach, the reformed wrestler who has upset more than a score of middleweight-preliminary fighters in his brief career in the fight ring, will meet his first real test next week in the Garden ring. He is to box Frank Carbone, a nomadic middleweight of long experience, the only conqueror of Young Str bling.

Carbone won a decision over Str bling in Atlanta more than a year ago. He is no star but he will be a far better man than any Berlenbach has met thus far.

INDIA TO BE STRONG CONTENDER IN TENNIS

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—India's challenge for the Davis cup has been received by the United States Lawn Tennis Association. India elects to play in the European zone of preliminary matches. Last year India was eliminated by Ireland in the first round, three matches to two. The U. S. Lawn Tennis Association understands that at least one, perhaps two new star players will be in the front places on the India team this year.

CAN'T TALK SUNNY SOUTH TO THIS GUY

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 22.—"Chimmie" McFadden, nationally famous president of the "Newsboys" Union of the World put too much faith in the Sunny South.

Coming here from Los Angeles, "Chimmie" believed the glib tales of Texas' press agents and shipped his overcoat ahead.

Simultaneous with his arrival in the state came a blue "norther" from the frigid north. "Chimmie" was forced to hike to a second hand store where he drove a sharp bargain for a "rusty" topper. "It will do until my regular coat gets in," he said.

EAGERLY AWAIT FILM FROM RILEY'S POEM

Everyone who knows James Whitcomb Riley's immortal poem "An Old Sweetheart of Mine"—and that is a description of practically the whole population of the country—is looking forward with the keenest anticipation to Metro's picture version of the great poem which comes to the Lyric Theatre Wednesday.

This picturization, according to advance reports, is a masterpiece in itself. It has in it the very essence of the poem—all of its pure sentiment, wistfulness, heart throbs, and homely charm. Harry Garson, who produced the photoplay, has transferred to the screen those qualities of the original poem which make James Whitcomb Riley one of the most beloved of American poets. This picture is the poem itself, breathing the breath of life—a beautiful story of undying love unfolding itself before our eyes. And full development of the theme has heightened the dramatic power of the story. It is filled with action and thrills.

Elliot Dexter and Helen Jerome Eddy were well chosen for the leading roles. They seem imbued with the spirit of the poem and their is a performance of the highest quality. The rest of the cast is of uniform excellence.

The screen adaption was made by Louis Duryea Lighton. The picture was photographed by L. William O'Connell and edited by Violet Blair. The lighting effects were executed by Harry Collins, and Joseph Wright was art director.

FALL AND SINCLAIR TO APPEAR BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE AND ALL LEASES MAY BE CANCELLED

BY RAYMOD CLAPPER (United News Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—As the senate committee investigating the Teapot Dome scandal summoned the two principals—ex-Secretary of the Interior Fall and Harry F. Sinclair—to appear as soon as possible, the prospect of federal prosecution and cancellation of the big lease grew stronger Tuesday. Investigation of Fall's leases of California Oil reserves is also likely to be undertaken shortly.

This scandal has reached such proportions that republican leaders are becoming worried over its possible political effect, and President Coolidge, after listening to many reports which have been brought to him privately, has instructed the department of justice to investigate and begin prosecution if evidence warrants.

It is the opinion of the president and his advisors that the administration must do everything possible to disassociate itself from the transaction and take legal action if irregularities appear to have been committed.

While Fall, at New Orleans, and Sinclair at Plymouth, England, were making statements Tuesday to the effect that no gift had passed between them, these developments took place in Washington.

1. President Coolidge instructed the department of justice to investigate the Teapot Dome deal and to prosecute if irregularities are discovered.

2. Attorney General Daugherty invited submission of evidence indicating illegal transactions and promised prompt prosecution no matter who is affected.

3. Fall was ordered to appear before the senate investigating committee Friday.

4. Sinclair was asked to return from Europe at once and produce his private check books and records.

5. Senator Caraway, Arkansas, democrat, announced that on Wednesday he would ask the senate to take immediate action to cancel the Teapot Dome lease.

6. Senators began inquiring unofficially into Fall's lease of California oil reserves to the Doheny and Honolulu Oil interests.

7. G. E. Stanford, Sinclair's counsel, testified before the senate committee that Sinclair had his present European trip under contemplation thirty days ago and was not trying to get away.

Testimony of Archie Roosevelt, son of the late president, who has resigned from the Sinclair corporation because of certain conditions which seemed suspicious to him, has forced the senate committee to dig straight to the bottom of the Teapot Dome deal, regardless of whose toes are stepped on. There has been a disposition by some of the members of the committee to hold back, and Walsh, the democratic member, has been carrying on the fight almost alone. But new revelations have convinced all members that every lead must be followed through.

Accordingly, members made an effort Tuesday to wring from several persons associated with Sinclair the whereabouts of the oil magnates private check books, which are supposed to show whether, as young Roosevelt testified, Sinclair gave checks for $68,000 to Fall's ranch foreman. Sinclair's counsel, G. E. Stanford, declared he had carried the check book from the Sinclair office to the oil man's house one night ten days ago. He thought they were now locked in Sinclair's private vault.

Senator Walsh was about to demand that Sinclair's mother, in charge of the house during her son's absence in Europe, be called to Washington to produce the books, but at this point Stanford intervened with an offer to cable Sinclair asking him to return at once. The committee then voted to request Sinclair's immediate return.

Rush Holland, assistant attorney general, sat through the committee hearing taking notes for the use of the department of justice.

Meanwhile, senators are individually looking into the lease of the California naval reserve No. 1 to E. L. Doheny, who is to be here within a few days to be questioned regarding the transaction. This deal, involving 250,000,000 barrels of oil, was approved by Fall without publicity soon after he became secretary of the interior, the deal being justified on the ground that the reserve was being drained by drilling on adjoining lands.

Likewise, in the case of reserve No. 2, also in California, a lease was made to the Honolulu Oil Company by Fall without authorization from President Harding, although it had been the previous practice to obtain the authorization of the White House before any naval reserve lands were leased. If the Teapot Dome lease is cancelled, it is probable that these California deals also will be abrogated.

May Be Prosecuted At Once. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—In connection with the Teapot Dome revelations, Attorney General Daugherty has invited the submission of testimony or evidence which will show violation of any law and promises prompt prosecution no matter who is involved. This statement was made at the department of justice after the White House had announced that the department had been asked to undertake an investigation on its own account.

"The department of justice has been observing the testimony of these proceedings before the congressional committee and has been making some investigations on its own account," Daugherty said.

"During the time a congressional committee is making an investigation, the department of justice gives attention to these matters and unless under extraordinary circumstances where evidence presented is sufficient, the department does not interfere with the proceedings but awaits the result and recommendations of the committee.

"This does mean that the department of justice will wait until an investigation has been concluded where testimony, competent to lay before a grand jury or court has been presented, which shows the commission of a crime and which is sufficient to justify the belief that a conviction would follow.

"The department of justice on this and any other cases welcomes the offering of any testimony that will show the violation of any law and no matter who the person is, the same course will be taken with the same promptness."

STATE DEFICIENCY GOES TO MARK OF $5,352,970

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 21.—Deficiency in the general fund went to $5,352,970 Tuesday morning, as a result of the registration of the $500,000 to supplement the school fund, the first of the $2,000,000 for the schools. Treasurer Terrell says the $500,000 will be paid about March 1. The next $500,000, on Feb. 5, also will be paid in March. The deficiency now has broken all records of recent years.

Krepe de Leen

TRADE MARK

The texture of this newest and most delightful of knitted silks—the vogue for which is growing apace—is so exquisitely fine that it might have been done on a fairy's needles. Its beautiful crepe surface gives the appearance of an expensive woven silk, yet its cost is so low that its use is a real economy.

Krepe de Leen comes in every lovely springtime shade—soft and subdued tones for street wear, rich and glowing hues for sports attire, brilliant colors for evening, and in a wide range of new and unusual printed effects.

You will find many other pretty new silks to select your Spring Frocks from. They are all priced reasonable.
