WEST TEXAS—Fair to night and Saturday; somewhat warmer Saturday. Low temperature today 33.

DR. STEWART'S CAR STOLEN THURSDAY

Dr. A. F. Stewart was unfortunate Thursday night in losing his new Ford coupe, when it was stolen from the west side of the W. J. Garrett dry goods establishment between 7 and 10 o'clock. Dr. Stewart went to the Chamber of Commerce banquet at the high school building with Dr. Wagner, and when he returned to get his car it was gone, and has not been seen or heard of since.

The car was a brand new one, having been purchased only a few days ago. The motor number is 8971703.

The police department was notified of the loss and they at once got busy and notified officers in every direction, but up to last night no word had been heard of the stolen property.

SEVERAL BIG EVENTS FOR AMARILLO IN THE SPRING

AMARILLO, Texas, Feb. 22.—With the acceptance this week by the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs of Amarillo's invitation to hold the 1924 convention here, four important state gatherings are listed among the score of conventions to be held here during the year.

These are: Panhandle Livestock Producers, March 4-5; Big Four Railway Brotherhoods, April 8-11; Texas Press Association, June 16-18, and Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Nov. 11-14.

SCENES OF BYGONE WEST ARE REVIVED

Recalling in colorful and vivid detail, scenes of our old and vanished West, Dustin Farnum's latest William Fox vehicle, "The Man Who Won," will open at the R. & R. Theatre today.

Suffering Creek, the fictitious name given to a once notorious center of Western Feudalism, is seen in the production with all its tawdry beauty and valiant bravado. The region of the lawless but powerful is plentifully displayed in the person of Lord James, a colorful character in the story.

WHEAT GROWERS WILL SEEK CONTROL OF CROPS

AMARILLO, Texas, Feb. 22.—Control of the wheat and grain sorghum crops of Texas is to be sought in campaigns decided upon this week by directors of the Texas Wheat Growers' Association and the Texas Grain Sorghum Association, with headquarters here.

The Wheat Growers will launch a membership campaign immediately, with Ex-Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, and Aaron Shapiro, leader in farm co-operative movements throughout the United States on the tentative list of speakers.

This association last year had 700 members and handled 1,250,000 bushels of wheat. It now has 8,600 members and plans to handle more than 5,000,000 bushels during 1924.

At the Grain Sorghums meeting, the scope of the organization was widened so as to include all grain sorghum territory in the Southwest. The new territory includes portions of New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas. New districts were created embracing those states and districts will be elected to represent them.

CHARGES FIGURE JUGGLING IN BONUS COST

By United News.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The soldier bonus was thrown into the senate Tuesday for several hours attack and defense, which was ended by the adoption of a resolution ordering an investigation into charges made recently by Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, that a "high treasury official" had juggled figures on the cost of a bonus.

The investigation will be made by the senate finance committee of which Senator Smoot of Utah, a strong opponent of the bonus, is chairman. It was introduced by Senator Harris, democrat, of Mississippi and was unanimously approved.

Senator Brookhart of Iowa, declared that he believed the charges of Miller true. Brookhart also introduced into the record a letter from a newspaper publisher, asking support for the Mellon tax plan, which he said had been sent out to various interests and was an example of the propaganda being widely circulated.

Brookhart, in his speech, declared that "there are some members of the American Legion who he longed to the predatory interests," and are urging defeat of the bonus and adoption of the Mellon tax plan.

Among several references to "propaganda" for the Mellon tax plan and for defeat of the bonus was that of Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, minority leader, who criticized General John F. O'Ryan for writing letters to friends he had made while conducting the veterans bureau investigation, members of the American Legion, urging them to support the Mellon plan and to oppose the bonus.

Senator Reed, of Pennsylvania, answering Robinson, said that O'Ryan had not written these letters until he had finished the veterans bureau investigation, and he thought the general "had a perfect right to write to these friends to support the Mellon plan and oppose the bonus."

Reed in his speech, said that he opposed the bonus, and that he would continue to oppose it. The debate, which swung back and forth for several hours, was opened by a strong attack on the bonus by Senator Bruce, democrat, of Maryland, who declared that "the federal bonus is not only indefensible in principle, but if it were not, it would, even as a measure of practical relief, be most illogical and unequal in the distribution of its benefits."

He was severely attacked when he concluded his speech by Senators McKellar, of Tennessee and Caraway of Arkansas, democratic colleagues and left the chamber hurriedly as Caraway turned his remarks to personal ridicule and satire.

FRANCE PLANS HEAVY TAX FOR AMERICAN GUESTS
By United Press
PARIS, Feb. 22.—Following the old German system—"make the foreigner pay"—is now the sentiment of a large section of the French press and people in face of the falling franc, and this has inspired a new bill providing special taxation for foreigners. It is aimed at foreigners enjoying a high rate of exchange, chiefly English and Americans.

The bill has been drawn up by Deputies Meunier, Gallois and Bosquette, and will be submitted to the French parliament soon. It provides that all managers or owners of hotels, boarding and rooming houses are required to add a surtax of 20 per cent, which is to go to the state, to the bills of foreign customers, with the exception of Belgian citizens.

In the case of citizens of former allies of France whose exchange is not high, and also in the case of employees of French firms, exceptions would be made. It is expected that this measure, which presupposed that the low figure is due chiefly to speculation by foreigners, will add two billion francs to the annual receipts of the state.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Junior Terry, of Nocona, spent yesterday here. He was looking for a business location.

Atwood Hayward of Johnson county was among the prospective land buyers of this section the first of the week. He is well pleased with this section of the Plains and may buy land in Cochran or Hockley county this summer.

J. E. Queen, of Texarkana, was here yesterday.

R. H. Eberle, of Chicago, was interviewing business men in Lubbock yesterday.

J. W. Covertson was among the number of out-of-state guests here yesterday. He represented a real estate firm of Enid, Oklahoma and was here relative to a land deal that his firm had on.

James I. Dow, received a telephone message from his son, Rankin, who is attending college at Canyon that he would be compelled to return home for a while to take treatment of an eye specialist as he was suffering from an infection of one eye and the college physician advised him to give up his studies for a time and have his eye treated by a specialist.

Tom Tatum, of Melissa, Texas, was here looking over our town with a view to locating here.

J. A. and Frank Hunter returned from Sweetwater Thursday.

Mrs. W. L. King returned from Abilene Thursday.

G. T. Breckenham of Waco was here Friday.

O. R. Norton, of Robstown, was in Lubbock Friday.

Robert Randolph was here from Midland Friday.

Nathaniel Euden, of Memphis, Texas, was here Friday looking for a rent farm. He had not secured one however when we saw him and seemed to be under the impression that he was not going to be able to find one.

John G. Heaton, of Chicago, Texas, was here yesterday. He is looking for a location for a feed and field seed store.

Reese R. Stanley, representing a milk and horse trading company of Louisiana was here yesterday for a short time. He was on his way to El Paso.

Robert Bennett, of Coleman, was here yesterday looking over our city. He is a linotype operator and has accepted a position on the Avalanche to run one of the linotype machines. He was here several years employed by the Avalanche in the days of hard-set papers but has not been here since he left and notes wonderful changes in the town. He says when he gets here with his family this time he is here for keeps.

Gus Robertson was here yesterday from Slaton looking after business matters.

Senator W. H. Peadar returned yesterday morning from a business trip to Austin.

Editor and Mrs. Boyles of the Crosbyton Review spent yesterday here looking after business and doing some shopping.

Hon. R. M. Chitwood of Sweetwater returned home yesterday morning after attending the Chamber of Commerce banquet Thursday night. Mr. Chitwood was one of the principal speakers at the banquet.

Arthur P. Duggan, of Littlefield, was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce banquet Thursday night, and spent Friday here looking after business matters and visiting relatives.

R. B. Haynes was here yesterday from Tahoka.

Mr. J. A. Wilson, who was operated on at a local sanitarium Thursday was reported getting along nicely yesterday afternoon.

J. L. Brabham, president of the First State bank at Idalou, was here yesterday looking after business matters.

B. W. Mitchell, a prominent citizen of Crosbyton and former sheriff of Crosby county, spent Thursday visiting and looking after business matters in Lubbock.

A. W. Duncan, a prominent citizen of Haskell county, was here yesterday. He has been spending several days on the plains prospecting. He is much pleased with Lubbock and may decide to make this his future home.

M. B. Powell, of Henrietta, is spending several days here visiting and prospecting in and about Lubbock. Mr. Powell is well pleased with the progress being made in our city and in all probability he will become a citizen of this part of the country in the near future, and he will find a very cordial welcome by the people of our city should he decide to come to Lubbock.

G. E. Niblack, representing R. G. Dunn & Co. is in the city for a few days getting information for his company.

Fred Robb, of Crosbyton, and a leading stockman of that section, spent Thursday here looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Ray of Grassland are in the city in attendance at the bedside of Rev. J. E. Oden, who is seriously ill.

REMAINS OF TOM CAT UNEARTHED BY OFFICIALS

By United Press. FORT WORTH, Texas, Feb. 22. While awe-struck spectators stood around and confidentially expected to see the gruesome remains of a tragedy-disinterred, Deputy Sheriff Herman Gaudin dug at the spot where it was reported a baby had been buried.

Justice, Hal P. Hughes was there to hold an inquest over the body and to start the wheels of justice to locate the murderer.

A thrill shot through spectators as the pick hit something hard and metallic. Finally a carefully sealed box with the epitaph "Bill, Died at 2 p. m. February 5," was unearthed.

The crowd edged closer. Neckes were strained to give them a good vantage from which to view the body.

Slowly the lid was raised. A mummy of towels was exposed. Slowly they were unwrapped one by one. At last they found reposing on a shroud of newspapers.

"Bill," a large gray and white tomcat.

POLK STREET METHODIST RAISES PREACHERS' FUND

AMARILLO, Texas, Feb. 22. The Polk Street Methodist church of Amarillo has raised $5,200 its quota of the $10,000,000 endowment fund for superannuated ministers of the Southern Methodist church. Seventeen thousand contributions have been asked to contribute to this fund between Feb. 1 and July 1.

LITTLEFIELD FARMER WILL PRINT A NEWSPAPER IN GERMAN LANGUAGE

A. L. Schellenberg, who for the past five years has been a resident of the Littlefield community, sold his 556 acre farm there this week at a neat sum of $43 per acre.

Schellenberg will go to Hillsboro, Kansas, where he will enter the newspaper business, publishing his paper in the German language.

His son, H. G. Schellenberg, who has been with the Avalanche, operating one of the linotype machines for the past several weeks will go to Hillsboro in the near future and will help his father with the paper for several weeks, according to an announcement made when he received news of his father's intentions to go into the newspaper business again.

JOE HESS A MEMBER OF C. OF C. DIRECTORATE

In the report of the Chamber of Commerce meeting in the Avalanche yesterday morning, the name of Joe Hess was unintentionally left off the list of new directors chosen at the meeting Thursday night. Mr. Hess was elected by a vote that stood right up at the head of the list, and will no doubt, make a valuable member of the board for the next three years, for which time he was elected along with four others.

HOUSTON WANTS THE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

By United Press. HOUSTON, Texas, Feb. 22.—On Houston's front steps—the San Jacinto Battlegrounds—where Texas' independence was won, should be held the Centennial Celebration, is the contention of Houstonians who are making plans to that end.

"We of Houston want the Centennial Celebration to be held on the battlefield of San Jacinto where Texas' freedom was won," said C. J. Kirk, delegate to the recent Centennial convention at Austin.

"If it is to be a parade or carnival that is to be held for a week, we are not interested in it. What we are interested in is a real Centennial to be held in 1836 to celebrate the 100th anniversary of our state's freedom."

"The Centennial we have in mind all told will mean an expenditure of $20,000,000. All nations and states will be represented. It will be a world's fair and not a carnival. It will be run by the whole state and not by an individual or set of individuals. It will be an event that will go down in history."

WATER POWER IS FUEL SAVER IN UNITED STATES

By United Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—America's tumbling rivers and waterfalls—the few of them used for hydro-electric purposes—supplied 35.1 per cent of all electricity generated in the United States in 1923, the United States Geological Survey reported here today.

Generation of this percentage of the nation's total public-utility power requirements by water saved the nation 23,500,000 tons of coal, nearly 1,300 carloads a day, besides relieving the railroads of the burden of transporting this huge amount of fuel.

The total production of electricity by public-utility plants in 1923 was 65,280,000 kilowatt hours. Of this amount, 19,615,701,000 kilowatt hours were water generated. The total production represented an increase of more than 17 per cent over the output for 1922. The percentage of water generated power, however, slipped down 1 per cent from 36.1 to 35.1.

The decline in the percentage of water generated power represented another step backward from the high mark achieved in 1919, when 37.5 per cent of the 38,921,000,000 kilowatt hours generated in that year were generated.

The production of electricity by the use of water power is dependent, however upon the amount of water available for water power plants, and serious droughts have occurred in the past two years in different sections of the country which have materially affected the flow of streams in those sections. This reduction of water reduced the utilization of the full capacity of water power plants.

in a saving of 1,800,000 tons of coal.

The 36,312,155,000 kilowatt hours of power obtained last year through the combustion of fuel was produced at the rate of 2.4 pounds of coal per kilowatt hour as compared with 2.5 pounds last year. This slight increase in fuel efficiency resulted in a saving of 1,800,000 tons of coal.

Port Cralo, where the British Army surgeon, R. Schukbury, wrote "Yankee Doodle" to poke fun at the American colonists, the old historical fort at Rensselaer, New York, may be preserved as a Revolutionary relic. It was built in 1642.

MICHELIN

BALLOON TIRES ON YOUR CAR

The present type of cord tire will have a fast exit now. The Balloon tire has absolutely reached perfection and will take the place of the tires you are now using with such a suddenness that it will eclipse anything yet witnessed in Automotive History.

We can prove this to you by actual demonstration at our store. We can run over curbs, rocks, bumps and other rough places to convince you that the Balloon Tire is here to stay.

If you want a personal demonstration just call us and ask us to take you for a ride in our demonstrator and you will enjoy it and learn first hand that the Balloon Tire is just the tire for your car.

MICHELIN BALLOON TIRES fit your same rim and wheel. You don't have to change anything EXCEPT the tires.

Yours for service,

THE BOYS OF OUR COUNTRY.

The Portland Oregon Call, one of the leading papers of that city, in commenting on the conditions that confront the nation just at this time, and the temptations that are placed around our boys and the rising generation, deprecates the situation and says, "What is the nation coming too?" The Call goes further and says:

"Isn't it a holy fright when a captain of police in Portland warns banks, bond houses and jewelry stores to be guarded during business hours; that pedestrians should carry little money on their persons; that curtains should be left drawn in residences when they are lighted at night; business firms should carry but little cash on hand and if they have money or valuables on hand during business hours they should notify the police?"

"Day after day crime increases throughout the nation. Banks are looted daily; business houses are robbed in daylight; pedestrians are not safe away from main business streets; autoists fear to drive between towns after dark; murders are everyday news.

"What are we coming to, and what is the cause?"

"War psychology" is the chestnutty alibi. Because there was a killing in Europe a few years ago, we seem to accept as a natural consequence that streaks of lawlessness and anarchy must follow.

If you have recalled it, nearly all these crimes are committed by young fellows, some of them mere school boys. In Portland a lad of 15 pulled off three successful daylight robberies of business places.

It is the Call's opinion that the psychology of the home is the cause for much of this crime, and that the home is the place to prevent it.

A boy from 10 to 25 needs a lot of careful handling and mind grounding, and it is a deplorable fact that too few homes give but little heed to the boys of today. They run wild, mix with the wild bunch and the result is the crime wave spreading over the nation.

The parents, fathers especially, should get closer to their boys; take an interest in them, draw them out, get them interested in something, help them; making home more attractive than the pool halls; get acquainted with them, understand them and thus prevent them from going to a criminal bunch."

Portland is not the only place either, that the youngsters are turned loose and allowed to run wild. The officers of Lubbock warn the parents of this city that they should know more about the whereabouts of their sons and daughters than many of them do.

The parents are to blame for a lot of the things that the child does, but the people of the community in general are also to blame for the downfall of many of the young people. The town folks are paying but little attention to the young people of the community. There are traps being set for them at every corner, and the people who are supposed to be the bone and sinew of the moral atmosphere of the community, pass by on the other side, or at least they pay no attention whatever to the pitfalls that are in the pathway of the young people of this community.

We should provide the necessary play grounds for the young people. We should see to it that they have all of the amusement that they want, but it should at all times, be hedged about with the very highest ideals. The people of Lubbock have been urged and plead with for the maintenance of a club-house for the boys of this community. We still stand back and see or hear of the young people working out their own problems along this line, using their own judgment as to what is best for them. Lubbock should by all means provide a club room for the boys of the town. If Lubbock has more than one crying need, the second one is a club room for the boys of the town.

The Kiwanis Club and the Rotary Club should make it a point to see to it that there is a place provided, and that it be kept in perfect accord with the teaching of better and higher ideals in the lives of the younger set.

While the clubs recently took upon themselves the responsibility of securing a place for their weekly luncheons, we believe that they let a splendid opportunity get away when they turned down an offer of a splendid basement that could have been secured for about seventy dollars a month. It would have only taken about fifteen dollars a month more from each club, and it would certainly be worth that much to see that the boys of this city are given the proper training and instructions.

The present arrangement is good for a temporary plan, but we are of the opinion that we should yet take up the basement plan and have it rigged up for a good gymnasium for the boys. If this cannot be done or does not seem the practical way, then let's build a hall on a lot that is not beyond the reach of the means of the clubs and use that for a few years till something more definite arises.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WANT MORE THAN MERE PROMISES

In days gone by, the American people were pretty easy to handle in elections and on various subjects. They nearly all depended upon the politicians to tell them what was best for them, and said politicians would give out the best medicine they had and kept back the balance. They were able at that time to keep the people in the dark and they would vote in the dark, or by persuasion of the ring leaders. America today is different. The newspapers throughout the country have taken up matters of this kind and the people have learned to a greater extent at least to read and think and learn the facts about things before they vote.

The Farm and Ranch in a recent issue of that splendid farm paper has this to say about what the people think:

"Candidates for office, who have habitually declared in favor of lifting some of the burden of taxation from the shoulders of the 'common people,' are being called upon to make good this year. From every nook and corner of the country, from cities and from the forks of the creek, comes an insistent demand for greater economy in government and lower taxes. Thus far this demand has been directed to the National Government because Congress is in session. When our various State Legislatures meet, it will be directed towards the State capitols and the member of the Legislature or the governor who refuses to listen with proper respect and act accordingly, is paving the way for his retirement from public office.

"The pruning knife should not be sharpened for exclusive use in cutting down the Federal and State Government expense, but should also be used in trimming country and city expenses. Our public officials have been on a spinning jag ever since the war, and they have received encouragement from the people. Everybody was having a good time and no one thought of the day after, when the fiddlers had to be paid. But the people are tiring of jazz and are beginning to think of the future. Therefore, the demand for economy in government and lowering of taxes.

"As one means of reducing the cost of government, it is suggested that every department head dismiss about 50 per cent of the employees and insist on the others doing a full day's work for a day's pay. If the present compensation is not adequate, increase it. If it is found that 50 per cent of the present employees working full time, and as efficiently as they would for private business, did not have enough to do, a few more might be let out thus relieving the shortage of labor which some of our 'open doors for immigration' advocates say exists. Then, the Government might cut down on its million yards of red tape and permit department heads and officials to transact the business of Government in an efficient and businesslike manner, such as corporation officials do. This would save the taxpayers many millions of dollars every year. As a further means of reducing expenses, the Government could insist on letting contracts on a competitive basis and refusing to pay any more for a job than an individual would, or to pay more for an article than any person or corporation would have to pay in open market. Government jobs have always cost from 50 to 100 per cent more than similar jobs conducted by individuals and corporations. It is time to cut out the graft and pay the grafters. When this is done, there will be no trouble about finding a way to lower taxes."

RENT RATES ARE TOO HIGH

A statement issued recently by the National Industrial Conference Board shows that the average charges for rent on low and medium priced houses and apartments throughout the United States now average approximately 80 per cent higher than in the year 1914. It is further shown that during the last year rents increased 8 per cent. The figures are compiled from surveys made in 181 cities throughout the country, including most of the municipalities with populations of 50,000 or over. It is interesting to note that even during the period between July and November last, when slight reductions were being recorded, rents in most of the cities in the eastern section of the United States were being advanced.

Generally speaking, not more than 25 per cent of the income of the family should be paid for shelter, or not more than one week's wage or salary for one month's rent. It is an economic fact that undue increasing rents, when it affects the great mass of people, seriously restricts their purchasing power for other commodities and thus interferes with business as a whole, for 85 per cent of the people are renters. Increase in taxes, insurance, etc., does not amount to half the increase demand in rents.

It would be cause for satisfaction if the recent decision by the law court of the State of Maine, which establishes the offense of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor as a felony, could be accepted throughout the breadth of the United States.

MARKETS

SOME SKEPTICAL HIGH TREND IN STOCKS

BY WILL JOHNSON (United News Financial Editor)

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Stock market observers are agreed that it will be the middle of next week before it can be ascertained definitely whether the recovery in the general market yesterday is a real upward swing away from the reaction of Friday a week ago and Monday of the present week. Late spring and midsummer business expansion is yet to be ascertained and the question, it appears, is as to when the market will make up its mind to perform its proverbial barometric functions.

That the betterment noted at the close yesterday may be carried forward into the new weeks is quite likely. There has been a renewal of pool operations in many stocks which have been more or less under cover. Also there are reports that a large short interest still remains uncovered and that this interest had become the target of a group of financiers who were made angry to this individual operation for the decline.

It is not to be supposed that interest in the stock market is less than it was up to this time a year ago. Total sales of stocks from January 1 to Feb. 22, amount to $2,953,000,000 against $9,000,200 last year. Bond transactions total $522,734,000 against $482,175,000.

The week ends with easy call money—the lowest of the year, four percent. The abundance of money for loaning purposes was further indicated by the slump in brokers stock loans and the fact that call loan rates off the exchange were quoted at 3 3/4 percent with more offerings than takers.

Stormy weather, the mercantile reviews say, tended to restrict distributive trade during the week. Good progress continues in the steel and automobile industries and in building, but the textile and apparel lines remain quiet.

Not all phases of the business situation are favorable, according to Dunn's, but there are many good points and the fact that over-extension of commitments is being avoided, strengthens the prospects for the future.

Being generally speaking, says Dunster, is not as active as last week, nor anywhere as near as confident as last year. Purchasers seem to be waiting for a better opportunity when, if and as needed.

GEOLOGY STUDENTS OF T. U. OFF FOR FIELD TRIP

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 22.—Leaving Austin in trucks, advanced students and members of the faculty of the department of geology of the University of Texas, will make a three-day field trip, February 22-25. They will travel about 35 or 40 miles, and will make Johnson City their headquarters. That location is considered the central mineral region, it is stated, and offers the most interesting granite deposits in Texas for study, as well as some of the oldest ones. The students will make a special study of the forms and kinds of rocks in that region. They will take camping equipment, and the trip will be of very little expense to each student. It is stated by one of the professors that the students gain more information on the actual sight-seeing trips than in many hours of lectures.

MINTER-GAMEL CO HAS FORMAL OPENING

Formally opening their business in this city, the Minter-Gamel Co. last night threw wide their doors from 7:30 to 10 o'clock, and the general public was invited, not only for an inspection of Lubbock's newest merchandise store, but for an evening of good cheer. It is estimated that from 1000 to 1500 people expressed their interest in the new establishment by their presence. The store is located at the intersection of the Lubbock Highway and the city streets. The store is a two-story building, and the ground floor is a large open space, with the upper floor reserved for the ladies' department. The store is a beautiful example of modern architecture, and the interior is a masterpiece of design. The store is a beautiful example of modern architecture, and the interior is a masterpiece of design.

The remodeling of the building formerly occupied by K. Carter was a huge success; the walls were beautifully decorated with pictures, well lighted and many other things of importance.

The windows were beautifully and artistically displayed and decorated; the light arrangement especially deserves much commendation. Ladies and gentlemen's furnishings, charming coverlets and other things were displayed.

Mr. Gamel will be the general manager and the departments will be in charge of the following: Ready-to-wear, Miss Ruth Roach, formerly of Carlsbad, New Mexico. Piece goods department in charge of Mrs. Collier, formerly of McKinney, while Mr. J. H. Kimmell, well known and formerly of the Leader store, will have charge of the men's furnishings and shoe department. Miss Lora Anderson, a sister to Messrs. Anderson of Anderson Bros. Jewelry and formerly of Wichita Falls, will be book keeper and cashier.

We feel that Mr. Gamel deserves much commendation for the work that he has accomplished in the opening of the store and Lubbock is indeed fortunate in having such a man and such a firm to help in the making of a greater Lubbock. The Minter-Gamel company opens for business at 8 o'clock today.

GEORGE WASHINGTON BANQUET AT RANGER

RANGER, Texas, Feb. 22.—Representatives from many American Legion posts in district seventeen were expected to be here by tonight to attend the George Washington banquet of Carl Barnes Post No. 69. Included in the list of notable who are expected to attend the banquet are Dr. W. M. Sherwood of Temple, state commander, and G. L. Folger of Dallas.

WILSON DENIES CHARGE OF RESIGNATION FROM FIRM

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Thomas E. Wilson will not resign from the presidency of Wilson and Company, he declared Thursday, in commenting on a report that he intended to retire.

"I believe this report to be propaganda to defeat the company's efforts to secure from its stockholders authorization of the new issue of stock," Wilson added.

Hardin, Amarillo; Clifford B. Jones, Spur; W. M. Massey, O. T. Nicholson, Shamrock; Joseph Weaver, Eastland, all as delegates. The following are substitute delegates.

O. P. Thirane, Snyder; E. C. Canton, Claude; R. W. Haynie, bilene; J. D. Hamlin, Farwell; O. J. Binford, El Paso; W. P. Hallmark, Dalhart; A. M. Bourland, Vernon; Hardy Grissom, Haskell; A. A. Callaghan, Panhandle.

SAYS McDOWELL USED RELIGION AS PRETEXT

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Frank McDowell, clever beyond his years, merely used religion as a pretext for burning his sisters and shooting his parents, in the opinion of Dr. Cleveland R. McAfee, noted Presbyterian theologian.

McAfee, with other noted Chicago divines, deplored efforts by McDowell and others to blame his dementia and religious fanaticism on the fact that he was taught at twelve that blaspheming the Holy Ghost is an unforgivable sin.

The 30 year old youth who confessed to killing his entire family is under arrest at St. Petersburg, Fla. To police, he explained that the Holy Ghost instructed him at a Sunday school while a small boy, frightened him half to death and gave rise to unusual religious beliefs.

One day when he found no buttons on a shirt, he blasphemed against the Holy Ghost, he declared. Later he decided that in atonement he must kill by fire and water all who were in the house at the time.

In 1923, on the anniversary of his sin, he says he burned his two sisters to death, and on the anniversary of that he killed his parents.

McAfee says that McDowell, who was visiting in his home on that night, was not the last man in the house. He says he planned to start a race of murderers to rule the world with religious fervor, under his guidance as "first of the supermen."

McDowell's smooth imposture as a senior student at George Washington university, with forged credentials, convinces Dr. McAfee that McDowell's crime was not due to the religious teaching, but that he seized upon this as an explanation, in a shrewd play for sympathy.

"In any event, he is doubtless both criminal and crazy," asserted McAfee, who is professor of theology at McCormick Seminary, and an authority on the psychology of religion.

There were twenty other students of ten and twelve years in the class where McDowell heard the doctrine of the Holy Ghost expounded. It did not seem to unbalance them. Possibly this doctrine, which really has nothing to do with blasphemy, but refers to a will determined against God and virtue, is a trifle complex for small children, but most youngsters who do not understand it, if they are normal, wait until they do before they let it worry them.

McDowell is simply another of the Harry K. Thaw type, declared the Rev. R. Keene Ryan, pastor of the Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church.

"If churches or Sunday schools contributed to such murders as this, then every such institution ought to be closed," said Dr. Ryan, "but this McDowell boy is just a poor human devil with a diseased and disordered brain. He imagined he heard the voice of God."

From a prophetic viewpoint, religion cures crime. It does not stimulate it. John L. Whiteman, greatest criminologist in this country, is anxious to have prisoners at Joliet attend religious services, for he says religion is the only antidote for crime.

Dr. John Timothy Stone, well known Presbyterian minister, failed to see how the Holy Ghost teaching could upset the mind of a normal boy of 12.

For Public Weigher Precinct No. 1 In the proper columns of the paper will be found the name of W. E. Grice who is offering for the office of public weigher of Precinct No. 1. Mr. Grice has been in Lubbock county about seven years, and is at the present time employed at the grocery store of Mr. Parish. He will endeavor to see all the voters of this precinct before the July primary, and will appreciate anything you can do for him in winning the race. He earnestly solicits your vote and influence.

RALLS TAKES BI-DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP

DOWNES CANYON HIGH IN FIRST TWO GAMES OF SCHEDULED THREE-GAME SERIES FOR HONORS IN PANHANDLE

Special to The Avalanche
PLAINVIEW, Feb. 22.—The Ralls Jackrabbits tonight continued their drive toward state championship when they defeated Canyon high school in the second game of a scheduled three-game series 17 to 12. This victory gives the Jackrabbits undisputed championship of the Panhandle-Plains territory, which section they will represent at Austin on March 7th and 8th, where they will go into competition for state championship.

Canyon took the lead in the contest here tonight, following their defeat by Ralls earlier in the day, and for a time looked as though they had the Jackrabbits at their mercy. The first quarter closed with Canyon in the lead by a 6 to 2 count.

Ralls opened up with a heavy defense attack in the second quarter, holding Canyon scoreless while they pounded the ring for a total of seven points, and the second quarter closed with Ralls in the lead 9 to 6.

Griffith, safety guard for the Jackrabbits, was the outstanding star of the contest, time and again breaking up the passing game of the opponents. Crump was the mainstay of the Jackrabbits' scoring machine, counting for a total of eight points.

Hale, flashy Canyon forward, was the sensation of the day, showing some of the fastest work ever seen on the local court. Lawes, Canyon guard, also showed good form.

Ralls Takes Morning Game.
 In the morning exhibition Ralls jumped into an early lead, taking the contest 25 to 11. Canyon seemingly was never in the game from the beginning, and could do nothing against the heavy onslaught of the Jackrabbits. The first half closed with Ralls in the lead 17 to 10.

Lockhart, of the West Texas State Teachers' college, at Canyon, refereed the exhibition, and at no time were any of his decisions ever contested. Many rosters from adjoining towns were present, especially from the homes of the contestants.

The lineup for both morning and night games:
 Ralls: Forwards, Powell and Crump; center, Keith; guards, Griffith and Travis.
 Canyon: Forwards, Hale and Brown; center, Hill; guards, Sanders and Lowe.

RALLS BANQUETS JACKRABBITS THUR NIGHT

RALLS, Texas, Feb. 22.—One of the most unique banquets ever staged here was given to the Ralls-High Jackrabbits Wednesday night by P. R. Ralls. A four course dinner was served which included fruit cocktail, fruit salad, turkey and all of the things that go with a good dinner, and from the report the boys put out it made all of us wish we were on the team.

The place cards were made with a miniature basketball player standing in it holding a basketball in the right arm. Miniature silk blankets of maroon with white border, picture of a jackrabbit in the center and the name of each player in one corner, were placed by each plate. These are a duplicate of the large wool blankets the boys use all time and make an excellent souvenir.

In the center of the table was placed a large rectangular shaped cake with goal posts in proper place of a regular basketball court and the regular lines of the court marked; the buns served were shaped like a basketball and even the seams were on them.

This banquet was given in honor of the Jackrabbits who won the Crosby county and district number two of the State Interscholastic League, champions. Also winners in the Wayland College invitation meet at Plainview representing basketball teams of the South Plains of Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

Another product, that has never been given its rightful share of press agenting and glory is apple butter.

MEETS LONDOS TONIGHT

Jack Hudson, 148 pound welterweight, will meet Billy London here tonight at the City Auditorium in a two-out-of-three fall decision match.

COX CAMPAIGN FOR PRESIDENT IS OPENED

(Copyright 1924, by United News)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The turn of the political wheel has brought forth a movement to make James M. Cox of Ohio the candidate of the democratic party again.

A series of developments since Cox consented to the use of his name in the Ohio primaries a few days ago has encouraged his friends in the belief that he will be a strong candidate at the national convention. Re-cause of the chaotic state of the McAdoo movement, resulting from the disclosure as to his recent connection with E. L. Doherty, there is an increasing tendency in some states to send unattached delegates to the convention.

Where preferences must be recorded by primary, there are prospects of three-cornered fights between McAdoo, Cox and Underwood, Ralston, of Indiana, who is talked of as the convention compromise candidate, is less interested in making an active campaign as he hopes to avoid offending rival candidates and thereby make himself the second choice of all factions.

McAdoo went to Ohio to pick his campaign manager, David I. Rockwell, who was associated with Cox in 1920. This incensed some of Cox's Ohio friends who are now ready to back him in the primaries against McAdoo. The Ohio primary, April 29, will determine definitely the relative strength of Cox and McAdoo in Ohio and will give a fair index of it elsewhere.

The prestige of William J. Bryan, who would be expected to oppose Cox, has suffered somewhat of late. He recently brought out Dr. A. Marchessault of Florida as his candidate, but the Florida democratic state committee, meeting Friday, failed to endorse Bryan's candidate and the question is now thrown into an open primary fight.

The Cox movement in Ohio has been accelerated by the announcement of his willingness to stand in the primaries. Newton D. Baker, secretary of war in the Wilson cabinet, has been expected to announce that he would be a delegate to the democratic convention on the Cox date.

Cox has said nothing about his proposed platform, but Baker announced his intention of making a fight to place in the democratic platform a plank endorsing American membership in the League of Nations, subject to such reservations as the senate may attach. It is assumed that Cox is favorable to this plank, as it was one of his major issues in 1920.

However, before the convention is far along, it is probable that Cox will interest himself in the issues raised by the oil scandal here. It is difficult to focus the attention either of the politicians or the public on anything else at this time and it will be impossible for any candidate in either party to proceed far in his campaign without devoting considerable attention to this question.

18-YEAR-OLD YOUTH WINS AMERICAN DOG DERBY

ASHTON, Idaho, Feb. 22.—Oleott Zarn, an 18 year-old Ashton Ind., today won the American dog derby from a field of seven starters, including some of the veterans of the sport.

He drove a consistent race over the 25-mile trail and finished in two hours, 22 minutes and 40 seconds.

The record for the course is two hours 9 minutes set a year ago, by Smokey Gaston whom young Zarn today defeated.

Eight teams originally were entered in the race but just before the start George Pilcher consolidated his entry with that of Glenn Young reducing the field to seven.

McTIGUE FORCED CALL OFF O'DOUD MATCH

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Boils have forced Sammy Mandell, the Rockford flash who is training here, to call off his match with Mickie O'Dowd, scheduled for East Chicago next Monday night.

Mandell, who recently won from many of the best eastern lightweights, will rest for a few days. He plans then to resume his campaign to capture the title.

GIGANTIC BOWLING MEET OPENS SATURDAY NIGHT

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Breaking all entries and prize money records for bowling events, the American Bowling Congress tournament will open in Chicago Saturday night.

With 11,683 bowlers entered, the meet becomes the greatest sporting event ever held in this country, according to officials. More people will participate in this tournament than enter the Olympic games. Prize money amounting to $105,000, will be distributed.

After the first week, play will commence at 10 o'clock in the morning and continue until midnight each day. The tournament will continue for thirty-six days and during this time expert bowlers from all over the North American continent will be seen in action.

There will be 6381 teams in the tournament. One hundred and one cities will be represented. Milwaukee has furnished the largest entry outside of Chicago, sending 120 teams. Detroit has 108. New York City has sent ten teams. Cleveland and Cincinnati each have 33. Toledo has 25 and Columbus 15.

STAR HOLDOUT OF REDS ELATED OVER CONTRACT

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 22.—"I'm tired of holding out ever spring and I'm glad that this time I've got a contract that will hold me a while," said Eddie Rousch, outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds and most persistent of the holdouts. "I have made an agreement with the Cincinnati club and will sign a three year contract. It's as good as signed now."

 AT THE CHURCHES

 Broadway Church of Christ.
 Prof. R. M. Morgan of Crosbyton, noted musician, will be present at the morning service Sunday at 11 o'clock. A good service will be held and a cordial invitation is extended.

LONDOS TO MEET HUDSON HERE TONIGHT

"I am in the pink of condition," said Billy London last night following a week of strenuous workout in preparation for his match here tonight with Jack Hudson. Bill has been tussling with an awful cold all the week, but says that he just about has it under control.

According to the recommendations set in ahead of Hudson, whose home is at Supply, Okla., this match should be a close one. Hudson has offered local fans. He has met and defeated many of the best men in the country, and is considered by many to be in line for the welterweight belt.

All matches are now being held under the auspices of the local Elks lodge, and according to an agreement reached between the contracting parties, the larger percent of all proceeds will hereafter go to charitable purposes.

A special inducement has been offered the ladies tonight in the form of reduced rates. These rates also apply to children under 14. Tickets will be on sale today at both the Red Cross Pharmacy and the Chocolate Shop. The doors of the auditorium will be opened at 7:30, and the curtain will rise on the first preliminary at 8 o'clock.

5-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER OF ROSS EDWARDS DIED FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Doris Jean, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Edwards of this city, died at the family home, 1615 Main street, Friday afternoon at 4:30.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3:30. Rev. J. Pat Horton of Floydada will conduct the services.

CALIFORNIA WINE OUTPUT DOUBLED SINCE ADVENT OF PROHIBITION.

By United News
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Feb. 21.—California bootleggers are not increasing but wine-making in the state of the Golden Gate has doubled since prohibition became effective.

This development of the wine business has made necessary a greater supervision by the prohibition force of the west and has brought notice of an expansion in office space for headquarters of the dry agents in San Francisco.

Federal building quarters are to be deserted by the dry chiefs for offices in a downtown business building where more space is available.

Pre-prohibition days found California with 17,000,000 gallons of wine. Last year the total was 33,000,000 gallons. Of this Chicago got 1,500,000 gallons and New York 9,000,000 gallons. California kept only 119,000 gallons of 1,300,000 produced during the year.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET IN STATE-WIDE RALLY

By United News
AUSTIN, Feb. 21.—The Executive committee of the Texas Women's Christian Temperance Union today selected Austin as the host for a state-wide rally which has been called to meet April 3.

This rally is to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the organization. Governor Neff and three figures of national note will address the body.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy McAfee of the McAfee company, have returned from eastern markets where they purchased ladies' furnishings for spring. Mr. McAfee reports a splendid trip.

Mr. Earnest Conley of the A. B. Conley Jr. store returned from market the 21st. Mr. Conley was accompanied by Mrs. Chassault, the buyer of read-to-wear, who returned several days ago.

BLIND STUDENT PAYS WAY THRU COLLEGE

By United Press
AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 21.—Being blind and handicapped as few other students are has proved no deterrent to the ambitions of Robert G. Stoll, Texas University student from Taylor.

With several cigars, and chewing gum-stick machines which he has devised, Stoll has been able to pay his way thru two regular and three summer terms of school. He is working to finish the course in record time.

In his classwork Stoll depends on having the text assignments read to him. He writes his examination questions on a typewriter after having them read to him. He speaks Spanish and German fluently and is studying French and Latin. Thru his extra summer school work he has already a bachelor of arts degree.

Stoll became blind in an accident when he was 18. A nail pierced one eye and a short while afterward sight faded from the other member. He expects to teach school when he finishes here.

GERMANY'S DREAM OF SILK CULTURE FAILS

BERLIN (United Press)—Germany dreamed some time ago of becoming a leading silk producing nation.

Wieland and Schuster introduced in the Neckar valley near Heilbronn the brown and purple Chiries "air-lanths" silk worms, but the cucukos are now destroying them.

In this connection it is recalled that Frederic the Great once endeavored to introduce the silk worm in Germany, and the mulberry trees he planted near Potsdam still stand as a monument to his unsuccessful attempt. There is still standing near Potsdam the silk mill he founded, but it draws its products from China instead of from Potsdam.

RURAL PUBLIC SCHOOLS

By W. M. PEVEHOUSE, Co. Supt.

CENTER

W. M. PEVEHOUSE, (County Superintendent)

The rural school at Center is one of the oldest established districts in the county, evidenced by the fact that the district number is "2". But today, with all due respect to the former teachers at that place, and even the writer taught one session there, according to my mind, the present teachers are doing the best work and securing the best results that the community has had the good fortune to get.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers and wife are surely doing a wonderful work with those children. A little less than one hundred pupils in ten grades is certainly a task for two teachers. The State Department of Education, and prominent educators the country over, all say "It can't be done." And truly they speak a fact, when we take as a standard the requirements of the school system. No two teachers can successfully handle a situation like this on the same basis as the city school is run. But our rural teachers rise to the occasion and they meet the emergency with a bravo.

DISTRICT MAN OF MERCHANTS LIFE MOVED TO LUBBOCK

W. W. Sims, who recently moved here from Oklahoma, returned yesterday from Lamesa where he has been in the interest of his company. Mr. Sims has charge of the western district of the Merchants Life Insurance Company. This district was for a time composed of Texas and Oklahoma, but the territory was recently divided and Mr. Sims took the west half, and while the district takes in all of the Panhandle and all of Central Texas, Lubbock was selected as the place for the District Manager to make his headquarters which is a pretty good indication that the insurance people know their Oklahoma on the South Plains, and are preparing to get in on the ground floor for a nice lot of business.

Mr. Sims has not been here long, but he is well pleased with the outlook, and with Lubbock as the headquarters for this district.

RICHEST ROYALTY IS PRINCESS LOUISE

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The Princess Royal, sister of King George, celebrated her 57th birthday yesterday. The title of Princess Royal of Great Britain is conferred on the eldest daughter of the reigning sovereign and is held for life. Hence Princess Mary, King George's daughter, will have to wait for her aunt's death before she can get the title. Princess Louise, the present Princess Royal, made a love match with the late Duke of Fife, and never took a prominent part in court life. Of an exceedingly retiring nature, she was known as "Her Royal Shyness". The Fife estates are vast and of great value, so that the princess and her daughters are probably the wealthiest British royals living.

DAUGHTER OF CLEVE REECE DIED THURSDAY A. M.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Reece, of Lubbock died Thursday morning, February 21st, and funeral services were conducted in the afternoon.

Interment was made in the Lubbock Cemetery.

CLUBS PASS RESOLUTIONS FOR SPENCER

To the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs of Lubbock:

The Joint Committee on Memorial Resolutions for Percy Spencer, Kiwanian, beg to report:

In the death of Mr. Spencer, these organizations have lost able counsel, a good executive and an untiring force for the building of a country and its people. He forever sought for the things to better the material and civic worth of this country, was remarkably successful in his choice of ways and means to effect their execution and was always ready to go into the ranks as a countless worker.

The general public, too, has suffered from his death, as, truly, "no man liveth to himself." His efforts to aid these civic bodies were the most certain means of doing general good. Besides his activities in the Kiwanis Club and Chamber of Commerce, he served as Mayor of the City, giving it intelligent and progressive administration, and thru his foresight and energy many of our improvements were conceived and carried out.

As a token of our esteem a copy hereof should be furnished to his family and to the press.

R. A. SOWDER,
SAM S. DENMAN,
NEAL WRIGHT,
Joint Committee.

CLAIM LEO KORETZ SEEN ON CATALINA ISLAND

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 22.—Leo Koretz, wanted in Chicago on a $7,000,000 swindling charge, has been seen on Catalina Island, it was revealed here Thursday. A woman who knew Koretz in Chicago is positive she saw him at the pleasure resort last Sunday. He had disguised himself only by wearing a woman's bronzette and by wearing pince-nez glasses instead of his customary shell rimmed spectacles, she said.

CLASS ROOM AND OFFICE BUILDING TO BE ERECTED

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 22.—According to Regent Frank C. Jones, of Houston, the next permanent building to be erected on the campus of the University of Texas will be a class room and office building. Herbert M. Green, of Dallas, University architect has been requested to draw up preliminary sketches of the new building, which will be constructed as soon as the necessary funds are in hand. The Regents also discussed at their recent meeting the construction of a large auditorium and chemistry building on the campus.

STATE UNIVERSITY TAKES TORNADO INS. POLICY

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 22.—For the first time in the history of the University of Texas, tornado insurance has been taken for a period of one year on all permanent buildings on the campus and their contents, it was announced at the close of the recent meeting of the Board of Regents. The home of the president and the faculty women's club were also included in the policy. The value of the buildings insured amounts to $1,200,000. The insurance of the buildings was the result of the damage to Austin buildings caused by the tornado two years ago.

OLD ENGLISH DESIGN BUILDINGS SHOWN IN HOUSTON

HOUSTON, Texas, Feb. 22—A novel idea has struck Houston. It is an old English village set right down here in the town.

One of those quaint English villages with all its quaint English atmosphere is going to be transported right from England and set down in Houston. The Houston Development Company is fostering the plan. In the village will be found the irregular shaped blocks with round corners, an abundance of tall trees, a commons and a winding road going around the whole village. Ten houses of old English design will comprise the hamlet.

KAMELIA ENTERS

DAMAGE SUIT ON SIMMONS

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 22—William Joseph Simmons, unofficial founder and chief magistrate of the one-man order, "The Many Knights of Trouble," was further qualified for membership Thursday when more trouble in the shape of a suit for $25,000 damages parked itself on his doorstep.

The Knights of Kamelia, the woman's organization founded by Simmons, which recently announced its intention of banishing him on charges of treason, brought the suit in the superior court today.

The suit charges Simmons was to have been paid $500 for six months for work in connection with the order he failed to carry out the work. An injunction to prevent Simmons seeking membership for his new order in the ranks of the Kamelia also was procured by the blangwomen.

INNOCENT MUST BE PROTECTED SAYS M'ADOO

By United Press.
 LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 22.—The duty of government is no less to punish those who are guilty than to protect those who are innocent, William Gibbs McAdoo, democratic presidential aspirant, declared here late Friday, referring to the Teapot Dome scandal.

McAdoo was greeted upon his arrival by a big crowd of enthusiastic supporters, to whom he made adherent speech from the train platform.

"Shocking revelations at Washington of the betrayal of the public interest must give profound concern to every lover of our institutions and to every patriot," he said. "These transactions must be probed to the bottom and the guilty must be brought to punishment. This is not a question of partisan politics. It involves the very life of the nation."

"In times of public excitement there is always grave danger that justice may miscarry," McAdoo declared.

Urging sober judgment, common sense and a high spirit of fair play in the Teapot Dome prosecution, McAdoo declared the only path out of the maze of oil scandals is "the beckoning call of progress—righteous and helpful progress—to which we must give heed and to which high-minded, visional and intelligent statesmanship must consecrate itself."

Because of the great family involvement in the death of Woodrow Wilson, McAdoo said he could make but a few remarks.

"I would almost rather stay in Los Angeles than go to Washington," McAdoo humorously remarked to friends.

us of all our faults, but there are very few students of the affairs of mankind who would deny that the theory upon which our institutions proceed gives the best results that have ever been given to any people. When there is a failure, it is not because the system has failed, but because we have failed. For the purpose of securing liberty, for enactment of sound legislation, for the administration even-handed justice, for the faithful execution of laws, no institutions have ever given greater promise or more worthy performance than those which are represented by the name of Washington.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN TAKE HIKE OF FIFTY MILES

By United Press.
 AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 22.—Coeds of the University of Texas put the men students to shame when it comes to hiking. Not content with an ordinary jaunt of 10 or 20 miles, the women students go in for hikes of 50 miles.

Two 50-mile hikes are taken by the girls' club every year. On March 1, the first group of co-eds will walk from Austin to Kyle and back again taking three days for the trip.

Four 20 mile hikes and a number of shorter ones are also taken by the university women during the year.

Regulation hiking togs are used for the trips. Points toward a "T," the coveted emblem of participation in athletics are awarded for the hikes.

Federal American National bank and the Commercial National bank, have been summoned to testify regarding the checks covering an alleged loan of $100,000 to Fall by McLean which the publisher first admitted and later denied, claiming that the checks had never been cashed.

Harry F. Sinclair will be subpoenaed, Walsh announced, to appear, probably next week, to testify regarding numerous recent developments with which his name has been linked.

A peculiar situation arose after announcement by Walsh that Slemm would be asked to appear Monday. When inquiry was made of the president's secretary, he said he did not know anything about it. He immediately called Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, chairman of the committee, on the telephone and announced afterward that Lenroot had heard nothing of it. Inquiry at Lenroot's office brought the same reply.

Walsh, questioned again, said that he had not yet asked Slemm to appear, but would make the request Saturday morning. It was regarded as significant that Lenroot denied any knowledge of the prospective appearance of the president's secretary.

Despite denials by both McLean and Otto H. Kahn, New York banker, of any knowledge of a million dollar slush fund, Walsh said Friday that this trail had not been abandoned. He declined to reveal whether he had any additional information regarding the rumor.

As the committee resumes its grind Monday, the senate will begin action on the resolution by Senator Wheeler, of Montana, asking an investigation of the department of justice and the activities of Attorney General Daugherty. The resolution was reported favorably Friday from the audits and control committee, and will be called up Saturday, and referred over to Monday for action.

While Wheeler has consented to an election by the senate of the members of the special committee, he announced Friday that he will make a fight for the slate he originally offered, consisting of Brookhart, of Iowa, McLean, of Connecticut and Jones, of Washington, as republican members, and Ashurst, of Arizona, and himself as democratic members. Republican leaders are opposed to Brookhart. Wheeler is confident he will be able to put his slate over, through a coalition of democrats and progressives. E. L. Doheny, oil magnate, hitting back again at recent charges made against him by Wheeler, suggested in a letter to Senator Lenroot Friday that the Montana senator be called before the committee to testify regarding his statement that the oil man had met Daugherty in his apartment, which Doheny denies.

ing this campaign of political terrorism or to the demands of those who are frightened by such methods. The record shows that most of the charges now being made are merely revamped from those made some time ago by a member of the house of representatives in a demand for Attorney General Daugherty's impeachment.

"These charges were thoroughly investigated by a house committee which by a vote of 20 to 1, denounced them as untrue and unwarranted. This decision of the committee, the house of representatives concurred in by an overwhelming vote on non-partisan lines. The new charges now being made are nothing but cheap gossip, part of which has already been utterly discredited."

Claims Should Have Hearing. "Why should Attorney General Daugherty resign without a hearing? That is not the American way of doing things. It is time for officials of integrity to face their detractors and place the brand of infamy upon those who make their public office the mouthpiece of foul calumny."

"America, her institutions and her form of government, are not now, and never will be endangered by enemies from without. Her menace is from those who, for the purpose of elevating themselves into the limelight of questionable notoriety, or serving the baser purposes of partisanship seek to destroy the faith the American people in their public officials and institutions.

"The time has come for republican leadership to stop acting on the defensive and to begin aggressive warfare on political traducers, who sit silent while the greatest orgy of waste, incompetency and corruption that the world has ever witnessed took place in Washington under the democratic administration."

FORMER LUBBOCK PASTOR DIED FRIDAY

Rev. J. E. Oden, aged 35 years, 1-month and 16 days, died in a local sanitarium late Friday evening. He was brought to Lubbock the first of the week for treatment. He suffered from partial paralysis and also a blood clot on the brain.

Rev. Oden was at one time pastor of the Lubbock circuit. Since leaving Lubbock he has been pastor of the Methodist church at Plains and at Meadow and for the past year has been pastor of the church at Roaring Springs.

He is survived by his wife, two children, mother, and several brothers, most of whom were at his bedside when the end came.

The body will be shipped to Post Saturday, where interment will be made.
