Farm Bureau To Banquet Local Men At Acuff

FEAST BE HELD ACUFF SCHOOL HOUSE TONIGHT

MEMBERS OF CIVIC CLUBS OF CITY URGED TO BE PRESENT EN MASSE

President W. B. Atkins of the Chamber of Commerce stated yesterday afternoon that all members of that organization were being urged to attend the meeting at Acuff school house tonight at seven o'clock.

The Lubbock County Farm Bureau members will be hosts and they are very anxious that the members of the Chamber of Commerce, which has entertained their organization on a number of occasions be present en masse.

Citizens from all over Lubbock county will be present and a most wonderful opportunity is presented to our own citizens, business and professional men and to others, to get acquainted with their neighbors from all parts.

The fact that John T. Orr, president of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau Cotton Association will speak has an appeal to many local business men who are thoroughly interested in the farmers problems and who appreciate any opportunity to study them.

The feed will be an old fashioned basket picnic style, with barbecue, pickles, coffee and the other things served following which Mr. Orr, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association will make a short address along with other interesting numbers.

Every Rotarian and Kiwanian is urged to be at the court house lawn west driveway at exactly six o'clock Tuesday afternoon. If you have an extra place in your car—drive into the driveway and get it filled. If you are already full—rather if your car is full—stop on the north side of the square on main street. If you do not have a car, be there on time for there will be plenty of cars for everybody and then some.

When the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs held a joint noon meeting and invited the Farm Bureau members—they came from every corner of the county. Now let's show them that we appreciate it by turning out

MULLINS PLACE BURNED THIS MORNING

The local fire department answered a call this morning a little past midnight which led them to the Mullins place about three miles east of the city, but were helpless against the flames which had broken out in every portion of the residence before they arrived.

No one was in the house, or had been since late evening, according to a member of a family who lives in one of the out houses on the premises. Hence no logical conclusion could be drawn as to the cause of the conflagration.

BARKLEY BILL IS HELD UP IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Administration leaders won a victory in the house Monday night when they forced adherents of the Barkley bill abolishing the railroad labor board to abandon efforts to force a vote.

Majority leader Longworth said this virtually killed the bill for this session though its author, Representative Barkley of Kentucky announced he will call up the measure two weeks hence as is permitted under the rules.

Speaker Gillett took the chair again and immediately recognized floor leader Longworth, who jumped to his feet simultaneously with Representative Barkley, of Kentucky, who wanted an immediate vote in the house on the committee action in striking out the enacting clause.

NEW YORK.—Hattie Walters, store detective guarding the perfume counter of a large department store here, knows her smells. Somebody swiped a large bottle of perfume and when Hattie learned of it she followed the scent right out to the street where the alleged shoplifter turned out to be Rose Bergson, 18.

THE LESSONS

"Mother," I said, "it's a long, long lane, this lane of the years we fare. And we have traveled it day by day through its laughter and hurt and care. And what shall we teach of the things we've learned to the children who follow on? And what shall we give them to keep them safe in the days when we shall be gone?"

And the mother said: "Let us keep them close, yes, close to us day by day. Let us teach them never to lie for gain, let the prize be what it may; Let us teach them to value this home we keep and never to stoop to shame. Let us teach them that honor's a greater thing than fortune or skill or fame.

Then we talked it over—life's fame and wealth and cunning and strength and skill. And the cheer of men for a noble deed, and the thing that is called a thrill. And the tempter's voice, and the pitfall deep when pleasures are running strong. When it seems so hard to do the right, and so easy to do the wrong.

Let us teach them to follow the friendly way, to serve, to be fair and kind. To reap life's pleasures wherever they grow, but to leave no wrong behind; Let us give them a faith to lean upon when the shadows of sorrow fall. And we need not fear what the future holds, they shall safely brave it all."

POLICE BATTLE COMMUNISTS WITH CLUBS

BY ERIC KEYSER.

BERLIN, May 19.—With North Germany inflamed over "German Day" clashes between police and communists during a fascist demonstration, miners' wives are leading riots in the Ruhr.

The pretty little community of Fuerstenwald, 25 miles from Berlin was the scene of sharp fights Sunday when many "reds" and some policemen were wounded as the communists attempted to break up a celebration staged by a Uhlan regiment.

Terrorist proclamations had been posted before the meeting by the communists announcing that workers would attack the Uhlans. The Prussian government fearful of demonstrations similar to those taking place at Halle last Sunday forbade the Uhlans to hold their meeting out of doors, but permitted them to gather in a hall.

Despite this, the "Reds" gave orders for "beating up fascists whenever found."

Police reinforcements were sent to Fuerstenwald at an early hour and guards were posted at all gateways to the meeting place to halt unauthorized visitors.

As an additional precaution, publication of the aridical Berlin newspaper, ROTE FAHN was prohibited, lest its articles add fuel to the communist resentment against the fascist gathering.

Previous agitation however had resulted in wide interest in the meeting and at dawn several thousand persons were already enroute to Fuerstenwald.

Clashes began early and at a late hour during the afternoon were continuing. There were indications that bloody fighting might take place before the end of the gathering.

Meanwhile, dispatches from the Ruhr reported that with the arbitration award in the miners strike refused, the people of the industrial district, and especially wives of the miners, are becoming desperate.

At Gelsenkirchen, long a trouble center, angry women stormed the city hall demanding issuance of food rations. At Retzhausen police were compelled to intervene in riots. At Hattingen miners wives rolled up their sleeves and, armed with rakes and picks, hauled the fires of furnaces at mines, leaving the mines in danger of being flooded. Strikebreakers rushed to drive off the women but the amazons seized picks and shovels and fought their way out of the plants.

It is feared that the women's action may be followed by their demand that their menfolks begin similar sabotage.

Claim Illegally Detention From United States

EL PASO, Texas, May 19.—E. Signoff and wife claiming they were born in the United States, and are being illegally denied admission with their five children from Juarez, Mexico, has filed a petition in federal court here against immigration authorities charging that immigration records of examination begun on March 10 and concluded April 21, are incorrect, and do not contain facts of the examination.

The examination records under which the Signoffs were denied admission show they were classed as gypsies; that Signoff and his wife and one daughter were denied admission because of illiteracy and the remainder as persons likely to become public charges.

In the petition Signoff denies he is a gypsy and declares himself and wife born in the United States. Four of the children were born in Chile, and the fifth born while the family was enroute to the United States by way of Mexico, the petition sets forth.

3 YEAR OLD GIRL HAS WONDERFUL VOCABULARY

Lubbock claims to be the home of one of the most talented children in the whole country.

The following article taken from the Belton News given an account of a very strenuous mental test withstood by the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Halsey, of the Halsey-Hall Drug Company of Lubbock:

Myrana Kingston, college senior, has made the test of the vocabulary of a child three years old. She took for her subject, Jennel Halsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Halsey of Lubbock, formerly of Belton.

The child's vocabulary consisted of 912 words in actual count. R. B. Prasons, instructor in education, says, "The estimate of this child's vocabulary might be termed about 1,000 words. She is a remarkable child to have learned such a vocabulary at the age of three."

Miss Kingston says, "I enjoyed my study of Jennel. It was interesting to listen to her, and yet it seemed so unusual for her to use the words she did. I first told her to dictate a letter to Santa Claus, and told her not to use those words which she had already used, but use other like nature. After that Jennel always remembered and never said the same words again."

MANY YCAR NUMBERS ARE LOST BY JOLTING OFF

BEAUMONT, Texas, May 19.—E. B. Kelso, Jefferson county official whose duty it is to issue car license plates, is looking for a slogan—some method of reminding the motorists of that county to bolt the plates on their flivvers securely. A total of 900 car owners or one out of every 15 have applied for duplicate numbers since January 1, according to Kelso who adds that but few of those number have asked for new plates to replace others which were unserviceable or stolen.

Kelso adds that with few exceptions those applying for new plates are surprised to learn that they must pay for new duplicate numbers, the general belief being that if a number once paid for is lost the duplicate will be issued without cost.

HITCHING RACK TO PERPETUATE IN MIDLAND

MIDLAND, May 18th.—Midland, fearing that the oncoming generations of that town will be unable to understand the already much obsolete expression, "the hitching rack," have set out to keep alive that one lingering tradition.

Business men, at the behest of the Midland county chamber of commerce, have actually built a new hitching rack near the main street of the city. There will be no "is" or "was" about it to the coming citizens of Midland when speaking in terms of hitching racks. They'll know.

The new hitching rack is designed to serve a dual purpose. Hundreds of new farmers are moving into this section of West Texas and they don't all flivver in nor Rolls-Royce out. Many of them still drive old Dobbin and kate and the business men of Midland knowing which side their bread is buttered on, kept alive old ideas and made their visitors welcome—all in one clatter.

Somebody Made the Universe.
(By ELLIOTT KAYS STONE)

Somebody made the universe—
I guess he didn't do so worse!
(I couldn't even make a fly,
And what is more, I wouldn't try.)

He shaped uncounted whirling stars
And carved the curlicues on Mars;
He stooped to fashion microbes too,
(And that is more than I could do)

He lavied our earth with heaving seas;
On land He placed shrubs and trees;
He moulded animals and men!
(He will not fool with man again!)

He laid this world upon a shelf,
And said "It's yours, Man, help yourself."
But blessings we can seldom see,
And curse mosquito, gnat and flea.

Though He formed microbes, man has found
That healing medicines abound;
And though it takes some mussy toil
Mosquitoes can be killed with oil.

If I could make one tiny earth
Of joy and love and peace and mirth
I'd do more than man could do
With this one if he wanted to.

3 ARRESTED ON CHARGES OF THEFT

Three local boys were lodged in the county jail here Monday on charges of theft of automobile casings.

While they were in the act of stripping the casings from a car in an alley here Sunday night they were seen by a night watchman who approached them, and as they fled from him they failed to take their own car with them, which was parked near the car from which they were taking the tires.

The oldest of the three boys reported at the police station Monday that his car had been stolen, evidently believing that by turning in this report he could prove that someone else had used his car and that he was in no manner responsible for it being near the scene of the attempted theft. The officers did not "fall" for his "car stolen" report, however, and through questioning him learned that his two brothers might put some light upon the subject, and the three were questioned separately, all of them making a different account of the wherefore of their car having been used by the one responsible for the attempted theft of the three casings, which quickened the officers to make a thorough investigation of the case. The boys are in jail and other

BOND ELECTION BE HELD HERE TODAY

Keen interest in the school bond election which will be held today has been shown in local business circles, and it is the opinion of a number of local people that Lubbock will do the big thing in this instance, as usual.

The bond election, which, if carried, will provide $125,000 for erecting and equipping an addition to the present high school building, was ordered by the board of directors of the school some time ago, and this act of the board has met with the heartiest approval of all Lubbock people interested in the further development of the city.

While there is little doubt but that the election will be carried by a large majority, its supporters are encouraging their friends to go to the polls and give expression of their eagerness to see Lubbock continue to grow and to see her school kept in pace with the other developments of this community.

PUBLIC OPINION

I have read with interest your editorial in the Morning Avalanche dated May 17th, where under the heading "Is it a Wise Demand" you criticize rather harshly the members of organized labor...

There are sufficient printers in this city to have a local, and I have talked to several of them and they desire to form a local here if the different shops will agree to sign an agreement.

LOCALS ROMP AWAY WITH TAHOKA AFFAIR 9 TO 3

AIRTIGHT PITCHING OF TERRY IN PINCHES AND TWO CIRCUIT CLOUTS BY JACKSON FEATURE EXHIBITION

Terry was invincible here Sunday afternoon in the pinches, and although binged for ten safeties, several of which could have been called either hits or errors, he kept them well scattered, and the local amateurs got off to an easy win from Tahoka 9 to 3.

Allen and Terry then went out in order, and Jackson drove one to the green board in center field for four sacks, scoring Cate ahead.

In the eighth with two men out, Sanders, who relieved Terry on the mound, singled beautifully to right, and Jackson duplicated his sixth inning feat for two additional runs.

When the affair appeared salted at the end of the seventh, Terry announced that he had enough for the day, not being in the best of condition, and Sanders and Karr took over the battery work. Sanders gave up only one single in the two innings.

The box score: Tahoka A B R H P O A E. J. Wells, ss, 4 1 1 3 2 0 0. Larkin, 1b, 5 1 1 6 1 1 0.

Terry then scored on Givens' single. In the seventh the visitors counted their last run on two singles.

The locals opened counting in the third when Terry undressed Wright on third base followed by a single by Jackson, and an error by Larkin, which scored Terry.

In the fifth one was counted on Hensley's triple and Jones single. In the sixth Hunter lead off with a double, and scored on Cate's single.

REDS TAKE TOP WHEN GIANTS LOSE 6-3

Although they did not even don their uniforms or toss a ball, the Cincinnati Reds advanced from second to first in the National League Monday.

The Giants tried desperately to avert defeat. In the ninth inning they scored two runs which were insufficient to overcome a commanding lead which the Pirates had compiled in the earlier innings.

The Reds, too, have been unfortunate. The Boston Braves won four straight in Cincinnati last week, a rather surprising exhibition. Generally speaking, it is the weakness of the Giants, rather than the aggressiveness of the Reds that has kept Jack Hendricks men steadily at the foremost positions of the league.

The New York-Pittsburgh match was the only one Monday. All other games—Brooklyn and Cincinnati; Philadelphia and Chicago and Boston and St. Louis were postponed because of rain.

LOCAL BOY IS AN AVALANCHE BOOSTER

Few working forces contain the initiative, energy and go-get-it-ness of a good boy and a good dog, declares G. R. Scott of the circulation department of the Lubbock Avalanche.

To justify this opinion Mr. Scott points out a local case that contains all the elements of proof necessary.

Two weeks ago little Charlie Turner accompanied by his dog, visited the Avalanche office and said he wanted to sell the Sunday's issue of the Avalanche and deliver it to his customers each Sunday.

He started his rounds with the encouragement of five paid up subscribers the first trip around, and during the two weeks since that time he has made a splendid sales record, in fact it took eighty five papers for his customers last Sunday morning.

"Tip and me want 100 copies for next Sunday," Charley declared when he visited the office yesterday to report his work.

Charley's route is in the southeast part of town, and he is seeing to it that everyone in that section of the city gets a chance to read the Morning Avalanche every Sunday.

There would be little to worry about insofar as keeping the boys of Lubbock surrounded with proper environments if they all had the ability to take care of themselves displayed by this young salesman.

Adjustable ventilators are included in new steel doors designed for business or public buildings to save the construction of transoms. Avalanche Want Ads Get Results

KEEN INTEREST SHOWN IN NEWS AUTO CONTEST

Keen interest in the Lubbock Daily News has been shown by the people of Lubbock, and the big $1,000 automobile contest is creating greater interest every day.

While some of the contestants are active in the field, there is yet room for others who will land a little effort toward winning the prize.

The rules of the contest have been accepted by all of the entrants, who feel that they have an even chance to win and that the success of the winner depends on his or her individual efforts, as all chances for getting a "pull" through any method have been positively eliminated.

The number of new subscribers to the Daily News is growing daily, and the paper is accorded widespread popularity.

MORRIS BURNED IN FIRE AT HIS HOME

George W. Morris, manager of the Texhoma Oil Company's wholesale interests in Lubbock, was severely burned about the hands in a fire which was believed to have originated from the water heating apparatus in his home Saturday night between nine and ten o'clock. The Morris home is located at 1210 14th street.

Mr. Morris had prepared to take a bath when the flames were discovered, and a fire alarm was immediately turned in by Mrs. Morris. Mr. Morris battled the flames with wet towels as best he could until the firemen arrived, and in an effort to save some clothing from a closet his hands were burned. Practically all the skin was burned from his fingers, and it is feared that one finger on the right hand will be lost.

A part of the Morris home was occupied by Mrs. Corrie Benson and son, W. D., Mrs. Benson having been ill all day Saturday from the effects of a small pox vaccination, was in bed at the time the fire was discovered.

An estimate on the total loss from the fire has not yet been made. The furnishings, wall paper, curtains, a number of articles of clothing owned by both the Morris and Benson families, etc., were destroyed. W. D. Benson, a graduate in the 1924 class of the Lubbock high school, lost his entire wardrobe, and was obliged to visit a local haberdasher to prepare to participate in the class services at the Methodist Church Sunday morning.

The damage to the house was confined to two rooms while smoke and water caused the destruction of much of the furnishings.

EDWIN MARTIN TO TEACH AT MINERAL WELLS

Edwin Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Martin of Martin & Wolcott's Grocery, has been re-appointed to teach English in the Mineral Wells high school next year according to information received here.

Mr. Martin graduated from the Abilene Christian College last year and took the place as English teacher in the Mineral Wells high school for the 1923-24 term, and his many friends in Lubbock are proud of the splendid record he made there during the term for which he is awarded the opportunity to fill that position for another term.

Mrs. Martin stated Monday that she was not certain that her son would have the opportunity to spend his vacation here, as he has been considering taking a special course this summer which would require all his time until the beginning of the 1924-25 term.

JAPAN EXTENDS WELCOME TO U. S. FLIERS

TOKIO, May 19.—The three American round the world planes have arrived at Hitokapu bay on Yatorofu Island in the Kuriles, one jump nearer the welcome that awaits them here.

The fliers, Lt. Lowell Smith, Lt. Eric Nelson and Lt. Wade Leigh, left Kashitwabara bay, Paramashiru island at 7:30 a. m. and arrived at Yatorofu—500 miles distant—at 2:05 p. m.

A wireless message received from the destroyer Isokaze, stationed at Paramashiru Island, states that a terrific blizzard broke there shortly after the American planes left.

Thousands Greet Fliers

MINATO, Japan, May 19.—With word received here that the Americans round the world fliers have arrived at Yatorofu Island, the people of this place and the surrounding countryside are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the airmen, who are expected to reach here by moonlight tomorrow.

It is not expected that any announcement will precede the arrival of the fliers, due to inadequate wireless arrangements.

Thousands of persons are pouring into the village to welcome the Americans in what will be the greatest celebration Minato has ever known. The town of Hachiohe two miles away, was utterly destroyed by fire several days ago and resembles Tokio after the earthquake.

PEKING, May 19.—Captain Pelletier d'Osny, French airman who is en route to Japan, has arrived at Canton, and will leave Tuesday for Shanghai.

Wednesday, according to his present schedule, he will fly from Shanghai to Peking.
