Duckstein Reveals Secret Spy Work by Officials

PRIVATE SEC. TO M'LEAN APPEARS IN COMMITTEE

SHADOWING OF SENATORS AND SPYING ON THEIR WORK IS DESCRIBED

By United News
WASHINGTON, May 21.—A weird story of spy work by agents of the department of justice supposedly assigned to "get something" on members of the committee and hamper that inquiry, was told Wednesday by W. O. Duckstein, private secretary to E. B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post. Shadowing of senators and congressmen and spying on their secretaries by women detectives was described.

Duckstein testified that diaries and papers reported to have been stolen from Gaston B. Means last March were seen in the hands of two men alleged to have been employed by Hiram Todd, special assistant attorney general.

"P. J. O'Brien and Walter Pettit came to my house on the night of March 31," Duckstein said. "They said they had some papers of Mr. Means and wanted Mrs. Duckstein to identify them."

Mrs. Duckstein formerly was a department of justice agent. The Ducksteins entered an automobile and were driven to a lonely spot in Rock Creek Park, according to the testimony. There under the dim rays of a pocket flashlight the two alleged agents of Todd opened two black satchels and Mrs. Duckstein examined the papers and identified them as Means' documents and diaries. This happened on the night of March 31, the day Means alleged that two men, posing as employees of Senator Brookhart, came to his house and presented a letter from Brookhart asking for the papers. Brookhart later said the letter was a forgery and Means declared he had been victimized.

Chairman Brookhart announced he would issue a subpoena for Todd and the diaries. These documents are said to contain a day by day record of Means investigations. The names of many officials also figure in the records, the investigator told the committee when he testified recently.

Mrs. Duckstein described Jesse Smith's activities around the department of justice and said he arranged for whiskey permits and ordered a number of prominent personages shadowed.

"Who did Means investigate for Smith?" Senator Wheeler asked. "General Sawyer, the white house physician," she answered.

"The way the reports read, I

BANK IS ROBBED THIRD TIME IN KANSAS

By United News
ARKANSAS CITY, Kans., May 21.—For the third time since its organization the state bank of Eureka, located in the Osage hills southeast of here, was robbed Wednesday.

Two unmasked men, accompanied by a woman in an automobile, drove up to the bank and the men, with guns drawn, leaped out of the car and entered the bank building. The woman remained at the wheel and drove the bandits east of town where they were transferred to a more powerful car and escaped.

More than $1,600 in cash was taken. Officers of the bank were locked in the vault.

DAVIS IS FOUND GUILTY ON 5 COUNTS

By United News
TEXARKANA, Texas, May 21.—Sam E. Davis, on trial in federal court here since Monday on charges of using the mails to defraud, in fake oil operations in the Eldorado field, was found guilty on five of seven counts by the jury late Wednesday. He will be sentenced later.

Davis conducted his own defense but made a poor showing. After he had testified for himself, he was subjected to a merciless grilling by the government counsel, which forced him to make many damaging admissions and left him very "froggy."

"Jimmie" Cox, indicted with Davis, and whose bond of ten thousand dollars was forfeited when he failed to answer in court Monday, telegraphed Wednesday from Los Angeles, California, saying he would be here Saturday and plead guilty to charges.

Abilene Opens Whiteway.
ABILENE, Texas, May 21.—The largest White Way ever built at one time in the southwest was opened here Wednesday night when seven miles of streets were lighted by Mayor Coombs, who threw the switch on the new one hundred thousand dollar street lighting system.

Tax Bill Cutting Normal Taxes in Half and Reducing Present Surtaxes Will be Approved in Both Houses, is Belief Now

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The tax bill, as finally whipped into shape by the conferees, will be approved by the house and senate and is expected to receive the signature of President Coolidge.

This was the reaction at the capitol Wednesday upon publication of the report of the conferees, which retains the important tax reduction provision of the two original measures and eliminates the two senate amendments so seriously objected to by the president.

Broadly, the measure which now appears practically sure of becoming a law, cuts normal taxes, affecting millions of tax payers, in half and reduces materially present surtaxes which fall upon those with large incomes.

The report of the conferees was unanimous and both democratic and republican leaders said it would receive the approval of their colleagues. The few scattering votes expected against it will come from senate insurgents because of elimination of the publicity provision inserted by Senator Norris, of Nebraska.

With final approval by the house and senate assured the only question is on the position of President Coolidge. Republican leaders who have conferred with him predicted Wednesday that he would sign the bill. Coolidge has a way of making up his own mind however, and because of his firm adherence to the Mellon plan which was rejected, there is no certainty about his action.

There is divided opinion as to the action of congress in the event of a veto. While some predicted that the bill would be passed over a presidential veto, others believe that enough Mellon plan supporters would stand by the president to kill it. They frankly confessed, however, that they were not looking this far ahead.

Essentially, the bill is democratic and this will be considered by the president in making up his mind. The rate structure put forward by senate democrats was accepted by the conferees in its entirety, cutting present rates below $8,000 in half, 2 per cent up to $4,000; four per cent between $4,000 and $8,000, with six per cent above and a maximum surtax rate of 40 per cent beginning at $500,000.

It is true that the Jones graduated corporation tax inserted by senate democrats was killed. This was one of the concessions to the house whose flat rate of 12 1/2 per cent with $1 per $1,000 on capital stock, was adopted.

The report will be taken up by the senate Friday. It will then go to the house and after approval there, the bill will be ready for the president.

Representative Garner, of Texas author of the plan supported by house democrats declared in a statement Wednesday night that the conference report "is a complete vindication of the legislative tax program offered by the democrats in the house of representatives some months ago as the most feasible to enact at this session."

MANY JAPS RUSHING TO U. S. BEFORE EXCLUSION TAKES EFFECT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—From 1,500 to 1,800 Japanese are expected to win a race across the Pacific to the United States before July 1, when the new immigration bill with its Japanese exclusion is scheduled to become effective. Nine large passenger liners from Japanese ports each carrying from 150 to 200 Japanese will arrive in San Francisco port before the Johnson law forbidding entry of further immigration from the island takes effect.

U. S. FLIERS HELD UP BY HEAVY FOG WED.

TOKIO, May 21.—Latest word received from Yutorofu Island in the Kuriles, stated that the American round the world fliers might leave Yutorofu within a few hours for the mainland of Hando, provided the fog which has held them on the northern island clears.

While it has been intended they should hop to Minato, it is now possible that they will land midway at Kushiro in the province of Hokkaido. The armmen have applied for permission to land there, and the permission has been granted.

It is also possible that they will attempt to fly direct from Yutorofu to the naval base at Kasumogara outside Tokio, skipping Minato, altogether.

The American fliers participated in an athletic meet on the island yesterday.

$500 RAISED FOR CHAUTAUQUA BY SALES

TOKIO, May 22.—The three American round the world fliers hoped off for Minato from Hitokphu at 5:30 a. m. Thursday.

More than $500 of the $1,600 guarantee granted the Redpath-Horner Premier Chautauquas which will be here May 25 to 31st, had been raised through the sale of tickets up to Wednesday afternoon, it was reported at the Chamber of Commerce offices.

Ticket salesmen are still on the job and indications are that the sales will meet the guarantee provided a continuation of liberality is shown by Lubbock people in buying tickets, it was reported.

TWO ARRESTED FOR PASSPORT VIOLATION

EL PASO, TEXAS, May 21.—With a passport vised at Hamburg, Germany, March 14, by the American consul, whereby they were to enter the United States at Galveston, Texas, and leave via San Francisco, Haul Heinrich and Adolph Koldchoff, were arrested at Las Cruces New Mexico and brought here for arraignment on charges of violating the passport law by entering the country by way of Mexico.

Heinrich was arrested in the dope raids in Juárez last week and Mexican officials say that they found fifty ounces of narcotics in his possession, which the officials said Heinrich admitted he had brought to the country to sell. He was fined $100 by Juárez courts and released. Both men declare they are ignorant of violating any law. Revenue officers declare that European drug runners are using Mexico as a back door to enter the United States and hope to hand their loads of narcotics to some confederate while en route through the country.

GOVT. CONTROL IS MENTIONED BY COMMITTEE

SESSION TO CONSIDER OTHER OFFERS TO OPEN TUESDAY

By United News
WASHINGTON, May 21.—Rejection by the senate agriculture committee of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals by a vote of 10 to 6 may shift the battle ground from the committee room to the floor of the senate.

Just before rejecting the Ford bid, the committee voted to terminate the shoals hearings next Monday. Executive sessions of the committee for consideration of other offers will begin Tuesday.

Senator Norris, republican of Nebraska, chairman, expects to report to the senate next week. In turning down the Ford offer the senate committee runs counter to the house which endorsed the manufacturers bid with votes to spare in April.

Immediately after the defeat of the Ford project, the committee virtually endorsed a plan of senator Norris, when it rejected a motion by Senator Ladd, republican, North Dakota, to report favorably the Norris scheme for government operation of Muscle Shoals.

The plan, providing operation will be probably reported on next week. The defeat of the Ford bid by the committee followed a motion by Senator Harrison democratic member from Mississippi to repropose the offer to the senate without recommendation.

Advocates of the Ford plan will attempt to force a final decision on the bill on the floor of the senate. Unless they are successful in this move, the Ford bid appears to be doomed.

Some democratic members of the committee would like to report the whole batch of offers to the senate but it is not likely that the committee will consent to that.

FIRE DESTROYS FOUR HUGE OIL RESERVOIRS

HOUSTON, Texas, May 21.—With a deep ditch completed around the four burning 55,000 barrel oil tanks on the Webster tank farm of the Humble Oil and Refining company, officials of the company were confident Wednesday that the danger to other tanks was over. At nightfall Wednesday workmen stood about, while the flames licked up the remaining portions of the oil of the four huge tanks, but the fire was under control.

The fire, which was caught by lightning at 12:10 o'clock a. m. Wednesday in four tanks of the Webster farm, had caused all four tanks to boil over, sending the lakes of fire into the earthen bed dug for them. As this was consumed, the fire again confined itself to the four steel tanks.

Although officials would give no record of the exact amount of oil in the tanks it was understood that each tank was practically full and worth about $2 per barrel. A half million dollars was held as a fair estimate of the damage to oil and property, some figuring even higher.

NO REPORT MADE BY WALKER OF TWO IS RELEASED

At a late hour last night the jury in the case of J. R. Walker, charged with murder in connection with the fatal stabbing of J. S. Lanham at Slaton last October, had made no report.

The sudden illness of one member of the jury will halt their proceedings temporarily it was stated. A local physician was called last night to wait upon the sick man, and reports were to the effect that nothing serious had developed, and that he would be ready to resume his duties this morning.

Testimony in the case was completed Tuesday afternoon, and immediately after court convened Wednesday morning, the judge read his charge to the jury, following which arguments of counsel opened.

The case was given over to the jury at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF TWO IS RELEASED

By United News
INDEPENDENCE, Kans., May 21.—Harley Etter, 23, twice questioned in connection with the death of his 18 year old wife and baby daughter, blind, was released from custody Wednesday night.

The two bodies were recovered from the ruins of a burning barn on the Etter farm. Mrs. Etter had been shot through the body, an examination disclosed.

Hundreds of people witnessed the scene of the tragedy by automobile Wednesday.

A long line of cars lined the country road practically all day. A large, brown dog of the family has taken his position near the front door of the home and has refused to leave.

Harley Etter, 23, husband of the victim who was questioned by authorities Tuesday and released shortly after leaving the undertaking parlors where he wept bitterly over the coffin of his wife and child.

He was not excited and agreed to answer all questions of the officers and give whatever aid he could in clearing away the mystery.

Etter was taken into custody Wednesday after a rug taken from the Etter home by Gordon Coleman, father of the murdered woman was brought to this city and an examination disclosed a red stain about the size of half a dollar. An analysis of the stain will be made to see if it is human blood, it was stated.

Tracks were found leading from the Etter home to a creek one and one-half miles away since an automobile in which Etter is said to have been seen riding on Monday was parked.

The victim and her baby will be buried in Oak Hill Cemetery in Elk City, Kansas. Girlhood friends of Mrs. Etter will act as pallbearers.

EXTRAS

When you're building your house, take a warning from me—Don't alter or change anything that you see!

When once you've agreed on the cost of the place, Go out of the city and don't show your face

To the mason, the plumber, the carpenter's crew, For the things they call "extras" will paralyze you.

Should you fancy white paint where you've ordered it blue, Right gladly they'll smear on the white stuff for you;

But they're somewhere in hiding a man who keeps books, And seeing white paint where the plan called for blue, He puts down an "extra" and bills it to you.

That man is a marvel. He eats not nor sleeps, So strict an account of your orders he keeps, Should you change but the type of the hinge on the door, That goes down as an "extra" and costs so much more.

So when building a house alter nothing you see, And beware of these "extras" which bankrupted me.

Should you say: "Put a hook here to hang up my hat," You'll find as an "extra" they've charged you for that.

Should by chance you remark to the boss: "Do you think the gas range should stand where you're putting the sink," He will say with a smile: "That's a very good change."

But that's twelve dollars extra for moving the range.

THE CHILD'S SOCIAL PROBLEMS—PARENTS RESPONSIBLE FOR BAD DISPOSITION.

Are you responsible for the bad disposition that your child has? No! Of course not, you will say, but we bet you a nickel's worth of popcorn that you are, and you should give your social problems more thought. You know very well that a little three-year-old boy can't play with a boy twelve years old and make a success at the undertaking. He is sure to get hurt sooner or later, and that will have a tendency to ruffle his disposition, and cause him to develop a hatred for one of his very best friends. We heard a prominent kindergarten worker one day tell the following story that pretty well illustrates the point that we are trying to make: "The story goes that in a more or less hushed, expectant, unresisting attitude a group of children were waiting for one of their number, who was at that moment howling his way across the street to reach his mother. Tell her on them. The occurrence was not a new one. You have witnessed it at times. In another moment the boy's mother would hurry out of the house in answer to her son's lusty cries and cross the street to learn what had happened to him.

"The children were not afraid of her. There was rather a sense of long-suffering endurance in the way they waited for the scolding and her threats that they would get into trouble if they did not leave Jimmy alone." They were quite bored, although they did not know the name for the feeling, at the frequency of this same happening. They were conscious, too, that they did not go out of their way to hurt Jimmy. They rather liked him and were really friendly. But it was his inability to play along with them and accept the general give and take of their youthful society that had become annoying; a disagreeable shadow was cast when he joined the group. The shadow was specifically that of his mother, ready at all times to come out to defend and protect him from them. This was, of course, because she could not see that he needed no more protection in his social experiences than the rest of them.

"When Jimmy went crying home, they knew in some vague way that the ethics of their group, their child's society, had been violated. The tattler who, instead of standing up and taking the little hurts they all had to endure, or fighting it out if it reached such a pass, always ran home to his mother, roaring his chagrin at the top of a powerful pair of lungs with no thought of shame, was in a sense an outlaw.

"They were too young to realize that it was not entirely Jimmy's fault. His mother had encouraged his natural timidity with her own over-weening sense of protection. Furthermore she desired to have her mind at rest through knowing 'everything he did.' So she had cautioned him to come to her whenever anything went wrong, to tell her when anyone hurt him and, in general, to come running to her with every petty difficulty attendant upon finding his bearings in the social order.

"Nor did she realize that Jimmy would have little innate power to defend himself in the increasingly intricate social struggles if she acted as a shield for him throughout his childhood, the determining period of his life.

"So, with the circumstances such as they were, all Jimmy could continue to do was disturb his playmates and acquire for himself a disposition that would be difficult to escape in manhood—and simply because his mother brought no real thought to bear on the working out of his problem as an individual and as a future man."

COOLIDGE WILL CLING TO THE CELEBRATED FRONT PORCH METHOD OF CAMPAIGN.

So far as the Republican party is concerned, President Coolidge need suffer no uneasiness regarding the nomination. He seems to have all would-be opponents down and out, and has little to do now, but to stand by and watch the Democratic donkey's cut shines, in an effort to get the nomination properly saddled upon some fellow who can carry on, and be able to land in the president's seat.

Lawrence Martin, who is a close observer of things around the capitol city says that President Coolidge has demonstrated to Washington that the front porch of the white house can be used as a porch ordinarily is, intends to conduct his campaign for the presidency from there, just as Mr. Harding conducted his from the porch of his home in Marion.

"Mr. Coolidge recently surprised white house attaches by sitting on the north porch, where nobody ever sits. Heretofore, the president or his family wishing to relax a moment, have used the more secluded south porch, which looks out over the handsome grounds of the executive mansion, towards the Washington monument.

"The president has found the white house

very comfortable. Mrs. Coolidge too, likes it. They have decided against a 'summer white house' though they could have their pick of half a dozen places in New England or elsewhere. But they will stay right here, using the yacht Mayflower for trips down the Potomac, with possibly an occasional cruise beyond the Virgin capes.

"No long campaign trips have been projected for Mr. Coolidge. He probably will make a few trips to deliver speeches, but he wants to do as little of that as possible. The only circumstance likely to change the program would be an obvious unavoidable need for the candidate personally to take charge of his campaign, to swing around the circle and appeal directly to the voters for their support. Even then Mr. Coolidge would leave Washington with reluctance. His political methods depend much more on organization and the tried agencies that have won so many campaigns, rather than on the oratorical appeal of the candidate himself.

Mr. Coolidge is not overly fond of speechmaking. He does not wish to subject himself to the strain of long campaign trips, and it is one of his beliefs that a president, while in office, has no right to absent himself for long periods from his post, even to insure his election.

"Many invitations are being received at the white house for speeches this summer. Most of them have received thus far no definite answer. They have been acknowledged, with the assurance that the president will give them his consideration. A little later on, a selection will be made, and the president will accept those which to him and his managers seem best to fit in with the campaign strategy."

IT ISN'T WHAT IT USED TO BE.

From all accounts there is more or less little petty thieving going on in the community, and while the values are not so great, it is annoying, and the people of the community should assist in keeping it to the minimum, by removing everything from easy reach of those who are inclined to take that which does not belong to them. A few days ago we heard of some fellow picking up a sack of fine planting cotton seed, that was left out in the open field. Of course it should not have been an temptation, but it should not have been left where the fellow knew where he could get it. It used to be in West Texas that a fellow would not steal anything but a yearling, and did not consider he was stealing that, as he figured that the other fellow was getting just about as many of his and possibly more, and satisfied their conscience with that conclusion, and it used to be that in town you could leave the hose and the rake out in the yard, and remain there for a week at a time, and no one would think of taking it away, but its different now. All the people who are coming to West Texas are not honest, and some of them are genuine East Texas, Oklahoma or some other state thieves, and they brought the habit with them, and they just will take hold of things that they believe they would like to have, and whether they have an honest to goodness title to it makes little difference to them, and in fact, they do not care for such.

It has not been many months ago since a farmer reported to us that some home cured meat had been taken from the smoke house in his yard, while he was in the field working, no trace of same has yet been found. It is not like it used to be. Years ago a fellow would come up on a house, a dugout or camp of a cowboy, and if he was feeling lank, would not hesitate to cook and eat, and make himself at home, but never would he take anything that did not belong to him, and he was looked upon as an honorable citizen, and he was as honest and hardy as the days are long. To steal was far below him, and a fair square deal was written on his brow, and we unto him that undertook to pull any crooked stuff on him or any of his pard.

The time has come though, now people, that we must put locks on our garage, on our back and front doors, we must have locks on our cotton seed houses and it is not altogether safe to leave cotton piled in the field, because there are a few people in this country who would much rather steal than to work.

You can help to keep this little stealing program down to the minimum by keeping your property in a safe place, otherwise you are liable to lose more or less throughout the year. It just isn't what it used to be.

WARS AND MOTHERHOOD.

Miss Carolyn Conant Van Blarcom, R. N., who is a delegate to the English-speaking Conference for Maternal and Infant Welfare to be held at London in July, declares that more women have died in childbirth than ever men were killed in war.

"Since the beginning of time, the one occupation which has been exclusively man's has been the business of warfare; that of women the business of motherhood," asserts Miss Van Blarcom. "Both these functions are fraught with equal danger for man and woman. But there is this difference. In time of war, the national consciousness of its duty toward soldiers is so acute, so well defined, that all other considerations are dwarfed beside the emotional and practical desire to safeguard the peace of mind, happiness and bodily welfare of our fighters.

"In the times of a woman's most dangerous period—when she is looking forward to what Sir Arthur Newsome, the eminent English authority calls 'the recurring romance of life,' the very same life that makes for the progress of the race—comparatively little is done to insure the life, health and well-being of herself and young."

A correspondent speaks of General Dawes as replying to a question while "striking the fifteenth match for one pipeful of tobacco." Smoking must yield precedence to talking or working, yet there are housewives who "can't understand why men use so many matches."

MARKETS

TAX AGREEMENT BOOSTS SALE IN STOCKS

By EDWARD J. CONDLON (United News Financial Editor)
NEW YORK, May 21.—The stock market did an about face Wednesday, the active issues presenting an almost unbroken front of advances. The switch in sentiment was due entirely to the hope of agreement on a tax compromise which would imply the early adjournment of congress. Operators who have scanned the recent highs of certain leading industrial stocks and compared with the lows touched this week, have about concluded that the passage of the bonus bill has been fully discounted.

The Wednesday stock averages showed up to much better advantage as some of the most optimistic traders had hoped. Now that the senate and house conferees have agreed on a tax bill which reduces the present taxes by $472,630,000 as compared with the reduction of $445,700,000 favored by the house and the $557,120,000 cut sponsored by the senate, the threat of no appreciable reduction at all has been hanging over the market since like a pall has been removed at least in part.

One of the most interesting sidelights on the market was the performance of U. S. Steel common which crossed 97 as compared with the low of 95 on Tuesday. This recovery was effected in the face of one of the most discouraging reviews of the steel industry which was issued today. Estimate of steel ingot production for the week is made at 60 per cent capacity or some 33-1/3 percent lower than the peak in March.

Sharper competition between mills in the Chicago and Pittsburgh districts are causing lower prices on steel products, chiefly plates, shape and bars. To distinguish between the various cross currents in the motors industry would call for the judgement of a Solomon. News that the H. H. Franklin Manufacturing company will close down its plant preparatory to inventory taking, tended to cause recessions in the motor shares. But, on the other hand, word arrived that the Chevrolet will advance prices $5 to $30 a car and that Rickenbacker may announce increases shortly.

M'GRAW RETURNS TO N. Y. WED. ON CRUTCHES LEAVING GIANTS AT MERCY OF DISDAINED OPPONENTS

By United News.
NEW YORK, May 21.—John J. McGraw, the master mind of baseball, who discharged some unkind opinions at the Phillies just before he led his Giants to the west two weeks ago, has returned to New York on crutches and will retire to his suburban home for repairs. While he is convalescing, McGraw will try to not think about anything because he has nothing pleasant to think about anymore.

Mr. McGraw will be especially careful not to think about the remarks he made concerning the Phillies. It was just after he called the Phillies a "bush league rabble" that his Giants began a losing career which the Phillies at their worst could scarcely equal. The Giants lost ten games on the tour of the cities beyond the Alleghenies and they may contrive to lose two or three more in Cincinnati before following the "master mind" back to New York.

The "master mind" has a damaged knee. Just how it was damaged has not been ascertained, but it is supposed that the knee gave way when he was overthinking during the Chicago series just after the Giants had lost four consecutive games to the Cardinals in St. Louis.

When Mr. McGraw thinks, he thinks all over. The gears of his mind rasp and jangle; his shoulder blades flap; his feet jiggle and his knee caps run up and down his legs from the ankles to the hip.

The entire situation is a worry to the master mind now, although he was thinking freely on happy subjects only two weeks ago. Then the Giants were so far ahead that he was justified in speaking disdainfully about a club which had the poor taste to lose a lot of ball games. Today, Mr. McGraw feels twinges of pain with every thought. If he turns his thoughts to the Boston Braves he is pierced by the recollection that he gave away the players who are now the backbone of that remarkable team.

He released Casey Steingie, Beau Bancroft, Earl Smith, Jesse Barnes and Rube Marquard, all of whom have been largely concerned in the enhancement of the Braves average.

At present, the Boston club is only two and one half games to the rear of the Giants.

In fact, both of the New York ball clubs which expected to have a rather easy time winning their fourth consecutive pennants this season, have been severely harassed.

CUBS TAKE FIRST POSITION IN NATIONAL

By United News.
here again a Boston club, largely composed of discards from New York is a menace to the fortunes and the peace of mind of the team that spurned them. The Yanks sent Bill Piercy, Jack Quinn and Alex Ferguson, all pitchers, to the Red Sox in various trades consummated during the long ownership of Harry Frazee. They also traded away a large number of miscellaneous players.

At the time the Yanks were concerned only with obtaining the big stars who had won pennants for the Red Sox and did not pause to consider that the men they were discharging might one day be used against them. The Red Sox used most of those players in subsequent trades with other clubs and they have finally brought together a team of experienced workmen who might win a pennant.

McGraw says however, that he thinks the Cubs are the strongest opposition to his Giants that he has had the misfortune to meet.

The New York Giants, pushed into third as a result of a disastrous tour through the west, shoved off their lethargy and won the final game of a series with the Pirates in Pittsburgh 10 to 8.

Despite this victory their standing was not improved.

As a result of the day's operations Chicago leads the league by half a game with Cincinnati in second place, the same distance ahead of New York.

In St. Louis, the Cardinals beat the Braves 8 to 5, despite a five run Boston rally in the ninth. Boston's defeat broke a tie for fourth place with Brooklyn and sent the Braves sprawling into fifth.

Rain in the American League prevented all but one game. The Red Sox captured one of them from the Tigers in Boston 5 to 4 and advanced to a game of first place which is held by the Yanks.

MAN SHOTS TWO AND ATTEMPTS OWN LIFE

By United News.
LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 21.—An Enoch Arden romance that grew from the wreckage of the world war ended in tragedy on one of Los Angeles main streets Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Milligan, a bride of two days, was shot to death and William Milligan a world war veteran, was probably fatally wounded by Ike Hico, 34, who won Mrs. Milligan's heart when she thought her first love had died in France.

The strange tale that runs like fiction began in 1907 when Edith Blake and Wm. Milligan were married. It was a happy marriage and when war came Milligan went to France with the American forces.

Several months later he was reported "killed in action."

His wife grieved for a year and then came Hico. They were married. But Hico had a romance in the "old country" and his American wife had the marriage annulled when she learned of the other woman.

Then Milligan, released from a German prison camp at the end of the war, found her after a nation wide search. They were remarried last Monday. The shooting Wednesday resulted.

Milligan and Hico are both dying. Hico from self-inflicted wound. The dead woman was known throughout the country for radio entertainment broadcast from a local station.

Hico's love for his former wife is said to have become a mad hatred when she married the war veteran. He had threatened her life several times in the last few days when she refused to return to him, police said.

According to Milligan's story of the shooting, Hico had called at their apartment in the morning and asked to see the couple "on important business." He became abusive at Mrs. Milligan's excuses, Milligan said. Going to the telephone, the veteran shouted "we will see you tonight and not before."

STRIBLING-WALKER BOUT RULED OUT IN KANSAS

By United News.
TOPEKA, Kans., May 21.—Willie Stribling, the Macon, Ga., school boy, isn't going to be given the opportunity to push over Hugh Walker, who has a peculiar canvas dive all of his own origination, during the shrine celebration in Kansas City.

Because of Missouri laws, which bar prize fights, it had been arranged that Walker should demonstrate his dive with Stribling as an opponent in Kansas City, Kans., on June 3. Governor Jonathan M. Davis, however, heard of the plans and notified authorities to prevent the knuckle argument.

PLAYER-WRITER TENNIS ROW LEADING TO PERSONAL TIFF

By United News.
NEW YORK, May 21.—The national tennis row over the player-writer rule now shows signs of developing into a personal tiff between Wm. Tilden and the executives of the game who favor the rule.

An organization called the Bill Tilden Fairplay society had addressed a questionnaire to George Wightman, president of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, President Witecomb Waring chairman of the amateur rules committee and Julian Myrick, chairman of the Davis Cup committee, insinuating that the rule was passed in order to persecute Tilden.

The questionnaire inquires into the personal relations between Tilden and those who have been opposing him and asks if these relations have not been influenced by those in control.

There is a kicker at the end of the communication containing the first direct threat of the Tilden element to organize a new group composed of players who will make rules to suit themselves.

News for 10 million women

Old ideas of oil stove service swept aside by new and improved Blue Chimney New Perfection—faster cooking, greater economy, new conveniences—moderately priced.

To ten million homes without gas—and to other millions where gas rates are high—this improved oil stove brings a new conception of cooking comfort.

To the trouble-proof dependability that has made the New Perfection world-famous, is now added even quicker heat and greater fuel economy.

It lightens kitchen cares and gives women more free time! The higher, roomier top and extra shelf space are step-saving conveniences. The new straight-leg design is sturdy, compact, easily cleaned.

At your dealers you will find styles and sizes ranging from $7.25 to $125.00, to suit every requirement—each one the utmost in cooking satisfaction at its price.

New Blue Chimney Burner
Faster—More Economical

The remarkable increase in cooking heat and the greater fuel economy of this new burner, are due to its new double-wall, double-draft construction. The picture above shows how the EXTRA volume of air drawn in through the small holes around the chimney, is converted into an ADDED ring of intense cooking heat. This quicker cooking cuts down fuel consumption.

Sweetwater Gypsum Plant Opened For Business Tues.

SWEETWATER, Texas, May 21.—Today the final unit—a Sheetrock wallboard mill of the $1,000,000 plant of the United States Gypsum Company here, began operating. This marked the completion of an industrial establishment begun last August, which will employ 150 men and will produce at a daily rate of 400 tons of plaster and 150,000 square feet of "fireproof lumber." Situated in the heart of one of the most extensive gypsum deposits in America, it will develop on a great scale another of the State's natural sources of wealth.

From 150 to 250 men have new industry constantly during the last eight months. Construction has been rushed and completion reached a month ahead of schedule. The first unit, the rock-crusher, was finished two months ago and on March 21 the first large shipment of gypsum rock went to the Portland Cement Company, for use in the manufacture of cement. The second unit, consisting of the crushing, calcining and mixing plants went into operation April 1.

Need for quicker and more economical service in gypsum building materials in regions where wood lumber is scarce was the primary factor determining the location of this industry here. Another factor was the opportunity presented by the Texas gypsum deposits which, at this point, are equal in quality to the best in the United States and are estimated to be of sufficient extent to supply the construction industry of the tier country, at the present rate of consumption, with gypsum plasters, wallboard, sheathing, floor-roof, and partition-tile for the next 100 years.

Responding to this need and this opportunity, the United States Gypsum Company began prospecting several years ago and in 1920 purchased 1,000 acres of land three miles east of this city. It also has received in fee some 800 acres and holds under lease several hundred acres more.

These lands are located 220 miles west of Fort Worth on the main lines of the Texas & Pacific and the Santa Fe railroads. They also are within easy access of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient and other transportation systems. These facilities make possible several advantages to building materials dealers, contractors, architects and owners, not only in Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, El Paso, Galveston and Houston, but also in all the smaller communities throughout the state. Centrally located, the new plant will be able to supply gypsum consumers by the shortest possible freight-hauls, reducing transportation-costs and assuring speedy delivery.

Quarrying already is under way on the property adjoining the mill; mining will be resorted to later, for there is a second vein of gypsum underlying the sandstone stratum which forms the present bottom of the quarries. From these two forms of gypsum are obtainable at low costs; Gypsite, or gypsum earth, which contains a percentage of clay and from which dark plaster—haired, fibred and plain—is manufactured; and Gypsum, the pure white calcium sulphate rock, which is worked into Sheetrock wallboard, Textone wall-decorator, Gyp-Lap fireproof sheathing and the finest plasters for wall-finishes, for dental and orthopedic surgery and for use in the moulding of pottery, in modelling sculpture and in the manufacture of glass. The presence here of both forms of the mineral makes possible the manufacture of scores of commodities including "land plaster" or gypsum fertilizer.

In expensiveness, volume and value of output, and modernity, Sweetwater's new industrial establishment is one of the leaders in this part of the state. Compared with other gypsum factories, it is the most up-to-date and efficient in America. It is fireproof and permanent throughout, constructed entirely of concrete and steel. It is run by electricity generated by two immense turbine engines in its own power plant. Oil from the Texas field is used in heating and generating power as well as in calcining process. Though the mill now is considered by its builders to be complete, additional units for the manufacture of gypsum roofing materials will be constructed in the future.

OSTEOPATH SAYS MAN IS AS OLD AS HIS ARTERIES
DALLAS, Texas, May 21.—A man is as old as his arteries. This was the message broadcast to a "race suffering with high blood pressure" by Dr. J. D. Hathorn during the convention here of Texas osteopaths.

"High blood pressure is as purely an American disease as baseball and stud poker are American sports," the doctor declared. "The majority of our public men die of high blood pressure before they reach 70 while European men are rarely troubled with it."

SPOILED by filthy flies!

FILTHY and vicious germs are swarming over the food a fly has just left. They infest the milk a fly has touched. You can't see them with your eye. But a microscope would show them to you in all their death dealing power.

Food touched by a single fly is spoiled! Throw it away. Better still, get rid of flies. This is the only way to be sure that the food you have prepared is clean.

Fly-Flu will do this for you. Spray a room with Fly-Flu and all germ carrying insects are finished! Papers, powders, swatters and other preparations kill some flies. Fly-Flu, properly used, kills all the flies and other insects.

BAND MEN WILL MEET SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Roy Borden and Rolley Brown experienced musicians and band men, have called a meeting of all band men of Lubbock which will be held in the Armory building Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at which time plans for organizing a band will be discussed and necessary provision made for assembling a number of instruments.

It is the opinion of these musicians that there are now enough experienced band men in Lubbock to compose a live organization, and with Messrs. Brown and Borden in charge an organization of the first class is possible.

There is no arguing the necessity of a band here and the business men of Lubbock will in all probability welcome any opportunity to contribute to the success of a good band.

This institution wants to help you and will pay 4 per cent on your savings.
