Legion To Hold Memorial Services Here Today

PROGRAM TO BE HELD 5 O'CLOCK ON COURT LAWN

COL. MULLICAN TO DELIVER PRINCIPAL ADDRESS; FLOWERS WANTED

The final plans for the Allen Brothers Post of the American Legion Memorial Services are completed and the public is invited to assist the ex-service men of Lubbock in suitably observing this day.

The program will be held on the court house lawn at 5 o'clock. The street between Main and Broadway on Avenue I will be roped off for the occasion and every provision is being made for taking care of from 5,000 to 8,000 people.

Of utmost importance is the call that is hereby made for flowers with which to decorate the graves of the heroes of America's past war. Last year the floral offerings were hardly large enough to suitably decorate the more than 30 graves in the local cemetery. Cars will be stationed on the Avenue west of the court house lawn from 4 until after the program to receive the flowers that are brought down for the use of the Legion in decorating the graves and every mother and home in Lubbock is urged to be generous in their contribution of flowers of all kinds for this occasion.

Program Will be Short
Those in charge promise that only a very short program will be rendered on account of the inability of the committee to arrange for seats for the great crowds that are expected to attend. The National Guard Unit will participate in the ceremonies as will uniformed ex-service men of the late World War, the Spanish War, the Civil War and their friends. Ex-service men are invited to wear uniforms, but are urged to attend and take part whether in uniform or not.

District Judge Clark M. Mullican will deliver the principal address, and will have a memorial message that it will be worth your time to hear.

Such program as will be rendered this afternoon is not to be heard at one's will, and to miss the opportunity to join with the other people of Lubbock in fittingly commemorating the deeds of the heroes of the late war would not be in keeping with the spirit of '17 and in order that everyone might attend this service, all stores in the city will be closed at 3 o'clock this afternoon and will not be opened again today.

Special cars have been arranged.

FAKE CALL AIDS KANSAS BANK ROBBERY

By United News.
ARKANSAS CITY, Kana., May 29.—After putting a fake murder call to police, four masked men robbed the Security National bank here of $15,000 in cash late Thursday afternoon.

The bandits entered the bank just before closing time. One held the customers at bay at the point of a revolver while the remaining three scooped up the cash and escaped.

Police returning from the outskirts of the city where they had rushed to investigate the "murder" learned of the bank robbery and organized a posse but the bandits were not located.

WIFE OF FERGUSON FILES APPLICATION AS CANDIDATE FOR GOV.

WACO, Texas, May 29. (UN)—Mrs. James E. Ferguson, of Temple, Texas, Thursday, filed with Joseph Hale, secretary of state, democratic executive committee, her application as candidate for governor. The application of former Governor Ferguson was filed with Secretary Hale some time ago. The eligibility of Ferguson is being questioned in the courts.

The former governor stated when announcing for governor, that if the state committee refused to put his name on the ticket that he would have his wife make application. She did the same thing two years ago, but when the committee allowed Ferguson's name to be printed on the official ballot, Mrs. Ferguson's name was withdrawn.

AGED MAN KILLED BY TRAIN AT MAGNOLIA

HOUSTON, May 29.—E. L. Arnold, 86, was killed when struck by a train Thursday near the station at Magnolia.

The aged man, according to witnesses, was walking down the tracks with a bouquet of flowers, the train blew the whistle, but Arnold, slightly deaf, apparently did not hear. He was knocked down by the train and both of his legs were cut off below the knees.

An heroic attempt of W. J. Gayle, station agent at Magnolia, saved Arnold from being ground to pieces beneath the wheels of the train, but was unsuccessful in saving his life. Arnold was living at Magnolia with his son-in-law, O. P. Perkins. He was formerly in the lumber business.

SENSATIONAL DISCLOSURES OF DETECTIVE MAY OPEN FURTHER INQUIRY INTO HIGH OFFICIALDOM

WASHINGTON, May 29. (UN)—Saving his big scene until the last, Gaston B. Means, the famous detective and investigator, made a sensational "farewell" appearance before the Senate Daugherty investigating committee Tuesday, declaring under oath that:

LEGION ISSUES CALL FOR FLOWERS

Those having cut flowers that they wish to contribute to the supply with which to decorate the graves of service men, will confer a favor upon Allen Brothers Post, American Legion, by delivering them to the Hines Motor Company, where Ansel Hines will take charge of them and see that they are delivered to the cemetery.

It is requested that the flowers be delivered before 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Those having flowers to contribute to the supply, but who do not have a way to deliver them to Mr. Hines, can have them delivered phoning Homer L. Pharr, Legion Commander, phone No. 296.

OIL TANKS FIRED BY ELECTRIC STORMS

By United News.
HOUSTON, Texas, May 29.—During a severe electrical storm here lightning struck and set fire to the Magnolia Petroleum Company's storage warehouse.

The bolt of lightning struck a tank of oil in the building at 9:30 Thursday night and flames spread rapidly through the building. Following the outbreak of the fire a series of explosions occurred by other tanks filled with oil.

Four 35,000 gallon tanks of gasoline, a string of eighteen to twenty oil cars on sidings in the yard, and unknown quantities of other oil in tin cans in the warehouse are burning.

For a while, the entire east end of the city appeared to be menaced but shortly before midnight firemen were confident that the flames could be confined to the warehouse and yards of the petroleum company.

No estimate of the losses has been made but the amount will reach into several hundred thousand dollars at least.

DECISION IN K. K. K. OUSTER SUIT POSTPONED IN KAN.

By United News.
TOPEKA, Kan., May 29.—Final arguments in the suit of the state to oust the Ku Klux Klan will not be heard until the October term of court, the state supreme court decided Thursday. This means that there will be no decision in the case until after the November general elections, it was generally believed here.

The order of the high court, although it had not been unexpected caused considerable comment in official circles in view of the strenuous fight staged by attorney general C. B. Griffith on the masked organization.

Huge Gift Made to France

By United News.
PARIS, France, May 29.—Premier Poincare has accepted a gift of $1,000,000 from John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to be used for the restoration of the roof of the Rheims Cathedral, the chateau gardens, and fountains at the Palace of Versailles and the gardens at Fontainebleau.

1.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge aided a New York firm in obtaining export permits for whiskey which was later bootlegged back into the states.

2.—The National Association for the protection of American Rights in Mexico employed Japanese officers and furnished Japanese arms and ammunition for Mexican revolutionaries.

3.—He (Means) investigated Henry Ford for President Harding upon orders from Jess Smith, who told him to find out what was behind Ford's attack on the Jews.

4.—Smith also ordered him to investigate General C. E. Sawyer, white house physician. Gray Silver, representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation and one of the powers behind the farm bloc which caused Harding so much trouble in congress, a mysterious Mrs. Cross and several others.

5.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon entered into an agreement with "Red" Sheldon, New York bootlegger, by which liquor permits were to be issued in return for contributions for the republican national committee's deficit. Fred Uppham, treasurer of the republican national committee and Senator Bursum of New Mexico were said by Means to have been in the deal.

6.—The bomb which wrecked the home of Attorney General Mitchell Palmer in the closing days of the Wilson administration was a "frame up."

Means opened up so many sensational lines of new inquiry that plans for dismissing him were dropped and the committee ordered him to re-appear for cross examination Saturday.

Means was expected to return to New York in a few days for trial on charges of conspiracy to violate the liquor laws, but his sensational charges may hold him here longer. Every question brought new startling statements tumbling out in a low, casual tone, each answer opening up another surprise.

Mellon Connections Discussed

Means dwelt at length with his charges regarding Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and his alleged connection with certain liquor interests. He also attempted to link up the Mellon banking interests in Pittsburgh with financial operations involving bootleggers. His testimony probably will furnish several leads which will be followed by the separate prohibition investigation to be conducted by the Couzens commission investigating the internal revenue bureau. Means linked the famous case of LaMontague Brothers, who were sentenced to jail in New York for violation of the prohibition law with democratic and republican administrations Means said.

"They were sore because they were under protection and thought they were not getting what they had paid for."

The real story was obtained in a confession from one of the concern's employes Means said.

"What was the connection between Red Sheldon and the republican national committee?" Wheeler asked.

"He was to withdraw liquor and charge about $20 or $30 a case," Means said. "The funds were to be used to wipe out the deficit of the republican national committee. Mellon first admitted this to H. L. Seafie, (former department of justice investigator) but later denied it."

Means told how he came to in-

REASONS FOR GOING FISHING

Some go fishing just for fish— That is sport for market men, Let them have it, if they wish, Bait their hooks and cast again. I'm a fisherman who goes Out upon the lake or stream Seeking fish, but goodness knows! Glad to catch a passing dream.

I can glory in the day Whether big ones bite or not, Steal my bait or get away, Let me find a lovely spot Where the sunbeams race and dance And the birds of summer sing, And I'll give my soul a chance High above the world to wing.

I can lie out there and dream, Glad if I can catch a thought Of the wise Creator's scheme And the marvels He has wrought Fish, of course, it's sport to net, But there is so much to see That I never sigh or fret When good luck won't favor me.

Some go fishing just for fish— I go fishing, if you please, Glad to hear the willows swish And the murmur of the breeze; I go out to hear the streams Laughing as they race along, Giving up my soul to dreams, Touched with beauty and with song.

Old Party Heads Fear Strength Of Progressives

By United Press
By Raymond Clapper, U. N. Staff Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, May 28.—The uneasiness of Republican and Democratic party managers has been materially aggravated by the announcement of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin that an independent progressive movement will be launched unless the two old parties "clean up."
The appearance of a LaFollette movement in the coming campaign would upset a good many calculations and have a far reaching effect, the full scope of which cannot be foreseen at this time.

Senator LaFollette, who is resting at Atlantic City, has not said whether he would consent to become an independent candidate, but most party leaders here assume that if any independent movement of national scope is promoted, the Wisconsin senator will be its leader because his ability and prestige are universally admitted to be unequalled in the progressive group. Many efforts have been made by old party managers to find out what LaFollette intended to do, but the first authentic statement of his attitude appeared in a letter written to an old friend, Herman L. Ekern, attorney general of Wisconsin, in which he repudiated the communist flavor in the farmer-labor-progressive convention to be held at St. Paul June 17. He refused to support this convention and advised his friends to withdraw from it because communists have been admitted as delegates.

"Communists are antagonistic to the progressive cause and their only purpose in joining such a movement is to disrupt it," LaFollette said in his letter.

His views regarding the function of progressives at this time can be stated best in his own words:

"There is no doubt that the people have come to understand that private monopoly controls the official machinery of both the democratic and republican parties. Recent public scandals, such as the war frauds, the shipping board, Teapot Dome and other oil leases, the veterans bureau, the alien property custodian, the degradation of the department of justice under both democratic and republican administrations, and the endless fraud and corruption in connection with taxation and prohibition enforcement are but evidences of such control of party machinery by lawless and predatory interests.

"The approaching democratic and republican conventions will demonstrate to the people whether either of those parties can and will purge itself of the evil influences which have long dominated them. This cannot be accomplished by merely re-nominating some alleged progressive and filling the platform with misleading promises. It demands the downfall of the corrupt political elimination of monopoly control, bosses, the adoption of truly progressive principles and the repudiation of those great campaign contributors who have in the past bought up both parties.

"If this is not done, a long suffering and righteously indignant people will find in the coming campaign effective means, independent of both these old parties to take back control of their government and make it truly representative."

Republicans, set on nominating Coolidge, an avowed conservative, will find it impossible to meet La

Follette's conditions. Democrats would have thrown out Brennan and Taggart. Some Democrats have argued that if McAdoo is nominated, LaFollette would not run, preferring that progressives strength all should go to McAdoo rather than be divided with himself. But this statement makes it clear that the Democrats will have to do more than put up a progressive candidate to prevent an independent movement. LaFollette says no party can purge itself by nominating "some alleged progressive," and filling its platform with misleading promises. To most of Washington it looks as if the Wisconsin senator is about to reach the climax of a long, sometimes discouraging, fight. He labored to build up the progressive movement in 1912, only to see Roosevelt come dashing out of the heart of Africa to run away with the progressives and then smash up on the rocks. LaFollette never approved of Roosevelt's third party venture and his predictions of early disaster were borne out in two years time.

When the Harding administration moved in, LaFollette saw that the conservative forces of the party were in complete control. The regulars held congress in a tight grip. But conditions soon began to swing around in his direction. The 1923 congressional elections not only returned a number of in-urgent republicans to the house and senate but they cut down the republican majority so that both parties were evenly divided in the two houses, giving his own handful of loyal followers the balance of power.

Now LaFollette sees an opportunity to build a similar balance bloc in the nation. He is not thinking of the coming election alone; he is thinking of elections that will take place long after he is gone. His vision encompasses a great bloc of independent progressive voters, tied to ideas of honest efficient popular government rather to a party label which may mean one set of principles now and another set later.

Barring a complete collapse of one of the older parties an independent movement could hardly hope to win a majority in the coming presidential election. But it might do one of these things:

1. It might split the Republican vote so completely that a Democrat would be elected. That is what happened in 1912.

2. It might carry just enough states to prevent either old party obtaining a majority in the electoral college, in which case the house would ballot by states from the three highest candidates, a majority to decide. It happens that the house is so evenly divided that the LaFollette controlled state delegates would hold the balance of power.

POPPY SALE TO BE CONDUCTED THIS A. M.

The Allen Brothers Post American Legion officers are highly elated over the success of the poppy sale which was conducted here yesterday.

Due to the fact that sales were first reported placed the number of poppies, H. H. Griffith, who has charge of the sale, said that the young ladies who were selling the poppies quit work at three o'clock Thursday afternoon and sales will be conducted again this morning.

The people of Lubbock responded well to the sale, and the fact that the entire supply of poppies have not been sold is not due to any unwillingness of purchasers but because the entire town has not been worked as yet, and it is probable that this morning's sale will bring the total receipts to somewhere about the two hundred dollar mark.

NEW TRIAL SOUGHT BY ATTORNEYS FOR WHITEHEAD

Attorneys Bledsoe and Pharr and H. R. Bishop, representing H. G. Whitehead in the case of the state of Texas vs. H. G. Whitehead, who is charged with swindling in connection with an alleged real estate deal, presented a motion for a new trial in the 72nd Judicial District Court here this morning.

The jury in the case returned a verdict of guilty and assessed the defendant's punishment at five years in the penitentiary and the defense attorneys are making an effort to reverse this decision.

The jurors were questioned on Thursday in an effort by the defense attorneys to find in what manner they had arrived at their decision.

At least sixty bills of exception were presented by the defense in the hearing Tuesday.

The motion carried eighteen bills of exception on the court's charge, and was one of the most voluminous dockets handled by the court this term. The hearing will not be completed until late today.

B. M. Mitchell, of Crosbyton, was in Lubbock Thursday, attending to business.

PRETTY WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT ST. PAUL'S

A pretty and quiet church wedding was solemnized Thursday morning at eleven o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal church, when Miss Margaret Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Robbins of 1604 Avenue Q, and Mr. Jack Jernigan were married, with Rev. J. M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church performing the ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate family and friends.

The church was prettily decorated in blush pink roses and fern. The bride was charming in an orchid frock trimmed in lace, with hutch to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She is very popular in social circles of the city and is a graduate of the literary and music department of the Lubbock High school and a student of the University of Redlands California. She has been a member of the Lubbock school faculty for the past term.

Mr. Jernigan has for the past year been local manager of the Jones Contracting Company, of Dallas, during which time he has very successfully carried on the work in the development of the city. His congenial manners and capable business ability has made for him a host of friends who regret his departure from their midst.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Abilene where they will visit a sister of the groom and Mineral Wells, where they will spend a few days, then they will go to Fort Worth where they will make their home temporarily where Mr. Jernigan will continue his work with the company.

Circle One of Auxiliary is Hostess.

The Baptist ladies auxiliary met Monday afternoon in the church parlor with Circle One as hostess. A very interesting Missionary program was rendered with Mrs. R. W. Helm as leader. The devotional was led by Mrs. Wilhelm, followed by prayer by Mrs. Carnes. A piano solo by Fern Gunn was well rendered and greatly appreciated, also the vocal duet by Mary and Martha Matthews. At the close refreshments of cream and cake were served to about forty-five ladies.

Arnett-Givins.

Miss Kate Mildred Arnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Arnett of Ralls, and Mr. Sam Givins were married Saturday evening at nine o'clock at the home of the bride; aunt Mrs. W. D. Arnett of the South Spade ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Givins will make their future home in Floydada.

CHAUTAUQUA IS WELL OVER THE GUARANTEE QUOTA

Announcement was made Thursday morning that the local committee is already well over the required guarantee of $1,500 and with three of the biggest programs of the week yet to come. Season tickets were called in Thursday morning leaving only Commutation tickets and single admission tickets to be had. The season ticket, with reserved seat, gave Lubbock folks the entire week's program for only twenty-five cents each. The commutation—with which you get ten admissions either in a party, in groups or as you want to use them for $3.00—were in great demand Wednesday night.

The three big programs for the rest of the week are as named above: Chas. Taggart "The Country Fiddler" Wit and Philosopher of Victor Record fame for Thursday night; The Gilbert's all American band for Friday afternoon and night. And Dr. Ellis, following the Marionettes Saturday night. Each of these programs are worth the total cost of a season ticket—but a commutation Ticket will admit a family of three to each program for only $3.00.

ASSEMBLY TURNS TABLES ON LEADERS

(By The Rev. Hiram W. Foulkes. Written for the United News. Copyright 1924 by United News.)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 29.—The Presbyterian general assembly in its concluding session turned the tables completely upon those who had been in control and registered an overwhelming verdict for the progressives and middle-of-the-roaders. The board of foreign missions, which had been under fire on account of alleged heretical teachings, was applauded by the commissioners when a member told the assembly board raised $5,000,000 during the year for work in 15 countries.

The overturning, which sent the moderates home with a victory perched on their banners came when the assembly accepted the decision of the judicial commission in the Fosdick case. This decision while deprecating some of the opinions held by Dr. Fosdick, declared that the way to deal with an anomalous situation was to invite Dr. Fosdick to enter the Presbyterian ministry upon the basis of a cordial acceptance of standards. Dr. Fosdick therefore instead of being pushed out of the church, is invited to come in. The judicial commission also by a sweeping decision declared unconstitutional the Philadelphia Presbytery's overtures which would have made all employed church officers sign the "five points." The commission declared that the so-called test was the standard of judgment of the leaders of the Presbyterian church is that a great constitutional victory was secured at the hands of a general assembly, many of whose members were elected to defeat the action of those they finally overwhelmingly approved.

THE VISIT OF THE SANTA FE OFFICIALS.

The visit of the officials of the Santa Fe to this section of the country, will in all probability be of more than passing interest...

A number of departments were represented in the delegation that came. In fact, nearly every department head was here...

The colonization department is one of the most important, and Mr. Seagraves, who is the head of that department, with headquarters at Chicago, is vitally interested in the colonization of the South Plains...

The industrial department was spoken of by Mr. Burton, who is enthusiastic over the great possibilities of this section along industrial lines...

Mr. Gallaher spoke briefly of the reason for making the trip, and stated that it was done so that each department would see conditions as they actually existed...

Each speaker spoke urgently regarding the development of diversified farming, dairying, poultry raising, etc. They stated that in all of their experience in the development work that they found that this was the most successful...

They reason upon the theory that it is better to have a small farm and paid for, than a thousand acres with a mortgage on eight or nine hundred acres of it.

EUROPE'S EMIGRANTS.

The fact that 58 nations sent representatives to the conference on emigration and immigration at Home shows, that the question is of practically world-wide importance...

three times as many Italian immigrants as the United States and no longer ago than 1912 Argentina received 165,000 Italians in that year.

GERMANY IS WORKING BACK INTO WAR COUNCILS.

A so-called Turkish council of war will be held in Angora on June 5 which will be attended by Germans whose advice concerning Turkish international relations will probably be followed.

The council of war will be a conference on strategy not to consider starting another conflict, but to determine how the Turks may use their military strength to increase their prestige in Asia Minor.

In eastern Asia Minor, the Russians and Turks have broken their recent friendship. The Russian bolshevik movement, which was favorably considered by the Turks for a while, has no longer any influence at Angora.

The Russians want a dominating political position in eastern Asia Minor which the Turks refuse to grant them. Russia veiled threats of hostilities have been made; but they are without value at the present time.

In western Asia Minor, at the other extreme of the Turkish boundary, the Turks and the French are developing antagonisms concerning Syria border matters. There have been several brawls between the Turks and the French...

The Turkish government sees the possibility of regaining possession of Syria by a continually increasing pressure of public opinion within Syria and by threats of an invasion across the Syrian border by Turkish troops.

The French have only three divisions of troops in Syria. The Turks could easily overwhelm this body, as they overwhelmed the Greeks, but France has resources which the Angora authorities are reluctant to encounter.

The Angora council of war will consider the Syrian question and will draw up strategic plans to meet eventual conditions which may show the possibility of winning back the lost area.

Magnus Johnson recently reminded the Senate that he, James Couzens and Frank R. Gooding of Idaho, are the only "immigrant boys" in the upper house.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States has rendered a decision which defines the provisions of law as it relates to the fundamentals of property rights.

Declaration that he stood for an American navy not only equal to any other but a dominating one "along lines not restricted by mutual agreement" was made in an address here by Curtis D. Wilbur, Secretary of the navy, before the Republican women of the District of Columbia.

MARKETS

CALL MONEY IS LOWEST IN 2 YEARS

By EDWARD CONDLON (UN Financial Editor) NEW YORK May 29.—There was no change of pace in Thursday's pre-holiday market and dealings were within a shade of the Tuesday totals which were virtually the lowest of the year.

As it was the fall in Money rates enabled the industrial issues to finish steady to firm though the railroad shares averaged about 3-8 lower.

The weekly statement of the New York federal reserve bank which is released for publication Friday, shows a sharp increase in bills purchased in the open market which is due, in part, to the sudden snap up to 4 1-2 per cent in call money this week.

The drop in the ratio to 82.7 per cent this week from 83.7 last week for the reserve system as a whole, is due, on the one hand, to a sharp increase in government deposits with the system, and on the other, to loss of gold held by the member banks.

The slowness of transactions in the stock market on Thursday did not throttle trading in bonds. The quick sale of the $35,000,000 B & O sixes and the $7,344,000 Gulf Coast line 5 1-2s is line with the reports from banking houses of late the investors are in the market for high grade securities in quantities with a marked preference for seasoned railroad issues.

RAIN HALTS PLAY AGAIN IN MAJORS

Falling rain drops gesticulated defiantly in the sullen faces of the weather-beaten baseball magnates Thursday and relinquished another flock of games to be stored up for bargain doubleheaders at a later date. Games in Washington, Philadelphia, Cleveland, and New York, were all wiped out by the general moisture.

Only three performances—two in the National and one in the American escaped. The Cubs profited slightly in consequence for no rain fell in Chicago where they defeated the Pirates 5 to 2, and gained a half lap on the idle Giants of first place.

The other National League game involved two of the more humble clubs. These were the Phillies and Braves who fought it out in Boston. The Braves won five to four, and gained a tie for fourth place with the Dodgers.

George Siler's Browns lost to the Tigers in the only American league game which was played in Detroit. The score was 13 to 7.

ARENA IS READY FOR GIBBONS FIGHT SAT.

MICHIGAN CITY, May 29.—The big arena enclosing the ring where Georges Carpentier will meet Tom Gibbons Saturday afternoon was finished Thursday. State and municipal officers at once commenced testing the big lumber bowl and pronounced it safe. The seating capacity will be about 40,000, according to Jack Curley who seems to have become one of the promoters besides acting as Carpentier's business representative.

Carpentier and Gibbons both took a little light exercise Thursday and rested the remainder of the day. The Frenchman motored along the lake front for miles and slept after he returned.

Gibbons played golf, posed for pictures, punched the bag and boxed a little with Sammy Mandell. Asked what he thought about Gibbons, Carpentier smiled and said: "Tough, tough—only tough." Georges had seen a movie taken during the Gibbons Dempsey will at Shelby Montana, and he watched

U. S. SOCCER TEAM DEFEATED BY URUGUAY

By United News.
PARIS, May 29.—The Uruguayan soccer football team took a running kick at the hopes of the United States in their match at Bergyne Stadium Thursday afternoon and booted them for three goals.

The final score of a fierce but friendly game was Uruguay 33, United States 0.

When it appeared certain that chance to win the match and remain in the soccer team of the Olympic games as a contender for the championship, the crowd of 20,000 people which filled the stadium was charitable enough to give the Americans an occasional cheer.

These rang with a strange and unaccustomed sound on the ears of the Americans who had in mind the unfriendly noises which assailed the American Rugby team recently, and therefore expected nothing more kindly than non-committal silence from the Frenchmen.

However, the crowd did not lose its head over the Americans and its loudest approval was served to the Uruguayans. This contrast was particularly noticeable just before the game when the Americans got a sort of tin whistle cheer which might pass for a good greeting and the team from the lower continent received an ovation as loud as massed bands. The Americans were outclassed in the science and skill of the game from start to finish but they braced in the second half and put the bullet proof defense on even if they did not make any sustained threat against the South American goal. The South Americans scored all their goals in the first half.

Scarone, of Uruguay, scored the first goal within ten minutes after the start. Another goal was shot and there were other threats against the American goal in the first 15 minutes of action which indicates how the Uruguayans kept the ball in the American's zone. The American team was the heavier and the men had to be in fine condition to make the fight they did. But weight and power and daring were of no use except on the defensive when matched against the consummate skill of the Latin game at its best.

Douglas, the American goal, had the hardest job on the team and prevented the Uruguayans from running up a much larger score. He blocked two fine shots from Scarone early in the second half and frequently went to his knees to block fast boots which came like cannon balls from all angles. Wells and Stradan charged the South American stronghold in the second half but when the Uruguayan defense swung into action, they were easily stopped.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 29.—The vanguard of a host of racing fans was pouring into Indianapolis Thursday night for the annual 500 mile Memorial race at the Indianapolis motor speedway tomorrow.

From nearly every state in the union, the throng came by automobile, interurban and train. Special trains were on their way from a dozen mid-western cities, while long lines of automobiles jammed the highway leading into Indianapolis.

Speedway officials were preparing to handle a crowd of from 150,000 to 160,000, the largest throng that ever saw a race on the Indianapolis track.

STANFORD FAVORITE IN INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 29.—With more than 900 athletes, representing 30 eastern and three California colleges, on edge and ready to begin their assault on existing records, the forty eighth annual intercollegiate track and field championships will get under way at the Harvard stadium Friday and end Saturday. The far west which has reigned supreme for three years, is again picked to win the title. This time, however, Leland Stanford, instead of the University of California, a three time winner, will enter the meet a big favorite.

Thirty points, according to track experts, will win the championship and the Stanford team is believed more than strong enough to get them. Other teams expected to figure prominently in the scoring are Princeton, Pennsylvania, Yale, Boston College, Cornell, Dartmouth, Johns Hopkins, University of California and University of Southern California.

IDLALOU TO MEET LOCAL BUSINESS COLLEGE TODAY

The baseball squad of the Lubbock Business College will meet Idalou on the local lot this afternoon, it was stated late Thursday by Manager Witt, of the local institution.

These clubs recently met at Idalou, at which time the college squad suffered a heavy defeat, but since that time the knowledge seekers have been working out almost daily, and a great improvement has been noted in their play.

The game will be called about 3:30 at the Merrill park, Mr. Witt stated.

BALKAN BLAST DISASTROUS IS REPORT

LONDON, May 29.—Balkan dispatches give increasingly serious reports of the tragedy at Bucharest where a tremendous explosion of ammunition dumps rocked the city. No further direct word has been received from the Rumanian capital since news of the explosion but messages coming by round-about ways are causing anxiety.

Neither Queen Mary of Rumania, who is visiting here nor the Bulgarian legation have received any word from Bucharest and the continued silence of the Rumanian capital is regarded as ominous.

Some dispatches state that Rumania will require years to recover from the effects of the disaster, but these messages cannot be confirmed here.

Edith Kelly, former American dancer, lost her fight for half the $40,000 estate of Frank Gould, her former husband, courts in Versailles, France, holding they had no jurisdiction because Gould's legal residence is in America. Mrs. Harry Jackson, daughter of a Los Angeles, Cal., man, is under arrest in New York, charged with being the accomplice of her husband, Harry Jackson, alias Lesser, in robbing Mrs. Howard Johnson, wife of the musical comedy writer, of $9,000 worth of diamonds after they had lured her to a New York City hotel. Judge George W. Oivany, of New York, is said to be slated to be leader of Tammany Hall, following Surrogate James Foley's sudden refusal to accept the place made vacant by the death of Charles Francis Murphy. After she had been lured from her New York apartment by a fake telephone call that her husband was seriously ill, Lora Soderstrom entered it and stole $30,000 worth of jewels from Lora Soderstrom, noted actress.

CHARGE FATHER WITH MURDER OF FAMILY

WAXAHACHIE, Texas, May 29.—Following the death of Annie Murray, age two years, whose skull was crushed with an axe, county attorney Martin today declared that they would file murder charges against her father. Roy Murray, son of Mrs. Murray, his wife are both in a sanitarium critically injured by razor and axe wounds. The boy is suffering from a fractured skull by a blow from an axe. When they were found in their home they were all unconscious and Murry had revived sufficiently to blame the attack on two negroes. Authorities discredit the story and will proceed to place charges against Murry for the crime, unless more light is thrown on the case very soon.

BELL REPORTS IMPROVEMENT IN CATTLE

By United News. EL PASO, Texas, May 29.—There has been great improvement in beef cattle shipments from this territory to California, according to Lee Bell, inspector of the Southwestern Cattle Raisers association. The foot and mouth disease caused a slump in the market, but improved conditions have also increased the demand. The cattle have to be butchered forty eight hours after arriving by a licensed slaughter house. Seventeen carloads of cattle were recently shipped from Sonora, Mexico, ranges into the interior. Nogales, Ariz., was the shipping point.

Funds have not been collected in a sufficient amount to proceed with the building and it is delayed on that account as the directors are operating on the pay as they go plan. If you have not done your part toward the erection of this home, send your subscription to the secretary at once and it will be received with great appreciation. Lubbock's portion of this fund was fixed at $10,000. A great many have subscribed cheerfully. There are many people who have not been seen in the interest of this home and it is almost impossible to see each one individually. We are about to begin a campaign away from Lubbock, but are anxious for Lubbock to do her part first. Send a subscription in some amount even if it is to be paid later.

In accordance with a law requiring standardization of one-room and consolidated schools, West Virginia's board of education has defined two classes of consolidated schools, "purely consolidated" and "semi-consolidated." Under these definitions a purely consolidated school is one formed by the centralizing of two or more schools in different communities so that the newly formed school has an increased number of teachers, each responsible for fewer grades than before. If the number of teachers is not increased, the centralized school is known as semi-consolidated.

AN APPEAL TO THE LUBBOCK METHODIST

Just talking to one of the committee of the arrangements for taking care of the delegates Northwest Texas League Conference, and just want to say to our dear Methodist people that we have invited these young people here and they are coming, expecting to be cared for and Lubbock has always done those things in a big way, but I have been informed that the town has been worked over and only about half enough places secured. I suggested to the committee that we go right back over the ground and ask those that have taken delegates, to double up some way, and take more, and ask those that are laying out on the job to arrange to care for these delegates. I hope you all realize what Christian education means to our young

PREMIER HURLS ENTIRE FAMILY CHALLENGE AT BRITAIN

By United News.
LONDON, May 29.—Challenging the opposition to oust the labor government if they thought a change would benefit Europe and England, Premier MacDonald made a strong defense of his regime in the house of commons Thursday when conservatives made a drive to discredit the laborites.

MacDonald's defense came in the course of debate on a measure which would determine whether the labor government would remain in office or whether the country would face a general election.

By way of showing disapproval of the labor unemployment policy, conservatives had introduced a motion to reduce the salary of Tom Shaw, minister of labor. It was known that the passage of the motion would be regarded as a serious government defeat.

Late Thursday it appeared that the government would be victorious for H. H. Asquith liberal leader had declared in the debate that the labor government was "to give the government a little more time" to work out employment schemes. It was still possible, however, that the group of liberals backing Lloyd George would vote against the government.

Sir Robert Horne, former chancellor of the exchequer, led the conservative attack on the laborites.

"The government is in office today solely because of election promises which have been falsified utterly in practice," he declared. "The country is entitled to know the government's actual policy, not its pretended policy."

MacDonald, answering the conservatives, dubbed their attacks as "merely political tub thumping."

"On the question of pledges why should I not confess we were innocent regarding the difficulties of office?" he asked.

"Things which seemed very simple to carry out became very complicated when we became members of the cabinet and responsible for them."

He declared that labor's policy on unemployment was work—and failing that maintenance.

"If the opposition think that a change of government and a general election will benefit Europe and England, let them defeat the government tonight," he said.

"In their own hearts, they know the charges are unfounded. Every one knows that this motion is a vote of censure against the minister of labor and of lack of confidence in the government."

Later, in the debate, Sir Robert Horne returned to the attack, charging that the labor party "told the country that they have shown neither initiative nor understanding."

"And government that content itself with providing maintenance ought to be condemned," he said. "Parliament must bend its energies to providing work."

ENTIRE FAMILY BURNED IS BELIEF

By United News.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 30.—An entire family of five is believed to have been annihilated here shortly before 1 a. m. Friday when a gas explosion wrecked their home.

Fire followed the blast and firemen and rescuers were unable to penetrate the smoke and flames to search for the bodies, believed to be in the debris.

Neighbors said a Greek family moved into the house two weeks ago and earlier in the night lights were seen there.

The blast rocked the entire vicinity and brought men and women to the street clad in their night-clothing. Windows in nearby houses were broken.

Firemen concentrated their efforts on saving adjoining homes, when it was evident that the one house was doomed.

investigate Mellon's affairs, "President Harding was alarmed at the liquor situation," Means said, "and he ordered me to investigate withdrawals. I first went to New York and then to Pittsburgh."

"The big bootleggers are the bankers of this country. The daddies of them all are the Mellon banks and the Chatham bank of New York. The evidence in that investigation led to the very top."

Charge Re-Volt Fomented. Means discussed his investigation of the National Association for Protection of American Rights in Mexico. He stated that E. L. Doheny was one of the leading spirits in the organization, which was created to "foment revolution in Mexico if necessary."

Harry Lane Wilson, formerly American minister of Mexico was on the administrations payroll he said.

Means testified that he located a trunk in Washington hotel filled with data regarding revolutionary plots, but that he was suspended soon after he obtained that information. About this time Richard C. Cole, oil man and representative of the association gave a dinner to senators and officials here.

Means also investigated the activities of the American Federation of Labor and others active in bringing the impeachment charges against Harry M. Daugherty in the house nearly two years ago.

Arrest Expected In Los Angeles. LOS ANGELES, May 29.—Arrest of a man suspected of connection with the death in Chicago of Robert Franks, 13 year old boy was expected to be made by the sheriff here Thursday night.

The man under surveillance has been in seclusion in a small town near here and is said to be an uncle of the murdered lad. Outcome of the alleged confession of a Chicago druggist in Louisville, Ky., was being awaited by local officers.

No Evidence Against Heath. CHICAGO, Ill., May 29.—Chicago police, after a brief investigation Thursday night announced they had uncovered no evidence tending to connect Charles F. Heath, held at Louisville, Ky., with the kidnapping and murder of 14-year old Robert Franks here. Mrs. Heath was questioned by representatives of the states attorneys office Thursday and after she left it was said that she was unable to throw any light on the case and was puzzled over reports from the Kentucky city linking her husband's name with the Franks investigation.

Five Boys Enter Suicidal Compact. PONTIAC, Mich., May 29.—One 15-year-old boy swallowed poison and died, another 14, took a sip of poison and spit it out, while three other youths failed to carry out their suicidal intentions after all five had entered into a pact to kill themselves here Thursday.

Joseph Muse, who died was the originator of the pact, the other boys said.

Gerald Hale, took a sip of the poison, spit the liquid out, and ran to his mother. It was through her the authorities in the local high school learned of strange arrangements under which five young students, all apparently in the best of health, and having no urgent motive to impel them to wish to die, did not think life was longer worth living.

The whole city was startled when news of the suicide pact leaked out through the police. The names of the other three boys have not been disclosed.

According to young Hale, Muse talked over with the other four and reprimand which had been issued to them Thursday by a high-school teacher. Then Muse formulated an oath and had them both swear that they would kill themselves, Hale said. Muse obtained a bottle of poison, according to Hale, drank a portion of it, and fell dead soon afterwards. Hale's turn was next, but his heart failed him when he took one sip. The other three boys fled.

"You'll find Joe dead," Hale said to his mother. "He was never afraid of anything and he will enjoy his new experience."

TRUNK MURDER PROCEEDINGS POSTPONED

By United News.
LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 29.—Looking weak and pale, Mrs. Margaret Willis appeared in Judge Crail's court here Thursday and won a plea for a postponement of her trial for the "trunk murder" until Monday morning. The request for the delay was not opposed by the state.

The broken woman looked many years older as she walked into the court room leaning on the arm of her boy, whom she affectionately calls "Sunny." Following her collapse Wednesday under the rapid fire testimony of the prosecution witnesses she has seemed to have completely recovered her features.

Sonny and Bert Webster, the accused woman's carpenter sweet-heart, are no longer the friends they were when the trial started. Before the murder of Dr. Baldwin the two were almost inseparable and even after the trial started and the lad's mother intimated that Webster had killed Baldwin, the two remained good friends. But Thursday when the carpenter tried to talk with the boy he turned and walked away in anger. He said that Webster had "fibbed" on the stand against his mother.

Attorney Hahn, chief counsel for Mrs. Willis, announced after the delay was granted that he will renew his fight to have Mrs. Willis released on bond pending the outcome of her trial. He said he was ready to post $10,000 security which had been supplied by friends.

JUDGE GRANTS NEW TRIAL TO WOMAN

By United News.
WINFIELD, Kans., May 29.—Convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of her husband, C. E. Cummings, in Arkansas City, last November, Mrs. Ida Cummings Thursday was granted the right to a new trial and released on $10,000 bond. Judge Fuller, who granted the request for a new trial said he based his decision on new evidence uncovered in the case. The new evidence, according to reports, is believed to be the testimony of Eugene E. Leach, former "star boarder" in the Cummings home, who said he killed Cummings in self defense.

Leach had refused to testify in the trial of Mrs. Cummings.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK WINS IN LITIGATION

By United News.
EL PASO, Texas, May 29.—Judge W. R. Smith in United States district court here decided in favor of the federal reserve bank of Dallas, El Paso branch in a complaint, by the city of Douglas, Ariz., seeking to collect $5,000 on a check that had been deposited for collection in the First National Bank of Douglas. The complaint alleged that through delay, carelessness and roundabout way in which the collection was attempted, the bank at Wilcox, Arizona had failed and the collection was not made.

The Day the Flag Means Most

The Nation's flag is its spirit. It stands for all achievements that we hold so proudly. There can be no higher symbol of respect for the graves of our heroes than the flag.

But the flag should be more than a symbol. It should be the expression of our present patriotism—of a firm resolve to uphold the standards for which the Nation's emblem stands.

Let the flag bear a promise of "Carry On" in recognition of services rendered to us by the heroes of whom we are so proud.
