PROSPECTS NEVER BETTER FOR A BUMPER COTTON CROP ON THE PLAINS AND FEED IS ALSO GOOD

Unless unexpected hindrances to retard the growth of the cotton crop in this section of the plains are experienced, this section will in all probability produce the greatest crop in its history, according to pioneer farmers.

While the rainfall has been described as being spotted, the local showers which were received throughout the first of this month were more effective than it was first believed they could be, and as most of the fields are clean of weeds the crops appear as though every ounce of moisture is being utilized by the growing plants.

John King, who was one of the first farmers to move to the Littlefield section, is farming one thousand and nine acres this year, nine hundred acres of which is in cotton and it is making remarkable growth at this time. Heavy rains were received in that section just lately and many of the farmers declare they will make from three-fourths to a bale of cotton per acre with but little more rain.

A survey of the crops in the Lubbock vicinity shows that while they are not as advanced as in some sections where more rain was received, most of the farmers have cultivated their crops intensively and have given them every possible showing. This is, of course, not the case with the less advanced sections.

Due to the fact that the names of the state candidates were not certified by the Secretary of State, a place will be left blank on the ballots where the voters of that county may write the names of the candidates whom they wish to vote for.

Mr. Winder stated that the heaviest rains which were received in that county recently have put the crops in fine shape and that prospects are for bumper cotton and feed crops.

The county officials of Cochran county who have actually served less than two months in their respective offices, are making the race for reelection on July 25th.

Keen interest in county and state politics is being shown by the citizenship of Cochran county according to Mr. Winder.

GOV. BRYAN IS GIVEN SCORING LA FOLLETTE

By United News.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Fighting Bob LaFollette's readers here waited until Charles W. Bryan, governor of Nebraska alighted from a train Sunday to include him in an attack on all old party lines and their candidates.

Smiling and plainly elated over the fact that the democratic party nominated him for the vice-presidency, Bryan jumped off the train almost into the arms of George E. Brennan, Illinois democratic leader.

Bryan was pleased when reporters surrounded him and commenced firing broadsides of questions.

"Well, they haven't nominated me yet. And I can't talk about something that has not happened. I have been informed that some one proposed placing my name on the third party ticket alongside that of Senator LaFollette. But I am a democrat and a progressive."

Just then the governor announced that he had brought along a quantity of folders bearing his picture and advising the readers to support him for the presidential nomination.

Asked whether W. J. Bryan, his famous brother, would assist him in the campaign the governor replied: "Undoubtedly, he will play an active part in the campaign."

Governor Bryan remained in Chicago until six p. m. He caught a Northwestern train for Nebraska and home, explaining that he was hastening there to fight "the oil crowd."

"I intend to break up that oil crowd and force prices down," the governor said.

"They have been taking advantage of my absence but when I get back some things are going to happen."

Parents Do Not Have Right To Chain Children

By United News.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Police Captain Wm. Stapleton and juvenile court agents are planning to teach Joseph Svarik, forty, the father of five children, that keeping of them in chains for running away is a form of discipline not countenanced in the United States.

A policeman who had been told by neighbors that Joseph, Jr., ten, was being kept tied up in the Svarik home went to the place and found the lad in chains, and summoned Captain Stapleton.

The police compelled the father to unchain his son. Then they took Joseph, senior, to the station and held him on a charge of disorderly conduct. The boy was removed to the juvenile home.

NEWSPAPERS AND THEIR PART IN THE ELECTIONS IN TEXAS, AS WELL AS THE UNITED STATES.

As little as one thinks about the newspapers as factors in the political campaigns of this state, they have a great influence, and most of the information in newspapers is given from an unbiased source, and in an unprejudiced manner.

This year, the elections are of possibly more importance, more significant, more spectacular than any in the history of the country.

Our popular form of government possesses an educated, at least a thoroughly intelligent electorate. The perpetuity of Democracy depends upon the ability of the people to manage their own affairs and the people cannot so manage their government if they are not well informed about it and its problems.

Few citizens have ever stopped to think how impossible the practical workings of Democracy would be in a far flung republic of 110,000,000 like ours, without the educating and informing service of the daily and weekly newspapers.

In our own Texas a candidate for the governorship, or any other high office, cannot hope to meet more than a small fraction of the voters who must pass up on his qualifications for office.

While the Avalanche is Democratic, the editor never voted anything else than a Democratic ticket, and we are willing to be ruled by the wishes of the majority at home (our wife) or abroad.

In connection with the education campaign among the candidates of the Democratic party, we are presenting in the Weekly Avalanche and the Sunday morning Avalanche, a complete ticket as it will appear at the primary July 26th, which we urge that each voter, man and woman, study and inform themselves on between now and the primary election date.

Be prepared to vote intelligently. If you are not acquainted with the men on the ticket, ask your neighbor, and keep on asking till you get a line on them, so that you can vote for the men that are best suited for the position for the position. Vote for men who are qualified. Put good, clean men in office, and put broad minded men in the important places of the state, county or precincts, for all offices are important in their sphere, and are worthy of your careful consideration.

Lieutenant Col. Sir Broderick Hartwell, the "gentleman" run-runner, claims to have delivered five cargoes to boats from our coast already this year and to have 32,000 cases of liquor ready for his July shipment.

PEOPLE DO NOT HAVE RESPECT FOR THE PUSSYFOOTER.

Pussyfooting in the United States is becoming one of the national pastimes for politicians, in fact, for some time this has been the case, and it is becoming so universal that even the smallest little office seeker has gotten in the habit of pussy-footing till it is hard to find out where a fellow stands.

It would seem that the late world war brought on so many things that were shady in their complexion that a lot of covering up seemed necessary by the hundreds, yes thousands who were implicated in them.

It has come to be practiced so much that even some of our favorite sons, and real prominent men, who have been recognized as national leaders have lost the respect of the public to a great degree.

Their campaign will point to the establishment of the republican administration of the intermediate credit banks and of the continuation of aid through the war finance corporation to farmers and stockmen.

The nation is starving for men of backbone who are willing to express their convictions at any time, in any place and back them up.

One does not necessarily have to be hard boiled, but firmness, frankness, good old solid sense and deep, well grounded convictions, expressed in a way that gets the attention of people and holds their confidence is what will count, and our country must get back to this, if we hold the respect of other nations.

The average selling price of a used automobile in 1923 was $308, according to the National Automobile Dealers Association. The total sale of used cars for eleven months, from January 1 to December 1, 1923, was 3,091,440.

FARMER WILL BE CENTER COMING CAMPAIGN

The farmer has complained himself into campaign prominence it is becoming apparent here as the three movements are getting up steam.

The independent movement headed by LaFollette grew largely out of agricultural discontent, and therefore his major campaign will center in agricultural states, though his managers, of course, are planning to fight vigorously in every state.

PRETTY NINTH INNING RALLY FALLS SHORT AND LOCAL AMATEURS DEFEAT CROSBYTON SUNDAY AFTERNOON 8-5

Although outbit by Crosbyton here Sunday afternoon 12 to 8, the local lads drove steadily, making hits mean runs, and nosed out the visiting lads 8 to 5. Crosbyton staged a pretty rally in the ninth inning, six runs behind, driving out five singles, lead by Elder, pinch hitting for Crump, who sent a ringing three bagger to the right field wall, but could not overcome the lead taken by Lubbock in the earlier stages of the exhibition. Terry was off of his regular form, and was hit hard throughout the exhibition, but tightened in the pinch, and by good support by his teammates, pulled out of several holes none the worse for his experience. Howard, the visiting lads, delivered a beautiful game, holding the locals to eight bingles, one of which was a home run by Karr with two men aboard. This came in the fourth inning after Jones had been hit and Sanders singled, Karr drove a "blue darter" to the left field wall, which threatened to break through the boards but bounded lightly over the top, for the first court of the local nine. Again in the fifth, Jackson, leading off, dug on down the first base line, beating it out; Hensley sacrificed and in the shuffle Jackson reached third; Blackmon doubled, scoring Jackson; and took third on a passed ball; Jones walked; then Sanders drove one to deep right for a sacrifice fly, scoring Blackmon; Karr reach first on an error by Lynch, scoring Jones. In the sixth, Allen reached second when Geoffrey overthrew first on his grounder; Terry went out to center field; Jackson grounded out to first, advancing Allen, and the skipper scored on Hensley's single over second. In the seventh another was counted when Karr tripped and scored on Dunday's single. Crosbyton began counting in the second when Lynch doubled and scored on Keith's single. In the fourth Keith's single drove in another, after Ausmus had doubled. This was the total of the visitors' counting until the ninth, when Elder, hitting for Crump, drove a pretty triple to the right center field, and opened a rally which threatened to tie the count. Elder squeezed Geoffrey, following which Geoffrey, Theford and White singled in succession, scoring Theford; Ausmus went out on a fly to second for the second out, Howard then singled to left field, scoring Mitchell, but on an attempt to score from second on the hit, White was cut off from the plate and run down at third base, retiring the side. TENNIS TAKES SPOTLIGHT IN OLYMPIC CONTESTS FOLLOWING AMERICA'S ALMOST OVERWHELMING TRIUMPH ON CINDER PATH

PARIS, July 14.—Following the triumph of America in track and field sports of the Olympic games, the athletic activities in other lines of athletic endeavor which made up Monday's program were in the nature of an anti-climax. There was rowing, fencing, tennis, wrestling, swimming, and basket-ball in scattered sectors. The tennis tournament is the most important struggle going on from the American point of view, but the matches thus far may be regarded as preliminaries. Miss Helen Wills advanced by the default of Miss Marnet of Spain and will meet Mrs. Satterthwaite of England Tuesday. Mrs. Satterthwaite won from Miss Fozzini, of Italy by another default. Miss Lillian Scherman of Brooklyn was put out of the tournament by Miss Alvarez, the star of the Spanish women's team, 6-2, 6-0, and was the first American casualty of the tournament. Incidentally, the Echo des Sports reports that Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen of France, who defaulted her Wimbledon and Olympic titles on account of ill health, played tennis Sunday at the private courts of Frank Gould. "So evidently she is now very sick," says the Echo. Mrs. Molla Mallory, former American champion now playing for her native country, Norway, defeated Mrs. Vaussard, of France 6-2, 6-3. In the men's matches, R. N. Williams and Watson Washburn eliminated Kirchmeyer and Gonz, of Hungary 6-1, 6-0, 6-0. Vincent Richards and Francis Hunter took a default from Mischus and Stern of Roumania. Williams beat Hadi, of Indiana 6-0, 6-2, 6-1, in a singles match. Hunter sidetracked Bortal of the Argentine 6-3, 6-2, 6-1. In the wrestling tournament Bob in Reed of the Oregon Aggies won the featherweight championship by flopping Charles Newton, of Portland, who was rated the runner up. Naitch, of Japan, was third. Lookabot of the United States won the welterweight title by defeating Gehri of Switzerland but there was another popular row by the crowd against this decision and Greh himself raised a few howls. He made formal protest and the championship therefore is under a cloud. Pine, of the United States, was third in the bantam class. Vice of the United States won the lightweight title beating Vickstrom of Finland. Hines of the United States was third in the bantam class. Garret Gilmore, of Philadelphia, defeated P. Beresford, the worlds champion single sculler and holder of the diamond scull, in the third heat of the championship rowing races. The boxing begins Tuesday. Egan of the United States, formerly a Yale man but now studying in England will be the favorite for the light heavyweight.

TILDEN DOWNS LOS ANGELES MAN IN SINGLES FINALS

ST. LOUIS, July 4.—Playing his usual tennis, Big Bill Tilden defeated Harvey Snodgrass of Los Angeles Monday in the singles final of the National Clay court tennis tournaments and staked down for another year the play court singles titles. Tilden took three straight sets, 6-2, 6-1, and 6-1. Snodgrass was hopelessly outclassed from the first. He could not play the net against the big Philadelphia and repeatedly drove Tilden's smashes over the base line. Snodgrass played the first two sets from the back court. He played the front court in the third set, but Tilden's crosses ran him to exhaustion. Tilden won so quickly that he averaged 12 minutes to each of the three sets. The champion scored 29 game points to Snodgrass' 18 in the first set; 27 to 15 in the second, and 29 to 15 in the third. After a brief rest, Tilden grabbed his racquet and Sandy Weiner, 17 year old protege from Philadelphia took on the national clay court doubles champions Howard and Robert Kinsey, San Francisco, in the final of that event. Weiner gave Tilden great support at the start of the match, and it was partly due to Tilden's errors that the Kinseys won the first set 6-4. The score was 4 all and on Tilden served he missed two smashes, served a double fault and popped a volley into the net, losing the game. Howard Kinsey then served and Tilden and his protege were unable to break through. The Kinsey brothers took the second set 7-5, after a hard battle, Tilden and Weiner went into the lead whereupon the westerners concentrated their attack upon Weiner who was unable to cope with their aggressive fire. The brothers duced (Continued on page 7)

MAYOR FRIEND TO DRIVE FIRST BALL FOR FORMAL OPENING FIRST ANNUAL MUNICIPAL GOLF TOURNAMENT TODAY

Everything is ready and the opening gong will sound at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when Mayor Friend's drive will formally open the first annual golf tournament on the municipal links, according to an announcement made by J. O. Smith president of the Golf Association. The list of entries which had not been completed at a late hour last night, is very varied, as it includes men who have been long at the game, and those who are yet to get their first big surprise. Paramount among the features of the contest will be the beginners tournament, which is expected to be the best card that will be offered. This contest is open to all members of the organization, regardless of whether or not he has ever had a golf club in his hand with restrictions, of course, against the man who has been long at the game. This tournament is the forerunner of what it is believed will develop into an inter-city affair, as several towns around have clubs, or are planning organization of one. Idaho has recently completed an organization, and is fast rounding her course out into good shape. Taboka has a club of enthusiastic golf hounds; Post claims one of the best clubs in this part of the state, and it is understood that Balls and Crosbyton are now contemplating organizing for play. Interest in the coming tournament is running high, and those who have not yet entered and expect to compete are urged to get in touch with President Smith at once, as he desires to complete all entries at the earliest moment possible.

Precious hours—every one—what are you doing with them? Working—playing—sleeping, of course, but how about SAVING? Are you making each day count in building a 'Reserve Fund'—a fund that will make future hopes possible? If not, start NOW, and let The Coin Controlled Clock help you. Let it make saving simple and certain for YOU as it has for thousands of others. The Coin Clock does just that. It establishes the savings habit even before you know it! It compels one to save something every single day, but does it in a way that makes it enjoyable. This attractive desk clock keeps excellent time for twenty-four hours before rewinding is necessary. Then, before it can be rewound, a coin must be inserted. Opening a Savings Account with this bank secures it. Security State Bank & Trust Co. 'Wants to Help those who Try'"
