Second Trip Fair Boosters Scheduled for Thursday

GOOD WILL TOUR TAKE BOOSTERS ON SOUTH ROUTE

FRIENDSHIP CARAVAN TO CARRY MESSAGE OF SOUTH PLAINS FAIR

When the Friendship Caravan gathers at the court house lawn at seven o'clock Thursday morning to depart promptly at seven-thirty o'clock on a trip to the south, one of the jolliest delegations of local people that ever attempted to leave home together will compose the group.

Pepped up by the success of their first trip which was made to the towns immediately east of Lubbock the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce are determined to make this Friendship Caravan reach to even a greater number of people than were met on the other trip, and they realize that to do this some real work must be done and every man, woman and child in the city who can possibly make the trip must go.

Those who have signed up to take their cars or to go without cars will work additional hardship and incur disappointment to the members of the trade trip committee of the junior organization who have given liberally of their time and energy to the end that the South Plains Fair might be given every bit of boost it is possible and would in a manner reflect ill upon the citizenship's loyalty to the young business men composing this organization who are endeavoring to tender a service to their community that will make it a better place in which to live, and to make its possibilities and advantages known elsewhere.

If you have signed an agreement to make the trip, do not fail to go along. You will have a good time. Judge Neil of Brownfield has already made arrangements to put on a huge watermelon feast upon our arrival there, and a good dinner will be spread at Lamesa which, with appetites whetted by the long open air ride, will be worth the whole trip.

Judge Neil is one of the big boosters for the South Plains Fair and Brownfield has never failed to be here with an exhibit, and a good one at that so let's go there in good numbers as to assure those good people that we are for them and appreciate their co-operation in making the fair bigger and better than ever.

MOTORSHIP SINKS WITH HEAVY LUMBER CARGO

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 16.—The Italian motorship Isotta loaded with 750,000 feet of lumber caught fire and sank in the Sabine-Neches ship canal near here Tuesday. The loss has not been estimated. No lives were lost.

The circulation department was kept busy yesterday enrolling names of parties wishing to send out extra copies of the Industrial Edition.

We have been requested by several organizations to extend the time one day longer for receiving orders for extra copies. The time for extra copies will absolutely expire at 6:00 p. m. today.

The following parties have today added their names to the list for extra copies of the Industrial Edition of the Morning Avalanche: W. E. Ballew, R. T. Burns, Lubbock Auto Co., Mrs. Hugh Taylor, Geo. E. Benson, H. W. Broughton, Mrs. W. H. Bledsoe, Joe Penny, Mr. Green, Mrs. R. Barkham, E. L. Nooy, Harold Griffith, Harry Hall, Mrs. Perkins, Busy Bee Cafe, Mrs. Idlewis, Roy Allen, Mrs. C. B. Cook, Mr. Arneti, Sudan, Texas; Amos M. Frazier, Lubbock State Bank, Mrs. W. Henton and Mrs. J. R. B. Cooper.

Yours truly,
Circulation Manager.

BODY OF SLAIN MAN FOUND ON ROADSIDE NEAR WICHITA FALLS

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 16.—Sprawled across a narrow lane off the Burk Burnett road, eight miles north of Wichita Falls, the body of a man was found Tuesday with two bullet holes in his body. A laundry check made out to J. B. Watson was the only clue to identification.

The slain man's pistol, which had not been fired, lay at his side. There were no marks on the body indicating a struggle.

STAPP IS HELD WITHOUT BOND

CASE IS BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY FOR ACTION IN JANUARY MEETING

YOKUM, Texas, Sept. 16.—Following his examining trial held Monday Will L. Stapp charged with the brutal slaying of Sam H. Lewis aged farmer near Terryville, Monday was refused bond because of his alleged mental condition. Stapp in an alleged confession to the authorities said in substance that he killed Lewis with an eye early Monday morning then piled wood on the body and burned it. He stated he killed Lewis because of some alleged wrong, which authorities believe fanciful.

Mr. Lewis was well known in this community having lived here a number of years. Exact details have been hard to obtain owing to the fact that there was no eye witness to the crime.

LABOR MAY NOT ENDORSE WALTON IN OKLAHOMA

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 16.—Friends of J. C. "Iron Jack" Walton democratic candidate for the United States senate met with disappointment here today at the first session of the Oklahoma state federation of labor when a resolutions committee was selected whose members are said to be antagonistic toward labor supporting any candidate for elective office.

Although a number of delegates are known to favor open endorsement of Walton and have threatened to carry the fight to the floor of the convention, it is considered unlikely that the convention will favor the endorsement of any candidate.

SALE OF SEASON TICKETS TO FAIR WILL OPEN SOON

PRICE OF TICKETS TO BE SAME AS LAST YEAR IS AGREEMENT

The sale of season tickets for the fair will open the first of next week and every loyal Lubbock citizen will be asked to buy tickets for the entire family.

The price of season tickets this year will be the same as last, namely $2.50 for adults and $1.00 for children.

Season tickets are good day or night every day of the fair and entitle the holder to enter and leave the fair grounds whenever they care to.

This being the case the tickets effect quite a saving and should be purchased by everyone contemplating attending the fair at all regularly.

Other admission and ticket prices will be as follows:

Single admission, night or day, adult, 50 cents.
Single admission, night or day, child, 25 cents.
Exhibitor's season ticket, (1 to each exhibitor), $1.50.
Child's exhibitor's season ticket, (1 to each club-member exhibiting), 50 cents.

Automobile admission, 25 cents. In regard to the automobile admission, fair officials announce that while an admission will be charged on early Monday morning they plan to park all cars systematically and that every convenience and protection will be afforded.

It was found necessary this year to make a small charge for cars for the safety of patrons, as the South Plains fair has grown to such an extent that it has become extremely dangerous to allow cars to be driven inside the fair grounds—proper where the exhibits, shows, and concession are.

There were a number of minor accidents and few near serious ones last year, and the officials felt that the patrons were entitled to the protection the new arrangement will give them this year.

INDIAN RAIDERS ARE IDENTIFIED AS YAQUI TRIBE

DEMING, N. M., Sept. 16.—The band of Indians who have been raiding cattle herds along the Mexican border in New Mexico and which were dispersed by a posse of cattlemen, have been identified as Yaquis. Ray Wilker who has a ranch near Animas, New Mexico, said the Yaquis did not harm any of the white settlers, but are believed to be responsible for the disappearance of several Mexican residents in the vicinity. The well known hatred of the Yaqui for the Mexican is believed responsible for this.

The raiders were dispersed by a posse of 25 men headed by Sheriff Oscar Allen, of Hidalgo, Thomas Clayton, manager of the U-bar ranch and Thomas Berkeley, foreman of the Hatcheta Land and Cattle Company.

INDIANA SENATOR SAYS REPUBLICANS WILL WIN

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 16.—Senator James E. Watson, of Indiana, in a speech yesterday which opened the fall campaign in Oklahoma, declared Coolidge and Davies would be easy victors in the November elections.

"From the time the republican party was organized," Watson declared, "it has been overwhelmingly in the majority."

"Only a few times has a chance been made and then it was a case of dispute over issues of the day."

Watson sees little menace in LaFollette for the regular G. O. P., but considers the Wisconsin senator's strength more threatening in some sections than that of John W. Davis.

TWO BOYS ATTACKED BY FLOCK OF CROWS TAKE REFUGE IN BARN

WATERLOO, Ia., Sept. 16.—Carl Fleming, of this city, and a boy companion were forced to take refuge in a farm house to save their eyesight when attacked near here Tuesday by an immense flock of crows.

The boys had shot the leader of the birds which was chasing a chicken hawk. After using all their ammunition the boys clubbed their guns to keep the maddened crows away from their heads.

The infuriated flock followed the hunters to the door of their refuge and flew about for an hour afterward. Neither boy was hurt. They say the crows sought to peck their eyes out.

WILBUR CALLED IN TO GO TO WORK IS EXPLANATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Secretary of the Navy Wilbur was summoned to Washington because President Coolidge thought he was gallivanting around the country, doing too much talking and not enough work.

This is the real explanation of the white house explanation and the speaking tour in the far west. It is obtained from one who knew all of the inside facts in the incident. The white house explanation that Wilbur was recalled to discuss departmental matters and the budget was prompted by a charitable desire to shield Wilbur from as much embarrassment as possible.

There is no thought of asking for the secretary's resignation. He was Coolidge's first cabinet choice. Filling the first vacancy that occurred after the death of President Harding. Personal relations between the Coolidges and the Wilburs are most cordial.

MAN ENTERS CHARGE MEAN TREATMENT ON CITY FARM

HOUSTON, Sept. 15.—D. C. Spencer, Jr., 23, charged today that he was brutally kicked and beaten on the city farm, where he went voluntarily to cure himself of the morphine habit.

Sick from the lack of the drug, Spencer tried to run away after he had been at the farm a day. He charges that Captain R. W. Connor caught him and kicked him and made him work with the convicted men.

"We aren't running a hospital on those who eat have got to work" he says Connor told him.

A guard beat him with a leather strap the next day, he says and his mother declares that when she visited him five days later his back was raw, bruised, and almost bleeding.

Spencer was released Monday from his voluntary imprisonment on an appeal to city commissioners.

"On the day I was released," he charges, "I saw an old man 74 years old beaten by a guard."

CHILE OUSTS PRESIDENT AND AWAITS ITS EFFECT

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 16.—Having ousted her president, Chile is now waiting to see what the powers will say about it.

Interest now centers on the possible action of representatives of foreign countries, regarding the question of the recognition of the new regime here. Diplomats are awaiting advice from their governments before taking any action.

The Mexican minister declared Monday that his government had not advised him as to whether he would be withdrawn from Chile. This is considered as a hopeful sign.

FATHER LOCAL BUSINESS MEN DIED TUESDAY

J. L. ALEXANDER SUCCEUMS TO PARALYSIS; BE BURIED MENARD

Uncle Job L. Alexander, father of C. W. and J. E. Alexander, prominent business men of Lubbock, died at the home of J. C. here at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, September 16th.

The deceased was 83 years, 10 months and fourteen days of age at the time of his death.

Brief funeral services will be conducted at the home of J. C. Alexander 704 Avenue W at ten o'clock this morning by Rev. J. M. P. Morrow, pastor of the First Baptist church immediately following which the remains will be shipped to Menard where interment will be made at the graveside of his wife who died in 1904.

The deceased had led a active christian life and despite his age was in good health and very active until last Saturday when he was stricken suddenly with paralysis since which time he was in a semi-conscious condition until the time of his death.

He was born November 2, 1840, in South Carolina and came to Texas at the age of fifteen years and settled in Fannin county. He married at the age of twenty-seven to Miss Martha Jane Stewart, daughter of a South Carolina family who moved to Texas in the early days.

The couple moved to Menard county in 1862, where he lived until 1907 when he moved to the plains and bought a ranch in Coehran county, where he resided several years.

He moved to Lubbock three years ago and has made his home here since. He had traveled a great deal since that time, having spent most of the winter months in California visiting his children in that state.

He was a faithful member of the First Baptist church practically all of his life and lived and practiced his christianity.

The ranks of the Confederacy—the line to which new recruits cannot be called—was thinned at his going—he having served his country to the best of his ability and with the bravery that characterized the southern soldiery during the civil war.

Funeral services at Menard will be conducted by Rev. D. H. Palmer of New Mexico, who will arrive in Lubbock this morning to accompany the remains to that place. Rev. Palmer conducted the funeral services for the wife of the deceased in 1904, and arrangements are made to have the funeral services conducted by him at the very place that he conducted the funeral services of Mrs. Alexander.

Together with his sons of Lubbock, the deceased is survived by another son, Arthur Alexander, of Glendale, California, and two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Johnson, of Austin, Texas, and Mrs. A. B. Thomerson, of Redland, California. All the children were present when the end came, excepting Mrs. Thomerson, who on account of illness was unable to come to Lubbock when the news of the illness was given, and will not be able to attend the funeral.

He is survived also by one brother, Ben Alexander, of Lubbock and a sister, Mrs. Burk, of Oklahoma.

All members of his family who are here will accompany the remains to Menard and will attend the funeral services there.

ATTEMPT TO ROB OKLAHOMA BANK IS FRUSTRATED

VERA, Okla., Sept. 16.—A posse of citizens headed by Mrs. Mary Garlinghouse, cashier, frustrated an attempt to rob the Vera state bank here Tuesday.

Dan Morris, 28, a waiter, of Skiatook, was killed and Earl Roberts, 26, his companion was wounded in the gun battle with the posse.

Mrs. Garlinghouse disarmed Roberts after his arm had been broken by a rifle shot.

RESCUE WORK MINE EXPLOSION HAMPERED BY HARD RAIN STORM

KEMMERER, Wyo., Sept. 17.—The explosion which immediately brought to the residents of Sublet, seven miles from here, the realization that tragedy had stalked into their midst, occurred during a severe rain and thunder storm.

The storm was continuing tonight, and is handicapping rescue work as roads virtually are impassable, and it is difficult to transport rescue crews to the mine. Soon after word of the disaster was received here roads to the little mining community—of 500 souls were crowded with persons hurrying to the scene. Despite the torrent of rain, crowds of relatives of the trapped miners, many of them hysterical, congregated at the entrance of the mine, hoping their loved ones might be brought out alive, but fearing only their charred bodies would be found.

NEW PLAN GIVEN TO LEAGUE BODY

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—A new disarmament conference within a year after the adoption of the league of nations disarmament program is provided for in the preliminary draft of the league's proposed arbitration, security and disarmament project, based on the MacDonald-Herriot resolution. The draft was completed here Tuesday by Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia.

The project would be launched in the form of an interpretive protocol of the league covenant which all league of nations members would be asked to sign.

The essential feature of the plan is the principle of obligatory arbitration. Probably its stronger asset is the American inspired provision that an aggressor in any war be defined as a country refusing to submit to arbitration. When both parties to a conflict refuse to submit to arbitration the plan provides that both will be considered aggressors menacing the world's peace until the Hague court can establish responsibility from the quarrel. Only the Hague court and the league council are provided as arbitrating tribunals.

The draft provides that in the event of hostilities demilitarized zones will be organized by a league commission of military and civilian experts.

Similar commissions during the period of arbitration will see that the disputing parties do not mobilize or seek to increase their armaments.

Council decisions will be based on majority instead of unanimous vote.

Military, naval, aerial economies and financial sanctions are provided and each signatory power is to advise the league what forces it can contribute toward the enforcement of world peace. All signatory powers are to advise the league what forces it can contribute toward the enforcement of world peace.

All signatories must agree to participate in a disarmament conference within a year. It is expected that the draft will be modified in many details by the third league assembly, and also by the league commission and also by the league assembly, before its final adoption.

FT. WORTH BOY DIES OF INJURY IN FIST FIGHT

WEATHERFORD, Sept. 16.—Harry Rainey, 40, of Fort Worth died here Tuesday night from injuries received in a fist fight Saturday with Jim Crawford, a local jeweler.

Crawford was placed under $2,000 bond to answer a charge of murder.

THREE BODIES ARE LOCATED IN MINE WRECKAGE

OFFICIALS FEAR ENTIRE NUMBER OF ENTOMBED LOST THEIR LIVES

By United News. KEMMERER, Wyo., Sept. 16.—At midnight Tuesday twelve miners had been rescued alive from the No. 5 mine of the Kemmerer Coal company at Sublet Wyoming, where 47 miners were entombed by a terrific explosion a few minutes before noon today. The bodies of three miners have been located but have not been removed from the pit.

First reports were that eighty-one miners had been entombed by the explosion, but officials of the mining company, after checking up of their employment lists, declared there were but 47 men in the mine, the usual force of 200 or more men having been reduced while repairs were being made.

The dead miners are: WILLIAM HOOD, HARRY BENNETT, PAUL BAIN. All leave families.

Company officials fear that the majority of the men caught in the explosion lost their lives.

The explosions took place at 11:50 a. m. when the little town near the mine was rocked by a terrific blast. Flames and a huge cloud of black smoke shot from the mouth of the shaft. Then most of the persons in the little town of 600 souls rushed from their homes and places of business to start rescue work and get news about friends and relatives.

Storm Hampers Rescue Work Work of organizing rescue crews was carried on in the midst of a severe storm that had struck Sublet and vicinity shortly before the explosion.

Relatives of the imprisoned men crowded around the entrance to the mine tunnel in such numbers that rescue crews had difficulty getting into the place. Frantically citizens volunteered to form a chain guard around the mine entrance, and the crews started into the mine from which flames and smoke still were issuing.

A government mine rescue car arrived at Kemmerer from Trinidad, Colo., Tuesday night and another car was reported to be on the way from Butte, Mont.

Calls for assistance have been sent to nearby cities and additional rescue crews and equipment are expected here before the night is over.

The body of Elmon Richards, a miner, was the first to be brought to the surface exactly at 5 p. m. two and one half hours after first rescue parties entered the mine.

One miner who entered the tunnel a few minutes before the blast, was dragged to safety by members of the first rescue crew that went in. He was dazed from smoke and gas.

Wild Confusion Ensnared The rain and the crowds hastening to the mine over the one that runs there delayed facilities. The receipt of necessary rescue equipment and scenes of wild confusion attended the traffic jam between Kemmerer and Sublet. This jam continued through the night as hours after the explosion took place automobiles from numerous towns near here still were rushing would be rescuers and the curious towards the scene of the disaster.

Heart rending scenes are being enacted outside the entrance to the mine where wives, sweethearts, other relatives, and friends of the mine underground are waiting and watching. Women are fainting and going into hysterics. Children are running about, some of the smaller ones temporarily lost, terrified and crying.

L. H. ## APACHES REPORTED DRIFTING INTO MEXICO

By United News. EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 16.—Mexican military authorities and American customs officials are manifesting considerable interest in the reports that a band of Apaches believed to be descendants of the famous Indian chief Geronimo, have crossed the international boundary into Southern New Mexico. They are believed to be descendants of the Apache band that for years terrorized the southwest.

Reports from Animas, New Mexico, stated that cattlemen who had been disturbed by raids on their herds had scattered the band.

W. W. Carpenter, deputy customs collector said that the custom officers at Columbus, New Mexico, would be the ones to take the reported invasion in hand.

The band is reported to be stealing cattle and horses, and a posse has been put on the trail of the Apaches, report sto officials here state.

ATTACKERS BREAK DEFENSE LINE IN CHINA

By United Press.
 SHANGHAI, Sept. 16.—Smashing forward on the advance against Peking, the Manchurian hordes of Chang Tso Lin are pushing southward, victorious over the hastily reinforced troops of Wu Pei Fu who are attempting to block their path. The Manchurian war lords' second army captured Nan Liang Tuesday, driving the enemy back 25 miles in sharp fighting. The new gains leave the Tailing river entirely in the possession of Chang Tso Lin.

Chang himself is in personal command of the Mukden forces which are invading Chihli. These troops were locked Tuesday in sharp fighting with Wu Pei Fu's forces at Patuying east of Chaoyang. Chang was taking the offensive in the battle, throwing men into action in the hope of crushing the Wu army and capturing Chaoyang itself.

It has become evident that the main struggle of the civil war will center on the northern zone where Chang and Wu are now at grips. Peking leaders, who have remained passive in the face of the Shanghai fighting, are frantically struggling to create a force that can stem the rush of the Manchurian legions. The news that Sun Yat Sen, president of South China, has gone to the district dominated by Chang is causing anxiety there.

As outlined in previous dispatches military men believe that the first show-down in the campaign will come at Shanhai, on the great wall where the opposing armies now face each other. Chang if victorious, will push south along the railroad and attack Peking.

Meanwhile, however, sharp fighting continues outside this city. The Chi Hsi Hsuan forces began a strong offensive against Shanghai Tuesday afternoon, but at the hour of writing they had not made any gains.

During the night, the contending forces had waged an intense artillery duel 14 miles from the city. The noise of the guns was distinctly audible here. Wu Pei Fu, northern rebel leader, has sent 3,000 men to the Chi Hsi Hsuan

COLLEGE STATION SENIORS TO MILWAUKEE

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Sept. 16.—Six senior dairy husbandry students of the A. and M. College of Texas, accompanied by Professor A. L. Darnell as coach, are on their way to the National Dairy Show at Milwaukee, Wisconsin and to the Dairy Cattle Congress at Waterloo, Iowa, to participate in the college students' dairy cattle judging contest which will be held in connection with these national shows. They will make a number of stops in other states for practice judging work before reaching the scenes of the contests and will be away from the college about thirty days. To fit themselves for the contest they have been devoting full time to practice work at the college since September 1.

Members of the judging team are R. W. Wilson of McKinney, L. S. Moore of Comanche, Guy Powell of Red Oak, W. B. Orr of Dallas, W. R. Wurzbach of San Antonio, and T. T. Groat of College Station.

Stops enroute will be made at Dallas; Hutchinson, Kansas, for the Kansas State Fair; Lee Summit, Missouri; Des Moines, Iowa, where they will judge the cattle of former secretary E. T. Meredith; Iowa State College at Ames; Madison, Wisconsin; Waukesha county, Wisconsin, the most famous dairy section in the United States, and other places.

COOLIDGE GAINS IN MANY STATES IS REPORT

By United Press.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—There was nothing blue about this Monday for President Coolidge for he heard predictions of success in various states, hitherto regarded as doubtful from supporters who called at the White House.

Assuming these reports to be correct the president has picked up a new little bundle of 78 electoral votes to be added to his pile. His various visitors assured him that he would receive the following votes: California 13, Maryland 8, New York 45, Oregon 5, Washington 7.

Of course, the democrats may be expected to come forth Tuesday that this statement is all bunk—and it may be. Most political forecasters are. After the recent episode of the Maine election, an republican, expected defeat, explained in advance that the result would mean nothing and the democrats, expecting victory, explained to the contrary, nobody ought to take political forecasts very seriously but political prophesying is an old habit that dies hard.

The outlook in New York was presented by Representative Fairchild of that state who predicted Coolidge would poll a popular vote equal to that of Harding four years ago. That democrats fear some such contingency is evident from the unceasing efforts to force Al Smith into running for governor again. They haven't much hope of Davis carrying the state in his own, but they think Smith could save him.

Maryland was reported on by Senator Weller, republican who went in the Harding landslide four years ago. He gives the state to Coolidge on the assumption that while it is democratic in state elections, it is inclined to be republican in national contests. Due to a block of independent votes numbering 30,000 to 40,000 which holds the balance of power, in this group is a large number of conservative-businessmen who this year object to Bryan on the democratic ticket. J. Grant Hinkle, secretary of state for Washington, brought Pacific coast intelligence in large optimistic charges. He gives California, Oregon and Washington to the president. He heard plenty of LaFollette talk out there but regards it mostly as noise. He says representative democrats are

$460,602 NETTED SCHOOLS BY STATE

AUSTIN, Sept. 16.—Sale of 126 tracts of land of about 320 acres each out of the 57,000 acres recovered by the State in its suit against the Capitol Land Syndicate has netted the school fund $460,602, of which $11,515 was paid in cash and balance payable one to 49 years after date at 5 per cent interest, according to J. T. Robison, land commissioner, who conducted the sale.

The 57,000 acres, situated in Hartley and Dallam counties was subdivided into 176 tracts, nearly all of which were 320 acres each and all but 50 tracts have now been sold. The highest price paid for this land was $27.15 an acre, while some sold as low as $5 an acre.

This land was in excess of the 3,000,000 acres donated by the State nearly 40 year ago to the syndicate in payment for building the State Capitol.

CALIFORNIA MAY BAR LA FOLLETTE FROM THE BALLOT

By United Press.
 LOS ANGELES, Sept. 16.—The supreme court of California will, within the next few days, make known its decision as to whether names of LaFollette candidates for presidential electors shall be placed upon state ballots for the November election.

The question came before the supreme court Monday in the form of a petition by Rudolph Sorensen, LaFollette leader, for a writ of mandamus to compel the clerk in Marine county to place names of electors for the independent candidate for president, upon the ballot in that county.

Robert E. Graham, Marine county clerk, so far has refused to do this, stating that he wishes to clear ambiguities in the state election law, which provides that electors shall be nominated by state conventions, composed of delegates elected at the August primary.

OFFICERS RAID OLD FASHION "BEER BUST"

By United Press.
 GOOSE CREEK, Texas, Sept. 16.—Raiding a farm house near Crosby, Harris county deputy sheriffs "horned-in" on a regular, pre-Volume "beer bust."

In the center of a table, around which sat a party of men, was a keg of beer encased in a large wooden container packed with ice. Cheese sandwiches were heaped on a side table.

While the officers "looked in" on the party several persons arrived in cars but left when they saw the officers. Three of the party about the table were placed under arrest.

NEW BRAND OF LIQUOR SEIZED BY OFFICERS

By United Press.
 EL PASO, Sept. 16.—Customs officers have discovered a new brand of liquor.

They call it "cacochonatu." It's a soft Indian drink with all the kick which the name implies, the officers say.

The liquor was seized in a car as it was being imported across the border.

THE AMERICAN HOME IN DANGER

As we see it the American home is in danger in grave danger. And the reason it is in danger is because the people of America have gone wild over worldly amusement.

It is deplorable, discouraging, and disgusting to see people give up the fight, and become unconcerned and neglectful of the young life that is growing in the community.

Writing along this line a noted divine says: "I admire the man or the woman, the boy or girl that has the grit to stay in line."

"Are you one of humanity's herd that is fighting to maintain the American home or are you one that is doing what you can to destroy it?"

"If you stand for the upbuilding of Christianity and humanity get on the firing line! Not only get there, but get busy and stay busy."

"It is true that children of worthy parents often go wrong but it is more true that children of unworthy parents seldom go right."

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY HAS IN JOHN W. DAVIS AN IDEAL MAN FOR PRESIDENT

John W. Davis is first of all a man of exalted character. Born of splendid parentage in a home of culture and refinement, he is the finished product of the best there is in American manhood.

All his connections from the time he was admitted to the bar at twenty-two years of age until he was nominated as the Democratic candidate for President have been of the highest type.

Mr. Davis did not seek the nomination for the presidency. If elected he will go into the White House free from any kind of political obligation except to serve alike all classes of American people regardless of class, creed or color.

Those who know him best predict his election if the American people can be made fully acquainted with his superior qualifications.

Reducing wages doesn't necessarily cut expenses—too often it lowers efficiency. Try raising the wages of those who do the best.

THE AMERICAN TAX BURDEN

The American tax burden $75,000,000 higher in 1923 than in 1922, and probably will be still higher for 1924, according to the results of research made public by the National Industrial Conference Board.

Other findings in the annual report are: That approximately one-eighth of the Nations national income now goes to the support of the government where one-sixteenth sufficed before the war. Total taxes raised in 1923 were $7,716,000,000 against $6,961,000,000 in the preceding year.

HARNESSING THE TIDES

A definite step toward the realization of the first employment of the tides for generating electricity on a considerable scale has been taken by France, where a plant will be constructed on the coast of Brittany of the annual production of 11,000,000 francs, about half the estimated cost of the annual production of 11,000,000 kilowatt hours, corresponding to the power which would be given by 16,500 tons of coal.

Whether power can be successfully obtained from the sea is a question that will be watched with the greatest interest, and if this attempt gives satisfactory results, an immense field will be opened to civility and ingenuity.

HARD WORK IS DANGEROUS

Dr. Raymond Pearl of John Hopkins, has amassed statistics which show that hard work is dangerous. They are, in brief, that while up to the age of 40 hard work seems to have no ill effect on the man of normal health, thereafter those in strenuous occupations have a higher death rate in general, less than that of the indoor worker after 40; but coalheavers, longshoremen and others in similar work die young.

THE SUGAR TARIFF

In the year 1922 the United States domestic consumption of sugar was 8,409,000,000. Nearly one-fourth of this was produced in the United States. The Tariff Commission report indicates that the housewives of this country pay about $145,000 per day as tariff on the importations.

If the government revenue from this source is abolished, as suggested by the Commission, the same amount of revenue will have to be obtained in some other direction.

The Tariff Commission has studied this question for two years, and its recommendation is being carefully considered by President Coolidge, who wants to do the right thing.

Analysis of the results of the defense day disclosed that the war departments new decentralized mobilization plans "are based on sound principles." The Test brought out 16,792,781 cities and towns throughout the country. Nevertheless, there were two disappointments, which, however, were discounted by the army officials because the test was the first of its kind.

There are penalties for horse stealing and for the theft of automobiles, and the trespass notices posted on farms are reminders that, in line with common sense, there are also laws against the raiding of farms. The manner in which the orchards and gardens of some farmers have been despoiled by thieves traveling in autos is an outrage, and it is incumbent upon the public authorities to do their part to put a stop to it and bring the guilty to punishment.

Don't sit behind the steering wheel waiting for business to turn up. Crank up. Get in the game. Use the columns of your local newspaper as an additional salesman and turn that stock over before it gets rusty.

SIMMONS COLLEGE IS TO HAVE BIG PICNIC

ABILENE, Sept. 14.—A basket picnic on the campus of Simmons College, in which all friends of the institution will join, will commemorate the formal opening of the West Texas Baptist Memorial Sanitarium and the thirty-third annual opening of Simmons College here Monday.

The barbecue is being furnished by the members of the Women's Missionary Unions of the five Baptist churches here and all West Texas is invited to attend. Persons desiring to do so are asked to bring lunches but in case they do not lunch will be provided.

The Sanitarium, a five story institution just one block from the Simmons College campus, was recently completed at a cost of $1,500,000. The past month has been spent in equipping and furnishing the building. Superintendent H. V. Campbell, formerly with the Baylor Hospital, Dallas, being in charge of this work.

The Sanitarium was erected by West Texas Baptists for the purpose of better caring for the health of this section. All denominations are invited to patronize it. The hospital also will serve as the medical branch of Simmons when that institution becomes a university in 1925.

The hospital is the largest in west Texas, according to local Baptists, and is equipped with every modern convenience. Nearly one hundred patients can be cared for at one time. Operating and sterilizing equipment were installed several weeks ago and now are ready for use.

Though the formal opening will be held Monday and the staff of nurses will be on hand at that time, the hospital will not be open for service until Tuesday. Monday will be devoted exclusively to entertaining visitors and showing them through the structure.

WORK WILL BEGIN SOON ON RALLS WATER WORKS

RALLS, Sept. 15.—The bonds for the water works for the city of Ralls were signed by local authorities last week and forwarded to the Attorney General's office for final approval.

These bonds will be offered for sale September 16th. As the bond market is good it is expected that the bonds will find ready sale. The city commission now contemplates that construction work will start on the water system within fifteen days after the bonds are disposed of which will place the date close to October 1st.

A large number of residence lots are now being sold to purchasers who will start building as soon as the water is available for domestic consumption. City water will mean a great saving to those who build homes and is one of the most needed improvements ever placed on our calendar of commercial activities.

Lots at reasonable prices, city water, good schools and churches and the best citizenship in the world should be important factors in encouraging many people to build homes in Ralls.

"WHAT BEAUTIFUL EYES YOU HAVE!"

By MORRIS.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

DISCOURAGED. I was discouraged and I bowed my head and sought to shun the crowd. And fling my care away: Thought I: "They laughing drink their wine" And have no heavy grief like mine, No sorrows, night or day. I stood upon the curb of life And watched them pass, the smiling wife, Her husband at her side; Mothers and children trooping by— It seemed in all the world that I Alone was heavy-eyed. They know not what it means to weep, Said I: "They walk with faith and hop Where I can only creep and grope. They laugh at toil and care; Not one of them has ever felt The cruel storms of trouble pelt, "Look closer," said a voice within, these, too, have seen pale death come in, These, too, have loved and lost! These, too, have seen their hopes go down; One passes now, too great to frown, Whose soul is tempest tossed, I looked, and near a cripple came His eyes with joy of life aflame, No hint of pain he gave, "If he who suffers all the while, Has courage in his heart to smile Can you not be as brave?" "None passes by your door to-day Who has not trod a rugged way Or felt the lash of fate; All these who seem so free from woe Have cruel scars they do not show. Can you not be as great?"

EMOTIONAL LOSS BY DODGERS MAY COST THEM PENNANT

GIANTS NOW FULL GAME AND HALF IN LEAD WITH ONLY TEN GAMES TO GO; PIRATES CLOSE IN GAP IN MAD RUSH

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER
NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The Brooklyn Dodgers, who have painted several winning streaks on the crazy pattern of this year's baseball record, may find when the season is over that they lost the pennant of 1924 on Tuesday the sixteenth of September when they became emotional and lost a game to the St. Louis Cards in Brooklyn 17 to 3.

The Dodgers, of course, are a 35-cent ball club, assembled from the junk heaps of baseball at a total cost of something less than the invoice price that the Yanks paid for one player, Babe Ruth. They have been carried along by pitching of a kind that they never expected to get from the men in their tossing department. Perhaps the players should be grateful for the third money inasmuch as they weren't sure at the season's beginning that they would finish in the league at all.

The owner, Uncle Charlie Ebbets, a very economical man, has had pretty fair luck for the team, has been bursting the walls of several yards with customers during the last few weeks. This increase in the day-to-day receipts of the regular season probably amounts to much more money than a club owner's series share under the present system of distribution which cuts deep into the takings of the big autumn hoard. So if the Dodgers don't get into the world series, Ebbets won't lose much.

The Dodgers started Rube Ehrhardt, an apprentice right hander, against the Cards. Ehrhardt came from the Florida state league not long ago and won five games in a row for the Dodgers. He was almost a gift, like Bill Doak, who came to the Brooklyn team as a time-expired veteran and was reared in eight or nine victories as his contribution to the Dodgers' amazing performance.

The Cards began to tamper with Ehrhardt in the first inning. The first five men at bat scored four runs and Ehrhardt was recalled before the Cards had done out. Four runs, as it turned out, were enough to beat the Dodgers, but the Cards kept on hammering, and ran the score up to 17 runs.

Now the Dodgers are one and a half games behind the Giants with only ten more games to play. This is a long gap with the end of the season so near at hand. It seems too long to be closed up by the Dodgers with the Giants going as well as they are.

The Giants incidentally shared the day's double header with the Cincinnati Reds at the Polo Grounds. Carl Mays, exiled from the American league last fall, went in to pitch for the Reds in the first game and was beaten 5 to 1. However, Mays' work for the Reds thus far this season is an insult to the judgment of the American league managers who waived him out of their combination. He has won 19 games of ball for the Reds and lost only nine. Bucky Harris, manager of the Senators, was one of those who had a chance to get Mays and would not take him. Mays' 19 victories added to those of Walter Johnson, Mogridge and the other Washington pitchers, would have put the Senators over the top by now.

The Giants lost their second game to the Reds 3 to 1. The Pirates played a double header in Philadelphia and broke even. The Phils won the first 6 to 5.

DUNDEE BEATEN BY BERNSTEIN IN 15-ROUND BOUT

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Johnny Dundee, former featherweight champion, who abdicated his throne because he found it difficult to keep within the necessary weight limit, collided with a big disappointment in his first battle as a lightweight. Dundee was decisively beaten by Jack Bernstein, former junior lightweight champion, in a 15 round bout at the Queensboro stadium Monday night, and lost whatever chance he had for a shot at Benny Leonard's crown.

This was the third meeting between Dundee and Bernstein. The victory gave Bernstein two wins against Dundee's one.

Long Shots By Heavy Artillery

There is little doubt that the Reds would have done better in the race and might have won the pennant if they didn't have one succession of injuries and bad breaks which kept them from having their full strength on the field more than half the season.

It was a great surprise when the Giants turned into August with a lead of nine games. They were running along so smoothly that the race was considered "in" by the experts. Then another surprise came when the champions hit the rocks and when the first stepped out with one of the most sensational winning spurts of the season.

These surprises were nothing compared to the shock that came when the Brooklyn Robins started to tear through the league.

Helped by some of the finest pitching in both leagues from the great Dazy Vance and Burly Grimes the Robins turned into a dangerous pennant contender and complicated the whole situation.

There is less than a month to go, and in that time most anything can happen. The pennant races may not be decided until the last games on the schedules. That, of course, helps business.

SENATORS MOST POPULAR WINNER IN MAJORS AFTER SENSATIONAL SPURT AND DESERVE MUCH CREDIT—FARRELL

BY HENRY L. FARRELL.
NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—What ever happens to the Washington Senators in the American League pennant race, they must be given credit for furnishing a great public thrill and for showing a lot of experts that form is a fickle foundation for production.

If the Senators should pull through the pennant they will be one of the most popular champions that ever went into a world's series. Up and down both major league circuits well wishes for young Buck Harris and his hustling club have been heard on all sides.

The reason for the popularity of the team is not hard to find. He is Walter Johnson, the grand old pitcher and the most popular player in baseball. Johnson has one of the finest records a pitcher ever made and he has a personality that has always been a credit to the game. Johnson never has been in a world series, and it is the fond wish of all baseball fans that he has at least one crack at big glory before he has to retire.

Not an expert in the business of picking finish positions in the spring gave the Senators a tumble. They were looked upon at first division timber that was more likely to disappoint than to surprise in the hands of a boy manager, Buck Harris.

Detroit and Cleveland were expected to give the Yankees what little trouble they would encounter in another joint pennant war. When the Yankee pitching staff cracked and the team slumped, Detroit lived up to promise, but it was the Senators who came through when Cleveland faltered and fell out of the contending position.

The Senators, even after their sensational rise, were expected to collapse. Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees and Ty Cobb pilot of the Tigers, figured that Buck Harris had the team playing way over its head and that in a hot pennant race the club naturally would have to seek its own level.

The Senators were helped by fine pitching, by timely hitting and by the hustle that Harris inspired in them. Of all the teams that played in the Yankee Stadium the Senators looked and acted more like champions. They are a game ball club and a fighting ball club, and if they get through in first place there can be no element of luck blamed for the feat.

Ty Cobb had a lot of bad luck in the last lap of the race. At the most critical time, when the Yanks were in the grip of a panic, Cobb lost Lu Blue, one of the best first basemen in the league, and he couldn't replace him.

The effect on the team was bad, as it seemed to break the players' spirit and they went almost to pieces in the grip of a terrible slump.

The Yankees, of course, were the big disappointment of the season, but to close observers of the game, their collapse was no surprise. Last spring a wise Cleveland philosopher said that the Yanks would last as long as the pitching staff. Other critics felt the same way, and Miller Huggins couldn't have helped knowing it.

When the pitchers, upon whom the club depended so vitally, cracked, the team cracked with it. If Babe Ruth hadn't hit like a demon on the last western trip of the champions, and if he hadn't played like someone inspired, the Yankees might be in the second division now. If they ever do get out of it, because no steps have been taken by the management to fill the places that aged veterans necessarily must vacate before.

The failure of the Indians to deliver was attributed to the same cause that brought about the decline of the Yankees. Tris Speaker didn't get the pitching from Coveleski and Uhl that he expected, and he was depending on them.

Most of the critics expected the Giants to have a fight in the National league, but the fight didn't come from the quarters expected. John McGraw insisted from the time he took the champions to their Florida training camp last spring that the Pittsburgh Pirates was the club he had to beat. Most of the critics figured that the Cincinnati Reds were the most powerful team on paper in the league, and after the club was handicapped by the death of its popular manager, Pat Moran, it was figured that the players were old enough and experienced enough with the theories of Moran baseball to go thru almost to moments under the direction of a new manager, Jack Hendricks who was so thoroughly in sympathy with the departed manager.

There is little doubt that the Reds would have done better in the race and might have won the pennant if they didn't have one succession of injuries and bad breaks which kept them from having their full strength on the field more than half the season.

defeated by the American defenders, half a dozen Canadians and one golfer from Panama will amble over the Merion Cricket club's undulating meadows outside Philadelphia next Saturday morning in the big field of players who will set out for this year's national amateur championship of the United States.

The U. S. Golf Association made the draw Tuesday and found 166 entrants who were drawn into 83 pairs. The qualifying round Saturday will be medal play, but therefore match play will be the rule.

A cluster of lesser lights will start the balls at 7:30 in this morning. George von Elm, will be the first of the better known players to get away.

and on the whole the American were overwhelming. The score was the highest ever rolled against a cup team, except in last Sunday's encounter.

Team work was the department in which the Americans simply could not be challenged. Robert Strawbridge went in at No. 3 for the American team in place of Mal Stevenson who was thrown out injured in the first game.

Otherwise the American defeat of the cup was maintained as before by Webb, Hitchcock and Milburn.

For the British, Lt. Col Melville, a slight built man of almost 50 years, but one of the most daring riders in the game, relieved Major Kirkwood at No. 1. Major Phinias Hornby, a tall, lanky officer, hitherto accounted one of the weaker members of the British squad, took the place of Major Hurdall at No. 2. Major Hurdall, who is said to have been allied with the disgruntled Lord Wimborne faction of the British group, is said to have complained bitterly over the change.

His removal was not easily understood either, because he had played a good game Saturday.

BAKING STOCKS ARE LINKED WITH POLO IN TRADING

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Baking stocks and the international polo match monopolized the attention of traders in the stock market on Tuesday. Indeed, gossip linked the astonishing gain of the pastry issues with the sport, gaging their claims on the ground that the baking interest were desirous of giving a special demonstration in the shares for the benefit of the visiting Britishers.

General Baking leaped a total of 8 points for the day with Cushman's Sons up 7 1/2 and Ward Baking substantially higher on the curb. The air is rife with the talk of mergers in connection with these issues but there appears to be very little on which definitely to account for the spurt on these stocks.

Trading on the stock exchange was about the lightest since the last spring. Total sales fell considerably short of a half a million shares and at frequent intervals throughout the session, the ticker tape did not move. The average for the day indicated a moderate gain in the industrials while the leading railroad issues remained almost stationary.

Lehigh Valley was the principle gainer in the carrier group. Of no small interest was the money market. The easy tone which prevailed in the session following income tax day with its billion dollar turnover, in government funds caused not a little surprise in some corners of the financial community. But it must be remembered that the government receipts and disbursements at this quarter are largely on paper so that the actual transfer of balances does not cause a commotion in the money market.

New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 16.—(Via Private Wire).—Cotton got off to a good start on good cables and covering by recent sellers and for a time appeared to be in for a good substantial rally. Vote of the English Master Spinners to continue short time until December 1st and rumors of large crop estimates checked the covering around the middle of the session and started another selling movement which kept up most of the session and October dropped 22 points from the early high and ended the day with a net loss of 14 points.

There were some fair sized rallies during the day but they appeared to furnish the occasion for fresh selling and did not hold long. A considerable portion of the selling on bulges came from spot houses here and in the interior hedging. Heavy rains were general over the southeastern belt, many places getting from 2 to 3 inches. In addition the official prediction was for more unsettled weather in Georgia and Carolinas and also for the northwest portion.

The market is sensitive to large crop estimates and with sentiment so universally bearish is not likely to show much recovery until crop ideas are modified considerably.

Chicago Grain. CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 16, (Via Private Wire).—Wheat—Fractional declines were sustained on selling inspired chiefly by the fact that the Winnipeg Free Press report indicated a Canadian crop much in excess of what had been expected to be shown. There was hedging by the northwest also which added to the burden. In prices encouraged good speculative support and there was rather consistent buying by houses with seaboard and foreign connections. In view of the news the market held remarkably well.

Corn—Leading commission houses were persistent buyers on all breaks and early sellers had to bid up prices to cover at the last. Weather generally more favorable but crop news continued exceedingly pessimistic, one expert placing the date when the bulk of the crop will be safe from frost at October 15. Forecast was for a slight rise in temperatures.

Oats—There was substantial commission house buying on the early dip and the market developed strength late on buying said to be backed by export sales.

Rye—There was constant and persistent buying by houses with seaboard connections and a liberal export business indicated. Norway was credited with the purchase of a full cargo.

New York Stock Letter. NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(Via Private Wire).—The stock market was a very dull and uninteresting affair today and transactions were almost at a minimum. Most leading stocks were virtually motionless during almost the entire day and speculative attention was for the most part centered on a handful of specialties. Crucible Steel covered quite a price range during the first hour, breaking to around 51 and in the final hour rallying to 54. Much uncertainty surrounds the dividend future of this stock.

The final tone was firm and the market was almost entirely free from pressure.

DAVIS TO LAUNCH BITTER ATTACKS ON CORRUPTION

BUNCTON, Mo., Sept. 16.—John W. Davis, democratic presidential nominee, has taken off his kid gloves and during the rest of his campaign his thrusts at corruption in office by the republican administration will be anything but mild. This virtually was decided Tuesday at a conference between Davis and his chief lieutenants at the home of Dr. Arthur W. Wilson, democratic nominee for governor, where 75,000 people gathered Monday in a giant barbecue feast.

The tremendous ovation accorded the presidential candidate by the Missouri democracy when Monday he scored bitterly "special privilege and corruption in office" convinced Davis of the excellent strategy of that kind of attack according to his advisers.

The nominee arose early Tuesday morning and breakfasted in seclusion at the Nelson farm. He ate an old-fashioned Missouri breakfast, consisting of fried-mush bacon and eggs, hot biscuits and chocolate.

Breakfast finished, he visited as much of the 3,000-acre farm as the mud from Monday's rain would permit and then was driven to his special train at Sycamore which left late in the day for Kansas City.

Although his right arm was swollen from handshaking on Monday the nominee complained very little of the pain and set about at work on the speech which he will deliver Wednesday at Des Moines.

From his standpoint the monster rally at the barbecue Monday on the farm of Dr. Nelson, was a complete success and Davis is convinced that Missouri will give him 18 electoral votes in November.

Word reached Davis that the republican managers in the "show me" state are worried over the situation and have appealed to the national republican organization, for aid if President Coolidge is to have a fighting chance for the state. Many republican leaders are said to believe that only the personal appearance of Coolidge himself can save the state to the republicans.

Buncheon was filled with pride over the success of the meeting. It still had its hands full in caring for the stranded folk whose automobiles were ditched or mired in the earth graded roads leading to the Nelson farm. There were more than 50 carloads of people unable to get back home.

Davis was scheduled to continue his campaigning along the route as he pulled out of Missouri, with rear platform speeches at Sedalia, Pleasant Hill, Lees Summit and Independence.

BAD WEATHER HOLDS WORLD FLYERS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Dense fogs and threatening skies combined Tuesday to prevent the round world flyers from hopping off on their next jump to Omaha. But Lt. Lowell Smith, and his five associates were enabled to spend a few more hours enjoying themselves with rest and relaxation. They experienced plenty of both, although as the commander of the world flight put it: "Our friends take almost too much interest in seeing to it that we have a good time."

"Unless the aviators, who were the first to encircle the globe thru the air change their plans, they will take off on the next leg of their flight westward at 9 o'clock Tuesday crowds swarmed about the air mail landing field at Maywood throughout the day and extra police had to be detailed to keep the curious away from the machines and hangars where they later were housed.

There seems to be a difference between pleasure and happiness.

BUTTE FILED HIS RESIGNATION WITH TEXAS U. REGENTS

AUSTIN, Sept. 16.—Dr. George C. Butte, dean of the law school of the state university here Tuesday filed his resignation with the board of regents to be effective immediately. Dr. Butte recently was chosen as the republican nominee for governor to oppose Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson the democratic choice.

BUNCTON, Mo., Sept. 16.—John W. Davis, democratic presidential nominee, has taken off his kid gloves and during the rest of his campaign his thrusts at corruption in office by the republican administration will be anything but mild. This virtually was decided Tuesday at a conference between Davis and his chief lieutenants at the home of Dr. Arthur W. Wilson, democratic nominee for governor, where 75,000 people gathered Monday in a giant barbecue feast.

The tremendous ovation accorded the presidential candidate by the Missouri democracy when Monday he scored bitterly "special privilege and corruption in office" convinced Davis of the excellent strategy of that kind of attack according to his advisers.

The nominee arose early Tuesday morning and breakfasted in seclusion at the Nelson farm. He ate an old-fashioned Missouri breakfast, consisting of fried-mush bacon and eggs, hot biscuits and chocolate.

Breakfast finished, he visited as much of the 3,000-acre farm as the mud from Monday's rain would permit and then was driven to his special train at Sycamore which left late in the day for Kansas City.

Although his right arm was swollen from handshaking on Monday the nominee complained very little of the pain and set about at work on the speech which he will deliver Wednesday at Des Moines.

From his standpoint the monster rally at the barbecue Monday on the farm of Dr. Nelson, was a complete success and Davis is convinced that Missouri will give him 18 electoral votes in November.

Word reached Davis that the republican managers in the "show me" state are worried over the situation and have appealed to the national republican organization, for aid if President Coolidge is to have a fighting chance for the state. Many republican leaders are said to believe that only the personal appearance of Coolidge himself can save the state to the republicans.

Buncheon was filled with pride over the success of the meeting. It still had its hands full in caring for the stranded folk whose automobiles were ditched or mired in the earth graded roads leading to the Nelson farm. There were more than 50 carloads of people unable to get back home.

Davis was scheduled to continue his campaigning along the route as he pulled out of Missouri, with rear platform speeches at Sedalia, Pleasant Hill, Lees Summit and Independence.

BAD WEATHER HOLDS WORLD FLYERS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Dense fogs and threatening skies combined Tuesday to prevent the round world flyers from hopping off on their next jump to Omaha. But Lt. Lowell Smith, and his five associates were enabled to spend a few more hours enjoying themselves with rest and relaxation. They experienced plenty of both, although as the commander of the world flight put it: "Our friends take almost too much interest in seeing to it that we have a good time."

"Unless the aviators, who were the first to encircle the globe thru the air change their plans, they will take off on the next leg of their flight westward at 9 o'clock Tuesday crowds swarmed about the air mail landing field at Maywood throughout the day and extra police had to be detailed to keep the curious away from the machines and hangars where they later were housed.

There seems to be a difference between pleasure and happiness.

WHAT "SUNSHINE MARY" THINKS OF US

The following letter was received from Miss Mary Anderson, movie star, who has been appearing at the Lindsey Theatre: Lubbock Morning Avalanche, Lubbock, Texas.

Dear Mr. Editor:— Since my arrival in Lubbock Saturday I have been delighted with the nice things the Avalanche has had to say about me and my picture, "The Wilderness of Youth," and now would like to tell you what I think about the Avalanche and Lubbock.

First of all, being a business woman and realizing that without advertising and publicity we might just as well "pass out of the picture," my first visit was to your very up-to-the-minute newspaper office. I heard before I came here that Lubbock had a live bunch of business men and it is only natural that they should have a wide awake newspaper as a medium of expression.

And being a motion picture artist, my second action, though the thought had been in my mind all of the time, was to see the theatre in which I was to appear. Like its owner and namesake, Mr. Lindsey, I found it quite efficient. Clean and airy with thoughtfulness shown for the comfort of those who go there to see their favorite movie, with good music and fine, clear projection of the film pictures upon the screen.

Next I noticed the tremendous number of buildings under construction. One can actually see the town growing. I think the new city hall has one of the prettiest fronts I have seen in a long time. And of course, Mr. Lindsey is building a new theatre, to be known as "The Palace" which shows that he is right in step with progressive Lubbock.

I was really surprised to find two splendid big hospitals. I visited all of the patients Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Lindsey and Mr. Moore of the Tagland Motor Company, whose Nash, which shows that he is right in step with progressive Lubbock, I remarked that both hospitals were full and Mr. Davis remarked that it was not so much that folks here are not well but that folks from the surrounding country came here to get well.

I visited the sight of the future Texas Technological College and after meeting a number of local people I can understand their wanting it here. They have a keen appreciation of the better things of life. And like all those who really appreciate the good, they want to share it.

With many thanks to all those who have been so kind to me, and hoping to come back and see you all again some day, I am, Sincerely, MARY ANDERSON

15 BIBLE READER AS WELL AS COAL DEALER

By United Press. MT. CARMEL, Ill., Sept. 16.—Reading the Bible doesn't get tiresome for W. F. Habberton, a coal dealer here.

At the end of 1924 Habberton will have completed the Good Book for the 48th time. This is a record as far as is known, although Dwight Moody, famous evangelist, was reported to have gone through the book 50 times.

Friends of Habberton brought up his name when they read stories of a Madison, Wis., man having read the Bible 30 times.

Habberton reads the Bible on schedule—three chapters daily or weeks days, and five on Sundays. This makes exactly one reading a year.

Dawes may never be sworn in, but a preacher in Florida has cursed him out.

LEADING PHYSICIANS OF STATE MEET WITH PANHANDLE SOCIETY IN SESSION HERE; TWO-DAY MEET CLOSES TONIGHT

With more than 50 leading physicians of the Panhandle in attendance, keen interest was shown both afternoon and evening meetings of the convention of the Panhandle District Medical Society here Tuesday, which will continue in session throughout this evening.

Senator W. H. Bledsoe, friend of the doctors in the senate, delivered the welcome address at the first session Tuesday afternoon, and received much applause.

Others to appear on the program were Dr. J. E. Owens, of Plainview; Dr. H. J. Latson, of Amarillo; Dr. A. J. Caldwell, of Amarillo; Dr. D. P. Jones, of Plainview; Dr. J. P. Lattimore, of Lubbock and Dr. J. B. Shemire, of Dallas.

Dr. Chas. Harris, of Fort Worth and Dr. J. E. Temple, spoke in the evening to a large number of doctors, and local people, at the auditorium of the First Methodist church.

A review of medical science from its beginning to the present time was given, with special attention given the development of the preventative medicine idea which has taken such firm place in medical activities in the United States, and which has given American physicians an envied position among the leaders of the world, was given by the speakers.

They pointed out that we have advanced scientifically until we are able to prevent most diseases, and assured their hearers that the time is not far in the future when Americans everywhere will employ doctors to keep them well instead of the present method of employing them to cure sickness.

Much applause was given when one of the speakers complimented Senator Bledsoe of Lubbock for his work along scientific lines, which has made "every doctor in the new 4th senatorial district proud to say he voted for him."

The speakers insisted that every man who wants to practice healing of the sick should "first be required to go to school long enough to graduate from high school and then to go to a college of higher learning for not less than two years, then to medical college for not less than four years, followed by practical work in a good hospital."

It was declared that after making these efforts to become educated in the art of healing the student may be allowed to take an examination to apply the art in the manner they see fit.

These talks were enjoyed and were especially by the physicians in attendance.

Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, of the Lubbock sanitarium, presided over the meeting and introduced the speakers.

of gas, smoke and fire drove the workers back outside again.

Later 200 men, most of them from mines at Rock Springs, Diamondville, and Cumberland, were sent into the main entrance and the fire entrance to drill holes through which smoke and gas could escape.

Tuesday night rescue parties emerging from the mine said that fire still was raging far underground and that any work in that portion of the tunnel was impossible.

Fathers and sons were working in the mine at the time of the explosion, company officials said. Most of the imprisoned men had been residents of Sublet for years.

FLYWEIGHT CHAMP SUSPENDED BY COMMISSION

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Panche Villa, flyweight champion of the world, was suspended indefinitely by the New York boxing commission Monday afternoon and it was reported that the commission wishing to punish Villa severely, might not raise the suspension until six months or more have elapsed.

Several weeks ago, after dodging Frankie Genaro, for a year, Villa agreed to fight the little Italian who once held the Olympic championship.

These reports were followed by Genaro's temporary withdrawal from the match, he claimed to have whooping cough so the bout was postponed to Sept. 23.

Monday Villa called to ask that the bout be cancelled altogether, claiming he had injured a shoulder. The physician of the boxing commission examined him at once and said the injury was a myth.

HORN ADDRESSED TENNESSEANS AT PICNIC

Their inability to secure a band to lead their parade did not hinder the Tennesseans who assembled here yesterday for a picnic at the fair park, and the parade at eleven o'clock through the business streets of Lubbock was carried out just as scheduled.

There were more than twenty cars in the parade, and more than one hundred occupants of the cars made their presence known.

Immediately upon returning to the fair park, a basket lunch, augmented by delicious cooked barbecue, was served, and that it was enjoyed needs no emphasis other than that "Tennessee cornbread ponies" were a feature of the menu.

BUSINESS MEN WILL MEET WITH LABOR CRAFTS TONITE

Friendliness, co-operation and better business relations through understanding between the union laborers and the businessmen of the city is the goal that is sought here, and in order to prove that they are willing to go fifty-fifty with their business men brothers, the various local unions of Lubbock will be hosts at a smoker to be given at the basement of the Leader building this evening at eight o'clock.

Smokes galore, just any old brand you might wish, will be provided, and an hour and a half will be spent in talking over the problems that confront the business men and workmen of this city.

C. H. Elliott, well-known local construction superintendent, will be master of ceremonies, and the address of welcome will be delivered by D. W. Fortenberry, and Curtis A. Keen will respond.

F. O. Kelly will speak on the "Object and Purpose of Organized Labor, What it Does, How it Does, and Why."

7,500 BARRELS OF GASOLINE IS EXPLODED

By United News.
MONTEREY, Calif., Sept. 16.—Explosion of a 7,500 barrel underground tank of gasoline in the tank yard of the Associated Oil Company sent a spray of flaming gasoline hundreds of feet into the air and covered the bay with a sheet of the blazing substance late Monday.

Little material damage was done by the explosion and no lives were lost. Following the two developments in the fire which has raged here since 9:30 p. m. Sunday the danger from the flames was believed to be over.

Only two soldiers, privates Eustace Watkins and George Boles were killed in the explosion which rocked the entire countryside late Sunday when a tank of gasoline exploded, army officials announced Monday night.

CHIUAHUA CITY BODY WILL NAME NEXT GOVERNOR

By United News.
JUAREZ, Sept. 16.—The Chihuahua state congress was organized Tuesday at Chihuahua City as an electoral college to name the governor of the state. The contestants are J. D. Miramontes and J. A. Almeida, both claiming the balance of power in the college.

While troops were called out two weeks ago to frustrate any attempt to take over the state house forcibly, officials declare that no further trouble is expected in the state capital.

The last twenty years have seen a tremendous development in the pecan industry in the South, as shown by the report of William P. Bullard, President of the National Pecan Growers' Exchange, Georgia leads with between 80,000 and 100,000 acres in pecans.
