MAKE YOUR FACE AS LOVELY AS YOU ARE

All most people see in anyone is what is on the outside. Naturally those who are handicapped by pimples, blotches, "breaking out," etc., get no attention. You can "make the frame as lovely as the picture really is" by simply getting rid of those skin blemishes. If you will just use Black and White Ointment, and Soap. Then your good nature and sweet ways will stand out without any drawback, and folks will want to be round you. They are economically priced, in liberal packages. used in Liberty loan drives. Approximately $50,000 contributions had come in as a result of his work, he said.

Emerson was grilled very closely by Walsh as how he had come to take up the work, and concerning his method of securing names of prospective contributors. He said that Hodges had asked him to head the drive. Upon request by Walsh he submitted the names of the various men in New York who had suggested names of bankers, business men and others who could aid him in his campaign.

Emerson testified that Hodges had not set any specific amount to be raised in this campaign but said that the treasury of the republican national committee had expressed a desire to have the appeal as widespread as possible to discourage large contributions.

"Have you any evidence to show that contributions were received by the republican committee because they were large," Senator Capaway asked.

Emerson admitted that he had not, but said the sum of contributors had increased from $2,000 in 1916 to 60,000 or more this year.

Disclosing that he had only received $5,000 from the moving picture industry, Emerson said that as far as he knew, Will H. Hays had done nothing to raise campaign funds for the Coolidge-Dixes campaign.

girded itself for the work of restoring confidence and sound conditions. It organized all its endeavors to that end. Commerce and industry were assured the government was going out of competitive business. Every energy was devoted to the expansion of exports. Credits were furnished to tide over large numbers of country banks. The federal reserve rates were lowered from the deflation rates of the previous administration," Hughes declared.

Hughes cited the reduction in operating costs of the government and gave the credit for this to President Coolidge.

"As the president has said he is for more economy, and after that for more economy. He has proved it. Since June 30, 1921, the annual cost of the Federal government have been reduced from $5,538,000,000 to $3,497,000,000 or a reduction of government costs of more than $2,000,000,000 annually."

The assaults upon the republican party and its leaders were termed as being "quite in vain" by Hughes who said that indiscriminate assaults on the republican party and its leaders were visited on Garfield, on McKinley and on Roosevelt, whom today, the anniversary of his birth, the entire nation honors as one of the greatest statesmen. The present assaults are quite in vain.

U. S. Treasury Wants Public to Use More "Cartwheels"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—As a measure of economy, Secretary of the treasury A. W. Mellon has called upon the banks of the country and the public to restore the silver dollar circulation.

The decline in circulation of silver dollars from $4,000,000 in 1919 to $4,000,000 on July 1, 1924 was the result of the Pittman Act, by which congress authorized the treasury to melt silver dollars and sell the bouillon to the British government for use as currency in England.

The treasury since has been ordered to restore the silver dollar to its former place in circulation, but the public, after a five-year respite does not readily assume the "burden" of weighing trousers pockets with the good old "cart wheels." The treasury has the dollars, but nobody wants them.

"The life of a silver dollar," Mellon points out, "has no reasonable limit, whereas that of a paper dollar does not exceed at most ten months. A paper dollar costs .017 cents to manufacture and keep in circulation. If the treasury can restore to circulation 30,000,000 silver dollars in the United States and 10,000,000 in our insular possessions we can displace equal amounts of paper currency and save annually $28,999, which is equivalent to the interest at 4 per cent on $21,000,000 of the public debt."

The demand for paper currency in small denominations has increased tremendously in the past three years. It is now necessary to print and put in circulation 48,000,000 one dollar notes alone each month.

The speed with which these bills are rushed through the manufacturing process does not give the treasury time to "season" them, and as a result, Mellon adds, they become unfit for circulation within seven to eight months whereas notes that have been "seasoned" last from ten to eleven months.

"Bankers throughout the country are constantly complaining of the poor quality of the paper money; and while the treasury is aware of the situation and is all in its power to rectify it, we must ask co-operation of the public and the bankers to rectify it," Mellon says.

"Obviously we must build up a reserve supply of currency sufficiently large in amount to keep a portion of it in process of seasoning. That is what the treasury intends to do. It will be necessary to obtain from Congress an additional appropriation with which to build up an adequate reserve stock, but in the end such a program will result in saving to the taxpayers. If the life of a dollar note can be prolonged two months, so that it remains in circulation ten months instead of eight, a yearly saving of $1,666,000 will be effected in this denomination alone."

$20,000 GIN PLANT TOTALLY DESTROYED AT LOCKNEY

LOCKNEY, Texas, Oct. 27.—Fire of an unknown origin destroyed the gin plant belonging to Ben Whitfill & Sons in this city last week. The structure was a total loss, burning completely up. The plant was a new one having been erected during the summer for this season's ginning and having only ginned about one hundred bales of cotton.

Mr. Whitfill has had several gins destroyed by fire on this same gin lot in Lockney in past years.

The destruction of the gin at this time is very deplorable as the ginning has only just started and the gin was badly needed to help take care of this year's crop.

We are informed that there was some insurance on the gin machinery held by the machinery company, but that there was none on the building.

SLATON SCHOOL SUPT. RECOMMENDS PLAY TO BE GIVEN HERE SOON

The following letter written by Prof. C. L. Sone, superintendent of the Slaton schools, is of special interest to all who contemplate attending the home talent play, "The Old Bachelor," to be presented at the Lubbock High School Thursday and Friday evenings, October 30th and 31st.

Mr. Evan Harries has spent the past two weeks in Lubbock, during which time many local people have had the opportunity to meet him and they are unanimous in the opinion that he will bring to them one of the best home talent programs ever presented here.

Mr. Harries plays the part of the lovable old bachelor, and together with taking care of his part in the play directs each of the more than ten other members of the cast, all home talent.

The letter is as follows:

Slaton, Texas,
October 27, 1924.

To Whom Concerned:

It has been my great pleasure to be associated with Mr. Evan Harries while he has been preparing and presenting "The Old Bachelor."

Mr. Harries is a perfect gentleman with a lovable disposition and is most congenial in his work.

He is a success. A fine actor himself and a most wonderful director and dramatic coach.

His success in Slaton was attested by the fact that hundreds were unable to secure seats or standing room on both nights of his splendid play.

Everybody in Slaton is Mr. Harries' friend and will be glad when he shall return for another play.

Respectfully,
(Signed) C. L. SONE

OKLAHOMA COUPLE HAVE 22 CHILDREN

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 27.—The Oklahoma City school board decided recently that it would not be setting a bad precedent if it granted free tuition to the children of John H. Snyder, cotton grower and dairyman living near here.

Snyder has twenty-two children. Twelve of them desired to enter school.

There's distinction of Snyder's large family. He and his ever-growing family moved to Oklahoma City thirteen years ago. Hat broke. Not one of his children ever went hungry, and Snyder boasts.

Here's an inkling of how much Snyder's family eats: A yearling calf was slaughtered a few days ago. Five days later the last bone went into soup. Six quarts of milk are used at a meal.

Snyder is 66 years old and has been married 24 years. His wife was 22 years old when they were married.

ALL VALUABLE PARTS REMOVED FROM CAR WRECKED SUNDAY

Battered, broken and stripped of all valuable parts that could at all be removed, an Overland roadster was found on the highway southwest of Lubbock Monday morning by Sheriff H. L. Johnston.

The little car had evidently met with a serious accident, as the front axle, steering apparatus and a portion of the frame was badly bent.

The windshield was shattered into bits and other damage was done, apparently by collision with a heavier vehicle.

Whether the owner of the car, fearing that the valuable parts might be taken by thieves, took necessary caution to remove them, or whether the incident that is not clear to the officers, as the owner of the car has not been found and nothing is known of the incidents leading up to its being deserted on the highway.

The car number is 267-561 while the highway number is 75-826. The car is believed by Sheriff H. L. Johnston to be from Eastland county or somewhere in that section. It is also the opinion of the officers that the car is a stolen one, and that following the accident in which it was broken beyond immediate repair the driver took the parts, which he will in all probability, offer for sale here.

LUTHERAN CHURCH LOOKING AFTER ITS CHILDREN

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The Lutheran Church in America is undertaking an elaborate campaign of religious education of its young people in order to counteract the distracting influence exerted upon the boys and girls by modern amusements.

Leaders of the church have noted in the last decade a tendency toward a decline in the power of the church to attract young people, and have felt the force of the movie and similar amusements in coaxing away the boys and girls who should become future church leaders.

The education program is being organized by the Lutheran Parish, and church-school board. It calls for the establishment of church-schools, Bible study and week-day schools for religious education. Emphasis is made upon these week-day schools as a most important step in the church's effort to develop the young men and women imbued with ambition to promote the work of the church.

General Butler, head of the Philadelphia police Department, has issued orders to his men to close up the liquor joints on their beats or quit the force. His order is: "Police must close the saloons and rum joints on their beats or else I am going to recommend them for dismissal for neglect of duty."

PERCY HAUGHTON, VETERAN EASTERN FOOTBALL COACH FATALY STRICKEN WHILE ON FIELD WITH COLUMBIA SQUAD

By WESTBROOK PEGLER. NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Percy Haughton, a veteran Eastern football coach, was fatally stricken with acute indigestion while on the field with the Columbia University football team through Monday practice.

Dr. Washington, the assistant coach, took his pulse, observed the agonies of the big, raw-boned, bald athlete, and sent him to St. Luke's Hospital, a couple of miles away from the field. Haughton's car, which was in the driveway at 5 o'clock, half an hour later, Percy Haughton was dead.

Haughton died within the week in which his Columbia team was to have played Cornell in the last of the Harvard system. He came to Columbia last year and considerable clamor and approval acclaimed as the one man who could revive the fighting spirit beneath the jersey of the Columbia squad. His first year was only fair.

This year, Haughton's team had beaten four schools, including Williams, which whittled Cornell. Next Saturday's game with Cornell was to be the showdown. Cornell, although defeated by Rutgers and Williams, is still regarded as one of the strongest of eastern football. The Columbia spectators which is in close touch with the athletic affairs of the university had been unable to find out late Monday evening whether Columbia would go through with the game to which Haughton's recovery would cancel it out of respect for him. There were arguments in favor of each.

Haughton was 48 years old. He had been in football about 35 years, starting his career days at Groton School where he played for three years.

He was followed and lapped on the Harvard Varsity for four years, during his playing career in 1899.

Thereafter he coached Cornell for two years. He returned to Harvard in 1903 in 1904, and he was appointed his last year there from 1904 to 1912 that he made the Haughton system famous. This system is something of a fetish in the east and at Columbia they said he had not been there long enough to put it on a full scale, so far as the popular understanding goes. The Haughton system was just a word, a label to designate Haughton's method of training and football team.

Haughton had his residence and his business in Boston, but 18 years ago when Columbia could stand the humiliation of perpetual football defeat no longer, he was persuaded to come down to the big New York school and take the case. The report was that he took a three year contract at $15,000 a year.

Columbia in football was something like Sailor Mated or Al Reich in the ring. Always Columbia was about to snap out of it and start winning. But defeat was like a disease there.

Twenty years ago Columbia was great and even whittled Yale.

In 1905 one of the Columbia boys was killed at football and the game was abolished. It was resumed in 1913 but ten years it was impossible to rebuild the old flesh.

Haughton a very austere man but not really unkind, managed to turn out a team that won four games, lost four and tied one last year, his first season at Columbia. But most of the glory went to Walter Koppich, the star of the backfield, who is now captain of the team, the third time in the Dartmouth series, the last game of Columbia's season. Columbia made a surprising fight of it until Koppich went down and out with a splintered arm.

MUNICIPAL GOLF COURSE BE GIVEN "NEW DRESS"

Local golf bounds next year will be given the advantage of one of the best and most unique courses in the state if plans of the officials of the Municipal Golf Association are carried out over the winter months.

Already the work of re-conditioning has set in, and the section of the center which crosses the course even now is alive with the whir of motor-driven machinery, manned by efficient workmen. Under observation of ground keeper R. A. Woods, engaged in grading the fairway from one end of the course to the other. This will be the first major job that will be completed within a few days, and on the heels of this will come others of equal importance to the proper functioning of all sections of the grounds.

This is being done, according to Mr. Woods, in order that a mower may be put to use on the fairway next spring and summer when the grass and weeds begin to grow, removing some of the natural hazards that should not be.

Other plans of the improvement program include leveling of the greens, which has been under contemplation for some time, however, if it is not known at this time how much the leveling of the program can be reached.

The program now under way, together with the natural beauty of the course, which nestles in among one of the prettiest stretches of the Yellowhouse Canyon, will no doubt make the county park and municipal golf links, which are operated in Both are urged to take advantage of the recreational features being offered. Mike McTigue Suit Characterized As Best Joke of Year

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Thousands of people fell flat on the sidewalks of New York, paralyzed with laughter over the wildest joke of the year when it was announced Monday afternoon that Mickey McTigue, light-heavyweight champion of the world, intended to sue the boxing commission for a quarter of a million. The starboard lion on the library steps was seen to part his face in a silly grin and General Sheridan's mounted equestrian statue up near Central Park around the neighborhood with an iron horse laugh.

Apud this raucous movement, Alvin Tendler, counsel for McTigue, solemnly went on to say that the commission had no right to suspend McTigue for one year as was done last week. This announcement became funnier at every word, rising to a cork's climax when Tendler said he thought they'd win the suit.

The boxing commission at a late hour hadn't heard anything official concerning the suit, which was not unusual. The boxing commission is not always up to date as in betting on James G. Blaine in the presidential election.

The last Buffalo touchdown was made in close with the heavy Buffalo line. Several spectacular plays were made that thrilled the crowd of more than ten thousands. Who got up the idea that because the farmer is back on his feet he can't kick?

CHEWING GUM IS BIG INDUSTRY IN THE UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Movie fans of the world—and others who like to give their jaws exercise—chewed enough gum last year, "if each stick were placed end to end, to circle the earth 210 times."

This bit of figuring by John D. Shea, an expert statistician, was based on the announcement of the Department of Commerce that chewing gum worth $40,324,409 was manufactured in the United States in 1923.

"And further," said Shea, "assuming that each of the 120,000,000,000 sticks, estimated as the production on the basis of the department valuation, was chewed for a half hour, we have 372,000 billion jaw motions for consumption of the year's output. We figure each stick is masticated at the rate of 104 crunches a minute."

While officials of the Bureau of Statistics denied they had been asked to estimate the amount of "loot energy" in connection with all this gum chewing, others figured the wasted effort was enough to move the earth 10 feet from its orbit and disturb the mental balance of most of its citizens.

That chewing gum is profitable to manufacture was shown by the department's figures for the year. Salaries and wages to the 2,554 persons employed in its manufacture in 45 plants amounted to $2,173,726. The cost of all materials, including fuel and containers, was 15,487,188. The difference in the producing cost and the value, listed under the caption "value added by manufacture," was $25,385,726.

Of the 45 establishments reporting for 1923, eight were located in New York, five in Illinois and New Jersey, four in California, three each in Massachusetts and Ohio, two each in Delaware, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Tennessee, and one each in Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Nebraska, Rhode Island, Texas and Virginia.

American chewing gum has taken a firm hold in Europe since U. S. soldiers introduced it during the World War. This year saw a 10 per cent increase in production value but since over that of 1923 was attributed to the export demand.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 27.—"At the street car rides you want for $1.25 a week."

This is the slogan behind the weekly "pass" system inaugurated here yesterday by the Oklahoma Railway Company, with excellent results. Officials pointed out today that the weekly pass system not only eliminated a large number of transfers but the company really made a hat with the nation. If a passenger rides more than 17 times during the week, he is getting his transportation below the established 7-12 cent fare. If he rides less than 17 times during the seven days, the company

MANY STUDENTS BOARD FREIGHTS TO SEE THE GAMES IN DALLAS

AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—That more than "book learning" may be acquired at the University of Texas, has been proven conclusively by the fact that more than 3,500 of the 5,000 students of the University attended the football game at Dallas and a large number of these students followed the team without any appreciable expense.

The "Daily Texan" official daily paper of the institution appeared the day before the game with a complete schedule of all freight-trains and careful advice to students who were planning to procure transportation to Dallas. A large number of students held and important rally and boarded the freights, meeting the students who had chosen the passenger service at the union station in Dallas.

Other more ambitious students who did have the amount of the railroad fare used various and sundry means of getting to the game. In one instance a student rode in the hand car after the members had stacked the instruments upon him. Still others chose pullmans and rode between the mattresses or under the lower berths.

The tops of the cars were not alighted and when the various students "Student Special Train" left Austin a number of the dignified "olds" were occupying the tops clad in the heavy coats or sweaters. The rods were also used, as some of the more enterprising boys constructed platforms and placed them under the train riding securely into the city.

Aprize for ingenuity should be awarded the youth who, going to the station armed with heavy quilt walked around to the dining side of the pullman, emptied the tools from the tool box under the car and

LINZ PRESENTS CLOCK TO SCOTTISH RITE DORMITORY

AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—One of the newest additions to the living rooms of the Scottish Rite Dormitory for girls at the University of Texas is a grandfather's clock which came as a gift from Albert Linz, of Dallas. It was installed in the east end of the social room this session by a local jeweler, according to Mrs. Ed Kaufman, director of the dormitory.

The clock stands six feet and is developed in antique mahogany, with silver chimies. The face and pendulum are of golden bronze while the woodwork is unvarnished, reminiscent of the colonial style. The chimies strike on the quarter of the hour. The clock was suggested by Judge J. W. McChendon, of the Board of Directors, when interviewed by Mr. Linz concerning the needs of the dormitory.

STATE TO SELL LIBERTY BONDS WORTH $1,000,000

DALLAS, Oct. 27.—Liberty bonds in the sum of $1,000,000 held by various state funds, will be sold under an arrangement perfected by State Treasurer Sidney F. Staples with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

This final sale is to be at a figure which will net a premium of about 2 1/2 per cent to the State. With the disposition of the bonds and that figure the entire transaction involving the whole $5,000,000 will net the State $5,125,000 to the special funds. It will be prorated among them in proportion to the interest of each. Sale of the bonds was made necessary by the depletion of cash balances held by these funds.

Every man has his taste in coffee

—this chart will help you find yours

Every man has his taste in coffee—just as he has his taste in clothes, in cars, in cigars. M-J-B doesn't ask a man to like a strong cup of coffee or a mild cup of coffee or an in-between cup of coffee. M-J-B asks a man to like what he likes in coffee and guarantees to give it to him.

More than that—M-J-B is ready to help you find your exact coffee-taste. That's what this chart is for. It is based on hundreds of home-tests made by people who pride themselves on being "coffee cranks."

If M-J-B were not sure of its ground as the coffee of constant flavor it would not ask you to make this test. But M-J-B is sure. We know the can't-be-copied flavor of M-J-B will always show up in the cup—no matter how you like to make it or how you like to drink it. That's why we say—

M-J-B Coffee

And don't forget TREE TEA

SERVICES AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

According to reports coming from the Methodist church very interesting services were held there Sunday. The pastor, Rev. McMickin, delivered an address at the morning hour on the subject of "Superannuated Preachers," and the evening hour was given over to a representative of the Red Cross who delivered an excellent sermon, and same was much enjoyed by the large congregation present.

The Sunday School was well attended, and a big increase was shown in the enrollment and the attendance is gaining all the time. The officers of the church are beginning to awake to the need of more room for the church, and are beginning to cast about for ways and means for the erection of a large annex to the church to take care of the growing demands of the church.

James L. Dow, who has recently been elected superintendent for the seventh consecutive year, is urging a strong program for the coming year, and his announcement Sunday of the intentions of the school for the coming year, stated that "it would possibly be one of the most important years in the history of the Methodist Sunday School will have a great responsibility as well as a wonderful opportunity to do a great deal of good for the young people of the city, who are sure to attend the Tech College, by beginning now to provide a place for them to study."

He is being solidly backed by the congregation and the official board, and it is expected that there will be a great forward movement of this church during the next twelve months. "The Sunday School at Lubbock," said Mr. Dow, "is a noble institution, and we must not let it slip. We must build an adequate Sunday School building."

POLITICAL SHUFFLE AWAITS KANSAS IS BELIEF

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 27.—The silent vote of the righteous Kansans, comprising the thousands who can always be depended upon to cast their ballot against one thing or another, has shown no signs of becoming talkative and as a result none of the state candidates are satisfied that another political flip flop is not in the offing.

Naturally it looks like Coolidge and Dawson, with Senator Arthur Capper, farm bloc leader, almost certain of being re-elected. The big interest is in the gubernatorial struggle where a three-cornered battle is being waged.

William Allen White, nationally known editor who dropped his derby into the ring as an independent candidate when the republicans nominated B. S. Patten, whom White charges with being friendly with the Ku Klux Klan, continues to worry both republican and democratic leaders. Accompanied by his son, William Jr., White drives the family flivver to fill his speaking engagements.

His campaign is unique in that he has disposed of the usual board of strategy advisers and certain to split strategy advisers and other political hangers-on, brought the glare of the national spot-light upon him. His only issue is opposition to the KKK and his denunciation of the masked order has been bitter.

Governor Jonathan Davis, democratic candidate for re-election is standing upon his record of a slight reduction in taxes and promises even larger reductions if re-elected.

This is where the silent will play an important part, observers are predicting. White is certain to split party lines, political leaders admit, and there is considerable agitation in both camps as to where the belt will fall.

The KKK is expected to play an important part in the state election.

HEROINE OF AUTO WRECK DIES OF INJURIES

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Oct. 27.—A city steeped in mourning awaits payment of its tribute to Mrs. Thomas G. Kelly.

The "Canyon Heroine" who gave up her life that her five year old niece might live will be eulogized Tuesday in a double funeral service.

Her husband, the other victim of the mountain tragedy which has stirred this community as has no other event of recent years will rest by her side in the First Congregational church as Henry B. Mowbray, conducts the last ritual.

The bodies will be cremated. The ashes will be later taken to the Canyon near Oak Flats, where Mrs. Kelly's sacrifice was made, and floated to the breeze over the spot where for and three nights and two days she nursed along the flickering life of Little Meridith Waterbury by feeding the child blood from her own wounds.

Mrs. Kelly is still unable to tell of her experiences. She is growing steadily stronger, but as yet has no full conception of the sacrifice made for her.

When her husband lay dying in the wreckage of the machine, after it had tumbled off the highway, she was unable to reach him. The days passed, without food, hunger and the mountain cold had weak-

MANY STREET LIGHTS BEING INSTALLED BY THE CITY

F. C. McSpadden, electrician for the city of Lubbock, kept a large crew of workmen busy all day Monday beginning the erection of street lights at every street intersection in the city.

Four hundred of these lights of two thousand five hundred and five thousand lumen capacity, will be placed throughout the city before the improvement program has been brought to a close.

City Manager Ruby is hopeful that all lights along Main street can be installed before November 11th at which time the corner stone will be laid for the administration building of the Texas Technological College, with appropriate ceremonies participated in by state officials, including Governor Pat M. Neff and his associates, and forty thousand other Texans, interested in the great school.

WHITTLES FOR MONEY NOT TO IDLE TIME AWAY

EL RENO, Okla., Oct. 27.—Most people whittle to idle the time away, but O. B. Howard, brakeman here, whittles to put dollars in his pocket. During the past three years he has added several hundred dollars to his income with his whittled pipe frames, jewel cases, doll beds and furniture for children.

Unlike most whittlers, Howard does not chew tobacco as he whittles.
