Wayning Day in the Balkans. "Washing day, or rather washing week, is so important a period in the Balkan region that all family and social obligations retile to the background when it has to be considered," writes a traveler. "I have known a eabinet minister's vife to excuse herself from attendance at a court function because it colided with the appointment made with her laundress! This, too, in site of the full quota of servants, fotman, cook, housemaid and old min. None of these was either priileged or efficient enough to mee the formidable laundress and sat isfy her requirements. Therefore' the lady staved at home to fill the (p....) breach, and a sympathetic queen accepted the explanation with a 1A. readiness born of full understanding."

First Encyclopedia.

The most apcient attempt at what is called in these days an "encyclopedia" was Pliny's "Natural History." This old work, a very high authority throughout the middle ages, is really a remarkable production and well deserves the fame that for so many ages belonged to it. Pliny, who died in 79 A. D., was not a naturalist, a physician or an artist and did not pretend to be the wisest man of his time, yet such was his interest in knowledge that he devoted the leisure hours of a busy public life to compiling the work which did a yast amount of good in the world and paved the way for the comprehensive encyclopedies of the present time. - New York tre-passers American.

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to wor ly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from J idbourn, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often azim I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, bus Cardui relieved me."

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely yegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or pre-vents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

The late General F. D. Grant used often to tell on Memorial day • funny story about Bull Run. "A soldier," he would begin, "had a scar on his face. "Where did you get that scar?" they asked him. 'At Bull Run,' he replied.

"'What?' they cried incredulously. What, shot in the face at Bull Run? How could that be?" "Well,' explained the soldier. 'it he means?" was like this. After I'd run four
