DEVIL'S RIVER OIL &

(UNINCORPORATED) SITUATED IN EDWARDS COUNTY, TEXAS. DOES THINGS DIFFERENT,

STUDY OUR PLAN. A careful study of the Devil's River Oil & Gas Company's plan will convince the close student of investments that we are offering the BEST inducement in the OIL fields. Oil production in Texas fades the total gold production of Alaska in its best days into insignificance. Alaska's best production of gold was only $15,000,000.00, while Texas is producing about $150,000,000.00 worth of oil. The production is increasing so rapidly that it is conservatively estimated that the output will be close to $300.000. 000.00 ib 1920.

NO is the time to get in the oil business in order to reap the early harvest. With 600 acres of oil lands to draw from, we anticipate making big profits on our most liberal p'an, PROFITS that will make fast friends for our com pany in future enterprises which we have in mind whep The Company's present plans are in operation.

DO NOT DELAY your subscriptions. There is nothing to gain and MUCH to lose by deferring until some future date. NOW is the time to INVEST, and OUR company is the ONE to be in, for it gives you the biggest run for your money in the sace for MILLIONS. Fill in the subscription blanks NOW and sail in the good ship PROSPERITY. See our Agent. GEO. J. TRAINER.

Marle Awakes. Hilary heard from Madeleine almost daily, but they seldom met. Once or twice they made an appointment, but both hated the thought of clandestinity, and Hilary realized the need of concentrating all his thoughts upon his work. Dupont had made three more voyages, and Baptiste, who kept out of sight, had given complete satisfaction. The lumber had brought unexpectedly good prices, and there was now a probability that before navigation closed Hilary would be in a posi-tion to carry on till spring. When the winter cutting began, and there was more leisure, Hilary meant to fight out the issue with Rosny. The old man was still partly paralyzed, and he had made no reference of any kind to what had occurred, but his mind was quite clear, and, Madeleine thought, his memory.

Toward the middle of the month the newly discovered spruce supply had all been lumbered. Success seemed now almost assured. Dupont was getting ready to make his last voyage. The snow was not yet deep enough ; for the teams to be sent into the woods, and Hilary turned his thoughts once more to the island; more from eagerness to explore that part of his domain than from any thought of cutting there that winter.

Hilary was in his office one day when there came a tap at the door, and, to his astonishment, in walked Louis Duval.

The sall was a very long one. Little It was practically his last chance for six months of visiting the island. The story dames into the captain's brain. It was the solvent of his sanity, the snapping of the only bond that had linked him to the common life. For Marie's sake he had hidden his heart this acore of years, and silenced those impetuous voices calling to him to leave all and go out into the world and seek the sign which was to be tound branded upon some stranger's forehead.

He stood at the cottage door, looking at his daughter, who had risen and faced him. Jean Baptiste remained outside.

"I sail for Quebec tonight," said "Jean waits two days to Dupont omplete his cargo."

She nodded; her thoughts were far way. But it came across her mind, with momentary compassion, that she ould never see her father again.
