RANCHMEN AND BUSINESS MEN FAVOR GOOD ROADS BOND ISSUE

The Devil's Dream

(By W. E. James)

It's find to be remembered
By old friends, but as a rule
'Tis better still, not to be telling
Old tales out of school.

Last week the Dreamer received a copy of the Munday Times, owned and edited by James A. Kennedy. He edits a "colyum" under the caption of "Thinking Out Loud," (and that's what "TOL" means), in which he tells the following story:

"TOL received a copy of the Devil's River News the other day, published at Sonora, Sutton county. We looked for the reason and found that it was sent us by our old friend, W. E. James, who is associate editor of the publication. When TOL first began to set type and wash rollers in a printing office, so many years ago that we don't like to think about it, Bill James was foreman in the shop, and it was our ambition to learn the trade to the extent to where we could draw the big salary that Bill was then drawing, which was $12.50 per week.

"We didn't know anything about the printing game and made many mistakes, and Bill was always ready to pull us through when there arose a likelihood of losing our job. We recall one time changing cases and in shoving in a case of type at the front of the stand we shoved out a full case of ten point type at the rear of the stand. We knew that we were doomed, for with our meagre knowledge of the case it would require days to replace the type back in their proper places. Bill came to our rescue, however, and he and another printer threw the type back one night after supper, and all the pay they exacted of us was the price of a bucket of Budweiser.

"But perhaps we shouldn't mention it now. That was back in what some choose to call the 'good old days', but to Bill and TOL they were not near so good as some would have us believe. Neither Bill nor TOL would return to the conditions under which we worked in those days than we would want to return to the days before the electric light. Both of us are glad that we are livng in a day of enlightenment—a day when skilled workmen can demand more than $12.50 per week—a day when Budweiser has been outlawed—a day when modern machinery has replaced the long, tedious hours we worked in those days when all composition was done by hand.

You are right, TOL, these are better days than those past even if the common salaries of $75 to $100 a week lack two laps of a dollar going as far as did the $12.50 years ago—and there is no Budweiser to spend it for either.

The page ads and double page ads carried by the Times leads us to believe that TOL has more than realized his early ambition to "draw down a big salary." May your days be long and prosperous.

Robert Halbert Buys Registered Herefords

Seven herd bulls and 25 cows have been purchased from the registered stock of John M. Gist of Odessa and Midland by Robert Halbert of Sonora and Mertzon.

John B. Stoger of Stanton paid $500 for the September yearling herd bull, Bright Mariner VI, which Gist got in a recent shipment from Spruce, Mo.

Robert Halbert, Sonora ranchman, bought the cows, paying $100 a head for them. These cows, ranging in age from three to six years, were registered Herefords and Gist's own cut of his herd. The consignee also bought six registered yearling bulls, for $100 a head.

DRUG SALESMAN IS NOW LOCATED IN SONORA

P. L. Maedgen, salesman for the Southwestern Drug Corporation of Waco, was here this week. Mr. Maedgen will be stationed here and will cover the western part of his territory from Sonora.

He expects to move his family here after the first of the year and make this city his permanent home.

Made Twenty Millions

Jesse L. Livermore, famous as a "bear" speculator, is said to have cleaned up between twenty and thirty million dollars in a few days through the decline in prices on the Stock Exchange.

Boy Scouts Had Very Interesting Meeting

Pep and action galore characterized the Boy Scout meeting last Tuesday night as Scoutmaster John Eaton put the troop through a full program of scouting activities and games. The Eagle and Tiger patrols found plenty of difference of opinion as they played three strenuous and exciting rounds of "Take the Trench."

A patrol contest in the form of an imaginary football game was the hub around which revolved most of the activities. Each patrol was allowed to move the ball toward its opponent's goal by winning games, attendance, proper address of officials, and similar methods. The Tigers, though slightly outnumbered, managed to pluck the Eagle wing-feathers to the tune of eighteen to nothing, but a horrible revenge is threatened by the Eagles, who are far from beaten.

Marvin Barnes, troop scribe, is turning in regular reports of the troop meeting to the council office, and it is hoped that Troop 19 will make 100 per cent as a troop during November. Lack of a hike, and not passing enough tests kept the rating down last month.

Winter or not, this bunch of peppy Scouts will take hikes and carry on the regular program of scouting during the winter months as never before. There is room in the troop for a couple of husky candidates, but only red-blooded boys need apply.

MR. AND MRS. MAYFIELD ENTERTAINED MONDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Ed C. Mayfield entertained a few friends at a bridge party Monday, Armistice Day. At bridge, Mrs. Jack Niell won high for the ladies, and Cecil Elliott, high for the men.

A delicious salad course was served to about twenty guests.

Committee Has Been Appointed to Ascertain the Cost and See if Edwards County Will Build To County Line; Circulate Petition

That a road bond issue in the sum of approximately $200,000 would carry in this county for construction of hard-surfaced roads to the Edwards and Crockett county lines is evidenced by the support of the Sonora Lions, ranchmen and business men of this town. Out of twenty-five ranchmen and business men, there was one who objected to a bond issue for roads.

The road project was discussed Monday at the Lions club, and every member present at the meeting, will support the issue at an election which will likely be called at an early date. It is believed that $200,000 will be sufficient with which to construct eighteen miles of hard-surfaced road to the Crockett county line, about two miles to the Edwards line and improve the road to Menard.

Lions H. L. Taylor, Judge L. W. Elliott and Jack Niell were appointed by President Caldwell to ascertain the amount necessary and see what Edwards county will do toward building their road to the Sutton county line. The committee will also ascertain whether or not the issue will carry. After this is done, a petition will be circulated requesting the commissioners' court to order an election.

Lion Roy Aldwell stated that now is the proper time to build good roads since Sonora would be one of the leading livestock shipping points in West Texas, and that Rocksprings and Ozona will make this town their shipping point. Mr. Aldwell also cited the opportunity Menard had several years ago when the Frisco laid rails to that town. Menard "slept" on her rights and could have been benefited had it built good roads.

The interest shown here in a bond issue is indicated by the following statements made by ranchmen and business men:

E. E. Sawyer—"I have always favored good roads, good schools, good churches, and anything that would benefit the town and its citizens. I believe the bond issue should carry. You can count me to vote for it." Mr. Sawyer is a large tax payer, a director of the First National Bank of this place and president of a bank in Del Rio.

Sam Hull, of the Sonora Motor Company—"Sure, I am for the roads and will vote for the bond issue. I think a hard-surfaced road to the two county lines would benefit not only the town but the ranchmen."

B. B. Dunbar, who owns considerable land and livestock—"I am in favor of better roads, provided they do not increase taxes too much."

R. A. Steen, manager of the Corner Drug Store—"You can feel assured that I am in favor of the bond issue and will do all I can to see that it carries. The roads will mean much to Sonora and its citizenry."

Geo. S. Allison, who owns more than a hundred sections of land in Sutton county, and who is probably the largest tax payer—"If the people want better roads, the only way to get them is to vote bonds. Sooner or later the bonds will be voted and it should might as well be now. I will not oppose the issue and will not vote against better roads."

Ben Chsenbary, county commissioner and ranchman—"Personally speaking, I favor the bond issue, if Edwards county and Crockett will do their part."

Cleve T. Jones, ranchman and commissioner—"Not speaking as a county official, but personally, I would like to see the roads built and will not vote against the bond issue."

Sol Kelley, prominent ranchman—"I have been riding on rough roads most all my life and would like to see better roads in this county. I am in favor of a bond issue."

Ed Mayfield, who pays much taxes—"We might as well spend our money for roads as anything I know of. I am in favor of good roads and will vote for the bonds."

Judge Harvey Walker, who ranches in the eastern part of the county—"I have always encouraged the building of good roads and believe that money spent conservatively on high-type roads is one of the best investments the tax payers can make. Sure, I will vote for the issue."

Judge L. W. Elliott—"We must by all means have those roads, and we will get them."

Joe F. Logan, county commissioner—"Personally speaking, I would like to see more good roads, and will support the bond issue if the other counties will do their part."

T. C. Murray, postmaster—"I never voted against anything that was for the good of the town or community."

W. E. Caldwell, president of the Sonora Lions club and manager of the West Texas Lumber Company—"We will do our part to have better roads. Now is the time to build good roads as the Santa Fe is laying rails to this city and this will be a large shipping point. We had better take advantage of the opportunity before it is too late."

Vernon Hamilton, of the Hamilton Grocery—"I believe that the bond issue will be a fine thing if Edwards and Crockett county will build to our county line. Better roads is one of the best assets a town can have."

J. W. Trainer, ranchman and business man—"I have always wanted to Former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall was sentenced to serve one year and fined $100,000 by Justice Hitz at Washington, following his conviction of having accepted a bribe from E. L. Doheny.

Armistice Program at Lions Luncheon

"Lest We Forget" and "Armistice Day" were the two subjects of addresses made at the Lions club luncheon here Monday—Armistice Day. Rev. F. M. Jackson invoked the blessings of Almighty God for this day eleven years ago when peace came abruptly to the world and the World War ended.

Lion Aldwell's address, "Lest We Forget" the unknown soldier, referring to a cartoon in Liberty, Mr. Aldwell said it was not the flowers that were piled upon the grave of the dead heroes that counted so much, but that it was the caring for the "Unknown" soldiers of today, who are suffering from the deadly gases while "over there."

Lion Aldwell also stated that Armistice Day is gradually fading away in the minds of many, and that only those who suffered in action and overseas, and to the mothers and sisters who gave loved ones, could appreciate see good roads and we should have better ones. I will vote for the bond issue."

W. F. McBride, manager of the Sonora Drug Company—"If Crockett and Edwards county builds to our county line and we failed to meet their good roads, we would be building a wall around our city, telling the world that we did not care for their business. We must have the roads."

Orion Brown, bootmaker—"I never voted against a bond issue in my life. I think the roads would be a good investment and help our town and county."

J. D. Westbrook, manager of the West Texas Utilities Co.—"I am personally in-favor of the bond issue and it is my belief that the West Texas Utilitise would be glad to see the bond issue carry."

R. C. Hill—"We can't afford to miss this golden opportunity. I understand that Ozona and Rocksprings will aid us in a business way if we had good roads between the towns. I am going to vote for the good roads." Mr. Hill is proprietor of Hill's Cafe.

Miss Clara Allison, of the A. & W. Drug—"You can be safe in saying that I will vote for the bond issue, and would like well to see Sutton county have better roads, as they will mean much to our town."

Harry Leaman, dry goods merchant—"Good roads to these two towns would be a fine thing, and I hope they will be built."

W. C. Gilmore, hardware dealer—"I am for the road bonds, and will do all in my power to see that they are voted. We need better roads and should have them."

W. L. Aldwell, president of the First National Bank—"There is no question but that Sutton county can afford to vote the bonds. Now is an opportune time to build the roads."

W. A. Miers, who owns more sheep than any other one man in Texas—"The roads would be a fine thing, and I am in favor of the bond issue. The coming of the railroad will necessitate better roads and a modern hotel."

C. E. Stites, of Stites Motor Co.—"I am in favor of anything that is for the upbuilding of our town and community, and believe the roads will help to do that."

M. H. Balkum, of City Garage—"I believe the roads would be a fine thing and will do my part to see that the bonds carry."

LOCAL OFFICERS CAPTURE STILL AND LIQUOR

Sheriff B. W. Hutcherson, J. L. Cook and Joe Lancaster seized a 40-gallon copper still near Camp Allison Monday, and S. L. Shroyer, upon whose land the still was found, gave a $1,500 bond. About 100 gallons of mash and ten gallons of whiskey were brought to town for evidence. Shroyer is charged with possession and manufacture of intoxicating liquor.

The still, according to one of the officers, showed signs that it had been in operation for sometime.

Shroyer was arrested before the still was captured. He was charged with disturbing the peace.

SAM HULL LANDS HUGE BASS ON DEVIL'S RIVER

Sam R. Hull takes the cake when it comes to catching the largest bass. Recently he and two other fishermen were on Devil's River when he landed a six and one-half-pound bass. This is the largest fish of that kind Mr. Hull ever caught. He caught one on the Llano that weighed six pounds.

Mr. Hull brought the fish to town as evidence that his efforts were not fruitless. The fish measured over twenty inches.

Many Sonora Women Attend Cooking School

At least fifty or sixty women of this city have been attending the cooking school held in the Vander Stucken building by the West Texas Utilities Company. Miss Stella Floyd and Louie Hoffmaster have been in charge of the school.

This is the third time Miss Floyd and Mr. Hoffmaster have conducted a school of this kind in Sonora for the Hotpoint company.

At least one hundred electric ranges are now in use by the housewives of this town. J. D. Westbrook, local manager of the Utilities, said.

Cold Wave Sends Mercury to Freezing

The thermometer here early this morning registered 26 degrees Fahrenheit, or six degrees below freezing point. It was the coldest weather of the season here, however since Sunday it has been cold.

Ranchmen report that water tanks in places were frozen and that water pipes had burst.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rees and daughter, Miss Thelma, spent Armistice with their son, Horace Rees, in Big Lake.

ate most that great day when the big guns ceased firing.

Lion W. E. James' address, "Armistice Day," was interesting and was enjoyed by about thirty Lions and visitors. His address follows:

"Armistice Day"

"Greater love hath no man than this, That a man lay down his life for his friends." A truth uttered by the Man of Galilee over nineteen hundred years ago, that is as applicable today as it was at that time. It was demonstrated during the greatest war of all ages, known to us as the World War; a war involving twenty-seven nations and taking as its toll the lives of 7,450,200 patriots; the war which terminated so abruptly on November 11, 1918—eleven years ago.

All over this great country of ours men cease from their labors on this particular day to pay tribute to the memory of those boys who made the supreme sacrifice that we might enjoy the fruits of peace.

This is a day of thanksgiving and prayer; a day saddened by memories that lose the sharpness of pain as the years roll on. Hearts that were broken, homes that were made desolate by the ravages of that gigantic struggle between militarism and democracy, have been soothed and mended, and today the trend of events is toward a universal peace, and fulfillment of that last great command: "That ye love one another, as I have loved you."

One hundred and sixty-one thousand and sixty-five of the four million American soldiers, were sons of the Lone Star State, who answered the bonds carry."

NEEDS FOR BETTER ROADS

At the Lions club Monday, Lion Roy E. Aldwell and a few other Lions told of the need for better roads from Sonora to Ozona and to Rocksprings. The need is so great, Lion Aldwell emphasized, that Sonora and Sutton county have a golden opportunity to build a bigger and better town. Sonora will be one of the greatest livestock shipping points in the United States, and naturally the shippers will do a large portion of their business here. This depends upon the roads from other towns to Sonora.

Rocksprings, it is understood, is willing to give Sonora her business if she had a hard-surfaced road to Sonora. Ozona will vote on a $450,000 road bond at an early date. Crockett county intends to build a good road to the Sutton county line.

It is now up to the voters of this city and county whether or not we let a wonderful opportunity go by without doing our best to see that the bond issue carries. When a committee asks you to sign a petition ordering an election, sign it, and then when the day comes for the election do what you should do and vote for the issue.

A committee has been appointed from the Lions club to ascertain the cost to the county for this construction. The state and federal government will give twice the amount the county spends for the roads.

Citizens and voters, get out and work for the bond issue. Don't let the other fellow do all the work—do your bit if you have any pride for your town.

BITES HAND THAT FEEDS HIM

In Clearwater, Iowa, there was a baker who continually urged his home-town merchants and citizens to buy his bread. A bakery from a nearby city was sending its wares to Clearwater, and that angered the baker in that city. This baker in Clearwater, it was discovered, purchased his salt for his bread in the neighboring town. Yet, he had the audacity to ask his home people to buy Clearwater bread.

It was also found that this Iowa baker was using statements, telling the world that he did not patronize home industries. The statements he used bore the imprint of printing shop in a neighboring town.

This baker was like the dog, that, in his manger, bit the hand that was trying to feed him. How could this baker, or any other business man, have a right to ask for home patronage when he bought his goods in another town? There are some in Texas, and not very far distant, who do like the town baker.

If you want the people in your town to patronize you, then you, in turn, should buy your necessities at home. This will apply to salt, dry goods, groceries, hardware, lumber, printing, and other goods that can be purchased in your home town.—Exchange.

CRIMINALS IN OFFICE

Albert B. Fall, convicted of using his post as Secretary of the Interior to extort a bribe of $100,000 for leasing oil lands belonging to the people at an inadequate rate, faces a year in prison and a fine of $100,000.

That is encouraging to everybody but the sentimentalists who let their pity for a sick man obscure their indignation at his betrayal of his trust. It is time that a few men who have used their official positions to feather their own nests were put in jail. Nobody believes that Fall is the only public official who ever took a bribe. The general belief is that such things are common among the men who administer public affairs. This cynical attitude on the part of the public accounts for a great deal of the disrespect for law which is one of the grave conditions in America today.

Fall's conviction and sentence have already done much to dispel the notion that a man in high office can commit more unfaithful public servants would help restore confidence in law and justice.

WHAT HAPPENED IN WALL STREET

The principal sufferers from the slump in the stock market are the business enterprises which purvey luxuries to the newly rich. One New York "beauty parlor" which charged a minimum fee of $25 for a "treatment" has already closed its doors. The "exclusive" jewelry shops where no customer was really welcome unless he had a hundred thousand dollars to spend report a decided falling off in sales. One Fifth Avenue furrier who had imported some Russian sables to make a $50,000 wrap for the wife of a Wall Street gambler has had the garment thrown back on his hands and is now advertising it for sale for a mere $30,000!

Slackening of trade in things like those represents no real economic loss; quite the contrary. The $50,000 which the furrier did not get for his sables is now in the hands of gentlemen who know what to do with money. It will be invested in something which will enable some great manufacturing establishment to add a dozen workers to its payroll. And that is worth more to all of us than a dozen sable wraps.

There is just as much money in the country as there was. Payrolls are as large as ever, and growing. The businesses whose shares have declined in price are earning as much as they did before. The folk who have lost money are those who tried to get something for nothing by buying stocks at more than they were even more gullible.

What has really happened is that a vast amount of money and credit has been taken out of the hands of wasters and has got into the bank accounts of men of constructive vision. Most of this money will now go into useful channels.

Roy Ward was in town Wednesday transacting business.

their country's call. To these brave Texans—as to all American and allied forces—we owe an everlasting gratitude and a lifetime of service.

Let us not on this memorable day think lightly nor forget the men who took our places in the trenches and braved the furies of a living hell that we might have peace and plenty.

November 11, 1918, was a day never to be forgotten, and one which will go down in history as the world's greatest memorable event. Millions upon millions of people rejoiced that the gigantic struggle had come to an end. But it was the mothers of the nations whose hearts were made gladdest, and saddest. 'Twas the mothers of men who suffered most. Those whose sons were restored, rejoiced, and shared their sympathies with mothers whose sons had passed to the Great Beyond, never to return, yet whose spirits hover around the old fireside. Who among us can measure a mother's love or her sympathy?

"Mothers are the queerest things,

Member when John went away,

All but mother cried and cried

When they said good-bye that day.

She just talked, and seemed to be

Not the slightest bit upset—

Was the only one who smiled!

Others' eyes were streaming wet.

But when John came back again

From the war, safe and sound,

With a medal for his deeds,

And without a single wound;

While the rest of us hurraed,

Laughed and joked and danced about,

Mother kissed him, then she cried—

Cried and cried like all git out!"

We should regard with respect and affection those Gold Star Mothers whose sons died that we might live.

We should be every ready to lend a helping hand, and by kind words and loving deeds seek to soothe their broken and bleeding hearts.

This day our prayers alone should not be uttered for the abolishment of wars, but for peace and understanding, which when attained there will no longer exist a desire for war. Misunderstandings between man and his fellowman, struggles between cities and principalities, will have vanished and nation will answer nation with an echo from the angels of God—"On earth peace, good will toward men!"

Wild Game Plentiful in Old Mexico

Deer, quail, bear and turkey are said to be plentiful in Old Mexico, across from Del Rio. Juan Diego, a Mexican who resides in Del Rio, has 200,000 acres of new hunting ground, and is selling hunting rights, according to G. W. Stephenson.

Horses, guides and hunting range furnished at reasonable rates. Groceries and other supplies can be purchased in Villa Acuna, Mexico, at Hunters' Headquarters, at approximately 15 per cent higher than in the United States. It is cheaper to outfit here than at home.

Information:

Go to your closest Mexican Consulate to get passport, hunting license, and permit for gun. If there is no Mexican Consul in your territory, come to Del Rio, Texas, with a letter from your chamber of commerce of your own town, to identify yourself, bringing six passport pictures.

The cost to go hunting in Mexico is approximately as follows:

- Passport $1.00
  - Hunting license for ten days 1.50
  - Hunting license for 30 days 5.00
  - Permit to cross arms and ammunition 5.00
  - Bond car and equipment 7.50
- Cars also furnished here for transportation to hunting grounds. Each man can bring one rifle and

Folks, Crockett county is calling an election to vote road bonds in the sum of $450,000. That county wants to build to our county line, and you know what that means for this town. Do we want their trade or not? If we do, let's vote for the bonds. The state and federal government will put up two dollars for every dollar we vote—that would give us $600,000 with which to build good roads to Crockett and Edwards county lines. Now is an opportune time to build the roads before it is too late—before some other railroad town builds to these two counties and then it would be too late.

Speaking about crime in office, Texas has it as well as the federal government. Hamilton and Brady, both well-known Texas jurists, have committed two of the most grave crimes in Texas history. Texas is the most lenient state in the union on criminals. There are fewer murders committed in England than in the Lone Star state. Think of it, England has hundreds and hundreds more people than Texas, yet there is less crime there than in Texas. It is hard to get by with crime in England.

There is a time in the average man's life when he longs for the pleasant surroundings of a happy home. Many satisfy that longing while others, not willing to sacrifice part of their present income for their future welfare put it off. But the man who makes the sacrifice is the one who comes out ahead in the end, for he not only enjoys his home while paying for it but has a permanent investment of which he will be proud in the years to come.

Bronchos Thump Angelo Junior Hi

Saturday, November 2, the Sonora Bronchos took the measure of Coach Jackson's Junior High Gridders of San Angelo, 20 to 0.

The Juniors waged a creditable battle against a tougher and older combination. Despite the fact that the Juniors were outclassed, they fought to the final whistle and displayed a stubbornness that could well be emulated by older, experienced elevens.

The outcome of the game was never in doubt. Trainer, for the locals, in the first few minutes on a series of endruns, carried the ball over for a counter and after that, as chronicled by the San Angelo Standard, it was just "too much Trainer." The rest of the backfield, inspired by Trainer's broken-field runs, turned in a few snappy gallops themselves, interspersed with an occasional thrust at the line. Sam Logan paved the way for another Broncho touchdown when he covered a fumble a few inches from the goal. Hoot Kidd performed well in the backfield. Hank Kidd's punting was up to the standard. Jack Pfeister played his usual hard-hitting game. Pete Taylor developed quite a flare at punching the tackle slot. Captain Brown, barked signals like a professional and hurried his team over for a touchdown before the opposition got set. Last year the Bronchos received a 12-0 pasting at the hands of the Juniors.

Miss Nordice Hudler, a teacher in the San Angelo Junior High school, spent the week-end with Mrs. Ed C. Mayfield.

J. T. STOKES

I suffered with indigestion and would bloat up so after meals I couldn't fasten my clothing, and had awful pains in my stomach, between my shoulders and around my liver. It's wonderful what the Sargon treatment did for me. Every pain in my body is gone, I eat hearty meals and my digestion is perfect. I'm so strong and well now I can put in a hard day's work with the best of them. The clothes I couldn't fasten are loose on me now and I feel like a different man.

AID FOR VETERANS IS RED CROSS PLEDGE

Service and Ex-Service Men Are Helped in All Problems.

Service to World War veterans in hospital, for able-bodied veterans, and for dependent families of both called for expenditures of $738,000 by the American Red Cross during the year just ended. In addition, Red Cross Chapters spent $1,963,000 in veteran relief, and also for men still in service.

Although eleven years have passed since the Armistice, there remain 25,500 disabled and sick veterans of the World War in hospitals, and the peak of the number who will require hospitalization is not expected by Veterans Bureau authorities to be reached until 1947. For these men the Red Cross must continue its service of providing recreation and comforts, according to James L. Fieser, vice chairman of the Red Cross.

"Under its Charter from Congress, the Red Cross is required to maintain service for veterans of wars and for the men still in the service," Mr. Fieser said. "The funds for this work come from the annual roll call membership fees. In addition to the sum spent in maintaining contact with the veterans, the Red Cross expended $308,900 in its service to the men still in the regular Army, Navy and Marine Corps. The society and a majority of its 3,500 chapters handle claims for these men for insurance, compensation and other benefits they are entitled to under the law, and also where necessary arrange to provide for dependents of the men.

"Red Cross workers are maintained in forty-eight Veterans Bureau Hospitals, as well as in all regular Army and Navy hospitals, whose duty it is to supervise recreational facilities for the patients, and to provide small comforts. In the Army and Navy Hospitals, the workers also do social service for the patients. These tasks also are performed at all Army Posts and Navy Ports by Red Cross workers, and in addition Red Cross representatives to handle claims are established at the majority of Veterans Bureau regional offices."

Mr. Fieser urged that all citizens enroll in the Roll Call, from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day, November 11 to 28, in order to aid in supporting this work.

NEW CROPS IN FLOODED STATES BRING PROSPERITY

The introduction of new habits of planting, following the Mississippi Valley flood of 1927, has brought added prosperity to farmers in many of the Mississippi Delta counties, according to Red Cross officials.

Almost every cabin has a fine vegetable garden, whereas cotton formerly grew right to the doorstep, the Red Cross states. The home demonstration and agricultural agents have followed up the project inaugurated by the Red Cross, immediately after the flood of 1927, with very gratifying success. There is a large acreage in corn whereas formerly cotton was the one crop. Alfalfa has gained a firm foothold, and the growing of this crop is bringing good financial returns from the three or four cuttings each year. Live stock also is showing improvement due to these new crops.

Everything considered, the Delta sections which escaped a backwater problem in the Spring of 1929 are in a prosperous condition, as a result of the follow-up and rehabilitation by the American Red Cross.

RED CROSS HONOR FLAG GOES TO NEW HAMPSHIRE

The honor flag, given annually to the State which enrolls the greatest percentage of its population as member of the American Red Cross, went this year to New Hampshire. The decision was so close between New Hampshire and Vermont that it hung in the balance for a time. California ranked third in the honor list and Connecticut fourth.

A final tabulation of figures of the 1928 Roll Call showed a nation-wide membership of 4,127,946. The banner rests with New Hampshire, where it is hung in the State House, until the 1929 Roll Call—held between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving Day—is completed and new figures available for the 1929 winner.

FIVE RED CROSS CAMPS HOUSE FLOOD REFUGEES

A total of 27,791 persons were maintained by the American Red Cross in camps or in their own homes in the three States of Alabama, Georgia and Florida, following the disastrous floods of early last Spring. Five camps were organized, of which four were in Alabama and one in Florida. Small temporary camps were set up in various places in addition to these, but the persons not sheltered in the five main camps soon were able to return home or to friends and relatives.

Red Cross nurses were at all five camps, assisting the State health authorities in care of the sick and in inoculating against epidemics.

Belcher Announces Congressional Planks

C. C. Belcher, candidate for congress to succeed C. B. Hudspeth, who has said he will not be a candidate to succeed himself at the end of his current term, announces in part his platform upon which he will run this race. The main planks declare against the need of securing a certificate of convenience and necessity for building a railway; declare in favor of aid in marketing problems; assert his belief that the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill now in the senate is a good bill insofar as sheep and goats are concerned but that some raises are needed to care for the cattlemen. He also favors the continued restrictions against the foot and mouth disease. He also favors a campaign against the pink boll worm.

Was District Attorney
In much of the territory over which he will travel, voters will be reminded of his days as district attorney when he left the greatest record for convictions ever established in the district.

His statement of platform follows: "I favor a high tariff on all products of the farm and ranch, a tariff to be high enough to prevent unfair competition with wools, mohair, livestock, and farm products, produced in any foreign country where cheap or pauper labor is employed and the lands are free or cheaply owned. I am not opposed to other interests in other sections of the country securing an adequate high tariff, not out of proportion to that of raw materials.

"I endorse in almost its entirety the schedules now contained in the senate committee report on the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill insofar as it affects wool, mohair, sheep and goats. I think live cattle and dressed meats should bear much higher specific duties than 15 per cent ad valorem.

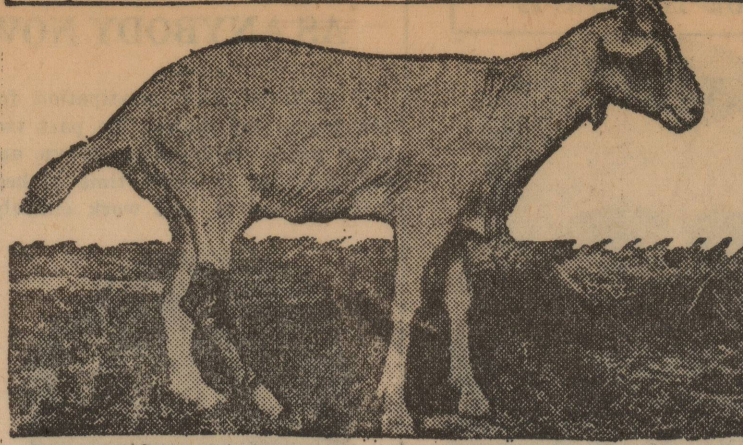

"I think there should be a high tariff levied on long staple cotton, to protect our producers against importation of similar products of Egypt, where cotton is produced by pauper labor. I believe in a high tariff on coconut oils and other oils that come into competition with cottonseed oil.

Opposes Rail System
"I feel that manufacturers of shoes and leathers should be adequately protected against the products of a foreign country, but am quite certain that compensating duties given them in the Hawley-Smoot bill are entirely out of proportion to that given hides.

"I am opposed to the Interstate Commerce Commission having the right and power to stifle the building through newly developed communities or isolated communities entitled to development by the building of such railways. I am opposed to laws and regulation which makes it necessary for any builder of railroads or for any community seeking new railroad facilities being required to go before the Interstate Commerce Commission and prove to said board that a necessity exists for the building of the same. If elected to congress it will be my promise to amend such law and regulations, doing away with the certificate of necessity by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"I stand for a better system of marketing farm products to the end that producers of same can sell their

Missionary Society Observes Prayer Week

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church observed two days of the week of prayer with appropriate programs. A very liberal donation of $20 was given to be used for the retired missionaries and deacons. Two meetings were held this week, Tuesday with Mrs. Lem Johnson and Wednesday with Mrs. Ira Shurley.

Anything donated to the rummage sale will be greatly appreciated. Please send it to the church or notify the committee and it will be called for. Next Wednesday will be the election of officers. Let everyone be present.

The Society will put on a Christmas sale in the early part of December. Watch for the date.

Barry was sorely distressed about this condition and declared that he favored increasing taxes to the limit for these barefoot farmer boys; and really I thought that he would by now have a plan to have colleges in every farmer's backyard. Barry must have decided that the great mass of voters were not clamoring for heavier taxes right at this time of low prices and is waiting for Jim and I to propose something that will strike a popular chord and then he will use our thunder to secure votes for himself and Tom Love.

SOME OF YOUR QUESTIONS ABOUT STARGAS
STARGAS Starts Where Gas Mains Stop

STARGAS—the Compressed Natural Gas, available in portable cylinders—brings all of the city conveniences of gas to rural and suburban homes. STARGAS is ideal for cooking, heating water, refrigeration and lighting. In considering STARGAS for your own use, there are five questions that you will very naturally ask—here are the answers:

Is STARGAS Used the Same as Pipe Line Gas?

Yes—even the same time-tried appliances are used, with minor adjustments. And the house is piped the same. STARGAS is NOT an experiment, but builds on the sure foundation of Natural Gas, which has been the CONVENTIONAL fuel for so long, because STARGAS is Natural Gas in compressed form, now made available in sections not served by pipe lines.

How Long Does a Cylinder of STARGAS Last?

This varies. Cylinders are lasting some families better than two months for cooking; other families use a cylinder in shorter time. The life of a cylinder of STARGAS depends on the number and type of appliances served and the care exercised. Not recommended for heating.

Is a Customer Likely to Be Out of STARGAS at Any Time?

Not if he orders a full cylinder as soon as one becomes empty. One point that insures continuous service is the fact that the company back of STARGAS has millions of dollars invested in the natural gas industry.

Is STARGAS Safe to Use?

Yes. STARGAS offers the same safety as pipe line gas, as reflected by the approval of Underwriters Laboratories.

Will the Installation of STARGAS Affect My Insurance?

No. The rate is not affected nor any insurance invalidated when properly installed.

By means of STARGAS, rural and suburban homes can now use the same modern equipment and appliances that city homes use. It is no longer necessary to accept substitutes for the highest type of modern fuel. The one STARGAS installation furnishes fuel for all needs, cooking, heating water, refrigeration, lighting, ironing, etc. See actual STARGAS demonstration now at...

(By Cecille)

Milady's coat this season will be of the charming new wrap-around style shown in the illustration, with shawl collar and swirl cuffs.

Of necessity the coats will be longer—a natural concession to the new mode in dresses.

Of course, the new coats are all versions of the new silhouette and designed for the mode of slender, chic showing the new flares or slightly molded straight lines.

Among the favorite furs are beaver, lapin, caracul, Persian lamb, raccoon, kit fox, Canadian wolf, badger and Russian lynx.

Fabrics are varied, and include Kashmere and suede, broadcloths, velour de noir and imported tweeds.

Individually appropriate fur trimmings are the boast of the shops, so Milady is confronted with a great many styles of trimmings to choose from. Indeed, this idea of individual fitness in all things is gaining a greater and greater hold on the world of fashion. Perhaps a revolt against the sameness of most things—who knows? Even the men are beginning to look for variety and exclusive individuality! Can women do less?

This Fall the woman has her choice in coats and frocks of Princess, flare and wrap silhouettes—all three most charming and effective.

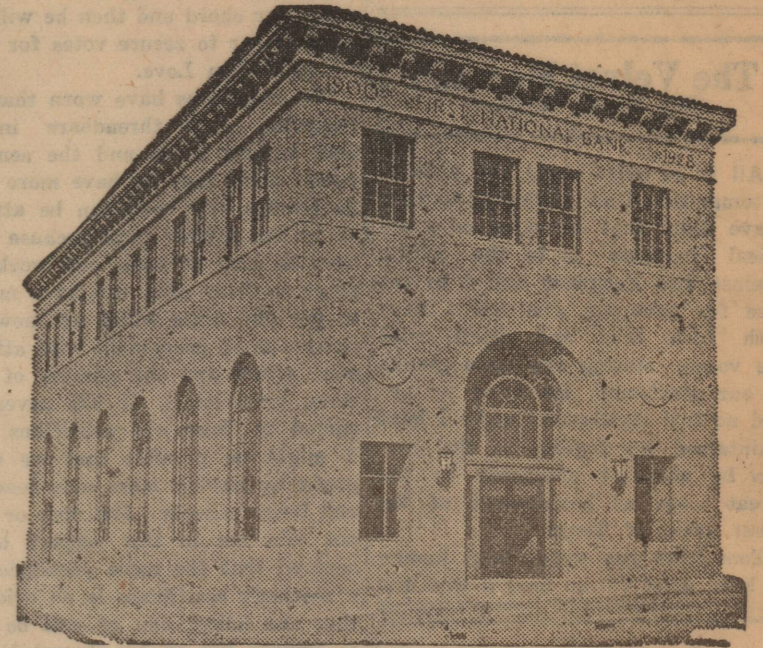

There seems to be a positive vogue for smart daytime things in black.

Anyone who lunches on that New York avenue of fashion, Park Avenue, cannot fail to notice this. One suit of nappy dull-finished worsted was observed, extensively urred in shaved Persian lamb, with a vestee and collar of the fur, sleeve capes and narrow cuffs and wide, triangular front panels down the spirt of the tight waisted coat. To perfect this ravishing outfit, there was a black felt hat with Persian lamb draping it for a turban brim. A jeweled pin was worn stuck through one side.

LEAMAN DEPARTMENT STORE IS PUTTING ON A B'G SALE

Leaman's Department Store started a price-slashing sale Thursday and will continue it for several days. Mr. Leaman wants to prove, he said, that he can sell goods as cheap in Sonora as can be bought in other towns.

He extends an invitation to everyone to attend this sale and see what he is offering to the people.

Don't Fool Yourself

Keeping money, jewels or valuable papers behind a loose brick in the fire place is not a wise thing to do.

No place in a house or office is beyond reach of the smooth-fingered burglar—you are only fooling yourself to think so.

The cost of absolute safety in our safety vaults is so small it is not to be counted. Stop in and talk with us about it.

"There Is No Substitute for Safety"

A MISSTATEMENT YOU SHOULD INSTANTLY

CHALLENGE!

One of the favorite resources of the tire dealer who has an inferior product to sell is the time-worn misstatement "All tires are about alike." It is his interest to have you believe that; otherwise he rarely could make a sale. Is there, however, any truth in the claim? Has it ever been true?

It would be strange indeed—if "all tires are about alike"—that one tire consistently should set the pace year after year for the march of the whole industry. It would be even stranger—if "all tire are about alike"—that one tire against the vigorous competition of all others steadily should sweep into a position of indubitable dominance.

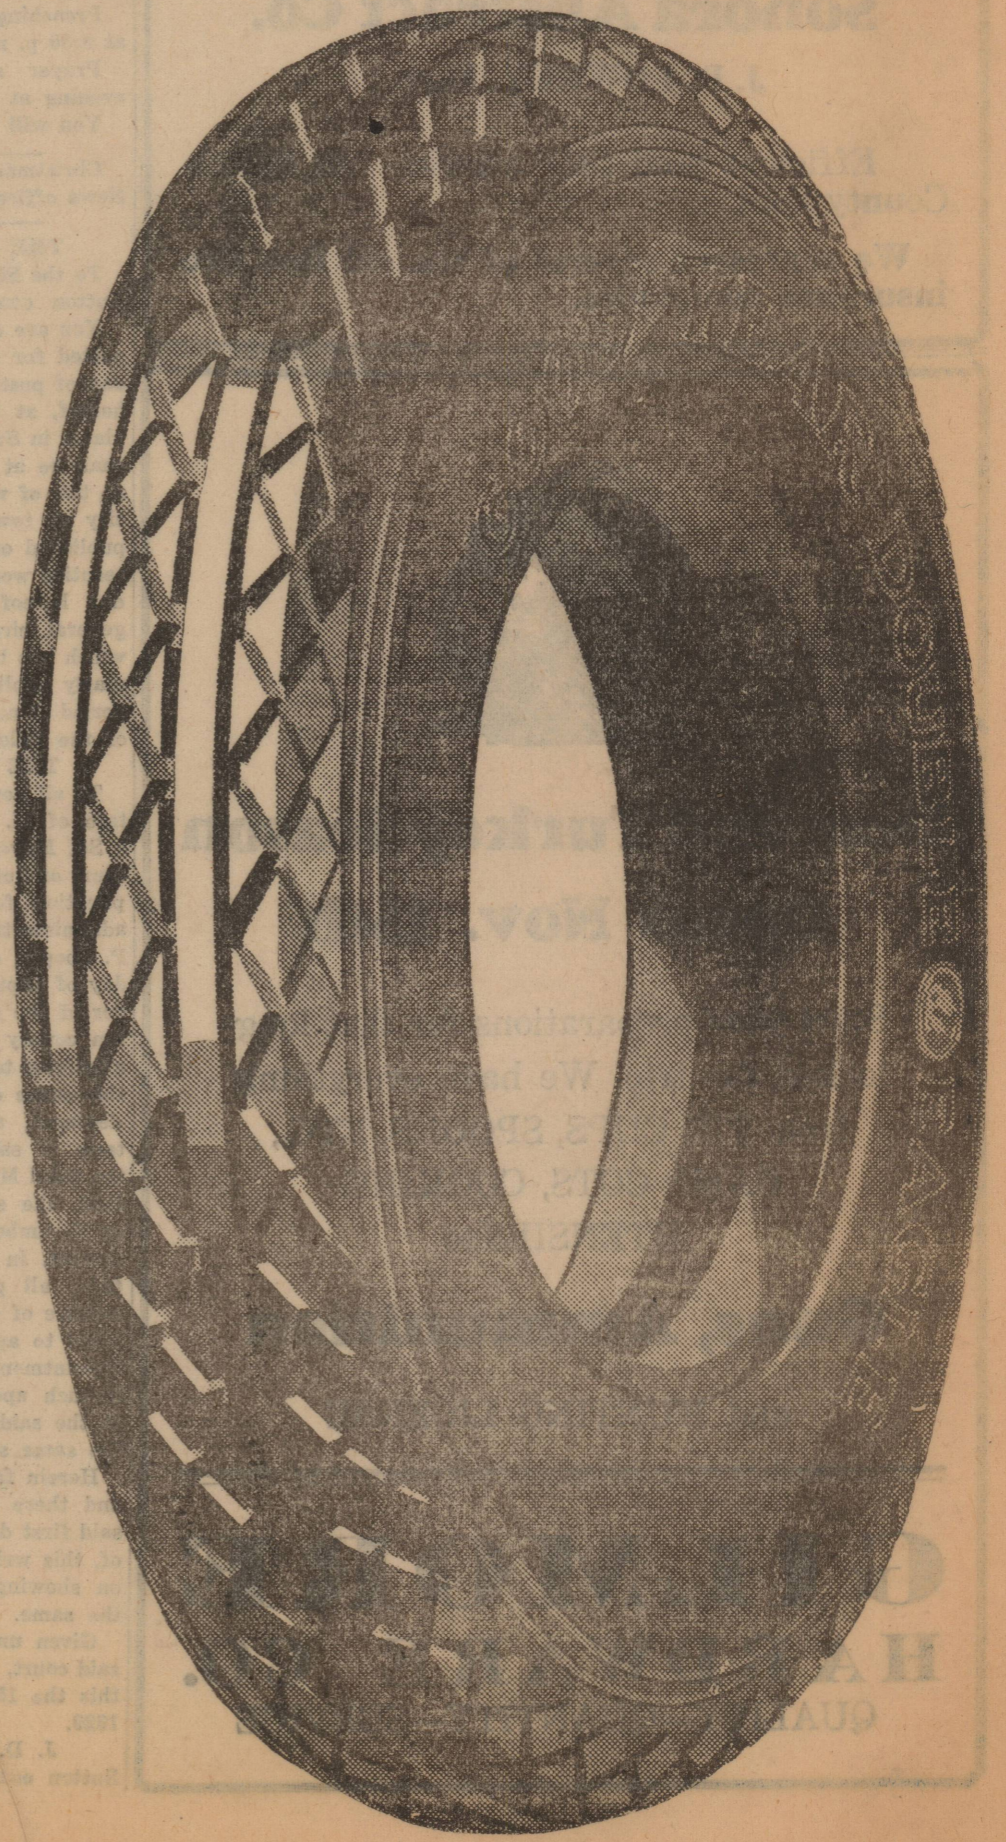

It would be even yet more strange—if "all tires are about alike"—that one tire should so succeed to public confidence and favor that last year its percentage of gain in sales recorded nearly three times the percentage of gain in sales recorded for the industry as a whole. Yet one tire has done all these things—and that tire is the Goodyear Tire! That is why Goodyear, a comparatively young enterprise, has grown to be the largest rubber company in the world.

Challenge the dealer who seeks to get your good money on the specious idea that "all tires are about alike." They may be priced about alike, but there the resemblance ends. We will demonstrate to you the superiority of a Goodyear both in tread and carcass—the two main parts of a tire.
