June is a traditional time for hearing the words "speak now or forever hold your peace."

However, the question that we would like to hear any objections to now is another type of matter. But still a very serious one.

A group of citizens is considering moving the veterans memorial marker from its present location on the east edge of Sonora on Highway 290 to the Courthouse lawn.

There are several advantages to the move. The marker would be in an attractive setting where it would receive perpetual care. It would be near a flag pole so that a flag could be flown over it on Memorial Day.

It would be a particularly appropriate spot since Texans who served the Confederacy are remembered in the marker already on the Courthouse lawn.

If anyone has reasons for not moving the marker, he may send them to the Devil's River News.

If there are no serious objections, the marker will be moved June 15.

"Break-away signs," designed to give the motorist a "softer" accident, are now being tested at A&M University and installed to a limited extent at strategic locations on Texas Interstate highways for further study under field conditions.

Although motorists have as yet been uncooperative in hitting the new signs, tests with driverless vehicles prove successful. The post snaps at ground level and at the base of the sign. This allows the sign portion to sail overhead while the motorist comes to a safer stop.

Signs represented a major potential factor in the 6,163 accidents involving vehicles in collision with fixed objects on Texas highways last year.

For the way-out younger set Neiman-Marcus offers Fleurs de Feet—Decals for toe-nails.

"They'll all be too bug-eyed at your posy-toesies . . . We call them a gasser. Swim with 'em. Shower with 'em.

"Kick up your wiggly toes. Now, don't cop out, be the first bird on the beach to go toe-happy. $2.50 for a box which covers 6 pairs of 5-toed feet. (Watch out for mother and kid sisters—set breakers, all). And when Dad gives you that 'ye gads' look, point out patiently how warm they'll keep your toe-nails."

And as the ad says, "Who'll notice your flat feet?"

TS&GRA Sets Meeting, Texas Miss Wool Show

The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association will conduct its summer quarterly meeting at the Lincoln Hotel in Odessa, June 18 and 19. The meeting will be in conjunction with the Miss Wool of Texas Pageant the night of June 18 in Ector High School Auditorium in Odessa.

Among subjects up for discussion in the quarterly meeting will be a proposed new promotional program on lamb marketing.

Jerry Puckett represented the TS&GRA at the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation meeting in Mission when the Secretaries of Agriculture of this country and Mexico met there, and will give a report on that meeting.

Twelve Texas girls are finalists in the Miss Wool program. The winner will represent the Texas wool and mohair industry during the coming year.

The contestants are Janice Archer of Austin, Jeraldine Broussard of Houston, Connie Paige Chadwell of Junction, Sharon

City-Wide Clean Up Campaign Begins

Mayor A. E. Prugel was authorized to request a city-wide clean up campaign effective immediately at the city commission meeting Monday, June 7.

The commission urged residents of Sonora to begin now cleaning their yards and vacant lots and placing the trash on the edge of the street. Beginning June 28, the city will provide free two week pick-up service for the trash.

Other business at the meeting included the Rev. George Stewart, president of the Sonora Diamond Jubilee, requesting various help from the city concerning the 75th celebration.

He requested the use of the main street during the duration of the celebration and asked that it be completely closed August 20 and 21 for the parade and street dance. He asked that between August 15-19 parking be limited to one side of the street.

A contract for the paving of the swimming pool parking area was approved, and the commissioners announced that the pool is now open.

West Portion of Interstate Highway 10 Viewed at Public Hearing Monday

The west 15.9 miles of Interstate 10 from the Crockett County line to a point 5.1 miles west of Sonora was the subject of a hearing at the County Courthouse Tuesday.

About 40 people, many of them Highway Department employees, were on hand to view the map which stretched the width of the courtroom, but no objection was raised to the new route.

Joe Lane, resident engineer, said that the portion on display would be a 4-lane divided high-

Sonoran's Brother Dies Sat. at Llano

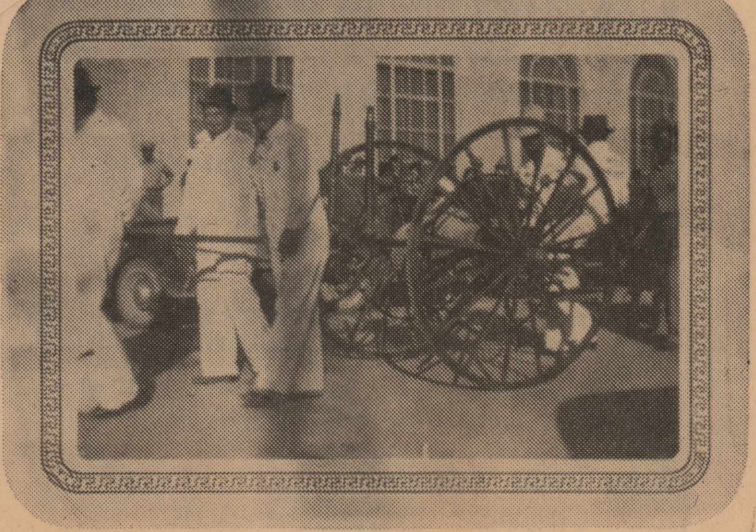

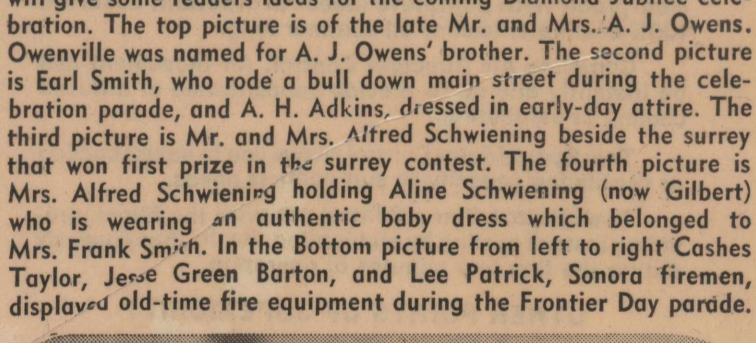

Charles Melvin Draper, brother of Raymond Draper, died in Llano Saturday, June 5, as a result of injuries received in a one-car automobile accident three miles west of Llano.

Draper, a Llano radio and television repairman, was 27 years old. He was born January 13, 1938, and had lived in Llano all his life. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Funeral services were held Sunday, 2 p.m., at the Waldrop Funeral Home Chapel in Llano with burial in Cole Creek Cemetery.

Survivors include his brother; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Draper of Llano; two sisters, Mrs. Gene Gilcrease and Mrs. Vernon Radetsky, both of San Antonio; and his grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Draper of San Antonio.

SONORANS RELIVE THE PAST. In 1939 the P-TA sponsored a Frontier Day here. It was said to have been quite a celebration, with the whole town taking part. Here is an example of how some Sonorans costumed themselves for the celebration. Perhaps this will give some readers ideas for the coming Diamond Jubilee celebration. The top picture is of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Owens. Owensville was named for A. J. Owens' brother. The second picture is Earl Smith, who rode a bull down main street during the celebration parade, and A. H. Adkins, dressed in early-day attire. The third picture is Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schwiening beside the surrey that won first prize in the surrey contest. The fourth picture is Mrs. Alfred Schwiening holding Aline Schwiening (now Gilbert) who is wearing an authentic baby dress which belonged to Mrs. Frank Smith. In the Bottom picture from left to right Cashes Taylor, Jesse Green Barton, and Lee Patrick, Sonora firemen, displayed old-time fire equipment during the Frontier Day parade.

Editorials... Features... Columns...

PUT IT ON PAGE ONE

"Now, please put it on the front page where everybody will see it!" How often we newspaper folks hear that!

Why, bless your hearts, gentle readers, if we thought people read only the first page, we'd print one page every week and quit.

A newspaper is a good deal like a store. The front page corresponds to the show window. Inside you'll find the goods you're after. We publishers know that the backbone of our product is composed of the messages and offerings of our advertisers. Without the ads, a newspaper just wouldn't be worth taking home — if, in fact, it were printed at all!

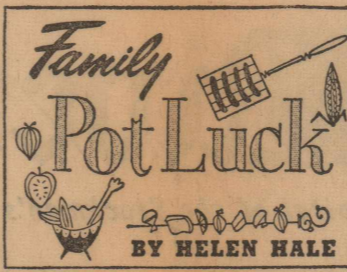

As for news — well the most features in any newspaper, speaking from the feminine viewpoint to which we cater, are the personals and the social news. Inside also you'll find the sports department, informative letters sent in by our correspondents, classified advertisements, legal publications. Some folks even read the special columns and the editorials!

Of course the front page of a newspaper is attention compelling — it should be. But never make the mistake of thinking that your newspaper stops there.

Read it each week from the front page to the back page. You'll find every column is well worth your attention.

Staff Sergeant Melvin (Buster) Shroyer writes from the Philippine Islands the following: "Saw some natives today. They are a small people and look like Negroes. They live up in the hills. They wear very few clothes and are very small, only a few over five feet tall. They file their teeth off to a point—even the little kids. They eat monkeys, bananas, or anything they can find in the hills. They are friendly, but do not come around camp much. They use a bow and arrow for killing game, so if I can I am going to get one to send home. Another good thing, they don't like the Japs any more than I do."

June 14, 1935
 Letters received from boys at the Merton Boy Scout Camp were as follows: "Dear Friends: We are cleaning up the camp this morning. We have been learning to swim. We go in swimming every morning about 9:00 o'clock and about 3:30 in the evening. We are going to have marksmanship today. I have been having a good time. Thomas Thorp"; and, "The members of Troop 19 are working on their camp at the present time. We have a very good camp although we did not win camp inspection. It rained slowly all last night (Monday). I have been serving on the kitchen police force ever since Sunday night. I am having a very fine time. Claude Thomas Driskell"

 Mr. and Mrs. Curt Allison and

Mrs. George Allison and son, Sam, were in Sonora shopping Wednesday.

W. A. Miers and D. B. Cusenbary were overheard talking about their boys Monday. Evidently the boys will be worthy successors of their illustrious fathers.

Roy Hudspeth is in town this week enjoying a vacation. The lack of rain has no terrors for Roy, and he hopes all his neighbors and the country in general will get all the moisture they need.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turney and daughters were up from the ranch near Juno Monday, the guests of the Commercial Hotel.

J. L. Davis has returned from Mineral Wells much improved in health. Mrs. Davis and children will remain a few weeks longer. Love looks well and is pleased with his trip.

Don't Forget Milk, June Dairy Month Chairman Suggests

"Don't forget to take milk a-long", suggests George Knigge, a dairy farmer in the Cypress-Fairbanks area of Harris County near Houston and representing all Texas dairy farmers as State June Dairy Month Chairman. The 1965 June Dairy Month program is planned to provide consumers throughout Texas and the nation with more knowledge about nature's most nearly perfect food, milk, Knigge stated.

The June Dairy Month program is an annual food promotion event planned by dairy farmers throughout the American Dairy Association and in cooperation with all parts of the dairy industry. This organization of dairy farmers provides many services to help inform consumers of the food values and benefits of milk and dairy foods.

As so many changes have come about in the way milk travels from the dairy farm to the family table, the program of the American Dairy Association fills a valuable need for the dairy farmer and the consumers, alike, Sam von Rosenberg, the state manager, said. It provides a way for us to communicate with our consumers. And, it helps our consumers know about the many improvements in the taste appeal, nutrition, freshness and economy of our milk and dairy foods.

Philosopher Knows Way To Stop Fake Fight

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River apparently doesn't take prize fighting too seriously, his letter this week indicates. Dear editor: While I don't understand boxing, what I mean is, the way I get it is, if Clay had hit Liston hard enough the fight fans would have been satisfied, whether the fight lasted one minute or thirty, but a gentle tap about like you'd use to get a cat off the dining table if you allow cats in the house makes everybody unhappy and feeling cheated, still the thing about the whole affair is the clamor for an investigation. It's a fact, fight fans are demanding that the fight be investigated, and several Washington officials have risen to the call. What they say is, here Liston and Clay have fought twice, for a total of about four minutes, and the fans have paid out over eight million dollars to see it, either first-hand or on closed-circuit television, and they are tired of getting cheated and Congress ought to do something about it. This is what I don't understand. If the fans are convinced the fights are fakes, why trouble Congress to pass a law to keep them from wasting their money? Why don't they just stay away? Why don't they allow nature to take its course? When a football team loses nine games in a row, how many fans show up for the tenth one? I tell you, when Congress takes on the job of passing laws to keep the public from wasting its money on phony entertainment, it'll be tied up from now on. In fact, if it succeeded, it'd wreck television. Personally, I've always figured picking the world's champion boxer was about like picking Miss America. There's no such thing as the prettiest girl in the United States, anymore, than there's such a thing as the world's best refrigerator. After a refrigerator manages to hold the temperature inside it at 38 degrees night and day, anything beyond that is ridiculous. There are thousands of girls in this country, each as pretty as the other, but the ritual requires one to be selected. I doubt if there's anything there worth investigating. However, if I was a Congressman, I believe I'd rather try to find out what's wrong with boxing than what the answer is to Viet Nam. Yours faithfully, J. A.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Kill the Lawyers!" "The first thing we do," cries a Shakespearean character in "King Henry II," "let's kill all the lawyers." That cry has echoed, not always so bloodthirstily, throughout history. One of the first measures of the French Revolution was to abolish the legal profession. The same thing happened in the Russian Revolution. In early American days, many colonies tried to do away with the practice of law. Roscoe Pound, the eminent legal scholar, once said: "Every Utopia has been designed to dispense with lawyers." Yet, somehow, abolition doesn't take. In France, only a few years after being "abolished," lawyers were playing a key role in formulating the Code Napoleon—one of the mightiest social documents of all time. Attorney John Hazard, an expert on Soviet affairs, has thus reported that revolution's effect on the legal profession: "When its ranks had been purged, the empty chairs filled up with new men to perform the centuries-old functions of the bar." Why this persistence? Why is there a legal profession today in every civilization on earth? Consider the experience of the colonial Quakers. For 70 years after they settled in Pennsylvania, there were almost no lawyers at all in the community. William Penn's law's were supposed to be so simple that any layman could understand them. Points in dispute would be cleared up with the help of friendly neighbors. But if the laws were simple life was not. Complexities arose, too numerous to be foreseen by the wisest of men. Disagreements arose, too stubborn to yield to the arbitration of amateurs. And when those disagreements touched vital issues in the affairs of mankind, the special talents of the lawyer came into demand. The man whose freedom, money, good name, or life was at stake wanted an expert to speak for him. But besides settling—or forestalling—disputes, lawyers serve a loftier purpose. They symbolize, however imperfectly, the Rule of Law in society. That quotation from Shakespeare, often used to

Partially Retired Persons May Get Social Security

"You don't have to retire completely to get social security benefits," Floyd B. Ellington, social security district manager in San Angelo said this week. "If you earn $1,200 or less in a year, you are considered to be completely retired and would be entitled to all your benefits," he added. If a person earns over $1,200 in a year, he may be considered partly retired and entitled to part of his social security benefits. For example, a worker would have only one dollar in benefits withheld for every two dollars earned between $1,200 and $1,700. For earnings over $1,700 annually, one dollar in benefits is withheld for each dollar of earnings. Ellington emphasized the fact that no matter how much a worker earns in a year, he can be paid social security benefits for any month in which he neither earns over $100 as an employee, nor renders substantial services as a self-employed person. "Avoid any misunderstanding you may have about the social security retirement test, especially if you are over 65 and earning anywhere between $1,201 and $3,600," Ellington says. "Get all the facts from your social security office at 3000 West Harris, San Angelo."

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By the Rev. Arno Melz

Pastor, Hope Lutheran Church "Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God"

Philippians 4:6 R.S.V. Last week we mentioned the richest man in the world. We sometimes talk as though these men could buy anything they might want. From the news articles we know this isn't true, for they have as much heartache as the poor with their children, with divorce, or adjusting to society.

They try to buy happiness and love with expensive gifts, liquor, and drugs.

The fact remains there are certain things that money cannot buy, but these things are offered to us free. Can you imagine? We need only ask for these things, and they will be given to us when no amount of money can buy them. We must admit that those who know whom to ask and how to ask are rich people.

Paul tells us to ask God, because Jesus Himself promised, whatever you ask the Father in My name you will receive it. There is no need to worry about our problems when we let our request be made known to God. Those who know how to pray in Jesus' name are rich beyond measure.

I have yet to read of a proven rain maker, but we can pray for rain and God will send it. We cannot afford an army or even a private guard for our children, but through prayer God will send a holy angel more powerful than an army. No amount of drugs or alcohol can ease a guilty conscience, but the blessed forgiveness of Jesus, our Savior, can.

If you are not rich, it is because you have not asked God in prayer for the things that money cannot buy, like forgiveness and peace of mind. Turn to the Lord in Prayer today, and let your request be made known unto God. Also remember to give thanks for the blessings He gave you yesterday. Amen!

The Devil's Workshop An Idle Mind Column

By Della King

We have one more entry in our contest to decide what bearded Jimmy H. Harris and little Rhonda Peebles were thinking when pictured looking at each other with some surprise.

The latest caption—a cute one by Kelley Sue Sentell—has Jimmy saying, "Me! Have fleas!!!"

It has been over a year now since our flag has flown on the Courthouse lawn.

Isn't it time that the flag started waving again? And since Monday is Flag Day, wouldn't this be a particularly appropriate time for us to start displaying our flag again?

The flag, our national emblem, symbolizes the American dream of freedom, justice, and humanity. Dr. S. L. Devore says, "It stands for the best that is in us . . . for loyalty, character, and faith in democracy."

It is the flag of Patrick Henry, Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, Washington, Nathan Hale, Paul Revere, and other great men and women who have given us our heritage. It stands for Valley Forge, Pearl Harbor, Flanders Field, Bataan, Iwo Jima, and Normandy Beachhead. The great events of our past and present are wrapped up in our flag.

It is a symbol for a great nation—a giant in industry, education, and commerce.

Shouldn't we be flying our flag?

B. Green Explains New Water System

The Hydrocel, a new method for pressurizing domestic water systems, said to be much advanced over the conventional hydro-pneumatic tank, is now sold by the Billy Green Water Service.

Green, manager of the Service, described the Hydrocel as the first new concept in pressurizing home water systems to be developed in more than 50 years.

Claims made for the Jacuzzi Hydrocel include final elimination of water-logging and the related need for air charging devices. It also dispenses with tank houses and pits and eliminates the danger of freezing damage. "It serves all the purposes of the hydro-pneumatic tank, but has none of its disadvantages," said Green, "and its design and compactness permit it to be installed in out-of-the-way places in the home, anywhere on the service line. There is no reason for the hydrocel to be installed next to the pump, as is necessary with a hydro-pneumatic tank. It has the additional advantage of being adaptable to any type of make of domestic pump."

In Texas after golf beer's the one... for good taste, good fun

After a hard-played 18 holes, it's good to settle down on a soft chair in the club house and add up the score with friends. What better time for the drink that scores with almost every golfer—cool, thirst-quenching beer? Yes, beer's great to relax with, great for refreshment, great for taste. So whatever your sport—boating or baseball—swimming or tennis—relax afterwards with the zestful taste of beer.

The first new method for pressurizing a water system in this century! Eliminates Waterlogging . . . forever

Eliminates Hydro Pneumatic tank, air charging devices, tank house, tank pits, and freezing damage, and puts the water pressure system inside the house where it belongs!

Invented by Jacuzzi, Hydrocel is the most advanced method for pressurizing a water system. Hydrocel does the work of tanks several times its size and does it better by using virtually all of its water capacity. And due to its compact size, Hydrocel installs easily inside the house . . . anywhere on the service line.

Corrosion-proof Hydrocel is the best choice for a new system or a replacement for rusted out pressure tanks.

STRONG CHURCHES

Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

WHOBATS FIRST ??

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Part of playing any game is to learn how to settle the inevitable arguments. In a league in which nobody has a coin to toss, this is the time-honored method for getting the game started without a squabble. But there are other games to be played, in other leagues. Life for each of us brings many occasions for conflict. And they don't all yield to simple techniques like twirling a bat around one's shoulders with just a couple of fingers. Earnest Christians believe that our faith can point men to the right attitude and action in times of stress. That's why, as we face the conflicts of life, we always hope the other fellow will behave like a Christian. And he's hoping as much of us. Why not meet him in Church next Sunday? That's where right attitudes often begin.

Tom Ed Glasscock Completes Course In Ranch Training

Tom Ed Glasscock was among the 21 Ranch Training students at Texas Christian University honored at a graduation dinner May 28. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Glasscock.

The event, held in Brown-Lupton Student Center, is the climax of a year of work which has included classroom instruction in addition to almost 8,000 miles of travel in visiting outstanding ranches in the Southwest. It will mark the ninth class to finish the TCU program which was begun in 1956.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Walter R. Humphrey, editor of the Forth Worth Press, recognized for his leadership in agriculture through the Press Soil Conservation Awards Program.

The Ranch Training Program, presented in a nine-month unit, provides the opportunity to study all phases of ranch operation at first hand. The course includes intensive classroom instruction in basic principles of land, grass, livestock, records and marketing as well as field work to illustrate how these principles are applied in actual situations. Enrollees may earn 32 hours of college credit and certificates at the completion of the study.

John L. Merrill is the program's director, and Raymond Kenny is the assistant director. Both hold bachelor of science degrees from Texas A&M University and engage in ranching.

NEWS

By Wanda Cahill we go into our new year. The annual dues are only $6 and we have a lot of fun.

The ladies invitational one-day plays have been coming around pretty frequently. Two weeks ago six of us journeyed to Mc-Camey and Lunetta Morgan was our only winner . . . she won low gross in the third flight competition. We had a grand time though. The others who went were Ernestine Hext, Peggy Sharp, Pauline Thompson, Jane Caveness and Wanda Cahill.

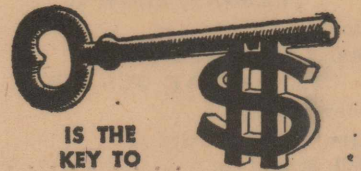

But, this past Saturday June 5, six of us went to Big Lake, namely Bobbie Fawcett, Sammie Espy, Lunetta Morgan, Jane Caveness, Pauline Thompson, and Wanda Cahill. Bobbie won the championship flight with a low net of 70; Wanda Cahill was runner-up in the first flight; Jane Caveness won the second flight and third flight winner was Pauline Thompson. By the way, Pauline also won the door prize. So we really had a Field Day!

Gals, don't forget Wednesday June 16 is luncheon day and the annual election of officers.

We would like to have all members' wives in our auxiliary. So if you can, plan to join now as Kenneth Babcock of McCamey, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Babcock, has been visiting in Sonora.

Improvised Lure

For catching bluegills and other small fish, improvise a lure by wrapping a pipe cleaner around a long-shank hook. Nifty on a fly rod, or even a spinning rod when a split-shot sinker is added to the line.

Untangling Backlashes

That crochet needle you see in your buddy's tackle box is not a sign he has flipped. He uses it to dig out really bad backlashes.

Works great too!
