City, school make deal

The Haskell City Council last Thursday voted to close a portion of North 9th Street at the request of the school district. In exchange, the Haskell Track Association will pay for the paving on North 11th and the school will deed a piece of property to the city for an alley.

The transactions will give the school the property it needs for the proposed new track.

Also at Tuesday's meeting, the council voted to keep the city employees' insurance with Time Insurance Co. until the policy expires in October, at which time new bids will be solicited.

Ken Martin, engineer, and Randy Randolph, consultant, of Abilene discussed the proposed street paving project for which the state has approved a $300,000 grant. It is expected that the contract with the state will be ready in three or four weeks. The city will then select an engineer.

City Administrator Robert Baker reported that the new water lines in the northeast part of the city have been tested and are now open. He also reported that the Beautify Haskell Council has submitted the completed forms and supporting documents to Keep Texas Beautiful Inc.

School studies field house

Specifications are being prepared for a new field house at Haskell Secondary School.

The School Board, at its April 19 meeting, authorized the superintendent to secure the plans and specifications in preparation of asking for construction bids.

A new field house is only part of a comprehensive athletic facilities plan being studied by the board. Also included in the overall plan is the construction of a track at Indian Stadium.

The long-talked track is moving closer to a reality and Dr. James Kemp, superintendent, said he hoped it could be completed in time for next spring's track season.

Also at the latest meeting, the School Board:

--Heard a presentation by Walter Miller, engineer with Lone Star Gas Co., outlining the procedure for forming a comprehensive heating and cooling system. The superintendent was then authorized to solicit an engineer/architect for advise on a heating and cooling system for the secondary school.

--Approved the purchase of two color monitors and cards for administration use.

--Re-established the two vocational agriculture teacher positions as 12-month positions.

--Created a new position of permanent substitute teacher and assigned Carl Wilke to this position.

--Directed the superintendent to seek applications for a new band director.

Haskell 1 of 16 in running

Haskell is one of sixteen towns in the 2,501-5,000 population category competing for the governor's award as the most beautiful city of its size in Texas.

Other contenders are Caldwell, Cedar Creek, Columbus, Daingerfield, Electra, Farmersville, Forney, Hebbronville, Hallettsville, Morton, Madisonville, Nocona, Pittsburg, Richwood and Sealy.

Official entries, with documentation, had to be received not later than April 30 at the Keep Texas Beautiful Inc. offices in Austin.

Bobby Hobgood, chairman of the Beautify Haskell Council, commended all of the organizations and individuals whose cooperation gave Haskell a chance to win.

The chairman urged every citizen to drive up and down every street in town to see the fruits of so much effort.

Peat, Marwick and Co. has been retained by Keep Texas Beautiful Inc. to assist in the initial analysis of the entries in order to insure total objectivity in the selection process. This will be followed by a review by a panel of judges chosen by Keep Texas Beautiful. On-site visits will be made by the judges toward the end of May. Final results of the judging

Awards will be presented by Governor William P. Clements at a luncheon July 8

Mack Abernathy

Mack Abernathy of Valley Mills will perform a concert at the Civic Center Tuesday (May 10) with proceeds going to the Haskell County Junior Livestock Association. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students.

Frontier Days to be next week

In memory

Fourth-grade students of Mrs. Paula Everatt have planted a tree and installed a plaque at the elementary school in memory of their classmate, Chris Pena, who died from injuries suffered in a bicycle-pickup collision. Posed beside the memorial are Misty McMeans, April Abila, Frankie Masias and Joseph Thigpen. Jim Crawford donated the tree and Frank Masias helped the students plant the tree and fix the stone. All fourth graders and elementary teachers donated to buy the tree.

Sagerton planning ninth homecoming

The Sagerton Homecoming has been set for Saturday and Sunday, May 28-29 at the Sagerton Community Center. Registration will begin at 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Leon Stegemoeffer is chairman of this year's homecoming. Others on the steering committee are Dorothy Clark, secretary-treasurer; Delbert LeFevre, program chairman; Allen Meier, parking chairman; Charles Clark, finance chairman; J. B. and Dorothy Toney, food chairmen; and Irene Stewart and Gerry Banks, publicity chairmen. The committee

Look what we've done!

Thousands of hours spent to beautify city

"The application is in, but the beautification has only begun," says the steering committee of the Beautify Haskell Council.

Day by day, week by week, new evidence of caring will emerge as Haskell transforms to its most beautiful ever.

Through an organized effort, 1,613 adults have spent 21,378 hours on this program---equivalent to 2,667 8-hour working days, or over 7 years.

This does not include the work of the youth nor of the individuals at their residences and places of business.

It involved the steering committee, the two sponsoring groups (City of Haskell and Haskell Chamber of Commerce), the Retail Merchants Association, 13 churches, the media, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Haskell Garden Club, American Legion, Haskell Rotary Club, Haskell Lions Club, Haskell Kiwanis Club.

Haskell Volunteer Fire Department, Progressive Study Club, Experienced Citizens Center, Haskell Memorial Hospital, Haskell Clinic, Hospital Clinic, Fields Museum, Haskell Horse Club, Haskell Bass Club, Brazos West Art Association.

Teenage Baseball Association, Haskell Softball Association, Haskell County Fair Association, Haskell Memorial Civic Center Association, Dr. Ray Dental Clinic, Dr. Kemp Dental Clinic, Alcoholics Anonymous.

Haskell Airport Pilots'

Association, Willow Cemetery Association, Haskell National Bank, Olney Savings, First National Bank, Rice Springs Care Home, Haskell Nursing Center, Texas State Highway Department, Southern Pacific Railway and the County of Haskell.

In submitting Haskell's entry form, the questionnaire was divided into six judging sections: Cleanup, 25 points; Public Awareness, 25 points; Education (Schools), 25 points; Law Enforcement, 12 points; Recycling, 10 points; Quality of Life, 3 points.

Although allowed to cover a full year period, the Haskell endeavor actually began in December and continued through April.

On the 23-page application form, it was necessary to show methods of recruitment of participants, surveys for eyesores, progress reports, etc.

CLEANUP

Haskell reported the cleanup of all public areas, churches, hospitals, clinics, downtown businesses, etc. The city re-painted the trash receptacles and provided a "trash wagon" available to all citizens at no cost and then hauled trash free of charge to the dump grounds. The fire department and City of Haskell burned vacant lots and abandoned shacks.

An estimated 6,000 man hours is given for the city's part in the cleanup, with 8,400 cubic yards of trash and debris removed from the

Leach, Adams wed in double ring ceremony

Stacia LeAnn Adams and Kevin Ray Leach were united in marriage at 6 p.m. Saturday, April 30, in a candlelight ceremony at the Weinert Baptist Church. The Rev. Steve Peace, pastor of Rotan Baptist Church, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams of Weinert. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Leach of Knox City.

The altar of the church was decorated with two heart-shaped candelabras holding white tapers, which were lit by the bride's brother, Micheal Adams. The banisters beside the altar were draped with Lily of the Valley and accented with white votive candles. The windows of the church were decorated with hurricane globes tied with royal blue ribbon. The pews were marked with royal blue and white bows.

The registry table was covered in a white ruffled cloth and accented with a white candle, with lace and royal blue ribbon, and a feathered pen. Marva Bird of Haskell registered guests.

Karen Harlan was the pianist and Sandy King was the organist. They played traditional and popular wedding music preceding the ceremony. "Somewhere My Love" was played as the processional and "The Wedding March" as the recessional. Doris Walker and Cindy Guess were the vocalists. They sang the bride's chosen songs of "Wind Beneath My Wings", "Wedding Song", "Flesh of My Flesh" and "To Me".

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and was given in marriage by her parents. The bride chose an exquisite gown of white. The bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and was adorned with lace motifs and pearls. Short pouff sleeves with ruffles accented with feminine romantic look of the gown. The full bell gown skirt was caught at the basque waistline. The back of the gown fell gracefully with cascades of soft ruffles and lace motifs forming a mid cathedral train.

She wore matching hat of satin accented with white seed pearls and a fingertip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white silk roses and petite royal blue flowers accented with white seed pearls and lace. She presented a white rose to her mother as she approached the altar and one to the groom's mother as the couple left the altar. For something borrowed, she wore diamond earrings belonging to Teri Anderson. She wore a royal blue garter, made especially for her by Erlinda Mayfield and the lucky sixpence in her shoe.

Maid of honor was Kelly Earp of San Angelo. Bridesmaids were Teri Anderson of Levelland, Vicki Adams and Peggy Adams, sisters-in-law of the bride, Laurie Hester and Tina Briscoe. All the attendants wore matching floor length gowns of royal blue satin. They were designed with low cut backs and puffed gathered sleeves. They carried bouquets of white roses, baby's breath and petite white flowers accented with lace.

Carrie Richardson, niece of the groom, was the flower girl. She carried a white basket, trimmed with lace and royal blue ribbon, of white roses, carnations and baby's breath. Mandy Adams, niece of the bride, handed out rose shaped rice bags from a basket identical to the flower girl's. They wore matching dresses of royal blue satin with puffed sleeves trimmed with white lace. The back of the dresses were tied with bows. The dresses were made by the bride's great-aunt, Moneta Hix.

Bryce Hudgens was the ring bearer. He carried a heart shaped white satin and lace pillow, also made by Moneta Hix.

The groom wore a white long tail tux with a white rose and baby's breath boutonniere. Best man was David Anderson of Levelland. Groomsmen were Tyke Meinzer, Glenn Hedgecote, Tommy Mangis, Dennis Stegemoeller and Terry Bartley, all of Knox City. They wore gray tux accented with royal blue and their boutonnieres were white roses and baby's breath.

Ushers were Micheal Adams and Brian Adams, brothers of the bride, and Mondy Mayfield. The ushers and the father of the bride wore gray tux and their boutonnieres matched those of the groomsmen.

The parents of the bride hosted the reception following the ceremony in the fellowship hall at the Weinert Baptist Church.

The bride's table was covered in a white ruffled floor length cloth topped with a mirror on which the four-tiered wedding cake was placed. The cake was adorned with white roses, white gladioluses and fern. Votive candles and royal blue flowers were placed around the cake. Dianne Carroll, Continued on page 3

School Board candidates

Rex Pittman

School Board candidate Rex Pittman thinks Haskell has good schools and he wants them to continue to be good.

While School Board members have many duties and responsibilities, he believes their greatest responsibility is to the students and the teachers.

Pittman said he has no complaints with the way the School Board has operated. He just wants to see it continue to work toward the education of the students. And he believes that his input as a board member will help to insure this.

Pittman is a native of Haskell. Owner of Haskell Butane Co., he is a 1978 graduate of Haskell High School and has lived here all his life. His wife, Camin, also an HHS graduate, assists him in his business. They have a 5-year-old son, Ross.

1988 election. Those elected after Jan. 1, 1987, have until the end of their first year of service to complete this educational requirement. I have accumulated 22.5 board training hours in seminars and classes at San Angelo, San Antonio and Dallas. These hours of instruction, coupled with three years of actual board experience, I believe, will make me a much more proficient board member over the next few years.

If re-elected, I will continue to strive to assure the best educational opportunity for our children, and the finest academic atmosphere and working condition for our school administrators, teachers, aides and employees.

Brian Burgess

Ervin Unger

School Board candidate Ervin Unger says he is pleased with the way the School Board has conducted its business in past years, and is interested in seeing it continue.

Unger, who operates a recycling business, has lived here 10 years. He was on the City Council in St. Charles, Minn., before moving to Haskell.

"Education is a freedom our country has been built on," said Unger. "I'm interested in seeing our kids get the best education possible. I think our school system has an excellent record of preparing the students for college. I'm happy to be a part of a community which has this kind of school system."

Unger added that he thinks Haskell has first-rate teachers. "I think it's important that we continue to give the teachers and students the necessary tools to meet their goals."

He commended those who have served on the School Board in the past, giving their time away from their businesses. "That's what this country is all about--people giving of their time," he said.

He encouraged people to vote in Saturday's election.

Unger has three daughters in the Haskell school system, Teresa, Shelia and Rebecca. His wife, Gwen, is a registered nurse at Haskell Memorial Hospital.

Anita Perry

As a kindergarten student, I began a journey through the public school system of Texas. A group of concerned, dedicated people offered their time, energy and knowledge to that journey. They were the teachers and the school board members of the Haskell Independent School District.

Keeping control of our school at the local level was very important to those who have served before and with the current move to equalize state funding across the state, the need of local control is even more vital today.

As a candidate for the School Board, I believe a common sense, business-like approach must be maintained or local control will mean nothing. I would like to offer myself as a candidate who is willing to dedicate the time and effort to make our school system efficient and effective; and one that will graduate students well prepared to exit into society at a minimum expenditure of our tax dollars.

I ask for your vote and your confidence as we pursue the best education for our children.

Anita Perry

Randy Phemister

I truly believe we are heading into one of the most important, and possibly controversial times, in our school's history. There will be some extremely important decisions to be made, and I would like to be a part of making those decisions.

Taxes are going up. Our economy is shaky, schools are closing and court cases are threatening our existence as an independent district.

All these things point to a cloudy future. Let's all work hard together so that we can provide for our kids (our future leaders) the very best facilities, teachers, administration and general opportunities that we as taxpayers can afford. Our tax rate has to be affordable.

Academics, of course, should remain at the top of our priority list. However, we should also strive to continue our excellence in our extracurricular activities as has been our tradition. Well rounded students have the greatest opportunities later in life.

I have lived here most of my life. I went to school here. I pay taxes here. I am raising four kids here. Please give me your support as we strive toward a brighter future.

Randy Phemister

Leesa Toliver

My name is Leesa Toliver. I am married to Brian Toliver and have two sons. Our oldest son, Brent, is a first grader at Haskell Elementary. We are members of the First Baptist Church in Haskell. My parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cleatus (Biggon) Drinnon.

I earned my bachelor's of science in elementary education from Texas Tech University in 1970. In August of 1987, I earned my master's of education in educational diagnostician from Abilene Christian University.

I am also certified in kindergarten, early childhood handicapped, and art. I taught in Rule for six years. I am presently employed as an educational diagnostician for Tri-County Educational Co-op. I serve Lueders-Avoca, Stamford and Albany schools.

As a taxpayer, educator, mother and ex-student of Haskell I.S.D., I feel I would have a broad viewpoint to offer our Board of Education. Some of the areas I would like to focus on are: computer awareness at all levels; improving and continuing programs such as band and vocational; adding more extra-curricular activities; and athletic sports which would meet the needs of all children. Also I would like to see higher level academic courses continued and more programs implemented that would reach the needs of slow learners.

Bill Perry

William H. (Bill) Perry is a candidate for the School Board where he served one term in 1978-80.

An employee of Koch Gathering, Inc., Perry has long been associated with public service. He feels it is a citizen's duty to be involved in the community.

Perry has been actively associated with the Boy Scouts for several years. He has been a cubmaster and scoutmaster for the past four years.

A resident of Haskell since he was in the first grade, Perry is a graduate of Haskell High School. He is proud of the Haskell school system.

Perry and his wife, Kay, are parents of a boy and a girl. She is owner of Kay's Kut 'n Kurl.

Terry Blanks

As the father of three young sons I, most likely, have very similar concerns about the school system that will educate them, as do the other candidates concerning their children. We all want our children to have the best preparation for life that we can give them. The future of this country itself depends upon how well our children will be able to compete with an evermore highly educated world.

The problem is that the planning process for that preparation is becoming more difficult all the time. You can attend just one Board meeting or simply pick up the newspaper and quickly see how complicated governmental regulations, competition for good teachers, facility considerations, rapid technological advancements, and of course, financial concerns are making long term planning and goal setting so difficult and yet so vital.

If we are going to secure good education for our children in a reasonable manner, we must develop a well conceived systematic and yet, many times, innovative approach to every possible area within the school system. Otherwise, we will be traumatized at some future date by the financial burden that will be required. Some of our neighboring districts are, right now, suffering through that experience.

In short, my approach, as a School Board member, would be to prepare the school system for its future in the same manner that a prudent person would plan and prepare for his retirement years, with careful consideration and then methodical implementation of the plan.

I'm glad to say that I believe the current board members basically share that philosophy. They are a good group of men with whom I would feel comfortable and confident to serve. I would appreciate that opportunity.

Terry Blanks

Moisture below normal

Haskell received 1.43 inches of rain during the month of April, bringing the year's total to just 2.91 inches.

Sam Herren, local weather recorder, said this compares with a normal moisture total of 5.07 inches for the first four months of the year.

Temperatures during April ranged from a frigid 38 degrees on April 2 to a sweltering 96 degrees two days later on April 4.

Brian Burgess

It has been my pleasure for the past three years to serve with six fine men on the Haskell Independent School Board of Trustees.

This last year I was privileged to hold the position of president of the School Board. I would like to continue as a board member.

Though there is no monetary compensation, there is great satisfaction with the feeling that we as a board have accomplished our goals. Certainly, at times we have zigged when we should have zagged, but the conditions of our school system--the facilities, the spirit, the work place morale--are vastly improved.

The Texas Education Code requires that all board members elected before Jan. 1, 1987, complete 20 hours of certified training standards by the

Did you know?

While it may feel great to have the wind blowing through your hair and power over the road right at your fingertips, cruising on a motorcycle is risky business. In Texas last year, 286 motorcyclists were killed in traffic accidents. Over 75 percent of those were not wearing helmets. The most common type of fatal accident involved a motorcycle and a car. The most common reason was that the automobile driver simply did not see the motorcycle.

Comments wanted on wheat beautification...

The U.S. Department of agriculture is asking for public comments on the percentage of reduction, if any, for an acreage reduction program (ARP) for the 1989 crop of wheat.

The Commodity Credit Corporation will announce a decision on any 1989 wheat ARP no later than June 1. If the 1988 ending stocks for wheat are estimated to be below one billion bushels, the ARP may not exceed 20 percent for the 1989 crop of wheat.

CCC also requests comments on other provisions of the 1989 wheat program and the program provisions that are common to the 1989 crops of wheat, feed grains, cotton and rice.

Comments will be considered along with information concerning the outlook for domestic and foreign supply and demand before final program decisions are made.

CCC seeks comments on these additional 1989 wheat program provisions:

--The percentage reduction for any paid land diversion (PLD). CCC proposes not to implement a PLD for the 1989 crop of wheat.

--Whether a marketing loan and related provisions should be implemented. CCC proposes not to implement a marketing loan for the 1989 crop of wheat.

CCC also seeks comments on the common program provisions for the 1989 crops of wheat, feed grains, cotton and rice.

community.

Fifty-one unsightly vacant lots were mowed, 34 junk cars removed, 31 dilapidated structures removed and two indiscriminate dumps cleaned.

The highway department cleaned both sides of four miles of highway through town on US 380 and US 277, scraped the mound, edged and swept the curbs in a 9-man, 20-day operation.

PUBLIC AWARENESS

The Haskell Free Press ran 482 column inches in pictures and stories in weekly publicity while radio KVRP averaged four public service announcements daily, which along with the local beautification song amounted to 600 minutes of air time, in addition to presenting weekly 30-minute programs highlighting the beautification effort.

The Chamber of Commerce distributed 987 pledge cards, a special tabloid was distributed to all subscribers of the Free Press, and an 80-slide presentation with narration was given at the chamber banquet. There was an essay contest, a slogan contest and a poster contest.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

A new City ordinance was adopted by the City Council Jan. 14 and all city employees were instructed to enforce it. Ten citations have been issued for littering, 30 written warnings given out and 10 court convictions as a result of violations. Average fines have been $50.

RECYCLING

A large recycling container for aluminum cans was installed downtown for the convenience of the public. The city has contracted with an individual to salvage materials at the land field. More than 12 tons of materials have been recycled. Leaders in this program were 25 Boy Scouts and 80 students in the third grade.

QUALITY OF LIFE

A drive through town is all that is needed to see evidences of combined effort, togetherness, pride, cleanliness, order and beauty---all inducive to tourism, retail trade, industrial development and community betterment.

Local residents of all ages and all walks of life have accepted the responsibility for order, cleanliness, beauty and maintenance. Cleaner public areas have promoted safety as well as pleasure.

Pointers On Pets

Food For Thought

Here are a few dog tales that could prove interesting to the estimated 39 percent of American households with dogs.

- The longest-lived dog was a black Labrador named "Adjutant" who lived for more than 27 years.
- To keep Fido's coat clean and silky, a variety of combs are available, including one battery-operated model.
- The smallest breed is the Chihuahua which, full-grown, can weigh as little as one pound.
- As any dog owner knows, it doesn't make any difference how nutritious a product is if Fido turns "paws down".

Beef referendum vote to be Tuesday

To determine whether cattle producers want to continue a nationally legislated beef promotion program, the Agricultural Marketing Service will conduct a beef referendum in cooperation with the Extension Service and the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Locally, the referendum will be held Tuesday (May 10) in the county extension office. All states except West Virginia will vote on that day. West Virginia votes Monday.

All cattle producers or those who imported cattle, beef or beef products between Oct. 1, 1986, and March 31, 1988, will be entitled to vote in the referendum. USDA officials say a simple majority vote will determine if the beef promotion program will stay in effect.

The program is funded by a $1 per head assessment on domestic and imported cattle and by an equal assessment on imported beef and beef products.

TAX PLANNING

Written By Gerald Rodgers, CPA

CREATING A SUCCESSFUL PARTNERSHIP

There are advantages and disadvantages to all joint ventures. If you want your business partnership or closely-held corporation to be successful, take time at the outset to learn something about the individuals who will be your partners.

Partners don't have to be the best of friends, but they do have to get along well enough to communicate properly. There should also be mutual trust and a respect for the contributions each will make to the business.

Drawing up a partnership agreement will force all partners to consider the bad as well as the good before the partnership is actually formed. As your attorney assists you with your agreement, you will be considering such areas as the division of responsibilities, profit-splitting, debt-sharing, and the amount of time each individual will devote to the partnership. Of particular importance is deciding what will happen in the event of the disability or death of one of the partners and what will happen if one partner simply wants out. Since almost all joint ventures terminate for one reason or another, these contingencies need to be addressed.

A common mistake in family partnerships is the failure to have a written agreement. There is as much room, if not more, for disagreements in family partnerships as in partnerships of unrelated parties.

If the business relationship gets into trouble, there are those who may be able to help. Perhaps some objective third party for whom the partners have mutual respect (accountant, attorney, broker, banker, etc.) may be of assistance. An open line of communication between the partners and some good pre-planning will help keep the relationship and the business on track.

ADULTS $3.00 - CHILDREN (UNDER 10) $1.00

Haskell track teams won the right to compete in eight events in next week's state track meet in Austin with their performances last week in the regional in Big Spring.

Coach Jimmy Lisle's Indians won four first places and a second as they ran away with the regional championship, scoring 80 team points, nearly double the 42 points scored by second-place New Deal.

Coach George Martin's Maidens won two firsts and a second while coming in a close third despite illnesses to several team members.

Mark Young of the Indians won the right to compete in two state events. He won the 800-meter run with a time of 1:58.40 to earn the right to defend the state championship he captured last year. He came in second in the 400-meter run with a time of 49.59.

Stephon Brockington won the regional in the 200-meter dash with a time of 21.65 which advances him to state where he came in third a year ago.

Also winning first places were the Indian 400-meter relay team (43.10) and the 1600-meter relay team (3:22.36).

They won't be going to state, but Dusty Meeks took third in high jump (6-5) and Fred Shaw was third in the 100-meter dash (11.10).

Joy McKeever led the Maidens by taking first place in the 100-meter hurdles with a time of 15.48.

Regina Dever with a second-place finish in the 400-meter run (59.24) is the Maidens' other individual entry in the state meet.

The 1600-meter relay team also won first (4:02.49) and will be competing in Austin. Coach Martin had to make some late adjustments in personnel on the team because of illnesses. Leiza Morales, Sheree Dumas, Shelia Unger and Dever made up the winning team, quite a different group than the team which ran in the preliminaries which contained Teresa Rodriguez and Teresa Unger.

The 800-meter relay team which came in second was disqualified when officials ruled that one team member had not been properly entered.

Barely missing out on going to state were a couple of third-place finishers, Dumas in the triple jump (35-11) and Morales in the 800-meter run (2:26.74).

Other Maiden performers turned in good performances. The 400-meter relay team came in fourth and McKeever won fifth in the high jump.

ILPC state awards

Matt Lane, Lori Darden and Leiza Morales won state Interscholastic League Press awards for their work in the high school newspaper, the War Whoop.

Four students win state press awards

Four students have won state Interscholastic League Press awards for their work on the Haskell High School newspaper, the War Whoop.

Lori Darden took first place in editorial writing about press freedom and high school students.

Leiza Morales captured a first place in spot news photo with a picture of Rick Perry, state representative, and his son, Griffin. Rep. Perry was speaking to students from the steps of the school at an outdoor celebration of Constitution Day.

Matt Lane received a second-place award for an editorial cartoon. His depiction of a constitution with the words "except for students" added to the first amendment earned him state recognition.

Sandra Thornhill, a former HHS senior, won a second-place award for her entertainment column.

The award-winning column encouraged students to attend ACU's homecoming drama production,

"West Side Story." She reviewed the performance and explained the similarities to a story in her freshman literature book, "Romeo and Juliet."

Students competed against other AA schools throughout Texas for these awards.

"Only three places in each category are awarded, and the competition is tremendous," said Mrs. Jill Druessedow, War Whoop adviser.

Paint Creek scouts have big weekend

Troop 148 in Paint Creek left the "Creek" and braved the elements last weekend to participate in the Northern District Scout Show and campout at the Civic Center in Haskell.

The troop camped on the grounds Friday night during a very "iffy" weather situation with two boys opting to use this opportunity to work on their camping skill award by hiking in and out. Hans Overton and Shawn Barbour hiked 1 1/4 miles into the Civic Center camp carrying their full camping gear and after Saturday's full schedule, hiked the same 1 1/4 miles out.

Saturday morning, the troop marched with their fellow campers in neighboring troops to the city square and participated in raising the American flag over the city of Haskell to launch the Scout Show activities.

For the show itself, Troop 148 made rope for its demonstration and spent the next three hours of the show building various lengths of ropes from hemp (binders twine) and nylon (big bale twine) and fielded questions from visitors to the show. Many of their guests took these high quality, handmade ropes home with them to remind them of their visit with Troop 148.

After the show, the troop struck camp and returned to the "Creek" where many of them attended Lyla Mary Isbell's retirement party at the school Saturday night.

Sunday, however, the troop reassembled at the Paint Creek school to attend the Dyess AFB open house in Abilene. Religious services were held on the bus enroute to Abilene and, hopefully, the Good Lord heard their prayers because the roar of the bus kept most of those present from hearing them.

The troop was accompanied by the newly formed Den 3 Webelos Scouts also from Paint Creek. While at Dyess, the boys were amazed by the awesome size of our modern military hardware and spent the day firing the M-60 machine gun, walking through the aircraft on static display, and watching the Air Force Thunderbirds do seemingly impossible feats in the F16 jet aircraft.

On the way home, the tired Scouts reflected on the weekend's activities, counted their expended machine gun rounds, and admired their pilot autographs from the famous Thunderbirds.

Boys attending the Scout Show and Dyess trip were Rodney Tsoodle, Dane Morgan, Roman Morgan, Rodney Medford, Hans Overton, Shawn Barbour, Wesley Cockerell, Geovanny Mayen and Mathew Morton.

Troop 148 is sponsored by the Paint Creek ISD with Wallar Overton as scoutmaster.

Coloring winners announced

Special winners in the "Three Fishketeers" coloring contest held recently by Oleny Savings Association are:

Jeffrey Murray, age 4, son of Ed and Charlene Murray of Rule; Bobby Ortiz, 8, son of Robert and Mary Ortiz of Haskell; Aaron Earles, 9, son of Bob and Debbie Earles of Haskell.

The Haskell office received 198 entries from children ranging in age from 2 through sixth grade. Those who would like to pick up their entries may do so before Friday, May 13.

Oleny Savings will have three more coloring contests with the next one scheduled in July.

Nursing center sets open house

Haskell Nursing Center will have an open house Friday, May 13, in observance of National Nursing Home Week.

The public is invited to attend the open house between 1 and 5 p.m.

Two students to compete in state

Kacye Nemir and Penny Peden will compete in the UIL Academic State Meet May 6 at the University of Texas in Austin.

Nemir placed second in newswriting at regional to earn a silver medal and the opportunity to compete on the state level. She placed third at the district level.

Peden qualified for the state meet by placing third in feature writing at regional, bringing home a bronze medal. She placed first in the district meet.

Both students are members of the staff of the high school newspaper, the War Whoop.

Mrs. Jill Druessedow sponsors the UIL journalism events.

--Letters to the Editor--

Editor: Boy Scout Troop 148 in Paint Creek would like to thank everyone connected with the great Northern District Scout Show held in Haskell last weekend.

We especially appreciate Marvin and Becky McFadden for their efforts in organizing the event; Bill Perry and Troop 136 for being such gracious hosts; Edith Wheatley; Jerry Morgan; and Monique Morgan for their conscientious judging of the various booths, and all of those Scouters who were responsible for causing the show to be held in Haskell for the first time, allowing our parents and grandparents to attend.

We also wish to thank everyone who purchased tickets from Troop 148 Scouts and especially for those persons who came by our demonstration to watch us make rope and encourage the boys in their Scouting activities.

Thanks to all. The event was one of the highlight events for our troop this year.

Troop 148
Paint Creek

From 136

Editor: We would like to take this opportunity to thank some very special folks from Haskell and Paint Creek.

These merchants donated food, ice and money to help us with the Scout Show: Haskell National Bank, M System, Pogue Meat Processing, Sonic Drive In, Dairy Queen, Sav M, Koch Oil, Kiwanis Club, Mickler's Distributing and Coca Cola.

For judging, a special thank you to Edith Wheatley of Haskell and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Morgan of Paint Creek ISD. We all enjoyed the collection presented by Rick Perry of his Scouting days.

A heartfelt thanks goes to all the people who supported our Scouts by coming to see the show, for buying tickets and those who worked so hard at the show.

The Scout Show was a big success because the people in our area care.

Grandson gets national award

The grandson of a Haskell couple has been named a United States National Achievement Award winner.

Josh Gonzales, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Silvester Ozuna and a student at Dimmitt High School, was chosen for the honor by the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy recognizes fewer than 10 percent of all American high school students.

Criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Gonzales is the son of Larry and Susie Gonzales. He also is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Gonzales of Plainview.

Ag mechanics team

Brown completes Case IH training

Mike Brown, service technician at Richardson Truck and Tractor in Haskell, has just completed a five-day intensive training course at the Case IH Service Training Center in Racine, Wis. The course emphasized the new Case IH 7100 series tractors, called the Magnum line.

The training program included classroom and hands-on study of the Magnum line's transmission, engine, hydraulic system, hitch and electronic systems. Students received an overview of the manufacturing processes used to assure high quality in the Magnum tractors.

"I need to understand all the advanced technology built in these tractors," Brown said, "so we can provide the best possible service to our customers." As part of that commitment, Brown was instructed in predelivery, which involves using a checklist to thoroughly check over the tractor at the dealership before delivery to the customer. The service technician signs this sheet and the customer receives a copy to confirm that the checks have been made.

The Magnum line represents the first totally new tractors from Case IH since the 1985 merger of J. I. Case and International Harvester. The four models in the 7100 series range from 130 to 195 PTO horsepower. The tractors feature a totally new engine, transmission and cab that will set new standards in the farm equipment industry for performance, efficiency and comfort.

The new 505-cubic-inch engine delivers more power and lugging ability with excellent fuel economy. The 18-speed full powershift transmission offers the most speeds in the industry, and the cab features unparalleled visibility and operator comfort.
